Chapter 1211

1211 The heaven and earth smelt

Neptune nodded. that's right. I had no choice but to take him in as my disciple. This man is cruel and ruthless. I've always hoped to teach him, but the results were minimal. I hope you can avoid him as much as possible on this Island."

if he doesn't come to provoke me," Yunxiao said indifferently, " I naturally won't provoke him.

With that, he turned into a ray of light and fell into the Crimson Sea.

Neptune smiled wryly, knowing that Yunxiao was by no means a man to be trifled with. "I only hope that nothing bad will happen."

don't worry," Ye Fan said with a smile. big brother Yunxiao will know what to do.

He was secretly surprised by the temperament of the ocean Emperor in front of him. It seemed to be somewhat different from the rumors. It was said that he had once ruled the four Seas and besieged the Holy region. He was invincible, but today, he seemed like a kind elder.

Neptune glanced at him and smiled. the owner of Noah's ship, Ye Fan, your ancestor, ye Nantian, has also visited the forest of the sea. It is also recorded in the ancient books. Would you like to see it? "

When Ye Fan heard this, he said in shock, " there's such a thing? Alright, take me there."

Poseidon smiled, and the two of them turned into light again and disappeared.

Somewhere in the forest of the sea, under the cover of the huge forest, there was a protruding Hill.

Hua Xiu was sitting cross-legged, and a crystal-like light was floating from his body like fireflies.

He was currently circulating a Shen methodology, breathing in and out ling qi to heal the wounds on his body.

“Chemical cultivation Kasaya”

Suddenly, a light voice sounded, but there was no one around.

The chemical cultivator’s eyes suddenly widened. He seemed to recognize the owner of the voice. His entire body trembled and his face revealed a look of horror. big, big senior brother!!!!

you’ve been in seclusion for too long, ” the voice said leisurely. you still remember me, your eldest senior brother? ”

“I, I’m Yingluo.”

The chemical cultivator’s face turned pale, and beads of cold sweat trickled down his face. He forced a smile, but it was uglier than crying. why do you say that, eldest senior brother? Chemical Elementalist, congratulations on coming out of seclusion, senior brother.”

“Hmph, you know it in your heart!”

The voice was filled with extreme dissatisfaction and said coldly, ” “If you don’t come out, I’m afraid Junior Sister Water fairy will fall into your hands, right?”

The chemical Elementalist’s face turned green and he hurriedly waved his hand.”No, no, how could that be? how could I dare to fight with eldest senior brother for the Kasaya?”

He was the only one on the hill who was waving his hand as if he was talking to himself.

“You still dare to quibble!”

That voice shouted coldly, and waves of killing intent spread out.

“Ah!”

The chemical Elementalist suddenly screamed and flipped backward. His hands kept hitting his body, as if something was biting him.

“Eldest senior brother, eldest senior brother, please spare me! I know I was wrong. Senior brother, please spare my life!”

The chemical cultivator begged for mercy and knelt on the ground. He kowtowed and wailed, “I won’t dare to do it again. I won’t do it again. Senior brother, please spare my life!”

The voice said coldly, “what did I tell you before I went into seclusion?” Anyone who dares to oppose Junior Sister Water fairy will be killed without mercy! I didn’t think you would dare to steal it.”

“No, I’m not. Chemical cultivators don’t dare to forget eldest senior brother’s teachings. Even if you give me a thousand guts, I still wouldn’t dare to have any ideas about Junior Sister celestial water.”

The chemical cultivator kept kowtowing and his body trembled like a sieve. His body had already transformed into a demon. Scales covered his body and emitted countless “shua shua shua” sounds as if he was being bitten.

“Hmph, seeing that your bloodline and aptitude are top notch, and that it wasn’t easy for master to pick a disciple, I’ll let you off this time. If there’s a next time, you’ll regret it.”

“No, no, there won’t be a next time.”

The chemical Elementalist kowtowed repeatedly and muttered, “thank you for your mercy, eldest senior brother! Thank you for your mercy!”

Countless thin threads of light emerged from his body and fluttered in the air. Only then did the rustling sound from his scales gradually stop.

The space in front of him shook, and a man in white slowly walked out, standing with his hands behind his back.

He raised his right hand expressionlessly. The hair-like rays of light intertwined and slowly gathered in his palm. In the end, they turned into a piece of unpolished jade, which he put away.

“Alright, stand up and talk. A dignified seven feet man knelt down and kowtowed at the drop of a hat. Among the disciples that shizun had taken in, none of them had a backbone.”

“Yes! Thank you, senior brother!”

Only then did the chemical cultivator wipe off his cold sweat. He returned to his human form from his demon form and stood up carefully.

“Tell me, who are the two guys that came with Junior Sister Water fairy? what is their relationship with Junior Sister?” Gu Hong asked.

“Junior Sister Water fairy didn’t tell me anything,” the chemical cultivator quickly replied.

“What?”

Gu Hong’s expression darkened, and a cold glint flashed through his eyes.

The chemical cultivator’s body trembled and he said in fear, “no, but ... But I feel that ... I feel that Junior Sister Water deity and that boy named li Yunxiao seem to have a special relationship.

By the end, his voice was as soft as a mosquito and his body was trembling violently. He was afraid that the eldest senior brother in front of him would vent his anger on him.

There was a dead silence on the hillside. There was no sound at all. The chemical cultivator only felt as if he was exposed to the scorching sun. He felt a little dizzy as if he was about to get a heatstroke, but he did not dare to faint and forced himself to support his body.

“Hehe.”

A short while later, the corners of Gu Hong’s mouth suddenly rose slightly.

Seeing that he wasn’t angry, the chemical cultivator perked up and said, “That Li Yunxiao’s strength is not simple. He looks like a six-stars Martial Emperor, but he can actually fight me to a draw.

“Oh? A draw?”

Gu Hong turned around, coldly staring at Shi Yan with his sharp eyes and said, “Are you sure it’s a draw?”

Being stared at by him, the chemical cultivator felt extremely uncomfortable. His face turned red. I, I am slightly inferior.

...

“Hmph, if I can only fight to a draw with trash like you, then what’s the point of me stepping forward? I can’t play with you!”

Gu Hong snorted in disdain. He turned around and took a step forward. His entire body turned into countless strands of black hair and disappeared.

The chemical Elementalist hurriedly lowered his head and did not dare to make a sound.

After waiting for a long time and making sure that the bone rainbow had already gone far away, he slowly raised his head. However, his face was filled with malevolence and extreme distortion, and his eyes were filled with hatred and resentment.

“Pa! Pa!”

He crushed the air and finger bones with his fingers and said coldly, “Li Yunxiao! If I can’t get Junior Sister Water fairy, you can’t either! Hahaha, this pervert has come out of seclusion. Let’s see how you’re going to die!”

Under his twisted face was a cruel and hideous smile, as if he could already see Yunxiao’s tragic end. He could not help but laugh wildly in his fantasy.

After Yunxiao rushed into the red Sea, he kept swimming downward.

The entire sea region was dead silent. There were no living creatures, and it was obvious that they could not survive in such a harsh environment.

After sinking for a few thousand meters, the burning sensation suddenly changed, and the temperature began to drop.

He focused his eyes and looked at the endless bottom. There was a faint Azure light that was glowing like a gem.

...

that should be the thousand year frost. The heaven and earth smelt should be right beneath that ice.

After making up his mind, Yunxiao teleported down and arrived above a huge piece of floating ice in the span of two breaths.

The floating ice was not at the bottom of the sea, but was suspended in the air. It was ten thousand meters wide and looked like a giant.

Yunxiao flew around the huge ice block and finally found an entrance. He sneaked in and found a short spatial tunnel inside.

At the end of the passage, a fierce heat wave came blowing at Yunxiao's face. His indestructible golden body bloomed with tens of thousands of golden beams and automatically protected him.

Yunxiao was shocked. How strong was the fire energy that could trigger the imperishable golden body to automatically protect him?

The golden light around him was quickly swallowed by the blinding light. A space appeared in front of him, full of hot lava. Lava flowed all around him, as if he had come to the core of the earth.

Lava and heat waves were constantly rolling out from below, and flames were rising everywhere, like a monster sticking out its tongue.

Under the influence of this environment, the Phoenix true flame in Yunxiao's body seemed to sense something, and it began to become restless, as if it was going to break out of his body on its own.

Yunxiao sensed it a little, and the overwhelming fire origin element poured into his body and seeped into his skin, causing it to glow with white light.

The other four elements were almost completely cleared out in this place. This natural wonder was undoubtedly the best place for fire element cultivators or for refining weapons. It was better than any human cauldron.

A flame flickered between Yunxiao's brows, and then a chirping sound came from it. It was the joyful cry of the phoenix Flame, which immediately took the form of a Phoenix and danced in the air with extreme excitement.

Through his senses, he indeed found that the fire Phoenix was constantly absorbing the power of lava and the fire origin Energy.

"Since that's the case, I'll give you another hand."

He cast a fire-making incantation and threw it into the lava.

“BOOM!”

A large ball of flames rushed up like a volcano erupting, directly swallowing the Phoenix.

The Phoenix struggled a few times within it, and its entire body suddenly expanded by three or four times. Then, the absorption rate became even more rapid.

Seeing that it was working, Yunxiao kept throwing out all kinds of runes with both hands, which he threw directly into the surging lava, from which fiery red halos shot out.

These rings of light stacked on top of each other and formed a huge flower ring. A few beautiful symbols lit up and stopped in the air, continuously absorbing the spiritual Qi from the surroundings.

It was an array that could amplify the power of fire. Yunxiao set it up in an automatic absorption and operation mode, then sat cross-legged in the air next to the pillar of fire and began to cultivate quietly.

Within the ocean Emperor Palace, Polong brought Ye Fan to read the books.

Suddenly, Polong's brows furrowed and he sighed.

“What's wrong?” Ye Fan asked in surprise. “What's wrong, Poseidon?”

“Master, I'm out of seclusion. A voice came from outside the hall. It was very respectful.”

Chapter 1212 - Bone Rainbow

“Come in,” Polong said.

He closed the book and made a hand seal. The space around them changed and the two of them appeared in the hall.

Bone rainbow's figure appeared in front of the hall and slowly walked in. Every step was extremely light, and he directly knelt down in front of Polong, saying, "Master,"

Ye Fan looked at the man in front of him, he was dressed in white, he had a handsome face and an extraordinary aura, there were two red spots on his eyes that extended to his lower jaw, at the same time, the aura he gave off had a trace of evil intent.

Polong's gaze shifted away from Bone Rainbow with an indescribable expression, congratulations, you've finally stepped into the threshold of a nine-stars Martial Emperor. The distance to the end of martial Dao is only a few days away.

"It's all thanks to master's nurturing," Gu Hong replied indifferently. "I heard that Junior Sister Water fairy has returned?"

The corner of Polong's mouth twitched slightly before he nodded. "You're back. This little girl is too willful. She dared to run out alone. I've already punished her to repent at the cliff of repentance.

"The space on the cliff is chaotic, and there are all kinds of negative energy. Junior Sister Water fairy's cultivation base is too weak. I'm afraid she can't take it." "It's all my fault. If I didn't go into seclusion and just went out with Junior Sister, there wouldn't be so many problems."

"She has to eat it even if she can't," Polong said. "She's starting to look down on me, her father." "As my eldest disciple, you must prioritize your cultivation and not be distracted."

"Yes, disciple will follow master's instructions."

Gu Hong then turned to Ye Fan, "Is this Li Yunxiao, who came back with Junior Sister Narcissus?" he asked.

Ye Fan knew that this person was the Gu Hong that Bo Long had mentioned before. He knew that he was not a good person, so he did not have a good impression of him. He only politely replied: I'm Ye Fan, and Li Yunxiao is my big brother.

"Oh, so it's brother Ye Fan."

I heard that your big brother is very powerful," Gu Hong said slowly. "It's all thanks to your big brother that Junior Sister Water Fairy was able to go out to sea this time. Is that true?"

Just as Ye Fan was about to reply, he heard Bo Long say: "The water deity went out to sea this time to look for a person with a divine flame, and that person is Li Yunxiao."

"Oh?" Gu Hong asked. "A level ten divine fire? It seems that Li Yunxiao really has some skills. Where is he now?" This disciple would like to see him."

