

The Eternal 1351

Chapter 1351-five Luo light smoke palm

“Hehe, it’ll be difficult to do so unless it’s an indiscriminate attack like Ice and Fire,” mu Jie said.

He paced back and forth leisurely among the zombies and did not make any moves. It was obvious that he had discovered the same problem as Duanmu Cang.

These zombies had different levels of strength, and it seemed to be related to their strength when they were alive. However, they were generally much weaker than the newly transformed zombies, probably due to the severe loss of strength.

“Ah!”

Suddenly, a blood-curdling screech was heard. An eight-star martial Supreme was careless and was hit on the shoulder by a zombie. His face immediately turned green.

The pigmentin continued to expand, and poisonous blood burst out. His entire shoulder began to fester.

The man’s neck and face turned green in an instant. He clutched his neck with both hands and foam came out of his mouth.

In the blink of an eye, the man’s frightened expression disappeared and he became sluggish and rotten. He spat out a rotten breath and began to attack his companions.

“Ah!”

“Ah!”

This change immediately caused panic. In an instant, people fell into the trap and turned into zombies.

“?!”

The people who were still struggling panicked and hurriedly ran in the direction of Fang Shi, seeking protection from being Dark Palace.

“Young master Yun, your lightning-type sacred art, Kasaya,” Duanmu Cang quickly said.

Yunxiao’s face darkened as well. He was not a kind man, and he would not take the initiative to block the zombies for them for no reason.

But now that everyone has started to rely on the being family, it’s extremely disadvantageous to him.

“Fire-like glass!”

Yunxiao’s eyes shot out cold beams, and his face was as cold as ice. With a whoosh, his body was set on fire, and the raging flames spread all over the sky.

He clasped his hands together and separated them. The immemorial astral wind whirled out and the flames around him surged. His face flickered in the flickering flames.

“Great pinwheel!”

The flames in the sky whirled, and the entire Hall was instantly shrouded in Wind and Fire. Everyone’s faces flickered in the light, and their expressions were different.

Mu Jie was shocked. Although he had guessed that Yunxiao’s flame was by no means an ordinary flame, he did not expect it to be so powerful that even his protective Emperor aura was slowly melting under the scorching heat.

The rest of the people were also shocked. Yunxiao stood in the air above the Eye of the Vortex, and the flames that filled the sky were like the embodiment of his proud and aloof temperament, just like his figure.

The screams of countless zombies rose and fell as all the disgusting smells were burned away by the flames.

Inside the spinning pinwheel, corpses were turned into ashes.

The pupils of the beiming Yuan Hai's eyes contracted as a huge wave was set off in his heart. The cold and Yin Qi of the beiming Dark Palace could not be melted by ten thousand flames!

Under the flames, the ice trail created by Fang Shi's spear was also melting.

This kind of flame aura made him, who cultivated extreme cold Qi, feel extremely uncomfortable and disgusted.

Killing intent shot out of his eyes as he looked at Yunxiao with an increasingly cold gaze.

After a few breaths of time, all the zombies in the sky were cleared.

Yunxiao retracted his hand seal, and all the flames dissipated.

The entire world was quiet.

Duanmu Cang's eyes were also filled with surprise as he said, "Young master Yun, this Huo Qianqian ..."

Yunxiao's expression remained the same, and he gave an irrelevant answer. "Don't let your guard down, everyone. These zombies don't have much attack power, so they should be the remains of a hundred thousand years ago. The seven-stars Martial Emperor Bai Zifeng's zombie I encountered before was a hundred times stronger."

It was only then that the crowd came back to their senses from the shock and joy, and the way they looked at Yunxiao became even more reverent.

Duanmu Cang replied, "it's probably because the longer the era, the weaker the power." These zombies were probably existences that could rule the heavens and earth a hundred thousand years ago. For the past 100000 years, the Black Tortoise Star Palace has been floating in the void. There are no corpses to replenish it, so there shouldn't be much danger in the future."

Yunxiao gave her an indifferent look and said, " Lord Cang seems to have forgotten about the thousand lost illusionary realm.

Duanmu Cang's body trembled and his eyes were filled with fear.

The rest of the people also seemed to have thought of something. Their mouths were wide open, and they became frightened.

"Although the thousand labyrinths is an illusionary realm, the friends who died in there are truly dead," Xie ting said with a heavy expression.

Mu Jie said, "no wonder, no wonder these corpse puppets are of the lowest grade. It's different from what I expected." It's very likely that those high level zombies went to control those fresh corpses."

Xie ting's eyes darkened as he snorted, "In that case, the thousand labyrinths was set up to create corpses? If that's the case, then isn't the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace too evil?"

"Everything is just a guess. Since we're already here, let's just take things as they are," Duanmu Cang replied.

"Hu ~"

Suddenly, there was a heavy breathing sound, low and rotten, "give me back my life."

The space rippled, and a figure appeared. His entire body was charred black, and his expression was terrifying.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted. The man was the eight-stars Martial Emperor who had tried to Rob him of the stone pillar.

"It was you who killed me, give me back my life!"

The Zombie's eyes burst open and shot out a cold green light. There seemed to be worms moving on the skin of its face.

"Bang!"

He moved his body, compressed the air, and grabbed in the air.

With a green vortex full of rotten smell swirling in his hand, he rushed up with hatred and slapped it at Yunxiao's head while roaring, "Die, die!"

...

"Since you're already dead, why do you have such an obsession?"

Yunxiao's eyes turned cold as he threw out another Wind and Fire whirlwind!

"Bang!"

The two forces collided, and the aftershock spread in all directions, causing the hall to shake.

The flame landed on the Zombie's body, causing him to grimace in pain.

However, he gritted his teeth and a vicious look appeared in his eyes. He charged forward against the power of the flames!

"Swish!"

Sharp claws shot out of the Zombie's fingers. go to hell!

"BOOM!"

With a wave of his hand, the arm turned into a giant earthworm, as thick as a man's arm, and then fell toward Yunxiao's head!

...

Its sharp claws even left five pitch-black cracks in the air, directly tearing the space apart!

A terrifying energy fluctuation spread out, layer by layer like ocean waves, each wave stronger than the last!

although you've become much fiercer, your strength hasn't increased. How are you going to kill me? "

Under the impact of the primordial energy, Yunxiao remained expressionless and unflustered. He made a hand seal with one hand, and a cold sword will suddenly appeared.

"One sword to slash the heavens!"

The cold sword frosty blue light flashed, and a layer of frost sprinkled down. The sword intent was boundless.

“Swish!”

The five spatial cracks were instantly annihilated by the sword Qi, and a blue light crossed the sky.

“Bang!”

The huge arm broke off and exploded. Countless small insects that looked like shells crawled out and ran around the broken arm.

“Ah!”

The zombie opened its mouth in pain and let out a breath of corpse Qi.

The countless beetles on his arm spread their wings and flew up into the air, buzzing toward Yunxiao like countless flies.

With a sneer, Yunxiao opened the heavenly eye between his brows, and a line of fire shot out of it!

“Pfft pfft pfft pfft!”

When the line of fire touched the corpse puppet, it was instantly set ablaze, and the ball of fire was filled with the sound of explosions.

Suddenly, Yunxiao’s pupils constricted, and a cold light shot out of them.

He suddenly reached out with one hand!

“Swish!”

As he clenched his fist, the space trembled slightly. Within the Emperor Qi in his palm, a dark green corpse puppet flapped its thin wings desperately, trying to break free.

It was spat out of the Zombie's mouth, trying to sneak into Yunxiao's body.

After losing the corpse puppet, the Zombie's expression turned blank and it fell from the sky.

A large number of low-level zombies immediately ran out of the rotten body, scattering in all directions.

Duanmu Cang's beautiful eyes focused as he waved his hand and slapped down.

There was a thin layer of mist floating around her palm, like a dream. There was a flash of colorful light, making it impossible to see her palm clearly.

"Bang!"

When the palm force hit the corpse, the smoke dispersed and shot in all directions, killing all the corpse puppets.

The entire zombie crumbled and slowly melted away in the smoke, leaving nothing behind.

A trace of fear flashed through the eyes of the darknorth Yuan hai as he slowly said, "Ethereal and light, the wind and clouds change, what a powerful five Luo light smoke palm, I wonder what's the relationship between Lord Cang and young master Yu?"

Duanmu Cang retracted his palm and stood still. He said indifferently, "It's my brother."

"What?"

The darknorth Yuan Hai's body trembled and he revealed a look of shock. His expression changed.

The rest of the people were also shocked. They looked at Duanmu Cang with heartfelt respect and fear.

The heaven amplification Martial Emperor, Duanmu Youyu, one of the ten great titles, was actually her brother.

Apart from Yunxiao, everyone present was shocked.

The darknorth Yuan sea instantly felt an inexplicable pressure and a burning sensation.

Duanmu Cang's eyes were fixed on the corpse puppet in Yunxiao's palm as he said in surprise, "Young master Yun, is this the head of the corpse puppets?"

No. Yunxiao shook his head slightly and said, "you'll have to ask Lord mu Jie.

Mu Jie had also been staring at the corpse puppet, and her face revealed a contemplative expression. it seems to be the case, but I can't be sure. I can only be sure after studying it.

that's great," Yunxiao said. then I'll leave this zombie to Lord mu Yu. Don't forget the agreement between us.

He flipped his five fingers and a golden light shot out from his palm. It turned into a Golden Ball that wrapped around the corpse puppet and then shot down.

Mu Jie was overjoyed. With a 'heh', she grabbed it with her bare hands and observed it with a face full of joy.

The rest of the people all had strange expressions, revealing looks of disdain.

This kind of thing was something that normal people would avoid, but he was actually happy and had a very happy appearance.

“What?”

Mu Jie’s brows suddenly furrowed. The corpse puppet in her hand, which had already calmed down, suddenly became violent and flapped its thin wings with all its might.

A faint corpse Qi seeped out of the insect’s body, turning into a sharp light that slashed in all directions, trying to break through the Golden Ball formed by the Emperor Qi.

“What’s going on? This thing’s body is emitting an extremely violent and violent emotion.”

Mu Jie supported her chin with one hand and was a little puzzled.

Chapter 1352-corpse puppet king

“Pi Li pa la!”

A voice suddenly came from the hall not far away. A dark light appeared in the air, like a sesame seed, constantly emitting a black light like lightning.

The black dot grew closer and closer, and in a few breaths, it became the size of a fist. It was like a pitch-black Mouth, and a buzzing sound came from it.

“Pfft!”

The corpse puppet in mu Jie’s hand seemed to have suddenly increased in strength. It suddenly broke through the small Golden Ball, and rings of rotten air spread out with a high-frequency flap of its wings.

After the corpse puppet broke free, not only did it not escape, but it also burrowed into mu Jie’s arm!

Mu Jie’s expression changed, but she did not panic. She only said softly, “Swish!”

A dark brown arm guard suddenly appeared on his arm. The corpse puppet crashed into the arm guard, emitting a faint golden light, and then bounced off.

The corpse puppet seemed to have some intelligence. After being bounced away, it no longer attacked and instead flapped its wings to fly into the distance.

“Hmph, it would be a joke if I let you escape.”

The corners of mu Jie’s mouth rose, revealing a trace of ridicule. Her five fingers grabbed forward.

Shooting out five rays of blue light, they quickly interwove in the air, turning into a spider web that instantly trapped the corpse puppet. No matter how it struggled, it couldn’t escape.

Lord mu Jie, ” Yunxiao suddenly said, ” this zombie can be crushed to death. I’m afraid it’s not worth much.

“What?”

Mu Jie snorted in confusion, and her pupils suddenly shrank. A layer of gray Qi appeared in her eyes as she looked at the ball of black light in the distance.

The fist-sized black hole was still expanding, and a buzzing sound could be heard from within.

In the blink of an eye, he discovered that hundreds and thousands of corpse puppets had appeared. They were exactly the same as the one that was covered by the green net!

“?! Why are there so many of them?”

This time, even he was shocked.

The rest of the martial artists were even more shocked. When they thought about the power of this corpse puppet, they couldn't help but feel a chill.

Behind the thousands of corpse puppets, a large number of human figures slowly appeared. They revealed their true faces. They were the Warriors who had come to the two world Mountain with them!

At this moment, their faces were gloomy with a faint green color. Their eyes were filled with a rotten aura without a trace of life.

"Gulp!"

Many people were gulping. As soon as these corpse puppets and martial artists appeared, they brought great pressure to them. It was like a mountain pressing on everyone's chest, making it difficult to breathe.

"So it's from a street stall."

Mu Jie's expression also became grave, but she still made a grabbing motion with her five fingers, and the Azure net immediately transformed into sharp blades that cut toward the center.

With a "bang," the corpse puppet was instantly crushed into pieces.

"We're in big trouble now."

