Chapter 721: The Third Extremely Yin Body

Su Fan was slightly shocked in his heart. Just now, in his haste, his blow, although restrained, seemed to have been too forceful.

Fortunately, the True Qi of Taiji he used was more about skill than strength, so Li Boyu's internal organs would not be harmed.

It was only because Li Boyu had suddenly crashed into the wall that his head was injured, and that's why he fell unconscious.

Immediately, Su Fan went over to check on Li Boyu.

After confirming that it was only a minor injury and nothing serious, he didn't pay any more attention to him and instead went to check on Jiang Yuan's condition.

After Su Fan came over, Jiang Yuan, who was already in a state of turmoil, could no longer control herself.

She had been drugged by Li Boyu, and the instincts of her body completely took over.

Her consciousness was somewhat clear at the moment, she knew that she shouldn't do this.

But she couldn't control herself at all. When Su Fan approached her, she actually wrapped her legs around his waist like a climbing dragon coiling around a pillar.

"Jiang Yuan, don't move around, I'll help you counteract the drug," he said.

Jiang Yuan pressed her cherry lips against Su Fan's and kissed him, then said, "Professor Su, don't you want me?"

Under normal circumstances, Jiang Yuan would never say such a thing.

But now she couldn't help it, she was desperate to be filled.

Su Fan shook his head, "I'll use the True Qi of Taiji to neutralize the drug effect, you'll be fine soon."

With that, he began transferring the True Qi of Taiji into Jiang Yuan.

But Jiang Yuan's little hand suddenly launched a sneak attack, grabbing hold of his dragon vein.

This caused the True Qi of Taiji that Su Fan had been gathering to dissipate involuntarily.

Su Fan could only reach out to remove Jiang Yuan's hand.

But just then, Jiang Yuan suddenly sat up straight.

His hand reached down and just happened to touch one of Jiang Yuan's snowy peaks.

Jiang Yuan wasn't just tall and elegant, her figure was also incredibly voluptuous.

What's more, she grabbed his hand and made Su Fan feel the peaks up close and personally.

Then, lifting her breathtakingly beautiful face, she looked at Su Fan and said, "Does it feel soft?"

Being continuously tempted by a great beauty like Jiang Yuan, Su Fan was naturally somewhat distracted and confused.

Not only that, while he was touching Jiang Yuan with the True Qi of Taiji, he became absolutely certain of one thing—Jiang Yuan was also a body of extreme Yin!

This was very important to him.

The stronger he became, the more difficult it seemed to suppress the fire poison in his body.

He had originally planned to deal with all the matters at hand.

Then he would devote all his time and energy to finding the third woman with a body of extreme Yin.

What he never expected was that he would stumble upon one without the slightest effort—Jiang Yuan was also a body of extreme Yin.

This made it even harder for him to restrain himself. If he didn't suppress the fire poison, it was highly likely that it would spiral out of control, resulting in his untimely death.

After merging with Jiang Yuan in Yin and Yang, not only could he suppress the fire poison within him, but he would also be able to take a step further, directly becoming a Qi-transformation realm strongman.

With this thought, Su Fan found it even harder to control himself.

When Jiang Yuan moved her beautiful head close to him once more, he embraced her and kissed her deeply.

Of course, Jiang Yuan responded enthusiastically. Her cherry lips were soon completely seized by Su Fan.

She was only wearing one piece of clothing left on her body.

But Su Fan didn't completely remove Jiang Yuan's long T-shirt, instead reaching directly under it to grasp the two peaks.

As both were lost in desire and passion, they indulged in intimate caresses, oblivious to their surroundings.

Of course, even though there was one more person in the room, he might as well have been nonexistent.

Li Boyu's crash had not been light.

Up till now, Li Boyu was still unconscious.

Meanwhile, Su Fan had already advanced his long spear, piercing the skies.

When Jiang Yuan felt Su Fan's invasion, she couldn't help but scream out in agony, "Ah! It hurts! Stop!"

Su Fan knew why she felt that way and immediately stopped.

After giving Jiang Yuan a moment to recover, he then continued to push forward.

But as it was Jiang Yuan's first time and his endowment was really too much.

His advance was extremely difficult, making Jiang Yuan feel as if she were about to burst.

A thin membrane soon obstructed Su Fan's path.

Seeing Jiang Yuan's pain, Su Fan thought for a second and decided to just do it in one clean thrust, directly aiming for the core.

"Ah!"

Naturally, Jiang Yuan let out a heart-wrenching scream from her mouth.

Fortunately, after the sudden deep thrust into her core, Su Fan didn't start pounding madly, but instead gently embraced Jiang Yuan without any superfluous movements.

Even so, Jiang Yuan couldn't help but convulse repeatedly.

