

The Eternal 401

Chapter 401-none

Terrine looked around and said, "Is this the demon land? Have the people from the skeleton mercenary Corps been here?"

how is it? " Yunxiao asked Ye Fan. can you sense it? "

Ye Fan closed his eyes and thought for a while: " not bad. Your senses are stronger. He looked at the boundless demon Plains and sighed, " "I didn't expect our ancestor's treasure to be hidden in this boundless demon land. Our ancestor was a peerless talent and ruled an era. As a descendant, I'm weak and can't even find what my ancestors left behind. I'm really ashamed of my ancestors."

Noah's ship disappeared after master ye Nantian disappeared, " jar comforted him. how can you blame it on yourself? " Moreover, with the appearance of Noah's ship this time, we'll do our best to assist young lord in obtaining the ultimate treasure and revive the glory of the sacred fire Palace."

Suddenly, Yunxiao was moved. ye Nantian's final destination was Lao Ai! he said.

Ye Fan looked at him and sighed,"I don't know." It was said that their ancestors had entered the divine realm and entered the Supreme divine Dao for eternity. But in fact, the later generations had searched for a large amount of information, but it didn't seem to be the case. I can't tell you the exact details at the moment, but there are some notes in the ancestor's notes about breaking through to godhood. I can't understand them, but they seem to be missing something."

"What is it?"

Yunxiao's heart trembled. Ye Nantian's personal notes were extremely important to him, even more important than Noah's ship. Ye Fan and the others were too different in cultivation, they naturally did not understand the importance of this. As for Yunxiao, he used to be a peak expert of the nine Heavens realm, and the records in his personal notes about breaking through to the immortal realm were priceless treasures.

After all, ye Nantian was one of the few cultivators who had entered the immortal state in the history.

Ye Fan, " he said solemnly, " Ye Fan, can I take a look at the letter? "

Ye Fan frowned. that letter records all kinds of experiences of our ancestors. It's fine to lend it to young master Yun. But I didn't bring it with me, and left it in the temple of Holy Fire. Young master Yun, you can come to the temple of Holy Fire for a visit in the future. You're free to take a look."

Yunxiao nodded heavily, but he thought to himself, 'I'm not going to let you go. This was troublesome. It seemed that he had to think of a way to save these people's lives. Otherwise, he wouldn't be able to read those letters.

At the same time, he also thought of the other powerhouses in history. He wondered if they had also left behind all kinds of insights. In the future, if he had the opportunity, he would definitely visit their descendants.

Qi Guang suddenly said, "the letter left by our ancestor, ye Nantian, is extremely precious. You can't show it to outsiders." But if young master Yun helps us obtain Noah's ship, we can naturally watch it. "

Yunxiao sneered in his heart and said, " "That's only natural. Our goals don't conflict. You have Noah's ship, I'm just studying the structure."

you're just a little Alchemist, " Feng Zhu snorted. how can you study Noah's ship? can you understand it? "

Yunxiao's face gradually turned cold as he said, " "Feng Zhu, I think you didn't take your medicine today or you took the wrong medicine. Don't think that you're a martial honor and are used to being arrogant in the temple of Holy Fire. Let me tell you, your strength is nothing on the heavenly martial continent. Even the heavenly martial continent is nothing in my eyes, let alone the heavenly martial continent."

He stretched out a finger and shook it contemptuously, revealing a mocking expression.

Feng Zhu flew into a rage. Yunxiao was right. He was used to being arrogant in the temple of Holy Fire, and no one had ever dared to show off in front of him, nor had anyone dared to talk back to him. boy, you're courting death! Don't think that without you, we won't be able to find Noah's ship. You have no value in front of this old man!"

"Stop!"

Ye Fan was shocked, he knew that Feng Zhu's temper wasn't good and he would attack easily. But, he could no longer stop it. Feng Zhu's domain power spread out in an instant and pressed down on Yunxiao.

"Young master, don't worry. I'm just going to teach him a lesson so that he knows how to respect his seniors!"

Yunxiao sneered. The power of a domain was absolutely fatal to any warrior below the rank of martial honor. However, it was a piece of cake for him. Whether it was the divine realm tablet's territory power or his divine body, he could easily restrain them.

Feng Zhu grinned hideously, as if he could already see Yunxiao's face begging for mercy. Suddenly, his face flickered, and he stared at Yunxiao with his eyes wide open.

Yunxiao frowned slightly and thought, 'I haven't even used my divine body yet. I can withstand your domain with just my mighty body, so there's no need to be so surprised, right?' People from a small place were indeed from a small place. It was rare to see people from a small place, and they often blamed the country bumpkins.

He immediately realized that something was wrong. Not only Feng Zhu, but Ye Fan, Tao can, and everyone else looked at him in shock. To be exact, everyone behind him was trembling in fear. Feng Zhu also retracted his domain instantly. He was on high alert and his body was trembling.

Yunxiao's first reaction was to trick him into turning around, because even with his sensitive divine sense, he had not detected anything, so there should not be any powerful existence behind him. However, these people in front of him were all honest and simple. How could they lie in such an orderly manner?

He hurriedly turned his head, and his mouth instantly opened wide. His entire person was completely stunned!

Behind him, a huge shadow appeared in the sky and slowly moved. From its shape, they could only tell that it was some kind of demonic beast, but it was too big to be recognized. It covered the sky and slowly wandered in front of them.

To Yunxiao's surprise, he could not sense the slightest aura from such a huge demon beast. If he had not seen it with his eyes, he would not have known that there was something in the sky.

The eight of them stood in a daze on the boundless demon land, looking at the demonic beast flying slowly in the sky. Moving was more appropriate because its speed was extremely slow. It blocked the sun and made it look like the night.

After an unknown period of time, the sun suddenly began to shine down. At the edge of the light, the body of the demonic beast gradually disappeared. The visual effect was that the demonic beast was slowly melting under the light, but in fact, it was impossible. It was as if the demonic beast's body was slowly flying into the sun and could no longer be seen.

However, the eight of them were all experts, and their eyes were far sharper than ordinary people's. The demonic beast did not fly into the sunlight, but slowly disappeared into the sky, as if it had escaped into the void.

However, no matter how they tried to sense it, they could not detect the void coordinates. Furthermore, the surroundings were quiet and there were no spatial fluctuations.

Suddenly, the demonic Dragon's voice was heard. He said in an extremely shocked tone, "Wu, this is actually the legendary demonic beast 'Wu'!"

"Boundless beast?"

Yunxiao quickly searched through his mind, but he could not find any impression of this demon beast. "How much do you know? Hurry up and say it!"

The existence of this demonic beast was beyond his understanding.

The demonic Dragon was still in shock, and it took a long time for him to come back to his senses. "‘Nothingness’ is the true spirit of the heavens and earth!"

"?! True spirit?"

Yunxiao was startled and almost cried out. His expression turned to one of shock as he transmitted a message, "Are you sure this is a true spirit? A ten-point immortal state true spirit being? How can there be a real spirit in the current realm of heavenly martial arts?"

It was no wonder he had lost his composure. True spirit referred to those powerful existences who were born from heaven and earth in ancient times. For example, deities of the ten regions realm such as phoenixes and true dragons. In the passage of countless years, true spirits only existed in legends. There were even constant speculations and suspicions about whether those ancient true spirits had really existed in the heavenly martial arts realm. However, the continuous appearance of true spirit ruins still provided strong evidence.

But now, a living true spirit had appeared in front of him. How could Yunxiao remain calm?

If it wasn't for the demon Dragon, he would never have believed it. Even now, he still found it unbelievable. He couldn't calm down as he stared blankly at the sky, at the huge existence that was disappearing bit by bit.

"‘Wu’ is indeed one of the true spirits, but it's unknown if it's not an immortal state being." Among the many ancient true spirits, this was the most mysterious one. No one had ever seen him in action, and this true spirit seemed to have no intelligence, or rather, its intelligence was close to zero. Every time he appeared, he would just float in the space and then slowly disappear. He didn't disappear into the void, but he devoured himself."

"It devoured itself?"

Yunxiao was dumbfounded. "Devouring oneself, isn't that suicide?"

“That’s what everyone thought at first,” demonic Dragon shook his head and said, “but they later realized that this wasn’t the case. There was once a powerful person who wanted to tame a ‘Wu’ as his tamed beast. He used all kinds of methods and finally injured ‘Wu’. In the end, ‘Wu’ slowly devoured him. After a long time, the next ‘none’ that appeared was actually injured!”

“Later on, some people studied him. After all, the ancient true spirits were completely extinct. If he wanted to peek into the secrets of the immortal state, ‘nothing’ had become his final choice. To everyone’s shock, Wu’s body actually contains a very strange space, which is different from what we usually call the void.” After Wu’s devoured himself, his entire body entered that space. I don’t know how long it will take for him to come out again.”

“Enter your own body,”

Yunxiao was speechless for a while, but then he seemed to gradually understand. “Then, how many of these ‘nothingness’ beasts are there?”

“How many?” “Perhaps there has only been one since ancient times!” The demonic Dragon laughed.

“One!”

Yunxiao’s face paled in horror as he looked at the huge black shadow in the sky and said in shock, “Doesn’t that mean that he has experienced countless years? Is this the injured one you mentioned earlier?”

“I think so,” demonic Dragon nodded. However, after so many years, very few people had seen the appearance of ‘Wu’, and most people did not recognize it. Don’t worry, this Wu won’t hurt anyone. He’s just passing by. He was currently devouring her, and after devouring her, he would disappear. Who knows when you’ll see him again? maybe you won’t have the chance in this lifetime.”

Chapter 402

402 The corpse of a martial honor

What was the point of being immortal after drifting in space for countless years?

As expected, it was exactly as the demonic Dragon had said. This 'Wu's' huge body gradually disappeared under the sunlight, and no one would know that it was actually devouring itself. He did it day after day, year after year, and he didn't know when he would end.

"Look, this thing disappeared!"

Ye fan's face was ashen, he could not come back to his senses, he said awkwardly: "What is this thing? It's so huge, I've never heard of it."

Terrine swallowed his saliva and realized that he was covered in cold sweat. He said, "it seems that the demon land is more terrifying than we thought. It is indeed one of the most dangerous forbidden areas!"

Feng Zhu's face was also gloomy, as if he had not recovered from the shock just now. He no longer argued with Yunxiao.

Yunxiao was also very disappointed. He had thought that he was standing at the peak of the nine Heavens martial sovereign realm, and the entire heavenly martial realm was under his control. After his rebirth, he realized that the past was just a drop in the ocean, a frog at the bottom of a well, a laughingstock.

elder Feng, "Ye Fan suddenly said, "young master Yun is a partner of the temple of Holy Fire. We have a common goal, so we should help each other. And so far, it has been of great help to us in finding Noah's ship. I hope that everyone will not have any conflicts and find Noah's ship as soon as possible."

Feng Zhu was stunned, he looked at Ye Fan in disbelief. This child, who had always been obedient to him and would never disobey him, was actually speaking to him like this. He was clearly accusing him of being in the wrong.

After a short moment of daze, he looked at Ye fan's calm face, he should have been angry, but for some reason, he didn't feel angry at all, instead he felt a sense of relief. It was as if he could see the child that he had raised with his own hands finally grow up.

“You’re right, young master,” he said indifferently. It was my fault earlier, I hope little brother Yunxiao won’t take offense.”

As soon as he said this, everyone in the hall of Holy Fire was shocked and looked at Feng Zhu in disbelief.

Qi Guang smiled slightly, as if he had understood his thoughts. Ye Fan was brought up by the two of them and they taught him all kinds of martial skills. The two of them had been in charge of all the things in the temple of Holy Fire. Now that the child had grown up, he had to establish his prestige in the hearts of the people.

The Master of the Temple of Holy Fire was not them, but Ye Fan! Ye fan’s will was the highest order!

This was the most important reason that made Feng Zhu lower his head. He wanted everyone to know that even he did not dare to disobey the young master’s orders.

This kind of apology was very inconsequential to Yunxiao, but the other party was an old man, and he still needed these people to find Noah’s ship, so he did not want to make things too awkward. “Elder Feng, you’re too polite.”

