

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 31

MAKAHI POV:

“DAMN IT! MONTEGO!” I yelled as Montego hopped up and ran from my office at the sound of the guards coming into the pack house to help the girls move out. Damn it I should have locked the office door. He slammed the door and locked it. I didn’t want to break the door down. So I mindlinked Montego. “Montego don’t do this. Don’t do something you will regret.” “Alpha, I just need to talk to her I’m in control I won’t hurt her. I just want to talk give me 15 minutes then if I don’t open the door break the door down.” He pleaded. I thought and felt he was being honest about being in control so nodded. “15 minutes and I’m breaking the door down.” “Thank you, Alpha.” he said and cut the link. I mindlinked my mother to check on the girls. They were sleeping now. I promise I would be there in time for their next feeding.”

Once that was done I looked up the stairs dreading what I have to do next. But there was no need to put it off any further. I was pissed off with my luna but I know I needed to take some accountability for my part in this hot mess. But Summer’s behavior is not the behavior of a luna. I needed to fix this and fix it now. Taking a deep breath I open the door to my bedroom. When I walked in I was immediately hit with my mates scent and arousal that made my ck jump in reaction to her scent but I needed to focus. Summer had the bedroom lit only by candles all over the room and soft music was playing but Summer wasn’t in the bedroom. I quickly turned on the light to take away some of the mood. Summer open the closet door and came out with red lace bra and panties with red stockings with stiletto heels. “Baby turn off the lights I was trying to set the mood. She said coming towards me seductively reaching behind me to turn the lights back off which once again left the room dark with only candles lighting the room. I was so focus on her outfit that I didn’t even notice she turned the lights off. I shake my head trying to focus.

“Summer we need to talk about what just happen.” “Why we haven’t been together in a long time we can talk afterwards.” Summer whined in a sexy voice while she rubbed her hands over the bulg in my pants. I gasped at the contact it had been a long time since my ck has felt the wetness of py but I needed to focus I felt like st the last time I had sx with summer. It felt like I was cheating on Jilahni. I know it’s crazy because we have never talked about our relationship. But we have a connection that shouldn’t be their with Summer wearing my mark. I groaned when I felt her hand wrapped around my ck when the hell did she put her hands in my pants. But I swear to goddess it felt so good I felt I would cm in my pants with her hand stroking my c*k. “Sususummer ststop we need to talk.” I struddered out while I grabbed her hand and removed it from my pants and put her at arms length. She immediately whined and got angry stomping her feet she went to our bed and set down angrily. “I don’t know what you want to talk about.” Turning the lights back on. I looked at her in disbelief. Trying to keep my eyes on her face and not the red lacy bra which covers nothing. “Summer you just caused Montego to almost kill his mate. They may not be able to get pass this.” I said crossing my arms over my chest staying by the door in order to remain focus. “Please there is no way Montego is mated to a human. Not to mention her blood could kill him. Honestly Kahi I don’t know why you’re even allowing them to remain here they have no reason to still be here all they do is cause problems.” “I guess you didnt have a hand in all the problems as well. You’re the Luna of this pack and all you seem to do is mistreat our guest and be involved in petty arguments and fights. This has to stop.” I said raising my voice. “You can’t blame me I’m not the one who allowed those humans onto the pack. All you seem to care about is those humans and those mmuu.” I growled and she stopped before she finished.

“Summer I warned you. I will not warn you again. DO. NOT. INSULT. MY. PUPS.” I said. My eyes glowing as Maka came forward. Summers wolf came forward as her eyes glowed. “Those aren’t your pups. I’m carrying the next alpha and not once have you asked how he’s doing. You’re of alpha blood and can only bare male alpha wolves. Why do you claim pups who can’t possibly be yours.” Summer said as she started to cry. I felt like st because I haven’t asked about her pregnancy. But I honestly don’t feel the same connection I felt when I found out about the twins. But I need to do better. Walking to kneel in front of Summer I gentle touched her belly and again I didn’t feel any connection to the pup growing. Maybe because my mind is always on making sure the twins are taking care of. Looking up at Summer. “You’re right I have been neglecting you and our pup. I apologize for that and I will change that and make time to bond with you and my pup. But you have to stop with causing trouble with the girls and you have to accept the twins they are my pups I’m 100% sure and you need to except that if you can’t then we have a bigger problem I will not allow us to complete the mating if you can’t get pass this. I will have to find a way to break the bond.” I threatened. “You can’t be serious. If you break the bond it would kill us both. Are you willing to make me a rogue or kill me by breaking the bond because of those girls.” “Yes. I would so you need to come to terms with it. Because they will always be apart of my life that’s guaranteed but your position isn’t.” I said with seriousness in my tone. Summer gasp and held her hand over her mouth in disbelief. I needed her to understand how serious I was about the twins. I got up and headed out of the door and left her crying. Although our bond made me want to comfort her and apologize but doing that would only make the situation worse.

Walking down the stairs I went to Montego’s door I was about to knock but it was yanked open by a startled Lynn carrying her luggage. The scent of s*x followed her and Montego’s scent was all over her body. The guards that were in the common area that was waiting to help her put her things in the vacant house came and grabbed the luggage from her hands. “Are you ok. Did he..” I tried to ask. “No he didn’t hurt me. I’m ok. He’s sleeping now I figured it would be best to leave while he’s asleep.” She said not making eye contact with me. I nodded and let it go for now I really needed to get back to the clinic anyway. She came out of the room closing the door behind her. I decided to let Montego rest he’s had a rough day. I left out the pack house doors making my way back to the clinic.

JJ’LAHNI POV: 10:30PM

Why do I hear crying? I’m trying to sleep. Wait a minute why am I hearing crying. Where the hell am I. I tried opening my eyes it felt like they were glued together. Taking a deep breath I tried again to open my eyes and this time I manage to crack them open just to be blinded by the brightness in the room. Waiting for my eyes to adjust I cracked my eyes open again to take in my surroundings. Then something moving next to me caught my eye and I looked down seeing the most beautiful baby I've ever seen and just like that the memories of everything that happened up until....I don't remember my baby boy being born. My heart began to race I immediately started looking around tears began to fall and then a little gurgle sounded I turn my head in the direction of the sound and then met a set of eyes who mirrored my other babies eyes my baby.... Girl? Well that's a surprise. I could tell she was a girl by the color of her onsie which was hot pink with wolf prints all over it.

I reached over and let her grab my finger and immediately tried to eat it. I smiled glancing at the both of them my heart was so filled with love I could hardly breathe. While I was staring at them I caught the sight of Makahi who was sleeping next to me with his arm draped around all three of us. Has he been sleeping here with us? Wait how long has it been? I looked around but not finding anything that could tell me the date and time. Glancing back at my babies who were staring at me expectantly. Just then I flashback to me talking to a lady who claim to be the moon goddess and she telling me that I have to protect my babies and that they were very special. Fear for my babies almost overwhelmed me and tears welled up in my eyes. Was it real or just a dream? It doesn't matter I will take it serious my family said never dismiss dreams. So I'm going to need to start training as soon as I can. Because I will murder anyone who threatens my babies.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 32

MAKAHI POV:

Hearing the girls crying. I took a deep breath with my eyes closed because I was still exhausted. "Daddy's getting up now I know you're hungry." I said with my eyes still closed. "I feel like they're saying you're moving to slow." My eyes flew open in shock. I lifted my head slowly, scared that I was dreaming but when I finally looked her way and looked into the most beautiful blue eyes that I didn't know I missed like crazy. "Jilahni?" "Yea its me." She said smiling. My heart felt let it was about to burst with emotions as tears fell from my eyes all I could do was stare. The babies letting out a loud cry. That snapped me out of my shock. Jilahni looked at the girls and then back at me. "Both girls huh?" She said. Realizing she thought she was having a girl and boy not 2 girls.

I smiled back at her. "Surprise." I said as I picked up beah as Jilahni sat up reaching to pick up Tru. I got up to get their bottles putting them in the warmer I went over to sit beside Jilahni who smiled up at me. I used my free hand to cup her cheek and I felt a jolt from our connection even stronger some how I couldn't explain why I still have this connection to her. Could it be because of the twins who had stopped crying to watch us. I bent down to kiss her lips lightly but Jilahni used her free hand to grab me by the nap of my hair and deepen the kiss I let out a low needing growl before I forced myself to pull away and rested my head against hers. "We have to stop, you just woke up and I'm sure the doc will be against us going any further then this and not to mention we have 2 very hungry pups here. Do you want me to contact everyone they have been waiting for this day." I asked. "No not right now I just want it to be just us for a little while if that's ok with you." She said with a smile. "That's more then ok. I was really hoping you would say that. I have missed you so much baby I would have lost my mind if it wasn't for these two right here they've been keeping me on my toes. They have also been waiting for their momma to open her beautiful eyes too." The warmer beeped and I got both their bottles checked them before handing one to Jilahni and I put the other one next to beah's mouth and as usual they both sniff before they greedily latch on to the n*e.

Watching Jilahni with Tru, put a smile on my face I didn't have to say anything Jilahni was a natural. I watched in awe as she bonded with Tru kissing her and talking to her. "What?" she asked when she caught me staring at her. "You're a natural at this the first night I was a nervous wreck. Trying to feed them and changed them when I was alone." I said laughing remembering the first night alone with the girls. "Well I had practice I use to babysit my aunts children during the summer they were like 6 weeks old." She trailed off before asking. "How long have I been out?" "A little over a week. The girls are 10 days old." I answered. "I missed their first week." She said sadly as tears fell from her eyes and she hugged Tru kissing her apologizing for missing their first week of life. "Hey don't do that. You have been through Alot and you made sure our pups were safe and healthy. You just needed to rest and you deserved every bit of it. So don't beat yourself up . You're awake now and they are just as happy as I am that you're ok." I said wiping the tears from her eyes.

