

Temptation 711

Chapter 711 - 711

After the lecture had ended, Su Fan had not left the Medical University.

As arranged by the university administration, a student representative was to give him a tour of the Medical University.

It wasn't long before Su Fan spotted the student representative.

The student representative appointed by the Medical University was none other than Jiang Yuan and a few of her classmates.

However, these people were clearly led by Jiang Yuan.

After arriving in front of Su Fan, Jiang Yuan enthusiastically spoke to him, "Professor Su, let me show you around the Medical University."

"While touring the Medical University, may we ask you some questions?"

Su Fan nonchalantly nodded his head, "Sure."

He had been in Yang City for quite a while now and had also worked at the affiliated hospital of the Medical University for a long time.

However, he had never before visited the Medical University.

Under Jiang Yuan's guidance, he walked and observed.

Jiang Yuan and her classmates introduced Su Fan to various parts of the Medical University, its basic situation, and its history, among other things.

At the same time, they also asked Su Fan some medical questions.

To Jiang Yuan and the others, these were extremely challenging questions.

For Su Fan, of course, the answers were easily given.

Jiang Yuan's admiration for Su Fan grew more profound as she looked at him.

Her other classmates felt the same; Su Fan's medical skills were truly brilliant.

However, at this time, a chaotic noise suddenly arose from a distance.

Many students were so scared that they were fleeing in utter panic towards this side.

Su Fan couldn't help but ask, "What happened?"

Jiang Yuan didn't know what had happened either and could only stop a classmate to inquire.

"What happened?"

The male student Jiang Yuan stopped clearly recognized her as the campus beauty.

Upon seeing it was Jiang Yuan, he quickly said, "Jiang Yuan, you and the others better run."

"It's Chen Xiao, who faked his academic credentials. After being exposed for falsifying credentials, he couldn't pursue his Ph.D. here, and now he's taking his revenge on society!"

"You better run, that madman is wielding a compound bow and has already injured several students."

Hearing this, Jiang Yuan hurriedly said, "Professor Su, let's get out of here quickly."

"Ah—"

Just as Jiang Yuan's words fell, a girl screamed from a distance.

Everyone turned to look and saw that this girl's thigh had been pierced by an arrow.

Not far away, there was a male student with an extremely grim expression, holding a compound bow and constantly shooting arrows.

He didn't have a specific target but was killing indiscriminately.

This person was the same Chen Xiao the student had mentioned, returned from studying abroad, intending to pursue a doctorate at the Medical University.

Unfortunately, his foreign academic credentials were greatly problematic; they were essentially forged.

Under such circumstances, the Medical University naturally couldn't allow him to pursue his doctorate here.

Then, Chen Xiao developed the mindset to take revenge on society, now wielding a compound bow and embarking on a killing spree within the school.

At that moment, Chen Xiao saw Jiang Yuan and Su Fan among others standing on this side.

Upon seeing the group, Chen Xiao, without a word, drew his bow and shot an arrow.

As he let loose the arrow, Jiang Yuan and several other students screamed in fright.

Some girls were so terrified that they started crying on the spot, certain they were going to die.

Jiang Yuan's mind was blank.

Because the arrow shot by Chen Xiao was flying directly towards her.

The power of the compound bow was immense; Jiang Yuan only saw a small black point that appeared in front of her in the blink of an eye.

Seeing this small black point, she felt certain her end had come.

But just when Jiang Yuan was engulfed in despair, Su Fan suddenly appeared in front of her.

This scene was witnessed by many students and professors around.

When many students and professors saw this, their hearts skipped a beat!

Chapter 712 - 712

For Traditional Chinese medicine, Su Fan was simply a treasure trove.

If Su Fan had been killed today by Chen Xiao, a fraud with fake academic credentials, with an arrow, it would've been an immeasurable and huge loss to the medical community.

However, what happened next took everyone present by surprise.

Because the arrow shot by Chen Xiao with a compound bow was actually caught by Su Fan with a casual grab.

"Hiss—"

This scene was shockingly overwhelming.

All the students and professors who saw Su Fan catch the arrow with his bare hands were so shocked that they couldn't help but inhale sharply.

Each of them was dumbstruck, staring with disbelief in their eyes at Su Fan.

The power of a compound bow is very, very great, and the arrows it fires fly extremely fast with high penetrating power.

For Su Fan to be able to catch such an arrow casually, how could it not be shocking?

Jiang Yuan, who had been scared half to death just a moment ago, quickly came to Su Fan's side, "Su... Professor Su, are you hurt?"

