

The Beloved 351

Chapter 351: Made the Selection for Special Team

The truth was, when she hacked into the instructor's computer just now, she had also tracked the location of the home base. Therefore, after she took care of all the other cadets, she headed for the home base...

When she arrived, many people on the screen had already been eliminated. "Don't you think that the progress of the test this time around is a little too fast? In less than a day, two-thirds of the cadets have already been eliminated!"

"Looks like the standards of this batch of cadets are not bad."

She listened in on the two instructors' discussion as they looked at the computer screen...

Actually, everyone has already been eliminated. Its just that you don't know yet.

"Yes!"

The two of them were very focused on the computer screen, so they did not notice Jian Dan behind them.

Jian Dan raised her gun with both hands. There was only one bullet left in her gun. In order not to waste the ammunition she confiscated... Tm sorry, Sirs!

"Yes, you are right. The standards of this batch of cadets are really not bad." Hearing the voice behind them, the two of them turned around at the same time...

The moment they turned around, Jian Dan pulled the trigger. The two instructors were shot in the chest and looked at Jian Dan in confusion...

"I won!" She looked at the two instructors with a victorious smile.

Ever since the founding of the organization, no one had been able to find the home base during the class allocation test and even eliminated the instructors. This was simply unbelievable!

The test was supposed to last for three days. But because all the students had been eliminated, they had to end it prematurely.

After returning to the base, she was singled out. Moreover, when she went back, the other cadets looked at her as if they wanted to skin her alive.

She felt uncomfortable and quickened her pace to follow the instructor to a small room...

In that room sat a man in a military uniform. His eyes were sharp and his face was cold. The man did not say a word, but his entire body exuded a terrifying aura, overwhelming her with his presence.

She swallowed hard and stood at the door, not daring to take a step forward.

"Come here." She heard a cold and emotionless male voice.

She felt her entire body tremble. She took small steps forward until she was in front of the man. Although she was standing in front of him, she did not dare to look up at him.

"You're the one who hacked into the instructor's computer?"

"Yes."

"You've got a lot of nerve! How dare you hack into the instructor's computer!" "But the rules didn't say I can't! The rules only said to be the last one standing at the specified location within the stipulated time! I only used my method to be the last one standing," Jian Dan said fearlessly.

“Haha! Well said! Come with me.” The man stood up and walked towards the door.

Although she did not know what he wanted to do, she followed him...

After following him for a long time and passing through countless doors, they finally stopped at a door. “If you can open this door, I’ll spare you from all punishments.”

“Punishments? Why do you want to punish me? I didn’t do anything wrong.” “Whether you did anything wrong or not, that’s for me to say and I have the final say here. If you don’t want to be punished, this is your only way out.” She looked at this man indignantly. This man had a very pretty face, especially the fact that he had the toughness of a soldier.

So what if he has a pretty face? He’s so unreasonable its really hard to like him...

However, she had no choice but to give in. She could only admit defeat in his territory. After all, she would be the one on the losing end if she had a head-on confrontation with him.

She reluctantly squatted down and studied the password lock...

She took out the computer from her backpack and connected the password lock to the computer with a data cable. It only took her one minute to unlock the password lock...

“Happy?” She did not have a good impression of this man!

This girl actually used less than a minute to unlock the password lock. She’s indeed something.

The corners of his lips curled up slightly. “From today onwards, you will be part of Special Team.”

“What Special Team?”

“The class allocation test is to determine class placements by each cadet’s strengths. With your ability, you made the cut and can join Special Team. Open this door and you will become a member of Special Team.”

That man pushed open the door that she had just unlocked...

Chapter 352: What? Special Team? Ridiculous!

When the people in the room saw Jian Dan, they gave conflicted looks...

She entered the room and saw three girls and five guys. Their expressions were a little cold, making her feel a little uncomfortable...

“From today onwards, she will officially be a member of Special Team.” The man said to the eight of them and turned to leave. Before he left, he said, “Someone will send your luggage over.”

Why did this person send her to this whatever Special Team without saying anything?

“Hehe... Hello, everyone! I’m Jian Dan.” She greeted everyone warmly.

After all, the test was over; so the competition should have ended.

However, no one paid any attention to her after she greeted them and they carried on with their own activities...

Are the people here all so cold?

