

Thank you 4781

Chapter 4781: president qin, are you satisfied now? 6

he went to the study room and gently closed the door. he sat behind the desk and lit a cigarette. he was a little satisfied, but also a little upset. actually, it was not necessary to have a child. he wanted he huan to get pregnant more to prove himself.

President Qin rarely felt defeated.

this was the moment.

it had been a year, but he couldn't get his wife pregnant. although qin chen said that it would depend on he huan's luck if she could get pregnant, qin mo thought that 365 days a year was a little too long.

Was there something wrong with him? he was in a state of self-doubt.

he slowly smoked his cigarette while thinking. he stayed in the study room alone for about two hours before returning to his bedroom.

He Huan knew nothing.

At the door, he Huan woke up and Qin mo was still there.

However, she caught a whiff of the faint smell of tobacco. He Huan's fingers gently touched the pillow before she slowly climbed onto Qin Mo's shoulder. did you smoke? " qin mo smiled and pulled her over to kiss her. " "I couldn't sleep at night, so I smoked a few."

He Huan sniffed it and raised her head."this doesn't look like a few!"

Qin Mo's smile deepened, you've learned a lot!

He Huan chuckled and didn't say anything. She placed her small hand on his shoulder and asked after a while, "Are you busy today?"

I'm alright. I can get off work on time. Why? is there anything special today? "or is there a surprise for me?" he pinched her little face.

"i'm not surprised or happy." "does your birthday count?" he huan asked after some thought.

Qin mo was rather surprised.

another year had passed.

"i'll bake a cake and pick up the child. get off work early." He Huan's fingers tugged at his collar, looking rather charming.

Qin Mo closed his eyes and then opened them a little to look at her. 'The cake you made, hehe'

He Huan snorted coldly, "are you looking down on me? Other than being a little ugly, which part of it is inedible?"

"it can be eaten!" He smiled and gave up on the idea of doing it himself.

in the end, he would still need to do it again, and he huan would ask for it herself.

Now that their lives had returned to peace, other than joking about going to work, he Huan was actually very at ease at home. She was more worried about the three children, and Qin mo didn't stop her. He Huan always had things to do at home alone, but she only worried about the things that she needed to worry about. She cared about the children's daily lives. As for their school work or other matters related to Shen ting, he Huan didn't care. Their marriage and life had reached a perfect balance.

although it was his birthday, he promised her that he would go back early, so he still asked qin chen out for a checkup that afternoon.

after checking, qin mo was naturally normal.

qin chen patted his brother's shoulder. " don't worry now! " qin mo took the report and read it over and over again before coughing. " "Then why didn't Yueyue and I have any children?"

Qin Chen couldn't take it anymore and rolled his eyes, then looked at his second brother as if he was an idiot. " qin mo, i've said it 800 times. you have to control yourself. you have to control yourself when you have children. you're not a rash person. zhenzhen, you won't be able to give birth to children like this. "

"second sister-in-law will be very happy," she added.

Chapter 4782: President Qin, are you satisfied now?

Qin mo glared at her. today is my birthday.

"this report is the best gift i can give you!" qin chen smiled.

qin mo:

however, he still drove back with the report. when he got in the car, he raised his hand to look at his watch. it was already half past six, long past the time. he said that he would be home at half past five.

He had five missed calls from he Huan.

Of course, he Huan also called Secretary he, but Secretary he said that boss Qin had left a long time ago.

Qin mo called back, and he Huan picked up. Qin mo is angry.

“I’ll be back in a while.” “I was held up by something,” he explained.

“Did you go to the hospital?” he Huan asked.

Qin Mo’s tongue twitched.

“Did Qin Chen tell you?” he asked after a while.

“No, I just guessed.” “I thought you couldn’t sleep last night? I guess you must have been up to something.” He Huan smiled.

Qin mo held the phone and didn’t know what to say. His voice was hoarse and gentle. “we’ll talk when we get back.”

of course, the couple couldn’t immediately discuss this issue when they got home. they would more or less celebrate their birthdays first. the children had prepared gifts. of course, shen ting spent the most money. he bought a seaside villa for qin mo in a nearby city. of course, qin mo was very satisfied. the gifts that qin xuan and yi huan gave him were all handmade.

there was also a huge difference in handiwork.

When Qin mo saw Qin Xuan’s handiwork, he was also surprised. It was a model plane that was completely handmade. It was about two meters long, and its style and functions were very realistic. Furthermore, it was not something that could be found on the market.

qin mo was surprised, while he huan looked at him with a little pride.

