

I'm The Devil

Chapter 81: LET THERE BE LIGHT

The Beginning

In the Beginning, there was nothing but darkness, The Everlasting Darkness, no sight of life could be seen in this darkness and everything was supposed to be just that, until a presence like no other appeared.

The Presence did not like the darkness, so he decided to create something that can take away that darkness and that's how it all began with a single sentence.

[LET THERE BE LIGHT]

A loud voice filled with power filled the void.

At the command of the voice, a tiny speck of light appeared before exploding and engulfing the entire void bringing light to it.

Out of that explosion, came two six winged beings, Identical in appearance and demeanor, they became the very first creation of the Presence that invaded the Everlasting Darkness.

The two six winged beings both bowed in the direction of the Presence "your children knee before you Father" said the eldest.

[VERY WELL DONE, YOU BOTH CAN NOW RISE] said the Presence who was pleased with the attitude of the boys.

He then proceeded to name the first born, the one to appeared first, Sameal Light Bringer and the other one, Michael Demiurge.

They became the first two Seraphims (Archangels), the Father's most trusted confidante.

But before they could begin the next phase of their Father's plans for the universe, another suffocating Presence appeared, this time the new being appeared in the form of a woman with black long flowing hairs, black eyes as the darkest of the Abyss, very tall, pale skin, with an overflowing aura of Chaos oozing from her very being, she looked at the Presence that invaded her home and could see past his glamour, she could see his true face.

[WHAT DO YOU THINK YOU ARE DOING IN MY HOME?]

Present Time

Lucifer navigated through the Sea of Chaos as he looked for his siblings. If he knew that this Sea of Chaos was related to that person and the creation of the Primal Gods, he would have never send them here, he knew how terrifying She was back then.

She and his Father were of the same power level, the two battled it out for many years. It was during one of those years the two brothers saw the true face of their Father and in that moment, and something within them stirred up awakening their twin powers, The Absolute Power of Creation and Destruction, Concept of All Elements in the universe, they merged to become one being, Metatron.

Together with their Father, they defeated her and let their Father lock her away as they were too tired from the merge and fighting such a powerful entity.

And now he was heading into that said prison where he knew his losing his life was a possibility but he can't let his siblings die knowing fully well that he was the one who sent them there in the first place.

"CORIEL, BARIEL, NYX, WHERE ARE YOU???" Screamed Lucifer at the top of his lungs calling out to them but it proved to be a futile effort.

His voice didn't even leave where he was currently on talk less of reaching the ears of the Archangels and the Primal Goddess.

A part of the Sea Of Chaos

"How long have we been here? The concept of time does not seem to apply here" said Bariel who could not tell the time they have spent here.

"That should be the least of your worries. What we should be thinking about is how to get out of here" said Nyx.

They have been here for so long but they don't know how long and if they could be able to find their way back.

The worst of it all was that they haven't even found what they came here to look for which frustrated Coriel so much who missed her peaceful life which is filled with her sleeping. Now she was regretting ever volunteering to Lucifer about coming here in the first place.

As the three were looking for a way back, a swirling black portal materialized in front of them.

Before they could even register what was going on, they all heard a voice that sent chillers down their spine [LEAVE, I HAVE GOTTEN WHO I WANTED, YOU ARE FREE TO GO].

With that, the three didn't even ask what she meant as they went through the portal leaving the Sea of Chaos for good.

Lucifer on the other hand was mysteriously transported to a huge room with a huge throne at the center.

He was a woman seated on the throne glaring at him.

Lucifer knew that face all too well, the one who made him felt true Despair, if he was a human back then, then he would have had PTSD.

Lucifer looked at her as she glared at him "what do you want, and where are my siblings and the other one following them?" Lucifer asked in the most polite commanding way he could think of.

The woman on the throne, Khaos clicked her tongue abs shook her head "now that's not how you speak to someone of a higher power, Adams" said Khaos.

When Lucifer heard the name the woman said, his eyes widen in surprise as he took a step back from her.

That name was the name he hasn't heard in the millions of years of his reincarnation here. He never thought that he was going to hear it one day and that from someone who he least expect to know.

"Surprised now, are you?" Said Khaos as she laughed out loud that even the space around them began to crack.

Lucifer looked at the insane woman and the way she was back then and saw that they were like two completely different people, but he knew better than to let his guard down in the first place. Explore stories at

Chapter 82: Entity Of Creation And Destruction

"You must be wondering why I lured you here, you see, I want out of the prison hole your Father kept me and you are going to make that happen and you will do so faster"

"If you haven't been keeping updates on everything going on, then I should tell you this, my Father and I had a bit of a falling out, do I can't help you there" said Lucifer with a smile.

Khaos shook her head and sighed "you don't even understand anything about yourself, do you? I guess we will just have to refresh your memory" said Khaos as she snapped her fingers and the scenery changed to the first Battle of the Entities.

In the Beginning

[WHAT DO YOU THINK YOU ARE DOING IN MY HOME?]

Khaos asked as she glared at the Father and sons, trio.

Samael and Michael could not handle that amount of pressure from somebody vastly stronger than them, so they fell to the ground, bleeding from their seven Orifices.

[ENOUGH]

They said as he shield his children using his aura.

Khaos looked at the invader who intruded in her home and did what he felt like, even going as far as creating two new additional beings, all of these without her consent..

If she lets this disrespect go, then it won't be long before she is driven out of her home.

She can't let something like that happen, she must chase them out of her home [LEAVE RIGHT NOW, I DON'T WANT TO SAY IT AGAIN] she said as she raised her hands.

[I WILL DO NO SUCH THING, I WILL MAKE A HOME FOR MYSELF HERE ALONG WITH MY CHILDREN, SO EITHER YOU COEXIST WITH US OR STAND AGAINST US, YOUR CHOICE]
He said.

Khaos knew that he would that so it didn't come as a surprise to her but what she truly thought was funny was that he was trying to use number as an advantage in a fight with her, how laughable.

She was here for as long as she could imagine, she was the Darkness that filled the void and she was being threatened by some stranger and with two newly born lesser and inferior men, how degrading of her status.

She didn't waste any time and sent a blast of terrifying mass of black energy devouring everything in its path as it kept expanding as it got closer to the trio.

