

Temptation 911

Chapter 911

Of course, Chen Hanqing readily accepted Su Fan's two tasks.

But he still asked curiously, "Mr. Su Fan, what kind of technological product is your technology company planning to create?"

This time, Su Fan thought for a moment and then casually said, "Could it be a smartphone company?"

"Starting with smartphones, extending the business to other smart devices."

Chen Hanqing said earnestly, "I am willing to take on this arduous task! And I am confident I can do it well!"

He said this because his ideas coincided with those of Su Fan.

After arranging things for Chen Hanqing, Su Fan went to check on the work situation of Wang Fei, Yan Qian, and others.

The people at Eastern Medicine Company are very easygoing, without causing any trouble.

After handling the company's matters, Su Fan drove back to his villa number five in the Bai Yulan Villa Area.

His day's work was not yet finished.

He still had to go and treat Ning Zhengde, Ning Tianhe, and their son.

The affairs of the Ning family are not yet concluded.

Currently, the Ning family's main branch and second branch are in a state of utter discord.

Before addressing the matters of the Liu Sheng family from the East, he clearly needed to help Ning Zhengde, Ning Tianhe, and others solve the chaos of the Ning family's second branch.

Treating Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe was not complicated either.

Ning Zhengde had mostly recovered; his condition was never as severe as the medical records suggested.

As for Ning Tianhe, his recovery was slower and required a prolonged period of treatment to fully recover.

After treating Ning Zhengde and Ning Tianhe, Su Fan returned to his villa.

This was a luxurious three-story villa, similar in specifications to Ning Zhengde's villa.

In Ning Zhengde's villa, many high-level members of the Ning family's main branch had arrived; they could all stay and even have space to spare, demonstrating how large the villa was.

Currently, only three people lived in Su Fan's villa.

He, Ning Miaoqi, and Zhen Bingyu.

He usually went out for work, had to go to the company, and occasionally needed to "travel on business."

Therefore, there were only Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu in this villa.

Upon returning, Su Fan saw the two beautiful women he had hidden in his golden house.

The situations of Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu were rather unique, requiring medication from Palia Castle every so often.

However, now it's unnecessary; Su Fan's precious blood can also allow them to live normally.

Su Fan didn't plan to keep using his precious blood, so he intended to carefully diagnose Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu after returning.

In the villa's hall, Su Fan was checking Zhen Bingyu's pulse.

His Taiji True Qi had already penetrated Zhen Bingyu's body, carefully examining her condition.

Zhen Bingyu's health was excellent; in real life, most people were in a suboptimal health state.

Truly carefree individuals who could live and rest regularly were, after all, few.

After checking Zhen Bingyu's pulse, she asked curiously, "How is it? Can you treat me?"

Ning Miaoqi also glanced towards Su Fan.

Su Fan's answer did not disappoint Zhen Bingyu or Ning Miaoqi.

"Although it's rather troublesome, I can still treat it."

"It's just your situation is quite special."

"You seem to need continuous treatment, unable to interrupt."

"Was it also like this at Palia Castle Life Science Academy?"

After Su Fan asked, both Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi nodded.

Su Fan was right; they were indeed like this at Palia Castle Life Science Academy.

If treatment was interrupted, there was a risk of life danger.

After checking Zhen Bingyu's pulse, Su Fan continued to check Ning Miaoqi's pulse.

He then found that Ning Miaoqi's condition compared to Zhen Bingyu's was one

Chapter 912

Su Fan pondered for a moment and began to prescribe medicine for the two.

Ning Miaoxi looked bitter after seeing Su Fan write down several medicines, and said, "Divine Doctor Su, can we take Western medicine?"

Despite being a martial arts expert, she was extremely afraid of bitter things.

Drinking traditional medicine was incredibly painful for Ning Miaoxi.

Su Fan hadn't expected Ning Miaoxi to make this request.

However, he shook his head: "You can't use Western medicine. I'm not sure if it contains equivalent substances."

"But you can turn the traditional medicine into herbal tablets and swallow them directly."

Upon hearing this, Ning Miaoxi nodded eagerly.

She preferred taking herbal tablets rather than drinking traditional medicine.

After Ning Miaoxi nodded, Su Fan continued, "In that case, we'll make your medicines into herbal tablets."

"Take these medicines once a day, and just persist with it."

"After a while, if your condition improves, I will prescribe different herbal tablets for you."

Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu nodded and expressed their gratitude to Su Fan: "Thank you, Divine Doctor Su."

Besides treating Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi, Su Fan also had other matters to discuss with them.

