

The Eternal 1091

Chapter 1091-white rice

“What a joke! Do you think you’re still in the ten directions divine realm if you want to catch me with your projection?”

Yunxiao spat disdainfully, then raised the cold sword of frost high with both hands and slashed down.

His elemental energy was almost completely depleted, but the ice sword was extremely sharp and his spiritual energy was full. With a slash, it turned into a sword ray that soared into the sky.

“Swish!”

The sword Qi pierced through the hand, but it didn’t stop. It still grabbed down from the sky. In addition, the wound healed itself in an instant.

“Damn it!”

Yunxiao’s eyes gleamed coldly as the giant hand reached out. He clenched his sword and formed a sword stance with his hand.

“Pa!”

Guang Yuan clenched his fist and caught Yunxiao.

“Bang!”

A hole appeared on the back of the hand as Yunxiao thrust his sword out and rushed out, jumping into the sky with loud bangs.

“Eh? That sword is indeed a little troublesome.”

Guang Yuan frowned, and directly opened his mouth to spit. It was actually a flying axe, and with a “huchi huchi” sound, it slashed towards the sky.

With a sneer, Yunxiao held the sword with both hands and hacked at the flying axe while shouting, “I’ve said it before, if you want to catch me, come with your main body!”

“Bang!”

The cold sword and frost hit the flying axe, directly shaking it away.

Guang Yuan’s big hand made a grabbing gesture in the air, and the axe instantly turned as big as a Boulder. With a loud crack, it was caught in his hand, and he continued to swing it at Yunxiao.

The sky split open as the axe came down.

An extremely deep crack was torn toward Yunxiao.

Yunxiao’s heart sank. The power of the projection was extremely strong, and the axe had triggered the laws of heaven and earth to suppress him, leaving him no way to escape.

He waved his hand and a small red umbrella appeared. He opened it in the air.

In an instant, it emitted a seven-colored light, forming a defensive barrier.

It was the yuan yang umbrella he had obtained in Long Valley City. He had refined it several times, and its ability had improved a lot.

“BOOM!”

The giant axe struck the umbrella, shattering several barriers and causing the entire umbrella to shake.

Guang Yuan's expression changed. He muttered to himself, "no wonder this year's dazzling treasure meet was so full. It even exceeded the quota by so much. It seems that your contribution is not small.

He raised his giant axe again and hacked down. He sneered, "Let's see how many axes you can block."

"BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!"

After more than a dozen strikes, the sky cracked and the barriers on the Yuanyang umbrella were all broken. When the axe hit the umbrella, Yunxiao's hand went numb, and he could clearly feel that the umbrella was about to fall apart again.

"Dammit! I'm going to kill you!"

Yunxiao was furious. He put away the umbrella, raised the sword of frost, and slashed down.

"Hmph!"

Guang Yuan's projection sneered as he opened his mouth and spat out another beam of light. This time, it was an extremely sharp saber that slashed at Yunxiao.

"Bang!"

With a wave of his sword, Yunxiao knocked the saber away and continued to rush down.

A strange expression appeared on Guang Yuan's face. Suddenly, a cold glint burst out from his eyes, and he roared towards the sky. A Dragon's Roar actually shook the sky.

“This is a Kasaya.”

Yunxiao’s heart trembled, and to his horror, he found that Guang Yuan’s head had become as big as a small mountain, and was about to bite him with his mouth wide open. He felt the world go dark, and he had just swallowed it!

“Your sister, you actually want to eat me! Are you crazy?”

Yunxiao was taken aback. He hurriedly circulated the last bit of his energy and turned into a bolt of lightning, trying to escape.

But, Guang Yuan’s mouth closed even faster, and Yunxiao watched in horror as the two rows of teeth closed together.

At that moment, the two rows of teeth seemed to be hindered by some force and suddenly stopped, giving Yunxiao a moment to escape with the Thunder escape technique.

“Bang!”

As soon as he escaped, the two rows of teeth closed.

Yunxiao fled a thousand meters away in an instant. When he looked back, he saw a huge Green Dragon head, its eyes burning with anger as it stared at somewhere in the void.

After a while, the Dragon slowly turned its eyes to look at Yunxiao in the distance, snorted heavily, and said, “Since you want to save him, I’ll let him go for now. But don’t forget your goal and the agreement we made!”

The dragon’s head gradually became fainter and eventually turned into countless specks of light, dissipating in the air.

As soon as Nine Heavens saw Guangyuan leave, his face changed slightly. He gave Yunxiao a complicated look in the distance, then clenched his fists so hard that his bony fingers cracked.

Coldfeather by the side also recovered from his previous daze. It was just that his face was still completely devoid of blood.

“Let’s go,” he said.

let’s go,” Nine Heavens said, and the two of them turned into two rays of light and flew away.

Yunxiao breathed a sigh of relief and said to somewhere in the sky, “Thank you, second island master, for saving me.”

The space in the sky distorted and the figure of the guest appeared. He smiled bitterly and said, “You really know how to stir up trouble. Even the three island Masters have come to kill you. Now I’m also involved.”

...

that’s what I’m curious about,” Yunxiao said. why would you save me even if you had to offend the first island master?”

The guest glared at him and snorted, “what do you think?” Don’t forget, I still want to find the person who placed the restriction on me through you. How can I let you die so easily?”

that’s one of the reasons,” Yunxiao said with a nod. I guess so. However, he didn’t believe it in his heart. With the strength of the guests and ministers, there should be some clues to investigate. There was no need to take the risk of offending the first island master.

you should be careful,” the guest said. fortunately, the first island master is only a projection. If he came in person, even I can’t save you.

Yunxiao naturally knew this, and he knew the gap between high-level martial sovereigns better than anyone else.

In the realm of martial arts, perhaps it was the difference between a star and a world, but after reaching the high-level martial Supreme realm, a small level could be a world of difference.

For example, coldfeather and nine Heavens were both beginner eight-stars martial sovereigns, but they couldn't even withstand a single blow in front of the peak Eight-stars darknorth kangtian.

And nine stars realm was a powerful existence that could see the end of the martial Dao, and could easily kill an existence like beiming kangtian.

When Yunxiao saw that the guests were about to leave, he quickly said, "What is the identity of the first island master?"

The guest stopped in his tracks and turned around with a smile. "You already have a guess, right? That's right, it's just as you guessed." He laughed out loud and disappeared.

"F * ck, I'm guessing he's your dad!"

...

Yunxiao cursed in dissatisfaction, but he soon fell into deep thought.

Previously, the true form that Guang Yuan had transformed into was definitely the totem Azure Dragon of the eastern sea's Royal clan, so this first island Lord must be from the eastern sea's Royal clan.

Such a powerful royal family of the eastern sea had established their own force outside. It was quite a suspicious thing.

Yunxiao shook his head in distress. Not to mention Guang Yuan's identity, the biggest headache now was his strength. Perhaps even if all the people on the island joined forces, they might not be his match.

but there's definitely something wrong with this person. Every time he appears, he's a projection. I wonder where his real body is.

From afar, Liao Yang Bing and Jing Yong ye also flew over, looking around in horror, afraid that there were more enemies.

"They've all left," Yunxiao said.

The two of them heaved a sigh of relief. Liao yangbing said in a deep voice, "Young master Yun, what should we do now? If you directly offend the three island Masters, then are you still going to attend the last few auctions of the dazzling treasure meet?"

"Yes, of course I'm going!"

this first island master's strength is beyond my expectations," Yunxiao said with a wry smile. I'm afraid we're in big trouble. Our only hope now is Poseidon's daughter, water fairy. It's safest to stay by her side."

Liao yangbing and Yunxiao nodded. They both knew that the water fairy needed Yunxiao's help, and that was her greatest protective talisman.

The three of them weren't in a hurry. They first found a place nearby to recover. When the time was up, they turned into rays of light and headed towards the venue of the dazzling treasure meet.

Four hours passed quickly, and everyone gathered from all directions and entered the arena one by one.

However, the field seemed to be very empty, and the number of people who came was less than half of the previous number.

Many of them had their eyes on the others, and one side was killed in the fight, just like the thirty-odd sea tribe experts killed by Yunxiao. This was the main reason for the reduction in members. There were also some who found treasures and hid them somewhere, leaving only after the waters around the Xian Kong Island returned to normal.

RUO Xiang gave Yunxiao a look and said sarcastically, "I didn't expect you to come back alive. Tsk, tsk."

Yunxiao smiled indifferently as he pointed into the distance and said, "That person seems to have experienced a lot of things and has become absent-minded."

RUO Xiang looked in the direction Yunxiao was pointing and saw that it was beiming Laifeng. His face was pale, and there was a look of horror in his eyes. Clearly, he had been stimulated after resting for four hours.

Even darknorth kangtian's face was gloomy and he seemed to be sulking.

Furthermore, if one were to look carefully, they would discover that the number of human cultivators following their beiming family had decreased by more than half.

Zhao wenzhan looked at the number of people present and smiled. It seemed that everything was within his expectations. He smiled and said, "welcome back to the venue of the dazzling treasure meet. To be able to participate in the auction of the last three items, you are the biggest winners of this time!"

A clam girl walked up to the stage with a tray in her hands and stood beside Zhao wenzhan with a smile. Her curvaceous figure and charming smile were treasures in and of themselves.

Zhao wenzhan personally opened the red cover on the tray. There was a white porcelain bowl inside.

Upon closer inspection, it was no different from ordinary human porcelain bowls, except that the workmanship was very exquisite. The porcelain bowl was white in color and had no patterns.

Everyone looked on in silence. No one made a sound. Everyone knew that it was definitely not an ordinary bowl. Otherwise, Zhao wenzhan would have been drowned in spit on the spot.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, trembled and almost stood up from his seat. He seemed to recognize the bowl, and his eyes flickered with surprise and disbelief.

Zhao Wen Zhan held the bowl in his hand and revealed an expression of extreme admiration. This white porcelain bowl is called plain white rice. It was made by a great Alchemist of the human race hundreds of years ago.

“As expected!”

Yunxiao could not hide the shock on his face, as if he could not believe that the White rice would be put up for auction.

Chapter 1092-exchange

Zhao Wenzhan explained from the stage, “not only can this bowl be used for eating, but it is also an extremely powerful array tool. It also has two main functions: One, it can take away the profound level weapons and treasures from the other party. The second, it can form a defensive formation that even a high-level martial sovereign would find hard to break through.”

“Damn, if it’s not an offensive weapon, what’s the use of it? Don’t tell me you’re going to take this bowl all day to snatch other people’s treasures?”

haha, didn’t Mr. Wen Zhan say that this bowl can also be used for eating? haha!

Many members of the sea tribe expressed their dissatisfaction, as if they were extremely disappointed with this profound level weapon. After all, everyone was very excited about the final three treasures.

The sea race’s way of thinking was somewhat different from humans. In their eyes, offensive profound level weapons were the best, followed by defensive profound level weapons. As for this kind of array weapon, they were not even in their eyes.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, swallowed hard. Only he knew how powerful the White rice was. This legendary Mystic artifact could directly sense the treasures of heaven and earth and Mystic artifacts full of spirit energy, and then absorb them from a distance. This was simply an unimaginable heaven-defying divine skill!

In his previous life, he had also looked up some information on this array tool to understand it. It seemed to have a great relationship with its material, making it difficult to refine a second one.

Zhao wenzhan ignored everyone's dissatisfaction and ridicule and said, "this treasure belongs to my Xian Kong Island, and it is one of the highest quality treasures. You all only need to take out an item of equivalent value to me to exchange for it.

"Mr. Wen Zhan, you should keep this bowl for yourself!" A member of the sea tribe couldn't help but mock.

"Whoever wants to exchange, hurry up and Exchange. Show me the next treasure!" The other one was also dissatisfied.

There were also people who knew what was good in the sea tribe. A fat sea tribe member flew up to the stage, took out a big red stone, and put it on the stage.

With a "Hong" sound, more than half of the stone directly caved in.

"This Dragonblood stone in exchange for plain white rice, what do you think, Mister Wen Zhan?" the chubby marine race member asked.

"What? That's a Dragonblood stone?"

The crowd below immediately burst into an uproar, and everyone stood up in horror.

Such a large piece of Dragon's Bloodstone was probably all the blood of a dead Dragon.

RUO Xiang's face darkened, and his eyes were cold, looking extremely uncomfortable.

Yunxiao glanced at the Dragon's Bloodstone and shook his head. Then, he looked at Runxiang and said teasingly, "The purity of the Dragon Bloodstone's blood isn't even as high as your blood. If brother RUO Xiang is willing to let out some blood, you'll be rich."

"Hmph!"

RUO Xiang snorted coldly, his face ashen, and he did not say anything else.

