

The Doctor 1911

Chapter 1911 A Stone

Red-gold flames instantly ignited around Chu Liuyue, but the God-Destroying Tribulation was extremely fast. In an instant, her figure was instantly devoured.

Rumble!

Endless dazzling streams of light rushed in all directions! Even the silver-red God Realm Chu Liuyue unleashed at the beginning was affected and instantly scattered.

Below, the already messy mountain range began to collapse again at a visible speed! In the blink of an eye, it was razed to the ground!

Cen Yi quickly set up a green barrier in front of him and shouted in a low voice, "Get back!"

Upon hearing his order, the Thirteen Yue Guards subconsciously retreated! But even so, they still suffered a huge impact!

The colorful stream of light flew over and collided with the barrier set up by Cen Yi. They silently devoured each other and attacked each other crazily!

Cen Yi was the first to bear the brunt. His chest trembled, and blood flowed from the corner of his mouth!

"Big Brother!" San San and the others were shocked. In their impression, Cen Yi was almost invincible and had never been in such a sorry state.

However, this was only the aftershock of the God-Destroying Tribulation! It was even more dangerous for Master, who was really attacked by the God-Destroying Tribulation!

Cen Yi forcefully swallowed the bloody aura that surged between his teeth. He didn't stop and continued to retreat with everyone!

...

Almost at the same time, Luo Yan and the others on the other side also sensed that something was wrong.

"Danger!" Luo Yan shouted and immediately retreated.

"Flying Cloud Painting!" An elder chose to step forward. This is the Nan family's treasure. If it is lost...

But just as his hand touched the burning Flying Cloud Painting, a colorful stream of light suddenly flew behind him!

Luo Yan and the others' expressions changed. "Quickly move away!"

The elder also sensed a cold wind coming from behind. He knew that something was wrong, so he immediately grabbed the Flying Cloud Painting and fled!

However, it was still too late!

That stream of light was really too fast!

He had just taken a step when the colorful stream of light behind him had already passed through his chest!

Swoosh!

Blood splattered everywhere! Warm, sweet blood even splattered on the faces and bodies of Luo Yan and the others!

The few of them were shocked and stunned.

The elder barely threw out the Flying Cloud Painting in his hand and spat out two words with difficulty: "Go... quickly..."

Luo Yan subconsciously used the Flying Cloud Painting!

Red-gold and transparent flames intertwined and wrapped around it. It was hot to the touch!

Fortunately, the Flying Cloud Painting was also one of the top ten holy weapons. Although this flame could destroy the spatial passageway it opened, it wouldn't cause fatal damage to it. Moreover, Luo Yan was a legendary warrior himself.

With a thought, a layer of silver armor quickly covered his arm! He then held the Flying Cloud Painting tightly in his palm and retreated at full speed!

The other elders had no time to say anything and could only follow closely behind.

By the time they finally dodged the colorful stream of light, they had already flown a long distance.

After confirming that he had dodged the fatal threat, Luo Yan stopped and looked back again. At this moment, he saw an elder of the Nan family explode!

Terrifying energy fluctuations crushed over and instantly crushed him into powder!

Body and soul were destroyed!

He didn't even have time to cry out in pain!

Luo Yan's heart was beating violently, the blood in his body seemed to be boiling, and even his temples were throbbing.

The scene before him had a huge impact on him! If we had also been a step late just now, then... The consequences are unimaginable!

Luo Yan had broken through for many years. It had been too long since he had felt such a fatal threat of death!

The three elders standing beside him were also stunned. A legendary warrior is gone just like that?! The power of the God-Destroying Tribulation is actually so terrifying!

Even the aftershocks that spread out have such terrifying power. Then... wouldn't the person in the center, who is enduring the most pressure from the God-Destroying Tribulation, definitely die?

...

Mo Yun had been hiding among a pile of rocks, planning to take action. However, the arrival of the God-Destroying Tribulation completely shattered all his plans.

Rocks swayed, and the ground shook!

The thick fog on him had already covered most of his body. However, the power of this God-Destroying Tribulation was too strong!

It was difficult for him to even dodge these aftershocks, let alone do other things.

If this continues... I will probably die silently here! Mo Yun was indignant!

The totem between his eyebrows suddenly became even brighter!

Thick blood filled his eyes, and the smell of rotting corpses suddenly came from him.

His eyes gradually turned cold and bloodthirsty.

But at this moment, a golden flame suddenly flew over!

Mo Yun abruptly realized something and looked up.

The ball of golden flames had already arrived in front of him!

Just as he was about to dodge, the flames actually exploded in front of him!

Rumble!

...

For a moment, sparks scattered and enveloped Mo Yun in the blink of an eye!

Just as he was about to struggle out, a rich black color suddenly surged out of the golden flames!

The cold and fierce aura immediately made Mo Yun's eyes widen in shock! What is—

Swoosh!

Before he could speak, the black color had already devoured him!

Mo Yun was dead!

Golden flames spread over him. From the outside, nobody noticed anything unusual.

Soon, the flames dissipated, and a wind blew. It raised a handful of ashes.

Nobody would know that the once glorious deputy sect master of the Black Sword Sect, Mo Yun, had actually died quietly in such a way!

In fact, nobody cared about him at this moment. Everyone's attention was on Chu Liuyue!

Countless eyes looked at the dazzling and gorgeous ball of fire in the air.

...

Who can survive the God-Destroying Tribulation?

The void was still collapsing!

The world was dark.

They all knew very well that when this ball of light fire dissipated, it would all be over! As for Chu Liuyue...

“What a pity! All of us are going to die with her!” In Peach Blossom Dock, someone sighed dejectedly.

In the crowd, Duan Qingquan frowned and was about to explain when he suddenly saw something and widened his eyes. “What’s that?!”

Everyone subconsciously looked over.

Something suddenly flew out of the extremely dazzling light fire.

Someone murmured with uncertainty, “It seems to be... a stone?”

Chapter 1912 3,000 God Realms!

It was indeed a stone. It was about the size of a fist and was grayish-white in color.

It gently rolled out of the brilliant flames as if someone had accidentally thrown it.

Many people were stunned. Under such circumstances, the appearance of this stone is really inappropriate. Why would such a thing appear out of nowhere?

But soon, a second stone tumbled out unsteadily.

!!

At this moment, the wild power of the God-Destroying Tribulation had already disturbed the surrounding space completely. The crazy spatial turbulence intersected back and forth as if it wanted to tear everything apart!

However, the two stones didn’t seem to be affected by this fluctuation at all. They only rolled away.

At a glance, it was no different from flat ground.

Before anyone could react, a third stone appeared and headed in another direction.

...

