

Thank you 1811

Chapter 1811 - 1811: He's still alive (3)

Just as she was thinking, su Xiu's desolation disappeared. After wiping her tears with her apron, she said mysteriously, "Shuheng, aunt su fried a banana for you to eat, it's very delicious. And I heard that they're nourishing whatever they eat!"

What did this have to do with su Cheng? besides, su Cheng was still in prison. If he made up for it, where was he supposed to put his energy?

she raised her hand and said, "no, thank you, aunt su. it's getting late. i'll leave first.

Aunt su had already put on a banana and was holding it in her hand. it's very delicious.

"Aunt su, eat it yourself!" "you'll need it," KIME coughed.

su xiu watched him leave and shook her head. "i don't like to eat this yingluo. do you still need it? "

He repeated it again, and the more he heard, the more he felt that something was wrong. Then, he shouted, "this little b * tch!!!

Kime had already walked out and was feeling more relaxed.

When he got downstairs, he opened the door and got into the car. Just as he was about to start the car, he was stunned.

because in the driver's seat was a man who was both familiar and unfamiliar!

The man was dressed in black, with a black shirt and black pants. The hood of his hoodie covered his face, leaving only the side of his face visible.

Was it President Qin?

that side profile was still as perfect as before.

President Qin!

qin anlan looked at him. he did not take off his hat in the dark car. he only lit a cigarette and slowly said, "I need a million dollars. Do you have it now?"

his voice was extremely hoarse, and it was obvious that his vocal cords had been injured before. it was a little uncomfortable to hear.

kie was a high-ranking official, and transferring one million was a small amount. he only wanted this amount so that cool autumn would not be alerted.

kie looked at him and nodded after a while. "president qin, aunt su, and liangqiu are all upstairs. " qin anlan held the cigarette between his fingers and smiled faintly. "i know. " kie wanted to ask more, but qin anlan took off his hat. at the same time, a light flashed in the car. it was the high beam of the car in front. this allowed kie to see the other side of qin anlan's face.

He took a deep breath, his fingers trembling.

“Half of his body and his neck are all like this.” Qin Anlan’s tone was very calm, like a pool of still water without any waves.

Kim was still in shock and did not speak.

“yes or no?” qin anlan seemed to be a little impatient. he put on his hat again and asked lightly.

Kim finally came back to his senses and said with difficulty, ” “She won’t care,” “yes, she doesn’t care, but i do.” qin anlan’s voice was very calm. there was no trace of human life in it, but there was a hint of shrieking. ” she doesn’t care, but she will be afraid. ‘

He laughed coldly, looking a little eerie and scary because of the darkness. have you ever thought that when she sleeps with me, she would not dare to turn on the light? because if she turned on the light and looked at these scars, she would probably not be interested.

she won’t. ” kim’s voice trembled.

“she will!” qin anlan’s voice was firm. ” please. do you dare to look at my injuries? ” if you can continue watching, then she won’t be afraid, nor will she be disgusted.” as he said that, he ripped off his clothes and stuttered,

Inside, it was filled with injuries. Those injuries were something that Kim did not dare to look at. If he did, his hands and feet would turn cold, and he would tremble uncontrollably.

“You’re afraid too, right?” Qin Anlan’s voice was low and hoarse. don’t say it. She won’t be afraid of ran ran. Any woman who sees her will hate her, let alone doing the most intimate thing, ran ran.

there was no place to even plant the skin!

this injury was destined to follow him for a lifetime!

Chapter 1812 - 1812: an Ian, i know it’s you (1)

when qin anlan removed his shirt, KIME was stunned.

he had never seen her before, and qin anlan had never let him see ran ran either.

In the dark space, Qin an’s raspy voice rang out. now, can you still say that she’s not afraid? that she won’t be disgusted? ” i can plant my skin, ” kim said with difficulty after a long time.

especially on his face.

The corners of Qin Anlan’s lips curled up slightly. From the intact side, he looked the same as before.

“Do you see the skin on it? you can fix your face, but you can’t fix your body.”

could it be that in the future, when he made love with her, he would always have the light on and his clothes on?

he would not have any fantasies. between husband and wife, sometimes they were just separated by a piece of paper, fragile and pale.

