

The Eternal 1751

Chapter 1751

1751 The devil realm's Secret

"You're right, my Lord," Yunxiao said with a gloomy face. From today on, I'll change the name of the calabash Little King Kong to 'lingmu flute'. It's quite nice. You don't mind, do you? Reputation is just a fleeting cloud."

"This Pixiu, cough, cough, cough, Pixiu."

Lingmu di clenched his right hand into a fist and coughed twice. "Of course I don't mind. However, Wu Dacheng is too evil. I can't let him off easily."

Your Excellency is right," Yunxiao said. let's just call him gourd little Guardian warrior.

Everyone,"hehe."

by the way," lingmu di said. where are the magic stones you got in the secret treasure of the true dragon? let me see them.

Yunxiao was about to ask him about the same thing, so he took out the jade box and handed it to him. "With my spiritual eyes, it's completely different from the rainbow stone. However, I have the same feeling as it. Even Xiao Hong wants to know."

Lingmu di placed the jade box in his hand. Everyone looked over, eager to see what was inside.

He touched the jade box with his hand and immediately triggered a formation light. After several hand seals, the formation light faded like water.

The jade box was opened, and there was a stone that was as smooth as a watermelon inside. There was nothing unusual about it.

However, when he used his spiritual sense to probe, he was sucked in and disappeared without a trace.

“?! This is Yingluo.”

Lingmu Di’s expression changed drastically, and his body trembled uncontrollably. He hugged the magic stone with both hands and said in horror, “Raw stone, raw stone!”

“Primordial stones?”

what? ” everyone was stunned and confused. how can this be primeval stones? even if it’s just primeval stones, there’s nothing to be excited about, right? ”

Beiming Nan seemed to have thought of something and said in surprise, “Daren’s meaning is that this is a bi an.”

Lingmu Di’s eyes were still filled with horror. His throat seemed to be blocked by something. He kept hitting the magic stone and finally said with certainty, “It’s indeed a raw stone, a neon raw stone.”

Yunxiao’s heart skipped a beat. Rainbow Rough Stone? ” he asked. What does it have to do with the niongshi?”

Lingmu di held the stone and did not answer his question. Instead, he fell into deep thought and muttered to himself, “Why would there be a Rainbow Rough Stone in the secret treasure of the true dragon? That doesn’t make sense. Could it be that the two realms were connected in ancient times?”

Yunxiao did not disturb him, so he just waited quietly.

After a long time, lingmu di came back to his senses and said, ” Li Yunxiao, come with me.

Yunxiao looked back at the golden light outside the mirror of evening clouds and saw that it was still accumulating, and he had no idea when it would be full. “Everyone, keep an eye on him. If there’s anything unusual, inform me immediately.”

Then, the two of them entered the divine realm tablet. Everyone knew that there must be something important to discuss, so it was not convenient to speak directly in front of them.

On a mountain in the divine realm tablet.

Lingmu di held the magic stone and looked at it several times before sighing, "it's really a Nihon rough stone. It's so shocking.

what's the difference between this rainbow stone and the rainbow stone?" Yunxiao asked again.

Lingmu di shook his head. there's no difference. The so-called raw stone is meant to be untainted by devil Qi. This raw stone is still wrapped in the stone Skin. It's too rare.

what?" Yunxiao was taken aback. aren't the rainbow stones produced after the body of a Demon Lord split?" Could it be formed by the heavens and earth?"

Other than the body of a demon master, he had never heard of a rainbow stone.

"How much do you know about the devil Master?" asked lingmu di.

Yunxiao pondered for a moment, then said, "I only know that it was a super expert who appeared 100000 years ago. He almost swept across the entire world. In the end, he was suppressed by the combined efforts of Sir and other peerless figures.

"Then do you know the origin of the devil Lord?" asked lingmu di.

Yunxiao shook his head, his face full of hope.

it's time to tell you something," lingmu di said. I hope the tragedy of the demon-sealing war won't happen again. His face was filled with desolation, as if he was recalling the time when his companions had fallen one by one.

Lingmu Di's first words stunned Yunxiao, and he seemed to have difficulty thinking. the demon master is not a creature of the heavenly martial realm.

my Lord, " Yunxiao said in surprise. do you mean that the demon Lord is from a space near the heavenly martial realm? "

"The concept of 'space' is correct, but it's not exactly accurate," Ling mu di said. That place is as vast and boundless as the realm of heavenly martial arts, and should be called a 'realm'. We call it the 'demonic realm'."

"Demon Realm mayfly"

Yunxiao murmured to himself. It was the first time he had heard that name.

"Not many people know about the existence of the devil World, and I happen to be one of them," lingmu di nodded.

Yunxiao was not surprised by this. Lingmu di was in charge of the entire North Region at that time, and he could be considered a peak figure of that era. It would be inexcusable if even he did not know about it.

Yunxiao suddenly had an idea. "The devil Lord shouldn't be the only expert in the devil realm, right?" He suddenly thought of the demon Lord di and PU. If there was a world, then the number of demon lords might far exceed two.

there are many experts in the devil World, " said lingmu di. they have a strict division according to their strength, but there is only one Devil Master. The so-called Devil Master is a title, meaning the Lord of the devil World."

is the demon Lord a famous Emperor or a famous PU? " Yunxiao finally could not help but ask.

what?" lingmu di frowned and said, " your question is related to another matter. Let me tell you about the devil World first. Since you've received Lord Yan Shen's inheritance, you've naturally been to the tiandang mountains."

Yunxiao's heart trembled as he said,'that's right! "In my previous life, I died in there. Could it be?" he seemed to have thought of something, and a light flashed in his mind. But soon, he had a headache, as if he had lost his memory.

"Do you know about the Blackflame fiend?" asked lingmu di.

Yunxiao's face was a little pale. He nodded and said, " "Back in the Dragon Transformation pool at the burial ground, I met the owner of the thousand Autumns Imperial saber. Only a wisp of his soul was left in the skeleton. He told me that at the beginning of the chaos, Dao became one, one became two, and from two became three. The demonic Qi was one of the 'three'. It was born in chaos, evolved from Dao, and immortal. When it gathers to a certain extent, it will condense into a spiritual object called the Blackflame fiend, which is also a terrifying existence of the ten Realms."

"That's right," said lingmu di,"I didn't expect him to be able to struggle on whilst at death's door until now. Sigh." The demon world was derived from this one Qi of Dao after enduring many catastrophes. In the demon world, this Qi of Dao would accumulate over time and form an existence with primary spiritual consciousness, called black evil. These black evil spirits continuously absorb demonic vitality and devour other black evil spirits, causing their spiritual consciousness to become higher and higher. Finally, when it reaches a certain level and breaks through to the ten directions divine realm, it will become the Blackflame evil spirit."

"The Black Flame fiend has a very high status in the devil World. It can be considered to have an initial spiritual sense, similar to the true spirit of the devil World. However, even after breaking through to the tenth level, these Blackfire fiends continued to cultivate and devour other Blackfire fiends. In the end, they evolved to an extremely terrifying level. Only then did they possess intelligence that was not inferior to humans and were called demon lords."

"At the demon Lord's level, it's very rare for them to devour. Devouring the Blackflame fiend can only restore their strength, not increase it. Moreover, the demon Lord is only formed from countless black evil spirits and has no physical body. At this time, they need to forge their bodies, and this Rainbow Rough Stone seems to be a kind of stone that exists in the demon world for the demon Lord."

Lingmu Di's words had completely stunned Yunxiao. He did not expect the existence of Devils to be so complicated and difficult."Then what is the relationship between the demon Lord and the Demon King?"

a Devil Master is actually a devil monarch, " lingmu di said. it's just a devil monarch who has mastered the power of the devil World and become the Supreme Lord of a world. And the symbol of controlling the power of a world is the six paths demonic weapon. I believe you have seen it before."

Not only had Yunxiao seen it, but he had also used it before. It was indeed very useful, and it could kill people as easily as killing ants.

"I heard from di Jia that six paths demonic weapons are called heavenly Saint weapons," he said.

Lingmu Di's pupils contracted slightly. He nodded and said, "That's right. Do you know what a heavenly Saint tool is?"

When he saw Yunxiao's confused look, he smiled and said, "The so-called heavenly Saint tool is a Saint tool that was born when a world was born. It is an existence that is connected to the entire world. To put it bluntly, it is condensed from the power of the world. If the power of the heavenly Saint artifact is fully unleashed, you won't be able to fight against it unless you have the power to fight against an entire world."

Yunxiao's hands broke out in cold sweat as he heard that. the demon master is so powerful. How did the Lords seal and dismember him back then? "

Lingmu di heaved a long sigh, as if what had happened in the past had made him extremely sad. After a while, he said, "Not only does the devil realm have heavenly Saint tools, but the heavenly martial realm also has heavenly Saint tools. Your divine realm tablet is the heavenly Saint weapon of the heavenly martial realm."

"Ah?"

Yunxiao was dumbfounded. His mouth was wide open, and his mind was blank. but, but the power of the divine realm tablet and the demonic weapon of six paths are incomparable.

Lingmu di said, " that's because the divine realm tablet was damaged during the demon-sealing war. Moreover, the ten rules of heaven and earth were lost, which directly led to the decline of the power of the divine realm tablet. The power of the realm that can be exerted is limited to the ninth-order rules.

I still don't understand, " Yunxiao said. even if it's only a ninth-tier power of laws, it's far more powerful than it is now.

you've only repaired the damaged divine realm tablet, " Ling mudi said. but the artifact Spirit that can make the divine realm tablet exert its greatest power has long disappeared.

"Tool, tool spirit? This thing has an Artifact Spirit?"

what? " Yunxiao was dumbfounded. Where can I find an Artifact Spirit? "

Lingmu di shook his head. I don't know either. But since the divine realm tablet has reappeared and the devil master's seal has been broken, you will find the artifact Spirit one day.

Yunxiao fell silent. The information that mu lingdi had just said was too much for him to digest for a while.

there's something I don't understand. Why didn't you kill the demon monarch directly? why did you suppress him instead? "

"That's because the demon Lord Monarch itself is a passageway that connects the two worlds."

Lingmu di slowly revealed the answer that had troubled Yunxiao for years.

Chapter 1752-refining swords

a passageway between the two worlds?!

Yunxiao was shocked, and he immediately understood the key point. "This ... This is too ridiculous!"

"It's hard to accept, but that's the truth," lingmu di said seriously. If we had killed the demon master, the channel to the demon Realm would have been opened, and countless demon kings and demons would have descended. It would have been hard to imagine, and the entire realm of heavenly martial arts would have been destroyed."

"Gulp."

Yunxiao racked his brain, and cold sweat broke out all over his body.

"But even though the passage between the two worlds is in the body of the devil Lord and is suppressed separately, there is still a crack between the two worlds," lingmu di said with a sigh.

"A crack?"

Yunxiao instantly realized what was going on and said in surprise, "I understand. The tiandang mountains is where the crack is! When I obtained the Phoenix divine flame, I possessed the Phoenix and saw an ancient battle where the Phoenix defeated the Black Flame fiend!"

"Oh, there's such a thing?"

no wonder, " lingmu di said in surprise. as expected, there have been demon invasions since ancient times. The tiandang mountains was indeed a crack between the two worlds. Fortunately, only low level black demons could enter back then, and they were sealed by Lord Yan Shen. It seems that the cracks in the tiandang mountains are sometimes strong and sometimes weak."

there are no immortal state cultivators in the heavenly martial realm now, " Yunxiao said. if the passage to the demonic realm is opened, and countless demonic Lords descend, won't they be slaughtered by others? " more or less," lingmu di said. so the passage must not be opened, and the seal of the tiandang mountains must not be broken.

Yunxiao felt a headache coming on, and then he suddenly chuckled and said, "It's fine even after a hundred thousand years, so it'll definitely be fine after a few hundred years. After I die, I'll leave it to my descendants to solve it."

"Hehe, descendant?" Lingmu di gave a faint smile. you're the master of the divine realm tablet. Back then, all the devil seals were broken. Is this a coincidence? " Do you think it can be delayed for a few hundred years?"

even so," Yunxiao said. even if the sky falls, there are still tall people to hold it up. The Saints and the sea of soul formation will have to step up and take the blame, so it's not my place to worry."

"Haha, you have a good attitude," lingmu di said.

Yunxiao felt a wave of frustration wash over him as he said, "Then what do you think I should do?"

"Suppress all of the devil master's clones," lingmu di said without hesitation.

"Suppressed? How are we going to suppress it?"

Yunxiao rolled his eyes at him and said, " don't forget that I still have a large amount of devil essence on me. Besides, I have sealed the escape passage of devil Lord PU in my body. By the way, what's the relationship between this Emperor PU he?"

these two people are indeed interesting," Ling mudi said. back then, the demon master was known as the Emperor. He was invincible, and a large number of immortal State Warriors from the heavenly martial realm fell. Later, for some unknown reason, the Emperor stayed in the realm of heavenly martial arts for a long time and actually developed a trace of kindness. Gradually, his personality began to split, and finally, half of his body was separated from his body, which became PU."