I hope everyone can put down their prejudices and go all out to fight the enemy together," tai-Shu Xie ting said in a deep voice. otherwise, we'll suffer great losses!

"You're right, Lord Xie ting, especially for the high-level martial Supreme powerhouses present. The greater the power, the greater the responsibility," Duanmu Cang replied.

"Young master Yun, can your windmill move restrain these zombies and zombies?" mu Jie raised her head and asked.

of course, it can restrain them," Yunxiao said seriously. It's just that these corpse puppets and zombies are stronger than the previous ones, so they won't have such a shocking effect. And what worries me is that there seems to be something even more powerful in that black hole."

"Young master Yun, you're right. I'm afraid the mastermind of these zombies is still in the black hole," Duanmu Cang said.

Hmph, let's think about what to do with these things in front of us first. The other party's overall strength seems to be above us!

Darknorth Yuan hai snorted and said with a cold face, "I completely agree with Lord Cang's idea of working together. The greater the ability, the greater the responsibility.

The nine-stars Martial Emperor powerhouses were basically unflustered and did not face any real danger. However, the other martial artists' expressions had already changed one by one.

Without protection, no one had the confidence to survive in the face of hundreds and thousands of zombies and zombies.

The reason why he suddenly asked this question was because more than half of the Warriors were under the protection of his beiming Dark Palace, so it was very difficult for him to do it alone.

"I'm sorry. My strength is limited. I could only protect myself," mu Jie said sarcastically.

"Lord mu Jie's strength is heaven-defying, and the MU family's divine arts are even more amazing. It's worthy of a great responsibility," said the darknorth primordial sea indifferently.

He knew mu Jie's temperament very well, so he immediately flattered her.

Mu Jie knew that it was flattery, but she still clenched her right fist and coughed a few times before saying, "You're too kind,"

“Lord yuanhai’s profound Yin Qi and young master Yun’s heaven-defying divine fire will definitely have a miraculous effect when combined,” Duanmu Cang said happily. With the addition of us high-level martial sovereigns, we’ll definitely win this battle!”

I was basically the only one who did it just now, ” Yunxiao snorted. now, it’s time for me to take a rest and see Lord yuanhai show his power.

He sneered and flew down from the sky. He stood on the ground with his arms crossed, as if he didn’t intend to attack.

“Can’t I clean up these scums without you?” the darknorth Yuan hai said coldly. You’re only capable of breathing fire. You’re overestimating yourself.”

Duanmu Cang seemed to have a slight headache. He knew that the two of them had a deep grudge, so he did not force them.”Master Xie ting, can you set up a formation to ensure everyone’s safety?”

She had another concern. If one more person on her side died, the other side would have one more person. This would cause endless trouble in the future.

Tai-Shu Xie ting had also thought of this, and said, ” “I can set up a five order sword flag formation, it should have a miraculous effect.”

“That’s great,” Duanmu Cang was overjoyed.

Tai-Shu Xie ting nodded. He took out a long box from his sleeve and put a few incantations into it. Five rays of light shot out.

Five swords emerged from the light and stabbed into the ground around them. One of them was left in the center, and it fell slowly to Tai-Shu Xie ting’s hand.

In his other hand, a purple flag appeared and spread out in the air.

...

The five swords resonated with each other, and sword Qi surged up one after another, gathering into a sea in the sky above the hall. Then, it slowly spread out, condensed into a barrier, and disappeared in a flash.

After doing all this, tai-Shu Xie ting planted the purple flag into the ground. He made a sword gesture with his hand and closed his eyes.

All the Warriors were overjoyed and heaved a sigh of relief. They could feel the power of this formation, and they were grateful to Tai-Shu Xie ting.

Mu Jie kept her eyes on the front and said, strange, why aren't these things moving at all? it's as if time has stopped. They can't be afraid of us, right? "

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he asked suspiciously, " there was a terrifying aura coming from the black hole just now, but it seems to have disappeared without a trace.

Duanmu Cang frowned. He made hand seals in the air with one hand. Every movement was extremely slow. After nine changes, he pointed in the air.

Suddenly, a strange silver rune appeared from his finger and disappeared in a flash.

The moment the silver rune appeared, Duanmu Cang's eyes widened in shock. His body could not help but tremble as he shouted, " "Be careful, everyone!"

"What's going on?" asked the darknorth primordial sea in a deep voice.

"I did a rough calculation just now. It's an ominous sign of a mountain of corpses!" Duanmu Cang said solemnly.

“Why would I?”

...

The darknorth primordial sea was shocked. Although the corpse puppets and zombies in front of him were numerous and had an astonishing aura, they lacked top experts. It would only take a little more effort to destroy them.

Suddenly, the spell formation flickered.

A black glow appeared and shot out an arc of light like lightning, forming a small black ball!

“Ah!”

The moment the small ball appeared, the nearest martial artist suddenly screamed, and his body inexplicably decayed, becoming gloomy and terrifying.

“Not good!”

Everyone was shocked. With a “Hua” sound, they scattered and distanced themselves from the black light ball.

A buzzing sound came from the light ball, and in an instant, a large number of corpse puppets flew out and rushed in all directions!

“Shit! This thing directly teleported in!”

Everyone’s heart trembled, and they scattered in all directions in shock. However, the speed of the corpse puppet was extremely fast, and in an instant, a large number of martial artists were hit, and they began to decay with miserable screams.

“Ah!”

The surroundings were instantly thrown into chaos. Duanmu Cang and the others were also dumbfounded. They had been caught off guard in an instant. The five command sword flag array that tai-Shu Xie ting had set up was completely useless!

“Not good! The ones outside are starting to attack!”

The corpse puppets and zombies in the distance also began to move. They were extremely fast and rushed up in a few flashes.

In addition to the corpse puppets ‘attacks, the corrupted experts inside the array formation also began to turn into enemies, baring their fangs and brandishing their claws as they searched for targets!

The entire crowd was instantly thrown into chaos. All kinds of light shot out, and shrieks and screams rose and fell. In an instant, the battle had turned into a huge mess.

“Bastard! All of you, go to hell!”

In his anger, the darknorth primeval sea’s eyes shot out cold stars as a wave of profound Yin Qi danced in the crowd.

The zombies that were hit by his palm force were instantly frozen. Their entire bodies lost their functions and even the corpse puppets were frozen to death.

Tai-Shu Xie ting also shouted in anger. The sword in his hand began to dance, and the surrounding sword momentum suddenly turned into countless sword lights, which suddenly shot toward the corpse puppets and rotten corpses outside.

“Everyone, don’t hold back. Give it your all!”

Fang Shi also shouted. He thrust his spear at the flying corpse puppets with extreme speed.

This time, even Yunxiao could not sit still. Just as he was about to make a move, he suddenly trembled.

The fist-sized black hole inside the formation suddenly became the size of a millstone, and a terrifying aura came from it.

With the appearance of this aura, the corpse puppets and zombies became even more violent, and their battle strength rose sharply!

“Corpse puppet king! The corpse puppet king is inside!”

Mu Jie’s eyes lit up. She was surprised and overjoyed, but she was more excited than anything else.

Suddenly, a white light flashed and Duanmu Cang’s figure appeared above the black hole. He shouted, “We can’t let it out!”

Duanmu Cang’s hands danced in the air as Golden Seals were sent into the black hole. Immediately, a layer of dense golden light barrier appeared in front of the black hole, sealing off the aura of the corpse puppet king.

“Lord Xie ting!” She shouted after the last incantation seal was cast.

Tai-Shu Xie ting withdrew his sword, his face stern as he shouted, “Understood!”

He flicked his long sword on the ground, and the purple flag immediately flew up and shot toward the black hole.

Chapter 1353

1353 Something more powerful

The purple flag fluttered, and a golden thread appeared on it, slowly extending.

In a breath, he drew out a picture of a fierce beast. It was as if it was alive, and roars came from it.

At the same time, the sword light in the surroundings condensed and rushed toward the center in an instant.

Four long swords appeared around the black hole. They glowed with cold light and formed a sword talisman that pressed down on the black hole.

The black hole's expansion was stopped.

Just as the few of them heaved a sigh of relief, a martial artist's chest suddenly exploded, creating an identical black hole!

Soon after, he was sucked into the hole and completely disappeared.

When the black hole appeared, it was the size of a fist. In an instant, it expanded to the size of a millstone, and two dark green rays of light flashed within.

Tai-Shu Xie ting suddenly felt a cold air rising up from his spine, and his scalp inexplicably went numb. This was an instinctive vigilance of a warrior.

“Swish!”

The black hole disappeared instantly, as if it had turned into a black light, flashing away at an extremely fast speed.

“It's dangerous!”

A few voices were heard at the same time. They all looked at tai-Shu and Xie ting in horror. The black light suddenly appeared above tai-Shu and Xie ting and pounced down!

Although tai-Shu Xie ting couldn't catch the speed of the black light, he had a premonition, so he had been on guard.

At this moment, he raised his long sword and several seals shot out from the sword. The four Swords that were suppressing the black hole also flew up. Five swords soared in the air and slashed at the black light!

“Bang!”

The five swords bloomed with a dazzling light, but they were suppressed by the black light.

Within the sword light, the black light had long disappeared. There was only a corpse puppet the size of a baby. Its sharp wings were spread open, and black Qi flickered on them. Countless slender feet were pressing on the sword.

Tai-Shu Xie ting's expression changed drastically. He felt that the power of the five swords was too heavy for him to withstand. He took a step back, and with a "bang", the steel and stone on the ground were crushed.

“King of corpse puppets!”

Mu Jie cried out in excitement, her eyes filled with surprise.

The moment the king of corpse puppets appeared, all the corpse puppets and zombies in the hall seemed to tremble involuntarily.

The light of the five swords was suppressed in an instant. Tai-Shu Xie ting's expression changed drastically. He grabbed the purple flag beside him and threw it over.

The roars of ferocious beasts came from the purple flag.

“Pfft!”

The corpse puppet king flapped its wings, and the surrounding space instantly shattered. Countless cracks extended, and the flag was instantly cut into pieces.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!” The four long swords were also knocked away one by one.

Just as tai-Shu Xie ting was on the verge of death, a white mist suddenly rose from the surroundings.

A small, fair hand shuttled back and forth, two fingers holding a flower that was neither flower nor mist, lightly and dazzlingly slapping towards the corpse puppet king.

The king of corpse puppets seemed to sense danger. It flapped its wings, and countless spatial cracks appeared, slashing toward the Jade-like hand.

But what was shocking was that when her Jade-like hand patted down, the White mist smoothed out all the spatial cracks, as if it was a crease being ironed.

The corpse puppet King’s body trembled, and it rushed up. The saw teeth in its mouth were as sharp as blades, and with a single movement, it cut open the space and charged up to meet the White mist.

“Bang!”

The space trembled as a terrifying black and white power spread out. Countless spiritual pressure shot out in all directions, causing the entire Hall to tremble.

The two forces were in a stalemate, and the hall was divided into black and white!

“Squeak!”

The king of corpse puppets seemed to be injured. It kept making sharp sounds, and its wings were trembling at a high frequency, almost transparent.

Countless corpse puppets and zombies abandoned their respective battles and flew over from all directions to attack Duanmu Cang.

Especially the hundreds of zombies that flickered in the air, like a school of carps crossing the river, it was an extremely disgusting sight.

Among the zombies were thousands of corpse puppets, and their buzzing sounds echoed throughout the entire Hall.

All the martial artists heaved a sigh of relief, but they could not relax no matter what. They watched in horror as the zombies rushed into the White mist.

“Hmph!”

Hmph! a cold snort sounded, and everyone felt their bodies tremble. They couldn't help but shiver, feeling extremely cold, as if they had instantly fallen into an ice cellar.

“Frozen Jade water Kasaya”

The voice of the darknorth primordial sea faintly rang out, and the entire space seemed to freeze in an instant. The movements of all the zombies slowed down.

His face was gloomy and his eyes were filled with coldness. He grabbed in the air and a vast force spread out, sending a terrifying chill in all directions!

“Yun Ruxu!”

The entire Hall suddenly trembled, and everyone only felt a vast expanse of whiteness. The entire ice cellar collapsed in an instant, as if the universe had been turned upside down and the universe was being washed again!

“Bang Bang Bang!”

Countless zombies and corpse puppets exploded in an instant. The skin of the remaining powerful ones was covered in a layer of frost, and many places cracked.

After the attack, the fierceness in his eyes didn't decrease. He crossed his hands in front of his body and an ice ring appeared, floating up and down.

“A thousand li of mountains and rivers”

...

His long hair fluttered behind him, and his entire body was dotted with cold stars. His killing intent was high and mighty!

His five fingers spread out and formed a strange seal, which he pointed at the king of corpse puppets!

“Kong biechang!”