However, dragon's blood was extremely precious to the sea Race. It was almost equivalent to an extremely powerful heavenly treasure that could increase one's strength.

Back then, on the coast of the East Sea, RUO Xiang's blood had crystallized and fallen into the sea. Countless marine creatures fought over it for food, and they all underwent a series of mutations, becoming extremely fierce existences.

Such a large piece of Dragon Bloodstone made everyone drool with envy.

"Is that really a Dragonblood stone? How could there be such a stupid person who would exchange such a precious treasure for such trash?"

"Are you willing to sell the Dragonblood stone? I have a ninth tier profound armament in my hands, I am willing to exchange for it!"

I have a ninth tier intermediate level profound armament here, I'm willing to exchange!

The crowd below the stage began to clamor, all of them rushing towards the Dragon Bloodstone.

Zhao Wenzhan placed his hands behind his back and shouted, "Everyone, be quiet."

He said to the chubby member of the sea tribe, "This dragon's blood Stone is indeed extremely valuable. Not only is it heavy, but it also contains the essence of an Earth Dragon. But it's a pity that it's just an Earth Dragon."

He shook his head, expressing his regret over the quality of the blood.

The rotund sea tribe member's face sank and he said with an ashen face, "Even if it's an Earth Dragon, it's still an extremely rare item. Is it not enough to exchange for this white rice?"

Zhao wenzhan lightly shook his head and spat out three words, "It's not enough,"

The rotund faces of the members of the sea tribe became extremely unsightly, and the audience below the stage was also in an uproar, as if they couldn't believe it.

"Mr. Wen Zhan, what do you want to exchange your white rice for? I'll exchange with you!"

Many people were clamoring, hoping to exchange for the Dragonblood stone through the White rice.

There were also some people who muttered, "Don't tell me they're working together to trick us into exchanging for the White rice? Once that broken bowl is in my hands, I won't even exchange the Dragon Bloodstone in that round ball's hands."

Some other members of the sea tribe had a look of realization on their faces. They nodded and said, "It must be so, it must be so!"

Yunxiao shook his head. Zhao wenzhan was also a ninth-tier Alchemist like him, so he naturally understood the value of this white rice. It was likely that this item would not be sold. Perhaps the other party did not want to sell it at all, but just put it on display.

He pondered for a while and felt a little unwilling. He immediately turned into a ray of light and flew up the stage.

Zhao wenzhan looked at him with a smile and said, 'young master Yunxiao is also going to make a move? Wen Zhan is looking forward to it. I wonder what kind of treasure young master will take out.'

Yunxiao had many things more precious than the White rice, but each of them was a Supreme treasure with irreplaceable effects.

He took out a Jade scroll and threw it over, saying, " I'm using this technique to exchange for plain white rice. I wonder if Mr. Wen Zhan thinks it's worth it.

"Oh?"

Zhao wenzhan took the Jade slip and his face revealed extreme curiosity. He smiled and said, " Looking at young master Yunxiao's confident face, Wen Zhan is really curious. Although there are many cultivation techniques in the world, the ones that can be exchanged for plain white rice are really limited."

let's talk after you have a look, " Yunxiao said indifferently.

Zhao wenzhan nodded and placed the Jade slip on his forehead.

"Ah? "Ah!" Ah!"

Zhao wenzhan had only swept it with his spiritual sense, but he had already spat out three " ah " words. Each one was more shocked than the last, as if he could not believe it!

Darknorth kangtian's eyes suddenly burst with a bright light and burst out with boundless anger. He seemed to have guessed what Yunxiao had given him, and his face was so dark that it was almost dripping with water!

Everyone in the field revealed a curious expression. It was very difficult for them to imagine what kind of thing could be more precious than a ninth tier profound armament, more precious than that large piece of dragon's blood Stone.

Zhao wenzhan's hand, which was holding the Jade slip, was trembling. Cold sweat broke out on his forehead. He said with a trembling voice, " "This, this, this thing is real?"

His reaction was completely within Yunxiao's expectations. "With Mr. Wen Zhan's appraisal ability, can't you tell whether it's real or fake? I've placed restrictions on the key points of each style, but it doesn't hinder Mister Wen Zhan's appraisal."

"Gulp!"

...

The sound of Zhao wenzhan swallowing could be clearly heard. Everyone in the arena wanted to fly up and see what it was.

As the saying went, curiosity killed the cat. The more Zhao wenzhan's expression fluctuated, the more they felt an unbearable itch in their hearts. They all became restless, wanting to know the situation.

What Yunxiao had given him was indeed the tyrant body tempering technique. In any case, it was an incomplete technique, and he had already embarked on the path to open the heavenly gate, so he had no use for it. In addition, the beiming family had already given it to him. He didn't mind giving it to a few more people. Moreover, it was worth it to exchange it for a top-grade array tool like white rice.

Now, the most difficult thing was to summon Wen Zhan. Just as Yunxiao had guessed, he had shown the White rice to show off the collection of xiankong Island, and had no intention of exchanging it.

But now, Yingluo

With a bitter smile, he held the Jade slip and said, "Young master Yunxiao, this matter has already exceeded my control. I must ask the first island master's opinion."

it's alright! Yunxiao smiled. it's fine!

Zhao wenzhan immediately transmitted his voice to Guang Yuan. His lips moved slightly, but no one knew what he was saying. In order to prevent people from eavesdropping, not only was there a restriction on the voice transmission, but it was also in a secret language.

This made everyone's hearts itch even more, almost wanting to dig out their hearts to scratch the itch.

Zhao wenzhan then appeared to be listening carefully. His expression changed several times before he finally nodded gently.

He came back to his senses and said to Yunxiao, "The first island master said we can exchange."

...

"Huala"

Below them, a huge commotion broke out. What kind of cultivation technique had been used to exchange for something that such a large piece of Dragon Bloodstone couldn't even be exchanged for?

The rotund member of the sea tribe said angrily, "Mr. Wen Zhan, you're too unconvinced! What did he take out that could be more valuable than my Dragonblood stone?"

"That's right, we must announce what it is!"

The people below also started to shout, all revealing looks of extreme anticipation.

Only beiming Laifeng's face was unsightly, and his eyes flickered with killing intent.

Zhao wenzhan shouted, "the treasure exhibition is only an exchange of treasures. There is no obligation to share the items that have been exchanged. Be quiet.

As soon as he finished speaking, powerful auras came from all directions. They were the guards of the dazzling treasure meet, who were responsible for maintaining order.

This made everyone shut their mouths, but they still revealed extremely dissatisfied expressions.

Zhao wenzhan could not be bothered with the crowd as he turned to Yunxiao and said, "Young master Yunxiao, there's a restriction in here."

"Understood," Yunxiao said with a smile. He also used the secret Sound transmission technique and directly passed on the method of unsealing.

Zhao wenzhan hurriedly scanned the Jade slip with his spiritual sense and used a secret technique to unseal the restrictions. His face constantly showed excitement and ecstasy, and his body could not help but become excited.

"Haha, hahaha! It's true, it's true!"

When the last restriction was released, Zhao wenzhan finally laughed and said, "no wonder young master Yunxiao is so powerful. It turns out that you have such a peerless magical power!"

Yunxiao smiled indifferently and did not explain. He checked the White rice and found that it was indeed the legendary item. Then, he returned to his seat with satisfaction.

The water deity's curiosity was also piqued, and she could not help but ask, "What kind of cultivation technique did you give him?"

Yunxiao leaned over and said in a low voice, "It's just a body refining technique."

The water deity nodded with a look of realization, but her face blushed.

Just now, when Yunxiao whispered in her ear and breathed directly into her face, she had a strange feeling that she had never felt before, and she felt extremely embarrassed.

However, under this shyness, there was a little sweetness and happiness that she could not explain.

Chapter 1093

1093 The first island master

The water deity lowered her head and laughed shyly. She fiddled with the corners of her clothes with her hands, looking like a little girl.

Yunxiao had only told her a secret that no one else in the hall knew. She immediately felt a joy of sharing a little secret, a little secret that only belonged to the two of them.

Princess shuixian, is it because the venue is too hot?" Yunxiao asked in surprise. why is your face so red?"

Water deity's Red face immediately turned purple like an eggplant. Her eyes were filled with anger and killing intent. She bit her lips so hard that they almost bled. She gritted her teeth and said, "I'll kill you!"

Beiming Laifeng had also been paying attention to Yunxiao. He was not an innocent young man, and as soon as he saw water fairy's appearance, he immediately understood what was going on. His face turned pale as he stared at Yunxiao with hatred.

"Next up is the second finale item of this auction,"

After Zhao wenzhan's excitement, he could not calm down for a long time. With extreme joy, he introduced, "Everyone, please take a look!"

He lifted the red cloth on the clam girl's tray behind him. This time, it was a conch.

This conch horn was actually made up of nine colors, and a Halo constantly rose from it, extremely gorgeous. It was even bigger than an ordinary conch.

The eyes of the clam girl, who was holding the plate, gradually became unfocused as she looked at the nine-colored light.

The sea tribe members in the surroundings carefully looked at the conch, but it seemed that no one could recognize what it was. Some people felt that they had an impression of it, but they couldn't recall it for a while.

"Argh! Look at that clam girl!"

All of a sudden, a member of the sea tribe cried out in alarm. Everyone was shocked to find that the clam girl had turned into a fossil without them knowing!

"?! This Kasaya, this Kasaya, I remember now! Heavens! It's a nine-colored sky conch!"

A member of the sea tribe suddenly cried out. His voice was filled with endless fear.

"Ah!"

The entire place was in an uproar. This name was like a curse. Suddenly, everyone's face turned pale, and they all showed fear.

Even water deity, Yun Xiang, and Fei Ming's expressions changed drastically. They revealed looks of disbelief and shock.

Zhao wenzhan laughed lightly and said, "I didn't think that there would be a friend who would recognize this item." However, this is a conch name made from a nine-colored sky conch. "

"?!"

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air. Now, there were no more doubts, and each and every one of them broke out in cold sweat.

"Wasn't the nine-colored sky conch clan exterminated by the great Poseidon several generations ago? How can it still exist?"

this is just a specimen, didn't you hear that it's a conch? it's just that this is the only conch that's made of this kind of thing.

"This is crazy! It's actually a conch name made from an s-grade nine-colored sky conch of the sea tribe!"

The nine-colored sky conch was once a nightmarish race in the sea. It was definitely an S-Class existence. They were born in the West Sea and ran amuck without fear. More than a thousand years ago, they were besieged by the West sea's Royal clan, which led to their counterattack and forced them to flee. It was only after the ocean Emperor of that generation came forward that they were completely wiped out.

This race had an extremely powerful innate divine ability that could attack with sound waves over a large area and turn people into fossils. Even without the power of sound waves, he could use the nine-colored light to petrify people. It was a heaven-defying ability.

Ever since the ocean Emperor led a team to exterminate them more than a thousand years ago, there had been no news of this race.

The small conch on display should be an infant of the nine-colored sky conch tribe.

Zhao wenzhan laughed smugly. this is a specimen from the nine-colored sky conch race. Everyone has seen it. Their own petrifying divine power is still there. Everyone should know the value of this item.

The clam girl had completely turned into a fossil without a trace of vitality. She still had a faint smile on her face and her hands were still holding the plate.

Finally, many members of the sea tribe calmed down. One of them shouted, "How do you want to exchange for this?"

Zhao wenzhan laughed. old rules. If there's anything that can satisfy me, I'll take it.

"This is too much of a scam!"

who can take out something comparable to the nine-colored sky conch?" someone immediately shouted. even if they have something, they wouldn't be willing to exchange it!

Zhao wenzhan looked at the crowd and smiled. from what I know, there are many powerful people from large clans participating this time. The wealth of the eastern sea is uncountable. Wen Zhan also hopes that everyone can bring out some good things to broaden your horizons."

For a moment, there was silence. Everyone stared at the nine-colored sky conch fanatically, but most of them were poor. Who could exchange for this thing?

In a corner, several similar-looking experts of the sea clan were discussing in low voices. All of them had a serious look on their faces.

In a few breaths, they seemed to have come to an agreement. The leader turned into a ray of light and landed on the stage.

Zhao wenzhan laughed,"if I'm not wrong, this must be an expert from the waterdrop clan."

"Mr. Wen Zhan, you really have a good eye!" The man's expression changed.

Seeing this person admit it, there was a commotion below, and everyone revealed shocked expressions.

"What? The water droplet clan? They are an extremely secretive race, but they actually came to participate in the treasure Show!"

this is the famous A-Class sea clan. It's one of the top A-Class clans in the entire Eastern Sea.

but it's no wonder. Even a Wondrous Item like the nine-colored sky conch appeared in this place. It wouldn't be strange for an S-Class race to come.