KIME watched as qin anlan buttoned his shirt. after a while, qin anlan pinched a cigarette between his fingers and took a puff before he said faintly, ” “Do you have a million?” yes. Kim’s gaze was straight and his voice was helpless.

this was an easy task for him, and he could do it without revealing his true strength.

qin anlan patted his shoulder and took another puff of his cigarette. he stubbed it out. ” i’ll be waiting for you here tomorrow at the same time. ”

” what’s wrong? ” KIME watched him get out of the car and disappear into the night.

He looked at the extra pack of cigarettes on the control panel and took it over. It was a pack of ordinary cigarettes, about one dollar.

it’s very cheap. if it was in the past, president qin would never smoke such a cigarette, but ran ran, KIME closed his eyes, feeling conflicted.

After a long time, he forced a smile and lit up a cigarette. Then, he took a deep puff.

She leaned against the seat, looked at the moon in the sky, and started the car with one hand.

The next night, he drove over at the same time.

the car stopped, and he sat down to smoke a cigarette.

The night sky was like a curtain, and a few stars were embedded in the night sky, shining brightly.

In the dark, a figure flashed past, quickly opened the door, got in the car, and sat beside him.

Kie turned his head and looked at the person with mixed feelings.

He didn’t think it was a good idea. He felt that it was unfair to President Qin.

It was fine to lose King Entertainment, but was he going to lose his wife and child too?

‘ ceo qin, this is a million yuan! ” kie said in a suppressed voice. Actually, you can try.”

“No, you can’t!” Qin Anlan took the bag from him. It was cash.

She opened it to take a look, then closed it again. Her expression was calm as she said, ” take good care of them for me.

he placed his hand on the car door. just as he was about to open it, KIME’s voice was heard. ” are you really going to push her to someone else?

qin anlan's hand stopped, and his body was tense.

he seemed to hesitate for a moment before he said in a self-deprecating manner, " "what do you think i can give her in my current state?"

"other than not being able to give her a complete married life, can i go out with her like this? i'm going to live like a monster that only appears at night." he paused for a moment and repeated, " yes, like a monster, unable to do anything and only appearing in the dark.

' she won't mind, " said KIME, who was in a terrible mood.

"I said I mind." qin anlan's voice was calm. " since i can't give her anything, i might as well let her go. '

" can you do it? " kim's eyes were a little hot. i don't believe you can do it, yingluo."

Because those who had loved were all selfish, just like him and su Cheng, they could not give up!

Chapter 1813 - 1813: an Ian, i know it's you (2)

qin anlan's voice was full of mockery. " even if you can't do it, you have to be able to kiss me. you and su Cheng are different.

he opened the door and got out of the car.

" f * ck! " KIME cursed in his heart, and he leaned back heavily.

Suddenly, a woman's voice was heard. an LAN.

his voice was hurried and he was panting.

was it cool autumn?

what? " Kie was shocked. He immediately opened the door and got out of the car.

It was indeed cool autumn.

she held her eight-month pregnant belly and stood in the night wind.

in the scorching night, her long hair was blown up, revealing her slightly pale face.

on the other side, qin anlan was standing with his back facing her. he was still wearing a black shirt and a black hat.

"an Ian, is that you?" she held her stomach and slowly walked over.

she didn't dare to walk quickly or loudly, for fear of scaring him away.

qin anlan's body stiffened, and his voice was extremely hoarse. " you've got the wrong person. '

He picked up his bag and walked forward, his footsteps getting faster and faster.

ye liangqiu's voice was heart-wrenching in the dark night."An LAN, I know it's you! Don't you want to look at me?" he didn't stop, and she ran forward with all her might. however, she was eight months pregnant and couldn't run after two steps. there was a violent fetal movement in her stomach.

She let out a hiss and bent over, holding her stomach with a pained expression. "An LAN, my stomach hurts!" She bit her lip, her voice containing her forbearance.

Qin Anlan stopped in his tracks. He slowly turned around in the dark.

she raised her eyes and looked at him.

He was against the light, so she couldn't see his face. She could only see a pair of deep eyes glowing.

she was sure that it was an Ian. it was him.

He was back.