He promptly said to Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu, "In the upcoming period, I need you to go to Eastern Medicine Company to protect the people around me."

Ning Miaoqi agreed immediately: "No problem."

Zhen Bingyu also nodded in agreement and asked, "Do we need to guard against the people from Palarica Castle?"

"Yes." Su Fan nodded, and then added, "But we also need to guard against others aside from the people from Palarica Castle."

Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoqi both showed curious expressions on their faces.

It seemed that Su Fan had quite a few enemies.

Besides the people from Paelaria Castle, others also aimed to trouble Su Fan.

Zhen Bingyu continued to ask, "Who besides the martial artists from Paelaria Castle?"

Su Fan didn't hide anything and explained the bounty placed on him by Paelaria Castle, as well as his disputes with the Japanese Liu Sheng family.

So they needed to guard against not only the martial artists from Paelaria Castle, but also those from the Japanese Liu Sheng family, along with other international assassins.

Though the situation was somewhat dangerous, neither Ning Miaoxi nor Zhen Bingyu backed out.

Once this issue was settled, Su Fan's day was considered completely finished.

Yin Qianyue's villa was also in Bai Yulan Villa District.

Therefore, Su Fan did not seek out Zhen Bingyu and Ning Miaoxi but went to find Yin Qianyue instead.

Yin Qianyue, like Wang Xiaoxiao, was a woman of great capability.

Although Yin Qianyue was already a high-ranking member of the Yin family, Su Fan still wanted to recruit her.

After resting briefly at his own villa, he went to find Yin Qianyue again.

On the way to Yin Qianyue, Su Fan unwittingly thought of Bai Jiajia.

Bai Jiajia and Yin Qianyue were somewhat alike.

Yin Qianyue was in Yang City, so Su Fan could find her anytime.

Bai Jiajia and Han Xinying, however, were in Tianhai, making it difficult for him to reach them.

He needn't worry about Han Xinying, who was a well-behaved and obedient princess.

Bai Jiajia, on the other hand, was somewhat worrying, forcing Su Fan to seriously consider whether to establish a company in Tianhai as well.

In this way, he could travel between Tianhai and Yang City.

When in Tianhai, he could cater to Han Xinying and Bai Jiajia, preventing Bai Jiajia from causing any trouble.

Su Fan's concern was not without reason.

Because at that moment, Bai Jiajia was up to no good.

Bai Jiawen, who was severely paralyzed, sat slumped like a puppet on the sofa watching TV.

Bai Jiajia was seated behind him, on the sofa placed back-to-back, chatting leisurely with him.

Chapter 913

Bai Jiawen was completely unable to move and had no idea what Bai Jiajia, who was sitting on the other side of the sofa, was doing.

If he could still stand up and walk to the back sofa, he would see Bai Jiajia letting her pair of big rabbits breathe.

Not only that, she was also learning acupuncture.

However, the acupuncture she was learning was quite improper, as she was sticking needles into her own big white rabbits.

Her snow-white, rounded big white rabbits were now already covered with many silver needles.

If Su Fan were the one applying the needles, of course, it would have a therapeutic effect.

But Bai Jiajia applying the needles herself was purely about the special pleasure brought by pain.

Even though Bai Jiawen was paralyzed, he was, after all, once a Martial Artist in the Nourishing Qi realm, with keen hearing and sight.

He was extremely puzzled at this moment and asked, "Little sister, what are you doing?"

The reason he asked was naturally because Bai Jiajia gasped repeatedly in pain while pinning needles into her big white rabbits.

After taking a sharp breath, Bai Jiajia pretended to be calm and said, "Nothing."

Since she said that, Bai Jiawen had no choice but to stop asking.

At the same time, in Yang City, Bai Yulan Villa Area, Villa Number Eleven.

Yin Qian Yue didn't know if Su Fan would come to see her tonight.

Just like usual, after taking a bath, she went to sit on the sofa to watch TV.

While she was watching with great interest, she was once again suddenly knocked over by Su Fan, who had come to her house without warning.

Yin Qian Yue's rosy lips were clumsily pried open by Su Fan, who began to greedily taste them.

His attitude towards Yin Qian Yue seemed to be treating her like a little bitch, taking what he wanted.

Whenever, wherever, using her as he pleased.

Yin Qian Yue was kissed for a long time by Su Fan before she regained her freedom.

She could only say helplessly, "Next time, can you come in through the front door? I'll let the villa's bodyguards know to let you in."

As she said this, Yin Qianyue suddenly became somewhat angry.

The bodyguards in her villa were practically just for show.

Su Fan could sneak in every time and have his way with her fiercely.