Ye Fan heaved a sigh of relief, he smiled: “I hope everyone can work together. Our goal this time is the most important. You must not be distracted by other things.”

The atmosphere was much more harmonious than before, the only difference was that Ye fan’s status in everyone’s hearts had increased greatly.

Under Ye fan’s senses, the group started to fly towards the North of the demon land. Wu’s appearance had already delayed them for a long time. If the group of Warriors from the gentle song forest had gone in the right direction, they would probably catch up soon.

After the time it took to finish a cup of tea, a skeleton suddenly attracted everyone’s attention.

All kinds of demonic beasts could appear on the demon Plains at any time, and it was a very normal phenomenon for many mercenary groups and adventurers to die. However, after a martial artist died, their bones would be quickly gnawed on by wild beasts. The skeleton below was well-preserved, without any traces of being ravaged by wild beasts.

There was only one reason for that. This skeleton had been a powerful martial artist in the past, so even after his death, he still retained his martial intent aura, which made the wild beasts not dare to follow him.

“He’s actually a martial honor!”

Qi Guang felt the faint aura around the corpse and said in shock, “The aura of a domain! Even a martial venerable has fallen!”

Although the demon Plains was powerful, the strongest was only an eighth-rank Supreme level demonic beast. Even if a martial honor was no match for him, it would not be difficult for him to escape. How could he have fallen?

Yunxiao’s face was unusually serious as he examined the skeleton. There was a big hole in its chest, and its heart had burst. It was obvious that he had been punched in the back. There was still fear and unwillingness on his face, as if he could not believe that he would die.

Terrine sucked in a breath of cold air and felt a chill all over his body. He exclaimed in horror, “He actually died in one move? Looking at the wound, it should be a human’s fist force! Who could kill a revered martial artist with one punch?”

Not only him, everyone’s hearts felt unusually heavy.

If they were fighting at the same level, even if he succeeded in a sneak attack, it would be impossible to kill the other party with one punch. There was only one explanation, and that was that the person who threw the punch was not only a sneak attack, but was also much stronger than the dead person, which was why he could kill him with one punch!

Ye Fan could not believe it, could it be a martial sovereign? Did a martial sovereign really come to the demon land?”

Everyone fell silent. This speculation was like a huge rock pressing down on their hearts, making it difficult for them to breathe. A martial sovereign of the nine Heavens would be able to annihilate them all with just one move!

Yunxiao seemed to be looking for something, as he kept rummaging around the wounds of the corpse, his eyes shining.

“Young master Yun, did you find anything?”

The jar noticed his excitement and couldn't help asking. Although they hadn't known each other for long, this young man was as steady as a mountain, and ordinary things couldn't move him at all.

I think I already know who killed him! Yunxiao said after a moment of silence.

“Who is it?”

Everyone was shocked at the same time, and all eyes were fixed on him.

Yunxiao put on a relaxed smile and said, “This is an extremely ordinary Vajra fist, but its realm is no less than that of a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens. The only one who can use the Vajra fist in such a domineering and invincible manner is the leader of our rookie mercenary group, haolian shaohuang!”

Yunxiao's heart was filled with ripples, and he could not calm down. Yunxiao had forced the young Emperor to practice the Vajra fist a thousand times a day. There were millions of martial arts techniques in the world, but all of them were the same. The comprehension of martial essence was the most important.

The time of death of this revered martial artist should have been a week ago, which was after he came to the soft song woodland. Two things could be confirmed. One was that nothing had happened to hao lian shaohuang, and the other was that many people wanted him to be in trouble.

Yunxiao's eyes grew cold as he said in his heart, “No matter who you are or what power you have, if you dare to touch my disciple, your fate is already decided!”

“Y-y-y-y-your Regiment commander, Lord hao lian?”

The jar stammered a few times before he said in shock, “Didn’t Lord hao lian go into seclusion to break through to the martial Supreme realm? Could it be that the closed-door training ground is a bit strange?”

yes,” Yunxiao murmured. it should be in this demon land. If one wanted to break through to the rank of a martial Supreme, one could not just rely on closed-door cultivation. One would need an extremely great opportunity. He’s in the demon land to find his own fortune.”

The hearts of the people from the hall of Holy Fire were still heavy. However, the other party was only a Captain. If hao lian shaohuang had any intention of spying on Noah’s ship, he could do nothing as a Captain.

Also, how could a martial Supreme who was about to break through to the martial Supreme realm not have any interest in Noah’s ship?

Yunxiao could see the concern in everyone’s eyes, so he smiled confidently and said, “Don’t worry, everyone. My rookie mercenary group is a group of people who keep their word. I also have the right to speak on behalf of the Guild leader. Since we’ve reached a cooperative relationship, I’ll definitely keep my promise!”

I’m relieved to hear that, young master Yun,” Ye Fan said with a bitter smile.

However, he didn’t look at all at ease, and his smile was extremely forced.

Everyone gathered their emotions and was about to continue following Ye fan’s senses when a strange phenomenon appeared in the sky. Dark clouds surged and the sky turned dark.

“What’s going on? Could it be that ‘Wu’ is here again?”

Yunxiao looked up at the sky in surprise and saw purple stripes beginning to appear in the dusky sky, spreading out like a fishing net. The space was constantly torn apart, and all kinds of negative energy were seeping in.

“Not good! It’s an inter-province transportation formation!” Exclaimed the earthen jar in shock. People from the other three regions have entered!”

From the purple lines, the heads of some battleships could be seen. From their appearance, they were eighth-grade netherworld battleships! A powerful weapon charm rippled out in the space, pressing down on the hearts of Yunxiao and the others, and their faces grew uglier and uglier.

The muddy Waters of the demon Plains were getting more and more muddled!

Soon, the purple runes disappeared, and the sky returned to normal. An eighth-grade warship and two seventh-grade golden sun warships appeared.

The three battleships were connected from the front and back, covering the sky and the sun as if they were ‘non-existent’. They covered the earth as if it was night, without any sunlight.

A figure seemed to be flashing on the three warships, and he had already discovered Yunxiao and the others below. A man in white with long hair that reached his shoulders appeared at the bow of the netherworld warship, looking down coldly.

The man raised his hand and waved it down.

The three battleships immediately started to move. The complicated arrays on them turned, and all kinds of energy spread out. A small golden formation lit up at the front of the two golden sun warships. Suddenly, a powerful beam of light shot down, and the huge warships were pushed back slightly by the backlash.

Two powerful beams of light shot down toward Yunxiao and the others, illuminating the dark sky as if it were daytime!

“The golden sun warship’s Red Air attack! Everyone, run!”

The jar shouted and retreated as if he was flying. All eight of them flew up and fled as fast as they could. The powerful pressure from the impact was enough to kill any powerhouse below the rank of a martial honor!

“BOOM!”

The two attacks landed directly on the demon Plains and bloomed like a Golden Lotus. Violent energy connected together and spread in all directions. The sound was deafening and the light was blinding.

403 Duel between martial Venerables

Everyone in the temple of Holy Fire was a martial Royal realm expert. Although this super-powerful attack was powerful, it was not difficult to avoid it.

A bottomless black hole was blasted open on the ground by the two connected attacks. The martial venerable’s body was also instantly reduced to ashes, leaving nothing behind.

Right at this moment, the bow of the netherworld warship emitted a powerful green light. An extremely overbearing attack was gathering energy in a dark green formation. The light it emitted was like the sun, illuminating the entire dusky sky as if it was daytime.

“Netherworld strike!”

The netherworld battleship was like a monster in the sky, spitting out an attack from its mouth. It was like a god of Thunder descending from the heavens!

The range of the attack was even greater than the combined attack of the golden sun warship. The power of the light increased exponentially. Wherever the light passed through, the space would break apart and shatter like water.

Moreover, the attack was aimed at the three martial Royal realm experts.

Maybe the other party felt that this attack was not enough to kill Wu Zun, so he killed a few ants first, Ye Fan was one of the three.

Feng Zhu and Qi Guang were both shocked, and their auras burst out violently, wanting to rescue him. Ye Fan himself was also frightened, but he quickly calmed down. His feet moved in a series of magical steps, these steps seemed to have space attributes, and in a few steps, he actually walked out of the attack range.

The other two martial emperors, on the other hand, were not as powerful. They were immediately drenched in cold sweat. Not only was the attack extremely powerful, but it also carried a rolling power that suppressed their movements, making it extremely difficult for them to even move.

Just as they were in despair, a black shadow appeared above them and suddenly grew bigger. It was actually an ancient Bell that fell towards them and instantly covered them.

“BOOM!”

The netherworld’s attack landed on the ancient Bell, and a powerful energy burst out. There were also extremely powerful sound waves that spread out, and circles of black patterns appeared around the ancient Bell. They were actually spatial cracks that had been created by the pressure of the sound waves and energy!

The crack continued to tear apart, devouring all kinds of energy.

Although the ancient Bell was standing on the ground, it did not seem to be in this space. It was not affected by the tearing force at all and was as still as a mountain.

The energy struck for a long time before it gradually dissipated. All the ground around the black pits created by the previous two attacks had been shattered into powder, except for the area covered by the ancient Bell. It formed a huge ring-shaped natural chasm that spread far and wide.

The pupils of the white-robed man on the netherworld battleship shrank. He stared at the ancient Bell with a shocked expression.

The attack just now was the strongest attack from the 8th grade battleship, but the bell was not damaged at all. The only reason was because of the Suan ni.

ninth tier profound armament!

The white-robed man's expression changed in shock. His long hair fluttered in the air despite the lack of wind. With a flash of white light, he appeared beside the dynasty Bell. His eyes were filled with shock and joy as his gaze flickered on the bell.

"It's my ancient clock, What are you looking at? I'm going to blind your dog eyes!"

At some point, Yunxiao had appeared above the dynasty Bell and stomped down.

A ray of golden light spread out from under his feet, and the characters on the dynasty Bell flickered down. The ancient Bell rang gently, as if thousands of years had passed by in an endless era under this ancient sound.

"A dynasty is a century!"

The white-robed man's face was filled with shock. He was caught off guard by the sound of the bell, and the light in his eyes became ancient and simple, as if time was rapidly passing through his body.

After stomping on the ground, Yunxiao flipped in the air, grabbed the bell with one hand, and smashed it at the man's head.

The two martial emperors of the temple of Holy Fire were stunned, not knowing what had happened.

“Woof! A mere ant dares to attack me!”

The long-haired man in white instantly came to his senses. His turbid eyes immediately became clear, and his face revealed a cold and arrogant expression. He immediately threw a punch. With this punch, the power of the domain also stretched out, covering everything in the world.

“Dang!”

As soon as the dynasty Bell was thrown out, it was hit by the other party’s fist force, which triggered a powerful sound wave that shook the surroundings. The force was so strong that it penetrated the ancient Bell and reached Yunxiao’s body, sending him flying backward. His bones were about to break, and his skin was cracking.

At this time, the people of the hall of Holy Fire also reacted, especially the two martial honors, Feng Zhu and Qi Guang. They attacked together in anger and spread the power of their domains. Under the joint efforts of the two, they immediately suppressed the domain around the man in white and rapidly shrank.

“Mountain stream!”

“Army obliteration!”

Feng Zhu struck out with his palm, and a strong wind spread around his palm, forming many large and small circles that were continuous. Qi Guang activated his Sword Art and flew up. The nearly transparent sword in his hand swept out, covering all the vital points of the man in white.

The man in white was shocked. The two martial Venerables had completely suppressed him when they joined forces. He did not dare to be careless and quickly circulated his strength. His fists were like the wind, showing black and white colors. The black was like ink as it attacked Feng Zhu, while the White was like smoke as it attacked Qi Guang.

As soon as the black and white fists were thrown out, the situation of being suppressed immediately reversed. The three forces met in the air, and a powerful spiritual pressure appeared at the point of contact, spreading out in the air like a spider web.

Feng and Qi were both shocked and furious. The other party had actually suppressed the two of them alone! The man in white was also shocked. The two of them were just ordinary two-star martial Supremes, while he was a peak three-star martial venerable. He couldn't even suppress them!

One star was a world, and the higher one went, the greater the gap.

At this moment, more than ten beams of light flashed down from the three battleships in the sky. Each of them exuded a powerful aura as they flew toward the man in white.

