

The Eternal 281

Chapter 281

281 Wuchen nine Palace formation

Wei Hongfu couldn't keep his cool anymore and said in disbelief, " even if The Alchemist Association is willing to help, they're strong enough to handle the auction. Why would they be willing to be second? "

Lord Wei, you don't have to worry about yourself, " Yunxiao said with a smile. since I can say it, I naturally have confidence.

Wei Hongfu was completely silent now. If he agreed, it would definitely be detrimental to myriad treasures store's business.

Yunxiao guessed his thoughts and said with a smile, " "Lord Wei is overthinking. The myriad Treasure Tower's reputation was like the sun in the sky. How could it be affected by a small matter? Besides, The Alchemist Association is also involved, so it's not embarrassing for you to be ranked behind them. The benefits are obvious. When Mount Meru, one of the four celestial realms of the continent, opens, under the attention of thousands of people, with the participation of your myriad treasures store, the grade of the auction can be raised to the top. Besides, The Alchemist Association will also provide a lot of precious pills and profound artifacts to participate in the auction."

Wei Hongfu and Ding Ling 'er were both taken aback. Wei Hongfu said in disbelief, " "The Alchemist Association will also provide rare-quality items for auction? Is the cloud sky City Lord's news true?"

Yunxiao nodded confidently. Baili gongjin and the others were worried that they did not have enough primordial stones to buy his martial technique and illusive waves technique, and this auction was exactly what they wanted.

Wei Hongfu was stunned for a moment before he laughed out loud."Haha, the city Lord of cloud sky City is indeed very capable, to be able to invite The Alchemist Association. Alright, myriad treasures store will be the green leaf this time!"

Ding Ling 'er was overjoyed. She didn't expect that the problem that she had been worried about for a long time had been solved so perfectly.

With The Alchemist Association and myriad treasures store in charge, no one in the entire world would dare to make trouble, let alone in the southern region.

Wei Hongfu didn't care too much. Myriad treasures store's reputation was like the sun in the sky, and they didn't care about such trivial matters. Besides, his main task was to protect myriad treasures store's interests during this period, so it was good for him to do Yunxiao and Ding Ling 'er a favor.

Especially Yunxiao. Before he set off, Xie Yuhang, who was in charge of the affairs of the southern region, had told him to pay attention to this man and warned him not to offend him, but he refused to disclose the specific reason.

He was able to defeat many experts on qionghua Island and get more than half of the quota crystals. Moreover, he could even mobilize the power of The Alchemist Association. How could his background be simple?

Wei Hongfu was also a businessman and a cunning old fox. He naturally would not ask what he should not ask.

The three of them continued to chat and it was a pleasant conversation.

At this moment, Yanwu had been cordoned off by the three major forces, and they were setting up restrictive arrays to suppress the cultivation base of the martial artists. This was to prevent all sorts of uncontrollable chaos when Mount Meru opened.

Three days later, the formation was set up, and Yanwu was opened to the public. Many forces began to pour into the city.

What made everyone furious was that a toll counter had been set up outside Yanwu.

Whoever entered the city, regardless of their age, one million mid-grade origin stones per head!

Moreover, the three martial grandmasters who were in charge of the operation were Xiao qingwang, Neng feichen, and Qian Duoduo.

There were also over three thousand martial artists standing in a line at the city gate to maintain order.

Everyone's strength had been suppressed by the restriction array set up by the three major forces. At this time, the advantage of having more people was displayed. Furthermore, if they were similarly suppressed, martial Grandmaster powerhouses were still stronger than others.

In a secret chamber in the city Lord's mansion, Yunxiao sat cross-legged, his mind focused.

He immediately felt that the flow of genuine Qi in his body was unusually slow and intermittent. His strength had been greatly reduced.

"The nine Palace dustless formation?"

Yunxiao murmured to himself. After calming his mind, the vast soul power in his body gushed out like a tide, spreading out from between his eyebrows and spreading over the entire sky of Yanwu.

His soul power was extremely pure, and it rippled across the sky like sound waves. He could sense every move in the entire city, and the nine Palace wuchen array was immediately revealed.

"The yellow bell Palace, the immortal Lyu Palace, the main palace, and the South Lyu Palace. Where is the formation core located?"

Yunxiao quickly sorted out the formation of the nine Palace wuchen array and examined the runes one by one. If he could break them, he could use them directly.

Besides, he had also set up the great void celestial capital formation and the great sun golden light sword formation around Yanwu, which he had hidden with a secret technique.

Due to the lack of spiritual Qi, the power of these two formations could not be exerted. This time, in order to open Mount Meru and set up the nine Palace dustless array, the three major sects had spent a lot of primordial stones to forcibly increase the spiritual energy in Yanwu to a certain level.

What the people of the three major sects did not expect was that more than half of the vast amount of vital Qi was directly absorbed by the great void celestial capital formation and the great sun golden light sword formation, which were hidden underground. This directly pulled the level of the two formations up.

However, Yunxiao did not dare to expose the two arrays at the moment, or it would bring him endless trouble if they were seen by experts who were proficient in arrays. These two great formations were extremely powerful mountain-protecting great formations. Even in the entire Southern domain, they were extremely rare.

“If I can take down this nine Palace wuchen formation, my Yanwu will be impregnable before the spiritual energy is exhausted this time!”

A golden light flickered between Yunxiao’s brows as his soul power constantly deduced the array thousands of miles in the sky. No one knew how long it had been. Suddenly, his eyes trembled and a golden light flashed between his eyebrows.

“The shangdiao Palace!”

In the boundless sky in front of them, a square object was hidden. It was constantly bobbing up and down as the array was deployed. Looking at it, it was actually a mirror, and the light that was faintly revealed on it was breathtaking.

“So the formation core is here, let me take this treasure mirror!”

The magnificent soul power in the void immediately manifested into a faint figure of Yunxiao, who strode toward the mirror.

The mirror seemed to be sentient. It sensed something and shot a golden beam at Yunxiao.

Yunxiao waved his hand, and dozens of golden tadpole-like characters flew out of his palm, instantly annihilating the golden light and flying toward the mirror.

The mirror seemed to have some intelligence. It seemed to have sensed that something was wrong and quickly buzzed to ask for help. However, a golden character fell from the sky and landed on the mirror, and the sound immediately disappeared.

The mirror trembled as if it was struggling, and Yunxiao's soul-form kept casting all kinds of incantations into it to suppress it.

After an unknown period of time, the mirror suddenly brightened. In the mirror, the Golden tadpole-like characters formed a circle of a pattern. It was faintly discernible, and he could clearly sense it with his spirit consciousness.

"We've finally established a connection!" Oh! Yunxiao was overjoyed. let me see what level this mirror is!

"Who dares to destroy the formation? you're courting death!"

Just as Yunxiao was about to step forward to take a look at the mirror, a fierce cry rang out in his spiritual ocean.

Yunxiao's face flickered. He had achieved his goal, so he had no more reason to stay. Afraid of being seen by others, his soul-form instantly transformed into a Dragon and quickly retreated from the formation.

"You want to escape? Stay here!"

The voice boomed again. The strange voice rushed into the soul directly and attacked the divine sense.

it's a soul attack. I didn't expect there to be some capable people in the three sects.

Yunxiao chuckled. Although this method was a little powerful, it was still not worth mentioning in his eyes. The soul power that had taken the form of a Dragon let out a long roar and instantly dispersed the attack. It directly cut off the opponent's divine sense and fled in the air.

"?! It's actually a soul-form?"

The voice sounded in the air in shock.

Very quickly, two figures suddenly appeared beside the eye of the array. As they felt the remaining fluctuations of the soul power, a look of horror appeared in their eyes.

Both of them were wearing yellow robes, one tall and the other short. They both had extremely weathered faces, and their deep eyes revealed a look of shock.

The tall old man hurriedly cast a few seals into the mirror. A warm yellow light appeared on the mirror, flowing continuously.

After a while, the tall old man's face revealed a look of doubt. He frowned and sent in a few more spells, but it seemed that he found nothing. Only then did he heave a sigh of relief.

"Senior brother Liu, what do you think?" The short old man asked nervously.

The tall old man pondered for a moment and slowly said, "No problem found. However, that person's strength just now didn't seem to be inferior to yours or mine. It's impossible that he didn't do anything."

The short elder replied coldly, "to be able to manifest his soul power into a physical form, how could he be a nobody?" Maybe he just came and after his tracks were exposed, he knew that he had no intention of staying, so he fled."

“That should be the case,” the tall old man nodded. Otherwise, if we didn’t notice that he had done something to the lunar mirror, that would be too terrifying! Either you have an extremely powerful concealment technique, or you have an extremely powerful Scripture. Otherwise, there’s no reason why we can’t sense it with just the two of us.”

In the secret chamber of the city Lord’s mansion, Yunxiao suddenly opened his eyes, which flickered with bright light. His aura burst out, and the power of a six-stars martial Lord was completely unaffected by the formation.

Only then did he reveal a satisfied smile. Just as he was about to stand up, his brows suddenly furrowed and a sharp light flashed in his eyes. He coldly snorted and said, “You’re looking for death!”

The next moment, his figure disappeared and appeared directly at the city gate, looking down coldly.

“F * ck, one million mid-grade primordial stones! Why don’t you guys just Rob someone?”

One of the aristocratic family’s disciples started to curse. This price was almost equivalent to the value of an ordinary fifth tier profound armament.

Xiao qingwang didn’t even bother to raise his head, and said lazily, “If you don’t have money, then get lost. Next.”

“You’re too much! Which one of them wasn’t a proud Son of Heaven? there were even martial Dao seniors! How long has it been since your city was established? He’s actually acting so wantonly, not putting us in his eyes at all!”

The disciple’s face was livid with anger and he shouted loudly, trying to arouse everyone’s anger.

Chapter 282-establishing power by killing

This time, it worked. After all, one million medial-grade primordial stones was too disgusting. No one was willing to pay it. They all responded and cursed.

Xiao qingwang frowned and exchanged a look with the other two. The three men's faces immediately turned cold, and their auras were about to burst out.

Yunxiao had told him to only take the money, and kill anyone who resisted. If you can't beat him, call for help. He'll be the first to arrive.

Although the three of them felt a little dizzy from this order, they still carried it out seriously.

At this time, the 3000 martial artists also moved. They surrounded Xiao qingwang in an instant, each of them with a ferocious look on their faces, waiting for Xiao qingwang's order.

Xiao qingwang had killed countless people, so he would naturally not show any mercy. Just as he was about to give the order, a stone tablet suddenly fell from the top of the city wall. It was bright and colorful, and like a meteorite falling to the ground, it pressed down on the young man.

Everyone was shocked. They didn't expect that someone would dare to kill in this situation, and they quickly retreated in horror.

The troublemaking disciple also wanted to escape, but his body was directly locked by some unknown force, and he couldn't move at all. Looking at the falling stone tablet, his eyes revealed fear and despair, and he shouted, "D-don't kill me! Save me, just me!"

"BOOM!"

Without a doubt, the stone tablet pressed into the ground, and the disciple's body was directly pressed in. He would probably be crushed into pieces in an instant. Ancient characters were flowing on the tablet, just like that disciple's tombstone. It was a shocking sight.

Yunxiao's figure appeared faintly on the top of the city wall and said in a cold voice, "Get lost if you can't afford it, and those who cause trouble with malicious intent will die!"

The crowd felt a chill run down their spines. Almost all the forces in the southern region had swarmed into Yanwu, and yet he had killed them on such a large occasion without even informing them. Was he not afraid of causing a riot? Everyone's foreheads were covered in cold sweat.

Xiao qingwang and the other two were also stunned, and they felt a chill in their hearts. Yunxiao gave them a feeling that he was getting more and more unfathomable. He was a decisive and thunderous man.

Yunxiao looked at the fear on everyone's faces and said coldly, "I understand that you're not convinced. However, this was a joint order from the three major sects that no one was to cause trouble in Yanwu during this period, or they would be killed without mercy! I'm just carrying out the orders of the three major sects. If you have any questions, please go to the three major sects and ask them."

"F * ck!"