It was fine that it was Su Fan these two times, but what if it was a bad guy who came to her house in the future?

Seeing Yin Qianyue's pretty face change, Su Fan couldn't help but curiously ask, "What's wrong?"

As he asked, he still couldn't resist giving Yin Qianyue another kiss.

Qi Tian was once infatuated with Yin Qianyue for a reason, obviously.

This Yin Qianyue was not only stunningly beautiful but also a beauty that you never tire of looking at.

The closer you look, the more you find this young lady Yin incredibly alluring.

After Su Fan asked, Yin Qianyue honestly said, "I feel like the security personnel in my villa are useless. You come and go, and they don't even notice."

"I don't mind you coming to my house, but what if someone else comes and sleeps with me in the future?"

Yin Qianyue was quite relaxed in front of Su Fan and didn't speak so reservedly.

After she finished speaking, Su Fan smiled and said, "Then how about I live with you from now on? I'll protect Miss Yin."

Upon hearing this, Yin Qianyue broke into a smile and said, "Do you plan to protect me like a thief in the act?"

She said this because her round, full little white rabbits were already being played with in Su Fan's hands.

After she finished speaking, Su Fan also laughed and said, "Does the owner need the little bitch's permission to use her?"

To his words, Yin Qianyue naturally had no response.

Because deep down, she indeed considered herself Su Fan's little slut, meant to be fiercely explored by Su Fan.

Yin Qianyue took the initiative to give Su Fan a kiss, then whispered in his ear, "Master, let's go to my room."

Su Fan nodded, and where he and Yin Qianyue were heading was indeed her bedroom.

More precisely, the secret room in Yin Qianyue's bedroom.

Yin Qianyue was quite miserably trained with the props there last time; it was unclear if she had recovered.

While Su Fan was enjoying life, the assassins from the Liu Sheng family across the sea were making their move.

The Liu Sheng family had no intention of sitting idly by and instead chose to strike actively.

Their target was to eliminate Su Fan and Zhao Chunqiu!

Chapter 914

Profit is the eternal theme, and when it comes to the division of profit, there are usually only two ways.

The first way is negotiation, the second is physical elimination.

The head of the Yagami family from Japan, Yagami Takuji, has already talked with Su Fan.

Facts have proven that Su Fan is not someone who easily compromises.

So Yagami Takuji decided to use the second way to physically eliminate Su Fan and Zhao Chunqiu!

External information about Su Fan mainly comes from the dark web.

The dark web contains all sorts of information; if needed, one can even obtain ninety percent of the world's intelligence here.

But the authenticity of this information is debatable.

The assassins from the Yagami family did not directly enter China.

They first went to Baiyue, then detoured from Baiyue to enter China.

This time, the Yagami family dispatched a total of three assassins.

The leader is Yagami Ichi, one of the direct members of the Yagami family, and the other two are Tanaka Taikou and Miyamoto Mei.

The three of them have no criminal records and have legal documents, so it was quite easy for them to enter China by following the merchants from Baiyue.

In a hotel, Yagami Ichi began to conduct detailed research on Su Fan once again.

He looked at various materials filtered out from the dark web, his eyebrows slightly furrowed.

Tanaka Taikou asked with some confusion, "Yagami-kun, is there a problem?"

Miyamoto Mei's gaze also turned to Yagami Ichi at this moment.

According to their initial plan, after entering China, they should head straight to Yang City to eliminate Su Fan and Zhao Chunqiu.

Yagami Ichi frowned and said, "The intelligence on the dark web is still too sparse."

"From this intelligence, we cannot determine whether Su Fan is at the peak of the Hua Qi realm or at the Gang Qi realm."

"If Su Fan is at the Gang Qi realm, we cannot accurately judge what level of the Gang Qi realm he is at."

After saying that, he continued, "Even though the three of us have successful experience in assassinating Gang Qi realm martial artists in the past, this time we still cannot be careless."

"What I mean is, find someone to probe a bit, then we act."

Yagami Ichi was not worried about alerting the enemy, and after experiencing an assassination attempt, Su Fan might relax his guard.

That would be the best time for them to act.

Just like a household, if it had been targeted by a thief, they probably wouldn't think the thief would return the next day.

Far away in Yang City, Su Fan still doesn't know that his opponents this time have such deep strategies.

His lifestyle has been relatively relaxed during this period.

He has already successfully passed the preliminary round of the China renowned doctors competition.

He feels no pressure regarding the upcoming city-level competition, which will not start until three months later; for now, he has plenty of time.

Yang City, Bai Yulan Villa Area, Villa No. 5.

