

Temptation 821

Chapter 821

During the continuing negotiation, Bai Jiawen was naturally in a miserable state.

Because Liu Chuanxiong's right-hand man, Li Sheng, had his arm cut off by Su Fan, now Bai Jiawen's left hand was also gone.

Liu Chuanxiong clearly understood that his deal with the Bai family was a one-time transaction. After this, they would be eternal enemies.

In such a situation, he naturally wouldn't be polite to Bai Jiawen.

The Bai family leadership was negotiating with Liu Chuanxiong on one side, and on the other, they dispatched a massive search and rescue team to find Su Fan, Han Xinying, and Bai Jiajia.

Not just them, Han Shiguang also mobilized all his connections, searching the surrounding seas for the three.

Han Shiguang could never have imagined that such a dreadful thing would happen to him.

At the same time, he was somewhat helpless. With so many experts in the world, was there no one to take down a scum like Liu Chuanxiong?

Such trash should have been chopped into minced meat long ago.

So many years have passed, and Liu Chuanxiong was still doing kidnapping business on the sea.

No matter how angry he was, Han Shiguang had to remain rational and search for Su Fan and Han Xinying's whereabouts.

If Su Fan and the others had not landed somewhere after so much time, they would certainly be dead.

Even if they found an uninhabited island, surviving there wouldn't be easy.

Even a Martial Artist can't be equated to a wilderness survival expert.

He hadn't given up, holding on to the hope of finding them alive or at least retrieving their bodies.

These past few days, Han Shiguang was unable to sleep at night.

Whenever he closed his eyes, it felt like a subordinate would come to report something had happened to his daughter.

However, fortunately, Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia were well taken care of by Su Fan.

It's just that the island they were on was beyond the Bai family's search range.

The Bai family would need to expand their search range two or three times to find them.

Han Shiguang was also very furious at Liu Chuanxiong, who caused all this.

Whether Bai Jiawen lived or died didn't concern him, so he directly offered a bounty of 200 million US Dollars for Liu Chuanxiong on the dark web.

After Han Shiguang made his move, other tycoons who had been kidnapped by Liu Chuanxiong added to the bounty.

This increased Liu Chuanxiong's bounty from 200 million to 1 billion US Dollars!

1 billion US Dollars was an extremely high bounty.

In the realm of Martial Artists, those who could earn such a bounty were very few.

Su Fan still didn't know that Liu Chuanxiong's head had become so valuable.

Otherwise, he would undoubtedly go after Liu Chuanxiong's head no matter what.

Not to mention, Liu Chuanxiong already had a grudge with him, and now Liu Chuanxiong's head was this valuable.

Not only was Su Fan tempted, but so were numerous top assassins worldwide.

However, with Earth being 70% ocean and 30% land, finding and hunting a target on land was already challenging.

Liu Chuanxiong and his gang mostly operated on islands and various sea areas, making them very difficult to find.

The earth-shattering events outside were unknown to Su Fan.

Right now, he was just turning Bai Jiajia's secret garden upside down.

Under his relentless pounding, Bai Jiajia felt like she was going to die.

Although she had been with many men before, none were as formidable as Su Fan.

It felt like Su Fan was completely ravaging her heart.

That night, Bai Jiajia lost count of how many hundreds or thousands of thrusts she endured.

All she knew was that by dawn, when Su Fan pressed down on her head for the final furious release, her legs couldn't even close.

As for her secret garden, it couldn't close either, remaining perpetually open for guests.

Chapter 822

Bai Jiajia was now completely nestled in Su Fan's arms, her entire body unable to move.

Even though Su Fan had finished, her body was still immersed in the afterglow, constantly twitching.

Su Fan could only lovingly hold her tightly in his arms and said, "From now on, only I can ride you, understand?"

Bai Jiajia smiled slightly and said, "Okay, as long as you can feed me like this every time, I won't let other men ride me."

Hearing this, Su Fan almost wanted to take Bai Jiajia for a second round and fuck this little slut to death.

Right now, the status between him and Bai Jiajia was actually not equal.

The economy of Yang City crushed the entire Qin Province, let alone Tianhai City.

Even the top companies in Qin Province could not compare with the Bai family in Tianhai City.

He worried that once he returned to Yang City after handling things here, Bai Jiajia would become the shared girlfriend of the elites in Tianhai.