"You guys go and kill those small fries. Leave these two old fogeys to me!"

The white-robed man shouted coldly. His subordinates were all martial emperors. They would only be cannon fodder if they joined the battle. He relied on his advantage of being one star higher. Although he was slower, he had enough confidence to kill the two people in front of him.

Feng and Qi were shocked. There was no lack of peak Martial Emperor Qi in those beams of light. Any one of them would be enough to make Ye Fan and the others suffer. At this time, the three battleships in the sky started to move again, aiming their attack formations at Ye Fan and the others.

"This is bad!"

"We can't hold back anymore, or the young lord will be in danger!" Feng Zhu said angrily.

The white-robed man found it extremely comical. He laughed out of anger, "Two old fogeys, stop pretending! Are you saying that you've been merciful?"

"Use that sacred skill!" Qi Guang also said solemnly. The sword in his hand flashed, and the White fist force was swept away. Streams of sword intent spread out from the sword. He gently waved the sword.

Although it was very slow and did not seem to have any power, there seemed to be some kind of rule contained within each sword.

Feng Zhu also shook off the black aura, and his arms began to dance like snakes. They were also moving extremely slowly, but his aura was completely different from before!

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he watched from a distance. This so-called Saint skill was actually a martial skill that drew upon the laws of heaven and earth. The inheritance of a peerless Martial Emperor was indeed something!

The man in white also noticed that something was wrong. He formed a seal with his hands, and several streams of Qi burst out from his body and pressed toward the two. However, no matter how much he increased his power, he could not get close to the two. It was as if an extremely powerful force appeared around them, invulnerable to all techniques.

"Not good!"

The white-robed man's expression finally changed. He turned around and rushed toward the netherworld warship.

"Hmph, you want to escape? High mountains and flowing water!"

"Army obliteration!"

It was exactly the same move as before, but this time, there was a special charm to it, making people look extremely pleasing to the eye. It was like every punch and sword, every movement was so beautiful, in line with the best aesthetic vision.

"F * ck you, you old man!"

The white-robed man's face turned pale with shock. He turned around and roared in anger, "Four-way explosion!"

He attacked with all his might. At this moment, the netherworld battleship also shot out a beam of green light, which stacked with the force of the four-way explosion and collided with Feng Qi and the other man's moves.

"Boom boom boom!"

The air current surged and the surrounding cultivators all quickly retreated to avoid being caught in the crossfire.

"Hahaha!"

The white-robed man's loud laughter rang out from the center of the energy. "I have the netherworld battleship to help me. What can you do to me?"

As soon as he finished laughing, the netherworld battleship's rumbling sound suddenly came from the sky, as if it was under attack.

The white-robed man and the dozen martial Royal realm experts were shocked. They raised their heads and gasped in shock.

The divine realm tablet turned into the same size as the netherworld battleship, pressing on the netherworld battleship and sinking to the ground rapidly. It was as if it was carrying an infinite weight and could not support it at all.

The originally dark sky became even darker, and the netherworld warship was rapidly sinking. If it fell, no one would be able to escape!

"What's going on? Hurry up and hold on!"

There were more than thirty different alchemists on the netherworld battleship controlling all the parts of the ship, but no matter how much he screamed, he could not change the falling trend. Instead, it was getting faster and faster!

“You shit-eating alchemists, I’m going to cut you up and feed you to the pigs! Usually I told you to maintain the Starship well, but now it’s actually broken under the pressure of a mysterious profound level weapon!”

The white-robed man was furious. He knew that it was too late to turn back now. He left immediately and dashed towards the golden sun battleship.

No matter which faction they were from, the netherworld battleship was an existence with an absolute Foundation. They couldn’t afford to lose it easily! The materials and labor cost to refine a netherworld battleship was enough to refine more than ten eighth tier profound armaments!

The dozen martial Royal realm experts’ expressions changed drastically, and they fled in two directions.

The netherworld battleship was too big, and the direction it was falling toward was the huge pit it had created earlier. He didn’t expect that the arrogant and overbearing attitude it had displayed earlier was actually to dig its own grave!

“Boom boom boom!”

A sorrowful roar came from the battleship. When profound armaments reached the eighth grade, they would have a certain level of spirituality, and the battleship was no exception. The sorrowful cry revealed the fear of being suppressed, and it seemed to be trembling under the divine realm tablet.

404 The nemesis of battleships

Yunxiao sneered from a distance and said, “ stop wailing. Lying under my profound level weapon and wailing. This scene is really wretched!

Everyone’s head was spinning, but looking at the appearance of those two profound armaments, they really did seem a little interesting.

However, they quickly came to their senses. This was not something interesting. The thing that was screaming in pain was an eighth-grade netherworld warship!

Their eyeballs were all smashed to pieces. A warship of such an existence was actually wailing? What was that Jade tablet that was pressing down on him?

The divine realm tablet pressed the netherworld battleship into the black hole and disappeared before everyone's eyes.

On the golden sun warship, the white-robed man was completely stunned, and beads of cold sweat rolled down his forehead. It was an eighth-tier warship of immeasurable value, with more than thirty alchemists on it. If it was lost, he would never be able to return to the sect. The sect master had to save himself the trouble of tearing him apart!

An expert at the peak of the Martial Emperor realm on the warship also had a bad feeling. He said worriedly, "Sir Xuan Bing, if the netherworld battleship is damaged, we won't be able to report back."

"BOOM!"

A roar came from the black hole, followed by the shaking of the ground and the sound of battleships shattering. From time to time, there were screams of humans.

The white-robed man, Xuan Bing's heart also shattered as he felt the world spin around him. He was really done for this time!

Although the black hole was too deep to see, he could already guess the situation inside. His eyes turned red and he shouted with all his strength, "Bastard! Animals! I'm going to kill you all!"

He had thought that it would be a wonderful job, and he had specially dispatched the netherworld warship and the golden sun warship from his sect to look majestic. But who knew that they would be destroyed by a group of inexplicable people as soon as they arrived in the demon land, and most of the alchemists were probably dead. Unless he completed the mission with an outstanding performance, he would be dead if he went back.

“Lord Xuan Bing, that Jade stele can suppress the netherworld battleship, so it’s very likely a ninth-grade being. If we can get it, it will be enough to atone for the damage to the netherworld warship and the death of many alchemists!” The man at the peak of the Martial Emperor realm said.

“Not bad!”

Xuan Bing’s sorrowful expression quickly disappeared and was replaced by a look of anger. “And that ancient Bell must also be a ninth tier profound armament! Who were these people? He actually has more than one ninth tier profound armament!”

“It doesn’t matter. Since we’ve already met, I’ll kill them all!” His eyes flashed with a sharp killing intent as he shouted, “Two battleships, keep firing! Let’s see how long they can hold on! All of you, go down and kill all those trash!”

“As for the two revered martial artists, Lao Ai ...” He said with a murderous aura, frowning as he thought for a moment, then angrily said, “I’m not going to let you go.” I’ll try my best to delay!”

Originally, two two-star martial Supremes were not his cup of wine. However, the other party’s martial technique could actually condense the laws of heaven and earth. Even he did not dare to take it head-on.

Xuan Bing was starting to regret his decision. He had come here with an awe-inspiring presence, but the two strongest two-star martial Venerables were just pushovers. He had three powerful battleships, so it was a piece of cake to take them down.

In the end, he failed to kill a single person, but his netherworld warship and more than thirty alchemists were all killed. Now that the two martial Supremes were being suppressed, the only advantage they had was the number of martial emperors and the two seventh-grade golden sun warships.

“Lord Xuan Bing, look!”

A Martial Emperor powerhouse suddenly exclaimed with great shock.

A beam of light shot out of the black hole. It was the divine realm tablet. Under the control of Yunxiao's incantation seal, it turned into a small mountain again and pressed down on the two golden sun warships.

Although the battleships were powerful, the divine realm tablet that possessed the breathing earth was truly the nemesis of these battleships. What warship could withstand the infinite gravity? Although he could escape quickly, he would be completely restrained in a battle.

"Kid, let's have a duel if you have the ability! Don't you dare hurt my battleship!"

Xuan Bing watched helplessly as the divine realm tablet fell on another battleship. Under the control of the person inside, the battleship hurriedly turned around and tried to escape, but it was too slow to start. As soon as it started, it was pressed by the divine realm tablet and fell to the ground.

"BOOM!"

The golden sun battleship crashed into the ground, sending dirt into the air and creating another giant crater. The soil quickly dispersed, and what was reflected in everyone's eyes was that the entire warship had been broken in the middle, completely scrapped.

"Pfft!"

Xuan Bing spat out a mouthful of blood and stared at the divine realm tablet in the black pit with hatred. The divine monument was still fine. The light was moving, as if it was very happy, as if it was provoking him.

"There's still one ship left, rise!"

Yunxiao performed an incantation gesture and sneered. The divine realm tablet flew up again, growing larger and larger.

Xuan Bing's eyes almost popped out of their sockets as he shouted with blood in his mouth, "Run! Quickly run! Quickly get away from this profound level weapon!" He gathered all the Qi in his body into the tip of his fist and punched out, roaring, "Four-way explosion, go to hell!"

He didn't dare to stay any longer. His heart was completely broken. If this last battleship was destroyed, then there was no need to complete the mission. He could directly escape from the Western Region now to avoid being hunted down by the sects.

The divine realm tablet was hit by the force and was thrown dozens of meters away.

The last golden sun battleship started to move. It turned into a beam of light and streaked across the sky, disappearing before everyone's eyes.

The whole process was witnessed by the people of the hall of Holy Fire, and they were all petrified, as if they had never known Yunxiao.

Yunxiao made a hand seal and put the divine realm tablet back into his glabella.

He walked to the golden sun battleship and collected the destroyed one. If no one else had done all this, he would have jumped into the deep pit. The netherworld battleship was even more precious. Even if it had turned into scrap metal, it was still an eighth-tier material.

Soon, Yunxiao came out of the black pit with a few alchemists who were still alive and threw them aside. There were seven of them in total.

"Tell me, what sect are you from, and what are you doing in the demon land?" Yunxiao asked in a simple way.

The alchemists were silent for a while, and one of them said, "We were hired by the flying frost sect, but we are not from the flying frost sect. As for why he came to the demon land, we don't know. He's only in charge of following Xuan Bing's orders and driving the netherworld battleship." After he finished, he asked nervously, "You won't kill us, will you?"

Yunxiao's eyes darkened as he frowned and said, "So it's the flying frost sect, I've heard of it. I think the sect master's name is shuangfei or something, and I have the impression that he's also a Nine Heavens martial sovereign."

"Not bad! Sect leader Yan shuangfei was a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens! The flying frost sect was considered a first-class sect in the entire Western Region. Other than the soul Devourer clan and the myriad Stars Valley, there were really not many forces that dared to provoke them. We were only hired, so please don't drag us into the grudges between you guys."

The Alchemist answered everything he knew, his face showing a strong sense of nostalgia for life.

"Hmph, you want to live? When you mobilized the netherworld battleship to attack us, did you ever think that we didn't want to die?"

Terpot was furious, he gritted his teeth and said, "Since you've been hired by the flying frost sect and received benefits from them, it's only natural that you'll die for them!"

Everyone in the temple of Holy Fire was burning with anger. They had fought for no reason, and each of them had almost lost their lives. If it had not been for Yunxiao's sudden appearance, they would still be in the middle of the chaotic battle with incalculable casualties. What made them want to kill him the most was that Ye Fan was in danger several times, almost dying.

But even though they were angry, no one from the temple of Holy Fire moved. Because they had made no contribution at all, they were Yunxiao's captives, and they had no right to punish them.

With an indifferent look on his face, Yunxiao said, "You guys can leave. This demon land has always been dangerous, and now it's even more dangerous. Whether you can leave this place or not will depend on your luck."

"You ... You're really willing to let us go?"

The alchemists were overjoyed, and they could not believe it.

Everyone in the hall of Holy Fire was stunned, Tao can couldn't take it anymore, he wanted to say something but was stopped by Ye Fan, he shook his head. He also knew very well that the prisoners of war were Yunxiao's, and they had no right to dispose of them. Besides, Yunxiao was an Alchemist, so it was normal for him to spare their lives.

