

The Eternal 1151

Chapter 1151-Prince Xiaoming's seal

"Haha, you really deserve to die!"

Guangle laughed hideously and said with ill intentions, you probably don't know how terrifying a high-level martial Supreme can be, do you? "

I really don't know, " Yunxiao said coldly. I'm waiting for Lord guangle to show me.

"I'll fulfill your wish!"

let's go! Guang le shouted, and the aura on his body suddenly burst out. The strength of his Dragon Breath rose steadily, and it instantly rose to the peak of a seven-stars Martial Emperor.

"Die!"

The long whip in his hand trembled, and "pa pa pa" sounds rang out from the body of the whip. It gradually transformed into the shadow of a Dragon, roaring as it charged down from the sky.

Yunxiao stared at the long whip, and his pupils gradually dilated. The long whip was actually refined from the corpse of a sub-Dragon, with more than ninety percent of its body intact.

This was also because the sea Race lacked alchemists, but they had too many natural treasures. Otherwise, if such treasures were refined by the sea of soul formation, the quality would at least be improved by several levels.

"Hmph!"

Yunxiao snorted lightly as he raised his cold sword, sending out ancient Maha characters. His entire body was as still as a mountain, and a huge sword shadow appeared. Blue cold air scattered, and a dark shadow appeared on the transparent body of the sword.

“One sword to slash the heavens!”

The cold sword and frost let out a clang, and an ear-piercing sword cry spread across the entire seabed!

“Swish.”

The sword Qi cut through the sea water and headed toward the long Dragon.

“BOOM!”

The huge sword shadow was extremely sharp as it directly pierced through the long Dragon’s throat!

“Die!”

Guang le’s eyes were filled with rage as he shouted.

He suddenly put his hands together and quickly formed a seal.

The long whip in the sky that had been shaken off by the sword Qi instantly opened up and became more than ten times thicker, revealing the true form of this profound level weapon. Suddenly, its ferocity increased greatly, and its eyes flickered with a dark green light.

that’s right! guangle said proudly, “ I’ve found someone to refine this alternative Dragon’s body into a puppet. Its physical strength is ten times stronger than before, and it’s hard for any weapon to hurt it! Let’s see how you’re going to deal with this!”

kill! he shouted as he changed the hand seal.

The scales on the Dragon-shaped puppet's body opened up one by one, turning into countless sharp triangular pieces of iron, which rushed down.

Yunxiao sneered as he held the sword in front of him and shouted, "One sword to slash the ground!"

He charged forward with his sword in hand, only to see a flash of cold sword Qi.

"Bang!"

The Dragon-shaped puppet exploded in an instant. Its throat was pierced through by the cold sword, and Yunxiao's entire body went through.

The puppet let out a loud roar. It seemed to have suffered some damage and fell to the ground with a loud "bang."

Guang le was dumbfounded. Even he would find it difficult to break through the defense of the alternative dragon puppet. How could it be that the puppet was like a piece of tofu in the hands of the other party?

"Damn it!"

He roared and changed his hand seal. He leaped into the sky again and roared.

Guang le leaped up and stepped on the dragon's head. The black Dagger in his hand was unsealed and turned into a long sword. It gave off a cold light and he said coldly, "Enough playing!"

"Oh?"

Yunxiao smiled contemptuously, and a cold gleam flickered in his eyes as he said, "Since that's the case, I'm not in the mood to play monkey with you."

He quickly formed hand seals with both hands and transformed into three heads and six arms. At the same time, a huge black Dharmakaya appeared behind him and descended into the deep sea!

“What?”

Guangxian’s heart trembled. The oceanic species ‘experts who had participated in the subduing of the devil were also greatly shocked. They revealed an expression of shock.

Guang le was also stunned. He could not see the face of the dark demonic figure behind Yunxiao at all, but it gave him an extreme shock.

The black demonic figure formed a hand seal and slapped down from the sky. His five fingers were like mountains, pressing down on the bottom of the sea.

“Boom boom boom!”

The entire sea water boiled, and the immense water pressure burst out layer by layer, pressing down on the Dragon-shaped puppet. The sound of bones cracking could be heard all over its body, and it was actually unable to move. It could only struggle slightly.

Guang le was shocked. The black sword in his left hand exuded a demonic and evil power. He slashed out a sword talisman and stabbed out in the air.

“Swish!”

A gap was created by the endless water pressure, and the violent force was dispersed in all directions.

Suddenly, Guang le’s body trembled. Above the boiling sea water, an extremely strong ray of light descended rapidly.

One could vaguely see that it was in the shape of a huge sword, and all kinds of golden runes were dancing around it.

Outside the sword shape, there were 15 sharp weapons that were arranged in a strange position, forming a sword diagram.

In that instant, before he could come to his senses, he was already within the sword formation, and a terrifying sword Qi that could destroy the heavens and earth pounced at him.

“Damn it!”

Guangle roared in shock and anger. A large amount of evil Qi gushed out from the black sword in his hand. Black patterns rolled out and shot out ten black lights in all directions!

“BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!”

The black sword Qi rampaged through the million sword illustration, stirring up Qi activity, but it could not shake the million sword illustration!

...

“Your Highness, is this the power of a high-level martial Supreme? I’ve already experienced it, so it can end now!”

Yunxiao’s cold voice rang out as he performed an incantation gesture.

The sword diagram began to spin, and the sword momentum suddenly increased. The sharp sword Qi instantly turned into boundless killing intent, spreading out below.

Even the experts in the distance were shocked.

“Hahaha!”

Guang 'an laughed out loud and said smugly, " Didn't I tell you? li Yunxiao can easily kill guangle. Hmph!

Guangxian's eyes flickered with surprise as he looked at Guang 'an with a profound look. He was so frightened that his face turned pale and he hurriedly shut his mouth, not daring to say another word.

"Don't underestimate me!"

Guang le was shocked and furious. The boundless killing intent directly invaded his skin, causing him to tremble!

A sense of humiliation spread through his body. His eyes turned red, and he no longer dared to hide his strength!

"Boom boom boom!"

...

A series of popping sounds burst out from Guang le's body as Dragon Breath burst out. He had directly crossed over the realm of a seven-stars Martial Emperor and stepped into the eight-stars realm!

Guang shun's expression changed drastically. His entire person turned dark, and his eyes were unperceivably cold.

All kinds of shocked voices followed one after another, all of them greatly shocked.

His Highness guangle has also become an eight-stars Martial Emperor. It's amazing!

His Highness guangle has always been extremely talented and hardworking. Finally, the heavenly Dao rewards the hard work.

hehe, in this case, there are four crown princes above the rank of eight-stars Martial Emperor. It's really the good fortune of Donghai!

Guangxian, on the other hand, had no expression on his face. He just watched the changes in the situation quietly, but his eyes were focused on Yunxiao, not letting go of any of his movements.

"Lowly human, it was you who forced me to display all my strength!"

"You'll have to pay the price for this!" Guang le roared.

The conflicts between any of the great clans in the four Seas were extremely intense, especially as the Crown Prince. There was a possibility of death if one was not careful. Therefore, every talented Crown Prince would cultivate with all his might. Every bit of strength they gained would increase their chances of survival.

Once Guang le exposed his power as an eight-stars Martial Emperor, he would inevitably be involved in the fight between the top few crown princes. Among the four crown princes who were eight-stars and above, he was the weakest and would most likely be the first to be eliminated.

If Guangxian and the other powerhouses were not watching this battle, he would rather admit defeat than reveal his trump card.

Now, his anger had turned into boundless fierceness, and he was going to take all the blame on Yunxiao!

Guang le cast an incantation seal into the puppet under his feet. The same Dragon Breath shot out and formed vortexes of different sizes in the air.

The Dragon-shaped energy on his body and the power of the puppet suddenly merged together and twisted into a rope. It spread out within the sword picture and swept away the killing sword intent!

"The Dragon fights in the wild!"

An earth-shattering roar rang out as the mixed Dragon Breath power on Guang le's body broke through the restraints of the sword diagram!

"Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!"

The 15 Northern heaven cold star swords were continuously shaken off from the array position, making a clattering sound.

Yunxiao's eyes narrowed, but there was no emotion in them. Instead, he changed the spell in his hand.

The huge black shadow behind him also transformed into three heads and six arms. The arms' postures were different, and one of the arms had an additional illusionary weapon that looked like a saber.

"So what if you broke the sword formation?"

Yunxiao's voice was cold and emotionless.

The true fiend Dharma idol's hands formed an imprint, and a vast power spread out.

The Golden Maha ancient characters appeared on the handprint, and the surroundings were filled with monstrous demonic Qi.

The Golden Holy Radiance and the dark demonic energy intertwined, forming a sharp contrast.

Guangxian's eyes were filled with shock, as if he had seen the most unbelievable thing in the world.

"Xiaoming royal seal!"

break! Yunxiao cried out as the golden seal fell from the giant true devil's hand and pressed down on guangle, who had broken through the sword diagram!

The Ming King seal was a magic art recorded on the cauldron of mountain and river, and it could only be used with spiritual power.

However, when the experts of the sea Race had besieged di ye, di ye had used the power of demonic Qi to activate the Daqiao bugong sword, which had also triggered the Maha ancient character, which had greatly inspired him.

Later, after sealing Bo Yuqing's meteorites, Yunxiao began to try to use them with his devil essence. He failed a few times at first, but with his amazing understanding of seals, he made a slight change and created this seal.

Although it was not as powerful as the bright King seal, it was still powerful enough to suppress everything!

“BOOM!”

The huge seal formed by the seal of little bright slammed into Guang le's Dragon Qi. It was as if the sky had covered the top and directly crushed down!

The Dragon Breath of guangle and the puppet was directly shattered!

Guang le roared in anger. Like a trapped beast, he was still fighting. His body kept changing, revealing his true body. He roared as he tried to break through all the shackles.

“You won't die if you don't seek death. It's your fate to be suppressed by me.”

Yunxiao's eyes were still as clear as water, without a trace of emotion.

He raised his hand, and the cold sword, frost, was raised in the air. Streams of cold air shot out, and the sound of weapon chiming rang out.

The true fiend Dharma idol also raised the hand that was holding the illusory blade. The two of them did the same action and pointed directly at Guang le.

“One sword strike!”

As the cold sword was thrust forward, countless sword rules appeared around it and gathered on the sword.

The triple slash was a type of extremely high level sword intent, which was in line with the Dao of the sword.

The saber projection above the giant true devil spirit also slashed down, directly draining the surrounding seawater, and a terrifying black saber projection descended from the sky!

He had just rushed back from the banquet to write, but the gods were still in a daze.

Chapter 1152-the secret of the East Sea

The illusory blade and cold sword combined into one. The black and white blade aura and sword Qi instantly slashed onto Guang le’s body, crushing the endless Dragon Breath!

“Boom boom boom!”

The black-and-white light struck Guang le’s body directly, and with a loud bang, he was thrown into the depths of the sea.

The entire ground shook and the mountains trembled. The ground cracked for thousands of miles, and mud was stirred up. The area within a radius of thousands of meters was stained with mud.

Everyone looked over in shock and saw that Guang le's puppet weapon had already been cut into three pieces and scattered on the ground. Guang le was nowhere to be seen.

Guang shun's face was filled with shock, his heart in turmoil.

Yunxiao's saber and sword moves were no longer beneath his strength.

A sense of absurdity spread in his heart that a four-star Martial Emperor had the power to compete with him.

He wasn't the only one. All the oceanic species 'experts had solemn expressions.

In the endless light, Yunxiao retracted his avatar, and the cold sword, ice, disappeared from his hand as he slowly descended from the sky.

There was complete silence.

"Gulp!"

Guang 'an swallowed his saliva with difficulty and said, "Is He Dead? Are you dead?"

I'm fine," Yunxiao said. fortunately, Lord guangle showed mercy. I'm fine. However, I don't know if Lord guangle is dead or not."

Everyone's face turned livid. They could see that this man was calm and composed. He had blasted an eight-stars Martial Emperor into oblivion with just two moves. Moreover, he had only shown the cultivation base of a four-star Martial Emperor from the beginning to the end. This was too hard for them to accept.

"Pa! Pa! Pa! Pa!"

not bad, " Guang Xian praised, clapping his hands. the person Bo Yuqing recommended is indeed quite capable. I'm even more at ease now.

"Lord Guangxian, this human has acted recklessly and should be killed!" One of the oceanic species 'experts said angrily. Please allow me to take him down!"

The elemental energy in his body surged in anger, and the powerful force caused the seawater around his skin to evaporate continuously. It even directly pushed away the seawater, creating a vacuum.

