

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 81

Zane's POV:

"I want to go home I don't want to stay in this pack I want to go back to Crystal Moon." My grandson Razor said, for the thousandth time. I already told you that you can't go back their they are dealing with their own problems, and it isn't safe for you there right now. So would you please just shut up." I yelled at him banging my hand on the table where our food was laid out. He jumped and whimpered. I took a deep breath to calm myself. He's just a pup and don't understand what is going on, but I do. Now that the witch knows about him I have to protect him, so he won't be used against me if I have to face the witch again. which is why I brought him back to my pack. When the fight between the wolves and the witch was going on I took the opportunity to get the hell out of dodge with my grandson. I never thought I would have to make a decision like that before. I made sure to keep my distance from the boy because I knew my enemies would try to use him against me If they thought I had an emotional connection with my son's pups. So, I always remained indifferent whenever I saw him. People thought I hated him because he looked exactly like my dead son. But that wasn't true at all. Looking at him reminds me so much of my son that it scares me because of how much I do love the pup. He is the only thing left of my son and I can't allow anyone to take him away from me. But I had a mission and I needed to make sure I succeed before I could take my grandson back into my heart. I want to make sure I leave him a legacy and king of All werewolf shifters is the legacy I want to pass down to him when I step down. "Look once all this is over I will take you back to Crystal Moon, but for now you can't go back until it is safe. Now go take a bath and get ready for bed, omega maria is waiting upstairs for you. The boy nodded and sadly went to his father's old room. "Alpha we need to come up with a plan. There is no doubt that someone from Crystal Moon or the witch herself will be looking for us. So, we need to be prepared our pack members are starting to talk and become nervous." My Beta said coming into my office. "You think I don't know that? The witch Screwed me over and I have lost everything." I said pacing my office floor. "Maybe you need to just cut your losses for now until we know what the witch has up her sleeve." My Beta said. "No, I will not give up on everything I have worked for, I have come too far to just give up. All I need to do is just regroup and think of a way to get rid of both the witch and the Crystal Moon pack. The alpha of Crystal Moon is focused on the witch, he wants revenge for the death of his mother. All I have to do is let them kill each other than I can swoop in and get rid of the one who comes out on top. I will attack while they are weak and take them out." Then I can resume my plans to take over the rest of the packs. Once Crystal Moon is out of my way." I said, as I relaxed back in my chair it's nothing better than watching your enemies kill each other making it easier for you, to accomplish your objective. All I had to do is sit back and wait.

Razz's POV:

I raced from my grandfather's door after I heard what he wanted to do to my alpha. I really wanted to go home to Walahni and my god sisters because they had no one to protect them from the evil witch lady who wanted to hurt them. Everyone thinks I'm a little pup but I'm not. I'm big and I'm smart. I have been training really hard to protect my god sisters. I even started trying really hard in school. I have been learning how to move so nobody can hear me. That's how I was able to get out of my room and sneak to my grandpa's office door. I had taken the servant lady's phone and wanted to find a hiding spot so I could call the alpha to come get me. That's when I heard talking in my grandpa's office. My grandpa is a bad man just like my Auntie Summer. I really hope the alpha can come and get me. Running back to my bedroom and hide in my closet I dial the pack's main line which all pups had to learn when we started school. The line ring three times before someone picked up. "Hello, Crystal Moon." Someone said. "Can I speak to the alpha please. This is Razor and I need the alpha to come and get me from my grandpa's pack. Please." I said, trying not to cry, because big boys don't cry we have to be strong for the little girls because we have to protect them. The line went quiet, and I thought they hung up. "RAZZ! OMG IS THAT YOU!" I heard Walahni yell. I begin to cry uncontrollably not caring. "Walahni please come get me I want to come home I want to come stay with you and my sisters." I said as the tears fell from my eyes.

"I'm on my way. Don't you worry I'm coming to get you," Walahni said, and I breathed a deep sigh of relief. "Please hurry!" I said after I made her promise to hurry and come get me. I snuck out of the closet and put the phone under my bed and climbed in bed waiting for The alpha and Walahni to come get me.

Crystal Moon

"Was that Razz? Is he ok? Where is he?"

Shawna, Mina, and Lynn Asked at the same time. "He's with Zane, at his pack. He's so scared. We have to go get him. God knows what that bastard is doing to him." Ji'lahni said as she paced the floor she was trembling with fear and anger. She felt like she was about to explode it was so many things happening all at once. Her babies and papa Toni were in the hands of a crazy witch and now Razz was in the hands of his loony toon Grandfather. Although his wasn't my son and I have to rights to him I still loved him like he was my own and nobody would blame me from wanting to get him away from that bat st crazy Zane. "So, what do you want to do? Do we tell the guys?" Lynn asked, crossing her arms over her chest. The men had went to the conference room to brief the warriors on what is happening and assign them to protect the borders while we are in a meet with momma Teri and Lynn's grandmother when we go the call from saying that Razz was on the packs main line. I immediately picked up, not caring that it wasn't my phone or my office. "We need to find a way to get him away from Zane. I don't want anything to happen to him. Why is everything happening all at once." Ji'lahni said sitting in the alpha's chair her hand covering her face as she cried silently. The women all surrounded her in support they knew what she was dealing with, when it feels like you can't solve one problem without another one raising up. "You know we will do everything together. We will find a way to get our babies back safely. We will have this meeting with our momma Teri and Lynn's grandmother and figure out a plan to get the girls back then we go and get Razz away from his crazy grandfather by any means necessary.” Mina said fiercely, we all were shocked by her seriousness. She was always the one who tries to lighten the mood or lessen the blow or a problem. But it is rare that she is this serious. So, this situation must have hit her hard. “What’s going on? What’s wrong?” The alpha said barging into the room with Montego and Shadow right behind him. The women jump at the sudden interruption. They wipe their eyes immediately always hating for men to see them vulnerable. “Nothing we are just anxious to find out how we will be getting the twins and your father back not having them with us is taking it’s toll.” Shawna said answering for the women. Shadow looked like he wanted to go to Shawna and comfort her but she wouldn’t even look in his direction. He hadn’t had the opportunity to talk to her after she left him in the kitchen saying she would be leaving once they find the twins and the old alpha. He had his fist balled up and his jaw clenched tight at the thought of her leaving taking his pup with her, even though she said she wouldn’t keep his pup away from him the thought that she would keep herself away from him didn’t sit well with him nor his wolf and he knew he needed to figure out a way to solve his problems so he wouldn’t lose her or their pup. “Now that we all have had a chance to clear our heads, lets get started on this plan to get my mate and my grand pups back, from the bh who thought she could just walk onto my pack and take what’s mine. She’s about to find out what I’m capable of.” Lateri said and her eyes glowed emerald, green, which meant that her wolf was at forefront.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 82

In the alpha’s office:

“Oh my god woman we are not in an action movie we don’t have time for your superhero speech.” Lynn’s grandmother said coming in behind Lateri. “Oh, shut up, you old battle hag.” Lateri said, rolling her eyes. As they walked in and sat at the desk across from the alpha and Ji’lahni who was sitting in the alphas lap as he absentmindedly rubbed circles into her back comforting them both at the contact. Lateri smiled at the way they are already so comfortable in their roles as Alpha and Luna.

“We have 4 days to come up with a plan to get the girls back, and we will need those days to plan and prepare for the rescue.” Lynn’s grandmother said, with all seriousness. “WHAT!? I’m not waiting four days to go get my kids out of that bitches castle. There is no way I can do that Makahi.” Ji’lahni said angrily as tears fell from her eyes. “Grandmother why are we waiting so long to go get the girls? With me, you, and the wolves I’m sure we could get them back.” Lynn said coming to kneel in front of her grandmother. “I’m afraid it isn’t possible even if we wanted to. She would kill us time we crossed into the realm she is hiding in. We will need witches to protect your pack warriors as well as the humans who are the most vulnerable. Trust that she knows all your weakness she has had an insider in this pack for years as well as alpha Zane. She has been planning this for decades it is smart to know that she has thought of everything. So, it is up to us to throw in some curve balls in the form of the human women. She will attack you first because she knows that you and the mother of the pups are the mates of the beta and the alpha but she doesn't know who your truly are Lynn and she doesn't know what a mother and her family will do to get her babies back so we will have to use you girls as our starting point you will draw their attention." As soon as Lynn's grandmother said those words all the males growled loudly.

"NO!" All the male wolve said at the same damn time. "We can't allow our women to be used as bait in this plan." The Alpha said, as Maka, Diego, and Rane came forward as well. "Makahi, yall will not stop us from doing what we need to do to save our children." Ji'lahni said, getting up from the alpha's lap to stand next to her family as they all stood in solidarity . "But what if something happens to you I don't think I can bare it." The alpha said getting up and grabbing Ji'lahni by the arms. "And Shawna you're pregnant and just woke up from being in a coma." Shadow said confidently for the first time stepping forward. "Shadow I know I'm pregnant I also know how to protect myself in a fight remember I was doing just fine until you decided to save your mate and allowed her to try and kill me." Shawna fired back at him. But surprisingly he didn't back down. " You can hate me and blame me for what happened I will take that, but this is a whole different kind of situation and putting our pup at risk against a witch isn't a good idea baby please just think about this and stop trying to be defiant because you hate me. Shadow said, stepping to Shawna.

