

The Eternal 851

Chapter 851-divine body phenomenon

“Demon Lord? Are you sure you’re that good?”

Ning keyue stared at him coldly with a sneer on her face.

Yunxiao raised his head, and a cold gleam flickered in his eyes as he said, “Woman, I can see that your strength is not bad. Be my servant, and I will grant you Supreme glory!”

“Pa!”

Yunxiao suddenly felt a huge force coming at him and slapping him in the face. He was immediately sent flying and slammed into the wall of the secret chamber, crying out in pain. He didn’t know what material this secret room was made of, but there was actually no trace of it at all.

“Damn it, you ungrateful thing! I’m Xuanji.”

“Pa!”

“Bang!”

He was sent flying again. No matter how strong his physical body was, he was still jolted dizzy.

The blow to his physical body was still alright, but the key was that as the Supreme demon master, he had already been slapped by this woman in succession. The blow to his soul was indescribable, and he could not remain calm.

“Damn it, I’m going to kill you! I’m going to kill you!”

Yunxiao roared ferociously and soared into the sky, immediately summoning his devil Dharma form. With three heads and six arms, he took out six profound level weapons, which were even more powerful than Yunxiao's golden body Dharma form.

Ning keyue looked at him coldly without saying a word. She just raised her hand and a huge palm formed in the air and slammed down.

"Boundless nature, demon centipede"

"Bang!"

The devil Dharma was fully activated, but it still couldn't block a single palm. It was sent flying again and smashed into the wall. However, this time, a small dent was left on the wall.

"You motherf * cker, stop hitting me!"

"Pa!"

"Waa waa! Animal!"

"Pa!"

"Pa!"

"Pa! Pa! Pa!"

"....."

A few hours later, the walls of the secret chamber were full of potholes, but there seemed to be a strange force constantly repairing them. Yunxiao's face had been slapped into a winter melon, and his eyes were bloodshot and filled with endless hatred.

Being slapped by a woman like this, this humiliation would never be washed away in this lifetime.

Ning keyue seemed to be tired. She stopped and said, " all right, tell me what you are, and what's with Yunxiao's condition? "

Yunxiao was dizzy from the slap, and he could not even stand still, as if there was a winter melon on his neck.

"Eh? You're not happy about it?"

Ning keyue's face turned cold and she raised her hand to hit him again.

"Don't, don't hit me, I'll talk, I'll talk!"

Yunxiao said in a hoarse voice, completely surrendering. His eyes were bloodshot, and he looked extremely aggrieved. This was worse than killing him, so he immediately told the truth about his situation.

Ning keyue was dumbfounded. She did not expect that such a big thing would happen in the Boneyard, and that Yunxiao would have such a fortuitous encounter and story.

"Then, how can I refine you completely?" she asked after a moment of contemplation.

Yunxiao's heart trembled as he said angrily, " "Your question is too much! If you have the guts, kill me. I won't tell you even if you slap me to death!"

Ning keyue knew that she wouldn't be able to get any more information from him. A light flashed in her hand, and the scepter appeared. She placed the scepter on the ground with a clang. Then, she made a hand seal and closed her eyes.

to warm up the fragrance of time, who is looking forward to it, and who is waiting for whom? "

As the poem was recited, a soft light shone down, and a faint emotion flowed in the secret chamber. This feeling seemed to have shape, color, and warmth, like a trickle of water flowing in time and space.

Yunxiao was stunned for a moment. Then, a warmth gushed out of his soul, and he felt an indescribable comfort and ethereal feeling. He fell into a state of selflessness, allowing the feeling to flow through his body.

Suddenly, his body brightened up. A ray of light shot out from his body. It was as clear as a Silver Cloud and illuminated the secret room.

Ning keyue suddenly opened her eyes and said in surprise, "Is this the light of Tao Wu's God Body? How many secrets does this kid have?"

As the light of the moon rose, small glowing balls began to emerge from his body and form a circle around him. They resonated with the light.

"Moon Pearl of the eastern sea?"

Ning keyue was stunned. She immediately recognized these small beads. There were 19 of them in total. Under the light of the divine body, they slowly began to show strange scenes.

"What's going on with this Yingluo?"

Even with her strength as a nine-stars Martial Emperor, she could not help but be shocked. The scene in front of her turned out to be a Starry Night sea Map. Under the sky full of stars, the sea water embraced the Starlight. Light and water blended with each other, transforming into soft and beautiful light rays that rippled in the rough waves.

The pattern was still changing, and a bright moon rose from the deep blue sea.

The bright moon above the sea, the same time across the world!

The moonlight was overflowing and the ocean was quiet and distant. At this moment, there were actually flood Dragon people coming ashore and shedding tears towards the moon, which turned into pearls.

“The moon in the ocean has tears, the blue field is warm and smoke comes out of the Jade.”

Ning keyue was shocked and said to herself, “It’s rumored that gathering twenty-four moon pearls of the eastern sea can create the scene of twenty-four moonlit bridges. It seems that the rumor is true. Such a divine body with an extremely strong purification power, perhaps this is the way to restrain the demonic barrier!”

As the Pearl was incomplete, the phenomenon began to become chaotic after it evolved. The purifying power disappeared as the phenomenon disappeared. The light of the divine body gradually dispersed as well, and the nineteen East Ocean moon pearls flew into his body.

“You’re finally awake.”

Ning keyue breathed a sigh of relief. Under the purifying power of the strange phenomenon, the black demonic patterns on Yunxiao’s body receded, and he opened his eyes.

...

A surge of origin power rushed through his body and instantly broke through to the level of a seven-stars martial Supreme. It continued to climb until it reached the peak of the seven-stars martial Supreme!

Yunxiao frowned, and from the corner of his eye, he immediately saw a large number of essence cores in the secret chamber. His face lit up with joy as he made a hand seal, and all the essence cores immediately flew into the air like beans.

He performed a few incantation seals with both hands and used the one Qi creation skill to absorb the spiritual energy crazily!

The primordial core was refined from Supreme-grade primordial stones, and its purity was even higher than Supreme-grade primordial stones. It could not be formed naturally, and could only be formed by the Super Soul power and refining techniques of alchemists. It was a solid primordial Qi, which was extremely valuable.

Only a powerful man of status like Ning Keyue was qualified and had the financial resources to enjoy it without limit. But at this moment, she felt a little pained to see Yunxiao gobble it up like that.

The light of advancement finally lit up, and the shackles of the seven-stars martial venerable were broken through without any suspense under the violent influx of a massive amount of elemental energy.

haha, an eight-star martial Supreme. He's not far from becoming a martial Supreme!

Yunxiao laughed. He was obviously in a very good mood, and he felt that he was getting closer and closer to the peak.

Ning Keyue praised, 'with the combat strength you've shown, you're close to a six-stars martial sovereign. If you add the moon pupil, the sword technique, and the power of your divine body, I'm afraid you'll have the battle strength of a six-star Martial Emperor.'

thank you, Your Excellency! Yunxiao smiled. thank you!

Ning Keyue raised her eyebrows slightly and said reproachfully, "There's no need to be so polite with me. You can just call me aunt."

...

Yunxiao wiped his sweat in embarrassment and said, "Qianqian, a name is just a form of address. I don't like to call you that, so I'll just call you lady Keyue, Qianqian."

The sister of the past, now he couldn't even call her aunt.

“Then do as you wish.”

Ning keyue didn't mind and said, "You have too many secrets on you, and I don't want to get to the bottom of them. However, I must remind you that you can't bite off more than you can chew. On the path of martial Dao, focus on one thing. I remember that your father had a disciple who specialized in fist Arts. He only practiced one Vajra fist in his life and also achieved great achievements. He concentrated all his thoughts on one point, so his future achievements in martial arts will be limitless. On the other hand, your various methods are dazzling, and your future growth may be even more bumpy."

thank you for your reminder, lady keyue," Yunxiao said. there are many things that I can't help but do. I have no choice but to let nature take its course.

Ning keyue smiled and said,"yes, the way of nature is the right way." Your talent can't be described with words. Your future achievements will definitely surpass your father and me, and you might even be able to break through to the ethereal immortal state. Some of my fixed thoughts might produce the opposite effect, so you should consider it yourself."

Suddenly, her expression turned serious as she said in a deep voice, "there's a demon in your body, and it's not a good idea to rely on luck to suppress it. I wonder if you can completely suppress it by gathering 24 moon pearls from the East Sea and forming a complete divine body phenomenon.

that demon is not an ordinary creature," Yunxiao said. there is still some time before the opening of the planet. I plan to go to Haitian town on the coast of the East Sea to try my luck and see if I can gather all twenty-four moon pearls.

"Yes, apart from Red Moon City, the place where the moon Pearl is most likely to appear is Haitian town. Basically, all the products from the East China Sea in the world came from there. Do you want me to send someone to go with you?"

"No need. I'm just going to buy something."

Yunxiao's forehead was covered in cold sweat. Ning keyue was too concerned about him.

Ning keyue seemed to have read his mind. She smiled and said, "You don't need to have any thoughts. Not to mention that your father and I are best friends, I also have an important matter that I might need your help with."

Yunxiao frowned and cried out in surprise, "Don't, don't! But how can I do something that even lady Yue is having a headache over?" He looked as if he was afraid of a Tiger and firmly refused.

"Do you know what it is?" ning keyue laughed.

Yunxiao snorted and rolled his eyes as he said, "What else could it be? it's just that precious disciple of yours."

Ning keyue chuckled and tidied up her hair. "You're really smart. Ruobing is a different matter. Since you're so determined, we'll talk about it later. What I want to ask of you is not this matter, but that ... Neonite!"

Her face instantly turned serious as she stared at Yunxiao without blinking.

Yunxiao's heart stirred as he asked, 'what exactly is that aegirine? It actually has such a great demonic nature that it can make the red moon City Master lose his mind and disappear!"

Chapter 852-Haitian town

Ning keyue said, "I'm not sure about the origin of the aegirine. If you want to find out, you must first eliminate the strange power on it. I hope that after you have gathered all the moon pearls of the East Sea, you can try to use your divine body phenomenon. But you must be under my protection. Otherwise, it will be too dangerous.

there are too many strange things in this world," Yunxiao said with a wry smile. I've never heard of this aegirine before.

He sighed with emotion, but it sounded strange to Ning Keyue. She thought to herself that it would be abnormal if she had heard of it at such a young age. She said, "My father got this aegirine from the Tiandang mountains."

"What?"

Yunxiao was taken aback, and his eyes shone as he cried out in horror, "Tiandang mountains, the martial forbidden zone!"

Ning Keyue also looked serious and said, "There are many forbidden areas in the heavenly martial realm, but the Tiandang mountains are definitely the most dangerous one. Even your father died there."

She said with a sad expression, "But some warriors have cultivated to the extreme and are unable to break through. They want to go to these restricted areas to find opportunities. Your father is really too young. He doesn't need to be in a hurry. My father was one of the luckier ones. He managed to escape unscathed and even brought back this piece of aegirine."

"I've heard of it too," Yunxiao said seriously. "There are countless dangers in it, and you can easily lose your life if you're not careful."

Ning Keyue said, "I'm afraid the only way to figure out the origin of the aegirine is the Tiandang mountains. I only hope to find some clues from the stone and find my father. You must return this aegirine to me before we go to the end of time. It's not that I'm stingy with it, but I'm afraid something will happen to you."

Yunxiao nodded cautiously. The aegirine was lying quietly in his divine realm tablet, so it was unlikely that anything would happen to it.

Ning Keyue said, "I'll send you to the teleportation place. You revealed too many treasures." "If I tell the world that your dantian is damaged, I'm afraid that many people will have ideas about you. Remember the jade pendant I gave you. If you're in danger, just crush it."

The two of them left the secret room and flew directly to the teleportation formation.

Due to the opening of the end of time, the number of people in Red Moon City did not decrease but increased after the joust for a spouse event. It was getting more and more crowded. The teleportation array was also crowded with people to maintain order. Basically, only people entered and not out.

The two's arrival immediately attracted the attention of the crowd. The guard was shocked when he saw the two of them. He quickly went up to them, and someone even went to report to the person in charge.

Soon, a man flew over and bowed. greetings, lady keyue. Greetings, young master Yunxiao!

“What? Young master Yunxiao? Li Yunxiao?”