"What do you want to do?"

It was as if Bo Long did not see the expression on Bo Long's face. He continued to speak in a calm tone, "I heard from the other junior brothers that this Li Yunxiao relied on his strength to beat up the three junior brothers as soon as he entered the forest of the sea. I was just thinking, ah, these junior brothers didn't learn enough, so they deserved to be beaten, but they can't bring shame to master's name, so as the eldest brother, I can only take the risk of being beaten and take the initiative to fight for master's dignity."

"It's common to win or lose in a battle," Bo Long said indifferently. "How can there be a smear on your reputation?" Even if it was the Ocean Emperor's bloodline, could it be that they could never be defeated? Only when you've been defeated will you know how to win."

"You're absolutely right, master," Gu Hong said. "Our three junior brothers have all failed, so they're even more courageous in their cultivation. As the senior brother, I also want to taste that defeat so that I can work harder."

A wave of anger rose in Polong's heart. However, he was unable to control this eldest disciple of his, so he could only say, Yunxiao is going to light the seven Star Lamp, so it's not a good time to make a move now.

"I'll wait for him then," Gu Hong nodded.

Ye Fan was already furious from listening to this, he said coldly: "Since you knew you would lose, why did you humiliate yourself?"

Gu Hong turned around and stared at him.

Ye Fan felt a huge fear for no reason, his body started to tremble.

"Bone rainbow!"

shut up! Polong's eyes turned cold as he shouted in dissatisfaction.

Ye Fan felt his body relax, that feeling of fear disappeared, but his body was covered in a layer of cold sweat, it was sticky.

Gu Hong snorted lightly, then turned and walked out of the hall. I'll go visit Junior Sister Water fairy first, and then wait for that Li Yunxiao to beat me up.

Watching him leave the hall arrogantly, Ye Fan swallowed his saliva and said with difficulty: "What's going on? Why is it that just by staring at me, I feel incomparable fear?"

Polong's expression was extremely gloomy, and he only spoke after a long time, "When Li Yunxiao lights up the seven Star Lamp, I'll immediately open the space tunnel and send you out.

Ye Fan was shocked when he heard this, he looked at the back of the figure that had disappeared from the hall, his face filled with fear.

As for poron, his body flashed with light, and his entire projection disappeared from the hall.

In a dark side hall, a snow-white curtain hung on the dome. Below it was a complicated and beautiful cloud Bed covered with silk, which occasionally gave off a light fragrance.

A woman was lying quietly on the bed, surrounded by all kinds of spiritual flowers and plants. She was sleeping peacefully, and her face was as white as Jade.

Her face was beautiful, dignified, and compassionate, very similar to a water fairy.

The Yunluo bed was surrounded by copper lamps in a strange order, shining with a dark green light. A strange line was engraved on the ground, connecting all the copper lamps together and pointing at the head of the bed.

A slightly larger Natal Palace lamp was placed in front of the woman's bed. A white-haired man with a slightly hunched figure sat cross-legged in front of the lamp. He put two fingers together and pointed at the wick.

Under his fingertips, the wick emitted a thin golden light, like the radiance of the sun.

The hall was quiet.

The man sat there cross-legged for a long time without making a sound.

you ... poron slowly opened his wrinkled eyes, a hoarse voice coming from his throat.

His aged appearance was completely different from the form projected outside the hall. The master of the four Seas, a peak expert, could not be seen at all. He looked like an old man who was about to die.

a smile of a thousand years of wind and clouds, shining from the past to the present.

Gu Feiyang? ” Bolon muttered.

“Back then, after your heaven-defying divination, you left behind this poem. Now that Gu Feiyang has reincarnated and come to the forest of the sea, everything is destined. But since it’s destined, why do you have to go against the heavens and divine? I don’t want the glory of the ocean Emperor, I don’t want the peace of the world, and I don’t want the power of the ten directions divine realm. I just want to be with you.”

There was a look of sadness on polong’s face as two streams of tears flowed down his old and shriveled cheeks.

“Now, our daughter is in love with li Yunxiao, and I don’t know if it’s a blessing or a curse. But, Gu Hong will never give up. I can feel that the bloodline of his true spirit has been awakened, and he will kill Yunxiao. Do you think I should kill him first?”

A sharp glint suddenly flashed across poron’s murky eyes. It was like a flash of lightning that streaked across the pitch-black night sky.

His face was filled with hesitation as he muttered to himself, ” “If we kill bone Hong, the Yunsheng clan will definitely not let this matter rest. At that time, the four Seas will be in chaos, and that is not something I wish to see. Rouwei, get up and tell me what I should do. What should I do?”

With tears on his face, poron was struggling.

On the cliff of repentance, the sky turned dark.

Under the influence of some kind of power, the sky stirred like paste and emitted a dark and colorful light.

...

From afar, a snow-white figure was standing quietly on the cliff, like a proud wind.

Bone rainbow’s voice resounded on the cliff. His figure slowly gathered in the air. He was also wearing white clothes as he slowly walked forward.

The water deity’s body trembled slightly. She opened her clear eyes, and a trace of fear appeared in them. “Senior brother, you, why are you here?”

“I just came out of closed door cultivation and heard that you were punished by my master to stay here. I was afraid that you would be afraid of being alone, so I came to accompany you.” Gu Hong revealed a concerned expression.

“I don’t need your company. I’m not afraid,” the water deity refused.

“Hehe.”

Bone Hong chuckled as he looked at the constantly twisting space in the sky. The corner of his mouth rose slightly, “this chaotic space can drop a strange power at any time. Even I can’t guarantee that I can escape unscathed.

don’t scare me, ” the water deity said anxiously. don’t think I don’t know that the probability of a foreign force falling into this space is extremely low. Most of the time, it’s not that powerful.

“Haha, really?” Gu Hong laughed.

A strange smile appeared on his face, and his eyes narrowed slightly.

...

A dark green light flashed in the twisted space above, followed by a sharp light.

“Ah!”

The water deity was shocked and quickly jumped away. The sharp light exploded under her feet, blasting a hole in the solid cliff.

“Haha, Didn’t I tell you it’s dangerous?” bone Hong laughed.

“Did you do this?” the water deity was bewildered and asked angrily.

“You think too highly of me, junior martial sister,” Gu Hong said with a smile. This is the chaotic flow of space, I don’t have such great ability.”

I don’t care if you have the ability or not, ” the water deity said coldly. I don’t need you here. Get lost!

Gu Hong’s expression darkened and he coldly said, alright, I’ll get out of here now and kill that li Yunxiao.

The water deity’s expression changed drastically as she said in shock and anger, ” “W-what did you just say? I won’t allow you to mess around!”

Gu Hong’s eyes had been staring at her the entire time. At this moment, his face was like iron as he coldly said, “As expected, you have a special relationship with that kid! I’ve never seen the fear and panic in your eyes before! Damn it, that brat is dead for sure!”

“Don’t leave!”

Seeing that he was about to leave, the water deity quickly flew over to stop him.

Bone rainbow’s eyes grew colder and colder. He pointed his finger in the air and traces of green light appeared in the air. They gathered together and formed a large net. It caught water fairy in an instant and brought her back to her original spot.

Then, the green threads spread out and wrapped around the water fairy. They turned into a green ring and imprinted into the earth.

The water deity's expression changed drastically, and she was about to charge forward again.

The green light on the ground flashed, and an invisible force instantly bounced her back.

Chapter 1213-ambush

The water deity was furious. With a flash of golden light in her hand, Daqiao bugong sword appeared in her hand. Countless Maha ancient characters surged out of the sword and she stabbed it forward.

“Clang”

The big sword stabbed into the Azure light wall, but it didn't move at all.

Gu Hong looked back and revealed a strange expression. He coldly said, Junior Sister Water fairy's strength has improved a lot. You should just stay here and cultivate and try to reach a higher level.

He disappeared from the cliff in a flash.

“Come back, come back here!”

Water deity shouted madly on the cliff. The sword in her hand continued to slash in all directions, creating sparks, but it was of no use.

Inside the heaven and earth smelt, Yunxiao sat quietly in the air with his legs crossed. At this moment, his skin was also red, as if it had been completely cooked.

He slowly recovered from his meditative state and stared at the lava pillar in front of him. He could not help but reveal a surprised expression.

This heaven and earth smelt was suspended in the middle of the ocean. If it was used by someone all year round to absorb the flames within, it would definitely be continuously consumed.

However, he realized that no matter how much he and the Phoenix absorbed, the fire elements in the surroundings were almost full. It was as if there was an endless stream of fire elements that would never be consumed.

Yunxiao rose to his feet. With a flash of light, his red skin immediately returned to its previous smooth and Jade-like skin.

He opened his moon eyes and looked down curiously.

There seemed to be a strong resistance in the lava, and even his eye-bloodline power could only penetrate a few dozen meters in.

However, the depth of tens of meters allowed him to discover something. The magma seemed to rise and fall in a regular pattern. It kept surging with raging flames and maintained the entire smelting environment at a stable level.

this feeling is as though it's breathing. Could it be that this heaven and earth smelt is a living thing? ”

He immediately thought of this possibility and couldn't help but jump in shock.

After pondering for a moment, Yunxiao flipped his hand and took out an ordinary eighth-tier sword, then threw it directly into the lava.

“Chi Chi!”

As soon as the sword entered the lava, white smoke immediately rose up, accompanied by the light of an artifact, but it was devoured before it could even light up.

The entire sword was slowly melting inside, and in a few breaths, it was completely melted.

Yunxiao's face was filled with uncertainty, but in the end, he showed a determined look, as if he had made up his mind. With a flash of light between his eyebrows, the calabash Little King Kong flew out and directly probed the bottom of the lava.

The calabash King Kong punched the mud away and began to sink slowly.

A large number of fire elements directly attached themselves to Little King Kong's body, burning him red in an instant.

After sinking dozens of meters, it reached the limit of what Yunxiao's eyes could see, and with a thought, he stopped it.

He was shocked to find that the calabash Little King Kong's body had begun to melt in the lava, and a layer of liquid had appeared on the surface.

If they went any deeper and lost the surveillance of his eyes, God knows what would happen.

With a thought, Little King Kong immediately broke the lava with a punch and slowly flew out, standing in front of Yunxiao.

Its entire body had already turned crimson red, like red-hot iron, and was emitting rolling steam.

Although this place was a little strange, it was indeed worthy of the name of a furnace. Such a strong gourd, Little King Kong, could also be burned in a short time.

"Since I can't find out the secret, it's fine, but it would be a pity if I don't make full use of the conditions here."

A thought suddenly appeared in his mind, and a smile appeared at the corner of his mouth.

He stretched out his hand, and a white light floated in his palm. In an instant, it turned into the cauldron of mountain and river, and it slowly became bigger.

Then, he formed hand seals continuously and sent them into the cauldron.

The countless patterns on the cauldron of mountain and river were activated. They shot out thousands of rays of light and painted the red world with a bright white.

“BOOM!”

The cauldron continued to make rumbling sounds. Suddenly, a ray of light shot out of the cauldron and into the lava.

“Gulu Gulu!”

The mud in the lava was stirred up, and a large amount of heat rushed out. Moreover, a ray of light grew larger and larger in the mud, opening up a space.

The ray of light gradually turned into the shape of a huge cauldron. It was a projection that shot down from the cauldron of mountain and river.

With a thought, Yunxiao had the calabash Little King Kong fly into the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river, and at the same time, he cast an incantation seal.

The cauldron of mountain and river turned slightly, and the projection changed as well. It was as if an opening had been opened, and the lava gushed in, swallowing the gourd Little King Kong.

Yunxiao kept performing incantation gestures with both hands, using the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river as a furnace to refine it.

He wasn't afraid that the cauldron of mountain and river would be melted by the lava. After all, it was a Supreme-grade profound level weapon. It couldn't possibly be destroyed in this place. It was just that the cauldron was too powerful. If it was used together with the lava here, he was afraid that the gourd little guardian deity might accidentally be refined to death. That would be too much to cry.

Inside the projection of the cauldron, the gourd Little King Kong was red all over and kept growling. It was obviously in extreme pain.

As a half-beast, half-tool, it would not feel the damage to the physical body, but this kind of refinement directly went into the heart and soul. As the body continued to strengthen, it must have a heart that matched the physical body.

