Chapter 75 - 75 Aunt's Care

Su Fan kept his head down, eating his fried dough stick, not daring to look up.

What lotion, that was clearly his own essence.

Could it be that he had to apply it on Bai Man's face himself?

"Ah, it's, it's used up, you, you wait for another day, I'll buy a new bottle and give it to you."

Wang Fei said with a blushing face and cautious tone.

"Alright, that's what you said, I'll be waiting, oh."

"Mm, it's getting late, you still have work, hurry up and eat your meal."

Wang Fei, afraid of giving herself away, quickly changed the subject.

Bai Man finally quieted down.

Wang Fei sneakily glared at Su Fan under the table with her foot and gave him a reproachful look.

Su Fan thought to himself, wasn't this what you asked for?

Then Wang Fei touched her own face again, not expecting that product to be truly so effective, it seemed she needed to find an opportunity to spend more time with Su Fan.

After the meal, the three parted ways.

Bai Man went to the pharmaceutical company she worked for, while Bai Man drove to the hospital.

Su Fan miserably took the bus and arrived at the hospital one step behind.

Upon reaching the hospital entrance, Su Fan saw a familiar figure.

Su Fan initially wanted to pretend he didn't know the person.

But the other party had already taken the initiative to come up to him.

"Are you blind? I'm such a big target, can't you see me?"

The other person chastised Su Fan with great dissatisfaction.

Su Fan was speechless.

"Aunt, didn't you say we can't reveal our relationship at the hospital, which is why I took the bus to work?"

Bai Man, knowing she was in the wrong, gave herself an out by saying.

"Forget it, I won't argue with you, I have urgent business. Don't go in yet, I just got word that they're going to hold a staff meeting to deal with your issue. The hospital leadership has already agreed to fire you."

"Oh?"

Su Fan nodded.

"So, is there anything else? If not, I have to go punch in for work, or I'll be late."

"Are you sick or something?"

Bai Man was anxious.

"Can't you understand human speech, or is your brain missing a string? I said, they're going to fire you and call a staff meeting to humiliate you. Just wait, I'll call your uncle and have him warn Zhang Haitao."

If this had been the day before yesterday, Su Fan would certainly have been frightened.

But having caught Zhang Haitao's weak point the night before, Su Fan wasn't flustered at all, calmly speaking to Bai Man.

"I haven't done anything wrong, what grounds do they have to fire me? I think this is a fake news. You don't need to rush to call my uncle, who knows, maybe Zhang Haitao will promote me and give me a raise."

"Promotion and a raise?"

Bai Man rolled her eyes.

"I think your brain must really be broken. Zhang Haitao is a vindictive person; you've embarrassed him twice, and he's supposed to promote you and give you a raise? Is he sick or are you?"

"Did you get up too early and still haven't woken up?"

Bai Man seemed very angry.

This, in turn, warmed Su Fan's heart.

Could this lunatic woman actually care about whether he stays or goes?

Was it because she wanted to keep an eye on Liu Ye through him, or was it that she placed a bit of standing in her heart for him?

I go, Su Fan, have you lost your mind? Are you actually thinking about dating your own aunt?

Suppressing the naive idea in his heart, he spoke to Bai Man once again.

"Aunt, I still want to face this alone. After all, we can't bother my uncle with everything, besides, I'm not only a doctor but also a man, am I not?"

"You..."

Bai Man was taken aback by Su Fan's resolute gaze.

Man?

She took a deep look at Su Fan.

Indeed, because Su Fan had uncovered her secret, she had resented him, and also looked down on him because he was from the countryside, but these past few days, she realized that Su Fan seemed very different from what she had thought.

He was indeed a man.

"You..."

"Fine, I'll let you go in."

"But, be on your best behavior later, don't provoke those people again, or if you stir up public anger, I won't be able to help you."

"Alright, then I'll be going."

"Aunt, you worry about me too much; what if it turns out to be good news?"

Su Fan gave Bai Man a sweet smile and passed by her.

"I, I'm worried about him?"

Bai Man stood there, stunned.