She understood that it was Su Fan who had saved her, otherwise, she might have died right there.

Without turning his head, Su Fan said, "I'm fine."

Having said that, he walked towards Chen Xiao who was at a distance.

He had only come to the medical university to teach a class, who would have thought he'd encounter someone with an anti-social personality like Chen Xiao.

Since he had encountered him, he naturally had to step in and subdue Chen Xiao, otherwise who knows how many more students might get hurt.

Jiang Yuan saw Su Fan walking towards Chen Xiao and her face turned pale with fright. "Professor Su, don't go!"

But she was clearly too late!

The next sequence of events was something that many couldn't even comprehend.

Under the watchful eyes of many, Chen Xiao drew his bow and notched another arrow, aiming to attack Su Fan with the compound bow again.

But then, Su Fan raised his hand and dealt an open palm strike, a wave of True Qi directly hitting Chen Xiao and making him spit blood and fall to the ground!

Fortunately, Su Fan had held back, otherwise his open palm strike could have killed Chen Xiao from a distance.

After making Chen Xiao spit blood and fall with a palm strike, Su Fan calmly walked to Chen Xiao's side and sealed his acupoints and meridians.

At this time, the public security officers also arrived.

After many public security officers arrived, they immediately took control of Chen Xiao.

After such an incident, of course, Su Fan couldn't continue his campus tour.

Jiang Yuan and others, who were scared out of their wits, were also taken to the school's psychologist for counseling.

Su Fan also followed the officers back to the public security station to give his statement.

Journalists from numerous media outlets arrived too late to interview Su Fan and had to gather the details of the incident from other students.

After understanding the full story, Su Fan inevitably became the focus of multiple media outlets once again.

The incident at the medical university didn't really have much to do with Su Fan.

He simply stepped up at the last moment and subdued that vengeful student effortlessly.

Therefore, after giving his statement at the public security station, he left quickly.

As soon as he stepped out of the public security station, Su Fan saw Bai Man.

Bai Man came to Su Fan quickly with much anxiety, "Xiao Fan, are you hurt?"

"The word outside is that a student at the medical university took a compound bow to take revenge on society."

"Some say you're hurt, others say you're not, I didn't know what to believe."

She was deeply concerned about Su Fan; after all they had been through, their relationship had grown very intimate.

They were not only physical companions but also soulmates.

Su Fan hugged Bai Man, "Sister Man, I'm fine, don't worry."

As he hugged Bai Man, he could feel her trembling with anxiety.

It seemed that many rumors had spread while he was inside the public security station.

Chapter 713 - 713

After being embraced by Su Fan, Bai Man relaxed a bit.

When she had heard Su Fan was shot by an arrow, she was indeed quite frightened.

An arrow is no toy, but a weapon, even one of the most commonly used lethal weapons in ancient times.

The bows and arrows made today are even more powerful than those of ancient times.

Once hit by an arrow, it's possible to be in danger.

Luckily, Su Fan hadn't actually been hit by an arrow as the rumors had claimed, and he was perfectly fine now.

That's when Bai Man also remembered, "Xiao Fan, you should call the dean."

"When I was coming here, the dean told me to report to him that you were safe if nothing had happened to you."

Upon hearing this, Su Fan immediately took out his phone and turned it on.

He had turned off his phone during a lecture at the Medical University and had forgotten to turn it back on afterward.

When he turned it on, he received a flood of text messages.

Most of the messages were people asking about his current condition.

Su Fan first returned Zhang Haitao's call, then proceeded to call back several other people.

After all that, he then said to Bai Man, "Sister Man, let's head back to the hospital now."

Bai Man nodded, and together with Su Fan, they got into the car and returned to the hospital.

Many doctors in the hospital also breathed a sigh of relief when they saw that Su Fan was unharmed.

There had been rumors about Su Fan being shot with a compound bow.

Moreover, since Su Fan's phone had been unreachable all this while, many had believed it to be true.

After Su Fan arrived at the hospital, Zhang Haitao also came over personally to check on him.

Seeing that Su Fan was indeed fine, he also felt completely relieved.

Considering for a moment, Zhang Haitao then said to Su Fan, "Xiao Fan, why don't you take a half-day off today and rest properly?"

Su Fan shook his head, "No need for that, Director Zhang, I'm fine."

Zhang Haitao saw he had no intention of resting and didn't insist.

"Alright, you should readjust yourself, and next time you encounter such antisocial people, it's better not to get close."

Su Fan nodded slightly, "Rest assured, dean, I know where to draw the line."

