

The Eternal 801

Chapter 801-no entry

To Yunxiao's surprise, his exhausted essence, Qi, and spirit were nourished to a certain extent after he held the aegirine, which was a phenomenon caused by the strange force.

His body was pushed away by the waves, and a huge Whirlpool immediately appeared, spinning him around.

After losing control of the six profound level weapons, they instantly turned into six rays of light and rushed into his body. The true fiend Dharma idol also disappeared in an instant, returning to its normal appearance.

"Thunder water blade!"

A fierce killing intent came over, and the vortex was suddenly cut open. Boundless saber beams shuttled back and forth in the water, surrounding Yunxiao and twisting him up.

The Emperor Qi in the blade light was so strong that he couldn't teleport away. In a hurry, he took out the sunset cloud treasure mirror with his right hand and began to make hand seals with his left hand. The sunset cloud treasure mirror suddenly split into two, then four, and more than ten mirrors appeared around him. His body also slowly disappeared under the mirror light.

"Bang Bang Bang Bang!"

Countless blade glints arrived and bombarded the mirrors. A large number of them were reflected back, but the remaining force passed through and wreaked havoc in the mirror array!

"Clang clang!"

Yunxiao's body materialized when he was hit by the saber beam, which was hidden in the void. The demonic sky armor appeared to be several times larger than his body, and he blocked the saber beam. Seemingly affected by the devil essence, the power of the armor was even stronger than before.

“Pfft!”

All the mirrors were shattered by the blade beam, and Yunxiao’s internal organs were damaged by the backlash. He coughed up a mouthful of blood that melted in the water.

“Who are you? He actually broke the Taihua gold talisman locking formation and took the aegirine! Quickly put down your resistance and follow me to see the red moon City Master!”

The figure of moonlight emerged from the water, staring at Yunxiao with bright eyes, trying to get a clear look at the young man.

Of the three brothers of the Gou family, Gou yueguang was the strongest and had the toughest heart. He had always been cultivating underwater as The Guardian of the formation. He also understood how terrifying this formation was. Although his face was cold, his heart was filled with shock.

Yunxiao sneered and threw the divine realm tablet out, which immediately turned into a towering mountain and pressed down on the bottom of the river, stirring up waves.

“This stele is a world of its own. If you want me to go with you, sure. If you have the ability, then go inside and catch me!”

Yunxiao gave a mocking smile, then turned into a beam of light and rushed into the boundary stele.

Gou yueguang’s eyes widened as he exclaimed, “What? Self-created world? Hmph, a self-created world, isn’t that a transcendent grade profound level weapon!” He leaned over in disbelief. His divine sense swept over the divine realm tablet, but it was swallowed up like a sea of water.

“Devouring divine sense? As expected, he had some skills. Although I don’t believe in this so-called self-created world, it seems like that kid really disappeared!”

Gou yueguang’s expression darkened. Suddenly, the sound of water could be heard and two figures landed. It was Gou Xingguang and Gou riguang, both of them with shocked expressions.

“What happened, second brother?” asked Gou Xingguang in shock. Was I seeing things just now? I actually saw Li Yunxiao take off the aegirine!”

Gou Yueguang glanced at him and said, “Since big brother has already seen it, there is no need to doubt your own eyes. Just where did this person come from to be able to break the Taihua Gold Seal lock formation? This is truly heaven-piercing!”

Cold sweat dripped down Gou Xingguang’s back as he hurriedly explained the whole story. Dumbfounded, he asked, “Who could have expected him to have such abilities?”

Gou Yueguang’s face was filled with anger as he reproached, “Big brother’s heart is too impetuous! What’s wrong with cultivating here in peace? Do you have to return to the city to be comfortable? The city Lord had repeatedly warned them that this place was extremely important, and the Tai Hua gold talisman locking array had been set up by many array Masters. How are we going to explain this to the city Lord?”

Gou Xingguang was also quite frightened. He shivered and said, “It’s all my fault for being muddle-headed. I thought it was just a convenient help, but I’m really done for! It’s better for us to escape before anyone finds us. With our abilities, if we insist on hiding, even the red moon City may not be able to find us.”

Gou Yueguang muttered to himself for a moment before saying, “Let’s wait and see. That brat hid inside after throwing out the Jade tablet.” If we can catch him and hand him over to the city Lord, we can make up for it with our contributions.”

Gou Ri Guang sized up the divine realm tablet and said in a strange tone, “Big brother, second brother, you can hide inside this thing? Let’s see if I can split it open!”

Gou Yueguang and the other man didn’t stop him and let him cut the river with a loud shout. The entire River was cut off and flowed against the current into the sky, but it couldn’t shake the divine realm tablet at all!

This time, the three people’s expressions changed drastically. With the power of sunlight hooking, even a ninth tier profound armament would be able to leave a mark on it.

Gou Yueguang's expression darkened as he said, "No matter what's inside the monument, I have to take the risk. This is our only chance to make up for our mistakes, or else we'll have to flee for our lives."

"Alright!" Gou Xingguang gritted his teeth. I don't believe that the three of us can't even take down a teenager!"

The three of them nodded firmly and instantly turned into three rays of light, rushing to the divine realm tablet. The light on the tablet flashed and the three of them disappeared.

"Hahaha!"

Suddenly, Yunxiao's figure flew out of the divine realm tablet with a laugh on his face. "Three idiots. I didn't think it would be so easy to deal with. I'll let them play around in the divine realm tablet for a while. I'll play with them after I get the moon Pearl from the East Sea and leave the red moon City."

He took a deep breath and flew out of the river. When he looked down, he was stunned.

The nihong bridge, the orchard, and the farm below were all destroyed. The ground was also cracked and the river water began to flow in all directions. It was estimated that it would not be long before this place was flooded into a Lake.

Looking at the time, it's already the day of the gathering of the heroes. Let's first find a place to recover our Yuan power before going to the red moon City. If things don't go well, we'll cause trouble again.

He quickly flew into the distance, away from the place where the bridge of rainbows was.

Fortunately, the spiritual energy in Redmoon city was almost the highest in the Eastern Region, no less than that in Yanwu, so it was very fast to recover.

At this moment, in Red Moon City, a large number of young talents had already gathered in front of the wind and moon building. As long as they were qualified to enter, their status would immediately double and their fame would rise.

However, not everyone could enter. Everyone was waiting bitterly, hoping to get a qualification.

“There is a cool breeze for those who enter my building, and for me to drink it, there is only the bright moon.”

Just as everyone was anxiously waiting and discussing in low voices, two white-robed men suddenly appeared in the air. One was gently waving a feather fan, and the other was holding a Jade-like hand. They walked over with light steps. His white clothes fluttered despite the lack of wind, and he had an imposing appearance, giving him the demeanor of an aristocratic family.

One of them laughed and said, “it’s indeed a good poem!” Brother GE’s name is Qing Feng, and it seems that you have a deep connection with this building. I believe you should be able to enter for a while.”

The young man named GE Qingfeng laughed and said, “ we’re here together, so we’ll naturally advance together. I don’t expect to gain anything today, but I just want to meet the heroes of the world and verify what I’ve learned. That’s enough.

The two of them smiled at each other and were about to fly into the wind and Moon Hotel.

“Stop!”

A faint voice was heard and ning hangfeng’s figure gradually appeared. He looked at them emotionlessly and said, “ Minions and dregs are not allowed to enter.”

“What?”

The white-robed young master’s face darkened as he said angrily, we’re both at the peak of the Martial Emperor realm, and we’re only a step away from becoming martial honors. This Lord keeps calling us minions and dregs. He’s looking down on us too much!

Ning hangfeng raised his hand and slapped it out.

A strong gust of wind immediately froze the white-robed man. With a bang, he was shot out like a cannonball, instantly turning into a streak of light and disappearing into the horizon.

Large beads of sweat trickled down GE Qingfeng's face. His lips moved slightly as he sent a voice transmission, "Daren, please make an exception. I am only trying to gain a bit of reputation and increase the sect's attention. As long as you let me in, I'll definitely reward you with 100 million mid-grade origin stones!"

100 million medial-grade primordial stones was already enough for him to sell all his profound level weapons and belongings. However, for the sake of face and honor, GE Qingfeng was willing to risk it.

Without a word, ning hangfeng sent out another palm.

GE Qingfeng was shocked and said, "no, don't, my Lord! 200 million, 200 million! He was so shocked that he didn't even bother to transmit his voice and directly shouted out.

"BOOM!"

As ning hangfeng's palm struck down, a muffled sound came from the space. A black spatial crack immediately appeared and swallowed GE Qingfeng. Then, everything returned to normal as if nothing had happened.

The two people's tragic departure made everyone reveal looks of disdain and ridicule. Many people directly laughed out loud, laughing so hard that they couldn't close their mouths.

Ning hangfeng looked at the people below coldly and shouted, "Back off!" He shouted.

The Martial Emperor's Qi on his body pressed down unceremoniously. The people below immediately scattered like birds and beasts with a whoosh.

After that, a few rays of light flew into the surroundings. There were a total of eight people, all of whom had the cultivation base of a Nine Heavens martial sovereign. They surrounded the bright moon cool breeze brothel and began to cast spells before flying into it.

The two buildings that stood side by side instantly bloomed with nine-colored light, and the bridge in the middle was like a dragon lying in the sky. The rain and the rainbow appeared at the same time, creating a beautiful scene.

“There is a cool breeze for those who enter my building, and for me to drink it, there is only the bright moon.”

In a restaurant not far away, a young man with an extraordinary appearance looked at the two buildings and the strange scenery. He chuckled and said, this poem alone shows the noble and pure spirit of the red moon City. No one can compare to it, just like the bright moon and clear wind of the Eastern Region, leading the group.

Another man walked up. He was dressed in linen clothes, and his face looked as if it had been smeared with lime. His appearance was also quite strange.

He stood shoulder to shoulder with the man and looked at the building. He revealed an ugly smile and said, “What’s wrong? Does brother Laifeng have a problem with the leadership of the Redmoon city and the Eastern Region?”

Chapter 802

802 Blood tea

Beiming Laifeng laughed disdainfully, a look of ridicule in his eyes. He stared at the man in the hemp garment uncomfortably and said, “Brother Hao Miao, do you really like to provoke the relationship between the Crimson Moon City and my Beiming Dark Palace?”

Cheng Haobo was slightly embarrassed as he laughed, “Brother Laifeng, you’re making fun of me.”

Beiming Laifeng looked at the wind and Moon Tower that was slowly rising into the sky with a look of admiration on his face. This wind and moon building is indeed a landmark of Red Moon City. It's hidden with hidden mechanisms and armor techniques. It's a wonder that it can rise with the wind.

There was also a man in the restaurant who was carefully brewing tea. It was ruan zimao. As the boiling water was poured into the tea set, white smoke rose, and the fragrance spread, making people drool.

It's so fragrant. I can feel that it's light and full of vitality just by taking a light sniff. It's worthy of being one of the three most famous teas in the world.

Beiming Laifeng turned around and walked to the table. Ruan zimao chuckled as he lifted the teapot and poured tea into three exquisite purple jade cups. The bright red tea flowed out of the teapot's mouth and into the purple cups, immediately turning into a light green color.

"The color of this blood tea is terrifying when it comes out of the pot, but why is it no different from ordinary tea when it enters the cup?" Cheng Haobo asked in surprise.

Ruan zimao smiled and said, "The color of the blood tea is similar to fresh blood. It's a little difficult to accept visually. It's impossible to achieve the complete color, fragrance, and taste. Therefore, Red Moon City had specially invited alchemy masters from the sea of soul formation to study it, and finally found this purple jade cup. As long as the blood-colored tea was poured into the cup, it would instantly turn light green. Not only would the taste and fragrance disappear, but it would also have the warmth and maintenance of purple jade, which made drinking it more comfortable. Please have a taste."

Beiming Laifeng and Cheng haomiao each raised a purple jade teacup in front of them. After carefully tasting it, they swallowed it in one gulp. Immediately, a strange expression appeared on their faces, as well as a trace of joy.

haha, wonderful, wonderful, wonderful indeed!

Cheng Haoxiang circulated his inner Qi and exhaled, praising, "It actually made the martial Dao barrier that I haven't been able to break through for a long time seem to loosen. Brother zimao, how much does this tea cost per 500 grams? I would like to buy a few hundred grams to eat."

Beiming Laifeng's expression also changed. At their level, it was extremely difficult to advance their cultivation. Even all kinds of natural treasures wouldn't have much of an effect. However, this cup of blood tea was equivalent to several months of hard cultivation.