Everyone was cursing madly in their hearts. He had actually used the three major sects as his shield, but no one dared to make a sound.

Finally, there was a Martial Emperor among them, and he shouted angrily, "It's my duty to maintain order in the city. But you, brat, used a chicken feather as a token of authority and set such a high fee on your own!"

Yunxiao looked over coldly and snorted, "Using a chicken feather as a token of authority? Very good, you mean to say that the orders issued by the three major sects are chicken feathers? I'll convey your message to the experts of the three great sects."

The martial Royal realm expert's heart skipped a beat as he broke out in a cold sweat.

Jutian sect, thousand crane Pavilion, and elusive world Valley represented the three most powerful sects in the southern region, and their rules were like mountains in the southern region. Moreover, it was a decree jointly issued by the three sects. This kind of matter could be big or small, but if the three sects really took it seriously, then he really wouldn't have a good ending. He immediately stammered and tried to explain.

But, Yunxiao ignored him and said with a sneer, "You can eat whatever you want, but if you eat the wrong food, at most one person will die. You can't say things randomly. If you say something wrong, your entire family might die! I hope you all think before you speak or do anything. In this territory of Yanwu, I have the final say. Even if you are a peerless figure, when you are here, you have to lie down! If you don't want to lie down, either get lost or break your bones!"

Everyone was shocked. Even the three major sects might not dare to say such arrogant words! Wasn't this offending everyone? What gave him the confidence to be so arrogant!

"Haha, well said. Domineering!"

Qian Duoduo couldn't help but exclaim in admiration. He wouldn't have dared to say such domineering and mighty words so arrogantly.

Yunxiao glanced down and said, "everyone, please continue. The auction is about to begin. We won't wait for any delays.

He disappeared from the top of the city wall after saying this, and the divine realm tablet disappeared with him, leaving only a bottomless pit on the ground, which gave people a sense of shock and made them shudder.

Mount Meru was going to open in two days, and now most of the forces who dared to come to participate in the auction hurriedly took out their primordial stones, afraid that they would miss the auction.

Yunxiao came down from the top of Yanwu's city wall and was about to leave when his heart suddenly jolted, and he saw a figure following behind him.

"How can you not be restricted by the formation? How did you do it?" The man finally couldn't help but ask. His voice was very clear, and he revealed a tone of disbelief.

Yunxiao turned to look at the man and said with a smile, "Your Highness Xin, am I very close to you? Why should I tell you?"

The man was Xin ruyu. He had seen Yunxiao's attack just now, and it seemed that he was not restricted by the restrictive spell and could circulate his primordial Qi at any time. So, he asked in confusion, but Yunxiao rebutted him. "Let's forget about this. Let me ask you, where did Yue jiulin go?"

Yunxiao looked at him coldly and said, "Isn't Yue jiulin your dog? What does it have to do with me if the dog is lost? This is Yanwu, not Shangyang, and you can't be so presumptuous!"

"What?"

Xin ruyu couldn't believe his ears. For a moment, he thought he had heard wrong. He said in shock, "You, you dare to talk to me like this?"

He was the Crown Prince of firecrow Empire, and all the lands under the sky belonged to him. In firecrow Empire, except for a few extremely powerful sects like jutian sect, he was a Supreme existence that was revered by tens of thousands of people. But now, the other party was saying that this was Yanwu, and he could not do as he pleased? Wasn't Yanwu under the rule of the firegrawn Empire?

He was stunned for a moment, and then suddenly became furious. His body suddenly began to emit a faint white light, as if a Pearl was embedded in his body. The light rotated as if it was connecting, but it slowly faded and finally disappeared.

Yunxiao looked at him coldly with a smile in his eyes.

Xin ruyu's expression changed slightly. His true Qi had only been circulated halfway when it was cut off by a strange force in the air. But, he was still filled with killing intent. A Jade ruler appeared in his hand, which he then turned into a sword beam and slashed at Yunxiao. When the sword light was released, it shone with a golden light, but under the influence of the nine Palace dustless formation, it became dim.

"Tsk!"

Yunxiao sneered disdainfully as he pointed his finger lightly. A beam of green light immediately appeared in the air and blocked the sword beam. He then extended his fingers like a mountain, and several streams of sword Qi appeared out of thin air. They condensed in his hands and locked onto Xin ruyu. "Do you think I won't kill you if I'm not happy now?"

This time, Xin ruyu's expression really changed. "You, you're really not restricted by the formation! How was that possible? This is a barrier set up by the two array Masters of the elusive world Valley!"

But what frightened him even more was that the sword beam in Yunxiao's palm gave him an overbearing feeling, and the indifference in his eyes made his heart turn cold. He truly believed that if the other party was in a bad mood, he would really kill him.

Although this idea was very shaky and absolutely unacceptable to him rationally, he was still the Crown Prince of firecrow Empire, and his status was extremely noble. Furthermore, he had the backing of the heavenly jewel sect and jutian sect. But for some reason, the feeling was very clear, and it made him believe that Yunxiao would do as he said and kill him without hesitation.

Xin ruyu, who had never given in her entire life, suddenly felt a little scared at this moment. She gritted her teeth and her face turned ashen.

"Very good, very obedient!"

Yunxiao retracted his sword beam contemptuously and said in a cold voice, "Don't think that just because you're the Crown Prince, you can act like you're a green onion in front of me. Xinyang Jie and Zhou Yushan are the best examples, and I don't want you to be the next idiot."

He glared at Xin ruyu coldly before turning to leave.

Xin ruyu was dumbfounded on the spot. A great sense of humiliation welled up in his heart, and his face turned black with anger!

In his eyes, Yunxiao had always been just a lively Grasshopper, jumping around happily, so he did not take him seriously at all. It wasn't until the battle at the Golden Crow divine stage that he truly took her seriously and saw her as a potential opponent. However, it was only potential.

But this time, Yunxiao had brought back more than half of the crystals from qionghua Island, and he immediately became the most talked about person in the entire southern region. It was only at this moment that Xin ruyu felt a sense of crisis, and he felt that Yunxiao might be his greatest opponent.

But he didn't expect that

In his eyes, she wasn't even worth a green onion!

It was like a millionaire who had always looked down on a beggar and mocked him from time to time, only to find out that the beggar was a multi-millionaire and didn't take him seriously at all. I've always been the one fantasizing about my sense of superiority.

This feeling of humiliation and defeat made Xin ruyu, who had always been high and mighty, feel so ashamed that his blood and Qi were not flowing smoothly. He spat out a mouthful of blood!

His eyes were bloodshot, and he shouted with blood in his mouth, "Li Yunxiao! How dare you, a lowly peasant, look down on me! He really deserved to die, really deserved to die! "Ah!" Ah!"

Xin ruyu's roar naturally reached Yunxiao's ears, but he only sneered and headed toward the auction hall.

The temporary auction venue was built at the original site of the previous myriad treasures store's Chamber of Commerce. It took thousands of workers to complete it in three days, and the scale was much larger than the last time.

Ding Ling'er, Baili gongjin, and Wei Hongfu, who were the three main people-in-charge of the auction, had already gathered in a vip room. Many people had also begun to enter the huge auction venue.

As soon as Yunxiao came in, the three immediately stopped talking and showed respect.

Baili gongjin laughed and said, "master Yunxiao, there seemed to be a great movement in the sky and above the city wall just now.

Yunxiao's heart lurched. He did not care about what happened outside the city. As for the strange movements thousands of miles away, Baili gongjin's divine sense had noticed them. His opponent was a sixth-tier Alchemist, and his soul power was stronger than his.

Chapter 283

283 The auction begins

Yunxiao said casually.

Baili gongjin cherished Yunxiao’s talent very much, so he advised, “ master Yunxiao, you’ve set such a high entrance fee outside the city. Now you can be rich for a while, but you’ve buried a great disaster for yourself!

young master Yun, ” Ding Ling ‘er said worriedly, ” all the people who have come to Yanwu to participate in the auction are from the major forces of firecrow Empire. You’ve offended everyone by doing this. This is like killing the chicken to get the egg, causing endless disasters!”

In their opinion, how could a mere Yanwu compete with the many forces of firecrow Empire? not to mention, not all of them were from firecrow Empire, but were infiltrated by forces from other places. They could easily get into trouble if they were not careful.

Wei Hongfu looked like he was watching a show. He smiled and said, ” an entrance fee of one million mid grade origin stones. If you can’t get the crystal, that resentment will burst out at once. Hehehe ...

Yunxiao gave him a leisurely look and said in surprise, ” “An entrance fee of one million? No, that was the entrance fee! If you’re going to participate in the auction, you’ll have to pay another million.”

“What?”

The three of them were so shocked that they bit their tongues and trembled in pain. All of them had their eyes bulging out and their mouths wide open, looking at him as if he was a monster.

Yunxiao, on the other hand, smiled quietly, then sat down and poured himself some tea.

After the bloody lesson they had learned outside Yanwu, everyone had become well-behaved.

Not to mention that everyone's strength was restricted by the formation, so they were at a disadvantage when they fought. Even if there were no restrictions, he was here to participate in the auction of the slots, and the slots were in the hands of others. If he angered the other party and they didn't bid for Jingshi, that would be a huge loss.

Therefore, all of them obediently waited in line to enter the city. But this resentment was buried deep in his heart, thinking about how to take revenge in the future.

"Next!"

Qian Duoduo shouted, and a storage bag was thrown on the table with a "plop." He reached out to take it out of habit, but his pupils suddenly shrank, and his body trembled in horror.

There was an ordinary copper coin printed on the storage bag. There was nothing special about it. It was one of the currencies in circulation on the heavenly martial continent, with the lowest face value, called copper Yuan.

Looking at the storage bag with the bronze Yuan seal, his whole body seemed to be greatly stimulated. He couldn't stop trembling, and one of his hands stopped in mid-air, unable to take it down.

"Hehe, long time no see. So it's you trash. We haven't seen each other for a year, and you've actually come to the southern mountain range to be someone's watchdog. Tsk, tsk, what a promising job, haha!"

The owner of the storage bag sneered in a cold and mocking tone.

Qian Duoduo didn't raise his head. He just looked at the clothes of the owner of the storage bag in front of him. The silver silk robe was also embroidered with a series of bronze Yuan seals. His eyes were bloodshot, and a murderous look flashed in his eyes.

He seemed to be struggling in his heart. After a while, he let out a heavy breath. He restrained his emotions and reached out with his right hand to take the storage bag. He said in a calm tone, "You can roll in now that you've paid."

The owner of the storage bag stood there for a few seconds, then snorted and walked into the city. However, his sarcastic words were still heard.

"You trash, you're only fit to be a guard dog in this lifetime!"

A murderous look flashed across Qian Duoduo's eyes, and he returned to his usual calm self and continued to collect the money.

Xiao qingwang, who had seen the whole process, frowned slightly and fell into contemplation. The copper-like mark seemed to represent something. He only had some impression of it, but he couldn't recall it at the moment.

He asked with concern, "who is that person?" Are you alright?"

Qian Duoduo shook his head and said with a wry smile, "He used to be my brother, but he's not anymore."

Xiao qingwang was rendered speechless. Seeing that Qian Duoduo didn't seem to want to say more, he didn't ask further.

After Yunxiao's killing, although there were still many complaints from the people who entered the city, no more conflicts occurred. Soon, tens of thousands of people had paid a huge amount of primordial stones, and the originally spacious Yanwu became crowded as they all headed for the auction house.

During the battle of Qionghua Island, the Three Kingdoms only allowed those forces who had not been allocated a place to participate in the auction, but there was no such restriction in this auction. As long as they were from Firecrow Empire, they could participate. Moreover, no one would care about the final flow of the quota crystals. Therefore, many people from the Tian Xiang Empire and Mu Xu Empire would also infiltrate behind the scenes.

What made everyone so angry that they wanted to vomit blood was that they had to pay a million mid-grade primordial stones when they entered the auction. This time, Duan Yue, a martial Royal realm expert, was in charge, and the divine realm tablet was manifested beside him. It stood there as if it wanted to show its might.