“Hu hu hu hu hu”

A cold wind seemed to be blowing in the sky of ice and snow. Countless ice crystals condensed and turned into a long sharp pillar, which suddenly stabbed forward!

“BOOM!”

The two spiritual pressures from Duanmu Cang and the king of corpse puppets instantly lost their balance. The black light suddenly collapsed, shattering along with the sky.

The icicle streaked across the sky and struck the hard shell on the back of the corpse puppet with a "crack". It continuously shattered and pushed the corpse puppet king back several hundred meters!

"Roar!"

There were still dozens of undead zombies in the sky. Although they were covered in frost, they roared and rushed towards the darknorth primordial ocean.

The White mist dispersed and Duanmu Cang's figure appeared. Although his face was covered with a thin veil, cold sweat seeped out of his forehead and a hint of fatigue flashed in his eyes.

"Hmph! A bunch of trash, when I was alive, I didn't even look up to you. Now that you're dead, I'm even more amused!"

Darknorth Yuan hai formed a hand seal and a green saber shadow appeared in front of him, slashing around.

"Shadow Blade!"

A green shadow swirled out and cut through the dozens of zombies with a "Bang Bang", splitting the entire space into two!

Dozens of zombies were split open but they were not dead. Their upper bodies were still baring their fangs and brandishing their claws while their lower bodies were kicking wildly.

Suddenly, the corpse puppet king in the distance trembled and let out an ear-piercing squeak.

All the zombies stopped in their tracks.

The layer of frost covering the surface of his skin cracked with a “pa” sound, and countless small corpse puppets crawled out from it, making buzzing sounds.

Because these corpse puppets were hiding within the corpses of the experts, they managed to escape the cold Yin Qi from before.

Darknorth Yuan Hai’s eyes narrowed as he grabbed at the air. A ball of ice clouds appeared around his fist and he punched out.

“BOOM!”

It was like an avalanche, and frost filled the sky.

Black ripples suddenly appeared on the bodies of the small corpse puppets. They spread out in circles and overlapped with each other like a wrinkly pool.

Yunxiao was slightly surprised. As the black ripples spread out, the corpse puppets were disappearing one by one.

In the distance, the same power spread out from the body of the king of corpse puppets, as if resonating with it.

“Whoosh!”

The flying frost struck the zombies and froze them like human-shaped ice sculptures.

The corpse puppets that hadn’t disappeared in time also instantly turned into ice crystals, completely losing their vitality.

The space around the king of corpse puppets fell like raindrops. Black ripples spread out densely, and those small corpse puppets appeared one by one.

“Buzz buzz buzz!”

Cries filled the sky as thousands of corpse puppets flew around. After circling a few times, they all flew towards the corpse puppet king and disappeared in a flash.

Meanwhile, the king of corpse puppets ‘body trembled a few times before it expanded several times and turned into a millstone. The details of its body’s structure also became clearer.

At first glance, that strange and disgusting appearance was creepy.

“It was actually absorbed by it. Interesting.”

Just as everyone was feeling disgusted and creeped out, mu Jie began to observe with great interest, causing everyone to look down on her.

“Its power has increased greatly. Everyone, please be careful.” Duanmu Cang’s expression changed slightly.

She had exchanged a blow with the king of corpse puppets previously, and they were practically on par. Now that one side was stronger, it would probably be difficult to contend again.

Great-uncle Xie ting said, “ that’s good. It saves us the trouble of having countless little worms. They’re really difficult to deal with! This way, we’ll have an even more obvious target if we all attack together!”

Everyone had the same feeling. Without those corpse puppets, their hearts were slightly more at ease.

There were more than a hundred people who had entered the hall, but after the commotion just now, less than half of them had died, leaving only seventy to eighty people. However, they were all true experts.

“Everyone, please hold back! Don’t kill it!” Mu Jie shouted.

Everyone’s face darkened, and they thought to themselves, “ If he had the chance, he would definitely kill it!

“Strange, why has this thing become so quiet?” “Could it be that it’s also greatly exhausted and is recovering its strength?” Duanmu Cang frowned.

no, ” Yunxiao shook his head and said, ” after absorbing those little corpse puppets, its strength has reached its peak. It’s definitely not recovering its strength. I have a bad feeling that big trouble is coming.”

Everyone’s heart trembled as they looked at him.

Mu Jie blinked and asked,“what big trouble?” Although this thing is powerful, we only need to send out a few people to completely subdue it. ”

that’s why I said it’s a big problem, ” Yunxiao said. it’s a big problem. Have you ever thought about the use of the divine talismans on the ‘evil-suppressing stele’? That’s a tenth-grade divine talisman, could it be used to suppress such an ugly thing?”

“This thing has lived for over 100000 years, and it’s only lost a lot of its power.” Mu Jie replied nonchalantly. If it was a hundred thousand years ago, we might not have been able to defeat him even if we joined forces.”

I thought so at first, ” Yunxiao said. but now, I can’t agree with you at all. Do you think this thing has intelligence? If it had been a God-level object a hundred thousand years ago, it would have gained intelligence. Even if its cultivation level had fallen, at least it would still have intelligence. Moreover, is this the extent of the ominous omen that Lord Cang had calculated before?”

Mu Jie was stunned, and her expression turned strange.“You’re saying that there’s something even more powerful that hasn’t come out yet?”

Chapter 1354-joining hands

Duanmu Cang's heart trembled as well. The ominous divination from before still lingered in his heart and had not dissipated. no matter what, let's get rid of this corpse puppet king first! Who is willing to fight with me? There are many people, so five people is the most suitable."

"I'm interested in this, count me in," mu Jie said.

The rest of the people all went silent. Although they were crossing the same boat, they didn't want to do something so dangerous for nothing.

"Are you interested, young master Yun?" Duanmu Cang asked.

of course not, " Yunxiao shook his head. I'm not.

Duanmu Cang's eyes seemed to reveal a bitter smile. He did not expect the other party to be so straightforward. She could only look at the beiming Yuan ocean and said,"Lord Yuan hai, as an elder of beiming Dark Palace, you have the responsibility and obligation to take on great responsibilities."

I've expended a lot of energy just now, " said darknorth Yuan hai indifferently. let Fang Shi go. With his ability, he will definitely be able to help Lord Cang.

Fang Shi kept his spear and walked forward valiantly, exuding a heroic spirit.

"Two more friends, please." Duanmu Cang nodded.

He shouted a few times, but no one responded.

Anger flashed in Duanmu Cang's eyes. He said coldly, " "As a woman, I know what the 'Dao is'. Although there are thousands of people, I will go forward. You are all men, but no one dares to fight? If that's the case, then this mistress only needs to protect herself and let the corpse puppet king go. With this mistress's abilities, I'm quite confident in leaving this place alive."

Tai-Shu Xie ting said, " this old man has a suggestion. Why don't we all follow Lord Cang's lead? everyone must accept Lord Cang's orders. Only then can we get through this difficult time together!"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone began to discuss in whispers, with different opinions.

Lord Cang is wise and astute. As long as you can handle things fairly, I agree with you. the darknorth primordial sea said.

As soon as he agreed, a large number of people also had no objections.

Yunxiao nodded slightly as well. In such a situation, without a core leader, they would be a pile of loose sand, and the corpse puppet had easily killed nearly half of them before.

A few other powerhouses frowned, obviously unwilling, but they couldn't say anything in the general direction.

Duanmu Cang's beautiful eyes flickered. When he saw that no one objected, he said,"Since everyone is willing to recommend this concubine as the leader, then this concubine will temporarily hold this position. If there is anyone who is not willing to accept the assignment, please leave."

"I'm willing to listen to your orders," the darknorth primordial sea replied.

When those who were slightly unconvinced heard this, their expressions changed slightly, but they did not have any conflicting emotions.

Duanmu Cang looked over and casually pointed at a man with a beard."This should be Lord Du Yucheng, the Lord of Yannan city."

There was quite a commotion in the surroundings, and everyone revealed shocked expressions.

Du Yucheng was expressionless. He only took a few steps forward and said, "I'm willing to listen to Lord Cang's orders."

"Thank you," Duanmu Cang said. Her eyes turned and landed on a rich old man. "This friend must be Sir Bi haodang, who has recently risen to fame."

This caused an even greater uproar. Bi haodang's fierce reputation had spread far and wide recently, and almost everyone in the North Region knew about him.

Bi haodang chuckled and put down his hands that were crossed in front of him. "This old man is also willing to listen to Lord Cang's orders."

"That's enough," Duanmu Cang said. The five of us will encircle and annihilate the corpse puppet king. Lord yuanhai, young master Yun, the two of you will be in charge of supporting the formation."

The two of them frowned. It was obvious that they were not comfortable with being sent together.

alright, " Yunxiao said. don't worry, Lord Cang.

Darknorth Yuan hai also snorted but didn't say anything.

"If that's the case, it's foolproof. Let's go," Duanmu Cang said.

Her figure flickered and immediately appeared a hundred meters away. She was in the sky above the millstone-sized corpse puppet and looked down.

Then, he pinched his fingers together and pointed down in the air.

"Swish!"

A ray of light shot down, and sparks flew.

The corpse puppet king, which had been motionless all this time, suddenly went into a trance, leaving only an afterimage behind as it disappeared from its original spot.

“Ha!”

A spear ray streaked across the sky, shooting out ten Zhang and pointing at a place in the sky.

“Bang!”

The space exploded, and cold air shot in all directions, but the corpse puppet was nowhere to be seen.

“This thing is good at hiding, this old master has a little toy that can come in handy.”

Mu Jie smiled. A white light flashed in her hand, and a short dagger spun.

He quickly pinched his fingers with one hand and pointed upwards, shouting, “Go!”

The flying knife spun a few times before it shot out and slashed at a space!

“Swish!”

The space there was in a daze, and the figure of the king of corpse puppets appeared. Its thin wings flapped, and a wave of energy fanned over, shaking the flying knife away.

Then, his body became blurry and he disappeared on the spot.

After the flying knife was sent flying, it circled in the air and then strangely hacked toward another space.

“Dang!”

A burst of spiritual pressure spread out, and the corpse puppet King’s body immediately appeared where the flying knife had cut. Its shell had taken a hit, but it was not a big deal.

“This saber is amazing! It can track and attack automatically!” Duanmu Cang said happily.

“Hehe!”

Mu Jie laughed complacently. it’s a pity that the attack is too weak. However, its tracking skills are unparalleled. In addition, the material it is made of is extremely hard. It’s specialized in breaking concealment techniques.

...

Du Yucheng’s figure flickered, and he directly punched out in the direction where the flying knife had slashed.

Under the force of the fist, the surrounding space was compressed into a piece and stacked towards that node!

“BOOM!”

A force exploded, and the king of corpse puppets flew out. Its wings flapped fiercely as if it had been provoked, and it charged directly at du Yucheng.

Du Yucheng was not flustered. He kept making hand seals with both hands, forming a circular seal. Blood-colored spots appeared on it, and he pressed it down!

“Bang!”

The seal directly hit the corpse puppet’s body and blocked its impact, but it couldn’t completely stop it. The king of corpse puppets rushed out of the explosion.

Du Yucheng’s expression changed, and two fingers came together to form a seal. A sword light shot out from the void, slashing up.

“Bang!”

The king of corpse puppets spat out a ray of black light from its mouth and destroyed the sword Qi. It seemed to have determined that du Yucheng was the one it was chasing, not letting go.

...

Du Yucheng’s expression darkened. Green light flickered under his feet, turning into countless afterimages all of a sudden. It was impossible to tell his real body apart.

Fang Shi’s battle spear swept, and an ice mark streaked across the sky, instantly striking the corpse puppet king!

“Pa!”

An ice crystal formed where the tip of the spear touched, instantly freezing a small part of the corpse puppet King’s body.

Soon after, a ray of red light fell from the sky. It was a square brick. It was shining with golden light, and there were runes surging on it.

“BOOM!”

The brick smashed fiercely on the king of corpse puppets 'head, and the entire space trembled as a terrifying power spread out.

“Not good!”

Bi haodang's figure appeared in the air, and he grabbed the brick in the air. He quickly retreated and shouted, ” “This thing is going to self-destruct!”

Just as it finished speaking, the king of corpse puppets 'body flashed with black light and suddenly exploded!

An impact force spread out in all directions. The five people were all shocked and hurriedly dodged.

This momentum was much worse than expected, but what was shocking was that under the explosion, it actually exploded into tens of thousands of little corpse puppets, covering the sky and earth as they rushed into the crowd.

Everyone was shocked and retreated vigilantly.

A figure flickered in the air as Yunxiao took a step forward, his body ablaze with raging flames. Under the power of the strong wind, he formed a flaming tornado that swept toward the corpse puppets.

“Pi Li pa la!”

A large number of corpse puppets exploded under the flames.

These things were countered by fire in the first place, not to mention level ten divine fire and the violent nature of the immemorial astral wind. They would practically die upon contact.

