

The Eternal 2181

Chapter 2181 - 2181: Battle of the Redmoon city (23)

cough, cough. I say, there are so many demons here. Aren't they sending us to our deaths?" yeah, it's too scary. I think we should go back. "Well, this old man would rather continue to sleep on mysterious separation Island than to get involved in this muddy water." damn it! I must have offended ye Qingyu somehow!

Just as Yunxiao was in despair, a few discordant voices came from below the meteor shower-like Sky.

At an altitude of several tens of thousands of Zhang, the Misty Rock Lord was currently engaged in a fierce battle with the towering giant demon. The man and the demon were both like arrows at the end of their flight.

Suddenly, the space beside him trembled.

Moreover, the shaking force started from one place and spread to the surrounding. In the blink of an eye, ten figures appeared.

"Eh, aren't they the four kings?" one of them said in surprise.

Aiya, " another person cried out. I think he's about to die. He's about to become the King of Death.

The Misty Rock master's expression changed slightly, and a hint of anger appeared between his brows as he shot a sharp gaze over.

One of the grey-robed old men placed his hands behind his back and said, " "Don't talk nonsense, quickly attack!"

"Yes!"

The other nine immediately made their move. Nine powerful attacks landed on the giant demon. The giant demon, which was already like a dying lamp, exploded with a "boom" and turned into fine powder that scattered in the sky.

The Misty Rock Master stared at the gray-robed old man and coldly said, "Li Mangshan!"

He was one of the four kings of Xuanli Island, the King of Light, Li Mangshan!

"Misty Rock Lord, be careful not to collect your lunchbox," Li Mangshan said indifferently.

He raised his hand, and a ball of golden light appeared in his palm. Then, he shot it out like a rain of arrows.

The ball of light instantly lit up the entire sky and earth as if it was daytime. It was truly a brilliant light!

The thousands of demons that were falling like rain seemed to suddenly become sluggish in this light, their bodies becoming sluggish.

Demonic light immediately gushed out of every demon's body and gathered around their bodies to resist the strong light. This proved that they were still greatly injured.

Lu's expression became serious, and he said in a deep voice, "Light barrier?"

"One of the two great barriers of light and darkness that can transcend the barriers of the nine elements and work together with the laws?" Someone in the realm of heavenly martial arts has actually mastered this way!" Lu's eyes were dark as he said, "this person's strength is outstanding."

"You deal with this person," Gong said in a deep voice. "Just in case, I'll send a few second grade devil lords to follow you."

Lu nodded. That's good. If not for the suppression of the realm, I alone would be enough. Just in case, the more people the better.

He immediately counted nearly twenty people and called all of the second grade demon lords to come with him before flying away.

light King, someone is here to kill you. We'll protect you.

The nine powerhouses from mysterious separation Island immediately spread out in front of li Mangshan and formed a triangle when they saw the six people flying towards them.

"There are 17 of them. Can you kill them?" li Mangshan asked.

One cried out, " Aiya, I'm scared too. But where there's a will, there's a way. What can we do? "

"Thank you for your hard work, everyone, " li Mangshan nodded.

He formed a hand seal with one hand, and the light that filled the sky began to spin like a huge furnace. The light turned into thousands of sharp blades.

All the demons unleashed their demonic light to resist the sharp light blades. Their bodies emitted a " Chi Chi " sound as large amounts of black smoke were continuously disintegrated by the light barrier.

Yunxiao looked up and was pleasantly surprised. Li Mangshan's strength was beyond his expectation. He had trapped over a thousand demons by himself and could even cause them some damage.

The morale was immediately boosted. At this moment, the giant demons under the Tushita sky peak had finally reached their limit and collapsed instantly.

With a boom, it was crushed into countless gravel and dust, and the earth was covered in dust.

Everyone was extremely overjoyed. At this moment, only Hao Feng was left struggling to hold on to the last one.

A dark shadow emerged above the giant demon's head. It was Tusita heavenly peak. After killing one, Yunxiao threw it over.

“BOOM!”

The Tusita Heavenly Mountain crashed down on the giant demon's head and shattered into countless pieces.

This time, he didn't try to suppress it. Instead, he lifted the mountain and flew over again.

The giant demon was in pain. It knew how powerful this thing was. After fighting with Hao Feng for a long time, it had also exhausted a lot of demonic Qi. Unwilling to collide with the mountain, it turned around and wanted to leave.

In the end, he was hit on the back by the mountain peak and fell forward, crashing to the ground with a loud boom.

The Tusita heavenly peak flew up again and smashed down.

Hao Feng also seized the opportunity. With a flash of Saber Light, a huge transparent saber shape appeared in the sky and slashed down!

The giant demon's body was clumsy, and after falling down, it could only be beaten. After being hit by the saber and the mountain, it also fell to the ground and broke into two pieces, unable to get up again.

At this point, all seven giant demons had been killed.

Both Yunxiao and Haofeng's faces were pale as they stared at the giant Devil's body. How many experts had died under the seven giant Devils' palms? finally, they were all killed.

Hao Feng was covered in blood. He had been hit by the giant demon twice, and the bones in half of his body had almost fallen apart. He was only holding on with his will.

At this moment, he no longer had the strength to support himself. The Nirvana saber fell to the ground and he fell backwards.

“Lord Hao Feng!”

Shocked, Yunxiao teleported over and put away Hao Feng and the Nirvana blade.

In fact, he himself was also an arrow at the end of its flight. He also wanted to fall down, whether he was Dead or Alive. He wanted to just fall down like this. After all, it was too tiring.

But, he could not, because he was Yunxiao, the leader of the heavenly martial Alliance.

The whole realm of heavenly martial arts was almost completely defeated in the battle on the ground. When they returned to the barrier of Heavenly Fire to resist, only Richard was left to fight the battle and kill hundreds of demons.

Suddenly, a golden light came from the sky and appeared above everyone in the blink of an eye. It turned into a huge golden seal and struck down. Yunxiao’s eyelids twitched, and he could not help but be overjoyed, knowing that another expert had come to his aid.

This was because there were two golden ancient seal scripts engraved on the big seal: Overturn the heavens!

“BOOM!”

The mark landed in the middle of the demons, killing a large number of them.

Immediately after, two armored figures appeared above and looked down coldly.

They were the two brothers Zhan Yu and Zhan si.

There were two light green shadows that came with them. They were Wei Qing and his son.

Yunxiao was very pleased. you're here too!

For the first time, he felt that the two brothers and the father and son were so cute. He was glad that he didn't kill them before.

"Hmph, since we've made an oath, we'll naturally keep it."

Zhan Yu said coldly. After that, he swept his gaze across the sky and earth. In an instant, he and Zhan Wu turned into two rays of golden light and flew down.

There were too many demons in the light barrier in the sky. The two brothers couldn't resist them alone, so they killed the scattered demons below first.

Wei Qing was also expressionless as he said coldly, "If someone didn't kneel down and beg in front of me, I might not have come."

Yunxiao was taken aback, and his face was filled with anger. The only good impression he had just now disappeared.

Wei Qing ignored his expression and raised his head, frowning, " why are there so many demons? were you all doing nothing before? "

Yunxiao snorted heavily and ignored him.

“No matter what the reason is, since Lord Wei Qing has come to this battlefield, he’s a comrade-in-arms with us,” Ling mudi said. In addition, when Milord looked at the demons in the sky, he was shocked but not flustered, so he must have a certain degree of confidence.”

what a joke! Wei Qing snorted. do you think I’m the Savior or the king of the realm?!

Even though his face was filled with disdain, he did not hesitate. He took out a silver bottle and threw it into the sky.

As the incantation seals continued to be cast, the bottle began to spin, turning into yin and yang Qi that circled around its body, with a vague Tai Chi pattern.

Gong’s eyelids twitched and he cried out, “ Yin Yang dual air bottle?!

In front of the demonic mirror, the other demon supremacies were also shocked. Yan said in a deep voice, “ “It’s indeed a Yin Yang dual Qi bottle! The fragment from the ancient gods battlefield had also appeared, and three of the demonic weapons of the six paths had appeared! He didn’t expect that the majority of the demon Lord Di’s weapons were on this battlefield. What’s laughable is that they’ve all become the weapons of the experts of the realm of heavenly martial arts!”

The few of them didn’t feel good.

It was not only because these profound level weapons came from the devil World, but also because the reputation and prestige of the devil Lord Emperor was too great. He was the idol of the devil race for 100000 years. Now that he saw all the idol-level weapons fall into the hands of the enemy, he was naturally not in a good mood.

The yin and yang Qi bottle rotated in the sky, and figures appeared from within. They were all refined killing weapons.

Soon, three to four hundred of them appeared, causing the demon lords ‘expressions to turn even uglier.

After Wei Qing poured out all the killing weapons, he did not immediately put away the bottle. Instead, he continued to speed up his hand seals, causing the yin and yang Qi bottle to expand. Soon, the mouth of the bottle was several mu in size, and a faint Eight Trigrams pattern appeared above it.

Then, the wind and clouds around the bottle surged, and a large amount of demonic Qi turned into demonic Dragons, which were directly sucked into the

As soon as this technique was used, the sky and earth of Red Moon City were filled with demonic Qi that had turned into Dragons. They flew from all directions and were stored in the bottle.

The people of both worlds were all attracted by this astonishing phenomenon and were shocked.

The devilish Qi absorption was nothing, but the speed and range of the phenomenon were truly astonishing.

Gong's expression was a little dull as he said in a daze, "It can't be that he's going to absorb all the demonic Qi, right?"

At this moment, there was still a large amount of demonic Qi flowing out of the crack. However, the speed at which the Yin Yang Qi bottle was absorbing it was tens to hundreds of times faster than the speed at which it was gushing out!

"Not good!" Hou said in a deep voice. "It was said that the Yin Yang Qi bottle could not only contain people, but also the heavens and the earth! This person's plan is most likely to absorb all the demonic Qi, so that my previous demonization will be in vain!"

Although the demonic world plants had been eradicated by the heavenly Phoenix Flames, as long as there was a large amount of demonic Qi, the demonization continued, just that the speed was a bit slower.

However, if it was sucked dry by this treasure bottle, then the demonization would be completely over!

Chapter 2182 Battle of the Redmoon city (24)

“Dammit! Why are there so many damn things in the realm of heavenly martial arts?” damn it! Yan roared, “ I really want to go out and tear them all to pieces!

calm down, ” Ji said in a deep voice. if we go out, not only will this crack collapse, but we won’t be able to withstand it either. If we’re not careful, we’ll end up like blue.

“Then what should we do?” Yan said angrily. Looking at the current situation, every time they thought that victory was in their hands, something would go wrong! Now that the Yin Yang Qi bottle has appeared, who knows how many more strange people will appear!” the realm of heavenly martial arts is so big, ” hou Dao said. there are indeed countless strong and capable people. It seems a little reckless of us to attack with all our strength this time.

“Don’t you think it’s a little too late to say you’re being reckless now?” Gong said coldly. Today, we started this battle first. Even if we have to eat sh * t, we have to eat it! Isn’t it just a yin and yang Qi bottle? how did you guys change your faith? Don’t forget, the six paths mo weapons have appeared before, but they were just so-so.”

Hou Dao said, “although I’m a little regretful, I’m not going to stop here.” The Yin Yang double air bottle was different from the six paths mo weapon. the key is that the person’s power in controlling the six paths demonic weapon is limited. If he could fully exert the power of the demonic weapon, it wouldn’t be so troublesome. He would have directly broken the crack and rushed over to kill us. The Yin Yang Qi bottle is a very unique ancient treasure. In terms of age and its unique abilities, it can be ranked in the top three of the entire devil realm, aside from the six paths mo weapon.”

Yan said, “ isn’t it just a sacred artifact that can absorb all things? what’s so strange about it? ” Ordinary Saint artifacts should be able to do it. ‘ “Ordinary Saint artifacts can contain all things, but they can’t absorb all things.

Do you understand the difference?” hou Dao asked.

Yan was startled, and his face revealed a shocked expression as he said, 'What do you mean by 'absorbing' everything?'

Ji hegong also seemed to have thought of something, and his entire person didn't feel good.

Hou looked into the demonic mirror and said, "here, this is what you see now." What I'm most worried about is that this treasure bottle can only absorb demonic Qi. If it can absorb demons, then we'll have no choice but to retreat." it sucked in the demons?!

impossible! Yan's heart trembled. that's impossible!

"The Yin Yang dual Qi bottle does have this ability," hou Dao said."It's rumored that this bottle has once absorbed a Holy demon."