On her stunningly beautiful face, a seductive flush and an utterly intoxicated muddled expression emerged.

Seeing her in such a state made Su Fan want to swoop down like a tempest and collide fiercely.

Chapter 722: The Fusion of Yin and Yang Fish into One

The fire poison in Su Fan's body had clearly weakened at this moment.

Inside Jiang Yuan, there was an extremely marvelous power that was neutralizing the fire poison within Su Fan's body.

This process gave Su Fan a feeling of being reborn, and at this moment, he underwent another transformation.

The black and white yin-yang fish currents in his dantian naturally merged with each other.

His strength had also broken through from the peak of the Explosive Qi Realm to the Transformative Qi Realm.

The Transformative Qi Realm was an extremely high level; any master at this level basically possessed the strength to kill someone in the Explosive Qi Realm in a matter of seconds.

As Su Fan completed his metamorphosis, Jiang Yuan's cheeks became even more rosy.

The medicinal strength inside her body had not been resolved, but had become even more intense.

She was still partially conscious, yet she wished she could be completely unconscious.

It wasn't that the sensation Su Fan gave her was uncomfortable.

It was that right now, she felt her behavior was extremely embarrassing.

She was not such an unscrupulous woman, but under the influence of the medicine, she greatly desired to fully integrate with Su Fan.

If she and Su Fan were boyfriend and girlfriend, it would be another matter. Unfortunately, their relationship wasn't nearly that close.

What worried Jiang Yuan even more was, what if Li Boyu woke up while she and Su Fan were entangled?

At this moment, her legs were resting on Su Fan's shoulders; if Li Boyu woke up, he would see at a glance what they were doing.

However, Li Boyu seemed completely unconscious; they made a lot of noise on their side, and he didn't react at all.

In the beginning, Su Fan was just holding Jiang Yuan, moving very gently.

Jiang Yuan, being touched for the first time, like the petals of a rose, fresh and red, fell onto the couch.

This made Su Fan look at her with even gentle eyes.

Although it was Jiang Yuan who repeatedly sought it, and then the two had intercourse.

But for whatever reason, since she became his woman, he would take responsibility.

Afterward, Su Fan suppressed his desire to charge like a violent storm.

It wasn't because he was worried that the movement would wake up Li Boyu, but because he was concerned that Jiang Yuan couldn't bear it.

Anyway, Jiang Yuan's virginity was already in his hands; he clearly could continue to explore with Jiang Yuan later on.

There was plenty of time ahead; there was no rush for a single day.

Although he did not remain still, his movements were subtle.

Only at the final moment did he launch a brief charge at Jiang Yuan.

But he had become accustomed to being with Wang Fei and Bai Man.

In the final moment, he actually ended up next to Jiang Yuan's temple, prying open her red lips.

Although Jiang Yuan was in a state of disarray, she still looked at Su Fan in shock.

She had never imagined that her red lips would have such intimate contact with Su Fan's dragon vein.

Moreover, the sudden invasion of Su Fan allowed waves of warmth to flow directly down her throat into her stomach.

Having been thoroughly relieved, Su Fan's strength at the Transformative Qi Realm also became fully stabilized.

Jiang Yuan, having been nourished by him, appeared radiant and glowing.

However, the medicinal power within Jiang Yuan's body still hadn't been fully neutralized.

Her gaze towards Su Fan was still full of a bewildered look.

Su Fan held Jiang Yuan in his arms and then said, "Let me carry you to the bathroom for a bath."

Jiang Yuan nodded her head and said at the same time, "What about him?"

Of course, she was referring to Li Boyu.

Su Fan had already thought about how to deal with Li Boyu.

This time, Li Boyu had drugged Jiang Yuan, and who knows how many other girls he had used such despicable methods on in the past.

Dealing with Li Boyu was quite simple for Su Fan.

He planned to seal some of Li Boyu's meridians and acupoints, ensuring that Li Boyu would become a eunuch in the future.

Chapter 723: Heartbreaking Past

Su Fan didn't hide anything from Jiang Yuan.

He whispered a few simple words into Jiang Yuan's ear and then placed her in the bathroom.

He then stepped out of the bathroom and walked towards Li Boyu.

Li Boyu was still in an unconscious state at this point.

After Su Fan's arrival, he lightly tapped several key acupoints on Li Boyu's body.

His Taiji True Qi also flowed into Li Boyu's acupoints.

Some acupoints were sealed off with his Taiji True Qi, while others were directly destroyed.

From now on, Li Boyu would still appear to be a normal person on the surface.

But in reality, he was finished; whenever he had thoughts about women, his spirit was willing but his flesh was weak.

After crippling Li Boyu, Su Fan found some rope in the room and tied him up.

Although Li Boyu's mother had divorced his father, he had lived with his mother.