Cold sweat appeared on ruan zimao's forehead. He said awkwardly, "A few hundred catties of red tea. This blood tea is divided into four grades: extreme, high, middle, and low. They are the differences in quality caused by the blood of cultivators of different grades. The tea that brother heaven's expanse had just drawn out was a high-grade blood tea. It had to be nourished with the blood of a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens realm from beginning to end. It could not be mixed with any other blood in the middle, and it could not be cut off for a day. This kind of high-grade blood tea would not exceed two catties in the entire Red Moon City!"

"I see," beiming Laifeng nodded, "the cultivation conditions are so harsh. I was also surprised. If this blood tea could be mass produced, then Red Moon City would have dominated the world. If blood tea of this level is only high-grade, then what kind of existence is the so-called top-grade?"

Ruan zimao said, "the Supreme-grade blood tea is watered with the blood of a nine-stars Martial Emperor. Such an item has only existed in history. Back then, there was an old city Lord who captured two enemies of nine-stars martial sovereigns alive and kept them alive with medicine. That's how he managed to grow the Supreme-grade blood tea. However, he sacrificed the lives of two nine-stars martial sovereigns and only got three taels of tea leaves. It's said that drinking it is like drinking sweet spring water, and it can directly break through the shackles of the nine Heavens. But it's a waste, hehe."

The two of them were shocked when they heard this. It was really sensational to use the blood of a nine-stars Martial Emperor to nourish tea.

"That low-grade blood tea should be at least a few hundred catties, right? I wonder how effective it is?" Cheng haomiao said disappointedly.

Ruan zimao smiled and said, "there are many types of low-grade blood tea." The blood of a martial venerable in the eight desolates realm was of the middle-grade, while those below the eight desolates realm were of the lower-grade. If it's those one Yuan two parts three talents blood tea, it's quite easy to get a few hundred catties."

"Forget it, forget it."

"I guess they can only be treated as tea," Cheng Haobo shook his head.

After finishing the tea, the three of them circulated their internal energy to absorb the effects of the tea. Only then did they slowly open their eyes.

Beiming Laifeng sighed. I really don't know what the other two famous teas will taste like. It's hard to imagine that there's a tea in the world that can rival this blood tea.

"Brother zimao, you're not planning to have an ulterior motive for treating us with such a precious item, are you?" Cheng haomiao asked in a strange manner.

Ruan zimao sneered and said playfully, "I do indeed have some intentions. I just hope that the two of you will let this little brother off in the arena battle."

"Oh?"

Beiming Laifeng smiled and said, "could it be that brother zimao is also in love with his own cousin?" Or are you also envious of the dowry?"

Ruan zimao gave a bitter smile and said, "Brother Laifeng must be joking. Those dowries aren't anything precious to the three of us. My younger cousin and I have been childhood sweethearts, so I hope that the two of you can fulfill my intentions and will definitely reward you generously."

"Even if the two of us don't use our full strength, do you think brother zimao can defeat all the influential heroes in the world?" Cheng Haobo rolled his eyes and said.

Ruan zimao smiled confidently and said in a clear voice, "The three of us are the heroes of the younger generation. As for the others, I really don't put them in my eyes."

"I'm the head of the four greats of the North, but I don't deserve it," beiming Laifeng said with a smile. I've always wanted to find the two of you to guide me in the path of martial Dao, so how could I give up such a good opportunity? However, since brother zimao has spoken, I have no choice but to do you this favor. As for the compensation, I'm too embarrassed to mention it, so I'll just randomly choose one of the Jiang clan's martial arts manuals from the dowry."

Ruan zimao nodded and said,"this is one of the dowries. As long as I can win, it won't be a problem." What do you think, brother heaven's expanse?"

Cheng haomiao laughed and said,"hehe, originally, the challenge Tournament was just about participation." Although I'm known as the head of the five heroes of the Western Region, I've never thought that I'd be able to dominate the world. After all, brother zimao and brother Laifeng are both stronger than me. I'm not interested in the dowry or the beauty, but this blood tea Kasaya ..."

Ruan zimao smiled bitterly. I didn't expect brother heaven's expanse to be so obsessed with blood tea. Unfortunately, high-grade blood tea is really rare.

"I understand," Cheng Haobo replied. I'm not asking for the blood tea, but since the red moon City has used the Martial Emperor's blood to water the high-grade blood tea, then the Martial Emperor must die. What I want is the Martial Emperor's soul!"

Cheng haomiao's eyes flickered,"Since it's a waste, why don't you let me take it? I only need ten sovereign souls! As long as brother zimao agrees, I'll just go through the motions of this arena tournament."

ten sovereign souls!

Ruan zimao and beiming Laifeng were both shocked. They both knew that the soul Devourer sect's cultivation technique required a large number of souls, and neither of them knew how much help ten Martial Emperor's souls would be to Cheng haomiao. After all, the three of them were competitors, and they did not want to sit back and watch one of them become the dominant party.

Ruan zimao weighed his options and said, " the red moon City can't produce ten Martial Emperor's souls now, but I can promise that I will provide all of them within five years.

Cheng haomiao frowned and said unhappily, "Five years? It'll be too late in five years, and I'll have three years at most. Otherwise, I can only fight to be the son-in-law of the red moon City with my own strength."

Ruan zimao's heart was filled with anger. He wasn't afraid of Cheng haomiao, but he was taking this marriage too seriously. He had to make sure that nothing went wrong. He gritted his teeth and said, "Alright, three years it is!"

"Deal!"

Cheng haomiao was in a good mood and couldn't help but laugh, causing the other two to feel depressed.

Ruan zimao said, "It's getting late. Let's go into the wind and Moon Hotel. Let's meet the heroes of the world!"

Soon, a Dragon carriage drove out of the restaurant. It was pulled by four Martial Emperor realm unicorn horses. It slowly moved in the air and headed toward the wind and moon restaurant.

At this moment, the wind and moon building slowly rose into the sky under the control of these people. It was suspended a thousand meters in the air, straight into the clouds, like a Fairyland.

The martial artists below were all stunned. Even the locals of the red moon City rarely saw such a magnificent scene.

Ning hangfeng's voice was heard, "This gathering of the heroes was set up by the city's young master ruan zimao. The purpose is to meet the heroes of the world, discuss martial arts, appreciate strange things, and resolve doubts. That's why only heroes can participate in the Kasaya, and all minions can get lost."

All sorts of discussions could be heard from below. Someone asked loudly, "May I ask, my Lord, why are you a minion?"

Ning hangfeng said, "those whose cultivation base is not at the level of revered martial artist are just minions." "Also, those that I find unpleasant to the eye are also minions. All revered martial artists can try to enter. As long as you don't get kicked out by me, you can enter."

"What? You can't enter even if you don't like it? W-what kind of rule is this?"

The rank of a martial honor had basically cut off most people's thoughts. There was also a rule that said "if you don't like it, get lost." Immediately, some people began to complain.

Ning hangfeng's lips curled into a cold smile, his eyes as sharp as daggers as he stared at the person who was complaining, and said coldly, "This is Red Moon City, my attitude is the rule, those who are not convinced can get lost. Also, you've already lost your qualification, so get lost!"

"You coward!"

The grumbling man's face was full of anger, and the veins on his fists bulged. He was a five-stars martial Supreme. He would be regarded as a God's favored son anywhere on the continent. However, he was disqualified just because the other party didn't like him. This was too unreasonable!

However, he did not dare to voice his anger. He gritted his teeth and said, "Good, good! Then let's wait for the real joust for a spouse tournament to begin and see who's the real minion!"

For a moment, no one dared to ask any more questions. Instead, the martial emperors who were no longer qualified began to curse. In any case, he had already lost his qualification, and the red moon City could not kill him on the spot.

After judging that the man had failed, ning hangfeng turned a deaf ear to everyone's curses and complaints. He quietly held his hands behind his back and looked up at the sky.

The martial Supremes flew nervously towards the wind and Moon Tower. More than 30 people went in at once, but ning hangfeng did not seem to dislike anyone, so they were relieved.

I recommend a female xianxia novel "the unparalleled immortal" written by the great beauty bei Qing Luo. It's a book about women's cultivation. If you're used to men being dominant, you can change your taste. At the same time, the author is a great beauty and a great talent. Her handwriting is super good. You can ask for an autograph and help me get a Wanwan.

Chapter 803

803 Who's the hero?

"It's better to be safe. It's always good to dress up a little more handsome. After all, appearance is the external manifestation of a person's inner spirit. I have to show my unique aesthetic taste and my martial arts cultivation with endless potential."

Just in case, a young revered martial artist took out a mirror to comb his hair and a makeup box to put on some powder and trim his eyebrows. After he was very satisfied, he flew up into the sky with confidence.

Ning hangfeng looked down and pointed at him, "You can get lost now!"

"W-what?"

"Why?" the young man asked angrily. Give me a reason! I'm so handsome, but they won't let me in. Those ugly people still went in one by one. This is not fair!"

"The reason is that I don't like you," ning hangfeng said indifferently.

The young man was so angry that he roared, "You're just jealous of yingcai. You're jealous of my good looks!"

"Are you going to get lost yourself, or do you want me to send you off?" ning hangfeng frowned.

The aura from his body slightly spread out, and the young man's face suddenly changed. Thinking of the fate of GE Qingfeng and the other man, his face turned green and he left with resentment, not daring to act rashly.

With this young man's experience, everyone lowered their heads and squeezed into the building, afraid that ning hangfeng would take a fancy to them.

Suddenly, four Qilin horse beasts pulled a Dragon carriage and galloped over from the distance. Multicolored light spread out under their feet, and a vast cloud energy gathered around the carriage, making it seem solemn and sacred. The young and talented disciples in front all consciously retreated to the sides and stopped to look.

It wasn't that they wanted to retreat, but the speed of the four linma beasts was too fast. When the four of them combined their strength, they formed an indestructible sharp force in the surroundings. If they didn't retreat, they would definitely collide with them. Those who dared to drive a car here must be the people of the red moon City. No one would collect your body even if you were killed.

However, there were still people who were indignant, and all kinds of complaints rose.

"Everyone is walking, but someone is showing off to drive a carriage. Is this right?"

hehe, he's the young master of Red Moon City, the head of the seven stars of the Eastern Region. What can you do about it? "

"I can't do anything, I just don't like it. If they have the ability, they can hold this great ensemble on their own. Since they have gathered the people of the world, they must respect the people of the world. Is this how they treat guests?"

if they don't like you, they can ask you to get lost. If you don't like them, you have to get lost yourself. This is what it means to be in a situation where you are stronger than the person. Who asked this to be Red Moon City? "

"Since that's the case, I won't come. We'll see who's the real one in the group arena."

The person who spoke was dressed in a dark green robe. He looked fresh and handsome. His hands were behind his back as he spoke. Without any hesitation, he turned around and was about to leave.

The four unicorn horses had already arrived in front of the wind and Moon Hotel and suddenly stopped. The four unicorn horses became motionless like puppets.

Ruan zimao's chuckling voice came from the house. "Young master Qi Qi, please hold on. It was Zi Mao's negligence, please forgive him."

The bead curtain on the Dragon carriage was lifted and ruan zimao and the other two came out one after another, causing everyone to look at them in surprise. They didn't think that the three young masters of the younger generation would be together. Letting everyone see his elegant demeanor, this trip would not be in vain.

What made everyone shocked was that the person who was about to leave was also one of the four prodigies of the North Region, Zhu Shunqi.

Zhu Shunqi's face was calm, he said indifferently: "I didn't neglect you, it's just that this Dragon carriage is too noble. It's beneath us to stand by the side, so I'd better stay away."

Without any visible movements, he retreated a hundred meters away in the air.

"Haha, well said. I, Lu Yuxing's minions, will also accompany brother chenqi and leave."

It was the person who had just spoken to Zhu Shunqi. Everyone was shocked. Lu Yuxing, one of the five heroes of the Western Region, had also appeared a hundred meters away, standing side by side with Zhu Shunqi. A playful smile appeared on his face, with a trace of coldness.

"Both of you are minions, so how can I call myself Yan Jun?"

Another beam of light shot out, and everyone's eyelids twitched. Someone with sharp eyes immediately recognized it and exclaimed, "He Guanyu, one of the seven stars of the Eastern Region!"

With three people taking the lead, they covered the East, West, and North regions. Immediately, many young disciples who had long been dissatisfied flew back and stood far away, as if they wanted to oppose ruan zimao.

In the distance, ning hangfeng did not seem to hear anything. He still stood with his hands behind his back, looking up at the sky with his turbid eyes, as if he was thinking about something.

The four Martial Emperor powerhouses who had activated the wind and moon building's operation also stood in the distance. They were just standing guard in the sky as if they were a symbol. They were not interested in the affairs of these young people.