Seeing Su Fan's face darken, Bai Jiajia giggled and said, "Alright, I was just teasing you. From now on, I'll only let you ride me hard, okay?"

This time, Su Fan held Bai Jiajia, who was already tightly embraced, even closer.

If anyone had Bai Jiajia as their girlfriend before, they were really out of luck.

But if someone could tame this little demon Bai Jiajia, they would be happy for the rest of their life.

Su Fan undoubtedly had stepped into a happy life now.

However, there was still a problem waiting for Su Fan.

If his power and status couldn't surpass the Bai family in Tianhai City.

A few years later, Bai Jiajia might become a pawn for a family alliance.

This matter, Su Fan didn't have to worry much about.

After combining Yin and Yang with the fourth extreme Yin body, he could reach the later stage of the Qi Transformation Realm, even the peak of the Qi Transformation Realm.

If he could combine with a fifth woman with an extreme Yin body, he could break through to the fourth realm of ancient martial arts, the Gang Qi Realm.

This is an extremely terrifying realm, where the true qi of the Gang Qi Realm can be released outside the body to form a protective qi shield.

Even the weakest protective qi shield can resist bullets from small-caliber firearms.

Some masters in the Gang Qi Realm can refine a thin layer of protective qi shield to far exceed the strength of titanium alloy of several dozen centimeters.

Such a protective qi shield, even a Barrett sniper rifle would not be able to penetrate.

Once becoming a master in the Gang Qi Realm, he would be well-known in the martial arts world of China.

With just the status of a Gang Qi Realm master, he could easily take Bai Jiajia, who belonged to him completely in body and soul, from the Bai family in Tianhai City.

But now, Su Fan had not even taken down the fourth extreme Yin body.

The fifth extreme Yin body, he didn't even know where it was.

Thinking too much was useless.

While being held tightly in Su Fan's arms, Bai Jiajia smiled and said, "Why are you holding me so tightly? Didn't you hold me enough last night?"

Su Fan thought for a moment, did not respond to her words, and instead said, "I'm thinking about how to take you away from the Bai family in Tianhai."

This time, Bai Jiajia also fell silent. Being born in a top wealthy family, the biggest advantage was being wealthy for a lifetime.

The most helpless thing was that they were just tools to strengthen family interests.

There was another very important reason why Bai Jiajia had sought pleasure underneath so many men, which she hadn't mentioned.

That was because she knew from a young age she would eventually face such a fate.

When she was a child, she had a very beautiful elder cousin.

That cousin was arranged by the family to marry an old man thirty years her senior.

An eighteen or nineteen-year-old girl, being crushed under a fifty-something old man, she couldn't imagine her cousin's feelings at that time.

Chapter 823

After that incident, she lost all interest in romantic love; she was only interested in affection.

While Bai Jiajia remained silent, Su Fan spoke with complete confidence: "Don't worry, from now on, you belong only to me, and only I can have you."

"Before the Bai family in Tianhai arranges a marriage alliance for you, I will take you away."

Hearing Su Fan's words, Bai Jiajia couldn't help but feel a twinge in her nose.

She didn't know if this counted as a promise with romantic significance.

She didn't even believe that Su Fan had the ability to do such a thing.

But the fact that Su Fan was willing to make this promise and work hard for it made her very happy.

There were many men around her, but not all of them wanted to have her.

Someone like Su Fan truly treated her as an important partner, as his own woman, even taking care and protecting her.

Bai Jiajia didn't think Su Fan could do it, but Su Fan didn't find this task particularly difficult.

As long as he could defeat Han Xinying, he could at least reach the peak of the late stage of the Qi Condensation Realm.

Even if he couldn't find a fifth woman with the perfect Yin body in a short time, with his own hard cultivation, he could still reach the Gang Qi Realm.

With the strength of the Gang Qi Realm, everything would naturally be resolved.

Su Fan held Bai Jiajia in his arms for a while and then let her go.

Right now, there was one thing Su Fan didn't know, which was that the Bai family in the capital was a branch of the Bai family in Tianhai.

In other words, he might very likely have slept with Bai Man's niece or some other relative.

After letting go of Bai Jiajia, he saw that she was struggling to walk, leaning on the wall.

