

Temptation 921

Chapter 921

Tanaka could only give a wry smile, then withdrew his hand.

He completely didn't understand, what was this woman thinking? At night in the room, anything goes, but during the day, even a touch is off-limits?

When he visits Miyamoto Mei's room again tonight, he must squeeze those tender peaks until they burst.

As the three were discussing how to deal with Su Fan, Wang Liang and Chen Mei also set out.

Ninghu Manor, of course, was just a fake name.

Su Fan had been in Yang City for so long. If there were really a Ninghu Manor, he couldn't possibly not know about it.

When Wang Liang and Chen Mei headed to Ninghu Manor, Su Fan knew that it wasn't some Ninghu Manor they were going to, but Linyin Villa District.

The level of Linyin Villa District was much lower than that of Bai Yulan Villa District.

The real big shots in Yang City either had extravagant mansions passed down through their families or they gathered in Bai Yulan Villa District.

Only the up-and-coming enterprises and families would buy houses in Linyin Villa District.

Su Fan followed Wang Liang and Chen Mei, moving closer to the destination.

This time he didn't call on Zhao Chunqiu, not because he didn't want to give Zhao Chunqiu the chance to take revenge.

But because time was a bit tight this time, and calling on Zhao Chunqiu would be too late.

Moreover, he was unaware of the exact level of Liu Sheng and others.

If by chance the opponents had a Gang Qi Realm expert, Zhao Chunqiu's presence would be futile, and he might even be put in danger.

Su Fan followed behind Wang Liang and the others, quickly arriving at a luxurious villa in the Linyin Villa District.

Liu Sheng and the others seemed to be honorable, with no intention of backstabbing.

As requested by Wang Liang, they prepared part of the cash, while the rest of the commission was transferred to Chen Mei's account.

Wang Liang and the others were always managed by Chen Mei financially.

Su Fan arrived on the second floor of an adjacent villa, watching from afar at the proceedings.

Though he wasn't sure who Liu Sheng's trio were, he already knew this time the enemies consisted of three people.

The one speaking with Wang Liang might very well be Liu Sheng.

As for the remaining two, Su Fan didn't know what their names were.

But what happened next surprised Su Fan a bit.

Just moments ago, Liu Sheng, who was chatting and laughing with Wang Liang, suddenly pulled out a three-edged military dagger.

Clearly, these Japanese were extremely unethical in their dealings.

They hired help but didn't want to pay money and were even after their lives!

Wang Liang never dreamed that Liu Sheng would suddenly make a move.

But fortunately, he wasn't unprepared; years of living on the edge had made him cautious of everyone.

At the nick of time, he leaped up in the air.

This caused Liu Sheng's stab to go off-target.

Instead of piercing his heart, it injured his kidney.

Wang Liang wasn't easy to deal with. Having dodged a fatal blow and seeing his wife spitting blood and collapsing into a pool of blood, he pulled a grenade from his pocket and threw it at Liu Sheng's trio.

Then, without a word, he made his escape.

If his wife was gone, he could find another, but if he lost his life here, everything would be over completely!

Although Chen Mei was struck in the heart by Miyamoto Mei, she hadn't died.

Seeing Wang Liang flee, she felt only despair in her heart.

Neither she nor Wang Liang expected these Japanese to be so despicable.

Not only refusing to give the commission, but they also wanted their lives!

"Bang!"

A loud explosion sounded, shrapnel from the grenade flying everywhere.

However, Liu Sheng's trio dodged in time, and Chen Mei, being further away and already lying on the ground, wasn't affected by the grenade.

After the explosion, Liu Sheng's trio immediately attempted to chase Wang Liang.

But clearly, they couldn't pursue because Miyamoto Mei was the first to let out a miserable cry.

Unbeknownst to them, a figure had appeared behind them.

This new figure was, of course, Su Fan, who had rushed over not long ago.

Miyamoto Mei had only severely injured Chen Mei with a palm strike.

But with Su Fan's palm, he directly exploded Miyamoto Mei's heart.

Neither Liu Sheng nor Tanaka Taikou expected such a surprise to happen.

Yet Tanaka Taikou's reaction wasn't slow; his katana had already been unsheathed with a clang.

Unfortunately, the moment his katana was unsheathed, Su Fan's dazzling short sword instantly struck.

"Puchi!"

A flash of blood, and Tanaka Taikou didn't even have time to swing a single strike, as Su Fan sealed his throat with a sword!

Chapter 922

"Plop—"

A spray of blood danced in the air as Su Fan's incredibly sharp Jinghong dagger sliced open Tanaka Taikou's throat.

"Clang!"

In that moment, it was as if all the strength had been drained from Tanaka Taikou.

Unable to support himself anymore, he fell straight to the ground.