"OMG. It's been 10 days did you name them. Please tell me you didn't let Mina or Shawna name them.?" she asked wide eye full of panic. I laughed. "No they don't have official names I gave them nicknames. I didn't want to make anything official until you woke up. So we have been calling this little one beautiful Crystal aka beah and the little one you have we call her Trouble Crystal aka Tru because she is the one that gave us hell." I removed beah's bottle and I switched with Jilahni so she could bond with beah. We sat in comfortable silence as we fed, burp and changed both girls. I did have to call the doctor and let him know she was awake but informed him not to tell anyone else we wanted the rest of the night to ourselves we had decisions to make and plans to prepare.

He was there in less then 5 minutes he must have shift to get here because he was sporting scrubs that only his staff wears. Coming through the doors he raced over to Jilahni and embraced her. I let out a growl that made him jump and look at me confused. "Hey stop that we were held hostage together and he protected me with his life you should be thanking him for keep me and our girls alive while we were held hostage and delivering them healthy and keeping me alive." Jilahni said with emotion. I looked at the Doc and for the first time I saw his emotions written on his face he did everything he could to protect my 3 girls and I have never Thanked him or even asked him how he was." Damn Sebastián I'm so sorry I never said thank you and never asked how you were and I'm truly sorry." I said to him. "No thanks needed you are my alpha it was my honor to protect you future lu uh Alpha's." He said catching himself before he called Jilahni his luna although I didn't mind I didn't want to bring the subject of Summer and me marking her up right now.

I just want to spend tonight with my 3 girls before we have to face the entire pack. He drew blood from Jilahni and checked her to make sure everything was ok. Which it was, he ordered her to eat something to get her strength back he told her she wouldn't be allowed to leave until she eats and can walk without assistance. He said it maybe a little rough since she has been basically in a coma for 10 days but he thinks she should be able to leave the day after tomorrow if everything goes smoothly of course. Jilahni agreed to have the babies blood drawn but it can only be him who handles the testing and result with no one else. We wanted to keep whatever we find amongst family only until we know what traits the babies have that is human and what is wolf. He said he would be by first thing tomorrow and he left the room.

We now lay side by side with the babies laying contently between us. I just laid there watching her playing with the girls taking them in. "Ok whats wrong this is the second time that I have caught you staring." She said smiling at me. "I'm just so fg happy you're ok. It's been hell without you baby." I said. With emotion finally able to breathe and take in the past few months. I was running on adrinaline this entire time and with her and the pups here and safe it feels like a weight has lifted off my shoulders for the first time in months. She reached over and caressed my jaw. "Thank you for everything you've done." I grabbed her hand before she removed it and I kissed the palm of her hand and wrist. "I should be thanking you for making me a father and the miracle of giving me daughters which is something no alpha has ever been able to do and honestly I never knew it was something I wanted but looking at them I couldn't live without them now that they are here." I said reaching over to kiss her lightly as well as kiss the now sleeping angels between us.

I brought the bassinet over to the bed and gently placed both of them in the same bassinet. "They sleep better together." I told Jilahni who nodded and smiled at them. Getting back in bed I pulled her close to me. My emotions were all over the place our bond and connection was strong but there is also an uncomfortable uneasy feeling which I can only assume was because of me marking Summer. "So about their names." She said breaking into my thoughts. "Do you have any ideas?" I asked still holding her closely I leaned my head in the crook of her neck inhaling her sweet scent that cause Maka to purr in contentment. "Actually yes I do. I want to keep the names you came up with. I would like to use my mom and your mom's names as their middle names." She said. I lifted my head to search her eyes. "Are you sure you don't have to keep those names if you don't want to." I said. "I know, I love the names you picked for them." She said lovingly.

"So what was your mother's name?" I asked. Realizing I know very little about her family. "Tiliah." She responded fondly. "What was she like?" I asked. Her eyes lit up at the question. "She was a kind loving person she always made anyone feel loved no matter who they were. A lot of kids in the neighborhood would call her and my grandmother mom and grandma because they were the quiet loving type that never had to raise their voice to get attention their presences always made everyone around try to be on their best behavior so not to disappoint them." She finished with her eyes filling with sad tears that I quickly brushed away. "They sound like wonderful women. So which one are you giving your mothers name to?" I asked "As you know me Mina and Shawna is all that is left of my family so I want to also include our last name so my family name will also live on through them." I nodded in understanding. "So what will their full names be." I asked.

"Well we have Trouble Tiliah Nelson Crystal but that's only if you want I'm not sure if they're allowed to carry your last name if not then...." I cut her off. "Stop I'm their father and they will carry my name." I said. My eyes glowing as Maka also came forward. "We have never had anything like this happen before but I really don't care they are my pups and will carry my name and I know my parents will demand it." I said with conviction. She gasped in shock. Damn it I forgot she just recently learned about wolves and her first interaction with werewolves hasn't been a positive one. Closing my eyes pushing Maka back to my subconscious.

"Don't hide your wolf from me. I want to know and get use to both of my baby daddies I mean isn't he also the daddy since you and him are one and my babies will be half wolves too." She asked frowning trying to connect the dots. I chuckled. "Yes they are our pups." I said in a gravel tone which is a sign that I was allowing me and Maka consciousness to come forward. "Maka?" she asked cupping our jaw Maka purred and I allowed him to answer. "Yes it tis me my mate." Maka responded. "Your eyes are so beautiful." she said breathlessly. "Not as beautiful as yours." He said as he leaned in and kissed her. Oddly enough with Maka at the forefront of my subconscious I don't feel any uncomfortable feelings or guilt. "That's because I never doubted that she was mine and I was against you marking Summer. Now be quiet while I enjoy my mate. Maka said smartly. "Sometimes I don't like you." Maka grunted yea the feelings mutual." before focusing back on Ji'lahni. "Will you show me your wolf?" She asked breaking into our back and forth. "Yes one day when you're all better I want our pups to be use to both me and my wolf." I answered and allowed Maka to retreat back into my subconscious completely content and happy for the first time in months. "OK." she smiled.

"So it's official then. We have Trouble Tiliah Nelson Crystall aka Tru and Beautiful Lateri Nelson Crystall aka beah. My Mother is going to be over the moon I fully expect ugly crying." I said chuckling thinking how my mother will react." I said chuckling. "Yes I love the names but I want to call Beautiful Teri instead of beah that sounds like an old lady that smells like butter scotch candy." Jilahni said giving me the stink face. I laughed even though I have no idea what she is talking about obviously their seniors smell a certain way. We both lay in comfortable silence. Until Jilahni took a deep breath and removed herself from my embrace. I growled at her not being in my arms. "Kahi we have to talk about your marriage or mating Summer." Damn I wanted to hold off from dealing with our reality a little while longer. Looking into her eyes I can see she wish that we could ignore it too but we can't.

Taking a deep breath. "I don't want to come between you and her but I will not allow my children to be alone with her at anytime. I do not trust her judgment if my stance changes which I highly doubt, I'll let you know. I will remain here for a while but I have a life outside of here and I don't want to have to deal with people who don't accept me or my babies and I don't want to have to watch you and Summer together everyday building a happy loving family. She's your happiness and I have to accept that no matter how much I lov.. How much I care for you. You deserve to be happy even if it's not with me." She said sadly turning to hide the tears. I wanted to tell her everything but I don't want to get her hopes up if I can't reverse the marking. So until I find out if I can I will allow her to think that I'm truly with Summer. Taking a deep breath. "I will accept any rules you set for the twins. But I'm not sure about the pups being safe living in a human environment without someone finding out what they are and do everything they can to take them in the name of science. Let's just wait and see what they are capable of." I said.. And she nodded. I just brought myself a few months to find out how to reverse this marking safely.....

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 33

Jl'LAHNI POV:

THE NEXT MORNING.

I look at Mahki who is having a full blown conversation with Tru who is obviously fussing at her daddy by how animated she is moving her arms with a frown. Teri on the other hand was laying quietly looking at her sister and daddy talk. Kahi glances at me and catches me staring he gives me a bright smile that makes my stomach feel like butterflies were in it and my cookie still betrays me even knowing he is now essentially married. Kahi's smile vanishes and I could tell that he is smelling my cookie's betrayal. He let's out a low growl as he gently put Tru down and begin walking towards me like I was his prey. My heart begins to race I'm breathing heavy knowing that we can't act on any feelings we feel because he is now mated and not mine. Just as he reaches for me grabbing my head as he's lowering his head about to kiss me but stops and mutters, "st! Your cousins and my mother is here." he said. Placing his forehead against mine breathing just as heavily as I am. He takes a deep breath, releases my head and steps back just as the girls came barreling in crying happy tears. "OMG! You're awake thank God! They all took turn hugging me momma Teri was crying and just touching my face thanking the goddess for saving her daughter... They all piled on the small bed just to be near me, Kahi handed the babies to us so now the bed was full of my family. His dad comes and reached in the pile of women to kiss all the girls. Before going to stand beside kahi. "Look at all our girls all safe and sound and finally completely happy and I wouldn't have it any other way." He said like a proud papa and grandpa. "I have to agree with you dad we are some lucky wolves." kahi said putting his arm around his father's shoulder.

"So about the girls names." I said while momma Lateri and Shawna held the girls. "Me and kahi have decided to keep their names as is." I said. "See son I told you she would love it I know my chocolate drops." His mother beamed proudly. She was about to go through the roof with this next piece of information. I see kahi grabbed 4 cotton balls and handed two of them to his dad who looked at him strangely. "Trust me." he said placing them in his ears of course they could still hear everything but I guess that will take the edge off. "I wasn't sure if you guys pack would allow them to carry your last name." I said, his dad and mom growled and he stepped forward. "My chocolate sundaes will carry my last name and I dare anyone to challenge that." He said and I could feel how proud kahi was of his parents. "Thank you for that so Shawna you are holding Trouble Tiliah Nelson Krystal." I looked over at my baby. "Oh my God you gave her auntie name and our last name." The girls said as they cried. "Yes she reminds me of her and I wanted the girls to have our last name because we are the only ones left and it will live on with my children and yours if you choose when you have kids. Now momma Teri your holding Beautiful Lateri Nelson Krystal" I said quickly and as soon as his mom heard it she gasped and Lynn quickly took the baby from her as she screamed so loud the babies jumped and immediately started to cry. And she covered her mouth as her mate came around and hugged her as she cried. "Thank you so much you don't know what that means to me." She said through her tears. "I choose those name because they both reminds me of your firey spirit and my mother's quiet strength, ever since we met you, you have been so kind and immediately claimed us as your daughters you believed in us even when some didn't and you have become our official step mom and us girls loves you." I said as we all were now hugging and comforting the babies even his dad had watery eyes.