Ruan zimao's brows furrowed deeply, and his heart was slightly stirred.

His original plan was to come by riding the dragon carriage together with the three of them. By traveling together, he would use his reputation and reputation to create the impression that the younger generation of the three regions would be led by the three of them. He would first become the leader of the three regions by his aura.

He didn't expect that someone from the four finest talents, five heroes, and seven stars would stand up to oppose his prestige. Whether it was intentional or not, this immediately broke ruan zimao's previously envisioned situation of a sovereign descending to the world.

Moreover, more and more martial artists were flying towards Zhu Shunqi and the others. The formation of a group to warm up was formed and it was difficult to suppress. Even two more of the seven stars had joined in.

Although only the younger generation was playing here, and there were no elders participating, and ning hangfeng and the others were just guards, in fact, the whole city's eyes were focused on the wind and Moon Hotel. In the future, at least half of the leaders of the entire heavenly martial arts realm would be among these young people today.

Ruan zimao also felt the pressure. He could feel that the gazes of the red moon City and even the major powers were all focused on him.

“Hehe, brother Kuai Qi, brother Yuxing, you’ve come from far away, come with me to rest in the building. As for brother Guanyu, brother Li Xin, and brother Tian Gan, they were all friends of the Eastern Region. It was rare for them to get together, so they had to drink more blood tea. There are other travelers who are far away. Don’t you want to enter the wind and moon building and enjoy the beautiful scenery of the rainbow Rain?”

Ruan zimao finished speaking with a smile and said very politely, “if there is anything lacking in the entire process, zimao would like to apologize to everyone. I hope that you can forgive me on account of Red Moon City.

His explanation was clear and well-mannered, and his humble attitude made many young disciples feel flattered.

Zhu Shunqi said indifferently, “I really don’t dare to accept brother zimao’s apology.” I also wanted to go in and have a chat, but those four Qilin Dragon salamander were too fierce and imposing, making this little brother’s heart palpitate with fear, not daring to go forward.”

“It’s my negligence,” ruan zimao said with a smile.

He cast a few spells on the Dragon carriage in the air. The four seemingly dull-looking linma beasts seemed to wake up from their deep sleep one by one. The demonic Qi on their bodies spread out, pulling the Dragon carriage and stepping on the colorful clouds to go far.

Ruan zimao made a hand gesture and said, “please!”

This time, everyone had nothing to pick on. At least, they felt much more comfortable than being treated like a human by ning hangfeng.

“Brother zimao, please!”

Zhu Shunqi also made a polite gesture. He walked over from a distance, and when he moved, the rest of the people followed.

Ruan zimao heaved a heavy sigh of relief in his heart, and cold sweat seeped out of his forehead. If this matter was not handled properly and a conflict occurred, he would lose a lot of face. Even if he could use the might of the red moon City to suppress all the dissatisfaction, it would be enough to make people talk and make his reputation fall.

He sneaked a glance at ning hangfeng in the distance and muttered to himself, "could it be that someone in the family arranged this on purpose to test my ability?"

The storm in front of them had been resolved, and everyone was about to enter the building when the distant howls of the linma beast could be heard.

The four galloping linma beasts pulled the Xiang Dragon over again. The colorful clouds spread out under their feet, and their power was even greater than before.

Ruan zimao's heart skipped a beat and he shouted in anger, "Who's there? You dare to ride my carriage!"

"Hehe, it's just a few little donkeys to ride. If it wasn't for the fact that such a shabby thing is the only thing I can find in the entire Red Moon City, do you think I would sit here?"

A disdainful voice came from the Dragon carriage. Then, the bead curtain rolled up, and a white figure with an imposing appearance slowly came into everyone's view.

The man was dressed in a Guangling gown and looked handsome. He was playing with a sword inlaid with jewels in his right hand. The corners of his mouth were slightly raised as he recited a poem.

"Who's the hero? fancy moves, seven judges of the Eastern Region. The Five Ghosts from the West were Xiong feixiong. The remaining four scumbags of the North were too ugly, so plastic surgery was recommended. There are so many outstanding characters, all of them are ghosts and demons, making me laugh at all heroes!"

Everyone's expression changed drastically. His song had scolded all the young heroes in the world-the seven stars of the East region, the five heroes of the West region, and the four prodigies of the North Region. It was equivalent to offending all the heroes in the world at once. Even if the person's strength was not ordinary, his intelligence to open up a map to attract enemies was also worrying!

Ning hangfeng, who was far away, was also attracted by his curiosity. He looked at the man in white, and his pupils suddenly shrank.

"I was wondering who had come," beiming Laifeng laughed coldly."Turns out it's just a troll. Brother zimao, we're holding a banquet to invite friends. The table is full of delicious food, so we have to prevent flies."

Ruan zimao's eyes flashed with a cold light and he said coldly, "Where did this idiot come from? don't spoil everyone's mood. Ziling, it's time to clean up."

Ruan Ziling walked out from the crowd and angrily shouted, " how dare you mock the heroes of the world? since you are young and ignorant, you will kneel in front of the wind and Moon Hotel and wait for the gathering of the heroes to deal with you!

"Pfft!"

The white-robed man covered his mouth and laughed, exuding a charming and elegant girlish air. He then said sarcastically, "A bunch of trash talking about the heroes of the world, they really don't know the immensity of heaven and earth. I'm the young master of baizhan from the southern region. Today, I'm going to meet you self-proclaimed heroes who are frogs in the well. Please remember my name, I'm Li Yi!"

...

Chapter 804-embarrassing

"The southern region?"

Ruan Ziling was stunned for a moment. Not only him, but everyone else was also stunned for a moment.

After a few short breaths, there was an earth-shattering burst of laughter. Everyone laughed so hard that they held their stomachs and bent over, as if they had heard the funniest thing in the world. They laughed so hard that tears came out.

haha, I was wondering why someone would dare to be so arrogant. It turns out that he is a native of the southern mountain range. Haha!

“I really don’t know what to say. How did he get here? Could it be that the southern region also has a region-teleporting formation?”

“I don’t know, but I think there will. However, I don’t think that formation will be used more than a few times in a hundred years.”

“Are there martial artists in the southern mountain range? Aren’t there natives and monkeys there?”

Everyone was laughing so hard that they were staggering. Ruan zimao was both angry and amused. “Everyone, follow me in. All the heroes of the world have gathered here today, so don’t be affected by this clown’s farce.”

He chuckled and turned around, walking towards the breeze and the moon.

Ruan Ziling’s lips curled into a cold smile. He waved his hand and said, “Cleaning up!”

A few young men who looked like young masters flew out in an instant and charged at Li Yi with sinister smiles.

Li Yi placed his sword behind his back and grabbed at the air with his left hand. Like a zipper, a huge black Rift was torn open, as if the sky had opened a ferocious mouth. In an instant, the few young masters were swallowed up and everything returned to normal.

Silence, absolute silence.

It was as if nothing had happened, with only the White clouds floating quietly in the sky. Ruan Ziling looked left and right in shock. The few young masters who had been following him had indeed disappeared. What he had seen just now was not an illusion!

Ruan zimao's body also stopped in an instant. Not only him, but everyone else also revealed a shocked expression.

To tear the sky apart with his bare hands, and to do it so easily, he must be at least a high-level martial honor.

As his aura was always faint, it seemed that he had a cultivation-suppressing artifact on him. No one had noticed it, but when they heard that he was from the southern region, they did not think much about it.

Ruan zimao and the rest turned around and said, "Are you really from the southern region?"

Everyone was also puzzled. In many people's impression, the southern mountain range was full of country bumpkins. Even if there were martial artists, they would only stop at the level of one Yuan, two points, and three talents.

Cheng haomiao was also surprised, "there's an eight desolation realm martial Supreme in the southern region?" Could they be from Yanwu?"

Li Yi's expression changed abruptly, and he felt his blood boil at the mention of Yanwu. He tried his best to suppress his emotions and said coldly, "you're just a frog in a well. All you know is Yanwu.

"Hmph, it's not easy to have a tall one among the shorties, yet you're just looking at the sky from the well."

A man slowly walked out from the crowd and waved a feather fan in his hand. He sneered, "I don't know why, but I really hate the monkeys of the southern mountain range. Even a martial Supreme of the eight desolates realm has a huge difference in strength. Today, I'll let you know that a monkey will always be a monkey!"

“Ximen Jinling, it’s Ximen Jinling’s young master!”

Someone in the crowd exclaimed, “hehe, we don’t need the seven stars to deal with a monkey of the southern mountain range. We’re overestimating the monkey.”

Someone else said, “it’s good to let them see the strength of our Eastern Region. Let them know what the sky and the sea look like.” Even if we are all martial Venerables, there is a chasm between us that is difficult to cross!”

Ruan zimao’s eyes revealed a smile. He cupped his fists and smiled, “I’ll have to trouble brother Jin Ling.”

Ximen Jinlin faintly spat out these two words. This gathering of the heroes was also for the sake of showing off. Just now, Zhu Shunqi and a few others were showing off their talents, but he did not have a chance. He had been depressed for a long time, and now he finally had a chance. He thought to himself, “I’m so f*cking smart to create opportunities for myself!”

Moreover, when he heard the word ‘city of Yanwu’, his heart was filled with gloom, and his eyes were filled with killing intent. Under everyone’s watchful eyes, he walked toward Li Yi. Although it was only a single step, he immediately appeared a hundred meters away, using spatial bending.

kill him! Young master Xi men, you can do it!

Immediately, someone cheered and sneered, “beat up the monkeys of the southern mountain range, break their bones, and water the blood tea!

Ximen Jinlin’s body suddenly moved and appeared in front of Li Yi at an extremely fast speed. He waved the feather fan in his hand and it immediately turned into a blade-like attack. He said in a carefree and calm voice, “gold and white jade buy songs and laugh, the moon is light when drunk.

Most of his martial arts were elegant and graceful, but when he used them, he was as graceful as a swan, carefree and unrestrained, but did not lose infinite power.

Li Yi smiled contemptuously. With his hands behind his back, he took a step forward, and the entire sky suddenly trembled slightly.

Although the space trembled slightly, it made everyone's hearts tremble. It was as if this foot had stepped on everyone's heart, and their entire bodies trembled along with the sky. Immediately, everyone's expressions changed drastically, and they were overwhelmed with shock!

The sky was filled with martial Supremes, yet the other party's light kick could cause a change in the world, causing everyone to sense it!

In the distance, ning hangfeng sighed softly and muttered to himself, he's indeed a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens. He revealed a puzzled expression and muttered to himself, "The southern region can actually produce a martial sovereign? Could it be due to the spirit Qi in Yanwu? Looks like I really have to be careful."

West Gate Jinling was the one who felt the power of Li Yi's step the most. Under the spatial shock, his feather fan and silk scarf were all broken. Moreover, an unparalleled pressure had imprisoned his entire body, making it impossible for him to escape. Moreover, the heroes of the world were staring at him, so how could he escape?

Ximen Jinlin was dumbstruck as he watched Li Yi approach with a sneer. He finally understood the profound meaning of the phrase 'you won't die if you don't seek death'!

He hurriedly sent a secret voice transmission. brother, big brother, Sir, please show mercy. Leave me some face. Whatever conditions you want, just state them!

Li Yi sneered and scoffed, "I'll make you eat sh * t!" He flew into the air and kicked Ximen Jinlin's face, breaking through his defense. Ximen Jinlin's face caved in, and blood came out of his seven orifices. He was sent flying like a kite with a broken string.

Everyone in the sky sucked in a breath of cold air. They were all dumbstruck. Everyone was a martial honor. Although Ximen Jinlin's body was falling, everyone could clearly see the purple shoe print on his face. His facial features were completely gone, and only a deep footprint was left.

“Huala”

The entire sky was in an uproar, and everyone broke out in a cold sweat. The seven Star Children of the Eastern Region represented the seven strongest people in the younger generation of the Eastern Region. Although they might not all live up to their names, the difference was not big. A southern mountain range native had stepped on his face, and his life was unknown!

This intense visual impact was something that everyone could not accept.

Ruan Ziling felt a chill in his heart, and his eyes were wide open. First, Li Yunxiao of the southern region had killed one of the five heroes of the Western Region with a single palm strike, and now, Li Yi of the southern region had killed one of the seven stars of the Eastern Region with a single stomp. He had seen all of this with his own eyes, and it was absolutely true.

He wiped the cold sweat on his face. He couldn't understand this world anymore. What was going on? Weren't the southern mountain range full of country bumpkins?

Aiya, I wanted to step on the red, orange, yellow, green, cyan, blue, and purple Peacock to open its tail, but who knew that the seven Star of the Eastern Region was indeed extraordinary. His face was flattened and his tail was gone, but he couldn't open his tail. I'm embarrassing myself.