Yunxiao? ” Yunxiao asked, ” Yingluo, is this possible? ”

“Don’t forget that the process of producing a demonic monarch is to continuously devour,” lingmu di said. Only one fiend Lord could be born from tens of thousands of fiends. I don’t know how many demon monarchs there are in the entire Demon Realm, but I’m sure there won’t be many.”

He continued, ” when PU was separated, the two of them had very distinct personalities. One was good, and the other was evil. They didn’t like each other. So, they fought in the realm of heavenly martial arts. At that time, everyone was so happy that they couldn’t wait for them to die together. However, the strength of the two was equal, and they fought for several years without a winner being determined. The entire realm of heavenly martial arts was destroyed. “Moreover, during this period of time, the good and evil thoughts of the two people were not so extreme, and they began to develop towards normal development.”

“Normal?” Yunxiao asked in confusion.

even the Emperor is not that evil, ” said lingmu di. the purest is not that kind. This way, there is no more obsession with opposing each other. As the fight went on, the two stopped. Later on, the two of them were defeated separately. Di was too evil and was dismembered to be suppressed. PU ze was sealed in the southern region. In order to seal mo PU, the entire southern region’s spiritual energy was sucked dry, which led to the current depletion of the southern region’s spiritual energy. It was the most powerful region among the four regions back then!”

so, I can’t go to the sealed land in the southern region? ” Yunxiao asked.

He had an agreement with Yu Shengfeng and had originally planned to go to the sealed land of the southern domain.

the seal can’t be touched, ” lingmu di said with a frown. but what I don’t understand is why your body would become a passage to the inside of the seal.

Yunxiao was also puzzled. Since he had obtained the bloodline of the Bo family, the ocean Emperor, the demon Lord had appeared in his body. He was afraid that the Bo family had a great connection with him.

let's not talk about this for now," lingmu di said. your top priority is to improve your strength. Even in the demon world, this Rainbow Rough Stone was a rare treasure. Once it appeared, it would cause a bloody storm, and countless demon lords would fight for it. Since you've cultivated mo skills, you can make good use of them."

the demonic nature of the rainbow stone is too strong," Yunxiao said in surprise. even your Excellency has been affected and can't control it, so how can I? "

that's because the rainbow stones that you and I have come into contact with are not pure," said lingmu di with a smile. they've long been contaminated by the devil Lord. This is a pure raw stone, so you can use it without worry." He handed the raw stone over.

Yunxiao took it and weighed it in his hand, then said, "How do I use it? I can't possibly use it to smash people, right?"

"You can refine it into a weapon that you can use," the lingmu di said."Its hardness is even comparable to divine steel. As for the ice fiend Heart Flame contained within it, as well as the terrifying power after devil essence is poured into it, there's no need for me to mention it. "

Yunxiao was taken aback for a moment, and then he was overjoyed.

refining this thing requires devil essence," said lingmu di. you can try.

"Alright," he said.

Yunxiao nodded. Ignoring the fact that he was still trapped in the array, he began to refine the stone with his fiend energy. He was a peak-level Alchemist, so it was not difficult for him to make swords.

When the demonic Qi was poured into the stone, a power that made one's heart tremble was transmitted out. Under his gaze, there was a faint white heart Flame beating inside the stone.

Lingmu di looked on quietly from the side, his face had returned to its usual calm expression.

He told her everything about the demon world, as if he had passed on a responsibility from 100000 years ago to the present. The corners of his mouth could not help but raise slightly.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, was focused on tempering the sword. The rainbow stone seemed to be quite spiritual. When he poured his fiend energy into it, an extremely clear feeling emerged in his heart, as if he had been mentally refined.

Three days later, a long sword was flying in the air. A small white flower was printed on the body of the sword. The heart Flame was faintly visible outside the sword, and the space within a few miles was shrouded in a heart-palpitating heat.

Yunxiao performed an incantation gesture with both hands in front of him. His golden skin was covered with pitch-black demonic patterns, which spread from his forehead to his heels. His eyes had also turned pure black, and circles of magatama appeared around them.

He raised his hand and clenched his fist.

The rainbow Demon Sword spun in the air several times and then fell directly into his palm.

Yunxiao looked down and saw a little white flower in his palm. As the demonic patterns on his body receded, the little white flower gradually turned transparent and disappeared.

“How is it?” asked lingmu di hurriedly.

yes! Yunxiao nodded. that’s right.

The two of them looked at each other and smiled. Their figures gradually faded and suddenly appeared outside the divine realm tablet, in the array of the chaotic golden flag.

The Golden Wave outside the great sorrow sunset Cloud Mirror was already surging violently, but it was still within a bearable range. The mirror’s endurance seemed to be above Yunxiao’s expectation.

“How long do we have to wait?” che you asked. In my opinion, we should act now. With our combined strength, there’s no formation in this world that we can’t break.”

Yunxiao looked at lingmu di, as if asking for his opinion.

let’s do it, ” Ling mudi said. the great sorrow sunset Cloud Mirror is an unparalleled treasure. God knows how long it will take for it to reach its limit.

alright! Yunxiao nodded. then, let’s follow our previous arrangement and attack together.

Everyone stood up in high spirits. They had been waiting here for several days and were already impatient.

His aura burst out, forming streams of earth energy that shook outwards. The entire space was extremely unstable.

They weren’t the only ones getting impatient. Yin Hui and the others outside were also getting impatient.

the ripples around the Golden flag grew more and more rapid, showing no signs of disappearing.

Moreover, Yin Hui and Jing Qi were both extraordinary Saints and had a high understanding of the heavenly Dao. They always had a bad feeling lingering in their hearts.

Jing Qi finally couldn’t help but say, ” I don’t want to wait any longer. Yin Hui, why don’t you and I work together to break this golden flag? then we can drag li Yunxiao out and kill him!

“You’re crazy!”

what? ” RUO long jumped in shock and said anxiously, ” if you guys help, you’ll save his life!

“I didn’t believe that this stupid flag could kill him,” Jing Qi sneered. However, seeing that you all seemed to be telling the truth, I decided to give it a try, but it’s obviously impossible now.”

RUO long sneered,”no?” For as long as this Lord can remember, no one has ever escaped from this flag. If you don’t believe it, then why did you come to us? I won’t let you touch this flag!”

Killing intent shot out from Jing Qi’s eyes, causing runtong and the others to take a few steps back in fear. They said furiously, ” “What do you want to do?”

“You can’t do whatever you want,” Jing Qi sneered.

He rose into the air, and his thin, young face became ferocious. Livor mortis began to appear on his body.

stop! Yin Hui suddenly shouted. look down! Something’s changing!

Everyone hurriedly looked down. The ripples around the Golden flag of chaos were already unusually intense, and now they were boiling. The golden light waves not only surged along the sea, but also shook up into the sky!

RUO Long’s expression changed drastically. She had never encountered such a situation before. She exclaimed,”W-what’s going on?”

The chaos golden flag suddenly emitted an intense golden light, and the body of the flag trembled violently. With a boom, the entire sea exploded!

Chapter 1753

1753 The battle of the heaven Alliance (1)

The boundless golden light was like a broken dam.

The terrifying power spread out in all directions, and the seawater within a radius of several kilometers was instantly evaporated. The entire world was enveloped in a golden light, as if the sun had exploded.

“Boom boom boom!”

The dozens of powerhouses in the sky bore the brunt of the attack. A few of the powerhouses who had just stepped into the high-level martial Supreme realm were instantly turned into ashes.

Leap sect also did not manage to Dodge in time and was sent flying several thousand feet away.

Half of his scales had fallen off, and his body was a bloody mess. His eyes were filled with fear.

The two guards behind RUO long evaporated on the spot, and even the Giant Killer whale in the sea was crushed by the golden light. Its blood evaporated directly, and countless broken bones and flesh flew everywhere.

“What’s going on? What’s happening?”

RUO long cried out in fear. The golden light was so dazzling that he couldn’t open his eyes and couldn’t see the scene inside.

Hmph! What else can it be? as expected, that Broken Flag can’t suppress li Yunxiao.

Jing Qi’s cold voice was heard. your mission is over. You can get lost. We still have to do it.

The shock in RUO Long’s heart was even greater than the golden light. She wouldn’t believe that someone could break the Golden flag of chaos, but the explosion in front of her eyes was real.

The golden light gradually dispersed, and through the glaring light, RUO long could vaguely see a row of people standing in the air above the sea.

Each of them had a mocking expression on their faces as they crossed their arms in front of their chests, looking disdainful and mocking.

It wasn't just runtong, even Jing Qi and the others were shocked. He knew that these people were the experts of Yunxiao's Saint artifact.

Jing Qi's pupils shrank and he stared at che you with coldness.

In the 81 formations in the cloud layer, it was this person who had held him back, allowing him to rank fourth.

His expression turned a little unsightly. Most of the people in front of him were peak nine-star experts, and the remaining few were high-level martial sovereigns.

Yin Hui's expression was also grave. Fortunately, they had the advantage in numbers. Regardless of whether it was divine transcendence, peak martial sovereigns, or high-level martial sovereigns, they had the advantage in numbers.

"?! Master, who did you offend?"

Yunxiao summoned his two disciples as well. In the divine realm tablet, they were constantly tempered with heavenly materials and earthly treasures and all kinds of harsh environments. At this moment, both of them had stepped into the cultivation base of high-level martial sovereigns.

Young Emperor hao lian thought that he would be able to show off his skills when he came out. However, his face turned green when he saw them. Other than the few seven-stars martial sovereigns he was talking about, the aura and might of these forty-odd people were all above his.

Mo Xiaochuan was slightly stronger than haolian shaohuang, but he was only a mid-stage eight-star Martial Emperor. He was also shocked.

When he looked at the people around him, he was even more shocked. He didn't know when his master had recruited so many powerful companions.

The two of them looked at each other. Other than a bitter smile, they felt a sense of urgency in their hearts.

No wonder they hadn't seen their master summon them for a long time. It turned out that the difference in strength was too great. Shame flashed in their eyes.

Naturally, Yunxiao could see their embarrassment. He smiled and said, " don't belittle yourself. As long as you persevere and move forward, you'll be able to climb to the peak of this sky sooner or later.

"Yes, I will follow master's instructions." The two of them hurriedly saluted and humbly responded.

"Your disciple?" lingmu di asked. His talent isn't good, and it's already very good that he's been able to walk this far. However, he still has a lot of potential in the future."

Shaohuang haolian raised his head and looked at lingmu di. Not only could he not see through the other party's strength, but he also could not see through the other party's age. He only felt that the other party was unusually young.

if there's a chance, " Yunxiao said, " I hope Lord mu di can give them some guidance.

"You're enough," lingmu di said with a smile. "If there's a chance, I will," he added.

thank Lord mu di! Yunxiao was overjoyed. hurry up and thank Lord mu di!

Both mo Xiaochuan and haolian shaohuang looked gloomy, and they did not know who the man in front of them was. But, they did not dare to disobey Yunxiao's words, so they quickly bowed and said, " Many thanks, Lord mu di."

They talked and laughed at ease, completely unconcerned about the crisis in front of them. This made Yin Hui, Jing Qi, and the others 'faces turn uglier and uglier, and their anger kept rising.

it's really a dream to have a Saint artifact," Yin Hui said in the air. you actually have so many experts hidden around you. But these are all your cards, right?"

yes or no," Yunxiao said with a smile. that's not the main point of the topic. The main point is that I think they're enough to deal with the current situation."

His words were flawless, making Yin Hui extremely uneasy and uncomfortable.

Although they had the advantage in numbers, if they were to really fight, it would definitely be earth-shattering, and it would probably be the most powerful battle that the secluded sects had faced in thousands of years.

If the other party only had these people, they could still win in the end even if they suffered some heavy casualties.

However, if these people were only the vanguard, then ...

He didn't even dare to imagine what would happen next. If another group of such experts arrived at the end of the battle, not only would they be completely annihilated, but the other party would also go to the sect in anger and the sect would probably be annihilated as well.

don't worry too much," Jing Qi said. these people are most likely all they have. There aren't many experts in the entire realm of heavenly martial arts, and it's already a miracle that these people have gathered here. It's impossible for there to be more hidden experts."

Yunxiao smiled. Although Jing Qi was right, as long as he did not make a statement, the other party would always have a grudge and fear.

At this moment, only Ye Fan, Yuan gaohan, Duan Yue, Yue jiulin, Ding Ling 'er, and Xiao Wu, who was the incarnation of the Kunwu Divine Tree, were left in the divine realm tablet.

Duan Yue and Yue Jiulin had just broken through to the initial-stage Martial Emperor realm, and they were vulnerable here. Ye Fan had been in closed cultivation for a long time, there was no movement from him. Ding Ling'er's strength was also slightly weaker, and she had not yet recovered from the grief.