Aside from going to work at the hospital and checking Oriental Medicine's business situation at the company, Su Fan spends most of his time here.

After provoking two enemies, the Yagami family from Japan and the Paleia family from England, he wasn't idle.

Most of his time in the villa is spent practicing martial arts.

The true Tai Chi boxing from the Yin Yang Fish, Dragon Tiger Hard Qi Skill, Iron Horse Twelve Pillars, and Return Stroke Heart-Piercing Sword are his main focus.

The Tai Chi Boxing he learned from Chen Tai, and the true Tai Chi boxing obtained from the Yin Yang Fish Jade Pendant are the foundation of his martial arts.

The Dragon Tiger Hard Qi Skill, Iron Horse Twelve Pillars, and Return Stroke Heart-Piercing Sword are the branches, leaves, and fruits growing on the tree of his martial arts.

His Return Stroke Heart-Piercing Sword was found in the training manual on Zheng Chaoxi's Dark Web Crystal Card.

Zheng Chaoxi's proud ultimate technique was not his own creation, but originated from an ancient swordsmanship known as the Return Stroke Heart-Piercing Sword.

This swordsmanship consists of only one move, which is the very move that Zheng Chaoxi of course performs.

Chapter 915

Su Fan had great talent, and after a period of practice, he had already mastered the sword technique.

In the future, if he encountered a formidable opponent, he could also surprise them by performing Zheng Chaoxi's skill.

Day by day, Su Fan's life became unusually peaceful.

It seemed as if all his numerous enemies had completely ceased their activities.

But Su Fan knew that those enemies would not simply stop.

The current calm was just the calm before the storm.

One morning, Su Fan drove to the hospital for work.

Upon arriving at the affiliated hospital of the Medical University, he saw a woman being chased out by the security guard.

The hospital's security had been disciplined by Jue Kong before, so they had improved a lot afterward.

This time, for some reason, someone was chased out of the hospital again.

Su Fan was prepared to inquire about the matter later to see what was going on.

He went to the hospital parking lot, parked his car, and was about to enter the hospital to find someone to ask more about it.

To his surprise, before he could walk into the hospital, the woman who was chased away by security earlier returned.

Upon seeing Su Fan, the woman kneeled directly in front of him without hesitation.

"Divine Doctor Su, please save my husband."

"My husband has a terminal illness and is about to die. He has been to many hospitals but none could cure him."

"Everyone in Quanyang City knows you as a divine doctor capable of bringing people back to life; you must have a way to save my husband."

"I beg you, please save him, I will kowtow to you."

As the woman spoke, she prepared to kowtow to Su Fan.

Su Fan quickly stopped her and said, "You don't need to do this, saving lives and helping the injured is a doctor's duty."

"Where is your husband located? Did you bring his medical records?"

Upon hearing this, the woman quickly replied, "My husband is currently at home. He is too weak, and I don't dare to move him for fear of anything happening."

"I brought his medical records, Divine Doctor Su, please take a look."

While speaking, the woman handed a medical record book to Su Fan.

This medical record book documented her husband's medical information.

The reason the woman was chased away by security earlier was because she insisted on having the head of the traditional Chinese medicine department, Su Fan, to treat her husband.

This seemed a bit unreasonable to the people in the hospital.

Su Fan is now the head of the traditional Chinese medicine department, and unless it's a very difficult case, he generally doesn't get involved directly.

The woman kept causing a scene in the hospital lobby and was therefore chased away by the security guard.

After flipping through the medical records, Su Fan nodded and said, "Alright, I'll go take a look with you."

From the medical records, it was clear the woman's husband was indeed suffering from a complicated illness.

Regarding his current condition, it was hard to assess from the medical records alone, and seeing the patient was necessary to know more.

Just as Su Fan was preparing for a house call, Zhang Haitao happened to arrive at the hospital.

Upon seeing Su Fan, Zhang Haitao asked, "Director Su, what's going on?"

Upon hearing this, Su Fan briefly explained what had just happened.

Having heard it all, Zhang Haitao naturally wanted to dissuade Su Fan.

In his view, Su Fan didn't need to make house calls so easily.

Unless someone like Yan Henglong or Han Shiguang, major figures in the business world, invited Su Fan, there was no need for him to go.

Su Fan was no longer just an ordinary doctor, but the chief physician of the traditional Chinese medicine department at the affiliated hospital of the Medical University.

In the past, Zhang Haitao would have directly reprimanded him.

But now Su Fan was a golden signature of the affiliated hospital, and Zhang Haitao dared not scold him.