Li Yi mumbled with a wide smile, looking as if he had not learned enough and was embarrassed. His gaze swept across the heroes, but it was just a quick glance, and it made everyone feel like they were looking at him. They could not help but take a step back, and thus, the strange scene of hundreds of people retreating in fear appeared.

His gaze finally landed on Ruan Zimao, the head of the Eastern Region's seven stars, the host of this gathering of the heroes. As their gazes met, the four of them formed an invisible aura that spread out in the sky, giving off the feeling that they were evenly matched!

The spiritual pressure from the four of them was like the pressure of an impending storm, making everyone hold their breath and open their pores. They couldn't help but feel extremely nervous.

Everyone felt like they were in a dream. The southern region, which had always been regarded as a Savage Land, actually had such an extraordinary figure. The moment he appeared, he was evenly matched with the leader of the three regions!

Ruan Ziling swallowed with difficulty. Only he knew that there was another Li Yunxiao in the southern region, whose strength was no less than this man's. Fortunately, that Li Yunxiao had been trapped in the Taihua golden talisman locking array and was dead for sure. Otherwise, the southern region would be able to look down on the world with just these two.

Ruan Zimao's expression turned ugly. The gathering had not even started, and he had not even entered the door, but things had already happened one after another. It was too much of a test of his ability.

Moreover, the strength that Li Yi had displayed was not any weaker than the three of them. This was without a doubt a martial sovereign of the nine Heavens. This caused his heart to be filled with vigilance and shock. Beiming Laifeng and Cheng Haomiao's expressions were also grave. To be able to reach the cultivation level of a martial Supreme before the age of 30, he would definitely be a strong opponent for them to compete for hegemony in the world in the future.

It seemed that the world was so big, and there were countless capable people. Their vision was somewhat limited.

Ruan Zimao sighed in his heart and said, "If you have the strength to participate in this gathering of the great heroes, the situation of the three regions might be broken by you. If you want to come in, then come in. Outside the door is not a place for fighting!"

After he finished speaking, he jumped up and flew into the wind and Moon Hotel.

In the current situation, it was no longer possible to intimidate the other party with martial strength. This was a gathering of the younger generation. The strong people of the red moon City would only maintain order. It was absolutely impossible for them to deal with the younger generation in front of the world.

If he lost, not only would he lose face, but it would also affect the face of Red Moon City and the Eastern Region. Even if he won, there would be no benefits, because it was only natural in everyone's eyes.

Therefore, if he were to make a move in this environment, he would gain nothing if he won, and the consequences would be severe if he lost.

After weighing all the pros and cons, ruan zimao could only tolerate Li Yi's arrogance and wait for another opportunity to deal with him.

Chapter 805-enjoying

Beiming Laifeng and Cheng haomiao also glanced at Li Yi warily and entered one after another. The Young Elites of the other three regions also began to enter one after another with serious thoughts.

Li Yi chuckled softly. The feeling of standing at the top of the continent was indescribably wonderful. The status that he had never dared to dream of in the past was now spread under his feet.

The treasured sword in his hand that was embedded with gold and Jade spread out in the air and swept through the air. A wave of pressure rolled over and rippled away with his figure.

The young talents in front of him did not dare to say anything, and no one dared to stop him. They split into two sides, and Li Yi laughed arrogantly as he rushed into the wind and Moon Tower.

The scene inside was completely different from what he had imagined. Not a single ray of light could penetrate through it, making it somewhat dark. Moreover, the narrow space was also quite boring, even worse than an ordinary building.

This scene stunned him for a moment, but there were already hundreds of people gathered inside. They all had stunned expressions on their faces and were cursing in their hearts.

All of a sudden, a ray of light descended from the sky and bloomed like a flower in the air. Seven majestic Thrones appeared in the light and slowly descended with the white light.

Beiming Laifeng's expression changed as if he had thought of something. He said in surprise, "Is this the Galaxia King throne that was made of Galaxia Jade?"

Everyone was shocked. Looking at the seven Thrones, they felt an inexplicable surge in their hearts. The Galaxia Jade was not an exceptionally precious material, but the Galaxia throne in the Redmoon city had a great origin. It was owned by the seven great masters who first established the Redmoon city tens of thousands of years ago.

At that time, the red moon City was not dominated by the three clans, but there were already a total of hundreds of clans. Later, after a long period of evolution, it formed the current situation. The system of seven people controlling the red moon City had continued until 10000 years ago. Later, it was monopolized by one family, which was now one of the three major families, the ning family. They directly abolished the seven-person system and changed it to the city Lord system, which continued to this day.

These seven Galos 'Thrones had become history. He was once the symbol of the highest authority in Red Moon City.

Ruan zimao looked at everyone's shocked expressions and said with a smile, "A gathering of heroes, discussing Dao with martial arts. Wondrous things were appreciated together, and doubts were mixed together. However, it also depends on who is more important. The person who can sit on these seven King seats will be the master of today's martial arts discussion. It has endless benefits."

The seven Galaxia Thrones slowly descended and sat in a semi-arc in front of the main seat. There were all kinds of exotic flowers, rare plants, rare birds, and fierce beasts carved on them. They were like seven solemn martial artists standing there, narrating the glory of the red moon City. No matter how long it had been, it had never fallen.

A sense of respect rose in everyone's hearts. Someone couldn't help but shout, "What's the point?"

Ruan zimao smiled and said, " first of all, the seven of you can drink the high-grade blood tea of our Red Moon City. There's no need to talk about the benefits. Secondly, these seven Galos Thrones are the most precious treasures of our Redmoon city. For tens of thousands of years, in order to strengthen the strength of the red moon City, all the king level Masters would imprint their strongest martial arts in their life before they died, waiting for the fated person. Each of these Thrones are imprinted with over a hundred peerless martial arts."

"What?"

Everyone's expression changed drastically. There were many top cultivation techniques in the world that couldn't be recorded in ordinary Jade slips and had to be stored in extremely special materials, and this jialuo Jade was indeed a good material to store and determine the cultivation technique.

Cheng haomiao couldn't help but say,"brother zimao, aren't you exaggerating?" Each throne contained hundreds of unique skills, so wouldn't there be more than a thousand here? With such a rare item, it wouldn't be an exaggeration to say that it's the number one treasure in the world."

"Hehe."

Ruan zimao laughed helplessly and sighed, " "It should have been like this. Moreover, the owners of the thrones in the past generations had also devoted themselves to comprehending all kinds of key cultivation techniques. This is because not only do they contain the key cultivation techniques, but they also contain the comprehension of the martial Dao of the past rulers of Red Moon City. Unfortunately, hehe "

He said regretfully, " as more and more information was imprinted on the seven Thrones, it eventually caused the records to wear out and become chaotic. By the time it was discovered, it had already become a mess. It was full of useless and jumbled information, which caused many experts to go crazy in their comprehension. After it was finally confirmed that the seven Thrones were completely destroyed, they were sealed up by the city Lord of that generation with a Supreme technique. From now on, it will only be a symbol."

Cheng Haobo was stunned for a moment before sighing,"So that's how it is, what a pity!"

Everyone felt a wave of regret. Such a treasure was actually destroyed like this, and they all felt an unspeakable heartache. The martial arts and martial Dao comprehensions of the past generations of people in charge of the red moon City, how rich was that?

Ruan zimao laughed, " but after the city Lord sealed the seven Thrones, he couldn't help but imprint his most proud ultimate technique into them. He used a secret technique to write it on the seal. However, for so many years, some city Lords had tried to comprehend it, but they could only comprehend the martial Dao intent of that city Lord, and could not find any trace of martial techniques. Perhaps, the seven people who sit here today will have such a great opportunity."

Beiming Laifeng couldn't help but burst into laughter. haha! Brother zimao, you've painted a big picture. None of the previous city Lords have been able to figure it out. The chances of this happening are already zero. However, being able to drink high-grade blood tea is enough. It's also a great honor to be able to experience the martial intent of a peerless master. I wonder what conditions must be met to be able to sit?"

"Simple!"

Ruan zimao spat out these two words, his gaze sweeping across everyone, and he laughed, " "Whoever sits first will sit!"

After he finished speaking, he flew out. Before the crowd could react, he had already taken a few steps and sat down on the first throne.

"Haha, interesting!"

A few loud laughs could be heard as figures flashed. Everyone was unwilling to fall behind and flew up. In an instant, thousands of troops and horses crossed the single-plank bridge and surged towards the upper seats.

All of a sudden, everyone's body froze. A few powerful forces appeared in the air, immediately freezing everyone's figure.

Beiming Laifeng's body emitted a slight chill as he floated in the air. Just his aura alone was enough to make everyone shiver. With a smile on his face, he walked step by step towards the throne. The others opened their eyes to look, but they didn't dare to snatch it from him.

Li Yi's gaze focused, and his eyes glinted coldly as his face turned cold. The cultivation technique he used to cultivate came from Beiming Dark Palace, and Li Eight had even given him the complete profound ice essentials. Now, he could be considered as a true disciple of Beiming Dark Palace, but he had only cultivated the profound ice essentials for a short time, so he was not as proficient as Beiming Laifeng.

"That's right, the capable will occupy it!"

Cheng Hao Miao nodded. Under the pressure of Beiming Lai Feng's aura, he didn't dare to be careless. A layer of faint yellow Qi surrounded his body as he stared at the cold aura.

Around the seven Thrones, there seemed to be a formation restriction on the Jade Galos. At the same time, they shone with a faint light, connecting together to isolate the cold air. Ruan Zimao sat quietly in it, looking at the crowd with a smile.

brother Laifeng, it seems like you've been a martial Supreme for a long time.

Zhu Shunqi said. His tone was filled with envy and fear. He did not move, but his body was like a breeze, slowly moving forward in the air, his expression as calm as water.

Beiming Laifeng said, "brother Xuanji's martial Dao has always been one that strikes after the opponent strikes. You've already suffocated me as soon as you've become a martial Supreme. Now, heroes and geniuses are rising from all over the world. If you're ranked among the four prodigies of the North again, I'm afraid it'll be difficult for me to even make it.

"Hmph, cheap people are just pretentious!"

Cheng Hao Cheng cursed and stepped into the throne. The three of them arrived at almost the same time and sat down together. They picked up the blood tea and drank it. Although their movements were elegant, they seemed to be eager. It was clear that the effect of the blood tea was strong, making people drool.

Four of the seven spots were already filled. Most of the young people sighed in their hearts, knowing that they had absolutely no hope. The remaining three spots weren't even enough for the four finest, five heroes, and seven stars. There was also a mysterious monkey from the southern mountain range who was terrifyingly powerful.

After the three of them sat down, the emperor's Qi pressure from darknorth Laifeng also dissipated.

Several rays of light immediately rushed out from the crowd and shot towards the last three positions. There were exactly six people. They attacked in pairs and actually started fighting in front of the throne.

In the blink of an eye, dozens of moves had passed, causing the originally dark space to become colorful.

"Hmph!"

Li Yi snorted coldly. He swept his gaze around and locked onto the two weakest people. The sword in his hand swept across the air and a blast of air slammed down, separating the two people's battle.

"Get lost, minion!"

Li Yi shouted and instantly split his sword into two, creating a diversion. He directly broke through the two's Qi-Jin defense and sent them flying.

His actions immediately attracted the attention of the four people on the throne, especially beiming Laifeng. His brows furrowed, as if he had sensed something.

"A sword strike is as easy as flipping one's palm,"

Li Yi sneered and scanned the crowd. He said coldly, "Who wants to compete with me for a seat?"

Everyone was shocked, and no one dared to step forward. The two injured powerhouses' faces also turned green. They knew that there was a huge disparity in strength between them. Although they were unwilling, they didn't dare to say anything.

"Thanks!"

Just as Li Yi was feeling extremely pleased with himself, two faint words suddenly rang out. A figure could be seen shifting in the air, and under the surprised gazes of the crowd, it bypassed Li Yi and sat on the throne.

The sudden appearance of this person shocked everyone.

Li Yi's body trembled when he heard that familiar voice. When he saw that figure again, a rush of hot blood rushed into his mind. He could not help but feel the urge to pull out his sword. The blood in his body instantly boiled, and his eyes were filled with rage.

A sonorous poem was recited from that person's mouth. It was indescribably free and comfortable, as if many things that had happened since ancient times were all spoken in a joking manner.

"Yi Shui Xiaoxiao, full of clothes. He was used to buying wine with a thousand gold. The human world pass was waning. Eternal happiness in the cup. In the wind and Moon Temple. If you win, you must be happy. If you lose, you must be happy."