"You think I'm doing this to go against you I don't give a damn about what's going on between us right now all I am thinking about is our other babies. You may not understand us and the love we have for those girls. But I love them just as much as I love ours. We are a family, and we are all we have, and I know if it was us in this situation they would do the same thing I am doing. I will always keep me and our baby as safe as I can and trust and believe Ji'lahni, Mina, and Lynn will make sure no one touches me. I will simply be their eyes and ears and giving out head shots when needed I will be hidden away. Lynn has already started making me a vest that will protect my belly if I end up getting into a hand-to-hand fight, so please trust us we know what we are doing." Shawna said, trying to reassure Shadow. Although they weren't on good terms, she did understand why he was concerned.

"So, understand that we couldn't bare it if something happens to my babies because we weren't allowed to do whatever we could to get them back, just like yall are willing to die for them, understand that we are willing to do the same, please understand that." Ji'lahni said as tears fell from her eyes the alpha pulled her into his arms and held her their before he nodded at Lynn's grandmother to continue. "As I was saying, Lynn you and the human women will be the first to cross over. The witch will automatically think it's a trick and just send a few guards to handle them. While she is looking for the alpha and his warriors. But what she doesn't know is that Lateri who she thinks is dead will be with you, and once you take down her warriors you will use Lateri's mate bond to find the alpha and then the twins." Lynn's Grandmother said. "We have also called in some reinforcements who should be here in a 2 days' time they will provide us with a spell that will not allow her to bind our powers which I'm sure she has put a spell on her entire castle because she wouldn't want anyone being able to overpower her. It's what I would do.” Lateri said with a shrug. “Mother, I have been trying to figure out what happened to you what secrets have you been keeping from me?” Makahi asked frowning. “Son that is a very long story one that I can’t share with you at the moment. But please understand when the time comes I will tell you everything there is to know about me. Right now, we need to focus of getting our family back and killing that bitch.” Lateri said with anger. “Alpha your mother tells me that you are skilled at strategizing a plan of attack so it is less deaths on our side then theirs we will need that I will have a map of the realm she is using, and you can your men can plan once she attacks us. I have also called in the dragon riders as well they will aid us in this fight so when you are planning be sure to add in the air support.” “WHAT?! Grandmother you have called my siblings here? Why would you do that they will only cause problems and even cost of our lives I don’t trust them.” Lynn yelled angrily. “ENOUGH! Lynndoria Lou Chan you will not raise your voice at me I am still your grandmother. I called them because we will need all the help we can get. I know you and your siblings have history, but this isn’t the time to relive your past childhood trauma. You said you were willing to die for those pups then seeing your siblings again should be a piece of cake.” Her grandmother said as she got up to stand in Lynns face. “Says you I think I would prefer death.” Lynn said under her breath. Once her grandmother turned to sit back in her chair. “I heard that young lady do you need to speak to my cane. Have you forgotten your mind somewhere?” Her grandmother asked with a raised brow. Lynn just shook her head and bowed in shame. While the other girls sneakered but quickly hushed when her grandmother looked at them. “My brother and his warriors will be here tomorrow to start training with the rest of the warriors my brother is going to follow your lead Makahi.” Lateri said as she explained everything that will be happening over the next four days.

Back at the castle:

The Master’s POV:

Why the hell aren’t they bonded to me yet. They still cry at the sight of me, and Toni still refuses to even touch me.” I yelled frustratedly. It’s been two days and I have gotten nowhere with my mate or those damn pups. I have tried everything in order to make sure they were comfortable, and I even tried being gentle, caring, and loving to those pups and they still cry, and my mate ignores me. “Master you have to give them time they will come around. They will see the love you have for them and everything you have done to get them here and make sure they have everything they could ever want. Once that happens your mate will welcome you with open arms.” The traitor she wolf said. I must admit she has turned over a new leaf she is no longer a crying mess. “I don’t have time to waste, I know the alpha will be coming for me and I need my mate and those pups powers if I am going to defeat them. I’m sure by now he has contacted the witches council and they will be helping the wolves in this fight, so I need my mate and those powers to ensure that I defeat them.” I said pacing the floor I thought that once my mate was here in our home that he would see that everything I have ever done was for him to save him from that stupid other half mates bond. But I allowed her to have him under her spell for far to long and he has forgotten the love we once shared. Now it is up to me to make sure he remembers what we once had and our plans to rule the entire witch and shifter community side by side. “That’s what I must do make him remember. Go and take my mate to my lab and strap him to the table while I make the same potion I give Shaid.” I said excitedly once I give him the potion he will no longer remember that we of a dead mate. I’m glad she’s dead because I only have to make him forget her and I will not have to worry about her returning and trying to take him away from me again. After all these years I finally got my mate back and no one will take him away from me again.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 83

Back at the house:

Ji’lahni’s POV:

“I don’t know if I can take waiting two more days. I haven’t slept since my babies were taken. I don’t know if they are being taken care of or even if they are allowing papa Toni to care for them. I just need to do something anything to get my mind off of just trying to go and find them on my own.” I said as we all sat in the living room back at our house. We left the men at the pack housr to study the map Lynn’s grandmother gave them. I know Makahi feel like he failed his daughters, but he was doing the best he could we were trying to save Shawna from being kidnapped and possibly killed. So, no one blames him but himself. “We could go get Razz away from his insane uncle. Shawna said as she sat down with a sandwich. We all looked at her in shock. “What?” She asked with a mouth full of sandwich. “How the hell you fix a sandwich so fast and didn’t even bother to ask if we were hungry.” Mina said, crossing her arms. Shawna shrugged. “first of all, I was making yall a sandwich before we left but shadow pissed me off, so I ended up leaving the sandwiches on the table there is still some left if you want one.” Shawna said handing over her half-eaten sandwich. And mina tried to slap it out of her hand.

“If you would have knocked this sandwich out of my hand they would have to send out a search party for your body.” Shawna said with attitude, and we all laughed. “Oh boy, that baby got you threaten folks already. He a little Shadow Killer like his daddy.” Lynn said laughing. “Shut up! Don’t jinx my baby like that. How about let’s focus and get ready to go get Razz if Lynn was able to, find out where Zane’s pack is.” Shawna said taking another bite of her sandwich. “Yea I got the location and pulled it up on the GPS if we take one of their cars we could be there in an hour and a half. The question is how are we going to do that without the men finding out. You already know they will not let us go and get Razz right now. So will have to do it ourselves and make sure we don’t get our a*s kidnapped again because I can tell you we probably wouldn’t want to break out of Zane’s prison if our men find out.” I said, shivering I know Makahi will be mad once he finds out we went to rescue Razz in the first place and definitely because we are doing it alone without telling them.

“So, first things first we have to make sure Shawna’s role is away from any harm. We will drop you off on one of the mountains that overlooks his pack and you will be our eyes.

And Lynn has gotten you a long-range sniper rifle that you will use to take out anyone who is trying to attack us from behind. Lynn said the guard she talked said that Zane's pack house is in the center of the pack and I'm going to assume him being alpha that his room is on the top floor and I think Razz will be on that floor. That will also be Shawna's job to try and scan the pack house and see if you can locate where they may be keeping Razz. These werewolves smell everything, so I have some spritz that smells like sandal wood and dewy rain which she cover our scent and hopefully fool them enough to not thing anything is up. Then we will scan the entire pack and search for the weakest side to enter through. Once we do that, we have Lynn's tranquilizers that we will use to take out the guards. Once we do that we head straight to the pack house. Mina you will have 15 seconds to pick the lock, stay by the exit, and hide so you can take out anyone who comes in or tries to leave out. Lynn now that we know your a*s is a ninja you will be our offense if st goes down you're the only one who can possibly win a hand-to-hand fight with a wolf." I said, she cut me off..

"Possibly? Are you serious? Did you not see my skills?" you better put some respect on my name when you using it in a plan." Lynn said arrogantly. Rolling my eyes. "OMG somebody do one flip and killed 12 rogues now she Jet Li and Jackie Chan niece." Mina said, laughing as Lynn threw a pillow at her. "Oh god I can't deal with yall when you're like this. Let's stay focus. Now once we're hopefully Shawna will have located Razz if not we will have to do it the old fashion way and check each room listening first before opening it. Let's all expect that we will get caught. So, we don't act surprised and don't know what to do. Shawna if we are caught get your a*s back to the truck and go get help don't try and be a superhero. We fight to make sure we can stall them enough for Shawna to go get help and hopefully get Razz out of there to safety our main goal is to get Razz off his pack land and hope like hell he can find his way home or Shawna will luck up and see him and take him back to get help." I finished just as Lynn took her bag out of the hall closet. When I tell you I think Lynn is some kind of McGarvey assassin. I think She has every type of weapon known and unknown to man. We could tell witch ones were dragon weapons because every time she touched them they would glow. "Oh, shut nah Lynn you been holding out on us is that some kind out Laser gun that shoot out dragon fire or something? Shawna said picking up the damn weapon glowed as well as Shawna eyes did the same thing Lynn's did the night she attack shadow's mate. But Shawna's deep blue eyes glowed making her eyes look like lighten during a storm we all gasp in shock.