After Zhang Haitao left, Bai Man naturally prepared to return to her own office as well.

"Xiao Fan, since you're alright, I'll go back to work."

Su Fan grabbed Bai Man's hand in one swift motion, "Sister Man, I have something to tell you."

Bai Man was startled, "What is it?"

Su Fan smiled, "Come to my office, and you'll know."

Hearing him say that, Bai Man could guess what Su Fan intended to do.

"Stop fooling around, we can talk about it back at my place tonight," Bai Man tried to shake off Su Fan's hand, but Su Fan had no intention of letting her go.

"Sister Man, come on, to my office, I have something to tell you," Su Fan said, pulling and dragging Bai Man toward his office.

Bai Man didn't want to go at that moment, and it was working hours after all.

Although under normal circumstances, there was no work that required immediate attention for both of them.

But in broad daylight, Su Fan had the urge for her, wasn't that going too far?

Moreover, she noticed that Su Fan hardly differentiated between times now; whenever he wanted her, he would simply pull her into the office for a bout.

Once the two entered the office, Su Fan, as expected, casually shut the door.

He then enveloped her in one arm, while his other hand skillfully slid beneath the hem of her clothing, seizing her soft peaks.

"Is this the matter you wanted to discuss with me?" Bai Man glared at Su Fan, speaking in annoyance.

Su Fan chuckled and shamelessly replied, "Yeah, this is the big issue I wanted to discuss with Sister Man!"

Bai Man glared at him, "How is this a big issue, and you're getting more and more excessive."

"It's broad daylight, and during work hours, do you still play around like this?"

Su Fan said dismissively, "Doesn't Sister Man want it?"

At first, Bai Man certainly did not entertain the idea.

Now, after being teased by him for a while, part of her was tempted.

When Su Fan asked, all Bai Man could do was say nothing in response.

Of course, Su Fan didn't need Bai Man to respond—he pressed her against the wall and kissed her fiercely.

Bai Man pressed against the wall, was unable to evade.

Still, she tried to maintain the last bit of her rationality and turned her head aside, proposing, "Let's do it at my house tonight, someone may come looking for you now."

Su Fan shook his head indifferently, "It's fine, Sister Man just stay quiet and it will be okay."

Bai Man said helplessly, "Can I stay quiet? The more there are people around, the harder you push, I simply can't help it!"

She wanted to say more, but Su Fan had already sealed her fiery red lips with his kiss.

Then, with practiced ease, he pried open her teeth and lips, greedily seeking more.

Bai Man stopped struggling; after all, she was neither able to avoid nor escape this time, so she let Su Fan hurry up and finish.

Chapter 714: Parley Castle

Parley Castle is an ancient castle located on Parley Island, one of England's exclaves.

During England's period of great prosperity, when its colonies spread across the globe, it was the leading superpower in the world.

To this day, although the glory of the past is no longer present, some exclaves still exist, and Parley Island is one of them.

The luck of a person is unpredictable and always changing.

When Baiwei Pharmaceutical ran into trouble, Qi Tian was extremely unlucky.

The once top-notch young master of Yang City had overnight become a homeless dog.

Baiwei Pharmaceutical collapsed, and the Qi family of Yang City was utterly destroyed.

His father had also leaped from the villa, shattering to pieces upon hitting the ground.

When he fled from the country, he was also pursued by his enemies and lost an arm.

In Europe, his life was no smoother.

His father's old friend, upon discovering that their family had completely fallen and he had no more value, did not take him in.

When he was about to go mad from despair, a turnaround occurred.

A man named Winifred discovered him.

Initially, he just saw him sitting on the street like a vagrant and wanted to give him some British Pounds.

However, as Winifred approached him, he felt a very strange sensation.

He and the other man seemed to resonate in a certain way.

Then he was taken away by Winifred, who conducted many tests on him.

The results of the tests indicated that he was both a lucky person and an unlucky one.

Parley Castle is a top-notch scientific research facility, studying things vastly different from most global research institutions.

Because their research topic is the ultimate evolution of the human body.

Through a series of drugs, training, and a certain degree of enhancement modification.

A normal person's potential could be maximally stimulated and released.

This process is very dangerous.

The enhancement drugs at Parley Castle are even specifically used for death row inmates.

Because after using these drugs, the inmates are almost certainly doomed.

Qi Tian was lucky; his resonance with Winifred's "qi" meant he was suitable for Parley Castle's enhancement drugs.

Things turned out as Winifred had thought; Qi Tian had apparently been taking some kind of drug for a long time.

This made his body highly compatible with Parley Castle's enhancement drugs.