Although Yuan Gaohan's spiritual attacks were extremely powerful, his own strength and defense were extremely weak, so he didn't want him to take the risk. The remaining Lil' Wu could only be treated as a pet and had no combat power at all.

It could be said that all of Yunxiao's helpers had been revealed, and the life-and-death battle was about to begin.

Although he had a frivolous expression on his face, he was extremely vigilant in his heart. In addition to the enemies in front of him, there was also the extremely powerful and unknown "heavenly being." He did not know where he was or if he would make a move.

The heaven experts wanted something from him to set up the nine Heavens ten earths formation and almost all of the heaven Alliance's forces were deployed. They would most likely be in the vicinity and would definitely attack if the situation was not right.

This was what he was most worried about. Although the people in front of him had the advantage in numbers, his side could still deal with them.

"That's probably the case. It's a pity that Mu Zhuang has a close relationship with this person. Otherwise, it would be foolproof if the MU family sent more people here," Yin Hui said.

"Kill!" Jing Qi shouted impatiently.

Immediately, the people of the sky Alliance took out their profound level weapons and cautiously pressed forward.

water fairy! Yunxiao called. water fairy!

The water deity immediately understood and quickly formed a hand seal. A golden light appeared on her body and she began to summon the deep-sea Giant beast.

RUO long and RUO Zong were stunned from afar. They looked at water deity with confusion in their eyes.

Leap sect's body, which was covered in wounds, suddenly trembled, and he said in shock, "Princess, she is the princess!"

RUO long also came to her senses. She had also seen a water fairy before, but she couldn't recall it at that moment. She immediately exclaimed, "The princess of the four Seas!"

Yin Hui turned his head slightly and frowned, "What do you mean?"

"That woman is the princess of the four Seas, the daughter of the ocean Emperor. You must not hurt her!" RUO long hurriedly said.

The people of the heaven Alliance looked at water fairy in shock.

Yin Hui was also stunned for a moment before saying, "Don't hurt the girl, kill the rest!"

just based on what you said today, " Yunxiao said coldly. I'll definitely destroy the bi Luo sect!

The coldness on his body followed the gaze and Yin Hui couldn't help but tremble and feel a chill.

Yin Hong's face was unusually serious. He knew that it was a life-or-death situation, and if he could not kill Yunxiao, he would be in big trouble. His eyes darkened, and the cold killing intent in them seemed to be tangible and extremely firm.

old dragon," Yunxiao said. I'll leave Jing Qi to you. Sir beiming Nan, I'll leave Yin Hui to you. Can you delay him for an hour?"

"Don't worry," said bei Xiaonan.

good," Yunxiao said. let the heaven patrolling Bulldog help you. The rest of you, follow me and clear out those minions."

Everyone's heart trembled, and their blood boiled.

More than forty high-level martial sovereigns, twelve of whom were peak martial sovereigns, were just minions in Yunxiao's eyes. He could not help but feel proud.

At this moment, in the distant sky, following the summoning of the water deity, huge black shadows appeared continuously. One by one, the deep-sea Giant beasts crossed over.

w-what's that?!

Everyone's heart trembled as they looked over in horror. There were actually more than a dozen deep-sea Giant beasts making strange "Gulu Gulu" sounds.

RUO long and RUO Zong were dumbfounded. Their mouths were wide open, and cold sweat dripped from their temples.

"Kill the sea Emperor's daughter as well!" Jing Qi's face darkened as he shouted.

His figure flashed and he flew over, wanting to kill the water deity.

“I dare not!”

RUO long let out a surprised roar. Her eyes were filled with anger as she transformed into a half-dragon body. It was extremely black as it bared its fangs and brandished its claws in the air.

However, he was not strong enough, and he was far away, so he could not save her in time.

The uncle and nephew were both shocked and furious. If the princess of the four Seas was injured under their eyes, the responsibility was too great.

The two also thought of how they had trapped Yunxiao in the Golden flag of chaos. Fortunately, the broken Flag had escaped, or the consequences would have been unimaginable.

“Swish!”

The moment Jing Qi moved, Che You's figure also disappeared. He slashed his sword and split the sea and the sky.

A figure flashed beside the crack, and Jing Qi appeared. He stared at Che You murderously and said, “that's good. We can settle all the scores from before!”

Che You chuckled, “I was just playing with you before, this time I'll send you to the West!” He held the sword with both hands and struck down in a triangular sword stance.

“Swish!”

The two huge sword forces intertwined in the air like an autumn wind blowing over the water surface, sweeping across the earth as if they were going to wipe out the dozens of people in front of them!

Chapter 1754

1754 The battle of the heaven Alliance (2)

“So strong!”

Jing Qi’s heart sank. Just like what Che You had said, when they were in the cloud formation, the other party did not attack seriously. He only kept interfering and disturbing Jing Qi, not allowing him to break the formation.

Now that the two swords had been slashed out, he clearly understood that this person’s strength was not below his.

He didn’t dare to resist the power of the huge sword energy. His figure took a few steps on the surface of the sea and actually fled several miles away. He then roared and turned into a zombie, slapping down with the sharp blades in his hands.

“BOOM!”

His hands shook on the spine of the sword, and the light of the sword burst out from Jing Qi’s body and rushed into the sky.

Jing Qi kept roaring in the sword energy. All the white hair on his body stood up, and his eyes were about to pop out.

A golden light appeared behind him, and a golden coffin rose up. A ray of light shot out from the coffin and appeared in front of Che You in an instant.

It was the divine fiend corpse puppet. Its face was delicate and pretty, and it looked more like a human than Jing Qi.

Che You also roared as he turned into a Dragon and swept his tail over.

“Bang!”

When the dragon tail hit the palms of the other party, he felt his tail go numb and the huge force collapsed. His body was directly blown away and he slid a few thousand feet in the air before he stopped.

“So strong!”

His heart trembled, and he became extremely vigilant. The power of this fiendish God corpse puppet was far above that of Jing Qi!

On the other side, Beifeng Nan also made his move. He and the heaven-patrolling bull attacked Yin Hong from the left and right.

The two's characteristics were one steady and one floating, one slow and one fast. They were two completely different styles, but they were both powerful and each move was not sloppy.

Moreover, they seemed to have a tacit understanding with each other, and their attacks were continuous, making up for each other's losses.

Yin Hui was actually forced back by several moves, and his heart was filled with shock.

In the distance, the people of the sky Alliance saw that the two sect Masters had made their move, and they also approached with killing intent.

With their numbers and strength, it was enough to crush them like a chariot.

The crowd was about to make a move, but Yunxiao stopped them. Everyone was taken aback and could not help but look at him.

Half of Yunxiao's face had turned ferocious, covered in meridians, and his eyes were bloodshot, looking extremely terrifying.

Under the gaze of that pair of eyes, the heavens and earth changed, even time and space.

The expressions of the 40-odd people changed drastically. They could not see the sea or the sky at all. They were actually in a Starry Night without any light. Even his companions had disappeared. He was the only one left in the endless darkness of the universe.

Everyone was on high alert, knowing that they had fallen into an illusion.

Suddenly, a faint light lit up in the dark night. It was actually a star, flickering with a faint light and becoming stronger and stronger.

“That’s Yingluo.”

The scene that everyone saw was the same, and one after another, their expressions changed. The Starlight wasn’t getting stronger and stronger, but because the stars were falling, getting closer and closer to them!

Although everyone was nervous, they did not panic. Instead, they carefully attacked.

In the eyes of Lingmu Di and the others, more than forty people stopped in the air for a moment, and then Yunxiao threw the Tusita peak at them. At the same time, they attacked, and a brilliant light rushed up as all kinds of powerful moves were thrown out, shaking the sky and the sea.

Lingmu Di’s eyes were also shining. He knew the power of the Tusita peak.

“BOOM!”

The Tusita heavenly peak finally fell into the 40-odd attacks, and a terrifying force was released. It was like a volcanic eruption or a meteorite falling into the ground. The entire space collapsed towards that point.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!”

At the bottom of Tusita heavenly peak, a large number of light rays were constantly being blown away. They were all martial artists who were spitting out large mouthfuls of blood and were instantly seriously injured.

There were even a few people who did not even have the luck to be sent flying right below the Tusita heavenly peak. Their entire bodies exploded with crackling sounds, turning into dust.

wow, wow, that’s so satisfying! One smash and a piece!

The evil spirit shouted happily and clapped his hands, ” “Again, again! It’s satisfying to watch!”

The members of the heaven Alliance turned pale and were terrified. The battle had not even started, but their own people were either injured or dead. How could they fight?

Yunxiao summoned Tusita heavenly peak back with an incantation gesture. His face was pale as he exhaled and said, ” “Let’s go!”

An illusion technique that trapped so many experts had almost exhausted his essence, Qi, and spirit. At this moment, his head was a little dizzy, but the results were also very gratifying.

The evil spirit and the others rushed forward instantly. There were humans, demons, beasts, and puppets. All of them looked ferocious. Their auras exploded and shook the world. It was the complete opposite of the heaven Alliance’s defeat.

The people of the sky Alliance were all terrified. They felt a chill in their hearts. Their powerful formation had been defeated by someone else in one blow. Now, their momentum was rising and falling.

Someone actually wanted to escape.

“Don’t be afraid! We still have the absolute advantage!”

A peak nine-star expert from the heaven Alliance roared, and everyone’s momentum immediately recovered. Although there weren’t many battles in the hidden sects, those who could cultivate to this level were all people with excellent talent and determination.

Someone raised his arm and shouted. He immediately calmed down and went up to the crowd.

The DarkThunder was at the forefront. All of its golden fur stood on end as it transformed into a bolt of golden lightning that swept forth like a dark cloud.

“Spirit beasts of the five elements?”

A purple-robed elder cried out in alarm. His sword-like eyebrows shot up, and a huge sword energy condensed in his hands and shot into the sky.

“Chi la!”

The entire sky and the lightning were split in half, and the power of the sword energy didn’t reduce as it slashed into the crowd.

“Scatter!”

go! the Minister shouted, and countless golden lights emerged from his body. His figure disappeared into the sword force in a flash, and he rushed forward.

The power of the sword energy was extremely strong. After several figures rushed out, there were still a few people who could not Dodge in time.

Mo Xiaochuan, shaohuang haolian, and the transformation cultivator all turned pale. The power of that sword had sealed off the entire world. With their cultivation, there was no way they could have escaped.

A burly figure took a step forward. The gourd Little King Kong roared, and its metal body expanded a little. It suddenly punched out.

“Bang!”

A loud metallic sound rang out, and the sword force shattered instantly, turning into a powerful sea of sword Qi that swept across the land.

The calabash Little King Kong was knocked back several hundred feet, and circles of sword patterns were still shooting out of its raised fist in the air.

Mo Xiaochuan and the others managed to survive the attack. Their faces turned pale as they split up and charged at the enemies who were of similar strength to them.

At the same time, black lights flew down from the sky and entered the battle.

“Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!”

The deep-sea Giant beasts had locked onto all the people of the heaven Alliance through the water fairy’s senses. Every black light was extremely accurate, and a few weaker martial artists were directly hit and shattered into pieces.

With the addition of more than ten deep-sea monsters, the balance was immediately tilted. Although they were still at a disadvantage in terms of numbers, their high-end combat power had reversed the situation.

Although the deep-sea Giant beasts 'attacks were slow and each move took a long time to prepare, they were powerful. The most terrible thing was that these giant beasts were far above the sea and the people of the heaven Alliance could not hit them at all. They could only Dodge.

The entire sky was in a mess. Thousands of sword Qi and fist lights shot out, and there were also black lights that burst into the sky. Circles of spiritual pressure surged in all directions. The seawater within hundreds of miles was evaporated, and all the Marine races were crushed.

Yunxiao sat cross-legged above the sea and the sky, observing the battle while regulating his breath.

With the help of more than ten deep-sea monsters, his people were safe. As long as they could hold on for a while, the balance would be in their favor.

The battle between peak-stage martial sovereigns was earth-shattering. Although they were at a disadvantage in terms of numbers and looked like they were being abused, it was fortunate that the gourd little guardian deity, the officials, the evil spirit, and the DarkThunder were all very durable. Their defenses were several times stronger than their opponents, and some of them were even impossible to kill.

The members of the heaven Alliance below the peak Martial Emperor realm were killed one by one, especially the martial artists below the nine-star Martial Emperor realm. Three realm-breaking Black lights were their limit. Most of them were killed by the second attack.

“Eh?”

Lingmu di suddenly exclaimed in surprise. He stared at the sword in mo Xiaochuan's hand and said, “Tiangang devil-rinsing? He is actually a descendant of Mo Jing Zhou?”

mo? ” Yunxiao's heart trembled. my disciple's surname is mo.

no wonder, ” lingmu di said. only the blood of the mo family can drive this Tiangang demon-destroying sword. However, I can see that his strength is insufficient, and he can't unleash the full power of the sword.”

my Lord, ” Yunxiao said. are you referring to the spirit of the sword, the half-broken soul of the true spirit swallowing the sky? ”

“Half a remnant soul? Had the soul of the true spirit Devouring The Heavens also been scattered? Back then, it was a complete sky-devouring soul. This sword was famous back then.” Lingmu di said.