At this moment, time seemed to flow exceptionally slowly.

Countless eyes were fixed on this strange scene in the sky.

With the ball of fire as the center, more and more stones tumbled out and scattered.

Under the brilliant light, these stones looked ordinary. It was precisely because of this that their appearance was especially strange.

“These stones... rushed out underneath the God-Destroying Tribulation’s power. Why aren’t they broken?” someone muttered.

Many people were stunned. Yeah! The God-Destroying Tribulation has descended, and even the mountains below have collapsed one after another or are even completely destroyed! Why do these small stones... seem to be fine?

“No. Aren’t you curious about where these stones came from?”

Of course, they couldn’t be from the God-Destroying Tribulation. Then, the only explanation was... Chu Liuyue!

These stones must be hers! However, this is even more confusing. She is trapped in the God-Destroying Tribulation, and her life and death is unknown. How could she still have the time to throw these stones out?

“...No! Look, something seems to be coming out of those rocks!”

The exclamation was like a stone thrown into the originally calm lake, causing ripples.

Everyone looked over. The crowd quickly became noisy again.

“It really seems to be... What’s that blue area?”

“Hey, it’s green beside it! Why do these stones seem different?”

As time passed, various lights surged out of the gray, inconspicuous, and even ugly stones. Although it couldn’t compare to the gorgeous light of the God-Destroying Tribulation, they were scattered and quite eye-catching.

The void collapsed, and there were black holes everywhere. The appearance of these streamers lit up the darkness like stars.

Suddenly, someone exclaimed in shock, “That seems to be... not an ordinary stone! That flowing light... That flowing light is from a God Realm!”

Once he said that, the crowd was stunned!

They were actually very familiar with the words ‘God Realm.’ After all, most of the people who could survive in Peach Blossom Dock were legendary warriors.

When they sparred with each other, they had more or less seen the various God Realms of other cultivators. But at this moment, it was still far beyond their imagination to connect these stones to God Realms!

“God Realm? How is that possible! Only legendary warriors can condense a God Realm. No matter how powerful these rocks are, they’re still dead objects! How can they unleash God Realms?”

“That’s right! Don’t tell me you were too afraid and made a mistake?”

The crowd partook in heated discussions. However, everyone clearly didn’t believe this.

It wasn't that they had any objections to the person who said this, but in their opinion, this matter was very ridiculous. Therefore, they subconsciously chose to refute.

"No, look carefully! They really seem to be God Realms! Why would I lie to you at this time?" Seeing that nobody believed him, the person was a little anxious.

He raised his hand and pointed at the stones scattered in the sky. "Look for yourselves! If those streams of light aren't God Realms, what are they?"

Under his repeated defense, some people looked up in disbelief.

At this moment, those stones were basically surrounded by various streams of light.

From below, balls of light flickered.

The light wasn't blinding, but it seemed to be faintly wrapped in a vast aura!

Some people's expressions changed. This aura... They are indeed God Realms!

"It seems, it really seems to be..." The person who had just sworn to object was also stunned and stammered.

The noisy crowd quickly quietened down because this matter had a huge impact on them!

After a while, someone muttered in a daze, "How... is that possible?"

"Could it be that I've seen too little? There's actually a God Realm without cultivators in this world?"

"No... It's not your problem... I'm afraid such a situation has never happened in the entire God Residence Realm!"

"It seems that this Peach Blossom Dock is really over! A true god summoned the God-Destroying Tribulation, and the broken stones also have God Realms... Mad! They're all crazy!"

So many unbelievable things had happened that people began to wonder if everything in front of them was real or fake!

But while most people were in shock, there were still a few who retained their last bit of rationality.

A childish voice suddenly came from the crowd. "...Father, these stones are scattered like this. It seems... It seems..."

It was a little girl no more than seven or eight years old who spoke.

She looked up with a pure expression and a hint of doubt in her eyes. She kept finding this scene familiar, but she couldn't remember.

When Duan Qingquan—who was standing not far away—heard this, a white light suddenly flashed across his mind. "Xuan formation!"

After his reminder, the little girl finally revealed a look of realization. "Yes, yes! It's like a Xuan formation! Father, look, this is very similar to the Xuan formations you showed me in the past!"

She was seven or eight years old and had already started cultivating, but she still maintained her true views on everything. The moment she saw the scattered stones in the sky, she felt that they were familiar.

...

However, how could the middle-aged man she was pulling care about this? He just thought that his child's words were harmless.

It was already strange enough that those stones had unleashed God Realms. Now, they were even talking about constructing some Xuan formation...

It was obvious that it was impossible!

He didn't say anything, but his heart ached as he held his daughter in his arms. The poor child is still so young. This time, I will—

However, Duan Qingquan stared fixedly at the sky and said word by word, "It's not 'like a Xuan formation...' It is a Xuan formation!"

Every word was powerful!

Many people, including the middle-aged man, subconsciously looked up.

In the sky, countless stones scattered with the God-Destroying Tribulation's ball of light as the center.

At a glance, it was a mess. But if one observed carefully, they would discover that there was indeed a certain pattern to the arrangement of the stones!

The horizontal lines intersected with each other, but they fused perfectly!

...

Chapter 1913 | Fight With the God Realm!

In those rocks were God Realms. As if summoned by some power, these God Realms surged out of the dusty stones at this moment, connecting and fusing with each other!

The dots connected.

The lines connected to form a face.

In the black sky, these seemingly chaotic God Realms began to condense silently!

On their own, the individual God Realms of these stones weren't powerful. In fact, because of the wear and tear of 10,000 years, these powerful God Realms—which once belonged to countless powerful cultivators—were only left with some remnant power.

This remnant power might be insignificant, and these God Realms might not be a concern when alone. But when they gathered, layers of power accumulated into a shocking vast pressure!

The sky collapsed, and the entire Peach Blossom Dock fell into a long night. However, there were still stars flickering in the night sky, emitting a sparkling light!

The God Realms of countless stones were connected to each other, forming a dazzling and flexible huge net. The most dazzling thing was the ball of brilliant light in the center of the huge net!

It was as if a wind was blowing, gently lifting the huge net. In an instant, the sound of tidal waves came one after another.

Splash—

Abundant natural energy surged! Even the huge ball of light seemed to be affected, swaying gently back and forth in the huge rising and falling net.

Everyone at Peach Blossom Dock watched this scene in a daze. That is... Someone shook the God-Destroying Tribulation? But at this moment, who else can do this other than Chu Liuyue?

A ridiculous and crazy thought surged in countless people's hearts, but they forcefully suppressed it. Impossible... The terrifying energy of the God-Destroying Tribulation has bombarded the area, and even the God Realms of the Nan family's legendary warriors were powerless to resist it. Moreover, isn't Chu Liuyue just a true god?