“Hualala!”

The corpse puppets weren't stupid. They immediately realized that something was wrong and quickly retreated.

Yunxiao's eyes darkened as he waved his hands and pushed them forward.

The tornado of flames rapidly chased after the corpse puppets and burned them, forcing the tens of thousands of corpse puppets into a corner of the hall with no way to escape!

“Don't burn them all to death!” Mu Jie hurriedly shouted.

“Hmph!”

At the thought of the wondrous spirit eyes, Yunxiao snorted coldly and put away the fire.

suddenly, his pupils contracted as a terrifying force exploded from the tornado he was controlling!

Instantly, six extremely sharp sword Qi shot out!

“not good!”

The sword Qi was as strong as lightning and terrifying!

A strange force emerged in Yunxiao's eyes as he suddenly twisted the space and bent his body in an extremely strange posture to avoid the sword.

The other five people's expressions also changed drastically, and they hurriedly used their divine abilities to meet the attack.

Yunxiao looked over in horror and saw a dark figure slowly emerge from the flames.

those corpse puppets that had not died flew to one place one after another, and in an instant, they turned into the king of corpse puppets again, but their aura was much weaker.

The king of corpse puppets flew down and quietly waited at the feet of that figure, seemingly very obedient.

“The master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace?” Duanmu Cang was shocked.

The man didn’t answer. The flames gradually disappeared, and the man’s face was revealed. His whole body was festering. He was also a rotten corpse!

However, he was clearly different from the zombies from before. His clear eyes were as calm as an ancient well, and it was clear that he was extremely intelligent.

The king of corpse beetles kept making squeaking sounds. No one knew what it was talking about, but it seemed to be extremely excited as it paced back and forth under the feet of the zombies.

the light in the zombie’s eyes flickered. although his eyes were clear, he seemed to be in a daze as if he had not seen anyone for a long time. a muffled voice came out of his mouth, “ how many years has it been? ”

“If you’re the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace, then 100000 years have passed,” Duanmu Cang replied seriously.

The Zombie’s face was covered in rotten flesh, and no expression could be seen. Only its eyes could reveal a little emotion.

“What are you guys doing here?”

The Zombie's eyes swept across everyone, sending shivers down their spines.

Duanmu Cang said, " heaven's will is working. The Black Tortoise Star Palace has reappeared in the borderline mountain. We are very curious. That's why we are here to investigate.

The Zombie's eyes were filled with surprise as he said in a deep voice, " "The Black Tortoise Star Palace has reappeared in the borderline mountain? This is not the void, but the realm of heavenly martial arts?"

His calm eyes began to ripple, revealing the extreme fluctuations in his inner emotions.

Chapter 1355-identity

Duanmu Cang's beautiful eyes focused as if he felt something was wrong. He said in a deep voice,"Who are you? Are you the star Palace Master?"

The Zombie's eyes gleamed as it swept its gaze across everyone. It seemed to have a strange expression on its face as it gave an irrelevant answer."Are there really no more immortal State Warriors under this sky?"

Those who were pointed at by his gaze felt their bodies shake, as if they had been completely seen through.

And his words made everyone even more shocked!

A hundred thousand years ago was precisely the era when deity realm powerhouses started to die out!

"What do you mean?" Duanmu Cang asked in shock. Could it be that you've seen a Suan ni before, or that you're already in the Suan ni ten directions divine realm?"

The Zombie's eyes rolled and it lifted its head slightly to look at the ceiling of the hall, as if it could see through time and space.

On that festering face, a complicated expression was revealed.

Although his protruding eyes were ugly and terrifying, they flickered with dark clouds, as if they were chasing time and leaving traces of time.

please say something. From what you said just now, you seem to know the secret that the realm of heavenly martial arts can't become a God. I hope you can tell us.

Darknorth Yuan hai couldn't hold it in any longer. He crossed his arms in front of his chest and had a grim and solemn expression. His eyes were filled with desire.

Becoming a god was undoubtedly the lifelong pursuit of all experts!

Everyone's face was dark, and the atmosphere was unusually oppressive. Although there were nearly a hundred people, the silence was terrifying.

also, I'm very interested in the Black Tortoise Star Palace. I hope to discuss it with you," great-uncle Xie ting said.

Meanwhile, mu Jie thought for a moment, and said,"are you selling this zombie?"

The zombie said,"hehe."

"I'm willing to buy it at a high price. I won't let you suffer a loss," mu Jie coughed twice and said.

The zombie looked at the corpse puppet king affectionately and said, "It's all thanks to you accompanying me for the past hundred thousand years."

The king of corpse beetles jumped excitedly. It leaped up and its body shrunk. It laid on the shoulder of the zombie and used its thin wings to rub its rotten face.

The scene was extremely creepy, but the Zombie's face was filled with warmth. It reached out and patted the king of corpse beetles on the head a few times.

A wisp of light green smoke came out from the Zombie's hand. It was obviously a highly toxic substance, but the king of corpse beetles' small eyes flickered, very pleased.

Yunxiao suddenly had an idea. "Could it be that you knew that there was something strange about the world a hundred thousand years ago, so you sealed yourself up and escaped into the void world to avoid being implicated?"

He had learned from di Jia that the reason why there were no more godly state experts in this sky was because the rules of ten directions were missing. There must have been a great change in the world back then, which led to this.

Although the others did not understand the whole story, they all trembled, as if they agreed with Yunxiao's point of view.

The zombie came back to his senses. stop making wild guesses, " he said. I'm not the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace. I'm also eager to know why the Black Tortoise Star Palace suddenly returned to the two world Mountain.

"What? You're not the owner of this place?"

Duanmu Cang was shocked and said in shock, " "What about the owner of this place? Are you still alive?"

The Zombie's expression turned strange. He thought for a while before he said, "Maybe he's dead, Yingluo."

He looked at the crowd and said, " "I've been away from the world for too long. Let me know what happened in the past 100000 years."

He raised his hand and grabbed at the air.

Immediately, a vortex appeared around Duanmu Cang, who was at the forefront, and instantly captured her.

The zombie clenched its fingers and the spatial vortex flew toward him along with Duanmu Cang.

“Stop!”

Duanmu Cang’s expression changed drastically. Judging from the Zombie’s cold demeanor and indifferent tone, it seemed like it wanted to search its soul directly.

She shouted and threw her hands forward. A ribbon with hundreds of butterflies flying through the flowers flowed like the moonlight and poured down. It extended more than ten feet.

The ribbon fluttered around her body, and instantly, a colorful scene appeared. Hundreds of butterflies flapped their wings, dancing the autumn frost, and her entire person became a fairy among butterflies.

The spinning vortex suddenly stopped and the Space Force around it was broken by the butterfly’s wings.

Duanmu Cang retracted his ribbon. With a flash of white light, he leaped back and returned to the crowd.

His eyes were filled with anger and vigilance as he exchanged glances with the zombie. what do you mean by this? ”

“Heh, there’s no lack of experts among you, and you’re considered strong in this world. I don’t want to fight with you guys, just let me search the soul of any one of you, and I’ll understand the current situation of the heavenly martial realm.”

The zombie said slowly, leaving everyone stunned.

"If you're just trying to understand the situation, why do you have to take lives?!" Duanmu Cang snorted angrily.

"It's too troublesome to ask slowly," the zombie replied.

"I'm sorry, but no one would be willing to have their soul searched by you," Duanmu Cang said coldly.

"That's expected. After all, no one wants to die!" The zombie nodded. His words were deeply touching, and a look of emotion appeared on his rotten face. but someone has to die.

Everyone was on high alert, and they were all on guard.

The zombie tilted its head and its eyes flickered. I'll do it myself, then. After sleeping for a hundred thousand years, is my martial arts still there? " He seemed to be trying hard to recall the martial technique.

However, everyone's faces were extremely solemn. Those sword energies just now were not weaker than any of the experts present!

"Yes, I remembered some, but I don't know if it's enough."

The zombie cupped his chin with his hand, the light in his eyes growing brighter and brighter as if his spirituality was returning to him."Is none of you willing to sacrifice a little? I really don't want to kill anyone."

Yunxiao could not help but mock,'you really don't want to kill? How many people have the thousand labyrinths and these corpse puppets killed? this corpse puppet is also your pet, right? why are you pretending to be a Saint at this time?"

The zombie gave Yunxiao a glance and was taken aback for a moment, but then he nodded and said, " the original design of this Star Palace was to isolate it from the outside world for all eternity. It sank into the void to prevent people from entering. I didn't expect that it would finally see the light of day again. I'm afraid that no one in the past had expected this.

"The people from back then?"

...

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he said coldly, "You are talking about the itinerant cultivators in the two world Mountain, right? In that case, you were also one of the itinerant cultivators in the two world Mountain?"

The Zombie's face darkened, as if he was extremely angry.

His eyes glowed with an ominous light. As his eyes were almost completely exposed, his entire face seemed to be filled with killing intent.

we'll stick to our previous arrangement," Duanmu Cang said in a low voice. the five of us will test this person's strength first. Lord yuanhai and young master Yun will stay behind, and the rest will be at your disposal.

Everyone nodded, knowing that there would be a fierce battle coming up.

Yunxiao stared at the zombie and said coldly, "What, you don't even dare to admit your own identity?"

"Die!"

The zombie spat out a single word with a murderous look.

Before anyone could see him move, a dark green sword Qi shot out and slashed at Yunxiao!

The space was instantly split open, and a sharp intent came down from the sky!

Yunxiao's face darkened, and his pupils constricted. Not only was the sword Qi extremely sharp, but it was also highly corrosive, as if it was born with a deadly poison.

...

"Ha!"

Sword Qi burst out of his body as well. A cold light flashed in the surroundings and cut off the pressure of the other party's sword light. His body shook, leaving only an afterimage, and he disappeared.

"Bang!"

The green sword beam immediately pierced through Yunxiao's afterimage and slashed backward, slamming into the stone wall of the hall and leaving a sword mark!

Everyone sucked in a breath of cold air, their hearts trembling.

In the battle with the corpse puppet just now, no matter how many people used their divine powers, they could not leave a single mark on the hall. Yet, this Zombie's casual sword attack was so fierce!

"Go!"

When Duanmu Cang saw the Zombie's angry attack, he immediately understood that Yunxiao was deliberately provoking it. In a flash, she appeared above the dome, and a ribbon with a hundred butterflies and flowers scattered down.

It was as if a White Rainbow had descended from the nine Heavens.

The ribbon fluttered in the wind, and butterflies were dancing in it. It was colorful and looked like a garden. Not only did it not have any killing intent, but it also had a bit of immortal aura.

However, the zombie raised its eyes and pointed its finger. A green light flashed and sword Qi filled the air.

“Swish!”

A green sword Qi directly shot up, cutting the entire hundred flower garden in half. There was even poison directly stuck on the ribbon, and the light and floating spiritual light disappeared.

Duanmu Cang was shocked and quickly retracted the ribbon. There were green spots on it and poisonous smoke was constantly emitting from it.

In her shock, she tore off the poisoned part with both hands and shouted, “be careful of the poison under his sword Qi. It can actually corrode ninth tier profound armaments!

This hundred butterflies penetrating flower belt was a ninth tier profound level weapon. Although its defense was much worse than metal profound level weapons, its attack was extremely strong. He didn’t want it to be damaged so easily, and his heart ached for it.

“Hey!”

A sneer came from the void. Suddenly, a hand reached out, grabbed a brick, and smashed it on the Zombie’s head!

The brick became colorful in the air, alternating between gold and silver, and pressed down on the space.

The Zombie’s eyes glowed with surprise. It raised its hand and clenched it into a fist, throwing a punch.

“BOOM!”

An overbearing and Wild Force shook the brick, and the light on the brick instantly dimmed.

A hand reached out from the void again and instantly formed a seal. A red light flew up from the brick and turned into a five-colored sword.

Bi haodang's entire body appeared, and he thrust his sword forward.

"Dang!"

The zombie clenched its fingers and grabbed the tip of the sword nimbly. It shook the sword so hard that it glowed gold and silver, and then slashed at the zombie.

"Chi Chi Chi Chi!"

The sword Qi struck the Zombie's body, sweeping away the disgusting festering on his skin, and stinky pieces of flesh were constantly jolted out.

The zombie did not seem to be moved, and the rippling sword Qi was like a gentle breeze.

He remained unmoving as he pinched the tip of the sword with his two fingers, corroding the colorful light.

Bi haodang's expression changed. He grabbed with his left hand, and tens of thousands of specks of light seemed to be drawn out from the air. They condensed into a mirror in his palm and shone over.

"Ah!"

The zombie roared in rage. Its eyes, which had not seen light for a hundred thousand years, suddenly hurt and it quickly turned its head away.

Chapter 1356-eternal sword manipulation

"Kuang ran!"

