

The Doctor 1941

Chapter 1941 Whoever Wants It, Come and Snatch It!

He was so agitated and furious that he vomited blood!

There was silence.

The Nan family looked incredulous.

Even the way the Yi family looked at Nan Yifan changed. Could it be that what Chu Liuyue said is true? Did Nan Yifan really do those things? If that is the case, then... Nan Yifan's reputation will be ruined from now on!

Not only would he be unable to keep his position as family head, but he would even become a rat on the streets and be hated by everyone! Who would dare to work with someone who could do such a thing to their biological child? Who would be nice to him?

Finally, someone from the Nan family stood up and asked, "Master, don't you have anything to say?"

Everyone's eyes were burning as they landed on Nan Yifan. They needed an explanation!

Nan Yifan was filled with hatred.

When he previously found out that Luo Yan and the others were trapped, although he was a little uneasy, he wasn't really worried that they would choose to betray him!

These people had followed him for many years and were the people he trusted the most! Besides, most of the time, he had been immersed in grief and resentment. He had been tense and focused on revenge, and he didn't have the extra energy and spirit to care about anything else.

Unexpectedly, Luo Yan had actually chosen to betray him! He had revealed everything in front of so many people!

There seemed to be a ball of fire burning in Nan Yifan's chest, burning until his eyes were dyed red!

He slowly wiped the blood from his lips and glanced back.

His cold and fierce gaze was like a sharp blade as it swept across the people from the Nan family, especially the person who spoke.

The man's heart skipped a beat, and he subconsciously took half a step back. Nan Yifan's gaze... is too scary.

"You're all important people in the Nan family. Do you still need me to teach you who to trust?!" Nan Yifan clenched his fists tightly. Every word seemed to be squeezed out from between his teeth.

He suddenly raised his hand and pointed at Luo Yan and the others. "These people have been locked up in Peach Blossom Dock for several days! Who knows what happened during this period of time?! Instead of believing me, you want to believe them?"

The series of rhetorical questions made the Nan family waver again.

Although what Luo Yan said seems to be true, Nan Yifan's words aren't unreasonable... Who knows if someone has done something behind the scenes?

Nan Yuxing was already dead.

Nan Yiyi was also dead.

There were various opinions as to what the truth was, and it was impossible to investigate thoroughly. They were also filled with hesitation as to who to trust.

Chu Liuyue raised her brows. Of course, Nan Yifan wouldn't admit it. Once these things are confirmed, he will be completely ruined! Therefore, no matter the method used, he will choose to quibble and pin the blame on others.

Nan Yifan continued, "If you still recognize yourselves as members of the Nan family—come with me today!"

Swoosh!

A silver spear suddenly appeared in his hand!

The spearhead was extremely sharp, and the patterns on the spear intertwined with each other!

"I want to see how long you can defend yourselves!" Before Nan Yifan could finish his sentence, his feet moved as he headed straight for her.

At his feet, silver-blue lightning swam and crackled!

He was a legendary warrior and was already powerful. Now that he used his movement technique, he was naturally faster!

In the blink of an eye, he was already in front of the barrier!

"Soul-Devouring Silver Dragon Spear!" Nan Yifan's aura surged as a powerful pressure suddenly descended.

Chu! Chu! Chu!

A large number of barbs suddenly spread out on the silver spear! From afar, they looked like scales!

On the 'scales' was a purple-red light that was cold and strange—they were clearly tempered with poison!

In an instant, the spear arrived!

Everyone's hearts tightened. They didn't expect Nan Yifan to suddenly attack!

Just as they were thinking about whether Chu Liuyue could withstand this attack, they were shocked to discover that the latter didn't move at all! She stood there, shoulders straight as a pine.

The breeze blew, swirling the folds of her skirt.

Her long hair fluttered as she raised her head slightly and stood there quietly, her expression calm and composed. It was as if... she didn't take Nan Yifan's attack seriously at all!

Not only them, but Nan Yifan also frowned at her reaction.

It's too strange! The distance between the two of us wasn't far, and I'm already close to the barrier! Was she scared silly? Nan Yifan thought to himself.

But when he met her eyes, he realized that he was wrong.

Those bright eyes were like a deep and calm pool of water, as if nothing would cause any waves.

In fact, her lips were slightly curled up as if she was smiling.

Smiling? What is she smiling at?! Nan Yifan couldn't understand. There seemed to be countless secrets hidden in her that he couldn't figure out no matter what.

She didn't seem surprised to see me attack. In fact... she even seems to be watching a joke?

Right, it is that feeling! Nan Yifan was instantly furious. Isn't she waiting to see me make a fool of myself? But what right does she have to do that? I know that her strength far exceeds that of true gods, but she is still a true god after all! I have broken through to become a legendary warrior for several years. Could it be that even I can't take her down?

Back at the God-Killing Tumulus, he was afraid of Rong Xiu, but he now had nothing to be afraid of! Therefore, he didn't hesitate in this attack!

But at this moment, a powerful and flexible force suddenly stopped Nan Yifan!

Nan Yifan was stunned. Only then did he realize that what stopped him was none other than the barrier of Peach Blossom Dock!

The fragile and chaotic barrier—which could be entered and left at will in the past—seemed to have become an iron wall at this moment! It couldn't be entered at all!

Nan Yifan's fatal strike stabbed out fiercely, but it was silently blocked by this barrier.

The two sides began to fight silently and intensely!

...

Because of the energy fluctuation, ripples seemed to spread across the barrier.

Under the sunlight, the barrier flickered with small, dazzling lights—bright and colorful.

Nan Yifan was stunned! My Soul-Devouring Silver Dragon Spear is a supreme treasure; it's almost indestructible! But now, it was easily stopped by this barrier?

"Everyone, if you want my life, you need to have the ability to break into my Peach Blossom Dock first." Chu Liuyue spoke slowly with a smile on her face, but her eyes were cold and valiant.

Her eyes slowly but firmly swept over the crowd. "I know that there are many people in the God Residence Realm who covet Peach Blossom Dock. Therefore, I'll be honest today. Peach Blossom Dock is here. If anyone wants to snatch it, just come! As long as anyone can split half an inch of the Peach Blossom Dock territory from me, I'll acknowledge their ability!"