After swiftly taking down two people, Su Fan thought it would be easy to deal with Liu Sheng.

Unexpectedly, a small mishap occurred.

Liu Sheng, already at the Great Perfection of the Transmutation Realm, completed his final transformation in this life-and-death moment.

The expression on Liu Sheng's face turned from despair to ecstasy!

He was unsure of Su Fan's exact strength.

He only knew that Su Fan had timed his actions perfectly.

Earlier, the attention of all three of them was on the grenade thrown by Wang Liang.

Unexpectedly, while the grenade posed no threat to them, Su Fan seized the opportunity to suddenly strike, taking the lives of Tanaka and another.

After advancing further, Liu Sheng's strength directly reached the Gang Qi Realm!

The Gang Qi Realm is a new level different from the Cultivation Realm, Qi Explosion Realm, and Transmutation Realm.

Martial Artists at this level no longer fear small-caliber firearms.

As long as they are not at the center of a grenade explosion, they even need not fear grenades.

They can use their protective qi to withstand a grenade!

At this moment, Liu Sheng's gaze was fiercely fixed on Su Fan.

"Su Fan, I didn't expect us to meet in such a manner."

Su Fan nodded, speaking with a hint of mockery: "If it weren't for Wang Liang's grenade, ambushing you wouldn't have been so easy."

Initially, Liu Sheng's face carried a faint hint of joy.

Upon hearing this, he could no longer smile.

If they hadn't gone back on their word, things wouldn't have escalated to this point.

"Hmph!" Liu Sheng snorted coldly, his gaze at Su Fan filled with murderous intent.

He bent down and picked up Tanaka's katana.

He planned to use Tanaka's katana to decapitate Su Fan.

Meanwhile, Su Fan gripped the Jinghong dagger he obtained from Zheng Chaoxi.

He knew two sword techniques, one being the Heart-piercing Return Sword, a technique for sudden ambush.

The essence of this swordsmanship doesn't necessarily require a turning strike but calls for a surprise, full-strength thrust.

Just like this moment, Su Fan could launch a lightning-fast strike to try and kill Liu Sheng.

Su Fan's second sword technique came from the Tai Chi True Technique inherited through the Yin-Yang Fish Jade Pendant, which includes the Tai Chi Thirteen Swords.

However, the Tai Chi Thirteen Swords requires a long sword for proper execution, and it's difficult to perform with a dagger.

But at this moment, without a suitable long sword, he could only manage with the dagger.

Even with his skill, facing off barehanded against blades, Liu Sheng was no match for him.

"Ha!"

Liu Sheng exhaled sharply and launched his attack first.

With both hands gripping the katana, he swung a blow like a crescent moon.

Su Fan moved his body effortlessly, easily evading.

Of course, Liu Sheng's earlier strike was just a feint.

As Su Fan dodged, the real lethal attack followed closely.

"Swish—"

Liu Sheng slashed horizontally with a waist-level strike at astonishing speed.

If this blade made contact, it could definitely slice Su Fan in two.

"Clang!"

A sound like a resounding bell suddenly echoed.

Liu Sheng's strike was deflected by Su Fan's sword.

Su Fan stood as if rooted to the spot.

Though he made his move hastily, he remained as steady as a mountain.

Liu Sheng, on the other hand, was repeatedly pushed back by the force of the counterstrike.

Even if Liu Sheng were foolish, he would understand by now.

He thought himself clever but was outsmarted by Su Fan; Su Fan was not at the peak of the Transmutation Realm at all, but like him, a master of the Gang Qi Realm!

Chapter 923

When Wang Liang's two teammates were testing Su Fan, for some reason, Su Fan saw through them.

After seeing through them, he directly played along with their plan.

Liu Shengjing, at this moment, dared not be careless even a bit.

The person before him is the strongest opponent he has encountered in this lifetime!

The opponent not only possesses excellent strategy but also has astonishing strength!

Liu Shengjing's confidence and ease just now vanished in an instant, replaced by deep seriousness.

Su Fan, on the other hand, was never careless from the start. He understood that even a lion uses its full strength to hunt a rabbit.

Seeing Liu Shengjing's change, Su Fan wasn't particularly concerned.

This time, without waiting for Liu Shengjing to swing his blade, he took the initiative to attack.

"Swish——"

Su Fan's attack was absolutely unexpected for Liu Shengjing.

Because Su Fan suddenly made his move in a surprising manner.

Su Fan wielded his astonishingly swift short sword like a dagger, fiercely striking towards him.

Liu Shengjing dared not be careless, he swung his blade heavily!

This was an all-out throw from a Gang Qi Realm master, not to be underestimated!

Any carelessness could lead to injury.

"Clang——"

The sword strike came with such swiftness, its terrifying force numbed Liu Shengjing's palm.