Guangxian said indifferently, "Guangle has overestimated himself and brought humiliation upon himself. Who can he blame?" As the Crown Prince, he can't judge the situation and count the number of wins. Today's defeat is his greatest gain."

No one dared to make a sound, each with a different expression, each deep in thought.

Guang shun's eyes flickered as he looked at Yunxiao with a profound look.

Li Yunxiao, come with me.

Guangxian flicked his sleeves and walked into the palace.

No one dared to follow him, so Yunxiao followed him slowly.

The entire Palace was empty except for the two of them, one in front and one behind, their figures seemed a little bleak.

Li Yunxiao, do you know where the rain land is? "

Guangxian said slowly.

I don't know," Yunxiao said. but I don't know why you want an outsider like me to go. Any of the experts out there would be stronger than me."

Guangxian looked at this human, and the shock in his heart grew stronger and stronger. He suddenly asked,"Have we met before?"

of course not! Yunxiao was startled. why do you say that? "

Guangxian's eyes were filled with confusion as he said,"Because you give me the feeling that you're someone."

Yunxiao breathed a sigh of relief. I don't think it's reliable. he said.

"Is that so?"

"That unruly gaze and calm demeanor are almost exactly the same," guangxian said indifferently.

where is Lord guangxian's friend now? " Yunxiao asked, his heart stirred.

A cold glint flashed in guangxian's eyes as he said, " "That person is not my friend. That person is extremely famous among the human race. I'm sure you've heard of him. A thousand years of wind and clouds are all laughed away, and the world will shine from the past to the present."

Yunxiao,'hehe'.

He was secretly on guard. At guangxian's level, his perception of all things was very strong and very accurate.

Although he had changed his appearance completely, his personality and attitude could not be changed no matter what.

are you talking about Gu Feiyang, the martial sovereign Vanquisher? ” Yunxiao asked.

Guangxian’s face was frosty as he said, ”It’s this person! I’m sure you’re aware of the enmity between him and my Sea Race. Perhaps Yingluo, geniuses like you all have the same temperament.”

you’re too kind, Lord Guangxian, ” Yunxiao said, wiping his sweat.

Yunxiao had never dreamed that the two great enemies of his previous life would be able to talk so freely like friends. It was a wonderful feeling.

Moreover, the enmity between the two had been going on for a long time. Moreover, Gu Feiyang was indeed dead. There was no need to harp on the previous matter.

During the trip to the eastern sea, everyone had their own standpoints, and there was no right or wrong.

Moreover, he was proud and arrogant at that time, and the sea Race was arrogant and conceited. The conflict broke out with a little contact.

Now, he was more mature than he was in his previous life, and Guangxian seemed to be different.

”Let’s talk business,” Guangxian said. Do you know why I value the rainbow stone so much that I’m willing to start a war between the two races to find it?”

that’s what I don’t understand, ” Yunxiao said solemnly. I don’t understand. If Lord Guangxian wanted to use it to cultivate his dual-pole body, he would not have allowed it to transform into a spirit on its own and leave. Could it be that it has other uses besides cultivating the dual-extreme body?”

”The dual polarity body,” Guangxian said, ”you also know about this? Bo Yuqing should have told you, right?”

His voice sank as he said, "that's right!" The existence of the rainbow stone is related to the life and death of the sea around the eastern sea Palace!"

Yunxiao listened quietly.

...

Guangxian's expression was very serious. you know about the first migration of the palace. That rainbow stone does not belong to the East Sea. It was obtained by a genius ancestor from God knows where. He used it to cultivate the extreme yang divine body, and he succeeded!

Yunxiao trembled and asked, 'what does it mean to succeed in cultivating it? All eight gates are open?"

Guangxian nodded and said, "indeed, all eight gates are open!" That ancestor was indeed a peerless genius among the four Seas. It's a pity that he's still not satisfied even after cultivating the extreme yang divine body. He even peeked at the demon master's clone that's suppressed under the palace!"

I understand what happened next, " Yunxiao said. that ancestor sneaked into the seal, released the demon Lord, and was possessed by him. Hence, the suppression of the Lotus platform was broken and the entire spiritual vein at the bottom of the sea was completely cut off!"

"That's right!" Guangxian said. That senior's talent was something that we could never hope to match. Not only did he release the devil Lord, but he also refined the devil essence and destroyed the original consciousness of the devil Lord's clone."

an extreme yang body and the power of devil essence! Yunxiao said in horror. who in the world can match him? "

Guangxian looked at him with a strange expression and said, "Just the extreme yang body and devil essence, do you really think it's that powerful? Di ye has two extreme bodies and a few clones, but it seems that he is only so powerful, right?"

that's because di ye has not fully absorbed Xiao Hong's power, " Yunxiao said in a deep voice. After all, they have two divine senses inside!"

As he said that, Yunxiao suddenly recalled the look in Xiao Hong's eyes, and he could not help but feel his heart ache.

He continued,"since that ancestor was able to break the seal, he must have been a great expert of this generation." With all eight gates open and the help of devil essence, I'm not far from God Realm."

He muttered,"I wonder what happened to this senior after that?" Could it be that the four Seas have joined forces to suppress it?"

...

Guangxian's brows locked together and he revealed a pondering expression. He muttered to himself,"I don't know,"

"What? You don't know?"

The answer shocked Yunxiao. "How can I not know? At the very least, this rainbow stone is here. That senior must have died, right?"

Guangxian shook his head and said,"it's exactly as you've guessed. That ancestor has few rivals in the current world." Even the ocean Emperor of that generation was far inferior to him. After that ancestor refined his devil essence, he was indeed possessed by evil, causing the four Seas to join forces to suppress him. But the result was a failure."

failed? " Yunxiao frowned. failed? " Could it be that the ancestor was also seriously injured and gradually died?"

Guangxian sighed,"it's said that in that battle, that ancestor killed all the powerhouses of the four Seas and severely injured the ocean Emperor of that generation." After that, he left behind the rainbow stone and resealed the devil essence before disappearing without a trace."

The hall was completely silent. Not a single sound could be heard.

“Have you thought of something?” Guangxian suddenly asked.

He could not help but ask when he saw Yunxiao looking a little dazed.

After he asked, he laughed. How could such a young four-star Martial Emperor know so much?

However, as the two of them conversed, he unconsciously felt that the other party was an old friend that he had not seen in a long time. He did not know why he had such a strange feeling.

I wonder if Lord Guangxian has noticed a phenomenon,” Yunxiao said, “these sages of the past and legendary powerhouses seem to have disappeared in the end.

Guangxian was stunned. His expression changed drastically and he began to ponder.

I don’t know about the situation of the sea Race,” Yunxiao said. but, in the end, no one can tell where the few powerhouses of the human race went. It seems that they just disappeared into thin air, leaving behind countless legends of them stepping into the immortal realm.

He thought about the lost space that Ye Fan mentioned. Could it be that all the experts went to search for the lost space? did anyone succeed?

He suddenly felt a surge of hot blood in his heart, as if he wanted to follow the footsteps of these ancestors and walk toward the uncertain future.

Guangxian was also silent. Yunxiao’s words seemed to have made him ponder deeply.

“I don’t know why, but I actually feel like we hit it off when we talk,” he slowly said.

it's good that we hit it off, " Yunxiao said with a smile. maybe you'll let me go when you're happy.

Guangxian coldly snorted and laughed as well, "It's troublesome if we hit it off. Maybe I'll like you and make you stay in the East Sea as a guest forever."

I'm not someone to be trifled with, " Yunxiao chuckled. can you really trap me for the rest of my life? "

"Oh?"

Guangxian was surprised and said, "don't tell me you're still confident in escaping?" If it wasn't for the fact that the matter of the rain land is too important, I would really like to make a bet with you."

'There will be chances in the future,' Yunxiao murmured. What's going on with the rain?"

Guangxian stared at him and said, " you're very confident. And it's extreme. It's extreme confidence. You're so confident that people think you're crazy or that you're extremely ignorant and stupid. However, the truth is the complete opposite!"

Chapter 1153

1153 The gathering of rain

Guangxian stared at Yunxiao and said, " "Not only are you not ignorant or stupid, but you are also extremely intelligent and knowledgeable. That's why I'm really curious, what kind of person are you?"

Yunxiao met his questioning gaze and said indifferently, " "What you see is what you see. Whatever Lord Guangxian thinks is what you see."

"If that's the case, then I'm the one who's being pretentious," Guangxian said indifferently.

"Yes," Yunxiao said with a smile.

The two of them were speechless, and the entire Hall fell silent.

After a long time, Guangxian sighed. Your heart is higher than I expected. I originally thought that Bo Yuqing was already a genius among your human race. You were even higher than him.

That rainy place? ” Yunxiao said with a wry smile. Maybe he’s more suitable than me.

I’ve been considering him from the start, ” Guangxian said. Now I realize that you’re not much weaker than him. You might even be stronger in other aspects.

“The so-called rain land is the place where all the raindrops gather,” he continued. “It’s also the sacred land of the East Sea Dragon race, the graveyard of all the past Kings.”

Yunxiao trembled in shock. The tombs of the past Dragon kings of the sea Race were definitely Supreme existences, and it was hard to imagine that outsiders were allowed to enter.

“Now you know why everyone is against it,” Guangxian said.

Why did you choose me? ” Yunxiao asked in shock. I’m an outsider!

Guangxian said, ” that’s because only the kings of the east Sea or the Dragon guards who guard the rain land can enter the rain land. The rest of the powerful cultivators, even those at the peak of the nine-star level, are only qualified to be buried there after death. The rain land is a sacred place that no one in the clan can invade.”

So, an outsider can invade me? ” Yunxiao asked in confusion. What? ”

“Of course not!” Guangxian shook his head. However, there was a restriction specifically targeted at the descendants of Dragons in the rain. Any descendant with the blood of the first Dragon would be greatly suppressed when they entered. And most importantly, you’re a ninth-tier Alchemist, which is why you and Bo Yuqing are completely different from others. In the entire Eastern Sea, apart from the royal family, it’s impossible to find anyone who can cultivate both martial arts and martial arts at your level.”

Must I be an Alchemist? ” Yunxiao asked. Do I have to be an Alchemist? ”

Guangxian nodded and said, "that's right." It's because I want you to go to the rain land to take out two things, and we talked about it before. They were the first dragon's blood essence and the Dragon shaking hammer. The Dragon shaking hammer was the thing that suppressed the dragon clan in the rain land! These two items are the most precious treasures of the East Sea. Unless I have no choice, I won't let you enter the resting place of my ancestors."

I'm afraid these two things are related to the big event in East Ocean," Yunxiao said. I understand that the blood essence of the first Dragon should be the blood of the dragon child. Does such a divine item really exist in this world?"

"I won't hide it from you," Guangxian said. I'm not sure if the blood essence of the first Dragon exists. But do you know why the Dragon ancestor's tomb was chosen to be at the place where the rain gathered?"

Yunxiao was an Alchemist and had a wide range of knowledge, so he immediately understood what was going on. "Ten thousand raindrops have gathered to preserve the corpse from decaying!"

Guangxian's eyes flashed with a sharp light and he said, " As an Alchemist, you should know more than I do. Can the place where the rain gathers really keep the corpse immortal for ten thousand years? "

His eyes were fixed on Yunxiao, as if he was eager to know the answer.

those are just records," Yunxiao said with a wry smile. no one knows if it really has such an effect. But if it's the real Yingluo ..."

He suddenly stopped talking, and the two of them looked at each other.

Yunxiao's eyes were filled with shock, while Guangxian's eyes flickered with excitement.

Yunxiao licked his dry lips and said with great difficulty, " "If it's true, doesn't that mean that there's a complete corpse of a true spirit?"

This deduction shocked him. If it was true, this was definitely the greatest wealth in the entire heavenly martial arts realm, and its value was not below that of a transcendent grade profound level weapon!

“I’ll leave this matter to you to verify,” Guangxian said with a serious tone.

Yunxiao’s forehead was covered in cold sweat as he said, “As the Lord of the eastern sea, you can’t enter the rain land?”

Guangxian said slowly, “the Lord of the eastern sea only has one chance to enter in his life, and that is before he dies.” it’s not just me. All the powerhouses above the nine-stars Martial Emperor level in the dragon clan have to rest in the rain before they die. That’s where our fate ends. However, there is one exception, and that is when you are seriously injured and can not be treated, you can also pray to open the rain land.”

Yunxiao frowned, as if he had heard the problem. “Pray for it to open?”