Suddenly, Qin mo was quite touched. He Huan had really taken care of Qin Xuan well. She wouldn't teach Qin Xuan, but she would play with him. She had always supported Qin Xuan's hobbies. There was even a room in the house that was dedicated to Qin Xuan's gaming room. It was filled with wood, steel, and all kinds of tools.

Perhaps Qin Xuan was a little genius. It was really surprising that he could create something like this at the age of ten.

after the celebration, shen ting brought yi huan to do her homework. qin xuan went into his tool room. qin mo accompanied him for a while, feeling both surprised and proud.

Back in the bedroom, he Huan sat on the sofa and looked at the plane. "qin xuan said this is for night flyer, do you want to try?"

Qin mo held his forehead. Although he was a little childish, he really wanted to know how good this plane was.

they were almost carried to the balcony together. qin mo looked at the manual again, and the more he read, the more surprised he was.

Even the muscles on his face were trembling. He looked up at he Huan and said in a low voice, "this little guy is really a genius.

The two-meter plane with the number '5' written on it glided across the night sky. Its body lit up and it flew steadily.

the most amazing thing was that after the start button was pressed, there was almost no need to control the plane. the internal system could distinguish everything.

qin mo had only been testing the waters for half an hour before he was summoned back. his expression was a little solemn, and one could not tell his emotions.

A week later, Qin Xuan was sent to a University to study in the aviation Department. Two months later, he was sent to a Research Institute. In the next half a year, Qin Xuan was very busy. He traveled around the country again and again, and when he was 20 years old, he was sent to the United States, where AI Jia was.

At this time, Qin Xuan had already become the founder of an airline company. He received orders from all over the world, but the most classic model was still the No. 5 model. That was his home, and there were five people.

It was just that he had never said it, and no one had asked, but everyone knew.

another eight years passed.

that year, shen ting was 31 years old. he was the vice president of the qin family's KING group. qin yihuan was 25 years old and was in charge of KING entertainment. ye xiangnan was 31 years old and was also the president of starlight.

originally, qin xuan had founded american airlines, but after a second round of financing, it was incorporated into the KING group. however, american airlines was almost still under qin xuan's control. on one hand, shen ting couldn't split himself into two, and on the other hand, he needed qin xuan to share the burden. although qin xuan didn't really like management, he only liked to research new things.

so many years had passed, and many things had happened. the three children of the qin family did not live together. it was rare for them to go back to their parents' house on weekends for a gathering. of course, shen ting still lived in the villa with qin mo and he huan. this was very surprising because in terms of love, qin yihuan should be the one living with the qin family. however, shen ting did not move out, so it was not good for qin yihuan to live here.

it was another weekend. in KING corporation's vice president's office, secretary wang knocked on the door politely."president shen, mr. qin just called. he said that president qin jr. came back from overseas today. he asked if you would like to get off work earlier and have dinner together."

Shen ting was usually a little busy, and the number of times he could come home for dinner in a week could be counted with one's fingers. It would not exceed one or two times in total, so if there were any special matters, Qin mo would always call to ask.

qin mo had already stopped asking about things. he was at home, accompanying his wife with peace of mind. they drank tea and went shopping. although he was the ceo, most of the matters were handled by shen ting. this could be considered as fulfilling the promise he had made back then.

Shen ting was going through some documents, but his pen suddenly stopped. "Just say that I might not be able to bring it forward today."

"okay," shen ting said,"i'll give qin xuan a call later."

Secretary Wang was a close confidant, so he called Qin Xuan by his name in front of her. Although Shen ting had grown up, he still loved his younger brother, Qin Xuan, but men wouldn't show it so obviously when they grew up.

secretary wang nodded and wanted to leave, but shen ting stopped her.

"President Shen, is there anything else?" secretary wang smiled.

As a Secretary, the first thing she had to do was not to be annoyed and always smile politely.

Shen ting hesitated for a moment before he softly asked, " "did mr. qin say if ran ran would come back?"

Secretary Wang knew exactly who she was. It could not be anyone else but Qin yihuan.

Hence, Secretary Wang replied very quickly, " " miss qin is already at the qin residence. i heard that she flew back with president qin junior. "

one flight?

The pen in Shen ting's hand paused for a moment before he said in a low voice, "I know, you can leave first."