"What?! Why are yall looking at me like that?" Shawna said frowning in confusing. "Cuz your eyes are glowing, and the weapon is glowing it only supposed to glow when Lynn or someone from her blood line touches it. But your all is glowing right along with the weapon. I guess this is one of the things the dragon left with you when he healed you." I said looking at her in awe. Her eyes grew wide when I told her about her eyes you got up and ran to the hall mirror. "OMG! My fg eyes done changed colors. Wait I hope that doesn't mean I won't turn into a dragon because I told yall I don't think that st will be cute for me." She said coming back to sit on the couch she immediately put the dragon gun back in the pile and her eyes went back to normal. "Calm down I'm sure you have nothing to worry about." Lynn said with less confidence. She was just as shocked as we are seeing this. Now we have to wonder what else she can do that may benefit both the plans to get Razz and the babies back. "Your a*s don't sound as confident as you sounded when you first told me. I promise you Lynn I better not turn into no damn dragon. I swear I will light your hair fire.” Shawna said, eyeing Lynn who wouldn’t give her eye contact. “So, we have this plan, but nobody mentioned how we are going to get out of this pack without the men finding out at least until we are an hour away. Because if we just pas by the gates they will call Makahi and tell him that we were leaving. Mina said putting on her gear. “When I was finding out about Zane’s pack house I first asked him to show me all their cars so I can see if I can equip them with things that we could use when we are in battle and need to defend ourselves in case something happens, and we need to do a quick getaway. I’m suppose to meet him in an hour. So, once he shows me and I find the key we are going to either knock his a*s out or use a low dose of tranquilizer which I think is better and it will ensure he will be out for a minute unless someone finds him before he wakes up.” Lynn said giving her evil smile.

“Well let’s go and get our little Razz back.” I said, with a smile. “Just so we’re all on the same page and have a clear understanding. That when our men find out that not only are we not in this pack land, but we have went to the very pack that kidnapped us and wanted to force Ji’lahni to be his girlfriend. That they will more then likely kill us themselves after they drag our asses back here.” Shawna said, looking at us as we put on the last of our gear. We looked up at her and said. “Yup!” At the same damn time. Even knowing all that, we still was going to do it. We just needed to make sure we weren’t fooling ourselves thinking that we could pull this off without them finding out. We just hope they found out when it is way to late to stop us and they have no choice but to help us if we need it. Now let’s see how this st will turn out.

Ji’lahni’s POV:

“So, I want to be the first to say. If yall men catch us, yall are on your own.” Mina said as we approached the car storage. “Wow you would leave us hanging like that? That’s f*d up.” Lynn said as we look into the window to see if the guard is in the car garage. Mina nodded her head confirming that she would indeed leave us hanging. “Lynn make sure you get a nice car like that black Lexus SUV. I know that thing ride smooth and fast.” Shawna said as we see the guard walk into the garage.” OK yall let’s do it.” Lynn said getting up walking into the garage where the warrior waited. He greeted her with a smile as he began to show her the cars they use when they go to help other packs. When he turned around to open the hood of one car, Lynn, took the opportunity to jab him in the neck with the low dose tranquilizer. He dropped like a sack of potatoes. “Damn Lynn, we might need to check his pulse, that dude dropped super fast to say that’s a low dose.” Shawna said, looking at the guard worriedly. “Yea we gone need to bring him a gift basket.” I said as she made sure he was still breathing. Hey, it was a low dose. It isn’t my fault that he is a weakling that dose wouldn’t knock out a baby that fast. “ Lynn said after she grabbed the keys and we all hopped in.

“Hey, yall think they will stop us on the way out?” Mina asked. “Yup.” Lynn said as she cracked the window, pulled out a blow dart, and blew two darts, before the two guards could get up from their post. We all sat in the car staring at Lynn in shock. Glancing at us as we pass through the gate. “What?” She asked. “Who the hell are you? I swear you scare me sometimes, I’m glad you’re on our side.” Mina said shivering. We all laughed. As we headed into the night to either fk some st up or get f*d up either way we’re still gonna do it.

Makahi’s POV: 1 hour later.

“So, we have studied and gone over the map that Lynn’s grandmother gave us. What we will do is separate into four different teams the layout show that there are 4 entry and exit points. We have to assume there is secret passages and exits that she may use. We will have one team to recon the surrounding area for any hidden passages and tunnels. One of the other teams will be covering the girls in case they run into a bigger problem then they could handle. Once they are inside the castle you will then keep that exit clear for them to come out. Once they are out you will then cover them and get them to the safe point we will have set up and guard them until all teams return. Teams three and four we will cover the other exit points once she spots Ji’lahni and the girls the grandmother thinks she will assume they are not worth her time and try to seek me out because I’m the biggest threat. Once she comes for me we will need to keep her busy until my mother and the girls are back at the safe point. We will have dragons in the air which I will have them flying overhead to ward off any sneak attacks. My uncle and his men will be there for back up support we have no idea how many men she has there. They will be scouting outside of the castle for any other beings that may be lurking. This realm that we are unfamiliar with we have no idea what else is in that realm that could be a danger to us. This witch has been one step ahead of us and that ends now. “ALPHA, I WAS COMING FOR MY SHIFT AT THE GATE AND I FOUND THE GUYS KNOCKED OUT! I THINK WE HAVE BEEN BREACH!” One of my guards said via mind link. “st! Who the hell could it be it can’t be the witch that would be stupid. It has to be Zane. “I said racing to the gate. Once we got there the guards we just coming to. “What happen did you see who knocked you out? Did they breach the gates before they knocked you out?” I asked one of the guards. “No one knocked us out Alpha, No one came in. We had just patrolled the area and there was nothing. We felt a sting and after that everything went black.” They said still looking dazed. “Alpha, look this is what we found next to them.” My warrior said, handing me a small needle. I put it to my nose, and it had a pungent smell. “What the hell is this? Make sure all the women and children are locked in and safe then we scour the area and find the son of a bh who dared cross into my pack like this.” I said angrily. “Son, there will be no need for that, I know exactly what that is and who used it.” Lynn’s grandmother showed up out of nowhere. How the hell does she keep showing up out of thin air? “Son when you’re as old as I am. You learn how to move in silence. But I was simply out for a walk and saw you and your men here so I thought I would see if you needed any help.” Lynn’s grandmother said with a knowing smile. “Can you please stop doing that, stay out of my head lady.” I said annoyed. “Son I don’t need to read your mind to tell what you’re thinking.” She responded. “Just tell me what the hell this is and who the hell has broken into my pack?” I asked handing her the needle. “Well, this is a blowing dart that was dipped in a substances that knocks the victim on conscious. As for who broke into your pack that's easy, no one has broken in, but I would venture a guess that some people have broken out of the pack." The old woman, said with a smile. "What? Who the hell left the pack without my permission I didn't authorize anyone to leave the pack lands." I yelled angrily. "I'm going to assume that is why they used the darts to get pass your men." The grandmother said calmly. "Do you know who left the pack?" I asked, getting really annoyed that she won't just give me all the information she knows instead of having me play twenty questions. "Oh, son that's easy. I would first check my granddaughter and her friends. Those darts are made in our homeland, and we taught all the riders how to make them from different plants and herbs. Lynn was particularly good at mixing them, for whatever purpose she needed them for. Looks like she needed them to knock your men out so she and her friends could leave your pack. Which is a good thing that this time it was simply to knock them out, because she could have very well killed them had she wanted to." Lynn's grandmother said as she turned with her cane and walked in the direction of the girls house. Me, Montego, Shadow, and Blaze raced to the girls' house hoping like hell they weren't the one to leave the pack land without protection or telling anyone. They know how dangerous it is now that we're being targeted they wouldn't do something that stupid and reckless. I thought as I opened the door. To a completely empty house. Shadow roared in anger at the fact that his pregnant mate was out there somewhere. "Where the hell could they be? Do you think they went off on their own to try and find the pups and my dad?" I asked no one in particular. "No, they know that they're in another realm it would be pointless." Montego said, pacing the floor of the living room. "Alpha, earlier today we got a call at the main gate from the pup Razor I immediately sent the call to your office. I assume you were there because of the meeting." One of my guards came into the house. Rubbing his head. "Damn it Knight why are you just telling me this?"

