

Temptation 92

Chapter 92: Agree

"You forgot to wipe your mouth after lunch, didn't you?"

Wu Miao explained somewhat guiltily, while twisting away to leave.

"Forgot to wipe your mouth?"

Sun Zhigang frowned.

Just then, his phone rang.

He looked at the caller ID and answered the call.

"Alright, wait for me at the administration building."

After hanging up, Sun Zhigang hurried off.

Soon, he was back in his office.

As soon as he sat down, someone pushed the door open and entered.

Liu Feng.

"Section Chief Sun, you wanted to see me!"

Liu Feng asked tentatively.

In the entire hospital, among the young doctors apart from Su Fan, there was no one else who wasn't scared of this Living Yama.

Sun Zhigang chuckled.

"Liu, take a seat, don't be nervous. I wanted to see you today because there's a junior position opening up in the hospital. I wanted to ask if you're interested?"

Upon hearing this, Liu Feng was excited.

Why was he pursuing Bai Man and even willing to be her toy? Apart from her being beautiful and charming, more importantly, he hoped to secure a professional title quickly.

Wasn't this the opportunity he was waiting for?

Liu Feng nodded eagerly, flattered.

"Yes, I'm very interested, thank you for your promotion, Section Chief Sun. Rest assured, I will work diligently and fulfill your expectations."

Sun Zhigang sneered inwardly, Your technical skills are mediocre at best, nervously trying to impress. Besides brown-nosing, you have nothing real to offer.

His face, however, wore a pleasant smile.

"Don't thank me just yet. After all, there are many young doctors, and the competition is fierce. The position might not necessarily be yours. By the way, what do you think about Su Fan?"

Liu Feng was no fool. Hearing Sun Zhigang say this, he immediately understood everything.

This old fox wanted to use him as a pawn against Su Fan.

On one hand, he wanted the position.

On the other, he truly resented Su Fan.

Not only had Su Fan disrupted his relationship with Bai Man, but he had also beaten him several times.

Such actions were intolerable.

Liu Feng gritted his teeth and said.

"That smug brat, flaunting his medical skills and acting all arrogant. He's no good. Keeping him in the hospital is like nurturing a stumbling horse. Our hospital will eventually suffer because of him. We should get rid of him sooner rather than later."

"Good."

Sun Zhigang slapped his thigh and stood up excitedly.

"Liu, I knew I wasn't wrong about you. You're a keen young man, thinking exactly like me. In that case, I'm assigning you a task. You have one week to get rid of Su Fan. If you can do it, I guarantee that promotion is yours."

"Good."

Liu Feng agreed without hesitation.

After some pleasantries, Liu Feng left the administration building and returned to the emergency room.

"Liu Feng."

Just as Liu Feng was beaming with joy, a call stopped him.

He turned and saw Luo Ya.

"Oh, you decided to talk to me willingly?"

Watching Luo Ya's graceful figure, Liu Feng's eyes revealed a greedy gleam.

Meanwhile, Luo Ya bit her lip and said.

"About what you told me the other day, I agree."

"What, you really agree?"

Liu Feng was ecstatic.

Luo Ya was a naive nurse. From her first day at the hospital, Liu Feng had his eyes on her. He had confessed several times but was ignored by her. And now she was showing interest in him voluntarily?

Was he really this lucky, possibly achieving both career success and a beautiful woman?

Marriage was unthinkable, but for a naive woman like Luo Ya, playing around would definitely be thrilling. First to win her over, sleep together for a few months, try different things.

"What, you're not willing? Then forget it."

Luo Ya hesitated, ready to leave.
