

The Enticing CEO's Chosen Bride Novel

Chapter 24

Chloe's eyes wobbled a bit, she turned her head, looking at Alyssa Harper with a bit of surprise. Suddenly, it was like a light bulb had gone off in her head. Smart kid, just a little nudge and she got it "Easy to say, but it's a tough road, darling. But once you've made up your mind, it's just a matter of time." Alyssa said.

Chloe nodded thoughtfully.

The two chatted a bit more, Alyssa started to look a bit drowsy

Seeing this, Chloe wanted to leave, but Alyssa wasn't letting her go

"Chloe don't go, have dinner with grandma before you leave." Alyssa said.

"Um Chloe hesitated

"Chloe, could you really say no to my invitation? Alyssa insisted

Chloe was kind of stuck Looking into the old lady's eyes full of anticipation, how could she say no?

"But grandma, you're tired Chloe said.

Alyssa just smiled, "You look tired too, why don't you take a nap?"

"That's not really appropriate." Chloe said.

Before Chloe could finish, Alyssa turned to the maid next to her,

"Hannah, take Ms Summers to the room at the far right upstairs for a rest."

Chloe and Hannah were both speechless.

The room at the far right, wasn't that the Damon's room?

This was too rushed, wasn't it? This was practically sending Chloe straight to the his bed!

No, she got it wrong'

Alyssa was really sending her to Damon's bed!

But he never allowed anyone into his personal space, let alone his bedroom.

Wasn't she afraid that when the young master came back, he would drag her out of bed and throw her out the window?

This was too awkward, wasn't it?

"Alyssa

Just as Hannah wanted to remind the old lady, she was silenced by a glance

"What I mean is, does Miss Chloe want to take a bath before going to sleep? If you do, I'll have someone prepare the bath water now." Hannah said.

If she was going to sleep in the young master's bed, she had to wash up first, right!

Hearing this, Alyssa's eyes lit up, and she looked at Hannah with approval,

"Right! A bath before bed is the way to go. Have someone prepare for it."

Chloe felt utterly helpless, yet faced with Mrs. Harper's warm hospitality, she could hardly refuse.

And she did really love a good soak

Chloe was led to the room Alyssa had instructed

The servants had just finished preparing the bath water; they exited the room with Hannah and gently closed the door

Chloe eyes swept around the unfamiliar room.

The decor was all black and white

In the centre of the room was a large double bed, the home items on the bed were grey and white, and the tone was muted. A black pure wool rug lay beneath the bed. The room was spotless, with bright light scattering in the room, simple yet luxurious

She walked to the bathroom door, left her slippers at the entrance, and walked barefoot into the bathroom.

Already accustomed to the high—end luxury of this house, when she saw the spacious pure white bathtub, it didn't feel special anymore

As her naked body completely submerged in the hot water, the depression and fatigue in her heart disappeared instantly

The water flowed like soft silk, then warmly enveloped her whole body, and the cold blood in her body seemed to be slowly warming up. She sighed lightly in comfort, leaning against the edge of the bath, and gently closed her eyes