After being ravaged by him all night, it was clear that Bai Jiajia was in a lot of pain.

He had no choice but to carry Bai Jiajia to a sleeping bag to sleep.

Nearby, Miss Han was sleeping soundly.

She had no idea that her good friend had endured hundreds of fierce attacks the night before.

After getting Bai Jiajia into the sleeping bag, Su Fan went to find some firewood to light a bonfire.

The cave was a bit damp; without a bonfire, the moisture would be overwhelming.

After doing all this, he went back to the wreckage of the boat.

Now he could only hope to see a ship nearby.

This was already the third day he and the two young ladies were stranded on the deserted island.

On the island, nothing was convenient.

Unfortunately, this place was indeed too remote.

In the past two days or more, not a single ship had passed by on the vast ocean.

While the three of them had yet to be rescued, Bai Dongshan had already passed the critical stage.

However, this butler of the Bai family had become disabled.

Bai Dongshan's left hand had been completely blown off, and his left calf was severely injured, eventually leading to amputation.

Second Young Master Bai had also become his hospital mate.

Bai Jiawen was finally ransomed back for two hundred million US dollars.

He had been tortured terribly, and his right hand was gone—in fact, his entire right arm was missing.

With the financial resources of the Bai family in Tianhai, they might find a suitable arm for him in the future.

But for a long time to come, it was clear he would be a one-armed man.

His bones had been broken in many places, and he was now in a semi-paralyzed state.

The kidnappers were extremely brutal and showed no mercy.

If the Bai family had refused to pay the ransom, Bai Jiawen would have met a horrendous fate.

Although Bai Jiawen was still alive now, being semi-paralyzed made little difference from being dead.

While receiving treatment in the hospital, Bai Jiawen looked utterly despondent.

Even though he would have a life of luxury and many people flattering him in the future, he just felt like his life was over.

Chapter 824

Bai Jiawen suddenly felt that, compared to Su Fan and the others, his luck seemed a bit better.

At least he was still alive. It seemed like Su Fan and his sister were already dead.

Seventy-two hours had passed, and there was still no news of Su Fan and the others.

In all likelihood, they had probably sunk to the bottom of the sea to feed the fish.

On the deserted island, Su Fan was unable to effectively communicate with the outside world.

Thanks to the two life-saving packs and the fair amount of resources on the island, coupled with his mastery of the initial stage of Qi Condensation, he and the two young ladies were living fairly comfortably on the island.

But the rescue team he was waiting for had still not arrived.

This made him start to look for suitable wood to build a raft to cross the sea.

Even if the raft could not cross the sea, he still intended to use it to take Bai Jiajia and Han Xinying to a more likely place for rescue.

As Su Fan was thinking this, Han Xinying was excitedly shouting on the island.

"Hey! We're here!"

"We're at this place!"

While yelling, she took off her small jacket and waved it in the grey fog.

Upon hearing her voice, Su Fan immediately ran to the location of the speedboat wreckage.

Then he saw that there were indeed two speedboats approaching.

Seeing the speedboats appear, Su Fan was initially delighted.

But soon, his expression changed slightly.

There were speedboats, but it wasn't a rescue team; it was pirates!

Their luck was really bad. First, they were stranded on the deserted island. Then, instead of a rescue team, pirates arrived.

However, Su Fan didn't mind too much. Pirates might bully ordinary people, but encountering a tough guy like him, they had no choice but to kneel and call him grandpa.

Moreover, these pirates had speedboats.

In a while, he would defeat all the pirates and only keep the one who could drive the speedboat.

Han Xinying's voice woke up the half-awake Bai Jiajia.

Hearing Han Xinying's excited shouts, she thought the Bai family's rescue team had arrived.

When she walked out of the cave and took a look, her expression immediately turned very unpleasant.

She thought Su Fan and Han Xinying didn't know who the newcomers were.

She hurriedly said to the two of them, "They're not the rescue team; they're pirates!"

Miss Han Xinying was stunned upon hearing this.

She never imagined that they would encounter pirates in this place.

However, with Su Fan by her side, she wasn't too scared. Watching the pirates approaching, she asked softly, "Divine Doctor Su, can you handle them?"

Su Fan nodded slightly, "There are six pirates. I will leave one who can drive the speedboat. The rest, I'll kill."