After confirming that their lives were safe, all of them were overjoyed and ran away after expressing their gratitude. Although they weren't very strong, they still had a lot of good stuff. There was even a Tigerking chariot. The seven of them squeezed into the chariot and quickly disappeared into the distance.

Yunxiao glanced at the crowd and said, "Let's continue. Things are getting more and more interesting. It seems that everyone knows about Noah's ship."

Ye fan's expression was extremely ugly, he said worriedly: "It was supposed to be extremely confidential, but I don't know what went wrong. We can only take one step at a time now."

there is no such thing as an impervious wall in this world, " Yunxiao said with a smile. This wasn't the first time news of Noah's ship had spread. It had appeared many times before, but it was all proven to be false in the end. Therefore, gossip like this wasn't particularly popular nowadays. It's also fortunate that the ones who came were all small fries, otherwise we wouldn't have had the slightest chance."

Ye Fan nodded his head in agreement. To obtain such a treasure, other than strength, luck was also important. In terms of strength, their temple of Holy Fire was indeed very weak, but in terms of luck, he was the only one in the world who could open Noah's ship. This was the biggest opportunity!

With the exception of Yunxiao, everyone from the hall of Holy Fire had a grave expression on their faces, no longer as relaxed as before. They continued flying toward Ye fan's perception. Yunxiao's status in everyone's hearts had also risen to a very high level, especially the two martial emperors he had saved. They were extremely grateful to him.

After flying for the time it took to finish a cup of tea, Yunxiao suddenly felt a strange feeling in front of him. Many violent auras were scattered in the air, and he caught them with his keen senses.

405 A terrifying discovery

The space in front of him fluctuated slightly, giving people a feeling of being in a trance.

Soon, everyone in the hall of Holy Fire also noticed that something was wrong.

“Squeak!”

A large number of tiny mouse squeaks rang out in all directions. They were the five elements spirit devouring rats he had encountered before. He spread out his divine sense and found thousands of spirit rats running in their direction.

“Could it be another rat tide?”

Yunxiao was surprised, but he did not panic. No matter how many of these rats there were, they couldn't cause any substantial damage to them. He quickly realized that this was very different from the rat tide he had encountered last time. Although there were more rats last time, they were all uniform and had a target. This time, it was indeed a mess, and many of them were tearing at each other in the process of spraying.

The vastness of the demon Plains was incalculable. There were a large number of various demonic beasts above, and they had encountered many on the way. So even when they saw such a large-scale rat tide, and the level of the spirit rats was not high, they did not pay attention to it. They only felt a little disgusted.

“Are these the five elements spirit-engulfing rats that exist the most in the demon Plains?”

A strange look flashed in the jar's eyes as he said, “are they running for their lives?” It looks very chaotic. Is there a situation ahead?”

Everyone was moving very quickly. Soon, they could see a large number of rats appearing on the horizon, running wildly in their direction. Their chaotic squeaking revealed all kinds of manic intent.

not too many," Yunxiao said. it's a normal escape. There should be a higher level demonic beast chasing after them." There were also some Stone Flower foxes mixed in with the rat tide, and they were also Tier 3 existences.

The group ignored him and continued to fly forward.

There were more and more demonic beasts on the way, but they were all running behind them. They were all running at full speed, and their levels were getting higher and higher.

Blood centipede, grade four. Shadow Spirit ferret, grade five. Later on, there were even a few sixth-order demon beasts that were also fleeing.

"What's going on in front?"

The earthen jar revealed a shocked expression and slowed down. It stared at the scattered demonic beasts below and said, "A rank 6 rainbow flame leopard is actually running away. That's equivalent to a human martial arts Grandmaster. Moreover, it's very difficult to subdue non-martial Royal realm experts."

Yunxiao's expression also turned serious as he said, "It's fine if it's only here, but I'm afraid that there will be higher level existences later."

what? " Ye Fan was shocked: " I heard that there are even level eight beasts in the demon plain, could it be in front? "

As expected, the worst situation had appeared. He began to see seventh-order Shatterer beasts running for their lives in the scattered horde.

At this moment, everyone stopped and looked ahead in fear, but they could not sense anything.

If there really was an eighth-rank demonic beast in front of them, they would all be annihilated if they went up.

A powerful aura of death appeared in front of them. In the distance, they could see an unusually tall demonic beast appearing on the horizon. Its aura was very strange. Although it was so far away, the feeling coming from the small black dot was enough to shake people's hearts and souls!

"?! It really is an eighth-order monster beast!"

"Is it a nine-winged spirit snake bird or a soul-breaking type kun?" Feng Zhu cried out in horror.

There were only two types of eighth-rank demonic beasts in the demon Plains, but they could not contend with either of them.

Yunxiao's expression turned very strange as he said carefully, " it's a soul-breaking type Gu, but it's a Wuwu, so strange!

what's wrong? " Ye Fan asked. young master Yun, what's wrong? "

Yunxiao frowned with a puzzled look on his face as he said slowly, " "That soul-splitting kun seems to be dead."

"He's dead?"

Everyone was shocked, and terrine said in horror, " how can he still have such a powerful aura even after he's dead? "

Yunxiao kept his eyes fixed on the front and said, " "He should have died not long ago, so his aura has not completely dissipated."

"So he's dead, then there's no need to worry," Feng Zhu heaved a sigh of relief. However, he couldn't relax. He only felt more and more depressed.

Ye fan's expression was also ugly, "What's going on? How could an eighth-grade soul-breaking and soul-splitting Gu die here for no reason?! Other than a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens, who else can kill an eighth-rank demonic beast?"

"Could it be that a martial sovereign has descended upon the demon land?" Feng Zhu asked in shock.

"Don't make wild guesses, in case you add some unnecessary trouble to yourself!"

Yunxiao flew up first and said, "Just take a look and you'll know. There's only the aura of the soul-splitting type spinal bone and the will of death left here, nothing else. He should be far away by now."

He flew down from a distance, and the entire appearance of the broken soul splitting bone appeared in front of him. That strange expression made his heart jump, and it gave him a creepy feeling.

The people from the temple of Holy Fire also came down one after another, surrounding the dead soul-splitting kun and investigating it.

"There's only one wound on his body!"

The jar pointed at the broken soul bone and said, "Look, the wound here isn't that big, it's definitely not fatal. Look at his face, he seems to be in great pain. His facial features are all wrinkled together, as if he has been in pain for a long time. My body is all soft and it's sticking to my bones."

"Could he have been killed by sound waves?!" Feng Zhu was shocked.

'Impossible,' Yunxiao said. A sound wave that can kill a soul-splitting engine, even if it's hundreds of miles away, we can at least sense it." His eyes grew sharper and sharper. Pointing at the only wound, he said, "And why did the murderer make such a hole?"

His sharp eyes focused, as if he wanted to see through the entire internal situation of this soul-splitting kun. He gritted his teeth and said, "If I'm not wrong, the blood in this soul-splitting kun's body has already been completely drained!"

“All the blood was drawn?”

The dolium was startled. Then, as if he had suddenly thought of something, he closed his five fingers together and used his palm as a blade to cut down. Even with his strength as a seven-stars Martial Emperor, he could only make a small cut on the body of the soul-splitting kun with his full strength.

The flesh of the wound was turned out, revealing a snow-white area. As expected, there was no blood!

Everyone all sucked in a breath of cold air, incomparably shocked. Ye fan’s face turned pale, he said: “could it be the people from the skeleton mercenaries?” He thought of the man from the Red Dragon mansion who had mentioned taking blood.

no wonder the appearance of this soul-splitting kun’s death was so strange. It gave me a strange feeling.

Qi Guang also felt a lingering fear. When he thought about how such a powerful existence had died in such a freakish way, he felt a sense of sympathy.

it’s the skeleton mercenaries,” Yunxiao said seriously. there’s no doubt about it! But I don’t know how they did it, they didn’t leave any traces of fighting, they took the blood of the soul-breaking bones and died! Even an ordinary martial Supreme would not be able to do that, right? Could it be that a peak Martial Emperor is here?”

Thinking of Mr. Yu’s identity, he immediately guessed this possibility. If the top experts of the monster race came out of the illusory realm of stars and moon, they could still do it.

‘Peak Martial Emperor bi an’

Everyone fell silent. If there really was such an existence, then their operation this time would be meaningless. There would be no chance even if they continued to chase. Opportunities were important, but in the face of absolute combat power, everything was in vain.

Yunxiao's face was also extremely unsightly. If a peak Martial Emperor were to make a move, he would not be confident even if he had the divine realm tablet. And from the looks of it, this possibility was extremely high. The skeleton mercenary group had Tang Jie in their hands. It was very likely that they already knew about the appearance of the sacred fire Hall and were looking for Noah's ship. Even if there was only a 10% chance that the yin key and the Yang key would appear at the same time, there would still be peak martial Supremes who would be willing to help.

peak of martial Supreme? haha!

Ye fan's face turned pale. He gritted his teeth and said, "although the realm of heavenly martial arts is vast and endless with countless martial sovereigns, there are only a few people who can be called at the peak. Who could it be?"

"Could it be the ten great martial sovereigns?" Feng Zhu asked in a deep voice.

Everyone's faces turned pale. The ten martial sovereigns not only represented the peak of the heavenly martial realm's strength, but their names were also like shining stars, shaking people's hearts.

Yunxiao shook his head. not necessarily. The so-called ten martial sovereigns are just people who fought their way to the top of the heaven and earth Power ranking list in the Holy region. For example, the sect Masters of the seven superpowers. Each of them is as powerful as one of the ten martial sovereigns. However, with their status, they would not be able to lower their pride and participate in the ranking battle."

He seemed to have thought of something and smiled. "With these people's status, if they can get a good ranking, they will naturally have unlimited glory. But if they lose their ranking, hehe hehe, they can't afford to lose!"

"So, it's very likely that they're from the seven superpowers?" asked terrine. Could it be that the soul Devourer clan and myriad Stars Valley are in the Western Region?"

don't make wild guesses," Yunxiao said. Other than the ten great martial emperors and the seven superpowers, there were still many peerless experts. The overlords of the four Seas, the illusionary land of stars and moon, and some of the forbidden Lands all had peak strength. But no matter who comes to the demon land, we won't change our original intention and will continue to move forward, right?"

Ye fan's body shook, his blood started to boil, he said firmly: " "Not bad! My temple of Holy Fire has been silent for many years. Generations of ancestors have passed away in regret while searching for Noah's ship. My father, my grandfather, my great-grandfather, and my generation finally sensed its existence. No matter what's in my way, I have to keep going forward. Compared to searching for Noah's ship, death is actually a trivial matter!"

I'm willing to follow the young master and revive the glory of the sacred fire Hall!

Everyone in the hall of Holy Fire had a serious look on their faces as they shouted in unison. Their blood was boiling.

Rather than dying in the valley silently for the rest of his life, it was better to pursue his dream. Even if there was only one chance, even if he had to fight until the last drop of his blood, he would have no regrets!

Ye fan's firm gaze turned towards the front, his fists were clenched so tightly that the bones cracked, he said fiercely: " "If that's the case, then let's risk our lives for once! The glory left behind by our ancestors must be reignited in my hands!"

Chapter 406-kicking an iron plate

In a dark underground cave, two Men in Black robes sat facing each other. There was a huge golden array in between them. The light it emitted shone on the two of them, and their shadows were extremely long in the cave, constantly flickering.

The Golden formation was actually transparent from the inside out. A demon beast with long hair was constantly struggling and screaming inside, trying to break out of the formation but was helpless.

Upon closer inspection, it turned out to be a huge green rat. Its eyes flickered with spiritual light, and it seemed to still have a certain level of consciousness. The formation pressed down on its body, as if it was trapped in a space, unable to break free.

A few strange symbols on the formation flickered with golden light, and the Golden Force continued to sink down. Each time, it made the green rat feel abnormal pain, and it gradually gave up resisting.

The black-robed man on the left chanted a sword spell and shouted, "Condense!"

The Golden formation quickly shrank where his index finger pointed, condensing into a ball of light gold and melting down, completely wrapping the green rat inside. The green rat let out a terrified cry and struggled a few more times, but every time it touched the golden light, it felt an intense pain all over its body and finally stopped moving.