But he was still the son of Yang City's Deputy Mayor, Li Liangshan.

Even though he had previously intended to do something despicable to Jiang Yuan, Su Fan couldn't just kill him directly.

He decided to keep Li Boyu unconscious for now.

While bathing with Jiang Yuan, they could also discuss how to deal with Li Boyu's situation.

After doing all this, Su Fan entered the bathroom.

In the bathroom, Jiang Yuan lay directly in the bathtub.

After the fight just now, and the rest she had had, the effects of the drug in her system had mostly dissipated.

Jiang Yuan looked at Su Fan and began to speak with great embarrassment, "Professor Su, I... I couldn't control myself just now."

All the things that had happened were still fresh in her memory.

Su Fan had been trying to help her neutralize the drug's effects, but in her confused and passionate state, she kept teasing Su Fan.

That's how they ended up like a spark meeting a powder keg, out of control.

Su Fan cut off Jiang Yuan's words, saying, "Don't worry, I will take good care of you in the future."

He meant these words sincerely.

When she heard this, Jiang Yuan, who was usually smiling, suddenly had tears in her eyes.

Her cheerful and optimistic demeanor was partly genuine but also partly feigned.

She was very young when Jiang Gao divorced her mother.

Her mother was a very beautiful woman, which is an advantage for a woman, but sometimes it can also be a trouble.

After leaving Jiang Gao, her mother remarried three times.

But the first two men wanted to send her to live with her grandparents rather than with them.

Her childhood, as well as most of her time before adulthood, were very unhappy and mostly filled with fear and trepidation.

After she came of age, Jiang Gao seemed to have grown old and started to look back on the past with fondness.

That was why he began to offer more help to her and her mother.

Because of her own remarkable abilities, she stood out among Jiang Gao's many children.

That was why Jiang Gao often asked her to come to this villa for events and made a point of including her.

That had led the outside world to believe she was Mayor Jiang's beloved Yuan.

But how much she really mattered to Jiang Gao in his heart was something only he knew.

Su Fan's words were very sincere and deeply touched Jiang Yuan's heart.

From Su Fan's gaze, Jiang Yuan could tell that this might be his most genuine thought.

Thinking of this, Jiang Yuan could only stand up from the bathtub, wrap herself in a bath towel, and then embrace Su Fan.

While holding Jiang Yuan, Su Fan said, "What should we do about Li Boyu?"

Jiang Yuan shook her head, "I don't know."

After saying that, she continued to ask, "Is he unable to do 'that' now?"

Although she didn't spell it out, Su Fan obviously knew what Jiang Yuan was asking.

Chapter 724: International Assassin Arrives in Yang City

Su Fan said with certainty, "He has now completely lost his ability as a man, even if he has thoughts in the future, his mind is willing but his body is not."

"From now on, he can no longer harm other women like this."

"Shortly we can preserve the evidence and see how he plans to deal with this matter."

Li Boyu would definitely not dare speak of this matter, otherwise, he would have to face jail time.

Not only does he dare not speak, he must also pray for Jiang Yuan's forgiveness.

If Jiang Yuan were to speak out, it wouldn't end well for him either.

Li Boyu tried to steal a chicken only to lose his rice, not only did he fail to take advantage of Jiang Yuan, but he also left behind a huge leverage for her.

Jiang Yuan originally did not know how to deal with this matter.

After Su Fan shared his thoughts with Jiang Yuan, she nodded seriously.

Su Fan's method was clearly very good.

It not only turned the situation around but also secured a leverage over Li Boyu.

Although this leverage might not be used anytime soon, as long as the evidence is well-preserved, it could hold Li Boyu captive for a lifetime.

After deciding what to do with Li Boyu, Su Fan couldn't resist stretching out his hand to grasp that familiar peak.

Earlier, when Jiang Yuan was confused and disoriented, he had already fully experienced her softness.

But at that time, the Yin-Yang fish in his Dan Tian were also merging and his strength was improving.

Most of his attention was on his own changes.

He hadn't explored Jiang Yuan in detail.

But it wasn't too late, for he clearly had the opportunity to fully explore Jiang Yuan now.

"Su... Doctor Su," Jiang Yuan's pretty face was flushed.

She did not stop Su Fan from touching her tender peaks, but her little heart thumped uncontrollably.

Unlike before when her mind was muddled, this time she was completely conscious.

Yet as Su Fan kneaded, her breathing quickly became rapid as well.

At the same time, the assassins sent by Paria Fortress had also entered Yang City.

Paria Fortress had sent a total of four people this time, with the leader named Howard.

According to Paria Fortress's intelligence, Su Fan was supposed to be a late-stage Burst Qi environment master, or even at the peak of Burst Qi level.