“That’s right!” Guangxian nodded. Although the rain land is our clan’s Holy Land, it’s not under our clan’s jurisdiction. It can be said that it’s not under anyone’s jurisdiction. The rain land had its own dragon guards. Every nine-stars Martial Emperor and above expert of the dragon clan can pray to the Dragon guards to open the rain land if they are seriously injured and can’t be cured. This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity, and I’m no exception. There is an extremely powerful Dragon Breath in the rain. As long as you don’t die in there, it can heal almost any injury.”

He waved his hand, and a beam of light shot toward Yunxiao.

Yunxiao raised his hand and made a grabbing gesture. The beam of light immediately spread out in his hand and turned into a light diagram, which was displayed in front of his eyes.

this is a little memory of when I entered the rain land, ” Guangxian said. I hope it can help you.

what? ” Yunxiao was surprised. you’ve been in the rain? ” Then you’re the one who ran!”

“I was indeed severely injured back then,” Guangxian said. “I had to recuperate in there for two years. After my injuries were completely healed, I wanted to explore the secrets of the rain land, but I was immediately chased out by the Dragon guards.”

Yunxiao’s face darkened as he said, “If even you can’t enter, how am I supposed to enter?”

Guangxian looked at him and said, “I left a spatial imprint when I came out back then. It’s still there after so many years.” I’ve tried to enter that place many times, but I couldn’t. But you can.”

you really think too highly of me,” Yunxiao said. I’m not a fool.

“It’s not that I’m looking up to you, but it’s the human race’s Supreme-grade profound artifact, Noah’s boat,” Guangxian said with a smile.

Yunxiao’s face flickered as he said in a cold voice, “Did Bo Yuqing tell you this too?”

Guangxian placed his hands behind his back as if he was in control of the universe. He said indifferently, “You don’t need to know how I know. You have to know that this is your chance to leave. Moreover, the essence blood of the first Dragon is also to make up for the missing rainbow stone.”

rainbow stone?” Yunxiao frowned. what’s so important about rainbow stone?” How can it be related to the life and death of the eastern sea?”

“What do you think of the spiritual Qi here?” Guangxian asked.

powerful! He’s not just powerful!

the spirit vein here is extraordinary,” Yunxiao said enviously. coupled with the large-scale spirit gathering array, it’s comparable to any cultivation Holy Land in the world!

“Don’t you feel anything wrong?” Guangxian asked.

“Something is wrong?”

Yunxiao’s eyelids twitched as he closed his eyes and began to sense.

After a few breaths, he opened his eyes and revealed a strange expression. “There’s some Yin Qi in this spiritual Qi?”

“Not bad!”

as expected of a ninth-tier Alchemist, ” guangxian praised. you can even sense such a subtle change in spiritual energy. The spirit vein here was Yin cold. If it was used for too long, it would cause immeasurable damage to the body. We are not alchemists, and the first generation of our ancestors who migrated here were all poisoned by the cold Yin, which is difficult to cure.”

...

‘I see!’ Yunxiao said. There must have been an expert who instructed you to use rainbow stones to block the eye of the spiritual vein. Rainbow stones are stones of extreme yang, and can dispel the cold Yin Qi.”

“Your intelligence and wisdom really makes me feel uneasy!” Guangxian said.

what’s the use of having high intelligence? ” Yunxiao said with a wry smile. Didn’t I still become your prisoner? I finally understand why Xiao Hong was able to transform into a human. It’s because after being stuck in the eye of the spirit vein for so many years, the nourishment it received would allow even the most ordinary stone to become a spirit.”

“I’ve thought about it for a long time,” guangxian said. “In today’s world, only the blood essence of the first Dragon is an item of extreme yang, and can eliminate the cold air in this place. As for the Dragon shaking hammer, it’s also a legendary item. I’m sure that it’s in the rain. This is because the Dragon shaking hammer is a sacred artifact that can restrict the power of my clan in the rain!”

Lord guangxian, do you mean that you want me to take away the Dragon shaking hammer, so that you Dragons can easily enter the rain land without being shackled by the restrictive spells? ” Yunxiao asked.

“This matter is not as simple as you think,” Guangxian said. “You can just get it for me.” The rest didn’t need to be asked. Once the Dragon quaking hammer is in your hands, it will definitely alert the Dragon guards. You need to be mentally prepared.”

What about the strength of the Dragon guards? ” Yunxiao asked.

I haven’t really come into contact with them, ” Guangxian said. At that time, there was a restriction from the Dragon shaking hammer, so I couldn’t sense their power. However, he was at least above a nine-stars Martial Emperor. There are four dragon guards on duty each time, and I’m not sure how many there are in total.”

Do you think I can escape from four nine-stars martial sovereigns? ” Yunxiao said with a dark face. I’m not going to let you go.

If we fight, we’ll definitely die, ” Guangxian said. So we can only take it and escape in Noah’s ship.

“Are you sure I can escape?” Yunxiao asked.

...

“Of course not,”

“Even I don’t have the confidence,” Guangxian replied, “it all depends on you.” But you’re so smart, I still have confidence in you.”

f * ck you! Yunxiao cursed. &Nbsp;

Guangxian laughed as if he was in a rare good mood, “Let the owner of Noah’s ship come out.”

“Are you leaving now?” Yunxiao asked.

“Of course,” Guangxian replied. “Haven’t you already fully recovered your strength? do you still want to drink a cup of tea?”” alright, ” Yunxiao nodded. give me a few cups of starry sky ancient tea.

“If you can come back alive, I’ll definitely treat you to a drink,” Guangxian said.

He struck out a talisman in the air, which kept growing bigger and bigger in the air, becoming unstable.

“This is the set of coordinates. Feel it for yourself.”

Guangxian said unhurriedly.

A white light flashed between Yunxiao’s eyebrows, and Ye Fan appeared in front of the two.

After a brief explanation, Yunxiao said, ” “Feel these spatial coordinates and see if you have the confidence to go over.”

Ye Fan nodded, both of his hands formed a seal as golden light floated around his body. His divine sense seemed to be able to follow the golden light, pushing it away and exploring the spatial coordinates.

Chapter 1154

1154 The rain

Ye Fan had a puzzled expression, his brows furrowed even tighter.

The golden light flickered in front of the spatial coordinates and immediately returned to Ye fan’s body. He opened his eyes.

what a strange place. It’s not a lost space, but it’s also in the realm of heavenly martial arts.

“I’ll try,” Ye Fan said.

Guangxian frowned and said, “give it a try?” If we don’t have the confidence to make it through and draw the Dragon guards “attention, our plan will be a complete failure.”

Ye Fan smiled confidently: “ even if I can’t go over, I can escape unscathed. I will not be discovered.

“Oh? Noah’s ship is like thunder in my ears. I finally have a chance to see its power today.”

Guangxian’s face flashed with surprise as he indifferently said.

Yunxiao sighed in his heart. Ye Fan was still too young, and he had exposed the magic of Noah’s ship at once. The more powerful they were, the more dangerous it would be.

Ye Fan didn’t realize this, he made a hand seal and the warship slowly flew out of his body, turning from illusionary to solid, it was golden in color and shone with a bright light.

The Golden battleship kept spinning in front of the spatial coordinates, emitting thousands of runes that danced in the sky, forming a huge array talisman that seemed to be connecting the passage.

Both Yunxiao and Guangxian watched Ye fan’s every move and Noah’s ship’s every change without blinking.

According to the records, after the battleship was built, ye Nantian tried to enter Mount Meru with a group of powerful cultivators, but they failed.

Therefore, although Noah’s ship had the great power to travel through space, Yunxiao had never had much hope. In addition, Ye fan’s ability was a world’s difference from ye Nantian’s, so he did not dare to try it in the abyssal prison.

The runes that filled the sky quickly gathered around the spatial coordinates and condensed into a complicated array. It became quiet, so the light and shadow suddenly stopped.

Ye Fan was overjoyed, he smiled: "It's connected!"

"No problem?" Guangxian's eyes widened as he asked.

Ye Fan gave a thumbs up and said proudly, "No problem!"

Yunxiao's face was filled with mixed emotions, and it was difficult to grasp his inner thoughts. He just sighed and said, "Let's go," he said.

Ye Fan nodded and his hand seals changed. The two of them turned into a ray of light and flew into the battleship, heading towards the tunnel.

Countless golden runes danced in the air again before they were all absorbed into the warship.

Under countless golden lights, Noah's ship slowly disappeared from the hall with the two of them on it. The space imprint also dissipated.

Guangxian stood alone in the cold hall. After the light disappeared, his face was as cold as ice and became gloomy.

Shua shua shua!

Countless bubbles suddenly appeared in front of Guangxian and gathered in one place.

Gradually, a purple jade carriage appeared in the water bubble. It stopped quietly in the hall, and the atmosphere was heavy.

"Lady Zi, I knew you wouldn't be able to sit still and would come to me," Guangxian suddenly chuckled.

“Hmph!”

Madam Zi’s cold snort came from the purple jade Condor carriage. “Stop pretending to be calm! Guang Yuan is not dead. If you could sit still, why would you need this human to take the Dragon shaking hammer? However, did that thing really exist? I’m afraid that even you can’t be sure?”

“The Dragon shaking hammer definitely exists,” Guangxian said. “The Dragon-subduing enchantment in the entire rain land is used for this.” What I’m worried about now is the blood essence of the first Dragon. If I can’t find it, how am I going to suppress the extreme cold spirit vein in this place?”

it’s indeed hard to find yang-attribute treasures, especially in our Four Seas, ” Madam Zi said. yang-attribute treasures are very rare. I’m afraid we’ll have to make a trip to the mainland.

that’s why I’m continuing to send more troops to the heavenly martial continent, ” Guangxian said. if there’s no Shi long blood essence, the human race will have to offer an extreme yang treasure.

human alchemists are terrifyingly powerful, ” Madam Zi said. they can even refine a Supreme-grade profound level weapon, so it’s not a problem for them to refine an item of extreme yang. However, even if that Guang Yuan did not die, he should have lost more than half of his cultivation. Even if his cultivation base is not crippled, his progress over the years is limited. If we join hands, is there a need for a divine item like the Dragon shaking hammer?”

Guangxian’s eyes exploded with a terrifying cold light. The powerful aura from his body spread out in all directions, shaking the purple jade carriage until the defensive light on it lit up.

“Giggle giggle!”

A burst of impudent laughter came from within the purple jade Condor carriage. Her voice was filled with endless charm, seemingly out of place from her dignified and luxurious appearance from before. so many years have passed, yet you’re still so unconfident.

Guangxian’s hair fluttered under the fluctuation of vital Qi, making him look extremely angry. He shouted, “Shut up! What would a woman like you know? Guang Yuan used decades of effort to refine it, and according to Bo Yuqing's intelligence, he will soon recover to his previous peak strength, and even break through a step further!"

Lady Zi's laughter was interrupted by Guangxian, but she did not get angry. Instead, she said slowly, "I've heard that no one knows how strong he is. Even if he has really reached the peak of the martial Supreme realm, don't forget that you are the Lord of the East Sea now. Do you think he can be stronger than the demon master if you gather all the experts to attack him?"

Guangxian snorted, "the East Sea seems calm, but undercurrents are surging." Not to mention those reclusive super clans, even if it's you six families, how many of you are truly loyal to me?"

Lady Zi sighed and said in a soft voice, "I don't know about the others, but do you still not understand my heart? If not for you, how could I have betrayed and plotted against Guangyuan? Now that he knows that Guang Yuan is still alive, he's the first to appear to help you solve your problems."

Guangxian said coldly, "if you had not betrayed Guangyuan and turned to me, how would you have the status and power you have today?" If Guang Yuan was not dead, how would you be able to sleep peacefully? Don't be so pretentious in front of me!"

Guangxian did not buy it at all. He paced around the palace with his hands behind his back and said, "Make the necessary preparations. I'll set off at any time when I need you. Now, Yingluo "

"Hehehe, you're really a bad person."

A teasing laughter rang out from within the purple jade Condor carriage. It was incomparably reverberating, reverberating throughout the spacious hall, causing everyone's mouths to go dry.

A pure white hand stretched out from behind the bead curtain in front of the carriage and rolled the curtain aside. A delicate little foot also stretched out, and a yellow and red embroidered shoe was about to step on the ground.

"Now, get lost immediately!" Guangxian said coldly.

His voice was very soft, but it was like a Thunderbolt to lady Zi's ears. Her entire body trembled, and her foot, which was about to land on the ground, froze.

"What did you just say?"

Lady Zi shrieked in anger. She was furious.

"This is the palace of Donghai. Show some respect, Madam Zi!" Guangxian said coldly.