The man on the right heaved a sigh of relief. He stood up and smiled happily. "Another one."

He took out a ring-shaped profound level weapon with a few bells hanging on it, making a clear and crisp sound. There were a total of five bells, three of which were white, and the other two were yellow and gold. Upon a closer look, there were actually mini rats scuttling inside the bells. He threw this profound level weapon into the air and it started to spin. In an instant, it grew several times bigger and filled the entire underground cave.

The Five Bells constantly let out crisp sounds. Golden, yellow, and white light flickered on the surface. The green rat trapped by the Golden Power below was slowly sucked up and flew towards a white Bell.

"Ding-Ling! Ding-Ling!"

When the green rat was sucked into it, the color of the bell immediately turned navy blue. There were more colors circulating on the ring-green, gold, yellow, white, and even more gorgeous.

The black-robed man revealed a satisfied smile. With a light wave of his hand, the silver ring fell back into his hand and he kept it.

"Only two left, this five elements beast taming ring is about to be successfully refined."

"Three of the five elemental rat kings have disappeared. I'm afraid that the rat Emperor in the center has already noticed. The last two will only be more difficult than the last."

“Ha, there’s no difficulty. Even the rat Emperor is our ultimate goal.”

“It would be great if it was that simple. God knows how many five elements spirit-devouring rats there are in the demon plain. If we were to fall into it, even you and I would find it difficult to escape unscathed.”

“Isn’t this spreading false news and letting those idiots enter the demon land to attract the rat Emperor’s attention? Haha, the birth of Noah’s ship. There are actually people who believe this rumor. Haha, what a group of fools!”

“En, I also happened to find Tang Jie in the light song woodland, so it’s a good opportunity to build up momentum. However, it didn’t seem to be very effective. There weren’t many experts who had entered the demon land. However, Yingluo, those demon clan people are a little strange. We should pay more attention to them.”

“Monster race? Are you referring to the young man who killed the soul-splitting type Gu? It was indeed strange. Focus on that young man, the minions of the soul Devourer clan, the people from the merchant Union, and shaohuang hao lian. Leave the rest to their own devices.”

“The demon clan is indeed a bit strange. We can lead other forces to eliminate the minions of the soul Devourer clan, but it’s strange that the seven members of the merchant Union are here. As for haolian shaohuang Zhenzhen, he’s one of the nine heavenly emperors. If there are too many of them, this heavenly martial realm will be a bit crowded.”

“Why don’t we make a move and kill him directly?”

“No need. The chances of breaking through to the nine heavenly Emperor stage are very low. Moreover, this guy has a senior brother in the lanxue sacred region and a Junior Brother in the soul formation sea. Although we, the myriad Stars Valley, are not afraid, we should not deliberately make enemies. If he can really form the laws and condense the Emperor Qi, it won’t be too late to make a move then.”

“Hmph, if Gu Feiyang were still alive, our myriad Stars Valley would still have some fear. Now that he’s dead, it doesn’t matter if I kill the trash disciples he left behind.”

“Don’t forget our ultimate goal, which is to refine the five elements beast taming ring and subdue the rat Emperor. Getting rid of the soul Devourer clan’s minions and stopping young Emperor hao lian from advancing to the martial Supreme realm was just something he did in passing. If it affects the proper business, no one can bear the responsibility.”

After the two of them finished speaking, the entire underground cave returned to darkness and deathly silence. Not a single sound could be heard.

In the sky above the vast demon Plains, a golden sun battleship was flying at high speed. Xuan Bing’s expression was extremely unsightly, as cold as ice. He had a gloomy expression on his face and didn’t move for a long time.

“Bang!”

He punched a hole through a metal plate on the golden sun battleship, and his eyes were filled with anger.

What kind of profound level weapon did the other party have that could directly destroy the battleship? with two two two-star revered martial artists working together, they could even restrain him. He really couldn’t think of a way to regain his face, get the Jade tablet and the ancient Bell, and go back to make up for his mistakes.

“Lord Xuan Bing, there’s someone in front!”

A martial Royal realm expert’s pupils contracted as if he had discovered something. He pointed at a few small black dots that were slowly moving in front of him.

“Hmm?”

Xuan Bing focused his gaze and saw nine black dots in front of him. They were actually nine Bluewolf chariots, slowly advancing at the end of his sight.

“Motherf * cker, what kind of trash is this! The one using the Bluewolf chariot must be some trash mercenary group. They were all annihilated!”

Xuan Bing’s mood was extremely bad, and he gave the order without thinking.

“Yes!”

The order was quickly passed down. The golden sun warship accelerated and soon closed the distance between them and the Bluewolf chariots. A powerful attack was launched, covering all nine chariots. They had no way to escape.

The nine chariots came to a halt, and one of them turned around. A man on top of the chariot looked coldly at the incoming attack.

The structure of the chariot was very simple, and its advantage was that it could be easily operated by only one person.

ripple scamper, spatial transformation!

The person on the car was the high priest of the demon race, Mr. Yu. The space in front of him suddenly twisted, and the straight shock wave began to spin in the sky. Its radius became smaller and smaller, and finally, it condensed towards the end and disappeared in the sky.

The distorted space also bounced away as if nothing had happened.

“?! Using spiritual power to warp space?”

Xuan Bing, who was on the golden sun warship, was so shocked that his eyes almost fell out of their sockets. As a three-stars martial Supreme, he had a lot of knowledge. Only powerful alchemists could directly distort space with their mental power.

His heart continued to sink. His intuition told him that something bad had happened, as if he had kicked an iron plate again. The nine Bluewolf chariots stopped moving. They all turned around and headed toward the golden sun warship.

If he was really a great Alchemist, why would he use such a garbage chariot? Could it be that they were a group of perverts who liked to pretend to be pigs to eat Tigers?

A pair of cold and sharp eyes immediately jolted him back to his senses from his wild guesses.

“Who are you people?”

Xuan Bing’s heart was filled with vigilance, and he did not dare to underestimate this Martial Emperor in front of him. Not to mention anything else, just the look in her eyes alone was enough to make his hair stand on end.

On the other chariot sat a young man. His skin was so pale that it was almost transparent, and even the blue veins could be seen clearly. An extremely demonic expression flashed across his face as he smiled and said, “He didn’t even know who we were and just killed us. Rain, are humans so bored nowadays?”

Mr. Yu seemed to be very respectful to the young man. He turned around and saluted, “Lord Shang, it was an accident. I don’t know where this green onion came from, but he’s probably a lunatic.”

When Xuan Bing heard this, he was instantly enraged. He was a martial honor, yet he was called a scallion and a lunatic? What was even more infuriating was that none of these people in front of him had the cultivation of a martial honor. However, those lazy and disdainful eyes clearly showed that they did not put him in their eyes.

“Everyone’s words are very unpleasant to hear! I am Xuan Bing of the flying frost sect. Who are you?”

“Flying frost sect?” Yu frowned. What are you doing in the demon land?”

“What, are you afraid?” Xuan Bing sneered. His heart relaxed a little. It seemed that the other party at least knew the strength of his sect and didn’t dare to be impudent.

“Yu, what’s the point of wasting time?” the young man called Shang chuckled. Leave this three stars martial venerable here and interrogate him while we walk. Kill the rest.”

Yu replied respectfully. When he raised his head again, his eyes were filled with killing intent.

“High priest, there are quite a lot of people here. I’m here to exercise and help you.”

A demonic-looking man leaped up from another chariot and landed on the golden sun warship with a smile. His smile was so cold that it sent chills down the spines of all the martial emperors on the warship.

Xuan Bing also felt a great sense of danger. Although these demonic people didn’t have strong cultivation bases, they gave him an extremely dangerous feeling. He suddenly roared, “Everyone, be careful. Let’s attack together and exterminate these B * stars!”

Mr. Yu’s face was extremely cold. He raised his taillight sword high and slashed down at the warship.

The cold sword Qi tore through the air and slashed at the golden sun battleship. The sword radiance cut through the golden sun battleship as if it was cutting a cake!

Xuan Bing was instantly dumbfounded. This was a seventh-tier golden sun battleship! Even if he attacked with all his strength, it would be impossible to destroy it!

What kind of people were there in the demon Plains? Why was one more perverted than the other?

“BOOM!”

The golden sun battleship was completely split in half before he could react. It exploded in the air and fell. There were also many alchemists among them, and they all looked outside in horror.

At this moment, the man who was standing on the other half of the golden sun battleship moved. The smile on his face never changed. It was as if he was a statue, and it made people’s hair stand on end. He spread his hands, and bat-like wings appeared on his body. He then flew toward the martial Royal realm experts.

Chapter 407-ship destroyed and captured

Xuan Bing’s heart was filled with shock, and a sense of danger he had never felt before welled up in his heart. Other than the two who had attacked, the others all had cold expressions on their faces, not caring in the slightest. That kind of ridiculing indifference was definitely not an act, but a high and mighty one who was coldly watching the show.

“You dare to underestimate us!”

Feeling humiliated, Xuan Bing roared, “Four-way explosion! All of you, die!”

The power of the domain of a three-stars martial venerable radiated out, and all those below the martial venerable realm were like ants! His face revealed a fierce look. If there were no accidents, he could suppress everyone by himself!

But unfortunately, there were many accidents today.

The space around Mr. Yu twisted slightly and isolated his domain. The light from the taillight sword in his hand grew brighter and gave off a dangerous feeling.

The other bat-like demon was frozen in the domain, unable to move.

The monster race man was furious and scolded, " what kind of crap is this? how can a mere domain trap me? " His body gradually began to emit a dark purple aura, which swirled around him. More and more of it gathered, as if it wanted to break through the pressure.

Yu frowned. Lord wing, your body is still very weak. Don't move. Let me do it.

He focused his sword force, and the spatial power in the surroundings slowly gathered on the sword, emitting an abnormal light that became more and more dazzling. Suddenly, he slashed down with the sword, and a piece of space instantly expanded like an air sac, shattering the four-sided domain. At the same time, the expansion of the space didn't slow down and continued to expand in Xuan Bing's direction, turning everything in its path into fragments.

Half of the golden sun battleship's tail was penetrated by the spatial energy, and it was instantly reduced to golden powder, scattering all over the sky.

Xuan Bing's pupils contracted, and he gasped in fear as he retreated.

The other party's sword had already exceeded the scope of his understanding. A martial venerable had comprehended the rules of heaven and earth and condensed his own territory power. It was an understanding of the rules of heaven and earth. That was why he was unrivaled under the eight desolation realm. But Mr. Yu destroyed his domain with one strike. How was this possible?!

There was no time for him to think. Rain's figure shot up like a ghost. It was so fast that it almost hit him.

Xuan Bing's heart skipped a beat, and he unleashed all his potential as a three-stars martial Supreme. His fist glowed with light as he roared and punched Mr. Yu's face.

Yu's eyes flashed with a trace of fear. He also threw out a punch with his left hand. His arm suddenly expanded to three or four times its size. It was completely disproportionate to his body. He met the punch with force.

"Bang!"

There was no trickery, it was a complete clash of strength!

A powerful light burst out in the sky like the sun, and blood spurted out as Xuan Bing's body slowly fell back. Meanwhile, Yu was still standing there, his face as calm as water. It was as if he had done something insignificant.

He injured a martial Supreme with one punch!

The rest of the flying frost sect's martial monarchs opened their mouths wide in fear. Xuan Bing was undoubtedly their pillar of support, and now that he had been torn apart, they lost all will to fight.

After the domain's power dissipated, wing snorted coldly, as if he was extremely angry. He retracted the purplish-black aura back into his body, spread his bat wings, and rushed into the group of martial emperors. Like a Wolf entering a flock of sheep, he began to slaughter wantonly, and for a time, he screamed in pain.

Many martial emperors had joined forces, but they were still no match for him.

One of Xuan Bing's arms was almost completely blown off, and his face was covered in blood. He looked at the figure in the sky with horror, then fell to the ground and spat out another mouthful of blood.

The massacre ended very quickly. The ground was covered in corpses, and all kinds of internal organs and limbs were scattered all over. Wing did not seem to be satisfied. He twisted his neck and roared at the sky as if he was suffocating.