"Haha, that's nonsense!" if he's really that powerful, then let's run away now," Yan laughed. haha!

"This rumor is indeed a bit exaggerated, but it's absolutely true that it can absorb demons. However, there's one thing. A Saint artifact is only an 'artifact', and there's a limit to its power. If it absorbs more than it can contain, then this bottle will be useless."

"There's nothing to worry about then. Although a Holy demon is enough to kill over a thousand demons, the 'energy' contained in these demons is even greater than that of a Holy demon. If the Yin Yang Qi bottle really absorbs them, it'll definitely be destroyed."

that's true, " hou Dao said. but if this bottle really absorbs hundreds of demons, and with the power of the heavenly martial arts realm at this moment, the result of this battle is not optimistic for Qianqian.

These words immediately made the other three fall silent.

Moreover, judging from the nature of the heavenly martial arts realm, more and more experts were joining the battlefield. Who knew if more experts would come in later?

The four of them could not hide the worry in their eyes.

At this moment, the yin and yang Qi bottle was like a Divine Tower in the middle of the sky above Red Moon City.

The strange phenomenon that surrounded them was shocking. The demonic Qi turned into swimming Dragons and kept merging. Finally, it turned into eight huge tornadoes that swirled into the mouth of the bottle.

Not only the demonic Qi, even the “light” of the light barrier and the “fire” of the heavenly Fire barrier couldn’t escape the fate of being absorbed.

Li Mangshan and Feini were shocked and quickly withdrew the barrier.

The Yin Yang Qi bottle was still sucking in “Qi” and couldn’t directly suck in living beings.

Wei Qing waved his hand and gave an order. The hundreds of killing weapons immediately emitted a murderous aura and rushed towards the thousands of demons in the sky.

These killing machines had no personal emotions, only the power of killing and the indomitable loyalty.

The forces of the two worlds clashed, and the sky immediately descended into chaos.

Wei Wuya also charged into the enemy ranks to kill the demon lords. The demon Lord might not be the strongest of these demons, but he was one of the more intelligent ones and even more difficult to deal with. Yunxiao was overjoyed as he roared, “Everyone, let’s finish this quickly!” The people on the ground were in high spirits again.

Feini did not cast any elemental barriers. She charged into the demons and killed them one by one.

With the addition of Zhan Yu and Zhan Hu, as well as Yi’s terrifying abilities, the situation was reversed.

Especially with the destruction of the simulated environment, and now that the demonic Qi had been sucked away by the Yin Yang Qi bottle, it was undoubtedly a drastic change to the demons.

All the demons were 100% exposed to the realm power of the realm of heavenly martial arts. They had no way to resist, and could only rely on themselves to resist.

The number of demons on the ground began to decline, and they were quickly wiped out.

However, on the heavenly martial realm's side, except for the few void God Realm experts of the heavenly martial Alliance, there were almost no other people who could fight.

Yunxiao put all the injured people into the divine realm tablet, leaving only the brothers Zhan Yu and Zhan Qiu, Feini and Yan, Little Qing, Lingmu Di, Beimang Nan, and Pan Yi.

The first few people had joined the battle rather late, while the last few had strong physical bodies. In addition, their own strength was not weak, which was why they had retained their vitality and combat power.

"Can you still fight?" Yunxiao asked.

"Hmph," he snorted.

Zhan Yu snorted sarcastically and ignored him. He and his brother turned into a golden light and flew into the sky.

Exterminating the demons on the ground did not consume much of their strength.

The referee didn't say a word. He disappeared from the ground with a flash of red light.

Qing sighed and said, "we've already come this far, I can't back out." After all, my feelings for this world are much deeper than yours." He held the armillary sphere in his hand, and his figure flickered as he appeared in the sky.

young master Yun, " beifeng Nan suddenly said, " have you ever thought about using that yo-yo? "

I did, " Yunxiao shook his head and said, " but it's obviously not possible now. The resistance of the demonic Qi is extremely strong. Neither your poison nor my green lightning can hurt it. Unless feini's Heavenly Phoenix Fire has the power of the realm and Li Mangshan's light barrier, they can't weaken the demons 'power on a large scale."

"You're right," sighed beimang Nan,"with our current strength, I'm afraid it'll be very difficult for us to unleash the power of the yo-yos."

yes. Yunxiao nodded and said, " after this battle, if you and I can survive, we must find a way to strengthen our strength. If I can fuse a few types of poison and use purple lightning like little Qing's, it'll be a fatal move against these demons. " don't worry, " lingmu di said with a smile. we'll all make it back alive.

The few of them laughed bitterly. Although it was bitter, they had no regrets.

"Even if he's really dead, we'll all die together. It's not a waste of our lives." Feini laughed.

don't be so pessimistic, " Yunxiao said with a smile. we have a good chance of winning.

Everyone was well aware that even if the demon race only had this much strength, their chances of winning were not high, not to mention that inside the crack, who knew what kind of existence was coveting this battlefield.

The few of them did not delay any longer and directly charged into the sky, killing those Devils.

Lu led more than a dozen demon lords and fought with the ten people from mysterious separation Island. As li Mangshan had retracted the light barrier, a Halo appeared on his arm. It seemed to have condensed into a solid form and attacked the group.

With a single strike from this ring of light, a Demon Lord exploded and died. In the blink of an eye, four or five people were killed.

Although li Mangshan's cultivation base was not at the level of creation, he had obtained a rare treasure-the seven apertures exquisite heart. His combat power was not any weaker than the Misty Rock Lord's.

It was also because of the heart of seven apertures that he could gather the power of light on his own. allowing him to control the light at will-

Lu Sha was shocked. If this was the devil realm, he thought he could fight li Mangshan. But now, everyone was completely exposed to the heavenly martial realm. They were suppressed by the realm power and could not breathe. They could only watch as they died one by one.

"Milord!"

A Demon Lord couldn't hold on any longer and cried out in fear. He was extremely afraid.

His intention was clear, which was to retreat. However, before he could reply, li Mangshan's Halo hit the demon Lord's head and he exploded on the spot.

Li Mangshan chuckled. we can't retreat. Let's all die!

His hands made the gesture of scattering flowers, and countless rings of light flew out, hitting those demon lords!

"Bang!"

“Bang!”

The demon lords were instantly killed. Lu Ye was caught off guard and was injured. He couldn't care less and hurriedly turned to escape.

However, how could the other nine experts let him go? they immediately chased after him and killed him.

In the blink of an eye, the twenty most elite demons of this wave had all died.

Li Mangshan retracted the radiance that filled the sky. His calm expression turned serious. A golden shimmer appeared on his chest, emitting a faint light. A transparent heart could be vaguely seen spinning.

The Misty Rock Master said, “ congratulations. Your strength has risen to another level. You've already reached the creation realm, right? ‘

Li Mangshan smiled and said, “ I've touched it. However, I don't have the ten rules. I've only touched it. After this battle, if I can survive, I'll go to Yanwu and try to break through to the fate realm.”

“Hmph,” he snorted.

The Misty Rock Master snorted coldly, sneering, “You have the battle prowess of a creation realm expert. Unless another heaven raising giant demon comes, no one can kill you.”

“Haha, I hope so,” li Mangshan laughed.

A powerful golden light bloomed from his body, and he disappeared in a flash.

The next moment, ten experts from mysterious separation Island joined the battle.

After the Misty Rock Master recuperated for a while, he also stepped into the battle. However, he no longer formed any illusory light blades. He just casually walked around the battle and punched out with his physical body. Every time he punched, a demon would be blown up.

Gong's expression became increasingly unsightly.

Of the two commanders, Lu was dead, while Zi was still fighting with Ling Baiyi. Initially, Zi had the upper hand, but after the demonic Qi was sucked dry by the Yin Yang Qi bottle, the situation gradually reversed, and Zi was now at a disadvantage..

Chapter 2183 Battle of the Redmoon city (25)

After losing a peak-level Demon Lord, the strength of those in the battle ring was limited. Zhan Yu and the others were killing almost every time they attacked, and a demon died with every strike.

Li Mangshan's moves were even more incisive, and his halos were thrown out as if they were free, killing a large number of demons.

In front of the demonic mirror, the four demon supremacies looked gloomy as they watched the battle gradually lose ground and be swallowed by the experts of the heavenly martial realm.

The four of them were like wooden sculptures, without a hint of life. The heavy atmosphere made it hard for people to breathe. After a while, the defeat was almost certain.

"What should we do?" hou asked.

No one could answer this question.

At this moment, there were only two groups of forces left in the crack position. One group was guarding the position and could not be deployed.

There was only the last batch of manpower left. If they were to throw in too, then there would be no one left to use.

The most important thing was, could they win by investing the last batch of people?

The four demon supremacies were not confident.

They watched as the Devils were annihilated one by one, and even purple was seriously injured by Yunxiao's sneak attack and killed by Ling Baiyi's purple sword.

Yunxiao's plan was simple. He wanted to kill purple as soon as possible and release Ling Baiyi's power so that purple would not consume too much of it.

However, Ling Baiyi was extremely displeased, and he thrust his sword at Yunxiao.

"He's crazy!"

Yunxiao flew into a rage. At this moment, Ling Baiyi was still acting willfully. In a flash, he turned into a Thunderbolt and flew back.

"How can I allow you to casually interfere in my matters? there will be no next time!"

After warning Yunxiao, Ling Baiyi also floated up and headed toward the battlefield.

"Next time, your sister!"

damn it! Yunxiao cursed angrily, "if not for the demonic tribulation, I would have killed you right now! If it wasn't for the fact that your strength was so low and you couldn't win after a long battle, would this young master need to launch a sneak attack? Do you think I like sneak attacks? Bah, this really hurts my dignity!"

Ling Baiyi didn't pay any attention to him after cursing him for a while. He felt bored and continued to fight in the battle.

Everyone felt an inexplicable joy in their hearts, as if victory was in sight.

At this moment, no more demons appeared from the crack, and the demons in the sky were quickly swept away.

Wei Qing put away the Yin Yang Qi bottle, and the only sound left in the sky was the breathing of the people and the killing weapons. It was terrifyingly quiet.

The ground was filled with black potholes and cracks. There was no trace of a city at all.

"Has it ended?"

"Did you win?"

These two questions lingered in everyone's mind. Yunxiao raised his head and looked at the crack, his pupils constricting.

Lingmu di said coldly, "I don't know if it's over or not, but the demons must be bitterly disappointed by the killing." This battle is not any weaker than the ones from a hundred thousand years ago. I'm afraid there are a few demon Venerables behind the crack. Otherwise, it's impossible to mobilize so many demons with the power of one demon venerable."

"Are you bitterly disappointed, Zhenzhen?"

Yunxiao's eyes flickered with a cold gleam as he gritted his teeth and said, "If not for the fact that I'm exhausted, I really want to rush into the crack and kill these bastards!"

Everyone took out all kinds of pills and swallowed them, trying to buy time to recover their energy.

The battle had also made Yunxiao realize the importance of alchemists. If he could develop an armor that could resist devil Qi, a weapon that could attack demons, and a large number of medicinal pills that could quickly restore one's primordial Qi, the casualties in this battle would be reduced by more than half.

In front of the magic mirror, flame couldn't help but become agitated. He roared, "What's going on now? who's going to say something? Hou, you were the one who gathered everyone here. Now, tell me, what should we do?"

"Al, in my opinion, we should retreat," Hou Chang sighed.

"What?"

"You want to retreat at a time like this?" Yan Zhen angrily said. At least 4000 elite demons died on this killing field, and you want to retreat now?" "What do you think?" Hou Dao asked.

"How would I know?!" Yan said angrily. Didn't I ask you a question?" Ji also sighed and shook her head. I no longer have the strength to advance. I have to retreat eventually.

"What? Even you think we should retreat?"

Yan angrily rebuked. He turned to Gong and said, "What's your opinion?"

Gong rolled his eyes at him. you don't have any objections, but you don't agree with others. What are you trying to do? "

"Then you agree to withdraw?" Yan was stunned.

"We've already fought to this point. Don't say that we don't have the power to take down this city. Even if they managed to take it down, they would not have the strength to defend it. If we want to defend the city, we have to defend this chasm as well. Otherwise, our escape route will be cut off, and we'll die." "That's right, to guard these two positions, we need at least two thousand elite mo. At this moment, we only have two thousand men left. Even if we take down the city without losing a single soldier, it'll be just right."