There were all sorts of discussions below. Everyone used their gazes to size up those few water drop race people. Those few people's expressions didn't change, and they just sat there calmly.

Zhao wenzhan laughed. I wonder what this friend has brought. Can I have an eye-opener? ”

The man took out a piece of metal and handed it over, saying, ”How’s this?”

Zhao wenzhan took it and looked at it carefully. His expression changed and he said in shock, ” “This, this Yingluo” “That’s it. It’s the only thing I can think of that’s comparable to the nine-colored sky conch,” the man said with a smile.

Zhao wenzhan held the metal piece in his hand and looked at it a few times. He sighed and said, ” “In terms of value, it can indeed be compared to the nine-colored conch, but the nine-colored conch is extinct. There might be more in the four Seas, but it’s extremely difficult to find a second one.”

He returned the metal piece and said, ” “I’m sorry,”

That water droplet Clansman’s expression changed and anger flashed through his eyes. After pondering for a while, he angrily snorted and took back the metal piece.

Everyone’s appetites were whetted to their full, each and every one of them revealing a resentful expression.

...

After that, another person flew onto the stage, and everyone’s eyes focused on him.

The man spread open his hand and waved it in front of him, immediately producing eight storage pouches in the air.

“Mr. Wen Zhan, take a look at the things inside. Is there anything that can be exchanged for this?” the person said.

Zhao wenzhan nodded and his spiritual sense began to sweep over the storage bags.

He seemed to be scanning through it very quickly. When he reached the eighth storage bag, his face suddenly revealed a look of surprise.

However, he quickly returned to normal and finished browsing. He smiled and said, "These eight bags of holding are all rare items, but it's very difficult to exchange for this conch."

The man seemed to have expected this and said, "What if these eight storage belts are combined?"

Zhao wenzhan was startled and his face revealed surprise. "Do you really intend to use these eight storage bags to exchange for it? Although there's nothing that can be compared to the conch horn, the total value of all of them is difficult to estimate, especially the items in the eighth storage pouch. They're not much inferior to the nine-colored sky conch."

The man glanced at the nine-colored sky conch and said through gritted teeth, "I've changed!"

Zhao Wen hesitated slightly and nodded. "Alright, I can make the decision for this deal." He made a grabbing motion in the air and the eight storage bags fell into his hands one after another.

"Thank you!" The man was ecstatic.

...

He hurriedly stepped forward and grabbed the conch horn. He played with it in his hand for a while before putting it away. It turned into a ray of light and flew back to his seat.

Everyone revealed stunned expressions. They had thought that such a precious treasure would definitely cause an intense fight, but they had not expected it to be so easily taken over.

You really can't judge a book by its cover.

That person was small and thin, with grayish-white skin. He was not eye-catching in the entire Hall, but at this moment, he had gathered everyone's curious eyes, among which there was no lack of greed and ferocity.

The few water drop race experts in particular had extremely complicated expressions as they constantly sized up the ashen-white man.

Zhao wenzhan revealed a mysterious smile and slowly said, " the last item will be auctioned by the first island master of Xian Kong Island!

"What? The first island master of xiankong Island!"

Everyone was shocked. Ever since Xian Kong Island was established in the eastern sea, everything was managed by the fifth Island master, Zhao wenzhan. The other few were rarely seen. As for the first island master, he was even more of a mystery. No one had ever heard of him in person.

Previously, Yunxiao had forced the first island master's projection to show up by using a chicken feather as a token, but no one could see his face clearly.

Three rays of light suddenly flew in from outside the dazzling Treasure Hall. They spun in the air and finally landed on the display stage one by one.

"The second island master's guest!"

"Third Island master coldfeather!"

"The fourth island master, Jiutian!"

The three rays of light immediately turned into three people and introduced themselves.

Everyone looked at the three of them with strange expressions. Many people also recognized Nine Heavens, who was the one who had fought with Yunxiao.

Zhao wenzhan laughed,"the fifth Island master Zhao wenzhan."

The four of them retreated to the side and shouted in unison," "Welcome, first island master!"

His voice reverberated in the air, not only in the hall, but also across the island, so everyone could hear him clearly.

The sky above the stage suddenly brightened. A ray of light fell like the moonlight, and there seemed to be a faint sign of a fairy flying in the sky. There was also a soft chanting.

"BOOM!"

All of a sudden, the entire Hall trembled, as if a force was coming from the depths of the xiankong Island, triggering the earth veins!

Everyone's expression changed drastically. Many experts felt that things weren't as simple as they thought, and their faces became grave.

"Hehe, Island Lords, there's no need to be so polite,"

A vigorous voice rang out, and then a figure appeared within the light, slowly becoming more solid.

A middle-aged man with a pale face and scholarly appearance slowly walked out of the light with his hands behind his back and a smile on his face.

"Greetings, first island master," the four island Masters said respectfully at the same time.

"There's no need to be so polite, thank you for your hard work," Guang Yuan said with a smile.

Chapter 1094-Fa Hua Lotus platform

Everyone's eyes widened as they looked at Guang Yuan. He was dressed in a green robe and had an indifferent expression, looking no different from an ordinary human.

Humans were the spirit of all living beings. Many races would transform into humans at the later stages of their cultivation.

A few of the five Island Masters on the stage were from the sea Race, but they looked completely human.

Some of the more courageous ones sent out their divine senses to probe Guang Yuan's body, and their expressions changed drastically. Their divine senses seemed to have sunk into the ocean, and they had completely lost their perception.

"You said there's no need for etiquette, but you made such a big move, Hmph," someone suddenly mumbled.

The moment Guang Yuan came out, he had the appearance of a Grandmaster, his face full of confidence as if everything in the universe was under his control. After that disharmonious voice rang out, a ripple finally appeared in his calm eyes. His expression sank, and he glared angrily.

Everyone's eyes were focused on the source of the voice.

Yunxiao raised his eyebrows. What are you looking at? did I say something wrong?"

The human martial artists all had black lines on their faces. As expected, it was this troublemaker.

Guang Yuan's hands were clenched into fists. The anger in his heart was surging, but he could not vent it out, so he could only pretend that he did not hear it. He said, "Everyone, you've travelled a long way."

"Hold on!"

Yunxiao suddenly interrupted.

Everyone jumped in shock, and once again focused their gazes on him. They didn't understand where this brat had gotten so bold from, and where he had gotten so much trouble.

The other four island Masters were also shocked, and all of them had different expressions.

Other than a bitter smile, the guest's eyes were still filled with deep worry. Coldfeather and nine Heavens, on the other hand, had frosty looks, bits of killing intent in their eyes. After Zhao wenzhan's shock, he smiled bitterly. His eyes flickered slightly, and no one knew what he was thinking.

Guang Yuan was so angry that his face was ashen. He gritted his teeth and said in a cold voice, "Li Yunxiao! You actually dare to interrupt this Lord's speech. If you can't give me an explanation today, I'll catch you right now!"

Everyone could feel the surging Fury and fierce killing intent from Guang Yuan, and their expressions all changed drastically.

A look of joy appeared on beiming Laifeng's face, and he nervously perked up his ears to listen.

Yunxiao sneered in his heart. 'Since I'm already Guangyuan's mortal enemy, I'll just play with you first.' He snorted and said, "first island master, the last time you appeared with your projection, you said that it was not convenient to meet Princess water fairy. Now that your real body has appeared, have you forgotten to meet Princess water fairy?"

Everyone was taken aback and revealed strange expressions.

Guangyuan was seething with anger. He could also see that Yunxiao was deliberately making fun of him, but he could not do anything about it.

This kind of thing was small, but it was bigger than the heavens. If you don't pay him a visit, he will accuse you of being disrespectful to Neptune and crush you to death.

Everyone looked at Guang Yuan, their faces revealing a mocking expression.

Guang Yuan's face was green to the point of turning purple. He gritted his teeth, and bowed down from a distance in the air, saying, "I, Yuan, greet Princess water fairy!"

"You're too kind, first island master," the water deity said lightly.

Guang Yuan was about to answer 'yes' when Yunxiao said, "The princess said that there's no need to be too polite, so you can dispense with the formalities. Next time, remember not to be so reckless. Remember, courtesy can not be abandoned!"

The word 'yes' was stuck in Guang Yuan's throat. If he said it out loud, wouldn't it be equivalent to him humbly accepting Yunxiao's lesson? If he didn't answer, wouldn't he be ignoring the princess?

He was stunned and felt a little awkward.

Everyone present was laughing in their hearts. Beiming Laifeng was also in a good mood. He would not die if he did not seek death. Yunxiao was doomed this time.

Looking at Guang Yuan's face, Yunxiao sneered in his heart as he frowned and shouted, "What's wrong? Did you hear the princess's words?"

"Bang!"

As Guang Yuan couldn't take it anymore, a stream of origin power was forced under his feet, directly crushing a large piece of the display stage. With a cold expression, he said, "I will remember princess's words."

With an impatient look on his face, Yunxiao waved his hand and said, "Alright, it's good that you remember. You can continue with the auction."

Guang Yuan gritted his teeth and said nothing, but the way he looked at Yunxiao was no different from looking at a dead man.

Everyone became a little nervous. The fluctuation of the state of mind of such a powerful man had caused a change in the surrounding environment. They did not understand why Yunxiao was courting death. It seemed that the boy was not an idiot.

Guang Yuan slowly extinguished his anger, and was no longer in the mood to say any more polite words. He directly said, "Everyone, please take a good look. The third item is here."

He stretched out his hand and slowly opened his five fingers. A golden light bloomed in his hand like a flower.

Everyone took a closer look and realized that it was not a golden glow that was blooming, but a real flower bud!

"Argh! It's actually a Lotus platform!"

Quite a few people cried out in surprise. What Guang Yuan was holding in his hand was precisely a miniature Lotus platform that emitted rays of golden light, and was very lively.

Lotus Thrones weren't rare in the sea Race. They were a kind of thing used for meditation. Sitting inside could calm one's mind. Some Lotus Thrones had the effect of gathering spiritual energy and increasing the speed of cultivation.

The small lotus platform glowed with a golden light in Guang Yuan's hand. It was extremely exquisite, and the fine patterns on it could be seen clearly from far away.

"First island master, although the Lotus dais are precious, it's just so-so. Isn't it too disappointing to put it in the last auction?" a member of the sea tribe shouted.

Many people showed their agreement.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted, and a cold gleam burst out of his eyes, as if he could not believe it.

The water deity's eyes were full of doubt as she stared at the Lotus platform, as if she was thinking about something.

Guang Yuan laughed lightly and stared at the Lotus platform in his hand, his eyes revealing a myriad of tender feelings, like a parent looking at their own child.

"Even I can't fully understand the mysteries of this lotus throne, but the strange phenomena in the sea around xiankong Island are all caused by it," he said with a smile.

"What?"

As soon as he said that, everyone was shocked except for the four island Masters!

Everyone looked in shock at the Golden Lotus platform in Guang Yuan's hand. They had never heard of a treasure that could change the rules of heaven and earth on such a large scale and create its own wonder.

RUO Xiang's eyes flickered with a cold light, and his expression was complicated, but he was extremely nervous.

"This Lotus platform has another use," Guang Yuan said with a faint smile, "and that is to bring the dead back to life and grow flesh from bones. As long as you are still breathing, this Lotus platform will be able to save you."

...

"It's really that magical?"

Everyone paled in shock. What Guang Yuan said seemed to be getting more and more outrageous, beyond the scope of everyone's understanding.

It would be normal to say that it could heal injuries, or it would be acceptable to say that it had a very strong healing ability. However, it was an extremely exaggerated statement to say that it could resurrect the dead and grow flesh from bones. It should not have been so exaggerated during the treasure evaluation.

Guang Yuan's eyes seemed to reveal a look of reminiscence, his eyes hazy as he muttered, "Several decades ago, I was seriously injured and thought that I would definitely die. It's really the heavens who didn't want me to die, allowing me to encounter this lotus throne. After several decades of recuperation, my internal injuries have only recovered by half."

A marine race expert said in shock, "it's only half recovered after several decades?" One can imagine how badly injured he was back then, but doesn't this also mean that the Lotus platform's effect is only so-so?"

Guang Yuan smiled calmly, and said, "the reason why my injuries haven't fully recovered is because this Lotus platform was also severely damaged." I don't know how long it's been broken, but over the years, I've discovered that this Lotus platform can continuously absorb external forces to repair itself."

a profound armament that can self-repair? "

The crowd was even more dumbfounded. They looked at the miniature Lotus platform with suspicion.

Someone couldn't help but ask, "could it be that the Lotus platform hasn't repaired itself after decades?" Then what's the use of it? it's better to find an Alchemist to repair it. "

Many people suddenly revealed strange expressions and looked at Zhao wenzhan.

