#Chapter 141 - Read Rising from the Ashes (Andrew and Lauren) Chapter 141

Chapter 141 Christina said, I was trying to give you friendly advice, but if you wont listen, forget I said anything.

I understand you might not have access to Mr.

Yates, which is why youre pretending not to need his help.

Dont worry though.

You helped me once, so even if you cant get Mr.

Yates to speak up for you, Ill stand up for you if Mr.

Huxley causes any trouble, she added..

Andrew chuckled dismissively.

That wont be necessary.

Stevens Corporation should focus o its own problems.

Irene snorted

What problems? Our company is thriving.

Dont you dare spread rumors.

Andrew gave a cold smile.

From what I hear, Harveys drowning in debt and barely staying afloat.

Stevens Corporations investment is probably going down the drain.

If I were you, Id try to get that money back now to minimize losses.

Thats bullshit! Irene snapped.

Andrew, just admit youre jealous.

Harvey just confirmed everything's on track.

Once the paperwork comes through, Stevens Corporation will be rolling in profits.

Andrew, that Porsche you borrowed? I'll be buying one of my own soon, Leroy bragged. Once Harvey pays out our investment returns, I'll have millions.

Sweet deal

Andrew glanced at Christina.

Ms.

Stevens, your family really is something else, he stated with disdain before walking away.

Christie, look! He's rattled that's why he ran off! Leroy said smugly.

Christina turned to Leroy with a blank expression.

The only one who should be embarrassed is you.

Who told you his Porsche was borrowed? I saw him buy it today with my own eyes.

Leroy's jaw dropped.

He bought it? How does a gold digger like him have hundreds of thousands lying around? His previous joy vanished instantly, replaced by burning envy.

Meanwhile, on the East Side, Tony had not slept for two days straight.

Just then, his trusted aide rushed in with an excited smile.

Mr.

Madden Senior, great news! We've finally cured Mr.

Madden ! Tony perked up

Really? Absolutely certain.

Mr.

Madden is sedated now, and Mr.

Eslinger promised to return him to full health within three days.

Tony clenched his fists in excitement.

Excellent this is perfect! Quick, invite Mr.

Eslinger and Mr.

Rhodes over

I need to thank them personally Chapter 141 +25 BON Moments later, Michael walked in wearing an immaculate white suit, white leather shoes, and gold rimmed glasses.

His polished appearance was offset by a hint of sleaziness that could not be masked

Beside him was an older man draped in a black cloak, his face stern and his aura cold, exuding an unsettling presence.

Mr.

Rhodes, Mr, Eslinger, thank you both so much for helping with Juans condition, Tony greeted them warmly.

Michael smiled politely.

Dont mention it, Mr.

Madden Senior.

The elderly man in black remained stoic, unmoved by the East Side crime boss enthusiasm.

He said, Lets skip the pleasantries, Mr.

Madden Senior

I have a question: who was responsible for Juans condition ? Im surprised to find someone so skilled in ancient medicine here in little Jayrodale.

Chapter 142 Tonys expression turned cold as he replied, Mr.

Eslinger, it was a young man named Andrew Lloyd.

Bane Eslinger frowned

A young man? That seems unlikely.

Mastering pressure point techniques that could manipulate someones life and death isnt sometiring a youngster could achieve.

Tony said bitterly.

Mr.

Eslinger, Im not lying.

Andrew not only struck Juans pressure point but also took down one of my top lieutenants.

Ill make him pay dearly for this Michael interjected, Mr.

Madden Senior, are you talking about that junior doctor from Jayrodale General Hospital? Thats exactly who I mean! Tony replied, surprised.

Do you know him, Mr.

Rhodes ? Michaels expression darkened.

Of course I do.

Right now, he has my dear cousin Lauren, the Rhodes familys heiress, completely wrapped around his finger.

He turned to Bane and said, Bane, remember the Deaths Draught you gave me ? Andrew was the one who neutralized it.