Yunxiao pondered for a moment, then told him about the sword, including how mo Xiaochuan had produced the heaven-devouring sword spirit after he was possessed by the man in the sword.

if that’s the case, ” lingmu di muttered, ” the person attached to this sword is most likely your disciple’s ancestor. I wonder if it’s Mo Jing Zhou.

Yunxiao hurriedly called mo Xiaochuan back. In any case, it did not make much of a difference whether he was there or not in this chaotic battle. show your sword to Lord mu di.

Mo Xiaochuan looked puzzled, but he still handed the sword over with both hands.

Lingmu di took the sword and examined it carefully. it’s indeed Tiangang demon-slaying sword. This sword was forged by several alchemy Masters for demon-slaying, and hundreds of precious raw materials have long gone extinct.

He cast several incantation seals on the sword in succession. The sword suddenly became bright, and runes popped out from it.

Mo Xiaochuan was so shocked that his eyes almost popped out of their sockets. He was shocked that not only was Ling mudi familiar with the origin of this sword, but he was also able to easily stimulate the will of the sword. This was not something that he could easily do even when he used himself as the sword sheath to nurture the sword.

no wonder master is so respectful to this person. It seems that this person does have a background. Mo Xiaochuan thought to himself.

After the circles of runes surged on the Tiangang demon-slaying sword, a faintly visible human figure slowly appeared.

Chapter 1755

1755 The battle of the heaven Alliance (3)

Mo Xiaochuan's bell-like eyes widened even more. Even if he wanted to contact the old man of swords, he had no way of doing so. He did not expect that lingmu di would be able to get him out so easily.

The figure on the sword seemed a little impatient and said, "What is it?"

Mo Xiaochuan replied awkwardly, "s-senior, please do not do that."

The figure seemed to be drowsy. He opened his eyes and was stunned. After staring at the lingmu flute for a while, he suddenly trembled and cried out, "you, you, you, you are, you are, you are, you are, you are, you are, the King of the North, Lord mu di!!

Lingmu di laughed. haha, it's Mo Jing Zhou indeed. You're not dead yet either.

The remnant soul was stunned for a moment. It looked at mo Xiaochuan, then at Yunxiao, and then said, "My, my Lord, how could you not have died?"

Mo Xiaochuan's body trembled. He was all too familiar with the name Mo Jing Zhou. He was the name of the first generation ancestor of the mo clan in black iron City, and his name was placed at the top of the ancestral shrine tablet.

What shocked him even more was that even an ancestor like him was so respectful to this person.

"It's a long story," Ling mudi said, "I'm really emotional to be able to see the person from back then. I can see that your soul power is dim and erratic. I'm afraid you can't hold on for long."

The remnant soul glanced at mo Xiaochuan and smiled bitterly. "Fortunately, there's finally someone in the mo family who can inherit this sword."

“I’ve recently learned a set of soul-refining techniques,” Ling mudi said. “It might be useful to you.”

“Daren’s soul refining technique must be extremely brilliant,” Mo Jing Zhou said in surprise.

“I’m afraid you can’t leave the sword in your current state,” said lingmu di. “I’ll find a way to get you out after the battle.”

Mo Jing Zhou was pleasantly surprised as he said, “Thank you, my Lord.”

Mo Jing Zhou was so excited that he found it hard to support himself. He had thought that he was the only one left after 100000 years and did not want to see his old comrades. Furthermore, he could extend his remnant soul and escape the restraints of the Tiangang demon-shaking sword. For a moment, he was at a loss and floated around the sword.

“killing enemies now,” laughed lingmu di. “if you have extra energy, kill a few more.”

“Yes, yes, my Lord!”

Mo Jing Zhou was extremely excited and his eyes flashed with a glint as he said, “Xiaochuan, open up your spiritual altar and sea of consciousness. Let me control your body.”

Mo Xiaochuan hurriedly did as he was told. This old man had been waking up from time to time to give him pointers on his martial arts cultivation. They were both teacher and friend to begin with, but now that he knew that he was his ancestor, he did not dare to disobey him.

The moment Mo Jing Zhou entered his body, mo Xiaochuan’s entire aura underwent a tremendous change.

haha, I haven’t been this happy for a long time. This time, I must kill to my heart’s content!

mo Xiaochuan ” laughed heartily. He gripped the Tiangang devil-rinsing sword in his right hand, and a vast and mighty force immediately gushed out.

His eyes turned and he said in surprise, ” “It’s beiming Nan! And Lord, your Green Bull!”

Hot blood coursed through his body, and he could not help but tear up.’Mo Xiaochuan’ wiped his tears away, laughed wildly, and charged into the battle.

A terrifying aura rose from the sword and turned into a giant beast in the sky.

The more the sky Alliance fought, the more frightened they became. They had been fighting for a long time and were constantly anxious. Now, there was a madman. What was even more frightening was the sword power. It was vast and mighty, like an ancient fierce beast descending. It made them shudder.

Many members of the sky Alliance peeked into the distance anxiously. Although the two divine transcendence sect Masters had a slight advantage, they were completely entangled and could not separate at all.

Beifeng Nan and Yin Hui were fighting with their swords. Their figures were almost unrecognizable, and only the shadows of their swords could be seen shooting out. Even the sky-patrolling bull couldn’t interfere. It could only step on the ground and form a green net, which radiated out and affected Yin Hui to a certain extent.

The more Yin Hui fought, the more shocked he became. Although his opponent’s power was suppressed by him, under the sky full of sword Qi, his opponent’s body had already been slashed hundreds of times. He was covered in wounds, but he didn’t die.

Even though his face had been pierced by a sword and there was not a single drop of blood, his fighting spirit did not diminish and he continued to slash out sword after sword.

What made him even more shocked was that under bei Xiaonan’s sword light, there was a beautiful green light every time, it was very beautiful.

However, the intuition of a martial artist made him feel a burst of fear. He only felt that the green light was more dangerous than the sword Qi, so he did not dare to touch it rashly.

Moreover, although the heaven-patrolling bull seemed to be roaring stupidly by the side, it had actually affected him greatly. Every time it was about to unleash its full power to kill beifeng Nan, the bull would rush up. Both of them had almost undying bodies, and they were also afraid of the green light. After thousands of moves, they became stuck in a stalemate.

On the other side, che you wasn't so lucky. He was forced into a corner by Jing Qi and the fiendish God corpse puppet and became weaker and weaker as they fought.

If not for the strength of his true dragon celestial body, he would have been killed long ago. Even so, the Dragon scales on his body began to show spots of livor mortis and expanded.

"I'll fight it out with you two zombies!"

Che you only felt extremely aggrieved. In his anger, he slashed out thousand fold peak and non-falling dust. The two boundless sword essences were pushed out.

Jing Qi and the fiendish God corpse puppet both retreated. Under the power of the two swords, even the two of them did not dare to resist.

However, after che you's dual swords were slashed out, his momentum immediately weakened and he gasped for breath. Even the poison on his dragon scales could no longer be suppressed and started to spread faster.

please stay back, my Lord, " Yunxiao said in a hurry. I'll go and give me a hand.

no, " lingmu di said. you should stay back. I'll go help him.

Yunxiao was taken aback for a moment, and then his eyes flickered with surprise. After all, with lingmu Di's status, he was rarely willing to fight.

“You’re the commander,” lingmu di said with a smile.

In a flash, he rushed into the battle and appeared directly behind the divine fiend corpse puppet. He struck out with his palm.

Under the palm, a Nebula appeared. The stars were like an endless starry sky.

The divine fiend corpse puppet hurriedly turned around and spat out a ball of white gas. It also struck out with its palms.

“Bang!”

The two palm forces trembled, and the two were forced back by each other. The White poisonous gas also spread out and covered the lingmu flute.

However, it was all in vain. Lingmu di walked out of the White smoke, his body covered in livor mortis. He flicked his finger lightly on his body, and the livor mortis disappeared.

Jing Qi’s expression changed drastically, and he looked extremely shocked. The fiendish God corpse puppet didn’t have much spiritual sense, but its pupils also shrank.

Apart from Yunxiao’s fiend energy, he had never seen anyone who could contend with jusha xuanyu.

Even Yunxiao could only compete with Jing Qi’s secondary poison guidance, while the divine fiend corpse puppet was a pure poison of five major extinctions.

Che you’s dragon scales were tenth level true spirit items, but they had already been corroded by the dove sand profound feathers to the point that they were unrecognizable. Yet, this person in front of him had flicked them off like dust!

“Who are you?” Jing Qi asked in horror.

Lingmu di laughed but didn't say anything. Once again, he struck his palm toward the fiendish God corpse puppet.

“Bang!”

The two of them exchanged another palm strike and were both jolted away at the same time. They seemed to be evenly matched. Lingmu Di's body was once again stained with livor mortis, but he still flicked away with a chuckle.

Jing Qi was horrified. He knew that this was not a coincidence, but that jusha xuanyu really couldn't do anything to him. He took a look at che you in the distance, and his face darkened as he attacked the lingmu flute.

Che you's eyes narrowed slightly, and he was about to attack again with his swords when he heard Yunxiao's voice transmission, “you're already poisoned. Come back and suppress the poison. Otherwise, you'll be in big trouble.

He pondered for a while and saw that lingmu di was also being beaten by the two. But his body was so hard that Jing Qi couldn't break it no matter how hard he attacked.

With a light snort, he put away the swords and flew back to Yunxiao's side, then sat down cross-legged and began to heal his wounds.

“How is it?” Yunxiao asked with concern.

they're all on the Dragon scales,” che you said, “I didn't expect the poison to be so strong. These scales are the secret treasures of the Dragon race, passed down from the ten directions divine realm's dragon race.

that's the five major poisons of extinction,” Yunxiao said. even an immortal state warrior will die if he touches it. You must be careful not to get it into your body.”

don't worry, "che you said, " my Dragon Breath is no weaker than your mana. It's not hard to remove the poison, it just needs a lot of time. Alas, it's a pity that we didn't find the Dragon Crystal in the secret treasure. Otherwise, I could have recovered instantly and killed those two zombies!"

Yunxiao's brows furrowed slightly as he said, "Don't talk anymore, just recuperate in peace."

His eyes were fixed on the battlefield the whole time. Lingmu Di's strength was not much different from che you's, but he relied on his comprehension of the divine path and his immortal body. Although he was also being beaten, he still managed to hold back Jing Qi and the divine fiend corpse puppet easily.

Most of the heaven Alliance members felt like they were about to break down. They did not know what kind of enemy they had encountered, and the shadow in their hearts could not be calculated.

Lingmu di, beifeng Nan, sky-patrolling bull, crocodile, evil spirit, DarkThunder, Calabash little Vajra, these were all unkillable bi 'an.

Yunxiao glanced at the huge existences standing in the clouds in the distance.

The key to victory and defeat in this battle was these deep-sea Giant beasts. The world breaking Black light that they spat out into the battle circle constantly tilted the balance.

The water deity sat cross-legged in the air, her hands forming a seal as her body glowed with golden light.

She was only acting as a bridge to lock onto the heaven Alliance members so that the deep-sea Giant beast's attack would not miss.

RUO long and her nephew were already dumbfounded, their bodies covered in cold sweat.

Such an unprecedented battle involved so many powerful experts that it was unheard of. The two of them did not dare to get close to the battle circle to avoid being caught up in it.

Although Yunxiao did not move, his divine sense had covered the entire battlefield, because the chief conspirator of the entire battle, the celestial, had not appeared yet!

It was impossible for him not to come when a heaven expert had set up such a formation to kill him.

Suddenly, his divine sense moved and he turned his head back. He saw that a person had silently appeared beside water deity.

That person was wearing a hundred-flower butterfly dress. She had a delicate face and a cute image. It was Xiao Hong. No one knew when she had appeared beside water deity. The water deity was still forming hand seals with both hands, but she did not notice!

Chapter 1756

1756 The battle of the heaven Alliance (4)

Yunxiao trembled and cried out in surprise, " little red, what are you doing?!"

This stern shout immediately jolted the water deity out of her meditative state.

"Big brother, I can't let her summon those monsters. Otherwise, everyone will die," Xiaohong said. She raised her hand and clenched it into a fist. White light flickered on it.

Yunxiao was shocked. The white light was the light of the ice fiend Heart Flame. His heart suddenly sank as he said anxiously, " "Xiao Hong, stop! The people from the Jade drop sect are all bad people. After big brother kills them, Xiao Hong will leave with big brother!"

Xiao Hong shook her head. the sect master is not a bad person. This woman is. She summoned a monster to kill the people of the bi Luo sect. I'm going to kill her!

"Stop!"

Yunxiao was horrified, and he hurriedly teleported away.