The fifth Island master was a ninth-tier Alchemist. Could it be that he could not do it?

...

Guang Yuan was still gazing at the Lotus platform affectionately, and said with a smile, "The reason why the restoration is slow is because there is a lack of opportunity. This Lotus platform needs to absorb the surrounding energy and what it likes the most is the spirit of a profound level weapon!"

A cold glint flashed in Guang Yuan's eyes, and everyone's hearts jolted, as if they had a bad premonition.

However, some people were still puzzled and asked, "So you're saying you want to absorb the spirit of the profound level weapon? Did you hold the treasure Show just to exchange for more profound level weapons for it to absorb?"

"That's right!" Guang Yuan narrowed his eyes and smiled.

He cast an incantation seal, and the Lotus platform instantly flew into the air and continued to grow.

In an instant, a strange force rippled out from the Lotus platform and filled the entire venue.

"What's going on?"

Suddenly, someone's expression changed drastically. He stood up and shouted, "First island master, what's going on?"

He held a saber in his hand. The blade was constantly trembling due to fear. The spiritual energy was rapidly flowing out of the saber and was actually being absorbed by the Lotus.

It was not just him. At this moment, there was a strong spiritual Qi that was visible to the naked eye everywhere in the field. It was overflowing from everyone's body and was all absorbed into the Lotus platform.

The entire arena was in a state of panic as everyone's expression changed. Even if they had not summoned their own innate profound weapons, they could still feel the loss of power from their profound weapons.

first island master, you're actually using this to absorb our profound level weapon's spirit?!

The water droplet tribe expert stood up in rage, his face filled with Fury. A powerful spiritual energy overflowed from his body, and no matter how he tried, it couldn't be called back to the Lotus platform.

Guang Yuan's smile became a little cold and strange, and he said savagely, "Haha, what's the matter? Didn't I tell you that my Lotus platform needs to absorb the spirit of the profound level weapon!"

"What?"

Everyone was furious, and a great fear spread in their hearts.

At first, they had thought that Guang Yuan was only going to show off the might of this Lotus platform, but now it seemed that he was actually going to directly absorb the spirit of their profound level weapons!

"This feeling ..."

Yunxiao's face turned extremely unsightly, and the sound of bones cracking came from his five fingers. He seemed to have realized that he was in big trouble.

All of his profound level weapons were in the divine realm tablet, so their spiritual energy had not been absorbed.

However, there was a strange feeling in his body. Under the influence of the Lotus platform, the divine realm tablet seemed to have responded, and there was a stream of flowing light above his dantian.

The demonic Dragon was also surprised,"that thing ..."

Yunxiao swallowed and said with a gloomy face, "Your sister! That thing was really a Supreme grade profound level weapon! We're in big trouble now!"

Chapter 1095

1095 A sad topic

A sad topic

Yunxiao was also a little dumbfounded. How many Supreme-grade Mystic artifacts were there in this world? They had never heard of such things in tens of thousands of years. Why were they encountering them one by one?

Guang Yuan's eyes flickered with madness, and he laughed loudly, "I've held several treasure shows and I've always wanted to have a big meal, but there wasn't enough! It's enough this time, it's enough, haha!"

"Dammit! So this dazzling treasure meet has always been a trap!"

A look of Fury flashed across the face of the water droplet tribe expert as he roared, "Let's kill him together! Otherwise, everyone's profound armaments will be finished!"

After he finished speaking, he gave a look to his companions. Immediately, seven or eight water drop tribe experts charged forward.

The three people in the lead were extremely powerful, and they all used the same martial technique, drawing circles with their left hands and striking out with their right hands.

Under the wind of the palm, there was a faint spiritual light, and a lively and cute little fish swam in it, like a drop of water, which was their original form.

The figures of the three people stacked together in the air, causing the palm forces to converge and merge. It was as if a prehistoric beast had been reborn in the world, with the power to sweep away everything!

“Hmph!”

Guang Yuan gave a light Humph, his eyes not at all disdainful. He lazily raised his left hand, drew a circle in the air, and welcomed the attack.

“Bang!”

A surge of Yuan power exploded in the air, and the sweeping force immediately dispersed. The three water droplet clan experts all spat out a large mouthful of blood and flew out like kites with broken strings.

“Ah? My three lords!”

The five water drop race experts that charged out after him were so angry that their eyes were about to pop out. They all pulled out their battle sabers and roared as they slashed down from the sky.

The veins on the five people’s bodies were bulging, and the surface of their skin was covered with a layer of water film. It was obvious that they had used a secret technique to activate an extremely strong force.

Hmph! Guang Yuan sneered and said disdainfully, “ a moth darting into the fire, seeking its own destruction!

Just as the five sharp slashes were about to land on his head, he actually put his hands behind his back and took a step forward. His entire person disappeared on the spot, and the five saber lights cut through the air.

“What?”

One of them was horrified. Under the saber Qi of the five of them, the sky and the earth were sealed. It was already good enough that he could resist the pressure, let alone disappear!

“Bang!”

A muffled sound of an attack rang out. Guang Yuan appeared directly in the middle of the five people, and his right knee instantly smashed through one of their dantian. The man spat out a large mouthful of blood. His eyes were filled with unwillingness and anger before he died.

Then, he swept his right hand in front of him and directly slapped the man’s saber away. The saber drew a few circles of Saber Light in the air and was sucked up with a “whoosh” sound. It stuck to the Lotus seat with a “PA” sound like a magnet.

In just a few breaths of time, the saber lost all of its spiritual energy and fell off the Lotus seat. When it fell to the ground, it was already a piece of scrap iron.

“?!”

The other four people were greatly alarmed and frightened, and hurriedly swept their battle sabers towards Guang Yuan’s body.

The four of them had a tacit understanding, and their moves were layered on top of each other. While they attacked, they supplemented each other’s defense at the same time, and an airtight net of blades covered them.

Guang Yuan’s body was instantly crushed by the net of blades.

The four of them were overjoyed, but very quickly, their smiles froze. A mocking expression appeared on Guang Yuan’s crushed head, and the shattered body also faded and slowly disappeared.

A voice rang out from all directions, “You guys can’t even capture my movements, how are you going to fight me? A bunch of trash!”

“Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!”

The four of them were so terrified that a large hole was directly opened up in their chests, and their internal organs burst out. They died on the spot.

Soon after, the four people’s weapons were also sucked up by the Lotus platform, and in a few moments, they became scrap metal and fell down.

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air. Guang Yuan had defeated seven elites of the water drop race, and it had only been a short while. This caused the hearts of the people who had originally held onto a glimmer of hope to be completely despaired, and all of them revealed expressions of fear.

A member of the sea tribe mustered his courage and stood up, saying, ” “First island master, your purpose is only to absorb the spirit of the profound level weapon and repair this magnificent Dharma lotus throne. We will give you the Xuan artifact with both hands, but please let us leave the Xian Kong Island.”

Guang Yuan’s eyes narrowed as he smiled, “leave?” This was a sad topic. Didn’t I make it clear to you? I’ve been seriously injured and haven’t recovered.”

“I still have some natural treasures that can heal injuries, and I’m willing to offer them all,” the man said, stunned.

Guang Yuan smiled, and said, “I appreciate your good intentions.” However, in the past few decades, I’ve observed this magnificent Dharma lotus throne and comprehended a secret technique from it. It’s enough to treat my injuries.”

“What secret technique?” the man asked.

Guang Yuan smiled and beckoned with his finger, indicating for the man to come forward.

The man was terrified, but he did not dare to disobey. He could only brace himself and walk forward as he said, "Since the first island master can heal himself, that's the best."

That person was on tenterhooks when a gust of wind suddenly blew in his face. He saw a huge dragon head appear in front of him, its two lantern-like eyes staring at him with a fierce light.

"Ah!"

The man was shocked and retreated, but his body was suddenly confined by a force, and he could no longer move.

The dragon's head opened its mouth and bit him.

Creak! Creak! Creak!

The sound of bones being chewed could be heard in the dragon's mouth, and then it swallowed it with a gulp.

After the Dragon head ate the man, it slowly changed back to Guang Yuan's appearance. He was smiling and even stuck out his tongue to lick his lips, as if he had not had enough.

"?!"

This time, everyone present was scared out of their wits, and with a loud "wah" sound, they broke into a run.

Over a hundred rays of light flew out of the door, and a strong light shot in from the outside, directly blasting everyone away. Some of the weaker cultivators were even blown to pieces on the spot.

Guang Yuan licked his lips, and said, "what a pity."

...

This caused everyone to shiver in fear. They all retreated one by one, and no one dared to face him.

The water deity's face was also cold as she said, "First island master, your healing method is too evil. You can't do such an evil thing!"

Guang Yuan laughed. I had no choice. I hope your Highness can understand.

The water deity's eyes flashed with anger and she rebuked, "You don't even dare to listen to me?"

The cold air emitted from her body had a natural Majesty. At this moment, she was like a Lighthouse in the boundless sea of bitterness, warming everyone's heart.

A glimmer of hope grew in everyone's hearts. With the daughter of the sea Emperor here, she would probably be able to suppress Guang Yuan.

Guang Yuan said with a bitter face, "It's not that I don't want to listen. Your Highness is kind and compassionate, and I'm touched." However, if I let them go, my injuries will not recover. If they continue to worsen, I will die sooner or later. If Princess can be merciful to these scums, why can't you be merciful to me?"

The water deity was stunned. She was not good with words, so she didn't know how to refute. Subconsciously, he turned his eyes to Yunxiao, who was standing next to him, as if he were asking for help.

Yunxiao smiled wryly in his heart. Guangyuan had dared to show his Supreme-grade Mystic artifact and kill and eat people unscrupulously because he had long taken the water fairy into account.

The so-called might of a Princess was just a paper tiger. When Guang Yuan had made his move, he had already looked down on this paper tiger.

However, even if it was just a paper tiger, it still had its own great use!

first island Lord, you're wrong," Yunxiao sneered. What do you mean you'll die if you don't eat them? "Is there no way to treat your injuries even in the vast Four Seas?"

A cold gleam flashed across Guang Yuan's face as he stared at Yunxiao. But when he saw the clarity in the latter's eyes, and that he did not panic even after he had revealed his strength, he began to admire him.

However, everything was in his hands now. He was not in a hurry to kill. He just snorted coldly and said, "There might be a way, but it is difficult. Why should I take the risk? what if I can't find a way?"

Yunxiao rolled his eyes at him and said, "there's no other way. You can always find some fierce sea beasts to eat. The four Seas are so big, and the seafood is so abundant, but it's not enough for you?"

"This is an ..."

Guang Yuan was stunned. He could indeed absorb power by devouring sea beasts.

The water deity's eyes lit up as well. Yunxiao is right. There are so many big sea beasts in the sea, and they are no weaker than us. First island Lord, please let us go.

Guang Yuan's expression darkened, not knowing how to respond.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, sneered and waited for Guangyuan's reaction. If he disobeyed the water immortal, he would be disrespecting the dignity of the ocean Emperor and becoming the enemy of the four Seas.

Guangyuan was indeed very angry, and he wished he could tear Yunxiao apart right now.

He was originally from the royal family of the East Sea and had a natural fear of the Bo family, the ruler of the four Seas. Also, because he was once in a high position, he had a deep understanding and fear of the power of the sea Emperor. He did not have the courage to openly oppose the water deity, at least for now.

However, he was not a kind person either. He also had the idea of obtaining the sea Emperor's blood in his heart. It was just that the injuries on his body had not healed, and he could not fully control the Lotus seat of Fa Hua.

According to his senses, as long as the Lotus could absorb half of the profound level weapon's power in the field, it would be enough to recover. And if he ate these people, his injuries would also be 70 – 80% healed. If he obtained the sea Emperor's blood, then he would be able to control a Supreme grade profound level weapon to roam the four Seas. He would not even be afraid of the sea Emperor!

However, these were only speculations. Before he had enough strength, he did not dare to really disobey the orders of the Bo family.

The venue became eerily silent. Everyone was hiding behind the water deity, looking nervously at Guang Yuan, waiting for his decision.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, was ready to escape at any time. He did not believe that Guang Yuan would give up on eating people because of the water fairy. What Guang Yuan was thinking about now was not whether he would eat or not, but how to eat without being accused.

Guang Yuan finally spoke, "Your Highness, I'm still injured, and it'll be difficult for me to find the sea's ferocious beasts for the time being." I'll choose a few people to eat, and as long as they recover enough and have the power to go out to sea, they won't eat."

As soon as he finished speaking, without waiting for water deity's answer, he reached out his hand, which transformed into a long Dragon in the air and grabbed at Yunxiao.