However, the short sword thrown by Su Fan was ultimately deflected aside by him.

Yet at that moment, a sharp pain shot through his wrist.

The short sword was merely a diversion; the three silver needles following it were Su Fan's true aim.

"Clatter!"

The katana in Liu Shengjing's hand quickly dropped.

His internal True Qi shook, and then he shook off the silver needles pinned on his hand by Su Fan.

But clearly, he lost the opportunity to retrieve his katana; Su Fan quickly approached him, launching a hammer fist!

"Bang!"

A muffled sound echoed, and Liu Shengjing was struck back by Su Fan's hammer fist.

Following suit, Su Fan pressed forward and with a move like separating a wild horse's mane, sent Liu Shengjing flying backward.

Liu Shengjing hit the ground and quickly sprang up, but collided right into Su Fan's brush-knee twist.

He was immediately struck flying again, sliding across the ground over a lengthy distance.

Seizing the moment of battle, Su Fan pressed forward again, his fists pounding Liu Shengjing like a blacksmith working the bellows.

Liu Shengjing was skillful in blade techniques but weaker in hand-to-hand combat.

When not suppressed by Su Fan, it wasn't obvious.

But once Su Fan gained the upper hand, he could only cover his head and endure the beating.

Su Fan didn't show any courtesy to this assassin from the Liu Sheng family, his fists moved so fast they were a blur, striking Liu Shengjing.

Initially, Liu Shengjing gathered his True Qi, letting it circulate throughout his body to resist Su Fan's attacks.

Latterly, after multiple heavy punches from Su Fan, his consciousness began to blur.

After all, he had only recently broken through to the Gang Qi Realm, whereas Su Fan had been in that realm for some time.

Not long after, Liu Shengjing was pounded alive to death by Su Fan's heavy fists.

Thus, the three assassins sent by the Liu Sheng family from the East were all eliminated by Su Fan.

Su Fan's gaze, at this moment, turned towards Chen Mei.

This foolish woman somehow decided to perform seppuku on herself.

If he didn't know Chen Mei well, Su Fan wouldn't consider saving her.

But now Su Fan intends to save her, no matter how you see it, Chen Mei is his enemy.

He's planning to rescue her, abolish her martial arts, and imprison her as his little captive.

There's no need to abolish her martial arts, he just needs to seal all her veins and key points completely.

Su Fan approached Chen Mei, raised his hand, and tapped around her abdomen and heart several times.

Chen Mei certainly wasn't thinking of ending her life.

She intended to play dead so Su Fan wouldn't deal the final blow.

Otherwise, having killed Liu Shengjing and the others, Su Fan would have no reason to spare her.

But Chen Mei didn't know that her previous actions had pleased Su Fan.

Among all the women around Su Fan, she wasn't the most beautiful, but she was one of the best at providing him joy.

Because of this, she's allowed to survive, albeit as Su Fan's female slave.

Chapter 924

After Su Fan rescued Chen Mei, he called Zhao Chunqiu.

Zhao Chunqiu was currently forging weapons in the forge workshop, unaware of why Su Fan was reaching out to him.

"Divine Doctor Su, did something happen?"

Upon inquiry from Zhao Chunqiu, Su Fan immediately nodded and said, "Yes! Old Zhao, the Liu Sheng family from Japan has sent three assassins to deal with us in China."

"Those three have already been dealt with by me. You come over and handle the follow-up matters; I have other things to attend to."

Zhao Chunqiu hadn't expected the Liu Sheng family to act so quickly.

Just a while ago, they were still negotiating with Su Fan, and suddenly, the Liu Sheng family's assassins had already reached Yang City.

Zhao Chunqiu did not refuse Su Fan's instructions.

Upon receiving the coordinates sent by Su Fan, he set off immediately.

After Zhao Chunqiu arrived, Su Fan confidently handed over the matters there to Zhao Chunqiu to handle.

He himself then took Chen Mei back to the treatment room at Eastern Medicine Company to begin further treatment on Chen Mei.

With Su Fan's medical skills, Chen Mei's injuries were not considered significant.

While treating Chen Mei, he also used a unique method to seal all the hidden apertures and meridians throughout Chen Mei's body.

In such circumstances, no one besides him could unblock the sealed hidden apertures and meridians of Chen Mei.

For some time to come, Chen Mei, once a master of the Qi Transformation Realm, could only live as an ordinary person.

Chen Mei, of course, knew what Su Fan had done to her.

So while Su Fan treated her, she showed no gratitude and was extremely vigilant.

She looked at Su Fan and coldly asked, "What do you plan to do with me?"

Su Fan did not hide, speaking frankly and straightforwardly, "I want you to become my female slave."

Upon hearing this, Chen Mei sneered, "Then you might be disappointed. I will never agree!"