His voice was filled with contempt and disdain, as well as a trace of sternness.

Lady Zi felt a chill in her heart when she felt the sharp aura. All her anger was instantly swept away. The expression on her pale face changed. In the end, she withdrew her small foot and put down the bead curtain.

"Goo Goo Goo!"

...

A large number of bubbles appeared outside the purple jade carriage, turning the surroundings white. Lady Zi's emotionless and cold voice came through. "I will do my best to help you kill Guang Yuan, but I will also remember your heartlessness today."

The large number of bubbles gradually disappeared, and the chariot was no longer in the hall.

"Hmph!"

Guangxian snorted disdainfully and strode outside. Soon, the hall was empty.

.....

After Yunxiao and Ye Fan entered the spatial tunnel, they were surrounded by nothing but Noya's ship, which was emitting a golden light and shuttling through the void.

Ye fan's body was covered in golden light, it was as if he was one with the warship.

Yunxiao carefully observed Ye Fan. He could feel his primordial energy flowing rapidly through his body, but Ye fan's condition was indeed very strange.

The strangest thing was that he could not see his cultivation level.

Even when Yunxiao activated the power of the lunar pupil, he could not see through Ye fan's strength, which shocked him greatly.

"We're here!"

...

Ye Fan suddenly said, his eyes opened.

A white light flashed in front of Noah's ship, and before Yunxiao could react, he rushed over.

"Huala!"

All the darkness and white light disappeared, and a picturesque world appeared in front of him.

Green mountains, green water, ancient trees, and the sound of water.

The surrounding light was reflected by the White mirror, and it was a little glaring.

Upon a closer look, one would realize that the huge white mirror in the distance was actually a waterfall that connected the sky and the earth. It was as if it fell from the nine Heavens, and the sound of water splashing could be heard in every corner.

The two of them were completely stunned by the scene in front of them.

The entire space was filled with mist. The Green Mountains and ancient trees below were all immersed in the water, like islands.

Those trees were all strange in shape, and most of them were species that he had never seen before. However, they had one thing in common, and that was that they were extremely huge!

Ye Fan was dumbfounded, "is this the rain?" Our ancestor had done extensive research into all sorts of strange spatial zones, but he didn't mention anything about this place in his notes," Yunxiao looked around and said, " "This place is extremely large, but I don't know where the two items are."

Ye Fan also smiled bitterly: " without a single clue, how can we find it? " the situation here is a little strange, " Yunxiao said. you can go back to my divine realm tablet first. I have my own way to find it.

Yunxiao took out the divine realm tablet, and Ye Fan flew into it. Then, another beam of light flew out and took shape in front of him, which was exactly the same shape as him.

Yunxiao smiled wryly. can you not change into my appearance? " It's too weird to look at my other self."

That person was the demonic Dragon. He changed his appearance slightly and said, "I'm basically your second soul now. If I don't take on your appearance, what am I supposed to take on?"

"Whatever," Yunxiao said.

The demonic Dragon rubbed its chin and thought for a while before it began to transform.

After a while, his body began to become slender, his skin gradually became white, and his face slowly became delicate and beautiful.

That figure had yet to fully take form, but one could already vaguely see the peerless grace that could topple all living beings.

Yunxiao's body trembled as he cried out in shock and anger, " "Change again! Do you want to die!"

The demonic Dragon rolled its eyes at him and said, " "You can't do this, you can't do that, and you're telling me to do whatever I want?"

Taiyi had returned home.

Chapter 1155

1155 The water element of heaven and earth

if you really can't do it," Yunxiao said coldly, " you can just maintain your original form.

you humans all look too weird," the demon Dragon mumbled unhappily. it's really hard on me.

He turned around in the air and transformed into Yunxiao's demon form, then said, " "Let's make do with this."

The demonic Dragon looked around carefully. His eyes were filled with surprise, which slowly turned into joy. He said, "What a powerful dragon essence. Guangxian did not lie to you. This place is indeed the Holy Land of the dragon clan. As an outsider, it's hard for you to detect the Dragon essence that has settled down after thousands of years."

He greedily breathed in large mouthfuls, only to feel an incisive pain and pleasure all over his body. He had the illusion that he could directly turn void into reality and condense a physical body.

Yunxiao's eyes flickered as he seemed to be thinking of something else. "Hurry up and check if there's anything abnormal in this space. First, find the first Dragon essence blood and the Dragon shaking hammer. We can't waste such a precious land."

The Dragon was taken aback when he saw Yunxiao's half-smile. don't do anything reckless. Countless Dragon Tribe powerful beings are buried here. Don't be impudent!

He was also a descendant of the Dragon race. Although he was slightly different from the four Seas 'Royal clans, the blood that flowed in his body still had the aura of a true dragon. Towards the countless ancestors who were resting here, they all held a heart of respect.

dust to dust, earth to earth," Yunxiao said. even the ancient true dragons were refined into countless Dragon Mystic treasures and scattered all over the world.

The demon Dragon frowned. Although he said that, he still felt a little uncomfortable watching Yunxiao destroy such a sacred place, so he snorted in dissatisfaction.

However, he still formed hand seals with one hand and began to spread out his soul power to sense his surroundings.

In just a few breaths, the demonic dragon's eyes widened and he exclaimed, " "My power is being suppressed! As expected, there's a restriction that specifically targets the dragon clan!"

can you sense the source of the power?" Yunxiao asked. can you sense it?"

No. the demonic Dragon shook his head. the moment my soul left my body, it was suppressed by a vast force from all directions. I couldn't move at all. "What's going on with this restriction?" he asked in shock. And who had set this up? If this formation is made into a weapon and used to deal with experts with Dragon bloodlines, wouldn't it be able to wipe out everything?"

come back to my body," Yunxiao said. I'll borrow your soul power to feel it.

The demon Dragon immediately returned to Yunxiao's body and merged its two souls into one. Yunxiao's body began to demonize, taking on a certain Dragon shape.

A demonic power with Dragon Breath was released, and the surrounding space suddenly trembled. A vast force came out of nowhere and, as if it was strolling in the air, clamped down on Yunxiao.

A Blood Moon emerged in Yunxiao's eyes, emitting a demonic red light as he looked around.

Various scenes kept appearing in the moonlight pupils, filtering everything he saw.

All kinds of energy began to show different colors in Yunxiao's eyes. The most powerful one was a golden power, which covered the entire sky like a pot lid.

And the power that was restraining him was this golden power.

"The source of this power, Zhenzhen."

Yunxiao's pupils constricted, and he immediately withdrew his demonized state. The Golden Power filtered out of the moon pupil instantly dissipated.

The entire space was enveloped by this power, and the Dragon power was the pull of this restriction. As long as it appeared, it would naturally be suppressed.

Yunxiao transformed into a bolt of lightning and shot into the sky with a whoosh, heading straight for the endless waterfall.

"BOOM!"

The electric beam shot straight into the sky-connecting water curtain with a loud bang, but it was blocked by a force, which forced Yunxiao out of his original form and sent him flying back.

After spinning dozens of times in the air, Yunxiao looked at the water curtain in horror.

The force that stopped him was not unfamiliar. It was Guangxian's signature move, the heavenly water elemental!

Yunxiao's face darkened as he looked at the waterfall that connected the sky and the earth.

"Guangxian has indeed come here before and obtained the extremely powerful and mutated water element, the natural water element. However, since the power of Dragon is confined here, how did he get the water element?"

It wasn't strange for a place where rain gathered to give birth to such powerful Water-type energy.

Yunxiao made a grabbing gesture in the air, and a stream of water in the waterfall was immediately held in his hand, condensing it into a ball and carefully studying it.

The ball of water looked no different from ordinary water, except that its spirit Qi was denser. But, under Yunxiao's moon-like eyes, he found that there was a slight difference in power in it.

"Pa!"

Yunxiao crushed the ball of water and said to himself coldly, "The natural water elemental energy is dispersed in every drop of water and is difficult to gather. However, the area under the sky is connected together and formed a defense. It is indeed a strange place."

He raised his hand, and the ice sword appeared in his hand in an instant. A cold light shone, and the Golden Maha ancient characters appeared one by one.

"Sword technique-demon slaying!"

A powerful sword intent burst out from the ice sword, giving off a powerful buzzing sound. A sword light slashed down at the waterfall!

“Huala”

The waterfall seemed to have been cut open, and the sword light was absorbed in an instant, spreading across the entire sky. The opening closed on its own the moment it appeared, as if nothing had happened.

“You really dare to make a move? aren’t you afraid that the Dragon guards Guangxian mentioned will appear?” the demonic Dragon was shocked.

this place should be safe,” Yunxiao said. the natural water energy can absorb all the power without leaking out at all. And my Sword Art is like a drop in the ocean in front of the power of heaven and earth.”

He had a contemplative look on his face.

“What should we do then?” the demon Dragon asked. If we can’t break through this barrier, we won’t be able to find the core of the restriction.”

Yunxiao’s tightly furrowed brows gradually relaxed as he smiled and said, ” “This might be an opportunity. If I can absorb and refine this water elemental energy, not only will I be able to find a way to break through, but I will also have an additional chance of escaping when I face Guangxian again.”

The demonic Dragon snorted. it’s not so easy to collect the water Essence. It’s too scattered. Unless you collect all the water Essence in this waterfall into the divine realm tablet, but that doesn’t seem possible, does it? ” I do not know what method Guangxian used.”

he can do it, ” Yunxiao chuckled. so can I. If this waterfall were to be absorbed into the divine realm tablet, it would also be a vast ocean and difficult to refine.”

The demon Dragon was a little surprised when he sensed Yunxiao’s confidence and relaxed mood. He knew Yunxiao’s means best, but he could not think of any way.

Yunxiao turned over his left hand, and a pure white object appeared in it.

His right hand formed a seal and sent out several seals that he pointed at the seal.

The White object was a porcelain bowl, a bowl of white rice that he had bought from the xiankong Island.

As soon as Yunxiao's incantation seal was inserted into the bowl, a Halo floated up from the White rice, emitting a seven-colored light, and all kinds of patterns emerged on the bowl.

...

The White rice flew up into the sky and became the size of a winnowing basket. The bowl faced the waterfall.

The surrounding spiritual Qi began to change, gradually turning into a thick liquid, gathering into a stream of flowing water, which gushed into the bowl.

In front of the endless waterfall, the water vapor seemed to be affected as well. It was as if it was attracted by some force, and the flat water curtain bulged in the direction of the White rice.

The light around the White rice became stronger and stronger, and the spirit Qi liquid in all directions turned from a single strand into a tributary, like a hundred rivers and an ocean.

In Yunxiao's lunar pupils, he saw that the spirit Qi that had turned into liquid was scattered with sand-like water elements of heaven and earth, which were also being devoured by the White rice bit by bit.

"What?" the demonic Dragon was shocked. This thing can actually absorb the power of elements?"

He knew that white rice could sense and absorb heavenly materials and earthly treasures, spiritual pulse profound level weapons, but the power of the elements spread throughout the Three Realms and among the five elements, it was invisible. It was not easy to detect it, let alone to absorb it from the air!

“Hahaha!”

Yunxiao looked up and laughed. “It’s divine-grade as expected! I’m afraid even Bo Yuqing doesn’t know the magical effects of this item, otherwise he wouldn’t have sold it at such a low price!”

Back then, he had read through a large amount of information and knew this profound level weapon like the back of his hand. He had even tried to refine one, but it had ended in failure.

Back when he was on the Xian Kong Island, he could not believe that he was so lucky and had directly exchanged for it with the tyrant body tempering technique.

...

The value of the tyrant body tempering technique was, of course, no less than the White rice, but Yunxiao had gained it for nothing.

hmm, the speed of absorbing the spiritual Qi is extremely fast, but the speed of absorbing the water power of this world is very slow.

After laughing, Yunxiao calmed down.

The demon Dragon snorted, “b * tches are pretentious!” At this speed, it will only take three to five years to absorb all the water elemental energy in this place! As for the spiritual energy in this place, I’m afraid it will be completely depleted in three to five months!”

Although he could not see the speed at which the water energy in the world was gathering, he could sense it through the lunar pupil.

Yunxiao frowned slightly, as if he was a little dissatisfied, and said, “Three to five years? Do you think that guangxian and the Dragon guards are fools?”

This place was indeed a rare treasure, but he really didn't have that much time.

three days. Let's just let this white rice absorb for three days. Let's see how much water elemental energy it can get.

After making up his mind, Yunxiao sat down cross-legged.

At the same time, he took out the divine realm tablet. Like a magnificent monument, it fell directly from the sky to the earth below.