Originally just an ordinary person, Qi Tian underwent countless enhancement modifications in a very short time.

Now, he is an early-stage Martial Artist and also one of the most crucial experiment subjects in Parley Castle.

In such a case, if he has some demands, Parley Castle would certainly agree.

Qi Tian did have demands; now, he only wanted to do one thing—to seek revenge!

In the grand, glittering castle hall, Winifred poured a glass of wine for Qi Tian and then another for himself.

Then, Winifred, a white man around fifty years old, said, "Qi, tell me your requests."

Qi Tian raised his red wine and drained it in one gulp.

His severed arm had now been replaced with a new one.

This is the power of modern medicine, but also the horror of it.

Because he received an arm, it meant someone else had lost theirs.

When Winifred asked, Qi Tian quickly said blandly, "I want a man's life!"

"As long as I can kill this person, I am willing to cooperate with all experiments at Parley Castle."

Winifred drained the wine in his glass and said at the same time, "Qi, since you say that, whoever the person is, he is already dead."

"Now you can tell me, who is the person you want to kill?"

Chapter 715: The Path of Revenge

From Qi Tian's mouth, two utterly cold words were uttered, "Su Fan!"

Parley Castle had already investigated Qi Tian's background.

Upon hearing these two words, Winifred could say he was not surprised at all.

Because he knew it was Su Fan who caused Qi Tian to be stranded in Europe, nearly turning into a vagrant.

If it weren't for Qi Tian's strong compatibility with Paelear Castle's enhancement drugs, he would definitely be begging somewhere by now.

After some thought, Winifred nodded and said, "We have already thoroughly investigated Su Fan's situation."

"Killing him is not impossible, but for the next few important experiments, you must fully cooperate with us."

"Let me say it upfront, although you have a very high affinity for the enhancement drugs, strengthening cells so many times in a short period can still be extremely dangerous."

"You might maintain your momentum and gain rapid enhancement."

"Or, you could deplete your potential and die instantly."

"In other words, the upcoming experiments carry very high risks, and you need to think it over carefully."

Qi Tian frowned and did not speak.

It was a long time before he finally asked, perplexed, "Why do you feel the need to tell me all this, sir?"

Upon hearing this, Winifred shook his head repeatedly, "No, no, no, we want to create allies through the enhancement experiments, not enemies."

"Your cooperation with us is mutually beneficial, where both parties gain, not just one-sided coercion."

"The enhancement experiments become very dangerous after a certain number of times."

"However, if successful, your future achievements will be immeasurable."

"Even so, we can still be allies with mutual benefits, every step of the way."

Winifred laid it all out clearly, leaving Qi Tian with no further questions.

He nodded earnestly, "I will cooperate with the upcoming experiments, but I also hope to hear the news of Su Fan's death soon."

Winifred lit a cigar, smiled, and said, "As you wish, I'll make the arrangements now."

"If everything goes smoothly, before you enter the laboratory next time, you will receive news of Su Fan's death."

After saying this, he patted Qi Tian on the shoulder and stood up to leave.

Su Fan knew the world was not simple, but he would never have imagined Qi Tian to be so fortunate.

As for Paelear Castle, Su Fan was completely ignorant.

Not just him, many people knew very little about this place.

At most, they knew that this place was a life sciences research institution.

Beyond that, they knew nothing else.

It was only a day later that Paelear Castle sent a martial artist from Europe to face him in the East.

However, it obviously took time for Paelear Castle's martial artist to come from Europe.

Even after their arrival, they might not choose to act immediately.

After all, the ones they were facing were not ordinary people, but a martial artist at the peak of the Burst Qi stage.

A martial artist at the peak of the Burst Qi stage was certainly no easy target.

To kill a martial artist at the peak of the Burst Qi stage with the least possible cost required a very good plan.

Su Fan had significant influence in Yang City, but he did not know much about international matters.

What he did not know was that there were already several Paelear Castle martial artists from Europe coming to take his life.

That day was a day off.

On his day off, he visited Mayor Jiang Gao's house.

Mayor Jiang Gao had become a constant patient, needing long-term medication to maintain his health.

When Su Fan went to Mayor Jiang's villa, he unexpectedly saw Jiang Yuan.

Jiang Yuan's complexion was very poor at the moment, as if she had been arguing with someone.

Logically, in Yang City, there shouldn't be anyone daring to contradict the mayor's daughter.

Chapter 716 - 716 Jiang Yuan Feeling Wronged

After seeing Jiang Yuan, Su Fan rolled down the car window and asked, "Jiang Yuan, what's wrong?"