Everyone's face was gloomy, and after paying the primordial stones, their eyes were filled with vicious hatred. He planned to get it back with interest after the trip to Mount Meru was over!

At this time, they were in someone else's territory, and their strength was restricted. They were all angry but did not dare to speak. One by one, they entered the auction house angrily, not a single one of them looking good.

In the VIP room, Baili Gongjin and the other two were all a little dizzy. They did not believe it when they first heard Yunxiao's words, but they did not expect it to be true. He had paid two million mid-grade primordial stones just to participate in an auction. This was simply extortion! It would be strange if they didn't come after you after this!

Yunxiao's expression was still indifferent, as if he was indifferent to everyone's expressions. He was well aware of the consequences of such unscrupulous extortion, but he was even more aware that this world valued strength!

Now that he had mastered the nine Palace dustless formation, the great void Heavenly Capital treasure formation, and the great sun golden light sword formation, the defense of the entire city of Yanwu was no less than any force in the southern region. He was very confident that those who came to cause trouble would never return.

Moreover, after Mount Meru was opened, not only could they open the Fire Territory completely with a large number of primordial stones, but they could also be nourished by the spiritual Qi of Mount Meru, which would greatly improve everyone's strength.

Moreover, as long as he had enough Yuan Qi, he could upgrade the three formations in Yanwu by several levels. By then, even an existence like the jutian sect would not be able to break through them in a short time.

Besides,

He glanced at the three people in the VIP room with a smile. Myriad treasures store, Alchemist Association, and Tianyuan trading company were all in the same boat as him now. If something really happened to Yanwu, these three parties would not be able to ignore it. With these three great backers, he really had nothing to fear in the entire southern mountain range.

Baili gongjin's divine sense was the most powerful. When he sensed Yunxiao's smile, he felt goosebumps all over his body, and a bad feeling lingered in his heart, but he did not know what it was. young master Yun, " he coughed dryly and said, " almost everyone is here. Can we start now? "

From the moment they entered the city to the moment they participated in the auction, the sky-high fee of 2000000 medial-grade primordial stones made most people gnash their teeth in hatred, but it did not stop them from being enthusiastic about the quota. Soon, the 20000-person venue was filled to the brim.

He Feng and Shui luoyan were also sitting in a quiet corner. As they looked at the symbols of Tianyuan trading company, Alchemist Association, and myriad treasures store on the central auction stage, their expressions became a little uncertain.

"Elder he, why is Tianyuan trading company the main force of this auction? How could The Alchemist Association and myriad treasures store be willing to fall behind? It's a little strange."

Shui luoyan's eyes flashed with a strange light. When she thought of Ding Ling 'er, she felt a faint anger in her heart. It was as if there was a natural hostility between beautiful women.

I don't know how much Tianyuan trading company has paid to invite The Alchemist Association and myriad treasures store, " he Feng said with a cold smile. they've even invited The Alchemist Association and myriad treasures store to hold the fort. Humph, so what? as long as the two conventions of the merchant Union can't be the members of the Board of Directors this time, the name of Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce will immediately become history!"

Shui luoyan replied, "after the battle with her a year ago, I wonder how her strength is now. I estimate that it should be ranked around 10 in the merchant Union. The opening of Mount Meru is extremely important to her, and it's very likely that her strength will increase greatly!"

"Hmph, is she the only one entering Mount Meru? If I'm not wrong, all the disciples in the merchant Union who are likely to get into the top ten are here. Furthermore, all of the Super forces had infiltrated the city without exception. You must be extra careful on this trip to Mount Meru. Safety first!"

He Feng cautiously warned. Shui luoyan was a genius of the Mando Business Guild. If anything were to happen to her, he would definitely pay with his life when he returned.

"Don't worry, elder he. I'd like to see what kind of existences the geniuses of the seven superpowers are!" A look of anticipation appeared in Shui luoyan's eyes as her battle intent started to gather.

He Feng frowned slightly. He seemed to have expected that this trip to Mount Meru would not be simple.

At this moment, an old man had already walked up to the auction stage. With a unique spiritual aura, one could tell that he was from the Mei family, who specialized in appraising treasures.

I'll be hosting the auction, which is held by Tianyuan trading company, The Alchemist Association, and myriad treasures store.

Many people frowned when they heard this. There seemed to be some hidden meaning behind it, and they all began to think carefully.

"This old man's surname is Mei."

The old man said with a smile, " the main auction items this time are 1083 pieces of quota crystals for the participation of Mount Meru. There are also some treasures provided by The Alchemist Association and myriad treasures store. They will be interweaved in the auction. The one with the highest price will get it, so I won't say much about the rules. Let's start now!"

He had only briefly introduced himself as a Mei, and that was enough. This family name was the biggest brand in any auction.

“In order to liven up the atmosphere, the first item is a quota crystal. Each bid must be at least 100000 medial-grade primordial stones higher than the previous one!”

Mister Mei lifted the cover of a tray on the stage, revealing a shimmering crystal with a strange rune engraved on it.

The crystal itself didn't have much meaning, but it made everyone swallow their saliva.

“What the hell is this? It was more than a thousand Yuan, and he actually bid one Yuan at a time! How long will this take?”

Immediately, some people began to complain in dissatisfaction. However, there were still people who immediately began to bid.

100000 medial-grade primordial stones!

One of the burly men frowned and shouted, “How long are we going to shoot like this? Two million mid-grade origin stones!”

Even the entrance fee and entrance fee had cost two million, the price of these crystals would definitely not be lower than this. The price quickly soared, but only a few sparse voices called out. It seemed that the disciples of the major forces were not anxious.

After all, it was only the first piece of Jingshi, so they didn't take it seriously. All of them were reserved for the future.

In the end, the first slot crystal was sold for 4.3 million medial-grade primordial stones. The young man who won the bid couldn't hold back his excitement and hurriedly left his seat to go backstage. It was clear that his goal was only one piece, and now that he had his wish fulfilled, he didn't want to stay here any longer.

"The first auction is already very exciting," said Mister Mei with a smile. I have a feeling that the total sum of this auction will be the largest in my life! This old man is also very excited. The next item is ten crystals, and they will be sold as a bundle. Please start your bids!"

ten, then ten million mid-grade primordial stones!

Someone immediately called out. Ten pills was not a small number, and many forces immediately began to bid. The atmosphere in the auction hall started to get tense.

In the VIP room, several people were watching the auction quietly. Baili gongjin could not help but say, "I'm afraid master Yunxiao will become the richest man in the southern region after this auction!"

Yunxiao was already smiling like a flower as he quickly calculated the crystals in his mind. "Master Baili is showing off in front of an expert, saying that I'm the richest man in the southern region in front of the myriad treasures store in Seoul, niuhou? Lord Wei must be laughing coldly in his heart."

"You must be joking, young master Yun," Wei Hongfu said with a bitter smile. If the auction continues like this, the amount of primeval stones will be so great that even I'm shocked. They were probably comparable to the large sects and families in the southern region that had thousands of years of history. However, as the saying goes, wealth can not be revealed. I'm afraid young master Yun will be on the list of many people this time."

A cold gleam flashed in Yunxiao's eyes as he said disapprovingly, "If they want to court death, I don't mind granting their wish. Nowadays, if you want to live long, you don't just have to rely on strength. Many times, you lose your life completely because of stupidity."

Wei Hongfu found it strange. He really did not know where Yunxiao got his confidence from, but judging from his appearance, he did not look like a reckless person. But this kind of strength and bearing was really rare among the younger generation. He glanced at Ding Ling'er and suddenly fell into deep thought.

Baili Gongjin, who had been smiling without saying a word, suddenly chuckled and said, "It's time for one of my collections."

The few of them looked at the auction stand. This time, four shirtless men were carrying an iron box up, and they were immediately curious.

The next item for auction is provided by The Alchemist Association," Mr. Mei said with a smile. It's an item for auction. Inside is a set of sixth tier profound armament-battle armor-magic spear!"

The four men opened the metal chest, and a golden light immediately spilled out. A beautiful set of equipment appeared in front of everyone's eyes. Its shape was a little strange. On top of the Golden battle armor, there was a black spear. The two colors gave people a visual impact that did not match, but the killing intent on the spear and the Golden battle armor fused together, making people's hearts tremble and their hearts beat faster.

Heavens, it's actually a combined profound armament, a complete set! Someone below immediately cried out in alarm, his eyes shining.

Everyone's heart was moved. Sixth tier profound armaments were already extremely precious. Even those large aristocratic families with thousands of years of inheritance were rare. What's more, it was a set that was assembled together, and often this kind of existence came with incredible functions.

This was an item that had completely exceeded everyone's expectations. Originally, they had all come for the crystal stones, and even if there were some items that had been put up for auction, they would only have added flowers to the brocade. However, they had never thought that an item of such great value would actually become an additional item.

The hearts of the aristocratic families and sects that did not bring enough vitality stones immediately sank. They were extremely conflicted. On the contrary, those who had brought enough primeval stones were secretly happy, but they were also uneasy. After all, this kind of thing was too heaven-defying in the southern mountain range. Some of the ordinary martial artists revealed a bitter smile on their faces. These things were not something that poor people like them could even dream of.

However, there were also many disciples from the other three regions who were hiding among them. They snorted in disdain. Even though this kind of thing was precious, they had seen many of them in their sect.

Shui luoyan laughed awkwardly, "this set of combined profound level weapons is only so-so, and it can actually cause such a commotion." Elder he is right, this southern mountain range is indeed a place where even birds don't want to shit, all of them are people who have not seen the world."

He Feng stared at the profound level weapon and pondered. He shook his head, "The key is not this set of profound armaments, but the meaning behind it. It must be known that the number of alchemists in the southern region who could refine such an item could be counted on one hand. The fact that this set of profound level weapons had been put up for auction was enough to prove the support of The Alchemist Association for this auction. What I'm worried about is whether Tianyuan trading company has reached some kind of agreement with The Alchemist Association and has their support."

Shui luoyan was stunned and said in surprise, "where did Ding Ling 'er get such great ability from?!" The Alchemist Association is aloof from the world and will not interfere in the fights between the major forces on the continent. This is known to all!"

He Feng smiled bitterly and sighed, "you're still too young. You only care about cultivation." There was no such thing as being aloof in this world. As long as one was on the continent, one could not be aloof. The reason why The Alchemist Association gave people a sense of transcendence was that they were so powerful that they disdained all kinds of competitions. However, if there are enough benefits, hehe hehe hehe "

Shui luoyan frowned and said, 'Tianyuan trading company is just a broken pot. What benefits can it offer to The Alchemist Association?' It's just a third-tier Alchemist branch of the firecrow Empire, and there's only one sixth-tier Alchemist ancestor in charge of it. There's nothing to worry about."

He Feng's brows furrowed and he didn't say anything. However, he was puzzled in his heart. Was it really that simple? Baili gongjin, the sixth-tier Alchemist, was that Lord's disciple! He sighed slightly, hoping that he was overthinking. He didn't say anything more and continued to watch the auction.

Yunxiao's eyes lit up as he praised, " master Baili actually brought out such a treasure and didn't even reveal anything.

it's a work I'm satisfied with in my early years, " Baili gongjin said with a humble smile. I'm just afraid it won't catch young master Yun's eyes. Could it be that young master Yun is also interested in participating in the auction?"

I do want to buy it, " Yunxiao said with a smile. but the price is too high. If master Baili had revealed the news in advance, I could have cooperated with miss Ling 'er to do more publicity, so that these blood heads would have brought enough primordial stones, and the auction price would have increased."

Baili gongjin smiled bitterly. He had thought that Yunxiao was interested in the work and was proud to ask him for advice, but it turned out to be the truth.

"This set of profound level weapons is made up of seven pieces of sixth tier profound level weapons. They are the demon spear, helmet, battle armor, arm guards, battle boots, shoulder guards and waist guards. Each of them is at the sixth step, and when combined together, they even have a tyrannical fusion martial skill-demonic flame kill!"