Her expression was filled with anticipation as she held her stomach and walked towards him with difficulty.

every step she took was painful. it was so painful that she almost fainted, but she endured it.

'an Ian, i know you're in more pain than me.' if you're in pain and you're not willing to walk over, i can go over.

You just stand there. This time, it's my turn to walk over.

The night wind blew her long hair and lifted it, revealing her face. He stood there as if his body had been frozen in place, and he looked at her greedily.

It had been too long since he had looked at her like this. She was still the same as before, just that she had lost weight.

Although she was pregnant, her hands and feet were thin.

His eyes were a little hot, a layer of moisture floating in them, and his fingers quietly clenched into fists.

"Don't come over! Madam, I'm afraid I'll scare you." His voice was hoarse and no longer as elegant as before.

however, she still stubbornly walked towards him step by step.

KIME's heart trembled as he felt sad for her.

He looked at her, and saw that there was still a distance of four to five meters between them, but she still wanted to move forward.

Qin Anlan pulled his hat and lowered his voice. you got the wrong person. I have a wife.

With that, he quickly disappeared into the corner.

In fact, she could have stopped him, but she didn't.

She just stood there. The moonlight was like water, and it also reflected the tears on her face.

Kime carefully stepped forward and reached out to support her. He said gently, Chairman ye, do we need to go to the hospital?"

Don't disturb the fetus with this excitement.

ye liangqiu placed most of her body weight on KIME and turned her face to him. " good job, KIME. "

I'm sorry. Kim's heart trembled and he sighed..

Chapter 1814 - 1814: An LAN, I know it's you (3)

I'm sorry. Kim's heart trembled and he sighed.

don't tell me that he's not an LAN. ye liangqiu pushed him away, turned around, and walked back to the apartment. worried, KIME immediately followed him and apologized carefully, " "chairman ye, you have to understand me."

He meowed carefully. Eh, that's strange. Is CEO ye's stomach not hurting anymore?

her swift steps didn't seem like something that only pregnant women would have!

he really wanted to pinch her belly to see if it was real or fake! However, he still didn't have the guts to do so.

"what do you mean?" ye liangqiu looked at him and sneered. " by the way, you must be satisfied with seeing chengcheng once a year. why don't we change it to once every two years? " wouldn't you be able to better understand my feelings this way?" mr. ye, do you have the heart to do that? " kie asked bitterly.

"Tell me his address?" she looked at him.

i really don't know, " kim said with a bitter smile.

"Then once every three years!" she was merciless.

" i'll try my best to find out, " kim said.

As soon as he finished speaking, ye Liangqiu's hand grabbed him tightly, and her voice became pained. take me to the hospital. KIME was terrified.

Wasn't she fine? why did she go to the hospital?

"hurry up, my stomach hurts." ye liangqiu's brows furrowed. she pinched KIME's hand and squeezed it deeply.

Startled, Kime immediately carried her out of the elevator and toward his car.

He walked quickly, but steadily. He carried her carefully, opened the back door, and helped her in. He quickly got into the car, started the engine, and drove to the hospital.

in the darkness, a black figure walked out and looked deeply in the direction the car had gone.

He was still carrying the bag of US dollars, but his hands were clenched.

He was worried, but he was also very upset.

kie had hugged liangqiu.

Kime looked very nervous and hugged her as if he was worried about his wife.

At that moment, he felt a little upset, but he was more worried.

After watching for a moment, his body quickly disappeared into the night. He hailed a taxi and followed the car in front.

late at night, in a private hospital in new York.

After the examination, ye Liangqiu's fetus had been affected a little, but there was probably no problem. She just needed to be hospitalized for two days for observation.

kie was so busy that he was sweating. after he settled down, he called su xiu and linda to explain the situation.

it was always inconvenient for him to take care of women. in the end, he decided to go back and bring aunt su over, and he and linda would take care of the children together.

su xiu was frightened and kept asking why this had happened.

'I can't explain it to you, so I'll explain it when I get back.'

I'm fine. You can go back now. Remember what you need to bring. ye liangqiu calmed down. it was good enough that KIME agreed to her request.

she also believed that the reason he agreed was not for him and su Cheng. in fact, he knew very well that she would not do that.