The mirror surface trembled, and an abnormally sharp light condensed, turning into a sword light that slashed down!

The space behind the zombie trembled and Fang Shi appeared. He pointed his spear and a white light flashed through the gap, stabbing towards the Zombie's heart!

The zombie completely ignored the spear behind it and punched the mirror light with a furious roar!

“Bang!”

The treasured mirror in bi haodang's hand shattered instantly. His entire body was also impacted, and a stream of qi and blood in his body rushed to his throat.

He wanted to retreat, but his intrinsic Mystic weapon, the brick, was still in the other party's hand, so he did not dare to give up.

He made another hand seal and struck the sword again. The Golden color of the sword expanded and charged at the zombie.

“Pfft!”

All of a sudden, the Zombie's heart burst open, and a spear thrust out, freezing the Zombie's chest!

Just as everyone was overjoyed, they suddenly discovered that the White ice had turned into a dark green. Not only that, but Fang Shi's spear was also covered in green.

“Not good! Quickly retreat!”

Yunxiao's figure suddenly appeared in the air as he cried out in surprise, “This is Green Poison!”

They did not know what the 'Green Poison' was, but even without Yunxiao's reminder, they had already sensed that something was wrong.

Fang Shi's spear left his hand as he flew backwards.

The spear turned dark green in an instant and was knocked away from the zombie with a bang, stabbing at him instead.

On the other hand, bi haodang's face was filled with anxiety. It seemed that the other party was completely unwilling to let go of his brick-to-sword transformation. In a moment of desperation, he could only sacrifice his soldiers to protect the general.

"Hmph, you want to leave? No matter what, we have to leave one behind. You!"

The zombie looked at bi haodang with disdain. It moved and pulled away from bi haodang, then struck its palm at his chest.

A cloud of dark green poisonous gas spread out around his palm and broke through bi haodang's protective Emperor Qi. It was extremely easy.

"Bang!"

Suddenly, a five-colored light bloomed from bi haodang's body, forming a barrier that pushed the poisonous gas away.

"What?"

The Zombie's eyes glinted in disbelief.

Inside the five-colored barrier, a small white flag was faintly visible.

In that instant, Bi Haodang abandoned the brick and retreated a hundred meters. With a wave of his sleeve, a white light was collected.

His face was abnormally pale, and he saw that his brick sword and Fang Shi's spear had both become green and rusty.

If he had not taken out the elemental five-element flags in time, he would have become a zombie by now.

At this moment, the sky suddenly glowed with a golden light. Du Yucheng's figure appeared, and his eyes were filled with anger as he shouted, "Go to hell!"

He had been hovering above the dome to cast the spell. After a long time of preparation, a vast power descended.

He formed two yellow talismans with both hands and spread them to his sides. Suddenly, a miniature city's shadow surged out from the golden light and pressed down directly!

Those with sharp eyes could immediately tell that the illusionary city was Yan Nan city, and they could not help but be shocked.

As the city Lord of Yunnan city, Du Yucheng had used some unknown secret technique to directly extract the power of the entire city from ten thousand miles away and suppress it!

Under such a mighty force, even a peak nine-star expert would be annihilated!

As expected, the Zombie's face darkened, and for the first time, it showed fear.

The corpse puppet king on his shoulder also trembled. It flapped its wings, and a dark aura surrounded its body.

The zombie conjured a strange rune with one hand and threw it at the black Qi. A black light immediately surrounded the black Qi and a terrifying sword Qi rose.

At some point, the king of corpse puppets had turned into a black sword and was caught by the zombie.

A series of obscure notes came out of his mouth, and green runes kept floating on the sword, all of which were condensed by poisonous gas.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted, and his heart was filled with shock and horror. He could clearly see four ancient characters emerging on the black sword: One sword for ten thousand eras!

His scalp went numb and he looked at the corpse in disbelief.

The black sword radiance and the green poisonous gas flashed on the sword. The terrifying sword intent became stronger and stronger, as if it had broken through the shackles of the rules of heaven and earth.

The Zombie's eyes flickered as it looked at the black sword. It revealed a happy expression and laughed, haha, I remember now. You're called eternal sword!

The Golden City Power was being held up by the terrifying sword intent and couldn't fall!

Du Yucheng's heart trembled in shock, his entire face contorted, and his forehead was densely covered in beads of sweat.

The power of the sword was still increasing, as if it was endless.

Everyone's hair stood on end as they felt a boundless fear. The immense pressure made it impossible for them to breathe.

The figure of the darknorth primordial sea flashed and instantly appeared in the air. He roared, "Everyone, attack together and kill him!"

Without another word, he extended his body and a Dark Blue World appeared behind him, forming a vast and grand plan.

“Swift as a startled Swan!”

It was one of the three moves from beyond the heavens. When it was displayed, it was earth-shattering, and its power was even greater than du Yucheng’s power of a city!

Duanmu Cang’s Jade-like fingers quickly formed hand seals as white mist rose. A five net light smoke palm formed a palm shadow in the air and directly slammed down.

All kinds of martial arts techniques were used at once, and hundreds of flowers bloomed in an enchanting way. The Great Hall began to shake, and it became unstable, unable to withstand the attacks of nearly a hundred people at once.

...

The vast sword Qi also condensed, as if it was under great pressure, and kept shrinking.

All of a sudden, a deep voice rang out, and a black light broke through the sky.

“One controls ten thousand worlds, eight water chestnuts shine, focus the spirit as a sword!”

The sword essence suddenly exploded, as if there was an infinite amount of sword Qi coming from the ancient times. A terrifying power broke through time and space!

“BOOM!”

A boundless mighty force spread out, and the great Hall of the Black Tortoise Star Palace suddenly shattered. The impact force spread in all directions, and a large number of buildings were annihilated!

At this moment, the starry sky was revealed and the Starlight became dim under this terrifying power. Countless dust scattered and many figures rushed out.

That earth-shattering blow had killed countless people. When the surviving cultivators saw the starry sky, they immediately fled out of the mountain in joy.

This muddy water was too dangerous. To be able to survive, everyone was overjoyed, and no one dared to stay.

However, a barrier suddenly appeared in the sky and blocked everyone.

“What?”

...

Everyone was shocked. In their anger, they madly attacked the sky, but it was to no avail.

“What’s going on? Who set up this barrier?”

Everyone was furious. After attacking for a while, they gradually calmed down, each of their faces gloomy.

At this moment, a large area of the star Palace had been destroyed. In the Col of the two world Mountains, there were hundreds and thousands of sacrificial altars scattered all over, forming the star field formation.

The zombie man was standing on one of the altars. His rotten body was even more horrible to look at, and thick, disgusting liquid was flowing out of his cracked skin.

The aura on his body was also unstable, as if he had been injured quite badly by the attack just now.

Other than the 30 to 40 people who were preparing to escape in the sky, there were more than ten people scattered on the altar. Their faces were pale as they stared coldly at the zombie man.

Half of them had been crushed by the terrifying attack just now!

The corpse man's chest heaved up and down as he gasped for breath. A green light flickered in his eyes.

The dozen or so people were much calmer. Although they had used all their strength in the attack, they had not suffered much damage.

"It seems like you're already at the end of your rope," Duanmu Cang said coldly.

"You want to kill me?" the zombie man chuckled.

Duanmu Cang frowned and said coldly, "you're the one who wants to kill us, right? don't get it the wrong way!"

"Hehe, I'm just going to capture someone and search their soul. I don't want to kill you," the zombie man said. "How many people have died? is it worth it?"

"I'd rather die in battle than have my soul searched by you. If you surrender, we won't kill you," Duanmu Cang said coldly.

"Ha, haha!"

The zombie man's spirituality seemed to have completely returned after the attack. He laughed out loud and said, "You ignorant juniors want to kill me? How childish!"

"Bang!"

The eternal Imperial Sword in his hand crumbled into countless corpse puppets, and they began to dance around him.

The corpse man's body suddenly turned dark green. Under the poisonous light, the corpse puppets also turned green and orange, their wings carrying poison.

Everyone's expression changed slightly. This kind of poisonous gas seemed to be extremely sharp, even ninth tier profound armaments could be corroded.

Mu Jie's face was filled with shock as she said, "could this poisonous light be a bi an?"

Yunxiao's face was also unusually solemn as he said, "There's no need to doubt it. It's the green Poison."

"Green Poison?"

When he said the words "Green Poison," no one understood. At this moment, many people suddenly realized it, and their eyes burst with horror!

Duanmu Cang's eyes were also filled with shock as he exclaimed, "It's one of the five major apocalyptic poisons, the seven illusions green damask!"

"Oh? I didn't expect anyone to recognize it."

The corners of the zombie man's terrifying mouth curled up slightly, and his entire face became even more ferocious under the green light.

What made everyone's heart shiver even more was that the sky full of corpse puppets was dyed with this green color, as if they had become extremely terrifying.

"These aren't ordinary corpse puppets. They're just the clones of the corpse puppet king. Even if they're killed, it'll only consume a little of the puppet King's energy. And I am the master of this corpse puppet king. With these countless beetles and my seven Illusion Green damask, even if it's a giant city with millions of people, I can kill them all in an instant!"

The zombie man's eyes were filled with poison. He crossed his hands in front of his body and flung them forward, shouting, "Go!"

"Buzz buzz buzz!"

All of a sudden, countless corpse puppets rang out and rushed toward the dozen people around them. They were like countless fireflies under the starry sky, devilishly beautiful but deadly!

Darknorth Yuan Hai's face darkened as he shouted, "Swift as a startled Swan!"

A strange phenomenon appeared and a huge map spread out. A dark Yin ice-sealed world crushed over!

"Crack! Crack!"

The green corpse beetles that filled the sky were instantly frozen and trapped within the grand vision.

"Hmph, childish. The extreme cold is indeed the nemesis of all living things, but the five poisons of mass extinction are divine items that are above elemental damage!"

The man's eyes were filled with mockery as he spoke coldly.

"Bang!"

The extreme Yin ice was broken apart and a zombie charged out. Following that, the entire frozen phenomenon began to crack and disintegrate!

Chapter 1357

1357 Being and non-being, separation and reunion of Wind and Fire

“Bang Bang Bang Bang!”

Countless corpse puppets broke out of the ice, but some were directly frozen to death by the ice, but only a few.

“Not good! Suppress them, don’t let these zombies come out!”

it can corrode profound level weapons and swallow Emperor Qi. How can it be sealed?!

A high-level martial Supreme threw a punch at the corpse puppet, but it was only able to push it back a few feet. The fist force was unable to break through the seven Illusion Green silk, and he immediately turned pale with fright.

“I’ll try. You guys retreat.”

Yunxiao’s eyes narrowed, and his expression was extremely heavy.

A cluster of flames gushed out from his body, and the power of the astral wind also blew up. Suddenly, a pillar of fire rotated and shot into the sky!

“Hu la!”

At an altitude of 10000 meters, it was suppressed by the force of the barrier and immediately surged in all directions. In an instant, under the starry night, the sky was filled with a sea of fire, and it was as bright as day.

After the power of the flames was blocked, it suddenly rushed down and enveloped the entire area.

The rest of the martial artists were surprised and overjoyed. They quickly turned into rays of light and flew out of the sea of fire.

Duanmu Cang turned around and saw the proud and aloof figure within the pillar of fire. He shouted, "Can you handle it alone?"

Yunxiao nodded and said, "I'll try. If I can't withstand it, can't I run? Do you think I'm stupid?"

"Then be careful!" Duanmu Cang's face was full of black lines.

She also flew out of the sea of fire, and the last gap was instantly enveloped by flames.

A small part of the world inside the barrier had turned into a huge fireball, and the scene inside could not be seen clearly.

The beiming Yuan Hai's face flickered with horror as he said in shock, "What kind of flame is this? It can even swallow my divine sense!"

His extreme cold Qi seemed weak and powerless in the face of the power of this flame, which set off a storm in his heart.

Everyone's faces flickered under the light of the flames, most of them with a look of surprise.

"The power of this flame is probably at the peak of the ninth rank," Xie ting said. "If we can't restrain the seven Illusion Green damask, we'll be in danger."

Mu Jie crossed her arms in front of her chest and stared at the flames in the sky. She was silent for a long time before she said, the aura of this flame has probably already exceeded the ninth rank.

Everyone's body trembled as they looked on in shock and disbelief!

Duanmu Cang's beautiful eyes seemed to be filled with confidence as he said, "This is the Phoenix Fire, a tenth-tier element! Even within Grade 10, he was one of the top existences. But, we can't take it lightly, and we need to prepare as soon as possible, so that we can help Yunxiao when he's no match for us!"

Everyone looked at the flame in shock. At the same time, they also revealed envious and jealous expressions. Many people's eyes flashed with a strange light, as if they were tempted.