Seeing that there was only one bed left in the room, she walked over and sat on the bed. Jian Dan watched as they went about doing their own things. There was not even any communication between them.

News of Jian Dan joining Special Team soon reached Chu Liyuan...

Chu Liyuan was perusing documents on the 33rd floor when the cell phone lying in the drawer suddenly rang. When Chu Liyuan heard the cell phone ring, he frowned because it was the special cell phone used by the military to contact him.

Did something happen to Jian Jian?

He pressed the answer button... An anxious voice emanated from the other end of the call. "Liyuan, the young lady you sent over has joined Special Team." "What?" Upon hearing this news, Chu Liyuan suddenly stood up from his chair. Worry was written all over his face. "What happened?"

"The class allocation test."

"I thought the class allocation test was over long ago?" The class allocation test should have been over by the time he sent Jian Dan there. He had intentionally done that because he did not want Jian Dan to participate in the class allocation test. This way, he could directly arrange for her to be in a more relaxed class.

"Shang was busy and the class allocation test was pushed back."

"What?"

Knowing that Jian Dan had joined Special Team, how could Chu Liyuan sit on his hands? He immediately arranged for a helicopter to fly to the base...

The first thing he did when he arrived at the base was to go to Shang's room...

Seeing Chu Liyuan barge into his room just like that, Shang's lips curled up...

When he assigned Jian Dan to Special Team earlier, he had been told that she was sent by Chu Liyuan.

However, he did not expect him to rush over so quickly. It seemed that Jian Dan was very important to him.

“You got here real quick.”

“Since you said that, you must know why I’m here. Let her go!”

“Liyuan, you haven’t been to the base for a long time. Have you forgotten the rules of the base?”

“You should know very well that those who have the ability to join Special Team will be automatically assigned to the team. No one can stop that. And that includes you and me.”

Of course I know this, but... how can I let Jian Jian stay in Special Team?

“With Jian Jian’s ability, how can she be qualified to join Special Team?”

“Looks like you don’t know her very well.”

“She is very proficient in technology.”

“You should have heard about it before you got here.”

He knew that Jian Dan was very good with computers, but he did not expect her to be so proficient that she made the selection for Special Team...

“When I sent her here, I only planned to let her stay here for a month. After a month, school will start.”

“As long as she stays here, she’ll be part of Special Team.”

“But she doesn’t know anything and doesn’t have the ability to protect herself.”

She doesn't have the ability to join Special Team at all!"

"Are you afraid that something will happen to her?"

"Nothing can happen to her!"

"What exactly is your relationship with her?" This was the first time he had seen Liyuan so nervous.

"She's my wife."

"You're married? I thought you'd never get married."

"Since you know that, you should know how important she is to me. I won't allow anything to happen to her. I want to take her away now!"

"I'm afraid you won't be able to take her away."

"What do you mean?"

"Special Team received a mission early this morning and has already set off..."

"What?"

Why did I send Jian Jian here? He was filled with regret...

Chapter 353: This Is Special Team!

Having just arrived at Special Team, Jian Dan was completely clueless and did not have the slightest idea what she needed to do here.

She sat alone on the bed in a daze...

Just then, the girl in very revealing clothes walked up to her and said in a sarcastic tone, "Why did they get another little vixen? Don't tell me you're here to steal the honeypot roles from me?"

Honeypot? What does she mean? Why does she have to be the honeypot?

Jian Dan suddenly felt that Special Team seemed to be very complicated.

"What do you mean?"

"Hmph! From the looks of it, don't tell me you don't even know what Special Team is?"

Another boy who looked like he was only in his teens said.

"You don't even know what Special Team is. Why are you here? Do you have a death wish?"

The moment he opened his mouth, Jian Dan was really shocked. She had thought that he was a girl, but "she" turned out to be a guy the moment he opened his mouth. However, from his appearance, he was definitely effeminate.

Just what do they mean by that?

"Looks like you are really clueless. Then I'll be the nice guy and clue you in." the boy said.

"Special Team is different from the cadets in the other ordinary classes. Other than our usual training, we will really carry out missions. Moreover, the missions that we are assigned are usually not easy ones. Hence, we can get injured or even lose our lives."

“You... must be... kidding! How... is that possible?” Lose my life? How’s that possible? This is too exaggerated! How can Uncle let me train in such a place?