Jiang Yuan had just arrived at Mayor Jiang's residence, though it wasn't clear whether she had come from school or somewhere else.

While speaking to her, Su Fan also noticed that the button on Jiang Yuan's sleeve seemed to have been ripped off by someone.

Upon seeing that Su Fan was the one speaking to her, Jiang Yuan managed to force a smile and said, "Professor Su, I'm fine."

After saying that, she added, "I just had a little argument with my boyfriend."

Jiang Yuan's boyfriend was Li Boyu, who had recently been put in his place by Su Fan at the medical university.

Although Li Boyu was very disrespectful towards Traditional Chinese Medicine, his expertise in Western medicine was exceptional.

Jiang Yuan hadn't broken up with Li Boyu simply over the incident that had happened before.

In fact, if it weren't for that incident, and if Li Boyu hadn't been so critical of Traditional Chinese Medicine,

Jiang Yuan would still consider him to be quite a catch.

He had the skills, the looks, the physique, and he certainly wasn't lacking in family background either.

Li Boyu's father was Li Liangshan, the Deputy Mayor of Yang City.

And Li Boyu's situation was exactly the same as hers.

Li Boyu's mother and father had divorced early on, and he had been raised solely by his mother.

In terms of social standing, she and Li Boyu were considered a good match.

This time, Li Boyu wanted to invite her to go out, but she had wanted to visit her dad first, which led to their argument.

During the argument, Li Boyu had even torn off the button on her sleeve.

Of course, these were things Jiang Yuan wouldn't feel comfortable discussing with Su Fan.

Since she didn't bring it up, obviously Su Fan wouldn't ask.

Su Fan got out of the car, took the medical equipment he needed, and headed towards the villa.

The villa's security guards, of course, recognized Miss Jiang Yuan and also knew Su Fan.

However, they didn't let Jiang Yuan and Su Fan enter the villa right away; instead, they reported the situation to Mayor Jiang Gao first.

Only after Mayor Jiang Gao nodded did the security guards let Su Fan and Jiang Yuan in.

Inside the villa, Mayor Jiang Gao was busy preparing ingredients.

This time Su Fan came to his house, he was planning to pull Su Fan into a family barbeque outdoors.

One advantage of an outdoor barbeque is that you can eat as you grill, creating a relaxed atmosphere for conversation.

Not long after Su Fan and Jiang Yuan entered the villa, they saw Mayor Jiang Gao bustling around.

Seeing Su Fan arrive, Mayor Jiang Gao immediately said, "Divine Doctor Su, could you please treat me now?"

"After you've treated me, we'll have an outdoor barbeque together."

"I've acquired quite a few high-end ingredients and spices from a Michelin three-star restaurant supplier."

"Let's open a few bottles of Moutai and enjoy drinks while tasting delicious food."

Su Fan had no objections and immediately nodded, "Okay, then I'll treat Mayor Jiang first."

Saying this, the two headed for the living room.

For this treatment, it was enough for Mayor Jiang Gao to be seated in a chair.

Su Fan's treatment mainly consisted of Traditional Chinese Medicine massage and acupuncture.

As Su Fan was administering the massage, Mayor Jiang Gao was also getting updates from Su Fan.

"Divine Doctor Su, how is Eastern Medicine developing? Is everything going smoothly?"

Mayor Jiang Gao had been paying close attention to Eastern Medicine in recent times.

The downfall of Bayer Medicine had both positive and negative impacts on Yang City.

For Mayor Jiang Gao, he was very eager to see a company emerge from Yang City that could represent the entire city.

If such a company could branch out from Yang City, it would be the best calling card for the city.

After taking a deeper look at Eastern Medicine, a company recently developed by Su Fan,

Mayor Jiang Gao realized that it had tremendous potential.

Perhaps Eastern Medicine, founded by Su Fan, was exactly the kind of company he was looking for.

Chapter 717 - 717 Not a Good Match

Su Fan pondered for a moment, then said to Jiang Gao, "Mayor Jiang, the development of Eastern Medical Group is currently stable."

"The ten traditional Chinese medicines currently on the market have received very positive feedback."

"Next, after Eastern Medical Group has completely stabilized, we plan to release one new product every month."

When Su Fan spoke of these matters, Jiang Gao was certainly listening attentively.

Although he had never managed a company, he had shares in many companies.

His second social identity was that of a successful investor.

After hearing Su Fan explain Eastern Medical Group in detail, Jiang Gao was completely convinced that this was a very good company!