About 10 minutes later the doc entered the room pushing a cart with the things he will need to draw the pups blood. Everyone scurried out of the room because they didn't want to witness the babies crying. Me and kahi called them cowards as they ran out. I wanted to speak with Lynn alone kahi had told me what happened between her and Montego. To say I was pissed would be an under statement but honestly it made me a bit nervous so I needed to talk to kahi about it as well. But that will have to wait because right now the Doc was about to get an ear full from my tinker butts.

MAKAHI POV :

After the Doc left the girls were fussy for a few minutes at being stuck with needles, I growled at the Doc several times before he was done. The girls are now being breast fed by Jilahni they were sucking and still sniffing and whining a little bit but look like they are drifting to sleep. I just sat on the bed staring at my girls. She looked at me with her beautiful smile and I could no longer control the urge to kiss her. I leaned in gently she looked at me in surprise as I captured her lips with mine I didn't break the kiss until the alarm beeped to burp the girls and put them down Jilahni had started getting around slowly determined to walk around without my help. We laid them in the bassinet together and tiptoed back to the bed but before she could climb on the bed I grabbed her waist and grabbed her face and kissed her properly. She moaned and I used that opportunity to slip my tongue in her mouth which made me groan from pleasure and discomfort but that was quickly forgotten as Jilahni lift her legs wrapping them around my waste. When I lifted her I growled at the scent of her arousal. "Damn baby your py smells so sweet." I said. Suddenly Maka pushed forward with her having no wolf he was just as attached to Jilahni more so then me. She looked into the eyes of Maka and smile before she kissed both beast and man and like the last time me and Maka came forward I no longer feel the discomfort from the mates bond.

Before I could stop him Maka moved Jilahni to the bed and kissed the part of her neck where her mark would be her scent driving both of us crazy. Maka found the right spot and sucked there giving her a hickey which I knew he did it to keep other male wolves away. We couldn't mark her but we damn sure can make sure no other man will approach her. Jilahni kissed down my neck she grabbed my hand and moved it towards her py. I groaned just as I reached her py. "Damn baby you're so fg wet you're going to have to change your panties." I said as I found her knob and circled it with my fingers. Jilahni groaned and suddenly sucked then bite down on my neck in the exact spot my mark would be.. She latched on with no mercy Maka growled loudly thrust my hips into her still growling "fk! Maka don't you dare mark her damn." I said to him. "Mate!" He growled. "NO!" I yelled noticing too late that I said it allowed. I manage to break the kiss and scrambled off of her. She covered her mouth then got up frantically. "I'm so sorry I don't know what happened. I understand your married and I crossed the line making the situation worse I know you were only here to take care of the girls. Look as you can see everything is fine now and I can pretty much get around on my own. I think it's time for you to get back to your life and let me handle this on my own I will have to do this on my own eventually, right? The babies are sleeping and I'm just going to take a quick shower and a nap so you can go ahead and get back to your wife I'm sure she and your pup needs your attention. I'll just see you later." Jilahni said in a rush not letting me get a word in before she rushed into the bathroom.

I sat there in a state of shock for a few moments I rubbed the bite imprint I knew she left. I know the mark would fade but touching it sent shivers down my spine what the hell is going on. What have I done? how am I supposed to get back to my life when Jilahni and my pups are here. I know I shouldn't be feeling this way about Jilahni but I can't help it. "Damn it Maka you almost marked her." He shrugged like it was nothing going into my subconscious content. I have to admit that I secretly wanted him to mark her too, but it was wrong. I never meant for the kiss to go that far but when she guided my hand down to her wet folds and bit down on my marking spot like her mouth was drawn to it. I felt a jolts to strong and fast that Maka's instincts took over and I barely got control back in time to get away from her. But she took my reaction the wrong way, but I can't tell her that until I know for sure if I can't break me and Summer's bond. Getting up walking over to the door determine to tell her it wasn't her fault but mine and that I do have feelings for her. my ck twitched painfully in my pants I could still smell her arousal on my fingertips I placed a finger in my mouth and groaned at the sweet taste of her py st! She taste like freshest and sweetest fruit off the tree in the summer I shouldn't have done that now I'm going to crave her taste. Shaking my head before I do something stupid like knock on the door. Which I knew I couldn't. Leaning my forehead against the door I could hear the shower running but I could hear Jilahni's low sobbs and it gutted me to know that I caused all of this. I turned and walked over to my girls and kissed them gently mindlinked my mother to come sit with Jilahni later as I headed out the clinic.

Pack house....

Entering into the pack house it had a few people in the lobby I greeted those in the common room and headed to Montego's room everyone says he has not been out of his room since the briefing this morning. Knocking on the door. I could hear some movement but it took him a while to answer. Opening the door Montego looked like he hadn't slept in days. Once he saw it was me he turned and dropped on the sofa. "Damn Montego. You have to get yourself together." I said sitting beside him. He glared at me. "Yea like you did while Jilahni was gone for months." He said angrily. I will that slide because he's hurting and honestly I don't know how I would be if Jilahni left me and took the girls. "Have you tried talking to Lynn today?" I asked. "She said she didn't want to see me. I honestly don't know how long I can take this. I feel like I'm losing my mind Diego has been silent since the day she left." Montego said close to tears. "She will come around now that Jilahni's awake she may be able to talk to Lynn. Although she wants to shoot you in the nuts with her crossbow. She feels bad that this is all happening because of her and she wants Lynn to be happy. So we have to find a way to break me and summer's bond if you, me, and shadow have any chance of getting our women back because Lynn won't take you back unless you come back with a solution to the problem and I can't mate Jilahni if I'm still mated to Summer. So get your a*s up and in the shower so we can find a way to get our women back." I said getting up extending my hand to help him up he nodded his head in agreement.

Now that he had a mission and a plan to get Lynn back. Heading to my office to see if my father was still here I wanted to see if he had any news from our elders about bonding and mates I asked feonia to send over everything she has in our historical library about mating and bonding which also should be in my office. Walking in I was shocked to see Summer and Britney who jumped nervously when they heard me enter. I eyed them suspiciously they were reading one of the books feonia must have left for me. Damn I don't feel like trying to explain why I wanted those books. "Summer why are you and Britney in my office?" I ask as I walked in. Summer recovered quickly squealing jumping into my ARMS. "Hey baby I didnt..... Wait what the hell Kahi why is that bitches scent all over you?" she sniffed me around my chest neck and mouth and she gasped and stepped back in shock. "OMG! did she throw herself at you. After you have been nothing but nice to her and those.... Pups and she throws herself at you the first chance she got. I swear I'll kill her she don't touch what's mine." Well that didn't go as I thought it would. She assume that Jilahni threw herself at me. "Summer it wasn't like that she just woke up and needs help getting around." I said hoping to calm her down. "Don't cover for her Kahi I can smell her arousal and her scent it in places that has nothing to do with you helping her walk." she growled angrily. "Please Summer just let it go it was nothing she apologized she was just disoriented. She knows we're mated and it won't happen again so drop it." I said stepping around her to my desk. "Drop it? Are you kidding me? Would you be able to let it go? You wouldn't you would rip their throat out with no hesitation. I should be able to do the same." Summer said with Sonja coming forward half shifted. Maka responded to the threat Sonja posed to Jilahni. He growled and Sonja whimpered Summer looked shocked at my reaction but she quickly recovered. Pushing Maka back to my subconscious. Looking at Summer. "You can not kill a human. You know that as I said it won't happen again now please let it go." I said irritated Summer still looked mad but nodded. "Well the least you can do is shower and get her smell off you body and burn those clothes." She said walking with Britney right on her heels. Taking a deep breath I need to find a way to break the bond before someone ended up dead.

Chapter 34

JI'LAHNI POV:

Omg! Why did I just do that. But his lips felt so good. No! that man is damn near married with a kid. But that Thang in them pants can probably ruin about 3 ribs and a lung. I thought to myself as I paced my hospital room. There was a knock at the door I hurried to open it so they won't wake the girls. "Hey baby momma. Where the girls at.?" Lynn said brushing pass me. "Damn you didn't have to do me like that. I've been the sick one you're supposed to act like that with me not them." "Girl please. You're through when you gave us our babies we put your st on the curb." Lynn said picking up Teri kissing her sleeping cheeks and then doing the same to Tru. "I promise if you wake them up they're going with you." I said and she put Tru back down and then laid on the bed with me. "So where's Kahi?" She asked and I groaned. "Girl he left, Before yall came earlier we were feeding and changing the girls and I was just watching how good he was with them and how fg sexy he was and you know any other time when we see a sexy dude that make the cookie warm we don't have to worry about him knowing but damn werewolves smell every fg thing and my cookie be in these streets snitching. So it was like he smelled me and that was it, he walked over here about to kiss me but he must have heard yall coming.

That's the only thing that saved me I thought it was over but as soon as the doc left and we put the girls down for a nap he came up behind me wrapped his arms around me spun me around and kissed me lightly but my hoe a*s lost my damn mind, because the next thing I knew I lifted my leg up and he picked me up and we ended up on the bed then somebody else must have took over girl because I was making porn star move putting his hand on my cookies and then my dumb a*s decided to bite lick and suck on his neck. That must have broke whatever spell we were under because he hopped up off me like I lit his a*s on fire. I was like I'm sorry I know you're basically married and I crossed the line and it won't happen again and ran to the bathroom and hid." I finished getting aroused just thinking about earlier. Damn it I got to get myself together because this st has to stop.