After making some more arrangements, he drove back to pick up su Xiu.

it was almost 11 0 'clock after a night of fooling around. although she had a stomachache, she was a little tired from lying down.

she closed her eyes, and her sleep was a little groggy, but it was always not clear. this was because when she closed her eyes, those eyes would appear in her mind. she believed that those eyes were an Ian's.

There was pain and desire in her eyes.. Who else could it be other than him?

There was pain and desire in her eyes.. Who else could it be other than him?

Chapter 1816 - 1816: an Ian, i know it’s you (5)

It must be him. He must be outside.

He said it heartlessly, but he couldn’t let her go.

Her heart ached for him.

She had long guessed that he was injured and that his appearance had changed, but she had not expected it to be so serious.

Then it was understandable that he avoided her, avoided her, and didn’t want her.

‘Qin Anlan, you fool!’ just because of this, you don’t want me and the child?

She pursed her lips tightly and cried as she lay down.

She was not a fragile person. Knowing that he was alive and seeing him alive, she shed more tears than when she thought he was dead.

there was a kind of tear called tears of joy.

She knew that he was in pain and that he felt inferior, but she was selfish. No matter how much pain he was in, she still hoped that he would live.

she wanted to soothe his pain.

She wanted to smooth out the wounds on his body inch by inch and comfort him with all her heart and soul.

She told him that it was not ugly and that she was not afraid at all.

But she did not dare to alarm him.

She was afraid, afraid that he would leave, afraid that he would never appear again.

she even felt a little regretful. she should not have given him the chance to give him the money, but she was also afraid that he would have a hard time outside without money.

She was conflicted and tired, so she fell asleep.

When aunt su rushed over, it was almost 12 o'clock.

the old lady's health was not very good, so KIME felt a little guilty. however, neither he nor linda were suitable for taking care of pregnant women. after apologizing, su xiu was anxious. "i'm still healthy. "

When he got out of the car, he was in a hurry and Kime quickly supported him.

Su Xiu suddenly thought of something and turned her face to the side. With a serious expression, she said to Kime, "shuheng, I'm telling you, although I like you very much, young master is not here now. You can't take advantage of me and have any ideas about Liangqiu.

She snorted. if you dare to do anything to me, I'll tell your su Cheng right away and ask her to punish you. That girl is crazy. She's done a lot of things like murder and arson.

KIME didn't know whether to laugh or cry. "aunt su, how would i dare to have such thoughts? didn't you already say that Cheng Cheng dared to commit murder and arson?" besides, it would only take a few minutes to cripple him.

Aunt su was an old lady. She was very straightforward. I saw you and young Madam downstairs for two nights.

KIME sighed. "i can guarantee that there's no such thing. aunt su, don't worry.

only then did su xiu stop thinking about it. it was enough to have his guarantee. otherwise, even if su Cheng didn't deal with him, she would deal with this kid.

Kie walked ye Liangqiu to the door of the ward. He saw ye Liangqiu fall asleep through the crack of the door and said bitterly, "ceo ye is asleep. it's not convenient for me to go in, so i'll go first! The doctor said that it's nothing serious. Aunt su, you should sleep tonight, don't be too tired, and call the nurse if you need anything."

Su Xiu nodded. it's good to call him Chairman ye. In the future, you can call him that. It's too intimate.

aunt su, you should keep an eye on du yuesheng. he has liked president ye for a long time. moreover, he was entrusted by president qin. of course, he's different. "

su xiu snorted. "that mr. du is a good man, but he's already in his forties. it's impossible for him to be ten years older than liangqiu.

he was really optimistic!

Kie smiled and left without saying anything.

su xiu pushed the door open and went in. when she saw ye liangqiu sleeping, her heart ached..

Chapter 1817 - 1817: An LAN, I know it's you (6)

Su Xiu pushed the door open and went in. When she saw ye Liangqiu sleeping, her heart ached.

This child had cried again. She had been crying secretly these days. She was pregnant, so she shouldn't cry like this. Her eyes would be hurt from crying. He had to tell her off tomorrow.

su xiu was old and very sleepy at this time, but she was worried, so how could she sleep?