Shang maintained his smile and said softly, "After consuming the blood of the soul-splitting kun, Yu's body has indeed become much stronger. This secret technique is truly impressive. As expected of our monster race's high priest."

"Wing seems to be a little unstable again," said li, a female demon beside him.

let him be," said Shang, unconcerned. the martial honor human will lead the way. We'll continue on our way. After he finished speaking, he turned the direction of the chariot and drove forward.

yes, master! Li waved her fingers in the air. Xuan Bing’s body rushed over and was restrained by her. She sent a few rays of light into his body. The aura of a martial Supreme gradually disappeared from Xuan Bing’s body, and he became an ordinary person without any fluctuation of Yuan Qi.

The pupils of the men on the other three chariots contracted. They watched Li’s attack with a serious expression, as if they were trying to see through something. They didn’t blink, but they were disappointed in the end. They still found nothing.

These three people were Tang Jie, Mu Wu, and Yuwen Xun. However, their auras were completely sealed, just like Xuan Bing’s. There was no fluctuation of vital Qi at all. Each of them was dejected and looked defeated.

After Li Feng finished Xuan Bing, he looked at the three of them and said, “We don’t have enough chariots, so this person will take one with you.”

The Bluewolf chariot was very small, so it was very crowded for two people.

Tang Jie’s face changed. He snorted. I’m a distinguished guest of your skeleton mercenary Corps. The Yang key is still in my hands. You better be polite to me!

“If you throw it at me, I’ll kill him immediately!” Mu Wu also said angrily.

Only Yuwen Xun pinched his nose, frowning as he muttered, “Covered in blood, it’s so dirty. Aiya, I’ll just make do with it. Who asked me to become your captive?” He didn’t look like he was wronged at all. His eyes were burning with evil fire and his face revealed a sinister smile.

Li was expressionless as he threw Xuan Bing onto Yuwen Xun’s chariot. “Don’t kill him, or I’ll kill you.”

“Aiya, don’t worry. I’ll be very gentle.”

Yuwen Xun covered his mouth and chuckled. He pulled the unconscious Xuan Bing into his arms and began to show concern.

“Blargh!”

Mu Wu could not help but throw up outside the chariot. He quickly activated the formation on the chariot and chased after Shang. He only felt that it was extremely dangerous to be within a hundred meters of that pervert. Along the way, the way that pervert looked at him had already caused him to almost break down. If not for the fact that his dantian had been completely sealed, he would have killed that pervert even if it meant death!

Tang Jie couldn't stand it anymore. He was drenched in cold sweat as he chased after the crowd.

Wing went berserk in the air for a while. He clutched his head with both hands as if he had a splitting headache. He wailed and struggled in the air. The demonic Qi on his body fluctuated. At one moment, he was like a mortal, and at another moment, he was at the level of a Martial Emperor. All of a sudden, he froze in mid-air and stopped struggling. His eyes gradually returned to their usual calmness, and he retracted his murderous aura. Then, he returned to the chariot and gave chase.

Soon, the nine beams of light disappeared into the sky, leaving only corpses and broken pieces of battleships on the ground.

After the time it took to brew a cup of tea, the space rippled like water, and in the center of the ripples, a battleship slowly sailed out.

An eighth-grade netherworld warship!

The battleship appeared in the sky, and the space returned to calm. This netherworld battleship was even more imposing and majestic than the flying frost sect's. There was a huge symbol printed on it, which seemed to be the symbol of some sect.

&Nbsp; several figures appeared on the warship, all of them looking down at the debris and corpses with grave expressions. A few figures flew down and checked the debris and corpses, then quickly returned to the warship.

One of the scouts came forward and reported, " "Lord Yi Qing, those are people from the flying frost sect, and those who died were all alchemists and martial emperors. From the looks of their wounds, most of the martial emperors were killed in a single strike before they were cruelly split apart."

Yi Qing's hair was like clouds, and his pitch-black eyes revealed a serious expression. He said in a deep voice, " "Although it's just a rumor, it still attracted a lot of forces. Those people from before didn't show much strength, but they gave people a strange feeling. They had easily killed the experts of the flying frost sect. Ding mi, do you have any impression of those people?"

Behind him, a yellow-robed old man furrowed his brows and thought for a long time before replying, " "Sir Yi Qing, in my memory, there is no such person in the entire western regions. They can easily kill Wu Zun with a single punch. They are definitely on my list of suspects, but I have no information on them at all."

Yi Qing grew suspicious and muttered, " "could it be that he crossed regions?" It shouldn't be. For such a little bit of gossip, Yingluo."

Another clean-faced middle-aged man in embroidered robes suddenly said, " "Lord Yi Qing, among the nine people just now, there seemed to be one person who looked very much like Tang Jie."

Yi Qing's pupils contracted. Are you sure?! he asked in shock.

The middle-aged man looked troubled. " "I just feel that they look very similar. I've also dated Tang Jie a few times, and our appearance and demeanor are very similar. It's just that Tang Jie is a martial Royal realm expert. I can't feel any power from that person just now."

Yi Qing fell into deep thought and gazed in the direction the nine people left. He said in a serious voice, " "If it's really Tang Jie, then we're in trouble. Those people give me a very dangerous feeling, I really don't want to be their enemy!"

Ding mi hesitated and said, "Lord Yi Qing, what should we do now?" The demon land was vast and boundless, and even the three great mercenary groups that spent their days in it might not know the way. If we want to find that Tang Jie, it's no different from looking for a needle in a haystack."

Yi Qing stood at the bow of the ship in deep thought, and all kinds of complicated expressions flashed through his eyes. Finally, he opened his mouth and spat out a word, "Chase!"

The netherworld battleship turned into a beam of green light and disappeared into the horizon. It was much faster than the nine Bluewolf war chariots.

Shang, who was flying ahead, suddenly smiled.

Li, who was riding with him, suddenly had an idea. "Lord Shang, should we stop and deal with the pursuers?"

Yi smiled and shook his head, "let's wait and see. The ones who came this time seem to have some strength." We're no longer the same as we were in the past, and we can't afford to offend just anyone. It's best to exercise some restraint."

"Yes, Lord Shang!"

Li's face regained its calmness and he no longer asked.

Beside him, other than Yi and Yu, there were two other demons. Their bodies were slightly burly, and their faces were stiff and expressionless.

408 Emphyrean one Pavilion

These two were the other two demons who were in the sacrificial formation with Shang: Talismans and Spears.

Wing quickly caught up. At that moment, Xuan Bing, who was still unconscious, suddenly let out a scream. His face was completely purple from pain, and there was no light in his eyes other than fear.

It was accompanied by Yuwen Xun's sinister laughter.

Both mu Wu and Tang Jie's faces changed drastically, turning pale and their stomachs churning. The six monster race cultivators were still calm and expressionless. They paid no attention to the screams and laughter coming from behind them.

"Sob sob sob sob sob sob sob sob, kill me, just kill me. Ah, ah, ah, wuwuwu!"

"Hehe, ha, ha, ha, hahaha!"

"Kill him after the interrogation," Shang suddenly said.

"Kill that pervert?" Li's eyelids twitched.

Yi smiled, "no, it's that scream." That abnormal physique is quite interesting. Although it's not a divine body, it's actually a fusion of human and demon bloodlines. His ancestors must be from our demon race."

Li's pupils shrank and she said in surprise, "mother?" A human-demon?"

Soon after, Xuan Bing's last scream was heard, and the silence returned.

Mu Wu had already vomited so much that he was beyond recognition. Killing intent burst out from his eyes as he thought to himself that he would definitely kill that transvestite after he recovered his strength. All this time, the trauma he had suffered was permanent.

Li slowed down and returned to the back. Soon, he heard a tearing sound and Xuan Bing's head rolled off the chariot.

Yuwen Xun seemed to be a little displeased. "How can you kill people as you please? I'm having a lot of fun!"

Li's eyes shot out a ray of light as he looked Yuwen Xun up and down. He recalled the "parent body" that Shang had mentioned, and found it hard to believe. Ignoring Yuwen Xun, he caught up to the front and reported, "Lord Shang, I've got it. It's because of Noah's ship that a large number of forces have begun to infiltrate the demon land."

Tang Jie's heart trembled, and his eyes revealed a look of disbelief.

"Oh?" The referee looked at Tang Jie with a smile and said, "Has the news been leaked?"

"Impossible!" Tang Jie's face turned extremely ugly as he said. This matter is extremely confidential, and it's also for the safety of the information that I came to the gentle song woodland alone and became your captive!" "My four extremes sect has always been on good terms with the skeleton mercenaries. How dare you treat me like this!" He said angrily.

"The skeleton mercenaries are probably in the past," Mr. Yu suddenly said.

Tang Jie's pupils contracted slightly, but he remained silent. He had also noticed the changes in the skeleton mercenary group. In the past, Shen Feng had been in charge of everything, but now that Shen Feng had disappeared, he had actually turned into these demons.

However, he was born in the merchant Union, so he was still smart. He smiled and said, "It doesn't matter if it's the skeleton mercenaries or others. There were no eternal conflicts in this world, only eternal interests. As the young master of the four extremes sect, I would like to befriend all of you. Although the monster race is powerful, the four extremes sect is not too far behind."

Yu told me about this sect," Shang laughed, looking at him. to be honest, they're far from qualified to work with me. They're far from it.

Tang Jie was furious. The name of the four extremes sect was well-known on the entire heavenly martial continent. Even humans and ghosts would give them some face. Even the divine capital of the Holy region would not mock him so rashly. He cursed the ancestors of the monster race in his heart before saying, " although the illusory realm of stars and moon is forbidden, the demon clan is not strong enough to ignore the merchant Union, is it? "

"The merchant Union?"

Shang's smile was mesmerizing, and he said softly, " If you want to work with me, I wonder if the so-called divine capital of the Holy region of your human race is qualified."

"Haha, how arrogant! Ignorant!"

Mu Wu couldn't help but laugh and mock, "Just a few pieces of trash like you, I don't know what kind of demonic Arts you used to be able to defeat a few low-ranked revered martial artists, and you think that you're the only one in the world. Pfft, let alone the divine capital of the Holy region, any one of the seven superpowers could easily crush you to death. Even flattening the illusory realm of stars and moon would not be a difficult task!"

The smile on Shang's face disappeared, but he did not get angry. "Whether I'm arrogant or ignorant, you humans will soon know. Let's go and find the eternal evergreen tree. Then, we'll go and get the Supreme grade profound artifact, Noah's boat. I'm also very interested to see the transcendent grade profound level weapons that you humans have refined."

Mu Wu was speechless. She had never seen such a narcissistic person, as if Noah's ship was already in his pocket.

Just as they were flying at full speed, Yi Qing and the others 'netherworld battleship were also giving chase.

.....

Yunxiao and the people from the hall of Holy Fire soon arrived at the place where the flying frost sect had been attacked. Looking at the corpses and wolves all over the ground, their faces turned grave.

The earthen jar carefully examined it and said with a pale face, " what a cruel method! He really died without an intact corpse!

Ye Fan swallowed his saliva with difficulty, he walked carefully on the ground, afraid of touching the remains of the corpse.

Feng Zhu snorted heavily and said,"although these people are despicable, the person who killed them is even more abnormal." There's no corpse of that three-stars martial Supreme here. He must have escaped."

Terrine's face turned pale, and after retching for a while, he said, " "Are these perverted murderers our opponents?"

Ye Fan looked at Yunxiao, who was staring at the crashed golden sun warship. He walked over and said, " "Young master Yun, did you find anything?"

Yunxiao pointed at the crack on the warship and said coldly, " the golden sun warship was split in half by a sword!

"What?"

Feng Zhu jumped up in shock and hurriedly came over to touch the cut with his hand. His face became uglier and uglier as he said in horror, " "Seventh-grade golden sun battleship, split open with one sword! What kind of person has such strength?"

Yunxiao closed his eyes slightly and raised his head to feel it. The faint aura that remained in the air was the demonic Qi that he was extremely familiar with!

"It's him indeed!"