However, Xiao Hong's fist was even faster.

Water deity was unconvinced and said angrily, " "You wretched girl, you dare to say you want to kill me? this Princess should be the one killing you!"

Her body glowed with a golden light, and the sea god set immediately appeared on her body. She grabbed the Golden greatsword and slashed down!

The eight distresses sword essence was vast and countless golden sword talismans flew up.

Life, old age, illness, death, meeting of resentment, separation of love, unable to get what you want, the accumulation of the five.

"BOOM!"

The sword essence condensed into a sword aura and fiercely slashed at the white light on Xiao Hong's fist. It stagnated for a moment before suddenly exploding!

"Bang!"

The boundless sword energy turned into sword Qi and shot in all directions. It was like a broken ball, deflating.

The water deity was shocked and her body trembled. A sense of danger emerged in her heart.

However, it was too late. Xiao Hong's tender fist had already come down, and a small white flower bloomed in front of him.

“BOOM!”

The golden light that filled the sky was swallowed by the white light. A huge flower was transparent and flawless like a crystal.

A streak of golden blood sprayed out from the sky. The water deity, who was wearing a white dress, fell into the distance like a withered flower.

Yunxiao teleported into the air and hurriedly chased after her, pulling her into his arms.

Her breathing was extremely weak, and a Golden Lotus flower flickered on her forehead.

It was the Lotus seat of Buddha that automatically protected its master. Otherwise, he would have died from the attack just now.

Yunxiao was both shocked and angry. He hurriedly put the water fairy back into the divine realm tablet. As long as she was still alive, she could probably recover with the power of the Lotus throne. It was just a matter of time.

“Junior Sister!”

The chemical cultivator in the distance also realized that something was wrong. He roared and quickly left his opponent, flying over like a stream of light.

RUO long and her nephew were also frightened. They no longer cared about being affected and instantly flew over, saying in shock, “How’s her Highness the princess?”

he’s not dead! Yunxiao snapped. he’s not dead!

Only then did the three of them heave a sigh of relief. Their suspended hearts were slightly relieved, but they were still covered in cold sweat and extremely afraid.

As soon as water deity was injured, the deep-sea monsters in the sky started to cry out loudly and started to lose control.

After losing the attack of the realm-breaking Black light, the members of the heaven Alliance were overjoyed. All of a sudden, all of their grievances and anger burst out and they fought with all their might.

The people on Yunxiao's side immediately felt the pressure increase. Haolian shaohuang was the weakest among them, and he had been beaten so badly that he was coughing up blood and even losing his mind.

'Mo Xiaochuan' had a grave expression on his face. He pushed his opponent away with his sword and hurriedly supported him."Let's go," he said.

The two of them turned into a stream of light and flew toward Yunxiao.

The pressure on the rest of the people increased even more. Their eyes turned red from the killing and they began to retreat.

"Big brother, that woman is a bad woman. Don't save her," Xiao Hong said.

Yunxiao's face was dark as he said coldly, "Xiao Hong, big brother came to the bi Luo sect to take you away. Come back with me." He stretched out his hand.

Xiao Hong shook her head. I'm not leaving. I want to stay in the Azure heaven sect. The sect master has been very good to me.

don't you want to drive out the bad guys in your body?" Yunxiao asked. Xiao Hong, don't you want to drive out the bad guys?" Big brother will have a way."

Xiao Hong's body trembled slightly before she shook her head, "Big brother, don't lie to Xiao Hong. You can't drive away bad people. Xiao Hong has a feeling, a feeling that the bad guy was originally in Xiao Hong's body. I was originally with that bad guy."

Yunxiao was a little surprised. you have a nihong body, and the bad guy used to live in it, ” he said hurriedly. but now, this body belongs to Xiao Hong, not the bad guy.

Xiao Hong’s eyes were filled with confusion as she said, ” “Is that really the case?”

Yunxiao nodded firmly and stepped forward. He extended his right hand to Xiao Hong and said, ” “Let’s go with big brother,”

A pained expression appeared on Xiao Hong’s face, and his body trembled violently as if he was struggling internally. But, he still raised his trembling hand and put it on Yunxiao’s big hand, his eyes full of hope.

“Pa!”

Suddenly, her delicate little hand turned into an eagle’s claw and grabbed Yunxiao’s palm.

“Little red, you’re so stubborn!”

Yunxiao was taken aback, and he immediately became alert.

Xiao Hong’s body stopped trembling, and his face returned to its calm state. His body flickered with a scorching light, which was the light of the heart Flame.

“Big brother, Xiao Hong won’t leave. Leave the magic stone behind and leave.”

“Little red, is the current you really you?”

...

Yunxiao was shocked. Xiao Hong's face was calm, and it did not look like she was occupied by di ye. Her eyes were as clear as water, but a little more cold and indifferent, which made Yunxiao feel a little strange, even dangerous.

"I'm really little red now," little red said.

Yunxiao's heart kept sinking as he said, "Little red, you've already started to be influenced by bad people and have changed your personality. Hurry up and follow big brother!"

"Really? But little red can't turn back now."

"What?"

Yunxiao was startled, and a sense of extreme danger welled up in his heart.

Xiao Hong's eyes glowed with a strange light, and her face seemed to have changed.

She performed an incantation gesture with her left hand and slapped it directly at Yunxiao's chest. Then, a calm and fierce voice rang out, "since big brother is not willing to hand over the magic crystals, then I can only come and get them myself.

"You can't!"

Xiao Hong's face contorted as she struck out with her palm, and a pure and innocent scream escaped her mouth. It was as if two souls were struggling.

"There's nothing wrong with that! You can't turn back anymore, kill him!"

...

Xiao Hong's eyes turned mournful as the sharp voice rang out.

Yunxiao was shocked. He was sure that the two voices belonged to Xiao Hong, but the two obsessions were fighting.

Finally, the fierce obsession gained the upper hand. Boundless killing intent shot out from his eyes, and a palm came down with irresistible force.

"This power is overwhelming."

Yunxiao's body trembled. The palm contained boundless demonic energy, and its power was no less than di ye's strike in the cloud array that day.

His mind moved like lightning, and he seemed to understand many things in an instant.

Why did di ye fail to obtain this body? it turned out that Xiao Hong had two obsessions, one strong and one weak. Di ye had lost to the strong obsession in front of him!

Perhaps the rainbow stone spirit only had a single thought back then, and it was possible that another rainbow stone spirit would be born after absorbing the aegirine.

Since di ye could use the rainbow body, the rainbow body could also borrow di ye's power. That terrifying feeling of vastness was only a few inches away from him.

Time didn't allow him to think any further. Every pore on his body opened up in an instant.

Under the terrifying palm, endless demonic Qi gushed out of his body and formed an armor in front of him.

"BOOM!"

However, it was of no use. The devil Sky silk exploded instantly.

In his horror, Yunxiao had no time to waste, so he threw out a Vajra fist.

“Bang!”

The fist force was completely shattered by the palm. His entire arm was shining with a golden light, as if a sharp blade had cut through metal. The skin on his arm was rolling like waves, and the bones inside were broken. Blood was flowing down his arm.

Xiao Hong’s lips curled into a cold smile as he continued to punch down. “Big brother, farewell. Xiao Hong will always remember how well big brother treats me. ”

The chemical elementalists, RUO long, and the others beside him were shocked beyond words. They were all pushed back a few thousand feet by this terrifying force.

“Mo Xiaochuan” and haohuang were also shocked. They could not even get close to the wave of fists.

Suddenly, twelve beams of golden light flew out of Yunxiao’s chest, forming a Nebula in front of him like golden chains, flickering as if they were real.

“BOOM!”

When the huge palm strike hit the barrier, the golden light flickered and trembled violently.

“What?”

The two of them exclaimed at the same time, their expressions changing drastically.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted, and he broke out in a cold sweat after escaping from death.

He could no longer care about his past relationship with Xiao Hong. He immediately withdrew his left hand from Xiao Hong's palm and his five fingers grabbed downwards. The Tusita peak immediately flew out and smashed forward!

"Boom boom boom!"

The Tusita peak continued to roll, and the entire space spun as it did, like a top.

Xiao Hong knew how powerful this move was, so he retracted his palm and flew back a thousand feet in a flash, standing in the air.

The nomological light in front of Yunxiao returned to his body again, but its power was greatly reduced. A bad feeling spread in his heart, as if the aura of the devil Lord PU was coming from an infinite distance.

Everyone was shocked by this shocking turn of events.

The faces of lingmu di and the others changed drastically, and they flew back to Yunxiao's side after pushing back the strong enemies.

The people of the sky Alliance were in high spirits and shouted, wanting to charge forward.

Xiao Hong's eyes turned cold as she said, "everyone, stop."

Although her voice was soft, it had an irresistible force. All the members of the sky Alliance stopped and looked at Xiao Hong in shock. They didn't understand why they would listen to this girl, and they didn't understand why this girl's aura had changed.

Even Jing Qi and Yin Hui were shocked. They flew to Xiao Hong's side.

Yin Hui said awkwardly, "little red, you're embarrassed."

Xiao Hong placed her hands behind her back and a cold smile appeared on her face. "Yin Hui, Jing Qi, don't you two recognize me?"

The two of them trembled and revealed expressions of disbelief.

Yin Hui even cried out, "you, you're Xuanji!"

Jing Qi's expression turned serious. Although he was extremely shocked, he was convinced. He immediately cupped his fists and said respectfully, "Greetings, Your Excellency!"

Chapter 1757

1757 The battle of the heaven Alliance (5)

"?!"

Countless gasps rang out. Not only the members of the heaven Alliance, but even Yunxiao and the others were shocked, and their minds went blank.

Xiao Hong was actually a heaven-tier!

Yin Hui seemed to have understood something and hurriedly said, "Yin Hui greets Your Excellency!"

Now, no one had any more doubts. The members of the heaven Alliance came back to their senses from the shock and all bowed from afar.

Yunxiao's face was extremely pale, and the sound of bones cracking kept coming from his right hand. He was circulating his primordial art and recovering at an extremely fast speed.

Everyone's expression was extremely grave, knowing that they were in great danger.

Xiao Hong's expression was cold as she stood with her hands behind her back. "Everyone, you've worked hard."

Everyone suppressed the shock in their hearts and hurriedly said, "it's not hard at all. Thank you for your hard work, Your Excellency."

"Lord Sky Realm, you must be joking with me," Yin Hui said with a bitter smile.

"I deigned to participate in the martial arts competition," Xiao Hong said. "I had my own reasons for doing so, but I still gained nothing."

I don't think so, " Yin Hui said. didn't you get the ethereal mystical book? "

"You mean this piece of trash?" Xiao Hong took out an item.

Everyone was speechless, and their eyes almost popped out. A treasure that might be comparable to the tyrant body tempering technique was actually called trash.

Yin Hui also swallowed with difficulty, his face helpless.

None of them had ever seen this heaven expert before, and they had only been subdued by his powerful strength. They didn't expect it to be the obedient child Xiao Hong who followed him every day.

Xiao Hong threw the book to Yin Hui and said, " "Since you like it, I'll give this piece of trash to you. Treat it as a reward for helping me during this period of time."

Yin Hui was overjoyed and hurriedly received it, saying, " "Thank you, Your Excellency!"

Everyone's eyes turned red, but they didn't dare to say anything.

Only then did Xiao Hong cast her gaze into the distance and said, "Big brother Yunxiao, although you know my identity, I don't want to kill you because of our old friendship. As long as you hand over the magic crystals, you can leave."

The people of the heaven Alliance were taken aback. They had thought that the heaven expert had killed Yunxiao for the Holy artifact, but it turned out to be for the demon Stone. Could it be that the demon Stone was even more valuable than the Holy artifact?

"Lord Heavenly Expert, we can't let this person go," Yin Hui hurriedly said. Today, we have forced him to the end of his rope, so we must kill him. Otherwise, if he takes revenge in the future, we won't be able to take it!"

Everyone had a look of agreement.

"That's difficult, big brother. What do you think we should do?" Xiao Hong asked. My subordinates are all here to kill you."

you're all adults," Yunxiao said with a sneer. let's not talk about peak experts, right? " They actually listen to the words of an underaged little girl. Tsk tsk, a hidden aristocratic family, the more hidden they are, the more promising they are."

The members of the sky Alliance blushed instantly and lowered their heads.

"Hehe."

Xiao Hong laughed and said, "big brother, you're so bad. Why did you provoke the heaven Alliance? " In this world, one only cares about one's fist, not one's background. Big brother isn't that old, but there are still so many old guys following you."

Lingmu di and the others were all speechless.

Xiao Hong, " Yunxiao sighed. I've always been touched by the fact that you gave up your body for me on the East Sea. I'm very sad that we've become mortal enemies after so many years."

Xiao Hong also sighed, "the world is like a game of chess, who can control the entire universe?" Back in Haitian town, in order to protect me, big brother didn't hesitate to go against the entire East Sea. Xiao Hong also felt warm and fuzzy. Later on, di ye seized my body, but in the end, it benefited me. The heavenly Dao's creation is so wondrous."