Mister Mei seemed to be excited as well. He stroked the set of profound level weapons in admiration and smiled, " "This set of profound level weapons might not be as precious as those dozens of crystals combined, but it is definitely a rare treasure. I've hosted auctions for so many years, and I've never seen such a precious treasure before. The auction will begin now. There will be no end to the bidding price, and each bid will increase by at least 100000 medial-grade primordial stones."

After a brief silence, the crowd began to bid wildly. Many major powers were willing to auction for fewer quota crystals just to bring this set of profound level weapons back as a clan protection treasure!

In the end, it was bought by an unknown small force in the firecrow Empire at the sky-high price of forty million medial-grade primordial stones. However, everyone knew that there must be a great power from another country behind this, so no one dared to have any crooked ideas.

Finally, after a day, all the auctions had ended.

Everyone was so tired that they were covered in sweat. Even Mr. Mei's throat was on fire.

Not only was the price of more than a thousand crystals the highest price in his career, but the interlude auction items provided by The Alchemist Association were also extremely precious, and the primordial stones he got were not much less than the crystals.

All the people who participated in the auction basically had nothing in their pockets, but they were all overjoyed and had gained a lot.

Those who had not gotten anything all had gloomy faces. If they had not been exploited for two million mid-grade primordial stones along the way, they would have at least gotten one crystal stone. Now, they were putting all their resentment on Yunxiao.

In the VIP room, Yunxiao and the other three were listening to the report of the auction results. Although they had expected it, they were still stunned when they heard that it was nearly ten billion mid-grade primordial stones.

Wei Hongfu, Ding Ling'er, and Baili gongjin were all people who had seen the world, but they were also shocked by the auction. Yunxiao was the only one who was calm. With the entrance fee and the entrance fee, he had more than ten billion mid-grade primordial stones.

"The three of you can rest in the city for a while. I'll be in closed-door cultivation for the next two days, so don't disturb me. When Mount Meru opens, I'll be able to sense it and I'll definitely come out."

Yunxiao left the auction hall with tens of billions of primordial stones and went to a secret chamber in the city Lord's mansion to cultivate in seclusion.

"Hmph, there's another one who's not afraid of death!"

His brows furrowed as a hand seal appeared on his palm.

In the sky above the city Lord's mansion, tens of thousands of golden rays suddenly appeared and turned into countless sword Qi, whistling down.

At this time, more than a dozen figures in the city Lord's mansion suddenly scattered in panic, fleeing in all directions. These were all extremely discontented martial artists who had come to scheme and were hiding in the city Lord's mansion.

"Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!"

As the sword rays criss-crossed and slashed down, a series of blood-curdling screams rang out. In the blink of an eye, more than ten figures were killed on the spot. These people's strength was not ordinary, but under the restrictions of the nine Palace wuchen formation, they could only exert less than one-tenth of their power.

285 Extracting a soul and a spirit

Blood and broken limbs fell from all directions. Suddenly, the entire city Lord's mansion became calm and somber.

Many people in the distance were coldly staring at this side. They had different thoughts in their hearts, but most of them were sneering. They all wanted to see how Yanwu could withstand the revenge of so many forces after Mount Meru was over.

At this moment, there were still two days before the opening of Mount Meru. From time to time, there would be a faint roar in the sky, as if it came from an infinite place, giving people a sense of ancient.

The experts of more than a dozen top sects in the southern region appeared in Yanwu one after another, hiding in the void. They were responsible for monitoring the movements of the disciples, mainly to ensure the safety of the disciples.

Those who were killed by Yunxiao's great sun golden light sword array were disciples of small sects who had not been able to get the quota crystals from the auction and were resentful, so few people cared about their deaths.

However, the experts hiding in the void frowned one after another. They could not sense the power of the great sun golden array, so they did not know how Yunxiao had killed these people. All of them were a little suspicious.

Ding Ling 'er could feel the vigilance of the crowd toward the city Lord Mansion. She stood quietly in her small courtyard with a worried look on her face.

miss ding, you seem to be very confused and worried about master Yunxiao's behavior?" Baili gongjin chuckled behind her.

Ding Ling 'er hurriedly saluted and said with a wry smile, "Young master Yun's actions are meaningless. It's obvious that he's in urgent need of vitality stones to cultivate a secret technique, but he'll offend many forces in the entire southern region. How will he end up? what do you think, master Bai Li?"

Baili gongjin smiled. He looked up at the sky with his cloudy eyes and murmured, "The Eagle is in the sky, how could we know what he's thinking? Haven't you noticed that since the rise of Tianshui, everything master Yunxiao has done seems to be courting death in our eyes? but what happened in the end? It was all about the other party being dead. Not only is master Yunxiao unscathed, but he's also getting stronger and stronger."

He had also put in a lot of effort to investigate Yunxiao's past, but he could not understand or believe the series of things that had happened before his eyes.

Ding Ling 'er's heart skipped a beat. She knew very well what Yunxiao had done in the past few months.

Starting from the myriad treasures store's Chamber of Commerce, everything that had happened was a disaster for her, and she would die without a doubt. However, she had walked through it step by step. Moreover, in such a short time, she had grown from a great Martial Master to the cultivation of a martial Lord, and her strength was comparable to that of a martial Grandmaster.

"I hope my worries are unnecessary." Ding Ling 'er said in a low voice.

don't worry, " Baili gongjin said with a smile. after the incident at Mount Meru, master Yunxiao's name will be known throughout the entire southern region of the heavenly martial realm. Besides, I have a feeling that Yanwu will also become a major power like jutian sect, heavenly jewel sect, and emotion severing mountain, standing tall in firecrow Empire."

His murky eyes revealed a sharp glint as he chuckled profoundly, " "Although Tianyuan trading company's position in the merchant Union is in jeopardy, miss Ling 'er's insight is unparalleled in the entire merchant Union. I believe Tianyuan trading company's rise has begun to count down."

Ding Ling 'er's heart moved, and her face slightly blushed. She knew very well what Baili gongjin meant. He was referring to the relationship between her and Yunxiao. With The Alchemist Association's strength, it would be easy for them to find out the relationship between them.

"Thanks to you, master Baili, when Tianyuan trading company rises in the future, we'll always welcome you as a guest. You'll be Tianyuan trading company's friend forever."

Ding Ling 'er seized the opportunity to give him a hat. With Baili gongjin's status and strength, it was a good gift.

Baili gongjin was stunned for a moment, then he laughed. His eyes were filled with admiration."I'm definitely going to make friends with miss Ling 'er!"

Ding Ling 'er was overjoyed. Baili gongjin's words were clear. He had nothing to do with Tianyuan trading company, and they were just her personal friends. In the future, he would only owe her a favor and not Tianyuan trading company. It was equivalent to her own personal power.

Ding Ling 'er was overjoyed. She knew that it was because of Yunxiao that Baili gongjin had made this promise. A warm feeling flowed in his heart.

At that moment, Yunxiao was cultivating in seclusion in a secret chamber. He put the divine realm tablet up in the secret chamber, then stepped into it with a flash of light and came to the sky above the fire Territory, which was a Red Land.

Thousands of martial artists were sitting cross-legged below, arranged in a certain array. It was a peaceful scene. Other than the ground being red, there was no feeling of fire at all.

This was the last time he had used the tianluo flame battle formation on the qionghua Island, which had greatly affected the fire Territory and caused it to fall asleep again. The thousands of Warriors had to rely on their own power to maintain the fire territory's formation and cultivate with the little spiritual Qi they had left.

Suddenly, a figure rose from the ground and hovered in front of Yunxiao. With a complicated look in his eyes, he said, "When are you letting me out?"

The man was Yue jiulin. When he was thrown into the tianluo flaming battle array, he had suffered a lot, and only then did he become well-behaved and wait for Yunxiao's arrival.

He no longer had that cold and arrogant look on his face. Instead, he looked a little embarrassed and his tone was very sincere.

Yunxiao sneered and snorted. what do you think? I'm sure you've seen what kind of existence my divine realm tablet is. If I let you out, you'll cause endless trouble. Wouldn't I become the target of the entire heavenly martial continent?"

Yue jiulin said in a deep voice, "I can swear that I will never tell anyone about the divine realm tablet. And I'll never be your enemy in this life!"

He was really a little scared now. The existence of this divine realm tablet was no different from the legendary Noah divine boat. There was a world inside, and it was not a divine item that could be refined by human strength.

With such a divine item, he was simply not an opponent he could match. Now that he was in the divine realm tablet, it would be as easy as lifting a finger for the other party to kill him. Unless he was extremely powerful and could break the rules of this place, he would not have a chance of escaping. However, even a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens might not possess such power.

do you think I'll believe you and take such a big risk?" Yunxiao asked. I'm not a fool.

Yue jiulin's face turned extremely pale as he said, "Don't tell me you want to lock me up forever?"

"Hahaha!"

Yunxiao burst into laughter. you're not a beauty, and you want me to support you for a lifetime? Just wait patiently. When my strength has reached the nine Heavens realm and I'm not afraid of anyone, I can let you out."

"Martial sovereign of the nine Heavens, Ge Ge!"

Yue jiulin could not help but say, "let's not talk about whether you can reach this level or not. Even if you have the chance to make a breakthrough, I don't know how long it will take. Maybe I won't be able to leave this damn place even when my life is over!"

Yunxiao sneered and said, "If you want to attack me, you must be mentally prepared for eternal damnation. Mount Meru is about to open, and no one above the age of 50 can be brought out. I'll let you out for a while to get some fresh air."

"You're not afraid that I'll run away?" Yue jiulin asked, overjoyed.

of course I'm afraid," Yunxiao sneered. that's why I'm going to seal your cultivation base and extract your soul and spirit!

His eyes flashed with a strange light. A strange force enveloped Yue jiulin, and his figure became a little blurry.

Yue jiulin was shocked. The power rushed into his sea of consciousness and rushed into the depths of his soul.

However, no matter how he struggled, there was no resistance at all. In the divine realm tablet, Yunxiao's every move was the law of heaven and earth.

"Whoosh!"

Yue Jiulin felt a shock in his mind, and then his whole body seemed to be sucked out in an instant. He became extremely weak, and even his consciousness began to blur. He forced his eyes open and saw Yunxiao's shadow swaying.

In Yunxiao's hand was a black object, which seemed to be still struggling. He put it between his eyebrows and put it back into his body. Then, he sneered and said, "I've captured your soul and spirit, and now I'm sealing your cultivation!"

He pointed his fingers in the air, and a circle of black runes formed in the air. They were like a few tadpoles that were spinning in circles. They gradually spread out like black flames and suddenly pressed down on Yue Jiulin's chest.

A burning sound was heard from Yue Jiulin's chest, followed by a painful wail. He immediately came back to his senses.

"Triple Ghost Eye seal!"

A surprised voice came from the sky, and Duan Yue's figure emerged. Looking at the same mark on Yue Jiulin's chest, he said in shock, "How come you also know this imprint?"

Hmph! Yunxiao snorted. "If I didn't know how to, how could I unseal you for a moment?" However, in order to completely break it, it requires the blood of the person who used it."

Duan Yue stopped talking and stood quietly aside. He only felt that after being sealed, Yue Jiulin's condition was even worse than his own, as if he did not even have a seven-stars martial Grandmaster.

what did you do to me?!

Yue julin was shocked. Not only did he feel that his strength was sealed, but he also felt that something important was missing from his soul, which made him feel extremely disappointed.

Yunxiao ignored him, turned to Duan Yue, and said, "The divine restriction on Mount Meru has a limit of fifty years old. Even if it's in the divine realm tablet, I'm not sure I can take you in. Now, I'll send all the people over the age of 50 to Yanwu, and you'll be in charge of them."

He formed an incantation gesture with his five fingers and muttered. A strange force spread out in the entire space, and the first ones to touch Duan Yue and Yue julin were ejected out of the divine realm tablet and into the city Lord's mansion.

Among the thousands of Warriors below, except for the students of Galan Academy who had followed them from Tianshui, the rest of them were of varying strength and age. In just a few breaths, more than 1000 people were directly bounced out and landed in the city Lord's mansion. Fortunately, the mansion was big enough to accommodate more than a thousand people without feeling crowded.

"What's going on? Where is this place?"