Yan's face darkened as he said, "So you three agree to run away with your tails between your legs?"

a loss is a loss," Gong said angrily. don't forget that you're also one of them. Why do you have to smear sh * t on your face and embarrass yourself? ' Yan nu snorted and did not say anything else.

"Although the battle was brutal and we suffered great losses, it was not completely ineffective," Ji said. The casualties of the realm of heavenly martial arts couldn't be ignored. We'll open the crack here and constantly dispatch low level demons to release them from the crack, allowing them to gradually demonize the external environment."

"Demonize? I have the yin and yang air bottle. Once I suck it in, I'll lose everything! "

Yan was extremely displeased, and he could not help but open his mouth and roar twice.

Hou said,"Ji's method is not bad. It's impossible for a person with a Yin Yang Qi bottle to guard this place for a long time." There was also a more important function of releasing the monsters, which was to attack the crack and cause it to constantly change. I believe that in the near future, the four of us will be able to descend there in our true bodies. At that time, no Rascal will be able to escape death!"

"That's the only thing we can do now," Gong tan said.

After the four reached an agreement, they immediately withdrew their demonic power, only to feel that their bodies were empty, as if they had been dug out.

With a wave of his hand, the green land Dragon Ring returned to his hand and disappeared in a flash on his arm.

The crack in front of him began to show signs of shrinking, and its bright color turned dark. There was a faint pressure.

In the sky above the red moon City, lingmu di stared at the crack for a while and suddenly said, "The devil clan has retreated."

"He retreated?"

Everyone's heart trembled as they looked up at the sky with complicated expressions. They didn't know what they were feeling.

Suddenly, the crack moved like a human's wound, and a large amount of demonic Qi began to pour out.

Yunxiao and the others watched the demonic aura pour out. It was not very strong, and when it fell on the ground, it flowed like water.

As if they didn't care about it, everyone didn't feel anything at all about the demonic Qi.

There were also many low-level demons mixed in the demonic Qi, which flowed down with the demonic Qi and flew everywhere.

Fei Ni waved her hand and a wave of flames shot out, burning all the demons to death. She asked suspiciously, "The high-level demons are all dead, and they're sending these low-level things to fight?"

"No," lingmu di shook his head, "the high-level demons should have left already. These demons were either the remnants that had escaped on their own, or they were some conspiracies left behind by the demons after they left. They kept releasing demons in order to disturb the surrounding environment in the long run. It can be considered a helpless move, but it also shows their determination to never give up the invasion." what should we do then? " Yunxiao said in a deep voice. such a big crack can't be sealed even if we seal it. We can't just let him open it. "

let's follow our previous plan, " lingmu di said. we'll build a 'moving fortress' and monitor these cracks.

but we have suffered too many casualties in this battle, " Yunxiao said sadly.

half of the elites of the heavenly martial Union and mysterious separation Island have died on the battlefield. Even if we can build a 'moving fortress', I'm afraid we won't have enough manpower."

"Your worry is not without reason," lingmu di said. But don't forget, this is about the war between the two realms, and in the realm of heavenly martial arts, we humans are not the only ones."

Yunxiao was taken aback. but the human race is the most powerful race in the world. The demon race is not as powerful as before, and all the high-level officials in the four Seas have been slaughtered. It is very chaotic now.

don't forget about the four Seas and the abyss, " said lingmu di indifferently. don't forget about the land and the aristocratic families living in seclusion overseas. In this world, the power is far more complex and powerful than what we see on the surface. Also, don't forget the coordinates that Baishu Yui gave you." a true dragon! Yunxiao's heart stirred. a true dragon!

Lingmu di nodded. although I don't know about time and space, I can foresee that a new generation of true dragons will be born soon. When that happens, there will be one more World King. The whole situation will be different.

Yunxiao was not the only one who felt excited when he heard those words. Everyone present felt their breath lift.

"Lord mu di is right, " li Mangshan said. In mysterious separation Island, many experts were still unconscious, but they were gradually waking up. Lord Island master's strength is also profound and unfathomable."

Yunxiao's spirits were lifted as well. "Since that's the case, then there's no time to waste. Let's go back to Yanwu and discuss the construction of the 'mobile fortress'. In addition, I have some intentions in mind."

He thought of the MU family's heavenspan Island, which was a huge Golem. If he could build a dozen of such giant islands, it would be of great significance for the heavenly martial realm to guard the crack.

"What about this place?" feini asked. Are we just going to let them be?"

everyone is either injured or dead," li Mangshan said. let's guard this place for a while. He pointed at the other nine people.

Those nine people immediately cried out for injustice and refused to do it.

We're also looking forward to going to Yanwu to comprehend the rules.

"That's right, it wasn't easy to get out of mysterious separation Island, the conditions here are even worse than mysterious separation Island, who would want to stay here."

"Are we not injured? Where did the blood on my face come from?"

Li Mangshan's face darkened and he shouted, "if you don't want to work, then go back to Xuan Li Island and serve ye Qingyu!" Whoever talks to me again will get lost immediately! "

Chapter 2184-Lord of the earth realm

Li Mangshan was furious. With a shout, the nine people's expressions changed and they no longer said a word.

In fact, they were used to fighting, and they had joined the war later and had not experienced the painful environment before, so they looked much more relaxed.

The others couldn't relax, and some even felt like crying.

you've just come out of mysterious separation Island," Yunxiao said. you should go to Yanwu to study the rules of ten sides. It's just that we're short on manpower right now, so I'll have to trouble you to help us out for the time being. I'll immediately send people to pick you up when the manpower is transferred."

Li Mangshan quickly cupped his fists and said, "that's what I should do." Alliance master Yun, don't listen to their nonsense. They don't know what's good for them. I'll make them stay here forever."

The nine of them looked like they were about to cry, but they still looked honest.

Then, Yunxiao and the others waved their hands and left in desolation, leaving only ten bleak figures in the sky.

In a deep pool in the demonic realm.

With a "bang," the water in the pond exploded again. This time, it was even more violent than before. All the water vapor evaporated in an instant and turned into nothing.

Di Jia rushed up with a gloomy face and landed on a mountain peak. He looked at the deep pool coldly, his face extremely ugly.

"Who is it?"

Di Jia shouted and looked into the void, as if he had noticed someone.

"Hehe, my Lord, how have you been?"

A white figure slowly appeared from the void, with a smile on his mouth, looking at di Jia quietly.

This person's eyes were light blue, like a pool of blue water, so deep that one couldn't see the bottom.

"Who are you?" di Jia shouted in a deep voice. I don't think I know you."

The figure smiled and said, "Lord has been sealed for 100000 years. In addition, your memory is incomplete. It's normal for you to forget me." I'm now considered half a demon, you can call me Hu."

"Hu? Half a demon?"

"So, you weren't a demon before?" di Jia asked.

"It's been too long, I've forgotten about it," Hu said with a smile.

it's good that you've forgotten," di Jia snorted coldly. otherwise, you'll be too tired if your memory is too good.

what?" di Jia pointed at the pool and said coldly, " you took what I left here? "

Hu chuckled and lightly knocked his head with a finger."It's been too long, I've really forgotten."

"You forgot? Looks like I'll have to let you remember properly!"

Di Jia's face turned cold. He rose from the top of the mountain and grabbed at the void with his five fingers. The agama bone Cleaver was slowly pulled out, exuding boundless demonic will.

Hu looked at the blade with a look of desire. He licked his lips and smiled, "The six paths demonic weapon. I can't believe it's still in your hands after a hundred thousand years. It's truly a weapon that's loyal to its subjects."

"Oh, it looks like you are very interested in this mo weapon."

Di Jia raised the knife and admired it for a while. Suddenly, without saying a word, he teleported in front of Hu and suddenly chopped down! Huts hand was empty, but he raised his hand to grab the mo weapon!

“Savage!”

Di Jia was furious. For thousands of years, no one had ever dared to catch a demonic weapon empty-handed. It was simply incredible and unheard of. are you a madman and an idiot?!

“Swish!”

The Aghan bone Cleaver fell and directly cut off Hu’s entire arm.

hahaha, good blade, it’s really a good blade!

Not only was Hu not in pain, but he also laughed even more excitedly. He stuck out his red tongue and licked his lips as he stared at the blade.

“Since you like it so much, I’ll use this blade to send you to the West!”

Di Jia’s blade flashed and slashed horizontally, directly cutting Hu’s head.

Huts face revealed a strange and sinister smile. He gently stepped back and formed a seal with one hand.

The Dahan saber fell and cut through Huts body.

suddenly, an array pattern appeared on Hu’s body at the mouth of the saber. The array pattern rotated and gathered on the saber.

“This formation of mist!”

Di Jia suddenly trembled and cried out, ” who the hell are you?!

He suddenly pulled out his saber and wanted to retreat.

But it was too late. Hu's only remaining arm grabbed over. With a " bang ", his five fingers were like claws, and he pinched di Jia's shoulder, not letting him go.

Di Jia was extremely anxious. He hurriedly chanted a spell and transformed into three heads and six arms. The giant spirit of the true devil appeared behind him and formed a seal with six arms.

Hu's face was filled with a sinister smile as he mumbled something. Behind him, a giant spirit also slowly condensed. It also had three heads and six arms.

"No! It's impossible!"

Di Jia looked at the Dharma, and inexplicably fear welled up in his heart. He seemed to have lost his mind in an instant.

"Nothing is impossible in this world."

Hu looked at him coldly. true fiend Dharma and true fiend dharma body were born with the six paths demonic weapon. It's not something that only you can have. I can have it too!

The Dharmakaya behind Hu formed a hand seal and charged forward.

The two giant spirits fought in the sky, and beams of demonic light scattered in all directions, shaking the world.

The battle between the two seemed to be on par, but di Jia was anxious. This was because he knew that Hu's strength was above his. They seemed to be on par at the moment because Hu had put a lot of effort into the agama bone Cleaver!

The agama bone Cleaver seemed to have been enchanted as it continued to penetrate deeper into the man's body.

Di Jia's heart could not help but turn cold as if he had fallen into an abyss. He could clearly feel that his control over the agama was getting weaker and weaker.

"Haha, it seems like the rumors are true!"

Hu laughed wildly, his eyes becoming even more blue because of his excitement. It's rumored that the six paths demonic weapon is an item without a spirit. One must sacrifice their own body to the weapon and turn themselves into the weapon spirit of the demonic weapon. Only then can one communicate with the demonic weapon and become its owner!

"Oh, no, I was wrong. It should be the slave of the mo weapon!"

Hu proudly laughed and said, "Because the heavenly Saint tool represents the highest law of the world, and it itself is formed from the law, so the heavenly Saint tool can't be controlled by the spirit of the world. Only by sacrificing one's body to the tool, becoming the tool spirit, can one truly control and display the greatest power of the heavenly Saint tool! Am I right? The king of the Western regions, Bei Jinghong!"

Hu's eyes were actually looking into the distance as he spoke.

Di Jia was slightly surprised. Everything Hu said was true, which made him feel extremely uneasy. This kind of uneasiness had never been felt before, not even when he was sealed by the experts of the heavenly martial realm.

As long as he had the Ascended tier equipment, he would not die.

This was because he was the weapon spirit of a heavenly Saint weapon!

Once he died, the six paths demonic weapon would open the entrance to the demonic realm in the realm of heavenly martial arts, allowing the two realms to merge.

Therefore, the experts of the realm of heavenly martial arts couldn't do anything to him, and could only suppress him separately.

But now, he suddenly felt the threat of death. This was the devil realm, and if he died in the devil realm, the devil weapons would not react.

The person in front of him not only had the power to kill him, but also the skill to subdue the demon soldiers.

The array around the agama bone Cleaver was a sacrificial array!

Hu Zheng had turned himself into the weapon spirit of the agama bone Cleaver by casting an array and thus seized the agama bone Cleaver!

In the sky not far away, bei Jinghong's figure appeared under the slight ripples. His eyes were also filled with panic. He looked at Hu with extreme fear. you Qianqian, you are Qianqian.

"Hehe, it's still my old friend who hasn't forgotten me," Hu grinned.

Bei Jinghong vigilantly took out the Golden Wheel of the magical tree and protected himself. He gritted his teeth and said, "It's you! The Lord of the earth, Zhuo kun!"

"What?"

Di Jia's body trembled. He looked at the person in front of him and seemed to remember something.

One hundred thousand years ago, during the war between the two realms, he was one of the four realm Kings of the heavenly martial realm, the Lord of the earth realm!

Di Jia gritted his teeth. How did you come to the devil World? and you demonized yourself! he said.

“It’s a long story,” Hu said with a smile.