Secretary Wang was a little hesitant. then should I reply like before? "

"Yes, I told uncle Qin that I had something to deal with." Shen ting's voice was still calm, but Secretary Wang, who was his confidant, could hear the slight difference. If it was only President Qin junior who was back, President Shen might not be free. However, since Qin yihuan had gone back, President Shen would probably say that he was not free even if he was free!

Chapter 4783: Don't mention what happened that night again (1) in fact, after so many years, secretary wang did not know what had happened in the past that had caused the relationship between president shen and yihuan to become so stiff. they were clearly very close at the time, and for a few years, president shen had practically raised yihuan by hand.

How could this intimacy disappear just like that? if girls were to throw tantrums, it was obvious that their boss Shen was not a person who was easily swayed by his emotions.

However, no one could be sure. This was a matter of love. The only thing that could be confirmed was that yihuan and ye xiangnan from the ye family were together. President Shen and Bai Anan from the ye family, ye mu, and Lin family were having an ambiguous relationship. Bai Anan was a lawyer, an amazing lawyer. She was a good match for President Shen's Xuanji.

However, this was unclear. Everyone knew about it, but there was no solid evidence. There was no other way. The younger generation did not admit it, but they also did not deny it based on gossip.

Secretary Wang retracted his thoughts and nodded."Okay, President Shen, I got it."

this time, she really closed the door. shen ting, who was originally buried in work, raised his head.

...

After being slightly distracted for a while, he continued to bury his head in work.

It wasn't until nine o'clock in the evening that he raised his hand to look at the time. He tidied up the documents on the table and got up to go out. He saw Secretary Wang by the door.

"Why aren't you getting off work?" Shen Ting asked.

Secretary Wang couldn't possibly say that he didn't dare to leave work until his boss did. This had happened in the past, or rather, it had been like this for about six or seven years. From then on, President Shen and Yi Huan became estranged. They always avoided working overtime, and they were even unwilling to eat.

Therefore, Secretary Wang waited until now but did not dare to knock on the door.

Shen Ting glanced at her and said in a calm voice as he walked, "You don't have to wait for me in the future."

Secretary Wang held the electric elevator door for him, thought for a moment, and said boldly, "What kind of situation?"

Apart from the few days of the month when President Shen was busy, there were also times when he worked overtime. It was normal for President Shen to be busy and work overtime.

She was simply asking the wrong question, and no one else dared to ask except Secretary Wang.

Shen Ting stood in the elevator and frowned. His voice was slow, "If you still need to ask me such a question, you don't need to be the head secretary anymore."

Secretary Wang coughed and said, "Yes! I won't ask you again, President Shen."

Shen Ting didn't look at her anymore. As soon as the elevator opened, he went out first.

Secretary Wang followed him very attentively and dutifully opened the car door for his boss.

shen ting sat in the car, but he didn't start the car immediately. the window was also lowered.

He gave Secretary Wang a few simple instructions, and Secretary Wang nodded from time to time. Then, he buckled up his seat belt, started the car, and drove away.

about half an hour later, the car drove into the qin family's villa. the lights in the villa lit up as the car drove, making it look like it was daytime. shen ting drove around the villa and finally stopped the car in the parking lot in front of the villa.

He opened the door and got out of the car. The servants at home had already come forward. eldest young master, young miss and little young master have returned.

shen ting's steps stopped. he raised his hand to look at his watch and asked casually, " "they still haven't returned?"

his younger brother and sister did not live here. usually, they would have left by this time. they would have left after dinner at eight o'clock, but it was already past ten o'clock.

Chapter 4784: Don't mention what happened that night again 2 the servant smiled. " it's sir who asked them to stay. he wanted to talk to them for a while. "

shen ting didn't go in immediately. instead, he lit a cigarette and asked, " "Where's the car?"

"The chauffeur went to pick them up. The young master and young miss didn't drive," the servant replied.

shen ting didn't ask any more questions, but he still finished smoking a cigarette outside. then, he flicked the ash off and strode into the villa.

The villa was warm as usual, even though it was late autumn.

under the dim yellow light, qin mo and he huan sat in their usual seats. he huan had a dessert in her hand but she didn't eat much. after all, she was getting older and less passionate about such things. however, he huan still looked young.

qin xuan and yi huan were sitting on the sofa opposite him. they were two to three years apart and were really related by blood, so they looked like real siblings. they had also inherited the good looks of the qin family.

It was extremely exquisite.

