Chapter 76: I'm Not a Pushover

No...

"How could I ever worry about such a country bumpkin?"

Bai Man also realized the seriousness of the issue.

Initially, she only wanted to tame and toy with Su Fan, but today her concern was clearly excessive and had crossed the line.

"Could it be that I have feelings for this kid?"

"Impossible."

"He, he's just a dog that I'm training, but even so, a master can develop feelings for their dog."

"A good thing?"

Thinking of Su Fan's words, Bai Man's expression once again revealed a hint of disgust.

"The guy does have some manly grit, but he's too arrogant, too far-fetched. Could the good fortune even come to you?"

"Fine, let him go and bump his head until it bleeds first, to know the severity, and then I'll ask Li Jian for help. That way, he will understand my importance even more and will become more dependent on me."

Su Fan had just clocked in at the gynecology department, and a little while later...

The broadcast sounded.

"Except for the duty staff, all employees please gather in the auditorium for a meeting."

That was the voice of the chief of administration, Sun Zhigang, even over the broadcast, his words were filled with excitement.

It was finally time for revenge.

"Su Fan, you shouldn't go."

Just as Su Fan was about to move, Liu Ye came out of the director's office and stopped him.

It seemed she too had received the news in advance.

"Director, I think I should go," Su Fan said calmly.

Liu Ye lowered her voice and said.

"They want to fire you, to hold a criticism meeting to humiliate you. I have some connections. You resign yourself, and then I'll arrange for you to go to another hospital. Although they're smaller hospitals, you won't have to put up with such frustration and humiliation."

Liu Ye was about to cry.

Yesterday, she had been utterly devoted to Su Fan.

But Su Fan just smiled.

"Sister, do I look like someone who would shrink back at the last moment?"

"If they want to humiliate me, then let's see who will end up embarrassed in the end?"

"Let's go, I want to see what this Sun Zhigang is up to."

Su Fan took the lead and walked off.

Liu Ye had already experienced Su Fan's stubbornness and had no choice but to follow him.

Soon, Su Fan arrived at the auditorium.

"This kid still dares to show up?"

"Isn't this just asking for humiliation? If I were him, I would have hidden away long ago."

"Exactly, resigning oneself is better than being put on public trial and fired, right?"

"An idiot who doesn't know the immensity of heaven and earth."

As soon as Su Fan showed up, hundreds of employees in the venue all stood up.

Some were cursing and insulting, some were laughing, but many more admired Su Fan.

"Divine Doctor Su works diligently, with superb medical skills, yet he is being treated like this, it's unfair."

"Sigh, society is so dark now, what's the use of having strong professional abilities? Who made him slap director Sun yesterday? This Living Yama will certainly not let him off lightly."

"A sword too sharp is bound to break."

"Sigh."

"Hahaha, Su Fan, I really did not expect you to have the audacity to show up; looks like your skin is really thick."

A figure blocked Su Fan's path, laughing so hard tears were about to come out.

It was the pretty boy who almost got lucky with Bai Man.

The Liu Feng who had been beaten by Su Fan several times.

A petty person becomes arrogant upon gaining power.

"What's the matter, did I not hit you hard enough the last few times, so you didn't learn your lesson?"

"Or should I give you another slap?"

Su Fan feigned raising his right hand, about to land it on Liu Feng's face.