Bane was surprised.

Ah, sq it was him.

If he can counter my poison and has mastered pressure points, he must be quite skilled.

Though Ive never heard of such a notable figure in Jayrodale.

Michael scoffed

Skilled? Hes nothing but a gold digger living off women.

Sure, he might have some medical talent, but messing with Mr.

Madden Senior will be the death of him.

Now that Juan is safe, hell pay for his audacity Tony growled.

Michael's eyes glinted as he stirred the pot.

Seeing Juan in that state broke my heart.

With tum being your only son, Mr.

Madden Senior, I wouldn't let this slide.

That punk needs to be Taught a lesson.

Tony smirked.

The odds supposedly good in a fight.

Plus, he's got the Alckers, that bastard Dylan from South City, and Ms Rhodes backing him.

We need to plan this careful They're all sobotes, Bane chimed in disquisly A young man can't have much real power, though I'm curious about bus adicals and training s se and you're interested.

Mr.

Ealinger, bud over to you to questioning once wa catch ban dany guckdy offered Bredshed wetli satku, FADOO So, & hque a plan to make him come wing to you, trying to furgas you're haupou te pinit shapes and wall.

Mr Chapter 142 It's simple: we strike where it hurts most, Michael explained.

You mean taking his family hostage? From what I know, he doesn't have anyone close. T frowned

Michael gave a sinister smile.

What you don't know, Mr.

Madden Senior, is that he's Jayrodales most notorious gold digger.

Before Lauren, he was living off Christina, the ice queen of Stevens Corporation.

Just grab Christina, force the Stevens family to bring him out and the problem is solved.

Tony's eyes lit up as he nodded slowly.

Not a bad plan at all

The Stevens family is just a minor player in East Side, and theyll be easy to handle.

Ill get right on it.

Later, as Michael and Bane left East Side together Bane spoke condescendingly.

Mr.

Rhodes did you really have me come all this way to treat Tonys worthless son just so you could use Tony to deal with Andrew ?!!

Chapter 143 Youre making too big a deal out of this.

Why bring me in for such a minor player? Bane remarked. Michael scoffed

Bane, youre oversimplifying things.

To inherit Rhodes Corporation, I need to get rid of Lauren

With your help, eliminating her would have made my path to leadership smooth sailing, but then Andrew showed up and ruined everything.

I cant even enjoy messing around with women anymore with this rage burning inside me.

Bane nodded

Fair enough.

He has sparked my curiosity too.

The fact that he could neutralize my poison shows more skill than that old fool Cedric Id like to meet him myself.

Michael smiled coldly, confident in his plan

With Lauren protecting him, I couldnt touch him directly.

But now that Tonys involved, that punk is as good as dead

Later that evening, Christina was preparing to leave the South City project office after a long days work. Christie, please buy me a Porsche

Im begging you, Leroy pleaded, following behind her.

Christina shook her head.

Leroy, youre my brother, but youre also a man.

If you want a luxury car, earn it yourself.

Lve given you a great opportunity at Stevens Corporation.

If you work hard, a Porsche is nothing.

Leroy whined, But how long will it take me to save up hundreds of thousands? Come on, Christie, buy it for me now so I can enjoy it

Besides, as your brother, shouldnt I be driving something nice to maintain your image as the Stevens Corporations CEO? Yeah, Christie, Irene chimed in Whats a couple hundred grand to buy your only brother a car? If you dont spoil him, who will ? Christina turned to Leroy, exasperated.

Tell me, why this sudden obsession with a luxury car? Dont you already have one? Leroy complained, That old BMW is garbage.

I cant even pick up decent girls with it just a bunch of low end types who work at nail salons.

So, you want a Porsche just to show off and pick up women? Christina asked with a smirk No! Leroy fumed.

I just cant stand Andrew driving a better car than me when hes nothing but a gold digger! Exactly, Irene added

That loser left you, Christie, and instead of ending up in the gutter, hes thriving.