Shen ting stopped in his tracks. His gaze fell on Qin Xuan and Qin yihuan's faces for a moment before he looked away as if those few seconds did not exist.

Yi Huan's shoulder-length hair could not be ignored. It was black and straight. She would have looked beautiful if she had kept it long, but it had been six or seven years and she had maintained it.

At important cocktail parties, Qin yihuan would usually comb her hair to the back. She liked white gowns or white suits. How should I put it? it was an upgraded version of Qin Chen No. 2. There were many 18th-tier celebrities in King Entertainment who misunderstood CEO Qin Junior's sexual orientation and knocked on his door in the middle of the night without fear.

Of course, Qin yihuan was the one who kicked them out in the end.

she did not like women.

"Uncle, Auntie." Shen ting smiled and also sat down on the single sofa.

after that, he looked at qin xuan and yi huan.

qin xuan greeted shen ting first. shen ting smiled faintly while yi huan lazily called him 'brother'.

Shen ting's eyes darkened. He only nodded and started talking about business with Qin mo and Qin Xuan.

Even though King Corporation was influential in the entertainment industry, it was only the tip of the iceberg within the corporation. Yi Huan felt her teeth hurt when she heard that. She took out her phone and leaned on the sofa to play games. In this aspect, she was quite similar to he Huan. However, the way she handled things was more like Qin mo. With Shen ting and Qin Xuan around, she would not be so depressed and usually did as she pleased.

at this time, she was wearing a loose sweater with cigarette ash and a pair of jeans. she hid them in her black boots, which made her legs look long and straight.

Her coat was also thrown aside casually, as if she didn't care.

when shen ting was talking about work, his eyes would occasionally fall on her.

however, he would move away very quickly.

qin xuan had been with them for so many years, so how could he not see through it? the corners of his mouth curled up slightly, but he didn't say anything. his old father, qin mo, was a little annoyed.

Today's situation was something he had not expected.

In the past, he thought that even if Shen ting and yihuan were not together, they were still very close siblings. They had been really close in the past few years. Why did they suddenly change on yihuan's 18th birthday?

To put it in a less distant way, they were practically strangers.

after that, shen ting worked hard and yihuan went abroad. she was gone for a few years. two years ago, she came back to take over KING entertainment. two years later, the two children were still dead. how could their parents not worry?

furthermore, there was no lightning or fire between yi huan and ye xiang nan. what was the problem?

Chapter 4785: don't mention what happened that night anymore (3)

Qin mo couldn't figure it out. He had asked Shen ting and Yi Huan separately, but the two children didn't say anything.

qin mo didn't have a choice. however, the children were all grown up. how could an old father and mother control their relationship matters?

qin mo thought about it and decided not to ask and let them be.

after chatting for about half an hour, qin xuan stretched his back. "yihuan, are you going back or not?"

"Yes!" Qin yihuan was stunned.

"I'm not going back today. There's a meeting at the headquarters tomorrow, so I'll take brother Shen ting's car."

"Oh," Yi Huan replied as she picked up her coat. "Then I'll go back."

"Oh, Brother Shen ting said he'd send you home. The chauffeurs at home are all off work." Qin Xuan's impeccably handsome face had an imperceptible smile.

qin yihuan furrowed her brows and followed qin xuan's gaze.

shen ting was drinking tea. he rarely drank coffee and liked to drink good tea. in the qin family, he and qin chen's aunt got along very well. one liked coffee, and the other liked tea. they were both extremely luxurious in this aspect.

however, he could afford to be extravagant. shen ting's personal assets were now worth hundreds of billions and he controlled almost all of the qin family's power. if he wanted to change the dynasty one day, it would be a piece of cake, qin yihuan thought absent-mindedly.

shen ting had obviously agreed, and qin xuan was telling the truth. he put down the cup in his hand, but when he put it down, his beautiful fingers gently stroked the edge of the cup.

he was already very good-looking, and every inch of his body was just right, showing off his masculine beauty. however, this kind of good looks was different from qin xuan's delicate and handsome appearance.

Shen ting's good looks didn't have any offensive nature, and it made people feel like they were bathing in the spring breeze.

However, in recent years, his methods had not been as refreshing as the spring breeze. Compared to Shen ting, the feminine-looking Qin Xuan seemed a lot more innocent. President Shen had a nickname in the business world, the smiling Tiger. Although it didn't sound good, it accurately explained why Shen ting was feared by the seniors.