Su Fan chuckled, "Do you really have a choice?"

This time Chen Mei did not answer. She was originally an enemy of Su Fan, and even if Su Fan killed her, she would have nothing to say.

In fact, before Su Fan fought with Liu Sheng Jing,

she had thought of ambushing Su Fan or escaping.

But her injuries were serious, and she couldn't accomplish either.

Her only hope now was for that dog man Wang Liang to remember her and come back to save her.

But then she thought of Su Fan as a Martial Artist of the Gang Qi Realm, and desperation returned.

Even if Wang Liang wanted to come back and save her, he was no match for Su Fan.

The way Wang Liang had fled so decisively back then clearly indicated he wouldn't return to save her.

Upon this thought, Chen Mei could only completely lose hope.

Moreover, in her moment of desperation, Su Fan began to administer acupuncture on her.

Chen Mei tensed up and asked, "What else are you going to do?"

Su Fan did not hide the truth, speaking plainly, "I'm adding some more limitations to you."

"I want to deepen the closure of some of your hidden apertures and meridians. It won't affect your normal life, but it will make you somewhat weak."

"Every now and then, these closed hidden apertures and meridians will need some relief."

"Otherwise, they will become blocked, causing reverse blood flow, leading to bleeding from the seven apertures and death."

"I won't have anyone specifically watching over you, so I hope for the sake of your own life, you won't run around."

Chen Mei cursed angrily after hearing this, "You're shameless!"

Su Fan was indifferent, "You were my enemy after all. Isn't any means fair when dealing with the enemy?"

The already despairing Chen Mei could only feel even more despair.

Now she was completely under Su Fan's control.

Not to mention that Wang Liang would not possibly come back to save her now; even if Wang Liang wanted to, it would be useless.

Unless someone else could counter Su Fan's methods.

Before they acted against Su Fan, they had already understood Su Fan.

Su Fan was the number one Divine Doctor in Yang City, and even one of the top Divine Doctors in Qin Province.

Su Fan's medical skills were even more formidable than his martial arts, making it exceptionally difficult to counter Su Fan's methods.

Chapter 925

Chen Mei's fate was sealed the moment she became an enemy of Su Fan.

Either she would die at Su Fan's hands, or she would become Su Fan's little bitch.

Su Fan already had many women around him, but he didn't mind.

He was different from ancient emperors, who had many concubines purely for pleasure.

His physique was special; when he coupled with women, he could enhance his strength.

Thus, having so many women around was beneficial for his martial arts cultivation.

As long as he could afford it and the other party was willing, he wouldn't mind having many women.

With his physical condition, so many beautiful women wouldn't overwhelm him.

After sealing some of the meridians and acupoints in Chen Mei's body, his phone rang again.

The call was from Yagami Takuji of the Yagami family from Japan.

Su Fan answered the call, and Yagami Takuji got straight to the point.

"Mr. Su Fan, people like Yagami Kei send a message to the Yagami headquarters every hour."

"We didn't receive their message just now, so it's likely that they've already died at Mr. Su Fan's hands."

Su Fan neither confirmed nor denied it, instead asking, "Is there anything you need?"

When Su Fan answered Yagami Takuji's call, he started recording immediately.

These Japanese devils are very cunning; precautions must be taken against their schemes.

After Su Fan's inquiry, Yagami Takuji earnestly said:

"Mr. Su Fan, our Yagami family is willing to negotiate with you with utmost sincerity."

"If you do not agree to negotiate, the Yagami family will treat both Mr. Su Fan and Mr. Zhao Chunqiu as our top enemies."

"There are many enemies of the Yagami family, but those at the Gang Qi Realm level are few and far between."

"Enemies like Mr. Su Fan, who grow rapidly with transcendent medical skills, are even fewer."

"If we cannot turn enemies into friends with Mr. Su Fan, the Yagami family will not rest easy."

"We must take all measures to prevent Mr. Su Fan from causing us harm."

These Japanese people are extremely cunning; when dealing with Zhao Chunqiu's family, they planned meticulously.

So they directly annihilated the Zhao family with swift and overwhelming force.

When dealing with Su Fan, their experts found it difficult to penetrate deep into China, so they resorted to negotiation.

After the first negotiation achieved poor results, they immediately sent three experts deep into China to deal with Su Fan.

Even Palaiya Castle couldn't compare with them, which shows how efficient the Japanese are.

To Yagami Takuji's request, Su Fan still did not agree this time.

He bluntly told Yagami Takuji, "Yagami Takuji, listen carefully, my only position is that you repay the blood debt with blood!"

"It was like this before, it's like this now, and it'll still be like this in the future!"

Even after Su Fan said that, Yagami Takuji was still unwilling to give up.