“Kidding? Why do you think there are only eight of us? Although those who make the cut for Special Team are all people with special skills, it shouldn’t be so few. That’s because many died during missions, so there are only eight of us left now,” the effeminate boy said.

“Don’t scare her. Ignore him. Since you already know what Special Team does, let me do the self-introduction.”

“My name is Lan Tong, and I’m good with explosives.”

“He’s Xing Can. Although he looks like a woman, he doesn’t bat an eyelid when he takes a life. Furthermore, he’s good at psychology.”

“That’s Xiao Ran. Most of the time, she takes on the honey trap assignments. But don’t underestimate her; she’s an expert in pharmaceuticals.”

“That’s Big Di—all transportation is not a problem for him.”

“That’s Diya—master of makeup and disguise.”

“That’s Fang Qing. She’s a very formidable fighter; I’ve never seen anyone who can defeat her.”

“That’s Zhaozi. He can stay under water for half an hour without any problem.”

“The last one is Bai Yan. He’s the brain of the team, and the one who plans and oversees all our missions.”

It was only then that Jian Dan realized that everyone in Special Team had some special skills. Perhaps if they were alone, they would not stand out very much. However, they would become very powerful weapons when they are consolidated in a team.

“Now, it’s your turn to introduce yourself.”

“Me? My name is Jian Dan.”

“Then why were you chosen to join Special Team? It’s been a long time since a newbie joined us. Since you were chosen, you must have skills that none of us have.”

“Beats me.” Jian Dan still did not know why she had been chosen to join Special Team.

“How is that possible? Only those who are exceptional in some aspects can join Special Team.”

“But I really have no idea. If there’s really anything, I’m quite good with computers.” She smiled awkwardly.

“Computers? What can you do with the computer? It seems that the selection criteria for Special Team are going downhill.” Xiao Ran said as she returned to her bed...

You’re not the only one—even I have no idea why I was chosen to join Special Team.. Is this really arranged by Uncle?

Chapter 354: First Mission!

I am so “lucky”. I’ve just joined the Special Team, and now I’m getting my feet wet with a mission. We’re about to set off...

I’ve yet to figure out what Special Team’s about and we’re going on a mission now?

Are you f*cking serious?!

I really want to contact Uncle! However, all her communication devices were taken away the moment she joined Special Team, leaving her with no way to do that at all.

Just like that, she went on her first mission with them...

The nine of them arrived at the mountain behind the base. There was a helicopter waiting there and Big Di was in charge of flying the helicopter. The remaining eight of them put on the different gear and equipment—that were prepared according to each of their particular skillset—with their names written on it. Jian Dan's gear was a laptop and various electronic devices.

“How are you doing? Are you nervous about your first mission?” Lan Tong asked.

Jian Dan was so nervous that she could not speak. Her hands were trembling non-stop and her breathing quickened subconsciously. As her breathing quickened, her heart slowed down. She did not know if it was because she was extremely nervous; instead of beating faster, her heart was slowing down.

This mission had to be completed within two hours, so the helicopter was not landing and they had to do a HALOO insertion. Big Di would return to pick them up in half an hour.

Parachute? Are they f*cking serious? I have to jump from such a high altitude? How can I perform such a difficult feat without any training? I would meet my Maker before I can even carry out the mission.

“Relax, I'll be with you...” Bai Yan comforted when he saw the nervous wreck that Jian Dan was.

They were different from the other cadets who were competing against one another; Special Team was an entity and worked as one. They needed to trust one another completely to complete the mission and escape unscathed.

The eight of them had already gone through countless missions together and had enough chemistry. Jian Dan had just joined them today and really did not know...

“Since you’re already a member of Special Team, you have to show 100% trust in each and every one of us.”

It took a long time to build trust, but when she looked into Bai Yan’s eyes, she felt inexplicably relieved and comforted. She looked at him and nodded.

With Bai Yan’s help, she put on the parachute...

“Big Di, time check.” Bai Yan said to Big Di in the cockpit.

“17:23.”

“Alright. Get ready to jump.”

The cabin door opened...

“Let’s go!” Bai Yan ordered. Lan Tong was the first to jump out of the helicopter.

After that, they jumped out of the helicopter one after another. Only Bai Yan and Jian Dan were left in the helicopter. “Are you ready?”

Jian Dan stuck her head out and looked down. The altitude made her shut her eyes.