"I don't know what the hell I'm going to do. Because my reaction to Kahi everytime I'm around him ain't gone end well. I have to figure some st out." I sighed heavily. "Well when you figure that st out let me know because I'm right there with you. I know you already know what happen between me and Montego. I'm sure Kahi told you. But before I left Montego burst into the room trying to explain and get me to stay with him but I don't know if I can do that. It's hard to get over the fact that you could have easily killed me over another bh especially the one who started all this st. I told him that I don't want to put him in a position to have to kill me because of Summer as long as she is luna here, she will do anything to provoke us into reacting and they will have to protect her. I understand it but I don't know if I can get over it and I don't want to hurt him if he has to kill me at some point he could die or go rogue if we are together." Lynn said with tears falling down her face. “I feel you I’m afraid of that too even more so because of the girls because if she does some under handed bull st I will kill her which would mean my babies would lose me.” I said deep in thought. “Well the other thing is me and Montego had s*x.” she said causally, Well that made me jump up wide eyed like we were teenagers.

“OMG! bh why didn’t you lead with that. How in the entire hell you went from moving out to fg in the same day.” I said smiling hard as she groaned. “Hell I don’t know just like you don’t know how you ended up making out. It just happened and I did the same thing you did and hightailed it outta there while he was asleep and Ive been ducking and dodging him ever since.” She said sadly. “Damn we’re in deep st. I can’t take my babies outta here yet because I have no idea about half wolf babies. I told Kahi I won’t make any decisions until I know it’s safe for the babies. I won’t ask you or the girls to stay this is my issue and I will deal with it.” I said sadly. “bh stop all that you know damn well we not leaving you here with that wolf banchee we’ve already made the decision which took about 1 second. We’ve called our substitute instructors and gave them a bonus and told them to pretty much run the basics and we would have conferences weekly if they have choreography they want approval for so we’re good on that. Our events will be done remotely we will have to come up with new remote packages to include face to face dates and remote dates so one of us will have to travel and rotate who goes.” Lynn finished they really had everything worked. I love that they had my back.

“OK that’s a great idea. Yall have thought of everything. I promise I’ll pitch in once I’m outta here which I’m going to see if it can be today because I’m walking slowly but walking without assistance and I’m eating, so I pretty much feel ok, I’ll be in pain for a while but that’s to be expected.” I said laying back down next to Lynn. “Well we moved to a new house closer to the clinic we gave you the big room because of the twins. We have so much stuff in their room wait until you see it it’s next to the big room and it has connected doors. You can see the crib from your room.” Lynn said telling me about our new room. “So we have our normal life st figured out but have no idea what to do about the dudes we love. Yup sounds about right. But when I get out of here I have to tell yall what happened while I was in a coma. At first I just thought it was a dream or some coma thing. But the way me and Kahi still have a strong connection even with him marking Summer, It has me thinking that maybe it wasn’t a dream. If what I dreamt was true then we have to have a damn good plan ABCDE and F aka a fk it plan which is basically us winging it.”

Chapter 35

MAKAHI POV: 5pm

Walking into the clinic all eyes snapped in my direction giving me strange looks. it’s not like I don’t come here every single day. Shaking my head ignoring the looks and headed to Jilahni’s room approaching her door it looked completely dark from the small window in the door. Opening the door I was hit with disinfectant and cleaners, turning on the lights to find the room was completely emptied. My heart began to race and Maka was clawing to take control, I growled loudly "Alpha. What can I help you with? I wasn't expecting to see you here." The doc said coming up behind me. "Where are they?" Was all I could get out because I was still trying to control Maka. The doc gasped and took a step back.

"Wwwweelll Jilahni was doing better then I thought she was walking on her own and she promised that she would not over do it and come back here in a couple of days to make sure she is healing properly. I let her go home. I thought you knew about it which is why she asked. I didn't know she didn't tell you my apologies Alpha." the doc said worriedly. Taking a deep breathe. Why would she leave without telling me or asking me for help. "No problem doc she may have tried to contact me earlier and couldn't get a hold of me." I said. Trying to figure out why Jilahni didn't try to talk to me about this. I feel Montego began to pull against the mind link. "What's ups Montego?" I asked "Uh yea I knew you were going to see Jilahni and the pups. But when I came to see Lynn, Jilahni answered the door." Damn it why did she leave without telling me. "Thanks I'm on my way." I responded cutting off the mindlinked as I raced out of the clinic.

I made it there within seconds. Montego was standing on the porch looking dejected. "So did you get the boot?" I asked. "I think I would actually have to make it in to get booted out." He said sadly. "Well lucky for you I own every house and the land it sits on. Plus my baby momma has some explaining to do." Not bothering to knock I twisted the knob. No sooner then we both step through we immediately had to duck as 4 knives came flying at our heads. "Hey! What the hell? Where the devil do yall keep all these damn knives? " I said getting off the floor. "Well you burst through a door that has 4 women and 2 babies in it we got to protect ourselves." Mina said getting up from the sofa with Tru crying in her arms. She hands Tru over to me she sniffs and hushes instantly. Mina frowns.

"Trader." she says walking pass us. Heading out the door. "Hey! Where're you going?" Ji'lahni asked. "Pack house it's dinner time. Lynn showed the women in the kitchen how to make Chinese food so they make it every Thursday night." Mina answered. "All man I haven't have Chinese food in a long time." Ji'lahni whined. Which made my dk jump it was so fg cute.

"Well I'm coming Shadow made me promise to eat with him everyday or he said he's would come and throw me over his shoulder and carry me back to his place. I was going to test that theory but I'll try that on tocao Monday." Shawna said walking out behind Mina handing Teri to Montego. Who is now comfortable with the babies Teri loves when he nuzzles her neck and let out a rumble from his chest. Turning back to the two women who were the targets of our raid. They both looked at each other in silent communication. Then they both hopped up Ji'lahni grabs the girls bag and shoves the bag in my free hand while Lynn used her as a shield to block her from Montego as she yelled. "Wait up we're coming too!" They left us standing in the doorway with 2 babies. "I think they're avoiding us both." Montego said bouncing Teri on his shoulders as she talks. "Yea I think so too. But they obviously didn't think this through because they just went straight into the wolf's den where they won't be able to escape." I said winking at Montego who nodded just as the girls passed gas that made us gag. At least I hope that was gas. Closing the door we headed after our women. Ji'lahni will learn she can't hide from an alpha once she becomes his prey.

Chapter 36

Jl'LAHNI'S POV:

"Yall some scaredy cats." Shawna said. While her and Mina laughed at me and Lynn. "Call it what you want. I'll be that." I responded and Lynn nodded proudly not ashamed at all. She was trying to avoid Montego at all cost, because she thinks if he ever gets close to her she was going to break. She's craving him so bad and she doesn't know why. She has to stop herself every time he comes by. Mina and Shawna had to hold her down twice and it wasn't getting any better but worse. I somewhat understand because me and Kahi always seems to have to touch each other even absent-mindedly. I also didn't want to have to explain why I left the clinc without telling him. She knew she should have but after what happened earlier that day she didn't want to face him and rehash the whole thing. She knew it was wrong and she also knew he didn't want her in that way, but she knows he didn't want to hurt her feelings and she just didn't want the it's not you it's me talk. I just want to forget it and never think of it again.

"Yall do know the dinning hall is literally in their house? How did yall runaway from them just to go to their house." Mina said laughing when I looked at her in shock. "Lynn why the hell didn't you tell me that before we raced outta there like we robbed the place." I asked as I pushed her. "How was I supposed to tell you the only thing we could come up with is to follow them out the house." Lynn said pointing at Mina and Shawna. As we entered the dinning hall Shadow who was at the far end of the dining hall suddenly stopped his conversation like he smelled Shawna no sooner then he spotted us he was picking Shawna up off her feet burying his head in her neck breathing in her scent he kissed her lightly and smiled. Turning to us smiling. "Good evening ladies I'm glad to see you looking well Jilahni." Shadow said like this wasn't the first time we're seeing him smile and talk, aside from the couple of words the first day here and he damn sure didn't smile. "What the entire hell! Is he smiling? Am I still in a damn comma? I swear I'll be big mad if I am." I said with my mouth gaped open. He laughed. I mean He laughed out loud yall. And he has a gorgeous smile too.

"Come you guys can sit next to me. All the girls followed as he grabbed Shawna by the waist and walked us back to his table. Shadow made small talk while I stared at him still in shocked disbelief as we waited for dinner. All of a sudden I hear someone yelling my name. Wa'lahni Wa'lahni. I looked and saw razz barreling my way I get up and walked as fast as I could which was super slow. I bent down and scooped him up and we both cried. I really missed him I didn't know if I would ever see him again especially with his aunt not liking me. "I'm so glad you're OK. I'm so sorry you got kidnap I should've protected you From my grandpa and his mean men." he said crying. "Hey Hey. It was not your fault. I told you I would be back and, I heard you helped alpha Makahi find me by telling him everything that happened. So you're the reason he was able to find me and my cousins, you made sure me and my babies were OK, and I can't wait for you to meet my them.

They're really tiny and will need a big strong guy to protect them and I wanted to ask you to be their God brother?" I asked. "What's a God brother?" He asked. "Well it's kinda like a big brother but you're not related you're supposed to protect them when no grown-ups are around make sure no one hurts them and make sure they don't hurt themselves. I know it will be a hard job so if you don't.." I trailed off. "I will be the best big brother ever you don't have to worry about them I'll protect them with my life. I'll ask the Alpha if I can start training so I can protect them better." Razz said excitedly launching himself into my arms. "Hey did I hear you agree to be my pups God brother? That's a big job, you will have to train hard do you think you can handle it?" Kahi asked walking up behind Razz. He spun around standing straight up poking out his little chest like the guards do. "Yes Alpha I will protect them with my life." Razz said like he was in the military. "Well in that case would you like to meet your God sisters? Kahi asked and squatted down after Razz jumped in a chair he allowed Razz to hold a squirming Tru who quieted instantly and looked at Razz and sniffed and started cooing. "I think she likes you buddy." I said Kahi took Tru from him while Montego placed Teri in his arms who did the same as her sister. "You're right they are really tiny. I will have to make sure that no one hurts them. We have to be really careful, we can't be too rough or they will get hurt." Razz said in a serious tone.