A look of reminiscence flashed across his face, and he said, “But I’m too excited right now, I’m not in the mood to talk about the past. Demon Lord, you’re one of the top existences in history, but now you’re about to be annihilated. What do you think?”

“Thoughts your sister! If you want to kill me, you’ll have to wait for your next life!”

Di Jia roared and poured all his demonic power into the agama. At the same time, his four arms behind him made hand seals, trying to summon more demonic soldiers.

“With your current strength, you can’t summon a second demonic weapon. I can only digest one for now, so don’t waste your time.” Zhuo kun smiled faintly.

His light blue eyes flashed, and di Jia’s entire body was covered in blue light. The demonic Qi that he had condensed was constantly dissipating.

netherworld fire?!

Di Jia’s heart trembled and he cried out, “you’re already a member of the demon race. How can you still use the realm power of the heavenly martial realm?”

Bei Jinghong was also shocked. He made a prompt decision and took out the Golden Wheel of the Magic Tree, which turned into a few acres large and flew out.

“Bang!”

An extremely powerful force struck the Golden Wheel and sent it flying.

Bei Jinghong looked around in panic. who is it?! he shouted.

His divine sense didn't detect anyone, but his sense of smell allowed him to smell a faint fragrance.

To his surprise, he discovered that there was a woman standing about 300 feet in front of him with a cold expression and a sinister smile on her face.

Bei Jinghong's face was twisted and his body couldn't help but tremble.

The woman just stood there quietly, but he couldn't sense her at all. This proved that her strength was far above his!

Bei Jinghong spat out two words with difficulty. He gritted his teeth and said, "Demon Lord!"

"The sovereign of the kun tribe, Yuan," the woman nodded.

It could be considered a self-introduction, and it seemed very polite. However, Yuan's eyes were filled with disdain and indifference, as if she was looking at a dead man.

Zhuo kun! bei Jinghong said angrily, " you were once the leader of the heavenly martial arts realm, but now you're willing to fall and become a demon. You even colluded with the demon Lord of the demon race!

"Hahaha! "

Zhuo kun laughed wildly. bei Jinghong, there's one good thing about the devil World. The people here are relatively straightforward. There are very few people like you who don't mean what they say. If you're so righteous, then what's your purpose in coming to this deep pool? Also, I've met the master of the divine realm tablet, but he doesn't seem to be able to control the tablet. It should be because of your selfishness that you refused to tell him the truth about the artifact Spirit, right?"

"Hmph!"

Bei Jinghong's face turned green and white. He knew that it would be difficult to make fun of him again. He snorted coldly, turned around, and turned into a light to escape..

Chapter 2185-di Jia's death what a headache. Are all the people in the realm of heavenly martial arts as brainless as you? "

Yuan smacked her head as if she had a slight headache and said, your strength is only at the void tier in the realm of heavenly martial arts, not to mention that you're suppressed by the realm power of the demon Realm. How stupid are you to think of escaping from a demon commander? "

"Lady Yuan, don't talk nonsense. Quickly kill this man." Zhuo kun said. The tree's Golden Wheel in his hand is a good thing."

Yuan nodded and disappeared.

Bei Jinghong had just run a few thousand feet when he felt a huge pressure falling from the sky, bringing with it a terrifying aura of death.

"Dammit!"

Bei Jinghong roared in anger. The Golden Wheel of the magical tree spun in his hand and transformed into a world.

Yuan's figure appeared in the sky. She held a long spear in one hand, and her red tassels fluttered in front of the spear as she struck down!

"Bang!"

The tip of the long spear pierced into the heavens and earth. The Golden Wheel of the Magic Tree trembled violently, but it was still unable to stop the long spear.

Bei Jinghong's expression changed drastically. He knew that this was the difference in strength between the two.

As for the suppression of the realm power of the demon world, it was not much of a problem for him. After all, he had lived with the demon master for 100000 years in the thirty-three heavens. He had also absorbed a large amount of demonic Qi and cultivated demonic techniques, so he had a certain resistance to the realm power.

However, at this moment, no matter how little the pressure was, it was still a huge burden.

“BOOM!”

The enchantment of the Magic Tree's Golden Wheel shattered. Bei Jinghong spat out a mouthful of blood. He suddenly used the Golden Wheel as a hidden weapon and shot it out. He then turned into a light and escaped.

Yuan smiled faintly, and her graceful figure flashed as she grabbed the Magic Tree Golden Wheel in her hand. At the same time, she fiercely shot her long spear over.

The time in front of him seemed to have stopped. Bei Jinghong's figure was strangely stagnant and was directly penetrated by the spear.

Blood spurted into the sky. Bei Jinghong spat out a large mouthful of blood, his eyes ferocious.

It was hard to tell if that complicated gaze was filled with hatred, regret, reminiscence, or even unwillingness.

But no matter what it was, he no longer had the life to maintain that emotion. His body was nailed to the ground by the spear, blood flowing down, and he died quietly.

With a wave of Yuan's hand, the long spear flew back and disappeared in a flash.

Bei Jinghong's body fell to the ground. Soon, a large number of low-level demon creatures came over to corrode it.

Dijia's heart suddenly sank. He squinted and saw that Yuan had finished the battle and was playing with the Golden Wheel of the Magic Tree not far away.

The true fiend dharma body also began to fall into a disadvantageous position. Its power was completely suppressed by the underworld fire, and its whole body was burning.

His devil essence and even his will started to collapse.

The agama bone Cleaver had completely lost control and was beginning to be refined by Zhuo kun.

After a while, di Jia was in a trance, and his vitality was constantly flowing away.

Far away in the heavenly martial realm, Yunxiao was on his way back to Yanwu when he was suddenly shocked, and an inexplicable feeling spread in his heart.

The feeling was unusually real, as if something had been extracted from his body.

"What's going on?"

He was shocked, and at the same time, he felt that di Jia's life was weak. "Di Jia bi an, six paths demonic weapon bi an"

Yunxiao's eyes were filled with shock. what the hell is going on? "

Lingmu di and the others had noticed that something was wrong with him. They came forward and asked with concern, "Young master Yun, what's wrong?"

Yunxiao was silent for a moment, then a sad look appeared on his face as he said, "I suddenly felt that di Jia was dead."

"Di Jia? A devil Lord?"

The rest of the people were slightly shocked. Feini laughed and said, "Isn't it better to die?"

With a wry smile, Yunxiao shook his head, then nodded and said, "Maybe. However, I still had a great affinity with him. Along the way, we were both friends and enemies, so I'm still a little sad about his death."

"You shouldn't be sad," said lingmu di. "Too many people have died this time."

The death of each of them, to you, to me, to the entire realm of heavenly martial arts, is far greater than the death of di Jia."

Only then did Yunxiao's face turn serious. He nodded and said, "You are right, Lord mu di."

Lingmu di said, "but di Jia was the devil master's avatar after all. It's hard to imagine how he died. Maybe the devil World is also changing unexpectedly. Let's just go with the flow.

Yunxiao nodded and did not say anything else.

However, his heart was filled with great confusion about di Jia's death.

Xiao Hong, who lived overseas, was just as confused as he was. She was also extremely shocked.

Jing Qi couldn't help frowning. Heavenly venerable, you're feeling uneasy again. Did li Yunxiao use his demonic weapon again? "

I can't cultivate anymore. Xiao Hong shook her head. I have to go to the heavenly martial continent.

li Yunxiao? " Jing Qi's face darkened. are you going to find li Yunxiao? ' Xiao Hong's face turned cold as she stared at him and said, " "What does it have to do with you who I'm looking for? If you don't like it, then get lost!"

She wasn't polite at all. After she shouted, she turned into a beam of light and left, completely ignoring Jing Qi.

Jing Qi's face turned as red as a zombie, full of hatred and anger. But then he stomped his foot, and a golden coffin flew up. He landed on the coffin and chased after Xiao Hong.

A few hours later, Yunxiao and the others finally came out of the passage and returned to Yanwu.

However, as soon as they appeared in the heavenly martial realm, everyone's faces changed drastically. They saw a monstrous demonic energy gathering above Yanwu, and like a storm coming, the demonic energy was like clouds, pressing down.

"How could this be? Could it be that a crack also appeared here?"

Beifeng Nan said in shock, full of vigilance.

Everyone was on guard and looked around.

The defensive array of Yanwu was activated to its maximum, and a faint golden light spread out from the city.

The light looked faint, but it was actually hiding an extremely powerful killing move.

The experts in the city hovered in the air, watching quietly, as if waiting for the moment the demonic Qi fell.

In the alchemy Academy, Ding Ling 'er's face was pale with worry.

At this moment, the city was almost empty and the remaining experts were all below the Supreme Dao stage. If the devil were to attack, they could only rely on the city's great formation to defend. However, she had no idea how long the great formation could last.

since we're here, let's just take things as they are," Tenshou Zi consoled her. this formation is a mixture of dozens of different formations and can be considered the strongest formation in the world. If it really doesn't work, we can also send the unfinished twelve men of gold to resist for a while."

I'm not afraid of the city being destroyed, nor am I afraid of death," Ding Ling

'er nodded and said. what I'm afraid of is that the foundation that big brother Yunxiao has built with great efforts will be destroyed. I won't be able to explain it to him when he returns."

Yuan gaohan furrowed his brows. I really don't understand what's so good about him. He's full of flaws, but he can still trick girls into following him without any complaints.

Ding Ling 'er smiled faintly, but it was a bitter smile. Yunxiao's figure appeared in her mind, and she did not know if she would ever see him again in this life.

"The demonic Qi is massive, but we haven't seen any demons," said tenzhaozi."It might not be as bad as we think." If it's just the invasion of demonic Qi, then it's completely fine."

"I hope so," Ding Ling 'er sighed.

That being said, no one knew that the monstrous demonic energy would not appear for no reason. There must be a crack around, or there was a plot against Yanwu.

In the air, Yunxiao stared at the demonic aura, his eyes turning into different colors. After staring at it for a while, his face grew uglier.

“Shit! This isn’t an invasion of the demon race. This dense demonic Qi is the result of the demon Lord PU’s seal finally loosening!”

Yunxiao said in shock. Then, he suddenly had an idea and said, “ Puye must have felt di Jia’s death. That’s why he broke the seal in anger!

“Aren’t they sworn enemies?” lingmu di asked curiously. Why are you angry?”

No. Yunxiao shook his head and said, “ the relationship between the Emperor and the general is extremely subtle. They are of the same origin. Now it’s not only the death of di Jia, but also the loss of Aghan’s bone Cleaver. It must have infuriated the demon Lord.”

“Can we stop mo PU’s rage with our current strength?” feini asked in shock.

Yunxiao immediately said, ‘I don’t know! However, with the city’s defensive formation and US, we should be able to do it. After all, we didn’t kill di Jia. If PU Zhen wanted to investigate, he would have to go back to the devil realm! Let’s return to the city first!”

After saying that, they hurriedly flew down.

Yunxiao saw Ding Ling ‘er in the alchemy Academy at first glance and said anxiously, “ “Ling ‘er, quickly open the city’s great array and let us in!” When Ding Ling ‘er saw this, she trembled and couldn’t help but be overjoyed.

She even sobbed softly.

quickly, quickly open the formation light and let big brother Yunxiao and the rest in!

Ding Ling 'er hurriedly passed down the order. Because she was too anxious, she seemed a little flustered.

"You can't!"

Yuan gaohan suddenly stopped her and said in a deep voice, "Why did Yunxiao and the others suddenly come back at this juncture? I suspect there's a trap! Moreover, these people are most likely demons to deceive us. Once we open the gate, we'll be in danger!"

Ding Ling 'er was stunned for a moment, then she shook her head and said, ' but what if it really is big brother Yunxiao and the others? "

you have to be rational, " Yuan gaohan said. how can Yunxiao come back at this time? "

Ding Ling 'er raised her head and stared at the sky for a while, then said firmly, ' I believe that's the real big brother Yunxiao.

"Why?" Yuan gaohan frowned.

"Intuition!" Ding Ling 'er said firmly.

"Intuition? Haha, don't you think it's ridiculous to rely on your intuition when we're facing a great enemy?"

Yuan gaohan couldn't help but scold angrily.

"It's not funny at all,"

you don't even have intuition," Ding Ling 'er said lightly. how can you tell that it's not true?" Since I can't be sure, I'll deal with it with the real thing."

"We can't determine whether it's real or fake, so shouldn't we deal with it with a fake one?" Yuan gaohan's face changed slightly.

that's because you care about Yanwu's safety," Ding Ling 'er said with a smile. I care about big brother Yunxiao's safety. As for Yanwu, without big brother Yunxiao, I don't care if it lives or dies."