Facing a master of this level, Paria Fortress was not to be careless.

For Paria Fortress, the team leader Howard was in the early stages of the Gasified Qi environment.

The remaining three were all at the peak of the Burst Qi environment.

The fact that they could easily come up with such a lineup of Martial Artists showed just how strong a foundation Paria Fortress had.

Upon entering Yang City, Howard and his team wasted no time and immediately began investigating Su Fan's related information.

They had already viewed the information related to Su Fan before coming.

At this time, they needed to confirm whether the prior information was completely accurate.

They also wanted to ascertain what kind of social activities Su Fan typically engaged in within Yang City.

Lastly, they had to determine Su Fan's current whereabouts.

Only after taking all factors into consideration could they ensure that their move against Su Fan would be foolproof.

Howard was a cautious person, of course, his three subordinates were sufficiently cautious as well.

In a hotel, they quickly found most of the information related to Su Fan.

They even had the footage of Su Fan striking down that anti-social university student with a palm at the medical university.

With sufficient information, Howard made an accurate judgment.

"His strength is still the same as before, still at the peak of the Burst Qi environment."

"As long as we confirm his current location, we can easily kill him by setting an ambush on the way."

After reviewing all the information on Su Fan, the other three shared the same thought as Howard.

So Howard and the other two looked towards one of their members.

Chapter 725: The Killing Game Targeting Su Fan

The man named Hayman was the hacker of the small squad.

Most of the intelligence related to Su Fan had essentially been found by Hayman.

When the gazes of a few people turned towards him, Hayman glanced at his computer and said, "I'll find it soon."

He was using software to quickly analyze and track the surveillance footage, searching for records involving Su Fan.

In the city, surveillance was everywhere, so finding Su Fan should be easy.

Indeed, Hayman proved to not be boasting as he indeed quickly located where Su Fan was.

"Found him, look!" Hayman turned his computer screen towards everyone.

Howard and the other two immediately saw footage of Su Fan parking outside the villa of Mayor Jiang, as well as his conversation with Jiang Yuan.

After watching for a moment, Howard asked, "See if he's left this place."

"There are plenty of spots around here suitable for an ambush."

"If he hasn't left yet, we'll ambush him nearby."

With the abilities of Howard's group of four, they could easily storm into Jiang Gao's villa and kill Su Fan.

But that approach would have terrible repercussions, likely drawing out other top fighters in China.

The best tactic was to assassinate Su Fan without anyone noticing, then make it look like an accidental death.

That way, with Su Fan dead, they would accomplish their mission.

If the job were clean enough, no one would even be able to trace it back to them.

Hayman quickly used a program to go through all the surveillance footage and analyze it.

Then he spoke with certainty, "Su Fan is still inside this villa."

"We can ambush him on his way to the villa."

"He will definitely take the same way back when he leaves."

After Hayman spoke, Howard immediately nodded, "I think so too."

"Let's wait for him halfway and continue monitoring the situation at the villa."

"Get it done cleanly in one go, take care of him, and we'll leave China immediately."

Hearing this, Hayman and the others all nodded heavily.

They were assassins cultivated by Sipps Company, and they only needed to complete the tasks assigned by Sipps Company.

After killing Su Fan, they could leave China at the first moment and return to Sipps Company for a vacation.

The team led by Howard was highly efficient; after a brief preparation, they identified the spot for ambushing Su Fan on his way.

In this ambush, the three of them at the peak of Enhanced Qi Stage, along with one in the early stage of Transforming Qi Stage, were going to carry out a fierce assassination on Su Fan.

Even though Su Fan was an extremely formidable Martial Artist in the Enhanced Qi Stage, facing a joint assassination from three at the peak of Enhanced Qi Stage and one in the early stage of Transforming Qi Stage, he was sure to die without a doubt.

Yet Howard and his team, no matter how formidable and confident, could never have imagined that within this short span of time, a massive change had taken place in Su Fan.

After neutralizing the fire poison within him again, his strength had shot through the roof, advancing him straight to the early stage of Transforming Qi Stage.

The Yin-Yang Fish in his dantian had also completely merged.

This not only boosted his strength but also further consolidated his foundation.

Because of a very solid foundation, Su Fan's strength had always been sweeping across peers in the same realm.

After this breakthrough to the Transforming Qi Stage, his strength received a massive increase due to the benefits of long-term accumulation.

Even though he was just at the initial phase of Transforming Qi Stage, even those in the middle or later phases of Transforming Qi Stage, if they didn't have a trump card, they were definitely not his match.

In Mayor Jiang's villa, Su Fan still had no idea that someone was plotting against him.

He was cautious of the Sipps Company.

It wasn't just the Sipps Company; he was wary of other competing companies as well.