Golden ancient characters floated up from the stele, and space opened up, devouring the liquefied spiritual energy below.

Yunxiao seemed to think that it was not enough, so he set up an array in the air and slapped it down, scattering it around the tablet.

All kinds of beast shadows appeared on the array, and they opened their big mouths and sucked in all directions. Spiritual energy continuously surged into the divine realm tablet at a speed several times faster than before.

The divine realm tablet could store all things in it, but it couldn't extract spirit Qi from them. It could only swallow them in one gulp.

On the other hand, the White rice could extract silk from a cocoon and directly absorb useful things.

If it was a mine vein, after the White rice sucked out its spiritual energy, it would be directly barren and become a ruin.

Chapter 1156

1156 Refining

The demon Dragon also materialized out of Yunxiao's body. Staring at the White rice, it said in shock, "If anyone were to find out about how magical this item is, they would definitely hunt you down to the ends of the earth!"

Yunxiao nodded. I understand what you mean. With this thing, you will have all the resources in the world in your hands, and it will be enough to establish a sect. The White rice was indeed a little heaven-defying, but it had a fatal flaw, and that was that it would be full one day. It's not like what you think, it can't be absorbed endlessly. With the speed at which it's absorbing spiritual energy, it'll be full in three days."

It was also the three days that Yunxiao had given him. If the White rice was filled with spirit Qi, it would not be able to hold the water energy of heaven and earth.

At this moment, the extremely dense liquid spiritual energy that filled the sky had become a burden.

The demonic Dragon heaved a sigh of relief and said, "that's fair." Otherwise, this one thing alone would have sucked out all the spiritual Qi in the entire realm of heavenly martial arts." Just thinking about it made his face turn pale.

Yunxiao laughed and said, "haha! The heaven and earth are in order, and all things are measured. How can such a heaven-defying situation exist? it's against the rules of heaven and earth.

"Not exactly," the demonic Dragon shook his head. Your divine realm tablet has its own world. Isn't that equivalent to carrying the resources of a realm in a profound artifact? Maybe one day, you'll have a great idea and hide all the resources of the realm of heavenly martial arts in it. "

Yunxiao was taken aback.

The evil Dragon was shocked by his expression and said, "I'm just casually saying, don't have any strange thoughts. The right way is to quickly find a way to get these two things and leave this place!"

Yunxiao grinned. He seemed to be unconcerned, but his eyes were shining, as if he was thinking further and further away.

Just like that, the two of them began to cultivate without any distractions.

The demonic dragon's soul seemed to have returned to its mother's body in this rainy space. A vast amount of dragon essence surged over, allowing it to recover at an astonishing rate.

Three days passed in the blink of an eye. Yunxiao was the first to open his eyes.

After breaking through to a four-star Martial Emperor, the amount of spirit energy he needed was another chasm, and it was impossible to fill it in a short period of time.

However, he looked at the White rice that was filling up the air, and his eyes lit up with excitement. With this thing in hand, even if he needed ten times more spiritual energy, he would be able to fill it up one day!

Not far away, the demonic Dragon was still in the process of recovering. A peaceful expression appeared on its face, as if it was immersed in its own world and did not want to wake up.

Yunxiao looked around, and a surprised look appeared on his face. The demonic Dragon had been greatly improved from its previous Foundation.

Before it died, the demonic Dragon was already at the peak of the martial Supreme realm. Its strength was even higher than Yao Jinliang's burial Cloud Beast. After it died, its soul continued to weaken. Although it was struggling on its last legs in Mount Meru, it still could not withstand the power of time.

At this moment, he was in the rain, and the power that had been washed away by time seemed to be coming back bit by bit.

It was a rare opportunity, so Yunxiao did not dare to disturb him. Instead, he flew toward the White rice in the air.

At this moment, the White rice had already turned milky white. The speed of all rivers returning to the sea had also become extremely slow, and finally, it gradually came to a stop.

All the seven-colored halos were retracted into the White rice, and the dustpan-like size returned to its original size before falling back into Yunxiao's hand.

Yunxiao scanned it with his divine sense and was taken aback by the astonishing spirit Qi inside. The density of the spirit Qi was almost the same as that of a primordial core.

In order to avoid the loss of water element during the refining process, Yunxiao entered the divine realm tablet directly.

At this moment, the water region was being filled with a massive amount of water that contained extremely high spiritual energy, and it was greatly nourished.

The spirit Water that poured in formed a small lake, and it was still growing.

Yunxiao made up his mind. He had left a large number of spatial coordinates in this rainy land, and when he had the opportunity to come back in the future, he would empty the entire place.

If Guangxian knew about this, he would be so angry that he would skin him and burn his Bones to Ashes!

Yunxiao took out the White rice bowl and threw it into the air.

A seal was inserted into the bowl, and the mouth of the bowl immediately emitted a seven-colored light. The entire bowl trembled non-stop, and an astonishing amount of spiritual Qi erupted like a volcano!

Yunxiao was also taken aback by the terrible power. With a thought, he changed the direction of the spurting spirit spring and sent it toward him.

“One Qi of creation, absorb!”

He suddenly shouted, and all the pores on his body seemed to open up in an instant. The countless spiritual spring water rushed into his body and poured into him.

“Gulu Gulu!”

In an instant, Yunxiao’s body swelled up, and his meridians expanded several times in an instant, turning him into a fat man.

His face was swollen like a bun, and his body turned into lightning, instantly expanding more than ten meters away.

“Boom boom boom!”

The surroundings were shaking non-stop as he turned into lightning.

Only an expert like him who had the magical ability of elemental transformation would dare to do this. Even if it was a peerless expert who had achieved great mastery of the divine body and had a Sage body, even the guests and ministers who had opened four gates of body technique would not dare to risk their lives like this.

As the massive amount of spirit energy poured into his body, it was still expanding. Yunxiao’s body gradually lost its shape, and he stopped in the air like a thundercloud.

A series of magic arts began to appear on his huge belly. There were green lightning Arts and golden divine arts. They floated into the air and formed a large array.

The array in the sky was like a spider web, and Yunxiao was the spider. From a distance, he looked like he was hanging on the web.

He planned to use his own body as a human cauldron to refine the tiny bits of water element contained in the spiritual Qi.

The first step was to absorb all the spiritual Qi into his body.

The White bowl instantly spat out all the spiritual Qi it had absorbed in the past three days and returned to its original white color. It looked like an ordinary porcelain bowl, quietly floating in the distance.

As time passed, Yunxiao's body gradually shrank, but the power of the lightning kept growing stronger.

Finally, a few days later, Yunxiao's body gradually appeared.

He closed his eyes and adjusted his breathing. His face was as calm as water, but the spiritual spring was surging in his body. His meridians had long been strengthened.

Then he formed a seal with his hand and water vapor gradually condensed on his palm. More and more water vapor gathered until it was the size of a fist and stopped growing.

Yunxiao opened his eyes, and he seemed to be dissatisfied as he said to himself, "Only this much."

In fact, this refining speed was already shocking, but time was of the essence.

forget it," he continued. I'm just studying how to break the mutated water this time. I'll take it all away next time.

He spread his fingers and pushed forward.

...

The mass of natural water Yuan spread out in all directions, forming a huge plane. It was as thin as silk, as if it was transparent.

Yunxiao gently pointed out a finger, and immediately, three objects with different colors condensed under his fingertip. They were the Earth's breathing soil, the primordial Gale, and the Phoenix divine fire.

The power of the three elements turned into a sharp blade and slashed at the water element.

“Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!”

Ripples appeared on the water element, and the surface of the water that extended for hundreds of meters was shaking.

Yunxiao carefully observed the three marks. The three forces were all exerted evenly, and the power was extremely weak, so he wanted to find a way to restrain them.

A few days later, Yunxiao finally flew out of the divine realm tablet and stood quietly in front of the boundless waterfall, his face full of confidence.

The demonic Dragon in the distance received his voice transmission and gradually woke up from his deep thoughts. He revealed a dissatisfied expression and said, “This is a good place, so I plan to stay here for three to five years. I won’t be going with you.”

“Oh? Are you sure?”

can you guarantee that you won’t encounter any dragon guards in the next three to five years?”
Yunxiao sneered.

The demonic Dragon blinked his eyes and begged, “As long as I stay here for three to five years, my soul will be able to return to its peak. At that time, I will be able to merge with your soul and increase your power by several times. Even if you are facing Guangxian, you will be able to escape successfully. You’ve always done things willfully, so let me be willful this once, alright?”

...

He revealed a pitiful expression.

scram! Yunxiao shouted. get lost! Stop acting cute in front of me! Even without the Dragon guards, if we stay for three to five years, the war between the two races will probably end up in chaos.”

The demonic Dragon rolled its eyes at him and said unhappily, ” “Didn’t you always say that even if the sky collapsed, there would still be tall people to hold it up? What does the chaos of the world have to do with you?”

Yunxiao gave him a meaningful look and said, ” “That was in the past. My strength was still trash. Now, I’m already a tall man, so I have the responsibility to hold up the sky.”

With great power came great responsibility.

The Dragon knew that it would be difficult to persuade Yunxiao, so it snorted in extreme dissatisfaction. But still, it turned into a beam of light and flew straight into Yunxiao’s body, where it continued to cultivate in his soul.

Yunxiao also felt the Dragon’s strength, and he was also surprised. He comforted him, ” “Old dragon, after we leave, we can come back at any time. By then, we’ll have taken all the good stuff.”

The demonic dragon’s eyes glowed with a golden light as it listened. It no longer had the intention to protect this place, and instead, it was drooling.

Yunxiao smiled faintly, and the ice sword appeared in his hand with a clatter. The air of ice spread out and froze the surrounding space.

Countless rules of sword appeared out of thin air, and the Maha ancient character jumped out.

In addition, the power of the four elements, including the water element itself, also condensed into strange symbols outside the sword light and fused with the sword intent.

“Sword technique-demon slaying!”

Yunxiao cried out and raised his sword.

A cold light pierced the eyes, and then the frozen water vapor in the sky shattered. The sword Qi directly cut into the endless waterfall.

“Huala”

In the midst of the explosion, the place where the sword light had struck suddenly split open. A pitch-black hole appeared, but it did not disappear instantly like before. Instead, it continued to grow larger and larger, pulling apart by dozens of meters in an instant!

“You’ve really figured out a way to break the water element?” the demonic Dragon asked in surprise.

Yunxiao gave a long laugh and said heroically, “haha, who do you think I am?!”

He immediately turned into a bolt of lightning and charged into the hole.

At this moment, the crack on the waterfall had also been stretched to its largest, and it began to close again, but not at a fast speed.

After rushing through the waterfall, Yunxiao entered another world. As soon as he emerged from the lightning, he suddenly heard a furious roar coming from the sky.

“Who is it? You dare to trespass in the rain!”

Chapter 1157-dragon guards

The voice was like the might of the heavens, rolling down and hurting Yunxiao’s eardrums. The qi and blood in his body were tumbling.

If it wasn’t for the fact that he had just cleansed his meridians to make them extremely tough, a few of his meridians would have exploded from this shout.

it's indeed the might of a nine-stars Martial Emperor!

Yunxiao was shocked, and he hurriedly turned into a bolt of lightning and fled.

This space was completely different from the other side of the waterfall. There were barren mountains everywhere, and it looked desolate. It was like a different world from the Fairyland-like environment on the other side of the waterfall.

“Hmph, you want to leave? Stop and die!”

The voice shouted again, and a yellow light caught up with them. It brought with it endless pressure, and the already gloomy sky changed color.

Yunxiao did not dare to stop. He traveled a thousand meters in an instant and disappeared into the horizon in a few flashes.

However, the yellow light was also extremely fast. It caught up in almost a breath's time and roared, “Stop! If you don't stop, you'll die without a burial place!”

can we live if we stop? ” Yunxiao asked loudly as he fled.

“Of course not!” The man shouted. Anyone who trespasses into the rain land will die, even if they are the leader of a powerful clan!”

are you crazy?! Yunxiao cursed. You want me to stop when you can't live? Are you stupid or am I stupid?”

That person seemed to be startled for a moment. He no longer spoke, but increased his speed to catch up. The distance between the two of them was vaguely shortened.

Yunxiao was shocked. He had transformed into a Thunderbolt, and he had mastered the Thunder art, which was almost the peak of his escape technique, but he still could not shake off his opponent.

The person behind him was also shocked and puzzled. He wasn't the strongest of the Dragon guards, but he had cultivated an escape technique, so he was definitely the fastest.