The man raised his hands and a flash of light appeared and engulfed the entire mass of black energy and after everything went back to normal, the mass of black energy was not there anymore.

The man turned to his two sons [STAY BACK, SHE IS NOT A MATCH FOR YOU, GETTING IN THE WAY WILL ONLY BE A BURDEN TO ME] he said as he pushed them back several kilometers so that they would not be caught in the aftermath of their attacks.

Khaos engaged him in a battle immediately the pest were out of sight, the two of them were equally matched and none of them could get the upper hand.

Their fight span for millennia with no victor, no matter what both of them do, they always counter each other.

That was the burden of having two omnipotent beings facing off against each other.

Samael and Michael seeing as their Father and the woman were evenly matched, they decided to join in the fight to tip the scale to their side.

As soon as the two joined their Father in attacking the woman, Samael was immediately captured by her before she flung him aside like a piece of wood.

The man immediately willed his son to come before him and sighed when he saw that he was okay.

He gave Samael to Michael to look over as he resumed his fight with the woman.

A century passed and there was still no victor [JUST LEAVE, TAKE YOUR TWO USELESS SONS AND LEAVE MY HOME ALONE] Khaos yelled out of frustration.

The man was also getting frustrated with the long battle but he recently got the idea to end it once and for all, but he was not powerful enough to pull that off, so he has to do something else, he looked at his two Sons who also looked back at him with wide eyes.

That was because they have finally seen his face after so many years.

All these while, they only see a being of bright light covering his entire body but now they could finally see him.

They saw a man with white golden hairs, golden eyes, chiseled face, he was the epitome of perfection.

Compared to him, they were by far inferiors.

They saw his lips move but did not get a clear read on what he said because they felt the sudden pull to one another, they tried to resist it but it was futile, as they both merged into an entirely new being, one brimming with power.

After the merge, their physical appearance didn't change, they only got more attractive than before, they held a flaming sword on one hand and a hammer on the other hand.

They became a new entity, the Entity of Creation and Destruction. In their merged state, they became a being called Metatron.

They appeared besides their Father and nodded at him, now they can fight besides him even if they are not as strong as a true entity, they can turn the scale of the battle to their side.

Khaos looked at this lineup and knew that it was only a matter of time before, she would be defeated, fortunately, she has already prepared a plan.

Metatron slashed their sword at Khaos who created a shield using the Everlasting Darkness and was able to defend herself but not without the shield being almost cracked to pieces.

And that's how Metatron and their Father faced off Khaos for over ten years and finally defeated her but could not kill her.

After the battle, Metatron unmerged into Samael and Michael.

Both of them were truly weakened to even get up as they were forcefully merged, had to fight in a new form they have no control over but that also came with an upside, they found out that they have grown incredibly stronger than when they were created..

Their Father decided to put Khaos away and left the boys to rest.

Present Time

"So do you understand? You don't need your Father to free me, you are powerful just as you are, you are the other half of that being, Metatron, the one who wields the concepts of Absolute Creation and Destruction, Concepts of All the Universal Elements.

Your Father and I are polar opposite of one another, I am Khaos (Chaos) and he is Order, we are beyond every concepts you can imagine, we are beyond common sense and it would be very difficult for anyone to release me from my prison unless he does so himself but you are also that powerful enough to get me out of here" said Khaos as she removed the illusion around them and Lucifer saw her true state, chained from all corners of the Sea of Chaos, her disheveled looks "so what would it be, Sameal?"

Chapter 83: The Devil's Perils 1

"so what would it be, Sameal?"

"First of all, I don't go by that name anymore and second of all, I can't let you out of your prison" said Lucifer said he started preparing for ways in which he could escape the Sea Of Chaos "if I let you out, you would destroy everything my Father built, which I would have find appealing but you wouldn't end there, you and I both know you will stop at nothing to return the vast universe back to the dark ages, you will destroy all lives including mine and anyone who stands in your way and I cannot allow that, I'm sorry, but I love the present world as it is without you"

Lucifer said and tried to teleport out of the Sea of Chaos but he could not, clearly the work of Khaos.

Khaos dragged her chained body until she was an inch away from Lucifer "I did not give you a choice, you are here because I want you to be and you will not be able to leave until you do what I ask of you, so your call, free me and I will let you out" she said before going back.

Lucifer let out a dry cough as he looked at Khaos who sat in a lotus position and looked at him.

Lucifer could have never imagined that he was going to be so helpless some day. He one of the strongest and most powerful in the entire universe was so helpless at the moment, he was at the mercy of a being of higher power than his and only one of the same power level can help him here.

He looked up as if peering through the Sea Of Chaos to Heaven, looking at his Father sitting calmly on that throne of His, he puts his hands together and closed his eyes.

Khaos saw what he was doing and knew exactly what he was planning to do but she didn't stop him instead she just watched him in amusement.

After about 30 minutes, Lucifer opened his eyes and frown, he gave out a middle finger at the sky before he looked at Khaos.

The only way out of here is by releasing her but that would spell his doom as he was also one of the people she probably hates, so that's a no no for him, he sighed and just rested on one of the pillars there "I suppose then I'm stuck with you, you are bound to those chains and I believe they are nullifying your powers which means you can't do anything to me and the only reason you were even able to confine me here is because you have managed to completely made your prison your home and domain" said Lucifer as he smiled at Khaos who looked at him with no change of expression "I can stay here for a few years, eventually you will grow bored of me and kick me out yourself"

Khaos glared at Lucifer as she knew she was being played with, she does not even need time to grow bored of him, she already has, which means it is time to up her game "having a daddy issue? Being abandoned once again?

I pity you but channeling your frustration unto me would not help you here, but I can do you one better so that you can get me put of here" said as she smiled before she continued "you already know I was the one who created the Primal Gods, correct?"

Lucifer frown as he did not know what Khaos was hinting at, "so what does that have to do with me being here" he asked.

Khaos simply smiled as she dragged her chained body to Lucifer and walked around him, with every step she takes, the scenery changes around them "who do you think made you reincarnate into this body and why do you think your Father didn't do anything when that happened?" Said Khaos who burst out laughing as she saw the expression on Lucifer's face "that's right, I did, I was the one who made everything you have possible and I can easily take it away with just a snap of my finger"

As soon as she said that, Lucifer saw his siblings, Coriel and Bariel together with Nyx as they appeared within the Cosmos, safe and sound.