However, he clearly couldn't predict that after fleeing all the way to England, Qi Tian would also find an opportunity of his own.

Chapter 726: Grasping the Fatal Handle

Qi Tian, who was like a lost dog, had now directly become an important test subject at Paria Fort.

To cultivate friendship with him, Paria Fort even dispatched four experts into China to help him seek revenge.

At this moment, Su Fan and Jiang Yuan were dealing with Li Boyu.

Li Boyu didn't know why Su Fan was in Jiang Yuan's room, but he knew he was caught.

The drugs on him, along with some other items, had all been taken by Su Fan.

This made him extremely nervous, as Su Fan taking those items was clearly for keeping evidence.

The things he had previously done to Jiang Yuan, with such irrefutable evidence, once reported to the police station, would lead to his complete downfall.

After taking a deep breath, Li Boyu could only anxiously say, "Yuan Yuan, I was wrong."

Jiang Yuan did not listen to Li Boyu's words but spoke in a calm tone, "The clothes and skirt you tore previously, I will keep safe."

"The drugs you carried, I will also take good care of them for you."

"After this time, stay away from me and do not come bothering me again."

"Otherwise, these items might appear at the police station at any time."

Hearing this, Li Boyu felt as if he had fallen into an icy cave.

Having returned from studying abroad, he had aimed to enter politics.

If he wanted to enter politics, this incident was undoubtedly fatal for him.

But at this point, there was nothing he could do.

"Yuan Yuan, rest assured, I realize my mistake now."

"Do not act impulsively, I will absolutely not bother you again after I return to school."

"These items, if you take them out I'm certainly finished, but it won't be of any benefit to you either."

"Although my mother and Vice Mayor Li's marriage fell apart, I am still Vice Mayor Li's son, after all."

"As long as you keep this secret for me, wherever you need me in the future, I will not refuse."

Jiang Yuan did not engage with Li Boyu's speech but directly said, "Go back to your room. As long as you do not bother me, no one else will know about this."

Upon hearing this, Li Boyu felt like he had received a great pardon and heaved a long sigh of relief.

Although Jiang Yuan now had a grip on him and he would be subjected to her blackmail in the future, having Jiang Yuan hold a handle on him was still better than serving several years in prison.

Yet, he was puzzled about how he had actually passed out?

Moreover, why was Su Fan appearing in Jiang Yuan's room?

These questions, Li Boyu would never figure out.

He also didn't know that besides being gripped tightly by Jiang Yuan with a very deadly handle, he had also paid a very heavy price this time.

That night, Su Fan did not return to his own room but stayed in Jiang Yuan's room, being affectionate with her.

Because Jiang Yuan had an extremely yin constitution, his strength also rapidly consolidated and enhanced while being affectionate with her.

Over the night, his strength at the initial stage of transforming qi was completely stabilized.

The next morning, Li Boyu was the first to say goodbye to Mayor Jiang.

After Li Boyu left, Su Fan also went to find Jiang Gao, "Mayor Jiang, thank you for your hospitality this time."

"There's still a bit of business at my company, I have to go back and handle that first."

Jiang Gao was looking very healthy now; his health condition was remarkably stable under Su Fan's treatment.

When Su Fan came to say goodbye, he did not ask him to stay.

After nodding, Jiang Gao said to Su Fan, "Divine Doctor Su, aside from treating illnesses, you should also visit our home more often."

He had clearly come to deeply appreciate Su Fan's value and wanted to foster a good relationship with him.

If not, he would never have invited Su Fan to visit his home whenever.

Su Fan nodded with a smile, "I will surely come often to seek Mayor's guidance."

Jiang Gao laughed heartily and nodded, "Xiao Fan, let me see you out."

Su Fan hurriedly began, "Mayor Jiang, please stay, you should rest well. I'm familiar with the way out; no need to see me off."

Jiang Gao, of course, had just been being polite and didn't actually intend to see him out.

In today's Yang City, there really weren't many people who could warrant Jiang Gao personally seeing them off.

Chapter 727: People from the Provincial Bureau

Jiang Gao did not escort Su Fan out himself, but he had Nalan Xue take Su Fan out instead.

As for Jiang Yuan, she should be staying here for a few days.

Jiang Gao and Nalan Xue had no children, so there was no problem with her staying here.

Su Fan and Nalan Xue quickly arrived outside the villa.

As Su Fan was getting into the car, Nalan Xue casually asked, "Little Fan, when will you come over next time?"

Su Fan thought for a moment and said, "I'll come over in two or three days."

He now needed to provide long-term medical treatment for Jiang Gao, so every two or three days, or maybe every three to five days, he would have to visit Jiang Gao's home.

Hearing this, Nalan Xue nodded and said, "Call me in advance when you come next time, and I'll have the villa's chef prepare a nourishing feast for you."