It was difficult to find someone like him in the entire East Sea, but he couldn't catch up to the person in front of him.

In his rage, the man desperately activated his secret technique, increasing his speed and closing the distance between them.

As long as one entered his attack range, he would be able to exert the pressure of a nine-stars martial sovereign to intimidate the other party.

Yunxiao felt the boundless anger and pressure, so he gritted his teeth and unleashed all his energy. His speed increased a little, and the gap between them widened again.

The two of them ran like crazy, and in an instant, they had already run far away. The scene in this space seemed to have remained the same, still desolate.

"Die!"

The man behind him went completely mad. An axe appeared in his hand and he spat out a mouthful of blood on the axe. The axe absorbed the power of the blood essence and turned red in an instant. He threw it out of his hand and slashed in the air!

"BOOM!"

The sky trembled, and an unparalleled power completely tore the space apart. The world collapsed!

Under the pressure of the torn Space, Yunxiao's speed was hindered. He transformed into his true form and was sucked into the twisted space, unable to hold himself back.

The countless Hills on the ground were turned into dust, sending dust into the air. The entire world was annihilated in an instant.

The full-force attack of a nine-star Martial Emperor was extremely terrifying!

The person behind him rushed forward in an instant. He kept his axe in his hand and looked around coldly.

His body was extremely short and thick, like a tree stump, but a terrifying aura burst out of his body. His divine sense immediately covered the nearby area to prevent Yunxiao from escaping.

Apart from the dust that filled the sky, the entire world became abnormally quiet.

A terrifying crack appeared on the ground, and a deep abyss that went straight into the ground appeared. The crack extended for dozens of miles.

"Come out!"

The man wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth and shouted, "No matter how you Dodge, you'll still die!"

In order to unleash that terrifying attack, he had to sacrifice his blood essence to the axe while using his escape technique with all his might, causing his vitality to be greatly damaged.

He was just waiting to grab Yunxiao and smash his body inch by inch to vent his hatred!

"Hmph, your concealment divine ability is indeed very strong, but no matter how you dodge, don't even think about living!"

The man swept his divine sense several times, but did not find any trace of Yunxiao, which made him very vexed.

However, he wasn't in a hurry. He knew that the other party definitely didn't escape and was definitely nearby. As long as he stood guard and waited for the other party to be unable to withstand the concealment technique, he would naturally appear.

"Alright, you're awesome. I'll admit defeat."

The space trembled, and Yunxiao's figure gradually emerged.

Joy flickered on the man's face. The moment his voice rang out, his nine-stars Martial Emperor pressure shook the air, pressing down on Yunxiao's face and causing him to fall from the sky and crash into the ground with a loud boom, unable to move.

"Hahaha! Let's see where else you can run to!"

The man appeared next to the deep pit in a flash, staring at Yunxiao with a cold and mocking look, his eyes filled with killing intent.

Yunxiao's face turned pale as he said in fear, "You, Who are you?"

"Who am I? Hmph! Since you dare to enter the rain, do you still not know who I am?"

The man seemed to be sneering and said proudly, "I am one of the Dragon guards guarding this place, Guang Quan!"

'Guangquan?' Yunxiao asked. You're from the royal family of the eastern sea?"

"You're actually a human?" Guang Quan's pupils constricted as he said in shock and anger.

Yunxiao trembled and said in fear, "I accidentally entered this place. I hope your Excellency can spare my life."

"Bullshit!" Guang Quan shouted. This place was a top secret place, and it was impossible to enter without guidance! Tell me how you came here and I can grant you a quick death!"

Yunxiao's face turned pale as he said carefully, "I can tell you how I came here, but I hope you can answer my questions."

Guang Quan's face darkened and he said coldly, "what right do you have to negotiate with me?" He's just a trash four-star Martial Emperor!"

I'm weak," Yunxiao said with a wry smile. I have dignity. If Daren is not willing to dispel the doubts in my heart, I would rather explode and die than let Daren obtain any useful information."

...

Guang Quan was furious. His expression became uncertain and he shouted, "Under my nine stars Emperor pressure, you're just an ant that can't even move. What right do you have to talk about suicide? However, I'm a merciful person, so I'll give you a chance. Go ahead and ask."

Yunxiao chuckled in his heart. These dragon guards were just as he had expected. Although they were strong, they were all simple-minded, and he could easily trap them with a simple trick.

As for the Emperor pressure that made him unable to move and the fear on his face, they were all just an act.

The Dragon Guard in front of him only had the strength of an early-stage nine-star martial artist, and his strength had already been reduced by the previous blow of the axe.

If he released all the people in the divine realm tablet, he might have a chance to fight.

are you from the royal family of Dong Hai, my Lord? ” Yunxiao asked.

Guang Quan furrowed his brows as if he had not expected Jiang Chen to ask this question. Although he was not happy, he still explained with a snort, “The so-called royal family of the eastern sea was the name given to the four Seas by the sea god several hundred thousand years ago. I’m also a descendant of the Dragon, just like the current royal family of Donghai.”

“This rain land existed even before the sea god was enfeoffed,” he added after a pause.

“I see.”

Yunxiao nodded in secret. If the body of Shi long was here, then the existence of this land of rain could be traced back to the time when ancient true spirits dominated the world. how many dragon guards are as strong as you, my Lord? ”

“The Dragon guards are passed down from generation to generation. There are seventeen people in this generation, and nine of them can defeat me at the moment,” Guang Quan said.

...

Yunxiao was taken aback. The strength of the Dragon guards was too heaven-defying. There were as many as ten nine-stars martial emperors!

Even Guangxian probably didn’t know about this.

“Dragon guards, why are you protecting the rainy land?” he continued to ask. “With your strength, you should be able to run amuck in the world and dominate a region, right?”

Guang Quan was stunned for a moment before he shouted, “since you’re a Dragon Guard, your life’s duty is naturally to protect the rainy land. There’s no” why “! Don’t you think you’re asking too many questions?”

I have one last question, " Yunxiao said with an embarrassed smile. I'll ask you one last question. Does this rain land have the first dragon's blood essence and the Dragon shaking hammer?"

"What?"

Guang Quan's expression changed drastically as he roared in rage, "So you actually came for these two things. You dare to covet these two things, you deserve to die!"

die! he shouted, and his aura surged out. The Dragon power condensed into a storm that blew around him.

Yunxiao finally understood that these two things did exist.

"It's also the power of Dragons, but why isn't this person suppressed by the restriction?" the demonic Dragon asked in shock. They must have a way to resist the power of the restriction!"

"Now, tell me how you came here, and I'll cut off your head with my axe!"

Guang Quan's face was gloomy as he slowly lifted the axe in his hand.

Yunxiao trembled with fear. Suddenly, his face lit up with joy as he stared behind Guang Quan and cried out, "Poseidon, save me!"

"What?"

Guang Quan's entire body trembled as he hurriedly turned his head around in horror. All he could see was the desolate mountains, where was the person?

Yunxiao jumped up from the ground in an instant. He had already performed a sword incantation, and the moment Guang Quan turned his head, he slashed out and completely broke the pressure of a nine-stars Martial Emperor. Then, he turned into a Thunderbolt again and fled hundreds of meters away.

“Ahhhhhhhhhhhh! You should die!”

Guang Quan was stunned for a moment before he immediately realized that he had been tricked. He was so angry that he almost vomited blood. He also used his escape technique to catch up.

The two of them once again began to chase each other in this space.

After running for a while, Yunxiao frowned. He could not go on like this. His opponent was much stronger than him, and he must have run out of primordial energy first. In the end, he would not be able to escape the battle.

Moreover, there were eleven dragon guards here, and ten of them were above nine-stars martial sovereigns. Who knew if they would encounter a few more?

With a thought, he immediately fled to the ground and hid in the mountain.

Guang Quan’s eyes widened in joy, “haha, can’t run anymore?” This time, I’m going to skin you first, then slowly torture you to death!”

“BOOM!”

He also landed directly, his feet touching the ground, shaking off half of the mountain peak.

This place was filled with small hills, like a giant tomb, situated on the vast land. Although they were all gathered together, they all seemed a little lonely.

Guangquan scanned the area with his divine sense, but he still could not find Yunxiao. “Is there any meaning in using the same method twice? It’s just struggling on whilst at death’s door.”

Chapter 1158-Dragon tomb

“Whoosh!”

A beam of light flashed from the distance. It was Yunxiao's Thunderbolt, and it shot toward a mountain.

"Hmph!"

Guang Quan snorted coldly and caught up with him in the blink of an eye.

With a loud bang, Yunxiao crashed into a mountain and rushed into it, leaving a hole in it.

"Hahaha! You're looking for death!"

The giant rocks in the mountain continued to crack, which greatly hindered the escape technique. Guangquan was overjoyed and suddenly rushed into the hole.

The scene inside gave him a huge shock.

He instantly passed through a ray of light and suddenly had a bad feeling. He immediately realized that the situation was not right. He had actually entered a world with a clear sky and a bright sun.

Under the rays of the sun, he could not help but cover his eyes with his hands.

In the deep sea space, he had never felt such bright sunlight before. He felt his eyes go blind, and only opened them after a while.

"This is Wufu."

Just as Guang Quan was in complete shock, the huge rock on the mountain was still collapsing and shooting out streams of light.

"Boom boom boom!"

The entire mountaintop was completely blown up, and countless rocks were turned into dust that scattered in the air. A majestic monument stood tall on the ground.

Yunxiao's figure appeared in front of the divine realm tablet. With a smile on his face, he said to himself, "I can play with him now."

He took a step forward and entered the tablet.

"What is this place?"

what's wrong?" Guang Quan shouted vigilantly when he saw Yunxiao, his face full of anger.

it's up to you where you are," Yunxiao said. it's up to you.

"It depends on me?"

Guang Quan furrowed his brows, clearly not understanding. He shouted, "What do you mean? Don't try to play tricks in front of me, let me take you down obediently and I'll grant you a quick death!"

I mean," Yunxiao said with a smile in his eyes. if you cooperate obediently, this will be your home. If you're not honest, this place might very well be your grave."

"Haha, nonsense!"

"Let's see what else you can do after I cripple you, break your legs, and tear your mouth apart!"
Guangquan laughed out loud.

With a wave of his hand, the sound of an axe could be heard in the air. A short axe was caught in his hand. He snorted in disdain and chopped down!

“BOOM!”

The sky trembled, and the sharp axe light flickered in the air, creating a black spatial crack.

Yunxiao’s lips curled into a sneer as he took a step forward and threw a punch.

The might of the fist was impressive, and it caused the space to explode. Countless laws were condensed under this fist, and the Golden fist radiance was as solid as an iron bucket!

“Bang!”

With one punch, the battle-axe was directly blown away!

Guang Quan’s originally sneering expression suddenly became twisted. His two Bell-sized eyes widened and he said in horror, “What’s going on? How is that possible?”

There was no time for him to think. Yunxiao took another step forward and used spatial bending to come directly in front of him. He clenched Guang Quan’s right shoulder with his left hand and punched him in the stomach with his right hand.

This move was exactly the same as a normal gangster’s fight, but Guang Quan was shocked to find that he could not Dodge it and took the punch head on!

“Bang!”

His belly instantly deflated, and a burst of energy broke out from his back.

He spat out a mouthful of blood, and his face was still filled with disbelief. illusion, this must be an illusion!

“Hehe, it’s rare for me to have an illusion. Enjoy it.”

Yunxiao patted him on the shoulder with a smile, then rained down his fists on him, each of which made him cough up blood.

“Bang Bang Bang” after a series of explosive sounds, over a hundred punches had been thrown at him. Guang Quan was already bruised and his face was swollen. His internal organs were all ruptured, and there was no intact skin on his entire body.

huh? as expected of the Dragon descendant of a nine-stars Martial Emperor. He’s still alive after being hit like this? ” you’re quite strong, young man, ” Yunxiao praised. you didn’t embarrass your dragon clan. but your eyes are still filled with killing intent and unwillingness, ” he said with a chuckle. it seems that you haven’t had enough.

“Bang Bang Bang!”

Without waiting for Guang Quan to speak, there was another burst of heavy rain. Guang Quan’s entire physical body was destroyed, and countless wounds burst open on his body, blood spurting out.

He was completely stunned. The intense pain that came from all over his body told him that this was not an illusion at all, but that he was really being beaten!

“How could this be? Where was this place? What’s going on?”

Guang Quan’s eyes were swollen and full of blood and tears. His vision was blurry and he couldn’t see anything clearly. There were only the shadows of fists falling from the sky, hitting him until he was completely at his wit’s end.