All the people who were ejected were confused. They looked at each other.

286 Earth, water, fire, wind

Xiao qingwang, Li Chunyang, and the others were also ejected out, as well as Xu Han, Zhang qingfan, and many other older alchemists. They all looked at each other in bewilderment, not knowing what had happened.

Yunxiao's voice soon rang out in the courtyard, and he explained the situation to everyone. Only then did everyone quiet down.

These people had been cultivating hard in the divine realm tablet for several months, not caring about the world. As soon as they heard that Mount Meru was opening, they were all shocked. Some of them who had just passed the age of 50 lamented their bad luck.

Suddenly, a yellow light appeared on one side of the city Lord's mansion, and a martial artist who was about to step out of the mansion was bounced back and fell to the ground with a look of shock on his face.

Yunxiao's voice came again. "Right now, the outside world is mixed with good people and bad people. All the major forces of the entire southern mountain range have infiltrated it. For the sake of everyone's safety, I've shrunk the great void celestial capital treasure formation to a radius of a thousand meters, and it's activated in both directions. You can't enter from the outside, and you can't leave from the inside."

So that's the case, everyone was relieved. However, there were also many people who frowned and began to think.

A smile appeared on Duan Yue's face. This kid had obviously trapped everyone to prevent the secret of the divine realm tablet from being leaked, but he had said it so arrogantly. He nodded slightly at Xiao qingwang and the other martial grandmasters and told them Yunxiao's instructions. Only then did they understand.

After doing all that, Yunxiao found that there were still more than three thousand people in the stele.

He smiled and threw out a large storage bag. With a thought, it exploded in the air. A massive amount of vital Qi poured down like a Galaxy falling from the nine Heavens. The red Land instantly turned into a sea of spiritual Qi, flashing with silver light.

"What is this? Spirit Qi condensation?"

Everyone was shocked. It was rumored that when the spiritual energy was dense to a certain extent, it could directly turn into a liquid state. They didn't expect it to be true! One by one, they started to absorb the spiritual Qi excitedly. They had been complaining about the continuous supply of spiritual Qi during this period of time.

As the massive amount of spirit Qi poured down, a flame shot out from between Yunxiao's brows and danced in the air, turning into a fire Phoenix that whizzed down and landed on the silver Sea of spirit Qi. In an instant, the entire sea was set on fire, turning into a sea of fire with spirit Qi overflowing.

The thousands of disciples on the ground focused their minds and began to cultivate with the help of the flames.

At that moment, Yunxiao cast the great realm divine technique in the air, sending out one giant golden tadpole-like characters after another, which flashed in the air and then returned to the ground. A golden light began to appear in the sea of fire, and the ancient charm slowly spread out. Everyone felt a wave of soul-stirring majestic aura, as if it was gradually awakening.

"This aura is a Suan ni."

At the bottom of Mount Innerheart, the Kunwu Divine tree's spiritual transformation appeared on its trunk. It widened its eyes and cried out in extreme shock, "Li fire essence!" He became extremely happy and shouted excitedly, "Brat, take me there. Take me to absorb the Li fire essence!"

Yunxiao stood proudly in the air, performing an incantation gesture with one hand and closing his eyes. The great realm divine technique's Scriptures continued to appear behind him, covering the entire sky. The sea of fire on the ground continued to change, and the ancient formation was about to awaken.

He suddenly frowned and waved his hand. The Kunwu Divine Tree immediately disappeared from Mount Innerheart and reappeared in his palm.

"Do you recognize this formation?" he asked, his eyes fixed on it.

The Kunwu Divine tree's tree spirit looked down, and the dancing flames reflected on his face. He immediately exclaimed, "This feeling is like the creation of the world and the birth of the Li fire essence, but it's far from it. It seemed to be using the array and the essence of the Li fire to evolve the laws of heaven and earth. Could it be that he wants to open up a space of his own?"

Yunxiao was taken aback. The Kunwu Divine tree's knowledge was extraordinary. It was a Divine Tree that was born when the world was created. It had personally experienced the evolution of the world and the great changes of the laws at that time, so it could tell with a glance.

"Not bad! The place you're in is an independent space with four major territories within it, but they've all been sealed for countless years. I'm borrowing the true Phoenix Fire and a vast amount of Yuan Qi to re-open the 'fire' domain!" Yunxiao said in a deep voice.

The Kunwu Divine tree's tree spirit looked enlightened and said, "So it's about the four territories of earth, water, fire, and wind. It was a popular thing in the ancient times. I haven't seen it for many years."

Yunxiao's eyelids twitched as he said in surprise, "You also know about it?"

The Kunwu Divine tree's tree spirit looked like a child, and it raised its head and snorted, "This old man has existed since the creation of the world. What haven't I seen? He had already experienced the vicissitudes of life countless times. Do you think I'm the first one to be reborn? Let me tell you, this is already the 17th time!"

Yunxiao was secretly surprised. The Kunwu Divine Tree was indeed a Supreme treasure of heaven and earth, as it was born with the sky and coexisted with the earth. If it wasn't for this trip to the southern sea, he would've almost been destroyed by those low-level Sea Race. according to what you've said, " he probed carefully, " in ancient times, many Almighty Warriors could open up this independent space. Could it be that the existences at that time were all experts of the Ten Worlds divine realm? "

The Kunwu Divine tree's tree spirit laughed and said, " the spirit Qi of heaven and earth at that time was incomparable to what we have now. The spirit Qi below can be liquefied all over the continent. There are many existences in the ten directions divine realm, but it's far from enough to open up a realm!"

Yunxiao was shocked and said, " even the omnidirectional divine realm can't open up a space. What kind of existence created that bi 'an? "

The Kunwu Divine Tree laughed and said, "the ten directions divine realm is indeed an unattainable existence." One had to know that in ancient times, existences of this realm could be found all over the streets. What do you think opening up a realm is? Refining profound level weapons? That was the true creation of the heavens and earth, the creation of all things. There is no such thing as creating a realm in the true sense.”

He continued, ‘at that time, there was an Almighty man named Yuanshi, who was also a crazy Alchemist. After countless years, he finally developed a method that could simulate the creation of the world and create his own realm. That is what you are seeing now, opening up ‘earth, water, fire, and wind’! He used these four elements to simulate the entire environment of heaven and earth. After opening up a realm, it could develop its own rules. This was truly the greatest pioneering work in history. Since then, some peerless powerhouses in the ten directions divine realm can also use this method to refine their own independent space.”

Kunwu Divine Tree looked around and said, “This independent space of yours has been undying for countless years. It can be considered a relatively powerful existence. Perhaps during those years, he should have had a reputation that shook an area.” He looked down greedily and said, “Moreover, this giant array can directly transform spiritual energy into li fire essence. With your true Phoenix Fire as the array eye, it can be completely restored. Otherwise, with your strength, it’s impossible for you to reopen the four territories!”

so, as long as there’s enough spirit energy and a divine item as the array eye, we can open the other three territories?” Yunxiao asked.

The Kunwu Divine Tree thought for a moment and said with a smile, “In theory, yes. But first, where are you going to get so much vital Qi? The liquefied spiritual energy below looked spectacular, but in reality, it would not last long. Secondly, where are you going to get the divine item to form the formation eye? At the very least, it had to be on the same level as the true Phoenix Flame. It’s already a blessing to be able to encounter one such thing in a lifetime.”

Yunxiao’s heart was silent. He sighed, and his eyes gleamed as he said, “I used to think that the heavenly martial continent was in my grasp, but now I know how small I was. Since I’ve obtained both the true Phoenix Fire and the divine realm tablet, I think there must be other divine items waiting for me in this world!”

At this moment, a huge spell formation appeared once again. It was so huge that one couldn’t see the end of it. The entire land began to become full of vitality, but it was filled with fire elements that were jumping around happily, as if countless elves were dancing.

This feeling made Yunxiao feel very comfortable, especially the flame from the depths of his soul, which was connected with the territory.

“Such pure li fire essence, tsk tsk.”

The Kunwu Divine Tree pouted its mouth and pleaded, “Put me into this fire Territory. Absorbing the Li fire essence will allow me to grow even faster. You owe me a favor for extracting my soul power the last time. Now, you have to pay me back!”

Yunxiao smiled. Although the Kunwu Divine Tree had lived for countless years, it was still like a child. He lowered his hand, and the Kunwu Divine Tree immediately fell from the sky. When it was close to the ground, countless roots shot out from its bottom and stabbed into the earth. Soon, the tree Spirit’s face showed a happy expression.

Suddenly, his divine sense moved and revealed a happy look. He muttered to himself, “Has Mount Meru opened? Hmph, it’ll take some time for this territory to be fully activated. Even if it’s activated, it’ll have to wait until I get out!”

His soul-form remained in the monument, continuously performing the great realm divine technique. His main body appeared in the secret room. He sat down cross-legged and began to cast a spell. A strange symbol appeared on his palm.

The Grand Moon Mirror, which was hidden in the void, suddenly lit up. An identical and strange symbol appeared on it, emitting a warm light.

At this moment, the rumbling sounds coming from the void above Yanwu were getting louder and louder. The sky above the city became a little blurry from time to time, and the power of the natural order began to spread throughout the city. Everyone was shocked by the magnificent power.

“Everyone, calm down. This is a sign that Mount Meru is opening! The two spaces are currently connected, and there will be a huge spatial vibration. There is no danger, so there is no need to panic!”

The voice of a powerhouse came from the sky. Soon, all the martial artists in the city calmed down and silently felt the magnificent power.

Chapter 287-who let you in first?

“Mount Meru is about to open, why hasn’t young master Yun come out yet?”

Ding Ling ‘er’s face was full of anxiety. She had tried to enter the city Lord Mansion several times, but she had been expelled by a force and could not move an inch forward.

Baili gongjin also frowned. He looked at the city Lord’s mansion and said, “It seems to be an extremely powerful restriction, even I can’t see through it. However, master Yunxiao is not someone who doesn’t know his limits. I think he’ll be out soon.”

At the thought of Yunxiao’s unpredictable style, Ding Ling ‘er felt a little relieved and comforted herself, “ maybe. Fortunately, it’s only a sign. I don’t know when it will really appear.

After the time it took to brew a cup of tea, an Aurora suddenly appeared in the sky. It was as if a golden blade had been inserted into the dark World, as if it was going to Pierce the sky.

At this moment, the Aurora became brighter and brighter, gradually expanding. It tore a corner of the sky and turned into a circular light. Rings of light spread out, and the entire ring of light expanded bit by bit as time passed. It was like a strange sun hanging high in the sky.

“That’s Mount Meru? Why does it feel so far away?”

“That’s just the entrance to Mount Meru. It hasn’t fully manifested yet.”

it’s said that Mount Meru was the Taoist sanctum of the powerful warriors in ancient times. It was later lost to another world and floated in the void.

“Yes, there seems to be a certain pattern to the movement of Mount Meru. It appears in the southern region every few decades or centuries. It’s strange.”

All sorts of discussions could be heard as everyone was waiting for that exciting moment. No one could remain calm. The spiritual Qi in Mount Meru was hundreds of times denser than that in the realm of heavenly martial arts. A few months of cultivation was equivalent to a few years of cultivation. Especially for some genius disciples, the benefits they could obtain inside were incalculable.

The faces of those who did not have the quota crystals were so dark that water was about to drip out of them. All the resentment was now on Yunxiao.

All of a sudden, the Halo in the sky glowed with five colors, and a strange force broke through the constraints of the rules and spread to the sky above Yanwu. It was not restricted by the array at all, and the whole city was illuminated with a magnificent light.

The sky was filled with brilliant lights and overwhelming spiritual energy. A passage formed by Aurora light entered the five-colored light, as if it was going to be transported to the infinite horizon.

A calm voice came from the sky, and soon more than a dozen figures appeared. They were all Masters sent by the Three Kingdoms to open Mount Meru. Most of them were the law enforcement officers on qionghua Island.

Ding Ling ‘er was very anxious, and when she found that Yunxiao showed no signs of coming out of his seclusion, she stomped her little feet in anger.