...

Countless people held their breaths.

The entire Peach Blossom Dock seemed to fall silent. At this moment, every pair of eyes was gazing at the gorgeous light.

It swayed gently, and the power in it seemed to be constantly decreasing.

The surrounding God Realms were crazily devouring its power!

All kinds of light streams flew and surged quickly in the night sky as if they were knitting a beautiful silk scarf.

"She's crazy... She actually dares to snatch the power of the God-Destroying Tribulation?!" Luo Yan finally couldn't help but exclaim in shock.

He, who had always kept his emotions to himself, couldn't help but look shocked.

After they took back the Flying Cloud Painting previously, they retreated far away. But standing here, he could still see the situation on Chu Liuyue's side clearly.

In addition, they were all legendary warriors and were most sensitive to the fluctuations and changes of power. Therefore, after watching for a while, they were shocked to discover that the God-Destroying Tribulation's power was constantly being dispersed!

Chu Liuyue is really crazy to dare to do this! This is simply snatching food from the tiger's mouth!

The elders were also in disbelief. That is the God-Destroying Tribulation! Others can't dodge in time, but she is actually so bold! Could it be that she still wants to resist the Heavenly Dao with her mortal body?!

"How powerful is the God-Destroying Tribulation? How can it allow her to be so impudent..." Luo Yan gasped. He felt like he had seen all kinds of scenes he had never seen in the first half of his life today!

Not long after he finished speaking, the God-Destroying Tribulation suddenly lit up!

His heart skipped a beat, and he retreated again! “Run!”

The remaining three elders also sensed that something was wrong and followed closely behind!

Rumble!

A shocking bang suddenly came from the sky!

An extremely gorgeous firework bloomed in the black night sky!

The God-Destroying Tribulation completely exploded! The endless power accumulated inside surged in all directions like a tide—it was overwhelming and grand!

The beautiful light was like a torrent that poured down, destroying everything!

The vast and deep sky was instantly shrouded by this brilliant color!

Cen Yi reinforced the barrier in front of him again, but the God-Destroying Tribulation was too powerful. It destroyed his barrier almost without stopping!

In a moment of desperation, San San also hurriedly attacked! A dark-blue flame instantly formed a ball that surrounded them!

The ball quickly moved to the side and avoided the attack!

The edge brushed past a colorful stream of light, emitting an ear-piercing sound!

San San suddenly spat out a mouthful of blood!

The others hurriedly stepped forward and injected their strength into San San’s body! Only then did San San’s expression improve.

But at this moment, he couldn’t care less. He took a deep breath and hurriedly looked up in Chu Liuyue’s direction. “Master—”

Unfortunately, they couldn’t see anything clearly under the envelopment of thousands of lights!

The people in Peach Blossom Dock were also in deep panic.

The stream of light quickly surged to the sky above the city wall of Peach Blossom Dock!

This gorgeous light was so eye-catching as if the most moving and richest color in the world had gathered, making one’s heart sway. But at this moment, nobody was in the mood to appreciate this beautiful and shocking scene. They knew very well that once this stream of light fell like a waterfall, the entire Peach Blossom Dock would be destroyed, and they would no longer exist!

The atmosphere was cold and stagnant!

“Father... are we going to die?” The little girl—who had been quite excited about her discovery—finally sensed that something was wrong and asked timidly.

Her father hugged her tightly. “Don’t be afraid... Daddy is here.”

Duan Qingquan's heart seemed to be clenched tightly by something, and he couldn't breathe.

Hurried footsteps suddenly sounded from behind.

He turned around.

It was Yan Qing!

"Yan—" Duan Qingquan was about to speak when Yan Qing shook his head imperceptibly, and his gaze was fixed on the scene in the sky.

...

Duan Qingquan seemed to sense something and turned around again.

A tall and slender white figure had appeared in front of the stream of light!

Rong Xiu crossed his hands in front of him, and two balls of flames burned in the depths of his deep phoenix eyes!

One was sparkling gold!

One was intensely dark!

A huge golden barrier appeared! It looked like it had blocked all the streams of light!

The torrent didn't stop and surged over!

Just as the two sides were about to collide fiercely, a clear voice suddenly sounded. "Stop!"

With this voice, the endless colorful light streams—which were originally surging over—actually stopped in front of the golden barrier!

Everyone was stunned and subconsciously looked in the direction the voice came.

An exquisite figure stood in the air! In her hands was a shield held in front of her.

...

Nobody could see her face, only her fluttering black hair!

Bright light flickered on the shield.

Clang!

She suddenly slammed the shield down!

Under her feet, the 3,000 God Realms rumbled! It was as if the vast pressure from ancient times surged in all directions!

Chapter 1914 Holy Body!

The gorgeous light streams that almost covered the entire sky finally began to collapse inch by inch after a short pause!

The God-Destroying Tribulation shattered into countless fine stars that fell into the 3,000 God Realms that filled the sky!

Like a galaxy splashing down, countless brilliant lights flew up!

The wind blew, stirring the woman's red dress.

!!

A myriad of beautiful and brilliant lights flickered around her, but they were still not as dazzling as her!

The scene seemed to freeze, but she was a thousand times stronger than the faint ink!

Suddenly, it seemed to give people an illusion—the world had collapsed, and she was the only god!

Countless people looked up with stunned expressions, engraving this scene in their hearts forever. No matter how much time passed, someone would remember that there was once a woman who turned the tide alone in such a critical moment!

It was she who had sent the falling light streams back.

She was the one who made the surging torrent flow backward.

It was her who had really relied on her mortal body to resist the God-Destroying Tribulation!

...

The strong taste of blood filled her mouth.

Her heart was pounding so hard it seemed it might leap out of her chest at any moment. Her brain throbbed with pain as she hung onto the last string.

A numb, dull pain came from her arms as sticky dark-red blood seeped from her hands.

Chu Liuyue took a deep breath and forced herself to swallow.

Shing!

Somehow, an invisible hand seemed to be plucking the subtle strings in her body.

The zither note was bleak and solemn, but it quickly woke her up.

She looked up and around.

As far as the eye could see, it was brilliant.

The God-Destroying Tribulation had dissipated, forming countless gorgeous streams of light that surged back and forth above her. And under her feet were the 3,000 God Realms condensed from those rocks!

Chu Liuyue's heart moved as she sighed softly. "The God Realm of the gods... can't be underestimated..."

In the beginning, she really had no choice. Helpless, she finally chose to try this method.

She didn't dare to hold out much hope. After all, when she brought these stones back from the God-Killing Tumulus, they didn't look particularly powerful.