"Alpha I never got the chance to, the human Lynn, asked to see the vehicles we use when we go help other packs, so she could see, if she could somehow modify them so her and her friends can help us when they are needed. I didn't think anything of it because we will be going on a mission soon and they will need to make sure they have everything they need in our vans." He said rubbing the back of his head. "What happen when she got there?" "I don't know she never showed I was waiting on her in the car garage when I felt a bee sting and ended up passing out. When I came to one of the SUV's were gone, then I came right here to see where they were, but you were here instead." Knight said, looking pained. "s*t! I swear when I get my hands on my mate I'm going to put her across my knee. I swear she better not get herself killed. Let's load up and someone go activate the tracking on the car they took and send it to our vehicle. Let's head out NOW!" I said heading to the Car garage. I swear they better not be going where I think they are. If they are I will wring all their necks. I thought as we hopped in the car speeding out of the gate. "You don't think they would.." Montego asked looking over at me. "Yea, I do think they are headed to Zane's pack." I responded, just as our GSP beeped and the location popped up on the screen. "DAMN IT! THEY ARE HEADED STRAIGHT INTO THE PSYCO ALPHA ZANE'S PACK!" Shadow roared loudly.

Chapter 85

Ji'lahni's POV:

"Damn we finally made it." I said as we pulled up to Zane's Pack outside of their borders. "We would have been here earlier if Shawna didn't stop every 10 minutes to pee." Mina said rolling her eyes. "Hey, I'm carrying this load and for some reason he must be sitting on my bladder. Beside you can't talk because if we let you drive we would have still been driving around looking for the place and you blaming it on google." Shawna fired back, we all laughed, because she was right. "Alright, lets get this party started so we can go back home and act like we did nothing." Lynn said, as she hopped out of the truck to get her weapons. "Yea, I see you still living in a fantasy land to think that the guys haven't found out we have left and are on their way." I said shaking my head a little more scared of Makahi then I am of going into Zane's territory. "Yea, I know I was just trying to be positive, Shawna you know what you're supposed to do. We are going to walk up that hill and see if we can get a secure spot for you to see the pack house. The map said that the best spot is up that hill once we make sure you're in position then we will make our way down towards the pack house. I will use tranquilizers on the guards and Shawna if you see any that we don't I need you to take them out. These tranquilizers are stronger than the ones I used on the guards in our pack these will keep them out for at least 4 hours. So, we should be good, let's strap up I have loaded our guns with tranquilizer bullets so we shouldn't have to kill unless we have no choice so our regular weapons as well." Lynn said, as she passed us our weapons. "You know Lynn we will have to have a long talk about how you know how to do all this killer assassin double o7 st, and why you didn't teach us any of this st?" Shawna said as we started to walk up the hill to our hideout spot. Once we made it to the spot we quickly made sure Shawna was well hidden and also have a spot for her to pee and still see us with binoculars. We saw three guards in the pathway we needed to take to the pack house. Lynn made quick work of the three guards with her blow darts. They were out instantly we had to take out a few more guards that came in our direction. Shawna even took out two that came our way from behind. That gave us a little more courage knowing that part of our plan worked. Once we got to the pack house underground cellar door we decided it will be easier to sneak in that way and take out anyone who was still up. But it was quiet the cellar exit door led to the kitchen, it was a big a*s kitchen it was all blue and gold I almost got hypnotize by the beauty, but Mina poked me from behind. "Would you stop drooling over the psycho wolf's kitchen." She whispered loudly. "I'm not drooling but it is a nice fg kitchen." I said as Mina found a spot behind the kitchen door to lay low and make sure if anyone comes in the kitchen she was take them out. Me and Lynn headed up the stairs once we checked that the coast was clear. I think he is on the top floor close to Zane's bedroom and office " Lynn whispered lowly, and I nodded in agreement. We headed up the stairs and had to hide in an empty room when we saw a servant woman come down the hall running and crying with her clothes torn and hanging off her body. We felt sadness and anger at the thought of what that nasty motha fucka did to her. We stepped out of the room and headed down the hall when we got near one room we could hear talking, we knew Zane's voice, but we couldn't tell who the other male was. We were going to just pass by but stopped when we heard who he was talking about.

Zane's POV:

"What the hell is it that was so important that you had to interrupt my meeting with that she wolf." I growled at my Beta. I had been fg one of my omega's trying to fk out my frustrations of not having Ji'lahni with me. I closed my eyes imagining it was Ji'lahni I was fg and not an omega. Before I could finish my beta knocked on the door. "We have some news on the witch. She is planning something on the night of the full moon. I don't know exactly what she's planning but it has something to do with those pups. Our informant thinks she plans to use them as a sacrifice to one of the gods, apparently she works for him, and she follows his command. They said that once the pups are killed that their blood will allow this god to walk the earth again." He said, with clear worry on his face. "st! Who the fk is she working with and what god is she trying to rise. This will ruin my plans if she isn't the one calling the shots." I said starting to pace. "I think she has made a deal with a very powerful God; no one has ever seen the amount of power she possesses, Now we know that she has been working with one of the Gods we just have to try and find out who she is working for and see if you can make a deal of your own." My Beta said, I nodded. "That means you will have to visit the witch and we both know that won't end well I can call in a favor. I know a witch that can make something so her powers won't work on you or at the very least anything she does wont be as powerful and you may be able to fight through it. But it's all risky and may not end well. So, you need to ask yourself if all this is really worth it. We could just stay out of it like the rest of the pack and go back to being one of the strongest packs in this country." My Beta said, looking me in my eyes. I know he doesn't agree with everything I have done and wishes that I let go of the idea of ruling the entire werewolf community. But he doesn't understand the vision I have. We could be the strongest species in the world we wouldn't have to live in the shadows and hide our true nature. We are the superior species and deserves the respect and the recognition and not hide in the background. "No, I will not give up on my plan just yet. I'm not afraid of that damn witch I know her weakness is that old alpha and if she crosses the line I'll just you him to control her. So, call your witch friend and get me that potion as well as something to mask my scent in case I have to make a quick exit. Also have a potion that controls vampires, I may have to use her own weapon against her. She seems fond of the vampire she wolf so she may be the perfect weapon to use against her. I said, as I sat back in my desk. I froze because I could have sworn I smelt a fate scent of.. shaking my head, it couldn't be I must be losing my mind or I'm missing the human woman like crazy. "Did you hear what I just said alpha?" "No say again." "I asked, How will you get to the vampire she wolf I'm sure she keeps her close by or locked up she more then likely have her under a spell as well." He said, in deep thought. "She doesn't have her under a spell. She is injecting her with something that affects her memories. As well as fooling her into thinking that her mate isn't really her mate and that she has giving her a potion to fool the wolf. But she is his other half mate even though she is now a vampire apparently the wolf can still feel the mates bond. Although I think once the injections wear off her memories will come flooding back. But she will still be the same evil that is all vampires, her soul is gone she can't feel any emotion other than to feed and kill. The Werewolf will have to reject her if he knows what's good for him. She will kill any and everyone she comes into contact with. The injection the witch gives her contains the true nature of all made vampires which is the intense mindless hunger. Born vampires are the only ones that are able to be civilized and interact with humans and shifters. But made vampires are just feral creatures that are used by born vampires to fight their wars." I said as I thought of how I will use and control the witches pet.

The Alpha's Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 86

Ji'lahni's POV:

Me and Lynn moved away from Zane's office door in shock. We had no idea how deep this thing went with the witch. I was honestly afraid for my cousin, with Shadow's mate being a vampire and all, who actually was just a victim in the witch's sick game. I know she said she was done with Shadow, but I also know she truly loves him, and she just needed what we all needed was for the man she loves to choose her without any influence or her having to sell herself, showing she is the better choice. We were all the same when it came to that. We don't believe in trying to convince a man of our worth. If our actions don't show and prove our worth, then man must not be worthy of us, and that's something we stand on even if we have to do it heartbroken and, bawling our eyes out, because we're still human and have feelings, but we always try and use logic and reality instead of emotions we just make sure that we feel the emotions while doing what's best for ourselves. It's ok to not be ok while doing what you know is right for you.

"Let's hurry and get out of here we have been here too long." Lynn said as she pulled me to another room. We checked three rooms before we found one that looked like it could belong to a kid. We entered the room quietly. Once we shut the door, we went over to the bed and saw a small form curled up in a ball sleeping. I cried silently after seeing him. It was like I was able to save at least one of our baby's, after feeling so helpless, not being able to do anything to save my girls. Seeing Razz and knowing that he was ok made me feel better and more hopeful. I went to his sleeping form and gently touched his shoulder to wake him up. He stretched and yawned lazily as he opened his eyes. Once his vision adjusted and he saw it was me, he jumped into my arms crying his little eyes out. "SSSHHH it's ok I got you. I told you I would come get you. You're ok, I said as I hugged him tightly. He then turned to Lynn and reached for her. The usual tough nail woman melted as the young baby cried on her shoulders. "Hey, we need to get out of here. We have to be very quiet, can you do that? Can you be a big boy for tee tee?" Lynn asked, placing Razz on the floor, who wiped his eyes and nodded.