While Su Fan and Jiang Gao were talking, Nalan Xue and Jiang Yuan were also having a conversation.

The relationship between Nalan Xue and Jiang Yuan was surprisingly good.

Although Mayor Jiang Gao's marriage to her mother had fallen apart, this clearly had nothing to do with Nalan Xue.

Moreover, since Nalan Xue was only a few years older than Jiang Yuan, when they were together, they didn't act like stepmother and daughter, more like sisters.

At that moment, Nalan Xue also astutely noticed that Jiang Yuan's sleeve seemed to have been torn.

She couldn't help but grab Jiang Yuan's wrist and asked, "Yuan Yuan, what happened?"

Jiang Yuan shook her head, "It's nothing, it got torn accidentally when I was playing around with my partner."

She spoke of playing around rather than arguing, obviously not wanting to worry Nalan Xue.

Although she didn't specify, Nalan Xue still sensed something was amiss.

In fact, Nalan Xue had always been very dissatisfied with Li Boyu.

In her view, Li Boyu only seemed exceptional on the surface but was a young man with a facade.

Li Boyu had not made a good impression on her.

When she, Jiang Yuan, and Li Boyu dined out together, Li Boyu would often steal glances at her, whether intentionally or inadvertently.

The desire that he couldn't fully hide in his eyes was something she could discern.

Yet Li Boyu still tried to appear utterly devoted to Jiang Yuan.

Such a playboy has probably cheated countless times behind her back.

Thinking of Li Boyu, Nalan Xue's gaze involuntarily shifted to Su Fan who was treating Jiang Gao in the living room.

Among all the young people she had met, Su Fan should be the most outstanding.

Su Fan was even younger than Jiang Yuan.

But now, Su Fan already possessed many social identities.

Firstly, he was the founder and chairman of Eastern Medical Group, which is the most rapidly developing enterprise in Yang City.

In addition, Su Fan was the president of Yang City Martial Arts Association, a position that also held a great deal of prestige.

Apart from those two identities, Su Fan was also a distinguished professor at Yangcheng Medical University, as well as the head of the traditional Chinese medicine department at the university's affiliated hospital.

It could be said that in Yang City, among his peers, there was no other young person who could compete with Su Fan.

However, it seemed that there were also quite a few women around Su Fan.

Leaving others aside, her own relationship with Su Fan was ambiguous.

If it weren't for her status, she would surely have gotten entangled with Su Fan by now.

Even though Su Fan couldn't take their relationship further at the moment, he could still advance his relationship with Jiang Yuan.

Moreover, she was only Jiang Yuan's stepmother, not her biological mother.

It didn't matter that she and Su Fan weren't involved; even if they were, Jiang Yuan and Su Fan could still date.

Jiang Yuan was unaware of Nalan Xue's thoughts.

After Su Fan finished treating Jiang Gao, the two of them came out of the living room.

Subsequently, the group of four gathered around the grill and began roasting food.

Chapter 718: Li Boyu Arrives

High-quality ingredients and ordinary ingredients are different.

Ordinary ingredients aim to be just edible, while high-quality ingredients are pursued with various preservation methods to bring out the best taste.

At that moment, the servants in Jiang Gao's villa kept bringing the guests an endless supply of ingredients.

While grilling various types of food, they were drinking Moutai from Jiang Gao's house.

Once these high-quality ingredients were cooked, the texture and taste really differed from that of ordinary food.

For other ingredients, Su Fan had no basis for comparison.

He had previously taken Wang Fei out to eat grilled steak and grilled sea cucumber.

The food at ordinary restaurants and the food they ate today at Jiang Gao's house, although the same and both grilled, felt like completely different things in terms of taste.

While they were eating, another guest arrived at the villa.

The visitor was none other than Li Boyu, who had been put in his place by Su Fan in the amphitheater at the medical university.

Li Boyu had come to apologize to Jiang Yuan.

In fact, he had asked Jiang Yuan out today with the intention of taking her out for a ride.

His relationship with Jiang Yuan was progressing slowly, but if he could completely sway Jiang Yuan, the situation would immediately be different.

Once a woman is fully won over by a man, her mentality can change quickly.

Her acceptance of the man would also rapidly increase.

Li Boyu, an ambitious young man, liked Jiang Yuan not only because she was beautiful but also because she was the beloved daughter of Mayor Jiang.

Jiang Yuan was here to visit Mayor Jiang this time, and Li Boyu had rashly quarreled with her without thinking it through previously.

He had originally planned to come to Mayor Jiang's house to apologize to Jiang Yuan.