Su Fan smiled, "Thank you, Sister Xue. I'll be going then."

"Go ahead," Nalan Xue waved to Su Fan.

Su Fan also waved back to Nalan Xue, then departed from Jiang Gao's villa.

He planned to head back to Eastern Medicine Company to take a look.

Leaving Jiang Gao's villa, he drove toward the Eastern Medicine Company.

To his surprise, he had not driven far before he saw that the road ahead was blocked.

Not only was the road closed, but he also recognized some people getting out of a car not far away.

One of them was Chen Tai from Taiji Martial School.

When Chen Tai saw Su Fan, he immediately walked toward him.

"Chairman Su, I was just about to inform you of the situation here, but it turns out you're nearby too," he said.

Su Fan was slightly taken aback and asked, "What happened here?"

Chen Tai earnestly said, "All I know is that some international hitmen have entered the country. I don't know the rest."

Su Fan became even more surprised, "International hitmen?"

For a moment, he could not figure out who in Yang City would be worth the attention of international hitmen.

While Su Fan was puzzled, another car stopped not too far away.

Getting out of the car was someone else Su Fan knew.

It was none other than Liu Bosan, Elder Liu.

After Liu Bosan arrived, he also saw Su Fan.

Then, just like Chen Tai, upon seeing Su Fan, he quickly came over.

When Su Fan saw Liu Bosan, he greeted him politely, "Elder Liu."

Liu Bosan replied politely as well, "Chairman Su, I didn't expect you to arrive even before me."

Although Su Fan had arrived at this place, he had no idea what had happened here.

After greeting Liu Bosan, he asked, "Elder Liu, are you aware of the situation here?"

"I just happened to be passing by, not here on the news,"

Liu Bosan was astonished; he had thought that Su Fan, like him, had come in response to the news.

However, Liu Bosan was not concerned, and after being asked, he shared the information he knew with Su Fan.

"To my knowledge, there are four international hitmen who, for some reason, have entered Yang City."

"Among the four, one has committed murder in Huaxia before."

"Although they were not captured upon entering the country,"

"they were soon under surveillance by the Qin Province Security Bureau after entering Qin Province," he explained.

"The Qin Province Security Bureau has dispatched elite martial artists to encircle these four, but I don't know the current status," he continued.

Liu Bosan's knowledge indeed spanned broader than Chen Tai's.

But even Liu Bosan did not know what these four international hitmen were doing in Yang City.

After thinking for a while, Su Fan called Chen Hanqing.

The phone was quickly answered, and Chen Hanqing's voice came through, "Mr. Su, do you have any tasks for me?"

Su Fan immediately said, "Can you find out detailed information about the four international hitmen who have come to Yang City?"

Chen Hanqing did not immediately answer; instead, a series of keyboard taps could be heard over the phone.

About half a minute later, Chen Hanqing then said, "Mr. Su, I can find out, but it will take some time to get the details clear."

Chapter 728: The Hatred of Killing One's Father and Taking One's Wife

Su Fan pondered for a moment and asked, "How long will it take?"

Chen Hanqing estimated and replied, "About ten minutes."

Upon hearing this, Su Fan quickly said, "You get on with the investigation right away."

"Okay," Chen Hanqing responded and then ended the call with Su Fan.

He then hurried to conduct his investigation as quickly as possible.

Investigating these four international assassins was not difficult, as there was already a lot of information about them on the internet.

Initially, Chen Hanqing wasn't very concerned about the matter.

He felt that Su Fan was just interested in the case and wanted to learn more, which is why he asked him to compile the information.

But after a short while into his investigation, Chen Hanqing was stunned.

He followed the clues and tracked down a laptop used by the four international assassins.

In the laptop, he found a lot of material related to Su Fan.

Not daring to delay, Chen Hanqing quickly compiled the information.

Soon, he sent the compiled data to Su Fan.

Su Fan's initial thought was the same as Chen Hanqing's, simply curious about what these four international assassins were doing in Yang City.

He had considered many possibilities, but only now did he realize that all his previous thoughts were incorrect.

The sole reason these four international assassins entered Yang City was to kill him!

From the information Chen Hanqing sent him, it was evident that these four international assassins came from the Pareya region of England.

The reason they had come such a long way to deal with him was related to a person Su Fan would have never expected.

That person was none other than Qi Dongliang's worthless son, Qi Tian!

Originally, Qi Tian had desperately pursued Yin Qianyue, unsuccessfully, and then got mixed up with Wang Fei.

Wang Fei thought she had fulfilled her dream of marrying into a wealthy family, only to find herself plunging into an abyss from which there seemed to be no salvation.

Qi Dongliang and his son took turns humiliating her.