We cant let him outshine us

If he drives a Porsche, Leroy needs an even more expensive one.

So, this is all about competing with Andrew ? Christina laughed bitterly.

Do you know hes now the deputy chief at Jayrodale General Hospital? Hes in a leadership position.

Can you Chapter 143 even compete with that, Leroy? Irene and Leroy were dumbfounded by the revelation

Deputy chief? No way! You must be mistaken, Christie, Leroy said adamantly. Irene scoffed

Him? In leadership? Ill never believe it.

Before Christina could respond, a group of men burst into the project office.

Their leader, a muscular man with an intimidating presence, fixed his cold gaze on the three of them.

Which one of you is Christina Stevens ? Christina stepped forward, unsuspecting.

I am.

What can I help you with? Take her, he commanded.

Chapter 144 Take her

As soon as the command rang out, two East Side thugs immediately grabbed Christinas arms and started dragging her away.

Let her go ! Who the hell do you think you are, touching someone from the Stevens family? Leroy shouted in rage.

You better not lay a finger on her ! Irene screamed.

My daughter is Harvey Wellers fiancée.

Do you have any idea whats going to happen to you? The leader stood emotionless, radiating deadly intent.

Do you think I care about the Stevens family? Here in Jayrodale, Ive killed people from families way more important than your little family.

Back off if you want to live

I wont hesitate to kill you right here.

His menacing presence sent chills down everyones spines, but Leroy refused to back down.

You think Im scared of you? Go ahead, try something! Harvey will have your head if you touch me ! The leaders eyes flashed coldly as he suddenly struck Leroy with devastating force, sending him flying.

Blood spurted from Leroy's mouth as he lay there, barely conscious.

Christina and Irene froze in terror, realizing they were dealing with a ruthless monster.

Irene began screaming at the top of her lungs, Help! Somebody help! Theyre trying to kill us -this is insane! Christina maintained her composure.

She stated firmly, Dont hurt anyone else.

Ill go with you.

Christie, no! You cant go with them! Irene wailed.

Theyll kill you ! Quick, call Harvey we need his help ! The leader smirked.

Let me be clear: Mr.

Madden Senior wants Ms.

Stevens.

Your calls wont help.

Theres only one way out Andrew Lloyd must beg Mr.

Madden Seniors forgiveness.

With that, they dragged Christina away, leaving Irene frozen in shock.

Leroy, sweetie, are you okay? Ill take you to the hospital! Irene cried, helping her son up.

It was not the first time she had seen her unfortunate son get slapped around.

Mom, forget about me, Leroy struggled to speak.

Quick, call Harvey.

Tony sent these men,.

and we cant handle this alone.

But they said only Andrew can save her! Irene worried

That coward? Hed probably die of fear facing Tony, Leroy spat.

Only Harvey, with the Weller familys influence, can save Christie ! Chapter 144 O

Trembling, Irene called Harvey

Harvey, Tonys men took Christie ! You have to save her, quickly! What? Tony took Christie ? Why? Harveys voice was tense and shaky.

How should I know why that madman did it ? Irene cursed

They just took her and beat Leroy up until hes coughing up blood! She broke into tears.

Ive heard Tonys a notorious pervert... Christies so beautiful, Harvey.

Just think what he might do to her ! On the other end of the line, Harveys face darkened.

Chapter 145 Harvey knew exactly what kind of man Tony was, but there was a problem he owed Tony millions and had no right to challenge East Sides crime boss.

Mrs.

Stevens, dont worry.

Ill handle this.

How dare that old bastard touch Christie ! Hell regret it for sure! Despite his fear, Harveys tone was full of bravado, acting as if Tony was beneath him.

I knew it ! Irenes tears turned into smiles.

With you stepping in, Harvey, even Tony will have to release her.

You can rest assured, Mrs.