"WHAT THE HELL IS GOING ON HERE?" Summer said from behind us. All our head snapped in her direction. Her and Britney were walking up to us. Razz jumped scared at first. But it quickly changed from scared to protector pulling Teri a little closer to his chest to calm her because Summer's yelling startled her and she began to cry. Shadow scooped both Razz and Teri up and placed them in Shawnas lap and took a protective stances in front of them. "Summer yelling isn't necessary." Kahi said turning around. "That's all you have to say? Why do you insist on embarrassing us like this flaunting these.... Them around the pack." Summer said pointing to our table. "Here we go again." Mina said as Lynn and Shawna position themselves so they can see their surroundings. I saw Montego glancing back at Lynn clearly not wanting to have a repeat of the other day. Lynn's face showed sadden determination. This situation is only proven her right about them not being able to be together.

Turning my head back to Kahi and Summer. I went up to Kahi reaching for Tru because I didn't want them to argue in front of her and I was serious about her not being around my babies. Apparently seeing me was the straw that broke the camels back. Because her eyes flashed gold. "You bh you have some nerve to come her after you threw yourself at my mate. I should rip your throat out." Summer yelled as Lynn and Mina stood. Kahi growled and stepped in from of me and Tru. "I told you that I will not tolerate you disrespecting my pups." He said his eyes turning silver. Summer and Britney whimpered. "How could you speak to me like that in front of them. After what she did earlier if it was a male who did it to me you would have killed him." Summer said angrily "Summer you know the circumstances are different." Kahi said. "But I'm your mate and pregnant with the next Alpha." Summer said and I reached for my knives and felt my gun at my back. I decided to try and apologize for earlier maybe we could defuse the situation.

I stepped up beside Kahi and I saw Lynn and Mina also stepping up. "Uh. Look Summer I wanted to apologize for earlier I can assure you it will not happen again." I said trying to sound sincere. Summer laughed rolling her eyes. “Oh please, you think I’m going to fall for the innocent act like my mate and his guards. You don’t deserve to be here I don’t know why you just won’t take your flunkies and just leave. Everyone knows you have fooled my mate to think he’s the father of you’re babies but we all know that’s impossible. But because he obviously believes he is the father we will take the pups and raise them ourselves.” Summer sneered evilly. I immediately stepped away from Kahi and glanced at Shawna who had Teri. Anger was all I felt. How the hell Kahi thought I would even allow that st. I told him that Summer wasn’t allowed around my kids and he agreed. Did he only agree just to get me to let my guard down so him and his wife could take my kids. Kahi growled at Summer who stepped back in fear which snapped me out of my stupor. Looking at Shawna and who already had Teri in her arms coming my way. Somebody was about to die if anyone even cough in my kids direction nobody will ever take my girls away from me.

Chapter 37

MAKAHI POV:

I can’t believe what Summer just said. Things got outta hand real quick I needed to defuse the situation. Why would Summer say that we were planning to take her pups. I already know her agenda she wanted the girls to attack. I growled at Summer before I grabbed her arm and pulled her away from the crowd. Once I was far enough away. “What the hell are you doing? Why would you tell her that we would take her daughters?” I sneered lowly. “Kahi you insist on embarrassing me with your mistakes. People are starting to talk about us not being a real mated couple, because they think you’re in love with that human and her kids. The only thing you care about is their feelings I’m your mate and you refuse to let me mark you to complete the bonding.” Summer said crying angrily. I took a deep breath I knew how hurt she was because I could feel her emotions through our bond. Pulling her into my arms and buried my nose in the crook of her neck inhaling her scent. I felt her relax into my embrace. “I hate to break up you guys moment. But the girls are about to leave.” Montego said a little anxiously. I looked in the direction of Jilahni she was holding Tru and grabbing their diaper bag. I let go of summer to had over to where the girls were getting up to leave.

“Hey, you don’t have to go. It was just a big misunderstanding. Summer was just upset about what happened.” I said, which caused Jilahni stopped and looked in my direction. I could see the anger radiating from her. “Are you serious. She was upset? Why is it that she gets to act out physically and verbally then gets coddled by you but me and my family get attacked when we defend and protect ourselves in response to her bat st crazy behavior. She can feel however she wants about me but I told you she isn’t allowed around our babies but now she’s under the impression that she will be raising them? The math ain’t mathing Kahi. So since you refuse to tell her what the deal is let me tell her so she understands how it will be.” Ji’lahni said stepping around me to face Summer.

"I need you and your flunky to understand that you are not allowed around my kids you are not allowed to speak on my kids. And as far as you thinking you will be allowed to raise them is a HELL NO and Summer I will kill you before I ever allow you to get anywhere near my kids." Ji'lahni said just as we all heard 4 clicks and looked down to see that all the girls had their guns pulled and c*d ready to prove that she wasn't lying. Where. the. hell. do they pull these damn weapons from. Summer visibly took a step back. "Kahi are you just going to stand there while she threatens to kill me. I'm the Luna of this pack we can't allow them to walk around threatening your luna." Summer sneered and some of the pack members nodded in agreement. "Ji'lahni please put the gun away you can't threaten the Luna of the pack that's against our laws." I said stepping between her and Summer. Summer stepped beside me wrapping herself around me. Ji'lahni looked at me in shock and hurt crossed her face. She then straightened and took a step back away from me.

She nodded put her gun back in its holder at her back and stepped around me. I tried to grab her arm to stop her and try and get her to understand where I was coming from. But she recoiled away from me as my hand touched her arm and she jolted almost took my breath away at how strong it was. Maka howled in sorrow at the rejection of our other half mate. "It's for the best they don't need to be here they don't belong here anyway. They always cause problems when they come around." Summer said. I didn't respond because I don't think she would like anything that comes out of my mouth at the moment. I could see Montego fighting the urge to chase after Lynn. This situation only served to validate what Lynn said, that they couldn't be together as long as Summer was luna.

After Ji'lahni walked out with my pups. Shadow, Hunter, Blaze, Montego, and most of the pack members that actually like the girls also left. Looking around at how many of my pack members loved Ji'lahni and her cousins shocked me. "See what they've caused. They have divided this pack and it will continue to divide until we complete our mating. When we complete the bond then everything will fall into place." Summer said. "Not now Summer." I said walking to my table taking my sit to get this dinner over with. An hour later I was so lost in thought I didn't see my parents come into the pack house. "Hey son. Where's my grandpups I heard they were eating here tonight, So me and your mom decided to join you. We haven't sat down with you guys in a long time." My dad said. Snapping me out of my thoughts. Before I could answer Summer jumped at the chance to answer. "They were here but me and Kahi decided it was best that we limit their exposure to the pack. Everyone seeing those... Pups and the humans causes a divide among those who knows that they don't belong here and reminds the pack that we aren't fully mated yet." Summer said happily.

"WHAT!!? Kahi please tell me you didn't go along with this." My mother yelled. "No mom there was a situation and they decided to have dinner at their house." I said pinching the bridge of my nose at the beginning of a headache. I really want this entire day to be over. But I want to clear things up with Ji'lahni first she needs to know I would never try and take the girls away from her. "Well I think we'll go have dinner with our grandbabies and our chocolate drops." My mother said turning away from us. "Wait! Mother Teri, don't you think as former luna that we should show the pack a united front. You really shouldn't have the pack members seeing you hanging around the humans all the time. I'm the Luna now I don't want us to have any problems." Summer said and I could literally hear the pack members that stayed slide their chair away from us. My mother stopped in her track and my dad quickly wrapped his arms around my mom lovingly but I know he is doing it to make sure my mother won't attack Summer. But she broke free. And in the blink of an eye. Had Summer by the throat. "First of all young lady, you know nothing about being a Luna, and you're technically not Luna because the mating isn't complete. Lastly you may have a say on who my son spends time with but you will never control who I spend time with. If you ever do anything to hurt my girls again my son the alpha will not be able to keep me from ripping your head off of your body and using it as a center piece. This pack has never been the type of pack to control their pack members and if that is the type of pack you and my son wants to run I will leave this pack and join my brothers pack before I stop spending time with my grandpups or my chocolate drops." My mother said as her eyes glowed emerald green when her wolf comes to the surface she finally let go of Summer who was gasping for air and crying. We were all shocked at how strong my mother's Luna aura was. There were rumors about her wolf being a warrior wolf blessed by the moon goddess with special abilities. Calling after her. "Mother you are allowed to spend time with whomever you want this pack has never been a dictatorship and it never will." I said and my mother nodded as she silently turned and headed to Jilahn's place. I kinda wish I was leaving with them too.

"Kahi you really need to talk to your mother she can't be allowed to do that to me. We can't let the pack members see us arguing and not showing a united front." Summer complained. "Enough!! You have been making outrageous claims all day. Understand I'm the alpha YOU DO NOT MAKE ANY DECISION WITHOUT MY Approval NOW GET OUT OF MY SIGHT BEFORE I HAVE YOU LOCK IN OUR QUARTERS AND WON'T BE ALLOWED OUT UNTIL YOU KNOW HOW TO ACT!" I said slamming my fist down on the table cracking it. Summer and Britney jumped and Summer turned on the water works. "I'm sorry but how can I run anything by you if you're never around. No mated couple has to hear that their mate is spending time with another woman and her babies. I'm trying to keep the pack running smoothly." Hearing that I quickly regretted my harsh words. Pulling her in my arms. "I'm sorry that you have to go through this. But before you make any announcement get my approval." I said kissing her lightly as she nodded.

Just as the omegas finished serving the food. I feel a tug in my mind. I opened the link knowing it was my dad. "Hey dad what's up?" I asked. "Are you sure the girls were eating dinner at their house?" He asked. "Yes I assume so, since they were planning to eat here but left after the situation with Summer." I said frowning. "Well they aren't answering. We don't hear any movement in the house. Your mother is starting to worry." my father said but I was already up and heading out of the pack house with Montego and Shadow right on my heels I had open the mind link when my father mentioned the girls. It took seconds for us to reach the house. I didn't bother with knocking I easily twisted the knob and open the door. The house was eerily silent we raced to the kitchen, but it was empty. Then me, Montego, and Shadow raced to the girls room. Opening the bedroom door I already knew they weren't there. My heart began to race violently. Maka was pacing back and forth in my consciousness waiting to come forward if needed. Walking to the closet I see that most of their clothes were gone and the babies things were also gone. So they weren't taking against their will which calmed me and Maka, but that was replace angry. Looking around I see a note on the pillow. Walking over to the note that has my name on it. With shaking hand I open the letter and my heart sink as I read her words.