There was also another saying that Shen ting was a loyal dog raised by Qin mo. When he grew up, he was let out to bite people. Shen ting did not care about it, but Qin mo directly gave Shen ting 20% of the shares of the newly established King Group. This was definitely the treatment of a biological son.

One must know that Qin Xuan and Qin yihuan only had ten percent.

KING corporation, qin family, who would be in charge in the future, who would have the final say. so, in the end, there was only one version, the smiling tiger, shen ting.

At this moment, this Smiling Tiger's finger left the cup and said very lightly, "Let's go," Qin yihuan took her coat. I'll drive by myself. I won't trouble you.

her words were quite distant, but shen ting didn't mind. or rather, he didn't care about any lethal or non-lethal words she said since a long time ago. she had already done that kind of thing, so what else was there that she didn't dare to do or say?

he walked out directly, his slender figure hidden in the darkness, but his voice was heard. "you don't seem to have gotten over the jet lag."

yi huan snorted, then looked at qin xuan and said, " I'll get even with you in the future!

Qin Xuan smiled faintly.

Yi Huan didn't want her parents to see anything, so she took her coat and went out. It was a little cold outside, and when she was considering whether she should wear a coat, Shen ting had already started the car. The headlights turned on, and the dark courtyard was suddenly lit up.

Chapter 4786: don't mention what happened that night anymore (4)

Yi Huan didn't want her parents to see anything, so she took her coat and went out. It was a little cold outside, and when she was considering whether she should wear a coat, Shen ting had already started the car. The headlights turned on, and the dark courtyard was suddenly lit up.

she quickly got into the car and hesitated for a moment before sitting beside him and slowly fastening her seat belt.

shen ting could've started the car, but he patiently waited for her to put on her seatbelt before slowly driving away.

It was a little warm in the car. Qin yihuan was tired after flying for more than ten hours. If it was in the past, she could have stayed there. However, after that incident, she rarely stayed there. She would only stay there for less than a week in a year. Shen ting would usually return to the Shen family during the Chinese New Year and Mid-Autumn Festival.

When Shen ting wasn't in the villa ...

her thoughts drifted a little, and after a while, she felt a little tired and wanted to sleep. perhaps it was too comfortable.

it was obvious that the person beside him didn't want him to feel too comfortable. the car window rolled down, and shen ting lit a cigarette and blew out smoke.

Even though it was normal for men to smoke, and Shen ting did as well, Qin yihuan was certain that he had done it on purpose after she woke up.

She coughed twice and silently covered herself with her coat. She didn't say anything and just turned her face to look out the window.

in the dark night, only the streetlights were on. they passed through one light after another, and no one seemed to have the intention of talking.

Yi Huan thought to herself that it was normal for him not to say anything since he hated her to the core.

and she was too embarrassed to talk to him.

just like that, she arrived at her apartment building in a daze. when the car stopped, her body leaned forward, and that bad feeling made her think that she had fallen asleep.

she had actually fallen asleep in front of shen ting.

she held the clothes in embarrassment, thanked him, and wanted to get out of the car.

The car door was locked from the inside.

yi huan's heart skipped a beat as she turned her head, " "shen ting?"

Shen ting's gaze was looking straight ahead. He leisurely lit a cigarette. how did it go with him? "

Yi Huan understood that he was asking about ye xiangnan. She pursed her lips into a straight line and said, " "It's alright."

the parents of both parties wanted to get engaged next month. shen ting must have heard the news, so he asked her.

she didn't think that he would still care about her, but now that he asked, she didn't know how to answer, so she was so vague.

It was very dark in the car, so Shen ting's side profile was not very clear. However, his facial features were young and good-looking, and the red mark between his fingers was very eye-catching.

yi huan sat still.

Her body was stiff. If someone asked her what Shen ting meant to her, she would be in deep trouble.

She would not hesitate to say that it was a very important person.

It was the same for her and Shen ting. There was an infinite trust between them, and it was indeed destroyed by her own hands when she was 18 years old. After that day, she realized that Shen ting was not without pride and a bottom line.

he had given her a choice, and she had chosen to think of the south at night.

After that, they went further and further away, until today.

She looked at him for a long time after she finished speaking, and Shen ting quietly smoked.

at this point, the way they got along with each other was completely like that of a man and a woman. brother shen ting, brother shen, and the days when he took care of her seemed to be a long time ago. at this moment, the people sitting in the car were a man and a woman.

