

Chapter 19

The meal took a long time.

After Lin Shanchu walked out of the restaurant, she looked at the time. It was already some time past one o'clock in the afternoon.

She decided to head straight to the Lu Corporation.

The livestream was scheduled for three o'clock, but she still had some things to deal with.

When she got into the car, she thought of Huo Xunzhou's offer to introduce her to a psychiatrist. She felt angry and amused at the same time.

However, judging from Huo Xunzhou's reaction, he must not have awakened.

Then why didn't he follow the plot?

Could a so-called highlight character change the plot?

Lin Shanchu could not understand.

She might as well not think about it.

After all, she and Huo Xunzhou weren't supposed to interact with each other.

...

Lin Shanchu stood at the entrance of the Lu Corporation and looked up.

The last time she came to the Lu Corporation was when she was very young.

When she walked in, she was stopped by a haughty receptionist.

"May I know who you are looking for?"

Lin Shanchu turned to look at her.

The receptionist looked very young.

She should be a fresh graduate.

However, the watch she was wearing was not cheap. It was worth about six figures.

The receptionist's eyes were filled with surprise and curiosity. She had obviously recognized her.

"I'm Lin Shanchu."

Lin Shanchu's expression and tone were very normal but there was an inexplicable feeling of arrogance.

The receptionist was stunned for a moment. "Ms. Lin, may I know who you're looking for? Do you have an appointment?"

Lin Shanchu just looked at her.

It was very interesting.

The fiancée of the Lu corporation's CEO was given a lot of trouble by a small receptionist at the company.

The treatment of the female lead of a sadistic novel was worse than that of a dog.

The receptionist was a little stunned by Lin Shanchu's stare and started to panic.

At this moment, she heard Lin Shanchu ask her, "What's your name?"

"I... I'm Wei Ni." She felt an inexplicable sense of oppression when Lin Shanchu looked at her like that. She could not help but obediently say her name.

"Wei Ni, you don't have to come to work tomorrow."

Lin Shanchu left after saying this.

Diabetes Is Not From Sweets! Meet The Main Enemy Of Diabetes

INSULUX

She left Wei Ni in a daze.

...

Before Lin Shanchu even reached the Human Resources Department, the news of her wanting to fire Wei Ni had already spread in the company.

She had stabbed Lu Shiyuan last night, so the latter was still recuperating in the hospital.

His private assistant, Zhou Yan, was still in the company.

Zhou Yan was waiting at the entrance of the Human Resources Department. When he saw Lin Shanchu, he came over to greet her.

"Ms. Lin, I didn't know that you would be here. Please excuse me for not coming out to welcome you."

"It's working hours right now, but why aren't you working in your own office? What are you doing here at the Human Resources Department?"

Zhou Yan's expression froze for a moment. "Present Lu found out that you came to the company. He asked me to receive you properly."

He deliberately emphasized the words 'President Lu'.

Clearly, he was using Lu Shiyuan to threaten her.

"As a shareholder, I'm here to inspect the company's production. How are you going to receive me as a mere assistant?"

It was thanks to her parents' efforts that the Lu Corporation had gained its current success.

Lu Shiyuan's father was an upright person. After the company was reorganized, he gave Lin Shanchu 15% of the shares.

This matter was not announced to the public.

Only the people in the company knew.

In the original novel, after Lin Shanchu found out that she had a terminal illness, she still transferred all her shares to Lu Shiyuan despite his bad attitude toward her.

She was truly a hopeless romantic.

As Lu Shiyuan's private assistant, Zhou Yan was often fawned upon by others. When had he ever met someone like Lin Shanchu who humiliated him in public?

His face immediately darkened..

"Ms. Lin, let's wait for President Lu to return first."

Lin Shanchu smiled, but there was no warmth in her smile.

"Private Assistant Zhou, the name of this company may be Lu, but it doesn't belong to Lu Shiyuan alone. You're Lu Shiyuan's private assistant, so it's understandable for you to take his money to help him, but what right do you have to control me?"

"You're so caring that you even care about the boss' fiancée."

Zhou Yan's expression changed. "Ms. Lin, that's not what I meant."

"If that's not what you meant, then just go back to where you came from." Lin Shanchu did not even spare him a glance as she entered the office.

The employees who had been eavesdropping on their conversation behind the door all swarmed back to their desks.

Lin Shanchu attracted attention no matter where she went.

"Fire the receptionist called Wei Ni," Lin Shanchu said in a straightforward manner.

Even someone like Zhou Yan was unable to fend off Lin Shanchu, so the head of the Human Resources Department naturally did not dare to say anything.

"Don't worry, Ms. Lin. I'll definitely get this matter done."

Next, Lin Shanchu went to the finance department.

"Transfer all the company's dividends to my account in the future."

Her dividends from before had all gone to Lu Shiyuan the scumbag. He ended up using them for investment purposes.

The female lead of the sadist novel, who regarded money as dirt, naturally couldn't ask Lu Shiyuan for money.

Ads by Pubfuture

That was why she was so poor.

From now on, no one could touch her money.

It was almost three o' clock when she was done with these matters.

Lin Shanchu went to the president's office after that.

She took out a foldable tripod from her bag and started the livestream.

The netizens who liked to watch the drama quickly joined the livestream.

[Pretty sister, are you still going to host a lucky draw today?]

[Wow, where is this place? It's so luxurious! ]

Lin Shanchu sat on Lu Shiyuan's chair and gently turned it with the tips of her toes. At the same time, she answered their questions seriously.

"I can do that, but I haven't thought of what the prize should be."

"This is the president's office of the Lu Corporation."

After Lin Shanchu showed the office to the netizens, they began to spam comments. [I want to see Fu Jue!]

"The artists' working area is located on the 15th floor. I'm taking the elevator now."

She walked out of the office and met Zhou Yan in the corridor.

After Zhou Yan saw her enter the elevator, he gave Lu Shiyuan a call.

"President Lu, Ms. Lin has just taken the elevator to the 15th floor."

"Don't let her cause any trouble," Lu Shiyuan instructed. "I'm coming to the company now."

When they reached the 15th floor, Lin Shanchu saw Fu Jue's manager as soon as she walked out.

"I heard that everyone wanted to see Ah Jue. He did come here today, but he left just now. He has an activity tonight."

When the netizens heard the manager's words, they flooded the screen with comments.

[What a pity.]

[It's okay. We can always meet other celebrities.]

Lin Shanchu walked in. A big screen was broadcasting Fu Jue's interview.

"There's your Fu Jue." She turned the camera to face the big screen.

"Fu Jue, what do you think about dating?" the reporter asked, clearly trying to stir up trouble.

Fu Jue answered, "I don't have any thoughts about dating now. I just want to focus on my career. I don't want to let down my fans."

The fans in the live broadcast room were very touched.

[He can see all of our efforts!]

[I'll support him even more now!]

[Fu Jue is worth everything!]

[Although I've watched this interview before, I still feel touched when I watch it again!]

[Big brother, you're the best! Let's do our best together!]

"You're all Fu Jue's fans." Lin Shanchu was slightly envious.

The envy that was about to overflow the screen made the netizens flood the screen with laughter.

Lin Shanchu walked around the floor. “There aren’t many people on this floor. Let’s go to the 14th floor to take a look. The 14th floor also has a working area for artists.”