She tossed and turned on the small bed for a while, then got up and wanted to walk in the corridor. he put on his clothes, opened the door, and walked two rounds. he muttered, ‘ “i'm old and useless.”

If the young master was around, when he came back and the child was four or five years old, she might as well go to the countryside and buy a house. She would just visit occasionally.

she knew very well that liang qiu would take her with her wherever she went. it was not that she had to take care of her. in fact, liang qiu was the one taking care of her.

this child was really kind. she didn't know how she had been so blind in the past to not believe her.

fortunately, the young master had always believed in him.

fortunately, the young master was still alive.

it's really good!

Su Xiu's sleeves circled outside. The night was cold, and her old bones couldn't stand it, so she came back.

She gathered her coat and walked to the elevator. Then, she saw a black figure standing at the door of cool autumn's ward.

that figure looked like an Ian!

Su Xiu didn't dare to speak loudly and walked over lightly.

Her small steps probably alerted the person, who slowly turned around.

Under the light, she could see everything on his face clearly.

Half of it was fine, while the other half was ruined.

At that moment, su Xiu's voice became hoarse.

Her body was like a wooden stake that was firmly nailed there. Her face was pale, and the corners of her mouth were trembling. She could not say a word for a long time.

their eyes met. she was shocked, while there was pain and hurt in his eyes.

There was no way to avoid it, and there was no need to avoid it.

Qin Anlan said, "aunt su.

aunt su's tears flowed down as she cried hoarsely. then, she covered her eyes with her thin fingers.

he cried in a depressed and tragic manner.

"you bad child! Do you know how much tears aunt su shed when you left? she cried so much that her eyes were almost blinded. At that time, I thought, how could I face the old lady? you are the old lady's only Miaomiao, but I also know that if I stopped you and didn't let you go, you would not be happy in this life." su xiu had been suppressing her emotions for too long. when qin anlan came over to hug her, she pounded his shoulders with all her might."bad child, bad child. you scared aunt su to death." she hit him until he was in pain, because the injuries on his body had not fully recovered.

But he endured it because he knew that she was afraid.

it was as if she had been on a tight string and suddenly relaxed. she needed to vent.

He endured it, feeling as bad as she was.

After su Xiu cried for a while, she held his face and said with heartache,"why don't you go home? liangqiu and the children are waiting for you. she already knows that you're alive. i heard her secretly tell muyun."

"Aunt su, look at me now. Can I still go back?" Qin Anlan laughed bitterly. also, Liangqiu said that on purpose for you to hear. She wants you to live well. Don't be too sad.

"I'm not sad now?" su xiu's heart ached. she wanted to say that she wanted to go home, but when she saw his face and the wound on his neck, she hesitated.

Chapter 1818 - 1818: the child was born early (1)

qin anlan looked at su xiu with a slightly bitter gaze.

He put his hands in his pockets and looked at the night sky outside the window. aunt su, rest early! I'm fine outside."

as she said this, she gently placed her palm on su xiu's shoulder and smiled bitterly. " don't worry. ' su xiu's tears were flying. " how can i be at ease? how can you be alone now? "

Her heart ached. She wanted to take a good look at his injury, but she was afraid that he would take it to heart.

He was really anxious and didn't know what to do. His heart ached.

"Aunt su, I'm leaving." Qin Anlan smiled faintly. Su Xiu looked at his side profile. He was so perfect. She was extremely sad. Her little young master used to be so perfect.

She touched his handsome face with her fingers and said with a trembling voice, "an LAN, don't you want Liangqiu anymore?" her fingers were warm as she placed them on his face.

It had been so many days, and he had told himself that he had to live on. He had told himself that cool autumn was waiting for him.

he had always persevered, but there were also times when he was weak. When he got out of bed with his weak body, he walked to the mirror and gently removed the gauze.

That devilish face still shocked him.

this face, even he himself was afraid of it, let alone others.

His body was also badly damaged.

he was like a half-monster as he stared at the scene that day. he put his hands in front of the sink and laughed strangely and miserably.

He was crying like a child.

He had forced himself to give up on cool autumn. That kind of pain was even more painful than the physical pain.

And now, this pain was gently soothed by the sleeve.

At this moment, he was like a child, unwilling to leave and unwilling to give up.