Before he could breath in relief, something unexpected happened, the pendant which Coriel keeps with her at all times violently shook causing Coriel to drop it.

The Pendant floats uncontrollably in the air until it exploded with a big bang causing a large explosion that resounded throughout the entire Cosmos.

All the Primal Gods heard the explosion and hurried out of their Realm to see just what could cause such a loud and powerful explosion.

Lucifer eyes widened as he saw this, he immediately grabbed Khaos by her neck and glared directly into her eyes.

Khaos didn't even mind him and just laughed like a mad woman "this is not even the best part, wait for what's about to happen" said Khaos while laughing loudly.

The next thing that happened surprised Lucifer greatly. The Primal and the current God Kings of the entire Cosmos began to glow but he knew that, that was not just any ordinary glow, the bitch is increasing their Powers to a different realm altogether.

"What Do Plan To Achieve By Doing This" yelled Lucifer whose eyes has turned a very darker shade of red as he tightened his grasp on her neck.

Khaos simply grinned and stuck her tongue out indicating she was choking.

Lucifer released her making her fall to the ground.

Khaos coughed after being released from the chokehold and cleared her throat "simple, I just want my freedom or else, I will just turn those Primal Gods into a mindless puppets of mine and you know what is going to happen next, I wonder if your siblings and the women you love would be able to fare well without you" she said as she raised and her bound hands "all you just have to do is place a drop of your blood on these chains and you are free to go or you just watch how my children destroy everything you ever hold dear"

Chapter 84: The Devil's Perils 2

The Cosmos

Kemet Realm

After the near destruction of the Kemet Realm, Ra entered a vegetative state, unable to even speak anymore talk less of even moving his body.

The Gods of the Kemet Realm decided to pick a new God king but first they have to rebuild their home.

But everybody knew who the next God King is and he himself knew it.

They spent years rebuilding their home and recently, they were done and the day of Coronation came after that.

Every Gods gathered in their new palace today as they wait for the new God King to appeared when all of a sudden, a large explosion occurred that shook throughout the Cosmos.

The Gods became alert and prepared to fight anyone who dares to attack them and disrupt their newfound peace.

But nothing of that sort happen, instead they saw a flash of blinding light coming from the location of the Primal God of the Sun, Ra.

They felt an unprecedented amount of pressure forcing them to the ground like never before.

No matter how hard they struggle to stand, they could not fight against that heavy pressure. After a while, they finally gave up and bowed in the direction of Ra.

Even Osiris who was supposed to be the new God King bowed.

Meanwhile, Ra who was lying unconscious in his room opened his eyes and felt something was not right, he knew that Lucifer took his divinity making him to become mortal god with no power whatsoever but right now, he could feel his divinity to the sun and it was by far stronger than before.

He immediately got up and went outside where he could see his subjects bowing at him, he smiled and waved at them before he noticed something weird.

The large crowds, the drums, the exotic dancers and the officials, the way they were positioned told him something was off, this not a gathering for him but a coronation.

His eyes immediately darted to where Osiris was and shook his hand after confirming what he guessed but that didn't matter anymore, because he is here so if anybody wants to be crown, they should crown him instead.

Before Ra could speak to his subjects, he felt a call from the other Primal Gods and he immediately disappeared from their view and appeared in the outer space where the other Primal Gods and God Kings were.

After Ra left, the Gods of Kemet could finally breathe once again.

"I thought he was comatose, why does he seem fine and stronger than before?" Discover exclusive tales on

"I don't know, but I believe it has something to do with that explosion and he leaving so abruptly"

"So what is going to happen to Osiris, he was supposed to take his father's place but that's dream for him once again"

The Gods murmured amongst themselves about the recent event.

Osiris who was not oblivious to all of these, was extremely furious, he gnashed his teeth in anger before storming out of there.

Sea Of Chaos

The mad laughter of Khaos filled the entire Sea Of Chaos.

Lucifer could only watch as everything he built and everyone he holds dear are about to turn into meat paste.

Khaos has clearly thought of everything through, from his reincarnation to this point, he was just dancing to her tones, she made him Lucifer because she knew the old Samael would not even bat an eye even if she killed off his siblings, made him have people he loves, those he will never want to lose because of this moment, just to use them against him.

But she also made one mistake, something she never truly thought through, if she would not grant him his freedom until he released her, then all of her plannings are just going to waste because whichever choice he choose, he will end up losing everything he holds dear.

Lucifer closed his eyes as he has come to conclusion, he looked at Khaos who still stretch her hands at him waiting for Lucifer to free her only to frown as she saw him grin wickedly at her "you never gave me any choice, I will lose everything no matter what I choose, so why don't I lose everything and make you live the rest of your life here in eternity" said Lucifer.

Khaos face changed into an ugly monstrosity as she glared at Lucifer "YOU DARED?" she yelled at the top of her lungs, she rushed at Lucifer only for him to move out of the way "JUST SO YOU KNOW, YOU BROUGHT THIS UPON YOURSELF"

With that, Khaos snapped her fingers and the Primal Gods and the God Kings lost the colours in their eyes as they had only one command Kill and Destroy anything associated with Lucifer Morningstar, the Devil.

Lucifer looked at the Primal Gods and The God Kings as he clenched his fist when he saw how zombie like they have become.

He must find a way to get out of this place very fast to get back to save his people.

Khaos appeared besides him without any of her playful nature "you are the only one that can save them now" she said as she turned around and continued "just like the modern saying 'the ball is now in your court'"

The Outer Space Of The Cosmos

Coriel and Bariel were now surrounded by so many Primal Gods and God Kings including Nyx who could be said to be their friend.

"Sister, you go call for help, I will handle these lots" said Bariel who is confident in his strength, even if they have gotten stronger, he believed that if he managed to even devour one of them, he would tilt the scale to his side.

Coriel scoffed when he said that "and leave you here to die? Moreover, if my guess is correct, the others are also occupied, so shut up and let's focus on these mindless puppets" she said.