He could only say tactfully, "Doctor Su, it's better in the future if you focus on medical research and management."

"For matters like this, you can assign other doctors to handle them."

"Otherwise, with Yang City's millions of residents, you wouldn't be able to handle the volume of sicknesses alone."

Chapter 916

Su Fan nodded slightly but didn't take Zhang Haitao's words to heart.

Next, he went with Chen Mei to her residential area.

Chen Mei's family seems to be a middle-class family; without sufficient savings, they couldn't afford to treat her husband.

Su Fan drove while Chen Mei started to touch up her makeup in the car.

Although Chen Mei had been a bit disheveled in the hospital before, she was a pretty young woman.

At this moment, Chen Mei was dressed like a city career woman, looking a bit like a bank teller.

But exactly what she did for work, Su Fan didn't know.

She was already beautiful, and after touching up her makeup, she looked even more like a stunning young woman.

With Chen Mei giving directions, Su Fan quickly arrived at the bottom of Chen Mei's building.

This was a newly developed area, with many apartments still unsold.

Su Fan followed Chen Mei into the elevator.

Chen Mei's home was on the twenty-eighth floor, and upon entering, Su Fan noticed all the furniture was new.

In one room, Su Fan also saw a very weak middle-aged man.

The man looked critically ill, now unconscious and unresponsive.

When Su Fan saw this man, his eyes subtly narrowed.

In traditional Chinese medicine, it's important to observe, smell, question, and feel the pulse; a top-level Divine Doctor can tell a lot just by looking at a patient.

The man in the bed was not really ill; he was pretending!

Su Fan realized this was a setup, not just another worldly plight.

He kindly came out to check on patients and ended up in such a vexing situation.

However, Su Fan didn't expose the deception; he wanted to see what Chen Mei and her husband were really up to.

Indeed, when Su Fan prepared to examine the middle-aged man, Chen Mei stopped him.

"Divine Doctor Su, can we speak privately?"

Su Fan didn't refuse, nodding in agreement.

He had already realized Chen Mei wouldn't let him touch the patient.

His reputation wasn't undeserved.

If he made contact with the patient, he'd obviously know right away whether the middle-aged man was truly ill.

This time, Chen Mei led Su Fan directly into her bedroom.

After closing the bedroom door, Chen Mei knelt again, starting to cry and plead.

When they were at the hospital entrance, Su Fan didn't realize she was acting, but now how could he not know?

Still, he didn't expose her; instead, he continued watching Chen Mei's performance.

"Divine Doctor Su, my husband is actually beyond saving!"

Su Fan cooperatively helped Chen Mei up, saying, "Why do you say that?"

While cooperating with Chen Mei, he was also observing whether she had any accomplices.

Under his observation, only Chen Mei and her husband were in the room.

When he interacted with Chen Mei earlier, he sensed True Qi within her.

Chen Mei wasn't a Gang Qi Realm master but a Transform Qi Realm master, posing no threat to Su Fan.

He's not sure if Chen Mei's husband is a Gang Qi Realm master.

He didn't get close to the man; the man was completely concealing his aura.

But he managed to tentatively conclude that the man wasn't a Gang Qi Realm master, as he felt no sense of danger from him.

In the room, after Su Fan questioned, Chen Mei said, "Divine Doctor Su, my husband's illness has never been cured; many doctors say he has only a few days left."

"What he's most worried about is not leaving an heir, making the elders sad."

"But it's not my fault that he couldn't leave an heir; it's his problem."

"Divine Doctor Su is one of the finest in Yang City; I..."

"I want to ask Divine Doctor Su to lend me a seed!"

As her words fell, she unexpectedly stepped forward and embraced Su Fan.

Chapter 917

Su Fan thought she was going to make a move, and was always ready to kill her with a single strike.

As long as Chen Mei dared to act, Su Fan's left hand could smash Chen Mei's heart.

The right hand strike could crash into Chen Mei's head, evenly spreading her brain matter.

But to Su Fan's surprise, Chen Mei didn't make a move at that moment.

Su Fan didn't know what Chen Mei was doing, but she simply threw herself into his arms.

Initially, Su Fan really couldn't figure out what Chen Mei intended to do.

But soon, he thought of a possibility.

That was when his full attention was on Chen Mei, while he was fiercely engaged with her, Chen Mei's husband would suddenly strike.

Su Fan was right; that was exactly what Chen Mei and Wang Liang were planning.

The duo had used this method to control quite a few people in the past.

They were the experts hired by Liu Sheng.

Their task wasn't to kill Su Fan but to control him.