At this time, the figures of the two old men, one tall and one short, appeared in front of the more than ten experts in the sky.

An expert walked out of the sky. It was Huang Xiaolong from the elusive world Valley on qionghua Island. He cupped his fists and said, “I’ll have to trouble you, elders Liu Kun and Zhang Gao!”

The two old men, one tall and one short, nodded slightly and looked down. “Senior brother Liu, shall we start?” the short elder spoke first.

The tall old man, Liu Kun, nodded his head. The two of them began to cast their magic arts. Their movements were exactly the same, and they were symmetrical on the left and right. One of them was glowing with yellow light, while the other was glowing with red light. Soon, a white light appeared between the two of them and fell toward Yanwu.

It was actually a flight of light that led directly to the dazzling five-colored radiance in the sky.

“The entrance to Mount Meru has already been opened. Everyone, please line up and use your placing crystals to enter the light pontoon. Whoever is crowded will be given the right to enter!” Liu Kun said in a deep voice.

The 10,000-plus people below immediately burst into an uproar and were extremely happy. The moment they had been waiting for had finally arrived. They wished they could just fly in directly, but Liu Kun’s words made them all calm down. If they were too crowded and their qualifications were seized, they would really hit a wall. Therefore, even though there were many people, they moved forward in an orderly manner. No one dared to squeeze.

“What’s going on?”

All of a sudden, the disciple walking on the stairs of light was shocked. He shouted at Liu Kun in the air, Sir, we’re being blocked by a force. We can’t move forward!

Liu Kun’s expression changed, and he exchanged a glance with Zhang Gao. The two of them began to cast their magic arts, and their expressions changed drastically after a short while.

“Elders, what’s the matter?” Huang Xiaolong’s heart skipped a beat. He could tell that something was not right from their expressions. The opening of Mount Meru was a huge event, and there couldn’t be any mistakes!

Liu Kun’s expression was extremely unsightly. His turbid eyes burst out with a sharp light, as if he wanted to see through the void. He gritted his teeth and said, “The lunar mirror is being controlled by someone!”

“Woof! What? You must be joking!”

Huang Xiaolong's expression changed drastically. The lunar treasure mirror was a very famous treasure in the elusive world Valley. It was specially used as the eye of the nine Palace wuchen formation for the opening of Mount Meru this time. Even in the face of Liu Kun and Zhang Gao, who were of very high status, Huang Xiaolong finally could not hold it in. He said angrily with a gloomy face, "you two, the lunar mirror is in the nine Palace wuchen formation. This formation has always been controlled by you two. Now you say it's controlled by someone else? this is too funny!

Both Liu Kun and Zhang Gao were dazed for a moment. They suddenly remembered what had happened two days ago. It seemed that the man had really succeeded. However, this nine Palace dust-free formation was only used to maintain order and prevent chaotic scenes of Warriors fighting. What was the point of that person controlling this formation? Could it be that an expert who didn't get a quota was destroying it because of the extreme imbalance in his heart?

For a moment, the two of them had different speculations and their expressions were unusually ugly.

"You two, what should we do now? It's not a big deal that the nine Palace dust-free formation was stolen. The key is how to send this group of disciples into Mount Meru!"

One of the cultivators said. It was Fang de of the jutian sect.

He frowned and said, "right now, everyone, including us, is being restricted by the formation. We're unable to use our full strength." Why don't we work together to create a void passage? Now, not only the entire southern region, but the entire realm of heavenly martial arts is watching us. If we make such a big mistake and fail this trip to Mount Meru, Humph, Humph, how can we still have the face to stand in the realm of heavenly martial arts?"

"Brother Fang de is right!" Huang Xiaolong's face was gloomy. that's the only way now. Otherwise, the responsibility for this matter is too great. No one can afford to bear it!

Everyone agreed and was about to join forces. Suddenly, a beam of light burst out of Yanwu and shot toward the Halo.

Within the light, there was a delicate and pretty figure. A young man was standing on a sword, and his face revealed a look of ridicule. He turned to look at the others and said, "I'm Lu Qingcheng. I'll take my leave first. Everyone, take your time!"

For a time, everyone's expression was extremely ugly. They all stared at Lu Qingcheng with envy and jealousy. They didn't understand how he could travel through the void without being restricted by the formation.

Lu Qingcheng was extremely proud. He was not a disciple of the southern mountain range. Although the true Qi in his body was restricted, the sword under his feet was a seventh-rank Qing suo sword. It had been refined by the elders of the sect since he was young into his dantian, and had already become one with other people's swords.

Grade 7 items were enough to break open space.

Although the entrance of Mount Meru looked like it was in the sky, it was actually extremely far away. One had to break through space and cross the void to reach the other side!

"This young master hasn't come out yet, who allowed you to go in first?"

A cold voice suddenly rang out in the air, and everyone's hearts trembled. Ding Ling 'er and Baili gongjin looked up at the sky in shock. The voice was from Yunxiao.

Ding Ling 'er's heart suddenly trembled, and she cried out in horror, "This bi an, this mishap won't be him bi an"

Baili gongjin was also shocked. Even though he had a high status, he was shocked by the speculation.

If that was the case, then he would have caused a great disaster!

Under the Halo, as the voice rang out, tens of thousands of rays of light appeared. They gathered together and spread out, turning into a big hand that covered the sky and suddenly pressed down on Lu Qingcheng.

Lu Qingcheng's pupils contracted, and the Qing suo sword under his feet emitted a green light. It immediately condensed into a huge sword-shaped object that enveloped his entire body, and he rushed toward the huge golden hand.

The Golden and green rays of light instantly clashed together. Under the impact of the sword ray, the Golden hand actually showed signs of collapsing!

Lu Qingcheng was overjoyed. He raised his head and proudly said, "This young master's Qing suo sword can cut through mountains and split oceans. You want to stop me with a mere giant palm?"

He was about to break through the Golden hand's suppression and rush into Mount Meru.

Yunxiao's voice rang out again, and he sneered, "You dare to call yourself 'young master' in front of me? I only wanted to stop you, but now I'm going to beat you into a pulp!"

Suddenly, the golden light in the air brightened. The golden light gathered from all directions like fireflies and converged on the big golden hand. Suddenly, the golden light became more and more intense, and the entire big hand instantly turned into the color of a golden ingot. It was as heavy as a mountain, pressing down on Lu Qingcheng's sword-shaped sword and falling down like a meteorite.

"BOOM!"

The giant palm pressed down on the sword and smashed into Yanwu, causing an earth-shaking boom. The martial artists in the surroundings flew up and scattered in all directions. Soon, a deep hole appeared in front of him.

"Whoosh!"

Lu Qingcheng's figure jumped out from the hole and landed beside it. His whole body was covered in blood, and he looked extremely miserable. He looked at the sky in horror, no longer having that arrogance.

He was holding a green sword in his hand, and the light was also dimming.

The martial Royal realm experts in the sky also changed their expressions.

Fang de's face was also ashen. He suddenly shouted, " but li Yunxiao, you're the one who's making things difficult for us!

He shouted three times in a row, but no one responded.

Down below, Ding Ling 'er felt like she was on the verge of collapsing. She was one hundred percent sure that the man was Yunxiao.

Madman, he really is a madman!

In this way, he had completely offended all the forces in the entire southern region!

Baili gongjin also felt dizzy, as if he could already see Yunxiao being cut into a thousand pieces by the major forces.

Chapter 288

288 Dancing

"Hmph, do you think that by controlling a small array, you can block the passage into Mount Meru? You're too childish."

Lu Qingcheng was in a sorry state and no longer said anything. In the crowd below, a young man in silver clothes and a Jade belt looked coldly at the sky. Silver light began to appear on his body, as if he was accumulating power to launch some kind of move.

"Huala"

The people around him immediately scattered and retreated far away, afraid that they would be implicated. However, none of them could understand why someone could still circulate his genuine Qi without any hindrance when everyone's cultivation was greatly suppressed by the nine Palace wuchen formation.

"Nine Heavens frost!"

The silver-robed man unfurled a ribbon in his hand and it floated in the air. The space became extremely cold, like falling flowers and snow, and a layer of frost formed in the air. His entire body turned into a ray of silver light and rushed towards Mount Meru.

Just as the silver-robed man was about to soar into the sky, a burly man with a face full of stubbles snorted coldly from another place.

Clang! Clang!

He stabbed a thick-backed machete into the ground and roared. A beast-like sound wave spread out, causing the surrounding martial artists' eardrums to hurt and bleed.

The air also followed his heart, "thump!" The clothes on his upper body directly burst open, and pieces of muscles bulged. Even more bizarre was that long hair began to grow on his back like savages.

the southern mountain range is really a place where even birds don't want to take a shit. A mere trash array is enough to make you guys helpless!

The hairy burly man grabbed the hilt of the blade. Waves of overbearing fluctuations came from the blade, as if it was going to split the sky and split the earth. He shot up into the sky with a whoosh and chased after the silver light. A loud roar came from the sky, "let me cut a path for you, tyrannical saber from beyond the heavens!"

His words instantly infuriated the martial Royal realm experts in the air, but they could do nothing about it.

Jiugong wuchen was under Yunxiao's control, and it seemed that he had specifically imposed restrictions on them. Some of the martial Royal realm experts who had seventh tier profound level weapons were also bound by the huge pressure, and it was extremely difficult for them to even move.

"Hmph, yang fangzhou of the silver Wing sect, Shen Aobei of the Heavenly King Village, Qianqian, how can I let you guys steal the limelight! You're just using profound level weapons and special secret techniques to open your meridians. How can I, Zheng qiqing, lose to you?" Another figure rushed into the sky, stepping on a feather fan. The light was like fire, and it was red.

The three rays of light reflected each other in the air and rushed towards Mount Meru with unstoppable momentum!

The martial Royal realm experts in the air looked extremely upset. They had mixed feelings.

On one hand, he hoped that these people would be able to break through the formation and open a passage. But if that was the case, they would lose all their face. Therefore, he was also looking forward to another Golden Palm print, which would directly slap these arrogant people to death!

The tens of thousands of cultivators below were also looking up at the sky in silence. They secretly remembered the faces of these people and thought that when they arrived at Mount Meru, they must not offend these people. With such powerful strength in front of him, he definitely couldn't court his own death.

However, there were also some existences who had a look of ridicule in their eyes, as if they were disdainful of their actions.

those three guys should be from the Eastern Region. Without the Tiger in the mountain, this group of monkeys will be the king!

"Hehe, it seems like brother Xu Qing is also interested in testing your skills?"

"Ha, forget it. No matter what, we have to give some face to these so-called powerhouses of the southern region. If we break the formation, where will their face go?"

“Oh? From brother Xu Qing’s words, these three monkeys won’t be able to break the nine Palace wuchen formation?”

“That’s hard to say. The person controlling the formation has some skill. However, it’s not my place to worry. Besides, it’s not like there are no Tigers in the mountains. Brother Yan Yi, aren’t you one of them?”

“Haha, brother Xu Qing is really good at joking. I feel that there are indeed a few Tigers, but they don’t seem to have any intention of fighting?”

“Hehe, let’s wait and see how the three monkeys are doing. If he’s killed, it won’t be too late for us to break the formation. After all, time is precious in Mount Meru, and it’s a great loss to delay it for 15 minutes.”

The two of them spoke in a normal tone, without any concealment. While everyone was staring at the three people who were soaring into the sky, the city was silent. The sound was very loud, and almost half of the people could hear it. Most of them were disciples of the southern mountain range, and their faces were as if frozen with a layer of frost. At first, they were still looking forward to breaking the array, but now, they wished that all these monkeys from the other regions would be slapped to death!

At this time, the Golden Palm that had slapped Lu Qingcheng down once again condensed in the air, and ruthlessly slapped down toward the three people.

“If you’re afraid of them, kill them!”

The southern mountain range disciples began to chant in their hearts.

“BOOM!”

Three rays of light of different colors met the Golden Palm at the same time. The four forces collided and were in a stalemate.

“Rumble! BOOM!”

Finally, the Golden handprint was pierced through by the three forces. The handprint immediately collapsed and turned into golden qi that scattered in the sky.