Stevens

Tony will have to respect the Weller family name, whether he likes it or not, Harvey promised confidently

After hanging up, Harveys expression was replaced with, his previous confidence completely gone. Tony, Christina is my woman

Do you actually think you can get to her before I do? Thats not how this works! Growing angrier by the second, Harveys face contorted as he dialed Tonys number.

Mr.

Madden Senior, even if I owe you money, you didnt have to take my woman.

Please release her immediately, he demanded, trying to sound firm.

Harvey, stay out of this, Tony replied.

You owe me millions, and youre in no position to make demands.

I took her only for one reason to make Andrew come to me and beg my forgiveness.

So, youre after Andrew ? Harvey asked, both surprised and delighted.

Of course.

He nearly killed my son and even dared to kick me.

You think Id let him live? Tony growled.

Mr.

Madden Senior, you must kill him.

Dont let him off! Harvey quickly agreed.

But if youre after him, why take my woman? Please, let Christina go.

Christina is my leverage against that punk.

Releasing her is not an option, Tony refused

Harveys suppressed anger rose again.

But Mr.

Madden Senior, Ive already told you- Christina is my woman

Youve taken her, and now youre making me look like a fool! Tony sneered

Youre drowning in debt, yet youre parading around like youre the king of Jayrodales elite. We both know youre all show

Harvey, your reputation means nothing to me.

His words dripped with mockery and disdain, each one cutting deeper than the last.

Harveys face turned red with rage, and he clenched his teeth.

Mr.

Madden Senior, are you seriously refusing to let her go? Hell no.

I wont rest until Andrew is dead, Tony snapped

And by the way, Ive taken a look Chapter 145 at Christina.

Shes quite the beauty.

Now that shes in my hands, you dont expect me not to fun, do you? have ne The line went dead with a click, leaving Harveys hands trembling as he held the phone.

Christina was his woman, yet Tony had just told him to his face that they were going to have their way with her

Harveys face twisted with rage and humiliation as he growled, Tony, you asshole!

Chapter 146 At that moment, Andrew was at Jayrodale General Hospital when Dylan called.

Mr.

Lloyd, theres something urgent I need to report.

What is it, Dylan ? Andrew asked

My men saw Tonys people take Christina, the CEO of Stevens Corporation, from the South City project, Dylan reported gravely

When did this happen? Andrews tone turned icy.

Just moments ago

Shes probably been taken to the East Side by now.

I suspect Tony is planning to use her against you, Mr.

Lloyd.

Ill make sure he pays with his life for this! Andrew growled.

Dylan felt a chill running down his spine.

Mr.

Lloyd, are you going to intervene ? Ill gather our men right away to storm East Side with you.

} No need.

Ill go alone.

I want to see what Tonys up to, Andrew replied calmly.

But Mr.

Lloyd, Tonys dangerous! Going alone is Before Dylan could even finish his warning, Andrew interrupted, Dont worry.

Once Im there, no matter how many men or skilled fighters East Side are protecting him, Tony will be the only one dying.

Then, he hung up.

Francesca was just right beside Andrew, and her face turned pale.

What happened? Why do you look so angry? Andrew put on his jacket from the rack, his expression unchanged

Tony took Christina because of me, and I need to deal with this.

How can you storm East Side alone? Thats Tonys turf ! Francesca exclaimed.

Let me contact Lauren and my grandpa for help.

Andrew shook his head.

Theres no time

Christinas already there.

I have to go now before something happens to her.

Soon after, a black Porsche Panamera roared toward East Side.

At the East Side hideout, Tony lounged confidently in his seat at the head of the room.

The chair he was currently sitting on was a replacement for the one Andrew had completely smashed during their last encounter

Today will be Andrews death day! Tony laughed heartily as he surveyed the room.

Chapter 146 Not only were hundreds of his men standing ready, but he had also summoned three of his most elite enforcers

These men were not just part of East Side; they were martial arts experts hired from elite underground gangs.

Tony had to pay them a small fortune to keep them on retainer, and their services did not come cheap.