As the poem was recited, the person sat on the throne without anyone noticing.

He raised his cup and drank the tea in one gulp. With a smile in his eyes, he praised, "Good tea! It's still the same recipe and the same familiar taste."

Chapter 806-the joy of life

Yunxiao's sudden appearance stunned everyone for a long time.

Such a solemn and sacred throne was actually sat on by such an inexplicable person, and it seemed that he was just relying on his unique movement technique and opportunism. All of a sudden, everyone was depressed and lamented that they had wasted a great opportunity. How good would it be if they could grasp it?

In the blink of an eye, Li Yi went berserk. His body could not help but tremble. He was filled with new and old grudges and anger. The sword in his hand also trembled violently when it sensed his killing intent.

Suddenly, a secret voice entered his ears, causing an extremely struggling expression to appear on his face. He finally suppressed the grief and indignation, but his eyes were still bloodshot as he stared at Yunxiao.

After Yunxiao drank the tea in the cup, his eyes lit up. A wisp of red light came from above, as if washing his body. His skin turned ruddy, and a beam of light rushed out of his body. He had advanced directly.

“You coward, pfft!”

Li Yi watched helplessly as he leveled up. He was stunned for a moment before he spat out a mouthful of blood in anger.

The power of the five-star martial Supreme was instantly raised to six stars. Everyone present could feel it. They were jealous of this person’s good life and his opportunism. At the same time, they were full of fantasies about the effects of the high-grade blood tea.

“Ah? It’s you, li Yunxiao?”

A person in the crowd cried out in alarm. His tone was as if he had seen a ghost, filled with extreme fear and panic.

“You, you, why did you come out?”

The man felt a chill run down his spine, and his body trembled in his brocade robe, his face ashen.

Yunxiao ignored the man. Instead, he raised his glass to Li Yi and said with a smile, "thank you for opening the way for me, my friend. I didn't expect to have a feast with you after drinking in the palace of Tianshui. It's a pleasure to meet an old friend in a foreign land.

The Imperial Palace of Tianshui?

Everyone was confused. They had never heard of this place before. They frowned. This monkey was so familiar with the southern mountain range. Could it be another monkey?

Li Yi was furious again. The palace of Tianshui was the turning point of his life, and now that it was mentioned, his face turned livid with anger. He wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, gritted his teeth, and said in a cold voice, "Old and new grudges, let's fight to the death in the arena!"

Yunxiao sipped his tea with a smile and asked in surprise, "Could it be that a good friend also wants to marry a beauty? Didn't you say that you don't love hongzhuang and only love lanyan?"

"Pfft!"

Li Yi's mind went blank, and a boundless sense of humiliation and hatred immediately surged up. His body's Supreme aura exploded, and the purple band that bound his hair instantly burst open. His hair was all straightened and scattered behind him, as if he was possessed. His eyes were blood-red as he roared, "Wow! I'll kill you! I'm going to kill you!"

Outside the wind and moon building, ning hangfeng was also looking into the building quietly at Yunxiao. The originally dull and boring matter had stirred up his interest with the arrival of this young man. Suddenly, he frowned and looked up into the void not far away.

"Aiya, what should we do if the military governor finds out?"

wait! Lil eight suddenly called out and waved at ning hangfeng, smiling and welcoming him.

The tyrannical sky Tiger smiled bitterly, "if ning hangfeng didn't notice this kind of long-distance casting and such a strong elemental energy fluctuation, how could he be qualified to be the commander of the Imperial Guards of the Redmoon city?" But don't worry, as long as we don't attack the younger generation, ning hangfeng won't care. God knows how many old monsters are watching this great ensemble."

"Yes, yes."

As little Myna responded, he turned to the person who was casting the spell beside him and said, "Sister Li, can't you be more subtle? We're world-famous assassins. It's a disgrace to be with you and expose our position."

if I didn't use a powerful mind-calming spell to directly shock Li Yi's mind, I'm afraid he would have already exploded and wanted to kill li Yunxiao," Li said with an indifferent expression. you should know the consequences.

"Aiya, then I have no choice. This kid is no match for that kid."

No. 8 shook his head helplessly.

The tyrannical sky Tiger's expression turned serious as it said in a deep voice, "That li Yunxiao is by no means an ordinary person. In my opinion, he should be eliminated as soon as possible. I'm just afraid that chief will play with fire This Time. If we let this person grow up, he'll be too terrifying. He's not even twenty years old yet!"

"Smart children tend to become stupid when they grow up," said No. 8 with a smile. This kid is still far from being a threat to the chief. With such arrogance, it's a question whether he can grow up."

The tyrannical sky Tiger sighed inwardly. Although Lil eight's strength was extraordinary, his vision was still a little inferior to his. When this matter was over, he had to personally speak to the chief about eliminating Yunxiao, and from then on, he would retire from the spirit mountains and great rivers, cultivate in peace, and spend the rest of his life there.

A cold glint shot out of Li's eyes. He wanted to say something but stopped himself. In the end, his expression returned to calmness.

No one knew Yunxiao's horror better than the few demons. Since these assassins wanted to kill him, she was naturally happy to see it, but she did not have any illusions about the result. She could not be bothered to listen to the two's chit-chat anymore. Instead, she focused all her attention on casting a calming spell so that Li Yi, who was far away, would not go berserk.

In the wind and moon Pavilion, ruan zimao, who was sitting on the throne, was surprised by Li Yi's madness, but what was even more surprising was that the person who was trembling in fear after Yunxiao appeared was his younger brother. "Ziling, you know this person?"

The one who was trembling with fear was none other than ruan Ziling. Yunxiao had actually appeared here, but he had not received any news from Gou Xingguang, so the result was obvious. However, he could not figure out how he had failed. Putting aside the fact that Gou Xingguang and the other two were martial Supreme powerhouses, the Taihua gold talisman sealing formation was one of the best killing formations in the world. How could he have escaped?

Ruan Ziling calmed himself down a little and said, " Big brother, this man is li Yunxiao, the city Lord of Yanwu in the southern region. He killed brother Cheng Yong in a restaurant earlier!

Now that things had come to this, it was useless for him to be afraid. This was the red moon City. No matter how big the matter was, he would at most be punished by his elders. What he needed to do now was to make up for the situation. Moreover, the situation at the bridge of rainbows might not be as bad as he had imagined. Perhaps this kid had used some secret technique to escape.

"What?"

As soon as he said this, everyone was shocked. He actually killed Cheng Yong, one of the five heroes of the Western Region?

This person was indeed from the southern mountain range!

Everyone's faces became extremely shocked. When did the southern mountain range become so powerful? Two random juniors appeared. One killed one of the five heroes and the other killed one of the seven stars. Was this a completely heaven-defying rhythm?

"You killed Cheng Yong?"

Cheng haomiao's face sank and his eyes became cold as he asked.

Yunxiao smiled faintly as he picked up the teapot in front of him and drank from it. "There are too many fools in the world, and I have to kill a few every day. I really don't remember who this Cheng Yong You mentioned is, and what does he look like? Give me some hints and see if I can remember."

"Haha, how arrogant, how bold!"

Cheng Haobo licked his lips and laughed evilly, I can feel that your soul is surging. I like it very much, hehe ~" but I'm not interested in you, " Yunxiao said. you're a young man with a bright future. Don't follow in the footsteps of those jokers.

His words stunned everyone and made them feel extremely strange. Cheng haomiao was obviously older than him.

"Haha, haha!"

Cheng haomiao burst into laughter. His voice was so penetrating that it echoed in everyone's hearts. However, he did not smile when he laughed. Instead, his face grew colder and colder as he laughed, and the killing intent in his eyes sentenced Yunxiao to death.

Yunxiao sighed in his heart. People always had to grow up in self-righteousness and gradually become humble.

Li Yi, who had been growling and struggling at the side, finally calmed down with Li's help. He was drenched in sweat and panting.

He moved his eyes away from Yunxiao and looked at the fight in the distance, lest he suffer.

At this moment, a person had won in the distance. It was one of the five heroes, Lu Yuxing. He directly sat on the throne, and with great joy, he picked up the tea and drank it in one gulp.

One of the seven seats was left, and the remaining two were in a fierce battle. Li Yi swept his gaze over them, snorted coldly, and headed for the last seat.

Everyone was shocked, thinking that the two men were in trouble. Their eyes shifted from Yunxiao to Li Yi.

As expected, the two people who were in the middle of the battle immediately became alert. They both stopped and blocked Li Yi's path in front of the throne. They were two of the seven stars of the Eastern Region, she Guanyu and Wang Lixin.

The previous example of Li Yi trampling West Gate Jinling to death had left the two of them extremely fearful. Although West Gate Jinling was ranked last among the seven-stars, it was not a piece of trash that could be easily trampled to death. Moreover, Li Yi's killing intent was so intense that it was almost frozen, forcing them to turn pale.

Li Yi's expression was cold. so, it's from the eggs of the eastern seven apertures. Are you going to move aside on your own or will you move aside after the peacock spreads its tail? " he said coldly.

His voice was emotionless, causing the two of them to shiver. However, they could feel the surging killing intent hidden beneath the cold voice, which was about to erupt at any moment.

She Guanyu's face was cold as he gritted his teeth, " "To be able to experience the skills of the southern region's powerhouses, this trip has not been in vain!"

“Then I’ll have to see for myself,” Li Yi said without hesitation.

With a clatter, the exquisitely decorated sword was finally pulled out and slashed down. A bone-chilling cold immediately filled the entire building, and everyone could not help but shiver.

Beiming Laifeng’s expression changed drastically, and his pupils constricted.

“Cloud piercing sword! A sword that shakes the heavens!”

He slashed out twice in an instant. The sword Qi that was like an ocean wave immediately locked onto she Guanyu and the other person, slashing down with an aura that could split everything.

Before the sword Qi arrived, the cold air had already broken into their bodies, freezing their meridians and blood. They had almost lost the power to resist.

Their eyes were filled with horror. Only now did they realize how wrong they were. The difference in strength between them was like the difference between heaven and earth. They were not qualified to fight at all. However, it was too late. He could only watch helplessly as the two fatal swords slashed down.

Chapter 807

807 The moon’s scale

Li Yi’s frosty sword aura suddenly froze in mid-air, and an invisible force actually suppressed his sword gleam!

Ruan zimao had appeared in front of she Guanyu and Wang Lixin. His eyes were cold and he said softly, “This is a grand event, and no bloodshed is allowed,”

Li Yi's eyes were filled with killing intent as he stared at ruan zimao for a moment. He then put away his sword in shock and returned to his normal state of mind, " "Then I'll give you some face and spare these two cowards. If I meet them in the arena, they better surrender."

She Guanyu and Wang Lixin trembled in anger, but what could they do when they were not as good as the other? If he didn't know what was good for him and rushed forward in a moment of impulse, he could only court death. Ruan zimao might not save him a second time.

Ruan zimao glared at Li Yi coldly before turning to the two of them, " "Winning and losing is a very normal thing, the two of you don't need to take it to heart."

The two of them looked at ruan zimao gratefully. After thanking him, they didn't say anything more and retreated into the crowd.

The corner of ruan zimao's lips curled up imperceptibly. Although he could not stand Li Yi's arrogance, he had picked up a ready-made bargain. He had done these two a favor, and the seven Star son of the Eastern Region would undoubtedly be a future powerhouse of the Eastern Region. This favor was not small.

All of a sudden, a furious roar resounded through the air. It was Li Yi's frenzied voice. Ruan zimao was shocked for a moment and felt that something was amiss. He quickly turned his head to look.

Li Yi was trembling with anger as he pointed a finger at Yunxiao and roared, " "You! You shameless animal! You actually drank my blood tea!"

Ruan zimao was stunned for a moment. He looked at the table and saw that the two teacups in front of Yunxiao had finished the first few dishes. The tea leaves were swollen and the color had turned into an ordinary color.

Embarrassed, Yunxiao sent the teacup in front of him to Li Yi with his elemental energy and said with an embarrassed smile, " "This thing is too good to drink. It can relax the tendons and bones, remold the hair and wash the marrow. After drinking it, even the vital Qi has a steady increase. I saw another cup on the table and couldn't help but drink it. It's just a cup of tea, it's nothing to the red moon City."

Li Yi's face turned green, and with a single palm strike, the teacup was instantly reduced to dust. He then turned his head to look at Ruan Zimao.

Ruan Zimao was secretly amused, but he was also very surprised. This person was extremely powerful and extremely arrogant. Why was he so afraid of a six-stars martial Supreme? he didn't even dare to make a move after being bullied time and time again.

He was not the only one. Everyone present was extremely puzzled.