Although every stone contained a God Realm, it wasn't considered powerful. At that time, she also felt that they were too clingy and couldn't be dissuaded, so she chose to bring them away.

Although these stones were occasionally mischievous, they were very gentle and obedient most of the time. She never expected that the first time she used them to construct a Xuan formation, it would erupt with such great strength...

What surprised her the most was actually the surging battle intent that multiplied after these God Realms fused together!

She could even feel an unprecedented and invincible determination! It was madness and persistence she had never felt before!

It was a shocking will inherited from the battlefield 10,000 years ago!

For a moment, she even felt that... Not to mention the God-Destroying Tribulation, they could even completely overturn the sky!

At this moment, a colorful stream of light suddenly flew over.

The Thirteen Yue Guards, who had just relaxed, felt their hearts tighten again. "Master, be careful!"

However, Chu Liuyue shook her head gently, indicating that they didn't have to worry.

She didn't sense any threat from it. Instead, she sensed a faint stirring.

This feeling was very subtle and indescribable, but she knew it wouldn't hurt her.

Soon, the stream of light flew in front of her. As if subconsciously, Chu Liuyue stretched out a hand.

When her hand blocked the God-Destroying Tribulation with her shield, it had endured immense pressure. At this moment, it was already a bloody mess.

Rong Xiu's phoenix eyes darkened, and a trace of coldness flashed across them.

Immediately after, the stream of light flew to her hand.

The moment it touched her body, the stream of light quickly condensed into a translucent and gorgeous piece of soft armor that gently covered the back of her hand.

It was only half the size of a palm. Its shape was irregular, but it was extremely exquisite and luxurious.

A faint pressure spread from it!

Chu Liuyue was shocked. "This..."

Soon, a second stream of light flew over and clung to the first piece of gorgeous soft armor. At the same time, her injuries in the area covered by the soft armor actually began to heal at an astonishing speed!

In the blink of an eye, the shocking wound quickly healed and scabbed over. Soon, even the shallow scar was removed bit by bit.

The injured area had returned to its original state—it didn't look like it had been injured at all!

This time, even Chu Liuyue was shocked.

She was a heavenly doctor. She knew all too well how difficult it was to restore such injuries to their original state. Besides, it was in such a short period of time!

More and more streams of light flew toward her.

Just as she was filled with doubts, a fluctuation suddenly came from her dantian.

She focused her gaze and was shocked to discover that a small illusory figure had appeared in her body at some point in time. It was under the music score that had transformed into a water droplet!

That figure was transparent, but its form and appearance were clearly identical to hers!

At this moment, a gorgeous light flickered in the transparent figure's right hand. It was exactly the same as the soft armor on her body!

...

Stunned, a bold thought suddenly struck her. This is... my Holy Body!?

The moment this thought appeared, it immediately caused a huge commotion in her heart.

When she came to the God Residence Realm a few years ago, although she was in the limelight at Ling Xiao Academy, she hadn't formed a Holy Body at that time.

After breaking through to the true god, she successfully condensed the God Realm. However, Holy Bodies were different from God Realms. Not every true god could cultivate a Holy Body.

There were all kinds of Holy Bodies in the world.

At Ling Xiao Academy, she had read countless books about cultivating Holy Bodies. She had tried more than once, but for some reason, she had never succeeded.

She had extremely outstanding talent on the path of cultivation; she encountered almost no obstacles along the way. It wasn't until she began to form her Holy Body that she encountered failure after failure.

As Nan Suhuai's only disciple, the Holy Body cultivation methods she had learned were definitely very outstanding. But no matter which one she tried, she couldn't succeed.

In the end, even Nan Suhuai couldn't stand it anymore. At that time, he said that since this was the case, it meant that she had a Holy Body belonging to her. Only when the opportunity arrived could she master it.

As for other Holy Bodies, they weren't fated with her, and there was no need to continue trying.

Chu Liuyue had always been skeptical of these words and thought that her master was trying to comfort her, so she only nodded. Ever since then, she hadn't tried to forcefully cultivate any Holy Body.

...

Unexpectedly, her Holy Body had formed on its own!

Chapter 1915 Thousands of Followers

A thought suddenly flashed across Chu Liuyue's mind. This Holy Body was condensed from the God-Destroying Tribulation's power!

Even she couldn't help but gasp at the thought of this, her heart beating violently! A Holy Body forged from the God-Destroying Tribulation's power... It's obvious how powerful it is!

She had imagined countless times what kind of Holy Body she would cultivate. And now that the day had come, she was so shocked that she couldn't come back to her senses for a long time.

She looked down slightly. At this moment, more and more pieces of beautiful soft armor covered her body.

The Holy Body in her dantian also condensed, gradually turning from transparent to gorgeous!

...

Some of the light streams in the sky flew into the 3,000 God Realms while most transformed into soft armor and embedded themselves around her.

She gently closed her eyes and began to cultivate with bated breath.

The power around her surged into her body. Her aura also rose continuously!

Everyone was stunned.

There was dead silence in Peach Blossom Dock.

Everything in front of them had changed too quickly for them to react. A moment ago, she was facing a life-and-death crisis. In the blink of an eye, the crisis was resolved?

The impact was too great.

The little girl in her father's arms was confused. She reached out and pointed at the sky. "Father, the sky is bright."

Hearing this, the middle-aged man was stunned and subconsciously looked up.

What he saw stunned him.

A light indeed shone from the originally dark sky. Although it was subtle, it... did exist! Moreover, the light seemed to be spreading in all directions.

After a moment, he finally realized something, and his eyes widened. "The barrier of Peach Blossom Dock is starting to recover?!"

There was a clap of thunder.

Everyone was shocked when they heard this.

Pairs of eyes looked at the sky.

"It... It seems like the barrier is really recovering?"

"Don't you think that the wild spatial turbulence seems to have converged a lot?"

“Look, those wildfires are also gradually extinguishing!”

Being among them, they had the clearest sense of the energy changes.

The void—which had been crazily squeezing and shrinking—seemed to have suddenly stopped the compression process and gradually returned to its initial state.

The almost suffocating pressure seemed to be quietly dissipating.

Duan Qingquan couldn't help but mutter, “Peach Blossom Dock... is safe?”

Yan Qing let out a long breath. Princess Consort... is too amazing!

Actually, he had been worried before. But since his master had insisted on not attacking, he set up a barrier at most.

But before it could be used, the princess consort had already resolved all of this!

Some people in the crowd gradually came back to their senses. “...This... Is this all Shangguan Yue's credit...”

As soon as he finished speaking, the noisy street market immediately fell silent again.

Everyone had complicated expressions.