Bariel smirked before he rushed at his old friends Buri and Bor, he wanted to see if he can talk some sense into them.

Bariel and Coriel battled the many Gods trying to kill them and it was not an easy thing, they were clearly outnumbered and overpowered, there was nothing they could do, the moment they have the opportunity to keep one of them down so that Bariel could devour them, another one would come disturbing them.

They were driven to the corner and there was nothing they could do but reside to their fate.

They held their hands and smiled at each other as they wait for their eventual death "this is the only moment I've seen you smile sister" said Bariel.

"And this is the last you will see me smile, goodbye brother" said Coriel as she used the last bit of her strength and created a portal before pushing her brother into it "this is my fault, I should not have been too obsessed with that damn Pendant, you have to live on Bariel"

Coriel looked at the Gods as they released their attack "this is the end of the line for me" she said as she gave out a sad smile.

"I don't think so, sister"

Coriel raised her face to see a figure clad in golden armor, an armor she knows too well and a face none of them Archangels would ever forget "Michael"

"The one and only"

Chapter 85: Hosts of Angels

"The one and only. I have to see, it is indeed a rare thing to see you smile" said Michael while looking at Coriel.

Coriel scoffed before returning to her stoic nature "and that's the last time you will see me" she said before she stood up "I did not know Father would send help, I thought he has forsaken us" she said.

"Well, who is he to refuse the call of his child who is even willing to sacrifice everything he holds dear so that he can keep a greater evil at bay" said Michael as he brandished his sword at the incoming Gods as a warning.

Coriel was surprised when she heard that, she never thought Lucifer will be willing to go that far as to do something like that "if Lucifer really did what you said he did, then this evil you speak of is on a whole different level" said Coriel as she wondered who or what could that be.

Michael shuddered while remembering that scene eons ago, when she came and almost killed them with nothing but her aura pressure, what he would give to not let anyone release her ever again.

Michael turned to face the Gods "okay, you rest now, I will take it from here" said Michael as he spread out his golden wings and flew head on at the Gods.

Coriel wrapped herself with her shadows as she wanted to take a quick nap to speed up her recovery.

Michael danced his way through the army of the Gods as he hack and slashed those unlucky enough to end up in the path of his sword.

Michael wasn't your everyday Archangel, he is one of the oldest beings in the universe, had tons of experience, fought an Entity and made it out alive, this bunch of upgraded Gods are still not enough to phase him.

"Lucifer, Sooner Or Later, You Will Be Overwhelmed By Our Numbers, And Then You Will Be Below My Feet Begging For Me To Spare You" yelled Ra from a very far distance.

Michael looked at the god and wondered if something was wrong with his head or what??

Everyone of the Gods here are all mindless beings right now and they have only one command and that's kill and destroy everything related to Lucifer but Michael can clearly see that, that god is in his right frame of mind but he still wants to kill Lucifer and even worse make Lucifer beg at his feet.

Michael didn't know if to laugh or not, he wants to make his proud brother beg at his feet, "I guess Lucifer really screwed you pretty bad, huh?" said Michael as he decided to keep this god until Lucifer comes back.

Sea Of Chaos

Few Minutes Earlier

Lucifer has finally given up and has already decided to make this place his home when he saw how Bariel and Coriel were being rough handled by the Gods.

"So you have truly made up your mind, you choose to stay here with me rather than free me into the world, that's a noble sacrifice, you deserve to be exalted" said Khaos in a mocking tone "you are not your Father who would give his life for the mortals he is going to create later on, no body will even remember your deeds, nobody would know you choose to sacrifice everything just so you can save the universe, no body would worship you, all they will remember you for is that you are the Devil, the one who causes their misfortunes, their predicament, they will pray to cast you out of their lives, is that the universe you are trying to save, come on, just release me from my bind and I will make sure to return all things to the way it used to be, to the Age of Everlasting Darkness, just one drop of blood and you will not have to be subjected to that fate anymore" said Khaos whispering those things to the ears of Lucifer.

Lucifer clearly annoyed by her attempt to trick him into doing something he would not even consider doing "it is better to be hated than not to exist. So stop your futile attempt to tempt me, that's my specialty not yours" said Lucifer as he closed his eyes once again.

"YOU BASTARD, RELEASE ME NOW OR NOOOOOOOOOO!!!"

Lucifer opened his eyes when he heard her Screaming at him only for her to redirect it to someone else.

Lucifer turned to look at the screens she conjured that showed the different places where his families and friends are being attacked by the Gods.

What he saw put a smile on his face, on each and every battleground, Archangels together with their hosts of angels appearing on the battleground.

Lucifer burst out laughing as he now knew why Khaos was truly angry. Someone appeared on the battleground and with his presence in this Cosmos, she knew that her plan was foiled, there was nothing she could do now, she has lost her bargaining chip.

With the appearance of Michael alone, there was nothing any of the Primordial gods can do, it is endgame for them and Khaos does not have any other way to interfere. Stay tuned to

"I guess we are going to spend an eternity together then" said Lucifer as he grinned at Khaos who glared at him.

"Is I can't get what I want peacefully, then I will have to take it by force" said Khaos as she began approaching Lucifer.

"Give it up, you can't get out of here, I will not give you my blood nor will I let you take it by yourself" said Lucifer as he started moving back a little "look at the bright side, you have me as a companion for the rest of eternity, you won't be bored anymore" said Lucifer flashing her his wicked grin.

"You are so annoying, when I do get out of here, you will be the first person that I will kill" said Khaos as she chased after the fleeing Lucifer.

Chapter 86: Michael Arrives In The Sea Of Chaos

Outer Space

"You stay down" said Michael as bump the hilt of his sword on the head of Nyx really so that she can lose her consciousness.

Coriel held Ra by his neck and induced him with sleep before throwing his body away like a ragdoll.

Michael looked at Coriel "you can take it from here, I still have other things to take care of" said Michael as materialized an vial in his hands and passed it on to Coriel "take this, from Father, it will help your friends be free from her control until we take care of her fully, until then, be careful"

Michael before teleporting away from there.

Coriel frown as she got a very vital information from Michael, the gender of the person responsible for all of these, but the problem is she did not know anything about a being that capable of doing something like this

She didn't dwell on it anymore as she gave Nyx a drop of whatever is contained in that vial, bringing her back to her to right state of mind.