Chapter 1096-taking action

At this moment, Guang Yuan was here in person. The might of a nine-stars martial sovereign's Emperor Qi instantly pressed down on Yunxiao like a mountain, and his arm turned into a dragon's head in the air, biting down.

Yunxiao was well prepared. The moment he sensed the Emperor aura, he turned into a bolt of lightning and fled.

“BOOM!”

The water deity's seat was instantly bitten off by the Dragon head.

Seeing that his attack had missed, Guang Yuan's expression turned cold, and he snorted coldly, “I'll kill you first today!”

He retracted his hand and took a step toward Yunxiao. He had not suffered as much in all his years on xiankong Island as he had met Yunxiao today, so he could not calm his anger by not killing him.

Besides, Yunxiao had a Supreme-grade Mystic artifact with him, which he was determined to get!

“First island Lord, you can't kill this man!” The water deity shouted in anger.

Guang Yuan said coldly, “this person is harboring evil intentions. Your Highness, you must not be deceived by his young and tender appearance. Today, I will skin this person and let everyone see his true colors!

you even dare to disobey the order of the princess of the ocean Emperor,” Yunxiao sneered. is there anything in this world that you dare not do? ” If he ate everyone and restored the magnificent Dharma lotus throne completely, he would probably attack the sea emperor's palace directly!”

Everyone's expression changed drastically. They didn't dare to say such treasonous words out loud. They didn't even dare to think about it.

“Today, no matter how glib your tongue is, you won't be able to live,” Guang Yuan said with a cold smile.

Yunxiao glanced at the crowd and said in a serious voice, "Are you all still hoping that he will show mercy and let us go? You have to fight for your own chance to live with your own blood, not wait for anyone to give you a chance!"

Everyone's hearts trembled. Looking at Guang Yuan's savage appearance, their hesitating resolve slowly became firm.

"What this human friend said makes sense! It's not difficult for everyone to kill this person if we join hands, but if we continue to observe, we'll be defeated one by one!"

The sea tribe member who had won the nine-colored field conch was the first to speak. The spirit of the profound level weapon continued to flow out of his body and headed toward the Lotus seat in the sky.

He stepped out of the crowd and stood next to Yunxiao, ready to join hands to fight the enemy.

This time, there were even more people who stood firm on their stance. One by one, they flew up from their seats in anger, and glared at Guang Yuan.

Beiming Laifeng was both happy and worried. He was happy that Yunxiao was dead, but worried that he would die too. At this moment, he couldn't make up his mind. He glanced at darknorth kangtian.

Darknorth kangtian's face was extremely gloomy. His lips moved slightly as he transmitted his voice to Jiang Chen.

Beiming Laifeng hurriedly perked up his ears to listen. His expression kept changing, but in the end, a determined look appeared on his face as he nodded to beiming kangtian.

Only then did darknorth kangtian fly up into the sky and said in a deep voice, "All human experts, listen to my command and kill the five men from Xian Kong Island!"

Guang Yuan squinted at him, and praised, "Tsk, tsk, a human expert? Peak Eight-star, not bad. Honored guest, I'll leave this person to you."

The guests on the stage leaped up and walked to Guang Yuan's back, saying, "First island master, can you spare that Li Yunxiao?"

Don't forget the agreement between us! Guang Yuan's face turned cold as he said angrily, "Li Yunxiao must die! His eyes flickered with killing intent as he stared at the guests and said coldly, "You can save him once, but I will not allow the same thing to happen again!"

The guest's expression changed slightly, and he remained silent. He only let out a long sigh.

Water deity's cold face also revealed a murderous look. She said angrily, word by word, "I will never allow you to kill Li Yunxiao!"

His tone was firm, as if there was no room for discussion.

She did not know why she was so decisive. She even flew up into the air and stood in front of Yunxiao.

The water deity's action shocked everyone, but at the same time, it also represented the stance of the sea Emperor's daughter. No one hesitated anymore, and everyone was determined to fight to the death with the Xiankong Island.

Yunxiao was also stunned for a moment, and a complicated look appeared in his eyes. He had not expected this silly girl to be so brave and fearless.

Beiming Laifeng's face was pale, and his eyes were filled with boundless hatred.

This time, Guang Yuan's expression really changed drastically. He said in a cold voice, "Your Highness, please consider this carefully. This person is a despicable human, while I am your citizen, the citizen of the four Seas. You should be protecting me, not him!"

"Do I need you to tell me who I want to protect?" the water deity said coldly.

Guang Yuan and the others were all stunned. Why had the water deity, who was originally not good with words, suddenly become so sharp-tongued?

“Hahaha!”

Yunxiao could not help but laugh and praise, “That’s right. That’s more like a princess. However, this battle is not something a little girl like you can participate in. Retreat to the back.”

Yunxiao grabbed her hand and pulled her behind him.

The water deity trembled. She had never been touched by a strange man before, so she panicked and was pulled to the back by Yunxiao’s strength. Her cheeks couldn’t help but blush, and her heart was beating fast.

Fortunately, everyone’s attention was on Guang Yuan, and she finally heaved a heavy sigh of relief.

She was the princess of the four Seas, a natural-born superior, and Yunxiao should have been sentenced to death for being so rude to her. However, she was not angry at all. Instead, an indescribable feeling welled up in her heart. She felt safe and warm behind that human.

“Li Yunxiao, how dare you abduct the princesses of the four Seas! Also, how dare you collude with the humans and betray the ocean Emperor! You all deserve to die!”

Guang Yuan’s expression turned cold, and he was the first to pin a big hat on everyone. He stretched out his hand and waved it down in front of him, and shouted sternly, “Kill them all!”

The three island owners on the stage flew up first and stood behind Guang Yuan. The xiankong Island guards continued to appear in the surrounding space, directly surrounding everyone.

it’s a one-way restrictive spell, ” Yunxiao said seriously. you can enter from the outside, but you can’t leave from the inside.

“Do you have the confidence to break the restrictive spell and escape?” darknorth kangtian asked in a deep voice.

The fact that he asked this question proved that he had no confidence at all. The peak of the eight-star realm and the nine-star realm were two completely different levels.

No. Yunxiao shook his head and said with a wry smile, “ even if we can get out of this Hall, we can’t get out of xiankong Island. It’s really troublesome this time. If we don’t handle it well, we’ll all die Here.”

Darknorth kangtian frowned. He did not understand Yunxiao’s meaning, so he snorted coldly and said, “Young master Yunxiao will also fall into a desperate situation? That’s not like you. I don’t believe that the Xian Kong Island sect can take all of us down. There are many experts here.”

Yunxiao smiled wryly. He could not explain to darknorth kangtian that the Lotus throne above his head was a Supreme-grade Mystic artifact. If everyone knew that, their confidence would probably collapse on the spot.

There was no time for them to think any further. The xiankong island’s guards had all charged forward, each of them holding the same forked-shaped profound level weapon with rings carved on it. The Rings were embedded in each other, and they were not affected by the suction of the Lotus.

“Bang!”

One of the xiankong Island guards clashed with another sea tribe warrior. The latter’s battle-ax was broken in the air by the Pitchfork, and he was killed on the spot by the Pitchfork.

...

This scene caused everyone to be both shocked and furious. When they thought about how their own profound armaments had become so vulnerable, they were all ignited with boundless anger.

“Dammit! Everyone, attack!”

A marine race expert's expression turned cold, and a ball of purple lightning shot out of his eyes. Immediately, his entire body was enveloped in a strong electric current.

With every step he took, his body grew a little taller. After seven steps, he was already more than eight Zhang Long. Purple lightning flowed all over his arms, and he punched at Guang Yuan.

The lightning on his fists and arms rose to the sky, illuminating the entire Hall.

Darknorth kangtian also shouted in a deep voice, "Do it!"

Just as he was about to rush down, he saw a figure flash past and appear in front of him. The figure smiled and said, "Peak Eight-star expert, let me experience your power."

Darknorth kangtian's face turned cold and he said angrily, "Get lost!"

He kicked out in mid-air, and the entire space exploded with a series of bangs. Countless spatial cracks were created, and they slithered around like earthworms.

The guest's expression changed. His body leaned back slightly to the right. He clenched his right fist, turned his waist, and threw a punch with a roar.

...

The wind from the fist hit the force of darknorth kangtian's kick, creating a huge gust of wind that shot in all directions. Some of the sea tribe members in the surroundings dodged in horror.

At this moment, several other marine race experts rushed out, joining forces with the expert who had used the purple Thunder fist to attack Guang Yuan.

“Not bad, not bad. The stronger you guys are, the faster I will recover.”

Guang Yuan licked his lips, and a cold glint flashed in his eyes. His left hand directly formed an incantation gesture, and his thumb and index finger were gently put together as he smiled while holding a flower.

A Golden Lotus immediately formed on his fingertip, and he raised it high above his head.

The Golden Lotus symbolized holiness and wealth. A solemn and dignified aura came from within, and it sounded more like the sound of Sanskrit.

“BOOM!”

The purple lightning Fist landed on the Golden Lotus, and a powerful force of lightning burst out. It was like a Lightning Dragon rampaging through the area, blasting the entire place into a mess.

The Warriors with weaker cultivation accidentally touched it and exploded into powder on the spot, leaving no bones behind.

Such a domineering punch could not shake the power of the Golden Lotus!

“What?”

The Marine race expert was shocked. His eyes widened in disbelief.

“BOOM! BOOM!”

At this moment, the rest of the ultimate skills also arrived one after another, all falling on the Golden Lotus, but unable to break it at all!

Yunxiao's eyes were filled with shock, and the sense of the divine realm tablet in his body was getting stronger and stronger. Guangyuan's smile must have had a great relationship with the Lotus throne.

His eyes flickered, and just as he was about to make a move, a person suddenly stepped out of the air and appeared in front of him using spatial bending. The person said indifferently, "I'm your opponent."

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he said coldly, "Get lost! Now is not the time to have personal grudges with you."

The man's face was calm. His eyes were closed and he sniffed the air. He seemed to feel very comfortable and his face showed a satisfied expression.

He slowly opened his eyes and said, "I don't want to wait any longer. Today, either you die or I die. I'll use your blood to wash away the shame of being the Crown Prince of North Sea!"

Chapter 1097-graceful as a startled Swan

The water deity's expression changed and she shouted in anger, "Runxiang, I order you not to mess around and immediately join forces to deal with the Xian Kong Island!"

"I'm sorry, Princess water fairy, I can't do as you say," run Xiang sneered.

Killing intent flashed in the water deity's eyes as she said coldly, "Good, good! All of you have ignored the existence of the ocean emperor's palace. I will remember the xiankong Island and the royal family of the North Sea!"

Only then did RUO Xiang's expression change drastically, and he explained, This is a personal grudge between me and Li Yunxiao, and it has nothing to do with the royal family of the North Sea. If you want to settle the score, it's on me!

"Who Do You Think You Are? it's not up to you how you want to settle this," water deity sneered.

RUO Xiang's chest was filled with anger as he pointed at Yunxiao and said, "Li Yunxiao, you're a hero among the people. Do you want to hide behind a woman and let her stand up for you? As the Crown Prince of North Sea, I challenge you to a life-and-death battle. Do you dare to accept it?"

His bold words reverberated in the chaotic Hall and attracted the attention of many people.

The light in Yunxiao's eyes gradually turned cold as he stared at run Xiang. Suddenly, the corners of his mouth lifted slightly. He smiled.

"What are you laughing at?" run Xiang's face darkened and he said angrily. Could it be that you think I'm not qualified?"

Yunxiao's eyes were unusually calm, and he said with a smile, "Since you have such courage, then I will fulfill your heart of martial arts and grant you a battle!" A cold light flashed in his eyes as he said softly, "I'll grant you another death!"

In the endless passage of time, there were countless geniuses and experts who were on the path of martial arts. They were like the stars in the sky, shining from the past to the present.

However, there were also countless geniuses who streaked across the sky like meteors, only able to shine for one era.

Since ancient times, who could be the Big Dipper?

My life has a limit, but the Dao has no limit. If I follow the limit with the limit, I will be in danger.

RUO Xiang's expression suddenly changed, but he quickly smiled. It was a smile that was so excited that it was difficult to control.

"Hey! Grant me death? This is exactly what I wanted to say to you!"

RUO Xiang couldn't help but laugh out loud, and said, haha, who cares about the Xian Kong Island or the ocean emperor's palace? I'll have a good fight today!

The blood in his body burned in an instant. At this moment, he no longer had any thoughts, but only one belief in his heart-to kill Yunxiao and prove his heart of martial arts!

I admire a genius like you very much, " Yunxiao said with a smile. I can see a lot of my own shadow in you.