“Do you remember what I said to you just now? Give me your hand. Don’t worry and trust me!”

I can’t let everyone fail this mission because of me. Although it’s my first day joining Special Team—since I’m here—I can’t back out at the last minute.

Looking at Bai Yan’s determined expression, she placed her hand in his; she placed her life in his hands.

She felt her hand being held tightly by Bai Yan. In the next second, she jumped out of the helicopter...

The sudden weightlessness made her extremely nervous. Her grip on Bai Yan tightened, and she did not open her eyes.

Bai Yan must have sensed her fear. "Don't be afraid. Open your eyes and look. It's a panoramic view!"

Hearing Bai Yan's words, she slowly opened her eyes...

It turned out that the view was really spectacular so high up from the sky. She did not seem to be so afraid anymore and the expression on her face relaxed a lot.

"Get ready to pull the ripcord."

Jian Dan nodded at Bai Yan and positioned her hand on the ripcord by the side of the parachute. When she saw Bai Yan signaling to her, she pulled the ripcord and a powerful force lurched her upwards...

Although the distance between the two of them had widened after the parachute was deployed and they had let go of each other's hands, they were still connected by the cable.

With Bai Yan's help, she made a safe landing and completed her first parachute jump...

However, she did not have time to think about it. Instead, she had to take off the parachute as soon as possible. After all, they only had two hours for this mission.

After taking off the parachute, she moved quickly...

This mission was... to save a kidnapped biology professor who was imprisoned in a remote biological laboratory. There were surveillance cameras and guards everywhere.

If she did not figure out where the guards were, they would not be able to get in at all...

Chapter 355: Let Me Do It

“Jian Jian has never received any training and you sent her on a mission. Are you out of your mind?!”
Upon hearing that Jian Dan was out on a mission, Chu Liyuan almost lost his mind. He grabbed Shang’s collar and pulled him up from the bed. His brows were tightly knitted.

“When you sent her here, you should have thought of the worst outcome.” Shang pushed Chu Liyuan’s hands away forcefully.

“Where is she now?”

“Calm down.”

“I’m asking you, where is she now?” Chu Liyuan was like a raging lion.

Chu Liyuan’s mind was filled with Jian Dan. If anything happened to Jian Jian, it’s all my fault. I’m the one who sent her here and made her suffer.

This was because he knew very well that the missions carried out by Special Team were extremely dangerous. If she was not careful, she might lose her life. Jian Jian... she’s always getting injured as it is, let alone in such a dangerous situation.

“I have to save her!”

“Do you really care about her so much? You want to save her even if it means breaking the rules and regulations?” To them, the rules and regulations stood above everything else.

“Yes! At all costs!”

The security was too tight and no flaws could be found...

Jian Dan observed that the building was surrounded by surveillance cameras. Since there are surveillance cameras, that makes things easy then...

"Don't worry, I got something."

Everyone looked at Jian Dan...

She looked at them confidently and took out the contents of her backpack. "I need someone to connect this flash drive to a surveillance camera. That way, I can hack into their entire network through the surveillance network."

"I've scoped the area and the security beside the tree in the west is the most lax, so the surveillance camera there is the best choice."

"I'll go!" Fang Qing volunteered. She took the flash drive and turned to go.

"Be careful." Bai Yan said.

"Don't worry." Fang Qing said confidently.

Fang Qing worked at lightning speed; it only took her all of five minutes to connect the flash drive...

"Fang Qing, stay there for the time being."

She wanted to hack into their network as quickly as possible, but their network was heavily encrypted, so it took some time to decrypt it. It took a full half an hour to successfully hack into their network.

She had tampered with their surveillance system and put the images on the cameras on a loop for the next thirty minutes.

“Fang Qing, move to your left now. There’s a surveillance camera there. You must let the surveillance camera capture you.”

“What do you mean? Do you want to use Fang Qing as a bait to lure them away?” Xing Can asked with some resentment.

“How could I put Fang Qing in danger? I’ve already tampered with many of the surveillance cameras just now. That is to say, although Fang Qing will appear in this surveillance camera, the images transmitted will appear in other surveillance cameras and lead them to the other surveillance cameras. This way, there’ll be a time difference.”

“Wow, that’s very cool!” Lan Tong asked.

“Now is not the time to stroke my ego. Hurry up and take advantage of...”