Eventually, as Baiwei Pharmaceutical collapsed completely because of Su Fan, the Qi family also crumbled to dust, and Wang Fei was finally rescued.

Su Fan had thought that with Qi Dongliang's leap from the rooftop, the affairs of the Qi family would come to a definitive end.

If Qi Dongliang couldn't stir up much trouble, what could Qi Tian, a small fry like him, possibly achieve?

Unexpectedly, after heading to Europe, Qi Tian had his own stroke of luck.

Su Fan had no idea what Qi Tian was doing in Europe.

But the fact that he could send an international assassin of the Qi Stage and three at the peak of the Burst Stage all the way to kill him indicated that Qi Tian had risen rapidly in a very short amount of time.

There was a deadly feud between him and Qi Tian, one of murder and stolen love, an enmity so deep they couldn't coexist under the same sky!

If he had the chance, he would prefer to take Qi Tian down with his own hands; otherwise, the man would remain a significant threat.

It was only right for Su Fan to take Qi Tian seriously.

Still, he had overestimated Qi Tian, whose circumstances in Europe were not as favorable as he had imagined.

At least for now, Qi Tian was merely a highly valuable pawn rather than the player himself.

After the failed assassination attempt, it was highly unlikely that Qi Tian would be able to get Pareya Fortress to send people to deal with Su Fan again anytime soon.

Since these assassins had come to kill him, Su Fan certainly had no intention of standing by and watching.

Otherwise, if these international assassins escaped, they could pose a threat to him again in the future.

Su Fan quickly entered the security cordon set up by the officers.

The officers manning the cordon at this location were not ordinary security forces.

All of them were elite officers from the Qin Province Security Bureau.

They were proficient in all types of firearms and possessed terrifying capabilities ranging from the Qi Stage to the peak of the Burst Stage.

As Su Fan approached the cordon, an officer immediately said, "There are criminals inside; you cannot get close."

Upon hearing this, Su Fan took out his identification as the chairman of the Yang City Martial Arts Association.

"Hello, I am Su Fan, the chairman of the Yang City Martial Arts Association."

"I am here to help deal with the criminals."

The officer from the province looked at Su Fan's identification, didn't make any decisions on his own, and said, "Please wait a moment."

After speaking, he reported the situation to his superiors.

Shortly after, a person in charge from the province appeared not far away.

Chapter 729: Who is the Frog at the Bottom of the Well?

This person was named Han Yunhui, and she was the deputy leader of this special operation, with peak Martial Artist strength.

When Han Yunhui saw Su Fan from afar, she felt somewhat disappointed.

Su Fan was too young, looking about five or six years younger than her.

She had been fully cultivated by her family to reach the peak of Martial Artist strength at this age.

It obviously wasn't possible for Su Fan to have had such favorable conditions; therefore, he might only possess the strength of a peak Qiyi Realm or the early Burst Realm.

Right now, they were not lacking Martial Artists from the Qiyi Realm or the early stages of the Burst Realm, but rather true experts.

After coming over, Han Yunhui courteously said, "President Su, hello, I am the deputy leader of this special operation, Han Yunhui."

"The criminals this time are extremely ferocious. We appreciate President Su's kind intentions, but you still cannot enter the restricted area."

Han Yunhui's words were very polite because she knew that Su Fan meant well and wanted to act bravely for justice.

The security officers beside her, although they said nothing cold, undoubtedly had disdain and contempt for Su Fan written on their faces and in their eyes.

They were all elites from the Qin Province Security Bureau. A city martial arts association president, of course, was nothing significant to them.

Su Fan of course knew that he was being looked down upon, and instantly he did not waste words.

He looked at Han Yunhui with a smile and said, "Deputy Leader Han, I believe I am fully capable of entering the restricted zone to help subdue the criminals."

His words naturally caused Han Yunhui to frown.

The elites from the Qin Province Security Bureau behind Han Yunhui showed even deeper contempt.

One of them, in a particularly low voice, said, "A frog in a well knows no great ocean."

Although his voice was very low, everyone present was a Martial Artist, with far superior senses to ordinary people.

Everyone heard his extremely rude remark.

Without a second word, Han Yunhui looked towards Chen Rui and said coldly, "Apologize to President Su right away!"

They were a law enforcement agency, not a martial sect nor street thugs.

Seeing Han Yunhui's stern gaze, Chen Rui could only reluctantly step forward.

Before he could speak, Su Fan said, "What he said isn't wrong, but he wasn't talking about me, he was describing himself."

"He truly is a frog in a well, knows no great ocean."

As he spoke, Su Fan's Qi Realm pressure instantly enveloped everyone, including Han Yunhui.

The overpowering sense of oppression made Han Yunhui and the others instinctively reach for their waists, almost drawing their guns immediately!