This voice immediately stirred up a Thousand Waves, and everyone stopped in their tracks and turned their heads to look.

They might not know who ning keyue was, but they would never not know who Yunxiao was!

This name, which was like a star, became the most dazzling new Star in the realm of heavenly martial arts overnight!

“Is He Li Yunxiao? You're indeed the handsome young master of the wind stream sect, but you're a beautiful young man!”

“The number one rising star? Although he's only a martial honor, he's a true martial Supreme!”

“It's him, it's him! I've witnessed that unprecedented battle with my own eyes that day, and this life is enough for me!”

but I heard that his dantian is already damaged. How did he recover so quickly? ”

“This kid has earned the dignity of the human race, so of course, the red moon City has poured all kinds of natural treasures into him to cure him. But no matter what, my dantian is damaged, and my life is ruined.”

“Hmph, it’d be better if it was destroyed. Otherwise, with the existence of such a genius, how can you and I survive?”

There were all sorts of voices, most of which were exclamations and sighs, while others were lamenting and sneering.

A group of young girls gathered in the distance. They seemed to be disciples of some sect. The group of people screamed in their direction with all their might. All kinds of excited voices rose and fell. Their eyes turned into hearts, and their bodies were filled with excitement.

Oh my God! I can’t believe I saw li Yunxiao with my own eyes! Am I dreaming? ”

“So handsome! Can I go up and ask him for an autograph? Will he reject me? I’m so nervous!”

“Who’s that old woman beside him? Could it be that he liked this kind of opbassan? Oh, my God!”

These voices naturally could not escape ning keyue’s ears. Her face darkened, and she stared coldly at the group of girls. Suddenly, the group of girls trembled in fear and did not dare to speak.

Ning keyue said to the person in charge, ” “Haitian town,”

The person-in-charge immediately understood, and he hurriedly stopped all teleportation services to open the coordinates to Haitian town for Yunxiao to cut the queue.

“Young master Yunxiao, please!”

The person-in-charge was also very curious, and he gave Yunxiao a few more looks. After all, at this moment, the young man was already a legendary figure.

Yunxiao did not care about the looks of the crowd. After bidding farewell to Ning Keyue, he stepped into the teleportation array. Beams of light flashed, and a space tunnel was opened, which immediately disappeared from Red Moon City.

As soon as he left, everyone retracted their gazes and began to discuss.

“Lady Keyue, do you have any other orders?” the person in charge bowed.

“From today on,” Ning Keyue said, “until the day Yunxiao returns, cut off all teleportations to Haitian town and the nearby towns.”

“This is an...”

The person in charge was only stunned for a moment before he immediately replied, “Yes!”

Although he had his doubts, it wasn’t something he could casually ask at his level.

Ning Keyue was doing this to protect Yunxiao. After all, he had a lot of treasures on him in the battle that day, and no one would believe that no one had any improper thoughts about him. However, as long as he could cut off the teleportation to Haitian town, he could at least delay the time. Those who wanted to track him would have to take an extremely long route and teleport over through other cities.

The news of Yunxiao’s sudden appearance at the teleportation site spread like wildfire throughout the city. Sure enough, many people were eager to follow him to Haitian town, and the number of people going out of the teleportation site soared.

As Yunxiao was swept away by the spatial power, he soon saw a bright exit, which had been shaken out.

He was surprised to find that he had landed on an island. As far as his eyes could see, there was a coastal city not far away. This Island was where the teleportation point was located, and it was surrounded by a barrier to protect it. There were also several martial honors hidden in the void to cultivate, and at the same time, they were responsible for the defense of the island.

Between the island and the city, there was a bridge that was more than ten miles long.

After all, most of the people on the continent were ordinary mortals. In comparison, cultivators who could fly were extremely rare.

Yunxiao leaped up and arrived above the city in a few moments.

Suddenly, a loud shout came from the gate guard. He looked up to the sky and said, "Who's flying? come down!"

It was Yunxiao. He frowned slightly, for he could clearly sense that many other Warriors had also plunged into the void to hide. 'Could it be that dark flight can do it, but Bright Flight can't?'

However, he was still unfamiliar with this place, so he could only come down and enter through the main door.

When the group of guards saw him, they all revealed surprised and vigilant expressions, saying, "First time in Haitian town?"

Although this place was called a "town," it was more prosperous and vast than most cities.

Yunxiao nodded slightly.

"No flying is allowed in Haitian town. You will bear the consequences if you are discovered!" One of the guards said.

but, " Yunxiao said with dissatisfaction, " I clearly sensed that many people had snuck into the void. Why didn't I see any consequences for them? "

The guard was taken aback. He looked Yunxiao up and down and said cautiously, " "If I may be so presumptuous as to ask young master's cultivation level?"

These guards were only martial Lords, and even the person in charge was only a Martial Emperor. It seemed that the overall level of the martial artists in Haitian town was not very high.

Yunxiao immediately suppressed his cultivation base and revealed his cultivation base of a Martial Emperor. "Eight-stars Martial Emperor."

The guard was shocked and hurriedly said, " it turns out that you are an eight-stars Martial Emperor. No wonder.

The guard smiled bitterly and said, " those people who have escaped into the city in the void are far stronger than US city guards. There's no way to stop them. The rules in the city were only effective for martial artists below the Martial Emperor realm. No one would care about them after they reached the seven constellations realm. However, the Lords above the rank of Martial Emperor will also give some face to the city rules and enter secretly. They will not fly in openly to embarrass us."

...

"So that's how it is,"

Yunxiao glanced at the mortals and low-level Warriors around him and said, " "I have to pay to enter the city?"

"Of course you don't need it, my Lord!" The guard quickly replied. He quickly made a few hand gestures to invite her in.

Yunxiao nodded and stepped into the city. It was a bustling place, and the air was filled with the smell of salt.

Although Haitian town wasn't a martial arts town, it was an economic town. Almost all of the products from the eastern sea were transported from here, so it attracted the attention of all the major Chambers of Commerce.

hurry, let's go to Tianyuan trading company to watch the show. There's a duel between Warriors!

what's there to see? there are duels every day in the town, and some people die every day. I'm tired of it.

it's different this time. I heard that it's Li Yunxiao, the world's strongest among the rising stars, against the king of the sea tribe!

"What? Yunxiao is here? Don't lie to me!"

"Aiya, how would I dare to lie to you! Now, all the people in the town are going to Tianyuan trading company. If we don't go now, we won't be able to see it!"

Oh my God, the No. 1 cultivator among the younger generation of the human race! Go, go, go quickly!

One of the cultivators who was leisurely drinking was incited by his companion and the two of them flew off in one direction.

Yunxiao was stunned. He stepped forward and was about to ask.

The warrior saw him blocking the way and directly slapped him with his palm, shouting, "Move! If you delay me from watching Yunxiao's duel, I'll kill your whole family! Get lost!"

The two of them disappeared in an instant, bringing with them a cloud of dust.

“What? Li Yunxiao? The king of the sea Race?”

“Huala”

The news spread like wildfire, and the entire Street was instantly empty. Not a single person was left, and they all ran far away.

Yunxiao’s mouth was wide open, and he was stunned for a moment. He did not expect that he would become so famous. Besides, he was also very curious about what was going on. Tianyuan trading company also had a branch here, so he wanted to know more about Ding Ling ‘er.

Chapter 853-commercial performance

The entire Haitian town was suddenly empty and had gathered in the south of the city where Tianyuan trading company was located. Two men were standing on the city wall, their auras were cold and making a rustling sound in the wind!

The crowd below was extremely crowded, and they all shouted, “Fight! Do it, bring glory to the human race! Kill this sea beast!”

Yunxiao squeezed into the crowd and looked over, but he felt a little dizzy.

The man on the left had a cold and arrogant expression. He held a sword in one hand and a Jade tablet in the other. He waved his sword and pointed at the man opposite him. “Runxiang, you’ve already been defeated by me. I spared your life last time, and you still dare to come and court death?”

The man on the right was wearing a beast-shaped battle suit that looked like a dragon yet not a Dragon. His appearance was extremely strange, and the Trident in his hand was mighty and powerful. He shouted, “Impudent! RUO Xiang is my younger brother, and I’m his older brother, RUO long. Today, I’m going to wash away the shame of my Sea Race!”

‘Li Yunxiao’ snorted coldly. I’ve suppressed your brother. How can you escape?”

“Cut the crap, kill!”

Runlong shouted loudly, and a ball of light burst out from his body. He charged forward fiercely, and the shock from the air pressure actually scared more than half of the spectators below away. They all became cautious.

Yunxiao was surprised. The two men on the city wall both had the cultivation base of martial Venerables, and their fight was unusually magnificent.

“So strong! As expected of the number one of the younger generation and the ruler of the sea Race!”

I’m so excited! I’m actually lucky enough to witness such an unprecedented battle!

‘Li Yunxiao’ also gave a loud cry as the sword in his hand slashed out a long beam of light to meet the attack. The “divine realm tablet” in his right hand was used as a shield to block the opponent’s attack. The two of them instantly became one with each other, and all kinds of gorgeous moves were released to their heart’s content. It was dazzling to the eyes.

On a tall building in the distance, a white-robed man stood in the wind. After taking a look, he sneered, “Hmph! I really thought it was Li Yunxiao. Where did these two clowns come from?”

Behind him, a luxuriously dressed old man turned the prayer bead in his hand and leaned against the railing. He smiled and said, “young master Laifeng, don’t be surprised. All kinds of strange things happen in Haitian town every day. It’s no wonder.

The man in white was Beiming Laifeng. After the earth-shattering battle between Yunxiao and Runxiang, he had come to Haitian town before Yunxiao for some sect Affairs.

well, it’s a pity that I’m in seclusion during the battle between Li Yunxiao and Runxiang, so I didn’t get to see it with my own eyes. It’s a pity.

Beiming Laifeng had a look of pity on his face as he sighed, I hope that I will have the opportunity to fight with these two in the future. How wonderful would that be!

“Hahaha!”

hahahaha! the old man laughed and said, “ young master Lai Feng is the head of the four greats of the North. If he had participated in the joust for a spouse Festival, li Yunxiao wouldn’t have had a chance. That li Yunxiao just got a big bargain.”

“You flatter me, city Lord Liao,” beiming Laifeng argued. Since Yunxiao was known as the number one rising star, he must have something extraordinary about him. Even if I were to fight these two, it would be hard to say who would win.”

The old man was the city Lord of Haitian town, Liao yangbing. He laughed and said, “ “Young master liefeng, you’re too humble. It was rumored that Yunxiao, a six-stars martial venerable, could exert the strength of a martial Supreme, but this was obviously an exaggeration. Young master Lai Feng, on the other hand, was a real martial Supreme, and there was no way he could compare with him. The reason why we’re so famous is only because we defeated the sea Race and gained glory for our race.”

“Mm, that’s true,” beiming Laifeng nodded. But, Yunxiao’s dantian was destroyed in the battle, and his martial Dao Foundation is crippled. What a pity!”

“Countless geniuses rise every year, but how many of them can stand at the end?” Liao yangbing laughed. Yunxiao was just one of the tens of millions of meteors, but thanks to the battle in Red Moon City, he had at least become famous all over the world, and he could be considered one of the luckier ones. Only a long-lasting existence like young master Lai Feng will be the future leader of this continent.”

Beiming Laifeng chuckled and said, “you’re too kind, too kind.” Let’s not talk about this, let’s continue with the proper business.”

“Alright, young master, please come in!”

Liao yangbing made a hand gesture, and the two of them smiled at each other and entered the pavilion.

The battle on the City Tower was still going on brilliantly. Runlong slashed down with his Big Fork, and 'li Yunxiao' raised his sword to block it.

"Bang!"

The sword broke with the sound, and 'Yunxiao' was so frightened that his face turned pale. He hurriedly put the divine realm tablet in front of him, but he was knocked away with a bang and saved his life!

"Haha, let's see how you're going to survive this time!"

With a sneer on his face, ruolong walked toward 'li Yunxiao' and snorted, " now that your profound level weapon has been destroyed and you've been hit by my true dragon Qi, your internal organs and meridians are all broken. Let's see how you can continue fighting!

The 'li Yunxiao' took a deep breath and calmed himself down. Then, he took out a medicinal pill and swallowed it. At the same time, he waved his hand in the air, and a bright sword appeared in his hand.