“Jian Dan, you’re not skilled enough. Stay here and guide us via the comms.” Bai Yan said directly.

“Okay.” With Jian Dan’s skills, she might end up being a burden to them if she went. She might as well stay here as their eyes and support them.

“Let’s go...”

She found a hiding place and guided them via the comms...

“Oh no, there’s a password lock!”

“Don’t worry, I’ll do it.” Since I’ve already hacked into the entire network, I can naturally crack everything that needs the electronic network easily...”

Soon, she cracked the password...

"I finally know why you were chosen to join Special Team. You're awesome!"

"Now is not the time to talk about this." Jian Dan was speechless.

"Hurry up. They'll be on to me soon and know that I've hacked into their network, so chop chop."

They were indeed partners who had carried out missions together many times. They coordinated very well and soon found the place where the biology professor was imprisoned.

However, the most exasperating thing was that they had barely rescued the professor when... "Oh no, they've discovered me. Evacuate as soon as possible!"

Although she had been discovered, they had not repaired the firewall of the network yet. Hence, she took the opportunity to change many passwords.. This way, she could stall them for a while and buy Bai Yan and the others more time...

Chapter 356:100% Trust

Finally, they managed to rescue the professor with everyone's cooperation...

Just then, Big Di arrived to get them...

Because the exfil point that she had planned for them happened to be on the roof of the building, Big Di's helicopter slowly approached the roof and they boarded it with the professor...

The helicopter took off again...

The mission was completed. Now, she had to leave this place as soon as possible. However, just as she was about to leave, she turned around and saw a pistol pointing at her.

She was scared out of her wits and stood rooted to the ground.

“Look at your companions. They abandoned you and left. To think that you helped them so much. Without you, how could they have saved him?” The man who was pointing a gun at her said sarcastically.

“What? You didn’t think they’d come back to save you, did you?”

“Cover your head and squat down.” Fang Qing’s voice came from the comms in Jian Dan’s ear.

She immediately followed Fang Qing’s instructions. In the next second, the man’s head exploded and he fell in front of her... Watching the blood flowing out of the wound on his forehead, she felt very conflicted and did not know how to describe her current feelings. To see a person die before her eyes... This feeling was really...

“Let’s go!” Fang Qing quickly joined her.

Fang Qing ushered her along and ran like the wind as the people behind them chased after them relentlessly.

Unfortunately, they ran into a dead-end—it was a cliff they were running towards...

Am I really going to die here today?

“Don’t stop, keep running!” Another voice came from the comms. This time, it was Bai Yan’s voice.

“But there’s a cliff in front!”

“Run!” She had to run off the cliff without hesitation. This required what kind of courage?

However, a sentence suddenly popped up in her mind: You have to trust each and every one of us 100%.

Because she trusted him, she and Fang Qing did not stop and ran off the cliff...

The moment they fell, Big Di piloted the helicopter and turned sideways to catch them perfectly...

Holy crap! Those who've never experienced staring death in the face can't understand that feeling at all...

“Are you all right?”

“I was scared sh*tless! I've never experienced such a heart-stopping moment in my life! I really feel that the Grim Reaper has brushed past me a few times today.”

“We're all used to such situations of staring death in the face.”

Just how many times have they experienced it to be able to say such words so casually?

Every time they went on a mission, they were really putting their lives on the line.

“Big Di's piloting skills are really amazing!” The topic just now was really heavy, so she changed the topic.

“That's for sure. Otherwise, how could he have made the selection for Special Team?”

“Everyone here is a god!” Jian Dan praised.

“Talk about tooting your own horn.” Xiao Ran said.

“Yeah! Am I not?”

“The size of your ego...”

“I want to keep a low profile too but my talent doesn’t allow it.” Jian Dan said arrogantly.

“I didn’t know that you are such a narcissistic person.”

“That’s normal. If you don’t even love yourself, how can you love others? Don’t you think so?”

“Your twisted logic seems to make sense, huh?”

“How is this twisted logic? It’s clearly the truth!”

“Alright, alright, alright. I won’t argue with you anymore. I don’t care if it’s twisted logic or the truth as long as it’s reasonable.”

“I like this answer.”

To be able to build such trust in such a short period of time, it was really something that could only be achieved through experiencing life and death together. Although she had only interacted with them for a short period of time, she felt that she had known them for many years. That feeling was more like family. Is this the so-called camaraderie?