Furthermore, there was a man and a woman whose memories could not be erased.

Chapter 4787: Don't mention what happened that night anymore 5

the atmosphere became even tenser. at least, qin yihuan felt very uncomfortable. she pursed her lips and only spoke softly after a while, "how are you?"

She paused for a moment, as if she had thought of something. "How are things between you, Yueyue, and Bai Anan?"

shen ting's fingers that were smoking suddenly stopped, and he turned his head.

Although it was dark, he seemed to be very close to her at this time. Yi Huan seemed to be able to see him, and the expression on his face was definitely not good.

however, he quickly smiled and said, " "it's pretty good."

Yi Huan nodded and said subconsciously, " "that's good."

her hand unconsciously grabbed the door handle again, wanting to get out.

"you're very afraid of me?" Shen ting's voice rang out indifferently. are you afraid that I'll do something to you? "

Yi Huan shook her head, but he grabbed her hand.

the heat from her palm made him frown unhappily. he gave up on what he wanted to say and sighed instead. " you have a fever. "

Yi Huan was stunned.

shen ting had already fastened his seat belt again. he leaned over to help her with it and quickly started the car again.

" shen ting, i'm fine. it's just a low fever. i can take my medicine at home. " yi huan came back to her senses.

This meant that she knew that he was sick, but she still insisted on coming back.

Shen ting's expression became even uglier, and he ignored her.

in fact, he hadn't respected her in the past few years, and they had very little time together.

If it wasn't for Qin Xuan's dirty trick this time, they probably wouldn't have had the chance to get along. Although she didn't say it out loud, she knew it in her heart. She and ye xiangnan were about to get engaged, and Shen ting and Bai Anan were in a dilemma.

she knew that shen ting was never a person who joked around. he kept seeing bai anan because he really wanted to be together. bai anan and ye xiangnan were cousins, but if they really wanted to be together, she and shen ting would still be in a relationship.

"i can do it," yi huan said as she turned to shen ting.

"you can, but you'll drag it out until you have a high fever and end up causing a huge mess." There was no emotion in Shen ting's voice.

Yi Huan did not say anything. She leaned back in her chair and gently pulled up her coat.

after that, she probably fell asleep. shen ting turned his head to look at her and rolled up the window.

When she arrived at the hospital, she opened her eyes.

He looked at the time again. you're going to the emergency department again!

shen ting's voice was very quiet. "let's take a look first. if you can't, you can stay for a night. tomorrow, qin chen's aunt will come over to take a look for you."

after he finished speaking, yi huan looked at him guardedly. she pursed her lips and coughed lightly."I don't want a blood transfusion."

when she was young, she often stumbled and bumped into things, so it was normal for her to get a blood transfusion. but now that she had grown up, shen ting always seemed to have a reason to ask her to get a little more blood transfusion, and she didn't want to do it at all.

Shen ting looked at her and calmly said, ” “i’m not asking you to definitely transfuse blood, i’m just feeling sad and happy. you’d better be sad.”

He did not say anything else.

Yi Huan didn’t know that her poor health or poor physical condition might affect her fertility in the future.

qin chen had told him about it before, but he didn’t tell yi huan.

shen ting also didn’t understand why qin chen told him.

at this moment, he was looking at yi huan as he spoke.

Yi Huan looked at the dark night in front of the car and said calmly, ” “Actually, whether I’m good or bad doesn’t have much to do with you, does it?”

shen ting’s voice was even fainter than hers. ” i’m only in charge of you because your surname is qin. stop thinking too much and don’t think about things that you shouldn’t think about. qin yihuan, or rather, the future mrs. ye. ”

Chapter 4788: Don’t mention what happened that night anymore 6

Yi Huan’s face was a little pale, but he didn’t know if it was because of her illness or because of his words.

indeed, he had never spoken to her like this before. ever since that incident, they could never go back to how they were.

yi huan lowered her eyes. ” shen ting, our hanhan. ”

“get out of the car. i’ll help you get into the emergency room.” his tone sounded like he could not bear it anymore.

Qin yihuan did not understand why he would care about her if he could not take it anymore.

She could just get a Secretary to accompany her.

However, she still obediently got out of the car and followed behind Shen ting.

Shen ting took the number for her, and when he turned around and saw her holding the coat in her hand, he took it and put it on for her without saying anything.

it was late at night, and there were not many people in the emergency room. there were only a few parents who were on an iv drip with their children, and most of them had a cold or fever. shen ting took her to the doctor.