If not for the pressure Andrew had put on him, Tony would not have dared to call them in lightly.

Mr.

Madden Senior, why did you call in all three of us for some punk who knows a bit of ancient medicine and martial arts ? complained Herman Blackwood, an elderly man seated to Tonys left.

Mr.

Blackwood, this guy took out Rocco even when he had a gun.

We cant be too careful, Tony replied seriously.

Herman scoffed

Rocco ? Even with a machine gun, I could take him out in the blink of an eye! 11 Tony smiled. Your skills far surpass Roccas, Mr.

Blackwood.

But I called in all three masters not just for Andrew alone, We also need to be ready for the Rhodes family and Cedric Aicker.

Herman grunted.

My time, is valuable, and I wont waste it on small fry.

Ill only step in if the Rhodes familys experts or Cedric shows up

I wont lift a finger for anything less, but youll still pay my full fee. We **

Chapter 147 Tony chuckled.

Of course, Mr.

Blackwood

Even just having you here is worth every penny.

Even though he said that, his heart ached at the cost.

These martial arts masters had extraordinary skills but were also arrogant and greedy.

Each job they took was like an excuse to extort the clients, draining them dry with every outrageous demand

Nonetheless, Tonys thoughts turned cold as he remembered the rumors circulating in Jayrodales underworld that he, the East Side crime lord, was a useless old man, and Juan was equally worthless. Both father and son had been humiliated by some nobody, tarnishing the reputation of East Sides ruler. The shame was simply unbearable, and Tony believed the only way to salvage his reputation was to eliminate Andrew

By doing so, he would restore his image as the unshakable ruler of the East Side.

Just then, Christina was brought in

Her face turned pale at the sight of the hundred plus thugs and the martial art masters seated at the front. Ms.

Stevens is truly a rare beauty, Tony said with a twisted grin, his gaze lingering on her.

Even at my age, I cant help but feel tempted.

Mr.

Madden Senior, Stevens Corporation has never had any conflict with East Side.

What do you want? Christina asked, trying to keep her voice steady.

Tony snorted.

Thats not for you to decide.

Tell me, whats your relationship with Andrew? Hes my ex, and weve gone our separate ways, Christina replied.

Good

Now call him and tell him to come save you, Tony demanded coldly.

Mr.

Madden Senior, I absolutely cannot do that! Christina exclaimed.

No? So you wont cooperate ? Tonys expression turned vicious.

Panicking, Christina quickly replied, Ive already said it I have nothing to do with Andrew anymore.

Theres nothing between us !!! Tonys voice turned icy.

I dont care what your relationship with him is now.

Youre going to call him, bring him here, and then Ill consider letting you go.

Otherwise, Ill have my way with you before killing you.

The last trace of color drained from Christinas face.

Why are you so determined to lure Andrew here? What is East Side planning? Tony sneered

With all these men and three martial arts masters here- isnt it obvious? He wont be leaving here alive!

Chapter 148 Christina took a deep breath, finding her calm.

Mr.

Madden Senior, even as East Sides crime lord, if you hurt me, Harvey will demand justice.

At this point, she could not imagine Tony completely disregarding the Weller familys influence.

However, Tony scoffed.

Harvey? That guy owes me millions: Justice? The moment he sees me, hed be on his knees begging! The men around the room erupted in mocking laughter

Harvey? That guys nothing but a cowardly joke! one of them jeered.

Another sneered.

Ms.

Stevens, youre a stunner, but sticking with Harvey? Youre wasting your beauty.

You'd be better off with Mr.

Madden Senior

Hed make sure the Stevens family reaches new heights.

Honestly, another chimed in, Harveys only still afloat because his father has some sway.

Otherwise, hed have been tossed out of Jayrodale long ago! Christinas anger flared

She could not believe the arrogance of these East Side thugs, openly belittling the Weller family like this. However, doubts began to creep into her mind.