He had never experienced such a path of refinement before, so Yunxiao could only follow it step by step and keep exploring and moving forward. When he reached the ninth tier and above, he was close to the laws of the heavenly Dao, and every step was extremely difficult to change.

With a flip of his hand, he took out the remaining Dragon shell from last time and threw it out.

Then, his glabella flashed and shot out a ray of light into the air. A large number of heavenly materials and earthly treasures were suspended in the air. Most of them were minerals and gemstones. They were of different shapes and colors. Some of them were even squirming gently as if they were about to take shape.

These were all the rare treasures he had plundered from the palace of Donghai. He glanced at them one by one and pointed his two fingers continuously. One after another, the strange items flew into the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river in the lava.

Every object had a strong spirituality and even self-defense. When they fell into the projection, they would shake and emit a ray of light, but they were quickly swallowed by the lava.

After throwing over a hundred treasures, Yunxiao waved his hand, and a beam of light swept across the sky, collecting all the treasures.

He took out a medicinal pill and swallowed it. After replenishing his energy, he began to refine it slowly, like a chef cooking fresh food, unhurried.

...

A day later, Yunxiao, who had his eyes closed next to the cauldron of mountain and river, suddenly opened them. His eyes were like lightning as he looked down in horror.

There seemed to be an external force appearing in the lava. It was constantly stirring the lava and directly hitting the projection of the cauldron. The refining process inside was disturbed.

Yunxiao was shocked. Had he touched something in the lava?

He hurriedly flew down and stepped on the lava with both feet. His entire body turned golden, and heat waves continued to enter his body through the soles of his feet.

His heart was filled with shock. Under such high temperatures, the stirring force in the lava could be vaguely seen to be a huge hand!

Yunxiao suddenly pointed a finger in the air, and a Northern heaven cold star sword suddenly shot out, cutting through the lava and heading toward the giant hand.

The giant hand seemed to have sensed the danger as well. It clenched its fist in the lava, and two streams of flames spurted out from the cracks of its fist. The flames transformed into strange-shaped weapons and met the northern heavens cold star sword.

“Bang!”

The northern heavens cold star sword was shaken, and the cold light on the sword was completely dispersed. It was immediately swallowed by the lava. Although it was not immediately burned red, its light was completely lost, and the cold air was completely gone. It began to heat up.

Yunxiao’s pupils constricted. That hand could actually be turned into a weapon, which meant it was obviously very intelligent.

He grabbed in the air, and a huge green shadow Hand immediately appeared above him, which rushed into the lava.

...

“BOOM!”

The five fingers of the giant hand pierced into the lava and grabbed the air. With a whoosh, the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river was pulled out.

After that, Yunxiao slapped his palm in the air, and a flame-generating spell shook into the magma. Another pillar of fire rose up, dragging the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river into the sky.

The cauldron of mountain and river also underwent this transformation. As the projection rotated slightly, the power on the cauldron seemed to become stronger. The light of the projection gradually became more solid, as if it had split into two and turned into two cauldrons.

Two pillars of fire rose from the lava. One supported the light projection of the cauldron of mountain and river, while the other supported the Phoenix true flames.

The entire lava space suddenly seemed a little narrow.

Having lost its target, the giant hand slowly reached out of the lava and kept growing. This time, its target was Yunxiao.

“Whoosh!”

The hand broke free from the lava, its entire body the same color as the lava, and it was still bubbling with hot bubbles as it grabbed at Yunxiao.

“Hmph!”

A cold look flashed across Yunxiao's face. The arm had sealed the surrounding space with a grab. It was actually the Emperor Qi of the ninth heaven, which meant that there must be a Martial Emperor controlling the arm.

He formed hand seals with both hands, and the true fiend Dharma idol appeared behind him. The Dharma idol grabbed an illusionary saber in one of its arms and slashed at the giant hand.

"Bang!"

The illusionary image of the saber slashed directly at the big hand, but it couldn't cut it open at once. It was directly blocked and couldn't advance any further.

A force came from the giant hand and jolted the blade shadow away. Then, it merged in the air and slowly lost the shape of a hand, and a human figure gradually appeared.

This person's body was still made of lava, and heat waves and bubbles were constantly rising from his body. However, when he suddenly opened his eyes, they were as deep as an abyss. They were the eyes of a martial artist.

You are Li Yunxiao?"

The man asked after staring at Yunxiao for a while.

am I that famous?" Yunxiao said indifferently. I'm not that famous. Even in the forest of the sea, in the heaven and earth smelt, any random monster would know my name?"

"Hmph! That's right, you can die now."

After confirming it, the man dashed toward Yunxiao in a flash and threw a punch at his head.

Yunxiao's face flickered. With a flash of golden light, one of his arms turned into a dazzling golden light as he suddenly grabbed at the air.

Chapter 1214-abnormal movement of the true fire

“Pa!”

The fire Fist landed in his palm, and circles of flames and heat waves spread out in all directions, hitting the two of them.

The golden light on Yunxiao’s body flickered under the impact of the flame.

“So you have an inborn divine body,” the man said sarcastically, his pupils shrinking. “You do have some skills.”

He pulled back his fist and kicked out at Yunxiao’s forehead as fast as lightning.

“Hmph!”

Yunxiao snorted coldly. No matter how fast his opponent was, he could not be faster than the light in his eyes.

His body moved slightly, and the surroundings went into a daze, leaving only an afterimage behind. That kick directly kicked the throat of the afterimage, and the entire head slowly dissipated into afterimages under this kick.

A cold voice sounded from behind the man. let me see who you are!

The man was shocked. He knew that he was in trouble after the kick. At this moment, a sense of extreme danger welled up in his heart. Without looking back, he punched the back of his head.

“Hu Chi!”

A sharp gust of wind suddenly appeared, and with a flash of cold light, Yunxiao's cold sword of ice in his hand was instantly broken by the man's punch, which went up along the man's arm.

"Damn it!"

The man growled in shock and anger. His arm was cut vertically, and the other half fell down.

The broken arm was still filled with boiling lava, no different from a physical body. However, there was a thin layer of ice at the place where it was cut.

"Argh! What kind of sword is this?"

The man cried out in shock, and his eyes were filled with horror. He kept twisting his body to let the lava flow towards the wound. His entire arm slowly returned to its original state, but the red color had faded by more than half.

The ice sword was the coldest thing in the world. Although it was suppressed in this environment, it was also the nemesis of the hottest things.

Yunxiao stood with the sword in his hand and said coldly, "Just as I expected, it's just a trace of spiritual sense. Do you think you can kill me with just a strand of your divine sense? are you a fool?"

After the man's surprise and anger were exposed by Yunxiao, a Vulture flickered in his eyes as he said coldly, "as expected, you're not an ordinary six-stars Martial Emperor. Otherwise, my divine thought would be more than enough to kill you.

you secretly hid a divine sense in the lava," Yunxiao said coldly. Who are you? This spiritual sense couldn't have been waiting for me, it must have been hidden for many years."

The man's expression changed drastically, and his eyes burst with a strong killing intent. I can't let you Live!

He looked around and immediately saw two pillars of fire. He laughed hideously and disappeared from where he was.

Yunxiao's expression flickered as he teleported himself to catch the man's speed and trajectory. With a single teleportation, he appeared above the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river and slashed down with his sword.

"Pfft!"

That person appeared just in time and was instantly cut in half by the sword.

"It's useless! I'm immortal here, unless you refine this divine sense of mine, but is that possible?"

The body that was split in half instantly returned to its human form. It threw a punch at the illusory cauldron of mountain and river.

The other half transformed into a spear in the air and shot toward Yunxiao.

Yunxiao's face flickered. He transformed into a bolt of lightning and fled a few meters away, then reappeared next to the cauldron of mountain and river and threw an incantation seal at it.

"Bang!"

The cauldron of mountain and river turned slightly, and the projection shook violently.

Suddenly, a vortex appeared on the pillar of fire, and a hole slowly appeared.

That person's pupils shrank as he saw a fist intent suddenly blast out from the pitch-black hole, causing the surrounding space to explode!

"Bang!"

The man's fist immediately collided with the fist intent, causing a wave of lava to explode.

The man's entire fist was completely gone, but he didn't care about it at all. Instead, he looked at the gourd Little King Kong's face in the pillar of fire in shock, "you, what are you refining? A puppet?"

Just as he was stunned, a beam of Emperor Qi of the nine Heavens pressed down and locked the space around him, making him unable to move.

"It's just a spiritual sense, and you think you're so awesome? Watch how I refine you in minutes!" Yunxiao's face flashed with a cold light.

After losing more than half of his body, that person's strength was also greatly weakened. He roared in shock and anger, "You piece of trash, wait for me to cut you into a thousand pieces! Even if it's just a divine sense, it's not something you can easily win against!"

He opened his mouth wide and took a deep breath.

The lava below him immediately turned into a reverse flow and was sucked into his stomach.

"Gulu Gulu!"

His entire body swelled up and gradually became a ball.

He looked cute, but his eyes were fierce. He made a hand seal with one hand.

His entire body suddenly emitted countless strange symbols, covering his entire body in an instant. Moreover, these symbols seemed to be hollow, and terrifying flames continuously shot out from within.

Yunxiao understood his intention the moment his body swelled up. His face darkened as he snorted coldly and said, "You want to self-destruct? dream on!"

His eyes flashed with blood-red light, and strange symbols appeared around his pupils. The entire space changed.

“Ah? This is Yingluo.”

The man was shocked to find himself in a World of Ice and snow. He was surrounded by extremely cold, ten-thousand-year-old ice rocks, and a bone-chilling coldness invaded his body.

Even his body, which was made of lava, could not help but shiver in the cold.

“An illusion! You’re actually an illusion expert!”

no! the man shouted in anger. the illusion is fake after all. Let’s see how you can stop me from self-destructing!

...

explode! he shouted as he changed the hand seal.

The countless runes on his body suddenly brightened up, blooming with intense flames. His entire body suddenly exploded.

“BOOM!”

A huge impact force exploded out, and the entire world of Ice disappeared instantly. The scene returned to the heaven and earth smelt, and a terrifying heat wave spread out in all directions.

Yunxiao’s face turned cold. Fearing that the impact would affect the two pillars of fire, he widened his eyes and was about to use a divine skill to wipe them out.

Suddenly, the cry of a fire Phoenix came from the pillar not far away.

It was as if time had stopped for all the power of the impact. It froze in an instant, then suddenly turned into a strong wind and was frantically absorbed by the pillar.

Yunxiao's body trembled as he looked at the pillar of fire in horror. He could vaguely see the shadow of a Phoenix emerging on it, but it disappeared in a flash, and everything returned to normal.

The terrifying power of self-destruction was completely devoured just like that.

Even in this hot environment, Yunxiao could not help but break out in a cold sweat.

"The voice just now was very spiritual. Could it be that the true spirit of the Phoenix has been awakened?"

...

The more he thought about it, the more suspicious he felt.

The ancient true spirit Phoenix was an undying bird that could be reborn from the ashes.

This remnant flame had been passed down for countless years, and it was inevitable that there was no trace of the Phoenix's thoughts or remnant will.

Yunxiao had not been able to completely refine it, so he could not fully understand the truth of the flame.

the Phoenix Clan was one of the top true spirits even in ancient times. It's not surprising that they left behind some means of rebirth before they died.

He thought of the first Dragon, a descendant of the true dragon. Among the ancient true spirits, it was ranked a lot lower than the Phoenix, but it still managed to survive until now, let alone the Phoenix.

A thought suddenly flashed through Yunxiao's mind. 'Apart from Shi long, are there any other true spirits in this heavenly martial realm?'

Thinking of this, he felt his throat dry up.

If the true flame in this pillar of fire really transformed into a Phoenix, it would be impossible for him to control it. Moreover, who knew what kind of temper these true spirits had? they might take things too far and spit fire on the spot, burning him to ashes.

His expression became gloomy and uncertain as he stared at the pillar of fire.

After a long time, he sighed and seemed to have made a choice. He didn't think too much and turned to another pillar of fire.

After the gourd little Vajra's previous attack, it continued to sink into the projection of the cauldron of mountain and river. It was no longer in pain. A large amount of fire elements continuously washed over its body, but it was still expressionless and indifferent.