Among the ten conferred martial sovereigns, which one of them did not have a strong Dao heart, which one of them was not paranoid, and which one of them was not a battle maniac?

haha, stop looking at me with that condescending gaze. It's really annoying!

RUO Xiang laughed and raised his right hand. The luohou war spear appeared in his hand and he struck down like a long whip.

The battle spear turned into a Dragon's spine in the air and struck down like a lightning bolt!

Yunxiao sneered. He didn't care about Guang Yuan or the Lotus throne anymore. He was also looking forward to a battle at this moment!

Run Xiang seemed to have changed from before. Although he could not tell what was going on, it had triggered Yunxiao's warlike blood!

Whether it was in his previous life or this life, Gu Feiyang or Yunxiao at this moment, they had both reached the peak of martial arts step by step through countless challenges, and the peak was full of corpses.

Do you dare to fight? What a joke!

I'll stand on the road of martial Dao and grant you death! Yunxiao grinned. I'll kill you!

The sword Qi in his hand rose, and the ice sword emitted a loud sword cry. The cold light shone on the water as he stabbed at the Dragon spine!

At this moment, the hall was extremely chaotic, but the fight between the two still attracted a lot of attention from all sides.

The Golden Lotus in Guang Yuan's hand transformed into a vast and mighty force that struck in all directions!

“Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!”

Several marine race experts were forced back by this force. Some of them even spat out blood and suffered internal injuries.

After the first move, Guang Yuan did not press on with his victory. Instead, he stood in the air with confidence and turned his eyes to the battlefield where Yunxiao and runxiang were fighting, his eyes filled with uncertainty.

the young genius of the North Sea, can you live up to my expectations? ”

A question arose in his heart, and the answer would soon be revealed.

At this moment, the other three island Lords had entered the chaotic battle. Feiming and coldfeather were locked in a fierce battle, while Zhao wenzhan was up against the elite who had exchanged for the nine-colored sky conch. The other party was actually someone with extremely strong mental power.

The nine-colored sky conch did not need to be refined in his hands. He directly used it. He put it to his mouth and blew. A sound wave gathered into a line, crushing Zhao wenzhan's spiritual attack and bombarding it.

Meanwhile, Nine Heavens and the three water droplet tribe experts were engaged in a fierce battle, and it was difficult to determine who was superior in the short term.

What made everyone's heart tremble was that the power of the profound level weapons in their hands was constantly flowing away, while the other party's profound level weapons were completely fine, and the more they fought, the more courageous they became.

Darknorth kangtian also realized the seriousness of the matter and was unwilling to fight with his subjects for a long time. He immediately formed a seal with one hand, and a Nebula appeared in his palm.

"What?" the guest laughed in surprise. Are you going to get serious?"

"I don't have time to chat with you. I'll send you to hell directly!" Darknorth kangtian snorted coldly.

The Nebula expanded from his palm, and the entire Hall trembled. The space around them began to shatter.

Everyone's hearts were filled with shock and horror at the mighty power of the stellar clouds. At the same time, they were overjoyed. Under such a vast and mighty power, it was very likely that the restrictions in the hall would be broken.

Guang Yuan's pupils also contracted slightly. At this moment, everything in the hall was trembling, except for the Lotus seat on the ceiling, which was still floating there quietly, not moving at all.

The guest's expression also changed drastically. His hands quickly formed a seal, and a round mark appeared in front of him.

He roared several times, and the muscles on his body directly bulged. Meridians appeared on the surface of his body, and his entire person actually grew twice as tall! With the appearance of his meridians, formations began to appear one after another. There were hundreds and thousands of them, dazzling everyone's eyes!

Shock appeared in Guang Yuan's eyes, and he muttered to himself, "Is this the sage wheel? It's indeed a powerful divine body!" He stared at the guest, his expression dark and uncertain.

After breaking the seal in his body, the guest's eyes turned cold and he said coldly, "Kuafu chasing the sun!"

He clasped his hands together, and a divine body phenomenon appeared on his body. A blazing sun rose slowly, like a wheel!

Darknorth kangtian's expression changed. He turned over his palm and slapped it in the air while he shouted, "My life has an end!"

...

The power of his palm gathered into a vortex and pressed down on the divine body phenomenon.

The Nebula had just risen, and the scorching sun was in the sky!

"BOOM!"

The two strange forces collided, and the entire Hall instantly lost its color, turning into a pale white.

No one could see or hear, and all they could see was a white world.

"Boom boom boom!"

After a while, there was a loud rumble as if a battleship had passed by. The deafening sound lasted for a long time!

Suddenly, a ray of golden light shone down. It was as if the dark clouds had been parted to reveal the blue sky. All the color of the vast sky dissipated under the white light.

Everyone looked over in shock, only to see the magnificent Dharma Lotus platform spinning on its own in the sky, sprinkling down rays of afterglow.

Guang Yuan's expression changed drastically as well, revealing a look of surprise. He was not the one who had instructed the Lotus platform to move, but rather, it had done so on its own.

His face sank. There were still too many wonderful aspects of this Lotus platform that he had yet to control. When he thought about how his strength had returned to its peak and how he had regained control of the Lotus throne, he couldn't help but feel excited.

...

After the golden light of the Lotus platform dispersed the White mist, everyone was overjoyed to find that the restriction had indeed been broken. The entire Hall had turned into ashes and smoke from the confrontation, and not even a trace could be found.

Suddenly, a vast and mighty force rose again, and darknorth kangtian's cold voice came, "I'm not done yet!"

Another strange phenomenon appeared between heaven and earth. Darknorth kangtian's figure appeared in the sky. The blue veins on his forehead were bulging as he put his palms together in front of his body.

An extremely strong cold air spread out from his hands, almost solidifying, turning into layers of thin ice in the air.

A shadow appeared behind him and formed a beautiful pattern with the ice crystals in front of him.

"Ha!"

Darknorth kangtian let out a loud roar. He opened his palms and began to quickly make hand seals.

Rays of golden light began to appear in the Blue World of Ice, forming a vast pattern.

Killing intent flashed in his eyes as he said coldly, "Take this, three moves beyond the heavens-Swift like a Swan!"

The huge pattern suddenly fell from the sky and crushed down on a part of the island.

Everyone trembled under this pressure, but they were even more ecstatic, as if they had seen the hope of victory.

Guang Yuan's expression also changed drastically, revealing a look of shock. Under that vast pattern, even he could sense extreme danger, and he muttered to himself, "Are these the so-called experts of the seven superpowers? As expected, they are not inferior to the royal families of the four Seas!"

A strong light suddenly burst out from the bottom of the giant pattern.

The figure of the guest appeared again, and the formation on his body was suddenly projected into the air, forming a complicated world of formations.

"BOOM!"

Under the pressure of the strange phenomenon, the entire array world burst into golden light, rising into the sky and rushing into the giant pattern.

The two forces were locked in a stalemate for a moment before the astonishing phenomenon finally won and crashed down!

"Boom boom boom!"

The ground exploded with dust, and huge cracks spread in all directions. The entire Island was split open by this move!

The island's earth vein was instantly pierced through, and a shocking strange power poured into the ground, constantly extending down.

Everyone turned pale with fright, but they were also ecstatic. The entire Island began to show signs of violent death!

"BOOM!"

Suddenly, a huge tremor came from the bottom of the island. A surge of golden light shot up into the sky and dissipated all the destructive power.

The golden light swirled in the air above the island and began to shine with the Lotus seat.

The xiankong Island, which was on the verge of collapse, suddenly quieted down. The cracks that were constantly spreading also stopped, and the power of the aftermath of darknorth kangtian's attack had completely disappeared.

"This Tao Wu!"

Everyone was dumbfounded as they looked in shock at the continuously spinning Lotus seat in the sky.

What was going on with this profound level weapon? How could there be such a heaven-defying item in this world?

Water deity was also completely stunned. She stared at the Lotus platform in the sky in a daze. The expression on her face began to turn into one of shock, as if she had recalled something.

Chapter 1098-so I've heard

The water deity was stunned. Her disbelieving expression turned into shock and ecstasy. Her eyes were filled with excitement as she muttered to herself, "If it's me, Wen Qianqian, this lotus throne is actually like me, Wen Qianqian."

Her voice wasn't loud, but everyone present was an expert, so they all heard it clearly.

However, most people did not understand what "so I've heard" meant.

Only Guang Yuan and Zhao wenzhan's expressions changed drastically.

Guang Yuan was also extremely shocked. He looked at the Lotus seat in the sky with an indescribable, complicated gaze. He had always been guessing the origin of this item. He had long guessed in his heart, but he just didn't dare to confirm it. Now that he had heard water deity's words, he no longer had any doubts!

The water deity said excitedly, "first island master, this is what I've heard about the FA Hua lotus throne!" Please return the ocean emperor's palace!"

Everyone's face darkened. This little girl was still sleepwalking!

Guang Yuan's current actions clearly showed that he did not think much of the sea emperor's palace. Moreover, with such an important treasure, and his own extraordinary strength, he could just find a random place to avoid being hunted down by the sea emperor's palace.

However, everyone was also extremely shocked. So this magnificent Dharma Lotus platform came from the ocean emperor's palace. No wonder it had such heaven-defying power.

Guang Yuan licked his dry lips, smiled, and said, "Don't worry, Your Highness. I've heard that you've lost too much power, and now is the best time to recover. I'll send it back to the sea emperor's palace after it's fully recovered."

Water deity heaved a sigh of relief and said, "that's good." Then I'll have to trouble the first island master, finding this is what I've heard, I really can't even dream of it. Imperial father will definitely be very happy. This is a peerless art. "

Guang Yuan laughed out loud, and as he looked at the Lotus seat, his face was bright.

It was said that in ancient times, the four Seas were not United, and there were no Royal clans. They all had their own formations and killed each other.

At that time, tens of thousands of members of the sea tribe died every day. It was hard to count, and it was called the barbaric era.

At that time, there was a peerless master who, with his power, subdued the four Seas and hundred races. He came from all over the world and completely ended the barbaric era, starting the era of the sea Emperor that had continued to this day.

That expert was also the first generation ancestor of the Bo family, reputed to be the only Lord sea God in history.

After the ocean goddess had conquered the four Seas, she began to divide the four Seas into different races. The current five grades of S, A, B, C, and D had been passed down from that time, and the royal families of the four Seas were also the rulers appointed by the first generation of the ocean goddess, and no one dared to go against them.

In order to get rid of the violent and ruthless aura that had been passed down from generation to generation in the sea tribe, the sea god would come to the current Holy Land of the four Seas every ten years to teach and educate the people.

In the depths of the ocean Forest, the Holy Land of the four Seas, there was originally a pure white Lotus flower with extremely strong spirituality. Every time the sea god opened a path for him to teach, he would listen from a distance.

Finally, year after year, there came a day when the sea god imparted his Dao. As this Lotus listened, it suddenly attained Dao, and its pure white Lotus body turned into a brilliant golden light.

This not only shocked many members of the sea Race, but also triggered the lightning in the world. A world-destroying Zifu divine lightning broke through the void and struck toward the Golden Lotus.

At that time, everyone was shocked by the purple Thunder. Under the might of the heaven and earth, all living things seemed so small and could only be blown away by the rain and wind.

The Golden Lotus began to shine with golden light. It wanted to resist the divine lightning of destruction, but all of its defenses had been destroyed with a single strike. In its despair, the sea goddess had made her move.

Everyone knew that the sea god was powerful, but they didn't know just how powerful he was.

However, he managed to save the Golden Lotus with a single move.

However, the Golden Lotus was already on the verge of death after being struck by the Zifu apocalyptic godly lightning. It was on the verge of dying from the dissipation of its spiritual energy.

After a moment's thought, the sea goddess refined the Golden Lotus into a Lotus platform of Fa Hua in front of all the strong people. Because the Golden Lotus had attained Dao when it was listening to teachings, it was named "so I heard."

From then on, rushheard had become the Emperor of the ocean emperors.

However, this thing had been lost for many years, and even the current Poseidon had never seen it before. He only knew about it from some records.

One could only imagine how excited the water deity was when she first saw it.

However, this silly girl still happily waited for Guang Yuan to repair it and then send it back to the sea emperor's palace.

Yunxiao could not help but smile wryly at her innocent look, but he was not in the mood to expose her at the moment. Even if he pulled her into the battle, she would not be of any help.

In the distance, darknorth kangtian was also exhausted after performing the three moves from beyond the sky. He stood in the air, gasping for breath.

The guest and Minister were blasted into the ground and disappeared without a trace.

But, Yunxiao knew that the fleshly bodies of the guests and ministers were incalculable, and even if they were injured, they could not have died just like that. They had most likely found a place to hide.