Xiao Hong, " Yunxiao said, " no matter what you think at this moment, I'm very happy that you are not controlled by di ye. Instead, you have grown up.

Xiao Hong smiled and said, "I'm also very happy to be able to stand here and have a heart-to-heart talk with big brother. It's a pity that our paths are different." If big brother is willing to hand over the demon stones and join the heaven Alliance, I'm willing to treat you as the Vice Alliance master."

As soon as he said that, the people of the sky Alliance were all shocked.

Jing Qi and Yin Hui were very unhappy, and their faces darkened.

as you said just now, " Yunxiao said. our paths are different.

what a pity, " Xiao Hong said. because of big brother's obsession, so many friends are going to die with you.

Che you had been recuperating, but he could not help but curse, " "Die your sister! If you want to fight, just fight. I don't know who will die!"

Everyone's faces were also filled with determination, as if they were fighting to the death, not afraid of death.

what? " Yunxiao frowned and said, " Xiao Hong, your purpose is only for the demon stones. To avoid hurting others, why don't you and I have a bet."

"Eh? What kind of bet?"

“Lord Sky Realm, please don’t listen to him,” Yin Hui hurriedly said. At this moment, he must be trying to trick Daren by all means to find a way to escape. Now that we’ve gained the upper hand, we should eliminate them in one go.”

“Do you think I’m so easily fooled?” Xiao Hong said coldly.

Yin Hui was speechless and didn’t know what to say.

you have the upper hand? ” Yunxiao sneered. Lord Yin Hui really has a good sense of self-confidence. Everyone listen up, if there’s a chaotic battle later, don’t care about anything and use all your strength to kill Lord Yin Hui!”

“Yes!”

kill! everyone shouted in unison. They were all filled with killing intent and glared at Yin Hui.

Yin Hui jumped in fright, his face instantly turning pale.

If these people were to recklessly charge at him, he would most likely die Here. He immediately felt extremely depressed and sullen, not daring to say another word.

“Hehe, big brother is so interesting.”

“Tell me about your bet,” Xiao Hong laughed hysterically.

it’s very simple, ” Yunxiao said. we’ll decide it with a martial arts duel. Each side will send seven people up, and the winner will be the one who wins four matches. If you win, I’ll hand over the demon stones and join the heaven Alliance. If I win, we’ll go our separate ways and go home.”

Lingmu di and the others were full of praise. If they sent out seven people, they would have a high chance of winning four rounds.

“Hehe, big brother is a bully.”

I don't even know what your friends are made of,” Xiao Hong laughed. they can't be killed no matter how I beat them up. Big brother is trying to trick me.

what do you think?” Yunxiao asked. what do you think?”

let's make it simple,” Xiaohong said. one on one. Send one of you to fight me.

Yunxiao's face darkened. this is not a matter between two people, but between two teams. How can it be a simple one-on-one fight?” he said. At the very least, it'll be a five-on-five.”

Little red tilted her head and thought for a moment. that's too troublesome. Let's make it a three-on-three. I just need to win two.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted. If he had to fight Xiao Hong directly, he would basically have no chance of winning, but if it was a three-on-three battle, Jing Qi and Yin Hui would have to be the opponents, so he still had a chance of winning.

But,

“Can Jing Qi bring the zombie with him if he goes up?” he asked with a frown.

Jing Qi sneered. of course I'll bring it along. This fiendish corpse puppet has long been connected to my mind. It's just like the MU clan's puppet. Don't the MU clan people bring their puppets to the battle?”

alright! Yunxiao nodded and said, ” in that case, let's have a three-on-three fight.

Jing Qi was taken aback. He had thought that the other party would definitely refute him, but he didn't expect him to agree so readily.

Even Xiao Hong was taken aback. She asked for confirmation, "Jing Qi and the corpse puppet have always fought side by side, so they can only be considered one person."

I understand," Yunxiao said. let's get started.

Xiao Hong frowned and looked at the two of them, "Who's up?"

"I'll do it," Jing Qi stood up and said.

The fiendish God corpse puppet also appeared behind him, and the two of them walked to the front at the same time. Jing Qi sneered and said, "Who's next?"

Lingmu di walked out on the spot and said, "It's me," he said.

Jing Qi's heart sank. This man was not afraid of his jiusha xuanyu, which was indeed a bit tricky. But as long as he had enough time, it would be very easy to suppress him.

Lingmu di waved his hand again, and with a swoosh, the sky-patrolling bull also walked up. He said, "This is my Mount."

[ member of the heaven Alliance: Wufu ]

this bull is clearly a puppet! Jing Qi said angrily. how can it be a Mount? " this puppet is indeed my Mount, " said lingmu di. even if it is a puppet, so what? " You can bring the zombie, but I can't bring the puppet?"

All the members of the heaven Alliance were shocked.

Xiao Hong's gaze swept across the gourd Little King Kong, the crocodile, and the DarkThunder. It seemed to have thought of something, and its expression turned unsightly.

Yunxiao smiled and admitted it directly, "Big brother is both a Beast Tamer and a puppeteer, so let me fight Lord Yin Hui in the next round."

Yin Hui's face turned pale. Although he was a divine transcendence expert, he would be defeated by these four people.

"Hehehe!"

Che you, evil spirit, and the others couldn't help but laugh sinisterly, as if they had succeeded.

Chen Yuyu and the others also smiled and didn't say anything. This way, their chances of winning increased greatly.

Although Xiao Hong's face was pale, she was still calm. "Jing Qi, how is it?"

Anger flashed across Jing Qi's face, but then he sneered and said coldly, "don't worry, Your Excellency. I will definitely win this battle.

Everyone found it strange, and even Yunxiao frowned. With the lingmu flute and the heaven-patrolling bull, they should be able to compete with Jing Qi and the fiendish zombie. Even if they could not win, they should not be defeated.

Suddenly, Jing Qi put his thumb and index finger together in his mouth and let out a long and sharp cry that pierced the eardrums.

All of a sudden, the heavens and earth began to tremble. The clouds in the sky began to roll, and the space was torn apart, revealing a pitch-black passageway.

A giant turtle head slowly emerged from the passage.

“Ah?”

Everyone cried out in surprise, and Yunxiao was even more dumbfounded. The motionless forest slowly drove out of the passage, like a huge cloud that covered the sky.

Jing Qi couldn't help but laugh wildly. “Hahaha, this unmovable forest is also my corpse puppet! Not only that, but there are also more than three thousand zombies in the unmovable forest. I'd like to see how you guys fight me!”

Chapter 1758

1758 The battle of the heaven Alliance (6)

The people on Yunxiao's side were completely dumbfounded, and even lingmu Di's mouth was wide open, as if a basin of cold water had been poured on him.

hehe, Lord Jing Qi is really amazing.

“With the Lord here, we'll win without a doubt,” Xiao Hong clapped her hands and praised.

The other members of the heaven Alliance burst into laughter as well, all of them staring ferociously at the stunned expressions of Yunxiao and the others.

Your Excellency, ” Yunxiao swallowed and said, ” can we still win? ”

“What do you think?” lingmu di was speechless.

Yunxiao smiled wryly and shook his head. “Since that's the case, we'll just admit defeat.”

Lingmu Di's eyes flashed with coldness. He said coldly, "Even if I can't win, this Lord will also destroy his old nest. Who asked him to be so arrogant, it's really uncomfortable to watch!"

"Oh?" Xiao Hong laughed. You still want to fight, your courage is commendable. Big brother Yunxiao, I wonder how we'll decide the winner?"

Let's do it the same way as the rules of the natural moat ocean martial art," Yunxiao said. One side will die, the other will be killed, or you and I will admit defeat on behalf of the people in the field.

"Alright," Xiaohong replied.

She said to Jing Qi, "Good luck, master Jing Qi. I won't admit defeat on your behalf. Don't admit defeat, either. As the leader of a sect, you can't admit defeat even if you die.

"Lose?" Jing Qi sneered. Do you think that's possible, Lord Sky Realm?"

Xiao Hong squinted her eyes and laughed. Hehe, it'll definitely be an exciting battle. Let's hurry up and start. I can't wait any longer.

She and the people of the sky Alliance retreated thousands of feet away to make room.

Lingmu Di sat sideways on the heaven patrolling Bulldog and turned into a ray of light, flying toward the forest of unmoving ashes.

"Since you've chosen to fight, how can I not fulfill your wish?" Jing Qi said coldly. "All corpse fiend sect disciples, leave now!" He shouted.

Immediately, several thousand streaks of light flew up from the forest of unmoving homeworld and scattered in all directions. This was to prevent everyone from making a move and causing a violation.

At the same time, a huge figure stood up from the forest of unmoving dreams, put his hands together in front of him, and slammed them down.

Yunxiao was no stranger to the figure. It was the sea Devil monkey, but there was an obvious suture mark in the center of its body, from its crotch to the top of its head.

Yunxiao's mouth was wide open as he said in surprise, " "This can also be done,"

The heaven patrolling Bulldog's body instantly enlarged by ten times. With a loud roar, it used the two horns on its forehead to push upwards.

"BOOM!"

The sea Devil monkey's palms slammed against the bull's head, but it was unable to withstand the force of the impact. Its huge body was sent flying backward.

Since it was cut open by Yunxiao's sword, the sea Devil monkey had lost more than half of its strength, and it was no longer as mighty as before.

"BOOM!"

The sea Devil monkey was lifted up by the heaven patrolling Bulldog and was thrown out of the forest of unmoving dreams, falling into the boundless sea.

"Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!"

A large number of figures flew up from the forest of motionless ashes. All of them were rolling with corpse Qi. Among them, 18 corpse puppets had monstrous auras and surrounded a man and a bull.

Jing Qi also appeared in the sky above the big turtle. His face was full of mockery and killing intent. He waved his hand and said, " "Kill!"

The 18 corpse puppets' eyes immediately turned green, and white hair began to appear on their bodies as they charged forward.

Lingmu Di's face was still as calm as water. The result of this competition was almost certain, so he didn't feel any psychological pressure.

He slowly pulled out a long silver whip from the void. It was three feet and six inches long and had a total of twenty-one segments wrapped around it. Countless silver runes surrounded it.

"Pa!"

The whip struck out, and a silver light flashed in the air like a dragon or a snake. Suddenly, whip marks appeared on the body of one of the corpse puppets. It screamed and retreated while holding its head. It wailed in the air as if it was in extreme pain.

"What whip is this?" Jing Qi asked in horror. What have you done?"

zombies are different from mechanical puppets, " lingmu di said indifferently. puppets must be controlled by the caster's divine sense, so there's a limit to the number of puppets that can be controlled at one time. But corpse fiends are different. To refine this thing, one must stimulate the soul in the human body. As long as one of the three souls and seven spirits remain, a corpse fiend can be refined. I just broke up the soul and spirit in the body."

Jing Qi gasped and said in surprise, "scatter the soul?" How is this possible?"

He hurriedly ordered the corpse puppet to attack, but it didn't respond and continued to hold its head in pain.

"Pa! Pa!"

Two more whips were sent out, and two more corpse puppets retreated a few hundred feet, holding their heads and wailing.

kill him! Jing Qi was furious. don't get hit by that long whip!

The remaining 15 corpse puppets instantly began to move at high speed, leaving only whirlwinds in the air, their figures almost invisible.

"It's no use," lingmu di said.

The silver whip was raised and struck down again with a "pa" sound. A corpse puppet was jolted out from its high-speed movement, holding its head and wailing.

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

The reverse soul whip danced in the air, forming a dense light barrier. It struck out continuously, hitting a corpse puppet with every strike and sending it flying.

Jing Qi's expression finally changed. He made a hand seal, and a golden rune floated on his fingertips.

Then, the divine fiend corpse puppet suddenly opened its eyes and let out a long roar!

"Roar!"

The divine fiend corpse puppet's voice was like a flood and a fierce beast, sweeping through the entire unmovable returning forest. It shook the big turtle so much that it trembled violently, and countless buildings were destroyed.

All the corpse puppets knelt down in fear, their bodies trembling non-stop.

The corpse puppets that had been struck by the reverse soul whip also calmed down. Their eyes revealed their fear of the divine fiend corpse puppet as they knelt on the ground.

Lingmu Di's expression changed slightly. He pulled back his whip and cursed inwardly.

Sure enough, the divine fiend corpse puppet was the head of the ten thousand corpses. Under its rage, all the corpse puppets trembled and worshipped. All the negative elements on their bodies disappeared in an instant, and the fiendish aura increased several times.

"Roar! Roar!"

The divine fiend corpse puppet's pressure dissipated, and thousands of corpse puppets roared towards the sky, charging forward with all their might. Their eyes were filled with madness and fear.

"Pa!"

The whip lashed out, and a silver mark fell on the corpse puppet at the very front. It was knocked back several dozen Zhang, but it only stopped for a moment before it roared and brandished its fangs and claws.