Yunxiao opened his eyes, and a fierce light flashed in them as he said coldly, " a member of the skeleton mercenary Corps from the demon race-rain! He stood on the spot and continued to sense, saying in a deep voice, " and there's more than one demonic Qi. It's extremely strong. It looks like we're about to catch up!

Everyone began to feel nervous. Looking at the wreckage on the ground, they had to face such a pervert. Their breathing became heavy.

Ye Fan hesitated, he suddenly asked: " "Young master Yun, do you think we have a chance of winning?"

what? " Yunxiao sneered. what? " Didn't they want to blow up the blockhouses one by one to block the muzzle? Why are you afraid now? You don't even want the glory of your ancestors?"

Ye fan's face turned red from his words, he said resolutely: " "Not bad! At worst, we'll just die, there's nothing to be afraid of!"

When the people of the hall of Holy Fire mustered their courage and were about to give chase again, a battleship flew over at an extremely fast speed in the distance, heading exactly where they were standing.

Everyone's heart trembled, and they all became vigilant. Among the many forces in the demon Plains, even if their strength was not at the bottom, they were probably close.

Yunxiao looked over and saw that it was an eighth-tier netherworld warship, with a huge blue symbol on it. the people of the merchant Union have come in as expected. This is the warship of the Emyrean one Pavilion.

The netherworld battleship stopped in front of them. A beautiful woman wearing a long Palace dress stood on the bow of the ship and said coldly, " "Who are you people?" She looked over one by one, and when she saw the corpses all over the ground, she couldn't help but frown, revealing a sharp look.

Fearing that the people of the temple of Holy Fire would say something wrong, Yunxiao said first, " we're from a newbie mercenary group. Are you guys experts from Emyrean one Pavilion? "

rookie mercenary group? "

The palace maid frowned and said to the people on the battleship, "Shen Li, come and see if you recognize these people."

A familiar figure appeared at the bow of the battleship and exclaimed, "young master Yun?!"

Yunxiao was also a little surprised. He did not expect Shen Li to come as well. Her strength was of no use at all. She must be familiar with the terrain, which was why the Emyrean one Pavilion had asked her to come. Yunxiao waved his hand as a greeting and said with a smile, "Big sister Shen is here too, it seems like we are all on the same side."

A wry smile appeared on Shen Li's face. If she only looked at Yunxiao's sunny and handsome appearance, she would definitely think that he was a harmless and sunny teenager. However, she knew in her heart that there was a hidden terror under this appearance. Whether it was his schemes, means, or strength, he was far above her.

She whispered in the ear of the beautiful woman in the palace dress. The beautiful woman's brows kept frowning and a thoughtful expression appeared on her face.

"So, you're the famous Li Yunxiao. You were the city Lord of Yanwu, how did you become a member of the rookie mercenary group? Why are you here in the demon land now?"

The beautiful woman asked, her eyes cold and her expression condescending.

Yunxiao kept his charming smile and said, "The southern mountain range is a godforsaken place, how can you make a name for yourself? That's why I came out to try my luck and see if there are any big sects willing to take me in. I accidentally joined a rookie mercenary group. As for why I came to the demon land, hehe, I'm just asking the obvious."

The beautiful woman's face turned cold and she angrily shouted, "Did you leak the news of Noah's ship? Other than the four extremes sect and the descendants of the Martial Emperor Ye Nantian, only the Emyrean one Pavilion knows about it. After Shen Li went to you, everyone knows about it!" She raised her eyebrows and saw the people beside Yunxiao. Her eyes stopped on Feng Zhu and Qi Guang as she snorted coldly and said, "The newbie mercenary group has some skills, their cultivation isn't bad."

Shen Li frowned. She felt that everyone in the hall of Holy Fire was a stranger to her. She had been in the gentle song forest for a long time, so she basically knew all the experts above the rank of a Martial Emperor, not to mention the existence of a martial honor. These people were obviously not from the rookie mercenary group. She was about to explain to the beautiful woman, but Yunxiao snorted and said, "The beautiful women of Empyrean one Pavilion can eat whatever they want, but one of them will die if they eat the wrong food. You can't say things carelessly. If you say something wrong, your entire family will die!"

The beautiful woman in the palace dress was stunned, her eyes narrowing slightly. After pondering for a moment, she said, "On your way here, did you see anyone from the other forces? where did the people from the skeleton mercenary group go?"

Chapter 409-go crazy!

Yunxiao put on a proud and frivolous look as he snorted, "Why should I tell you?"

In fact, he was very happy in his heart. He was just worried that he couldn't beat the people of the skeleton mercenary group, and the heavens immediately sent a group of experts. He had to make good use of them.

Anger appeared on the beautiful woman's face, but as if she had thought of something, she eased up and revealed a rare smile, "You little brat, you're just trying to fish for some benefits. That Noah's ship isn't something you can peep at. The Empyrean one Pavilion can give you some other benefits."

that's right, " Yunxiao said with a smile. we just want benefits. Why don't we have a good talk? You have the netherworld battleship, but we can only rely on our legs to run across the demon land!"

The beautiful woman was thirty-four years old. Although she was no longer young, her charm was still there. Her smile had a charming charm, "The heavenly one Pavilion has always been hospitable. If you don't mind, please come up and have a chat."

Shen Li's brows furrowed slightly, as if she felt that something was wrong. However, this beautiful woman was one of the people in charge of the Empyrean one Pavilion in the Western Region. She was her direct superior and could not afford to offend her.

Yunxiao showed a look of joy as he boarded the warship, but he was sneering in his heart. This beautiful woman treated him like a child, and he was happy to play the pig to eat the Tiger.

Everyone from the temple of Holy Fire was a little hesitant. If they went up, it would be no different from entering a Tiger's Den. But if they did not cooperate with Yunxiao, their identities would be exposed immediately, and a fierce battle would ensue. That beautiful woman's strength wasn't any weaker than Feng and Qi, and with this netherworld battleship, only the heavens knew if there were other experts.

After hesitating for a moment, they also boarded the netherworld warship one by one.

The smile on the beautiful woman's face became even happier, and her eyes narrowed, but a bright light flashed through them.

The situation in the demon land was getting more and more complicated. He didn't expect to meet the mercenary group of these hotheaded young men, and their strength was not bad. As long as he gave them some benefits, they could be used as cannon fodder.

The beautiful woman in the palace dress was calculating quickly, and Shen Li also seemed to have noticed something. She knew Yunxiao's means very well, and he was definitely not this reckless young man. He wanted to warn her, but he was afraid of the prestige of the beautiful woman and was afraid of embarrassing the other party, so he shut his mouth. However, he secretly became vigilant, and once he found something wrong, he would immediately warn her.

The warship was very large, and there were many powerful auras hidden on it. With a slight probe of his divine sense, Yunxiao had roughly figured out the situation on board.

Soon, the beautiful woman led everyone to a gorgeous meeting hall, which was used to entertain important guests.

The ground was made of gold, and the walls were inlaid with jewels. It was a magnificent sight. However, to martial artists, these secular things were not worth their attention. They were only used to show off their luxury.

However, there was a long oval table inside, and the flowers of the four seasons were in full bloom. They were all rare species in the realm of heavenly martial arts, and many of them were even natural treasures. There were also some low-level martial will Dao fruits, ranging from the one origin realm to the four symbols realm. Not only were they rich in spiritual energy, but they also emitted martial will!

The rhythmic fluctuations emitted by the martial will Dao fruit shocked everyone from the temple of Holy Fire. Although this kind of low-grade Dao fruit was of no use to them, it was definitely more valuable than some high-grade profound level weapons.

After all, many direct descendants of major forces could consume it, and their cultivation would progress at a tremendous pace. Many powers would permanently purchase it in large quantities, and there had always been a demand but no supply.

The beautiful woman looked at everyone’s surprised expressions and felt very proud and happy. She smiled and said, “Shen Li, you and the city Lord of cloud sky City are old friends. Go and get some spirit fruits to entertain everyone.”

In her opinion, these were all country bumpkins who had entered the city and would be fooled by her later on.

“Waa! It’s actually a martial will Dao fruit!”

With an exaggerated expression on his face, Yunxiao looked extremely shocked, and his face was flushed as he said in a hurry, “no need, no need. Your sect is too polite. I’ll just eat these martial will Dao fruits.

After he finished speaking, he plucked a four symbols Dao fruit and placed it in his mouth. He swallowed it without even chewing and then another one.

You can just eat these martial will Dao fruits.

Not only the beautiful woman and Shen Li, but everyone in the hall of Holy Fire was also stunned.

He actually ate the martial will Dao fruit like a fruit?

Heavens! That was a martial will Dao fruit, born from the gathering of the laws of heaven and earth. Every one of them was a work of art that could not be bought with money! Any one of them could stir up a storm of blood outside, but he said that eating the martial will Dao fruit would do? He even seems to have suffered a grievance and is very modest!”

While the beautiful woman was still in a daze, Yunxiao had already swallowed all the three four symbols realm Dao fruits, and then he plucked two three talents realm Dao fruits in each hand and put them in his mouth.

He sneered in his heart. Acting rich in front of me, watch me eat until I go crazy!

“Argh! Don’t!”

The beautiful woman finally let out a scream, her face ashen. Her eyes burned with rage, and her body trembled like a sieve.

The three four symbols realm Dao fruits that Yunxiao had just eaten were worth millions of primordial stones just by the heaven and earth spiritual energy contained in them, not to mention the condensed martial intent! She felt the world spin around her, and she could barely stand.

Country bumpkins, what a bunch of country bumpkins! You actually ate my martial will Dao fruit like a fruit!

Her heart was dripping blood.

“Gulp!”

Yunxiao casually swallowed one of the three talents realm Dao fruits, then picked another one. Only then did he look surprised and ask, "What's wrong? Was there something wrong with this fruit? I think it's quite delicious!"

He swallowed one and stuffed it into his mouth, showing an expression that it tasted good.

The beautiful woman in the palace dress couldn't stand still and hurriedly held the wall beside her. In addition to dizziness, she was also panting heavily. Losing so many Dao fruits at once, even with her status, she couldn't avoid punishment.

He wanted to stop her again, but he realized that the three talents realm Dao fruits had all been used up. The other party had already begun to eat the two division realm's Dao fruits.

Everyone was completely petrified, and their minds went blank. Yunxiao had eaten more than ten of them one after another.

The beautiful woman only felt that she couldn't even speak. She was paralyzed on the wall, not even having the strength to lift her feet.

"Burp!"

In a few moments, he had eaten all twenty or so martial will Dao fruits. He even burped in satisfaction and laughed, "Delicious, delicious! As expected of the Empyrean one Pavilion, they even used martial will Dao fruits to entertain their guests! He had money and face! This kind of spirit is probably one of a kind in this world!"

He shouted at the people of the Holy Fire Hall, "am I right?" Everyone!"

Everyone in the hall of Holy Fire was drenched in cold sweat. Although the beautiful woman's face was pale and her aura seemed to have dried up, the murderous look in her eyes made them all feel cold in their hearts and their palms were sweating.

No, your sister!

The people of the temple of Holy Fire felt the killing intent of the beautiful woman in Palace dress and almost cried. This was their territory, and you ate so many of their martial will Dao fruits. If we don't kill you, even we won't be happy. The worst thing is that we've been implicated. We didn't do anything!

With a long face, they could only nod in agreement.

great! Yunxiao said with satisfaction, " it's really great! I'll definitely come to your Empyrean one Pavilion as a guest often!"

"En!"

The beautiful woman in the palace dress snorted and a mouthful of blood rushed up her throat and flowed out from the corner of her mouth. She took out a silk handkerchief and gently wiped it. His heart was in an extreme battle. Endure, endure, he must endure! Whether it was looking for the skeleton mercenaries or that matter, he had to rely on these country bumpkins to hold back!

eh? " Yunxiao asked in surprise, " what's wrong with you? Why is your face changing so much?"

The beautiful woman's face alternated between red and white as if she was cultivating some kind of cultivation technique. When she heard Yunxiao's words, she was so angry that her entire head turned red, and she almost burned.

Suddenly, a faint light shone from Yunxiao's body, and the will of a martial Grandmaster of six directions realm spread out.