"Haha, it's useless! There is no medicine in the world that can cure my injuries caused by my true dragon Qi! My Ocean King's Trident is unstoppable, and no weapon in the world can block it!"

Runlong laughed arrogantly as he charged forward, raising his halberd and slashing down again.

'Li Yunxiao' snorted coldly and said, " "I don't think so!"

He activated the sword in his palm, and in an instant, it transformed into rays of sword light. There were a total of nine sword lights, and they slashed in the air as he shouted, " "I'll let you experience my sword technique, the nine Heavens embrace the moon!"

"Bang!"

The Trident in RUO Long's hand actually snapped at the sound. A wave of sword Qi rushed into his body and cut open that strange battle armor. He spat out a mouthful of blood as he was sent flying. His face was filled with fear and fury as he roared in disbelief, " "How could this be? How was that possible? How could your injuries have recovered so quickly? And my Sea King's Trident, the most yang and unyielding weapon in the world, how could it break?"

"Hmph, good question!"

'Li Yunxiao' cried out, " how can you sea beasts understand the Dao of alchemy of our human race?! The elixir I just used to heal my wounds was made by seven top alchemists of Tianyuan trading company after nearly a hundred years of research. They finally restored the ancient elixir recipe and made it with the best raw materials. This is a peerless elixir that can bring the dead back to life! And the clear sky Dragon spring Overlord sword in my hand is a peerless divine weapon forged by the seven top-tier alchemists by fusing more than three thousand kinds of minerals and using the fire of the Earth's core furnace. It can break anything with a blow!"

"No, no, I'm not willing to accept this!"

RUO long held onto the broken Trident in his hand, looked up at the sky, and let out a long sigh. He had a sorrowful look like a hero who had met his end, and said in despair, " "Li Yunxiao, remember this! I didn't lose to you, but to the divine pills and sharp weapons of Tianyuan trading company! I'm not willing to accept this!"

"Hmph, you're about to die, so there's no need to say anything!"

'Li Yunxiao' took a step forward and slashed down with his sword. The sword beam directly hit Runlong, and a stream of blood gushed out. Runlong's entire figure was sent flying, turning into a black dot on the horizon before disappearing.

'Li Yunxiao' looked in the direction where the black dot had disappeared, then turned to face the sea and shouted in an overbearing manner, " As long as I, Li Yunxiao, am here, you sea people will never be able to set foot on the continent!

His voice spread far and wide, and the entire Haitian town could hear it clearly.

'Li Yunxiao' turned around and smiled at the people below the city, " "In our line of work, we fight outside every day, the glint and flash of swords. Heh, ever since I used the products of Tianyuan trading company, I've been living up to my strength!"

With that, 'li Yunxiao' turned and rose into the air, turning into a beam of light and shooting into the sky before disappearing. Only a faint voice came from the distance, " "I came by stepping on the moonlight and left by the clear waves. Don't be infatuated with me, I'm just a legend."

"Wonderful, wonderful! I didn't expect the products of Tianyuan trading company to be so powerful!"

Immediately, there were people in the crowd who started shouting as if they had been injected with chicken blood.

"If you want to improve your martial arts, you'll have to find Tian Yuan sooner or later!"

Tianyuan trading company has a full set of enhanced equipment. They'll be able to enhance anything they can't!

"Ever since I got the products of Tianyuan trading company, mom doesn't have to worry about me being beaten by others."

...

"I'm buying, I want to buy!"

A fat man shouted and suddenly rushed into the nearby shop of Tianyuan trading company. Immediately, a sea of people squeezed in, making it impossible for even water to flow through.

"Don't push! Line up and pay attention to your manners!"

"Your sister! Whoever touches my thigh muscles, I will kill your entire family!"

“F * ck! If anyone else tries to poke my ass, I’m going to start killing!”

Yunxiao was also squeezed to the limit in the crowd. He took a step forward and disappeared into the void, only revealing himself when he was far away and no one was around.

With a wry smile, he said to himself, “ it took so long. It turns out that Tianyuan trading company is holding an event promotion. It seems that business will be booming for a few days. I’m afraid that the news about Ding Ling ‘er will have to be postponed. I’ll go to other trading companies to have a look.

Tianyuan trading company’s activity had attracted almost all the customers. The other trading companies, big and small, became deserted and deserted. Their eyes were filled with anger and resentment.

When Yunxiao stepped into the myriad treasures store, he heard a conversation inside.

“Shopkeeper, we can also do some advertising. Tianyuan trading company is going too far!”

“Play? What should he do? Just hiring two martial Supreme to put on a show would cost us tens of billions of primeval stones. The headquarters doesn’t value us at all, and even maintaining normal operations is a problem!”

this, then we can pay a part of the profit First. As long as the customers are attracted, we will earn it back sooner or later.

“Cushion? Would I dare to touch the profits? I don’t want to live anymore! Moreover, even if a martial honor was invited, there was no way to put on a show! Did you get Yunxiao’s permission? Did he give you the authorization to act in it?”

“Did Tianyuan trading company authorize it?”

“Tsk! That’s why I said you’re a pig! Who in the world did not know that Ding Ling ‘er was Yunxiao’s woman? Tianyuan trading company would be Yunxiao’s sooner or later, so did he need to authorize it? If we do the same, and Yunxiao comes to us, with his strength as the number one among the rising stars, he can kill us like chickens and dogs. Will the higher-ups fall out with Yunxiao for our lives? You pig brain! No wonder you’re still a worker after working for so long!”

Chapter 854-fake dan

“Hehe, if I take the position of the shopkeeper, what will you do?”

“Get lost! Don’t brag and flatter me. If we can’t do business today, you’ll pack up and get out! The ten thousand treasures tower doesn’t need trash!”

The innkeeper vented his anger and looked at the deserted court market. He estimated that there would be no more business and went to the backyard to sleep.

The shop assistant cursed the shopkeeper’s genealogy over a hundred times in his heart while he kept spitting and mumbling. Suddenly, his eyes lit up, and he hurried out of the door, pulling Yunxiao inside and saying, “What would you like to buy, Sir?”

Yunxiao shook his head with a wry smile. Although they were breathing the same air, these ordinary people were from two completely different worlds. “Do you have the moon Pearl of the East Sea?”

“Moon Pearl of the eastern sea?”

The shop assistant was taken aback. He looked Yunxiao up and down and said, “This thing is extremely rare, and our store doesn’t have any stock. If you want it, Sir, you can leave your contact information and pay a deposit. Once we get it, we will immediately inform you.”

Yunxiao was rather disappointed. Frowning, he said, “Even the myriad treasures store doesn’t have it?”

The shop assistant explained, “there are thousands of products in the East Sea. I also know about this Moon Pearl. Although it is not a precious thing, it is a rare item and very few people know about its existence. I bought one not long ago, so I have a deep impression of it. The Pearl was transferred to another place and bought by someone else.

Looking at Yunxiao's frowning face, the shop assistant laughed and said, "This kind of rare item is very difficult to obtain in a short time. Perhaps some great clans and sects have it in stock. This is also a rare Pearl from the East, called the turtle and clam tri-pole Pearl. It's crystal clear, round, and colorful, elegant and pure. Hey, don't go. Yingluo, this Pearl can help you lose weight and maintain your beauty. Hey, don't go. This Pearl can also boost your yang, Yingluo!"

Yunxiao was quite unwilling to give up. He asked one Chamber of Commerce after another, but none of them gave him the answer.

Just as he was at his wit's end, the signboard of a Chamber of Commerce suddenly came into view, making his eyes light up.

The Purple Cloud trade union.

After the Tianyuan trading company's performance, the other trading companies were almost deserted. However, The Purple Cloud trading company had many people going in and out, and its business seemed to be unaffected.

Hello, Sir. I'm sales guide number three of The Purple Cloud trade union. Are you here to buy the heavenly Yuan set?"

"Hello, Sir. We can purchase the heavenly Yuan set on your behalf."

"Take care, guest."

A kind voice came out one after another, and the lovely Hanxuan appeared in front of Yunxiao's eyes. With a smile on his face, he walked in naturally.

"C-Dear Customer, what would you like to buy? I'm ... I'm the number five heaven origin set. Are ... Are you here to buy a shop assistant?"

He saw a shy little girl looking at him nervously. Her hands were dancing and tearing her flowery clothes. She was very nervous. There was a number "five" hanging on her waist. She didn't realize that she had misspoken at all. She read it as if she had memorized it, we can purchase the heavenly Yuan set for you as long as you pay an extra 100 mid-grade primordial stones. If you need it, please register here.

Without waiting for a reply, she pulled Yunxiao to the registration counter.

The woman in charge of registration raised her head and said in surprise, "Aiya, little red, you've just closed a business deal? Amazing!" The woman gave her a thumbs up and gave her an encouraging look.

Xiao Hong laughed foolishly and said happily, "hehe, thank you, sister min. I will work hard. Xiaohong clenched her fists in front of her chest, her face full of motivation.

Jiang qianrong, the person in charge, nodded politely at Yunxiao and said, "Sir, what suit number do you want to order? If it's a popular model, we'll have to wait for the supply."

Yunxiao felt a little dizzy. She had not said a word since she entered the room. Was this little girl pretending to be stupid or was she really stupid? He glanced at the bulletin board around him. From medicinal pills to battle suits, there was almost everything.

Jiang qianrong pointed at one of the sets and said, this is the suit and sword that Yunxiao wore when he fought runlong, and it's also the most popular set for sale right now. We've already received more than three thousand orders, and we don't know how many more have been sold by Tianyuan trading company. If you choose this set, it will probably take some time for it to arrive."

Yunxiao was dumbfounded. No wonder he felt that they looked familiar. They were the ones worn by the fake during the commercial show, and there was a description on the side, saying that he would give them three Origin Energy gathering pills that could bring the dead back to life and grow flesh from bones, which were made exactly like the ancient pill recipe.

I'm not here to buy a suit," Yunxiao said. do you have the moon Pearl of the East Sea? "

He saw that everyone was busy and didn't want to waste Jiang qianrong's time, so he asked directly.

Jiang qianrong was stunned for a moment. She looked at Xiao Hong and said, "Moon Pearl of the eastern sea? There doesn't seem to be such a thing."

Seeing that he didn't want to buy the set, Jiang qianrong's enthusiasm was reduced by a lot, but she still said enthusiastically, "Guest, you can look at other things. Xiao Hong, please entertain this guest."

When little red heard that he wasn't going to buy the suit, she immediately became anxious and said, "C-Dear Customer, aren't you here to buy a suit? Why did you suddenly stop buying?"

She was about 11 or 12 years old, and her face turned red when she was anxious. This was her first business deal, how could it be ruined?

Yunxiao could tell that she was not playing dumb, so it must be her first time working as a shopping guide, and her mental fortitude was not good enough. He sighed and said, "Little girl, I never said I wanted to buy anything from you."

"This ... If you're not buying, then what are you doing here?" Xiao Hong asked, embarrassed.

Yunxiao felt that it was a little difficult to argue with the little girl. Just as he was about to leave, a large group of people suddenly poured in from outside the door. They all had unkind looks on their faces, and their primordial energy fluctuated out of their bodies, showing that they were all strong.

The menacing aura of these people immediately scared the sales ladies to the side, and all the business was immediately interrupted.

"What's wrong with your ran ran?"

As the person in charge of the front desk, Jiang qianrong immediately noticed that something was wrong. She quickly took out a jade talisman and broke it. It was a communication signal.

Although The Purple Cloud trade union was small, it was still a powerful force with its own strong guards. Otherwise, it would not have been able to establish itself in Haitian town.

“Hmph, what’s the matter? I was going to ask you guys!”

A man walked out from the group of fiendish people with a cold expression. With a wave of his hand, the crowd immediately parted. Two burly men carried a stretcher in and walked to one side of the ground. The man on the stretcher had a blue face and white foam in his mouth. He had been dead for a long time.

“Yu chengshuang, it’s you?”

Jiang qianrong immediately recognized the man in front of her. He was the leader of the famous Hunter team in Haitian town.

Haitian town gathered a large number of idle martial artists, who relied on hunting sea beasts and fishing all kinds of underwater treasures as their professions to exchange for cultivation resources. As they developed, they naturally formed their own groups.