Alpha Makahi,

I'm writing so you won't be worried as to why I'm no longer here. Me and my cousins think it's best that we leave your pack for right now. I know that as the babies get older I will need help dealing with their wolf half. But that isn't right now. I can't be here with your wife and her anger towards me and our girls She is a danger to my babies and I can't depend on you to protect them as you should because of your guilt and your need to protect your wife which I now know is something you can't control. I see how hard it is for you to do what you think is right. I don't want to put you in a position where you have to choose between me your daughters or your wife, but that is what your wife continuously tries to do to feed her insecurities. So with us gone I hope that it makes it easier for you. I decided to remove your guilt and bring you some peace. Me and our daughters presence seems to cause nothing but chaos in your life and relationship with your wife. if I take away your guilt you can finally have everything you've always wanted. I will not keep the girls away from you. I will contact your mother to make arrangements for you to see the girls. I just want you to have a break from YOUR MISTAKES as your wife calls us. I don't want my babies to ever feel like they were mistakes and the fact that you didn't say anything and they were there in the same room and people heard her call them that hurt me to my core. I need to do what's best for my babies. I hope you can understand that.

Ji'lahni

By the time I finished the letter I was sitting on the bed because my legs gave out at the realization that they left me that my daughters were gone. I felt anger but Maka was howling in sorrow and blaming me for not protecting our pups and saying how we shouldn't have marked Summer and now because of me we have lost our mate and our pups. My mom came to sit beside me and took the letter from my hand and read it. She let out a cry as my father tried to comfort her then we hear deigo howl and jumped out of the bedroom window and Shadow silently walked into the room. "Alpha I came to tell you that I will be taking a leave of absence to search for Shawna. I will be back when and if she returns on her own terms. I have lost my other half mate I don't think I can survive without... Her I can't lose her too." He said and walked out without waiting for a response from me and stripped as he walked out no doubt to try and catch their scent before it disappeared.

My mom stood and hugged me putting my head on her chest that was when I heard myself crying and I just let the pain of my broken heart go. Once I was cried out my mother led me out of the house and they escorted me to their house and took me to my old room I sat on the bed as my father came in and sat beside me. He hadn't said anything since he told me they weren't there. "Son I can't imagine the pain you're feeling. But I do know that you have to make a decision about your other half mate and Your marked mate. Their is a reason you still have a connection which shouldn't be. That alone should tell you something the moon goddess has a plan for you and Ji'lahni that is the only reason that would explain why you still feel the other half mate bond. Maybe you have to only choose who you truly want to be with. Everything will be as it should once you make the choice. You have to only have faith in the moon goddess's plan." My dad said getting up walking to the door. I was looking at him in shock I couldn't believe that I hadn't thought of it myself. Maybe all I had to do was make a choice.

Stopping at the door my father turned once again. "Son." he said and I looked at him. Go get my chocolate sundaes and our chocolate drops. You don't want to see what your mother does once she finishes crying and let the anger of what your luna did which caused her grandpups to leave sink in." he said leaving my old room. I was up and stripping I mindlinked Montego and Shadow hoping I wasn't too late. "Montego I know your hurting but I'm going to find my mate and my pups please help me find our girls and bring them home. I didn't hear from them right away after what seems like forever Montego finally answered with simple word. "OK". Once I caught up with Shadow their scent mixed with the fumes from their car we followed that scent and soon Montego joined us in the search we had one mission. FIND OUR MATES.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 38

JJ'LAHNI POV: 4 hours later...

"Not this st again Mina. where the hell are we?" I said as I breastfed Tru. We were on our way to momma Teri brother's pack. We made a rushed decision but we wanted to be safe not stupid. I told them about the dream, vision, or whatever you want to call it with the moon goddess and we agreed we're not taking any chances. Especially with Summer, the moon goddess told me to watch my back where she was concerned seeing how Kahi treated her and allowed her to say whatever she wanted and how she always plays the victim. Showed me that I'm the only one who would protect my babies. Shawna and Mina remembered momma Teri talking about her brother and when they were attacked momma Teri used their phone to call him.

We quickly called him and told him a little piece of the situation. He reluctantly agreed because we told him we were definitely going somewhere and we would prefer it be with other wolves for the girls sake and safety. So he agreed and said he wouldn't call Crystal Moon but he will not lie to his family if they ask, we understood and agreed, so here we are lost again. "Hey we not doing that. We weren't lost the first time. I'm following the directions giving. So don't start because yall could've drove." Mina said smartly. The babies were getting restless and whining. I think they somehow knew they were leaving their daddy. But I needed to get away from him and his back and forth over our obvious connection and then his guilt, and what happened this morning was the last straw.

"Hey look I think I see a guard shack." Lynn said. "It's almost 1am with no street lights it's completely dark you don't see a damn thing." Shawna said and laugh. "I swear it's a building up there look Mina I know you see it.” “I see something but I don’t know what it is but we will find out.” As soon as she said that lights lit up the road and Mina slammed on the breaks. “st! What the hell! Are we about to get beamed up somewhere? why they hell do they have it so bright. I can’t see shit.” Lynn said. A man came out of nowhere and tapped on the window. “st!” We all screamed pulling weapons out. The man held his hands up in surrender with a smile on his face. Mina let down her window. “Hey man! You don’t sneak up on black folks like that, Because that will get you f*d up.” Lynn said. “My apologies. I’m Storm the commander of the Blue Star pack the Alpha told us you were coming to visit. Please follow the path up ahead, one of the omegas is waiting to show you to the house you will be staying at during your stay and I have informed the Alpha you’re here. He said he will allow you to get settled and will see you in the morning for breakfast at 8 am. Someone will be at your place at 7:45am.” He said with a warm smile and a wink.

“Damn, is all werewolves built like gods that black t-shirt did not hide his 8 pack in HD his arms looks like pythons and I know yall saw that air freshener can in his pants.” Mina said as she rolled up the window. “Would you shut the hell up you know that he probably heard you right?” I asked laughing. “Yes I hope he did hear me. Why do you think I rolled the window up super slow.” Mina said and we all burst out laughing. “You’re a damn fool. But I did see that bottle soda and that is him soft. What the hell you think it will look like fully erect?” Shawna asked. “st a damn baby leg. You mess around and lose a kidney fg with him.” I said as we all laughed. Although we missed our boys we felt at ease and safe here.

Just as Storm said a woman was waiting at the gate in a golf cart. She motioned for us to follow her. Once we reach what would be our temporary home she hopped out the golf cart and greeted us with a warm smile and gushed over the sleeping babies. She was super nice her name was Raine apparently she was Storm’s twin and talkative. She was on 10 at 1am and we were at a 0.1. The sandman had us all in a sleeper hold we were fading fast. They had 2 guys waiting to carry our bags in. We didn’t even really look around they showed us the rooms and the bathroom and the rest we would see in the morning. They left as soon as the showed us where everything was they had put a bassinet in the master room for the girls and Raine said the alpha had brought out an entire store for the girls he was so excited about the girls coming to visit him these were his first grand nieces so he was over the moon happy. After they left, Lynn and Shawna helped me get the girls ready for bed before they crawled to their rooms to sleep. I took a quick everything important shower then crawled in bed falling to sleep almost instantly. But not before I felt a chill run through my body which made me a little uneasy. Not sure what that meant but I was too tired to worry about it. I needed to sleep before the girls woke up for a feeding.

A few hours later

Hearing the girls let out a cry I sat up quickly looking around confused for a second before I remembered where we were. Still sleepy I go over and pick up Tru and placed her on my bed then got Teri, once I was back in bed with both girls I sat up pillows to support my arms as I held the babies head to head. I fell asleep as the girls treated me like a cow. They were milk drunk when I woke up a few minutes later. I burped and change them and put them back in their bassinet, to be so tiny they ate a lot. I glance at the clock and saw that it was 5am I had an hour before I had to get up. I crawled back in bed and I could have sworn I heard Kahi's voice in my head saying Mine! "Well that's Weird." I said out loud.

Meanwhile.... Makahi pov:

"Damn it! We lost their scent." I growled in our mindlink. We had traveled for hours following their scent we were in wolf form running at full speed in order to get as much area covered before we lost their scent. We knew the general direction but needed to get back and regroup so I mindlinked hunter the direction we were headed in. He was on his way with clothes and a truck, we will head back and regroup and continue trying to track them. We also had their license plate number and gave it to one of our buddy's who worked security to run it and get the tracking from the rental company. It would take awhile to get the information so we decided to wait on that and clear our heads. We were all angry and on edge because they left without a word knowing the dangers that is still out there and we were afraid that the wrong people will find out that the girls had left the pack, especially Summer. It was unspoken but I knew the fear that Montego and Shadow had, they respected me enough to not say it outright. But honestly I had that same fear. I already told my mom and dad to not say a word about the girls not being there we will just say I had them confined to the house because they threatened the Luna. It was believable and would satisfy Summer's ego.

Now that I made the decision to mate with Jilahni I needed to avoid Summer as much as possible. Maka was going crazy in my subconscious he didn't want to head back he wanted to continue searching, looking at Montego and Shadow their wolves were doing the same thing as Maka. "Chill the hell out we need to be clear headed when we find them you can't be overbearing we still have to convince her to allow us to mate her on top of the fact that their blood could kill us." I said to Maka, he calms down at my words. I told Montego what my dad told me and that I decided to take the risk. Hoping that the moon goddess protected Summer and her pup. That was my only concern but I needed to do this I now realized that I was in love with Jilahni I fell in love with her before I even met her. I just hope she feels the same way about me after everything I did to her.

Hunter pulled up with the truck once we piled into the truck and headed back to the pack, my mind could only think of Jilahni and my pups as Maka growled Mine! "yea buddy you're right they're Mine." I sighed.