Yunxiao only felt that his mind was clear, and the primordial Qi in his body was surging like a river, getting more and more powerful, breaking through some barriers in front of him. After circulating the Qi in his body, it returned to his dantian.

A brand new power spread to every part of his body, and his five senses and six Senses were completely renewed.

After swallowing more than 20 low-level martial will Dao fruits, he had advanced directly and easily broken through to the two-stars martial Grandmaster realm. His power was still increasing, and it only stopped when he reached the peak of the two-stars martial Grandmaster.

phew, I actually broke through. It's so good!

Yunxiao looked pleased and said gratefully, "Thank you for your hospitality with the Dao fruit, my Lord. It actually saved me so much time in closed-door cultivation and directly advanced. Thank you, my Lord. Thank you, Empyrean one Pavilion."

"Pfft!"

The beautiful woman couldn't hold on any longer, and after her face turned red, she spat out a mouthful of blood. The killing intent in her eyes seemed to have materialized, and the bones in her hands were about to burst.

Endure!

Endure!

Endure!

She shouted the word "endure" three times in her heart and finally suppressed the anger. She then revealed a smile that was uglier than crying and said, "Congratulations, Qianqian, congratulations to the cloud sky City Lord."

She forced a smile, and her originally beautiful face was distorted badly, making her look very funny.

Yunxiao sneered in his heart. 'Who asked you to show off in front of me? However, he still looked flattered and hurriedly said, "Same to you, same to you!"

Same joy

The beautiful woman felt an extremely irritable negative emotion spread in her body and began to destroy her meridians. She knew that this was an emotional backlash from suppressing her anger, which was extremely harmful to her cultivation. Fortunately, her strength was profound. She gently covered her mouth with a silk handkerchief and secretly swallowed a medicinal pill to resolve the power of the backlash.

Shen Li couldn't stand it anymore. She felt that if this continued, the Empyrean one Pavilion would suffer a great loss. She hurriedly stepped forward and reminded, "Lady Qing Luo, this brat is clearly doing this on purpose! Don't be fooled by his hotheaded appearance. He's actually very cunning, and his methods are vicious and his mind meticulous."

She pointed at the people from the sacred fire Hall and said, "also, these people are not bi an."

410 Big cousin

Yunxiao's face darkened as he cried out angrily, "Aunty Shen! What are you saying? However, after eating your martial will Dao fruits, I'm deliberately looking for trouble! Is this your personal idea or lady Qing Luo's idea?" With an angry expression, he said, "Hmph!" If you can't bear to, then don't take it out for others to eat! So he was just putting on an act, what member of the seven merchant alliances, poor bastard!"

He took out a bag of primeval stone fragments and threw it on the table. He snorted coldly, "at most, I'll pay some money. I only have so few primeval stones on me. I'll give them all to you."

Qing Luo's face turned red and white. She was a person who cared about her face the most. Otherwise, she would not have collected some martial will Dao fruits as decorations to show off her status. When she heard Yunxiao call her "poor bastard", she looked as if she had been greatly insulted, and her eyes spewed fire as she glared at Shen Li.

"You're so silly!"

Shen Li was exasperated. She knew that Yunxiao was trying to change the topic, but Qing Luo could see that her face was already very unkind, so she said in a hurry, "Lady Qing Luo, this brat is really cowardly."

"I understand, aunty Shen!"

Yunxiao spoke first, his eyes cold as he said, "I understand what you're trying to do. Back in the light song woodland, you seemed to have signed a benefit agreement with our rookie mercenary group. Let me see if I have it with me. I can also let lady Usneas have a look."

When Shen Li heard that, her body trembled violently as if she was touched. She looked at Yunxiao with a frightened and pleading look.

The agreement signed in the west of the city had basically betrayed Empyrean one Pavilion's interests, but the situation had forced them to sign it, and they would have been dead if they hadn't. The four Chambers of Commerce had all signed the contract, so she couldn't be blamed. But now, Yunxiao had brought it up alone, and if he were to exaggerate it, Qing Luo would probably be scared to death on the spot!

"what agreement?" Qing Luo was puzzled. "what agreement?"

Yunxiao touched his storage ring and said, "I'll look around. Oh right, aunty Shen, what did you say I really did?"

Shen Li's face was pale, and she said, "you're really inexperienced. It's just twenty or so martial will Dao fruits. Empyrean one Pavilion can take them out at any time. We don't need to pay for them."

Qing Luo's heart twitched when she heard the words 'more than 20 martial will Dao fruits'. She forced a smile and said, "that's right. The cloud sky City Lord is young and promising. Those Dao fruits can be considered a meeting gift."

The people from the temple of Holy Fire were dumbfounded. More than 20 martial will Dao fruits were a gift to them. They also felt strange. Qing Luo was clearly burning with anger and almost couldn't control it. How could she suppress it? was it just to chase after the skeleton mercenary group?

Logically speaking, there was no need for that. With these people's methods, they could directly capture them and they would be able to get some information.

As expected, Qing Luo quickly asked carefully, "The cloud heaven city Lord's amazing performance in Yanwu has shocked the world. Even Martial Emperor Tianqin, li Huachi, has come out to support you. I wonder what's the relationship between the cloud heaven city Lord and Lord li Huachi?"

"What? He actually knew li Huachi? He even has li Huachi to back him up?"

Everyone in the temple of Holy Fire changed their expressions, all of them horrified. Even though they were from a reclusive sect, even a three-year-old child had heard of the ten great martial sovereigns in the streets and alleys. They looked at Yunxiao with a different expression.

Yunxiao sneered in his heart and thought, 'I'm not going to let you go. So that's what happened. I was wondering why he could still endure it when he had become a ninja Turtle!

He revealed a look of admiration and bragged, "Li Huachi is my big cousin!"

w-what?!

Qing Luo was dumbfounded. She looked Yunxiao up and down and said in disbelief, "Big cousin? The Lord of cloud sky City is less than 20 years old, and Lord li Huachi has been famous for decades. The age gap is huge, and I've never heard of li Huachi having a younger cousin or something like that."

Yunxiao was unhappy as he mumbled, "Does my cousin have any relatives that he needs to report to you?"

Qing Luo felt a wave of dizziness, and she didn't know if it was true or not. The intelligence Department of the merchant Union was the best in the world. They had detailed records of all the experts on the heavenly martial continent, including their connections and relatives. All kinds of information about the ten martial emperors and the sect leaders of the seven major forces had been gathered in his mind and could be mentioned at any time, but he had never heard that li Huachi had a cousin.

She probed. li Huachi is an eccentric and unsociable man. He rarely interacts with others. Are you a relative of his late lover, Xue Chenxi? ”

Yunxiao’s pupils constricted, and his face was filled with shock. “What? A deceased lover? Xue Chenxi was dead? How did he die?”

Xue Chenxi was the goddess that li Huachi had been secretly in love with for a long time, and she was also the Holy maiden of the Fuyao Holy Palace. It was a pity that li Huachi had feelings for her, while Xue Chenxi was dedicated to the ultimate of martial arts. For this reason, li Huachi once lived outside thousand leaves Island, playing the zither and writing ancient books every day. Even after ten years, he still couldn’t move Xue Chenxi.

He only left after the ranking battle of the heaven and earth Power chart. Xue Chenxi had also won the title of the world’s number one ice-hearted beauty.

It was said that li Huachi had attended the heaven and earth Power chart gathering because he had been provoked by Xue Chenxi. He wanted to win the title of number one in the world and win the beauty. However, things didn’t go as they wished. These arrogant powerhouses who thought they were invincible in the world only realized that there was always someone better in the world after the Holy region ranking battle. Even with his cultivation at the peak of the nine Heavens, he only managed to get fifth place.

As for the experts of the various forces, the sect leaders of the major sects, and countless reclusive experts, they were even more embarrassed and ranked far behind. Fortunately, the sect leaders of the seven superpowers did not participate in this ranking battle. This kind of ranking battle was known by the whole world, so they really could not afford to lose face.

It was said that after the ranking battle, li Huachi felt too ashamed to return to thousand leaves Island and disappeared from the mainland. It was not until the news of Xue Chenxi’s death spread that there was another bloodbath.

He couldn’t figure it out. The Holy maiden of the Fuyao Holy Palace, the woman li Huachi loved the most, who else in the world could kill her?

Qing Luo's face was filled with astonishment as she said, "You ... You didn't know that Xue Chenxi was dead?"

She frowned, as if she was very suspicious of Yunxiao's identity. But, Xue Chenxi's death was known to the world, and it was not a secret to ordinary Warriors. How could he not know? Moreover, in Yanwu, li Huachi had indeed threatened to protect him. As for the cause of death, the Empyrean one Pavilion did have some information, but it was absolutely confidential. "Xue Chenxi has been dead for almost ten years."

"Ten years of regret"

Yunxiao was stunned. Ten years ago, he was still a child, arrogant and domineering in the capital of Tianshui, so how could he know about the major events in the world? a desolate look flashed in his eyes as he sighed and said, "no wonder he's living in seclusion in the southern domain, Tian Xiang. I remember that Xue Chenxi was from Tian Xiang."

Qing Luo's heart skipped a beat, and she saw the desolation on Yunxiao's face. It was not an act, but a melancholy and loneliness from the bottom of his heart. It seemed that this kid was really related to li Huachi, but it was strange that he did not know that Xue Chenxi was dead."Let's not talk about these unhappy things. Since Xue Chenxi's death, li Huachi had not shown his face again. The first time in ten years had been in Yanwu. I wonder if he has recovered from his grief?"

Qing Luo stared at Yunxiao's eyes, trying to find some clues from them, but to her surprise, she found nothing. No matter how powerful her divine sense was, she could not detect even the slightest emotional fluctuation from him.

I know my cousin's recent situation very well," Yunxiao said with a faint smile. we often exchange letters.

Qing Luo was taken aback. She had also understood Yunxiao's meaning, which was that she knew about li Huachi's situation, but why should she tell him? She suddenly realized that this kid was not as simple as she had thought. She thought about how Shen Li had said that he was a scheming person, but he was somewhat like this.

However, she still didn't take it to heart. She thought to herself, " what can a child do? " our Empyrean one Pavilion has something that we would like to ask Lord li Huachi for help. As for the reward, as long as Lord li Huachi is willing to give it, we can afford it! The only ones who boasted like this were the four core alliances! If they couldn't afford the reward in the world, no other force could.

Yunxiao looked enlightened.'So, you have something to ask me. No wonder you have such a good attitude. I was puzzled for a while.' He immediately put on airs and snorted, " "Reward? When we were in the gentle song forest, I helped you deal with the four extremes sect. Where's the promised reward, the nine evils of the heavens water of the netherworld?"

Qing Luo was stunned for a moment. Then, she smiled and said, " Shen Li has told me about this before. However, our agreement was to capture Tang Jie alive. I don't think the city Lord of cloud sky City has fulfilled his promise, right? "

Yunxiao's eyes bulged as he said angrily, " "In order to help you, I have completely broken off my relationship with the four extremes sect. When that time comes, I will have to hide from their pursuit no matter where I go! Even if there was no credit, there should be hard work, right? Even if you don't give me a bucket of the water of the netherworld, you can at least give me one or two bottles!"

One or two bottles of Kasaya

Qing Luo laughed awkwardly. you must be joking, Lord cloud sky City. The water of the netherworld of the nine evils is evolved from the source of all water. Any drop of it is worth an astronomical amount. Not to mention the Empyrean one Pavilion, even the entire merchant Union might not be able to provide one or two bottles. As for breaking off with the four extremes sect, that's even more ridiculous. You killed tang yuan in Mount Meru and that's the end of the relationship."

Yunxiao sneered. my cousin's reward is one or two bottles of the nine evils of the heavens water of the netherworld. If you don't have them, then there's no need to talk about it.

Qing Luo suppressed the anger in her heart and said calmly, " "Cloud sky City Lord, please don't joke around. This is a very important matter, and it will be of great benefit to both my Empyrean one Pavilion and Lord li Huachi. I'll have to trouble you to convey my Empyrean one Pavilion's good intentions."

Yunxiao knew that he could not make a scene anymore. The other party seemed to have reached his bottom line, and it would not be good for anyone if he continued to play and shed all pretense of cordiality. In this demon land, he still had to rely on this big tree.