Inside the fireball, Yunxiao and the zombies faced each other from a distance. The corpse puppets stained with the seven illusions green damask stood quietly in the air, as if waiting for instructions.

The Zombie's eyes turned serious as he said, "Phoenix Fire?"

Yunxiao nodded. yes, it is Phoenix Fire, and it is almost complete. I wonder if it can counter your seven illusions Green Phoenix? "

"It's almost a complete Kasaya, but how much power can you use?" the zombie sneered. He's just a seven-stars Martial Emperor. Can he really exert one percent of the power of this flame?"

I can try, " Yunxiao said with an expressionless face.

The Zombie's eyes narrowed and he formed a strange seal with one hand. "Yes!"

The corpse puppets that filled the sky lined up and actually formed a formation that looked like a huge seal. The green and black light spread out and buzzed toward Yunxiao!

Yunxiao also performed an incantation gesture with one hand, and a fire Phoenix materialized in front of him with a bang, its colorful wings spread out and covering the sky.

Then, he snapped his fingers and a strong wind appeared with a PA sound. It circled around the Phoenix before blowing towards the corpse puppets.

"Hulalala!"

Wherever the astral winds passed, the space let out a hissing sound, as if it was swept by a broom.

The incantation seals formed by the countless corpse puppets suddenly trembled. The black and green light suddenly brightened and was swept up by the wind, becoming erratic.

The buzzing sound was loud, and it started to become chaotic.

The corpse man's expression changed drastically, revealing a look of shock as he said, " the indestructible astral wind?!"

Without saying a word, Yunxiao made a grabbing motion in the air, and a small black Mountain appeared in his hand before he threw it out.

The small mountain directly smashed into the sky above the corpse puppet, and with a shake, it turned into countless black particles. They spun along with the astral wind and attacked the thousands of corpse puppets.

Immediately, the crackling sound and the buzzing sound intertwined.

Finally, with a boom, the corpse puppets "formation suddenly shattered, and they were all in chaos.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he changed the incantation gesture.

The fire Phoenix, which had been entrenched for a long time, let out a long cry. Its eyes suddenly opened, shooting out a ray of light as it flew over.

"Not good!"

The zombie-like man's face was filled with shock as he watched the fire Phoenix engulf the tens of millions of corpse puppets and the black particles.

"BOOM!"

A huge explosion came from the flames, and a terrifying power spread out in waves, giving off a colorful light.

Their gazes were exceptionally sharp. The corpse puppet in the sea of fire had already been defeated. Under the roasting of the Wind and Fire, coupled with the collision of the black particles, it continued to shatter, bursting out into a mass of green light and black gas.

The black gas disappeared under the burning of the divine flames, while the green light flickered non-stop as if it was not afraid of the flames. They fused together and grew larger and larger.

Yunxiao was horrified. Although he could not exert the full power of the divine flame, it was a tenth-tier divine item after all, and even with the help of the ancient astral wind, he could not destroy the seven Illusion Green Phoenix.

But what he didn't know was that the zombie man's shock was even greater than his!

...

The group of corpse puppets finally couldn't take it anymore. They suddenly flew in one direction and gathered together, turning into the king of corpse puppets. It suddenly opened its mouth and sucked.

The seven illusions Green Phoenix immediately turned into a green light and was sucked into its stomach. The green light on the entire body of the corpse puppet king brightened.

With a flap of its thin wings, it shook off the flames and black particles, and was about to break through the air.

An angry roar came from within the flames. Countless black particles rapidly condensed under the strong wind and turned into the upper body of the crocodile monster. It opened its big hand and grabbed!

"This is a Kasaya."

The zombie man's forehead seemed to be breaking out in cold sweat, and his entire face was filled with shock.

The crocodile's five fingers clenched, and space instantly froze, sealing off the king of corpse puppets 'retreat. Then, it roared and pounced!

"Bang!"

The crocodile crashed directly into the corpse puppet king, grabbed it with both hands, and bit it with its mouth wide open!

"Ka!"

The corpse puppet King's entire head was in the crocodile's mouth. It struggled with all its might, and the circles of sharp blades on its body were shaken off. The green light also turned into a slash, cutting down on the crocodile's body.

...

Wherever the light passed, it would directly cut the body back into particles, but they were still wriggling slowly, condensing and not dissipating.

The giant crocodile's eyes were filled with ferocity, but it refused to open its mouth. It just continued to gnaw and remained motionless in the sky.

The seven Illusion Green dagger directly penetrated the crocodile's body, leaving nothing behind. It was completely immune to poison!

After struggling for a while, the corpse puppet king seemed to have given up. It remained motionless, allowing the crocodile to devour it bit by bit.

“Gulp.”

The zombie man swallowed. He did not know if there was any saliva, but he felt that his throat was dry.

A hundred thousand years ago, he had met all kinds of experts, and there were also existences that were stronger than him, but he had never seen such a scene. The king of corpse puppets and the seven Illusion Green damask were completely suppressed, and he was beaten until he had no temper.

“What the hell is this crocodile Pixiu?”

The zombie-like man could not help but ask, his face blank and speechless.

Yunxiao thought to himself, ‘as expected, everything has its Vanquisher. This stupid crocodile is usually of little use, but now it has shown its might, which is really eye-catching.’

“This is the being and non-being of Wind and Fire separation divine crocodile that I refined. Unless you gather the five poisons of great extinction, you’re not its match at all,” he said.

He looked at the crocodile that was chewing on the king of corpse puppets and thought, “ You stupid thing, this young master gave you such an awe-inspiring name, it’s also not letting you down.

The crocodile seemed to have understood something and roared a few times in cooperation. A fierce light burst out from its eyes, making it look like a peerless beast.

The zombie man was stunned for a few moments before his face darkened. He grabbed forward with his five fingers and shouted, “Sword, come!”

The motionless corpse puppet king that allowed itself to be devoured suddenly burst out with a sharp aura. The sword light cut through the crocodile’s body and penetrated it!

“Clang”

A surge of sword intent rose, and the crocodile's body was instantly slashed into countless particles, and it retreated explosively.

The black sword's intense sword intent trembled and spread out in circles.

The corpse man's hands quickly formed a seal, and his aura continued to rise, resonating with the long sword. A black light surged between heaven and earth.

Yunxiao's face flickered. He knew very well in his heart that the strength of this sword intent was the sign of the man and sword becoming one!

He shook his hand, and a white light bloomed. A white light flashed across the sky.

"That's Yingluo!"

The corpse man's pupils contracted, and his body trembled violently. The sword techniques in his hands became chaotic, and the sword essence that filled the sky scattered!

"Clang!"

Yunxiao's figure flashed along with the white light, and then a bright saber came slashing across the sky.

The blade light was like water, not very powerful. It only reflected a calm, like the eternal moon.

"Swish!"

The blade pierced through the zombie man's chest and went straight through his heart!

Yunxiao's face was as calm as water, as if everything was within his plan, and his eyes were full of indifference.

However, he did not let his guard down. Fang Shi's spear had also pierced through his heart, but he did not seem to be injured at all.

In the sea of fire, the two figures were close together. The sword intent of the long sword beside them was in chaos, turning into sword light and collapsing.

The zombie-like man stared at the long knife that had pierced through his heart in a daze. He gulped and said with great difficulty, "Chiaki Imperial Sword Suan ni"

Yunxiao's eyes narrowed slightly. So, the real name of the saber was 'thousand-year Imperial saber', which he had always called it.

A slight tremor came from the blade, and circles of runes surged up. Four ancient characters appeared on it: A Thousand Autumns saber!

Chapter 1358

1358 The master of the star Palace

"Where did you get this blade?"

The zombie man's face was filled with shock and a complicated expression. He stared at the long blade, and his eyes flickered.

His expression suddenly became gentle and tender as he stretched out his hand to touch the blade.

Yunxiao did not stop him, but said coldly, "you are indeed related to the owner of this saber. Is the Black Tortoise Star Palace also a place to suppress the devil?"

The Zombie's body trembled, and his gentle expression turned into one of shock. "Could it be that the seal on the dragonize pool has been broken?"

Yunxiao gave an irrelevant answer. I see. A rainbow stone is suppressed in the Black Tortoise Star Palace. Is it a rainbow or a rainbow? ”

The Zombie’s body trembled and its face contorted. ”Who are you? What do you know?”

’m the new master of this thousand-year Imperial saber, ” Yunxiao said. its old master gave it to me personally.

”Ah?”

The Zombie’s eyes glowed with tears. is he well now? ”

Yunxiao’s face twitched as he sighed and said, ” ”He has already turned into dust and left.”

The zombie grabbed the Chiaki Imperial saber with both hands, and its terrifying face was filled with tears as it began to sob softly.

Under the raging fire, the two figures seemed lonely and bleak.

Yunxiao slowly tried to pull the saber out, but found that the zombie man was holding it tightly and did not move it at all. He frowned and said, ” ”If you’re one of the people who suppressed the demon back then, and you have a connection with the owner of this saber, then you and I should be friends, not enemies.”

The zombie man slowly released the blade and raised his head. His gaze pierced through the flames and looked up at the endless starry sky. His festering face was filled with loneliness.

Yunxiao put away the saber and performed an incantation gesture with one hand. The flames that filled the sky slowly disappeared, revealing the starry night.

When the martial artists in the distance saw the flames gradually disappear, they became alert and began to circulate their Yuan techniques with grave expressions.

But gradually, his serious expression turned into one of shock.

They saw Yunxiao and the zombie man standing opposite each other. They seemed to be very friendly and were having a good conversation.

“What’s with this Kasaya?” Duanmu Cang was shocked.

Everyone shook their heads and continued to probe with their divine senses, but they were all blocked by an invisible force and could not hear anything.

“The original owner of this saber was my big brother,” the zombie man said faintly.

Yunxiao’s body trembled slightly as he said, “I see. I didn’t expect that there were still people who survived the demon-suppressing war! What exactly happened back then?”

The zombie man’s face was filled with worry as he shook his head slightly, “Although I’m one of the participants, I’m just an insignificant character. I don’t know much about the inside story. The seal of the transdragon pool has been lifted, and the Black Tortoise Star Palace has descended upon the two world Mountain again. I’m afraid the demonic tribulation is coming.”

Yunxiao thought to himself, ‘the devil has come out long ago, but he’s in a mess now.

The corpse man looked at the countless altars below and sighed, “that rainbow stone is in the main altar. You should be able to get it once you break the seal.

Hearing the endless desolation in his tone, Yunxiao was stunned. “What about you?”

“Me?”

“What’s the point of living with my current appearance?” the zombie man smiled bitterly. Besides, I don’t have the energy to do that anymore. There are experts in each era, and this era no longer belongs to me.”

He put away his long sword and took a step in the air. He was actually about to leave.

Suddenly, a voice rang out. His body trembled violently, and he revealed an expression of extreme shock!

“Hmph, beifeng Nan, you were the general in charge of guarding the seal here, but you actually revealed the matter of the rainbow stone and wanted to leave without putting up a fight. In the past 100000 years, it’s not just your body that has fallen?”

The voice reverberated in Yunxiao and the zombie man’s ears, and both of them were shocked.

“Your, Your Excellency!”

The zombie man’s eyes were filled with shock and he said in disbelief, ” “My Lord, you’re still alive?”

“Hmph, fortunately this Lord is still alive, otherwise this rainbow stone would have been stolen!”

The voice was so cold that it made one’s hair stand on end.

Yunxiao also had a bad feeling in his heart, and for some reason, his heart sank.

He looked into the distance. Duanmu Cang and the others did not seem to have any reaction. It was as if they did not hear the voice.

“Gulp.”

The zombie man swallowed and said in horror, ” “You, how could you still be alive, Yingluo?”

The voice sneered, "even you can live, so why can't I?" However, you have betrayed your own beliefs, which has surprised and disappointed me!"

The zombie man hurriedly explained, "my Lord, I wouldn't dare!" These people weren't evil people, they should be the top powerhouses of this era. And this young man in front of me is the successor of my big brother's intrinsic Mystic weapon, the Chiaki Imperial saber. I believe in him!"

"Do you believe in him or me?"

"If you haven't betrayed your original intentions, kill all these people!" The voice said coldly.

"What?"

The zombie man was shocked and revealed a look of horror.

"You should know how serious the matter of the rainbow stone is. In order to keep this a secret, these people must die!" The voice said.

Yunxiao suddenly had an idea, and he said coldly, " "Are you the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace?"

"Who Do You Think You Are to question me?" the voice mocked.

Yunxiao's eyes turned serious as he said, " "If my guess is correct, Sir should have refined the rainbow stone, which is why you were able to survive."

The voice suddenly became furious and shouted, " "Beiming Nan, what are you waiting for?"

The zombie man's body trembled, and he looked extremely troubled.

...

“Hmph Hmph, good! You’ve betrayed me and your beliefs. Since that’s the case, you can die with these people!”