With that, she together with Nyx left to save the rest of her siblings.

Elsewhere (slight R18)

A few hours ago

A man laid naked on a bed with so many naked women with him.

He was joyful as he was in the peak of his life, nobody was here to tell him what to do and not to, he has all the women he could possibly get, indulge in the carnal pleasures they have to offer him.

He is none other Asmodeus, the Sin of Lust, he is currently in a Realm specially created by the Primordial Goddess of Sex for the indulgement of the pleasures of the world.

He arrived here thousands of years ago and it has become bliss for him, like a second Heaven to him.

But today that peaceful life of sex and funs is about to get disrupted as a particular goddess is on her way to his chambers with the intent to kill him.

"Ladies, are you ready for the next...."

BOOOOMMMMM!!!!

Before Asmodeus could complete his statement, the door to his chambers burst open and in came a woman with black hairs and golden eyes that shines in even in the darkest of times.

"What In The Name Of My Father Did You Do That For" yelled Asmodeus while glaring at her.

The woman didn't answer him and just looked at him with her lifeless eyes.

She muttered a word which Asmodeus did not catch but he didn't mind her and wanted to go back to his activities, he did not even mind if anyone was here as he believed, the more the merrier.

She could join in the fun if she wants to.

Unaware to him that, one of the women on the bed as taken a knife from under the bed and his it in her pants.

She seductively approached Asmodeus and the two began to kiss passionately to the point she almost forgot her mission of not for the woman who barged in reminded her.

She brought out the knife stealthily and stabbed Asmodeus right on his abdomen or what was supposed to be his abdomen.

The knife didn't even penetrate through his skin as it shattered upon contact with his skin due to the force in which she struck him.

Asmodeus stopped what he was doing and grabbed the neck of the woman who tried to stab him "What Was That For?" He yelled at her.

The woman did not answer infuriating Asmodeus even more.

But before he could make her talk, all the women on Tue bed with him brought out weapons from diverse places as they point it at him.

Asmodeus didn't need anybody to tell him who was behind the attack anymore, he dropped the woman he held on the bed.

He turned to look at the expressionless and lifeless eyes of the Primordial Goddess of Sex "what are you planning? You of all people know that it is madness to face me but you still went ahead to plot against me?" Said Asmodeus glaring at the goddess.

Asmodeus was expecting something akin to an apology if she is remorseful or a monologue about how he took everything from her and she is just getting back at him but all she did was just look at him. Enjoy exclusive adventures from

Asmodeus couldn't take it anymore, so he stood up and walked to the goddess but the women stopped him, "you are fools to stand in my way" said Asmodeus as he opened his hands and something light up in the bodies of the women from that carnal region as it moved to their mouth before leaving their body to Asmodeus's opened hands.

He took all of it and swallowed it "at least, your deaths had a meaning, your essence earned you my forgiveness" said Asmodeus as he walked to the goddess.

"So why did you want to kill me?" Asmodeus asked.

The goddess didn't answer making Asmodeus even angry, he wanted to take action but what she did next stunted him.

The goddess took off her gown and became completely naked, she walked even closer to Asmodeus and kissed him directly at his lips before running her hands around his body.

"You should have said you wanted me for yourself and I would have just sent those other women away, no need to cause all that ruckus" said Asmodeus as he reciprocated her kiss.

He inserted two of his fingers in her carnal region making her let out a slight moan.

She removed his hands from her carnal region and get down on both her knees as she stared at his 55 cm dragon and put it in her mouth in one go.

Asmodeus let out a low moan as he revel in the ecstatic feeling of having his dragon in the mouth of the one and only Primordial Goddess of Sex "that's it, Tlazolteotl keep going"

Sea Of Chaos

"Fool, she will drain you completely before you even know it" said Lucifer as he watched everything going on in the Cosmos while in the Sea of Chaos.

Lucifer knew what this Tlazolteotl goddess is planning, she knew she couldn't win Asmodeus in a physical battle, so she opt to use her specialty which is Sex and due to the recent upgrade all the Gods got from Khaos, she is deadly now more than ever.

"At least have a little faith in our brother but I would really need you stop putting on that vulgar thing"

Chapter 87: Release Her

"At least have a little faith in our brother but I would really need you stop putting on that vulgar thing"

Lucifer turned to see someone with the same an almost perfect facial features such as him but of course, even if they have the same facial features, the newcomer pales in comparison to him, that's what he believes.

"Michael, the one who bears my face, the one who I need in times like this" said Lucifer as he showered Michael false praises, he walked up to him with his hands outstretched "come, let us merge and leave this atrocious place, I am going insane every single seconds I spend here"

Before Lucifer could take Michael's hands, he moved out of the way causing Lucifer to look at him in shock.

Michael straightened himself and cleared his throat "I am not here for that and save your false praises to yourself, brother" said Michael before looking at the very being that makes him tremble at her sight, his face turned solemn as he turned to look at Lucifer "I have a message from Father"

Lucifer seeing that look on Michael frown, he had a very bad feeling that he was not going to like the next thing that will come out of the mouth of Michael "what did the old man say?" Lucifer asked bracing himself for the worse.

"He said to tell you to release her" said Michael.

When Lucifer heard that, it was as if the world stopped moving, time came to a stand still, he was just him and himself in the vast expanse of the void as he began to comprehend what he heard.

HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA HAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHAHA

The laughter of Khaos brought the two brothers out of their thought.

"No, no, no, no, I don't think that's what he said, you didn't get him right, honestly I suggest you get your ear checked by Raphael" said Lucifer before he pointed at Khaos and continued "Father must have said 'you should tell Lucifer never to release that Atrocity no matter what' but you obviously heard something else.

Father can never let something that would want to destroy everything he ever built or will build, that's not him"

Lucifer said, he believed that there was no way their Father would let her be released, he hasn't even started his most prized creations and he was just going to let someone who wants to put an end to all of Creation, that's not going to happen.

"Hey, don't talk about me like am not here and for your information, I'm not an atrocity, spending billions of years in this godforsaken place can make one go insane" said Khaos who was all smiles to the point she didn't even take offence to what Lucifer said.