Back to Ji'lahni POV : 7am

"Would yall hurry up. The Alpha is sending someone in 30 minutes to take us to breakfast ." The girls were being fussy this morning. I fed and changed their diapers and had their clothes picked out for my cousins to put on while I showered. "Calm down we're right here." They said grumbling because as I said before, we're not morning people. But seeing the girls they perked up and immediately starts cooing and talking to them blowing strawberries on their cheeks and tummies the girls loved them so much. I headed into the bathroom for a quick shower. Exactly at 7:45 someone knocked on the door. Carrying Teri in her arms Lynn swung the door open to Storm smiling face. "Good morning ladies, I hope you slept well last night." He said eyeing Lynn with a smile licking his lips. Lynn ignored him and turned around to put Teri in her car seat. "We slept great we just didn't sleep long." Mina said carrying Tru in her arms, apparently she decided to change Tru's clothes so they both wore pink. Tru was in a pink little dress with matching undies. Her hair was in two pigtails with pink bows. she had a head full of curly black hair so the pigtails looked like afro puffs. Teri on the other hand had one pigtail her hair was a dark brown color she ironically also matched Lynn and Shawna who wore royal blue.

Coming down the hallway towards the door. "Oh so nobody told me we were watching. Yall know those are my babies right?" "Yea yea grab the diaper bag and Teri's car seat." Mina said walking out the door towards the golf carts. "I don't like yall I hope we're clear on that." I yelled at their backs as I closed the doors behind me. Once we reach the pack house, and walked into the dinning room just like before, as soon as we entered the dinning room everyone stop talking and turn their gaze towards us. "Damn deja vu, here we go again." Mina whispered. "From the front of the room a big tall man came barreling towards us he looked like a female version of Momma Teri, just bigger like a big teddy bear he was all muscles like he lived in the gym and just like his baby sister he doesn't look a day over 40. God damn werewolf genes.

"It is so good to finally meet my sister's daughters and grand pups. Which means you girls are my neices and must call me uncle Felix." He said gathering us in bear hugs lifting each of us off the floor before he grabbed both of the car seats and told us to follow him. He had vacant seats for us next to him he even had chairs next to him that fit the girls car seats perfectly so they faced the table. But Uncle Felix didn't even put them in the chairs, he wanted to hold both girls in his hands. he didn't even want to put them down while we ate he had them in the palm of his big hands, which they snuggled in them he was baby talking with them the entire time and my girls as usual also talked their little heads off. His entire pack was so different then Crystal moon everyone was so nice they admitted they didn't have many human people that knew what they were so it felt so good to have us there and not have to hide and lie about who they were.

The younger women were asking about human men. I figured because I was able to have s*x and have babies by a wolf they were curious and talking about maybe seeing if they had other half mates that were human. Once breakfast was finished the alpha asked us to meet him in his office. Still holding the now sleeping girls on his shoulders with spit up and slobber draining down his shoulder. He shooed me away every time I tried to wipe it off, he did not care about his ruined shirt. Sitting at his desk he leaned back gently bouncing and rubbing the girls looking at the both of them with obvious love in his eyes he acted just like their grandpa he sniffed them and his eyes changed to that of his wolf who purred before his eyes changed back, he focused on us for the first time as we sat there not liking being ignored but we had to get use to it because it happened every time we had the girls with us.

"Well can one of you tell me what brought you here without the alpha and my sister knowing that you left and came here. Although I love that I finally got to see these two beautiful pups here and they're the only reason I'm agreeing to not say anything to my sister or nephew which I'm sure that if Kahi doesn't kill me my baby sister definitely will." He said in a loud whisper as to not wake the girls. Damn I thought I wouldn't have to explain why we left. That's a lie I knew I would, I was just really hoping that I didn't. Taking a deep breathe I told him the most important parts of the story he didn't need to know about the babies power and I didn't tell him about Lynn and Montego either. "That's why we left. We're not trying to cause you trouble so you can call momma Teri and let her know where we are but we will ask her to talk to her son and give us some time to figure some things out." He visibly relaxed at not having to lie and keep this from his sister and best friend. Dialing her number she picked up on the 2nd ring. "Hey baby sister." He said when she answered. "Oh Felix I'm so glad you call I was going to call you today. My chocolate drops and my grandpups are gone they left because my dumb a*s son couldn't keep his bh mate in line. So they left and we have no idea where they are or if they're OK. I'm so worried about them." Momma Teri said crying. We all looked at each other feeling like crap we didn't mean to hurt or worry her we weren't thinking about anything but getting away from the guys.

Just as we were about to say something the girls beat us to it. They immediately woke up when they heard their Nona's voice. "Felix what was that." She questioned softly and hopeful. I decided to speak up. "It's us momma Teri we came to your brothers pack. We're so sorry that we left without telling you. We just needed to get the girls away from Sumner we just didn't feel like Kahi would be able to protect them from her because of his guilt and their mating bond which makes him and his guards protect her." I said in a rush. "OH MY GOD! ANTONI I FOUND THEM THEY'RE WITH FELIX." She cried in relief. We heard Antoni pick up the phone. Felix is it true my girls and my sundas are with you." He said his voice full of emotion. And we felt even worse now. This time Mina spoke up. Yes we're here and safe popa Toni." "Thank God! We were so worried about you girls. We're glad you're safe." He said just as Teri got back on the line. "Girls I'm so sorry you had to deal with that bh. I only wish you would have said something we were so worried and the boys are so worried about you and the pups. Kahi is almost feral. He needs to know you and the pups are safe." momma Teri said. "Momma Teri I'm so sorry we made you guys worry we just didn't think that we would be able to leave if we told anyone. But please don't tell him we're at your brother's pack right now. Can you please just tell him that we're safe and just need a few...." A loud crash could be heard on the other end of the line and a deadly growl. All we could hear is angry breathing. "No need to tell me anything. Uncle I'll be there in a couple of hours." Kahi said in a deep growling voice disconnecting without another word. "Damn he mad as hell Cuz." Mina said looking at me with the oh st look.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 39

MAKAHI POV:

I was pacing my office floor. Barely able to keep Maka at bay. He was fighting for control with the need to find our mate and pups. How could she just up and leave without saying anything. "You know why she left. Because you marked Summer and just took her side when Summer was causing all the drama. You choose Summer for a second time." Maka growled. I knew he was right but that doesn't stop the anger and fear. Going to sit behind my desk picking up the phone to call our connect to see if he was able to track the car the girls used. But before I could dial the number my mother screamed in the mindlink. "WE FOUND THEM SON!" Which was all I needed to hear as I ran out of my office, half shifted in the blink of an eye. I was at my parents door just as I heard, "Momma Teri I'm so sorry to make you guys worry we just didn't think that we would be able to leave if we told anyone. But please don't tell him we're at your brother's pack right now. Can you please just tell him that we're safe and just need a few...." I crashed into the house and picked up the nearest phone in the house. "No need to tell me anything. Uncle I'll be there in a couple of hours." I said in a deep growling voice and hung up the phone without another word. I turned to head back out the door. "Shadow, Montego head to the gate." I mindlinked.

"Son." My father said grabbing my arm I growled instantly which would make any wolf back away and bare his neck, although I'm stronger then my father now that I'm alpha, he was still of alpha blood so it takes more then a growl and a small amount of alpha commend for my father to submit. Taking a deep breath. I turn to hear him out. He never really interfered or give advice unless it's important and needed to be heard. "Son you can't go into your uncles pack with this much aggression. They left because they didn't feel like you or Montego could protect her pups because of your loyalty to your luna. If you go there demanding her to return here while Summer is still luna then you will have a fight on your hands. Try looking at it from her point of view the man she's obviously in love with, choose to mark another... her being human their feelings don't just go away when you mark another. So having to see you and Summer together while she threatens to take her children you can't ask any mother to come back to an environment like this. If you force them you will lose them all." He said letting my arm go walking into the house closing the door as I left. Thinking about everything my father said made sense I needed a plan on how to get my mate back I will use this time during the ride to think of a way to get Jilahn and my pups back. Just as we made it to the main gate. Alarms rang out indicating someone has breeched our borders. ROGUES!!! ON THE EAST Borders!

JJ'LAHNI POV: 2 weeks later

"I love it here. Everyone is so nice and the men are just to sexy." Mina said falling into the sofa next to me as I held a fussy Tru. She grabbed her from me and started walking and bouncing her. We have been here now for about 2 weeks. We all seem to fit right in everyone was so nice here and we didn't have to deal with drama of mates. Me, Lynn, and Shawna liked it here but we all missed our men well not my man but the father of my babies. I don't know why I still think about him he is basically a married man he made his choice the day he marked Summer and we have learned that once marked they do it for life. They only want their mate and find other women unattractive. But that hadn't happened with me and Kahi we have had stolen moments and that time in the hospital room where we almost.... "Earth to Lahni." Mina said waving her hand in front of my face.

“What?” I asked moving her hands out of my face. “” Please don’t tell me you daydreaming about Kahi again? I told you to just leave him alone he damn near married. You must like to break your own heart still wanting to be with him knowing he will choose his wife over you every time.. Which is literally why we left there in the first place.” “Don’t do that. I know all that but I can’t just stop having feelings because I left or what he did. I left because I know he will always choose Summer but that doesn’t stop me from having feelings for the father of my children. Eventually I hope and pray my feelings will disappear. But until then I will deal with them the best way I can.” I said taking a sleeping Tru from her and placed her next to her sister in their bassinet.” I get it cuz. But in order to get over it you have to be open to let others in whether friends or a man you have to do more then sit in this house looking at babies that look like their daddy. All day long you’re more then just their momma. With that said I invited Storm and some of his friends over for a game night. We’re going to play some cards for money. They think they’re going to take all our money. But we let them think that we don’t know how to play that well.” Mina said with a smirk. “I know yall not going to hussle them dudes out their money. This is so wrong Shawna is basically a professional poker player.” I said shaking my head. We all learned the game of poker in order to play with elite players and casinos in order to raise money to buy the building where we opened our business. Shawna was a beast at the table she had the ability to dictate when someone was bluffing and even deduce what a player really has based on the cards on the table. “Hey its not our fault they were talking about playing poker tonight and we asked if we could join and they looked at us like we grew 2 heads and started laughing talking about they wouldn’t want to take money from girls and how we were not in their league. So we said that they could have the game at our house and we will provide the food and you know wolves love food so they agreed and even said they would take it easy on us and just so you know Dom is coming as well.” Mina said laughing.