But, Yunxiao could sense its existence, as well as the vast power that was silent under this profound level weapon.

He closed his eyes and started to concentrate on the refining. The light on the cauldron of mountain and river became brighter and brighter. The entire refining process was coming to an end.

On the cliff of the Red Sea, bone rainbow suddenly opened his eyes, and a boundless flame of anger shot out.

"Bang!"

The rocks under his feet suddenly cracked and turned into dust. It was like a mountain had collapsed. Countless pieces of giant rocks rolled into the sea.

He stared at the sea with a Vulture-like expression and his eyes revealed a fierce gaze.

“Li Yunxiao!”

These three words seemed to have taken a great deal of effort to utter. The ocean below was also surging non-stop, and it began to roar.

Suddenly, a ray of light shot out from the sea and instantly turned into a magnificent figure in golden armor.

The figure slowly raised his eyes and with a lazy expression, he shouted, “Gu Hong, what’s wrong with you? I’ve been ordered to guard the heaven and earth smelt. Do you want to be beaten up?”

Gu Hong’s face turned ashen. He raised his hand and pointed at the man, “Zuya, I’m going down to kill someone. Get out of my way!”

Zuya’s eyelids twitched as he shouted, “impudent!” If I let you go down and kill as you please, then what’s the point of me guarding this place all this time?”

“I don’t care!” Gu Hong coldly replied. I must kill this person down there. If you refuse to move aside, don’t blame me for getting rid of you as well!”

“Hahaha!”

Zuya threw his head back and laughed. A look of disdain and contempt flashed in his eyes. do you think that you can kill gods and demons just because you’ve entered the realm of a nine-star Martial Emperor and activated the bloodline of the Yunsheng clan? How childish!”

“You’re courting death. Even if master blames you, you can’t blame me!”

Bone rainbow didn't say anything else. His body flickered, and like a great ROC spreading its wings, he flew directly towards Zuya. His face was cold, and his eyes were like he was looking at a dead man.

Chapter 1215-sword domain

Zuya's lazy expression was swept away, and his face darkened as well. A cold glint flashed in his eyes, and his left hand quickly drew a circle in front of him. One by one, flashing talisman balls were drawn in front of him, and they were all sent flying towards the bone rainbow.

Those balls were of different sizes, colors, and contained different powers. They created ripples of different depths on the ocean.

Bone rainbow's pupils contracted. The power within these balls covered the five elements of heaven and earth. They constantly influenced each other. Dao gave birth to one, one gave birth to two, two gave birth to three, three gave birth to countless.

"Hmph!"

He coldly snorted, and the sound of bones cracking came from his body. His body suddenly shone brightly, and symbols appeared on his skin, covering his whole body.

An extremely powerful force emerged from his body and poured into his palms. Immediately, two huge green palm shadows appeared in the sky and split into tens of thousands before crashing down.

"Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!"

The sky was filled with palm shadows that rained down, continuously destroying the various symbol balls.

The red ocean shook and huge waves roared a thousand meters away from the two.

Gu Hong's eyes were frosty as he formed an incantation gesture with his hands. Suddenly, an extremely dangerous aura began to emanate from his body.

A white light slowly rose up and spread out in the sky with a clang, turning into the shape of a knife.

The huge saber shape gave off a sound that stirred people's hearts. Before the saber fell, the sky was already split open by the saber intent.

Gu Hong put two fingers together and pointed in the air. He said in a cold voice, "Tai Yuan blade!"

"Clang"

The saber image collapsed like a mountain. Heaven and earth seemed to be broken, and the ocean was instantly cut in half. It was as if everything in the world was completely cut off by the saber!

Zuya's expression turned serious as well. He put away his previous contemptuous look, clasped his hands in front of his body, and shouted.

A ray of golden light appeared in his hands, and a small golden sword was spinning inside, slowly growing larger.

Zuya suddenly grabbed the sword, and the entire sea trembled.

With him as the center, a golden light radiated out, and the area within a radius of several thousand meters was filled with endless sword light. Ten thousand sword shadows hung in the surroundings.

"A cold sword light, five lakes and four Seas."

Tens of thousands of sword shadows instantly condensed and gathered from all directions into the golden sword. The sound of the Golden swords colliding was like a silver bell.

Under the blinding golden light, Zuya raised his long sword and stabbed at the air.

“Bang!”

The huge saber-shaped sword directly struck the golden sword, making a deafening crisp sound.

Countless cracks appeared on the moon-like saber. With a “bang”, it shattered like a precious Jade falling to the ground. The Pearl plate shattered and turned into moonlights that scattered into the sea.

However, the golden sword continued to gather and did not disperse. It became brighter and brighter in the air.

Zuya put his hands together, and golden light surged over the Red Sea. In an instant, countless sword shadows broke out of the water and shot into the sky.

The entire sky above the sea was covered in golden light. With the golden sword as the center, countless tiny sword shadows flew around.

you ... Gu Hong’s expression changed drastically. you ... You’ve actually cultivated the divine ability of the sword domain!

The runes all over his body suddenly flickered, and a white light lit up behind him. A pair of wings appeared with a bang, and he teleported 10000 miles in a flash.

“Since they’ve come, we’ll beat them up.”

Zuya’s mocking voice rang out. The golden light in the sky swirled, and a beam of sword intent was sent over along with the bone rainbow. It was like a maggot in a tarsal bone that could not be removed.

Zuya, you dare to kill me?!

Gu Hong's expression changed drastically as he watched in horror as the sword intent slashed down, tearing apart the sky like a piece of cloth.

He hurriedly crossed his hands in front of his body, and threads of green light as thin as hair spread out, intertwining and gathering in front of him, forming a shield mirror to protect his front.

"Bang!"

The sword intent slashed down, and the shield and mirror only lasted for half a breath before it collapsed.

The sword's momentum didn't slow down as it slashed onto Bone Rainbow's body, shattering his two wings. Under the suppression of the sword intent, his entire body was sent flying towards the ground.

"BOOM!"

A huge cloud of dust rose into the air, and a deep pit was torn out on the extremely solid Island.

"Hmph, funny!"

Zuya snorted disdainfully, his figure disappearing in a flash. If not for your apprehensions, the sin of burying your consciousness in the heaven and earth smelt alone is enough for you to die a million times!

The huge crack on the island startled countless birds and beasts, but it soon quieted down.

"Whoosh!"

A ray of light flew out from the crack and shattered a large piece of rock.

Gu Hong's body was in a sorry state. He directly lay on the ground, panting for breath. His eyes were filled with fear and hatred.

The injuries on his body were ghastly, especially on the two sides of his back. It was as if a piece of bone had been dug out, and in a short while, blood was flowing all over the ground.

“Pfft!”

He suddenly spat out a large mouthful of blood, and his expression rapidly weakened.

“Zuya, damn it, damn you animal! I’ll definitely kill you one day!”

He was so angry that he spat out a few more mouthfuls of blood. He took out a stem-like thing and put it in his mouth, chewing it while the expression on his face constantly changed.

Soon after, he took out a Golden Jade pendant, raised his hand, and struck out a few runes in the air, all of which flowed into the Golden Plate. Then, he slapped it in the air.

The gold medal spun twice, turned into a ray of light, and disappeared into the void.

...

A few days later, the Red Sea once again churned with huge waves, and a passage directly opened on the sea.

Yunxiao turned into a bolt of lightning and flew out, reappearing in the sky.

He looked back at the ocean and seemed to have sensed something. He frowned slightly and turned into a bolt of lightning, heading toward the ocean Emperor Palace.

“You’re here.”

A light shadow appeared in the sky above the ocean emperor's palace and gradually condensed into the appearance of poron, whose face was filled with excitement and joy.

Yunxiao nodded. thank you for your help, Your Majesty. The divine fire has changed a lot. It won't be a problem to ignite the seven Star Lamp.

I've tried countless times over the past few years," polong said. the greater the hope, the greater the disappointment. I'm already very calm.

I won't let you down this time," Yunxiao said with a smile.

"I hope so."

"Come with me," polong sighed.

He turned into a beam of light and flew over, wrapping Yunxiao in it and disappearing into the sky.

...

In the next moment, a light flashed in the side hall full of copper lamps, and Yunxiao's figure appeared.

"Ah, you're Yingluo."

Yunxiao could not help but cry out in surprise when he saw the sea Emperor's face.

Although he knew that what he had seen before was the sea Emperor's projection and had guessed that his real body must have aged, he did not expect it to be so weak.

There was no longer any dignity or dignity, he was like a dying old man, coiling in front of the life Palace lamp, constantly using his true Qi to protect the bean-sized light on the lamp wick.

“Hehe.”

Rather, Polong was very calm as he laughed, “Even the world-famous Gu Feiyang would be scared?”

Yunxiao smiled wryly. The ruler of the four Seas, the ocean Emperor of the generation, who reveres the world, has become like this. Anyone would be frightened.

“What’s the use of the four Seas being the sovereign of the world?” Even if I enter the omnidirectional divine realm, what’s the point without the person I love?”

His face was filled with desolation as he raised his head to look at the woman on Luo Yun’s bed, revealing a look of compassion and love.

“Although we are not heartless,” Yunxiao said seriously, “we should still focus on martial arts and not be distracted.

“There are 3000 rules in the world,” Polong said. “There are also 3000 rules in the great Dao. Who made the rule that those who pursue the martial Dao can not pursue the path of love?”

Yunxiao was taken aback. After pondering for a moment, he said, “There are indeed no rules, but a man’s energy is limited. My life is limited, but the great Dao is boundless.

A trace of dignity flashed across Polong’s face as he solemnly said, “My great Dao is to be with her. Other than that, there is no other Dao.

Yunxiao’s heart trembled. Polong’s words were straight to his heart. It seemed that he had fallen into the Dao of love and could not extricate himself.

It was no wonder that his martial cultivation had deteriorated. Otherwise, with his extraordinary divine realm, even if he had spent several years here, his cultivation would not have fallen.

“Since that’s the case, I won’t try to persuade him.”

Yunxiao gave the woman on Luo Yun’s bed a look, and found that she did look very similar to the water deity. let me try, then. As long as you can free yourself from this place, it’s not impossible for you to recover your cultivation in the future by relying on the divine Art and Amitabha.”

Polong’s body trembled, and he did not say anything about Yunxiao’s words, as if he did not want to talk about the topic anymore. “Good, good.”

His eyes were filled with excitement and hope, and his entire body was trembling.

His left hand continuously pointed in the air, and several golden runes flew out in the air and disappeared in a flash.

A purple formation light appeared on the dome. Polong softly chanted an incantation, and the hand gestures of his left hand kept changing.

Every time he struck, the purple formation light changed a bit.

In the end, with a “crack” sound, the formation light was opened like a key and directly split into two.

“You can come in now.”

Only then did Polong speak slowly, beads of sweat appearing on his forehead.

Naturally, Yunxiao could sense the extraordinariness of the array. Besides, even with Neptune’s powerful divine ability, it took him so much effort to undo the seal, which showed how powerful it was.

He first carefully observed the arrangement of the formation on the ground. Soon, he understood everything and walked to Luo Yun’s bed in a certain direction.

The woman, who looked 70 – 80% similar to water deity, lay there peacefully, as if she was in a deep sleep.

After calming his excited state of mind, poron said, " "You can try."

Yunxiao nodded, then closed his eyes and performed an incantation gesture with one hand before him as he began to meditate and cultivate.

He knew that Yunxiao was adjusting his condition.

This was a process of understanding the power of the elements. Only when he was completely fused with the elements would he be able to unleash the power of the elements to its greatest extent.

He had already waited for so many years, so he didn't mind waiting for a while.

An hour later, Yunxiao suddenly opened his eyes. His clear eyes had turned into two clusters of flames, burning and jumping.

Within the flames, one could see the faint image of a Phoenix flying around.

Chapter 1216-copper pillar poron's turbid eyes suddenly became clear, and his aged face glowed with light. The wrinkles on his face gradually disappeared.

Yunxiao raised his hand, and a Flame Core gathered at his fingertip. It flickered and emitted a huge amount of energy as it slowly lit up the life lantern.

The flame on his fingertip was ever-changing, taking on a myriad of forms, like a living soul.

it's indeed the repaired true Phoenix Flame, " polong said excitedly. this spiritual aura seems to be coming to life.

