

Destined Wife: The Apple of My Eye

Chapter 18 Grandpa Comes Back.

No one has any opinions or dares to have for Grandpa's decision is decree.

"Don't be afraid. Grandpa is a little serious but he never scolds casually." After dinner, Lang Jia runs to Yan Hua and says, "Even if he doesn't like you, he will accept you for your unborn baby."

Lang Jia is here to remind her that Grandpa will not like her?

"It doesn't matter!" Yan Hua sits in the floret hall and eats fruit. It is her favorite place to stay recently because it faces the sea and is rather comfortable without turning on the air conditioner.

"Whether he likes me or not will not change anything." Yan Hua looks up slightly and squints at the beautiful scenery with her pretty eyes. Lang Jia can't help to envy her...

She is so beautiful that no woman likes her, but her face is full of temptation and conquest for men.

"Don't think so." Lang Jia calms down. Yes! Yan Hua is beautiful, but can Yan Hua compare with her in such an identity?

"I'll say nice things for you when I talk with Grandpa!"

Yan Hua lowers her head and nibbles at a piece of mango and thinks, "It's the greatest help for me if you don't talk about me..."

"Your grandpa took over the company when he was young, it was not too big then. He slowly took back the shares from his three brothers, so Lang Consortium came into being."

In the evening, Lang Hongyue also comes to her to popularize the deeds of Grandpa who is her father.

"The success of Lang Family is due to my father, that is, your grandpa's contribution, so he has the absolute right to speak in this family."

“Because the company still belongs to Grandpa...” Yan Hua thinks and then asks casually, “What about Grandpa’s other brothers?”

“They?” Lang Hongyue is somewhat surprised by her point, “Of course they still work in the company, but they have no shares.”

Yan Hua is respectful to Grandpa. It’s not uncommon for him to snatch money from his blood brothers, but it’s wise for him to let his brothers continue to work for him willingly after that.

“Do you understand?” Lang Hongyue suddenly stares at her and asks.

Yan Hua looks absently, “I don’t understand. I’m just asking. What does Grandpa hate most? I don’t want to commit his taboos.”

Lang Hongyue doesn’t want Yan Hua to be too smart, but she knows that the girl’s identity is definitely not ordinary.

It is impossible for an ordinary family to have such a child.

“Your grandpa hates people who are unrealistic and self-righteous most.” Lang Hongyue makes a pun.

Nobody will like such a person... Yan Hua rolls her eyes and says, “I know it, I’ll be careful not to offend him.”

Early on Friday morning, Uncle Lee becomes nervous and he arranges everything well. The floor has been flashing by scrubbing again and again and even the crystal chandeliers in the living room have been washed.

“Grandpa is coming!” At 5 o’clock in the afternoon, a group of family members including Lang Li, stand at the gate of the house and soon see a black car coming in.

“Daddy!”

“Grandpa!”

...” Yan Hua doesn’t know how to call him.

An old man gets out of the car. Lang Li tries to help him but is waved away by the old man with a crutch.

“I’m not yet seventy or eighty years old. I can walk now, do I need your help?”

Lang Hongyue holds the old man’s arm as a little girl and says, “Daddy, let me do it, please!”

“Hum...” The old man hums a few times and glances at Lang Ruoxian.

Lang Ruoxian smiles and Yan Hua looks at him at the back.

The smile is really good-looking as the scenery of the bright moonlight. Several aunts and girls who work for the home blush at his smile.

“Grandpa, how are you?”

The old man, who allowed Lang Hongyue to help him just now, pushes her away and reaches out to Lang Ruoxian, “Ruoxian, come and help me.”

Lang Hongyue steps aside calmly. Lang Li laughs, “Daddy, come in. Dinner’s ready.”

Yan Hua remains silent and the old man also ignores her until he sits down at the table.

“You’re my second grandson’s wife?” Lang Cha saw her just now actually. He has to admit that Yan Hua is more beautiful than her photo. It is a curse not a blessing for such a girl to remain widowed at Lang Family.

“Hello!” Yan Hua stands up and bows to him.

She doesn’t call her Grandpa because she doesn’t know whether he will admit or not.