“I broke through!”

Everyone’s heart trembled, and they were both surprised and delighted. Their emotions were difficult to describe. Especially those from the southern mountain range, all of them felt bad in their hearts.

“Haha, that’s all there is to it!”

Zheng qiqing’s voice rang out in the sky, and he laughed arrogantly.

Feeling the admiration of the tens of thousands of people below, he felt a little light-headed.

Suddenly, he felt that something was wrong. The five-colored ring of light that was like the sun at the entrance of Mount Meru suddenly turned blood-red and emitted a demonic light. It gradually turned into a person’s pupil.

“Woof! What’s going on?”

His mind trembled as he felt a force rush into his sea of consciousness. He had no power to resist at all and lost consciousness in an instant.

The same thing happened to the other two people in the air. As they scattered the Golden Palm, they saw the demonic blood-red pupils.

“What are those three doing? Why didn’t you enter Mount Meru after breaking the hand seal?”

“F * ck! Were these three b * tches trying to show off in the air? I really want to slap them to death!”

“I think so. Look, these three people are actually dancing! F * ck, provocation, provocation, this is clearly a provocation to our southern mountain range!”

The disciples of the southern mountain range, especially the talented disciples of the top forces and sects, couldn't take it and started to curse!

The way the three of them were dancing in the air was clearly a provocation and contempt towards the southern mountain range. This made everyone's hearts burn with anger.

The martial Royal realm experts in the sky were also so angry that they were trembling. However, the other party's strength was there for all to see. What could you do if they could not handle it?

Fang de tried his best to suppress his anger and said in a deep voice, “The three of you! Since you have the ability to break through the formation's suppression, please open a passage for everyone to enter!”

The three people seemed to have ignored his words and started to dance more and more happily.

Fang de was so angry that he almost fainted. He spread out his divine sense quickly, trying to find Yunxiao.

“Why do I feel like something is wrong?” Xu Qing's eyes were filled with confusion as he said in surprise, “it's fine if they're just dancing, but why are they so perverted? they're actually taking off their clothes?”

Beside him, Yan Yi also found it hard to understand. He said in shock, “No way? What were they doing? Gay in front of so many people? Could it be that the Eastern Region has already been opened to such an extent?”

The people below were all dumbfounded. They stared at the sky with their bell-like eyes.

The actions of the three people became more and more absurd. They had actually taken off all their clothes and stood naked in the void!

“Ya! I’m so embarrassed!”

Many of the female disciples in the crowd hurriedly lowered their heads in shame and anger. The unsightly scene was playing out in the sky.

“Swish!”

Shen Aobei’s heavenly Overlord saber fell from the sky and stabbed into the ground. After that, yang fangzhou’s ribbon and Zheng qiqing’s Fire fan fell to the ground. Everyone’s hearts trembled as they knew that something had gone wrong.

These profound level weapons were all top-notch existences. The three of them had relied on the unity of mind and spirit with the profound level weapons to break the nine Palace wuchen formation’s restrictions. Now that all three profound level weapons had fallen, it proved that there was something wrong with the three people in the sky. At this moment, the three of them were molesting each other. Everyone’s stomachs rolled, and many of them couldn’t help but vomit.

this damn li Yunxiao! What the hell is he doing? ”

Ding Ling ‘er was also furious. Such a grand event was made so unsightly by him. Not only did he offend many forces in the southern region, but he also did not let off the people from the other three regions. He had offended them all! Did he want to become The Public Enemy of the entire realm of heavenly martial arts?

However, there were also many southern mountain range disciples who were gloating and clapping their hands.

The martial Royal realm experts in the sky were also dumbfounded. Their anger disappeared in an instant and was replaced by sympathy.

These three people were all heaven’s favored children, and would become the future overlords of a region. Now that he had done such a thing in front of thousands of people, how could he establish himself in Xuanji in the future?

Xu Qing and Yan Yi were also completely stunned. Yan Yi swallowed his saliva and said with a dry voice, "Brother Xu Qing, didn't you just say that you would only attack if something happened to the three monkeys? It's all up to you now."

Xu Qing's entire body trembled, and he hurriedly said, "How can I? these three experts are a hundred times stronger than me, and yet they're still like this. If I go, I'll just be cannon fodder. I can't, I can't!"

There were many young disciples in the crowd who had wanted to give it a try, but now they were all silent like cicadas in winter, their hands cold.

"Hehe!"

Just as the entire Yanwu was in this strange state, Yunxiao's calm voice rang out again.

in order to keep everyone from getting impatient, I've specially arranged for three people to dance for everyone to see. But I didn't expect these three to be so filthy and have such a hobby.

"It's simply a breach of public morals and a violation of one's three views."

"Tsk, tsk, the eastern domain is truly a magical land!"

289 Shui luoyan takes action

Yunxiao's figure gradually appeared in the void. He looked down indifferently and said with a mocking look, "How is it? Is everyone satisfied with this?"

"Blargh! Blargh! Blargh!"

Many people couldn't hold it in any longer and vomited violently.

The female disciples were so embarrassed that their faces were red.

Yunxiao glanced at the three men in the distance. He felt nauseated, and his face turned slightly pale. He hurriedly waved his hand, and a spiritual seal flew out of his palm.

The three of them immediately fell from the sky and landed beside their weapons and clothes. They were all so shocked that they spat out large mouthfuls of blood. At this moment, they also regained their consciousness.

"Blargh!"

The first thing the three of them did after they woke up was to vomit violently, more than anyone else. Then, he hurriedly put on all his clothes, and his body trembled violently. They looked at each other, then immediately turned around and vomited again.

Li Yunxiao, it's really you!

Fang de's heart trembled. Although he could recognize his voice, he still found it hard to accept after seeing it with his own eyes. do you know that you've caused a huge disaster? " it's alright, elder Fang, " Yunxiao said with a smile. calm down. I'm just playing around with these juniors."

He himself only had the appearance of a fifteen-year-old, yet he dared to call someone else a junior while standing in the air. The crowd immediately fainted. However, everyone was staring at him, wanting to see what he was up to.

Yunxiao chuckled and waved his hand. Suddenly, strange characters fell from the sky, forming a passage that led into Mount Meru.

“Everyone, I’ve been a little tight on cash recently, so I’d like to earn some money to spend,” he said loudly. This pass is my personal property and has nothing to do with you entering Mount Meru. Of course, if you want to pass through my passageway, you just have to pay some metastones.”

“Whoosh!”

The crowd below immediately boiled over as they cursed, “You are too black-hearted! How much black-hearted money had he earned since he entered the city? You still have to pay a fee!”

Someone couldn’t help but ask, “I have the quota crystal, so I don’t have to pay a fee, right?” And I bought the quota crystal from you!”

Yunxiao laughed. why should I care if you have a quota crystal? This item was jointly issued by the three major forces of the southern mountain range. If you want to honor it, go to them. I’m just a small city Lord of Yanwu, and I don’t have the ability to be responsible for your crystals. Time waits for no one. We don’t know when the Mount Meru ghost will close. Five million mid-grade primordial stones for one!”

“Pfft! Pfft!”

Many people instantly vomited blood and gritted their teeth. five million medial-grade primordial stones per person. You’re really inhuman!

Yunxiao’s smile froze as he pointed at the man who scolded him and said, “ you, 10 million medial-grade primordial stones. No bargaining!

“Pfft!”

The man spat out another mouthful of blood and fainted on the ground.

At this moment, a black-robed elder among the group of martial Royal realm experts could not hold it in any longer. He took a step forward and said, “ do you know that by doing this, you have not only offended the forces of the entire southern region, but you have also offended all the major regions in the heavenly martial realm. By then, even if you run to the ends of the earth, you will not be able to find a corpse!

Yunxiao stood in the air and gave him a cold look as he said with a disdainful smile, "you think these noobs can represent the entire realm of heavenly martial arts? haha, don't make me laugh. May I ask which sect this Lord belongs to?"

The purple-robed Martial Emperor snorted coldly and said arrogantly, "The war Wolf temple of the Tian Xiang Empire is equivalent to the emotion severing sect and the heavenly jewel sect in your country. I'm advising Yingluo out of good intentions."

"Alright, I know!"

Yunxiao waved his hand to interrupt him, then said coldly, "the entry price for all disciples of the war Wolf temple of the Tian Xiang Empire is 10 million mid-grade vitality stones. Anyone who is talking nonsense, I will increase the price again!"

"Swish!"

Everyone sucked in a cold breath, especially the disciples of the battle Wolf temple. Their faces turned green and they were instantly dumbfounded.

The purple-robed Martial Emperor was also stunned for a moment. His eyes were filled with disbelief. After a few minutes, he finally reacted and roared in anger, "Little brat, you're looking for death!"

Not only was this a challenge to the temple's dignity, but it was also a challenge to his dignity.

For many years, he had run amuck in the Tian Xiang Empire. Even the royal family had to be respectful to him and bow down to him. This city Lord of a small city of firecrow Empire dared to slap him in front of him. In a great rage, he threw out a cold beam of light.

"Hmph, he's really old and muddled. You're taking advantage of your seniority to attack me in my territory!"

Yunxiao reached out his hand and made a grabbing gesture. Instantly, under the scorching sun, tens of thousands of golden beams condensed in his palm and turned into a big sword that slashed through the air!

The purple-robed Martial Emperor's cold light shot out in the air, but it was getting weaker and weaker due to the obstruction of the nine Palace dustless formation. How could it be a match for the great sun golden light sword? it disappeared in an instant, like a river flowing into the sea, without a single wave. The great sun golden light sword's momentum did not decrease as it slashed down from the sky.

“BOOM!”

The purple-robed martial Royal realm expert's genuine Qi circulation was restricted, and he could not Dodge in time. He was directly cut by the sword light, and his body exploded into a pool of blood. His face instantly turned pale, and he retreated a few steps in the air. His body was on the verge of collapsing.

Under the scorching sun, no one could feel any warmth. They felt cold all over.

He had injured a Martial Emperor with a wave of his hand. Although he had relied on the power of the formation, the visual impact was too strong! Not to mention that this martial Royal realm expert was an elder of the war Wolf temple!

One of the Warriors wiped the cold sweat off his face in shock and said in fear, “ heavens, this kid has really gone crazy!

he's not just crazy. What he's doing is no different from dragging Yanwu into eternal damnation!

I reckon that the war Wolf temple will soon turn out in full strength and raze Yanwu to the ground!

“Shush, lower your voice. What does this have to do with me? He quickly paid the money and went in to cultivate. When you come out, leave immediately and don’t get involved. When the immortals fight, the mortals suffer!”

All sorts of whispers could be heard. The remaining experts of the three major sects were all standing in the air, completely dumbfounded.

The situation was completely out of control, and the entire scene was no longer under their control. This was something that he had never dreamed of!

In the entire southern mountain range, even if one had the ability, who would dare to take on the world’s condemnation and oppose the entire southern mountain range? Wasn’t this a madman seeking his own death?

At this moment, the absurd reality was right in front of their eyes, and they could not help but believe it!

But, Yunxiao looked calm and did not take it seriously at all.

Who was he?

He was the nine Heavens martial sovereign, Gu Feiyang!

Even if it was the royal families of the four Seas, the domain of the demons, or the divine capital of the Holy region, he would still cause a ruckus. Who had he ever been afraid of?

In this life, he would only be more brilliant and arrogant than Gu Feiyang!

Among the 10000 disciples, a few members of the Zhou family clutched the quota crystal in their hands. They were extremely uneasy. At this time, they felt that their family’s loss was not unjust at all. On the contrary, they felt extremely fortunate. He was really lucky to have survived meeting such a lunatic!

The Xingyang family had been wiped out without a sound, and the ice sculptures were still in the imperial capital. It was a bloody lesson!

This lunatic, you must not provoke him!

At this moment, a man with a few bronze Yuan emblems embroidered on his body slowly walked up the hanging ladder and threw the primordial stones at Yunxiao.

Yunxiao took the primordial stone and glanced at the bronze Yuan mark on his body. His pupils constricted, and then he said with a smile, "You can go up now."