In reality, they had more or less complained about Chu Liuyue previously. If she hadn't offended the Black Sword Sect and the Nan family, this crisis might not have happened.

But after all this, they knew very well that the reason why so many people in Peach Blossom Dock could survive was indeed because of her.

She had resisted the God-Destroying Tribulation alone! It was also her who saved everyone in the city in time!

In fact... even the Peach Blossom Dock—which was just about to collapse—began to return to normal bit by bit.

Who could say that she didn't deserve any of this?

Actually, they knew very well that she was also the most innocent one. The ones who truly instigated this dispute were the Black Sword Sect and the Nan family.

And now, everyone relied on her to survive... How could they still have the cheek to blame her?

“Heh, I don't care about other things! My life was indeed saved by Shangguan Yue! I owe her a favor, so I'll naturally repay her!” In the crowd, a dark-skinned burly man suddenly spoke energetically.

He cupped his fists in Chu Liuyue's direction. “In the future, if anyone dares to make things difficult for her again, don't blame me for being rude!”

After a short silence, various voices sounded. “Me too! I'll naturally remember the kindness of saving my life! I heard that Boss San of Yue Manor is her man? Hehe, I've long wanted to go to Yue Manor to take a look. When this matter is over, I'll go to Yue Manor to see if I can find any work!”

“Haha, you’re dreaming! Even if you’re willing to go, they might not want you! The review of Yue Manor is very strict! I think I’m quite suitable...”

“Tsk, you’re overconfident. I’m different from you. I won’t enter Yue Manor, but if that person needs anything in the future, I’ll definitely go through fire and water!”

...

Many people expressed their stance, and the atmosphere quickly became lively.

Duan Qingquan glanced at Yan Qing in surprise.

The two of them quickly exchanged glances.

Yan Qing raised his eyebrows. This is indeed not arranged by us. It seems that someone really wants to join Princess Consort and Yue Manor spontaneously...

But on second thought, this was normal. The Black Sword Sect had already been wiped out. In the entire Peach Blossom Dock, Yue Manor had become one of the best.

Even if there were still some who could compete with it, after this matter, they were basically incomparable. After all, everyone already knew that the real master of Yue Manor was Chu Liuyue!

Today’s battle was equivalent to saving the entire Peach Blossom Dock. Everyone here owed her their lives.

...

Who else could have such an advantage?

Apart from that, the top-notch ability Chu Liuyue displayed was enough to make countless people admire and follow her.

As a true god, she had summoned the God-Destroying Tribulation and even survived! How many people in the world could compare to such talent and combat strength?!

In Peach Blossom Dock, the strong were respected! After this battle, Chu Liuyue undoubtedly became the undisputed top expert in the hearts of countless people!

...

Chu Liuyue closed her eyes and gathered her focus.

The power of the God-Destroying Tribulation was gradually devoured by her.

Countless pieces of soft armor covered her entire body; even her neck and face were overturned by the translucent and gorgeous soft armor.

The last stream of light finally landed between her eyebrows! The moment it covered her, a scorching temperature suddenly burned between her eyebrows!

A totem suddenly appeared!

...

Chapter 1916 Vitality

Chu Liuyue let out a clear cry! Great completion of the Holy Body!

The gorgeous soft armor overturned her body, dazzling!

Light poured down from the sky and shone on her, reflecting fragments of light.

She suddenly opened her eyes, and a vast and majestic aura erupted from her body!

Everyone was shocked!

Even though she was only a true god now, the pressure of her Holy Body was already comparable to that of a legendary warrior!

“Phew—” Feeling the powerful energy surging in her body, she let out a long breath. So this is what it feels like to have a Holy Body...

She looked down.

At this moment, Peach Blossom Dock was a mess. It was fine in the city, but the continuous mountain range outside the city was almost completely destroyed.

The ravines were crisscrossed with burn marks, and the strong smell of blood filled the air.

Chu Liuyue knitted her brows slightly. I’m undoubtedly partly responsible for what has happened to Peach Blossom Dock.

She raised her bare hand and put away the shield. Then, she took a step forward.

The God Realms under her feet fluctuated lightly before quietly dissipating!

The God Realms converged into the rocks, and the rocks returned to their original grayish-white appearance.

Chu Liuyue waved her hand, and the stones flew back one after another.

The stone in front of her bounced a few times, looking happy and excited to be praised. The row behind also jumped up, fighting to be first.

If not for the fact that she had repeatedly taught them to be obedient and that nobody was allowed to cut the queue, it would probably be chaotic now.

Looking at the pile of stones bouncing back and forth, Chu Liuyue couldn’t help but smile. “You did great.”

Hearing the praise, the stones were overjoyed and jumped back into her Cosmic Ring.

The audience was dumbfounded. Can... Can this be done?

However, Chu Liuyue ignored them. Anyway, they have already seen what they should and shouldn’t have seen. Then, there is nothing to avoid. In addition, I can take this opportunity to make everyone at Peach Blossom Dock owe me a favor.

Actually, she didn't think too much about it at first. But at this point, there were benefits.

Most of the power in the God-Destroying Tribulation was devoured by her to condense her Holy Body. The remaining portion fused with these rocks.

She could clearly feel that the God Realm above was much stronger than before. This was a pleasant surprise.

In the end, she flipped her wrist and took out something.

The people below watched from afar, unable to see clearly. "What's that in her hand?"

"I don't know... It's too small."

"It looks like a sprout?"

...

Just as everyone was filled with doubts, they saw Chu Liuyue wave her hand gently.

A lush green leaf swayed in the wind. Then, the abundant energy between heaven and earth began to surge!

Whoosh—

Energy surged like a tide!

A ray of sunlight shone down.

In the distance, the barrier of Peach Blossom Dock began to condense again.

"That's... a Heaven-Wrecking Holy Seed!?" someone muttered in disbelief.

Everyone was shocked. That is a rare treasure! Chu Liuyue even has this? How many trump cards does she have?

...

Chu Liuyue's motive for taking out the Heaven-Wrecking Holy Seed was very simple.

After the previous struggles, the void of Peach Blossom Dock had collapsed beyond recognition. Energy surged, and the entire space was almost completely destroyed.

Even though she had successfully passed the God-Destroying Tribulation, everything here still needed to be sorted out and tidied up. The Heaven-Wrecking Holy Seed was naturally suitable for controlling dense natural energy easily.

The results were as expected.

With a thought, the Heaven-Wrecking Holy Seed began to deal with the chaotic power.

The barrier of Peach Blossom Dock quickly condensed. Compared to before, it was slightly different.

A faint, gorgeous light appeared on the barrier. From afar, it looked like countless colorful spots of light were scattered on it, emitting a sparkling light.

It was the remaining power of the God-Destroying Tribulation.