I order you to open the city's great array!

Ding Ling 'er shouted in a deep voice, and the order was sent far away.

Yuan gaohan was anxious and wanted to stop him, but he was pulled back by Tian zhaozi, who shook his head at him..

Chapter 2185 -lost demonic weapon

In the sky, Yunxiao suddenly cried out, "Yuan gaohan, you idiot, you actually said this young master is fake! I haven't told anyone about you sneaking around at the foot of Mount inch every day in my divine realm tablet!"

"Pfft!"

Yuan gaohan spat out a mouthful of blood on the spot and roared, "Dammit! You, you're slandering me!"

"Hmph, you know very well whether I'm slandering you or not."

Yunxiao said coldly, staring at him with a mocking look.

Yuan gaohan only felt a great injustice covering his head, and the gazes of the people around him became strange, seemingly with inexplicable ridicule.

Even Amaterasu was startled.

“Master, there’s no such thing! Li Yunxiao is slandering me!” Yuan gaohan said in a trembling voice.

Tenshou quickly coughed and interrupted, “Alright, alright, I naturally believe that he’s slandering you. But, this man is most likely Li Yunxiao, and he is the only one who would be so ridiculous.”

Yuan gaohan was no longer in the mood to care about whether Yunxiao was real or not. He only felt that the way the people around him looked at him had changed, and his heart kept sinking. His hands and feet were cold.

“Cough, cough, Lord Yuan gaohan, there’s no need to be so depressed. We’re all men, we can understand.”

Mu Zhuang coughed and said seriously, “Everyone, do you understand?”

“Yes, yes, I can understand. We’re all men, hehe.”

All the alchemists around him agreed, as if it was all right, there was no need to be afraid, and they all understood.

“Pfft!”

Yuan gaohan once again spat out a mouthful of blood and fell back on the spot, heavily falling to the ground.

His mind was still somewhat clear, and he could hear all kinds of sounds.

Aiya, as expected, he's overinjured. He fell just like that.

there's an ancient saying: 'a small kun is happy, a big kun hurts the body, and a strong kun is annihilated.' The people of the ancient times can not be bullied!

alas, I can't believe that even a master alchemist of a generation can't escape this cliché.

"Nonsense, Lord Yuan gaohan is also a man, unless you're castrated!"

Yuan gaohan, who was lying on the ground, felt his vision go black, and he could no longer hear anything. He immediately fainted.

Soon, the city's defender array was opened.

Yunxiao and the others got off in a single file and flew into the Academy.

"Yi, what's wrong with Lord Yuan gaohan?"

Yunxiao asked in surprise with an innocent look on his face.

Ding Ling 'er couldn't help but laugh. She covered her mouth and said, "

"Because you exposed His Excellency's shortcomings, he fainted from anger."

Yunxiao shook his head and sighed. his mental strength is weak. Let's not talk about it.

Tian Zhaozi looked at the heavily injured men and could not help but be shocked. "Where's the others?"

The expressions of the few of them immediately dimmed.

except for some seriously injured comrades who are still in the divine realm tablet, " Yunxiao said in a deep voice. the rest of my comrades have all died in battle.

The whole Alchemy Academy fell into an unusual silence.

A heavy and indignant atmosphere spread in the courtyard. Everyone felt an unusual pressure on their chest, making it hard for them to breathe.

"Where are sister Hongyan and sister Yunshang?" Ding Ling 'er covered her mouth and asked in surprise.

they are only injured, " Yunxiao said. they are recuperating in the divine realm tablet.

He then took out the divine realm tablet and said, " there are about thirty injured. Thank you for taking care of them, master Amaterasu.

Everyone's heart trembled. This number was even less than they had expected. Almost all the Supreme Dao experts in Yanwu had gone to the battle, more than four hundred of them, but less than one-tenth of them had returned.

Amaterasu also felt his throat go dry. He knew that this was not the time to grieve, so he immediately said in a deep voice, " young master Yun, don't worry. Leave these people to me. As long as they're not dead, they won't die!

He immediately ordered his subordinates to bring the wounded away to the secret chamber to recuperate.

my Lords," Yunxiao said. I have some thoughts I would like to discuss with you.

"Let's talk about it later," Amaterasu said. With the demonic Qi filling the sky, I'm afraid a war is about to start.

No. Yunxiao shook his head. This demonic aura is not an invasion of the devil race. It's Mo Pu who is about to break free.

"What?"

Everyone was shocked and looked at each other. Tenzhaozi quickly said, "Then what should we do?"

It's only a matter of time before The Fiend Lord breaks free," Yunxiao said. We can't stop him. We can only take one step at a time and wait for Mo Pu to come out completely. Right now, only the demonic Qi in his body is being released. I don't know how long it will take for him to completely condense his true body." "Are we just going to let him go?" Tenshou frowned.

I can't even take care of myself," Yunxiao said with a wry smile. What can I do?

"Compared to the invading demons, I feel that the danger is much smaller." Young Master Yun, you're not wrong," Tenzhaozi said. If it's just a Demon Lord who's been sealed for a hundred thousand years, the harm might not be as great as we think. Let's be on guard and wait for Mo Pu to appear before we talk to him."

Yunxiao nodded and said to the Mist Rock Lord and the others behind him, "

"You guys should go rest first. There might be a big battle later."

The Misty Rock Master and the others didn't stand on ceremony, and Ding Ling'er hurriedly sent people to bring them into seclusion.

It was only then that Yunxiao began to talk to tenzhaozi and the other alchemists, telling them in detail about the mobile fortress, the weapons, and the armor.

Tenshou Zi's eyes brightened, but then dimmed again. "It's not difficult to make a battle weapon or armor. The difficult part is how to restrain and defend against the demonic Qi."

"The structure of Tongtian Island is extremely complicated, and it can't be built in a short time," mu Zhuang said. The MU clan has only had this one heavenspan Island for countless years."

I know it's difficult, " Yunxiao said with a wry smile. but you don't have to strike me down like this. As the saying goes, where there's a will, there's a way. As for the battle weapons and armors, there's one person or one item that can help. "

Under Tian zhaozi's curious gaze, the divine realm tablet flashed and a figure staggered out.

There were thin golden stripes on his limbs and neck, which were the divine realm tablet's chain of laws.

Many people seemed to recognize the person in front of them and exclaimed, "Bo Yuqing?"

Bo Yuqing looked around and his expression changed slightly. He said in a deep voice, " "Where is this place? What do you want to do?"

Yunxiao took out another item and handed it to tenzhaozi. "This is the demonic essence lock passed down from Chu Sheng Feng's bloodline. It can lock up demonic essence power, but it was destroyed in the previous battle. This person is Chu Shengfeng's disciple, so he must know something."

Tian zhaozi was overjoyed. He held the demonic essence lock in his palm and looked at it carefully. with this as a reference and Bo Yuqing's help, we should be able to research the corresponding armor very soon.

yes! Yunxiao nodded and said, " I'll leave this Bo Yuqing to you. You must not break the seal on him. If there's a situation, I'd rather kill him than let him escape."

Bo Yuqing's expression changed slightly and he gritted his teeth, "I don't know anything about this devil essence lock."

so, you're saying that brother Yu Qing is of no value?" Yunxiao laughed. if this man is of no value, " he said to Amaterasu, " gather a group of alchemists and form a formation to search his soul. Extract every piece of memory.

Bo Yuqing's face instantly turned ashen as he roared, " li Yunxiao, you bastard!

His face instantly changed shape under the roar. It became extremely ferocious, and demonic patterns covered his body.

Yunxiao chuckled. don't be angry, brother Yu Qing. I'm studying the method to get rid of demonization. If I make some achievements and you're not dead yet, you'll be the first one to use it.

"I've observed the structure of heavenspan Island," mu Xing suddenly said."It'll take a lot of time and effort to complete it, but it can be simplified if it's only used to monitor the rift and use it in battle. I'll create a few models as soon as possible and start mass production in the shortest time possible."

Without waiting for mu Zhuang to speak, mu Xing immediately ordered, "Tell all the members of the MU clan to come to Yanwu, and bring heavenspan Island as well.

Mu Zhuang was stunned for a moment and smiled bitterly. Since the old ancestor had spoken, he could not object even if he wanted to.

Moreover, the current situation was indeed extremely urgent. The MU family also had the responsibility to take responsibility in this crisis.

"Alright, I'll do it now," he immediately replied.

Everyone got busy. Ding Ling 'er said, " big brother Yunxiao, you're tired too. Have a good rest. If the demon master comes, I'll call you immediately.

It was only then that Yunxiao looked at his body and found that his injuries had all healed, but the energy he had consumed would not recover in a short time.

He was not in the mood to rest. Instead, he was thinking about the matter of the magic puppet. He did not know how big of a mess it would cause.

While he was thinking, the demonic Qi in the sky suddenly boiled and gradually condensed into the face of mo PU. It was as light as smoke, staring at the city.

The martial artists in the city were all shocked and began to panic.

Yunxiao was also taken aback. He flew into the sky and stood under the city's defensive array, facing mo PU's face.

MO PU's eyes fell on him, and suddenly burst into a fierce look, shouting, "Li Yunxiao!"

Lord PU," Yunxiao said coldly. how have you been? "

"City Lord! It's the city Lord!"

When the Warriors saw Yunxiao, they cried out in alarm, and the panic in the atmosphere was swept away.

PU yinjiu stared at him and said, di Jia is dead. Don't you know? "

Yunxiao nodded. I can sense it too, but I can't confirm it. It seems to be true.

Wasn't master PU at odds with the Emperor? Why do you look so angry?"

"Hmph!"

MO PU snorted angrily and said, " I don't care if di Jia dies or not. He's just an avatar of the Emperor. But the key is that he lost the six paths demonic weapon. Do you understand the meaning behind it?"

I don't understand, " Yunxiao shook his head and said. I don't quite understand.

"Trash! I knew you didn't understand anything!" MO PU cursed in exasperation. Do you know how to obtain a six paths mo weapon?

Yunxiao was taken aback. He pondered for a moment and said, " I've never thought about that. From what I remember, anyone who has the emperor's demonic essence and can absorb the inheritances within can use the six paths demonic weapon..

Chapter 2187-unsealing

"Hmph, shallow!"

I don't mind telling you, " mo PU said coldly, " the reason why my fiend clone can move the six paths demonic weapons is because we are the spirits of the demonic weapons. The six paths demonic weapon was a heavenly Saint weapon of the demonic world. It could not be refined, and could only be used by sacrificing one's own body and turning into the weapon spirit. This was originally a big secret in the demon world, but there's nothing to keep it a secret now, because I just found out that the agama bone Cleaver has been lost!"

Yunxiao's heart jolted. With a thought, a large amount of information immediately poured into his mind.

While he was shocked by the loss of Aghan's bone Cleaver, he immediately thought of the divine realm tablet. There seemed to be a connection between them.

MO PU continued, "the refining method of the six paths demonic weapon is very strange, it is a very strict Divine Art." Speaking of which, the true fiend dharma body and true fiend Dharma idol were also one of the magical powers passed down from the sacrificial refining technique. I originally thought that I was the only one in the entire demon world who knew about it, but I didn't expect that someone else would learn it. That person must have lured di Jia to draw out the demonic weapon, and then used the opportunity to refine the Dahan."

Yunxiao nodded. your analysis is reasonable, my Lord. But, since the demonic weapon has been lost, there is nothing we can do about it. We can't be angry.

"Childish! "

"I wouldn't be so flustered and exasperated if I only lost my mo weapons!" MO PU said angrily. Don't forget that once di Jia dies, my demonic will will also be taken by him. If he refines my inheritance and takes out the other five mo weapons at the same time, then he will be killed."

Yunxiao trembled, and he immediately understood what he meant.

Looking at his stunned expression, mo PU sneered, "Do you finally understand the severity of the situation? If we don't find this person and kill him soon, the five demonic weapons will be lost one after another, and we won't be able to get them back in this lifetime!" even if I kill that man, " Yunxiao said thoughtfully, " I can't get it back? "

"Unless he summons the six paths demonic weapon and I refine them one by one," mo PU replied. If he died without summoning it, the six paths demonic weapon would be scattered all over the devil realm, and it would be difficult to find it one by one. In order to collect these six treasures, I've spent far more effort than you can imagine."

I understand, " Yunxiao said. now that you've said it, I know it very well. If the six paths demonic weapon is taken away, it would be a huge loss to me. What's more troublesome is that the six demonic weapons have fallen into the hands of another great demon. This is an even greater disaster for the realm of heavenly martial arts."