If Su Fan were a Martial Artist from a small Southeast Asian country, it would be one thing, but Su Fan was a Martial Artist from a major Eastern country, which meant dealing with Su Fan would be very costly.

The Yagami family's Gang Qi Realm level experts found it challenging to penetrate deep into China.

Being able to negotiate with Su Fan would be the most advantageous way for the Yagami family to handle this.

Yagami Takuji straightforwardly said, "Mr. Su Fan, if you and Mr. Zhao Chunqiu are willing to negotiate."

"We will offer five billion US dollars and three billion US dollars in compensation to Mr. Su Fan and Mr. Zhao Chunqiu, respectively."

"Continuing to fight will be detrimental to both parties."

"With Mr. Su Fan's wisdom, I believe you understand this reasoning."

Su Fan certainly understood the reasoning Yagami Takuji spoke of.

If both sides were to continue fighting like this, both would be constantly consumed, which would be unfavorable to both parties.

Chapter 926

Yagami Takuji seemed to have found out from the dark web that Su Fan liked beautiful women.

Before Su Fan could reply, he upped the ante again.

"As long as Mr. Su Fan is willing to negotiate, in the Japanese entertainment industry, Mr. Su Fan can choose any ten actresses."

The so-called Japanese entertainment industry actresses are often referred to by many as female teachers.

If it were any other martial artist, they might have actually agreed.

Choosing any ten actresses from the Japanese entertainment industry makes it difficult not to feel drained.

After all, any one of those actresses could handle a room full of men.

But Su Fan rejected the goodwill of the Yagyu family, as the Yagyu family had a blood feud with Zhao Chunqiu, and also a grudge with him.

Other martial artists with a grievance might truly let bygones be bygones with a smile upon meeting.

However, the Japanese are different; their proposal for negotiation is definitely just a delaying tactic.

While Su Fan agrees to negotiate, their upper echelons might also be scheming about how to take down Su Fan.

Indeed, this is the case; what Yagami Takuji used was simply a delaying tactic.

Even if Su Fan agreed, the benefits he promised to Su Fan would only be delivered gradually.

During this process, if their assassin succeeded and slaughtered Su Fan, then the promised benefits naturally would not need to be delivered, and they could even reclaim benefits from Su Fan with interest.

Unfortunately, Su Fan was unyielding, impervious to both persuasion and coercion, determined to eliminate the Yagyu family.

In this case, Yagami Takuji was at his wit's end.

Faced with such a martial artist, what could he do?

Since Su Fan refused to compromise, it was clear that both sides could only fight to the bitter end.

The conversation between Su Fan and Yagami Takuji was also overheard by Chen Mei.

She now looked at Su Fan as if he were a monster, and the reason was naturally because Su Fan had challenged the Yagyu family.

Despite the offer of ten beauties from the Yagyu family and the lure of five billion US dollars, Su Fan did not compromise.

Wang Liang, on the other hand, was stabbed by a Yagyu assassin and fled without a trace.

Su Fan was unafraid of the entire Yagyu family, while Wang Liang was scared off by just one Yagyu assassin, abandoning even his wife!

Thinking of this, Chen Mei felt she had been blind to marry Wang Liang.

She was originally a normal woman.

It was under Wang Liang's manipulation and guidance that she began to engage in promiscuity with men.

All of this could be tolerated, but the most infuriating thing was Wang Liang abandoning her to save himself.

If only Wang Liang had stayed, he might have reaped the benefits during Su Fan and the Yagyu assassin's battle.

But alas...

Su Fan had no idea what Chen Mei was thinking.

Chen Mei was injured, and he didn't plan to deal with her yet.

Once Chen Mei was healed, he intended to properly train this stunning woman.

After treating Chen Mei, Su Fan drove her to Villa No. 5 in the Bai Yulan residential area.

Ning Miaoxi and Zhen Bingyu usually lived there.

With Su Fan bringing Chen Mei, the two naturally noticed.

Ning Miaoqi proactively asked, "Who is she?"

Su Fan bluntly replied, "She used to be my enemy, now she's my plaything."

Ning Miaoqi had no intention of meddling in Su Fan's private life and instead said, "Do you want us to watch over her for you?"

Su Fan shook his head, "There's no need. If she gets along with you, you can live together."

"If you don't get along, you can just live separately in the villa."

Hearing this, both Ning Miaoqi and Zhen Bingyu nodded.

After settling Chen Mei in the villa, Su Fan set off again, heading to the affiliated hospital to continue his work.

Chapter 927

Originally, I thought this was just a routine visit, but unexpectedly, someone set a trap for me.

However, the outcome was favorable; the two Hua Qi Realm experts from the East Ying Liu Sheng family, as well as a Gang Qi Realm expert, fell by my hand.

In the future, when seeking revenge for Zhao Chunqiu, the difficulty will be somewhat reduced.