It's not that Liu Sheng didn't want Su Fan's life but rather planned to capture both Su Fan and Zhao Chunqiu first to obtain the forging method of Yang City's iron before acting.

If possible, he even wanted to tie Su Fan and Zhao Chunqiu up and send them back to Japan.

After roughly understanding the situation, Su Fan decided to play along.

He didn't push Chen Mei away, but nodded in Chen Mei's expectant gaze.

As Su Fan nodded, Chen Mei's heart immediately sneered coldly.

Su Fan was finished, and soon she and Wang Liang would strike together and control Su Fan.

After handing Su Fan over to their employer, their task would be complete.

Chen Mei and Wang Liang were not locals of Yang City.

They only came to Yang City to set up the trap after receiving Liu Sheng's commission.

After completing this job, the two would move elsewhere.

But Chen Mei and Wang Liang evidently wouldn't have to relocate this time.

Because they were destined to hit the iron board this time and never be able to conduct such deals again.

Chen Mei was very enticing; although they were scheming against Su Fan, she was rather enjoying it.

At this moment, her husband might already be preparing outside the door.

But she also knew that her husband wouldn't rush in immediately.

On the one hand, because if Su Fan wasn't fully involved, Wang Liang's intrusion wouldn't be effective.

On the other hand, Wang Liang had some peculiar preferences and liked seeing Chen Mei pinned under another man, ferociously engaged.

Su Fan didn't know about Wang Liang and Chen Mei's affairs, he had already pressed Chen Mei onto the bed.

His hands seemed to be caressing Chen Mei, but in reality, he began blocking her acupoints using a subtle method.

The downside of this method is immensely cumbersome, very time-consuming.

The upside is that Chen Mei herself wouldn't know how she got trapped.

Su Fan kissed Chen Mei's red lips; this city-fashionable woman was incredibly charming.

Her tongue was extremely soft, and also very nimble, her kissing skills were extraordinary.

While Su Fan kissed her, she sincerely responded to Su Fan.

During this process, naturally, Su Fan's big hand was not idle.

He naturally brushed all over Chen Mei's skin, quietly sealing some of her acupoints.

Chen Mei wouldn't have any reaction at this moment.

But at the critical time, with a masterful touch from Su Fan, Chen Mei would be too weak to use any inner strength.

Chen Mei didn't know of Su Fan's capabilities, she just felt now that all the formidable men were mediocre.

So easily fooled in front of these women.

Their employer wouldn't spend so much to have them capture Su Fan just to have tea with him.

"Ah!" Chen Mei couldn't think further because she had already been invaded by Su Fan.

An intense sense of fullness instantly filled all of Chen Mei's emptiness completely.

Chapter 918

Chen Mei was just lost in thought and didn't pay attention.

Now she realized that Su Fan's resources were surprisingly abundant.

When Su Fan suddenly thrust forward, Chen Mei couldn't help but let out a scream.

"Hiss——"

Not only that, after the scream, Chen Mei involuntarily took a sharp breath of cold air.

She only felt that Su Fan's immense might had gone beyond what she could accommodate.

But Su Fan had not even the slightest pity for her, and the tearing pain made Chen Mei feel like she was dying.

Chen Mei could only hastily say, "Divine Doctor Su, give me a moment to catch my breath."

If her husband hadn't made a move yet, Chen Mei herself would have wanted to take down Su Fan.

It wasn't that she disliked the feeling; she just felt that if it continued like this, Su Fan might kill her.

Su Fan's experience was also peculiar.

Each time he advanced, the narrow passage would expand, and when he retreated to gather strength for another charge, Chen Mei would contract.

Although Chen Mei wasn't of an extreme yin constitution, her body was the kind that could drive a man to ecstasy and distraction.

Every time Su Fan advanced, it felt like countless tiny hands, countless tiny mouths, were squeezing, teasing, and sucking on his little self.

In the past, even if he fought for two or three hundred rounds, or even longer, his spear would remain upright.

But this time was different. After just fifty rounds, he felt the urge to empty his arsenal in one breath.

Recalling the dexterity of Chen Mei's tongue when they kissed earlier, Su Fan was even more certain that her oral skills must be incredible.

This gave him the idea of sealing Chen Mei's pathways and acupoints to suppress her abilities and train her like a little bitch.

After all, this woman was not a good person.

He had done nothing to offend her, yet she and her husband had set a trap for him.

Outside the door, Wang Liang had actually arrived long ago.

But he wasn't in a hurry to act, instead listening to Su Fan and his wife's passionate performance.