Li Yunxiao, how dare you be distracted? ”

RUO Xiang’s expression turned cold, and anger appeared on his face as if he had suffered a great humiliation.

The Dragon spine in his hand roared, and the vertebrae let out crackling sounds as white bone Shadows filled the air.

Yunxiao’s figure was constantly smashed into pieces by the Dragon Air, but all of them were just afterimages.

His voice came from all directions as he laughed, ” “I’m sorry, the shaking just now was too big and scary. Now that you’ve regained your senses, I can send you on your way.”

RUO Xiang’s face darkened and he said, ”Hmph!” I’ll make you pay for disrespecting me!”

He pulled back his right hand, and the Dragon spine flew back and turned into a dragon head on his left shoulder. His right hand grabbed in the air, and a beam of light condensed in his palm, turning into a three-pointed, double-edged spear.

“Clang”

As soon as the spear appeared, it immediately let out a powerful sound!

Nine copper rings hung on each of the two blades, and as Yun Xiang's origin power poured into the spear, waves of ferocious beast roars came from it.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he stared at the spear with a solemn look. With his eyesight, he could naturally tell that the spear was extremely extraordinary.

However, he had fought with Runxiang many times, but he had never seen this profound level weapon before. He had never seen Runxiang use it even at the moment of life and death, so Yunxiao could not help but be suspicious.

RUO Xiang held the three-pointed, double-edged spear in front of him. A golden light appeared on the spear and formed an ancient Maha character in the air.

Maha ancient weapon! Yunxiao's face flickered. It's a Maha ancient weapon!

The Golden Maha ancient character changed in the air and turned into a Halo. Roars came from within, and even the shadow of a fierce beast appeared in the air and circled around the Halo.

A sneer appeared on RUO Xiang's face as he said softly, "Sixth break, heaven warping!"

The long spear burst out with a golden light as if it was a scorching sun in his hand. He took a step in the air and used spatial bending as he slashed down!

Yunxiao's face darkened as he performed a sword incantation with his left hand and touched the frosty blade of the cold sword. A crisp sword sound rang out, and an exquisite sword talisman shot out. The ice sword pierced into the sword talisman, and a blue array appeared under his feet.

...

A surge of power slowly rose from the array and suddenly poured into the cold sword frost, sweeping across the air.

RUO Xiang closed in, raised his battle spear with one hand, and slashed down.

“Bang!”

The three-pointed and two-edged sword’s roaring power directly broke through the defense of the array and slashed at the sword!

“Bang!”

The Halo on the spear exploded at that moment, and an indescribable force roared out and pounced at Yunxiao!

“Your sister!”

Yunxiao was taken aback. He knew that this was the power of laws derived from the ancient character of Maha, and that Ru Xiang could already control it at will.

He didn’t have time to think. All of his strength was focused on the ice sword. At this moment, he was being suppressed by the opponent’s three-pointed, double-edged spear. He was completely unable to escape!

The power of the rule force had already come down from the sky. At this critical moment, the immemorial heaven’s eye in the heart of his brows suddenly opened, and he actually punched!

It was the fist of the calabash Little King Kong. A cold white flame appeared on the tip of the fist, dancing non-stop.

...

“BOOM!”

Under the pressure of the fist, the rule force was directly blocked.

The dancing white flame crashed into the explosion of light, and the golden light on the swords lost its color in an instant, turning gray.

“What?”

RUO Xiang was shocked. He, who originally had the upper hand, suddenly felt a terrifying aura coming at him.

The insufferably arrogant battle spear seemed to be suppressed at this moment, as if it was about to be extinguished in an instant.

He was horrified. This spear was one of the deals he had made with Guang Yuan. He had planned to catch Yunxiao off guard with it, but he did not expect it to be taken down just as he had gained the upper hand.

A sneer appeared at the corner of Yunxiao’s mouth as he said coldly, “ competing with me on profound level weapons? your head must be stuck between the door!

Two heads and four arms stretched out from behind him. One of the arms grabbed a hammer and smashed it towards his head.

RUO Xiang was taken aback. A suction force suddenly swirled around Yunxiao’s sword, which suppressed him and made him unable to withdraw, while the hammer smashed down with the force of ten thousand Thunderbolts!

At this critical moment, the spine of the Dragon on his body loosened, and the Dragon head on his left shoulder suddenly opened its mouth and bit the hammer.

“BOOM!”

The hammer struck the Dragon's spine, and lightning shot out in all directions. The impact made the white bone struggle in the air, and the dragon's head trembled non-stop.

With this shock, Yun Xiang also pulled out his battle spear and flew backwards.

The White spinal bone immediately flew back and coiled around his body again. Run Xiang looked at the Dragon head with a pained expression.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted. The spine of the Dragon seemed to be different from before. He couldn't tell exactly what was wrong. If it was a dead object that could turn into the Luo hou battle spear before, then now that it had the Dragon head, it had a hint of intelligence.

Moreover, the Dragon head just opened its mouth and looked like it was going to eat someone.

He could not help but turn his head and glance at Guang Yuan in the distance.

That Guang Yuan was currently strolling leisurely under the siege of the crowd, easily dealing with them. From time to time, he would pay attention to the fight between the two of them, and from time to time, he would pull out his dragon head to swallow a few people, eating with great relish.

Chapter 1099

1099 The heart of martial arts

Suddenly, the sound of a conch rang out, and the sky rippled like water. An extremely strong power of sound waves came down from the sky, enveloping Guang Yuan's entire body within.

As the space fluctuated, a grayish-white Sea tribe member appeared at the source of the sound wave from time to time. He was holding a nine-colored sky conch and blowing at it.

Guang Yuan's heart jolted, and he looked around.

His attention had been on runxiang and Yunxiao the whole time. In the distance, Nine Heavens and coldfeather were fighting hard, but Zhao wenzhan was nowhere to be seen.

could it be that zhaowen is dead? ”

A cold killing intent burst out of Guang Yuan’s eyes. Zhao wenzhan was a ninth-tier Alchemist, and he was extremely important to him, whether it was for eating or using.

“Dammit! Where is the fifth Island master?”

He roared loudly and raised his right hand. He clenched his five fingers and gathered Qi. Then, he threw a punch in the air!

“BOOM!”

A green fist radiance streaked across the sky and dispersed the conch sound. The fist radiance continued to attack the man.

The man frowned and put the conch down. His whole body turned illusionary and disappeared in the air.

“Damn it!”

A cold glint flashed in Guang Yuan’s eyes, and he said coldly, ” “You think you won’t die if you hide?”

His body disappeared on the spot and in the next moment, he appeared beside the FA Hua Lotus platform. His hands formed a seal.

A ray of light shot down from the Lotus platform and enveloped her.

Guang Yuan’s eyes suddenly became golden and brilliant, and he looked down at the sky.

“Over there!”

His pupils contracted, and he threw a punch in the air!

“Bang!”

Everything in sight was blasted apart by the fist force!

“Pfft!”

A figure was shaken out of the space and spat out a mouthful of blood. He hurriedly changed his form in the air and landed on the ground in a few flashes, fleeing into the distance.

“Hmph! The entire Island is formed by my visualization, so where can you escape to?”

A hint of pity and ridicule flashed in Guang Yuan’s eyes. He was just about to give chase when his body suddenly froze. His pupils suddenly opened wide as he looked towards the distant Yun Xiang, revealing a grave and excited expression.

In the distance, Yun Xiang’s body started to change. His spine fused into his body and he transformed into a Dragon in the air!

The Dragon head on his spine directly appeared in front of his chest, as if it had come to life. Its eyes bulged and shot out rays of cold light.

Golden scales appeared on his body, and a pair of horns protruded from his forehead. His spiritual aura was as threatening as Jade.

Every change in his body caused a loud boom, as if he was connected to a distant time and space.

His hands turned into dragon claws, and he held the three-pointed, double-edged spear in one hand. His aura had already risen to its peak, directly causing a strange phenomenon in the world. A strange aura rippled in the sky.

“?! This is Yingluo.”

Everyone’s heart trembled violently, and they unconsciously stopped fighting and looked up at the sky in horror.

This aura seemed to have come from the ancient times. It made people shiver and fear rose in their hearts.

Especially those oceanic species ‘experts, their legs were all soft, practically about to kneel down in the air.

Yunxiao’s face also turned solemn. Under the Dragon’s might, even he felt a pressure in his heart, and he could not breathe.

In the distance, the movements of Nine Heavens and coldfeather, as well as feiming and the rest, also stopped, all looking over in shock.

Under the mighty Dragon’s might, the people of the sea tribe were the most affected. Even the water deity’s expression changed slightly, revealing a look of shock.

hahaha, Dragon Transformation, this is the true dragon Transformation!

Guang Yuan suddenly laughed loudly, his eyes shining with an abnormally excited light as he said loudly, genius of the North Sea, let me see your endless potential!!

There was a calm expression on RUO Xiang’s face, which was the complete opposite of the violent and excited look from before. His eyes were like water, shining on all living things without leaving a trace.

a part of the true Dragon’s form has really appeared, ” Yunxiao said seriously. is this the trump card that gave you the courage to fight me? ”

RUO Xiang did not answer. He raised his head and looked at the endless sky and the endless sea in the distance.

“I was born in a C-Class sea clan in the North Sea.”

He suddenly said something strange, and everyone was stunned. Guang Yuan also furrowed his brows, but he still did not make a sound, and quietly continued to listen.

my birth was a catastrophe for my race, because my father was the ruler of the North Sea, and my mother was only the daughter of a C-Class sea clan leader.

thus, my mother’s family was reduced to dust in the ocean with my birth.

A ripple finally appeared in run Xiang’s watery eyes, like a small stone being thrown into an ancient well. that includes my mother.

Everyone’s heart jolted, and they revealed different expressions.

“I was five years old that year, and I’ll always remember the scene of their tragic deaths,” run Xiang said calmly.

“Then I was brought to the palace of North Sea and forced to acknowledge a man I’ve never met as my father. That day, I was thrown into the abyss of the North Sea.”

“Ah!”

The water deity couldn’t help but exclaim in shock. She covered her mouth with her little hand and revealed a look of shock.

Meanwhile, Guang Yuan’s eyes flickered with a brilliant light, but his expression remained the same.

Among the people present, only the two of them knew what the abyss of the North Sea was. It was the cruelest place of trial in the North Sea. It led directly to another space. Even an adult sea tribe member would find it difficult to come back alive from there.

...

because that man said that the blood in my body has been contaminated, and I'm not worthy of being his son unless I can return from the abyss of the North Sea.

RUO Xiang raised his head, his eyes flashing with reminiscence as he continued, I was only five years old back then, and my strength hadn't reached the eight desolates realm yet. Many of the other members of the royal family were already at the peak of the eight desolates realm.

The Marine race was born with a powerful bloodline, and some excellent S-Class races were even born as Nine Heavens realm experts.

He closed his eyes slightly, and a look of loneliness and pain flashed across his face. It was as if there was only pain left when he recalled the events in the abyss of the North Sea.

it took me three years to break through to the martial Supreme of the eight desolates realm. This was already the worst talent among the crown princes of the North Sea at that time. But, Yingluo "

The aura on RUO Xiang's body underwent a violent change, and his inner emotions seemed to be affected. His sharp eyes suddenly opened, and he said in a cold voice, " but I must become the strongest. I must return from the abyss of the North Sea and kill them all!!

"Ah!"

The water deity cried out in shock again. Under the ferocious expression on Yun Xiang's face, she suddenly felt a little scared.

The rest of the people listened quietly. There was not much change in their hearts. This was because the survival of the sea Race was extremely cruel. The level of the bloodline almost determined the fate of one's life.

Yunxiao's eyes narrowed slightly as he said calmly, "Then you killed them all?"

RUO Xiang smiled, and a determined smile appeared on his face as he said, "It took me five years to finally escape from the infernal realm! Although I'm still in the eight desolation realm, no one in my generation is my match. I've killed 22 of my father's 32 sons!"

...

A chill ran down everyone's spine. Although there was no family love in the imperial family, this brat was too ruthless!

This showed how much of a psychological impact he had suffered back then to have such a vicious heart at such a young age.

Guang Yuan's face was dark, and his eyes were also slightly narrowed, as if he was sensing the kind of mood that Ru Xiang was feeling. He had also been injured by his own brothers and almost died from the pursuit.

"Those who cursed at me and my mother, I'll return them all with my fists. Once, seventh brother called me a bastard to my face, so I blew up his head on the spot and hung his body in front of the palace gate for three months. No one dared to collect his body!"

A cruel smile appeared on RUO Xiang's face as he said, "After killing father's 22 sons, he also killed their mother's line! I also bit off the flesh of the person who killed my mother and killed him!"