I went to find him some shoes and a jacket. Once he was ready, we went back into the hallway to go back the way we came when we heard the Alpha and his beta coming our way. "I'm going to check on the pup before I leave." We heard Zane say. "st, get back into the room.” Lynn said, as we rushed back in. “Razz take the jacket off and get back in the bed and pretend to be asleep we will hide in the closet and wait for him to leave.” I said, as Razz nodded took off his jacket and hopped back into the bed covering up. Me and Lynn squeezed into the closet together. “This is the closest we have ever been to each other. I can finally hug you and say I was your first.” I said jokingly. She stifled a laugh. “I swear if we get caught I’m beating your a*s now shut the hell up. You know they have superhuman hearing,” Lynn said, smiling. “While if we die tonight I will still tell Mina and Shawna that I got to hug you first. When we get to heaven.” “Heaven? You think your a*s is going to heaven?” Lynn said, laughing silently. I narrowed my eyes and was getting ready to respond when we heard the door open. Our hearts are beating so fast I know if we can hear it those damn wolves can.

Shawna’s POV:

“What the fk are they doing?” I said to myself I saw them re-enter Razz’s room. I was watching that room because while I was scanning all the window with the heat vision binoculars I was able to see his heat signature, so I kept my eyes on it and the area and waited for them to find the room Razz was in. I could have told them where he was because we had earpieces, but we didn’t have them on. If we turned them on it will vibrate to let us know to turn ours on but it was only to be used when it was an emergency, and the plan was for them to search for him first. So, I waited until they entered the room and saw them when they woke Razz up, and he jumped into their arms, and I cried as I watched him hug both Lahni and Lynn. He has become like our little nephew/son, we loved him from the moment we saw his little puppy or wolfy face. They once they left out I peeped through the kitchen window and saw Mina standing behind the door. “Is this bh eating grapes out of the fruit bowl on the counter. I swear we are the most dysfunctional rescue team ever. Scanning the windows, I stopped when I saw Lahni, Lynn and Razz reentered the room and put Razz back in bed and they got into that tight a*s closet.

That must mean someone was coming. So, I did a quick glance back to the kitchen and the outside doors and focus on the room they were in just in case whoever came into the room, decided to check the closet I would have to take them out. Which would break the window and no doubt alert everyone in the house. Then all hell would break loose. “st I knew we can never do st, and it go off smoothly. “You know when you’re the lookout you’re not supposed to take bathroom breaks you might miss something.” Someone said from behind me with an evil smile. “st so much for me staying out of sight. I swear baby you’re supposed to help momma out not snitch on me.” I said to myself. Well here comes the bullshit. I turned on the earpiece, so they know it’s an emergency. I hope they can get the hell out of here while I try to stall for time before I have to protect myself.

Ji’lahni’s POV:

“God damnit I mouthed as my earpiece vibrated. The look of shock on Lynn’s face said the same thing I’m sure mine says. “Uh guys, somethings up, I think Shawna is in trouble. I’m going back out to help her. The coast is clear so far so once you get Razz get your asses out of there.” Mina said, through the earpiece. We couldn’t say anything because Zane and his beta were still in the room with Razz. “Zane, you know having him here is a risk, he is putting the entire pack at risk of an attack. You have made too many enemies over the years. If they get wind that your son’s pup is now in our packs they will come after us to get to him. I know you don’t like to think about it. But we could still eliminate him and remove him from ever being a threat to the pack and your goals.” The beta said, and Zane growled. I told you to never speak on that again. I will make him a servant and treat him like we do all servants no one will think I care for him if he suffers just like the Omegas do.” Zane said and I had to hold my composure. I’m glad we are taking him out of here. There is no way I would ever allow him to suffer at the hands of his own grandfather. That man is a vile animal and I wish I could shoot an arrow straight up his a*s. Just then sirens blared.

“What the hell was that?” The beta asked. “They are saying there are intruders outside the borders!” We heard a third person who must have entered. “Damn do you think it’s the witch?” The beta asked. “I doubt it she wouldn’t have bothered trying to hide outside our borders she would have just portal into my office. Let’s go get one of the Omegas to come get the boy and take him to the cellars with the rest of the Omegas.” Zane said as he and the beta left out of the room. “st! We have to get out of here.” I said opening the closet door Razz was already putting on his jacket and heading to the door. “Shawn, Mina! What’s happening? what’s going on? I whispered into the earpiece. “My baby snitched on me, and a guard found me. I tried to stall but he decided he didn’t want to talk, so me and Mina are trying to hold him off. Yall need to get your a*s here now!” Shawna yelled then told Mina to duck as she must have used a weapon.

“st! Let’s get the hell outta here. Before st gets out of hand.” I said as we raced downstairs and out of the pack house. There was nobody in our path this time but the same ones that were still knocked out. The other guards must be heading to where Shawna and Mina was. “Razz I need you to shift and get your butt to the car it’s a straight shot through those trees you don’t stop or turn around no matter what you hear you get in and lock the door and wait until you see us before you unlock the doors got it?” I asked, Razz nodded and then shifted and ran in the direction I pointed. “Let’s get to these fools before we all are killed or caught.” Lynn said as we hightailed it up the hill. When we got there we saw Shawna firing shots and throwing stars and knives while Mina was firing shots using two guns. The wolves were closing in fast, and more could be seen in the distance. Making us wonder why they took the long way to get to the location. But we didn’t have time to dwell on it. We circle around and approached them from the back. Lynn pulled out her dragon blade and a gun then jumped into the air firing three shots taking out four wolves before coming down slicing the throat of a wolf that was close to Shawna. About damn time yall got yall lazy asses here.” Shawna said, looking more relaxed. “Hey how the hell is this our fault you’re the one who can’t hold it.” I said looking at her as I fired my crossbow hitting one of the wolves in the chest. “Whatever. Where is Razz did you get him?” Mina asked as she threw a knife at a wolf that was about to attack Lynn from the back. “Yes, he’s in the car, so let’s get the hell out of here.” I said as we turned and hightailed it to our car only to be cut off by ten wolves and the one and Only Zane, who smiled evilly. “Well, well, what a nice surprise to see you here on my pack lands my beautiful mate. You should have told me you were coming I would have made sure to welcome you properly.” He said, excitedly. A little too, excitedly for my liking. “Damn, this dude can’t take a hint.” I whispered. So only my cousins could hear.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 87

Makahi’s POV:

“Damn it! When I get to those girls I’m going to wring their necks.” I mind linked. When we got close to Zane’s pack we heard the alarm blared knowing it meant that the girls were in trouble. So, we ditched the car, shifted into our wolves, and headed in the direction of our mates. We all wore vest that Lynn made for us to wear, and it didn’t get destroyed when we shifted, because it stretch with us so the girls will only need to hop on and snap the waist belt on. “Sorry alpha you will have to get in line behind me because Lynn’s a*s will be hurting once I’m done with her. When we reached the girls they were surrounded by at least 2 dozen wolves. Ji’lahni, Mina and Lynn were fighting off wolves while surrounding Shawna who was firing shot after shot at anyone who got to close. That is until a wolf manage to get behind her and attacked her from the back he grabbed her by the throat and was about to snap her neck. Rane roared in anger and picked up speed. All the wolves paused their fighting allowing the girls to catch a few off guard. Shawna was struggling in the wolfs grip trying to pry his hands from around her neck then all of a sudden her eyes started to glow, and she released a scream and blew fire that turned the wolf’s head into ash instantly and she dropped hitting her head on the ground. Her cousin raced to her and helped her up as we started ripping head off with all the pent-up anger we have been holding back for the past couple of days.

Zane must have sense that it wasn’t worth the battle and fled to his pack house along with his beta and first commander following him. The girls quickly ran to help us jumping on our wolf’s back snapping in shooting and throwing knives as we ripped off the heads of the rest of the wolves that didn’t flea. Once we killed the last of the wolves we took the girls back to their abandon car where Razor sat looking worriedly once he saw us coming he hopped out of the car racing towards Mina and Shawna who scooped him up and hugged him tightly. We shifted and put on shorts that we had in all our vehicles. Shadow immediately went to Shawna pulling her into his arms assuring that she was ok she allowed him that because he was truly scared by what he saw when we got to them. After he released her he shifted and ran back to our vehicle. “You go and ride with Shadow and I will drive this vehicle back.” I said to Montego, he nodded and grabbed Lynn by the hand, She began to protest but the look he gave her shut her a*s right up. I looked over at Ji’lahni and Shawna who was in the backseat with Razor doting on him like he was a baby and Mina was upfront with me without a care in the world, but she had a big surprise waiting for her when she returned as well, and his name is Blaze. He had grown fond of the littlest human of the group. She was the shortest of them all, but her personality was big. But I wouldn’t say anything about this now I will wait until we got back to the pack house. We needed to have a one-on-one conversation. As soon as I calmed me and Maka down. He wanted to make Ji'lahni submit to him and understand that she doesn't put herself in danger.

Ji'lahni's POV: 2 hours and five pee breaks later

Back at the pack at the girls house.