However, as soon as he arrived, he saw a scene that greatly infuriated him.

Jiang Yuan was sitting beside Su Fan, laughing and chatting with him.

Moreover, Su Fan was having dinner not only with Mayor Jiang but also with his wife.

As Li Boyu seethed with anger, Jiang Gao's voice called out, "Boyu is here?"

"Come, join us, and have some barbeque."

Although Li Boyu was extremely angry, he dared not make a scene at that moment.

After Mayor Jiang spoke, he quickly joined them.

Of course, the villa's servant had already brought a chair and tableware for Li Boyu.

Originally, Jiang Yuan and Su Fan had been enjoying their conversation, but it was no longer easy to chat after Li Boyu arrived.

Because they had mostly been discussing matters related to traditional Chinese medicine, and Li Boyu was a strong opponent of it.

Fortunately, both Mayor Jiang and Madam Jiang were present, so Li Boyu dared not act rashly.

The five of them continued to eat relatively normally.

Although Su Fan did not consider Li Boyu a threat, he still detected his hostility.

He completely disregarded Li Boyu's hostility.

If the other party remained rational and refrained from doing anything stupid, that would be enough.

If Li Boyu truly couldn't resist provoking him, Su Fan would naturally make him pay a price he couldn't afford.

After three rounds of drinks and a variety of dishes, this gathering could be considered over.

Because he had been drinking, Su Fan didn't drive home immediately but accepted Mayor Jiang's invitation to have dinner at his house and stay over for the night.

Jiang Yuan and Li Boyu also stayed overnight.

Usually, Jiang Yuan did not live here.

During the day, they had an outdoor barbecue.

At night, Mayor Jiang had the villa's chef prepare a very lavish dinner for everyone.

Both during the day and at night, Li Boyu harbored great hostility towards Su Fan.

Although he didn't show it openly, Su Fan still felt it.

Chapter 719 - 719 Staying at Mayor Jiang's House

After the dinner, Su Fan was led by a servant into a clean room.

Li Boyu and Jiang Yuan were likewise accommodated.

Upon returning to his room, Su Fan did not go to sleep immediately.

Having consumed a fair amount of alcohol that day, he felt a desire to meet with Nalan Xue secretly.

Being a rare opportunity to spend the night at Nalan Xue's home, it would clearly be a pity if he couldn't become intimate with Nalan Xue.

While he harbored such thoughts, a noise came from the room above his.

Living above Su Fan was none other than Jiang Yuan.

The noise in Jiang Yuan's room was due to Li Boyu coming to apologize.

Upon seeing Jiang Yuan, Li Boyu immediately apologized.

Although he was resentful, he had miscalculated today.

Jiang Yuan's father was ill, and it was only right for someone to come visit her father.

No matter how much he desired Jiang Yuan, he shouldn't have interfered, but should have accompanied her instead.

Regrettably, he hadn't considered this at the time.

"Yuan Yuan, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have quarreled with you today," he said.

On hearing this, Jiang Yuan nodded and replied, "It's okay, I'm not angry anymore, you should go back to sleep."

Of course, Li Boyu was not going to leave but rather said, "I'm having some trouble sleeping. May I speak to you about what's on my mind?"

"Just for half an hour, of course, if you're tired, I'll leave, and we can talk another time."

Li Boyu was a cunning hunter, and Jiang Yuan was an inexperienced prey.

A lone man and a single woman, in the middle of the night, what heartfelt words could there be?

But Jiang Yuan actually took him at his word and let Li Boyu into her room.

Upon entering Jiang Yuan's room, Li Boyu casually asked, "I'm a bit thirsty, where is the water dispenser in your room?"

Jiang Yuan casually pointed and said, "Over there."

Li Boyu smiled, nodded, and said, "I'll go get a glass of water."

With that, he walked towards the water dispenser.

Arriving at the dispenser, Li Boyu took out two sterilized glasses, dropping a medicated tablet into one of them.

As he filled it with water, the tablet dissolved quickly.

Of course, Jiang Yuan noticed none of this.

When Li Boyu came over with the two glasses of water, she didn't notice anything amiss.

Although she wasn't thirsty, when Li Boyu handed her the glass, she still took it and thanked him, "Thank you."

Li Boyu, appearing unconcerned, smiled and then said, "Yuan Yuan, let's go study abroad together in half a year."

This time Jiang Yuan shook her head, "For my master's and doctoral degrees, I want to study traditional Chinese medicine."

"Although you're prejudiced against traditional Chinese medicine, I'm very interested in it."