Yu chengshuang was the boss of one of the more famous groups. His eyes were burning with anger as he pointed at the dead man on the ground and said word by word through gritted teeth: The Purple Cloud trade union sold fake elixirs and killed my brother!

“What?”

This sentence was like a sudden clap of thunder on the ground, exploding everyone. They were all shocked.

Jiang qianrong immediately understood the severity of the situation and said calmly, “Yu chengshuang, please mind your words and actions! You’re trying to frame The Purple Cloud trade union before we’ve even figured out the truth. Do you think we’re pushovers? The Purple Cloud trade union has existed for so many years, when have they ever sold fake pills?”

“Hmph, only you guys know if you’ve sold fake medicine! If there’s no problem, then what about my brother’s life?”

Yu chengshuang snorted coldly and stretched out his hand. He immediately grabbed a nearby sales lady and pressed her down. He said angrily, look, look clearly, where's my brother's life?!

“Wuwuwu!”

The saleswoman had never seen such a scene before. She was so frightened that she covered her mouth and cried, her body trembling.

...

“Yu chengshuang, let her go!” Jiang qianrong was furious.

Yu chengshuang snorted coldly, still holding the sales assistant like he was holding a little chicken, he said coldly, “I just want you to see clearly that my brother's life was lost because of you!”

“Let go of sister Lian! You're a bad person, you made sister Lian cry!”

Xiao Hong's tender voice rang out, she ran forward and forcefully pulled Yu Cheng Shuang's hand, trying to save the shop assistant.

Everyone was stunned as they looked at this ridiculous scene. An ordinary little girl was snatching a Pixiu from a martial honor.

“Get lost!”

Yu chengshuang shouted angrily and shook his arm slightly, sending Xiao Hong flying away. At the same time, he also threw the sales lady away and sneered, “Today, no matter how you quibble or try to clear your name, you have to pay for my brother's life!”

“Pay for my brother's life!”

Everyone shouted in unison with a mountain-like aura, shaking the entire Chamber of Commerce. The hatred they felt was not fake at all, and all the buyers began to discuss it.

Jiang qianrong's expression became extremely ugly. The other party had obviously come prepared. If the matter of selling fake pills and killing people was confirmed, it would be a destructive blow to the Chamber of Commerce. She suddenly panicked.

"Impudent!"

Suddenly, a cold shout was heard. The powerful cultivators of The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce rushed out from all directions and stood in opposition to these people. An old man with a walking stick in his hand suppressed everyone with his imposing aura.

Yunxiao looked at the old man. He was only a five-stars martial venerable, but apart from Yu chengshuang, who was a three-stars martial venerable, the rest of them had limited strength, so they were more than enough to deal with him.

"Uncle Wu, no matter how strong you are, you can't let my brother die in vain!"

Yu chengshuang said with grief and indignation, "the Justice of heaven and earth is in the hearts of the people. Now that so many people are present, could it be that you want to use force to destroy justice?"

Uncle Wu used to be a famous Hunter in the Tianhai town. However, he was getting old and it was hopeless for him to break through to the martial Supreme realm. Gradually, he grew tired of the life of adventure every day. He was hired by The Purple Cloud trade union at a high price as an elder protector.

Taiyi hadn't asked for monthly votes for a long time, because the website was too powerful, and it couldn't be placed on the list. However, the monthly votes everyone cast this month were so fierce. I didn't realize it at first, but today I saw it directly enter the eighth place in the category. It's unbelievable, Yingluo. Thank you for your votes! Please give me all the monthly votes and recommendation votes you have!

Chapter 855-inspection

Uncle Wu glanced at these angry people. He knew them all. Strictly speaking, they were all his juniors. Some of them had more or less received his care.

He looked around at the crowd and said, "I understand everyone's feelings. But think about it, how long has The Purple Cloud trade union been established? have you ever seen anyone selling fake pills? If there is, is it only sold to you? And what was their purpose in selling fake pills? In order to get more money? If The Purple Cloud trade union was such a stupid organization, would it still be standing now?"

Uncle Wu's tone suddenly became stern, directly speaking to everyone's heart. Immediately, everyone felt that this was indeed the case. Selling fake pills was simply too unreasonable.

Yu chengshuang saw that the atmosphere was not right and immediately said, "Uncle Wu's words aren't unreasonable. We've thought about all this. However, my brother was indeed poisoned to death after taking the pills of your purple cloud trade union! The brothers behind me all saw it with their own eyes! I don't doubt The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce's credibility. It's possible that an Alchemist is careless when refining the pills, or that a shop assistant is secretly selling the fake ones to make a small profit! But even so, The Purple Cloud trade union can not escape responsibility!"

When everyone heard this, it was indeed reasonable. After all, when the Chamber of Commerce expanded, anything could happen. Even the myriad treasures store could not guarantee that every link was accurate.

Uncle Wu was also stunned. He could not guarantee that the fake elixir was not from The Purple Cloud trade union.

"Since no one is certain about this matter, we must investigate it clearly. We will clear the name of The Purple Cloud trade union and seek justice for the dead."

Yunxiao's heart skipped a beat when he heard a silvery and melodious voice. He was surprised that she was also in Haitian town.

The purple figure floated over, giving off a luxurious and elegant feeling, causing everyone to be stunned.

“President Hanxuan!” Jiang qianrong hurriedly came forward to welcome her.

The woman who came in was Hanxuan. She had a more noble and steady temperament than she had that day, and her face did not have the anxiety that she had that day. It seemed that the difficulties of The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce had been overcome.

There were too many people in the shop, so Hanxuan did not notice Yunxiao. Instead, she fixed her eyes on Yu chengshuang and said coldly, “Since we’ve made things clear, we must find out the truth and give everyone an explanation. After all, it’s not rare for people of the same trade to use despicable means to attack each other.”

“You mean I used my brother’s life to trick you?” Yu chengshuang said angrily. As the president of a large Chamber of Commerce, is it appropriate for you to speak so irresponsibly?”

Hanxuan said calmly, “I’m just listing a possibility, just like the ones you’ve listed. The most important thing now is to find out the truth, not to make irresponsible accusations.

Yu chengshuang sneered, “the truth is that after my brother took the pill you bought here, he died from poison!”

Hanxuan looked at the dead man on the ground. He was indeed dying from the poison. She said, “Where are the pills you bought? Don’t tell me you’ve only bought one. It’s already gone.”

Yu chengshuang took out a box and threw it over, coldly snorting: “I knew you would say that. These are the eighteen sixth-grade blood stasis dispersing pills I bought from you before I went out to sea to hunt. There are seventeen left now, take a look for yourself!”

Hanxuan opened the box and took a look. She frowned. The blood stasis dispersing pill was indeed a product of The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce, and it was refined according to the pill formula Yunxiao had given her. It had an excellent effect, and was one of the main pills they were currently selling.

After the confirmation, Hanxuan's heart also heaved a slight sigh of relief. This blood stasis dispersing pill had been out for so long, and the market response had always been good, without any problems. It could be seen that this incident wasn't caused by the pill itself, but by another reason.

She handed the box to Jiang qianrong and said, " check the delivery record, and then find an Alchemist to verify these seventeen pills.

Jiang qianrong immediately gave the order. The entire shop was silent. No one made a sound, and they just watched quietly.

Soon, the account book was found. The goods were indeed from The Purple Cloud trade union. A trembling Alchemist was also invited to the front of the shop.

Yunxiao looked at him and found that The Alchemist happened to have a sixth-tier cultivation base, and he seemed to be very respected.

"Elder Gao, please verify these blood stasis dispersing pills," Hanxuan said.

Elder Gao nodded. He took one out of the box and placed it in his hand. He immediately wrapped it with soul power and began to analyze it carefully. From time to time, a light would flash from the pill, analyzing its composition.

Yu chengshuang's expression was also very serious, he stared at the pill without blinking, as if he was very nervous.

After the time it took to brew a cup of tea, elder Gao's body trembled slightly. It was obvious that he had expended too much energy. He wiped the sweat from his forehead and put the elixir back."Lady Hanxuan, President Qian Rong, the ingredients in this blood stasis dispersing pill are exactly the same as the blood stasis dispersing pill we produced. There's no problem."

“Hahaha! Let’s see how you’re going to explain this!”

Yu chengshuang laughed out loud and said, “ even your own Alchemist has said that there is no problem with the pills. But you’ve killed my brother! This meant that the blood stasis dispersing pill itself contained a huge flaw! It’ll produce a deadly poison!”

The crowd was also in an uproar and began to discuss one after another, especially those who had already bought the blood stasis dispersing pill. One by one, they began to make a fuss about asking for a refund.

Hanxuan’s expression was also a bit unsightly. She ordered someone to bring a dog over and feed it a medicinal pill on the spot. The dog was still alive and kicking at first, but after a few moments, it fell to the ground and died while foaming at the mouth. Its face was blue, and its body was stiff, exactly the same as the dead man!

“Argh! It’s indeed poisonous!”

Some customers couldn’t help but exclaim. All kinds of suspicions were raised, and the people of The Purple Cloud trade union turned pale.

Elder Gao coughed violently. He understood the severity of the matter and said in a trembling voice, “ my strength is limited, and my energy is getting worse and worse with each year. It’s too difficult for me to analyze this sixth-tier pill. Lady Luan Xuan, you’d better go to Tianyuan trading company and ask a great Alchemist to identify it.

“Hmph, it’s useless even if we invite a ninth-tier Alchemist! The Purple Cloud trading company was the one who gave out the pills, and nothing has changed. Even the dog was poisoned to death after eating it, and you still want to shirk responsibility?”

Yu chengshuang’s face was full of pride, and he didn’t even have the grief and indignation of his brother’s death.

“Elder Gao also admitted that his body is getting worse and worse,” Hanxuan said calmly. “It’s very difficult to appraise a sixth-tier medicinal pill.” Furthermore, even if elder Gao were to identify the difference between this pill and the blood stasis dispersing pill of The Purple Cloud trade union, would you let it go? Wouldn't it be more fair to find an Alchemist from a third-party Chamber of Commerce?"

Yu chengshuang sneered, "I knew you guys would play tricks. Who doesn't know that Tianyuan trading company is your backer? can you guarantee fairness?" It's fine to invite a third party, and I've already thought about it for you. I've already sent someone to invite master si deyuan over. Let's see what else you have to say when master si deyuan's appraisal results are out!"

Everyone from The Purple Cloud trade union was stunned, as if they had smelled a conspiracy.

Master si deyuan was an eighth-tier Alchemist hired by the city Lord Mansion. Usually, it was not easy for even the heads of the major Chambers of Commerce to meet him, let alone a Hunter leader like Yu chengshuang. So, why would he come to The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce to test the pills for such a trivial matter?

However, with si deyuan's status, if he were to make a judgment, it would almost be the end of the case. Because there were only three eighth-tier alchemists in Haitian town, and two of them were in other Chambers of Commerce, which were competitors with The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce, it was impossible to invite them.

Hanxuan's expression became more serious than ever. She was certain that this was a conspiracy, and it was getting bigger and bigger, trying to devour her Chamber of Commerce bit by bit. Although she knew it, she couldn't struggle and was being devoured.

"He's here, the master is here!"

Just as everyone was in shock, a voice came from outside the door.

An exquisite and luxurious carriage stopped in front of The Purple Cloud trade union. It was the highest-class carriage in the city Lord's mansion. There were only two of them in the entire Haitian town. One was owned by the city Lord of Haitian town, and the other was owned by si deyuan, an eighth-tier great Alchemist.

"It's indeed master's carriage, I've seen it before."

I didn't expect that even master si deyuan would be invited. I've been in Haitian town for so many years, but I've never seen the master's face. Today, I can finally have a taste of my own medicine!

with master si deyuan presiding over the matter, the truth will be revealed very soon!

Under the crowd's soft discussions, two beautiful maidservants in exquisitely dressed walked out of the carriage. The two of them carefully helped an old man with white hair that hung down to his shoulders.

Everyone was greatly disappointed. Apart from his ruddy complexion, he looked no different from an ordinary old man. He was not as elegant as everyone had imagined.