He raised his head and said, "p-we seem to be on the same side now .."

"That's why you have to come and undo my seal immediately and follow me into the devil World!" MO PU said coldly.

enter the Devil World?!

Yunxiao was taken aback. He shook his head and said, " "It's impossible for me to enter the Devil realm. You're enough to kill that person. I won't be of much help. "

"I think you're afraid, aren't you?" mo PU said sarcastically.

whatever you say, " Yunxiao said with a smile. if I follow you into the devil World alone, I'm afraid I'll be eaten by you as a tonic as soon as I enter.

"At such a critical moment, would I be so reckless?" I just want you to help me.

forget about letting me enter the Devil World, " Yunxiao said. I can let you out of the sealed land.

After a moment of silence, mo PU suddenly said, "Did you think that you would be suppressed by the realm power after entering the demon Realm?"

Yunxiao frowned. I've never thought about going to the devil realm, so I've never thought about this problem. Don't you think I know how to do it? "

"Haha, what a joke." You have my will and inheritance, and you also have the six paths demonic weapon. Even if the demons are suppressed, you won't be. In this case, are you still worried about going to the devil realm with me? With your current cultivation, if I have any other thoughts, you should be able to escape easily."

Yunxiao was taken aback. It was true that he had never thought about it, but there was no way he could enter the Devil realm at this time, even if the six paths demonic weapon had been taken away.

there's no need to say anything more. I'll go and release you now, but I won't go to the devil realm with you.

After saying that, Yunxiao turned around and gave them a look.

They were lingmu di, the Misty Rock Lord, and the others. Although they had not recovered yet, they had rushed out as soon as mo PU had appeared.

When they looked into Yunxiao's eyes, they understood that he wanted them to accompany him to avoid any unforeseen circumstances.

With that, the few of them rose into the air and disappeared from the sky above

Yanwu with Yunxiao.

MO PU's face also began to fade in the city's great array. The demonic Qi that filled the sky dispersed in all directions and gradually disappeared.

In the next moment, hundreds of miles away from Yanwu, a shocking demonic light shot up from the ground, shaking the ground so much that everyone within hundreds of miles could feel it.

The powerful demonic Qi turned into a pillar and shot into the boundless sky.

PU's figure took shape in the sky, staring coldly at Yunxiao and the others. His powerful aura was filled with ruthlessness and killing intent.

Yunxiao and the others were secretly on guard as they said coldly, " my Lord, you've already come out of the seal. You don't want to stay in Yanwu and enjoy the scenery, do you? "

“You really don’t want to follow me to the devil World?” PU asked in a deep voice.

of course, ” Yunxiao said. I’m telling the truth.

PU’s expression was complicated as he snorted and left.

The demonic Qi that filled the sky also disappeared with his figure.

After a long time, they finally heaved a sigh of relief after confirming that general PU had left.

I didn’t expect such a great change to happen in the devil World, ” lingmu di said. I don’t know if it’s good or bad for us.

it’s good to lead mo PU back to the devil World, ” Yunxiao said. if the six paths demonic weapon is really in the hands of someone else, it will be a terrible thing. It’s really a blessing in disguise right now, let’s just take it one step at a time.”

Everyone sighed slightly. The current situation was too chaotic, and no one dared to say that they could control the future. They could only take one step at a time.

“No matter what happens in the future, it’s enough to just be yourself, ” lingmu di also nodded.

I’ll always remember your teachings, ” Yunxiao said solemnly. I’ll do my best until I die.

They returned to Yanwu in low spirits. Yunxiao asked lingmu di to stay behind, and after everyone had left, he took out Feng Yaoli’s body from the divine realm tablet and placed it in a secret chamber. “Is this body of any use to my Lord?”

“Huodou’s true form?” lingmu di was shocked.

Yunxiao nodded and said, " my Lord, do you still remember the prison Dharma body above the North Sea? I originally wanted to give the ju corporeal body to my Lord. However, Qiu was the son of a true dragon, and his physical body would probably be very difficult to refine. And this houdou true form is actually not much weaker than the prison avatar."

Lingmu Di's eyes flickered as he looked at the body. No one knew what he was thinking.

Yunxiao did not urge him, but waited quietly for lingmu Di's choice. After all, it was a major event that concerned his future cultivation. Once he changed his physical body, it would be difficult to change it again.

After a long while, lingmu di said, "actually, this calamity fiend's true body is the most suitable for me. At least, it's more suitable than my dragon body." Any soul possession would be rejected by the original body, unless it was an extremely special existence like the evil spirit. The stronger the body, the stronger the backlash. If I were to possess Qiu's Dharmakaya, I might not succeed, and I might even lose my life. However, this houdou true form is different.'

Yunxiao was also a learned and talented man, so he understood what mu lingmu di meant as soon as he heard his words. Feng Yaoli had taken over the body of Huo Dou's real body, and the will of the physical body had been dispersed and expelled. Now, it's much easier for Lord mu di to store it in.

"Exactly," lingmu di said with a smile.

alright, " Yunxiao said. let's not waste any time. My Lord, please use this body quickly. I'll let the evil spirit occupy the prison body. This way, a Dharmakaya master will appear out of thin air."

The evil spirit was still residing in the body of one of the eight monster tribes, the Uglies. Its strength was only at the peak of the martial Dao, so it was very difficult for it to be of any use. If he had a prison Dharmakaya, he would immediately become the top force of the heavenly martial Union.

"That's good," lingmu di said. I'm afraid it'll take some time for me to refine this body, so I won't be able to go with you on the matter of subduing the prison avatar." don't worry, my Lord, " Yunxiao said. the prisoner can't escape. That stupid crocodile is still watching him.

yes! lingmu di nodded and said, " before I go into seclusion, I need to help young master Yun with something.

what? " Yunxiao asked in surprise. what's the matter? " subdue the demon race and integrate them into the heavenly martial Union's offensive and defensive system, " Ling mudi said. we can't let them simply enjoy the benefits without contributing.

Yunxiao fell into deep thought. The battle in Red Moon City was extremely fierce, and he had not seen any demons except mo. Even though the demon race was on the decline, they should still contribute.

I'll have mo do it, " Yunxiao said. with his current strength, it's an indisputable fact that he will become the new demon Emperor. However, this matter requires Al's consent. If he agrees, things will be much simpler."

Al is indeed an influential figure, " said lingmu di. he's also a sensible man. It would be great if he could join our Alchemy Academy.

it shouldn't be difficult, " Yunxiao said. it should not be difficult.

The two of them immediately headed to the demon clan's territory in the city.

Many demons on the way were in awe of them.

Ding Ling 'er had ordered that a special area was set aside for the demon race, and no human was allowed to disturb them. Therefore, they didn't see any human warriors on the way.

Soon, the news of the two's arrival spread, and Al came out to welcome them.

"The two Alliance Masters have the time to come to my Demon tribe, please forgive me for not welcoming you."

Yunxiao and lingmu di exchanged a look, then Yunxiao said, " Mr.ai, the situation is urgent now. We don't have much time, so we won't be polite with you. Let's just state our purpose.

Al seemed to have guessed something, and he hurriedly said, "There's no need for formalities, please come in."

The three of them entered the living room. After Al asked the servants to serve the bejeweled nectar and Jade fruits, he waved his hand and dismissed the servants.. He said in a serious voice,"May I know why the two of you have come?"

Chapter 2188: fated battle

Yunxiao went straight to the point. Lord Huang, the demon Emperor, has been dead for a long time, and the demon race is now weak. Although you are the leader, you are an Alchemist after all. I'm afraid you can't lead them for long.

In my opinion, a new Demon King should be elected."

Al was stunned for a moment, and then said, " "Alliance Masters, do you mean to recommend Yi as the demon Emperor?"

in fact, even if we didn't say it, Mr.ai should have been willing to do so, Yunxiao said with a smile. I'm sure you're willing to do so.

Al nodded and said,"I do have such an intention, so I'll get straight to the point." The key point is that the referee is young master Yun's man. '

His eyes suddenly turned sharp as he stared at Yunxiao.

Both Yunxiao and lingmu di understood Al's meaning.ai could accept Richard as a demon Emperor, but it could not accept a demon Emperor under someone's control.

haha! Yunxiao laughed. Mr.ai, you're overthinking it. My agreement with Mr. Ke is only to resist the demonic tribulation. I won't bother him with other matters."

Al shook his head and said,"unless you can break the contract with Lord mo, it'll be difficult." Not only does this involve the dignity of the monster Emperor, but it also concerns the fate and interests of the entire monster race. I can't take this risk." although our cooperation with the church has been quite harmonious in recent years, " Yunxiao said, " we are still bound by the contract. If Mo's thoughts were to change, it would not only be a huge loss to the entire heavenly martial Alliance, but it would also be a disaster. I'm sorry, but I can't do that."

Al Hui frowned and did not say a word.

The hall fell into silence. The negotiations seemed to have entered a stalemate.

"Ahem."

Two coughs from Yunxiao broke the silence, and he said awkwardly, " "Mr.ai, now that the demonic tribulation has descended, the world is in chaos. All the races should rise up to resist the demons and unite. At this moment, I would also like to inform Mr.ai of the rules of Yanwu."

Al's heart skipped a beat. He had a bad feeling and said,'What rule?"

Yanwu is governed by ten rules, " Yunxiao said. it is the center of the world's spirit Qi and the best place for cultivation.

Al nodded slightly. Yanwu's environment was much better than their starry and lunar illusion, and many people had broken through not long after they arrived. If the demon race could stay here for a few decades or even a hundred years, they would definitely be able to restore their strength.

"But Yingluo"

Yunxiao's next words immediately interrupted Al's sweet dream. the rule of Yanwu is that you either join the heavenly martial Alliance or swear to join the demonic war. Otherwise, no one else is allowed to enter.

Al was stunned. and his face turned uzlv. He said angrily. " "Young master Yun. aren't you bullying me? You're deliberately forcing us to a dead end!"

Yunxiao looked at him calmly and sighed. Mr.ai, the rules of Yanwu are written in black and white, and everyone in the city knows about them. You can go and ask around if I'm lying to you.

"Young master Yun, every word you said is true," lingmu di nodded.

Al's face turned green and he said angrily,"If that's the case, I'll take the monster race and leave. The world is so big, I don't believe that there's no place for my clan."

I'll have to trouble you then, " Yunxiao nodded and said. we'll leave in a few days. I've already made an exception for everyone for a long time, and many people are already dissatisfied. It's quite difficult for me to be the Alliance head, so I can't lose fairness, right?"

Al sat on the chair gloomily, not knowing whether to leave or not.

"Then how can I stay?" Al asked after taking a few sips of tea.

of course! Yunxiao raised an eyebrow. like everyone else, you can stay if you meet the conditions.

"The demons are weak now," Al said."It'll be a fatal blow if they're sent to the war. Is young master Yun trying to cut off the bloodline of our monster race?" He said this with tears in his eyes, extremely sorrowful. "Alas, young master Yun, look at this bi an," lingmu di sighed.

we'll be fine as long as we leave Yanwu, " Yunxiao said. won't we?

young master Yun, it's easy to say," Ling mudi said. the world is in chaos now, and all the sects can't even protect themselves in time. How can they accept such a big force from the demon race? The illusory realm of stars and moon had been destroyed, and they could not return. Unless we find a place where even the birds don't take a shit, but it must be a place with thin spiritual energy. It'll be impossible for the demon race to recover their strength."

Al's heart skipped a beat when he heard that, and he couldn't help but feel a little nervous.

He had thought about it before. If he could not persuade Yunxiao to stay, he would find a place to rest and recuperate, and he would be able to recover slowly. Now that he had heard mu Di's explanation, he could not help but consider the problem of spiritual energy.

The decline of the demon race was also related to the fact that they had been living in the illusionary realm of stars and moon for so many years. If they could occupy the spiritual mountains and rivers like the human race, they would not be in such a miserable situation today.

what can we do?" Yunxiao asked. what can we do?" I can't possibly give 55 bonus points to 56 ethnic groups, right? as the heavenly martial Alliance's leader, I naturally have to treat everyone equally."

strictly speaking, Mr. Nie is also a member of the demon race," Ling mudi said. if he's participating in the war, it's also considered that the demon race is participating in the war.

When Al heard this, he suddenly understood and said loudly in dissatisfaction, Li Yunxiao, I've gone in a big circle, and it turns out that you still want to talk about the demon Emperor! You can just say it directly, there's no need to go in such a big circle!"