The sound became extremely shrill in an instant. Suddenly, a strange and vast power emerged.

Yunxiao was shocked. He was not unfamiliar with this power, but very familiar with it!

“Let’s go!”

The power of the lunar pupil appeared instantly, and the surrounding space twisted. At the same time, a sword Qi shot out and broke through the void!

Yunxiao and beifeng Nan’s figures suddenly disappeared.

at that moment, an ice-colored flower appeared where the two of them had disappeared. It bloomed and then extinguished.

It was unremarkable under the starry night, but the flower bloomed beautifully, and its destruction was strange.

“Bang!”

Like glass shattering, the entire sky exploded with the ice-colored flower at the center. With a “boom”, it collapsed and a terrifying force spread out!

The faces of the Warriors in the distance changed drastically, especially Yunxiao, who had teleported to their side with beiming Nan.

...

“Young master Yun, what’s going on?” Duanmu Cang asked in surprise.

Yunxiao looked at the center of the terrifying force and said, “ we’re in big trouble. The real master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace is here, and he has already joined the devil!

That Ice Flower just now was actually the ice fiend Heart Flame!

Beiming Nan’s body trembled, and a faint green light shot out from his eyes, as if he couldn’t believe it.

“The true master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace?”

The crowd was taken aback, and they followed Yunxiao’s gaze.

In the collapsed space, a burly figure slowly emerged. Under the starry night, it was shining with a metallic light.

Yunxiao’s eyes widened, and his mouth was so wide open that it could fit a watermelon.

The body that came out turned out to be the gourd Little King Kong!

However, the dazed look on his face was completely gone. Instead, he looked cold and indifferent to the common people. It was obvious that he had been possessed by the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace!

Beifeng Nan was stunned for a moment, then he revealed a strange expression and said in a deep voice, “ My Lord, could it be that your heart has been affected by that thing and changed?”

The gourd Little King Kong’s eyes burst with a sharp light and flashed with a demonic cold light. He snorted coldly and said, “ Beiming Nan, it’s obvious that you’re the one who betrayed me, yet you’re blaming me. It seems that the pain of being alone for the past one hundred thousand years has completely destroyed your original heart. Since that's the case, there's no need to leave behind this rotten body. Let me purify you."

The calabash Little King Kong clenched his fist, and instantly, a cloud of stars surged. A vast fist power spread out, and the killing intent was awe-inspiring!

Yunxiao's face and heart sank at the same time. As expected, the rainbow stone had a great influence on a martial artist's mind.

The disappearance of the master of Red Moon City, Ning Kewei, was also related to this, and the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace, who was once an immortal state existence, could not resist the power of the rainbow stone. An inexplicable anxiety welled up in his heart, and he began to worry for Yunshang.

Many Warriors felt the vast power of the punch, and their faces changed.

The darknorth primordial sea was shocked and said angrily, "Li Yunxiao, how did you provoke such a fiend? what's going on?"

"Can't you see what's going on?" Yunxiao said coldly. "This thing has been possessed by the devil and is going to kill all of us!"

"Bedeviled monastic robe."

Duanmu Cang muttered to himself. His eyes flickered as he said, "Could it be, could it be that he has a rainbow stone on him?"

Yunxiao frowned and gave Duanmu Cang a glance, then fell silent.

The Duanmu family had always been mysterious. In addition, they possessed a special divination technique, so it was normal for them to know some of the continent's secrets.

It was even more likely that Duan mucang had predicted the rainbow stone and had rushed over from thousands of miles away. However, the power of the mystic Divine lot was limited and he did not expect the owner of two world Mountain from 100000 years ago to still be alive!

Of course, they did not know that the Lord of borderline mountain had possessed Yunxiao's gourd warrior.

Suddenly, Yunxiao's expression turned a little strange. He wondered if the Black Tortoise Star Palace had just returned from the void because of the gourd little Vajra.

Since the other party had used possession, it proved that his body was definitely not as good as the gourd little Vajra. Moreover, the ice fiend Heart Flame just now was obviously the power of the gourd little Vajra.

When he thought of this, he suddenly came to a realization. It seemed that the cause and effect had been cleared up.

The calabash Little King Kong had been teleported away by leap sect out of the blue, and it had fallen into the Star Palace of nothingness by coincidence, where the master of the star Palace had obtained it.

The star Palace's master had refined the rainbow stone, but his body should have long since rotted beyond recognition. Even if he had already fallen into bedevilment, there was nothing he could do to break the seal he had placed in the past.

However, the appearance of the gourd Little King Kong changed everything!

Chapter 1359-soul whip

Yunxiao thought to himself, 'could it be that everything is predestined?

Looking at the calabash Little King Kong's intelligent and cold face, he couldn't help but sigh.

"Wind Dance of flowing rain, cloud shocking fist!"

The gourd Little King Kong's face darkened, and his eyes flashed with killing intent. He suddenly punched out, and the entire universe was overturned, and the starry sky trembled.

It was as if countless stars had fallen from the night sky, forming a beautiful meteor shower.

However, everyone's face was pale. No one was in the mood to appreciate the beauty of the fist momentum. They all gritted their teeth and fiercely circulated their Yuan power to resist.

On the other hand, mu Jie's eyes were filled with shock as she exclaimed, "Eternal immortality, divine Phoenix?"

He was bold because he was skilled. He directly stretched out his hand and his five fingers opened to grab the fist wind!

"Bang!"

The power of the punch exploded in his palm, instantly splitting his skin and flesh. His entire arm was bleeding and numb.

However, he only frowned and shook his head, "No, this power is not enough. It's far from enough,"

The rest of the people looked at him as if he was crazy and tried their best to Dodge. However, under the fist wind, the pressure was vast and the sky was filled with meteor fist shadows. It was really difficult to avoid and they could only resist with all their might.

Yunxiao smiled wryly in his heart. Fortunately, the gourd Little King Kong's strength was limited, but under the command of the master of the star Palace, it could still exert a super strong combat strength.

Among the fist shadows that filled the sky, the power of each fist was stronger than the fist of the gourd Little King Kong!

A saber radiance flashed in his hand as the qianqiu Imperial saber swept out and directly shattered one of the fist radiance. The powerful force passed through his body.

Many martial artists were still slightly weaker under the full-force attacks, and they were heavily injured and killed. For a time, miserable screams were heard again and again.

The gourd Little King Kong's eyes narrowed and he said coldly, "Beiming Nan, I'm teaching you a lesson, and you dare to retaliate?"

Beiming Nan's face was extremely unsightly as he gritted his teeth and said, "Sir, your mind has been controlled by the rainbow stone and you've been possessed!

"Shut up! When did you have the right to talk about my matters? I'll kill you first, you traitor!"

The gourd little guardian deity's figure flashed and appeared in front of beimang Nan. He opened his hand and grabbed at his neck.

A ray of light shot out from his palm. It was extremely sharp, and black cracks appeared around the light.

Beimang Nan was shocked. He raised the black sword in his hand and slashed it down!

"Swish!"

The two slashes collided with each other, shooting out countless forces of spirit pressure that spread out and devoured each other.

"My Lord, don't forget your heart!" Said beiming Nan in a deep voice.

"Shut up!"

The gourd Little King Kong seemed to be furious. He made a hand seal with two fingers and pointed at Beiming Nan's body. An ear-piercing sound of air breaking was heard.

Beifeng Nan's face was gloomy. He displayed his sword technique and several sword shadows appeared in the air. Bang Bang Bang " sounds were heard one after another.

The gourd Little King Kong stomped on the ground and attacked, while Beiming Nan retreated with his sword. The two of them began to fight.

The surrounding martial artists were stunned and confused. However, most of them were regulating their origin power and thinking about how to break the enchantment to escape.

Mu Jie held her chin and pondered, 'this thing is clearly a puppet's body. Could it be that a soul has been attached to the puppet? How is this possible? unless it's a divine Phoenix, but the power it can unleash is only at the peak of the martial Supreme realm. This is strange, this is strange, Qianqian.'

"Young master Yun, what's up with this zombie man?" Duanmu Cang asked. What did you talk to him about?"

Yunxiao's eyes flickered, and his face was extremely gloomy. Judging from the current situation, it would be extremely difficult to get the gourd Little King Kong back.

Duanmu Cang's words jolted him back to his senses. He snorted coldly in his heart. This Duanmu Cang must know a lot of things and was deliberately hiding them from everyone. No wonder he had been so enthusiastic along the way.

A ruffian-like look flashed across his face as he said indifferently, " "Nothing much, we were just having a casual chat and asking if he had eaten."

Everyone, "hehe."

"Then what's with this Iron Man?" mu Yu asked.

Oh? ” Yunxiao’s eyes flickered. are you very interested in its structure? ”

yes, yes. Don’t tell me you know something? ”

Mu Jie’s eyes brightened as she was suddenly interested.

it’s simple, ” Yunxiao chuckled. pass me the mystic technique spirit eyes, and I’ll tell you about this Iron Man.

It was impossible for the king of corpse puppets to help mu Jie capture it, so Yunxiao had to think of another way.

“It’s not impossible to exchange it with the incomplete wondrous spirit eyes technique, but How do I know if you’re telling the truth?” mu Jie’s brows furrowed and she said coldly.

Yunxiao narrowed his eyes and smiled. for a puppet family, you must know a new puppet sample, which is much stronger than the divine ability and secret technique. In addition to the mystic technique spirit eyes, I have another condition.

Mu Jie’s face instantly darkened as she shouted sternly, li Yunxiao, don’t you dare go overboard!

Yunxiao smiled and moved his lips slightly as he sent a voice transmission.

Everyone frowned, wanting to know what they were talking about. However, the secret voice was also sealed, so they couldn’t capture any information at all.

After mu Jie listened for a while, she revealed a stunned expression and said, ”Really?”

“Yes, ” Yunxiao nodded.

“Alright, deal!” Mu Jie pondered for a moment and said. A cold light burst out of his eyes as he looked at the gourd Little King Kong.

At this moment, the two of them were still engaged in a fierce battle. However, it was basically the calabash little Vajra attacking while bei Xiaonan was defending step by step. He kept retreating and it was getting harder and harder for him to hold on.

All kinds of spiritual pressure and slashes shot out. The people around them dodged vigilantly, afraid that they would be affected. Only Duanmu Cang and the other experts remained unmoved.

The calabash warrior and beifeng Nan didn't seem to be as powerful as they had expected. Except for beifeng Nan's seven Illusion Green damask, they were confident in dealing with the rest.

brother chennan, ” Yunxiao cried out in a deep voice, ” it's no use for you to keep backing down. He has lost his mind. If you want to save him, you have to take him down first! His body can't block your Green Poison at all.”

Beifeng Nan and the gourd warrior's faces changed. The gourd warrior's eyes were filled with anger, and he kept attacking.

A trace of determination flashed in beifeng Nan's eyes. He swung the sword in his hand, and a sword light pressed against the calabash Little King Kong's fist wind, forcing him away with a ” bang “.

Then, the sword momentum rose up. With a flash of green light, it split into three sword wills in the air and cut across the sky.

The gourd Little King Kong's eyes widened in anger, and it seemed to be extremely afraid. It formed a seal with both hands and slapped out.

Countless ripples appeared on his palms, and golden triangular patterns flew out, forming a complex shape in front of him.

“Chi Chi Chi!”

The three sword essences directly cut into the ripples, like nails stuck into a wooden board, shackled and unable to move an inch.

Beimang Nan’s face was calm. As if he had expected this, he extended his sword and stabbed it in front of him. A circle of sword will spread out and formed a circle. Black sword light and green poisonous gas kept surging out. The two Qi blended together.

The gourd Little King Kong’s pupils shrank and he shouted, ” “Dammit! Since you dare to Harbor evil intentions towards this Lord, this Lord will send you to eternal damnation!”

He gave a loud shout and made a hand seal in the air. With a loud rumble, the three sword essences were destroyed.

...

Then, a strange force rippled from his glabella, causing the entire space to fluctuate, which was extremely uncomfortable.

Yunxiao was taken aback. He looked over in horror and saw a Crimson light wriggling slowly between the eyebrows of the calabash King Kong, and inside the light was a rainbow stone!

At the same time, Duanmu Cang’s beautiful eyes widened, revealing a shocked and complicated expression.

The gourd little guardian deity’s own power was limited, and this greatly angered the star Palace Master. He could only use the power of the rainbow stone to increase his power.

“It really is a rainbow stone! My Lord, you’re the one who’s disappointing!”

Beifeng Nan's eyes flashed with anger, and the sword intent in his hand rose to the extreme. Rolling dual-colored light surged around him.

"Hmph, the rainbow stone is the safest with this Lord!"

The gourd Little King Kong snorted coldly. With a cold expression, he touched his ten fingers, and a silver light flew between his hands, emitting a vast power.