Although Haitian town was a big commercial city in the Eastern Region, it was located on the coast of the East Sea, far away from the spiritual mountains and rivers in the center of the Eastern Region. The Qi of heaven and earth was very thin, so few Masters were willing to come here. Therefore, the people who could be hired were only some old men who had no hope of cultivation.

master, you're finally here. I hope you can help my brother!

Yu chengshuang hurriedly went forward to welcome him. He carefully helped si deyuan in as if he was his own father.

...

Hanxuan knew that the situation wasn't good, but she still had to be polite and greeted him politely.

Si deyuan also responded softly. However, when he looked at Hanxuan, his turbid eyes flashed with a glimmer of light. He said slowly, "it turns out that the chief of The Purple Cloud trade union is here. I've been disrespectful!

"You're too kind, Grandmaster," Hanxuan replied with a smile. It's all The Purple Cloud trade Union's fault for being incompetent. It's such a small matter that you have to come in person. I'm really uneasy, but I'm also touched by your kind spirit of helping others."

Her words immediately caused many people to frown, as if they had heard something. Given si deyuan's status, he shouldn't have been invited so easily. Could there be a problem?

Chapter 856-joke

A look of guilt flashed across si deyuan's face. He said with slight anger, "This is a matter of life and death, how can it be a small matter? We've only lost one person so far, but if the situation is not controlled and allowed to spread, the harm will be difficult to estimate."

Hanxuan didn't have any good ideas at the moment. Under such circumstances, she could only play it by ear. If she wasn't careful, The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce would most likely fall here. Qian Rong, take a real blood stasis dispersing pill and this fake pill for the master to examine. With your abilities, you will definitely discover the subtleties and prove The Purple Cloud trade Union's innocence."

"Yes!"

Jiang qianrong took out a non-toxic pill and placed it beside the poisonous one. Her face was also full of worry. It wasn't easy for the president to come to Haitian town, and this situation had already happened.

Si deyuan's lazy gaze swept across the elixir. He grabbed one with each hand and held the fake elixir in his left hand. He poured a stream of pure soul power into it. His dispirited look was immediately swept away and he became full of energy.

A surge of mental energy gushed out, forming a faint power around him, making it impossible for anyone around him to get close.

Everyone watched nervously, especially the people of The Purple Cloud trade union. Their hands were covered in sweat.

Yunxiao looked over slightly and was stunned. Si deyuan seemed to be putting on a show, but in fact, he was just putting on an act. It seemed that this man had long colluded with Yu chengshuang.

After a while, si deyuan stopped acting. He wiped the sweat off his forehead and said, " the ingredients of these two pills are exactly the same. There is no difference. They are both from The Purple Cloud trade union!

"What?"

This conclusion undoubtedly pushed The Purple Cloud trade union into the abyss. Hanxuan could no longer remain calm and said in a deep voice, " "Master, are you 100% confident?"

Although she had already concluded that si deyuan and Yu chengshuang were in cahoots, she still had a glimmer of hope in her heart. However, si deyuan's answer immediately shattered her fantasy.

"Of course!"

A hint of displeasure flashed across si deyuan's face. He seemed to be very angry that others doubted his strength. He snorted coldly and said, " If you don't believe my judgment, you can go to the sea of soul formation and ask a ninth-tier great Alchemist to come here.

Hanxuan's face turned pale. With their abilities, how could they hire a ninth-tier great Alchemist? even if they did, it would take a long time, and the Tianyuan Chamber of Commerce would probably be defeated by their secret opponents. Since their opponents had such a vicious move, they must have a backup plan. She seemed to see a bloody mouth that was about to swallow her completely, but she knew nothing about it.

"I didn't expect The Purple Cloud trade union to be such a despicable place. I want a refund!"

Immediately, someone shouted, which caused a chain reaction. Everyone demanded a refund, like a tide. Everyone in The Purple Cloud trade union turned pale and was at a loss.

"Mr. President, what should we do?"

Jiang qianrong was so anxious that she almost cried.

Hanxuan's face turned pale as she gritted her teeth and said, "I'll return everything you want!" But I will prove The Purple Cloud trade Union's innocence and find the real culprit!"

"Hmph, innocence? You should pay for my brother's life first!"

Yu chengshuang snorted coldly, a murderous look appeared on his face as he pounced forward.

Elder Wu hurriedly tapped his walking stick and blocked the attack.

"Bang!"

The two of them exchanged a palm strike each. Yu chengshuang's realm was not high enough, so he was forced to retreat. He shouted angrily, "Elder Wu, are you really going to help the evildoer?"

"Hmph, it's still too early to say who's the referee!"

Elder Wu had been in The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce for a long time and knew their style. They would never produce poisonous pills. He had also seen many cruel Business Wars between Chambers of Commerce. He knew that The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce had been framed this time, but it was impossible to clear the snow for the time being.

Si deyuan looked over and said in a serious voice, "Elder Wu, we've found out that The Purple Cloud trade union is selling poisonous pills. On behalf of the city Lord's mansion, I'm now sealing up this Chamber of Commerce for the city Lord to deal with. If you dare to make a move, it'll be a public protest against the city Lord's mansion!"

Elder Wu's expression changed drastically. If he publicly resisted the city Lord's mansion's accusation, he would not be able to survive in Haitian town. There weren't any major forces in Haitian town, and the city Lord, Liao yangbing, was the strongest expert in the entire town. Si deyuan's status was enough to speak on behalf of the city Lord's office.

He hesitated for a while before finally laughing out loud."Hahaha! I've lived for more than a hundred years, and I really don't care much about this little life! After so many years of fighting in the sea, he had thought that he was going to die a few times. He was almost alive! The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce has treated me with great kindness. Today, knowing that the Chamber of Commerce has been wronged, how can I disregard justice for my own life?"

The walking stick in his hand swept out and blocked Hanxuan and the others.

Si deyuan's face twitched. He said angrily, "Since that's the case, I'll wait for the city Lord's mansion to deal with you!"

"Go!"

With a furious shout, a figure immediately flashed over. He was extremely fast and struck out with a palm before elder Wu could defend. Elder Wu was struck in the chest and was sent flying while spitting out blood.

arrest all the people of The Purple Cloud trade union," si deyuan said coldly. lock them up in the dungeon and seal up the trade union!

The figure accepted the order and immediately moved towards Hanxuan to get rid of elder Wu. These people were simply a motley crew.

"Good, good!" Hanxuan laughed in anger. I've prepared everything, but I don't know who's the mastermind behind this. I'm not convinced!"

She hurriedly pulled out her sword to defend herself, as if she was no match for the other party. The long sword in her hand was sent flying by the other party's finger. She could only watch helplessly as a sinister smile appeared on the cold face of the other party, and a big iron claw-like hand grabbed her neck.

Hanxuan was filled with grief and indignation. She couldn't bear to watch any longer, so she closed her eyes and waited for her death.

But after a while, his neck was not attacked, and the surroundings seemed to have become a little quiet.

She opened her eyes in shock and saw a familiar figure walking out of the crowd. He chuckled and said, "After watching for so long, I thought I could lure out the person behind this. I didn't expect it to be a group of minions. Forget it, I'll deal with you minions first. After hitting the dog, the master will come out."

you're bullying young master Yun!

Hanxuan felt like she was in a trance. no, no, it must be my illusion.

She lowered her head and rubbed her eyes with both hands. When she opened them again, she still had that delicate and pretty face, looking at her with a smile.

"Is it really you? Young master Yun!"

She used her nails to pinch herself, and the pain became more and more painful. Then, she gradually believed it. She suddenly covered her mouth with her right hand and forced herself not to cry, but her eyes were still gradually red, and two lines of tears fell.

"What's going on? Go on, capture them all!"

Si deyuan suddenly had a bad feeling. He quickly ordered, but the figure still did not move.

Yunxiao stepped forward with a smile and gently pushed the man, who immediately fell to the ground with a bang. He had been dead for a while. you will never be able to order him.

"?! He's dead? This, how is this possible?"

Si deyuan was greatly shocked. Yu chengshuang's heart also trembled in disbelief.

This expert was a seven-stars martial Supreme and was considered to be one of the top experts in Haitian town. How could he be killed silently in front of so many eyes?

They all felt their blood run cold, as if the god of death was approaching.

...

“You, Who are you? How dare you obstruct the city Lord’s office?”

Si deyuan calmed down a little. Given his status, the other party would not dare to do anything.

“Everyone, be quiet!”

Yunxiao made a silencing gesture and said, “ The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce will never sell fake pills. The fake one is si deyuan. He’s not an eighth-tier Alchemist at all. He’s just a charlatan!

“What?”

This piece of news was even more shocking than the fact that The Purple Cloud trade union was selling fake pills. Everyone stopped returning the goods and turned around to look.

“That’s impossible, right? Master si deyuan has an eighth-tier Alchemist badge personally issued by the sea of soul formation!”

that’s right. The master has been famous in Haitian town for a long time. How can it be fake? ”

“Who is this kid? You dare to speak so arrogantly, do you not want your life?”

Si deyuan was stunned for a moment before he laughed out loud. His eyes were full of mockery as he said, “ I was wondering what you would say. How dare you question my alchemy qualifications? Haha, haha, what a big joke!

Hanxuan no longer looked nervous and uneasy. With a faint smile on her lips, she looked like a beautiful fairy as she stood quietly and looked at Yunxiao.

...

Not only the incident in lifire city, but also the world-famous battle in Red Moon City had filled her with absolute confidence in Yunxiao. She only needed to watch quietly. With him around, everything would be fine.

The Purple Cloud trade union could be saved now. I didn't expect to owe him another favor. How can I repay him?

Jiang qianrong was also quite surprised. This young man who didn't buy any suits actually knew the president, and it seemed like they had a good relationship. What made her even more confused was why the president was so relaxed after seeing this person?

She was the closest to Hanxuan, so she could feel that Hanxuan was not pretending.

that's right! Yunxiao sneered. You're the biggest joke in Haitian town! Today, not only am I going to expose you, but I'm also going to take you to the sea of soul formation to receive the most severe punishment!"

"Hmph, impudent!"

I'm a genuine eighth-tier Alchemist! si deyuan said angrily. do I still need to prove it to you? "

Yunxiao laughed and said, " I can say that I am a ninth-tier Alchemist. These two sixth-tier medicinal pills are obviously made of different ingredients. You can't even tell that, and you dare to call yourself an eighth-tier Alchemist? then, don't you think that I am a tenth-tier Alchemist? "

"What? Could master si deyuan have made a wrong judgment?"

Everyone was shocked, disbelieving, and full of doubt.

Si deyuan said furiously, "you're spouting nonsense!" These two pills are exactly the same, this old man can guarantee it with my reputation!"

Yunxiao smiled. you're a liar. You don't have any reputation. I'll expose you on the spot today. I'll demonstrate to everyone what's the difference between these two pills!"

Chapter 857-decomposition

Yunxiao walked confidently to the counter where the pills were placed. He was the one who gave the recipe of the blood stasis dispersing pill to The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce, and the formula was very clear. Since it was not poisonous, there must be something different about it.

Furthermore, even if these two pills were exactly the same, he could still change them.

"Hanxuan, bring me two purple vessels."

"Give it to him now!" Hanxuan immediately ordered.

Jiang qianrong immediately found two high-quality purple containers and placed them on the counter.

Yunxiao put the two pills in front of the crowd, then began to search the shop. Soon, he found a large number of various materials, then took out a glass vessel and put it in it, burning it lightly with fire and began to melt it.

"What are they doing? Is this kid also an Alchemist?"

"Yes, that's possible. Didn't he say that he was going to expose master si deyuan? If I don't have some skills, how can I expose him?"

tsk, it's true that newborn calves are not afraid of Tigers. I guess this young man is at most at the peak of the second rank. I'm afraid he didn't see master's technique, so he thought master was a liar.

Si deyuan watched his actions coldly. It was not until Yunxiao shook the materials into the air with his soul power and injected them with various incantations to condense them that his face began to turn serious, and his face was filled with shock.

As Yunxiao cast one incantation gesture after another, his skillful technique and beautiful figure made everyone shut up.

They had more or less seen alchemists refining, but no one had ever made it so ornamental. It was no longer a pure refining, but an art.

Si deyuan's expression grew more and more solemn. With his eyes, he could naturally tell that Yunxiao's refining technique was not an ordinary one, but one that had been accumulated over countless years. It was as strong as a thousand-hammer strike!