"In a while, you both close your eyes so you won't be scared."

As Su Fan and Han Xinying were talking, the six pirates excitedly rushed onto the island.

They were armed with pistols, Thompson submachine guns, and AK-47s.

The pirates were so excited because they saw the two beautiful women, Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia.

The fate of those captured by pirates, especially beautiful women not for ransom, was very grim.

This group of pirates was not big, only about thirty people.

But in the last six months, they had already ruined two women who fell into their hands.

It was unclear where these pirates were from; they looked Asian but all spoke English.

Su Fan's English was mostly medical English.

His grandfather was highly knowledgeable, an expert in both traditional Chinese medicine and Western medicine.

While teaching him Western medical skills, his grandfather also taught him related medical English.

He could only understand the gist of what the pirates were saying now.

Chapter 825

The other side asked him who he was, why he was here, and how many of them there were.

Seeing Su Fan not speaking, a man who looked like a Baiyue native said in strangely accented Chinese:

"Don't move, raise your hands, or we'll shoot you dead!"

After speaking, he continued to ask, "Who are you people? Why are you here? Are there other people on the island?"

After he finished asking, Su Fan smiled at him and said, "I'm the one sending you to the afterlife."

As soon as the words fell, he suddenly punched, knocking down the pirate wielding a Thompson submachine gun, making his head hang down in front of his chest.

If he hadn't used a skillful move, the pirate's head would have flown off on the spot.

After that, Su Fan flew up and kicked, simultaneously striking the neck of another pirate who was about to shoot with a neck-breaking hand strike.

"Bang! Bang!"

The two muffled sounds almost blended into one.

The first muffled sound was of a pirate's heart bursting from Su Fan's kick.

The second muffled sound was a pirate's head being knocked dead in front of his body by Su Fan's neck-breaking strike.

The remaining three pirates, in extreme panic, tried to shoot back.

But Su Fan raised his hand and unleashed a wave of Tai Chi True Qi, killing a pirate five steps away, causing him to bleed from all seven orifices and die.

The remaining two pirates, having never seen someone like Su Fan who could kill from a distance, didn't hesitate for a second, desperately racing towards the speedboat, cursing their parents for not giving them more legs.

"Where do you think you're going?"

Su Fan's True Qi from his Qi Transformation realm surged, and he suddenly struck one of them in the back,

"Bang!"

This strike sent the pirate flying towards the other one.

The pirate who was still running was so scared he knelt down immediately, begging for mercy and kowtowing to Su Fan repeatedly.

Other people used to kowtow to them.

This time, it was clear they had met their match.

Even though all this sounded complicated, it actually happened in the blink of an eye.

In just a few seconds, five of the six pirates were dead, and one had surrendered.

The last one was kept alive because Su Fan needed him to drive the speedboat.

Su Fan had seen clearly that this guy and another were responsible for driving the speedboat.

Coincidentally, this guy also spoke some very broken Chinese.

Su Fan immediately asked, "What's your name? Who are you people?"

The middle-aged man kowtowing to Su Fan hastily said, "My name is Sangkun. I am a Baiyue native, a fisherman."

"I was forced. If I didn't join them as a pirate, they would have killed me."

Of course, Su Fan did not believe Sangkun's bullshit. Sangkun's hands had calluses from shooting.

Not only that, Sangkun was quite muscular.

Most likely, he was a mercenary or a bodyguard before turning into a pirate.

Su Fan didn't care what this guy used to do and casually said, "Take us to the Tianhai shore, or find another nearby boat."

Upon hearing this, Sangkun quickly shook his head, "The speedboat is out of fuel. We can't reach the Tianhai shore."

"This place is not a regular route. Generally, no boats come here."

Infuriated by these words, Su Fan immediately grabbed Sangkun by the throat, menacingly saying, "How can we get to the Tianhai shore? Do you have a satellite phone?"

Sungkun nodded with difficulty, "Our boss Hu has a satellite phone, and we also have a medium-sized yacht."

"I can use the yacht to take you to Tianhai shore."

"Don't kill me. Other pirates may be able to drive, but they don't know the route."

"The navigation system on our yacht is a bit faulty; only I can take you to Tianhai shore."

"If you can control our boss Hu, you can even use his satellite phone."