"I disagree with most of your opposing views on traditional Chinese medicine."

Speaking of traditional Chinese medicine, Li Boyu was internally enraged.

It was because of traditional Chinese medicine that he had been embarrassed at school before.

But anger aside, he was very clear about what he had to do tonight.

He intended to completely win over Jiang Yuan tonight.

Once his relationship with Jiang Yuan was confirmed, he could rest easy.

Given Jiang Yuan's character, after they were intimate, she would certainly not publicize it.

Moreover, he was currently dating Jiang Yuan, and their families were well-matched socially.

Being with Jiang Yuan was advantageous not only for him but for her as well.

Thus, at this moment, he was far from angry; instead, he took a sip of water and said, "It's normal to have different views."

"I admit that some of my views are wrong, and some are not entirely correct."

"However, as I learn more about Western medical science, I am sure to have new ideas."

He said this outwardly, but of course, he did not think this way at all.

Chapter 720: Please Leave My Room

In Li Boyu's heart, there was no such thing as the science of traditional Chinese medicine.

The most genuine thought within him was that traditional Chinese medicine was complete trash, and as for so-called traditional Chinese doctors, they were all swindlers.

After he spoke like this, Jiang Yuan, who had originally had a very poor impression of Li Boyu, slightly revised her opinion of him.

Jiang Yuan immediately picked up her glass, took a sip of water, and then said, "Li Boyu, go back to your room. I want to rest."

Li Boyu nodded, "Okay, but actually, I have one last question I want to ask."

Hearing that he only had one last question, Jiang Yuan didn't say anything further and simply stated, "Then ask."

Li Boyu promptly asked, "Jiang Yuan, why is it that after half a month of officially dating, you still won't let me sleep with you?"

Upon hearing this, Jiang Yuan instantly became angry, "Talking to a woman like that is extremely impolite."

But Li Boyu laughed, "We're both adults, don't you know? Since you're my girlfriend, I should be able to sleep with you, right?"

Jiang Yuan's beautiful face showed a very angry expression, "Li Boyu, please get out. You're being extremely impolite right now!"

Li Boyu sneered, "This is impolite? Would it be even more impolite when I sleep with you later?"

Jiang Yuan, furious, exclaimed, "You dare! This is my house, I'm calling for help right now!"

Upon hearing this, Li Boyu sneered repeatedly, "It's been so many years since your mother and Mayor Jiang divorced, yet you still say this is your house."

"Besides, it's just the two of us living on this floor, and the rooms are soundproofed very well; your voice won't carry outside."

"And what if you give me your first time? How would that matter?"

"My family background is no worse than yours; we're well-matched in social status, and we're boyfriend and girlfriend."

"Me sleeping with you is simply the natural order of things."

Jiang Yuan couldn't be bothered to talk more with Li Boyu and directly shouted, "Get lost! I'm not dating you anymore; I didn't realize you were this kind of person!"

After saying these words, her face suddenly changed, and then she looked anxiously at the glass on the table.

"You...you drugged me?"

As a medical university student, Jiang Yuan was initially stunned, then she immediately realized what happened.

Li Boyu smiled, "Jiang, the campus belle, you're pretty smart this time."

Needless to say, Jiang Yuan was scared out of her wits by his words.

She immediately tried to take out her cell phone, to call her father for help, but Li Boyu snatched it away in a flash.

Jiang Yuan had no choice but to grab the glass and throw it at Li Boyu.

Li Boyu moved quickly and easily dodged it.

"Clang!"

The sound of the glass shattering went unnoticed by others in the villa, but Su Fan heard it.

He concentrated and listened carefully for a moment, then his expression changed drastically, "This beast!"

He truly hadn't anticipated that Li Boyu would be so audacious as to attempt such a thing in Mayor Jiang's villa!

Without further thought, he immediately climbed up to the second floor from a window at the back of the villa.

Once on the second floor, he pushed open a window and leapt inside.

Jiang Yuan, weak and somewhat delirious, was currently being pressed down on the couch by Li Boyu.

Her clothes had been rudely torn open by him, and even her skirt had been yanked off.

Her slender legs, wrapped in black stockings, were now completely exposed to Li Boyu.

Li Boyu, who was already overcome with bestial lust, of course, couldn't hold back at this moment.

Without any hesitation, he was about to tear open Jiang Yuan's black stockings.

Unfortunately for him, just at that moment, Su Fan leaped from a distance, kicking out and sending Li Boyu flying.

"Thud!"

After being sent flying, Li Boyu's head hit the wall.

He staggered, and then collapsed, unconscious.