The man smiled slightly and let out an almost inaudible snort. He was the first to step into the passage.

Someone had finally entered!

The same thought appeared in everyone's mind. Those who were rich immediately rushed in one after another. Soon, more than 3000 people had entered. After all, the disciples of the major forces who did not participate in the auction were quite wealthy.

However, most of the disciples' faces turned pale. How could they still fork out five million mid-grade origin stones?

"Stop right there!" Yunxiao pointed at Shui luoyan, who was about to pass through, and said, "You have to pay 20 million."

"Why do I need so many?" Shui luoyan's expression changed drastically as she said angrily.

"Hehe, there's no reason. If I want you to pay more, you have to pay more." Yunxiao spread his hands and said with a helpless look, "This is my private passage. You can collect as much as you want. If you're not convinced, come and hit me!"

"You! You're going too far!"

Shui luoyan's expression was dark and cold as she said angrily, "don't think that just because you've taken control of the formation, you're invincible." Today, I'll make sure you die completely, and take it as a lesson for that bitch Ding Ling 'er!"

She waved her hand and a bead let out a sharp sound and flew towards her.

The bead was light blue in color and was spinning in the air, looking very small and cute.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted in shock. He quickly retreated in the air, then raised one hand to grab tens of thousands of beams of light and condensed them into a golden sword, which he then swung at them.

"BOOM!"

As the golden sword cut the blue bead open, a surge of water energy spread out, growing larger and larger, and devoured Yunxiao's great sun golden light sword. The mass of water slowly condensed into a fist in the air, then quickly smashed toward Yunxiao.

"F * ck! As expected, it's the martial essence condensed pill!"

Yunxiao was shocked. He did not expect Shui luoyan to be so sharp and throw away such a precious thing. He continued to pull at the air, and a pale yellow light was pulled down by him, like a curtain in front of him.

"Boom boom boom!"

The huge fist condensed from water elements could not break through the defense of the great void celestial capital formation, so it pressed Yunxiao down and pushed him away in the air, quickly retreating into the distance.

A hint of surprise appeared in Shui luoyan's eyes, but she was even more pleased with herself. She stepped onto the ladder and walked towards Mount Meru.

Yunxiao was pressed to the edge of Yanwu by the fist. Because he had activated the dual defense of the great void celestial capital array, he could not break out of it. He was completely suppressed and flattened!

He gritted his teeth and quickly sent out a few golden tadpole-like characters. They flew out like butterflies and flew into the fist shadow one by one. Suddenly, on the fist of the water element, a golden light spread out and burst into a flash of light.

290 All of you go in

The fist seemed to be restrained by some kind of force, and Yunxiao's arms suddenly grew thicker. He circulated his Supreme tyrant body to the extreme, pushed open a gap, and took the opportunity to rush out.

The power of the fist shook all around him. He took a few steps in the air, and with each step, a few shadows were left behind. Only then did he escape the pressure of the fist. He kept looking back, his eyes filled with horror.

The power of this punch had almost reached the level of a peak Martial Emperor! Fortunately, he was in Yanwu, and with the defense of the great void celestial capital formation, he would have been dead by now!

At this time, a group of people took advantage of the fact that he was shaken off and rushed madly toward the passage. The entire ladder was filled with people, and they were on the verge of collapsing.

squeeze your sister! If you squeeze any more, I'll burst your ass!

"F * ck, who's using their ass to press on my face! You bastards!"

who dropped their primeval stones? hurry up and pick them up!

“Motherf * cker! I’ll kill your entire family if anyone dares to stab me down there again!”

All sorts of curses rang out as these people all squeezed into a group and headed towards the passage. As the saying goes, the one who gets the opportunity first gets a big bargain. Many people had already entered Mount Meru, and those behind were all anxious.

At this moment, thousands of sword rays suddenly condensed in the air, making a buzzing sound, and fiercely slashed at the hanging ladder.

wow, that kid is back! Run!

For a moment, blood splattered all over the ladder. Everyone jumped down from the ladder and fled down.

Yunxiao’s voice came directly from the side of the passage, and he said coldly, “Very good. I didn’t see how many people entered just now. However, you will have to pay for their expenses, so raise the price to seven million primeval stones per person. Line up to enter the venue now!”

“Swish!” The people below all sucked in a breath of cold air and started protesting angrily!

“Why do we have to pay for them if they shirk their tickets?”

it’s up to you whether you want to enter or not, ” Yunxiao said indifferently. my ladder will fall and die in fifteen minutes. At that time, I will also enter Mount Meru. You guys can wait for the next opening.”

The faces of the people below all turned green, but they still took out their vitality stones and walked up the suspended ladder.

“I say, brother Xu Qing, from the attack just now, this kid doesn’t seem to be as powerful as I thought. Why don’t we join forces and suppress it?”

“Suppressed? Do you f * cking know what the water element shadow fist that the girl threw just now was? That’s the martial essence pill!”

“Woof! How was that possible? Martial intent condensing pill was something that absolutely powerful martial artists would condense their own attack into a pill and bestow it to their juniors to use for self-defense! It’s so valuable that it’s not less than ten million mid-grade origin stones!”

exactly! The punch just now must be a fist core condensed by a peak martial honor at the very least, which is why it can exert a power infinitely close to that of a martial honor and suppress Yunxiao! Otherwise, who in the city could suppress him with the few formations he has?”

“Tsk tsk! That girl is rich, she would rather throw out an attack that is worth more than ten million primeval stones.”

“You just found out? I’m telling you, that girl is the strongest existence of the Mando Chamber of Commerce’s younger generation. As one of the seven merchant alliances, how can you not have money?”

“Hehe, and she’s pretty. Brother Xu Qing, are you interested? If you don’t have it, then you can give it to this little brother.”

“Haha, brother Yan Yi is indeed a pervert. If you have the ability, then go and pick it. Don’t get your hands full of thorns, hahaha.”

“Hahaha! His hands were full of thorns? Hehe, brother Xu Qing, it’s not that I’m bragging, but back then, Qianqian ...”

The two of them discussed for a while, and in the end, it became a joke. Then, they began to talk about all kinds of beautiful women with great interest.

After a while, he realized that it was not the time to talk about women, but he could not think of a good way to not pay, so he could only force himself to pay the primordial stones and enter the passage.

However, when they went in, Yunxiao seemed to have sized them up a few times, which made them feel as if he had seen through their bodies, and they felt a chill in their hearts.

“Is there anyone else who wants to go in? If not, I’m going to close the ladder!”

Yunxiao glanced down coldly. Everyone looked anxious, but they had run out of primordial stones.

“Can I use profound level weapons and other treasures to pay for it?” one of them could not help but ask.

Yunxiao narrowed his eyes and smiled. of course you can, but you’ll have to pay seven. Come on up.

That person immediately took out a large pile of things in joy and displayed them one by one, saying, “big brother, take a look for yourself. Just take whatever you think is valuable. The total value of these things must be above five million primeval stones. I still have five million primeval stones here.

Without even looking at them, Yunxiao swept his eyes over them and put them all into his ring. “It’s almost done, you can go in.”

The man wiped the sweat from his forehead and said awkwardly, “big brother, you’ve also taken my profound level weapon. It’s very dangerous in Mount Meru. Can you leave it for me to use for self-defense?”

are you going in or not?” Yunxiao frowned and shouted.

The man shivered and quickly said, “Go, go!” With a straight slash, he rushed into the passage without even seeing his figure clearly. The speed was so fast that it left people speechless!

After that, many people began to open their storage rings and let Yunxiao scan through them. In just a short while, thousands of people had entered. The remaining ones were truly miserable, especially those who had bought the quota crystals. They were almost squatting on the ground and crying.

“Alright, alright, I don’t want to make things difficult for everyone. After all, we’re all from the same continent. I think you really don’t have money. Now that the price had been discounted, anyone who offered three million mid-grade origin stones could enter. Of course, you’ll have to pay with something!”

Yunxiao said casually.

w-what?! The people below were all stunned.

There were still a few people who were still walking on the suspended stairs. They had just paid seven million primeval stones and other equivalent items, and they almost fell down. All of them wanted to cry but had no tears.

damn this li Yunxiao! He’s trying to extort all of us!

The group of martial Royal realm experts in the sky were furious, but they could do nothing about it!

This time, many people became happy. They quickly took out their treasures and the last bit of vitality stones they had and handed them over. Then, they rushed into the passage happily. They felt that they had gained a huge advantage and were extremely happy.

Yunxiao glanced down with great satisfaction and said, “Alright, the last batch. One million and you can enter. Old rules, you can use items to pay. If you can’t even afford this, then I have nothing to say.”

“Huala”

Those on the ladder who had offered five million were all speechless and fell down.

In this way, these disciples had almost been completely scammed by him.

In the end, the remaining hundreds of people all wanted to cry but had no tears, especially those who had crystals in their hands. They cried out, “Big brother, big brother city Lord! For the Jingshi, I sold everything. Just let me in. The money I owe you, I’ll definitely return it in the future!”

Yunxiao gave them a cold look and scolded, "A pauper who can't even take out a hundred medial-grade primordial stones has the face to come to Mount Meru? F * ck, all of you, get in there. If you're still so poor next time, I'll kill you all!"

"Ah? What? I don't need to pay?"

The people below were all dumbfounded, as if they couldn't believe it. But, when he saw Yunxiao's dark face, he was startled and quickly ran into the passage. Those who had paid a million primeval stones and thought they had taken advantage of the situation also fainted.

Soon, all the young disciples in Yanwu had left, not a single one left!

Even the martial Royal realm experts in the air were left speechless with their mouths wide open.

It turned out that this kid didn't want to block them, but to extort them all! God, how many primeval stones did he earn this time? these people didn't even dare to think about it. they only felt that the number was too terrifying!

"Let's go in!" Yunxiao waved at Ding Ling 'er with a smile.

ding ling 'er glared at him and said, "big brother, i don't have any money!"

Yunxiao smacked his lips and said teasingly, "Hehe, if it's a beauty, I can pay with my body if I don't have money."

Ding Ling 'er blushed and snorted angrily, but she was very happy inside. However, when she thought of the meaning of paying with her body, she immediately felt embarrassed for herself, and her face turned red.

Yunxiao suddenly felt that he had said something wrong. He laughed awkwardly, and the two of them entered Mount Meru one after another. Suddenly, the entire ladder of light disappeared, leaving only the flickering light in the sky.

The entire city of Yanwu had become empty.

The martial Royal realm experts hovering in the air looked hostile, and no one knew what they were thinking.

Especially the purple-robed martial Royal realm expert, who shouted in a hoarse voice, "Too arrogant! This matter had to be reported immediately, and all the major sects had to send their experts to level Yanwu! When the entrance of Mount Meru closes, we'll take down that li Yunxiao and cut him into pieces!"

"It can't be that serious, can it?" Fang de was rather protective of him. Didn't everyone go in? He didn't make things difficult for anyone, did he?"

"This, this is not difficult? Just count how many primeval stones he extorted!"

The purple-robed Martial Emperor roared and said angrily, "the vitality stones we extorted today are from the previous extortions and auctions. They're almost equivalent to the foundation of a large sect!"

"So what? This was his ability. If you have the ability, why don't you go and knock too?"

Fang de coldly snorted. As long as Yunxiao did not do anything too outrageous, and all the disciples of the major sects were safely sent to Mount Meru, he would be relieved.

"You coward!" The purple-robed old man was so angry that his entire body was trembling.

"Alright, stop quarreling. Fortunately, that brat knew his limits and didn't cause a big disaster!"

Huang Xiaolong shouted, "we were the ones who made a mistake in this matter, and that kid took advantage of the loophole!" However, this joke was too big, and this matter must be severely punished! Otherwise, where would the dignity and dignity of the southern mountain range sects be?"

brother Xiaolong is right, " tu Lei also said. but there's no need to hurt the innocent. I suggest that we capture this li Yunxiao and punish him severely when Mount Meru closes. We don't need to hurt those irrelevant people in Yanwu."

The dozen or so martial Royal realm experts all nodded and said in unison, " "It is!"