It turns out to be so precious!

Chapter 357: The Right to Be Chu Liyuan’s Wife

It was already very late when they returned to the base. However, as soon as they got off the helicopter, Jian Dan was whisked away alone...

Faced with the berserk Chu Liyuan, Shang was at his wits' end when his cell phone rang. Initially, he was not in the mood to pick up the call under such circumstances. However, at the thought that he could escape this situation for a while, he picked it up.

As he answered the call... the expression on his face relaxed and the corners of his lips even curled up...

After hanging up, he regarded the anxious Chu Liyuan with a smile. "Stop going apesh*t. She's back."

"Where is she?" Upon hearing that Jian Dan had returned safely, all of Chu Liyuan's reservedness disappeared. He grabbed Shang's shoulder...

"Hey, hey, hey! Don't look at me like that. I'm not your Jian Dan!"

Chu Liyuan realized that he had lost his composure, so he immediately let go of Shang. Although he regained his composure on the surface, his heart was still surging like a heat wave.

"She's with the other members of Special Team. It's not appropriate for you to be there. Wait here. I'll bring her to you personally."

This was the first time he had seen Chu Liyuan lose control and he really did not expect there to be such a day.

However, this also made him rather worried. Jian Dan is so important to Liyuan. That will definitely become his Achilles' heel.

This was not something he wanted to see. If a warrior had a weakness, he would have scruples about everything he did and would not be as fearless as before.

Since this girl is so important to him, I'm even more intent to see her stay in Special Team. At the very least, she can protect herself if she encounters anything in the future.

Before he left, he gave Chu Liyuan a meaningful look but Chu Liyuan's mind was filled with Jian Dan and did not notice it at all.

After leaving the room, he immediately went to the mountain behind the base...

"Jian Dan, come with me..."

Usually, it was not a good sign to be called away after completing a mission.

"Sir, it's all thanks to Jian Dan that this mission was completed so smoothly." Bai Yan hurriedly said when he saw this.

"That's right! Sir, if not for Jian Dan, we might have died today." Lan Tong chimed in.

"That's right."

"That's right."

Whats wrong with everyone? The instructor's just asking her to go over for a while. Why does everyone look so nervous?

"It's fine. You guys go back first... I'll just be a while. This is my first mission. With such success, we have to celebrate!"

Before Jian Dan left, she even gave them a sweet smile.

However, all of their faces were filled with worry.

“Sir, do you have something to tell me?”

“Your name is Jian Dan?”

“Yes.”

“Chu Liyuan is your husband?”

“How did you know?”

“I feel that as Chu Liyuan’s wife, you have to be worthy of being his wife.”

She furrowed her brows. “What do you mean by that?” Does he mean that she isn’t worthy of Uncle? Who gave him the right to decide whether she is worthy or not?

“What I mean is that Liyuan is ruthless in the business world and he definitely has many enemies. As his wife, there are definitely some things that can’t be avoided. You don’t want him to have to save you every time something happens, right?”

“As his wife, shouldn’t you not let him worry?”

“At the very least, you should have the basic ability to protect yourself. Do you think I’m right?”

Hearing what the instructor said to her, Jian Dan fell into deep thought...

Chapter 358: Uncle, I’ve Decided to Stay!

In order to let Jian Dan clearly understand the meaning of his words, Shang did not beat around the bush and was very blunt.

He knew that he could not stop Chu Liyuan from being with her, but what he could do was to prevent this woman from becoming Chu Liyuan's Achilles' heel.

Along the way, she had been thinking about what the instructor had said to her...

That's right! Most of the time, she seemed to need someone to save her?

But I won't be so lucky every time. If something really happened to me one day, what kind of blow would Uncle... suffer?

Didn't Uncle send me here for training so that I can save myself if I am in danger again?

As she thought about it, she was already at the door of a room...

"Go on." The instructor pointed at the room and said.

She looked at the instructor in confusion...

What is going on now? Is something terrifying waiting for her in this room?

Ever since she stepped foot on this base, many things had constantly refreshed her worldview...

Seeing the faint smile on the instructor's face when he left, Jian Dan subconsciously shuddered.