I rolled my eyes at the mention of Dominique aka Dom the beta of the pack. Ever since the day we met he has made it well known that he was interested in me even after the Alpha told him who I was he said he doesn’t care that I have pups and he would gladly step in as father if Kahi abandons them. He was really sweet, caring, and is great with the girls. He asks me out every single time I see him and I always say no. He doesn’t pressure me he simply says he’ll wait as long as it takes. I smiled thinking of him. “Oooooohhhhhh I see that small smile on your face at the mention of Dom. I think he is wearing you down. That man been trying to get you to go out with him since the 1st week we got here. You can tell he really likes you, so why not just go out with him 1 time to see what happens. Just make sure you be honest about your feelings regarding Kahi and also that you know everything about mated wolves but you’re human and need time to get back to your old self. If he agrees then why not say yes to a date.” Mina shrugged. I must admit she has a point I cant keep dwelling on things I can’t change and focus on things I can. So if Dominique ask me out again I’m going to put everything on the table and if he can accept that then I will say yes to 1 date. I thought as excitement stirred in my stomach at the thought of going on a date.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 40

MAKAHI POV: 2 weeks later

“WHAT THE HELL IS TAKING SO LONG!” I bellowed to everyone and no one. It had taking us almost 4 weeks to defeat rogue attacks. After they attacked my pack we immediately got word that there was another attack on packs that we had alliances with and it has been back to back travel around the country fighting rogues that seem to be well thought out plans made by Alpha Zane. One of my warriors had suggested that he was using these attacks as a distraction but my uncle told me that he had no rogues on his land or outside their borders within a 100 mile radius. So it must be another reason he is attacking these packs. We were currently at moon shade pack we have been here for 3 days fighting off rogues. We finally had control of the situation here and hadn't gotten a call about another attack and I was itching to get back to my pack and then head to my uncles pack to see Jilahni and my pups. I sighed they were getting so big. My uncle sends me pictures of them all the time I even talk try to talk to them via mindlink like I did before they were born and before I marked Summer but I only get little feedback or nothing at all which only frustrated me even more. I tried reaching out to Jilahni but so far she isn't responding Mina always answers with the pups so I could look at them on a video call and talk to them every morning and again in the even before bed I read them stories I love those times I get to spend with them but I also wish I could just talk to Jilahni. I can't blame her for not wanting to speak to me, especially after what my father said about how she may have felt. I have had time to think about everything and I can see why she felt she had to leave but that doesn't mean I had to like it.

“Alpha they said the jet was fueled and ready to go.” Blaze said coming through the door of the private air hanger we have been waiting for hours as the air plane workers fixed and fueled the plane that would take us back to Krystal moon. “About damn time. Now let's just hope no other packs calls us before we make it back home.” I said walking out towards the plane. “Once we're back we will brief the packs on what's been happening and make sure everyone stays alert because we don't know if the rogues will attack again, after that we will head to my uncles pack to get our girls. I said to Montego and Shadow who were following closely behind me. Once we were in the air I sat back with my eyes closed thinking about seeing my girls again. I will make sure she knows how I feel and know that I will do whatever I have to do to make us a family. Just then Summer entered my mind. I missed her like crazy we have been bonded for over a month and the bond has only grown but not to the point that my feeling for Jilahni had disappeared or even lessen because it hasn't. I have absolutely no idea what was happening this has never happened to a mated couple.

I am still figuring out how I'm going to handle the mating with Summer. I don't want to hurt her but I can't lose Jilahni. Before I knew it we were landed and heading to the pack. I had called my parents to tell them that we were on the way back and to have everyone at the pack house on the lawn so I can tell them the new protocols and new security guidelines until we can figure out what the rogues has planned. I really wanted to get the girls back to the Crystal Moon. I wanted to make sure they were protected because although I don't know what his next step is I'm sure the end game is Jilahni and our girls and I would kill anyone who threaten them in anyway...Maka snorted... "You do remember why our girls left in the first place because you couldn't protect them from your luna." He grumbled.. "I don't need the reminder I know why she left. I plan to handle that." Maka laugh in my head... "Yea I'll wait and see how you plan to handle that, especially when your luna is bat st crazy." Just before i could respond there was a loud scream and I was barely able to prepare myself to caught Summer as she threw herself in my arm kissing me wrapping her legs around me like we weren't on the front porch of the pack house with everyone gathering. Because of our bond my body immediately reacted to her and kissed her back wrapping my arms around her. Maka growling snapped me out of the bonded haze and I Immediately placed Summer on her feet which she whined. Maka growled in annoyance covering his ears. "Yea I have a better chance of trying to get the moon goddess to put me in another wolf so I could leave you to deal with this on your own so I can be with my pups." Now I was the one who growled thinking of another wolf being with his girls. Maka just laughed at him and retreated to the back of my mind so he wouldn't have to deal with Summer or her wolf. Maka was never rude to Summers wolf but he didn't like dealing with her wolf more then necessary again something I have never heard of any wolf being able to do it. Maka didn't know either but he didn't care as long as he kept his connection to Jilahni even though she had no wolf he was still connected to her as a simple human.

"Son I'm so happy you're back and safe. I was so worried did you find out who is behind these attacks and what they are planning." My mother said pulling me down for a hug as my dad gave me a one arm hug. "Good to see you mom and I'm about to share all the information we found out about right now." I answered as I released my mom. I hesitated before asking. "Have you spoken to Jilahni?" I asked and I could immediately hear Summer snide and snort in disgust. My mom ignored her and nodded. "Yes we talk to our girls everyday. My grand pups are getting so big I really wish they were here so we don't miss anything, but unfortunately some of our wolves act like the rogues you have to kill but we can't so they aren't safe here. Me and my mate went to visit last week and spent time with them. We were thinking about going to your uncles pack for a while so we can be near our grandpups. We really don't have any duties that we can't delegate to the old Bata and his wife. If we needed to come back for anything we could do that." My mom finished. I frowned at hearing that they planned to leave the pack for an unspecified amount of time like they had no faith that I could get Jilahni and our pups back. " Mom you don't need to do that I'm going to get them as soon as I wrap up everything here. One thing we did find out was Alpha Zane was behind the random attacks that meant whatever he has planned includes Jilahni and my pups." I said as my mother's face immediately drained of color no doubt remembering everything Jilahni had been through while pregnant the fact that the babies are now here makes it even worse. "Son, should me and your mother go there and let your uncle know what's happening to help protect them until you can get there?" My dad said in a low growl his reaction to hearing his chocolate sundaes may be in danger. "No. Me, Montego, and Shadow are going there once I address the pack and makes some calls to let my uncle know we're be there by tonight." I said. Not knowing Summer was listening.

"Kahi you can't be serious. You really planning to leave me again to go chase behind those little humans and their pups... What about me and our pup I haven't seen you in more then a month and you plan to leave me in the same night?" Summer whined with her eyes watering. My mother gave a loud annoyed sigh rolling her eyes. I must admit she was now getting on my nerves but I didn't want to have to deal with her right now I needed to get this over with so I can hit the road to my pups and my woman. Turning to Summer. "We'll talk about this once I fill the pack members in on what's going on." I said not waiting for a reply. I turned and stepped to the front of the porch and began filling the pack members in on what happened and what we found out and the new security measures that we all will have to go by. I always tell my pack members exactly what's going on so they will be more inclined to follow the new security protocol to make sure our pack is protected at all times. Once I finished the conference we all filed in the dinning hall to have a welcome home dinner my mother organized once she found out we were coming back. "Son I'm so happy you're back and safe. We have been so worried about you with all of those rogue attacks that has been happening. It seems as though there is something big that sick twisted monster Alpha Zane has planned, I'm truly worried about my girls and my grandpups being so far away." My mother said sadly echoing my own feelings. "I know mother I will make sure they are safe. They are my top priority now that we are back." I said. Confidently.

"Excuse me?" Summer said angrily. "How can you still be ignoring me and our pup. Why aren't we your top priority, I'm your luna and I'm carrying you heir inside my belly. Why are you more concerned about those humans and their halfbreeds." I let out a low growl which caused Summer to gasped and leaned away from me." Summer I know have been gone for a while but I clearly remember me telling you that I will not allow you to disrespect my pups. That rule still stands and just so we're clear and you fully understand the next time you speak on them without acknowledging them by name or as my pups I will have you escorted to the cells for 1 week. Am I clear?" I growled my eyes glowing showing that Maka had also come forward." You can't possibly think to put your luna in the dungeon?" "You disrespect my pups or their mother again and I will escort you there myself. Your uncle is after my pups and their mother and I plan to bring them back here to keep them safe. And once they are here you will not go near them or even speak to them. I don't want anymore drama where they're concern. They are apart of this pack and im not asking you to accept them but you will respect them as a member of this pack or you can reject me right here and right now it's your choice." I said using my Alpha's aura which had everyone baring their neck in submission and understanding what I just said isn't only for Summer but everyone. "Also to my warriors you are no longer to protect your luna if she provokes any of the human women. Unless you feel the attack isn't deserved. Are we clear?" I turn to my warriors. As they nodded their heads in agreement. Shadow and Montego seems to relax a bit. I knew they were worried about their women. I wouldn't allow Summer to ruin their relationship with her antics. This would also help Montego convince Lynn to reconsider their relationship if she knows that he now didn't have to protect his luna from her and yes I'm stacking the deck in my favor when trying to convince Jilahni to come back if her family wanted to return back. But my biggest problem is trying get her to allow me to mate with her. I still don't know what it would do to me with her blood having wolfbane in it and also me having already marked someone else. But I have to try because losing her isn't an option for me nor my wolf.