What Su Fan doesn't know is that Han Shiguang's enemy also joined the Liu Sheng family.

By killing Liu Sheng's experts, he also exacted some vengeance for Han Shiguang.

Not only that, this time he also gained Chen Mei, the exquisite young lady, ensuring future happiness in life.

When he returned to the hospital, he saw his assistant Lu Wenwen waiting for him.

Seeing Lu Wenwen, Su Fan casually asked, "Do you have something to discuss with me?"

Lu Wenwen immediately shook her head, "It's not me, it's the director who wants to speak with you."

Su Fan was a bit puzzled about what Zhang Haitao wanted but said, "Alright, I'll go to the director now."

After speaking, he headed to Zhang Haitao's office.

Upon seeing Su Fan, Zhang Haitao promptly asked, "Dr. Su, how is that patient's condition?"

Su Fan casually replied, "Not serious, already gone to a nearby hospital for treatment."

The patient Zhang Haitao mentioned was, of course, Chen Mei's husband.

Chen Mei's husband wasn't sick initially; it was all a setup.

Yet later, they suffered greatly, losing both troops and wives, and getting injured themselves.

Zhang Haitao obviously wasn't concerned about Wang Liang; he cared about the Chinese Medical Competition.

"Xiao Fan, three months is neither long nor short."

"With your skills, standing out in the city-level competition is surely without issue."

"But try to aim for a good ranking in the provincial and national competitions."

"Before the national round of the Chinese Medical Competition kicks off, focus mainly on it."

"The Chinese Medical Competition happens once every four years, missing this means waiting four more years."

Su Fan nodded, agreeing with Zhang Haitao's view.

The competition is held every four years, and he needs ample preparation to win the championship.

To become the top nation's healer in this competition.

He's not entirely unprepared for the competition; he possesses the medicine furnace of Sun Simiao.

He also commissioned the Ning family from Weining Shipping to help gather the Qi Huang medical classics.

He himself is diligently studying medical techniques.

If he fails to win the championship, it would only show the hidden talents and exceptional medical experts in China.

After Su Fan nodded, Zhang Haitao seized the opportunity, "Xiao Fan, stay at my home until the end of the competition."

"Living in the hospital isn't convenient, and you lack someone at home to care for your daily needs."

Zhang Haitao's enthusiasm aimed to bind Su Fan to the affiliated hospital.

Talented youth like Su Fan is surely targeted by other hospitals seeking recruitment.

Major hospitals from other cities, even provincial ones, might act!

If Su Fan wins the city-level or provincial-level competition.

It's certain that provincial hospitals will seek him out.

Zhang Haitao hopes Su Fan will appreciate the affiliated hospital's kindness and not switch his affiliation later.

As the director, Zhang Haitao knows how to win hearts.

In reality, he doesn't need to persuade Su Fan.

Because Su Fan has already made Yang City his base, he intends to stay and develop there and enhance Yang City's growth.

Su Fan could only decline Zhang Haitao's hospitality.

"Director Zhang, I'll visit your house on the weekends, but not during the week."

"My goal for this term's competition is the national champion."

"In the coming period, I'll devote substantial time and energy to this event, so don't worry."

Chapter 928

Hearing Su Fan say this, Zhang Haitao was, of course, relieved.

Even though Su Fan was unwilling to go to his villa every day, that was not a problem; as long as Su Fan focused on the medical competition, it was fine.

Meanwhile, Zhang Haitao tried another approach after his initial plan failed.

He said to Su Fan with a warm smile, "Xiao Fan, during this period, how about I let your sister-in-law be your office assistant?"

Su Fan shook his head, "Xiao Lu is doing a great job; let's not trouble sister-in-law, shall we?"

Although he was very interested in Zhou Jie and quite intrigued by Zhang Haitao's arrangement.

Yet he couldn't let Lu Wenwen lose her job because of this.

Lu Wenwen was very attentive, and having her continue as his office assistant was fine.

Zhang Haitao, however, chuckled and said, "What's the problem with that?"

"Xiao Fan, you are our hospital's special talent, a top medical expert in our establishment."

"Arranging two office assistants for you is only appropriate."

"Let's settle this matter then."

"Coincidentally, both of us have some free time now, we can take care of this immediately."

Su Fan was truly surprised that Zhang Haitao could make such arrangements and that his efficiency was exceptionally high.

Lu Wenwen's office space was swiftly moved adjacent to Su Fan's office.

Her previous office space was now given to Zhou Jie.

Of course, Lu Wenwen had no objection to the director's arrangement; she just wanted to continue learning by Su Fan's side.

Zhou Jie, however, was quite displeased with being placed in the same office as Su Fan.

If no one's around, wouldn't Su Fan eat her up?