After the instructor left, she hesitantly reached out to grab the handle on the door of the room and cautiously opened the door. She did not enter the room immediately but probed tentatively. After the mission earlier on, Jian Dan became more cautious.

She saw a tall man standing in the room...

Why does this man's back look so familiar?

Wait a minute! Isn't this back..

She pushed the door open and entered. "Uncle?"

Hearing Jian Dan's voice, the figure instantly turned around.

When he saw her, a smile appeared on his face. He took a few steps forward and pulled her into his arms...

"Uncle, why are you here?"

Did Uncle miss me? Is he here to see me?

That's not right. Ive only been here for a day!

Then Uncle...

He let go of his arms and gazed at Jian Dan.

"Jian Jian, come home with me."

Chu Liyuan held her hand and turned to leave...

Jian Dan stood rooted to the ground. "But I just got here."

What's wrong with Uncle? Why is he suddenly taking me away?

Previously, she had tried many ways to change Chu Liyuan's decision.

"I shouldn't have sent you here!"

In all his life, he had never made a decision that he regretted. This was the first time he regretted his decision so much.

"Uncle, what's wrong with you?"

"I only sent you here for some training to toughen you up a little. I didn't expect you to join Special Team! That's not a place you should be in."

So it wasn't Uncle who arranged for her to Join Special Team!

No wonder she had always felt strange. How could Uncle have arranged for her to be in such a dangerous place?!

Since Uncle wants to take me away, I should leave...

Just as she was about to speak, she recalled what the instructor had said to her earlier...

Even if I can't help Uncle, at the very least, I mustn't become his worry!

For Uncle's sake, I should stay.

Although Special Team is really dangerous, it can accelerate my improvement as much as possible in the shortest time possible, so...

“Uncle, I’ve decided to stay here.”

“Stay here?” Chu Liyuan frowned. “Do you know what Special Team is?”

“I do.”

“You know and you’re still staying?”

“Uncle, do you not have any confidence in me with that expression?”

“Now is not the time to be willful!”

“I’m not being willful. I just want...” To not become your obstacle. “To make myself stronger so that no one will dare to bully me in future..”

Chapter 359:1 Don’t Trust Anyone

Whafs gotten into her?

He still remembered that when he asked her to come for the training previously, she had racked her brains to get out of it.

What is going on now? She actually...

“Uncle, you know me. If I hadn’t come here, I would definitely have agreed happily if you told me that I did not have to come.”

“But now that I’m here, I’ve already joined Special Team and become one of them. There’s no reason for me to give up halfway.”

“Since I’ve already done it, I’ll definitely give it my best shot!”

“We agreed on a month, so it’ll just be a month.”

She hoped that she could become stronger in this month and not be the person who always made Chu Liyuan worry about her.

“No!”

“Uncle, I respected your decision, but please respect mine too. I want to stay!”

Seeing the unprecedented seriousness on Jian Dan’s face, he knew that he would not be able to take her away.

Although Jian Dan was occasionally willful, she was still quite obedient and would do as he said. However, she was actually very stubborn deep down. Once she made a decision, she would not budge.

“You really want to stay?”

“Yes.”

She had never been as serious about something as she was now...

But for Uncle, I’m willing!

“Alright.”

Since he could not change her decision, he could only...

“Wait for me here.”

After gently planting a kiss on her forehead, he left the room.

Seeing Chu Liyuan suddenly barge into his office, Shang did not look surprised. It was as if he had known that he would be back.

“Look at you. My room and office are not your home. When will you learn to knock?”

Seeing Liyuan barge into his office with such an expression, Shang knew that what he said to Jian Dan had worked.

“Get someone to tidy up my room.”

“Why? Are you coming back?”

“Jian Jian is here. Can I not come back here?”

“There are so many people here. Are you afraid that something will happen to her?”

“I don’t trust anyone.”

Since Jian Dan insisted on staying, he could only stay with her.

“What about Qin Corporation?”

“You think I can’t handle both?”

“No, not really. Since you’ve already decided, I’ll get someone to tidy up your room. When will you be back?”

“Tomorrow.”

With that, he turned around and left...

Shang shook his head as he watched Chu Liyuan leave...

He was no longer the cold and decisive Chu Liyuan. Although it was a good thing to see Chu Liyuan find his happiness, his feelings for Jian Dan were too strong. He hoped that such strong feelings would not affect him adversely...