However, the title of the city Lord of Yanwu was enough to attract the attention of the world. Besides, with the sudden appearance of these two freaks in the southern region, was it a sign of their rise?

In fact, the so-called major forces on the continent were essentially the major spirit veins, and where the spirit veins gathered was where talents gathered. Now, Yanwu had greatly fulfilled this condition and had become a popular city in the eyes of the world.

Ruan Zimao coughed and said, " this high-grade blood tea is an extraordinary item. The Redmoon city really can't take out any more. I'll get someone to change it to a medium-grade tea for this young master Li Yi.

Li Yi was lightheaded from anger. He knew that the difference between middle-grade and high-grade was like the difference between cloud and mud. Putting everything else aside, mid-grade blood tea could be bought from all the major Chambers of Commerce, but this high-grade was not even on sale. It could only be seen in some super auctions.

If it were not for Li's incantation of calmness that had been lingering in his mind, he would have burst into a rage on the spot and fought Yunxiao to the death.

His current strength and status were all thanks to the leader of the demon race and the death god Palace. Both sides had forbidden him from having a conflict with Yunxiao at this moment, so he did not dare to disobey.

Soon, a servant brewed a cup of medium-grade blood tea and brought it over.

drink it, drink it! Yunxiao smiled apologetically. calm down. You'll get heaty easily, so drink more tea."

Everyone looked at Li Yi's twisted face and could not help but laugh in their hearts. Their expressions relaxed and they felt indescribable comfort.

Li Yi stared at the cup of intermediate-grade tea and snorted in anger. He slammed his palm down again, and the cup and tea were turned into nothingness.

Ruan zimao laughed coldly in his heart, but he pretended not to see it. "The seven seats of honor are all gathered here. However, the world is vast and there are endless geniuses. Some of the people in these seven seats have surprised me."

Everyone fell silent. Out of the seven territories, the southern region actually occupied two. This was simply unbelievable. Could it be that everything they had heard about the southern region was wrong? It was hard to imagine that a place that was rumored to not even have a martial honor could cultivate such a young martial Supreme and martial honor.

Their perception of the southern region would probably change from now on, and even the southern region would begin to enter the eyes of the major forces.

There was only one person from the Eastern Region among the seven, and he was the local master. The Eastern Region also occupied the home ground advantage, but no guest took a seat, which made the young people of the Eastern Region feel ashamed.

well, life is always so unexpected," Yunxiao said with a smile. it's just like that.

Ruan zimao looked at him with deep meaning before saying, " although this Qingming bright moon Hotel is a building, it's actually an extremely ingenious profound level weapon.

With a thought, he made a hand seal with one hand.

The entire dark and narrow building suddenly began to change. The surrounding scenery kept on spinning, like a flower bud gradually opening. Rays of sunlight shone in from the outside, like vines winding around the building. The sky scenery appeared one by one.

The entire wind and Moon Hotel was originally designed as a pair of twins, floating in the sky. At this moment, with the dragon-like bridge in the middle as the center, the buildings began to break down and assemble, gradually forming a garden in the sky. Hundreds of flowers bloomed in the surroundings, and there were also mountain rocks and trees that were created by God's work. They grew one by one, looking beautiful.

A ray of sunset glow rose from the horizon, crossing the boundless sky and landing on the garden.

A bright moon began to slowly rise into the sky, illuminating the garden in the sky. The entire world seemed to become a scene of its own, forcibly embedded in the red moon City.

Everyone was shocked speechless by the beautiful scene in front of them. They could only look at the garden floating in the clouds with the bright moon hanging high in the sky. There was even the sound of a mountain spring flowing in the garden. Tens of thousands of meters away from the garden in the sky, there was a clear sky.

"This is an ..."

"Before I came here, I heard from the elders of my family that the wind and moon building is a wonder of the world, but isn't this a little too shocking?" Beiming Laiyun said with a wry smile. "Can this thing really be made by human hands?"

Ruan Zimao also sighed. Although the wind and moon building is not very useful, it is more precious than a ninth-tier Mystic weapon. Only those extremely bored alchemists would have the time to do so.

Everyone was deeply moved. Cultivators were all extremely pragmatic existences. With the cultivation method to refine such a wondrous scene, how many ninth-tier profound armaments could they refine?

you've enjoyed the fruits of others' labor, and now you're calling them boring?" Yunxiao glared at them. since you all think it's not worth it," he said, pointing his middle finger at them, "then we'll move down and find a small Tavern to make do with it.

brother Yunxiao, you seem to be very protective of alchemists," beiming Laifeng said with a smile. are you also an Alchemist?"

Yunxiao gave him a look and said indifferently, "Don't call me your brother. I don't have a good impression of the people from beiming Dark Palace. As for the Dao of sorcery, I've learned a little."

Everyone was stunned. Their eyes were all focused on him, feeling very puzzled. Even if there was enmity between them, there was no need to say it so directly. It was necessary to be friendly on the surface. Could it be that the people of the southern mountain range had improved in strength, but their intelligence had not caught up?

Beiming Laifeng was also stunned for a moment, but then he sneered, "May I know what kind of grudge beiming Dark Palace has with your city Lord? I don't think they've ever come into contact with each other before?"

not yet, but there will be in the future," Yunxiao said. so, let's not get too close.

Everyone was speechless. Wasn't this clearly a deliberate attempt to attract hatred? Moreover, his target was beiming Dark Palace, one of the seven superpowers. He had also offended Cheng haomiao of the soul Devourer race earlier. It seemed like he was seeking his own death.

Beiming Laifeng was also at a loss for words. There was actually such a person? his mind went blank for a moment, and he didn't know how to deal with this.

"Haha, you have character!"

"I wonder if your strength is as strong as your temper. The blood in my body is starting to burn. I really want to see how strong your soul is now." Cheng haomin laughed hideously.

He even licked his lips after he finished speaking, making people shudder.

Ruan zimao's brows were also tightly furrowed. The appearance of these two people from the southern mountain range was a big surprise to him. Originally, he had full confidence in the group arena and everything was under his control. Now, the only slip-up was these two people in front of him.

Zhu Shunqi raised his head and looked at the sky, full of suspicion, "Brother zimao, isn't this bright moon fake? But why is it still able to emit such a powerful moonlight force, no different from a real moon?"

When he asked this, everyone also felt that it was strange.

Ruan zimao gathered his thoughts and smiled. although this moon is man-made, it's a moon GUI with precise calculations. It absorbs the power of the moon through the formation in this garden. The exquisiteness of this is indeed unbelievable. One of the most important uses of this moon GUI is to calculate the Crimson Moon.

"Calculating the Crimson Moon?"

Everyone was confused, and a few people looked surprised and dazed. Yunxiao's pupils constricted as if he had thought of something. He raised his head and looked at the bright moon, his eyes filled with deep thought.

Ruan zimao said, "this is the origin of the name" Red Moon City."" Although the bright moon in the sky is of a normal color all year round, at a certain time, the heavenly martial continent can only see a blood-red moon when looking up at the sky from the red moon City. This is the origin of the name of the red moon City."

"The Crimson Moon is like blood? How could there be such a strange thing?"

Lu Yuxing was shocked. there's only one bright moon, but there's always a moon that changes color. I've never heard of a moon that can change color. It should be the same no matter which part of the continent you look at.

Ruan zimao chuckled. that's true, brother Yuxing. However, there's an exception at a certain time. That time is the opening of the celestial realm of the Eastern Region-the end of time!

Chapter 808-sharing wondrous items

Everyone was shocked. Except for a few people who knew the truth, everyone's expression changed.

Ruan zimao continued,"the four great celestial realms of the realm of heavenly martial arts have various restrictions." The Eastern Region's time of appearance was unpredictable, the southern region's Mount Meru was limited by age and could not be broken through, the Western Region's misty cloud ancient shine was hard to predict, and the northern region's Langya heaven had to have top cultivation. And these four great celestial realms are all extremely rare and great opportunities, enough to change a martial artist's life."

Zhu Shunqi nodded. I understand now. The wind and Moon hotel's main purpose is not to indulge in the culture of drinking wine and enjoying the flowers. It is to accurately predict when the immortal land will descend.

"Not bad!"

Ruan zimao laughed,"once the wind and Moon Tower leaves the red moon City, it'll just be an exquisite building profound level weapon." But only in Red Moon City, it was a Supreme treasure. The age of Earth and the end of heaven did not descend suddenly. There were still many signs before it opened, but they were all extremely unpredictable. Only when the strange phenomenon appeared and the bright moon was dyed red could they be confirmed. However, it was already too late. However, this sundial can gather the abnormal power before it opens and turn it into a Red Moon."

"It's truly the work of the gods, how long can it give us an early warning?" Zhu Shunqi praised.

"A month," ruan zimao replied.

Everyone was shocked. They didn't expect the lunar GUI to be so powerful. With a month's preparation time, everything could be arranged properly. For the people of the Eastern Region, they wouldn't miss any opening time.

"Each of the four great celestial realms has its own opportunities," ruan zimao said.

He turned his eyes to Yunxiao and said with a smile, "affected by the lack of spiritual energy in the southern region, Mount Meru is one of the least significant Mystic realms. Now that it has collapsed, it has created Yanwu, and I think it won't be long before Yanwu rises again. The most influential event in the Eastern Region in the last hundred years was the creation of the Army-breaking Gu Feiyang!"

Everyone was shocked and their expressions changed. They didn't know the reason, so they pricked up their ears to understand the secret. Everyone knew that when Gu Feiyang wreaked havoc in Hongyue city and dyed the city Red with blood, the ruan family suffered the most.

"Why do you say that, brother zimao?" beiming Laifeng asked in shock.

Ruan zimao's face was also covered in a layer of frost. He said expressionlessly, "everyone knows that Gu Feiyang's eye sorcery is unparalleled, but they don't know that his Crimson Moon eyes are from the immortal land of the Eastern Region!"

"What?"

Everyone was greatly shocked. Beiming Laifeng also said in a serious tone, "I didn't expect there to be such a secret. But fortunately, this person has already passed away and become a speck of dust in history."

Ruan zimao replied coldly, "Hmph, he's really getting off easy!" Gu Feiyang had made too many enemies. Even if he did not die in the tiandang mountains, he would be killed sooner or later! It's a pity that I can't kill this enemy with my own hands and avenge the humiliation of our ancestors!"

Everyone fell silent, and Li Yi suddenly laughed in a strange manner. "Haha, what were you all doing before he died? Aren't you embarrassed to come out and brag after your death?"

Everyone was shocked, but this was the reverse scale of the ruan family of Red Moon City. Although they also thought so in their hearts, no one dared to say it out loud, and cold sweat dripped from their foreheads.

Yunxiao gave Li Yi a surprised look and thought to himself, 'if he knows that I'm Gu Feiyang, will he be so angry that he'll slap me a few times?'

"You coward!"

Ruan zimao flew into a rage, and the aura around his body surged, pressing down on Li Yi. He said coldly, "Country bumpkin! I've been patient with you, but don't think that my patience is infinite. You can be a King in the southern region, but this is the red moon City. Take it easy. If you provoke me again, I'll kill you first!"

Ruan zimao's one death sentence immediately caused the atmosphere to freeze.

Li Yi came from the southern region and was not aware of The Grudge between Gu Feiyang and Redmoon city. Hence, he had taunted them, but he did not expect to receive such a strong reaction. Instead, he was stunned.

The atmosphere became tense all of a sudden. The two of them looked at each other coldly, not backing down. Li Yi also knew that he had violated the other party's taboo, but he refused to back down in his imposing manner.

Suddenly, the melodious voice of a yellow oriole was heard. It chuckled and said, "Such a beautiful scene, why do we need a battle to resolve our worries?"

A ray of light descended from the sky and revealed itself in front of everyone. The beautiful woman in the lead wore a light veil over her face and had a graceful figure. She smiled and said, "Young master zimao, I'm sorry I'm late."

Yunxiao was taken aback. The woman in front of him was the ninth aunt, the head of the Mei family, but the two maidservants behind her were not Mei Dong'er.

Ruan zimao retracted his aura and glared at Li Yi coldly. "For the sake of ninth aunt, I'll let you off this time. If you're not convinced, you're welcome to fight me after the gathering!"

"Hmph, let's fight, who's afraid of who!"

Li Yi coldly snorted in response and returned to his throne, looking as if he was unconvinced.

Aunt Jiu also saw Yunxiao. She bowed slightly and nodded, "I didn't expect to meet young master Yunxiao here. With young master's strength, you deserve to sit on the throne.

Everyone was taken aback, including ruan zimao and the others. Yunxiao's strength as a six-stars martial Supreme was clear for all to see, and it was only after he drank the blood tea that his strength rose. It could only be said that he was not bad. If he had not been opportunistic, how could he have sat on the throne?