"Whoosh!"

As the last spell was cast, the materials in the air were refined into a colorless and odorless transparent liquid, just like ordinary water.

this solution is a decomposition solution, which can gradually decompose the formed pills," Yunxiao said. it is a general item used to study the structure of materials. In order to explain it to you in detail, I'll explain clearly what the difference between these two pills is in a way that you can understand.

In fact, he didn't know what the difference between the two pills was, but he wasn't worried. As he went deeper, he would easily find the problem. Even si deyuan might have noticed it, but he didn't say anything.

"Who is this young man? His technique just now was so beautiful. He's definitely not an ordinary Alchemist!"

yeah, I've been dealing with alchemists for many years, but I've never seen such a beautiful scene.

“Could it be that Qianqian was telling the truth? Master si deyuan is really embarrassed.”

The sound was getting softer and softer, but the shop was only so big, so how could si deyuan not hear it? his face grew colder and colder as he stared at the two purple containers.

As the colorless liquid was poured in, the pills in the two vessels began to melt. However, it was not an ordinary melting, but a reverse decomposition!

“In order to let everyone see clearly, I will control the reverse decomposition process of these two pills! In the world of alchemy, there is no absolute reverse decomposition, only a relative reverse decomposition.”

Yunxiao took out the mirror of evening clouds, which transformed into a mirror image in the air. A beam of light shone down and reflected the scene in the two vessels onto a wall, making it hundreds of times larger. The whole process also became slow under the light of the mirror.

“It’s actually so magical?”

Many people felt that it was an eye-opening experience, while si deyuan, Yu chengshuang, and the others ‘faces became uglier and uglier!

Especially si deyuan. With his cultivation base as an eighth-tier Alchemist, he could naturally find that the mirror contained a very strong power, far beyond the recognition of his soul power. So, what did this mean?

A Mystic artifact that even an eighth-tier Alchemist could not recognize could only be a ninth-tier Mystic artifact!

Who was this young man? He actually had a ninth tier profound armament!

At this moment, si deyuan could no longer remain calm. Cold sweat began to ooze out of his forehead. He found that the reverse decomposition method Yunxiao had just performed was beyond his understanding, both in terms of principle and technique!

How was this possible? I'm an eighth-tier Alchemist! I can't understand this young man's technique?

A nonsensical feeling spread in his heart. He only felt that everything in front of him was not real. It was too absurd!

"This is the teeth-tearing grass, this is the hairy leaf wing, and this is the Yama grass orchid."

The light screen on the wall began to slowly separate some substances. Yunxiao pointed at them and began to explain, "The Yama grass orchid's effect is to gather Qi and restore blood, and it's one of the main ingredients of the blood stasis dispersing pill. Moreover, it must be a Yama grass orchid that's more than a hundred years old. Only in this way can the spirit Qi contained in it allow a martial artist in the six directions realm to fully recover, and at the seven constellations realm, it can recover at least a third or more. In other words, the age of the Yama grass orchid basically determined the quality of this blood stasis dispersing pill. When choosing the pill, you can pay special attention. If there are more of these fine purple lines in the pill, it proves that the Yama grass orchid is older, and the more effective it is."

Many people took out the blood stasis dispersing pills they had bought and began to check them carefully. Sure enough, they found that the purple lines were different in shape and color.

Jiang qianrong was completely dumbfounded. She had been a shopkeeper for so many years and had come into contact with tens of thousands of blood stasis dispersing pills, but she had never known that there were so many great things.

Hanxuan had a smile on her face as she looked on and listened with satisfaction. Her mood that had fallen into the abyss just now had become extremely blissful. She really wanted to make a pot of good tea and slowly taste it.

"Then what's with the uneven ravines on the ground?"

Some attentive people started to ask.

'This is the effect of the other main material,' Yunxiao said with a smile. Everyone, quickly look, this thing is about to be decomposed!"

He stretched out his hand and pointed. On the projection on the wall, as the blood stasis dispersing pill became smaller and smaller, some hair-thin things began to slowly float out of the pill and spread out. More and more of them appeared, like willow catkins flying in the air.

"This thing is called dried Mountain Baby, and it's another main ingredient. Its function is to purify vital Qi and eliminate all kinds of abnormal energy, so no matter what kind of energy is in your body, taking a blood stasis dispersing pill can resolve most of it. "

I see. It actually has such a function. We didn't even know about it!

Everyone sighed with emotion.

that's not the only effect," Yunxiao said with a smile. you've spent the same amount of money to supplement two things, but you're not satisfied. Instead, he listened to the rumors of swindlers who could not tell right from wrong. The decomposition of the two pills is almost complete. I think the key point will soon be revealed."

Si deyuan's face was so dark that water was about to drip out of it. At the same time, his heart was as heavy as lead. The foundation of the art of Dao displayed by Yunxiao was not inferior to his.

And the person in front of him was so young.

With his eyes, he could naturally tell Yunxiao's true age, and it was absolutely true! Heavens, he's not even twenty years old, but his cultivation in the art of divination is at least at the eighth level!

He only felt more and more cold sweat on his body. This young man was already terrifying enough. Only the heavens knew what kind of power was behind him. Could he be a peerless genius specially cultivated by the sea of soul formation? Why would he help The Purple Cloud trade union?

At the thought of this, si deyuan could no longer relax. He began to have a bad feeling in his heart and even regretted getting involved. The situation, which was originally in the bag and had no chance of changing, seemed to be tilting.

Yunxiao's eyes gradually turned serious. At that moment, a stone-like object suddenly emerged from the core. A bright light flashed in his eyes as he shouted, "It's here!"

He cast a spell into the sunset Cloud Mirror, and the mirror light suddenly became stronger, stopping the disintegration process.

Yunxiao slammed his palm on the table, and two gray objects immediately shook out of the vessel and fell into his left and right hands.

Si deyuan's heart skipped a beat as well. He became nervous.

He did not find any difference between the two pills. So, even though Yunxiao had shown that his achievements in alchemy were not weaker than his, and although his heart was heavy, at least he did not panic. But now, he was indeed a little confused, because the other party would never shoot without thinking!

Yunxiao held the two items in his hand and showed them to the crowd as he said with a smile, "Are there any alchemists here? would you like to come out and do an appraisal?"

Everyone looked at each other. Finally, a man volunteered and said, "I'm a third-tier Alchemist, do you need my help, my Lord?"

Yunxiao's demonstration and explanation of the whole process had completely convinced him, and his tone was full of respect.

Yunxiao extended both hands in front of him and said, "Take a look and see what these two items are."

The third-tier Alchemist stared at it carefully, sniffing it from time to time, and not forgetting to pour his soul power into it to check. In the end, he said with great certainty, " this is the solid form of the solution of the core of the Ziyang seahorse. The other one is the same.

Yunxiao smiled and raised his hands in front of si deyuan as he said with a chuckle, " "Master, what do you think?"

The word "Grandmaster" was emphasized heavily and was full of sarcasm.

For some reason, everyone began to believe Yunxiao. Although they could not say that si deyuan was a liar, they chose to believe Yunxiao's words emotionally.

Si deyuan's expression was gloomy. He looked at the two items and snorted. "It's all the residue of the Ziyang seahorse's inner core. I can tell at a glance!"

...

Yunxiao smiled, which gave si deyuan an extremely bad feeling.

"Hanxuan, do you know what the problem is now?"

Yunxiao did not analyze anything, but asked Hanxuan directly, which stunned everyone.

"What?"

Hanxuan came back to her senses and blushed, " "You're asking me?" She pondered for a while, then her eyes suddenly lit up and she said excitedly, " "I understand!"

Chapter 858-behind the scenes

"So that's what happened!" Hanxuan said excitedly.

Everyone didn't know what was going on. They thought that the purple seahorse was a common sea beast. Was there a problem?

Hanxuan's eyes glowed as she explained, "The recipe for the blood stasis dispersing pill didn't have the Ziyong seahorse at all!"

"What?"

Everyone's heart skipped a beat. Si deyuang was also greatly shocked. He thought to himself that this was bad. Something seemed to have gone wrong.

The third-tier Alchemist was also puzzled, and he asked suspiciously, "How could this be? The item in his hand is indeed the solution from the Ziyong seahorse's core. Master si deyuang has also made his judgment."

I told you he's a charlatan," Yunxiao sneered. what Bullsh * t master? "It's understandable that you don't recognize it because your alchemy level is too low, but if he's really an eighth-tier Alchemist, how could he not recognize the solution of the Ziyong Pegasus 'inner core?"

"What? Ziyong Pegasus? What is this?"

"Yeah, I've never heard of it. I've only heard of the Ziyong seahorse!"

A series of small discussions broke out. Si deyuang's expression changed drastically. He immediately understood where the mistake was. His face turned pale, and beads of cold sweat dripped down his face.

Hanxuan sneered, "this Ziyong Pegasus is a rare land demonic beast. It's very similar to a seahorse. We've been in the coastal city for many years, so we've never heard of it. The course of events is now very clear, there must be someone who secretly dissected the bruises dissolving pill and tried to refine it. Because the cores of the seahorse and Pegasus look exactly the same, and the person who secretly refined it stayed by the sea all year round, they naturally thought that one of the ingredients was a Ziyong seahorse!"

The third-tier Alchemist came to a sudden realization and said, " "But even if it's a purple seahorse, it's not poisonous."

these two demon beasts were very likely to be the same family in ancient times, " Yunxiao said. but now, due to the different growing environments, although they still maintain a high degree of similarity in appearance, their nature has completely changed. Their cores are not poisonous, but when combined with the other ingredients of the bruises dispelling pill, the effect is completely different!"

Only then did the third-tier Alchemist nod. The others also understood that the cooperation between raw materials could be very different even if they were of the same type, let alone different types.

Yunxiao continued, " it can be seen that The Alchemist who secretly studied the bruises-dissolving pill is just like master si deyuan. He did not know the Pegasus at all, so he replaced it with a seahorse and developed this poisonous bruises-dissolving pill. Do you think that's the case? " Master si deyuan!"

Si deyuan's face turned pale. what does it have to do with me? " he said angrily. Moreover, these two substances were completely the same. How could you say that you could call a Pegasus? I thought it was something else!"

"Hehe, I knew that Grandmaster would roar and ask this."

Yunxiao pushed through the crowd and began to search in the containers. Soon, he took out a bag of powder, replaced it with two new glassware, and dissolved the powder in them. Then, he threw two pieces of material into the containers and said, " although the inner core of the seahorse and the Pegasus are both of the water attribute, one of them is of the sunflower water attribute in the sea, while the other is of the Geng water attribute on land. The difference is huge.

At this moment, after the two substances entered the solution, one of them was a light yellow color, while the other was a light green color.

this powder is the essence of hard earth, " Yunxiao said with a smile. when it is dissolved, we can tell the difference between water and earth. I wonder if master si deyuan has learned this common sense? "

Si deyuan's face turned pale. He was in a daze and did not say a word.

Yunxiao's smile gradually faded, and a cold air began to spread out. "As an eighth-tier Alchemist, how could you not know this? not only did you deceive and damage the reputation of alchemists, but you also colluded with this group of people who harbored evil intentions to plot against The Purple Cloud trade union. Master si deyuan, how dare you pretend to be an Alchemist? you're finished!"

Yunxiao took a step forward, and his aura burst out, forcing si deyuan, Yu chengshuang, and the others to retreat, their eyes filled with fear.

Si deyuan found it hard to explain himself, and to his horror, he found that his soul power had been completely suppressed by the other party. Not only that, but even his primordial Qi had been suppressed, making him unable to make a sound. This was exactly what Yunxiao wanted him to be unable to refute.

"Run!"

Yu chengshuang suddenly shouted and fled with his "brothers" as if they were flying.

Hanxuan's heart was finally at ease as she watched them escape. If they had not run and insisted on resisting, the crowd would have been suspicious. Now that they had fled in a hurry, they had basically confirmed that The Purple Cloud trade union had been wronged.

"Hmph, you want to escape without explaining things clearly?"

With a sneer, Yunxiao took a step forward and appeared in front of the crowd. Then, he used his palm as a sword and swept it out.

"Song of the green Lotus sword!"

"Bang!"