Yunxiao sneered. I'll get straight to the point as soon as I get here. But, Mr.ai, you don't agree.

"Do you think I'll agree just because you beat around the bush?" Al asked.

Yunxiao reached out and made a 'please' gesture as he said, " whatever. I'll get straight to the point. If you don't agree, please get out of here. Yanwu doesn't support freeloaders.

“You coward!”

Al Hui stood up in anger, his body trembling violently.

Mr.ai, Yanwu does have such a rule, ” lingmu di sighed. you can’t blame young master Yun for it.

The two of them, one red and one white, made Al’s anger suppressed in her heart, with nowhere to vent.

The hall once again fell into an awkward stalemate.

Al’s face slowly recovered a little and said slowly, ” Young master Yun, you’ve been a Warlock God for a long time.

why are you suddenly asking this, Mr.ai? ” Yunxiao asked.

I want to make a bet with young master Yun, ” Al said. I want to bet on another alchemy. If I win, the monster race will live in Yanwu for free, and they will never be driven away. In addition, I’ll offer the items I refine to Yanwu as the price. If young master Yun wins, I’ll agree to support Yi in becoming the demon Emperor of this generation. I wonder if young master Yun is willing to take the bet?”

Al Fengrui stared at Yunxiao, his eyes brimming with confidence.

Yunxiao frowned slightly. He did not expect Al Hui to make such a request. All these years, he had been running around and his cultivation level had improved greatly. However, he rarely had time to study the art of Dao. With the power left behind by Yan Shen, he had rushed to the level of sorcerer God.

Although Al had cultivated the Warlock God’s light, she was not a Warlock God after all. The two had their own advantages and disadvantages, and once they competed, it was difficult to predict the outcome. What’s wrong, young master Yun? what are you worried about? ” The corners of Al’s mouth rose, revealing a faint smile.

alright! Yunxiao nodded and said, " I promise you. How and when will the competition be?"

that's right! Al's eyes lit up. the location will be in Yanwu, three months from now! Seeing that Yunxiao was a little suspicious, he quickly said, " I need three months to gather the materials.

alright! Yunxiao nodded. I'll ask Ling 'er to cooperate with you!

thank you, " Al Xiao said. we'll have a showdown in Yanwu in three months!

After the discussion, Yunxiao and lingmu di said no more and left together.

Back in the mayor's mansion, lingmu di finally couldn't help but say, " "Young master Yun, are you confident in this battle?"

I'm not sure, " Yunxiao said after a moment of silence. I think I have a 50 – 50 chance.

Lingmu di sighed. it's not a big deal to have a 50 – 50 chance of winning. But you're now the leader of the heavenly martial Alliance, and the venue of the battle is in Yanwu. If you lose, the consequences will be too great. In my opinion, we should change the location."

you're planning to lose before the battle, " Yunxiao said. how can we fight? " Let's do it in Yanwu. I need to adjust my state now and think about the item I'll be refining in three months."

"Since you've made up your mind, I won't say much," said lingmu di. However, we can have Amaterasu-Zi and Lord mu Xing come over to discuss this." that's good, " Yunxiao said. it's a good idea.

"Then I'll immediately gather everyone here and discuss it," said lingmu di. After all, it's a battle between the top alchemists of two races. In addition to the interests of the heavenly martial Union, it also involves the honor of the two races, so we can't be careless!"

Lingmu di was also an Alchemist, and he was the one who had refined the Tusita heavenly peak, so he also attached great importance to this field. Soon, more than ten of the world's top alchemy Masters gathered in a secret room.

Everyone's expression was quite grave, and they began to whisper to each other.

everyone knows the whole story," Ling mudi said. I hope that young master Yun will win. What do you think?" it's really touching," Amaterasu sighed. it's as if I've returned to the past, above the clouds in the sea of soul formation. Back then, there were many talented people in the art of divination, and the seats were filled with people dressed in snow-white clothes. Now, we are the only ones left."

everything has its ups and downs," Yunxiao said. as long as we can survive this demonic tribulation, we can at least exchange it for another hundred thousand years of development for the heavenly martial realm. But if you can't, hehe, there's no future."

Everyone's hearts trembled, and they began to discuss the refinement process in three months.

Al has the light of the Sorcerer God," tenzhaozi said in a deep voice. and he's been in Yanwu for a long time. I'm afraid he's already reached the level of the Sorcerer God. There was a high chance that a Saint weapon would appear in the competition three months later. If young master Yun wants to be undefeated, he should at least refine a Saint artifact.'

"Refining Saint weapon Suan ni"

Yunxiao smiled wryly. who can tell me how to refine a Saint artifact?" he asked. who can?" I'm afraid that this kind of thing has been lost for a long time?" that's true," lingmu di nodded. the recipe for refining a holy weapon was rare even a hundred thousand years ago, let alone now.

"Even Lord mu di doesn't have one?" Tenshou Zi asked in surprise. "I don't have one, but there's someone who definitely did," lingmu di said.

“Who?” Yunxiao asked.

Lingmu di looked at him and said slowly, “The realm King from back then!”

After looking for a long time, she realized that it had fallen into the water and was disabled. He had only found a place to stay now. Now that he was outside, he felt like a cripple without his phone..

Chapter 2189: The space in the ring of secret treasures

“The king of the realm?” didn’t he get his lunchbox a hundred thousand years ago? ” Yunxiao cried out in surprise. I thought he got it a hundred thousand years ago? ”

Lingmu di glared at him angrily, obviously because of the disrespect in his words. although the realm King has passed away, the storage ring he used back then was also a peerless item. It should have formed a space of its own and sunk into the space of the heavenly martial realm.

that’s too general, ” Yunxiao said. it’s really difficult to find.

it might be difficult, ” said lingmu di. but don’t forget that there’s one person who might be able to find it.

A light flashed in Yunxiao’s mind, and he immediately understood the person he was talking about.
“Duanmu Youyu?”

Lingmu di laughed and said, “that’s him!” The hundred -wheel knot could even deduce the birthplace of the true dragon. It shouldn’t be difficult for Duanmu Youyu to deduce the location of the realm King’s Secret treasure Ring.”

“I think it’s feasible,” Tenshou Zi said. After all, no one has the method to refine a Saint weapon. If we can get the realm King’s Secret treasure Ring, our chances of winning will be very high.” alright,” Yunxiao said. let’s not delay this any longer. I’ll go find Duanmu Youyu immediately!

The short meeting ended.

Ding Ling ‘er sent someone to find Duanmu Youyu and explained the purpose of his visit.

Duanmu Youyu was rather shocked. He did not expect the realm King to have a secret treasure Ring. However, after hearing that the two races were having a competition, his interest was piqued and he began to deduce.

The nine luminaries star scepter appeared in his hand and a large amount of golden light bloomed from the scepter ring, illuminating the hall.

As Duanmu Youyu continued to form hand seals, a large number of Maha ancient characters flew around the star staff.

Yunxiao looked over and kept reflecting the divine Art in his mind to deepen his understanding.

In the process of Duanmu Youyu’s deduction, Yunxiao fell into deep thought. He also made a hand seal, and a golden light emerged from his fingertips as he sat opposite Duanmu Youyu.

After a while, the golden light in the hall was retracted and returned to the star staff.

Duanmu Youyu’s expression was suspicious and he was deep in thought.

“What’s wrong?” Ding Ling ‘er could not help but ask.

according to my calculations, the ring of secret treasures left behind by the realm King should be in the southern region. It should not be far from us, ‘

Duanmu Youyu said.

“Eh, there’s such a thing?”

Yunxiao pondered for a moment. The divine realm tablet had also appeared in the southern region, and it was the battlefield of the demon-sealing Lords. It was normal for the realm King to leave the secret treasure Ring not far away after he died here.

“Then can you deduce the exact location?”

Duanmu Youyu nodded. the general direction is fine. I can’t give you the specific coordinates. Unless I use my life to deduce it, how can it be accurate?”

“Thank you, young master Yu,” Yunxiao cupped his fists and said. He knew that Duanmu Youyu’s recommendation would definitely consume his lifespan.

Duanmu Youyu laughed. you’re too kind. Let’s go look for the secret treasure Ring immediately. I’m also very curious.

Not long after, more than ten rays of light immediately flew out of the city Lord’s mansion and headed in a certain direction.

After flying for a few thousand miles, Duanmu you Yu suddenly stopped. He looked around and said, “It should be nearby.”

The surroundings were all barren mountains and wilderness, with only a few weeds. Other than some rats nibbling on the grass, there were no other living creatures.

Most of the southern mountain range was filled with such barren land, which was very common.

But,

there's really something wrong with this place," Yunxiao said with a frown. it's true. It's indeed unusual to see such a desolate scene around Yanwu."

After the reconstruction of Yanwu in the past few years, the area within thousands of miles had become a sacred land. This place was so barren that it was a little desolate, and it was indeed a little out of place with the surrounding environment.

Yunxiao raised his hand and pointed his sword fingers in all directions, shattering the space into countless pieces with a ripping sound.

Those Crimson eyes stared at the fragments, but found that everything was normal. There was nothing special.

"Why don't we try the divine realm tablet?" lingmu di asked.

Yunxiao nodded and raised his hand. The divine realm tablet turned into a beam of white light and flew up, stopping in the air and shooting out thousands of beams of light.

Under the cover of the light, Yunxiao looked carefully at the spatial node.

All the nodes were arranged in a regular spatial structure.

'What?'

Under the gaze of the wondrous spell spiritual eye, he was surprised to find that a space ring formed by thousands of nodes repelled the light from the divine realm tablet and formed a circular pattern.

this is it! Yunxiao was overjoyed. this is it!

He walked over and touched the ring. With a slight lift of his finger, an opening appeared, through which one could vaguely see space.

The rest of the people also saw it and gathered around in joy.

The cut made by his fingertip continued to show a strange pattern and became bigger.

What surprised Yunxiao was that the space he saw was clearly moving, but it was still in his perception.

Tian zhaozi was also surprised and said, "mysterious space? 'what's a Mystic space?' Yunxiao asked. what is a Mystic space?"

Tian zhaozi's eyes lit up and he said excitedly, "no wonder it can survive for a long time and hide its trace. It's the mysterious space. This kind of spatial structure is beyond our knowledge, and it must be simulated by three or more experts who have a deep understanding of spatial secret techniques in order to develop its form."

that's because this kind of spatial structure is beyond our knowledge," said lingmu di. so it has to cooperate with the evolution. This is the first time I've seen such a static state.

since it's so mysterious, I'm afraid it's also very dangerous," Yunxiao said. why don't you all stay outside, and I'll go in alone? '

"no! Amaterasu immediately opposed, "if I don't go in and experience it, I won't be able to die in peace!"

The rest of the people were also eager to try. Even if they were not alchemists, when they thought that this was something left behind by a universe God, they felt infinite respect for it. Moreover, there must be a lot of treasures in it, and if they could get one or two of them, they would benefit a lot.

Yunxiao frowned. but this is a storage space, after all. If you force your way in, you will cause great harm to yourself. At the same time, it will also test the stability of the space.

young master Yun, you're right," Ling mudi said. although the mysterious Super Space isn't an ordinary storage space, it's also extremely repulsive to living beings. In particular, everyone here is extremely powerful. If you all enter together, I'm afraid that the space will collapse in an instant."

As soon as he said that, many people looked disappointed, but they could understand and asked to stay.

After the selection, they decided to let Yunxiao, lingmu di, Duanmu Youyu, and Amaterasu enter.

Yunxiao stepped into it first, followed by the three.

As soon as Yunxiao stepped in, his body trembled as he felt an enormous pressure crushing over him, and a faint light instantly protected him.

The two forces collided with a thunderous boom, causing light to shoot out in all directions.

A loud ancient sound came from the space, like the vibration of metal.

“Not good!”

Yunxiao was taken aback. He found that the moment he stepped into the space, cracks began to appear in it, which was a sign that it was about to collapse.

Lingmu di and the others, who were following him, also noticed the situation and said in surprise, “Quickly find the recipe and leave!”

Tenshou’s heart skipped a beat, and he beat his chest and stomped his feet as he cried out, “ what a pity!

Everyone began to carefully observe this space. In addition to the increasing number of cracks, there were also some star-like lights flashing in the space.

Lingmu di was overjoyed, “haha, there are indeed many good things!” These glittering objects are the items that the world deity has collected!” He immediately teleported to the nearest point of Starlight and grabbed at it.