Su Fan pondered for a moment and said, "Take us there quietly, no tricks."

"If you dare to pull any tricks, I'll crush your throat!"

Sangkun hurriedly said, "I won't, I won't."

After coming to an agreement with Sangkun, Su Fan gestured for Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia to come over.

They immediately joined him, and the four of them boarded one of the speedboats.

The fuel in these two speedboats was indeed running low.

Before Sangkun could start the speedboat, Su Fan asked Bai Jiajia, "Can you drive a boat? Can you find other people if you do?"

Bai Jiajia frowned slightly and said, "I can drive a speedboat; it's quite simple, but I'm not familiar with this sea area, so I don't know where to find others."

If Bai Jiajia knew how to leave this sea area, then Sang Kun would be dead for sure.

As for now, Sang Kun's life still needed to be spared.

Su Fan, along with Bai Jiajia and Han Xinying, got on the speedboat.

All the while, his eyes were fixed on Sang Kun.

Although it was unlikely for Sang Kun to make any sudden moves, Su Fan still coldly spoke up, warning him once more.

"Don't try any tricks, or you'll die a more miserable death than the others."

Of course, Sang Kun wanted to play tricks, but now wasn't the time.

However, remembering how the others died, he suppressed any inappropriate thoughts deep within himself.

He had originally planned to lead Su Fan and the others to their deaths at a special area prepared for emergencies.

A place where machine gunners were hidden on both sides.

Upon arrival, he would jump into the sea, and Su Fan, Han Xinying, and Bai Jiajia would be riddled with bullets.

But at that moment, Sang Kun hesitated for a second and gave up on this idea.

Seeing Sang Kun standing still, Su Fan couldn't help but lose patience, "Why aren't you starting the boat?"

Sang Kun looked troubled and said, "We can't go now. If we go now, we'll be seen by people on the island. We have to wait until it's dark."

Su Fan's eyes flickered, "What would happen if we're seen by the people on the island?"

This time, Sang Kun didn't hide the truth, "We'd be shot dead."

Hearing this, Su Fan did not insist.

He could wait for a bit.

He also noticed something: not long ago, Sang Kun's eyes were shifty, indicating that there was something he hadn't said.

But it didn't matter. Once they approached under the cover of darkness, Su Fan would kill Sang Kun before getting on the island.

Anyway, there was a satellite phone on the island. Using it, they could contact the Bai family in Tianhai or Han Shiguang to wait for the rescue team.

As nightfall approached, Su Fan put on a pirate's jacket.

With the current visibility, unless the pirates had night vision goggles, they wouldn't be able to tell if he was an enemy or one of their own.

As Sang Kun prepared to start the boat, Su Fan spoke again, "I'm giving you a chance to live. Can you get us on the island without making a sound?"

Upon hearing this, Sang Kun's spirits lifted.

He'd always known that Su Fan planned to get rid of him once they reached their destination.

So he had been thinking about how to escape afterward.

He could actually drop Su Fan and the others off halfway and then jump into the sea to escape.

Living at sea, he could easily survive on any deserted island while waiting for rescue.

The only problem was that Su Fan was incredibly powerful. There was a good chance that as he escaped, Su Fan could kill him with a strike from a distance.

But now, he didn't have to worry about that.

He immediately nodded seriously, "Originally, there was no way, but since you are such a skilled martial artist, you should be able to scale a steep cliff."

"That cliff is extremely steep. Unless one is highly skilled or has professional climbing gear, there's no way up."

Hearing this, Su Fan nodded in satisfaction, "Start the boat then."

Without wasting time, Sang Kun quickly started the boat.

Su Fan soon realized that the noise from the speedboat wasn't trivial and that they could still be discovered as they approached the island.

He immediately spoke again, "Stop the boat at a certain distance from the island. Just tell me the location of the cliff."

Understanding Su Fan's concern, Sang Kun quickly said, "I can stop at a reasonable distance, and let the boat drift with the current. I've done it before."

Hearing this, Su Fan nodded in satisfaction, "Alright, do it."

If Sang Kun were truly a fisherman, Su Fan might have recruited him.

But clearly, Sang Kun wasn't just any fisherman; his hands were stained with blood.

Chapter 827

Considering that the other party had helped wholeheartedly this time, he decided to spare Sangkun.