First, Jayrodale Banks manager had hinted at Harvey being neck deep in debt, and now Tony was saying the same thing.

A single accusation could be dismissed as slander, but hearing it from multiple sources made her uneasy

Mr.

Madden Senior, since your men are so bold, will you let me call Harvey right now? Christina challenged, thinking only Harvey could bring these thugs back down.

Tony laughed

Go ahead, Im in no rush

His confidence only increased Christinas unease, but she still could not believe Harvey was as worthless as they claimed

After all, the Wellers were a prominent family in Jayrodale.

With that in mind, she dialed his number several times.

However, after several attempts, there was no answer.

Frowning, Christina redialed.

Harvey would always answer her calls, and she was unwilling to give up so easily.

But again, the call went to voicemail.

Tony sneered

Dont waste your time.

That cowards probably hiding from me

Youve got a better chance of winning the lottery than convincing him to show his face here. Christinas face paled as her anxiety peaked, wondering what was going on with Harvey Ill give you one last chance call Andrew to come here, and youll be safe, Tony demanded coldly. Otherwise, my men will have their way with you.

The room filled with Tonys disgusting laughter, and for the first time, fear seeped into Christina. Still, she bit her lip and shook her head Mr.

Madden Senior, I wont do it.

Chapter 148 Tony slammed his hand on his chair, his grin replaced by cold fury. Fine.

Lets see what lasts longer your stubbornness or my whip.

Then, he ordered his men, Strike her, but avoid her face and legs.

Well want to have some fun later.

A thin whip cracked across Christinas back, leaving a visible blood mark through her dress. Though tears welled in her eyes from the pain, she bit her lip and refused to make a sound. Quite tough, arent you? Lets see how long that lasts.

Keep going! Tony shouted.

The whip struck again and again until blood soaked through her dress.

The pain became unbearable, and Christina finally broke, crying out, Just kill me if youve got the guts!

Chapter 149 Tony angrily shouted, Are you making the call? Christinas face was already drained of all color, her mouth filled with the metallic taste of blood

Even so, she stood her ground, weakly shaking her head.

No ... I wont let Andrew walk into a ... death trap because of me.

You might as well... give up! Keep hitting her! Beat her to death if you have to! Tony roared, his fury boiling over.

The whip struck her back again and again, each lash more merciless than the last.

Christinas body soon became a canvas of blood, her dress torn and stained as her skin broke under the relentless assault.

She wailed in pain before passing out.

Sitting beside Tony, Herman Blackwood, an elderly man with streaks of white in his hair, chuckled darkly

His voice was laced with malice as he said, This ones got some backbone; Ill give her that.

But for someone like her, brute force alone wont break her spirit.

Ive got an idea thatll make her submit instantly, Tony was intrigued.

Whats your plan, Mr.

Blackwood? He also wanted to change his approach, fearing that if he continued to beat Christina like this, he would end up beating her to death.

If that happened, it would no longer be fun when they finally had their way with her.

Herman smirked wickedly.

Shes a young, untouched beauty, and a rare one at that.

Why waste your time whipping her when you can show her whos in charge? Nothing breaks a woman faster than a man asserting his dominance... right in front of her

Tonys eyes gleamed with excitement as he laughed.

Youre absolutely right, Mr.

Blackwood

Her beauty is truly one in a million! Maybe you should go first youve got the most experience here. Herman waved him off with a sly grin.

Now, now, Mr.

Madden Senior, dont be ridiculous

Im far too old for such things, especially with my martial arts training I cant waste my vital energy like that

! But back in the day, oh, I wouldve shown this little lady what a real man is.

Tony let out a roaring laugh.

Everyone knows you were the real deal in your prime, Mr.

Blackwood! The stories they tell about you legendary! Hermans wrinkled face lit up with pride.

If I were 30 years younger, this wouldnt even be a discussion.