It was a little over 38 degrees. It was acute pneumonia.

Yi Huan was speechless. She only had a low fever. How did it become acute pneumonia?

She bit her lip and didn't speak for a long time.

The doctor gave him a list. you don't need to stay in the hospital, but you need an infusion. I'll prescribe you for three days.

yi huan nodded.

shen ting had already gone to pay for the medicine. when he came back, he looked at her with the list in his hand."Go for an infusion."

"It's late, tomorrow's a little busy," Yi Huan said as she gathered her coat.

"go to the ward for transfusion." Shen ting didn't give her a chance to refute and directly entered the elevator.

the qin family owned a VIP ward here, which was a resource-rich ward all year round. the reason was that yi huan and qin xuan were frequent visitors of the hospital. although they rarely came over in the past few years, the ward had always been kept.

Shen ting brought her over, and after seeing her lie down, he went to call the nurse.

Yi Huan was afraid of pain, so she turned her head to the side when the needle was inserted. Shen ting happened to be in that direction, and he looked at her with his deep eyes.

Yi Huan quickly turned her head away from him, but her eyes still reddened.

the nurse recognized her and said softly, ” “Miss Qin will be ready soon. There are two bottles of water Qianqian tonight.”

“Will Mr. Shen still be accompanying me?” she asked with a smile.

Qin yihuan did not respond, but Shen ting nodded his head.

the nurse left after saying that, leaving the two of them alone in the large ward. the atmosphere became a little strange again.

shen ting was sitting on the sofa by the hospital ward. he didn't have any intention of talking to her. he just closed his eyes and rested.

” there's a nurse here, ” qin yihuan could not help but say. ” you can go back first. ”

at first, shen ting didn't pay much attention to her. then, he opened his eyes and quietly stared at her for a while before saying in a low voice, ” “Qin yihuan, I wouldn't have stayed if I could. i'll send you back in the morning, and you can ask your secretary to send you back later, or you can miss me at night, but don't talk now.”

her lips moved, but she eventually shut up.

She lowered her eyes and looked at the ceiling quietly. After a long time, she couldn't help but say, "Shen ting, Hanhan that night ..."

She was talking about the night of her 18th birthday, but just as she raised her head, Shen ting's cold voice rang out, "don't mention what happened that night again."

actually, nothing had happened, but everything had happened.

Qin yihuan, it's been so many years. There's no need to bring it up again. Shen ting's voice was heavy.

he seemed to be unreasonable, but she knew that it was because she was young and frivolous. she didn't know what was going on at that time, but she was possessed. the next day, when she saw shen ting's disbelieving eyes, she was so ashamed that she couldn't show her face.

she didn't know how to explain it. she only felt that she was being unkind to him.

There was a time when she suspected that she was not only dependent on Shen ting, but also possessive of him. That was why she did it. At that time, her relationship with ye xiangnan was weak. After that night, she still got together with ye xiangnan. So, that night was very unbearable for Shen ting.

Almost all of his dignity had been trampled under his feet. The little girl he cherished so much could not like him, love him, or choose him, but she should not be like that.

after that, shen ting started to date some girls, but most of them were not close to him. one afternoon, he came back to get a document. yihuan happened to be sitting on the balcony, so she saw bai anan sitting in his car, but she did not get out.

Bai Anan was sitting in the front passenger seat. When Shen ting got out of the car, he said a few words to her. Then, Bai Anan gently placed her hand on Shen ting's arm. Bai Anan smiled faintly, and Shen ting patted her hand back.

To be honest, that was the first time Qin yihuan had seen him being gentle to another woman. It turned out that he could also be gentle to other women.

it had been quite a few years since he and bai anan last met. she was curious as to why they were still not married. shen ting was already 31 years old, and bai anan was 30 years old!

Qin yihuan thought to herself. She could not help but look at Shen ting and said softly, "I should say sorry."

After she finished speaking, Shen ting's expression became even worse. He stood up and walked to the floor-to-ceiling window.

He stood there and looked outside for a long time before he asked in a hoarse voice, "Why are you apologizing? because you don't like me? or did you seduce me that night? you don't need to apologize for what happened that night. if you really want to apologize, you should apologize to ye xiangnan, right?"

Nothing had really happened between them that night. However, he had hugged the 18-year-old Qin yihuan and kissed her. Hanhan was so close to her and she was the one who initiated it.

even now, he still did not understand why she did that. was it a joke or was she just toying with him?