The more powerful the flame was, the more excited he was. He instructed, "Be careful,"

The sun true origin on the lamp suddenly lit up, and polong felt as if half of the origin power in his body had been drawn away.

His expression changed drastically. His left hand formed a seal, trying his best to cut off the extraction force, but he did not dare to be too fierce, for fear that the light would go out.

Yunxiao's fingertips suddenly froze, as if they were blocked by an invisible force.

The wick emitted a nine-colored light, which spread out layer by layer and kept attacking the flame in Yunxiao's hand.

Yunxiao's expression remained unchanged, as if he had expected this. He performed an incantation gesture with his left hand and drew three strange runes in the air, then slapped them down one by one.

"Bang!"

There was a soft sound of bubbles bursting, and the nine-colored light completely disappeared.

The Natal lamp seemed to have sensed the aura of the Phoenix Fire. The ancient carving on the lamp suddenly lit up, and a purple mist floated up from it, slowly turning into a gray two-horned monster.

The two horns on his forehead, one gold and one silver, made the monster's face look gloomy.

"Huodou!"

Yunxiao was taken aback, and his calm eyes rippled as if he could not believe it.

Polong's expression changed greatly as he asked in shock, "What's wrong? It's just an afterimage of the calamity dragon race. I don't know why rouwei has this in her body, but she's now a Palace Guardian beast."

"I'm fine,"

Yunxiao put away his thoughts and became calm again.

Only then did poron relax a little, but there was still a trace of doubt in his heart.

The palace Guardian beast, Huo Dou, was silent as it bared its fangs and brandished its claws at Yunxiao. The two horns on its forehead were flashing gold and silver, as if lightning was passing through them.

Yunxiao had seen Yuan in his true form, and he knew that the horns were the strongest power of the huodou clan. So, the moment the gold and silver appeared, his eyes turned into blood moons and he cast an eye technique.

"Mirror Stream!"

Under his gaze, Huo Dou's remnant soul opened his mouth wide and revealed a look of fear.

In the next moment, the shadow of Huo Dou's remnant soul was directly imprinted into Yunxiao's right pupil, becoming clearer and clearer.

The sound and shadow above the copper lamp had disappeared without a trace.

Yunxiao suddenly closed his right eye, and beams of bright light burst out of his left eye. The moment Huo Dou's soul dissipated, he pointed a divine flame at him.

"Pfft!"

The wick of the life Palace lamp burst into flames, and a three-foot tall flame rose!

“Ah!”

The woman on Luo Yun’s bed suddenly screamed.

ah! polong’s entire body trembled as he flew to the bed. Rou Wei’s face was filled with shock before it slowly melted away and finally returned to her sleeping state.

The life Palace lamp on the bed was burning under the Phoenix Fire. The flame slowly shrank and finally became the size of a thumb before it stabilized. It was much brighter than the soybean light that was protected by poron.

“Rouwei, rouwei!”

Poron called out a few times in front of the bed, but there was no response.

Two lines of tears flowed down the peerless expert’s face. He grabbed her soft hand and gently placed it on his cheek, as if he wanted to let the two of them feel each other’s warmth.

Only then did Yunxiao open his right eye. He saw the remnant soul of Huo Dou struggling in the space of his eye sorcery and slowly dissipating.

At this moment, the seven Star Lamp on the ground also began to change. The divine fire on the life Palace lamp kept flashing and jumping with the shadow of a Phoenix. At the same time, the 56 lamps on the inside and outside also projected the shadow of a Phoenix. The flames on them were like thousands of people bowing to the life Palace lamp.

Yunxiao breathed a sigh of relief. my condolences, Your Majesty, ” he said happily. fortunately, I did not fail you.

Only then did Polong gradually recover from his grief. He nodded and said, "Thank you for your hard work."

That's only keeping her life on the line," Yunxiao said. If we want to save her completely and change her fate, we have to find the legendary heavenly fortune pill.

I've also looked through various ancient books," Polong said. There are no less than ten ways to save Rouwei, but all of them are heaven-defying items or don't even exist in this world. The last time the heavenly fortune pill you mentioned appeared was tens of thousands of years ago, and there are no clear records of it. "

Yunxiao's heart stirred. He wanted to say something, but he hesitated.

"It's already a great help to me that Rou Wei's life is hanging by a thread," Polong said. This way, I can have more free hands to do more things."

That's good," Yunxiao said. That's good. With Lord Poseidon's abilities, I'll be sure to pay more attention."

"Thank you very much," Polong said.

He thought of Rouwei's last sentence after her divination, which was pointing at the man in front of him. Perhaps Yunxiao could really find a way. His hope and confidence were suddenly ignited.

Previously, I said that if you can complete 180 words of the Maha ancient text, you can comprehend 500 words. Have you considered it? "

Yunxiao smiled and stretched out a finger as he said, "A thousand words."

Polong was stunned for a moment, then laughed bitterly. "How can you take advantage of me like this? For the sake of saving Rouwei, I can't say more than eight hundred."

“Deal!”

Yunxiao immediately agreed, his eyes shining.

There was a strange smile in his eyes as he said, you can choose any 800. How much you can master will depend on you.

...

Yunxiao could not help but frown when he saw the strange smile on Polong's face. 'Is there something else?'

With a wave of his hand, the two of them disappeared from the side hall.

In the next moment, he found himself in a vast white world. There were hundreds and thousands of huge copper pillars around him, like a forest of pillars.

There was a bronze statue of a ferocious beast crouching on top of each pillar. Some of them looked down at the earth while others looked up at the sky. They were very lifelike.

But, when Yunxiao came in, he found that no matter where he was, he felt as if hundreds of fierce beasts were staring at him, and he felt a little scared.

The bronze pillar was densely engraved with all kinds of Maha ancient characters, and they were all incomplete characters without strokes.

Yunxiao was a knowledgeable man, and he knew that this space was similar to a Supreme-grade profound artifact, the kind that existed at the beginning of the world. It was used to store these copper pillars and simulate the nomological power of the Maha ancient character.

He could sense that there was an extremely powerful restriction hidden in this place, and it seemed to be related to the fierce beasts on the copper pillars. If an outsider had barged in alone, the restriction would have been triggered by itself.

“Take a look for yourself,” Polong said. “You can choose which 800 words you want to learn.” If you want to leave, I will be able to sense it with a single thought.”

Yunxiao looked over one by one. There were a total of two hundred and thirty-three copper pillars here, and the numbers did not seem to have any special meaning. The number on each pillar was different.

Polong didn't explain further and left.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, was not in a hurry to read the characters. Instead, he became very interested in the bronze beasts.

The bronze beasts on the two hundred and thirty-three pillars had a myriad of forms and races, and none of them were repeated. Yunxiao did not recognize more than half of them, and he had only seen the rest in ancient books.

He walked to a slightly larger pillar with more words on it. He raised his head and looked up.

A five-clawed Golden Dragon was circling the top of the copper pillar, looking ahead arrogantly.

But, Yunxiao felt a little scared. He kept feeling that the Dragon was staring at him, and he could not help but smile wryly.

This should be the effect of the mysterious restriction buried here. Once the copper pillar was destroyed or any other prohibited act was committed, it was likely that they would immediately be in an extremely dangerous situation.

“These two hundred beasts should all be true spirits that existed in ancient times. The sea emperor’s palace’s inheritance is indeed much older than the Holy region and the sea of soul formation. All kinds of information and information are also more complete.”

Moreover, he discovered that the size of these copper pillars was arranged according to the strength of the true spirits on them. For example, existences like ancient true dragons and heavenly phoenixes were relatively large pillars.

After a long time of observation, he didn’t find anything else, so he began to read the incomplete words.

His eyes turned into eye power and looked at the words on the pillars, trying to imprint the 2000 incomplete words into his mind.

Suddenly, a purple light shot out from the pillar and instantly dissolved his vision. His vision became hazy and he could not see the words on the pillar clearly.

Shocked, Yunxiao hurriedly retracted his lunar pupil. Only then could he see the words on the pillar clearly again with his ordinary eyes.

The five-clawed Golden Dragon that was looking at him arrogantly had lowered its head and was staring at him with a ferocious look.

Yunxiao’s expression became uncertain. It was only then that he found that the strength of the restrictive spell here was beyond his expectation, and even the incomplete characters were not easy to remember.

He smiled bitterly in his heart and could only start picking words honestly.

He casually pointed at the large characters on one of the copper pillars, and the copper pillar let out a long buzz.

Suddenly, the word “can” shot out a beam of light and projected itself in the air.

A ball of golden light appeared in the projection. It slowly expanded like seaweed and changed shape, showing strokes.

With every stroke, there was an ancient and strange feeling.

Yunxiao was overjoyed. His eyes widened as he forced himself to memorize the word.

It was as if the world had just been created, and thousands of laws were born one by one. In the end, a complete ancient character was revealed.

The projection suddenly burst out with a blinding light, and the entire space shook.

Yunxiao's heart skipped a beat as well. As the ancient character of Maha was formed, he felt a boundless ancient will and the laws of heaven and earth flowing around him.

He hurriedly closed his eyes and began to immerse himself in the laws, slowly comprehending them without any distractions.

Chapter 1217-star crossing disk

Several months later, in the sea emperor's palace.

Then, a beam of light flashed, and Yunxiao's figure emerged from it.

Polong and Ye Fan had been waiting for a long time.

Yunxiao! Ye Fan was surprised. big brother Yunxiao, you've become a high-rank martial Supreme? "

Yunxiao's eyes flickered as he said with a smile, " "You've also improved a lot."

"It's all thanks to your guidance, master Poseidon," Ye Fan said with a smile.

Seated on the throne, Poron laughed as he leaned his body forward. With his hand supporting his chin, he said with a teasing smile, "Li Yunxiao, have you mastered eight hundred words?"

Yunxiao raised his head and looked over. Although Polong's hair was still gray, his demeanor and temperament were much stronger than they had been a few months ago. It seemed that his body was also recovering bit by bit.

"A total of six hundred and thirty-three words." Yunxiao answered.

Poron leaned back and laughed. "The power of law in each word is extremely great. If you don't have the corresponding cultivation to forcefully comprehend it, you'll only end up in Qi deviation. Do you now understand why I decided on the five white words? It's not that I'm stingy, but I'm really thinking for you."

"But I didn't expect you to forcefully raise your cultivation to seven-stars martial sovereign just to learn a few hundred more words. It's also beyond my expectations. However, forcefully raising your cultivation will also cause you great harm, right? Otherwise, with your seven-stars Martial Emperor cultivation, you should have been able to learn seven hundred words."

Yunxiao went straight to the point. With a wry smile, he said, "Fortunately, I have enough natural treasures with me. When I realized that I could only comprehend 490 words with my cultivation base, I had to take the risk to make a breakthrough in my cultivation base in order not to waste this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. Although I have reached the seven-stars martial sovereign realm, my Foundation is extremely unstable. I had to go into seclusion to stabilize my Foundation.

you can only blame yourself for being too greedy," Polong said with a smile. All opportunities are fated. You can't force them.

there's nothing wrong with heaven," Yunxiao said. But a gentleman should always strive for self-improvement. These are the additional one hundred and eighty words from the two divine arts. Please keep them well, Lord Poseidon."

He made a hand seal, and a golden light flashed between his eyebrows. An image shot out and turned into a light screen in the air. Ancient Maha characters appeared one by one.

this is ... polong's expression immediately turned grave. His eyes bloomed with golden light as the 180 words appeared in his eyes one by one.

Ye fan's eyes were also wide open as he tried to remember, but to his shock, not only did his eyes hurt, the yuan power in his body became chaotic, as if it was going to go berserk.

He immediately broke out in a cold sweat and hurriedly closed his eyes, starting to calm his heart and regulate his breathing.

A few hours later, Yunxiao had derived all one hundred and eighty words, and he looked as if he was about to collapse.

Polong wasn't any better off. He had to forcefully memorize these 180 words, so he had to use up even more origin power.

The three people in the hall were all silent, cultivating in seclusion.

Suddenly, a melodious voice rang out. father.

There was a flash of white light outside and water deity appeared in the hall.

The space in front of poron blurred, and a projection of himself condensed. He was solemn and exuded the pressure of a superior.