He fell straight down from the sky, and a huge square metal block suddenly appeared out of thin air where he was about to land.

“Bang!”

Guang Quan's head hit the metal block directly, and blood spurted out a foot high again. He was in so much pain that he almost fainted.

Yunxiao landed directly in front of him and said indifferently, "Lord Guang Quan, I'm very curious about the matters between the Dragon guards and the rain land, and I'd like to have a good chat with you."

Guang Quan's head was groggy and he was in excruciating pain. He gritted his teeth so hard that he almost broke them. Even if I die, I won't tell you anything. The other dragon guards will definitely help me take revenge!"

...

"Hehe, die?"

don't be so pessimistic, " Yunxiao said gently. you're going to die from a little setback. If Lord Guangquan doesn't cooperate, I'll have to search his soul."

His voice was very gentle, but it was like thunder in Guang Quan's ears. He said in fear, You ... You are an Alchemist? "

I'm a ninth-tier Alchemist, " Yunxiao said with a smile. I specialize in soul-searching.

Guang Quan was scared this time. His face that was covered in blood turned from pale to ashen. He said in a trembling voice,"So what if you search my soul? I'm a nine-stars martial sovereign, and I have an extremely powerful Dragon Soul. Even a ninth-tier Alchemist will die from the backlash!"

"Oh? Are you sure? Then what are you afraid of?"

Yunxiao ridiculed, his cold eyes flashing with a demonic light that sent a chill down Guang Quan's spine.

Although martial artists did not fear death, the thought of their soul being destroyed and becoming an idiot still made them feel unusually terrified.

“Don’t spout nonsense!” Guang Quan mustered up his courage and said angrily. How am I afraid?”

He opened his eyes in anger and glared at Yunxiao, but he suddenly saw a pair of demonic blood-red eyes. His brain buzzed, and he lost consciousness.

Even in the divine realm tablet, Yunxiao was still very afraid of soul-searching a nine-stars Martial Emperor.

...

He had done something similar in his previous life. At that time, even with the peak power of Dao of sorcery, it was still very dangerous for him to search the soul of a nine-stars Martial Emperor. If he was not careful, he would suffer a backlash and be seriously injured or even more.

The Dragon Soul was the race with the strongest soul power among all living beings. The fact that the demonic Dragon had survived for countless years was the best proof.

Therefore, he didn’t dare to search Guang Quan’s soul unless he had no other choice. He only used his strength and words to break his strong self-confidence and self-esteem one by one. Then, he used his eye technique to capture his mind and force an answer out of him. does the first Dragon’s body and the Dragon shaking hammer really exist in the rain land? ”

Guang Quan’s body trembled violently, and a look of struggle flashed in his eyes.

Obviously, these two problems were too serious. Even in a situation where one’s mind was shaken, one could not help but resist.

However, he was still no match for the power of the moon eye. Guang Quan’s struggling expression gradually calmed down and he said, ” “Yes, it really exists.”

Yunxiao's pupils constricted, and his face was filled with horror.

If the progenitor of the eastern sea royal family really left behind a body, it would be the body of the ten directions divine realm! Moreover, he was not an ordinary godly state expert!

"Where are these two items?"

Yunxiao pressed further.

Guang Quan struggled again, but this time, he was quickly suppressed by Yunxiao. "The Dragon shaking hammer is The Eye of the Dragon sealing array. The ancestor's body is at the end of the rain, the end of the sky."

Yunxiao frowned. The answer was too abstract, so he quickly asked, "Where is the Dragon lock spell? where is the end of the sky?"

Guang Quan said, "the Dragon lock spell is in the center of the rainy space, and the end of the sky is in bian'an."

Suddenly, his body trembled and he came to his senses. His eyes widened and he roared, "Just kill me! I won't say anything!"

Knowing that he had already sold out part of the information, Guang Quan was extremely agitated and struggled with all his might.

Yunxiao sighed. He knew that he could no longer perform Soul Catchers in a short period of time, but as long as this man was in the divine realm tablet, he would dig out everything he knew sooner or later.

A beam of light flashed out of thin air, and Yunxiao disappeared from the stele and returned to the rain.

"How do we find the central part of the rain space?"

Yunxiao rested his chin on his hand and looked at the endless space with a troubled look on his face. and both of these things are extremely important. I'm afraid there are experts guarding them. It's going to be troublesome.

The importance of these two items could be seen from Guang Quan's expression. No one would believe that it was not guarded by a nine-stars Martial Emperor.

The moon eyes emitted a demonic light and began to look in all directions, hoping to find some clues.

Under the moon eye's gaze, all kinds of strange lights could be seen on these mounds. They continuously seeped out from within and dissipated into the sky.

"These mountain ridges"

A drop of cold sweat trickled down Yunxiao's forehead as he cried out in surprise, "It really is a grave!"

He looked up in horror. The mountain mausoleum extended endlessly, and only the dragon clan's nine-star martial sovereigns and above could be buried here. How many were there?

Yunxiao swallowed with difficulty. When he thought of the rain land, which had existed since the era of the ancient true spirits and had been accumulated over countless years, he gradually felt relieved.

"If these countless Dragon corpses are immortal and don't rot, then ..."

Yunxiao was taken aback by his own thoughts and kept shaking his head.

Just now, he had broken open a mountain mausoleum and set up a trap to make Guangquan walk into the trap. He had not seen any corpses in the mountain mausoleum.

It was clear that not all the dragon clan's powerhouses' corpses were immortal. The vast majority of them must have turned to dust.

“Eh? That’s Yingluo.”

His moon eyes were constantly analyzing the scene before him. Suddenly, he stopped and looked in a certain direction.

Yunxiao had a strange look on his face as he frowned and said, “Dragon guards? It doesn’t look like it.”

Chapter 1159-Golden Bones

There seemed to be a human figure flashing in the distant mountain mausoleum. His traces were hidden extremely well. If he had not used the moon pupil, he would not have discovered it at all.

“If it’s not the Dragon guards, then did someone else come in?”

Yunxiao thought it was unlikely, so he said to himself, “Could it be that some other heavily injured Dragon Tribe powerful being has come in to recuperate? That’s not right. Guangxian’s spatial coordinates were on the other side of the waterfall. This should be the resting place of all the Dragon ancestors. No outsiders should be able to enter.”

His curiosity was piqued. With a flash, he teleported and disappeared.

In the next moment, he was hundreds of meters away and disappeared in a few flashes.

Behind the hill, a man in gray was moving forward at a strange speed.

The man’s movement technique was extremely brilliant, constantly shuttling between reality and nothingness. Moreover, that gray robe seemed to be made of a special material that could hide his tracks extremely ingeniously.

Yunxiao, who was hiding in the dark, was a little surprised. The man’s figure seemed familiar, but he could not remember where he had seen him.

But looking at this person’s appearance, he was definitely a spy.

It seemed that this rainy place was not an extraordinary place. Not only him, but anyone could come in here.

He silently followed behind the man and continued to move forward.

The man seemed to have a positioning profound weapon like an astrolabe in his hand. He changed his direction several times as he moved forward and finally stopped on a flat ground.

Yunxiao was behind him, so he could not see his face or movements clearly. He could only see a faint light, as if he was setting something up.

The man had stopped in the middle of two hills, on a very wide flat ground.

“There is indeed a reaction! Yes, this is the place!”

The man let out an ecstatic sound, as if he had found the right place.

He began to draw some kind of array on the ground. The array was extremely large, with a radius of more than a hundred meters.

Yunxiao watched him quietly. The gray robe did have a magical effect. Not only could it block divine sense, but even his moon eyes could not see the man’s true face.

After an hour, thousands of lines appeared on the ground, dazzling everyone’s eyes.

There were thousands of formations in the world, and even the king level expert Teng Guang did not dare to say that he knew all of them. However, for these experts, they could at least see through the effectiveness of the formations with a single glance.

After pondering over it carefully, Yunxiao immediately understood that it was a space-connecting array, and the man’s purpose seemed to be to go underground.

The flat land in front of him was extremely large, and the surrounding hills were indeed quite far away. It seemed that there should be something below.

Yunxiao could not help but frown. There were tens of thousands of Hills in the cemetery, so how did the other party find this place among the numerous tombs?

At the very least, the other party must have an unusual understanding of the rain land, or had top-secret information.

The formation glowed and shot ten-some meters into the air, apparently controlled by the gray-clothed man to avoid the Dragon guards "detection.

Then, the man's body emitted a gray light, and together with the light of the array, he gradually disappeared before Yunxiao's eyes.

Yunxiao's face darkened. He walked out of the void and teleported to the array.

The countless array lines on the ground began to move like earthworms, drilling into the ground. In the blink of an eye, the countless lines disappeared and the ground returned to normal, as if nothing had happened.

"That's a brilliant technique."

who is this man?" Yunxiao muttered to himself, " and why did he enter this place? "

Curiosity killed the cat, and he couldn't resist the itch in his heart. In addition, that figure indeed had an influence on him, so he must have seen it somewhere before, but he just couldn't remember.

A silver light flashed in Yunxiao's hand, and a diamond-shaped object suddenly appeared, its entire body emitting a white silver light.

This was the profound level weapon that he had refined from the skeleton of the Silver Spirit's GUI Ling after killing him in the abyssal prison.

At this moment, Yunxiao had great confidence in breaking the yin and yang dust array and escaping from the underground abyss. In addition to Noah's ship, he also had the space-breaking shuttle he had just refined.

The Silver Spirit race's innate ability allowed them to travel through the void at will, because their bone armor contained an infinite amount of space-breaking divine power.

In the beginning, Yunxiao wanted to simulate the power himself, but he could not get the point. In a depressed mood, he simply refined it into a profound level weapon.

The space-breaking shuttle was shaped like a sharp prism on both ends and suddenly enlarged in the air. Its entire body was silver and all kinds of strange bone talismans flickered on it.

Yunxiao turned into a beam of light and flew straight into the shuttle. One of its sharp edges pointed downward and went down into the place where the gray-robed man had disappeared.

In the blink of an eye, the entire space-piercing shuttle disappeared, leaving the ground completely undamaged.

"There is indeed an underground Palace."

A huge underground space appeared under the ground. It was completely dark.

But, this ordinary night could not block Yunxiao's sight. He put away the shuttle, identified the direction, and then carefully walked forward.

This kind of deathly silent underground tomb had been closed all year round, and the air was decaying and still.

As the gray-robed man entered the tomb, and since he did not know that someone was following him, he was not as cautious as he used to be. As a result, a subtle air flow was created in the tomb, and Yunxiao slowly moved forward in the direction of the air flow.

“Haha, it’s here, it’s here!”

A burst of unbridled laughter suddenly came from the front, and everyone was completely immersed in ecstasy.

Yunxiao could not help but speed up and reach the end of the path in just a few steps.

A huge tomb appeared in front of him. It was like a Palace, but it was facing downwards.

In the tomb, the three huge Dragon skeletons stood still. Although they had been dead for many years, they still gave people a sense of oppression.

Yunxiao’s pupils constricted. The three Dragon skeletons were of different shapes, and they should also be mutants of the Dragon descendants, but they had one thing in common, and that was that they were all golden!

“Hahaha, golden Bone Dragon descendant! As long as we bring these three skeletons back, we can complete the last step and usher in a great era!”

The gray-robed man was so pleased with himself that his eyes were constantly flashing with excitement. His face was finally revealed. It was yang yuanshu, who had used a secret technique outside of Red Moon City to kill ning keyue!

It was Yunxiao’s first time seeing this man, but he suddenly remembered something. He finally remembered where he had seen him.

...

When he followed the seal in the guest's body to find the source, he saw an old man and a young man. Although they didn't see their faces, they couldn't be mistaken about their bearing and posture.

Yang yuanshu gently flew up and directly landed on the largest skeleton in the middle. He carefully admired it as if he were looking at a piece of art.

Yunxiao was also observing the three dragon bones in surprise. The Dragon had nine sons, each of which was different, and the nine sons had given birth to countless descendants, with hundreds and thousands of variants.

However, he had never heard of a Dragon with a golden skeleton before. Even from a distance, he could still feel the ferocity and power of the skeleton.

Yang yuanshu took out a cloth bag and threw it out.

The cloth bag directly opened in the air and turned into a wind bag, producing a great suction force!

“Wuwuwu!”

*

Tens of thousands of years had passed, but the pride in his bones had never been lost!

“Hmph, I knew it would be like this.”

Yang yuanshu laughed contemptuously. With a wave of his hand, he scattered a white powder that filled the sky and fell like snowflakes.

...

The White powder fell on the three skeletons bit by bit, sticking directly to the surface of the glass.