But if Sangkun fell into his hands again, he would chop him to death with a single strike.

Sangkun was very experienced when it came to the sea.

Following their previous discussion, he anchored the ship at a spot neither too far nor too close to the island, adjusted the direction, and then let the current gradually take them towards the island.

As the ship slowly approached the island, Su Fan saw the cliff Sangkun had mentioned.

He could climb up that cliff.

In a while, he would knock Sangkun out, take him up, and then he could wipe out the pirate base on the island.

After that, he would use the satellite phone to call for help and this trouble would be completely resolved.

But often, plans couldn't keep up with changes.

And right now, that was the case.

When Sangkun brought Su Fan and the others here, it just so happened that a group of pirates came to this spot to dump a body.

The body abandoned by these pirates was of a woman, naked and covered in numerous wounds.

This woman had died a horrible death, clearly having suffered inhuman torture while alive.

Su Fan's judgment was completely correct; the woman was a kidnapped tourist who had been raped to death by the pirates.

After the pirates dumped the woman's body into the sea, they spotted Sangkun and the others.

Then, using English, they started to converse with Sangkun, asking what brought him here.

Su Fan lowered his voice and whispered to Sangkun, "Just say that the speedboat broke down and you came over for help."

Upon hearing this, Sangkun immediately conveyed Su Fan's words to the pirates in English.

The pirates on the island didn't seem to suspect anything, but there was a hint of amusement in their eyes.

One of them, a black man with dreadlocks, smiled and loaded the gun he had hidden behind him.

The others went to get a boat to bring Sangkun over.

The pirates on this island were divided into two groups.

One group followed the black man with dreadlocks, while the other followed someone named Brother Hu.

Of course, including the black man named Vader, they usually followed Brother Hu's orders.

But Vader had disliked Sangkun for a long time, and this chance encounter provided a convenient opportunity to deal with him.

When a boat was ready, Vader and some others got on it and moved toward the speedboat not too far away.

Soon, their boat approached Sangkun's boat.

Before Sangkun could speak, Vader took out his gun and shot him in the head.

"Bang!"

Su Fan saw Vader's action and tried to stop him, but it was too late.

After the gunshot, Su Fan struck out, hitting Vader and making him spit blood and fall to the ground.

When he turned to check on Sangkun, he was fortunate to find that Sangkun's quick reflexes had saved his life.

Although one ear had been shot off, his head was not blown apart, and he survived.

Su Fan didn't bother with Sangkun for now; he quickly and efficiently killed the remaining pirates.

After dealing with them, he cautiously observed the distant island.

He was worried that the gunshot might attract the attention of the pirates on the island.

After watching for a while, he reached out and tapped several points on Sangkun's head, sealing his meridian points.

The excruciating pain in Sangkun's body immediately lessened.

Su Fan then asked him, "Why didn't anyone else come over?"

Sangkun, holding his ear, replied, "There are no guards here. This island is large, and usually, no one comes over unless it's to dump a body."

Su Fan nodded slightly and then said, "Can you still steer the boat over?"

Sangkun nodded with difficulty. Despite his injuries, they weren't too serious.

What truly left him shaken was Vader's sudden gunshot.

Chapter 828

If Sang Kun hadn't tilted his body in time when he saw the gun, the bullet would have blown his head off instead of just tearing off an ear!

The boat was already very close to the sea island. When Sang Kun brought the boat closer, he received a knife hand strike to the back of his neck before he could say a word.

Then, a few light taps were applied to key points on Sang Kun's body.

Without half a day's time, Sang Kun would be unable to wake up.

After finishing all that, Su Fan said to Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia, "I'll go up first to take a look. You two wait for me here."

Both Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia nodded nervously.

Su Fan then made several leaps up the cliffside and reached the top.

This place was the highest point of the sea island.

From here, he could see the general situation of the island.

Without hesitation, Su Fan headed towards where the pirates were.

As he approached, he silently took down pirates along the way.

A pirate passed by his hiding spot, and he stepped out, coming up behind the pirate.

At the same time, he pointed a finger at the pirate's back. The pirate died silently on the spot and was dragged behind a tree.

According to Sang Kun's earlier account, there were roughly less than twenty pirates remaining on the island.

He planned to eliminate all these pirates before bringing Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia over.