Michael looked at Lucifer and scoffed "do you think that's not the first thing I said the moment I heard him? I said the exact same thing but he said and I quote 'tell Lucifer to let her go' that's what he said, who am I to say otherwise and I suggest you do the same" said Michael before leaving the Sea Of Chaos to take care of other things.

"What are you waiting for? You heard the man, don't just stand there, release me" said Khaos happily.

Lucifer didn't even listen to her and just stood there with a blank look on his face.

He still could not believe what Michael said, it is not possible, releasing her would doom the entire universe including them, he can't do that, if anyone had to be a threat to the universe, it should be him not someone else.

"Hey, I don't have the whole day, I have things to destroy and an invader to chase off, and you standing there is the only thing in my way now, so listen to your old man and get me out of my bind" said Khaos losing her patience.

Lucifer shook his head, he was not going to do what he was told to do, even if he has to go against his Father, he would, this is not the first time nor would it be the last.

Khaos seeing Lucifer not doing anything frown, she was this close to regaining her freedom and the brat was hesitating? She felt like strangling him right now "you won't do it right? You won't release me, perhaps you need a little bit of motivation" said Khaos before the scenery changed once again "what about this?"

Lucifer's eyes widen when he saw the scene that was about to unfold, something stirred within him and his eyes turned bloody red as he glared at Khaos who was looking at him with a mocking grin "YOU DARE?" said Lucifer with clear anger in his voice.

"Hahahahahaha, oh I dare, and knowing your Father wants you to release me, I highly doubt he would send anyone to help them and if you think they are going to be able to defend their selves, then I should let you know, I weaken them a great amount and they are nothing but feeble mortals about to be devoured by a mighty god" said Khaos as she laughed heartily.

Lucifer closed his eyes, calmed his anger that was about to take the best of him, he channelled his hatred that he has for Khaos to use a little bit of his powers and created an exquisite blade.

He looked at the Blade and felt that it was very powerful and it deserves a name but he could not do that now as time was not on his side.

He used the blade and cut his wrist and looked at Khaos "just so you know, the moment I release you into the universe, you will be marking your death because the Old Man won't just do something like this without a plan" said Lucifer as he placed his bleeding hands on the chains as they became to crack little by little until they broke into pieces.

[FINALLY FREEDOM, THE SWEET FRESH AIR OF FREEDOM, OH, HOW I MISS THIS FEELING. BRAT, REMEMBER WHEN I SAID IF I HAD MY FREEDOM, YOU BE THE FIRST PERSON I KILL, WELL I PLAN TO KEEP MY WORD. SO DI.. HUH] Read new chapters at

Khaos turned around and felt something wrong within her being, she felt that something within her was creating some sort of bind, connecting her to him.

She looked around to demand for answer but found out that there was nobody here with her.

[WHAT DID YOU DO, YOU BASTARD]

She looked to the Heavens and roared madly.

Chapter 88: A Very Angry And Furious Lucifer 1

A Few Minutes Ago

"Let's go this way, we can get to the Island faster" said Aphrodite as she ran alongside Amaterasu, Bast and Hestia.

Feng Huang and Amiel was currently holding off a mindless and deranged Zeus.

They were trying make a run to the Island of Crete since they got words from Adamantheia that, that is the only place unaffected by whatever has gotten the Gods to become mindless puppets and attacking them.

Gaia is a living proof of that, the moment she stepped inside the Island's dome, she was completely freed from whatever that was controlling her but the moment she goes out, she becomes the puppet of the said person.

Nobody could help them right now as all of the High Gods like Poseidon, Hera, Demeter and Zeus were completely under the control of someone they don't know anything about.

Hades was facing off Poseidon and Hera while Tiānkōng was battling it out with Demeter.

The wives of Lucifer were also helping the others when suddenly they felt their powers being stripped away and becoming mortals with no access to their divinity and that's when Zeus became filled with lust as he stared at them as if he wants to devour them which greatly disgust Amaterasu and she vowed to plug out his eyes after this is over as no man other than Lucifer can look at her like that.

Zeus did not relent and chased after them, even with the combined effort of Feng Huang and Amiel, they were not able to stop Zeus as he seems to be getting stronger as time passes.

"Where in the Bloody Hell is Lucifer?" Amiel said as she punched Zeus back a thousand miles away from the girls.

"I can't feel master, it is as if he no longer exists" said Feng Huang as she flew besides Amiel.

Amiel frown as she heard that, she turned to look at Feng Huang "that's not possible, it is very hard to even kill someone like me, not talk of someone like Lucifer, he is unkillable, so you should try hard enough to feel a way to connect with him, I don't care how you do it but just do it" said Amiel as she ready to deliver another blow at Zeus who was flying towards her "go, find Lucifer, I will beat this deranged bastard myself and if possible kill in him in the process, he disgust me"

Amiel said while remembering when Zeus used to check her out but she did not say anything or do anything as she takes great pride in her beauty and it would be a fool not to take notice of her but right now, he has passed his boundary and needs to be dealt with.

Feng Huang nodded before transforming to her Phoenix form and flew away.

"Come Get This" yelled Amiel at Zeus.

When Zeus was closed enough, she delivered the blow but her fist passed through him as if he was not there "an afterimage, that bastard. Lucifer, where are you?" Said Amiel as she needs her brother right now, her powers over her Sin of Envy seems to be malfunctioning as she can't seem to use it, as if something is disrupting her powers.

What she didn't know was that all of these was the hand work of her Father just to get Lucifer to release her for whatever purpose no body knows about.

She chased after Zeus but he has already created a large gap between them making her unable to catch up to him.

All she could do was hoping for either Lucifer to arrive and save his women or the girls manages to reach the Island of Crete before Zeus gets to them.

A few minutes later

"The bastard has caught on with us" said Amaterasu as she saw the figure of Zeus flying in their direction with high speed.

"What exactly is going on? And why can't we access our divinity" said Bast as she kept trying hard to tap into her divine powers.

Aphrodite sighed as she grabbed both Amaterasu and Bast's hands who held Hestia as she ran in the direction of a nearby cave "that's the least of our worries, we should look for a safe place to hide for the meantime until Lucifer gets here" said Aphrodite firmly believing in her husband.