However, Han Yunhui quickly calmed down and said, both shocked and delighted, "President Su, you are a Qi Realm Martial Artist?"

Her form of address for Su Fan had changed from 'you' to 'you' with a much more respectful tone.

There was no helping it; the shock that Su Fan was a Qi Realm expert was just too immense for Han Yunhui.

A young man in his early twenties was a Qi Realm Martial Artist!

In all of China, even globally, Su Fan was absolutely the first of his kind, truly in a league of his own, with no predecessors or successors!

His incredible talent was staggering and beyond imagination!

The other security officers from the province bureaus were likewise stunned, their eyes wide and filled with disbelief as they looked at Su Fan!

After a long while, Chen Rui swallowed hard and then apologized formally, "President Su, I'm sorry, I am that frog in a well, I know no great ocean."

Su Fan shook his head, "I was just joking with you earlier; don't take it to heart."

After saying that, Su Fan turned to Han Yunhui and asked, "Where are those four international assassins? What's the situation now?"

Realizing the importance, Han Yunhui immediately said to Su Fan, "President Su, please follow me, we indeed need your help."

Chapter 730 - 730

Facing the sudden incident that had occurred, the Qin Province Security Bureau sealed off a section of the road and a residential area.

Howard and his three companions had been ready to ambush Su Fan along this stretch.

One at the Gasified Realm, plus three at the peak of the Burst Gas Realm, all striking together—Su Fan's fate could only be death!

But Howard and Hayman never expected that they would be targeted by the Qin Province Security Bureau.

Before they could act against Su Fan, they found themselves clashing with the elite security officers sent by the Qin Province Security Bureau.

Su Fan was unaware of what the current situation was like.

After revealing his identity as the president of the Martial Artist Association and displaying his formidable strength, he followed Han Yunhui, moving quickly.

The extremely anxious expression on Han Yunhui's pretty face made him feel waves of tension he had not felt in a long time.

It wasn't long before he saw two security officers in combat gear, both with their hearts blown out.

These two had clearly been sent by the Qin Province Security Bureau as some of their elite martial artists.

But the enemy this time was too formidable.

As a result, these two elites from the bureau had fallen in the line of duty.

Following Han Yunhui, Su Fan quickly arrived at a residential building.

There were many wounded people in this place.

At the same time, there were also numerous snipers desperately searching for the location of the four international killers.

Not to mention those at the peak of the Burst Gas Realm—even a master of the Gasified Realm normally couldn't withstand the bullet from a sniper rifle.

But masters of the Gasified Realm, and even those of the Burst Gas Realm, were too agile.

As they moved at high speeds, all that could be seen through the scope of a sniper rifle was a fleeting shadow, making it impossible to lock onto the target.

In such situations, they could only shoot blindly, making it difficult to accomplish the goal of a targeted kill.

As he continued to see more wounded and fallen security officers, Su Fan's expression grew increasingly grim.

Without removing the roots, the weeds would grow back with the spring breeze.

Who would have thought that a scoundrel like Qi Tian could cause such big trouble?

In dealing with the Qi family, Su Fan had not taken Qi Tian into consideration at all.

But there are always black swan events in this world, and anything can happen.

After walking some more with Han Yunhui, Su Fan saw a medical expert shaking his head regretfully at a wounded person.

On the ground, a female security officer's mouth kept oozing fresh blood; she was obviously beyond saving.

The patient was too severely injured, and even if this was an emergency room instead of a battlefield, she wouldn't have made it.

Seeing this scene, Su Fan stopped.

As he stopped, Han Yunhui asked in confusion, "What's wrong?"

Su Fan pointed to the female security officer not far away and said, "She can be saved, I need to save her first."

His words were of course heard by the medical expert nearby, Wang Shuming.

Wang Shuming's first reaction was joy, but then he felt disappointed.

As a doctor, hearing that a patient could be saved, Professor Wang Shuming was naturally overjoyed.

But his professional knowledge and twenty-eight years of experience told him that this patient was beyond help.

Medical practice is not witchcraft.

Healing can only happen following medical science principles.

Although the wounded person hadn't completely expired, her death was only as far off as a few sentences spoken.

Originally a renowned Divine Doctor in Weicheng, Wang Shuming later joined the medical university in the province as a distinguished professor to carry out medical education work.

Due to his excellent medical skills and high praise, he was conscripted into the Qin Province Security Bureau's medical group, as one of the most authoritative experts of the bureau's medical group.

If he said someone had no chance, they were definitely beyond hope.

Coming to the female security officer's side, Su Fan took out his silver needles that he was carrying with him.

Wang Shuming, an expert in both Chinese and Western medicine, was slightly surprised to see the silver needles, but soon shook his head again.
