

Chapter 17

GAVIN

I don't know what she was thinking when she came down to my room wearing that neon green Tinkerbell pajamas. Does she think it would make her less tempting in my eyes? She was fucking wrong. Her innocent look and the way the pajamas covered her curves did nothing to lessen my thirst for her. It just made me crave for her more.

She was in my room, and the last time she did, I spent ample time pleasuring her that just the thought of having a repeat was enough for my d**k to come back to life. I still haven't forgotten what she did at the bar today, but judging by the way she looked at me, I could tell she regretted her action.

But why was she here? To make amends or to formally reject me?

She wanted to talk and despite denying it, a part of me was in constant fear that she would finally sever our mate bond. I had to do something if she ever tried. 1

I let the water run and flushed out the body wash all over my body, once I was done I turned around to stretch my muscle, only I was not able to do it since my eyes caught my alluring mate's head peeking by the bathroom door. And the way her cheeks turned red and the expression on her face, you could say she wasn't expecting she would be caught. 1

I wasn't expecting her to do that when I left the door barely open. My body was frozen in place, not a muscle moved except for my c**k. It immediately shot up and saluted the person peeking by the door. 6

When I finally caught on to what was happening, I didn't conceal the smug smirk that tugged on my lips upon seeing her. My c**k was standing proud at being sighted by my mate. 1

She, on the other hand, was still stuck in her position with her hand gripping the door tightly, her lips partly opened and her eyes widened, either at the sight of my nakedness or by being caught peeking. 1

"Hello there, little lamb." My face cracked into a wide smile as I cocked my head to the side. "Would you like to join me?"

My feet moved forward to where she was, grabbing a towel and drying off along the way and dropping it to the bathroom floor once I was done.

She shook her head slowly flashing me a tooth-wide grin that doesn't reach her eyes. Her face was still red from embarrassment as she slid her head slowly away from the door.

I opened the bathroom door fully and stepped out, I found her leaning her back on the wall beside the door, her neon-colored pajamas in great contrast with the white wall.

I stopped in front of her and leaned my elbow at the wall above her head, my naked body just a distance away as I towered over her petite figure. She dropped her gaze to the floor, noticing how her eyes widened when it stopped on my c**k, making it twitch instantly. A gasp escaped her throat at the movement in between my thighs, my c**k pointing towards her and if I inched forward, it would be touching her stomach. 1

I chuckled and cupped her face with my free hand, tilting it up before crashing my lips on her. I tasted her sweet lips, trying to erase any trace left by the asshole, sucking and nibbling her plump lips.

"Is there anything you want to see, little lamb?" I asked in a raspy voice in between our kisses. I could feel her face getting hotter as she shook her head while responding to my kiss.

I pulled away from kissing her and squinted my eyes as I tried to read hers. "Then explain what were you doing by the bathroom door?" A coy smile played on my lips, as my thumb brushed her corner lips. 1

She blinked twice before biting her lower lip. I did not take my eyes off her, waiting patiently for her answer, my thumb now brushing her blushing cheek.

After a moment, she swallowed hard and I saw a change in her aura. She was trying to be confident.

"Can I touch it?" She asked, without breaking our eye contact. 1

"Have you touched one before?" I asked back almost immediately.

She shook her head. My lips automatically curved back to a smug smirk, and even if I tried to stop it, I don't think I could. My heart was soaring with pride to know I would be the first.

I dropped the hand caressing her cheek and took her hand, guiding it to my c**k. Her body stiffened when her hand brushed against my erection but she didn't stop me when I guided her dainty fingers to wrap around it, helping her to jerk it up and down slowly. 1

She took a deep breath, her shoulder relaxed before tilting her head down to look at my d**k. I was on full erect but I could feel it getting harder in her hold.

"It's too big. Do you think... Do you think..." She stuttered, her shyness started to resurface.

I left her hand and she continued to jerk me off, much to my satisfaction, and place a finger at the tip of her chin, tilting her face up to look at me. "Do you want to try?" I asked, my restraint was slowly slipping. She wasn't even jerking me off properly but I know I could come just by the thought of her holding my dick.

She nodded her head and licked her lips, her eyes were black and I could see her wolf trying to come out.

I leaned my head to her side, my mouth on her ear. "There's no turning back once I take those pajamas off your body. Do you understand?" I closed my eyes, my c**k was so fucking hard already and I just wanted it inside her.

I felt her bob her head and before I could take action, she let go of my c**k and cupped my face, turning it to her face and crushing her lips into mine. She was kissing me hard and hungrily, and it was fucking arousing.

I moved my hands and held to her pajama top, tugging it up and out of her body. Her breasts were on full display and I pulled away from kissing her to have a glimpse of them but my too eager mate grabbed my face again and continued kissing me.

I cupped her ass and lifted her off the floor, her legs swung automatically around my hips, pressing her core into my naked front. A sultry moan escaped her lips when my tongue slid inside her wet mouth, exploring and savoring her while I walked us over to the bed.

I laid her gently in the middle before I stood up and tugged the end of her pajama pants, dragging it off her legs leaving her exposed with only her black lace panty covering her sex.

She clamped her thighs together and placed an arm over her breast trying to cover them as my eyes rake all over her nakedness. Seeing her almost naked was driving me into lust overdrive.

I parted her thighs and kneeled in between them, my fingers reached for the waistband of her underwear and slowly tugged it down, licking my lips as her fully shaven p**y came into view.

"Fuck Alia!" I groaned, so many fucking dirty thoughts were running into my head right now. All the things I wanted to do with my little mate but I don't want to scare her.

My eyes flashed black as I hovered over her body and captured her lips again, my hand trailing her soft skin until it found her breast, kneading it before I moved to pinch and twist her fully erect n****e. She moaned and arched her body up as I left her lips to move downwards, taking her breast into my mouth while my hand continue exploring the other.

Her legs wrapped around my waist, pressing her wetness into my groin. She was rubbing and grinding her hips while moaning sexily, she was fucking my whole senses.

I moved lower and dipped my mouth into her slick c**t, I groaned at the pleasure of tasting her again and I could feel the pain in my d**k. I fucking wanted to fuck her already but she fucking taste so good that I couldn't stop lapping and sucking on her wetness. My fingers parted her folds and I took one big lick, before inserting my tongue into her hole and started tongue fucking her, while my thumb circled on her clit.

"Gavin!" She moaned loud with her fingers coiled around my hair. She was tugging my hair, hard but the pain was just adding to my arousal. "Oh, Goddess! Gavin please!!!!"

She was so wet that I was enjoying tasting and fucking every inch of her with my tongue. I never had this high drive to pleasure a woman the same way I had for her. I could stay here all day and suck the fuck out of her if it means I get to hear her moan my name the whole time.

I felt her arch her hips toward my face and her body started to shudder, her voice was now raspy from moaning my name. Knowing she was about to orgasm, I rammed two thick fingers inside her, sliding them in and out while my tongue played with her swollen numb.

In a few more hard strokes, my mate came undone, her body convulsing at the pleasure of her release. "Gavin..." She panted and after a while, I pulled out my fingers from inside of her and started trailing kisses from her mound up to her navel. My lips continued to move up until I had her lips again, letting her taste her own sweetness.

"You taste fucking sweet, baby..." I pulled her lower lip and dipped my mouth into her neck, biting and nibbling her soft spot, my erection grinding on her front.

"I want you inside..." She said in a whisper, still panting.

"I can't hear you... louder." I teased her while sucking the spot beside her collarbone.

"I want you inside..." She responded louder this time.

"Dirtier baby... Say... I want you to fuck me..."