"As expected,"

Lingmu di sighed to himself. The souls of these corpse puppets have completely lost their spiritual consciousness under the pressure of the king of ten thousand corpses. They've become nothing but death soldiers. There's no fear, no pain, and they only know how to charge forward and kill.

"So what if you can see through it?" Jing Qi said coldly. He's still going to die!"

He made up his mind that even if his opponent admitted defeat, he would do his best to kill this person. Otherwise, the silver whip would have been too harmful to the zombie.

"Swish!"

...

The heaven patrolling Bulldog let out a loud cry and stomped its front hooves on the ground. It immediately radiated a boundless green net of light that stuck all the corpse puppets on top.

The silver whip in Lingmu Di's hand danced in the air and turned into a long silver sword, which suddenly slashed out.

"Chi la!"

The sword light wasn't strong, but it was abnormally sharp. As it swept across, it cut the four or five corpse puppets at the front into half at their waists!

The rest of the corpse puppets struggled with all their might, but the green light net trembled a few times before turning into countless specks of light and dissipating.

"Swish!"

The heaven patrolling Bulldog raised its head and barked, as if it was helpless.

Lingmu di patted its forehead and said, "Kill, kill as many as you can."

He flew up and directly charged into the corpse puppet. His long sword flew and slashed, and every slash brought with it countless limbs.

The bull's eyes also turned a gem-like red, and it used its horn to push against the corpse puppet that was charging over.

"Bang!"

The corpse puppet's chest was immediately pierced through with two holes, but it did not fall or die. Instead, it waved its fists madly and hit the heaven-patrolling bull's body. Bang Bang Bang "", a large area of light was produced.

The corpse fiend sect disciples in the surrounding sky were all covered in cold sweat. They had never seen such a tragic scene before. The corpse puppet army was like ants, waiting to be slaughtered.

This was especially so for the man with the silver sword. Almost every slash of his sword would cause a wound.

Xiao Hong blinked her big eyes, looking like an innocent young girl. "Lord Jing Qi, aren't you going to do it yourself? If this goes on, your minions will all be killed."

don't worry," Yunxiao said with a smile. I can always refine more corpse puppets. Moreover, these broken limbs can be stitched together. The sea Monkey just now was one of them."

"I see," Xiao Hong nodded, not fully understanding.

Hearing their conversation, Jing Qi was so angry that he couldn't sit still any longer. He rushed down.

His face was gloomy. He instantly landed above the lingmu flute, and his hands quickly formed a seal and slapped down.

The divine fiend corpse puppet also appeared behind him and struck out with its palms.

Lingmu di turned his hand and thrust his sword forward. With a clang, a silver sword light swept out and condensed into a silver light shield.

"Bang! Bang!"

The attacks of the man and the corpse immediately hit the light shield, instantly shattering it.

The strong wind from the palm fell and hit the lingmu flute, sending it flying.

A large number of corpse puppets soared into the sky and instantly engulfed the lingmu flute.

“Swish!”

Not far away, the heaven-patrolling bull also seemed to have discovered that things were not good. It continuously shouted and appeared to be irritable and uneasy. It wanted to rush over, but it was tightly surrounded by a large number of corpse puppets and couldn't be blasted away no matter what.

Yunxiao was shocked. Although the lingmu flute had a body of divine steel, it was hard to guarantee that it would not be a problem under such a siege. Moreover, the battle was already a foregone conclusion when the motionless forest of returning appeared, so there was no point in fighting more.

“There's no need to fight anymore, we admit defeat for this round,” he said, suddenly making up his mind.

Xiaohong chuckled, “admit defeat?” That means we won, yay!” She stretched out her hand and made a victory gesture.

Yunxiao smiled wryly. Who would have thought that there was such a cold and hard heart under such a pure and lovely appearance?

we've already admitted defeat, ” he said. let Jing Qi stop.

Jing Qi had also heard their conversation. He said coldly, ” “I've already stopped. Unfortunately, these corpse puppets were affected by the fiendish God corpse puppet and lost their spiritual consciousness. They only know how to kill. Even I can't control them now.”

Everyone's expression changed drastically, and they were filled with anger. Everyone knew that this was an excuse, but the other party knew that it was an excuse. So what if it was an excuse?

“So that's how it is. What should we do then?”

Xiao Hong tilted her head and seemed to be in deep thought.

since Lord Jing Qi has said so," Yunxiao said coldly, " I'll have to make them stop.

The Tusita Heavenly Mountain flew out of his palm and continued to grow. In an instant, it turned into a mountain and moved above the forest of unmoving returns.

Chapter 1759

1759 The battle of the heaven Alliance (7)

Everyone felt as if a huge shadow had covered the sky, like the night.

The mountain peak was even bigger than the sea turtle's unmoving forest. It hung above the sea turtle and slowly emitted five-colored light.

Jing Qi's expression changed drastically, and he cried out in horror, " "You, what do you want to do? Stop!"

I'm sorry," Yunxiao said with a sneer. after this mountain turned into a giant peak, I couldn't control its size, so I had to let it fall.

Jing Qi's face turned green. He knew how powerful this mountain was. If it hit the immovable Gui Lin, his sect would be completely destroyed.

He was covered in cold sweat and said in a trembling voice, " "Beast, beast, stop!"

Xiao Hong also appeared in front of Yunxiao in an instant. Her young face came close to him, and the tips of their noses almost touched.

"Hehe, big brother is so bad. Quickly put away this mountain peak. I'll ask Jing Qi to release that man. "

Xiao Hong's face was full of smiles, looking innocent and naive.

Che you, beifeng Nan and the rest were all shocked. They quickly surrounded Xiao Hong. She was so fast that no one noticed her.

Cold sweat trickled down Yunxiao's sideburns. He knew that if he did not take back the mountain, Xiao Hong would definitely take his life.

Previously, he had been lucky enough to be saved by the barrier formed by the twelve nomological laws. However, the power of the barrier had already loosened, and the seal had become fragile.

The other party would definitely be on guard, and if he attacked again, it would be difficult for him to escape.

"Hehe, Xiao Hong, don't be nervous. Big brother is just joking with him."

Yunxiao smiled as well, then reached out and patted Xiao Hong's hair.

Everyone's hearts were in their throats, their eyes were wide open, and their hands were covered in cold sweat.

Not only Yunxiao's people, but even the members of the heaven Alliance were dumbfounded, and time seemed to have stopped at that moment.

All eyes were focused on the two of them. One was smiling innocently, while the other was smiling brightly. Yunxiao put his hand on the little red hair warmly.

hehe, big brother is so bad. So you were just joking. Then I can rest assured.

Xiao Hong laughed, turned around, and flew back.

"Phew!"

Everyone heaved a sigh of relief, especially you and the rest, they found that their clothes were soaked in sweat.

Yunxiao took his hand back and performed an incantation gesture in the air.

The Tusita heavenly peak turned back to the size of a palm after a few spins and fell back into his hand.

Only then did Jing Qi's heart finally return to his throat. The White hair on his body was sticky, and he broke out in a cold sweat. He felt extremely uncomfortable.

He didn't dare to attack Xi mudi anymore. He hurriedly gave a long whistle, and all the puppets immediately dispersed.

Only then did lingmu di and the heaven patrolling bullfighting bull break free. Their bodies were covered in circles of light spots of all kinds, looking extremely embarrassing.

"Lord mu di, thank you for your hard work," Yunxiao said.

I've lost so much face, " lingmu di said with a bitter smile. this is going to be troublesome.

If he lost, he would have to win the next two rounds. However, Xiao Hong's strength had already reached the peak, and there was no one on his side who could match her.

we'll see, step by step, " Yunxiao said thoughtfully. no one can tell who will win or lose until the end.

Xiao Hong chuckled. big brother, you let us win. We won the first round. Who's going to fight for the second round? " who's going to fight the second round? " Yunxiao asked.

“This time, it’s your turn to send someone out first. However, if big brother is in a difficult position, it’s fine if we come out first.” Xiao Hong smiled. “Lord Yin Hui, are you confident?” she turned around and asked.

“I’ll do my best,” Yin Hui said.

He walked forward, his expression extremely calm.

There was no pressure at all in this battle. No matter who won or lost, the outcome would be his side’s victory. This was because the strength of a heaven’s expert was unfathomable and had reached the peak.

He couldn’t help but think of the first time he saw heaven’s master. The other party’s entire body was shrouded in black gas, and his face couldn’t be recognized. However, he could easily knock him back with one move. That kind of overwhelming power was still in his heart, and it was difficult to erase.

who is suitable for the second Battle? ” Yunxiao asked.

he’s already a Saint, ” che you said. although beiming Nan can not lose, it’ll be hard for him to win. I guess I’ll have to fight him. “However, Wuwu is only the last Wuwu,” he said the worry in his heart.

I’ll be the last one, ” Yunxiao said. I’ll be the one to fight.

“You?”

Everyone’s expression changed drastically as they stared at him.

don’t worry too much, ” Yunxiao said with a smile. if I really can’t defeat him, I’ll just admit defeat. But this match is extremely important. Old dragon, you can’t lose, or there won’t be a third match.”

“I’ll take the third round,” said beiming Nan. With Renekton and the others helping me, the chances of winning are still very high.”

no! Yunxiao shook his head and said, " although you have a fleshly body of the phenomenal success stage, it has long decayed. Moreover, the other party's nihong body is not afraid of the five major poisons of extinction at all. You have no chance of winning."

Che you said,"in my opinion, we should let bei Shen and Nan go up for this battle, and I'll be the third one." The final battle should naturally be fought by the main generals of both sides. Between you and me, it's clear who the main general is." He puffed out his chest, and an imposing aura spread out.

you talk too much, " Yunxiao said with a smile. hurry up and get down. If we can't win this battle, we're finished.

Xiao Hong was getting impatient. She smiled and said, " "After such a long discussion, is there no one left to fight?"

stop wasting time, " Yunxiao urged. get off the stage. I'll rest for a while and prepare for the third round. After consuming some heaven and earth treasures, he sat cross-legged in the air and began to regulate his breathing.

Xiao Hong's punch had completely shattered the bones in his right arm. Fortunately, the tyrant body tempering technique had a very strong recovery ability, and most of it had been restored. Yunxiao tried to adjust his condition to its peak before the third Battle.

Che you saw that his stubbornness could not change his mind, so he sighed and rushed forward.

The injuries on his body were not serious. Most of his strength had been used to suppress the poison. Under the dragon's breath, most of the poison in the dove sand mysterious feather had been removed.

...

"You?" Yin Hui frowned.

"Your mother!" Che you cursed.

Thinking that the other party was scolding him, coupled with the worry in his heart, an inexplicable anger erupted. The two swords slashed down from the sky like two Azure Dragons, roaring at each other.

Yin Hui's expression changed drastically. The power of these two swords was far above his own.

He didn't dare to be careless and hurriedly pulled out his sword. While he slashed out a wave of sword energy, he flew back.

"BOOM!"

The sword aura was instantly shattered by the roar of the two dragons, and the green sword Qi chased after him.

"You want to leave? Hand over your life!"

Che you's eyes were filled with killing intent as he turned into a Dragon and chased after them.

...

In an instant, he slashed a few more times. Each slash was extremely sharp and swept across the wilderness.

Yin Hui had already expended a lot of energy in the battle with beifeng Nan and the heaven patrolling bull, he didn't have the strength to resist che you at all and could only be chased and slashed, in great danger.

Frowning deeply, Jing Qi said in dissatisfaction, "Yin Hui, this old fogey, is usually so cool, why is he turning into sh * t when he's serious?"

"If you didn't have the help of that fiendish God corpse puppet, you wouldn't be any better off than him," Xiao Hong replied.

"Hmph!"

"The fiendish God corpse puppet is an important part of my combat strength," Jing Qi said, unconvinced.

Little red didn't say anything. After looking at it for a while, she said, "This game is almost set, and there's no point in fighting. Lord Yin Hui, are you willing to admit defeat?"

Yin Hui had long been forced into unspeakable misery, but he didn't have the face to admit defeat, so he hurriedly said, "Everything will be decided by Your Excellency!"

since I'm the one making the decision, let's continue fighting," Xiao Hong said. perhaps we'll have a chance to turn the tables.

"Pfft!"

Yin Hui was being forced into a corner, and when he heard this, he couldn't help but spit out a mouthful of blood. He hurriedly said, I can't hold on any longer. I admit defeat. I admit defeat!

The members of the heaven Alliance were all embarrassed and looked at him with contempt.

"Admit defeat your sister, go to hell!" Che you raged.

The sword became more and more violent, like a storm.

Yin Hui was injured in many places and couldn't take it anymore. He hurriedly turned into a beam of light and fled.

Little red couldn't stand it anymore and said, "Big brother, tell your subordinates to stop."

Yunxiao opened his eyes and said, "Old dragon, come back."

When you chased after Yin Hui for a while, his anger dissipated by more than half, he also understood that it was impossible to kill Yin Hui, he could only return resentfully.