"OOOOHHHH st, yall are in trouble. Them men are super mad. They didn't even say one word to any of yall. I'm glad I don't have that problem." Mina said laughing as we all sat down once we got back to the house. We had put Razz to bed after a bath and a sandwich. It was already super late, so he was out before he even finished eating. "I would cuss your a*s out Mina but I'm a little light scared of Makahi right now he is giving me the silent treatment. Shawna I feel like the only reason Shadow may not do anything to you is because you're pregnant." I said to Shawna. "Well, I'm glad I got this little munchkin to protect his momma. Did yall see me light that damn wolf head on fire I have no idea how I did that st I think the baby did it." Shawna said in excitedly. "Hell, yea I saw it. We need to have a little talk with our baby he should have done that before the fighting even started." Mina said coming to sit next to Shawna putting her head near her stomach talking to our baby. "I guess we now know what the dragon left with you and our baby. It's good to know that when we go get the girls you will be even more protected." Lynn said as we heard pounding footsteps that made our hearts raced. "Oh, st I guess one of yall about to get yall asses spanked." Mina said laughing just as the door banged open and an angry Blaze stood in the doorway his eyes Glowing, Mina had told us his wolf name was Onyx and right Onyx was clearly very angry. Especially if him grabbing Mina throwing her over his shoulders carrying her a*s kicking and screaming out the door. The screaming stop when we heard a loud smack which we assumed was on her a*s.

We all looked at each other and burst out laughing. "That's what her a*s gets she thought it was so funny that we was gonna get our asses beat by our men and she was the first one to get hers beat I can't wait to see her a*s tomorrow because I know for damn sure we not seeing her a*s no more tonight." Lynn said as we cried laughing at how Mina faced looked when she saw Blaze at the door instead of one of our men. "Well, I'm about to go and soak my tired bones in some hot water." I said as there was another light knock on the door. We looked at each other and shrugged at least they knocked, that let us know that whoever it was this time had a chance to cool down. Lynn opened the door, and frowned. "Doc what are you doing here." She asked as she let him into the house. "Hello ladies how is everyone doing? The commander, asked if I could come over and check on Miss Shawna and the baby to make sure everything is fine, so here I am. I thought you knew about it." The Doc said confused. "No, he didn't mention it. I don't think we're his favorite people at the moment, but come on in doc." I said as Shawna seat down on the couch.

"I feel fine doc. I didn't get hit I just dropped to the ground, and hit my head, but I feel fine. Besides peeing like crazy and breathing fire I have been fine." Shawna said with a shrug. The doc's mouth dropped open in shock at her words. "Well, that is certainly new, I still have the Ultrasound machine here so we can take another look at the little pup." The doc said pulling out his medical bag grabbing everything he needed. He checked Shawna thoroughly before plugging up the ultrasound machine. We were all excited to see our little munchkin again even if we just saw him earlier. Squirted the blue gel on her stomach he moved the machine to the spot he found the baby at the last time. He found the baby on the first try. But something was weird. “Hey doc what is that?” I said pointing at the screen. “Well, that would be the proof that you my dear are carrying a little male pup, but what you didn’t see and wasn’t there the first time was two other little somethings behind him. I think somehow whatever the Dragon left behind was activated when you were in danger, it must have somehow split the egg into three identical pups. Because there absolutely wasn’t three embryo’s when we checked the first time, and it must have accelerated their growth somehow as well, because we shouldn’t be able to tell the s*x as of yet.” The doc said as he stared at the screen in wonder, and we all were looking at the screen in utter shock.

“Did this man just say I’m having 3 fg babies? Please tell me he didn’t say that st? Somebody please say something damn it?” Shawna said breathing heavily. “st cuz, I can’t even lie to you right now that man sure did say three fg babies. Now you know why I was threatening his a*s all the damn time. He don’t ever come in and act right he always got to be on some bullshit. If he not digging in your cookie jar while you’re being ripped apart, he is telling you that you have more then the standard size carry on in your stomach.” I said shaking my head. Anyone that knows Shawna knows she doesn’t do pain at all so this pregnancy is about to kill us all by the time those babies get here. But on top of all that, it has only been us three, the only family we’ve had since our family died. But now we not only have Lynn, but we now have two girls and soon to be 3 boys to add to our family and knowing that we are creating a new legacy to carry on our bloodline was bittersweet and pure joy, it isn’t just us anymore our bloodline wont end with us. Which is what truly matters. I thought as I went to hug a still shocked Shawna. “Damn Shadow about to passed the fk out when he hears about this.” Lynn said with a smile. “Yup and he is also about to be way more protective now that it’s not just one but now three babies in there. You might as well just accept his overbearing and protectiveness, so you won’t be stressed out. It doesn’t mean you have to get back together with him but allow him to help you through this whole thing. Doing it by myself with two babies sucked a*s, so I already know three will be even worse.” I said after the doc left excitedly going to research everything he can about dragons and try to find Lynn’s Grandmother to ask her question which Lynn informed us will not go well. But she didn’t have the heart to hurt the Doc’s feelings, because he was just too excited. We all decided to call it a night after checking on Razz. I entered my room and went directly to the bathroom to turn on the water in the tub and walked back out to my closet to get a towel and a nightgown. “It’s about time you got here. I have been waiting for the pass thirty minutes.” A deep voice said from the rocketing chair in the coroner. I screamed “st! Who the hell?” I said as I damn near fell back in the damn closet.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 88

Makahi's POV:

I was so pissed at Ji'lahni for putting herself in danger by sneaking off and going into Zane's pack. I get she wanted to rescue Razor, but she shouldn't have gone off to Zane's pack with no protection. I didn't say anything the entire ride for fear of yelling at her for doing something so stupid. I needed to calm down before I could talk to her. So, the ride home was really quiet. I damn near took the steering wheel off trying to keep me and Maka calm. He really wanted control so he could mate and mark her so we would know when she tries to plan secret missions without me knowing. Once we were back in the pack, I immediately dropped her, Mina, Shawna, and Razor off to their house. I left without a word. I know she wanted me to say something, but I remained silent. After I parked the car, I shifted and went on a run and patrolled the borders until I was completely exhausted. I showered and decided that I was calm enough to talk to Ji'lahni. When I got to the house I could hear, the Doc in there with Shawna. No doubt that Shadow called Doc and asked him to check on Shawna and his pup. I haven't seen him since we got back. Montego said when he parked his truck Shadow also shifted without saying a word, which I understood completely.

Deciding to climb up to her room and wait for her. Sitting there, all the pent-up anger and frustration about my pups, my father and Ji'lahni. I just can't believe this is my life. I found my other half mate and almost lost her by marking a lying, cheating Shewolf who only really wanted the title and control of being Luna. Shaking my head at those mistakes, I closed my eyes and tried to reach out to my pups hoping that they could somehow hear me. I know they must be so scared and missing Ji'lahni and me so much, just as much as we are missing them. I just hope my father is taking good care of them until we can go and get them, which will be very soon. Still trying to reach out to my pups. I heard the room door open and close and Ji'lahni headed straight to the bathroom to turn on water for a bath and then went into her closet to grab her nightgown and came back out with only a purple bra and panty set that made my dk painfully hard. I almost forgot that I was mad. "It's about time you got here. I have been waiting for the past thirty minutes." I said as she was walking out of the closet. She almost fell back in the closet. She screamed "st! Who the hell?" I got up and raced to her to steady her, so she didn't fall.

"Sorry I didn't think you would react that way." I said, not being able to stop myself from burying my nose in her nose inhaling her scent. Even though I'm mad as hell at her, she still has the ability to calm down Me and Maka. "What the hell you thought was going to happen? You can't just be sneaking up on black folks. You had better be glad I didn't have my knife or gun on me." She said pushing my chest. I grabbed her hand and led her to the bathroom. Placing her on the sink, "Arms up." I said as she looked up at me with her eyebrows raised. "Really Makahi, is this what we're doing?" she asked as she raised her arms. "Yup." I replied simply, and she sighed, obeying my every request but this time without a fight. Once we were both naked, I went to the tub and lowered us both down into the steaming hot water. I frowned at her. "Did you mean to get your bath water from the pit of hell? I'm pretty. My balls are now boiled eggs now." I said as she laughed out loud. "Look, I like my water hot. It relaxes these old, tired bones." She responded. I rolled my eyes. You're far from old. "Hey, I'm 3 years older than you junior, so watch how you speak to grown folk." She responded. I just realized that she is indeed older than me.

I'm 25 and she's 28. This made me wonder about our future. She is a human and I'm a werewolf who ages very slowly compared to humans. Werewolves could live for over 200 years unless they are killed or die when our mates die, which is usually the case if they have found their mate. Unmated wolves tend to live the longest among us. I pulled her close at the thought of losing her as she grows old. She frowned at my sudden mood change. "What's wrong?" She asked, as she grabbed a clean washcloth and squirted soap on it and began to wash my body slowly. I didn't want her thinking of what would happen to us in the future when I am uncertain what will happen if I mark her. So, I decided to bring up tonight's events. Taking a deep breath, "Ji'lahni, what you and the girls did was reckless and could have ended badly. You went into another's alpha's pack and kidnapped his grandson. He could have killed you. Do you get that? Do you understand what that would do to me if something happens to you? I would die because I know the pain would be too great for me to bare. You are my other half mate. Our souls were tied together the moment we met. You have to be more careful and not put yourself in danger like that ever again." I said with a little too much force but my emotions at the thought of actually losing her had me and Maka on edge.