"One to rule the world, eight water chestnuts to shine, the sword will be the God!" Beimang Nan shouted.

The sword Qi soared into the sky, and a green sword energy streaked across the sky, slashing toward the gourd Little King Kong!

The silver light in the gourd Little King Kong's hands grew bigger and bigger. It turned out to be a three-foot and six-inch silver whip. It had a total of twenty-one segments and countless silver runes wrapped around it.

A trace of struggle flashed in the eyes of the gourd Little King Kong. He grabbed the silver whip and hit it hard!

"BOOM!"

As the silver whip fell, countless silver talismans danced and struck the sword spine, bursting forth with a power that could destroy the world!

The two of them were instantly sucked into the spirit energy storm, and the terrifying power spread in all directions and into the sky.

Many people had not even touched the storm before their bodies exploded from the spiritual pressure, dying on the spot!

“Not good! There’s an extremely powerful spiritual attack in this spirit pressure storm!”

A martial artist’s eyes were about to pop out of their sockets as blood burst out from his eyes. His ears and nostrils were also bleeding, and his face was filled with fear.

Yunxiao also felt the spiritual pressure coming at his face. It was extremely strong and strange, and it directly hit his spiritual altar and spiritual ocean. His eyes narrowed as he stared at the silver whip. It was the boundless power that was directly attacking the mind and soul.

“Soul reversal whip! It’s the reverse soul whip!”

Duanmu Cang’s beautiful eyes flickered with surprise and joy.

Lord Cang, ” Yunxiao said coldly, ” you know a lot.

Darknorth Yuan hai and the others also looked over with dissatisfaction.

Xie ting’s eyes flashed, and he said in surprise, ” “Could it be the legendary reverse soul whip that can directly attack the divine sense and hurt the soul?”

Duanmu Cang replied, ” that’s right. I’ve only done some research before I came. In fact, what I know is similar to what you all know.

No one believed her words, and their faces were all cold.

“Do you still want to stay at this moment?” du Yucheng asked. I don’t want to be involved in this mess anymore, is there anyone willing to leave with me?”

Everyone looked hesitant. Most of them stood still, as if they were unwilling to leave.

He had waited for so long, and even the master of the star Palace had appeared. The harvest this time might be more than he had imagined.

“Even if we want to leave, can we break this barrier that covers a thousand miles?” bi haodang chuckled. I’m afraid we’ll have to find the way to lift the seal from these altars.”

Du Yucheng’s face was dark as he said, “if we work together, we might be able to break it!” The strength of these two people is extraordinary, and only the heavens know if there are other dangers. Are you all so confident that you will be the last one to laugh?”

Chapter 1360-divine Phoenix

Bi haodang glanced at the crowd and laughed. at least the current situation is not out of control. I see that everyone is very calm. I’m afraid that they haven’t even used their trump cards? ”

Du Yucheng’s expression changed, and he also calmed down. With his hands behind his back, he snorted, “ in that case, I’ll just watch from the side. I’ll see how capable you all are and how much you can gain from this two world Mountain.

Darknorth Yuan hai said indifferently, “where there’s a will, there’s a way.” Lord Cang said before. Since we’re here, we’ll take things as they come.”

While the crowd ridiculed him, their eyes never left the battle between the calabash and Little King Kong.

After being struck by the reverse soul whip, bei Xiaonan’s aura was greatly weakened. His body was festering and he was swaying left and right, as if his soul had been injured!

The gourd Little King Kong’s face was also extremely gloomy. After being hit by the seven Illusion Green damask, green spots appeared on its body, and the range of corrosion continued to expand.

Even though its entire body was made from peerless grade rank nine materials, it still could not withstand the seven Illusion Green damask’s poison and was hit at once.

“You dare to hurt me? you’ll be reduced to ashes under my whip!”

The gourd Little King Kong’s eyes were filled with killing intent. The rainbow stone on his forehead flashed, and he raised the reverse soul whip again. Countless strange runes rushed out, and he whipped down!

“Pa!”

The silver whip stopped when it was halfway down. A large black Hand grabbed it.

The silver runes danced in the air, but the giant hand did not move at all. It was as steady as Mount Tai.

At this moment, the calabash Little King Kong was also wrapped in circles of black lines. If one looked carefully, they would find that it was actually hooked by a huge black shadow.

Countless black stripes shot out from the shadow’s body, firmly binding the gourd Little King Kong to its body like tape, almost merging with it!

“What?”

Everyone’s pupils contracted as they looked to their sides in shock.

Mu Jie performed an incantation gesture with both hands and a sneer appeared on her face. li Yunxiao, I’ve bound him. It’s all up to you now.

Yunxiao was taken aback as well. He looked at the huge black shadow, but he could not see its true face at all. Only a strange array had appeared behind it.

“It seems like you intruders can’t wait to die!”

The gourd Little King Kong said coldly. Although it was bound and motionless, it did not panic at all.

His body suddenly changed shape, and dozens of sharp blades emerged from his body, covering his entire body. Then, he suddenly turned his body!

“Chi Chi!”

Countless slashes flew out and instantly cut the black shadow apart. It retreated several feet away and returned to its normal body.

“Memory origin gold?” mu Jie’s pupils constricted as she exclaimed in shock. Interesting, but my dark double is undying. Try this again and see if you can still escape.”

The incantation gestures in his hands changed rapidly, and the puppet of darkness stepped forward, opened its arms, and pounced forward.

The formation behind it lit up, and the entire puppet seemed to merge into the void, becoming one with the starry night.

“Tsk! Undying and imperishable, what a joke!”

The gourd Little King Kong sneered, and ice-colored sparks appeared around the rainbow stone between his eyebrows, gradually burning.

“Not good, it’s the ice fiend Heart Flame, quickly retreat!”

Yunxiao was shocked and quickly reminded him.

Mu Jie’s heart lurched. Although he did not know what the ice fiend Heart Flame was, Yunxiao’s warning still put him on guard.

He suddenly retracted his hand seal, and the puppet of darkness immediately stopped and was about to retreat.

“Hmph, you also recognize the ice fiend Heart Flame, so you’ve come prepared! It’s just a small trick, a little Firefly dares to compete with the sun and moon, what a joke!”

The gourd Little King Kong sneered. The flame between his eyebrows flashed and disappeared. The next moment, it appeared in his palm. He turned his palm and slapped it down!

“BOOM!”

A huge ice flame condensed in the void, as beautiful and short-lived as a flower.

The entire black figure condensed in an instant, as if time had stopped. When the flames disappeared, the black figure was also devoured by more than half, constantly disintegrating.

“Ah?”

Mu Jie’s face was filled with fear and disbelief. what kind of flame is this Lao Ai?!!

it’s indeed the ice fiend Heart Flame. Why is it like this?!

Duanmu Cang’s eyes were filled with horror as a bad feeling rose in his heart.

Only when the two rainbow stones were combined could the ice fiend Heart Flame be produced.

But what she didn’t know was that the calabash little Vajra already had this kind of demonic flame power, but it was only strengthened by the rainbow stone!

The spell formation on the back of the black puppet collapsed and turned into nothingness, disappearing into the night.

“This Chi Chi Chi Chi Chi!”

Mu Jie was so furious that she spat out a mouthful of blood on the spot.

Not only did he explode with anger, but that black puppet had also connected with his mind, and was instantly destroyed, causing him to be seriously injured.

“Idiot, I’ll kill you first, then I’ll take care of them one by one!”

The gourd Little King Kong’s figure flashed and appeared above mu Jie. It raised its silver whip and struck down directly!

Countless silver runes flew down, and a silver light shuttled between them.

Before the whip could land on her body, mu Jie grabbed her head and cried out in pain.

“This old man will fight it out with you! Armor transformation!”

Countless rays of light flew out from his body, and his body instantly grew taller. He was enveloped by an iron-armored puppet that was about 100 feet in size. Countless runes gushed out of his body, and he suddenly rushed up!

...

“Pa!”

Iron Harrier grabbed the silver whip with both hands. The symbols on his body immediately lit up, and countless terrifying forces gushed out.

“What? He’s going to self-destruct?”

Everyone was shocked. They didn't expect mu Jie to go all out!

Mu Jie wasn't far from them, and they all retreated in shock.

The gourd Little King Kong's face also changed greatly, but the reverse soul whip was tightly grasped by the other party and could not break free at all.

"Hey, die!"

A sneer came from the iron Harrier, and it exploded with a BOOM!

The calabash Little King Kong was instantly hit by the force of the self-explosion, and the entire sky was torn apart, leaving a dark crack in the sky.

"Bang!"

A Golden Ball flew out of the endless explosion and only stopped a thousand feet away.

...

Countless runes surged out from the ball before it suddenly cracked and shattered. Mu Jie walked out from the ball.

His body was completely unscathed, but his face was extremely pale. His eyes flickered with killing intent as he stared at the explosion.

Everyone's scalps went numb. He was actually still safe and sound from such a powerful self-detonation?

The design of the iron-armored puppet was exquisite. It was made up of two layers, an inner and outer layer. When the self-destruction was triggered, the physical invulnerability would all break away on its own, and the energy generated would also be shot out.

At the same time, in order to avoid any accidents, the internal invisibility would also instantly form a ball to form an extremely powerful defense. It would wrap its owner up and leave through the air.

This was originally mu Jie's last trump card, but when the reverse soul whip hit his divine sense and soul, he instantly unleashed his killer move!

Under the impact of the explosion, the gourd Little King Kong's entire body was completely deformed, almost turning into a pile of scrap iron. Although the reverse soul whip was in good shape, it lost all its light and stabbed into the body.

"Ka, ka creak creak"

The calabash Little King Kong's body kept making sounds. It was the memory origin gold at work, and it was gradually returning to its original state.

However, the green spots on his body were getting bigger and bigger. It seemed to have affected his physique, and the restoration was very slow.

"Everyone, let's attack together! Who can stop him when he recovers?" Duanmu Cang was shocked.

Just now, mu Jie's self-detonation was earth-shattering, and in addition to the ice fiend Heart Flame and her near-undying body, it made everyone extremely apprehensive.

normal attacks are useless against him," said the darknorth primordial sea. everyone, show us your trump cards.

Suddenly, there was a loud "Chi" sound. It was deep and steady, causing the heavens and earth to tremble.

Everyone's expression changed as they looked around vigilantly.

After taking a hit from the reverse soul whip, beifeng Nan had been in a daze. Over the past 100000 years, he had consumed a great deal of his soul power. It was difficult for him to withstand the power of a single whip.

However, at this moment, his body trembled, and his murky eyes revealed a glimmer of light, as if he had recovered his consciousness.

“Swish!”

There was another sound, and the sky trembled again, as if someone was slowly walking forward.

“What's going on? What is it?”

The darknorth Yuan ocean was also extremely shocked and had an inexplicable feeling of fear.

“Haha, you're finally out? My precious.”

Although the gourd Little King Kong's body was still a pile of scrap iron and his recovery was extremely slow, he couldn't help but laugh out loud, his eyes constantly shining.

All of a sudden, in the group of altars below, the small star Domain under the Black Tortoise Star Domain glowed brightly, and dozens of light pillars directly shot into the sky.

As the green light flickered, the rays of light that shot out from the altar gathered in the sky and turned into a huge Green Bull shadow that covered the sky!

The head of the green Bull was like a precipitous mountain. Its eyes twinkled like stars, and its two giant horns were like iron towers with sharp teeth.

Under the stars, the light shadow was 10000 feet long and 8000 feet tall from its hooves to its back. It was a giant that stood tall!

Everyone was instantly petrified. Their mouths were wide open, but they couldn't make a sound. They all looked at the green Bull in a daze.

With a " bang ", an arm returned to the gourd Little King Kong's body. It pulled out the reverse soul whip from its body and waved it in the air.

A silver rune appeared and disappeared in a flash.

The green Bull let out a long " Moo " and its body began to shrink slowly. In the end, it turned into the size of an ordinary water buffalo, and its light was completely retracted.

Only then did everyone see clearly that this bull wasn't a real bull, but an iron puppet. However, its eyes were full of intelligence, and it should have been refined into a brutal soul.

"This puppet Suan ni ..."

Mu Jie was shocked. Her eyes flickered with fear, and her body couldn't help but tremble. this is Qianqian, this is the divine Phoenix!!

"What's a divine Phoenix?"

The darknorth primordial sea asked in shock. The aura of the Iron Bull suppressed everyone present, causing their expressions to change.

Mu Jie's throat gurgled a few times, but she didn't say anything in the end. She only stared at the green iron Bull with despair in her eyes.

With a heavy expression, beifeng Nan let out a long sigh. His eyes were filled with complicated emotions as he said, this is the leader of the heroes of borderline mountain, the master of the Black Tortoise Star Palace, Lord lingmu Di's pet, the heaven patrolling Bulldog!