Most of the buildings on the island were very simple.

However, there was one fairly well-maintained house.

That house belonged to the leader of the pirates, Captain Hu.

Captain Hu's real name was Hu Fang, a dangerous individual with over a dozen lives to his name.

At this moment, there were two women covered in wounds in Hu Fang's room.

As he had grown older, normal interaction with women no longer brought joy to Hu Fang.

This had made his methods extremely cruel.

Women who fell into his hands were usually tortured to death.

The two women in the room had been tortured by him for three consecutive days.

Both were now very weak, and if this continued, they would surely die.

These two women were university students.

Coming from well-off families, they went sea fishing and unexpectedly encountered pirates.

Hu Fang was currently heating an iron brand in the fire.

Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya turned pale as ghosts when they saw what he was doing.

They knew all too well what this demon was going to do next!

Feng Beibei wanted to scream for help, but her mouth was gagged, making her unable to make any sound.

Qiao Ya faced the same situation.

They originally had another companion.

Much like them, her companion had been tortured for several days before being taken away by the pirates.

It seemed that companion had faced an even worse fate, and her current condition was unknown.

Of course, that companion of Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya had already been tortured to death by the pirates; Su Fan had seen her body not long ago.

As Hu Fang heated the iron brand until it glowed red, he lifted it up.

Fear overwhelmed Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya; they wanted to back away, to escape.

But the room was only so large, and they were tied up with ropes, making escape impossible.

Hu Fang, holding the red-hot iron, came in front of Feng Beibei.

Feng Beibei shook her head frantically, struggling desperately, her eyes filled with a pleading expression.

But Hu Fang was a true demon. He no longer had desires for beautiful women, only to torment them.

The red-hot iron suddenly sizzled as it touched Feng Beibei's chest.

Tears and snot instantly flowed down Feng Beibei's face as she let out a heart-wrenching scream, even with the towel filling her mouth.

Chapter 829

This was an indescribable pain, causing Feng Beibei to struggle in immense agony.

No matter how much she struggled, the branding iron would not leave her skin.

At this moment, Feng Beibei even wished to slam her head and die to avoid further torment, but she couldn't even die if she wanted to.

When Hu Fang finally removed the branding iron, her delicate flesh was still a bloody mess, severely injured.

Already very weak, Feng Beibei was now trembling uncontrollably from the pain.

Qiao Ya nearly fainted at the sight of this.

But she couldn't escape her fate either, as Hu Fang had already picked up another branding iron from the fire, walking towards her.

Qiao Ya's struggles intensified, but soon a sizzling sound could be heard from her tender flesh, and the smell of burning flesh filled the room.

Qiao Ya stomped her feet in pain, twisting her body frantically.

Tears fell continuously down her face, her exquisite face contorted with pain.

Like Feng Beibei, her body trembled incessantly.

In their eyes full of despair, Hu Fang put the branding iron back into the fire.

Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya were utterly hopeless.

They were convinced they would die here today.

Another round of this torture would absolutely claim their lives.

While Hu Fang tortured Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya, he had no idea that his numerous subordinates were being picked off one by one by Su Fan.

Most of the pirates on this island were ordinary people, with only a very few reaching the level of Martial Artists in the Qi Nourishing Stage, and none in the Explosive Qi Stage.

Before long, Su Fan had wiped out the other pirates on the island.

He was now not far from Hu Fang's room.

Su Fan approached Hu Fang's room very quietly; after all, Hu Fang was just an Explosive Qi Stage Martial Artist.

As he approached, Hu Fang remained completely unaware.

From outside Hu Fang's room, Su Fan saw how bestial he was!

He was brandishing a red-hot branding iron, walking towards the two women.

Not long ago, these two women had clearly been branded before.

Their tender flesh was now blackened and bloodied.

And this time, Hu Fang aimed to brand even more delicate areas of their bodies.

But Hu Fang did not get the chance; before he could make another move, Su Fan appeared behind him.

His finger touched the back of Hu Fang's head.

His powerful True Qi made Hu Fang realize that if Su Fan wished, his head could explode at any moment.

Though Hu Fang was a ruthless killer, he didn't truly disregard life and death; he was deeply afraid of dying.

He didn't understand why a powerful Martial Artist like Su Fan was on the island.