"Look I get it, but when I heard Razz crying begging me to come and get him I could say no. With our babies gone and your dad gone I just couldn't let Razz down when I could help. You have to understand that I'm not some weak woman who doesn't know how to take care of myself we train damn hard for years to get where we can say with confidence that we can handle ourselves. Will we always win? No, no one wins every single time, but we will damn sure make sure we don't die or if we do die it will be for something worth dying for. And for us Razz was absolutely worth it. But from now on I will try to be as open as I can with you. But you will have to promise to listen to comprehend and not try to command me or control me and what I do. Because I will always fight for my family and those I hold near my heart. Don't ever ask me not to ask me how you could help me win and have my back like I will have yours." She responded.

Damn, She really was made just for me. She's the perfect other half mate and Luna of this pack. I can't wait until I can mark her and make her mine. "I will try my best to hear you out and help you in a way that doesn't put your life in danger. I will always draw the line when I feel like it will put your life in danger. Because I need you our children need you." I said, as I began to kiss her neck where my mark would soon be. Maka was at the forefront, so I won't feel any discomfort kissing her. And surprisingly, he wasn't pushing me to mark her. He understands that we can't right now and just having her with us in our arms is what matters. She let out a moan as I kissed her neck and rubbed my hand from her back to cuff her a*s, making sure that my hand dipped low enough to almost reach her py. She tried to mold her body to mine, wrapping her legs around me more tightly so that her clit was once again aligned with the head of my dk the most sensitive part, now any movement she made caused us both to moan as we began to kiss each other hungrily. We were so caught up in the moment we didn't realize our movement was splashing water all over the floor of the bathroom.

"Goddess Ji'lahni, I swear you have me on the verge of cumming every single time I'm with you, fk! Baby, if you don't stop I'm gonna c*m. I said as she slid her py up and down my dk. Her py lips felt like they were wrapped around my dk. "Baby I can't stop, it feels so fg good right now. I want to c*m so badly baby, please make me cum.” She said as she started to move faster. Grabbed her a*s tighter, pulling her even closer to my dk and that seemed to be what took us both over the edge. “fk I’m cumming baby” I said as I came so hard I started to see black dots. I thought I was going to pass out. Once, I got my breathing under control. Ji’lahni had her head on my chest with her eyes closed, still breathing hard. I got a washcloth and began to wash her body slowly. “You know at some point we will actually have to have s*x, before we both cum.” I said, chuckling. She held her head up looking at me. “Uh no sir, the last time you just stuck the head in I ended up with not 1 but 2 babies. You gone have to find some protection for you or I need to have the doc get me some form of birth control because I’m not trying to build you a whole new pack, absolutely not, nobody trying to have 50 11em kids out here in these streets.” She said, getting up out of the bathtub, going the walk-in shower to wash and rinse her body. I followed her in and took the washcloth from her and washed her body, while also trying to just stick the head in for old times sake. That can’t happen twice, can it?

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 89

The Master’s POV: Somewhere far beneath the castle.

“Where are you taking me? What is this place” The pregnant she wolf asked. The only reason I kept her around is to use her as a gift for the father. He loves young pregnant females. He says it is a delicacy, so when Shaid brought her along I knew that I would be using her as a gift. She was a perfect gift in order to ask that he spare my mate once he kills all shifters. His chambers were completely dark you couldn’t see anything no matter what kind of shifter or powers you possess. The she wolf started to fight against my magic trying not to enter into the chambers. “Well, well well what do we have here?” The father asked in a deep menacing voice. “I brought you a gift your excellency she is a pregnant she wolf.” I said as a growl rumbled from his throat when I mention she was a she wolf. He hated shifters, but his obsession with young pregnant women would make him look past the fact that she is a shifter. “The only reason I haven’t killed you where you stand is because I can smell the baby growing in her body and it smells divine I can’t wait to see what this filthy she wolf tastes like.” He said from somewhere in the room.

The she wolf whimpered at the comment and started to struggle against my magic trying to free herself. “I thought that you would like her father she is pregnant and the pup she is carrying is almost fully developed so you can have the baby once you are done with the mother.” I said and the she wolf start to scream then going from fear to anger. Using my magic, it wrapped around her throat silencing her immediately. “Have you gotten the twin pups yet?” Yes, your excellency. Everything worked out according to your plan.” I responded, with my head bowed. I have never laid eyes upon the God who gave me my powers all those years ago. It was forbidden to lay eyes upon him, because it meant death I have seen it happen once decades ago when it was two of us who he chose to serve him in his quest to eliminate his sister the mother of all shifters. “Is that so, because a little birdy told me that you not only brought the pups back to your castle but also one of my sisters creatures with you as well.” He said and I gulped. I tried my best not to let anyone see my mate I wanted to find a way to save him from being killed once the God killed all the shifters in the world. I think I found a way to do that. Once I sacrifice those babies and drain their blood I will make sure that my mate consumes enough of their blood which will make him immortal like me.

“Yes your excellence, he is my mate. I wanted to share my immortal potion with him.” “And what about the beast that lives within him how will you rid him of it. Because my purpose is to kill all shifters which means either he will no longer have a beast, or he will have to die like all the rest of those filter creatures. I don’t need you to stray away from my plan if my dear sister finds out what I have been doing she will surely send her demigods to eliminate you and none of the powers I have giving you will work on them, which is why I needed you to not bring attention to yourself. But you go and not only take the pups but also kidnapped the old Alpha of their pack. They will be coming after you, so you better be prepare for a fight.” He sneered angrily. “I have been working on a potion that should rid him of his wolf. It should be ready by the time you rise and walk the earth once more ridding us of every last Shifter in the world. I know they will try and find a way to my realm. I’m sure they will enlist the help of my dear sisters, but they are no match for me with the powers you have bestowed upon me. I have cloaked my castle very while. But I am prepared for the battle once they crossover to this realm they will all die, of that I am confident my home is safe.” I said with pride and also excitement at the thought of never having to worry about any she wolf ever trying to claim my mate.

“You know the worst thing you can do is underestimate your enemy, especially those humans there is something unusual about them I can’t figure it out, the next time you encounter them try and keep one of them alive.” “Yes father I will make sure I get one of the human women for you. I have heard their blood can kill werewolves. The Alpha I used to get the pups told me that they ingested wolfbane that should have killed them, but they somehow survive. But they are no match for my warrior Shaid she hates one of them because her mate has developed feelings for the weak human so I’m sure she will be glad to hand over that human to you.” I said, in a rush. “Well, you better hope you succeed because if you don’t then I will kill your mate with or without his wolf in him, once I rise he will be the first one I kill and I will make you watch before I kill you.

“Your excellence I promise, everything is in place and ready for when you arise.” I said nervously. “It better be I have giving you everything you need to rid the world of those creatures my sister created and finally make me powerful enough to kill her once and for all.” He said as his magic spread throughout the room making me and the she wolf struggle to breathe. I hurried to the door before I release my magic that was holding the she wolf before I slam the door shut leaving her in the room. I could hear her screaming and banging on the door. It was no use; she belongs to father now.

Antoni’s POV:

“What have you found out? What is Urrale planning to do with my grand pups?” I asked Fiona, she has been giving me information she collects from the other servants in the castle. She looks visibly worried. “Alpha, the other servants say that she plans to drain the pups in order to take their powers. But I have heard from some of the male warriors that it is something far more dangerous going on. They think she is getting her powers because she has made some sort of deal with someone or something way more powerful than even her. Tomorrow at midnight that is when she will sacrifice the pups and once she drains their power she will be able to summon the being who will destroy the earth.” She said in fear. “That can’t be true, who is this being? What does my pups have to do with all of this?” “I don’t know alpha I can’t just ask anyone they may become suspicious of me and if the master finds out I have been feeding you information she will surely kill me.” I nodded in understanding, the she wolf has taken every opportunity to find out everything she could. I just need the perfect time to slip away and get me and the pups out of the castle once we are out of here I know I can survive and keep them protected until my son comes for us. I just wish I could somehow reach them. But my wolf is powerless in here. I can only hope once I’m out of here I can reach my son and let him know that we were alive.

“What will you do?” “I need to leave the castle get my pups out of here she will not use them as a sacrifice I will kill who ever tries to come near them. I have studied the layout of the castle plans that you stole from her office. I will have to leave once she has left me for the evening. I will only have one shot to get them out of here. Before you bring them to me make sure they are fed and well dress if you could find a way to sneak in more of their milk to me so I won’t have to worry about them being hungry at least for the first night I will worry about feeding them once I find a safe place to hide out.” I said pacing the floor of my quarters. “I know you don’t trust me, but I can help you with the pups if you take me with you.” Fiona whispered with her head bowed. She was right I didn’t trust her. But she would be a great help to me if she could help with the pups. She has nothing to gain by telling me she is a prisoner as well.