I wonder why Uncle went out..

In the room, Jian Dan rubbed her hands and paced around, anxiously waiting for Chu Liyuan.

When the door opened again...

“Uncle, where did you go?”

“Nowhere. You just finished your mission and haven’t had a good rest. Go and have a rest.”

“Uncle, do you agree to let me stay?”

Uncle agreed after going out for a while?

“Yes.”

“Thank you, Uncle! Then I’ll head back first...”

Looking at Jian Dan's departing figure, a trace of worry flashed across Chu Liyuan's face.

Jian Jian, you really have no idea what Special Team is..

Chapter 360: Spice Things Up

After Jian Dan was called away, they returned to the dormitory. Although they went back, their hearts were with Jian Dan...

Even though they returned to the dormitory and did not say anything, it was telling from their expressions that they were worried. From time to time, they would look at the door...

They went about doing their things distractedly.

"I'm back!"

The door was suddenly swung open...

Jian Dan jumped in through the door—opened her arms—and exclaimed loudly with a smile.

Everyone—who had been worried about Jian Dan—looked relieved when they saw that Jian Dan was back in one piece.

"Why did the instructor call you over? Are you alright?" Bai Yan was the first to ask.

"Oh, it's nothing. He just asked how I felt about my first mission."

Of course, she couldn't tell them that she had gone to see Uncle, so... sorry!

“That’s it?”

This was not the usual style of the instructor.

“Yeah.”

“How is that possible? Why would they care about this?”

“Why not? You think too seriously of the instructors. Actually, they’re pretty nice.”

“Pretty nice?” Are you sure you’re talking about the base’s instructors?

Is it appropriate to use this word on them?

“Oh, don’t dwell on this. How do you guys want to celebrate?” Jian Dan smiled and said.

“Celebrate? What for?” Bai Yan was clearly confused by Jian Dan.

“Of course it’s to celebrate the success of our mission and my first time!”

“What’s there not to celebrate? Of course we have to celebrate such an exciting moment!”

“Huh?”

She looked at the dumbfounded faces in the room...

Sigh, you guys are really boring. All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy. Won't such a life be very boring? Since I'm here, let me spice up your boring lives!

"Forget it. You can't think of anything anyway."

"How about this? Don't we have a small kitchen? Let's have a potluck and everyone can make their own specialty dish. We'll have a celebratory meal..." "What do you mean?"

"Cut the crap and get moving!"

Under Jian Dan's urging, they arrived at the small kitchen...

The small kitchen that was exclusive to Special Team-

Had were many ingredients for everyone to choose from...

If I hadn't come, I wouldn't have known that the members of Special Team have such good culinary skills.

Soon, the fragrance wafted to her nose.

"Wow! It smells so good! You really can't judge a book by its cover. Not only do all of you have your own strengths, but you're also such great cooks."

"Enough about us. What about you? Why haven't you started on your dish?" Xiao Ran looked at Jian Dan who was not cooking at all.

"Didn't I say just now? Let everyone do their specialty."

"My specialty is... Hehe... eating!" She said awkwardly.

“What do you mean? So you don’t know how to cook?” Lan Tong said in realization with a spatula in his hand.

“I didn’t say that I know how to cook. Hehe!”

“Then why are you still asking us to do it? Aren’t you...” Xing Can said in displeasure.

“Oh, come on! We’re all in the same team. How can you be so calculative, right?”

“Alright, alright. Since everyone is done, let’s eat!”

“You sure have it easy. You don’t have to do anything and you get to eat.” Xing Can spoke up again.

“That’s where you’re wrong. Although I didn’t cook, but... ta-da!” She whipped out a bottle of red wine from behind her...

She had discovered this while waiting for Chu Liyuan in that room, so... Hehe, lets not get into the specifics!

“Where did you get this?”

“Secret!”

“But we are not allowed to drink.”

“Who said we can’t? Don’t lie to me. I’ve read the rules of Special Team. It says that we don’t need to train the following day after completing a mission. We can rest and relax.”

“It’s for us to rest and relax. It doesn’t say that we can drink.” As the leader, Bai Yan naturally had more concerns.

“But it doesn’t say that we can’t, right?”

“Mind you, we can only drink it today. Opportunity doesn’t knock twice!”

Upon hearing Jian Dan’s words, they threw caution to the wind...