But other than looking different, the biggest difference from before was that this newly condensed barrier had become several times stronger than before!

In fact, the entire Peach Blossom Dock had been reborn after experiencing the God-Destroying Tribulation!

After all the unstable void collapsed, it relied on the God-Destroying Tribulation's power to rebuild and become extremely stable!

Abundant natural energy surged back and forth.

Sensing this huge and subtle change, Chu Liuyue sighed in her heart. Destruction followed by establishment. This is the current Peach Blossom Dock!

"Congratulations, Yue'er." Rong Xiu moved and arrived in front of her.

There was a warm and gentle smile on his handsome face, and there was undisguised doting and pride in his eyes.

This was his Yue'er.

...

From beginning to end, he insisted on not interfering. Although his heart ached, he knew that she would definitely be able to do it.

As expected! From now on, this huge Peach Blossom Dock would completely become her domain!

There was nobody in the world who could be compared to her. She was the brightest pearl. No matter where she was, she could bloom with magnificence!

Chu Liuyue looked up into his deep phoenix eyes and smiled.

With just one look, they understood each other's feelings. She knew that Rong Xiu was proud of her and happy for her.

"You've already thought of this?" she asked with interest.

Rong Xiu smiled with a deep meaning. "God-Destroying Tribulation... I really didn't expect it."

He didn't expect it to come so quickly.

In the beginning, he didn't interfere because he knew that she was dissatisfied with the Black Sword Sect and the Nan family. He wanted her to do it herself and fight to her heart's content to vent her unhappiness. But in the end...

It was indeed unexpected. However, she would always be able to surprise him.

The sky gradually brightened.

...

The flames everywhere had long been extinguished, and abundant natural energy surged out.

The Heaven-Wrecking Holy Seed had extremely vigorous vitality. Under such circumstances, it was extremely useful.

From the corner of her eye, she suddenly saw something below that was reflecting light.

She focused and saw that a lake had appeared between the ruined mountains.

The sun shone down, rippling the lake.

There were rocks piled up by the lake.

Water flowed down and spread into a shallow stream.

Fresh green buds grew from the stream by the lake.

Chu Liuyue widened her eyes slightly. I feel like I've seen this lake before...

Suddenly, a white light flashed across her heart. Isn't this the lake from that small space?

The barrier above was still there. On the outside, it still looked like a lake; lit only split into a stream that stretched across the mountains.

Wherever it passed, there was a lively scene.

A faint medicinal fragrance spread.

Chapter 1917 Yi Family

"Ah, my baby!" When San San saw this, his heart ached.

Xiao Ba rolled her eyes. "Why are you shouting? Isn't it just a portion of the power in that small space surging out? This is a good thing for the entire Peach Blossom Dock and our master. Don't delay it!"

The flesh on San San's face twitched, and he looked aggrieved.

Although Xiao Ba was young, among the Thirteen Yue Guard, only their eldest brother dared to argue with her. Even as the third brother, he was the same.

!!

"...I know... I just feel heartbroken!"

It was obvious that with the nourishment of the power in the small space, the almost completely destroyed Peach Blossom Dock would greatly increase its recovery speed. Moreover, if nothing went wrong, there would be many natural treasures growing along the banks of the stream.

This was a huge fortune! As long as Peach Blossom Dock recovered quickly, it would be extremely good for Master!

"After today, the entire Peach Blossom Dock will belong to Master..." Thirteen muttered softly.

Shock lingered on his face, which still had a hint of youth.

He had always known that his master was powerful, but over the years, he had been following his eldest brother and the others most of the time. There were actually pitifully few times that they followed their master.

Coupled with her low age, he had almost never seen Chu Liuyue attack with his own eyes. And this time, it undoubtedly gave him a huge shock!

Cen Yi's eyebrows relaxed, and a smile appeared in his usually indifferent eyes. Master came over this time with this intention. However, I didn't expect that after these twists and turns, it would be successfully completed in advance. Moreover, she has pacified the entire Peach Blossom Dock!

Master didn't take a fancy to the options given by San San. Now that the last hidden danger of Peach Blossom Dock has been eliminated, Master has directly taken over. There is no better result.

...

At the Nan residence.

In the study, Nan Yifan stood silently.

It was already night, and the moon was high in the sky. The cool moonlight flowed in through the window and lengthened his figure.

He had been in this position from day to night, standing there all day.

The night wind was cold and chilly. However, Nan Yifan didn't notice at all.

He hung his head slightly, his face hidden in the darkness.

Knock, knock.

There was a knock on the door.

"Master, you haven't eaten for a day. Why don't you eat something?" The person who spoke was his trusted aide, an elder of the Nan family. He couldn't hide the worry in his voice.

In fact, for experts of their level, not eating for a day was nothing. The reason why this elder was so worried was that he sensed that Nan Yifan's condition was very wrong.

The last time he did this was the day Nan Yiyi was buried. But at that time, he only stood there for half a day.

And this time... Something had clearly happened that was even more terrifying than Nan Yiyi's death!

The elder standing outside the door was burning with anxiety. Nan Yiyi was the apple of Nan Yifan's eye. What could have hit him harder than her death?

This elder knew that Luo Yan and Nan Yuxing had gone to Peach Blossom Dock. Therefore, he was especially frightened at this moment.

He wanted to ask for an explanation, but he didn't dare.

"You are dismissed." After a while, Nan Yifan finally spoke, his voice low and hoarse.

Outside the door, the elder's lips moved. The uneasiness in his heart intensified, but he didn't dare to say anything.

He could only respond with: "Okay."

Just as he was about to turn around and leave, he heard Nan Yifan say, "Hold on."

Then, he heard the door open.

The elder hurriedly turned around and saw Nan Yifan open the door and walk out.

"Stay here. I'll go to the Yi family."

Chapter 1918 Join Forces

A figure was vaguely reflected behind the eight screens at the base of the rosewood.

"Okay." His voice was low and slightly hoarse, but there was also a hint of laziness.

Yi Wentao nodded and walked out, locking the door himself.

After instructing the servants to guard this place, he turned around and left in relief.

...

Not long after Nan Yifan was led into the living room, Yi Wentao arrived.

"Haha, Brother Nan, what brings you here today?" Yi Wentao walked in with an earnest smile.

Nan Yifan looked up.

The two of them gazed at each other for a moment, silently exchanging blows.

A hint of surprise flashed across Yi Wentao's eyes.

In his impression, Nan Yifan was always high-spirited and proud. But when he saw Nan Yifan this time, the latter was visibly haggard. There were a few traces of white frost on his hair.

What has he... experienced?