"An LAN, how could I bear to leave you alone?" Su Xiu put her face on his shoulder and cried sadly.

She was sad, but Qin Anlan was even sadder. The clothes on his shoulders were wet and hot, and it tickled his wound.

He let her cry for a while, then patted her back and said in a hoarse voice, "Aunt su, I'll be leaving first." su xiu hugged him tightly and did not let go. his voice was gentle, as if he was coaxing a little girl. "aunt su, i'm really leaving. i'll come to see you when i'm free."

after saying that, his fingers gently pulled su xiu's hand away. he smiled slightly and finally left.

Su Xiu stood there in a daze for a long time.

She cried until her tears were dry, but she couldn't make him stay.

His injury had actually hurt his heart.

Su Xiu pushed the door open and was surprised to see that the light was on. Ye Liangqiu was leaning against the bed, her expression somewhat dazed.

After a moment of silence, su Xiu walked over and comforted her, "Why aren't you sleeping? how's the child? is he still making a fuss?"

Ye Liangqiu raised her eyes and looked straight at her. In a soft voice, she said, 'aunt su, you saw him, right?'

su xiu didn't want to say it at first, but when she saw the tears at the corner of her eyes, she couldn't bring herself to say it. she nodded and said, " yes, i saw it.

young master is very good. "

"He's fine. Why didn't he come back?" ye liangqiu continued to stare at su xiu.

Su Xiu sighed and went over to sit beside her. His thin fingers gently stroked her long hair. young master hasn't figured it out yet. He will come back. You have to believe in aunt su. He just needs time.

Ye Liangqiu pressed her face against su Xiu's shoulder, tears rolling down from the corners of her eyes. aunt su, I can give him time. Really, I can..

Chapter 1819 - 1819: The child was born early (2)

However, she was also a woman, and she would need him.

she was pregnant, and when she vomited, she missed the baby very much when he kicked her.

su xiu's heart ached, and she kept coaxing her. " liangqiu is very obedient. if an Ian doesn't come back, i'll beat him for you. "

she turned her face to the side and smiled with tears in her eyes.

"Is he good?" In the dead of the night, she asked su Xiu in a low voice.

Su Xiu paused for a moment and forced a smile,"it's just a little ugly, but everything else is good!" she's in good shape and jumping around." Ye Liangqiu rubbed her face against his and muttered, " good. As long as he was alive, she believed that he would come back one day.

she stayed in the hospital in peace and waited for her delivery.

he did not appear again.

one day, two days, one week ... in two weeks, she went from calm to no longer calm.

she often looked for KIME, but no matter how much she threatened or bribed him, he would not know where she was.

Ye Liangqiu couldn't sleep the entire night because she was worried that he would be tired.

"Don't worry, boss ye. Last time, boss Qin took a million dollars. I think he went to invest." Kie wasn't too worried because CEO Qin was an expert in the stock market when he was studying abroad. If he was given a million Yuan, he could earn ten times that amount in a year.

Ye Liangqiu's stomach was so big that it was difficult for her to get up.

He forced a smile. I hope so.

however, she recalled that night when an Ian was wearing a hat.

Did he really mind his appearance?

she didn't care if he came back to see her every day. what she cared about was whether he was in pain.

Ping An could no longer satisfy her.

She was afraid that he would suffer. She wanted to talk it out, but she was afraid that it would hurt him.

however, she only had one chance to get so close to him. she let it go, and now she would never get another chance.

anxiety, coupled with the twins, caused the child to be born early when she was nine months old.

KIME carried her to the car and went to the hospital. su xiu followed, and linda took care of the children.

the accompanying things had been prepared long ago, so there wasn't too much chaos, but it was very painful.

the heart-wrenching pain and the incandescent lamp above the delivery room made her sweat profusely ...

the intense pain, the blurry sound of the doctor cheering her on, and the faint sound outside, she bit her lip and endured the pain.

It was as if time had returned to that day, when she clearly heard him say, " live well.

He said that she was his wife and he couldn't ignore her.

an Ian, can you hear me calling you?

Do you feel my pain?

Do you feel that our child is coming again?

in the heart-wrenching pain, her forehead was covered with sweat.