Yunxiao knew that it was because polong did not want his daughter to see his true appearance. He must have kept it a secret all these years, so it was not appropriate for him to point it out.

Hmph, you came in without informing me. You're too impudent! Who are you?" polong's face sank as he angrily shouted.

Water deity smacked her lips and mumbled, " "Didn't I just shout outside?" She looked at Yunxiao and smiled. it's good that you're alright. I was worried that Gu Hong, that pervert, would come and cause you trouble.

When the three of them heard this name, their expressions all changed slightly.

why would bone rainbow cause trouble for Yunxiao? " polong said coldly. if you talk nonsense again, you'll go back to confession cliff.

The water deity revealed a look of lingering fear and hurriedly waved her hand, " "No, I don't want to go. Father, you don't know this, but Gu Hong told me that he was going to deal with li Yunxiao. You must punish him and make him stay at confession cliff for a few years!"

"Impudent!"

"I know what I'm doing," polong coldly replied.

Yunxiao shook his head as he watched. This polong was a man who looked strict on the surface but was soft on the inside, so he had to pretend to be a strict father.

The water deity looked aggrieved, pouted, and didn't say anything.

please don't take offense, " polong said. she's always been neglected, so she's developed an unruly personality.

He still had that cold look on his face, but both of them knew what was going on, so they exchanged a few polite words. Yunxiao even got up and said goodbye.

Only then did polong's ice-cold expression melt, and he said with some reluctance, the sea Forest is a rare cultivation Holy Land in the world. With your talents, if you two stay here, you'll be able to reach the peak of martial arts in a few years. Why don't you consider staying? "

“Yeah, you guys should stay.”

Water deity's heart was also slightly rippling with emotions, even a little sour, and she hurriedly asked him to stay.

Yunxiao sighed. this is indeed a good suggestion, but there are several things I'm worried about. I have to return to the continent. He glanced at Ye Fan and said, "little ye, you can consider the sea Emperor's suggestion." Furthermore, with the guidance of the Emperor, you will definitely be able to advance at a tremendous pace."

No. Ye Fan shook his head. I'll follow big brother Yunxiao. I'll stay if you want to stay, and I'll leave if you want to.

why do you have to do this? " Yunxiao said with a wry smile. Being with me will only delay your cultivation."

Ye Fan said seriously, " my ancestor said that on the path of martial arts, other than years of cultivation and accumulation, the most important thing is fate. Only through constant training can one obtain fate. During this period of time that I've been with big brother Yunxiao, my cultivation speed has been faster than ever."

Polong laughed, "Ye Fan is right." Both of you have Supreme grade profound level weapons and are the chosen ones. I will not force you to stay."

"In that case, I'll go with big brother Yunxiao to train," the water deity quickly said. I feel that my cultivation has also increased very quickly during this period of time."

what are you doing? " polong's face darkened. get back to training!

Water deity stomped her feet in anger and said, "Why don't I need experience? I'm also the owner of a Supreme grade profound level weapon. If I heard that it's with me, am I not the one chosen by the heavens?"

Yunxiao's face darkened. water fairy is the princess of the four Seas. Her every move has a lot to do with her. You can't be willful.

Water deity asked, 'aren't you on the divine realm tablet? Usually, when I'm free, I'll stay in the divine realm tablet to cultivate. If there's anything, you can call me out to solve it. "

"Woof! He called you out to solve it?"

"What?" polong did not know whether to laugh or cry and rebuked, "did I call you out to weaken our own forces?" Get back!"

The water deity stomped her feet and shouted, "no!" I'm not convinced! We're both Masters of a transcendent grade profound level weapon, so why do I have to stay here and cultivate!"

Polong's gaze turned cold, and a wave of energy rippled out from his body. He snorted, "If you want to go out, you can. But when you refine me, I will let you go."

...

The force pressed down and teleported the water deity away.

The light on poron's body disappeared, and the solemn projection broke open like a water mirror, revealing the old true body behind it.

in fact, you don't have to worry about it, Neptune, " Yunxiao said. if water fairy really wants to leave, I can take her with me. Now that I've excavated the mine in the palace, the divine realm tablet will be full of spirit Qi for decades."

li Yunxiao, your fate is extraordinary, " polong shook his head and said, " but even the one chosen by heaven may not have a smooth journey. On the contrary, it may be more difficult. It's not that I'm cursing you, but it's just that you might die one day. This possibility is extremely high. I've already lost my wife, and I don't want to lose my daughter as well."

I understand," Yunxiao nodded and said. I can understand your thoughts, Your Majesty.

"Since the two of you have decided to leave, I'll send you off," Polong said.

He pondered for a moment, then with a flip of his hand, a green talisman appeared in his palm. It transformed into streams of light and shot toward Yunxiao.

Yunxiao grabbed at the talisman in the air and saw a golden array drawn on it, which kept spinning on the talisman and exuded an extremely powerful and vast power. "A one-time use defensive talisman?"

"That's right," Polong said. The value of this talisman is hard to estimate. It can even withstand a blow from a peak nine-star expert. Take it as a gift from me. "

Yunxiao was a smart man, so he immediately understood the meaning. "Are you worried that I'll be chased by the bone rainbow and won't be able to protect myself?"

Hehe," Polong chuckled and said, " although you're the reincarnation of Gu Feiyang, you don't have the peak power you had in your previous life. It won't be easy for you to escape from the four Seas again. Moreover, I'm very clear about the abilities of my own disciple. If you were to fight him, you'd lose more than you'd win."

...

A cold and arrogant look flashed across Yunxiao's face, as if he did not care at all.

However, he also understood the value of this talisman, so it would be a waste not to take it. He put it away and said, "In that case, thank you."

Polong saw through his thoughts and did not explain further. He smiled and said, "Alright, I'll send the two of you off. You're welcome to come back anytime."

A bronze-colored round profound level weapon suddenly appeared in his hand. There were all sorts of patterns engraved on it. Upon closer inspection, there were the sun, moon, and stars. It was actually a starry sky map.

“This astrolabe can break open space and send you directly to the continent, but there is a certain risk involved. However, given your abilities, you naturally wouldn’t mind.”

The star crossing disk immediately shot out beams of light, projecting the sun, moon, and stars in the sky above the hall. Then, a beam of Starlight shot down and wrapped Yunxiao and Ye Fan in it, pulling them in an instant.

The two of them were pulled in by the power of the starry sky at the same time and disappeared.

” you’re here! poron looked at the star crossing disk as it continued to spin. He then cast a spell into it, causing it to immediately retract its light and return to his hand.

The entire Hall suddenly became empty, and he was the only one left. His figure seemed somewhat lonely.

Suddenly, space rippled slightly, and Zuya stepped out. “You’ve sent them all away?”

Chapter 1218-interception

I’ve already sent them 30000 nautical miles away, ” said polong as he put away the astrolabe. I can’t monitor the space after this. I can only wish them a safe journey.

that Gu Hong kid left the ocean emperor’s palace a month ago, ” Zuya said. he’s probably trying to kill us halfway.

A gloominess flashed in polong’s eyes as he coldly said, ” “This boy is narrow-minded and vicious. If I didn’t take the big picture into consideration, I wouldn’t have taken him as a disciple. Do you think Yunxiao and the other man can escape from him?”

Zuya crossed his arms in front of him. I've already cut off this kid's cloud wings a few months ago. Logically speaking, it should take at least a year or so for him to recover his strength. However, the Yunsheng tribe is a descendant of the true spirit. I'm not sure how strong their bloodline is. And what I'm most afraid of is that this kid will ask for help from the family."

"Although bone rainbow is narrow-minded, he still has the self-esteem of an expert," polong said with a frown. From what I know about him, even if he really wants to kill Yunxiao, he'll do it himself, and he won't borrow the power of outsiders."

I hope Yunxiao and the others can return to the continent smoothly," Zuya said. although that kid will definitely chase after them, there are countless experts in the human world after all. He won't be allowed to do as he pleases. It'd be best if some human expert were to take action and completely kill this brat."

if such a thing really happens, then I, as the master of the four Seas and the master of bone rainbow, will have to go to the sanctuary to seek justice like I did in the past. I'm truly infuriated.

"Haha, who asked you to be the great Poseidon?"

hahahaha ... Zuya laughed for a while. but I remember you saying that someone deliberately set Gu Feiyang up. Can you tell him this time? "

There was a glint in polong's eyes as he slowly said,"We didn't pursue the root of that matter back then, so all the clues were cut off. With my identity, I can't speak rashly without any evidence. Besides, the current li Yunxiao must be even more powerful than Gu Feiyang, and he can find out everything with his own power."

that's true," Zuya said. the great expansion divine technique is so amazing. I really want to take a look.

Sighing, he turned around and disappeared from the hall.

Only poron was left. His expression changed, and he slowly fell into deep thought. No one knew what he was thinking.

After Yunxiao and Ye Fan were sucked into the astrolabe, a yellow light wrapped them up and they flew through the endless dark night sky.

The yellow light was in the shape of a Pentagon, like a shooting star, flying toward an unknown place.

Xiao Yezi, " Yunxiao suddenly said, " can you break out of the star power of this astrolabe, and then we can find our own way back? "

Ye Fan was shocked,"what's wrong?" Isn't it very safe inside the star power? Could it be that big brother Yunxiao is afraid that the bone rainbow will track us down?"

He asked carefully. After all, Yunxiao was by no means a timid person.

But, Yunxiao nodded without hesitation and said, " "That's right. I'm afraid that the bone rainbow has already set up a trap and will directly intercept us in the void."

Ye Fan looked around: " this star power is extremely strong, but it is not impossible to break it by force. I am just afraid that something might go wrong. I will have to float in the void for a long time.

He asked unwillingly,'big brother Yunxiao has also seen that bone rainbow? Is he really that powerful?"

I only encountered a wisp of his divine sense, " Yunxiao chuckled. it has already self-detonated. I'm not sure if he's really that powerful, but I'm afraid that when I meet him, he'll still be under Neptune's control. If I kill him, it'll be difficult if Neptune comes out to disrupt the situation. If we can control the passage by ourselves, we'll be able to wait for him in the ocean hundreds of thousands of miles away."

"Argh! So, big brother Yunxiao has already made preparations to fight him?"

Ye Fan was shocked,"do we really have to kill him?" After all, he's the first disciple of the ocean Emperor, and he has a complete true spirit bloodline in his body. If we kill him, won't we attract a lot of trouble?"

a descendant of the true spirit, ” Yunxiao said indifferently. so what? ” The royal family of Donghai is the descendant of the Dragon, and we still dug out their nest. The cloud beasts aren’t famous among the ancient true spirits, so their bloodlines can’t be that powerful.”

“I understand. I’ll try to see if I can get out of this star power.”

Ye Fan immediately sat down, the Noah’s boat on his forehead started to flash, his divine sense started to spread out.

Yunxiao’s face darkened. There was another very important reason he did not mention, which was that he was really worried about leaving such a dangerous person with water fairy.

“This won’t do. The star power is still too strong.”

Ye Fan tried for a while and said in distress: ” “Should I break it open by force?”

Yunxiao’s expression flickered as he said in a serious voice, ” “No need, I’m already here.”

“What?”

Startled, Ye Fan hurriedly jumped to his feet and looked in Yunxiao’s direction. He saw a silver-white nebula spinning in the dark ahead, and a huge figure was slowly rising from it.

“What? What is this divine ability?”

Ye Fan jumped in shock, he was truly stunned by the scene in front of him.

The huge figure was expressionless, and his eyes were half-closed. He raised his hand and clenched it into a fist, then punched at the shooting star.

“Be careful,”

Yunxiao gave them some instructions, then stood up and moved forward. He formed a seal with both hands, and a defensive light immediately enveloped the two of them.

“BOOM!”

The figure’s punch landed, and the entire meteor cracked open. Countless Starlight shot out in all directions.

Under the power of the fist, a hole was instantly created. Like a star explosion, it bloomed with infinite light in the dark night.

Yunxiao suddenly put his hands together and then separated them again.

“Boom boom boom!”

That vibration force was dispersed from his palms, he grabbed Ye Fan and teleported away.

“BOOM!”

The place where he had been standing exploded, and the world of the sea and sky appeared.