I was unstoppable back then! Tony, grinning, turned to his men

Wake her up

Lets have some fun with this one, Soon, a bucket of cold water was dumped over Christinas unconscious body, jolting her Chapter 149 awake.

Drenched and shivering, her bloodied dress clung to her curves, further igniting the twisted desires of the men in the room.

Some of them chuckled, while others looked at her with a sickening urge.

Before Tony could act, Juan stepped forward eagerly.

Dad, let me go first! Please! He was already loosening his belt without waiting for an answer, approaching Christina with a lewd smile

Tonys expression showed a flicker of disappointment.

Nonetheless, he recalled how Juan had suffered enough recently and figured this was as good a time as any to let him blow off some steam.

Go ahead.

Shes all yours.

Juan approached Christina, his eyes gleaming with malicious intent.

So, youre Andrews little sweetheart, huh? Perfect.

Im going to make you scream for mercy, and when that coward shows up, Ill make sure he sees every bit of it.

Christina scrambled back, clutching her torn dress in a feeble attempt to cover herself.

However, every movement pulled at her wounded back, sending waves of unbearable pain through her body and forcing tears down her face

You monsters! Id rather die than let you touch me ! she spat, trembling.

: Juan smirked and slapped her across the face, sending her sprawling to the floor.

You think you get to choose, you stupid bitch? When youre in my hands, youll do anything I tell you to!

in my hands, youll do anything I tell 11 He added, Ive already wanted to get my hands on you bad I didnt get the chance until now.

when I first saw you with Harvey.

Too

Chapter 150 Juan let out an excited yell and tugged forcefully at Christinas dress.

The delicate fabric tore apart, exposing a flash of her pale, flawless skin.

Stop! Get away from me! Christina screamed, her voice cracking with fear and desperation.

Tears streamed down her face as she broke down completely, the brutal beating earlier having nearly shattered her resolve.

Now, faced with humiliation and violation, her defenses crumbled entirely.

Scream all you want it only makes this more exciting! Juan laughed wickedly as the East Side thugs, and even Herman cheered him on from the sidelines.

Go for it, Mr.

Madden ! Show her whos boss! But dont forget the order Mr.

Madden Senior will go after this, then the rest of us! Tonight, every one of us gets to enjoy her! The room echoed with their wicked jeers.

Christina could not take it anymore.

She collapsed to her knees, clutching her head, sobbing uncontrollably.

In her most helpless moment, she cried out, Andrew... Andrew, where are you? Please save me I need you ... She had not even realized that she called for Andrew rather than Harvey in her desperation. Juan, now consumed by his dark desires, lunged forward with a maniacal laugh.

You can call for whoever you want, but no ones coming to save you now! Just give in! Herman leaned back in his chair, watching with a twisted smile.

Its a shame Im too old to join in, but watching your son take charge? Thats good enough for me. What do you think, Mr.

Madden Senior? Tony chuckled crudely, and his grin widened.

Sometimes, watching someone else have fun is better than doing it yourself.

Lets see what my boys got! The two erupted into laughter, while the surrounding thugs watched eagerly, their faces flushed with excitement.

Suddenly, two thunderous crashes interrupted the chaos.

The bodies of two guards flew through the doorway, landing in the center of the crowd.

Blood was trickling from their mouths, and their eyes were wide open they were dead.

The East Side gang and Tonys group were stunned into silence.

Who dares intrude on East Side territory? Show yourself! Tony roared, his eyes blazing as he stared at the entrance.

A tall figure emerged, his face cold as ice.

The East Side thugs charged at him with knives and Chapter 150 axes, but he moved like a force of nature through their ranks.

In mere moments, he had torn through over a hundred of East Sides finest fighters, leaving them groaning on the ground with broken bones and bloody faces.

The remaining men trembled and backed away, overwhelmed by his murderous aura.

As his men retreated, Tony finally got a clear look at the intruder.

He snarled, Andrew ... You little bastard! You actually had the guts to storm into my territory ?!