But he didn't dare move recklessly and spoke with great difficulty, "Which path are you from?"

Su Fan couldn't be bothered to waste words on a dead man, straightforwardly asking, "Where is the satellite phone?"

Upon hearing this, Hu Fang immediately pointed to a spot not far away, saying, "Sir, why do you need the satellite phone? That phone is broken. If you want to go to the mainland, I can take you there."

"There's a medium-sized yacht on the island, and I know the route to shore."

Su Fan didn't believe his lies. After learning where the satellite phone was, he instantly crushed Hu Fang's neck.

Seeing Hu Fang's neck snapped and dying on the spot, Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya not only didn't feel fear but a sense of relief washed over them.

Though Su Fan, who killed without hesitation, didn't seem any kinder.

Still, Su Fan was better than Hu Fang, who had nearly tortured them to death.

Chapter 830

After killing Hu Fang, Su Fan picked up the satellite phone.

Then he discovered that Hu Fang really hadn't lied—the satellite phone was indeed broken!

This made him grateful he hadn't killed Sang Kun earlier.

If he had done that out of convenience, even with a medium-sized yacht on the island now, he wouldn't be able to reach the mainland.

Putting down the satellite phone, Su Fan walked over to Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya.

When faced with their extreme fear, he did nothing to them; he merely sealed their acupoints to prevent their injuries from worsening.

Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya's expressions gradually shifted from fear to astonishment and disbelief.

Su Fan pressed a few points on their bodies with his fingers, and the excruciating pain they were experiencing slowly dissipated.

After sealing their acupoints, Su Fan untied them and also removed the towels from their mouths.

Although freed, both Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya remained extremely tense.

Seeing their tension, Su Fan said, "I left one pirate alive on the island to operate the boat; I killed all the others."

"Aside from the pirate I spared and my two friends, only you two remain on this island."

"I'll go bring my friends over first, then come back to treat you."

With that, Su Fan left the room.

Before long, he reached the place where Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia were.

There were no problems on their end.

He found them and then woke up Sang Kun.

Sang Kun didn't dare to express any dissatisfaction; it was already a mercy that Su Fan had spared his life.

Upon waking Sang Kun, Su Fan asked, "Is there a medium-sized yacht on this island?"

Sang Kun didn't know why Su Fan was asking this all of a sudden but he still nodded.

Su Fan immediately continued, "Can you navigate that medium-sized yacht to the vicinity of Tianhai?"

Sang Kun nodded, "Yes, I've anchored it near the islands around Tianhai before."

Hearing this, Su Fan was certain that sparing Sang Kun earlier had been the right decision.

Otherwise, if he had killed Sang Kun and the satellite phone had malfunctioned, coming to this island would have been pointless.

The fact that these pirates dared to hide here indicated that the place was very secluded.

Most likely, there weren't any ships passing by this area.

Soon, Su Fan took Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia to Hu Fang's room.

There were many pirate corpses around the island that hadn't been dealt with, and he would need to handle them later.

Sang Kun didn't play any tricks, obediently following Su Fan.

As they neared Hu Fang's room, Sang Kun raised his hand to point to a location at a slight downward angle not far away.

"Master Su Fan, the medium-sized yacht is over there."

"When the tide rises, the seawater will reach that area, and then we can sail the yacht out."

"The water is shallow now, so the yacht can't move. Generally, by noon or afternoon tomorrow, we'll be able to sail it out."

Su Fan nodded upon hearing this and then said, "Go fill the tank with fuel."

Sang Kun didn't refuse; he couldn't say no to Su Fan.

Besides, to head to the islands near Tianhai and possibly escape later, he really needed to fill the yacht's tank.

He promptly fetched a fuel can and refueling tools and then went to refuel the yacht.

Su Fan then took Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia into Hu Fang's room.

One good thing about Hu Fang's room was that it had fresh water and a bathroom.

This island was quite large, and Hu Fang even had a small freshwater treatment setup.

As soon as they entered the room, Su Fan prepared to treat Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya.

Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia also saw the two and felt considerable sympathy for them.

Fortunately, Su Fan was there; otherwise, Feng Beibei and Qiao Ya would have certainly been tortured to death.

As Su Fan was treating Feng Beibei, a sudden explosion sounded outside!