The cold gleam in his eyes grew colder and colder as he stared at Yunxiao and said, "The remaining ten didn't die not because they didn't curse me, but because I couldn't beat them back then. After I kill you, I'll go back to the North Sea and kill them all!"

Sweat!

Everyone's face was filled with black lines.

many people tried to kill me in secret, but I dodged them all. I even returned the favor with ten times the amount of force!

from then on, my talent and fierce reputation spread throughout the entire North Sea. Everyone trembled in fear when they heard my name!

"Actually, my talent is really trash, but I have a heart that must win! No matter how strong the other party is, I must defeat him, I must! This is my heart of martial arts, runxiang of the northern Sea!"

An unusually determined power suddenly burst out from his eyes as he stared at the boundless ocean. It was as if he was traversing endless space and staring at the end of martial arts.

in order to defeat the ten brothers, in order to defeat the hero in my heart, the King of the North Sea, my father, I have stepped into the heavenly martial continent to pursue a higher martial Dao!

just when I was full of confidence, thinking that I could sweep across the world, cross the four Seas, and defeat all the young generation, you showed up, li Yunxiao!

RUO Xiang's eyes contained an extremely complicated expression, but it was even more ice-cold and murderous. He said ferociously, "You're the one who shattered my dream! No one has ever been like you, standing in front of me like a tall wall. No matter how hard I try to grow, I can't get over it! Every time I felt that it was enough to kill you, I found that you had already become stronger. The gap between us not only did not shrink, but it was getting bigger and bigger!"

Li Yunxiao, should I be grateful to you or hate you?"

RUO Xiang asked a question that made him feel conflicted. He laughed and said, "It's also because of you that I've been able to reach where I am now and possess the power of the Dragon. I should be thanking you! Ever since the defeat at the red moon City, there has never been a moment like this, where I feel so close to you."

today, I'll use your bones to build a flight of stairs under my feet. Let me take another step towards the end of the martial Dao!

RUO Xiang's five fingers clenched, and a vast power burst out from his arm. A heaven-shaking Dragon's Roar soared into the sky!

Chapter 1100

1100 The battle of geniuses

The Dragon Qi from RUO Xiang's body was so strong that it shook the entire xiankong Island.

Amitabha's light grew even more brilliant, like a barrier protecting the Xian Kong Island, causing the ground to gradually calm down.

At this moment, the person who was the most shocked was beiming Laifeng. He had the same feelings as Yun Xiang!

The two of them were peerless geniuses that were hard to come by in ten thousand years. They were supposed to be unrivaled in the world, standing at the peak of the younger generation and commanding the wind and clouds.

But, it was all because of Yunxiao!

Yunxiao's appearance swept across the sky like a comet, overshadowing all the experts of the same era!

To be in the same generation as such a genius, was it a joy or a sorrow?

RUO Xiang did not know, and neither did beiming Laifeng.

The Dragon's Roar reverberated across the entire Island and resounded through the heavens and earth!

“Sixth break-heaven warping!”

die! RUO Xiang shouted, and with a loud explosion in the air, he appeared above Yunxiao, holding the three-pointed, double-edged spear with one hand and slashing down!

Yunxiao's face had always been calm, but at this moment, a fierce look slowly emerged in his deep eyes as he said ferociously, “I can't do as you wish! I'd be more than happy to use your true dragon body to pad my feet!”

A dazzling cold light burst out of the frost Sword as Yunxiao roared and swept it across!

His body continued to turn golden as he activated the imperishable golden body to its strongest.

Although RUO Xiang had only partially transformed into a Dragon, Yunxiao could sense the might of a true dragon from the few Dragon treasures in his body.

At this moment, the strength of RUO Xiang's body was only higher than his.

“Bang!”

The two divine weapons collided in the air, releasing golden and blue rays of light that continuously impacted the sky and earth.

“Bang! Bang!”

Just like that, the two of them began to hack at each other in the air, constantly shooting out sword Qi and spear light, which was dazzling.

“Six cuts-judgement!”

go! RUO Xiang shouted, and a strange power burst out of the spear. Wherever it passed, the sky was set ablaze by the golden light on the spear, and it became a golden sea of fire.

“Bang!”

Yunxiao raised his sword to block it, but he was knocked back in the sky.

RUO Xiang laughed as he walked over and said arrogantly, I have endless power in my body. The battle has just started and you can't take it anymore?”

Yunxiao's face darkened as he pointed his long sword at the sky. Sword intent spread out in the universe, and a sword talisman fell from the sky. His body was like a sword, and the cold sword in his hand shot out a cold light, splitting the endless sea of golden fire and slashing up.

At the same time, his body turned into lightning. He held the hammer in his left hand and a ring of stars spread out from his body, triggering wind and thunder in the world!

“Lightning Art!”

Yunxiao roared, and the ring of stars around him spread out. He raised his left hand, and a bolt of lightning fell from the sky and gathered in the hammer.

Under the brilliant light, purple lightning as thin as hair shot out continuously.

The Golden Maha ancient text shone above the hammer, and the power gathered became stronger and stronger.

Under this heaven and earth Thunder, everyone turned pale with fright, especially some Thunder attribute martial artists, whose faces changed greatly.

The purple Thunder fist expert who had been injured by Guang Yuan earlier was also affected by this power, and the Thunder in his body surged.

The purple color of his lightning energy was entirely due to the inheritance of his bloodline. It had only mutated into a purple color, and its power was only a little stronger than the green lightning. However, the purple lightning that was constantly gathering in the sky at this moment was a genuine world-destroying divine might!

Even Amitabha seemed to have sensed it, and the light on the Lotus platform became even more brilliant.

There was a look of surprise and uncertainty in Guang Yuan's eyes. What puzzled him was that while everyone's profound level weapons could not escape Amitabha's absorption, Yunxiao's sword and hammer were fine.

Most of the profound level weapons on the entire Island had been absorbed. At this moment, there were only a few extremely strong profound level weapons left. For example, the nine-colored sky conch of the gray-white person in the distance, and the strange-shaped metal piece in the hands of the water drop tribe's expert. Even existences of such levels found it difficult to suppress the release of the profound level weapon's spirit.

The shock in Guang Yuan's heart grew deeper and deeper. He could sense that Amitabha's absorption was far from full-the difference was too great, a world of difference from what he had sensed earlier!

"W-what's going on?"

He was shocked. He had calculated that the spirit of the profound level weapon was enough to fill two Amitabha, but now it had only recovered a small part.

"Don't tell me it's Zhenzhen?"

Guang Yuan was horrified. could it be that Yunxiao has all those powerful profound level weapons, and he has put them into the cauldron of mountain and river? "

As soon as this thought appeared, it spread uncontrollably and became more and more convinced!

who the hell is this kid? he's so talented in both martial arts and martial arts. He even has the Supreme grade profound level weapon, the cauldron of mountain and river, and so many other heaven-defying profound level weapons!

A complicated look flashed through Guang Yuan's eyes. There was shock, and also fanaticism, but more than that, there was greed and killing.

"Bang!"

In the sky, Ru Xiang swept away Yunxiao's sword Qi with his spear, and his eyes turned serious. He had also sensed the extraordinary power of the Thunderbolt, so he raised his spear and slashed at it.

it's useless. Unless I summon the real Shangqing Zifu world-destroying godly Thunder, this little purple lightning is not even enough to fill the gaps between my teeth!

break! RUO Xiang shouted as he swept his spear through the air. A golden light shot out from the void beside him and fell on Yunxiao. six cuts-judgment!

"Tsk!"

Yunxiao sneered. A Blood Moon instantly appeared in his eyes, and the whole space began to spin. His body turned into a ring of light and was sucked into the Eye of the Vortex before disappearing.

"What?"

Everyone turned pale with fright. Under such a domineering attack from RUO Xiang, the sky and earth were directly sealed, and he could actually escape? How strong was his spiritual power?

...

RUO Xiang's face also changed drastically. He was shocked and angry to find that every time he saw Yunxiao attack, it was beyond his expectations, as if this man had endless trump cards and strength that could never be dug out. This made him go berserk, and he roared, "Come out! If you have the ability, then don't Dodge and fight me fair and square!"

"Hmph," he snorted.

A faint sneer appeared behind him as Yunxiao's body materialized and he said mockingly, "Real battles aren't just about the physical body."

RUO Xiang's face sank. He did not dare to turn around and directly swept his long spear behind him. With a "boom", the sky was split open!

But, Yunxiao's figure appeared in front of him in an instant. His eyes were full of pity as he said in a cold voice, "Since the gaps between your teeth are so big, you can stuff this hammer in as well!"

His hammer, which had gathered the power of endless lightning, suddenly smashed towards Yun Xiang's mouth!

RUO Xiang was scared out of his wits, and his eyes almost popped out. Endless lightning struck over with a long tail, wanting to destroy the heavens and earth!

"True dragon Avatar!"

The battle spear was already sweeping behind him, and there was no way he could withdraw it. At this critical moment, he suddenly roared and his entire head transformed into a Dragon. The two horns on his head flashed with a Jade-like light as he used his head to block the attack.

"BOOM!"

The hammer directly smashed onto the two dragon horns of Yun Xiang, and tens of thousands of lightning bolts stacked on top of each other and struck down, continuously blasting into his head!

...

What everyone saw was a dragon's head struggling and roaring under the lightning.

RUO Xiang only felt a heart-wrenching pain on the top of his head, and there was a Thunderbolt that broke through his skin and flesh, making his head buzz.

you motherf * cker, die!!

die! RUO Xiang roared madly, and his battle spear swept from behind, cutting the sky and slashing down with golden flames!

“You dare to hurt me! Die die die! Sixth break-world breaking!”

He had lost his mind from the hammer, and a large amount of blood was flowing down from the top of his head. He did not know what was going on, but he only had one thought in his mind-to crush Yunxiao into pieces!

Yunxiao was also shocked. 'Why can't such a divine Thunder kill me? is he really a true dragon?'

The light from the two horns on run Xiang's head dimmed, and a large amount of blood seeped out from the roots, covering his entire face, making him look even more ferocious.

He didn't dare to be careless when he saw the world-breaking spear strike. He quickly retreated.

RUO Xiang became one with his spear and chased after him. He swore that he would only stop after he killed him.

In a hurry, Yunxiao had no choice but to raise his cold sword and slash at the man. With a gesture of his sword, a strange phenomenon appeared between heaven and earth, as if a boundless sword intent was spreading out around him.

“Bang!”

The spear clashed with the sword, and the world-shattering power forced him to fly back. The sharpness of the three-pointed and two-edged sword swept across his body, leaving wounds.

The demonic sky armor appeared instantly and was worn on his body. He was like an armored God of War, blocking all the spear radiance.

Yunxiao’s sword Qi also soared into the sky, striking runxiang’s dragon scales and making them clang.

“Die! Die!”

RUO Xiang’s eyes were bloodshot, and all his strength was concentrated in the spear, making Yunxiao breathless.

The two of them instantly turned into a ray of light and shot into the ground!

“BOOM!”

A huge tremor came from the island, and the ground cracked. Even the Lotus seat was affected, and it glowed with golden light.

“BOOM!”

Not far away from where the two men had fallen, a ball of light burst out. It was Yunxiao, who had flown up into the air, looking a little embarrassed. With an angry face, he roared, “You’re the one who’s going to die!”

He transformed into three heads and six arms. He held the great sorrow Twilight Cloud Mirror, the Thunder hammer, and the thousand Autumns Overlord saber in his hands and smashed them down!

At the same time, his hands continuously formed hand seals, and a massive true fiend Dharma idol immediately appeared behind him.

“BOOM!”

A golden flame shot up from the ground and shook off all of Yunxiao’s attacks.

A Dragon’s Roar shook the nine Heavens, and then a Dragon’s Shadow was seen in the sky. Holding the halberd in both hands, run Xiang rushed up and slashed at Yunxiao.

“Hmph!”

Yunxiao snorted coldly as he put his palms together and formed a heaven and earth seal, which shone with a brilliant light.

The giant true devil behind him also formed a seal with its hands, but the seal was formed by demonic Qi, which looked like a black abyss.

“Boundless heaven and earth, six paths reincarnation!”

Yunxiao’s true fiend Dharma idol immediately launched two seals at the same time, one big and one small, one in front and one behind, one gold and one black, falling on Yun Xiang!

In the distance, the two men’s faces were solemn, and their eyes were filled with shock.

One of them was coldfeather. Yunxiao had used this move to break his extreme form before, and as a bystander, he could feel that the move was not weak, and it could indeed compete with his power of an eight-stars Martial Emperor.

The other man was darknorth kangtian. The shock on his face was hard to describe. He seemed to have recognized the origin of this move. A huge wave surged in his heart, and his eyes were filled with fear.