Many people complained and sneered in their hearts.

Yunxiao smiled. ninth aunt, you flatter me. I didn't expect Red Moon City to invite you here. There must be some good treasure to see. I wonder how Dong 'er is doing now?"

Aunt Jiu smiled. Dong 'er is well now. She's cultivating in seclusion in the sect, but she can't forget young master. I'm a businessman, so I have to run around all day to earn some money to support my family. I'll work hard for my whole life."

Yunxiao smiled and said nothing.

Ruan zimao was puzzled. Ninth aunt's identity was not known to ordinary people, but not only did Yunxiao know her, but he also seemed to be very familiar with her. Besides, the respect in aunt Jiu's eyes only appeared when she looked at Yunxiao, and she did not even give him such 'preferential treatment'.

He saw the confusion in everyone's eyes, and it was obvious that they did not know aunt Jiu. He explained, "this ninth aunt is the head of the Mei family, a world-famous appraisal family!

“Ah?”

This time, everyone cried out in surprise. They didn't expect that the appraisal family, which had always been known for its old man image, would actually have such a young woman in charge.

business people,” aunt Jiu said to the crowd with a smile. I hope you young heroes can take care of the Mei family's business.

Zhu Shunqi laughed and said, “the Mei family has always been low-key and mysterious. However, their appraisal skills are unparalleled in the world. The wealth they have gathered is probably comparable to that of a large sect.” No wonder Yunxiao said there's a treasure to see.”

He called Yunxiao by his name, but did not dare to call him brother Yunxiao, in case he suffered the same fate as beiming Laifeng.

Aunt Jiu laughed. that will depend on what kind of treasure young master zimao brings out for everyone to appreciate. Please don't make it too difficult for me to lose face in front of all the rich people in the world.

“Ninth aunt is putting pressure on me,” ruan zimao said with a smile.

He clapped his hands, and someone immediately brought out a tray covered with a red cloth. Everyone's divine sense examined it, but they only knew that it was a metal object, but they didn't know what it was.

Ruan zimao lifted the red cloth and said, “ what is this thing? I've been confused for a long time, but I can always feel that it's extraordinary. It's rare that I've invited ninth aunt and the world's elites, so let's help me solve my doubts.

Everyone's gaze instantly turned over, only to see that on the tray was only an ordinary small piece of metal. In a moment of shock, they all started to think. With ruan zimao's status, he would definitely not play with everyone.

Aunt Jiu's eyes narrowed and her brows furrowed slightly. She went forward and touched the metal piece with her fingers. As if she was stimulated by something, she suddenly screamed and retracted her fingers. Her face was filled with horror.

"What happened to ninth aunt?" ruan zimao was shocked.

He hurriedly went forward to check, but the metal piece was still lying there, motionless, and there was nothing strange about it.

Ruan zimao couldn't help but be suspicious. This piece of metal had been in his hands for many days, but it had never shown any signs of being prickly.

The fear on aunt Jiu's face grew, and she said, "Where did this metal plate come from?"

...

Ruan zimao said, "It's said that it came from the burial ground. Now that there's been a change in that place, it's gradually losing its spiritual energy. It will become a wasteland soon.

"Crack crack!"

Yunxiao clenched his fists, and the sound of bones cracking came from them. His eyes were unusually serious as he stared at the iron plate in the tray, his body trembling slightly.

The other people on the throne immediately noticed his strange expression. They didn't believe that the monkey of the southern mountain range would have such knowledge to recognize this strange object that even the head of the Mei family was terrified of.

"Ninth aunt, What is this?" ruan zimao asked.

Aunt Jiu struggled for a while before she could suppress the waves in her heart. She shook her head with a pale face and gritted her teeth. "I don't know,"

"This bi an ..."

Ruan zimao smiled bitterly and said, "ninth aunt, do you have any fears?" It was just a piece of iron. How could ninth aunt be so shocked? Is there something you don't know?"

Aunt Jiu shook her head repeatedly. in any case, young master zimao, don't ask. This thing is extremely ominous. Young master, don't keep it with you. Try your best to get rid of it.

Ruan zimao was speechless. Everyone's appetites were whetted, and they all showed dissatisfaction.

"Can you let me take a look at this?"

...

Yunxiao's voice rang out, and the entire Hall immediately fell silent.

"Young master Yunxiao, this thing is good for you!" Aunt Jiu exclaimed.

Yunxiao stretched out his hand to interrupt her. He jumped up from the throne and landed gently in front of the two men, his eyes flashing as he stared at the iron sheet.

Although he had tried his best to suppress his emotions, everyone present was an expert, and they could all see the turbulent waves in his heart.

"Young master Yunxiao, do you recognize this?" ruan zimao asked.

"I can't be sure."

After getting ruan zimao's consent, Yunxiao reached out and took the iron sheet in his hand, and his body trembled suddenly!

This iron sheet was exactly the same as the one that recorded the true fiend Dharma idol. There was also a strange concave image printed on the iron sheet. It was exactly the same as the huge demon shadow that appeared behind the demon master during every battle!

Yunxiao's heart trembled as he said, "True fiend dharma body!"

Chapter 809

809 Shadow of the sky wave

Hearing the demon's horrified cry, Yunxiao immediately confirmed that the iron sheet was from the Boneyard, which meant that it was the cultivation technique used by the demon master to manifest a huge fiend shadow, which should have come from the same source as the true fiend Dharma idol.

He held the iron sheet in his hand, smiled, and said, "Dear, how much are you selling for?"

Ruan zimao felt dizzy and asked, "young master Yunxiao, what is this metal piece?" I've always treated this as a toy, and it's only because ninth aunt is here that I took it out for appraisal. Why are you two so shocked? What's so special about it?"

The rest of the people also listened quietly, their curiosity piqued.

hehe, nothing special," Yunxiao said with a smile. they are just rare materials. Just give them to me. He flipped his hand and was about to put it away.

Ruan zimao's eyes were sharp and his hands were quick. He snatched it back and smiled faintly, "Although there's nothing special about it, I really like this toy."

Yunxiao was stunned for a moment, then fell into deep thought. The shocked expressions on his and aunt Jiu's faces fell into everyone's eyes. Now, everyone knew that this thing was extraordinary, and it was impossible to deceive them into buying it.

He had no choice but to say, "I'm the same as ninth aunt about this item, so it's not convenient for me to explain." However, this item is very important to me. Can young master zimao bear with the pain and part with it?"

Ruan zimao frowned and said, "young master Yunxiao, you're so insincere. How can I part with you?" However, a smile appeared on his face, and he said, " "However, this matter is not completely without room for discussion. We will talk about it later."

Yunxiao sighed inwardly. He knew that the other party was going to deliberate and state his conditions, but he had no choice as the initiative was in the other party's hands, so he could only agree. "Although this item is rare, I'm afraid that I'm the only one in the entire world that's useful to you. I hope that brother zimao will consider it carefully."

"I will," ruan zimao said with a smile.

This piece of iron was meaningless to him, but as long as Yunxiao needed his help, it would be of great use to him, and he could use it in the arena. The only thing he could not control now was Li Yi.

Aunt Jiu looked at Yunxiao in surprise. She seemed to have thought of something and fell silent.

"Since ninth aunt doesn't want to explain the origin of this item, I won't force you," ruan zimao said. The item below is a treasure that my Red Moon City obtained by chance. It is also the main item that I have arranged for everyone to appreciate."

As he made a hand seal, a ray of light flew down from the sky and landed directly above his hand. It spun continuously and revealed itself to be a round plate.

The round plate was crudely made, and there was even some rust on it. It seemed to be an ancient item.

"This item looks like it's been unearthed, could it also be from the burial land?" Cheng Haoxiang asked. Your Red Moon City relied on that place to obtain quite a few good things."

Ruan zimao laughed, "brother haomiao's guess is right. He's from the Boneyard." It's a pity that the mysterious place has been destroyed, and God knows how many treasures there are that can't be seen."

He held the round plate in front of aunt Jiu and stood there with a smile.

Aunt Jiu's eyes narrowed slightly and she touched it gently with her hand. A ray of light flowed from her hand as she sensed the weapon essence within.

Aunt Jiu was shocked. this round plate seems to be an array weapon. It's undoubtedly a ninth-grade Mystic weapon. It doesn't seem to be an ordinary ninth-grade Mystic weapon either. Could it be a Maha ancient weapon? "

Everyone's heart skipped a beat, as if this was the first time they had heard this term.

Yunxiao's pupils constricted as he said, "Ninth aunt, what is the Maha ancient weapon?"

Aunt Jiu smiled and said, " young master Yun, you're very knowledgeable. How could you not know about the Maha ancient weapon? " It was no wonder, this kind of thing had long been unrefined by anyone, and there were less and less of them left in the world. A long time ago, there was a kind of character called 'Maha ancient text', and every character contained the truth of the great Dao of heaven and earth. Ancient alchemists liked to inject the Maha ancient text directly into profound artifacts, so that the profound artifacts could cross a level above the ninth-tier. This kind of profound artifact is more powerful than ordinary ninth-tier profound artifacts, but it is not a Supreme-grade profound artifact, so it was called the Maha ancient artifact."

Yunxiao was taken aback. In that case, his hammer was one hundred percent the so-called Maha ancient artifact, and the Golden tadpole-like characters were the so-called 'Maha ancient characters'. It seemed that the Mei family's background was indeed not simple.

Yunxiao decided that he would invite his ninth aunt to talk to her in detail later. Perhaps she could learn a lot of information about the Maha ancient language.

every character contains the ultimate truth of the great Dao of heaven and earth. Isn't this a little too exaggerated? "

Ruan zimao smiled. although there are many incredible things in the ancient monument, they are not as exaggerated as ninth aunt said. However, the things refined by ancient alchemists are extraordinary.

Everyone chuckled, obviously not believing aunt Jiu's words.

Aunt Jiu did not argue and smiled. there are only a handful of people who can understand the Maha ancient language. Even if someone can, they only know a few words. This round plate is definitely a priceless treasure. From what I can sense, this thing should be an illusion type profound level weapon, I wonder if I'm right?"

Ruan zimao revealed a shocked expression and sighed, " I can't help but admit defeat. This artifact array does indeed contain a type of illusionary technique called 'heaven wave reflection'. It can observe the five essences, determine the twelve karmas, and comprehend the heavenly Dao.

"Oh? Since it had such a function, could it be considered an auxiliary cultivation tool? I wonder what the effect is?"

Cheng haomiao asked.

After a cultivator entered the great emperor realm, apart from the daily accumulation of Yuan Qi, it was more important for them to comprehend the heavenly Dao, allowing them to constantly approach the laws of nature.

"You'll know the effect once you try it!" Ruan zimao laughed.

He raised the heaven wave reflection high up in the air. Suddenly, a ray of light shot out from the moon sundial and shone on the disc. The originally rusty, dull, and plain disc seemed to be washed away by the moonlight, revealing the extraordinary splendor inside.

Nine colorful lights rushed up from the disc and formed a magnificent phenomenon in the sky. The wind and moon building was immediately overshadowed. The colorful lights contained a myriad of meanings, and there was even a faint immortal sound.

“This bi an ...”

Everyone was taken aback. It was hard to imagine that such a magnificent array was coming from a mere artifact. Yunxiao was not moved by the strange phenomenon, but he stared at the disc and saw a golden tadpole-like character flickering and flowing on it, which was exactly the same as his hammer.

Just as everyone was in shock, the scene before them began to change. The illusory formation took effect, gradually losing the reality in front of them and revealing the images in everyone’s hearts.

Yunxiao was taken aback when he saw a man standing in front of him. It was him, who was staring at him coldly with an arrogant smile on his face. His aura was changing from time to time, sometimes good and sometimes evil.

“Is this the form of the five essences, the cause and effect?”

Under such circumstances, Yunxiao’s eyes turned serious. If he wanted to break the illusion, he had to activate his lunar pupil, but once he did, the people of Red Moon City would instantly suppress him.

In the most prosperous place in the center of Red Moon City, the Grand and solemn city Lord’s mansion was like a fierce tiger lying dormant on the ground. If one looked closely, there was still a divine light flashing within, as if it was some kind of extremely powerful restriction array.

In the main hall of the mansion, a water curtain was rotating, showing the scene inside the wind and moon building. Everyone could be seen clearly.

There was only a man and a woman in the spacious hall, quietly watching the scene.

The man was dressed in a black robe and had an extraordinary bearing. He said in a deep voice, “Hongyu, is zimao’s way of doing things really good? If the other forces find out, how can our Red Moon City face them?”