Upon hearing the drum-like thumping sounds and Chen Mei's moaning calls,

Wang Liang not only wasn't angry, but his face even showed a hint of excitement.

In his heart, he even sneered, "You slut, someday I really want to find a few strong men to develop you together."

This thought of Wang Liang was, of course, known to Chen Mei.

Because Wang Liang had mentioned it to her once inadvertently.

But that time, Wang Liang got scolded by Chen Mei. Although Chen Mei liked to shuttle between different men and enjoy under them, she didn't want to be gangbanged.

With Su Fan's Gang Qi Realm level of hearing, he naturally heard Wang Liang's footsteps.

His initial thought was to suddenly strike later and control Chen Mei.

As for Wang Liang outside the room, his plan was to directly kill him.

But now, he suddenly changed his mind.

While he was vigorously outputting against Chen Mei, he thought of a possibility.

Perhaps not only was Chen Mei the bait, but both Chen Mei and Wang Liang were the baits.

The real mastermind should be watching this unfold from the shadows.

The people from Palearia Castle had suffered setbacks on the deserted island before.

Even Hoffman, one of their top Gang Qi Realm experts, had died at his hands.

Even if the higher-ups at Palearia Castle were stupid, they wouldn't possibly send Chen Mei and Wang Liang to attack him.

Then these two might be assassins hired by the Liu Sheng family from Japan.

The Liu Sheng family members were by no means benevolent.

Otherwise, Zhao Chunqiu's entire family, men, women, young, old, would not have all fallen under the Liu Sheng's blade!

This instantly gave Su Fan a longer-term plan: after a brief exchange, escape immediately, causing a misjudgment by the Liu Sheng family behind Chen Mei and Wang Liang.

Su Fan's scheme was incredibly cunning.

No matter how cautious or smart Liu Sheng might be, he wouldn't be able to predict this layer.

With ordinary assassins, they would never find someone to test first. They would either probe personally or directly deliver the killing blow.

Chapter 919

Su Fan, having made up his mind, was waiting for Wang Liang to make a move.

However, outside the room, Wang Liang remained silent.

Chen Mei was also waiting for Wang Liang to act, firmly believing that Su Fan's full attention was now on her.

If Wang Liang acted now, it would undoubtedly be a rare opportunity!

No matter how strong Su Fan was, he absolutely couldn't react quickly under such circumstances.

If it were anyone else, they would have already been unable to hold back and launched a direct attack.

But Wang Liang was different; he had peculiar tastes and liked seeing Chen Mei being thoroughly explored by other men.

Moreover, he believed the perfect moment to strike was when Su Fan started to empty his ammunition.

In such a state, Su Fan would truly be overwhelmed.

If he struck suddenly, he could snap Su Fan's spine with a single blow, causing Su Fan to suffer a high-level paralysis.

After waiting for a while and noticing Wang Liang not making a move, Su Fan roughly understood Wang Liang's intentions.

Immediately, he didn't hold back against Wang Liang and launched a fierce attack on his wife.

Since these two wanted to plot against him, he intended to turn the tables on them.

A barrage of fierce attacks came rushing in, causing Chen Mei to involuntarily let out a long string of delightful sounds.

At this moment, she was truly about to be overwhelmed by Su Fan.

If Wang Liang didn't act soon, she herself couldn't help but wanting to strike.

It was at this point she finally felt a pulse from Su Fan.

This made her watery eyes both astonished and oddly satisfied.

A mass of hot warmth soon poured mercilessly onto her tender core.

And this was also the moment Wang Liang was waiting for.

Although he enjoyed Chen Mei being thoroughly explored by other men, a man who explored his wife had to pay the price with his life.

"Bang—"

A muffled noise occurred as Wang Liang directly broke in through the door.

As wood chips flew everywhere, Chen Mei, who moments ago was overwhelmed by Su Fan, suddenly attacked.

The pair of long legs that had been used as cannon supports on Su Fan's shoulders now delivered a Drilling Heart Kick towards Su Fan.

The kick connected, but was blocked by the Protective True Qi surrounding Su Fan's body.

Although Su Fan was unharmed, he cooperatively flew backward, smashing the wardrobe behind him to pieces.

Wang Liang's palm also came crashing down at this moment.

Though the palm seemed incredibly fierce, to Su Fan, it was full of flaws.

If he wanted, he could shatter Wang Liang's neck with a single Throat Scanning Finger.

But he didn't do it; instead, he set a long line to catch a big fish.

"Bang—"

When Wang Liang's palm fell, Su Fan 'panicked' and dodged, causing Wang Liang's palm to smash the already broken wardrobe into kindling.

