

I'm The Devil

Chapter 10: The Fall of Samael

"Hahaha, damn, that was funny, did you see the look on your face? It was hilarious" Lucifer laughed out loud when he saw how shaken Gaia was when he told her he was the God of Evil "hahaha, you shouldn't worry about anything, I'm not a God, much less an evil one at that"

Aphrodite also found it funny as she giggled a little which Gaia didn't like "do you also find it amusing enough to make you giggle?" Gaia asked Aphrodite with her brows raised.

Aphrodite stopped giggling and looked at Gaia "well, the way he said it was amusing and you should have truly seen your face, it was hilarious" after saying that Aphrodite laughed also.

Gaia just sighed and found a place to sit "you know, I don't have time for your charades, so let skip this laughter and talk about what you are truly are, since you are not a god, you must be something and you are something many times powerful than we gods, so care to tell what that is?" Gaia did not bother to stop them from making fun of her but asked Lucifer about what she was curious about.

Lucifer sighed as he knew Gaia will not relent until she gets the answer to her question, so he decided to give her a full recap of his life.

Lucifer got up from the bed and went into story mode "it all happened 12 billion years ago when my Father, The God awoke from I don't know how long or how He was even there in the first place Slumber, everywhere was covered in Darkness, there was no even a speck of light anywhere except the one coming from him, so Father created light in the form of two boys, Samael Light bringer and Michael Demiurge, they were the first sons of God, our Father. But one of those boys had a hint of darkness in him, a hint of the Chaos our Father created them from and that was Samael, the older of the twins, he grew alongside our Father and his brother, until the boys wanted other siblings, So our Father indulged them and created other siblings for them and created a place we called home, Heaven and lived their lives in His Grace until ten million years ago, when the first born, Samael eyed his Father's throne and wanted to be the new God so he said 'I will ascend to heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far reaches of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.' And that was what sparked the rebellion, Samael instigated one third of the heavenly forces and with the help of six of his siblings, they fought against our Father, this went on for many years until finally, Father had enough, so he gave Michael the strength to overturned the tide of the battle which led to the banishment of Samael and his six siblings to hell and never to return home and from that day on, Samael became the Devil, the personification of Evil, the sin of Pride, the Lord of Hell, the prodigal son, he became Lucifer Morningstar" Lucifer stood up from the bed and turned into his demon form "this is me Gaia, I am not a god, but was a messenger to one, now I'm the adversary of God, The Devil, that's who I am"

Gaia looked at the new look of Lucifer and she has to say, he isn't scary like the way she expected.

As if knowing what she was thinking, Lucifer shook his head and said "if you think this is my final, demon transformation, then you are in for a big surprise"

Elsewhere

A man could be seen flying towards a dark region and there was no speck of light from it, it was as if the light was afraid of the darkness here.

"So have you found out what happened to Ouranos?"

A booming voice sounded from the darkness that even sends shivers down the spine of the man.

"Yes, father, I heard Ouranos was killed by his own son, Chronos on the behest of his mother, Gaia in her anger for Ouranos imprisoning their children here in Tartarus" The man who had long black flowing hair and eyes of the night, he is Thanatos, one of the children of the god, Erebus and the goddess, Nyx. He is the god of death and current ruler of Tartarus.

"Hah, I always knew Gaia would be dangerous when angered, she even killed her own husband just because of a few disfigured children, if I were Ouranos, I would have kill them myself" Another yet charming voice sounded which made Thanatos even more afraid as the voice said that.

"So what shall I do mother and father, should contend for the title of Godking or should I also give it up just like you did" Thanatos asked the guidance and advice from his parents, Nyx and Erebus.

The voice of Nyx sounded once more "you will do no such thing, you are a personification of death, so your place is here in Tartarus and besides, we made an oath never to interfere with their affairs and we want to hold on yo that" with that Nyx became silent.

Thanatos nodded his head and left the domain of his parents, back to the mid part of Tartarus where his throne his.

"Nyx, there will be a time we won't be able to stop him, you know his desires to be a Godking right from the day he was born, he is going to be hard to hold him any longer, so maybe, we should, you know, let him contend for the title of Godking" Erebus persuaded Nyx who was adamant with her decision to stay away from the affairs of Ouranos and Gaia, including her children, she did not even care about the title of Godking as she believes that the title amounts to nothing as the one with the greater strength is the victor.

"Let them have it, and if Thanatos do not like it, then I will make him like it, even if I have to make beg me for it"