Only then did the roars gradually die down, and the Dragon's might in his proud bones was completely dispersed. He no longer had that majestic aura.

"Rise!"

Yang yuanshu lightly shouted and sent an incantation seal into the wind bag.

The absorption power grew stronger, and the three golden skeletons finally moved. They slowly rose from the dragon's cave and flew into the pitch-black pocket.

Yang yuanshu was extremely careful throughout the entire process, afraid that he would make any mistakes or damage the Dragon bones.

Only when the three skeletons were all taken in did he heave a sigh of relief and reveal a look of great joy.

He waved his hand in the air and was about to grab the wind bag.

Suddenly, the space trembled slightly. Yunxiao teleported over, grabbed the wind bag, and threw it into the divine realm tablet.

"Ah?"

Yang yuanshu was completely dumbfounded. The changes before his eyes were too mysterious, causing his brain to short-circuit, and he was unable to react for a moment.

It was not until Yunxiao's calm eyes stared at him that he realized that he had been robbed!

“Argh! Damn it! Who are you?”

Yang yuanshu’s eyes instantly shot out flames, as if he had been set ablaze. The duck in his hand flew away, causing him to be so angry that he almost vomited blood!

Yunxiao laughed. hehe, it’s really rare to see a human here. How did you get into the rainy land? ”

“Put away your curiosity and return the three dragon bones to me!”

Yang yuanshu’s face was livid, and his eyes were filled with killing intent. He could see Yunxiao’s cultivation base at a glance, and he also understood that the other party was by no means a Dragon Guard, which made him feel a little relieved.

But at the same time, he was shocked and uncertain. That wind bag had been specially refined and had a mutual sense with him. After it was taken by the person in front of him, there was no longer any connection. This made him extremely vigilant.

In addition, an outsider who could reach this place was definitely not an ordinary person. At the very least, this meant that the other party had some means he didn’t understand.

alright! Yunxiao turned and left. since you don’t want to talk, let’s meet again.

“You want to leave? Stay here!”

Killing intent burst out of yang yuanshu’s eyes as he rushed forward. A cold beam of light shot out of his hand and pointed directly at Yunxiao’s chest!

It was a long flute, which turned into sword intent and shot out cold light.

Yunxiao turned around and tapped his foot on the ground. His body twisted in a strange posture in the air, and he dodged the sword.

“Eh? What a strange movement technique!”

Yang yuanshu was taken aback, and he was even more certain that his opponent was not simple. The flute in his hand transformed into a sword, and a series of sword flowers bloomed like flowers in spring as he slashed at Yunxiao.

Chapter 1160-confrontation your sword intent is not bad. It's beautiful.

Yunxiao praised with a smile, but he was also surprised in his heart. He could sense that the other party was extremely strong, but he could not use it in this narrow space. Moreover, the other party seemed to be afraid of him and did not dare to make a big move.

Ice appeared on his cold sword as he stabbed forward.

The speed of the sword wasn't fast. It was like a casual point, as casual as when he practiced martial arts.

But yang yuanshu's expression changed drastically, revealing extreme shock!

Under his dazzling sword moves, the other party actually saw through his flaws and directly stabbed at his only weak point.

“Damn it!”

“Bang!”

The long sword struck the flute from the myriad of moves and jolted yang yuanshu away.

Yang yuanshu's face was filled with shock. He saw that his flute was covered in a layer of ice, so cold that it seeped into his bones.

He hurriedly activated his vital energy to disperse the cold Qi, only to see a deep cut on his flute.

“This Tao Wu!”

A feeling of disbelief and pain welled up in his heart. His flute was so strong that it could even destroy gold and Jade. It was not under the attack of ordinary sharp weapons at all and could not be damaged by ten thousand swords.

But now, it was just an ordinary exchange of blows, and he was already cut. How could he not be shocked and pained?

“What kind of sword is this?”

Yang yuanshu was also a mystic arts Alchemist and had extremely high attainments in the forging of profound level weapons, so he was instantly astonished.

don't be too curious,” Yunxiao said with a smile. you're a man.

Yang yuanshu's expression darkened as he angrily retorted, “Return those three Golden Bones to me, and then we'll have nothing to do with each other!”

Yunxiao's eyes widened in surprise. “Return? Don't you think this word is wrong? The Golden Bones were originally in this dragon's cave, and they don't have an owner. How did they become yours?”

“If I didn't use my wind bag to retrieve it, would you have been able to take it away so easily?” yang yuanshu retorted angrily.

“I see, Yingluo, I'll return this wind bag to you.”

With a flip of his right hand, the bag appeared in Yunxiao's hand and he threw it back to yang yuanshu, who found that it was empty.

Yang yuanshu was furious, and killing intent appeared on his face. He gritted his teeth and said, "You really want to play with me? This is a land of rain, and you should know that if the Dragon guards notice us, none of us will be able to leave this place alive!"

what a joke, " Yunxiao said sarcastically. you're the one pestering me now. If you're afraid of the Dragon guards, then leave. The Golden Bones are ownerless, and they belong to whoever gets them."

Yang yuanshu was so angry that his face alternated between green and white. The Golden Bones were extremely important to him, and he could not afford to lose them.

Moreover, in order to sneak into the rain land this time, he had spent an uncountable amount of effort and energy. If he wasted all his efforts like this, he was afraid that he would be slapped to death by his master when he returned.

"State your conditions!"

Yang yuanshu's face darkened as he gritted his teeth. "As long as you give me the Golden Bones, everything can be discussed." He paused before adding, "but don't go too far, this is a rainy land after all." If it's too much, I don't mind making the fish die and the net break!"

I see, " Yunxiao laughed. alright. As long as you answer a few of my questions and don't hide anything, I can give you the three Golden Bones."

"Really?" yang yuanshu was taken aback.

The conditions were so simple that he was surprised.

Yunxiao's eyes turned cold as he said, "Really?"

"Then ask away."

Yang yuanshu was a little curious. After all, they didn't know each other, so at most, he would ask some questions about the rainy weather, such as how he had come here.

Although this was considered a secret, it was still worth it compared to the three Golden Bones.

"How did you get here?" Yunxiao asked.

As expected.

Yang yuanshu snorted and sneered, "Although the rain land is a forbidden area in the eastern sea, it's no secret. I have the spatial coordinates of this place, and I have no less than ten of them. As for the tombs of these three golden Bone Dragon descendants, I've also analyzed them long ago. The possibility of them recognizing their existences is extremely high, and everything is as I expected."

yes. Yunxiao nodded and asked, " your master's name? "

Yang yuanshu's entire body trembled, and his expression immediately changed. He coldly said, "This is not a question you should be asking! I can tell you my name, though. My name is yang yuanshu!"

what's your name worth? " Yunxiao sneered contemptuously. If you want those three Golden Bones, you'd better answer my question honestly. You and I are both alchemists, and you should know that my ability in the art of alchemy is no less than yours. Don't try to trick me. "

Yang yuanshu was so angry that his teeth were chattering, but he was helpless and said awkwardly, "I really can't answer this question. You'd better change it."

Yunxiao's eyes flickered as he said in a serious voice, " "I don't need you to tell me. I'll only guess once. You just need to tell me whether it's right or wrong."

Yang yuanshu's eyes widened in disbelief. "Don't tell me you can guess who my master is? Haha, this is too funny! Do you think that the sword technique I used just now was my master's?"

Yunxiao ignored his sneer and said, "Qiu Mujie!"

"?!"

Yang yuanshu suddenly sucked in a cold breath, his face pale as he stared at Yunxiao in horror. After a while, he cried out, "You know me? You know my master?"

The coldness on Yunxiao's face faded away, replaced by an unpredictable smile. "It's him, indeed."

He ignored yang yuanshu's shock and continued to ask, "What is the relationship between your master and Wei Qing?"

Yang yuanshu's entire body trembled as an inexplicable fear welled up in his heart. He shrieked, "What did you just say? What nonsense are you talking about? What do you know?"

His face contorted as his murderous aura spread out and filled the entire Dragon Cave!

Yunxiao smiled and said, "Oh? Seeing how excited you are, I think I understand. I'm afraid that Wei Qing and your master's relationship can't be seen in public?"

He laughed at himself and said, "It's no wonder. One is the leader of the Holy region. The other is a fugitive who was wanted by the sea of soul formation. It's really hard to be associated with one another.

...

Yang yuanshu's face was frighteningly contorted as he coldly said, "Who are you?"

I haven't finished my question," Yunxiao said with a smile. I'm not done yet.

"There's no need to ask!"

With a wave of his hand, yang yuanshu's intense killing intent gushed out, and he shouted, "No matter who you are, you're going to die!"

His body flashed, and the flute in his hand turned into a sharp sword again as he rushed forward.

In addition, his killing intent was so strong that he no longer cared about suppressing his strength. He only wanted to kill his opponent as quickly as possible so as not to attract the Dragon guards.

"Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!"

The two swords clashed once more, and yang yuanshu struck out several dozen times in a row, each strike causing great pain to his heart.

When he saw the smile at the corner of Yunxiao's mouth and the sword strikes that were as fast as swords, he immediately understood that the other party had done it on purpose!

"Wow! You should die!"

Yang yuanshu shouted angrily, but he was also shocked in his heart. His opponent was a four-star Martial Emperor, yet he was able to resist the might of a seven-stars Martial Emperor with ease.

...

He suddenly retreated and looked at the flute in his hand. He almost vomited blood and fainted.

The flute that had been with him for decades was now full of potholes, and there were dozens of sword marks on it.

eh?" Yunxiao laughed. what is your flute made of? it's so solid.

Yang yuanshu knew that the other party was deliberately provoking him, but he still couldn't hold back his anger. The killing intent in his eyes grew colder and colder as he placed the flute to his mouth and started playing.

The sound of the flute rose and reverberated in the entire dragon's cave.

The space around them was distorted into all sorts of shapes and forms.

Yunxiao felt an extremely strong spiritual power rushing into his brain, and his eardrums hurt as if they had been pierced by a sharp blade.

He was shocked. There were very few people who could match him in terms of mental energy. Yang yuanshu didn't seem to be qualified, but he was able to produce such a powerful flute tune that shook his mind.

That flute was probably also an extraordinary item.

Yunxiao was not in a hurry. He sat down cross-legged in the air and covered his body with his spiritual power, just in time for defense.

When yang yuanshu saw this, he thought that his opponent was at a disadvantage. He was instantly overjoyed and began to play even harder.

The entire space was under the control of the sound of his flute. The surrounding layers of soil began to collapse, and cracks spread in all directions.

Yunxiao was like a small boat, drifting in the wind and rain, but no matter how strong the wind and rain were, they could not capsize him.

Cold sweat seeped out of yang yuanshu's forehead. If this continued, the tomb would collapse before the other party died.

He wasn't afraid of this place collapsing, but he was afraid of attracting the Dragon guards. If that happened, he would truly have nowhere to run.

"Eight notes soul shaking!"

A cold glint flashed across yang yuanshu's eyes. As if he had finally made up his mind, he poured all his origin power into the flute and directly played the eight notes!

The flute suddenly let out countless air-breaking sounds, as if countless sharp blades were dancing in the sky, cutting the entire space into pieces. The terrifying spiritual storm swept directly toward Yunxiao.

Yunxiao, who had not moved at all, finally moved, but he only raised his hand and made a hand seal.

Ancient Maha characters floated up from his body and formed a spiritual barrier.

"Bang Bang Bang Bang!"

The countless spiritual blades transformed from the eight notes soul shocking divine ability kept cutting at the spiritual universe God around Yunxiao, but they could not move him at all.

Yang yuanshu's face paled, his eyes filled with extreme shock.

Even a high-level martial Supreme would not be so confident under his sound wave attack.

He was overwhelmed with shock and knew that he could no longer kill his opponent with this move.

The flute slowly fell from his mouth, and the surrounding soil began to make a slight muffled sound. bang, bang, bang " it seemed to be breaking.

Suddenly, Yunxiao's eyes widened, and a cold gleam burst out of his pupils.

“Dang!”

The sound of a bell that seemed to come from an endless era suddenly reverberated in the Dragon graveyard.

Yang yuanshu had just put down his flute and retracted his soul power when he felt a spiritual pressure that was much stronger than his previous one!

In his shock, he hastily circulated his soul power again and launched a spiritual attack.

“BOOM!”

Yang yuanshu only felt as if his eardrums had burst, and he was completely unable to hear the sounds of the outside world. His mind also became extremely heavy with a “bzzzz,” and he immediately spat out a large mouthful of blood as he was sent flying.