The figure also slowly disappeared into the void.

In the next moment, Yunxiao and Ye Fan appeared above an ocean. There was no end in sight, and they had no idea how far they were from the sea Forest.

“The two of you came in a hurry and left in a hurry. As Poseidon’s first disciple, I didn’t even treat you well. I really can’t rest at ease.”

Bone Hong's voice resounded through the sky.

About a hundred meters ahead, the sky shook, and two figures slowly appeared.

Gu Hong's face was cold and fierce. Behind him was a burly man who looked like a strong man. If one looked closely at his face, they would find that he was the one who had punched out in the void.

Yunxiao was on his guard. He did not know what divine ability the bone rainbow had, but at least the man behind him was definitely not simple.

...

"Who are you people? How dare you act so atrociously in my Miao Xuan sect's territory!"

Suddenly, seven or eight pieces of space around them began to ripple, and a large number of cultivators appeared, all of them glaring angrily.

"The Miao Xuan sect?"

"North Sea?" Yunxiao was taken aback. "Is this the North Sea?"

The forest of the sea was located at the intersection of the four Seas, so it wasn't surprising that poron would send them to the North Sea. It was probably to avoid the bone rainbow, but they were still intercepted by the other party.

The cultivators who had walked out of the spatial zones were first furious, but then they all became stunned and shocked.

No matter if it was Yunxiao or Gu Hong, he could not detect their auras clearly. When he swept his divine sense over them, he felt an unnatural sense of danger.

This was especially so for Gu Hong and the other one. They didn't look like humans at all, so who knew where they came from?

"W-who are you guys?"

Finally, an old man from the Miao Xuan sect came forward with a bewildered expression. the Miao Xuan sect is here to do something big. I hope the four of you can make an exception.

A cold light flashed through Gu Hong's eyes, causing the old man to retreat several steps in fear. He became extremely vigilant and apprehensive.

...

Yunxiao could not help but ask again, " "This is the North Sea? Could it be that you are one of the ten great sects of the North Region, the Miao Xuan sect, and your sect leader is called Wang Gong?"

"It is!"

The old man was overjoyed. Yunxiao looked kind, so he quickly flew to him and said, " the sect leader of my sect is Wang Gong. I am the great elder of the Miao Xuan sect, Jia xinghu.

Yunxiao glanced at the great elder, who also had the strength of a nine-stars Martial Emperor. The miaoxuan sect was indeed one of the top ten sects in the North Region. what are you doing in this Sea area? is it far from the North Region? "

Jiaxing Tiger said, " we've set up a large formation here to capture the northern Sea venomous Toad. We've been waiting for more than three months. It's not easy to see some signs. Who would've thought that the four of you would hesitate? "

a ninth-tier sea beast? " Yunxiao's face flickered. the northern Sea venomous Toad? " He lowered his head to look at the sea below and said with a strange expression, " "Could this place be an old nest of the poisonous toads?"

“That’s right,” Jiaying Tiger replied. It’s not easy for us to protect this poisonous toad, so I hope the four of you can make an exception for us. The Miao Xuan sect will be extremely grateful.”

Yunxiao rolled his eyes and said with a smile, “ I’ve heard about the strength of the Miao Xuan sect. I have something to report to your sect.

Jiaying Tiger frowned and asked in confusion, “ “What’s the matter?”

great elder, ” Yunxiao said with a smile. have you ever heard of li Yunxiao? ”

Ye Fan almost choked on his own breath. He squinted at Yunxiao, not understanding what he meant.

li Yunxiao? ”

Jiaying Tiger mumbled,“it sounds familiar, but I can’t remember where I’ve heard it before.”

At this moment, one of the Miao Xuan sect’s disciples ‘expression changed drastically. He hurriedly came forward and whispered a few words into Jia xinghu’s ear.

Jiaying Tiger’s face instantly darkened as he said sternly, ” Friend, are you talking about the Li Yunxiao who killed two young masters of our sect in Yufeng city a few years ago? ”

Ye fan’s expression changed when he heard this, he was shocked.

it’s that li Yunxiao! Yunxiao said with a serious face. it’s him!

Jiaying Tiger’s expression was dark and uncertain as he said in a deep voice, ” “Do you know where that person is?”

Yunxiao moved his eyes and glanced at bone Hong.

“?!”

Jiaying Tiger's face turned ashen and he said in shock, " he is li Yunxiao? "

Chapter 1219

1219 The six techniques of water lightning

Bone rainbow's body radiated with an extremely cold aura. Although he stood on the surface of the sea without saying a word, he looked at them coldly as if he was looking at a dead person.

The burly man behind him gave him a feeling that he could not see through at all. Although he was standing there, it was as if he did not exist at all.

he's not li Yunxiao, " Yunxiao shook his head and said. but he knows where he is.

great elder, we've searched high and low for them. If we can capture them and find out Yunxiao's whereabouts, Lord sect master will surely reward us handsomely!

The martial artist from the Miao Xuan sect, who had just explained, looked excited, as if he had just seen a huge amount of wealth coming to him.

"Hmph!"

Jiaying Tiger glared at him fiercely. His face was extremely dark, but he did not say a word.

Yunxiao looked surprised and said, " why? don't you want to take revenge for the two dead young masters? "

Jiaying Tiger's expression changed several times before he slowly said, " "Revenge will naturally be taken, but the poisonous toad must also be caught. Let me first ask about this matter."

I'm Jiaying Tiger, the great elder of the wonderful profound sect," he called out to Gu Hong from afar. do you know li Yunxiao?"

Gu Hong frowned and revealed a strange expression, not understanding what the other party meant.

Jiaying Tiger waited for a while, but when he didn't get a reply, he cursed in his heart. He then said, "Regardless of whether you know li Yunxiao or not, please do us a favor and don't hinder us from capturing the northern Sea poisonous toad.

He only hoped that these four strange people who had suddenly appeared would leave quickly. As for the murderer of the sect master's son, it really had nothing to do with him. If it wasn't for the fact that many of his subordinates were watching, he wouldn't have bothered with this matter.

"A bunch of human scum, wasting my time!"

Gu Hong's expression turned cold. He raised his right hand, and a large number of runes immediately appeared on his arm.

Jiaying Tiger's heart trembled and he roared, "Not good! Everyone, be careful!"

The aura of a nine-stars Martial Emperor on his body instantly exploded. A wide saber appeared in his hand, and he suddenly disappeared on the spot.

"Woof! Trash!"

Gu Hong spat out a mouthful of saliva in disdain and a cold smile flashed across his face. In a flash, he charged into the group of disciples from the mysterious profound sect and swung his arm with a sinister smile!

"Pi Li pa la!"

The runes on his skin flew out from his arm one by one and exploded in the air.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! “Bang!””

Seven to eight disciples of the mysterious profound sect were instantly blown to pieces, not even having the time to let out a blood-curdling scream.

“Go to hell!”

The Jiaying Tiger instantly appeared behind Gu Hong and furiously slashed down. The saber Qi swept up a hurricane, and its power multiplied.

Bone rainbow didn't even try to Dodge. He directly turned around, raised his hand that was covered in runes, and grabbed forward.

“You're looking for death!”

Jiaying Tiger's pupils shrank. He was both shocked and angry, but at the same time, he was overjoyed.

The other party wanted to use his body to receive his full-powered blade attack. This was simply too arrogant. In the entire heavenly martial continent, perhaps only ao changkong, who had cultivated his body technique to the extreme and had directly sanctified his body, had such courage and strength.

At the thought of this, the force on the Jiaying Tiger saber became even more intense.

“Bang!”

The blade landed on bone Hong's palm and was caught by his fingers. An overbearing Blade Force exploded from his palm and spread in all directions.

“Boom boom boom!”

The entire ocean was stirred up, and the waves kept spinning into the distance.

Yunxiao and Ye Fan were also greatly shocked, and their faces were filled with horror.

That was a full-force saber attack of a nine-stars Martial Emperor, and he could actually withstand it with his body? Furthermore, the bone rainbow appeared to be doing so with ease.

Jiaxing Tiger's face turned deathly pale in an instant. There was nothing but fear in his eyes.

"Hehehe!"

Gu Hong sneered and coldly stared at him, "Tell me, are you a piece of trash?"

Jia xinghu's head was covered in cold sweat, and his expression was as ugly as it could be. He gritted his teeth and squeezed out a few words. misunderstanding, this is all a misunderstanding. The Miao Xuan sect is one of the ten great renown sects of the North Region.

I hate useless trash like you the most. When you fail, you come up with all kinds of excuses, or you kneel and beg for mercy without any integrity.

"You can die now," Gu Hong's face darkened as he mocked.

He clenched his fist. bang! With a sound, he directly broke off a piece of the saber.

As he poured his origin power into the broken blade, it let out a mournful sound and shot forward with a palm strike from Gu Hong.

Jiaxing Tiger sucked in a breath of cold air. After all, he was an expert who had experienced hundreds of battles. In his panic, he immediately steadied his mind and formed several seals with his left hand, which he then struck into the blade.

“Swish!”

Although a part of the battle blade was broken, it was still a ninth-tier profound artifact. After a strong sound, it turned sideways to block the attack, turning into a blade light for defense.

“Bang!”

Gu Hong’s entire body pounced forward. His palm seemed soft and gentle, but it directly pressed into the blade light and slapped against the blade, causing a crisp sound to ring out.

What frightened Jiaying Tiger out of his wits was that the saber fragment had pierced through the saber and was heading straight for his chest!

“Pfft!”

His chest was instantly pierced by the fragment, and he spat out a large mouthful of blood as he was sent flying.

At that moment, all the Miao Xuan sect disciples’ faces turned pale. They were completely dumbfounded in the sky, and all of them were petrified on the spot!

...

They were all nine-star martial emperors, and they were considered fearless existences on the continent. How could they be sent flying by an unknown and strange kid with just two strikes?

Yunxiao’s face also turned extremely gloomy, and he finally began to take Neptune’s words seriously.

The Jiaying Tiger fell into the sea and quickly stabilized its body. It tapped its body a few times to stop the bleeding and growled in a low voice, “Activate the six secrets water lightning formation and kill these two!”

Only then did the disciples of the mysterious profound sect who were scattered across the sky finally react. They instantly turned into scattered dots and landed on the surface of the sea one by one, occupying different positions.

The first person made a hand seal, and then everyone changed according to the changes of the person in front.

Soon, the sea surged and dozens of water pillars rose up. After reaching a height of more than ten meters, they gathered into water balls with hundreds of blue runes appearing on them. It was a magnificent sight in the air.

Gu Hong was quite patient. He crossed his arms in front of his chest like a cat playing with a mouse as he looked at the scene in front of him with a mocking expression.

The Miao Xuan sect disciple at the front shouted in anger, " six secrets of water lightning, BOOM!

Everyone's hand seals changed, and the several dozen water balls in the sky suddenly swirled toward the bone rainbow.

This was a formation that they had set up to deal with the poisonous toads.

don't be slow! Jiaying Tiger shouted. quickly use your ultimate formation move!

...

Everyone was shocked. After the water ball flew out, they didn't dare to stay idle and quickly formed seals.

The water balls that filled the sky swirled toward the bone rainbow one by one. They contained an extremely powerful force, and under the effect of the countless runes on the surface, they became violent.

Jiaying Tiger's face darkened. He formed a hand seal with one hand and shouted, "Explode!"

The first water ball that had reached the bone rainbow suddenly exploded with a "Hong" sound. Countless water arrows shot out in all directions, leaving no room for escape.

The other water balls were also affected by the first one and dissolved into sharp arrows.

In an instant, the entire sky was filled with a sea of blue arrows. They waved and intertwined with each other, shooting towards the bone rainbow.

"Tsk! What a bummer, I thought I'd be able to find something decent."

Gu Hong sneered disdainfully. His eyes were filled with mockery. He put his hands together in front of his body, and a defensive light floated up from his body, forming a barrier three feet away.

"Bang Bang Bang Bang!"

The countless arrows landed on the barrier, causing ripples to form, but they were unable to damage it in the slightest.

As for the burly man standing on the surface of the sea, he was even more motionless. When the water arrows hit his body, they were more like raindrops, only wetting his clothes.

Jiaying Tiger's expression turned extremely ugly.