A total of more than ten people were jolted back by the sword. Each and every one of them was seriously injured, and they couldn't stop vomiting blood. All of them looked at the young man in white in fear. They couldn't understand how such a terrifying person could exist.

Yunxiao reached out and grabbed Yu chengshuang, who was immediately lifted up by a force. He could not exert any strength in the air, and his dantian was sealed by the sword Qi. Now, he was even worse than an ordinary person.

His heart was filled with endless fear. He was a martial honor! To be able to torture him like this, he must be at least a high-ranked martial honor. How old was this young man? To actually have such high attainments in both martial arts and spiritual techniques, he definitely did not have a simple background!

"Tell me, what's with this plot, and who set it up? If you tell me everything clearly, you can avoid death."

Yunxiao said faintly. His face was peaceful, but it made people shudder.

"Gulp!"

Yu chengshuang's face turned pale. He swallowed with difficulty and turned to look at si deyuan. The latter was already at a loss for words. His bright eyes had already turned into the balls of a dead fish.

"No one sent us here, we're here to seek justice!"

Yu Cheng Shuang gritted his teeth.

"Mm, very good."

A wisp of cold air emerged in Yunxiao's hand, which condensed into an ice sword. He slowly walked over and said with a smile, "I like people with a backbone. I'll cut off your little brother first, then put more than ten of you in a big cage, feed you strong aphrodisiacs, and parade you through the streets."

“Plop!”

As soon as he finished speaking, the dozen or so burly men were so frightened that they knelt down and shivered all over.

Yu Cheng Shuang’s face no longer had any color, he gritted his teeth and said, “You’re not human! You animal!”

“Hmph, everyone in the city will know whether I’m an animal or you’re an animal!”

Yunxiao looked up at si deyuan and said with a smile, “Master, don’t worry. You’ll be treated the same as them.”

Si deyuan’s expression changed drastically. He struggled with all his might. However, no matter how hard he struggled, his throat could not make a sound. He hammered his throat with all his might, his face turning red.

Yu Cheng Shuang’s face was ashen, he knew that this time he was completely defeated. He gritted his teeth and seemed to have made up his mind, he said: “I said! But you have to make sure I leave Haitian town safely!”

Yunxiao sneered, “do you want me to be your guard? I don’t have that kind of free time. If you say it, you still have a chance to escape. If you don’t say it, then you’ll have to make use of your remaining heat and perform some difficult, highly stimulating, and heavy-taste human art performance in your lifetime.”

“Blargh!”

Some of the men couldn’t help but vomit. They trembled in fear and cried, “Boss, what’s going on? Are they really innocent?”

Yu Cheng’s eyes were filled with hatred as he stared at Yunxiao and said, “You will definitely die a terrible death in the future! The Purple Cloud merchant Association was indeed wronged, and the person who incited me from behind the scenes was Qianqian.”

...

Suddenly, an extremely fast light came from the sky and went straight for Yu chengshuang's head!

Yu chengshuang's face turned pale and his voice stopped. His eyes revealed a look of despair, but there seemed to be a trace of relief in that despair.

"Bang!"

The cold light struck, but Yu chengshuang did not die. Only the ice sword in Yunxiao's hand was shattered into ice shards, scattering in the air and flashing slowly.

"Hmph, he's finally appeared?"

With a sneer, Yunxiao took out the mirror of evening clouds of great sorrow. The light shone down and locked down the space. With the frosty sword in his hand, he slashed out a Sword Art in the air, instantly splitting the sky apart. With a scream, blood splattered across the sky, and a figure fell to the ground, twitching.

"Isn't ... Isn't this elder Qi yangwen of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce?"

Oh my God, it's really a plot to frame The Purple Cloud trade union. There's even someone hiding in the dark!

"Is the mastermind the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce? Isn't this too despicable? You're actually playing with the lives of martial artists to do such a despicable thing!"

There was a huge wound on Qi yangwen's chest. His face was pale, and he quickly swallowed a large number of elixirs. He said anxiously, "Please don't misunderstand. I'm just passing by. This has nothing to do with the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce!"

“Oh? If there was absolutely no relationship, would you kill him?”

Yunxiao sneered, and everyone else also wore mocking looks. What he said was simply an insult to everyone’s intelligence!

Yu chengshuang finally came back to his senses. He pointed at Qi yangwen and said angrily, “You guys are really not human! You actually want to kill me to silence me! My Lord, it was the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce who instructed me to do this! My brother was killed by them, and all of this has nothing to do with The Purple Cloud trade union! Si deyuan was also an accomplice that they paid a high price to hire!”

His pointing out immediately caused an uproar. Although the matter was already very obvious, Yu chengshuang’s pointing out was the real truth.

“Yu chengshuang, how dare you slander the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce? do you not want to live?” Qi yangwen was shocked and angry.

Yu chengshuang sneered, “I only spoke the truth because I wanted to live!” He took out a storage bag from his ring and threw it out, saying, “My Lord, I took 10 billion medial-grade primordial stones from them and betrayed my own brothers, putting everyone in this situation. Just kill me, but please let my brothers go. These ten billion mid-grade primordial stones will be the money for their lives!”

Chapter 859-the truth is out

“Boss! You!!!”

The dozen or so cultivators were all shocked. They couldn’t believe that their companion, who had gone through life and death with them for so many years, had actually betrayed them.

yes, ” Yunxiao nodded. you can go now. Whether you can walk out of the ocean Sky town or not will depend on your luck.”

Yu chengshuang was taken aback. He could not believe that Yunxiao would let him go so easily, but he was immediately overjoyed. "Many thanks, my Lord! I won't forget the kindness of not killing you today!" With that, he turned into a beam of light and left for the teleportation Island.

At this point, the truth had been completely revealed.

Qi yangwen and Si deyuan's faces turned pale, especially si deyuan's. His highly respected status had been destroyed.

Qi yangwen wasn't willing to give up. He gritted his teeth and said, "I understand! You must have put on a good show to frame our thunderwind Chamber of Commerce!"

Yunxiao stomped his foot on the man's face, and the sole of his shoe landed on his face, knocking out all his teeth. "Do you think everyone's IQ is the same as yours?"

He retracted the soul power that was suppressing si deyuan and said with a smile, "Master, please tell me the whole story if you still want a little brother and don't want to perform heavy body art."

Si deyuan trembled and coughed violently. If he admitted it, everything would be over for him. However, if he didn't, he would be even more finished!

"It's all my fault for being blinded by greed and doing such an embarrassing thing," he said sadly. Yu chengshuang was right, I took three level nine elixir recipes from the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce, and colluded with them to slander The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce!"

"Huala"

Si deyuan's identity and status were far beyond Yu chengshuang's. After he said that, no one doubted him anymore. They were all filled with righteous indignation.

Si deyuan suddenly looked dispirited and old. He said dejectedly, "The situation is really similar to your speculation. Lei Feng has always wanted to solve the blood stasis dispersing pill's pill formula. He asked me to try it many times, but we didn't succeed, and only created this poisonous pill. That was why he had come up with a plan to seize The Purple Cloud trade Union's elixir formula and eradicate them. I was blinded by greed for a moment and did such a stupid thing. In the end, I harmed myself and others."

"It's hard to believe. Is this the so-called master? I'll spit!"

"Sigh, who can remain calm in the face of profit? A master is also a human!"

"It's too vicious. The thunderwind Chamber of Commerce is one of the seven big Chambers of Commerce. Their despicable behavior is really infuriating!"

"It's more than that. He doesn't care about the lives of us martial artists at all! I swear that I will never go to the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce again!"

"Yeah, me too! I'm going to spread this news and tell everyone not to go to the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce! We should join hands to boycott this kind of bad business!"

All kinds of curses and angry voices were heard. Coupled with the fierce words of the people of The Purple Cloud trade union, it immediately aroused public anger.

Hanxuan had a smile on her face throughout the entire process. She had believed from the start that as long as this man was here, everything could be saved, but she didn't expect such an earth-shattering reversal!

how dare you slander my thunderwind Chamber of Commerce! Qi yangwen said angrily. I won't let you off!

Yunxiao spat on his face and scolded, "You still won't let us go? I won't let you off!" "Everyone, come with me to the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce to seek justice!" He shouted.

"Right! Seek justice! The Purple Cloud trade union is not to be trifled with!"

Jiang qianrong shouted from the crowd, immediately stirring up the crowd's emotions, and they all began to shout. It seemed that women had more appeal, and the guests outside the Chamber of Commerce also joined in the shouting, waiting to see the show.

Yunxiao naturally hoped that the more people there were, the better, and the bigger the matter was, the better.

Elder Wu's expression turned serious as he whispered into Hanxuan's ear, "President, there seems to be a Martial Emperor in the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce. I'm afraid it won't be good for us to go there rashly. It was better to inform Tianyuan trading company and come up with a plan to find trouble with them. Besides, although si deyuan is an accomplice, he's still a member of the city Lord's mansion. In Haitian town, we have to give the city Lord's mansion some face!"

"Elder Wu's analysis makes sense," Hanxuan nodded. But now, he's the one making the decisions. I'll just watch. I'll support whatever he needs. He said that if we go to the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce now, I will immediately follow him without hesitation!"

"This bi an ..."

Elder Wu was stunned and looked at Hanxuan in confusion.

He didn't know much about Hanxuan, but he had heard that she was a smart woman. Otherwise, she wouldn't have been able to run The Purple Cloud trade union until now. But now that he heard her words, he realized that she was an extremely emotional woman, causing elder Wu to feel a little disappointed. However, he was indebted to The Purple Cloud trade union, and they were the bosses, so he had nothing to say.

yes! Yunxiao said loudly, " today's matter is up to the public to decide. Now, let's put these two despicable villains in a cage and parade them in the street. After that, we will gather in front of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce. I want to see how they will explain it!"

"What?"

Qi yangwen and Si deyuan were both shocked. They struggled and shouted with all their might. They cursed and swore like wild beasts making their dying blows.

“You will all die a terrible death! Purple cloud trade union, I, Qi yangwen, will not let you off even if I die!”

I’m an eighth-tier Alchemist, and I’m directly under the jurisdiction of the sea of soul formation. If you dare to treat me like this, the sea of soul formation will never let you go!

Si deyuan had even brought out the sea of soul formation, so the other party would more or less be wary of him.

But, Yunxiao did not buy it. He sneered and said, “Since you have the intention to harm others, you should be prepared to be harmed by others. A revered martial artist and an eighth-tier Alchemist ... Tsk, tsk, not bad, not bad, they must be shocking! Also, shut up right now, or I don’t mind adding some heavy seasoning to the cage so that you can praise your performance art along the way!”

The two of them instantly turned pale, and a sense of despair spread from the bottom of their hearts. They could never have imagined that there would be such a vicious person in this world!

Hanxuan immediately ordered, “prepare a prison carriage.” The Chamber of Commerce will temporarily close its doors. Everyone, follow me!”

Jiang qianrong immediately got to work, and everyone got busy. The spectators were all smiling, waiting to watch a good show. In particular, when they saw si deyuan’s appearance, many people felt a burst of joy in their hearts.

These great alchemists were usually high and mighty, and none of them had suffered much from them. But now, seeing them as prisoners, they all felt very happy.

Yunxiao’s eyes suddenly fell on the figure of a little girl, and he looked surprised.

It was Xiao Hong, who was sent flying by Yu Cheng Shuang earlier. She started to faint in the corner and had already woken up. She was also busy with the others. She looked silly and cute, as if nothing had happened.

A strange feeling welled up in Yunxiao's heart. He took a step forward and grabbed Xiao Hong, then scanned her with his divine sense.

Xiao Hong's face turned pale with fear, and it could not exert any strength while being lifted in the air. It kept beating Yunxiao with both hands and kicking its feet while it kept shouting, "Put me down. What are you doing? Quickly put me down!"

Hanxuan was also taken aback. She stepped forward and carefully said, "Young master Yun, what's wrong?"

Yunxiao's eyes flickered with confusion as he said, "There's something wrong with this little girl."

Hanxuan was taken aback. She didn't know what "something" meant. It seemed like she had to ask Jiang qianrong about this girl's background.

Yunxiao put Xiao Hong down and said, "Keep an eye on this little girl, don't let her run away."

At this moment, Jiang qianrong also came forward, and Xiao Hong immediately hid behind her, looking scared.