He only knew that she had woken up next to him in the morning to answer ye xiangnan's call. Then she had said sorry to him and said that she had to leave because ye xiangnan was waiting for her.

When he caught her, he asked her why and if she wanted to stay.

She still only gave him three words: sorry.

in this life, he did not want to hear those words from qin yihuan again.

he was still as cold as ever. qin yihuan did not say anything more. she sat up and bent her legs. after a long while, she whispered, "i'm getting engaged next month."

"congratulations." Shen ting's voice didn't fluctuate at all. He probably already knew about it.

qin yihuan was still sitting there. after a long time, she looked at him.

in shen ting's body, there was only desolation and desolation. she almost couldn't remember the brother shen ting from the past.

she said thank you very softly.

After that, the two of them stopped talking, mainly because they had nothing to say.

in fact, they had not reached the point where they would not see each other for the rest of their lives. there was no deep love or hatred between them, but the strange thing was that there was such a deep barrier between them that seemed to be impossible to get rid of.

shen ting was still sitting beside her, quietly looking at her.

after the nurse cleaned up, she smiled at him. "mr. shen, why aren't you sleeping?"

It was a long night, but it also felt like it was very fast. At two O'clock in the morning, Qin yihuan's drip was finished, and she fell asleep.

shen ting was still sitting beside her, quietly looking at her.

after the nurse cleaned up, she smiled at him."mr. shen, why aren't you sleeping?"

The nurse was also an old hand here. She remembered that when miss Qin was on an IV drip in the past, Mr. Shen was always by her side. Their relationship was very good. She always thought that they were a couple, but later she heard that they were not. Miss Qin's boyfriend was ye xiangnan from the ye family.

the young nurses sighed. this was life, and it was incomparable.

But it was strange. When miss Qin was sick, Mr. Shen was the one accompanying her instead of ye xiangnan.

hehe, men!

The nurse went out and closed the door.

Shen ting dimmed the lights, but he still sat there quietly.

It wasn't that he didn't feel like sleeping, but he just didn't want to sleep in front of her.

When the sun rose, Qin yihuan opened her eyes. Shen ting was still there, but his eyes were bloodshot.

She sat up. you haven't left yet? ” shen ting's eyes darkened a little, and then he said very indifferently, ” “I'll send you back later.”

yi huan nodded.

he sat there without moving, as if he still had something to say.

she looked up.

“I’ll move out. You can move back to the villa,” Shen ting suddenly said.

“Is it inconvenient? is Yueyue getting married or are you living together?” Yi Huan asked subconsciously.

“none of them.” Shen ting’s voice turned a few degrees colder,”I just feel that it’s more convenient for you to stay at home.” &Nbsp;

This was indeed the reason.

yi huan shook her head. ” it’s fine. i can take care of myself. besides, it’s too sudden for you to move out. ”

Shen ting looked at her for a while before he smiled. that’s true. You’re getting engaged soon. It’s not convenient.

She didn’t expect him to throw the same words back at her. Her lips moved, but in the end, she didn’t say a word.

Shen ting stood up. I’ll send you back. Come over in the afternoon. I’ll tell your Secretary about the rest of the day tomorrow.

yi huan nodded, lifted the quilt, and put on her coat.

After a night’s rest, she was much better. When they walked out together, the nurses looked around curiously.

When she got back into the car, Yi Huan realized that it was already nine O ‘clock. Shen ting seemed to have a meeting this morning.

she bit her lower lip. ” i’ll take a taxi back. you can go to the company for the meeting. ”

“it was pushed back.” his voice was still very calm as he started the car.

While he was driving, he had received several phone calls. They were all from Secretary Wang, who had important business matters. He only said a few words to them, but there was one phone call that was different. It was from Bai Anan. Shen ting’s voice was more gentle than usual, as if he was talking about dinner. But in the end, Shen ting declined and said that he had to work overtime that night.

Working overtime, working overtime. He only had the desire to work overtime in his heart as he made a face at the side.

no wonder he couldn’t find a wife.

She felt that it might have something to do with her, but it was mostly because he was a workaholic. It had been so many years since that incident, and Shen ting was now a diamond Bachelor in B city. All the unmarried women in B city wanted to marry him.

Thinking of this, Qin yihuan felt less guilty and even said boldly, ” “Are you that busy?”

After asking, she regretted it.