At this moment, Chen Mei's beautiful leg kicked Su Fan in the back waist.

Su Fan naturally propelled himself forward, landing with a front flip to dissipate the force.

Without turning his head, he fled from the room directly.

When Wang Liang and Chen Mei rushed out in alarm, they found Su Fan had already disappeared.

Seeing this, Wang Liang couldn't help but exclaim: "He runs so fast!"

Chen Mei, on the other hand, was extremely frustrated: "I wasted half an hour being worked by him!"

Before she could continue speaking, Wang Liang lifted her horizontally in his arms.

Chen Mei, annoyed, said: "What are you doing?"

Wang Liang smiled and said: "Obviously, I'm going to work on you."

Chen Mei almost wanted to slap Wang Liang: "He messed inside just now, let me go take a shower."

Wang Liang indifferently replied: "No need to shower. I like it this way."

Chen Mei angrily scolded: "Get lost! You call Mr. Liu Sheng and tell him the situation here, I'll go shower and then we'll do it."

Chapter 920

Of course, Wang Liang didn't agree. After locking the door, he directly carried Chen Mei back to the room from earlier and threw her onto the bed.

Before Chen Mei could resist, he grabbed her by the neck, and at the same time drew his long gun, starting his assault.

He also took out his phone and started calling Liu Sheng.

Chen Mei, helpless, didn't continue to struggle with him.

What neither of them knew was that outside on the balcony, Su Fan stood quietly, listening to the sounds inside.

He could even hear the conversation between Wang Liang and Liu Sheng clearly.

Wang Liang said, "Mr. Liu Sheng, the job is half done."

Liu Sheng wasn't angry upon hearing that Wang Liang had only finished half the task.

In fact, Liu Sheng had already thought that Wang Liang and Chen Mei were as good as dead.

There was a high probability they would die at Su Fan's hands.

Since Wang Liang could still call him, it indicated that Su Fan might not be as formidable as they had imagined.

Liu Sheng said calmly, "Tell me the details, as detailed as possible."

Wang Liang didn't refuse, he began to assault Chen Mei while explaining the details to Liu Sheng.

After listening, Liu Sheng internally admired Wang Liang for being ruthless.

Others might say you can't catch a wolf without sacrificing a child, but he wouldn't let go of his wife for nothing.

Under the circumstances Wang Liang described, forget Su Fan; any martial artist might fall for it.

For Su Fan to retreat unscathed from an unforeseen attack indeed proves he is a top-level expert at the Hua Qi Realm.

No wonder Liu Sheng would make such a misjudgment. If Su Fan were a Gang Qi Realm expert, he would definitely counter-kill Wang Liang and Chen Mei.

After this probing by the two, Liu Sheng decided to act personally!

After ending the call with Wang Liang, Liu Sheng said, "You two can come to Ninghu Manor to collect the money later."

"If there are any other details to add, you can do so when you come to Ninghu Manor."

Wang Liang didn't refuse; part of their deal was that some payment needed to be in cash.

After ending the call with Liu Sheng, Wang Liang initiated an assault on his own wife.

Even though Chen Mei had been developed by Su Fan before, she was now incredibly tight.

Each of Wang Liang's attacks was on the verge of breaching a dam.

Chen Mei's looks and figure were first-rate, but not as top-tier as a stunning beauty like Yin Qian Yue.

However, her body was top-tier.

Though Su Fan had many women, he was encountering this kind of body for the first time.

Every assault had to overcome great resistance, pushing through layer after layer to reach the core.

At the same time, in Ninghu Manor.

Liu Sheng and Tanaka Taikou were in discussion.

Miyamoto Mei wasn't in the villa's living room, as she was still resting.

Last night, Liu Sheng and Tanaka Taikou gave her quite a hard time, so Miyamoto Mei hadn't rested well at all.

However, shortly after the two sat down, Miyamoto Mei came out sleepily.

She looked at the two and asked, "How's the situation?"

Liu Sheng didn't hide anything and replied truthfully, "Su Fan probably isn't a Gang Qi Realm martial artist."

"When Wang Liang and Chen Mei attacked him before, he fled in a sorry state."

"Now Su Fan should be as jittery as a frightened bird."

"But it's okay; as long as we seize one opportunity, we can take him down."

Upon hearing this, Miyamoto Mei nodded, and casually sat down on the sofa.

As soon as she sat down, Tanaka Taikou's hand unapologetically landed on her chest.

However, Miyamoto Mei wasn't polite either, directly pulling out a dagger, ready to give Tanaka a strike.