"What's wrong?" Jiang qianrong asked.

where did this little girl come from?" Yunxiao asked.

Jiang qianrong thought for a while and said, " I'm not sure about her exact background. About half a year ago, I saw her alone on the street. She was dirty all over. I asked her family and she didn't know. I took her back to the Chamber of Commerce because she was quite pitiful. At first, she did some simple miscellaneous work, and then she was slowly trained to become a shopping guide. It's her first day as a shopping guide."

She patted Xiao Hong's head and consoled her, " "Xiao Hong, don't be afraid. Lady Hanxuan and this young master are not bad people."

"Xiao Hong is so scared. I'm so scared when this big brother is staring at me!"

Xiao Hong said in a low voice, feeling wronged. She hid behind Jiang qianrong and refused to come out.

"Is there a problem, young master Yun?" Hanxuan asked, puzzled. I think this girl is quite normal. It's just that Yingluo seems a little stupid."

I can't explain it for the time being, " Yunxiao said. in any case, keep an eye on her and don't let her run away. Let's eradicate the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce first.

"Eliminate?" Hanxuan's heart skipped a beat.

She was shocked by these two words. Originally, she only wanted to teach them a lesson and take revenge. As for eradicating them, that was something she didn't even dare to think about.

"Yes. Since the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce wants to eliminate us, they should be prepared to be eliminated by us."

what? " Yunxiao said indifferently. what? " His heart softened? When they were dealing with us, did they ever think of leaving any room for error?"

...

Hanxuan was touched, and perhaps it was because of the word 'we' that made her happy. She nodded and said, "Hanxuan isn't soft-hearted, but she thinks that the difference in strength is too great. Even if we can get rid of their branch in Haitian town, once their headquarters is dissatisfied, they will retaliate. The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce's power can't stop them."

"Hmph, I'm afraid that their headquarters have long been dissatisfied with you. I've forced them several times. If I don't leave them with a shadow this time, they'll think that The Purple Cloud trade union is a pushover."

Yunxiao's eyes were cold as he said, "This time, we'll let them eat persimmons and break all their teeth!"

Hanxuan's heart trembled. She seemed to have sensed the cold air coming from Yunxiao, and a warm blood flowed through her body.

If I could have such a good man to manage the Chamber of Commerce for me, why would I need to work so hard as a girl? I really envy little sister Ling'er.

Chapter 860-exposing a scandal

The Chamber of Commerce quickly got a large prison carriage and threw the struggling Qi yangwen and Si deyuan into the prison carriage. The two of them resisted with all their might at first, but they soon became obedient.

The pupils in both men's eyes were dilated, and they looked dazed. It was Yunxiao's eye technique that had taken their souls away. They giggled and cried out in the carriage, "we are bastards. We were ordered by the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce to frame The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce. Now we are in such a bad state. The despicable people of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce will not have a good end.

The two's performance shocked everyone. They all knew that they had been hit by an evil spell. They broke out in a cold sweat and felt that The Purple Cloud trade union was not as weak and simple as it seemed.

"Gulu Gulu!"

The prison cart started to move, and the group of people began to parade through the streets.

At this moment, due to the commercial performance of Tianyuan trading company, tens of thousands of people had left for Tianyuan trading company to buy equipment and elixirs. Therefore, they chose the route of Tianyuan trading company. In order to avoid the interference of the city governor's mansion and concentrate on dealing with the thunderwind trading company, they deliberately avoided the city governor's mansion.

"Thunderwind Chamber of Commerce, you won't have a good death!"

I am si deyuan, an eighth-tier Alchemist. I was ordered by the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce to frame The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce. I have a reason for my crime!

I'm Qi yangwen, an elder of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce. The thunderwind Chamber of Commerce secretly steals the trade secrets of other Chambers of Commerce and constantly uses despicable means to attack our opponents!

The two of them shouted with all their might from the carriage, immediately attracting the attention of the entire city. When they saw the people in the carriage, their expressions changed drastically and they were shocked.

An eighth-tier Alchemist and a martial honor kept accusing the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce of evil deeds like lunatics. The scene made people shudder.

The people of The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce and the onlookers began to make inquiries and explain the whole story. Soon, the whole city knew the whole story. A large number of people also joined the demonstration, waiting to watch a good show.

When Yunxiao saw that there were almost enough onlookers, he turned around and began to head toward the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce.

The rest of the Chamber of Commerces were all shocked. They also sent people to join the group to see what would happen. They also knew the whole story of the matter and were all shocked. With the layout, means, and Masters sent by the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce, it should have been a foolproof plan. How could it be broken by The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce? And now that they had retaliated, they had fallen into a huge passive position.

They could all tell that the mastermind of The Purple Cloud trade union was not simple. The Thunder wind trade union was probably going to suffer.

The thunderwind Chamber of Commerce had also received the news a long time ago. They were on high alert immediately. President Liu Jingshan's expression was extremely ugly. He could not figure out how the opponent had managed to see through a sure-win situation without any flaws. Even si deyuan and Qi yangwen had fallen into the trap.

However, the only thing he was sure of was that there must be a master hidden in the Chamber of Commerce. Otherwise, Qi yangwen could control the whole situation with his power as a seven-stars martial venerable. He would not have caused such a big commotion and even got himself involved.

When the parade arrived in front of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce, a group of Warriors had already been waiting for them, their faces full of anger and murderous intent.

Liu Jingshan personally stepped forward and coldly said, "Who is so bold! He captured master si deyuan and the elder of my Chamber of Commerce and slandered my thunderwind Chamber of Commerce!"

"We didn't slander you, everything we said is true!"

Qi yangwen was the first to scream as if he had a great grudge against the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce. His eyes were red as he complained, "As an elder of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce, I know clearly about their despicable acts in recent years! Not only did he steal recipes from the Chamber of Commerces, but he also did shameless things that were immoral!"

"I can be a witness!" Si deyuan also shouted frantically. Once, Liu Jingshan took a fancy to a little boy from an ordinary family. In order to satisfy his obsession with boys, he killed the entire family. Later, when the city Lord's office found out, he used his own extraordinary means to suppress the news!"

the boy was toyed with by him for a month before he died in the Chamber of Commerce. I was the one who disposed of his body!

Qi yangwen wailed, "now that I think about it, I'm really not human!" Not only the boy, look at the Warriors behind him, every one of them has been violated by him, how tragic!"

Liu Jingshan's face immediately turned green as the two men's agonized complaints were heard. He could feel the strange gazes from the people around him, and even the faces of the Warriors behind him turned pale. He almost fainted on the spot from the rush of blood.

"Shut up! Slander, they're all slandering me!"

Liu Jingshan's body trembled with anger. If he did not handle today's matter properly, his reputation would be completely ruined. At the same time, he was shocked by the other party's ruthless methods and broke out in a cold sweat.

"Slander? President Liu, if you're still a man, you should just admit it!"

there are even more despicable things! I'll reveal them to everyone one by one. I'll let everyone know what kind of person Liu Jingshan is and what a filthy place the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce is! Qi yangwen roared.

"Shut up!"

Liu Jingshan was completely enraged. With a loud roar, he charged into the sky and slammed his palm into the cell!

The people of the major Chambers of Commerce all shook their heads secretly. The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce was obviously trying to provoke the other party and destroy the reputation of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce before doing anything. From the looks of it, not only did Liu Jingshan fail to salvage the situation, but he had also fallen into The Purple Cloud trade Union's trap.

"Not good! He wanted to silence her, save her quickly!"

Yunxiao cried out in shock, looking very flustered, but a cold gleam flickered in his eyes. When Liu Jingshan split open the cage with his palm and sent the force of his palm into it, he flew up and gently grabbed Qi yangwen, saving him while leaving si deyuan in the cage.

“Bang!”

“Argh! Liu Jingshan, what are you doing?”

The cage was shattered into pieces. Si deyuan’s internal organs were all shattered by the palm strike. At the same time, he woke up from the soul-sucking state. However, he was already lifeless. He glared at Liu Jingshan with hatred in his eyes as he died with grievances!

“Liu Jingshan! You actually killed him to silence him!”

and he killed si deyuan, a highly respected eighth-tier great Alchemist! Yunxiao cried out in shock and anger. he killed si deyuan! You’re really gutsy! Let’s see how the city Lord’s mansion and the sea of soul formation will deal with you!”

An eighth-tier Alchemist was already a high-level figure in the art of alchemy, who ruled the divine sea and was directly managed by it. He had a lofty status and was respected by all.

The sea of soul formation would make a detailed record of the promotion or death of every eighth-tier Alchemist, and if someone was killed because of enmity, the sea of soul formation would investigate it to the end and never let go.

Liu Jingshan also reacted in an instant. He was so shocked that he gasped and lost his composure on the spot!

His original intention was to kill Qi yangwen, but the other party had rescued Qi yangwen and deliberately left si deyuan behind. It was obvious that they had planned this all along and were waiting for him to fall into their trap!

Heavens! Who in The Purple Cloud trade union was plotting this? He had actually calculated his own anger and made him step into the trap step by step!

Liu Jingshan felt a chill run down his spine. He knew that he had kicked an iron plate this time and was in deep trouble.

“Master si deyuan’s death may have been caused by my palm, but isn’t it a form of release?” he shouted angrily. You’ve imprisoned the master in a cage, that’s a crime that deserves to die! Although I killed Grandmaster, I was forced to use the great honor saving technique to restore Grandmaster’s dignity!”

Si deyuan’s death had been witnessed by thousands of people, and he could not deny it. However, he had to push the crime of murder to the other party. He could not bear the responsibility. Otherwise, what awaited him would be an investigation by the sea of soul formation. That would basically be a death sentence.

“Haha, what a big joke!”

Yunxiao laughed out of anger and scolded, “The reason why master si deyuan and elder Qi yangwen are squeezed in the cage is that they feel deep regret for helping you do evil. That’s why they are repenting in such a manner, asking for forgiveness with brambles. They used their bodies to teach and persuade the people to be kind. At the same time, they risked the danger of being retaliated against by exposing your disgraceful behavior. It’s a pity that I wasn’t strong enough and didn’t have time to save master! However, the look of hatred in the eyes of the master before he died, and the roar that came from the depths of his soul towards the murderer, shocked thousands of people present!”

master! Yunxiao cried out solemnly, “master, your spirit of punishing evil and promoting good will never die!

“The spirit will never die!”

kill the executioner, Liu Jingshan!

...

“Destroy the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce to avenge Grandmaster!”

Shouts and yells resounded from the crowd, immediately resonating with each other. For a time, everyone was filled with grief and indignation, and the voices of condemnation were endless.

In addition to The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce, there were also people from other Chambers of Commerce who joined in. As the saying goes, when a man is down, everyone kicks him. It seemed that the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce would not be able to survive this time. Everyone was happy to have one less competitor and devour the empty market.

The members of The Purple Cloud Chamber of Commerce and the first batch of onlookers who knew the inside story broke out in cold sweat. Before Si Deyuan died, they could be beaten, scolded, and humiliated as they pleased. They were treated like dogs. They were just short of peeing and shitting on his head. Now that he was dead, he had actually risen to such a high level. He was simply a moral leader, a spiritual role model, and Chicken Soup for the Soul.

Liu Jingshan, ” Yunxiao said coldly. are you going to be executed yourself, or do you want all the righteous men in the world to do it together? ”

“Pfft!”

Liu Jingshan was so angry that he spat out a mouthful of blood. His entire spirit was instantly dispirited. Now, he was facing thousands of criticisms and ridicule all by himself. Even a hundred people would not be able to tell the difference. This time, he had completely collapsed!

“Humph, a group of clowns! How dare you come to my thunderwind Chamber of Commerce without any strength! Today, I’d like to see who dares to speak ill of the thunderwind Chamber of Commerce!”

A cold voice sounded from within the Chamber of Commerce. Then, the weather changed, and dark clouds rolled in the sky. An unfathomable pressure descended from the sky, and the entire temperature dropped abruptly. Everyone couldn't help but shiver!

"Martial Emperor! You're indeed a Martial Emperor!"

Elder Wu's face turned pale. This was the suppression of the Emperor Qi of the nine Heavens. No one dared to disobey!