They ran to the cave and hid there and waited for the right moment to leave and continue on their Journey.

But they forgot one thing, Zeus was no longer just god, he was now of the high Gods, tittles given to the six of the figurehead Gods of Greco and he is currently at his strongest since Khaos made him so powerful so that he can fulfil his assignment and that was to cuckold Lucifer as motivation for him to release so that he can be able to leave the Sea of Chaos to save his women before Zeus could have his way.

Zeus was quickly able to locate them the moment he touched land, he slowly walked towards the cave, taking his sweet precious time, building tension amongst the girls.

He finally entered the cave after a while as he stared at the four beauties devoid of any emotions in his eyes except complete lust. Stay tuned for updates on Amaterasu was greatly disgusted by that stare as she took a stone in the cave and threw it at Zeus's face to give him another emotion to feel which is pain but she did not achieve what she wanted.

Zeus stared at Amaterasu and decided to go for her first.

He stripped himself naked, showing off his entire body to the women whose expression showed complete disgust and lack of interest well except one, Hestia as this is the first time she has ever seen a man's fully naked body.

Zeus bent down to take hold of Amaterasu's hands in an attempt to make her give him a hand job only to be sent flying by a hand punch appeared out of nowhere.

"Don't Even Think About It, You Deranged And Perverted Bastard"

Chapter 89: A Very Angry And Furious Lucifer 2 And Meeting God

"Don't Even Think About It, You Deranged And Perverted Bastard"

The voice of Lucifer came from all around the cave, he appeared behind Amaterasu and held her comforting her while thinking of ways to make Zeus suffer.

He did not care if he was in his right state of mind or not but as long as he even dared to look and have ideas about his wives, he needs to be punished for that.

"You are back" said Amaterasu as she turned to look at her man with a smile on her face, she placed her hands on his checks before going for a kiss to which Lucifer reciprocate.

After they were done with the kiss, Lucifer called out to Feng Huang who was near by after she sensed the arrival of her Master "go with her, she will take you safely to the Island, things are about to get messy" said Lucifer as he walked outside the cave to give Zeus the beating of his life.

"Take care" said Bast as she got on the already transformed Feng Huang.

Lucifer smiled as he waved them goodbye but his face immediately morphed into that of an angry Devil as he turn to see Zeus getting up and still naked.

Lucifer appeared right in front of him and held his manhood "you wanted to use this on my wives, right? Let's see if you would be able to use it anytime soon" said Lucifer as he applied pressure on his grip crushing the balls of Zeus and destroying his manhood.

Zeus gave out an anguished scream and due to the pain of having his balls crushed, he was freed from the mind control of Khaos bringing him back to his senses.

"I see, you are yourself now, but that does not still change the fact that you tried to rape my wives.

It was your desire to have a taste of them all along, you were just suppressing it but Khaos just gave you a little push and you finally gave in to your desires, that's why I want to also help you destroy any desires you have left over my women so as to avoid situation like this next time" said Lucifer who created a ball of Hell Fire and placed it on Zeus's bleeding manhood causing Zeus to scream at the top of his lungs due to the excruciating pain.

Lucifer didn't mind the screams, instead it became a music in his ears "that's right, scream as much as you want, feel the pain so that anytime you see my wives, you will not even think once about putting them in your bed and having your way with them" said Lucifer as he let go of Zeus, before looking in the direction of the Sea of Chaos "now for that bitch"

Lucifer unfurled his wings and took off but before he could go far, he was stopped by a man clad in a blinding golden light.

Lucifer did not need anybody to tell him who it was, just from the presence he exudes, he could tell who it was "hello Old Man, I never thought I would see you this early" said Lucifer.

[SAMAEL, YOU ARE NOW COMPLETE, IT IS GOOD TO SEE YOU WHOLE AGAIN] said God.

Lucifer frown when he heard what his Father said, he did not understand what he meant by him being whole.

[I SEE YOU HAVE NOT THOUGHT IT THROUGH GIVEN THE URGENCY OF YOUR MATTER BUT I CAN TELL YOU, WE ARE NOT IN A RUSH] said God as he waved his hands and they were in a completely different place [SIT] He said.

Lucifer listened to his Father and sat down "so when are you going to start speaking? You know I have an Entity to face since you said to release her, I was hoping you would be facing her yourself" said Lucifer as he looked at his Father who is already seated.

[NO RUSH, ALL WILL BE ANSWERED IN DUE TIME BUT FOR NOW, I JUST WANT TO SEE MY SON] said God.

Lucifer getting impatient, smacked his fist really hard on the table in front of him destroying it completely "listen here Old Man, I don't have the whole time, there is a sick and deranged woman running outside free whose goal is to see the entire Universe destroyed just because you said so, so either you start talking or you let me out of here" said Lucifer angrily.

[AND WHAT? LET'S JUST SAY, I DID LET YOU OUT, WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO? GET YOURSELF KILLED? YOU AND I KNOW THAT YOU NEVER STOOD A CHANCE AGAINST HER, SO WHY THE RUSH?] said God.

Lucifer could swear that if his Father's face was visible right now, his Father would be currently smiling right now.

Lucifer relaxed and calmed himself down before deciding to listen to what his Father had to say.

[GOOD, NOW TO YOUR FIRST QUESTION, WHY DID I SAY YOU ARE NOW COMPLETE, SIMPLE, YOUR SOUL WAS DIVIDED, ONE LIVED AS AN ANGEL AND THE OTHER LIVED AS A HUMAN VERY FAR INTO THE FUTURE BUT RECENTLY YOUR SOUL BECAME WHOLE AGAIN WHICH MEANS YOUR HUMAN LIFE DIED] said God dropping such a big bomb to Lucifer. Lucifer stared blankly at the space in complete shock, that was when everything started coming back to him, his indifference when he found out that he was reincarnated into the Devil, the way he quickly adapted as the Devil on this new life, why God did not smite him the moment he noticed an anomaly, and why Khaos knew all about him, it was because it was her doing.