The spot of Starlight fell into his hand. Lingmu di was overjoyed. Before he could take a closer look, the Starlight suddenly burst with a strong power that shattered the space.

“BOOM!”

Lingmu Di’s entire body sank in and was directly thrown out of the ring of secret treasures!

“Lord mu di!”

The people guarding outside suddenly saw a crack appear. While they were still in shock, they saw lingmu di flying out of it, rolling and crawling.

Lingmu di was shocked. He looked at the jade box in his hand, but he didn’t know what it was.

Without a word, he flew to the entrance and wanted to go in again, but he was blocked by a force and was forced back a few steps.

‘What?’

“A one-time passage?!” Lingmu di was shocked. This is bad, we’re in trouble!” “What is a one-time passage?” asked Ding Ling ‘er.

Lingmu Di’s face turned pale and he said in a deep voice, ” “There’s a saying that ‘a person can never enter the same river’. Do you understand this principle?”

“That’s because time flows,” Ding Ling ‘er nodded and said.

Lingmu di nodded. this so-called one-time passage also follows the same principle. This passage is no longer the previous one. No one can go in anymore. The troublesome thing was that it seemed that as long as one touched the items inside, they would be directly blasted out. This means that the remaining three only have one chance.”

“One chance?” Ding Ling ‘er was stunned. Are there a lot of things inside?” as many as the stars, ” lingmu di said. and the worst thing is that Yunxiao and the others don’t know that they can only touch one thing, so they will take it at will. In this way, the probability of obtaining the recipe is too small.

This line of words made everyone depressed. It wasn’t that the probability was too small, but it was almost zero.

I hope that young master Yun is intelligent enough to be inspired by my being kicked out, ” lingmu di sighed. then there might still be a glimmer of hope.

Ding Ling ‘er put her hands together in front of her and prayed, ” big brother Yunxiao will definitely be able to do it.

Inside the ring of secret treasures, Yunxiao and the other two were taken aback when they saw the lingmu flute being thrown out. They cried out at the same time, but there was no longer the Echo of the lingmu flute, only a dark passage.

“What’s going on?” Amaterasu asked in shock. Did something happen to Lord mu di?”

Duanmu Youyu hurriedly formed hand seals and calculated. don’t worry. I’m afraid that the Lord has been teleported out. His life is not in danger.

Yunxiao and tenzhaozi were relieved.

this space is so fragile, ” Tian zhaozi said worriedly. Lord mu di only used teleportation for a moment and was blasted out. I’m afraid it won’t be able to withstand any elemental energy fluctuations. Let’s slowly walk over and carefully retrieve it. ‘

Chapter 2190-collapse

Yunxiao raised his head and looked around. It was as quiet as a dead land, but when he used his wondrous spirit eyes, he could see the space flowing slightly, like streams surrounding each other.

Around his spirit eye, there were a few more rays of golden light.

He had used the true sun incantation that Bo mu had taught him to cultivate a sliver of the eye of truth.

When he saw that Tian zhaozi had already taken a few steps, Yunxiao reminded him, "the space here might not be fragile, but there are phenomena that we can't understand. Master Amaterasu, you must be careful.

Tian zhaozi's body froze and he could not help but frown. "An incomprehensible phenomenon?"

Yunxiao nodded. perhaps this is the problem of the mysterious Super Space. I have a feeling that Lord mu Di's position is not affected by the fluctuation of primordial energy. Everyone should be careful."

"Then we do have to be careful." Amaterasu slowed down his pace and walked toward the stars. He stopped in front of one of them, and his pupils suddenly contracted.

The Starlight was only the size of a thumb, and one could vaguely see a rectangular box inside it. It seemed to be a sword case. Amaterasu's breathing was slightly rapid.

An item left behind by the realm King might be a Saint weapon.

He stretched out his five fingers and slowly grabbed it. The Starlight fell into his hand with a flash and immediately dissipated, turning into a three-foot-long box. The surface of the box was inlaid with precious pearls and jade stones, flowing with light and color.

Yunxiao's sharp senses caught that after the sword box appeared, an invisible sword intent spread out around tenzhaozi, and his heart stirred.

haha, it's indeed a problem with the essence energy fluctuations!

Amaterasu excitedly raised the sword case in his hand and laughed smugly. "There's no problem now,"

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a loud boom. The space where Amaterasu was standing collapsed, forming a black hole that was half a meter wide. He was caught off guard and fell into the tunnel, disappearing from the ring of secret treasures.

Yunxiao, 'hehe'.

Duanmu Youyu, "Wuwu."

Duanmu Youyu wiped his sweat and said awkwardly, "It seems like there's still a problem."

Duanmu Youyu counted with his fingers and could not help but frown. "Lord Amaterasu has also been teleported out, and his life is not in danger. It seems that you're right, young master Yun."

Yunxiao shook his head and smiled wryly. you're right. It's troublesome. If my guess is right, this space can only allow you to take one item and leave. You can't take a second item.

"How could this be?" Duanmu Youyu asked in shock.

Looking at the tiny stars, Yunxiao asked in a low voice, "Young master Yu, are you able to divine if there is a refinement recipe there?"

"Young master Yun, do you really think I'm a God?" Duanmu Youyu shook his head.

at least a half-step divine immortal, right?" Yunxiao stared at him. I think so.

Duanmu Youyu's expression turned dark and he smiled bitterly. "Young master Yun, you flatter me. The only thing I can divine is that there is indeed an opportunity in this space, and it's up to young master Yun to grasp it. I'll go test it out and see if I can take two items."

Yunxiao nodded. just go ahead and try. It'll be a good opportunity to verify my guess.

"Alright," he said. Duanmu Youyu focused and raised his arm. His palm grabbed at the void and instantly turned into a huge palm shadow that swept towards the Starlight.

"Hu hu."

The shadow of the palm pressed on the space, forming a curve visible to the naked eye, making a sizzling noise, as if it was burning. Just as it touched the Starlight, it was frozen there and could not go down any further, as if time had stopped.

In just half a breath's time, Duanmu Youyu disappeared from the space of the ring of secret treasures with a loud boom. The Starlight also disappeared.

Yunxiao watched the whole process calmly, and it was not until Duanmu Youyu disappeared that he smiled bitterly and said gloomily, " this is going to be troublesome. He has to find the Saint artifact recipe from these hundreds of stars. Isn't he purposely making things difficult for me? "

He used his wondrous spirit eyes to look at them one by one, but there were boxes made of various materials within each of the stars, making it impossible for him to see what was inside.

In the end, Yunxiao selected more than thirty Starlights from the vast sea of stars, which were most likely to contain Jade slips.

I'm just not sure if the realm King left any useful information behind. Otherwise, the probability of one out of 30 is too low. It's almost impossible to win.

Yunxiao thought to himself. He gave up observing the thirty-odd Starlight spots and began to study the space.

After a few hours, he let out a long sigh. He was completely disappointed.

The complexity of this space was far beyond his knowledge, and he suddenly remembered that this ring of secret treasure had sunk into the space of the heavenly martial arts realm after the realm king's death. He would not have had the time to deliberately leave a message for future generations.

what's going on with this space? it's completely different from the rules of space in the realm of heavenly martial arts. It doesn't make sense. How can everything in the world escape the rules and exist? "

Looking at the stars, Yunxiao's eyes suddenly shone with a bright light.

At this moment, outside the ring of the secret treasure, a pale yellow light was flowing on the ground, forming a ring of light and spreading out in waves. It was like a rock falling into a calm lake, causing waves.

"What is this?"

Lingmu di stared at the jade box in his palm and studied it carefully.

There was a sugar cube-like object inside. It was khaki in color and looked very spiritual.

The light kept flowing out from the yellow object like bubbles from a fish's mouth. It spread out in the air and turned into a yellow halo that could cover dozens of feet.

Everyone gathered around, looking very confused.

"There are countless rare and precious things in this world," Tenshou sighed.

The wonders of creation are endless and can't be measured by a large amount." He didn't recognize this item at all, and he didn't even have a clue.

Lingmu di closed the jade box and put it away. He looked around at the crowd and said, " "Since it's a treasure, there'll be a time to figure it out. I'll slowly figure it out when I have the time."

Lingmu di looked at Amaterasu Zi and Duanmu Youyu and laughed. "May I know what you two have obtained?"

"The value of the item I obtained should be above Lord mu Di's." However, I am more envious of Lord mu Di's heavenly treasures."

He took out the sword case and held it in his palm.

Just the appearance of the sword case caused a layer of dense sword light to overflow. It was as if there was a sword enchantment that enveloped the sword case.

"What a powerful sword force!"

Everyone was shocked, knowing that it must be a peerless sword.

Lingmu di trembled and suddenly cried out, " "The Sword of Light! This is the Sword of Light!" (Author's words: why do I feel that the word "han" is a little dirty?)

Lingmu di could not help but raise his hand and walk forward. He bent down and observed carefully, almost snatching it directly.

Lingmu Di's expression was unusually grave, and the light in his eyes grew more and more excited. He laughed and said, " "Haha, it's the Sword of Light! Daren can open it and take a look, but you must be careful of the sword Qi!"

Amaterasu nodded and flicked the sword box's switch with his right index finger. The box opened with a "pop."

A sharp light spread out, turning into a sword realm that expanded in all directions.

In their shock, everyone hurriedly circulated their essence force to block the sword World.

The sword World wasn't strong, but to form a world out of thin air, this kind of spirituality was shocking.

Tian zhaozi held the sword case with one hand and was the first to feel the power of the sword. He couldn't help but feel terrified.

Although it was extremely sharp, the sword light inside the case was like water. It was so bright that people couldn't open their eyes. The entire sword was like a huge drop of Mercury that automatically flowed in the mold, becoming one.

"The sword is like flowing water, hidden within the light!"

Lingmu di looked at the surprised crowd and nodded slightly.

After hearing mu Di's advice, everyone immediately understood the meaning of

"hanguang."

Although Tian zhaozi had a sword, he didn't know where it came from. "Lord mu di, what is the origin of this sword?"

Lingmu di retracted his admiring gaze and said, "This is the sword of the realm King. The regional King is not a sword user and has never used this sword in battle before. However, he likes to carry this sword with him at all times."

“This is enough to prove how extraordinary this sword is.” it’s a pity that I’m not a swordsman either, ” tenzhaozi sighed. I’ll give it to young master Yun later.

The rest of the people were envious in their hearts. This gift was really big enough.

Thank you, sir! Ding Ling ‘er quickly stepped forward and smiled sweetly. Ling’ er thanks you on behalf of big brother Yunxiao.

“Of course,” Tenshou Zi replied with a smile.

Lingmu di then looked at Duanmu you Yu and said, ” “May I know what item young master Yu has obtained?”

Everyone looked at Duanmu you Yu in unison.

Duanmu Youyu’s face was full of tears. the two of you have obtained good things. I’m just a bunch of strange things.

Duanmu Youyu stretched out his hand and opened up his five fingers. In the center of his palm, there was a ball of orange-red mist. It was like a dream and illusionary, as if it did not have a physical body.

Tenzhaozi looked over and scanned with his consciousness. He could not help but be surprised. this thing is neither liquid nor solid. What a strange feeling. Under the perception of my divine sense, it seems to be condensed by laws and doesn’t really exist!

Duanmu Youyu said, ” you have good eyes, my Lord. Although this item is in my palm, it doesn’t feel like an ‘object’ at all.

Lingmu di, on the other hand, had a grave look in his eyes. He shook his head and said, sorry to trouble you. This item is called ‘spinning sun’, and it’s a rule that allows the space to choose and connect with each other. If you take it out, the space of the ring of the secret treasure will be distorted.

Duanmu Youyu jumped in shock and hurriedly said, " "Could this be the result of the rules connecting the secret treasure Ring and the realm of heavenly martial arts? This thing is inside the ring of the hidden treasure."

Lingmu Di's eyes shot out rays of light. "That should be the case. Furthermore, the laws of space are an essential item for refining Saint artifacts. This 'spinning sun' is also extremely rare in the laws of space."

Oh? " Duanmu Youyu's heart skipped a beat. then, I can give it to Yunxiao to refine a Saint weapon.

li Yunxiao is indeed very lucky, " tenzhaozi said with a smile. we can't use our things for ourselves, so we can only let him have it. I don't know if he has the luck to obtain the recipe, otherwise, I'm afraid he won't be able to use this spinning sun. "

As he said that, the space not far away suddenly shook. The space that was originally flowing strangely suddenly stopped and collapsed towards the center.. It was as if it was being pulled towards the center, and it instantly condensed into a black dot!