Just as Yi Wentao was guessing, Nan Yifan said, "I'm naturally here to discuss something with you, my brother."

With that, he paused for a moment.

Yi Wentao quickly reacted. He then waved his hand and dismissed the servants. "All of you can leave first."

"Master—" His confidant was a little hesitant. Nan Yifan doesn't look good. What if he goes crazy and does something...

"Go." Yi Wentao's voice turned colder. This is the Yi family! Nan Yifan dared to come alone. Do I not even have the guts to talk to him alone? Isn't this making a fool of myself?

Everyone underneath him knew his temper and didn't dare to say anything else. They quickly retreated.

Before they left, they even closed the door carefully.

Nobody dared to eavesdrop here.

Yi Wentao walked over and sat opposite Nan Yifan. His expression had returned to its usual gentle and calm state. "Brother Nan, if you have something to say, just say it."

Nan Yifan stared at him. "I'm here to form an alliance with you."

Chapter 1919 Have You Seen Her Totem?

"I'm here to form an alliance with you," Nan Yifan said word by word.

Every word seemed to carry an indescribably heavy stench and resentment.

Yi Wentao was stunned for a moment before he smiled. "Brother Nan, are you joking?"

One had to know that the Yi family and the Nan family had never been close. At this moment, Nan Yifan suddenly came alone and asked for the alliance... How could Yi Wentao not be surprised?

!!

But Nan Yifan's expression didn't change. "As long as Brother Yi is willing to agree, feel free to state your conditions."

Yi Wentao's smile gradually faded. He stared at Nan Yifan and carefully sized up the latter's expression, thinking to himself.

It's extremely rare for Nan Yifan to say this. At the same time, it can be seen how determined Nan Yifan is this time. Is he really here to rope in the Yi family? However, the Nan family and the Yi family are of equal status. Why did he do this?

After thinking about it, Yi Wentao decided to ask clearly first. "Brother Nan, don't be anxious. If you really have encountered difficulties, my Yi family will definitely not stand by and do nothing. I wonder... What exactly is it that requires Brother Nan to worry so much?"

Nan Yifan paused. "My Nan family wants to fight the Sky-Cloud Empire!"

Yi Wentao's expression finally changed. "The Sky-Cloud Empire? You want to go against His Grace?"

Nan Yifan nodded. "That's right!"

"Brother Nan, I'm afraid I can't agree to this." Yi Wentao frowned. Is Nan Yifan crazy?! Why does he want to start a war with Rong Xiu?

Nan Yifan wasn't surprised by Yi Wentao's response. In fact, he wouldn't have expected to make such a decision a day ago, but things changed.

At this point, he had nowhere to go.

The moment Yuxing's jade pendant shattered, he knew that it was impossible for him to endure any longer! He couldn't completely blame them for Yiyi's death, but Yuxing... All his years of hard work had been in vain!

“I’ve already said that I’ll agree to any of Brother Yi’s conditions,” Nan Yifan repeated, his tone much heavier.

Yi Wentao frowned even more. Nan Yifan knows how dangerous it is to go against Rong Xiu. Why does he still have to do this? He is even... willing to pay a huge price for it!

Yi Wentao shook his head. “Brother Nan, you know very well that this matter isn’t that simple.”

In the end, he didn’t want to offend Rong Xiu for the Nan family.

“Brother Nan, you know how difficult it is to deal with that person. If you choose to oppose the Sky-Cloud Empire, there won’t be a good outcome. Brother Nan, why do you have to do this? If there’s a misunderstanding between you and the Sky-Cloud Empire, I can step forward and make peace. Perhaps—”

Since Nan Yifan has personally come looking for me, Rong Xiu will definitely know about this. Then, no matter what I say, it is impossible for me to walk out of this quagmire cleanly. Rather than being secretive and arousing suspicion for no reason, it is better to be honest with him. This way, I can also give the Nan family a favor.

In Yi Wentao’s opinion, this was the best choice.

But Nan Yifan interrupted him. “There’s no possibility of reconciliation between the Sky-Cloud Empire and me.”

Yi Wentao looked at him suspiciously. “Brother Nan, you mean—”

Nan Yifan took a deep breath and looked straight at Yi Wentao. “Yiyi and Yuxing both died at their hands.”

Yi Wentao was shocked at first, but he immediately understood. No wonder! Nan Yifan’s children are his lifeblood, especially Nan Yuxing, who was basically confirmed to be the next head of the Nan family.

Because these two people were very outstanding, as the family head, Nan Yifan has always been smug. Now that the two of them are dead... Not to mention that Nan Yifan has no descendants, the position of family head will probably be unstable in the future!

Even Yi Wentao knew that there were many people in the Nan family who secretly coveted the position of family head.

Nan Yifan is taking revenge for his children and also protecting his position as family head! These two things are what he values the most. No wonder he is here today...

In fact, what Yi Wentao didn’t know was that there was another very important reason why Nan Yifan chose to do this.

Even if I don’t do this, Rong Xiu won’t let me off! With Rong Xiu’s intelligence and methods... Since he has already killed Nan Yuxing, he will definitely find out that I had secretly instructed him to do those things. How could he let this go?

After the matter at Peach Blossom Dock is over, he will definitely take action! At that time, the others and I will be moved!

Instead of sitting and waiting for death, it is better to leave first! There might even be a chance of survival!

Nan Yifan really had no choice.

Wasn't he filled with reverence for Rong Xiu? If not for the fact that there was no way out, he wouldn't have burned his bridges!

After knowing that Nan Yuxing had died, he stood in the study for a day. He seemed to have done nothing, but he had actually thought a lot.

He regretted it. Even he didn't know how he had tacitly allowed Nan Yuxing and the others to go to Peach Blossom Dock quietly.

It was as if she had made that decision!

Perhaps... he still felt guilty toward Nan Yiyi and hated Rong Xiu and Chu Liuyue.

He thought that since they didn't bring anyone with them to a place like Peach Blossom Dock, it was really the best time to attack!

What if he succeeded?

It was this 'what if' and those unfair thoughts which made Nan Yifan make this decision that he would regret for the rest of his life!

At this point, it was useless to regret. He could only counterattack!

Yi Wentao didn't know this. But in his opinion, the reasons Nan Yifan gave were enough to support him in making such a choice.

He was silent for a long moment, still unwilling to agree. "Brother Nan, others might not know, but you know very well. That person is really not easy to deal with..."

Nan Yifan might really only have this choice, but what did this have to do with the Yi family? Not only would he not gain anything from getting involved in this matter for no reason, but he would also only cause trouble!

Yi Wentao never did business at a loss.