[NOW YOU HAVE FINALLY REALIZED WHO YOU TRULY ARE, THAT'S GOOD, IT IS GOING TO HELP YOU ON THE LONG RUN] said God before looking in a certain direction [THERE IS TROUBLE BREWING AND WE ARE GOING TO NEED ALL THE HELP WE CAN GET, SO YOU MIGHT BE ABLE TO UNDERSTAND WHY I TOLD YOU TO RELEASE HER AND ALSO WHAT I AM ABOUT TO DO RIGHT NOW]

God said as he appeared before the unprepared Lucifer and placed his hands on his forehead and an invisible thread only visible to God came out of Lucifer and flew in a certain direction.

[YOU HAVE TO TAME HER, SHE IS ONE OF OUR ACE WE ARE GOING TO NEED TO AVERT THAT CRISIS] said God before fading away.

Lucifer woke up after sometime as he looked at his surroundings and discovered that he was in the secret room of the Island of Crete where Adamantheia planted the tree.

Before he could clear his thoughts and try to make sense of what his Father said, he felt this connection to someone who he could feel was coming at his direction at an extremely fast speed.

Chapter 90: Death Of Lucifer

Island of Crete

[LUCIFER, SHOW YOURSELF]

Yelled Khaos who appeared on the Island of Crete where she was drawn to by the connection she felt she had with someone which turned out to be Lucifer.

"Who are you?" said one of the guard Nymphs as she pointed her spear at Khaos.

Seeing someone who could not even be compared to an ant in her eyes greatly infuriated her and coupled with the anger she had before coming here, she snapped her fingers and the Nymph slowly disintegrated into dust.

The other guard Nymphs opened their eyes in shock as they were baffled by the way the stranger before them easily ended the life of their fellow Nymph.

The guards immediately turned around and ran for their lives and in the process tell their leader about the woman.

Khaos just scoffed and spread out her senses in search for the one who brought her here and the one stopping from doing what she should be doing right about now.

It didn't take her long to locate Lucifer, who was just sitting in the secret room as he wait for Khaos who he already sensed arrived.

[WHAT DID YOUR FATHER DO? YOU SHOULD CALL HIM RIGHT NOW AND TELL HIM TO UNDO WHATEVER HE DID OR I WILL WALTZ INTO HIS HOME HE CALLS HEAVEN AND DESTROY IT] said Khaos as she materialized before Lucifer and glared at him.

Lucifer just raised his head to look at her only to frown.

When he looked at her, instead of the hatred he felt for her and the desire to destroy her in anyway possible, he felt something else and that feeling was so strong that he could not even let any harm come to her hair.

Even she felt that way, that's way she haven't held him by his neck or started suffocating him to do as she says right now and she hated that feeling and wants to get rid of it.

"I doubt he would even heed my call, so if you want to do all of us a favour, then please waltz into Heaven and lay waste to it, and I still doubt he would listen" said Lucifer as he just sat there helplessly.

Khaos roared madly at the Heaven and wanted to go up there and find Him but she knew that that Bastard must have made an impenetrable defense that will be very difficult to destroy even for someone like her.

Now all of her plan has been foiled, she could not destroy this universe and recreate it in her own image which is the Everlasting Darkness because she cannot bring herself to harm the person she ... ugh.

Even thinking about it wants to make her puke.

She can't live like this, she can't continue like this, she is the Entity of Chaos, she has always been alone not bound to someone, this is degrading of her very nature.

[YOU, TELL THAT BASTARD THAT HE HAS WON THIS TIME BUT THERE IS NOT GOING TO BE A NEXT TIME]

said Khaos as she vanished from the secret room.

Lucifer frowned and stood up and tried to feel where she might be and she was currently in the Sea of Chaos.

Lucifer wanted to go back there but before he could, his wives came in as they immediately hugged him.

"Are you alright? Where were you when everything started? Forget about that, I heard some crazy psychopathic bitch was on the island" said Aphrodite as she checked Lucifer's body to see if there was any injuries.

Lucifer chuckled at the way she just spoke as he brought her closer to him and kissed her.

After like a minute of kissing, Lucifer separated their lips but before he could say anything, another lip invaded his and he was surprised to find out who it was.

It was Hestia who took the initiative to kiss him surprising everyone here especially Lucifer who from his knowledge about the Myths, she was a virgin to the very end.

He reciprocated her kiss and this time, they were at it for almost five minute if not for Bast who coughed to get their attention.

Lucifer took this as her being jealous and went to kiss her amidst her telling him that, that was not what she meant.

After Bast, Lucifer moved on to Amaterasu, kissing her also.

Meanwhile all of these were being watched by someone who was clearly burning in jealous as she saw these scene "Tsk, Tsk, What A Stupid Thing, Love, He Should Enjoy It While It Last Because When I Come Back, I Will Make Sure To Destroy What He Holds Dear" said Khaos who was not happy seeing Lucifer happy with other women "sigh, I should probably begin now before this stupid feeling gets the best of me"

She said as she sat in a lotus position and began speaking in a weird language.

After what seems like an hour, her body began to deteriorating and decomposing into smaller particles "I don't know how long it will take for me to return but by when I do come back, I unleash Chaos upon creation" said Khaos before looking one last time at

Lucifer as a bitter smile formed on her face making her sigh "I hate this feeling but I should just say it as this is the last time I am ever going to say it, I love you, but I know this isn't real and you hate me much as I did that's why I am taking this path to rid us of ever chasing this false love and I promise to give you a swift ending when I come back"

And with that, she completely turned into smaller particles that merged with the entire Sea of Chaos before disappearing altogether..

Unbeknownst to her, she has just mark the beginning of a new chapter in her life and that of Lucifer. Explore hidden tales at

Island of Crete

After Khaos destroyed herself to free her from the thread connecting both her and Lucifer.

Lucifer's heartbeat slowly began to slowly, his breathing became unstable, he gasped for air as breathing became difficult for him, red veins appeared in his eyes.

When his wives saw this, they panicked and quickly called Adamantheia and Gaia for help but before they could get there, it was already too late, Lucifer became a lifeless corpse.

"He is already dead" said Coriel who appeared immediately she sensed Lucifer dying.

Hearing this, the girls burst out onto tears even Feng Huang joined in to cry.

All the other Arch Demons also arrived at the scene and saw their brother lying lifeless on the ground and there was nothing they could do.