The beautiful woman beside him was wearing a double butterfly embroidered dress, her face was light and even, her black eyebrows were delicately painted with light Palace makeup, and her red lips gently opened, "The mark left behind by this heaven wave shadow reflection is something that even you, my husband, can not easily detect. How many people in the world can recognize it? How could it be so coincidental that these few people would specially investigate it? Even if we take ten thousand steps back and someone really discovered it, we can directly push the blame on the heaven wave reflection itself. How could we easily discover the strangeness contained in this ancient profound artifact? even if the other forces are dissatisfied with this explanation, there is nothing they can do."

The beautiful woman was the mistress of the Jiang family, ruan Hongyu. Her beautiful eyes were full of light, and her soft, Jade-like hands gently curled the hair on her neck as she smiled. "On the contrary, the benefits of this are self-evident. Zimao was the leader of the younger generation in the Eastern Region. With the heaven wave mirror, who could be his match? The title of number one among his peers was obvious. Therefore, I think that it's the best choice to let Ruobing marry him."

Jiang Churan stared at the water screen and said indifferently, "Zimao's talent and heart are indeed excellent. He has a bright future. But who would dare to claim the title of number one? Don't flatter him too much. As for Ruobing's marriage, I've already agreed to let him fight in the arena. As long as he can win, I won't go back on my word."

just wait and see what zimao is capable of," ruan Hongyu said with a smile. all the so-called heroes of the world are nothing in front of him.

Jiang Churan said indifferently, "with zimao's personality, he'll always plan before taking action. Since he wants to participate in the arena tournament, he must have made all the necessary preparations. If I'm not wrong, he already took care of the two of them when he was in the same carriage as beiming Laifeng and Cheng haomiao. Although it's a little opportunistic, I still admire his wisdom. However, Yingluo "

Jiang Churan hesitated for a moment before she replied, "however, the world is like a game of chess, and it's constantly changing." If he thinks that victory is within his grasp, then he will definitely lose without a single wound."

Ruan Hongyu was stunned and said, "he lost?" Other than the two from the beiming family and the soul devouring Valley, the only ones on the throne that could threaten Zi Mao were Zhu Shunqi and the martial sovereign monkey from the southern mountain range. However, I can see that even though these two people have extraordinary strength, there's still a huge gap between them and zimao."

the Martial Emperor monkey of the southern region? "

Jiang Churan sneered and said,"this monkey's background is not simple." Among the three martial Supreme powerhouses who came with the monkey, one of them was from the demon clan and seemed to specialize in secret and evil Arts. The other two were two of the eight guardians of death. Hmph, I didn't expect him to set his sights on my Red Moon City!"

Ruan Hongyu was shocked and said,"the eight elephants of death. Could it be that person who sent the Tao Wu?"

Chapter 810

810 I'm sorry, I lost

Jiang Churan nodded and said, " although I'm not afraid of that person, it'll indeed be a big trouble if we offend him. It might even be a great disaster. Unless Zi Mao can kill Li Yi in front of everyone, it'll be a disaster for Zi Mao if he uses other methods to win."

Ruan Hongyu lost her graceful demeanor and said seriously, " "I will tell zimao about this. That person's actions were traceless, and he had always only pursued his goal, using unscrupulous means. He was simply more terrifying than anyone else. If you're targeted by him, you'll be like maggots in a tarsal bone, unable to get rid of it. "

Jiang Churan stared at the water screen and a trace of clarity flashed through her cloudy eyes. She suddenly said, " let's not talk about this monkey from death god Palace. What surprises me is that the city Lord of Yanwu only has the cultivation base of a six-stars martial venerable. This is definitely true, but why do I feel that there's something very wrong with this man? "

Ruan Hongyu smiled. you're overthinking it. It's indeed surprising that two people from the southern region are on the throne. Since you've already determined that this person's strength as a six-stars martial venerable is not fake, then he won't be able to stir up any trouble."

Jiang Churan shook her head and said, "it's not that simple." With my current state of mind, there are very few people who can attract my attention. Have you noticed that ruomei has lost a lot of weight these past two days?"

Ruan Hongyu looked at him in surprise and said angrily, " So you care about your daughter too. I thought Jiang Ruobing was your only daughter.

She sniffled and sobbed, "I don't know where that silly girl got her weight loss secret technique from. She knows it's useless, but she still practices it tirelessly." This child's heart really makes me feel sad and uncomfortable as his mother. I really wish that the curse mark was on me!"

Her heart ached, and she covered her face and wept softly.

the situation this time is different from the past, " Jiang Churan said seriously. I realized that ruomei has really started to lose weight. Although it's only been two days, she has changed a lot.

Ruan Hongyu stopped crying and said, " "It seems that you still have some conscience. You've really spent some time and effort on your daughter. What changes did ruomei have? I really couldn't tell."

Over the years, she had tried all kinds of methods, but none of them worked, so she gradually lost her attention. However, she didn't expect her husband, who had always been indifferent, to pay so much attention to her, which made her feel a little better.

Jiang Churan muttered, " the weight loss method she used is just the one she used often in the past. The only difference is that it was ineffective in the past. This time, it's surprisingly effective. And all of this began after ruomei met this li Yunxiao!"

Ruan Hongyu's body trembled and she cried out, " how is that possible? ruomei's curse can only be lifted by Gu Feiyang's ocular skill. This is Master Lu congzi's personal judgment, and it can't be wrong. Is this li Yunxiao the inheritor of Gu Feiyang's ocular skill? "

Her eyes were filled with shock, excitement, and hatred. She had lost her dignified image, and her heart was filled with uncontrollable emotions.

Jiang Churan shook her head. I don't know much about the situation. But, this li Yunxiao is definitely not Gu Feiyang's successor. The key to breaking the RUO Mei's curse was the moon pupil itself, not his pupil technique. Even if he had a successor, he would not be able to transfer the moon pupil out of his body. This matter is too strange. I must investigate this li Yunxiao thoroughly."

"That's right, we must get to the bottom of this matter!"

Ruan Hongyu gritted her teeth and said, " "Gu Feiyang's death was too easy! If this li Yunxiao is really related to him, then the heavens must have sent him here to avenge us!"

"Gu Feiyang is already dead," Jiang Churan said."Why should we keep thinking about what happened back then?" Everything was already in the past. Moreover, when everyone came out from the end of time, he was affected by the moon pupil and his evil nature increased greatly. It was difficult to determine right and wrong, and it was not his intention to kill too much. Furthermore, the key to removing the runic seal may still be on him."

"I don't care!" Ruan Hongyu said angrily. Back then, the ruan family was almost destroyed, and it was all caused by Gu Feiyang! The suffering that ruomei had suffered all these years was also caused by Gu Feiyang! Even without li Yunxiao, we've already gotten a clue about tiansi. As long as the planet is opened again, we'll definitely be able to find tiansi and remove ruomei's curse."

Jiang Churan frowned. it's just a few clues. It's still a question of whether we can find tiansi. Even if we do find him, we might not be able to control him. Tian Si's power was even above the moon pupil. When Gu Feiyang obtained the moon pupil, he also became violent. It was only when he obtained the five volumes of the eye technique secret technique in the realm of Langya that he completely suppressed the evil nature of the moon pupil and became a martial sovereign of his generation. In the entire Red Moon City, even I do not have the confidence to control Tian si."

A playful smile appeared on ruan Hongyu's face. She looked strange and said sarcastically, " "You are the master of Red Moon City, the leader of the Eastern Region, a Man of Gold, the matter of controlling Tian si can not be asked of you. Ruomei is my daughter, so I can do this alone."

Jiang Churan was expressionless. After a long time, she sighed and said, " "Hongyu, are you still blaming me for not seeking revenge on Gu Feiyang back then?"

"I wouldn't dare." Ruan Hongyu bowed and nodded. Back then, you were appointed by the old city Lord as the next city Lord, and the people of Red Moon City were also loyal to you. Besides, I also know that when the realm of Langya opened, the old city Lord gave you a strict order that you must not have any conflict with Gu Feiyang. The old city Lord's decision was right. There was no enmity between the red moon City and Gu Feiyang. The one who had enmity was the ruan family. There was no need to drag the entire Red Moon City down. If not for the wise decision of the old city Lord, perhaps the red moon City would not have its current glory."

Jiang Churan was speechless. She looked at her beloved wife's miserable and mocking face and suddenly sighed, "I'm sorry, Hong Yu. I didn't listen to the old city Lord and went to find Gu Feiyang in Langya heaven."

Ruan Hongyu's body trembled, and her face was filled with shock. Her eyes flashed with shock and confusion.

"I'm sorry, I've lost," Jiang Churan said with a faint smile.

After a moment of extreme shock, two lines of tears fell from ruan Hongyu's beautiful eyes. They were tears of happiness.

The few words "I've lost" were like a spell that made ruan Hongyu, the mistress of the Jiang family, cry like a twenty-year-old girl. She threw herself into Jiang Churan's arms like a child who had been wronged and cried without restraint.

"I'm sorry," Jiang Churan laughed bitterly, "I don't have the ability to help you take revenge. However, ruomei is our child. Even if I have to risk my life, I will definitely cure her."

After crying for a while, ruan Hongyu wiped her tears away with her sleeve and said, "I'm sorry, Churan. I've misunderstood you all these years."

She thought about the past ten years. Because of the blame and stubbornness in her heart, although she could understand her husband's behavior of putting the big picture first, she had never been able to let go of her views and prejudices against him being timid and afraid of death. For more than a decade, the husband and wife had lived in separate rooms and had never really gotten along with each other.

Thinking of this, Ruan Hongyu felt extremely guilty and heartbroken. She blamed herself for being too selfish and paranoid. She could not trust the person who loved her so much.

It turned out that her husband had disregarded the previous city Lord's strict orders, not hesitating to risk his future in Red Moon City, and had already risked his life to do what she had blamed him for.

With a husband like this, what more could he ask for in this life?

Ruan Hongyu suddenly felt that all her grudges had disappeared. The most important thing for her now was to cherish the person in front of her. She sobbed, "According to the ancient records, Tian si is formless and incorporeal, and is born from the convergence of the spirit of heaven and earth. It is difficult to control, and I will not allow you to take this risk. Since this Li Yunxiao can really make Ruomei slim down, he must have a way. Let's try his method first, and if it doesn't work, we'll think of another way."

Jiang Churan caressed her beloved wife's hair, feeling an unspeakable sense of guilt.

The sect master of one of the seven super forces, the leader of one of the four big regions, with 90,000 phoerikas, the sovereign of the world, a call from one hundred people, and the admiration of tens of thousands of people. However, he couldn't avenge his beloved wife and couldn't even cure his daughter's illness. Such a sect master, such a leader, his heart was full of bitterness that no one could complain to.

He rubbed his wife and said softly, "What Red Moon City Master, what King's plan, I only hope that our family can be together happily. You don't have a knot in your heart, and if Mei doesn't have a chronic illness, her life will be enough."

Ruan Hongyu wiped her tears and punched him with her fist. My husband can't be such a coward. A wife should be respected by her husband. You are the ruler of the world. Ruomei, Ruobing, and the entire Red Moon City are all by your side. You can't disappoint everyone.

"With you and my son by my side, no one in this world can defeat me," Jiang Churan laughed.

Jiang Churan only felt a sense of pride in her chest. The estrangement between the husband and wife for so many years had disappeared in an instant, and they were filled with love.

In the wind and Moon Hotel, ruan zimao's eyes flashed and a smile appeared on his face. He looked at the garden full of people who were in shock and had fallen into an illusion. He was amused.

In the void outside the building, Li's expression suddenly changed and he asked in a serious voice, "Do you want me to break this illusion?"

"Can sister li break it?" No. 8 asked in surprise.

Li Dao said, "this illusion has the power of rules. It's not easy to break it. However, it's not difficult for me. I only need to use the Jiuli war drum and I will break through in three beats."

"You can't!"

The tyrannical sky Tiger hurriedly said, "all the young heroes of the world are gathered here. It's impossible for the red moon City to do anything to them. Ruan zimao must have a reason for using this technique. If we act rashly, we will be laughed at.

my responsibility is to protect the mother's safety," Li said indifferently. as for whether it's a shame or not, it has nothing to do with me.

The tyrannical sky Tiger laughed, "hehe. This is the red moon City. A little girl from the monster race like you might not know what kind of place the red moon City is, right? One of the seven superpowers of the human race. Any one of their powerhouses can kill the three of us in minutes. If they want to make a move on Li Yi, no one can save him."

"Senior tyrannical sky Tiger is right, let's just wait and see." Lil eight said. Even the red moon City can't help but be wary of their leader, not to mention that there are many other elites with extremely strong backings. The red moon City will definitely not act rashly."