Seeing his troubled expression, Nan Yifan sneered in his heart but didn't show it on his face. He then said suddenly, "Brother Yi, do you know that Rong Xiu and Shangguan Yue went to the God-Killing Tumulus back then and took something from the black wall?"

Yi Wentao suddenly looked up! "Oh?"

He restrained his expression, but Nan Yifan was also sharp-eyed. How could he not see the ripples in Yi Wentao's eyes?

“As for what it is... I think Brother Yi should know without me saying, right?” Nan Yifan suddenly laughed.

“His Grace’s consort isn’t a simple person either. The Heavenly Square Cauldron and a Heaven-Wrecking Holy Seed... are in her hands. In addition, there’s a black shield of unknown origin in her hand. Although it looks ordinary, it’s not inferior to any supreme Yuan instrument!”

When Nan Yifan said this, he didn’t notice that Yi Wentao quickly frowned when he heard ‘black shield.’

“...It’s strange. I heard that this Shangguan Yue is from outside the God Residence Realm, but she seems to have very pure bloodline power... Brother Nan, have you seen her totem?”

...

Chapter 1920 Choice

Nan Yifan shook his head. “No.”

There were many rumors about Chu Liuyue in the God Residence Realm, especially after her wedding with Rong Xiu. The related rumors caused an uproar.

In the beginning, everyone thought that she came from a lowly background. However, a series of events later let everyone know that she actually had several backers!

Although Nan Yifan had seen Chu Liuyue before, he had never seen her totem.

!!

“Brother Yi, why are you suddenly asking this?” Nan Yifan felt a little strange.

Yi Wentao smiled and lowered his eyes. “Nothing much. I just suddenly thought of this and felt a little curious... I heard that when she tested her bloodline power at the Sky-Cloud Empire, the result was actually the same as His Grace... If she was really from outside the ordinary God Residence Realm, how could she have bloodline power?”

It had to be known that only when one’s ancestor had broken through the shackles and reached that peak level would his descendants possess bloodline power. It was impossible for people outside the God Residence Realm to do this.

“Didn’t they say that Shangguan Jing was her ancestor?” As Nan Yifan spoke, he suddenly stopped. Something is indeed wrong. Although Shangguan Jing is a legendary warrior and had once been in the limelight, he seemed to have established the Tianling Dynasty when he came to the God Residence Realm. Moreover, he encountered trouble in the God Residence Realm later on.

His soul flew away, and he slept for a thousand years. It was only when Chu Liuyue came here that he came back to life.

No matter how I think about it, the bloodline power in Chu Liuyue’s body doesn’t seem to have been inherited from him...

Nan Yifan frowned and glanced at Yi Wentao. “What, Brother Yi seems to be quite interested in this Shangguan Yue?”

Yi Wentao smiled. "I'm just a little curious. Since Brother Nan doesn't know either, then... there's nothing else to ask."

He was always stubborn, causing Nan Yifan to gradually lose his patience. "Brother Yi, put these things aside for the time being. I'll only ask you one last time: Do you agree to my previous suggestion?"

Yi Wentao fell into deep thought.

There was silence in the room.

Time slowly trickled past.

Every minute and second was torture for Nan Yifan, but he could only wait.

After a while, Yi Wentao finally nodded. "I agree. However, I have one condition."

...

Nan Yifan and Yi Wentao talked for a long time in the room. About an hour later, the door opened again.

Nan Yifan cupped his hands and bade farewell. "Brother Yi, please wait. I'll return soon."

Yi Wentao knew that it would be uncomfortable for him to stay here, so he didn't ask Nan Yifan to stay and only nodded. "Brother Nan, be careful."

Nan Yifan responded and turned to leave, his figure quickly disappearing into the distance.

Yi Wentao only looked away when his figure disappeared.

A footstep sounded.

Yi Wentao's expression returned to normal, and he looked up calmly.

It was his second brother, Yi Wenzhuo.

"Big Brother, that person just now... was Nan Yifan?" In front of Yi Wentao, Yi Wenzhuo's attitude was much more restrained.

On the surface, Yi Wenzhuo looked older than Yi Wentao, but in fact, Yi Wentao was ten years older than him. It was just that Yi Wentao was extremely talented, and his cultivation was very smooth, so he looked even younger.

He nodded.

"What's he doing here?" Yi Wenzhuo frowned.

The Nan family rarely interacted with them. As the family head, it was difficult not to think too much about it when Nan Yifan suddenly came personally.

Yi Wentao smiled faintly. "He came here for a reason."

Yi Wenzhuo felt a little uncomfortable. Big Brother clearly doesn't want to say anything.

This is nothing much to begin with. After all, the two of them have extraordinary identities. What they are discussing together must be important and can't be easily revealed. But... I am Big Brother's biological brother. Do I not have the right to know?

The reason Yi Wenzhuo was so concerned about this was that this wasn't the first time such a situation had happened.

The head of the Yi family was Yi Wentao; almost all major matters were decided by him. Here, he had absolute authority!

Yi Wenzhuo had never coveted the position of family head, but over the years, his big brother would often not tell him anything. Many times, even though many elders knew, he still knew nothing.

Yi Wenzhuo kept feeling that he had been marginalized in the Yi family. How could there be no resentment and dissatisfaction after a long time?

But other than that, his big brother treated him well in other aspects. This made Yi Wenzhuo's thoughts very conflicted.

And this time, it was still the same.

He swallowed his anger and changed the topic. "I'm here to tell Big Brother something good: Jiuqing has broken through!"

"So quickly?" Yi Wentao raised his eyebrows in surprise. Just now, I had instructed him to cultivate well. It has only been two hours, but he has actually broken through...

"As expected of someone you personally taught," Yi Wentao praised in satisfaction.

These words finally improved Yi Wenzhuo's mood.

"Not at all. After he returned, he has been cultivating at Big Brother's place. With Big Brother's guidance, this child naturally broke through quickly." As he spoke, he paused slightly. "Big Brother, no matter what, half of our Yi family's blood flows in Jiuqing's body. Regarding the position of young master..."

This was what he had been thinking about from the beginning!

Yi Wentao had no children. In the future, he would definitely choose an heir from this younger generation, and Jun Jiuqing was the most suitable one!

Yi Wentao put his hands behind his back and didn't prevaricate like before. Instead, he thought about it seriously for a long time. "You're right. It's indeed time to choose a young master... Inform everyone to hold the family meeting tomorrow."

"Tomorrow?" Yi Wenzhuo was a little surprised, but joy surged and washed away these emotions.

He nodded immediately, unable to hide the excitement in his eyes. "Okay! I'll go now!"

...

Peach Blossom Dock, Yue Manor.

Chu Liuyue put down the teacup in her hand and looked at Rong Xiu in surprise. "Two major families?"

...