Xiao Hong laughed, "it's a tie. You still have to let me come out and fight." Why didn't you just listen to me from the start and decide the outcome in one battle? why did you have to waste time and play the third round?"

I've killed so many corpse puppets and humiliated Lord Yin Hui, " Yunxiao said with a smile. it's not like I didn't gain anything.

Jing Qi snorted heavily. Yin Hui's face was red, and he looked like a Vulture.

"I wonder who will be my opponent in the last round? big brother?" Xiao Hong laughed.

"Yes," Yunxiao nodded.

that's good, " Xiao Hong said. I'll personally welcome big brother into the sky Alliance.

Yunxiao flew out first, followed by Calabash King Kong, DarkThunder, and the crocodile. It was a strange combination of a man, a puppet, a beast, and a spirit.

what a powerful formation, " Xiao Hong said. I'm also looking forward to seeing how strong big brother is.

She slowly flew up and stood a thousand feet away from Yunxiao and the other three, looking at each other from a distance, her white dress fluttering in the air.

if I win today's battle," Yunxiao said, " I'll let go of all the past grudges and let bygones be bygones.

I'm very sad," Xiao Hong said. I'll try my best to win. I'll let big brother stay in the heaven alliance with me.

what?" Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he shouted, " do it!

The four of them immediately turned into streams of light and rushed forward.

Xiao Hong continued to stand with her hands behind her back. Her body gently took a step back, and her Jade-like white hands were as fast as lightning as they reached into a ray of light.

"You have a very familiar scent on you. What is it?" Xiao Hong's eyes revealed a contemplative look.

The light was the calabash Little King Kong. It suddenly stopped and stabilized its body with its feet in the void. It launched a King Kong fist in the air, and the fist wind flickered with white ice fiend Heart Flame.

"?! It's a rainbow stone!"

Xiao Hong let out a sharp shriek, and his face was almost deformed, becoming distorted and ugly. He laughed wildly and said, " Haha, it's actually another rainbow stone. Big brother, you're so good!"

Chapter 1760

1760 The battle of the heaven Alliance (8)

Xiao Hong's face was filled with excitement. She ignored the punch and directly reached into the ice fiend Heart Flame, grabbing the gourd Little King Kong's hand.

“Let me see where the rainbow stone is hidden.”

The gourd Little King Kong’s beady eyes narrowed, and it immediately lowered its head to RAM into the monster.

It had never encountered a situation where it was caught by the other party after using the Vajra fist. Its intelligence was not enough, and in a hurry, it directly used its head.

“Haha, stupid things are really cute.”

Xiaohong reached out and slapped down.

“Bang!”

With a loud noise, the body of the gourd Little King Kong trembled. Rays of colorful light spread out from Xiao Hong’s palm and flowed through the gourd Little King Kong’s body as if it was electrocuted.

“I’ve found it!”

Xiao Hong was overjoyed. On the left chest of the gourd Little King Kong, where the heart was, there was a spinning rainbow stone.

Her breathing became rapid, and she reached out impatiently, trying to grab it.

“BOOM!”

A bolt of lightning struck down from the sky. It was actually extremely flexible, and like a boneless snake, it wrapped around Xiao Hong’s arm, binding it.

Then, Yunxiao’s figure appeared. He performed an incantation gesture with one hand, grabbed the heavenly hammer with the other, and smashed it at the top of little Red’s head.

A huge golden Maha word appeared on the hammer and turned into the size of a millstone.

“BOOM!”

The heavenly hammer fell, and golden light bloomed like fireworks. A purple dragon as thick as an arm condensed inside, baring its fangs and brandishing its claws as it descended from the sky.

“?! Zifu world-destroying sacred lightning!”

Xiao Hong jumped in shock. With a shake of its body, the hand that was holding the gourd Little King Kong turned into a palm and pushed the gourd Little King Kong away. It was even pushed back a thousand feet.

The Zifu world-destroying sacred Thunder was no joke. Even if she had a rainbow body, she didn't dare to be careless.

When the purple lightning missed, Yunxiao changed his hand seal and gathered all the lightning in the sky.

Xiao Hong was forced to retreat. Just as it stood still, a huge black shadow appeared behind it. The crocodile stood up silently. Its body, which was made of black particles, was as red as fire while a strong wind swirled around it.

“Roar!”

The crocodile's eyes suddenly glowed with ferocity. It roared and clapped its hands together.

The Wind and Fire suddenly swirled together and instantly expanded to several acres in size. Everyone within a radius of a hundred miles felt an extremely strong pressure, as if all the water in their bodies was about to evaporate in this astral wind divine fire.

“Big crocodile, ugly!”

Xiao Hong let out an angry roar as her petite body leaped up. She turned around and threw a punch.

“Bang!”

The fist force was surrounded by the ice fiend Heart Flame, which directly penetrated the windmill and hit the crocodile’s face, blowing his head off.

Countless black particles scattered and rolled on the crocodile’s belly. A head slowly grew out, revealing a fierce look and roaring in anger!

“Roar!”

As it roared, its body continued to expand. With a bang, it exploded into millions of black particles, which were caught in the divine fire squall and blasted toward Xiao Hong!

“Ugly people do many strange things!”

Xiao Hong scoffed, anger flashing in her eyes.

However, the other party’s momentum was huge and ferocious. Moreover, the divine fire and astral wind were also extraordinary. Although she was not afraid, she did not want to get entangled with such a stupid thing.

With a light tap of his feet, his body instantly flew backward like a Fallen Leaf.

However, the crocodile seemed to have gone completely mad. It was in hot pursuit, and the divine fire astral wind was like a long Dragon, howling and rushing up.

“Idiot, since you’re looking for death, I’ll fulfill your wish.”

Xiao Hong was furious. It stopped in mid-air, stomped its feet, and threw a punch.

His stance was exactly the same as the calabash Little King Kong, and he also used the king Kong fist.

Although this fist was simple, it was the master of all fist techniques, the starting move of all fist techniques.

Shaohuang haolian's pupils also contracted in shock. He had practiced fist techniques for decades, and his achievements in this move were probably unparalleled. However, Xiao Hong's display of this move had the essence of the fist intent.

"BOOM!"

The fist force was thrown out, and the ice fiend Heart Flame also exploded. The terrifying power turned into a vortex in front of him, directly tearing the void apart.

What was even more shocking was that each of the calabash Little King Kong's punches was a Heart Flame, but Xiao Hong's punch actually produced seven lotus flowers that spread all over the divine fire astral wind. In an instant, all of the power of wind and Fire, as well as the countless black stones, were blown to pieces!

"Ah? Idiot!"

Yunxiao's heart trembled violently, and he could not help but cry out in alarm as his eyes turned bloodshot.

Under such a terrifying force, even a crocodile with the five elements spiritualized would not be able to withstand it.

"Pi Li pa la!"

Just as Yunxiao was worried about Xiao Hong, a gust of strong wind blew through the terrifying power, and the crocodile's body condensed above Xiao Hong, then it raised its hand and made a grabbing motion.

The wind gathered and turned into a Red Cloud. Then, it burned up and smashed down like a mountain!

The power of the seven Heart Flames was simply too great. They had completely obliterated the crocodile's body, and the divine fire and astral wind had also been blasted away, restoring the crocodile's true spirit of wind.

...

The fire cloud exploded into a sea of fire, instantly engulfing Xiao Hong.

Next, the crocodile transformed into the essence of wind, which was then thrown into the flames. Instantly, vast red clouds filled the sky, and the entire heavenly sea was set ablaze.

I just hit you back to your original form. This time, I'll annihilate you in the world!

With a “ bang “, a white light rose from the sea of fire and dispersed the divine fire astral wind that filled the sky.

A huge ice fiend Heart Flame rose up in the sea. Xiao Hong was wearing a white dress as she stepped on the flower bud of the heart Flame. Circles of demonic patterns appeared on her body, and her eyes turned black.

“Die!”

Xiao Hong raised his hand and clenched his fist. A terrifying power gathered in his palm and he suddenly struck out!

“BOOM!”

A huge amount of demonic Qi exploded and corroded the divine fire astral wind in an instant. A ring of black light spread in the sea of fire.

The red flames quickly receded, and the wind shadow of a crocodile seemed to condense on the flames. It wailed and ran away in anger.

Suddenly, a silver light flashed in the sky and covered the black demonic aura. It fell from the sky.

In an instant, countless sword projections appeared in the air and stabbed into the ground around Xiao Hong. Above her was a sword diagram that was constantly changing.

The sharp sword Qi flew in the formation, like a dragon or a Phoenix, the sword intent was awe-inspiring.

Xiao Hong formed an incantation gesture with one hand, and demonic Qi swirled around her body to resist all the sword Qi. She sneered, “Big brother, this move is too weak.”

“Is that so?”

An emotionless voice came as Yunxiao’s figure appeared in the air and slowly landed on a Northern heaven cold star sword. then I’ll let you see if big brother’s understanding of the way of the sword in his past and present life is worthy of your attention.

Yunxiao performed an incantation gesture with both hands, and a huge sword rune was sent into the array.

Suddenly, the formation changed unpredictably, and a terrifying sword intent spread out.

Yunxiao's face was cold, his hair fluttering in the wind, and his eyes as clear as water. He put one hand together in an incantation gesture and shouted, "Ten thousand swords return to one!"

In an instant, a golden light appeared in the sword diagram and turned into countless golden sword talismans dancing in the air. The sword will spread out and covered the clouds.

All the swords in the world sensed it and trembled.

Countless sword shadows flew around the formation map, and even the heart-refined swords of the sky Alliance members lost control in an instant and were sucked up by the sword map.

"What? My sword!" The screams continued.

Beiming Nan's Thousand Autumns Imperial Sword also trembled violently, as if it was resisting the sword intent that could pierce through the heavens and earth.

Chen Qianyu's sword was not careful and instantly sucked over.

"Go," said Beiming Nan as he stroked the blade of his sword.

Chiaki's flying sword instantly let out a ringing sound as it flipped in the air and flew into the sword diagram.

Mo Xiaochuan also formed hand seals with one hand, and the sky-destroying devil-rinsing sword instantly flew up. The sky-devouring spirit bared its fangs and brandished its claws before also merging into the sword diagram.

The terrifying million sword illustration absorbed the sword will of heaven and earth and slowly rose up, displaying all the phenomena in the world.

Yunxiao's hands were locked in an incantation gesture. His clothes fluttered in the Sea of Swords, and his whole body was in sync with the frequency of heaven and earth. Everyone suddenly had the illusion that in an instant, he was transformed by the rules, so pure that there was no trace of impurity.

His comprehension of the way of the sword was deeper than in his previous life, and he was now at the peak of martial arts. All the ninth-rank rules were in his grasp, and his clear and exquisite heart was extremely pure, like the surface of a Lake in autumn, without a single ripple.

His entire person had become the embodiment of the sword, continuously merging into the great Dao.

Xiao Hong's expression finally changed as she activated the million sword illustration. Countless sword radiances transformed into a huge sword aura. Golden sword talismans churned around it as if all the power of heaven and earth had been gathered here.

At this moment, in the entire North Sea, all the races, human warriors, and all swordsmen felt an inexplicable shiver. They felt that the swords in their storage profound level weapons were shaking as if they were going to break through the sky.

The position of Xiao Hong's feet slowly changed, and the ice fiend Heart Flame beneath his feet continued to bloom, growing to several times its previous size.

His hands also quickly formed strange seals in front of him, and the black seal circle flashed and disappeared.

Her delicate skin was covered with black demonic patterns, and di ye's shadow seemed to be making hand seals in the circles of demonic Qi behind her.

"Boundless heaven and earth, boundless nature, true fiend magic seal!"

A huge demonic seal rose into the air. Yunxiao had seen it before, but it was completely different.

This time, the seal turned into countless lotus flowers, each of which competed for beauty. Xiao Hong and Di Ye struck out at the same time. The entire sky trembled violently under this move and kept shattering.

The sword essence formed by the million sword illustration was like a divine needle that could calm the ocean. The endless sky turned into the back of the sword and slashed down!

At this moment, everyone watching seemed to have forgotten about the struggle between good and evil, as well as the struggle for fame and fortune. They were all immersed in the boundless swordsmanship, feeling the vast power that stirred their hearts.

The sword essence finally fell and slashed on the devil seal. The terrifying light instantly scattered in all directions. The white-hot sword light and the pitch-black Devil essence mixed together and scattered in all directions, destroying everything in the world!

“Boom boom boom!”

A few moments after the light and shadow intertwined, the world rumbled. The sea and sky completely collapsed, and time fell into endless darkness. It was as if chaos had descended, as if the world had not been split open.

Time and space stopped at this moment. Everyone felt like they were bound by a force, and even moving was difficult. It was only after a while that they could move freely.

The terrifying shockwaves engulfed everyone. Everyone's qi and blood churned, and they couldn't help but feel blood rush up their throats.