The baby couldn't come out. After giving birth for a long time, her lips were very dry, and her body was completely open.

she couldn't take it anymore because of the pain and because she couldn't see him.

gong jie, who was on the verge of fainting and was unconscious, could vaguely hear a roar coming from outside. the voice was familiar yet strange.

was it an Ian?

He's here?

She seemed to be suddenly motivated again. She just wanted to give birth to the child to see him and tell him that she had given birth to two more children for him.

An LAN would definitely laugh at him for being a pig!

An illusory smile appeared at the corner of her mouth, followed by a burst of tearing pain.

she suddenly felt herself screaming his name.

An LAN

A loud cry was heard ...

this world welcomed a new life.

Not long after, there was another cry.

That voice lit up her life.

Finally, she lost all her strength and fell into a deep sleep..

Chapter 1820 - 1820: The child was born early (3)

Ye Liangqiu was so tired that she fell asleep.

She was too tired. Giving birth to these two children seemed to have taken her entire life's effort.

she fell into a deep sleep. she felt as if she was floating on a warm water surface, surrounded by warm light, and a pair of big palms patting her from time to time, making her feel cold.

the dream was beautiful, so beautiful that she didn't want to wake up.

She slept for a long time, and from time to time, some noise would come to her ears. It was very noisy.

She could also feel that her body was strange, as if some little monster was kissing her and trying to pull something out.

It was comfortable and warm. Everything was warm.

She didn't want to wake up, but the little monster on her body didn't want to, and it kept pulling her.

She was in pain.

She finally woke up unwillingly .

When he opened his eyes, his surroundings were bright and misty.

And on his left and right, two fat little guys were lying on the ground, trying their best to eat.

her gaze immediately became gentle, and her fingers moved gently as she reached out to touch the two little ones.

they were chubby, just like two little pigs. they had been raised well.

Su Xiu's voice rang out from the side. it's been three days since she was born. As her mother, you only woke up now. You really scared us.

Ye Liangqiu looked up at su Xiu and smiled weakly. aunt su, I've made you worry.

su xiu smiled gently. " this child has been urging me to wake you up every day.

the doctor said that you were just tired and wanted to sleep for a while. who knew that you would sleep for three days? ‘ linda was also lying on the side, watching the baby eat. she looked up, "aunt su is always wiping her tears."

hearing this, su xiu's old face turned red. "Linda, don't tell me you're not crying. Don't bully an old man like me who doesn't know how to take pictures, or you'll be embarrassed to death." linda begged for mercy with a smile, which made the atmosphere quite cheerful.

Ye Liangqiu looked at them, then at the two babies in her arms.

It hurt again, but this kind of pain was also happy.

However, an LAN was not there.

she thought of the pain when she gave birth and the voice she heard. she looked at su xiu and hesitantly asked, "he, did he come here?"

su xiu's expression was a little strange. after a long while, she sighed softly. "i came, but i left again."

"Why didn't you keep him?" ye liangqiu sat up. her body was really weak, and she needed linda's help.

su xiu sighed again. "how can we keep him?"

Moreover, an LAN was afraid that her face would scare the child, so she only dared to take a glance before leaving.

You can't stop him, Yingluo.

She didn't tell Liang Qiu about this because she was afraid that she would cry. She couldn't be sad during the confinement period, and it would be bad if she cried and hurt her body.

Ye Liangqiu didn't ask any more questions.

if he didn't appear, she couldn't tie him up. if she forced him, it would only make him hide even more.

"have you thought of the child's name?" linda asked softly.

Ye Liangqiu looked at ah da and ah er, pursed her lips, and said, "one will be called an an, and the other Ian Ian!

Su Xiu and Linda were both stunned. What kind of name is this!

however, ye liangqiu always had her own plans in her heart, so they didn't say anything. so be it if they wanted to keep lanlan safe! It's fine as long as she's happy, Yingluo.

ye liangqiu stayed in the hospital for two more days before returning to her apartment.

she was still thinking about him, but with the addition of two children, it was indeed a tiring thing to have five children in total. with KING entertainment, she didn't have time to think about him during the day. only at night when it was quiet would she miss him.

no matter how much she missed him, he was so heartless that he didn't appear for one or two months..