“You’re right I don’t trust you, but I will admit it will be easier to have an extra hand when handling the pups. So, I will bring you along, but understand if you betray me or my family again I will kill you before Urrale drags me back here.” I said standing face to face with her. She trembled in fear and bared her neck to me. My wolf may be out of commission, but I am still one of the strongest fg Alpha’s in this country and wolf or no wolf I am the deadliest man in this country. I have done things that I am not proud of. No one knows of the things I have done in my past, not even my mate knew of what I had been before I met her. Now that she is gone no one is safe from me I wanted to keep that side of me dead and buried deep, but Urrale has awakened the animal inside of me and no one in this castle is safe from the creature that will stalk the night.

The Alpha’s Plus Size Urban Human Mate

Chapter 90

Back at Crystal Moon...

The pack house, Blaze's apartment....

Mina's POV:

"What the hell is your problem? Why did you just drag my a*s back to your place Blaze?" I asked confused as hell. "Just shut the hell up for a second Min I'm trying to control Onyx." Blaze said in a gravel voice that caused me to pause for a second because Blaze was always the laid back one out of the men. He never got angry for no reason. So, what I'm hearing now is really fg weird. "Blaze what is going on why is your wolf losing control?" I asked, coming to stand in front of him. "Because he was worried that something had happened to you and now his pissed because you put your life in danger." He said looking me in the eyes I could tell he was struggling to remain in control his eyes were flashing between brown and black. But what I don't get is why is he all of a sudden acting like my cousin's men. Me and him have never been anything other than friends. When me and my cousins got here months ago, I was interested in him, but he made it clear that I wasn't his type. Which I understood he wasn't rude about it he had preferences we all do. We became friends and I still flirted with him of course. I didn't mean anything by it though I just be teasing him every once and a while. When we found out they were werewolves and learned about other half mates I realize that it would be pointless to date any of the men here because it would only end in heart break and I'm not doing that. So, he needs to tell me what his problem is all of a sudden. Before I could say anything there was a knock on the door. Opening the door there was a blonde she wolf that I have seen him with on occasion I assumed they were dating. She was just like all the rest of the wolves here athletic body everything in the right place nothing less or nothing extra just right so to speak. "Uh blaze what is she doing in your room? I thought we had a date tonight?" She asked in a hurt tone. I wouldn't take offense to her question because I had the same damn question. "Yea sorry Jessica, something came up and I have to talk to Min right now. I'll call you when I take her back home." He said, as he walked her the short distance by out the door. "Are you serious? We haven't hung out in a minute. You have been so preoccupied lately is she the reason? Is she your mate?" She asked. In a low hurt tone. "WHAT!? NO!" He answered a little too loud, like he was offended, that she would even ask a question like that. I was already tired of the whole conversation at this point. "Look, yall obviously have a lot to talk about, so I'm just gonna head on out yall way I am super tired, and I need to take a bath and go to sleep. So, if you'll excuse me I'll be on my way I said as I rushed past them and hit the door running. I could hear Blaze in the background trying to stop me, but I wasn't trying to hear them go back and forth about why I'm at his apartment when I didn't even ask to be there. "Why the hell did this trip seem super short when I was being carried, now it feels like my house is a mile from here." I said to myself as I walked in the fg dark mad as hell. Just when I finally see my house in the distance. I was Once again, scooped up into the arms of Blaze. This time, he took us the rest of the way to my house, but instead of going to my door, he took us to the side of the house and pushed my body against it. He was breathing like he ran a marathon. He leaned his forehead against mine. "Blaze what the hell is wrong with you? Why the hell did you take me out of my house? Then tell your girlfriends some bullshit about questioning me? You're acting super we.." My words are cut off by his mouth crashing on mine. My eyes widen at the sudden action because again he already told me he wasn't interested in me. So, what the fk is happening right now. He bit my bottom lip hard and used that as his opportunity to deepen the kiss. Now yea I'm shock and will definitely be asking some questions as soon as my brain tell my lips and body not to react and push him away. But apparently my brain said some other st because I'll be damned if my arms didn't wrap around his neck and my fg leg went up to wrap around his waist. "What the hell was that Blaze?" I asked when we finally came up for air. "I wish I knew." He said breathlessly right before he backed away from me leaving me dumb founded and horny. "Did he just treat me like a back-alley hooker?" I asked to myself as I slowly walked around the corner to my front door and took a deep breath hoping that my cousins were in bed, so I didn't have to explain what just happened because I didn't even know my damn self. We would all be confused.

Blaze's POV:

"fk!!" I yelled out. What the hell is going on with me?" "You know what the hell is wrong with you. You can't keep ignoring our mate. She could have gotten hurt tonight, and we couldn't do anything about it because you don't want anyone to know she's our other half mate." My wolf Onyx said in my subconscious. "Shut up I told you she wasn't our mate that isn't possible I have never dated a female that looks like her." "Our mate is beautiful you're an ae." "I know she is beautiful, smart, and funny as hell. She would be perfect for me if she looked more like Jessica. That's all" "Our mate is perfect the way she is, Jessica is just like every other she wolf in our community. But our mate is curvy soft and has the most amazing blue eyes that matches her chocolate skin perfectly." "Will you shut up I know how she looks. I felt her soft curves tonight and the moment I kissed her my dk was so hard that it was straining against my pants painfully. I almost took her right there on the side of her house." "There would have been nothing wrong with that she is ours, the Moon Goddess gave her to us and you're throwing it all away because she doesn't fit the description of what you thought was the perfect mate." "You will not make me feel bad because I have a preference of what I think my mate should look like. You also liked the same type of women as I do. Their have been plenty of she wolves that you liked. You have never shown interest in anyone that looks like her." "Maybe not but when I saw her I knew from the start she was mine and it didn't matter how she looked the Moon Goddess gave her to me. Everything changed when we saw her the very first day, they arrived in our pack.

Flashback: The first day the human women came.

"Hey, did you hear that the human women that the old Luna hired to do Alpha's mating ceremony are supposed to be coming here later this evening." Hunter said as we both sat down in the dining room at the pack house with Jessica and lacy on our arms. We been dating the sisters for a few months they weren't our mates and they understood what it was between us. "Yea we heard; Summer isn't really happy about them coming here. She only said yes because she wants the old Luna to like her. She plans to make them quit so she can plan the mating ceremony on her own." Lacy said, and Jessica nodded in agreement. Lacy and Jessica were friends with the alpha's chosen mate they all hung around in the same circle. "Well, we all know how Summer is we might not even see those human women if Summer is on the attack.” Hunter said, laughing. We both hated Summer we saw how she acted towards everyone she thinks is less than. The alpha has been fooled and blinded by her to the point he doesn’t see how evil she is and how she treats the omega’s in our pack. “we’ve never had humans on our pack lands I’m surprise the alpha agreed to allow them to not only come on our pack land, but the will be staying for 3 weeks.” I said to Hunter who nodded. Later that evening. “Hey, the humans are here. The Luna and Shadow are escorting them to the house now, we are all going to go down there and see if we can get a glimpse of them” One of the guards said hurrying in the direction of where the women will be staying. “You want to go check it out?” Hunter asked me. I nodded, for some odd reason Onyx was pacing around in my head anxiously. “What the hell is wrong with you?” I said via our shared mind. “I don’t know something feels off like something was about to happen.” He said as he paced even more. I shake my head to clear my thought. Once we were at the house that was assigned by the alpha I caught the most amazing smell of pineapple and cherries, right before we saw three women get of their car and Shadow went to retrieve their luggage out the trunk. “Let’s go offer to help Shadow so we can get a closer look at them maybe even talk to one of them.” Hunter said, as I followed him because my wolf wanted to see where the smell came from. As soon as we got to the car went to the trunk to help with the suitcases. I saw a tiny human who was no more than 5ft 2inches tall the most beautiful chocolate brown skin with striking blue eyes and a smile that reached my soul Onyx howled the word “MATE!” We caught her off guard because she jumped . “Hey, you scared the st outta me yall can’t be sneaking up on Black people like that I coulda hurt yall just now.” She said, at that me and Hunter both looked at each other confused because she looked like she was serious. “Oh, so because yall taller than me yall think I can’t drop yall.” She said, cg her head to the side. “Uh it’s because you’re so tiny we don’t think those small although beautiful hands could do much damage to us.” Hunter said obviously flirting with her. I had to stifle the growled that threaten to come out. When Hunter grabbed their suitcases, Shadow appeared out of nowhere and told us something about the alpha wanting us to cover the gate which we both knew was a lie, because he was supposed to be the one at the gate, but I didn’t question him and didn’t waste no time getting away for the woman who couldn’t possibly be my mate.

End of flashback