But even with her dissatisfaction, she had no way to discuss this matter with Zhang Haitao.

Zhang Haitao was, nonetheless, very pleased with his arrangement.

In his view, he had almost paved the way for Zhou Jie within the hospital.

At the same time, guests from the Liu Sheng family arrived at an estate in Phi Country.

Unlike the Parea family, deeply rooted and flourishing, entirely unafraid of Su Fan coming for trouble.

The Liu Sheng family was very fearful, exceedingly so!

So upon confirming that they and Su Fan could only be enemies, the Liu Sheng family began seeking assassins worldwide to eliminate Su Fan.

With Su Fan alive, Yagami Takuji and other high-ranking members of the Liu Sheng family could not sleep peacefully.

Moreover, Su Fan was also the enemy of the Parea Fort, and Liu Sheng standing up against Su Fan directly received the support from Parea Fort.

This time, for the Phi Country trip, the Liu Sheng family's second head, Yagyu Takayuki, personally took action.

He decided to hire not small fry but a true expert, the one known as the King of Phi Country's Demon Rod, Irudi.

Irudi met with Yagyu Takayuki from the Eastern Liu Sheng family at his beachfront villa.

He had no grudges with Su Fan, but if the Liu Sheng family offered enough money, then he and Su Fan would have irreconcilable differences.

Irudi was once a troubled youth; he hadn't even completed elementary school before entering society.

He had been involved in dealings of firearms, dirty money, drugs, and various contraband.

During this journey, he gradually became a Martial Artist.

Everything he possessed now was earned with his fists and the Phi Country's demon rod.

The demon rod of Phi Country is somewhat like an Eastern weapon known as a "guai" (a type of cudgel), astonishingly powerful when mastered to perfection.

Irudi lounged on a deck chair, leisurely smoking a cigar.

In his arms, he held a Caucasian beauty.

He was extremely adept at making money and truly knew how to enjoy life.

He had more women than Su Fan.

The difference was, he was quite capricious.

Su Fan, on the other hand, still liked Bai Man and Wang Fei immensely, seeing how he made Bai Man and Wang Fei exhausted every time, showed he liked Bai Man and Wang Fei very much.

Chapter 929

Yirudi is different; the women around him are often replaced after a few days. The longest any woman has been with him is only two years.

At this moment, Yirudi turned his gaze towards Yagyu Takayuki, looking past him to Yagyu Shizune.

He was clearly very interested in this seemingly pure young woman.

After sitting down, Yagyu Takayuki said to Yirudi, "Mr. Yirudi, we hope to hire you to go to Huaxia to kill someone."

Yirudi took a puff of his cigar, and said casually, "What's the payment?"

Yagyu Takayuki didn't expect Yirudi to ask about the reward without caring who the target was.

But he didn't hesitate and said directly, "The reward is five hundred million US Dollars. We can pay a deposit of two hundred million US Dollars first, and after the task is completed, pay the rest..."

Yirudi interrupted Yagyu Takayuki, "I have no habit of taking deposits or final payments."

"No matter who you want me to kill, before I set off, the five hundred million US Dollars should already appear in my account."

"Moreover, the woman behind you must also stay behind to sleep with me."

Before Yagyu Takayuki could refuse, Yagyu Shizune quickly spoke, "Impossible, we will not agree to this request!"

Unexpectedly, her father's words left Yagyu Shizune in despair, "No, we agree to this request!"

The reason Yagyu Takayuki brought his daughter this time was that he knew Yirudi was very lecherous.

If they could get rid of Su Fan at the cost of five hundred million US Dollars and a family member, in the eyes of Yagyu Takayuki and the Yagyu family, it was worth it.

As a vanguard of the Kawabata family, the Yagyu family naturally understood that sometimes the women in the family are just tools to solve problems.

Yirudi was very pleased with Yagyu Takayuki's attitude.

He immediately got up and pushed away the white beauty in his arms.

As a top master at the mid-to-late stage of the Gang Qi Realm, a little bunny like Yagyu Shizune couldn't possibly escape his clutches.

But Yagyu Shizune was gutsy; she immediately drew a dagger, intending to ruin her own face.

Regarding this, Yirudi didn't stop her and just coldly said,

"When you arrived, you must have seen, there are many homeless people in the Philippines."

"If you lose that pretty face, I think only those homeless people would be interested in you."

"How many homeless people are you prepared to entertain? Ten, twenty? Or several dozen to a hundred?"

This time Yagyu Shizune was too frightened to move; she was sure Yirudi was a man of his word.

If she didn't know what's good for her, Yirudi would really have dozens to hundreds of men gang up on her.

After Yagyu Shizune calmed down, Yirudi smiled and said, "The person you want to kill is Su Fan, right?"