At this moment, an even larger water pillar shot out from the sea and turned into a huge water ball that spun in the air.

Every Miao Xuan sect disciple's face was ashen as they broke out in cold sweat, trying their best to support the floating water ball.

Jiaying Tiger gave Yunxiao and Ye Fan a cold look and said with anger, "How long do the two of you plan to watch? If I'm not wrong, these two should have been your opponents, right?"

Just thinking about it filled his stomach with anger. He was originally capturing the northern Sea poisonous toad and was dragged into this storm for no reason. Moreover, the opponent was so terrifying that it made people's hearts palpitate.

Several disciples had already been killed or injured, and the remaining disciples, including himself, might not be able to leave alive.

Just thinking about it made him dizzy. Who did he offend?

He wished he could kill Yunxiao and Ye Fan first. Now, his only hope was to hold on a little longer. He had just sent a message back to the sect for help. As long as he could hold on until the sect leader came, everything would be fine.

Yunxiao's eyes widened as he said in a strange voice, "my Lord, you must be joking. You're a nine-stars martial sovereign, but you can't even block one move from him. I'm only a seven-stars martial sovereign. Wouldn't I just be courting death if I went up?"

"Pfft!"

Jiaying Tiger was so furious that he spat out a mouthful of blood as his injuries flared up.

His eyes were filled with hatred, but with a great enemy in front of him, he could not care less about Yunxiao and Nangong wuque. After dealing with the great enemy in front of him, he would skin these two and pull out their tendons to vent the hatred in his heart!

He suddenly turned into a ray of light and instantly flew to the huge water ball of symbols. He shouted angrily, "Go!"

He changed his hand seal and the water ball spun forward under his control.

Ye Fan mumbled, 'big brother Yunxiao, is it really okay for us to do this? After all, we were the ones who attracted these two people here. They have nothing to do with this.'

yes, it has nothing to do with them, " Yunxiao snorted coldly. then why are they still fighting? " This means that this has nothing to do with us, and they are the ones who want to fight, so we are naturally happy to see it. "

He spoke in a relaxed manner, but his heart was getting heavier and heavier. Not only did the bone rainbow's strength exceed his expectations, but the strength of the burly man behind him was like a bottomless abyss. No matter how he tried, he couldn't find out the exact details.

Chapter 1220

1220 Misunderstanding

Ye Fan was stunned when he heard Yunxiao's words, and he felt that it did make sense.

The burly man, who had been standing on the sea, had his eyes half-closed since he appeared. He looked drowsy, but at this moment, he slowly opened his eyes and said softly, " "Be careful," he warned.

A trace of displeasure flashed across Gu Hong's face. He snorted, "Shut your mouth, do I need you to remind me of such a small trick?"

The burly man wasn't angry, but there was no more sleepiness in his eyes. Instead, he looked on quietly with his eyes as clear as water.

The Jiaxing Tiger stepped on the water ball and the hand seals kept changing. Every move seemed to be extremely strenuous, and the injury on his chest continued to deepen.

The faces of the Miao Xuan sect disciples on the water's surface were also pale. They coordinated with Jiaxing Tiger's technique and gritted their teeth as they gave it their all.

They all knew that if they couldn't kill the other party with their strongest attack, they would all be in danger.

“Space-tearing vortex!”

Jiaxing Tiger suddenly shouted and leaped into the air. With a flash of light, he once again took out the broken profound level weapon from before and slashed down with gritted teeth.

The water ball began to change the moment he jumped up. The ball slowly gathered into the upper body of a human. It was a giant spirit that was completely condensed from water elements. It roared towards the sky, raised its fists, and clenched them behind its head. Then, it suddenly smashed towards the bone rainbow.

The giant water elemental Spirit’s arms were filled with violent runes. As it clenched its fists, a huge hammer shadow appeared, shaking the sky with a loud rumble.

Gu Hong’s face was filled with malevolence. He clasped his hands in front of his body and made a hand seal. His skin was immediately covered with all kinds of runes, and a terrifying aura burst out from his body.

“Clang”

A ray of white light rose behind him and suddenly transformed into the shape of a blade. With a light shout, he slashed at the Jiaxing Tiger and the water elemental Titan!

Wherever the blade light passed, it turned into a dazzling white world.

Yunxiao’s body flickered, and he disappeared from where he was with a teleportation.

The pupils of the burly man standing on the sea in the distance shrank. He suddenly stretched out his right hand and made a grabbing motion toward the sky.

The sky was like a curtain that was pulled by him. A huge suction force was born, and everything fell toward his hand.

Even the nearby battlefield was pulled by the force. Yunxiao's figure materialized in the space, and without changing his expression, he transformed into a Thunderbolt and flew dozens of meters across the sky toward the bone rainbow.

The burly man's face darkened and flashed with anger. He raised his foot and was about to take a step forward.

"Don't move, let him do it!" Gu Hong shouted with an ice-cold face.

The voice was filled with dignity and pride, and it looked at Yunxiao's figure as if it was disdainful.

With a cold smile on his face, Yunxiao snorted and said, "you're too arrogant, but do you have the strength to do so?"

A cold glint flashed in his hand as he unleashed his ice sword. The entire sky instantly changed color and became dark and gloomy.

"What?"

Bone rainbow was shocked. The burly man nearby also narrowed his eyes and became a little worried.

After the night fell, a ray of light suddenly appeared in the sky and directly shone down. The first ray of light appeared in the clouds, and a touch of dawn slowly rose.

"Sword Art-dawn light!"

Ancient Maha characters shot out from the ice sword and flew around the sword. There were sword spirits fighting, and wherever the sword light passed, a white mist appeared.

In fact, after the cold air came out of the sword, the air condensed into tiny ice crystals, which directly froze the area.

Gu Hong's expression changed drastically. The power of this sword intent was far beyond his expectations.

If it was a one-on-one battle, he would naturally not be flustered. However, at this moment, all of his saber Qi was fighting against the Jiaying Tiger and the water elemental Genie. How could he have such a powerful strength to take care of it simultaneously?

A look of panic flashed through his eyes, and a sense of danger welled up from the bottom of his heart. In an instant, the seal in his hand changed.

The White blade ray that had already taken form paused in the air, as if it had suddenly lost all its power, becoming a tree without roots, without an origin, and its power was greatly reduced.

Two rays of white light suddenly appeared behind him. With a "Zheng" sound, a pair of wings appeared and spread out in the air!

Behind the bone rainbow's hideous face, a faint shadow of a true spirit appeared. It was as if it had spread its wings and overlapped with him.

Countless feathers on the White wings stood up. If one looked carefully, they would find that they were actually formed from blade gleams.

The two Feathers spread out in front of Yunxiao, and in an instant, tens of thousands of blade shadows emerged and a terrifying blade energy shot out.

Yunxiao was taken aback. The shadow of the true spirit was a creature of water, land, and air, covered with feathers and scales. He had seen a bronze statue of it in the bronze pillar forest, and it did not seem to be one of the top true spirits.

However, at this moment, it seemed to have fused with the bone rainbow. The pressure it gave off was like a mountain, causing his body to tremble and fear to rise in his heart.

It was the natural advantage that a superior exuded when facing a lower-ranking person.

He had experienced this feeling not long ago when he was facing Shi Long's true body. However, the suppression was very different. The latter completely suppressed him until he couldn't move, but at this moment, it only hindered the circulation of the yuan power in his body.

"You dare to have ideas about my woman, die!"

Gu Hong laughed hideously. Ignoring the fact that the blade behind him was shattered by the giant water elemental spirit and Jiaying Tiger, he spread his wings and slashed at Yunxiao!

Yunxiao's face was cold. The shadow of a Phoenix flashed between his eyebrows, and a screeching sound that crossed time and space rang out. In an instant, he broke through the true spirit pressure and thrust his sword forward.

"Bang!"

The saber radiance and sword Qi clashed together, creating countless piercing sounds like thousands of birds chirping, tearing the sky into countless pieces.

After Yunxiao struck out with his sword, he felt that the saber Qi was too difficult to block and was coming at his face. He suddenly pulled back his sword and stood up, then thrust out again.

In an instant, it turned into tens of thousands of afterimages, constantly bombarding the saber shadow on the sea, shattering it.

At this moment, Jiaying Tiger was overjoyed. When he saw Yunxiao make a move earlier, he did not have much hope. After all, Yunxiao only had the strength of a seven-stars Martial Emperor, and he could basically die with one move.

However, the strange sword intent that followed made him ecstatic. The bone rainbow completely ignored him and removed the power from the blade. He and the giant water elemental spirit worked together to destroy the blade and hit his body.

It was already too late for bone rainbow to receive the attack. He turned his head around and his ferocious face turned into a beast's face. Just like the true spirit behind him, he opened his mouth and let out a long roar!

The sky suddenly trembled, and a large number of green threads floated out from the talismans on his body. They intertwined around his body and condensed into a green net in front of him.

...

"Pfft!"

The blade directly cut the green net into two. The blade intent's momentum didn't slow down, and it continued to cut bone rainbow's shoulder, causing blood to spurt out.

The gigantic water elemental Spirit's fists also shattered the green net, and the power of its fists pierced straight into bone rainbow's chest.

After this punch, the giant water elemental spirit also disintegrated instantly, turning into a pool of seawater and falling down.

"Pfft!"

Gu Hong spat out a mouthful of blood and was sent flying dozens of meters away. His eyes were extremely cold.

The knife wound on his shoulder was shocking. It had split open his bones, and his entire arm was almost hanging down. The injury on his chest was even more shocking. It was completely sunken in, and his back was raised. It was unknown how many bones were broken.

Jiaxing Tiger looked in fear at the panting bone rainbow in the distance. His heart was filled with fear. Even this couldn't kill him?

As the giant water elemental spirit dissipated, the dozens of disciples from the mysterious profound sect immediately lost all their strength. Each of them half-knelt on the surface of the sea, floating up and down with the waves. They had completely lost their strength.

On the other hand, Yunxiao's face turned cold, and his eyes gleamed with coldness.

The reason why he had suddenly attacked was because there was value in his actions. Jiaying Tiger and the others had attacked previously, but they had been unable to hold Bone Rainbow back at all. Even if he had attacked, it would have been for naught. Thus, he had been quietly waiting for an opportunity.

...

However, he did not expect the other party to be so conceited and powerful that he could withstand the attacks of the three of them. It was almost equivalent to three nine-star martial emperors joining forces.

"Pfft! Pfft!"

Gu Hong spat out two mouthfuls of blood. He became extremely weak, "to be able to force me to such an extent, you trash should be proud of yourself."

Even though he was constantly spitting out blood, there was a sneer at the corner of his mouth, and it was getting colder and colder.

Jiaying Tiger felt his hair stand on end under his gaze. He forcefully mustered his courage and shouted, "What are you laughing at?"

"I'm laughing at you for not knowing that you're about to die," Gu Hong coldly replied.

"Nonsense! The one who's going to die is Yingluo."

Jiaying Tiger angrily rebuked. Just as he was about to shout and drag out the time, he suddenly stopped.

His eyes suddenly revealed a look of horror, only to see that his body was wrapped in countless fine green threads, which had burst out from his body when his opponent had roared.

After the green threads were cut off by him, they were blown away by the water elemental spirit. However, they did not disappear. Instead, they were broken into countless short existences and attached to his body.

What scared the Jiaying Tiger out of its wits was that the tiny green strands were actually moving continuously as if they were alive. They were even drilling into his body.

He hurriedly threw the knife away in horror and made a hand seal on the spot. Countless golden lights gushed out of his body, and the Emperor Qi of the nine Heavens burst out of his body like a fountain. He resisted with all his might, trying to shatter these green threads!

However, the black hair seemed to be able to devour the Emperor Qi. It became restless all of a sudden. From afar, the Jiaying Tiger looked like it was wearing a piece of glittering clothing.

Gu Hong sneered. these green maggots are terrifying spiritual insects that live on our Yun nation. Once they're attached to you, they'll continuously eat away at your Emperor Qi until you're exhausted. They'll then burrow into your body and then snipe.

Jiaying Tiger's forehead was dripping with cold sweat. He was so frightened that his body was trembling. He said with all his might, "Your Excellency, we have no grudges against each other. It's a misunderstanding, this is really a misunderstanding.

He was on the verge of tears.
