

The Ashes 1621

Chapter 1621

It had not even been long since

Andrew moved from Jayrodale to Blumedale, a city full of hidden powerhouses, yet he had already climbed higher than anyone else.

Looking around, no one else had achieved this. And from what they had heard, no one had ever been able to compare to Andrew.

"Finally, this Volkswagen Beetle is for Serenity Villa's grocery runs—for the housekeeper to drive!" Duncan said, pointing to the last car with a smile, to wrap things up.

Francesca could not help but say, "Mr. Irving Senior, a Beetle is still a luxury car.

Using it for groceries and having the housekeeper drive it seems a bit wasteful,

doesn't it?"

Duncan shook his head. "Ms. Aicker, it's not wasteful at all, not one bit!

Serenity Villa is the finest house in Blumedale! And Mr. Lloyd's status and position speak for themselves!

Having the household staff drive a

Beetle is the bare minimum requirement!"

He added, "If we went any lower, it would embarrass Mr. Lloyd, and we absolutely cannot allow that to happen!"

Francesca giggled and replied, "I don't really understand these things, so whatever you say goes, Mr. Irving Senior!"

With a beaming smile, Duncan returned to his own car and told his driver to head out. His heart was blooming with joy as this generous gift had been perfectly timed. He had also thoughtfully taken care of Andrew's little beat-up car that Luna had dented.