He evidently had his own intelligence network and knew who was currently up against the Yagyu family.

Yagyu Takayuki nodded, "Yes, we want this person to disappear from the world as soon as possible!"

Yirudi laughed and said, "Once the five hundred million US Dollars hit my account, his life will enter the countdown."

Yagyu Takayuki said seriously, "In a week, five hundred million US Dollars will be credited to Mr. Yirudi's account."

Yirudi, holding Yagyu Shizune in one arm and lifting a wine glass with the other,

Immediately, a subordinate came over to pour red wine for him and also for Yagyu Takayuki.

Then Yirudi said to Yagyu Takayuki, "Happy cooperation!"

Upon hearing this, Yagyu Takayuki raised his glass and said, "Happy cooperation!"

Su Fan still doesn't know that the Yagyu family found such a formidable expert to deal with him.

This time, the Yagyu family sought out Yirudi, a highly renowned and powerful figure, even a top person on the dark web.

Clearly, being enemies with the Eastern Yagyu family is indeed a headache.

However, Su Fan will not regret it; he has never thought of compromising when it comes to the Yagyu family as an enemy.

Chapter 930

In the affiliated hospital of the Medical University, Su Fan made a round in the ward of the Traditional Chinese Medicine department.

He didn't yet know that the Yagyu family from Japan was so concerned about him.

Just after the three assassins sent by the Yagyu had been taken down by him, the second family head, Yagyu Takayuki, went to invite the Filipino stick king, Irudi, to deal with him.

Although he had Chen Hanqing keeping an eye on the Yagyu family's activities, even Chen Hanqing couldn't fully grasp all the intelligence on the Yagyu family.

So, at this moment, Chen Hanqing hadn't informed him of this news.

After making his rounds through the various wards, Su Fan returned to his own office.

In his office, there was now Zhou Jie.

Zhou Jie was a pharmacist with a major in medicine, but she had now started reading books on Chinese medicine.

The reason for this was twofold: Eastern Medicine Company is a firm that aims to disrupt the pharmaceutical market with Chinese patent medicine.

The other reason is that Su Fan is a Divine Doctor of Chinese Medicine, so she can consult him whenever she faces puzzles in her Chinese medicine studies.

Seeing Su Fan walk into the office, Zhou Jie hesitated for a moment before speaking: "Can I learn acupuncture from you?"

Su Fan had not expected that Zhou Jie wanted to learn this.

However, he still nodded, "Sure."

Having said that, he got up to close the door.

This act certainly startled Zhou Jie.

After all, Su Fan was bold enough to make love with her at her home, not to mention now being in Su Fan's office.

Su Fan closed the door not because he intended to do anything to Zhou Jie, but to conduct better teaching.

After closing the door, he came beside Zhou Jie and, after glancing at the medical books piled on her desk, shook his head.

"These medical books are too superficial and incomplete; many parts are even wrong."

"From now on, learn under my guidance."

Zhou Jie initially thought that after closing the door, Su Fan intended to do something to her.

Unexpectedly, Su Fan was genuinely teaching her.

She nodded immediately, waiting for Su Fan to continue.

Su Fan then went on to say: "The human body has eight extraordinary meridians, twelve regular meridians, and one hundred and eight closely related points."

"These one hundred and eight points are the body's natural medicine cabinet."

"Using silver needles in different ways to stimulate these natural medicine cabinets is a process of prescription and treatment."

"In this process, adding true qi for treatment can yield immediate effects."

"Take off your clothes, and I'll first let you feel the positions and wonders of the one hundred and eight points."

Zhou Jie was a bit bewildered by these words.

Now she was increasingly uncertain whether Su Fan was teaching her the Acupuncture Technique or intending to do something else.

However, in front of Su Fan, she didn't seem to need to be so shy, considering Su Fan had engaged with her before, and quite a few times at that.

Thinking of this, Zhou Jie immediately stopped being bashful.

The snow-white lab coat on her was taken off and placed neatly.

Before long, she was left with only her underwear and a pair of flesh-colored pantyhose.

After retrieving his silver needles, Su Fan said to Zhou Jie, "Sister-in-law, like this won't work; take everything off."

Although he had high medical skills, he couldn't insert the needles through pantyhose.

Hearing this, Zhou Jie could only comply.

Then, Su Fan placed his silver needles one by one on Zhou Jie's various closely related points.

As he applied the needles, he explained to Zhou Jie.

At this moment, the room temperature wasn't particularly high, and Su Fan hadn't turned on the air conditioning.

Logically, Zhou Jie should have been shivering from the cold, but the result was just as Su Fan described.

Because Su Fan had stimulated the potential of her related points, her body felt as warm as a small furnace.

She had long heard that Su Fan's Acupuncture Technique was exceptionally powerful; today she experienced it firsthand.
