

The Fake 211

Chapter 211: Was This the Face of An International Superstar

Tonight, the moon was bright and the stars were few.

The midsummer party held by Lishi TV was broadcast live on Lishi TV. Many netizens were waiting on the screen to watch the party, looking forward to the appearance of their own idols.

Every time the red carpet of the party was held, the female celebrities would rack their brains to make themselves look gorgeous.

Not only did they put effort into their faces, but they also put effort into their clothes.

The netizens were also keen on stripping the celebrities of their gowns. Were they big-name gowns or small-brand gowns? Were they unreleased Super Season gowns? Or were they outdated 'classic' gowns?

The better the fashion resources, the more popular the celebrity was.

And every red carpet, there would be photos of the female celebrities 'killing themselves' on the red carpet.

The nanny van stopped at the end of the red carpet and the flashes were aimed at the car door.

Nan Wan finally made sure that her makeup was okay and got out of the car.

She wore silver high heels, a black dress with a revealing back, and a shiny heart-shaped diamond necklace around her neck. It almost sank into the mountain peak in front of her chest. Her long brown curly hair fell to one side, and she wore tassel earrings on the other side, making her face look smaller.

Her eyes were big and round, her eyelashes were thick and long, and her fiery red lips were especially eye-catching.

When Nan Wan arrived, the media were shocked.

"It's actually Nan Wan. I didn't expect her to be here."

"Isn't she filming overseas? When did she come back?"

"I heard that she's been back for a few days. A few days ago, Yanjing held a banquet to specially welcome her."

"She's so beautiful. Her red carpet look this time will definitely be trending!"

Nan Wan smiled elegantly as she listened to the praises.

When they reached the end, the host smiled and said, "Long time no see. Nan Wan's overseas scenes have just finished filming. Can you share with us? What's the difference between filming overseas and filming in China?"

Nan Wan smiled and said, "Actually, there's not much difference. When we get into acting, everyone is very serious."

"But this time, I met some international actors, such as Anthony and John. This time, after seeing the acting skills of international best actors, I feel that I have to continue working hard."

The host exclaimed, "So, the script that was completed overseas, was it done with these Best Actors?"

Nan Wan said mysteriously, "When the movie is released, everyone will know."

The host said, "I'm looking forward to Nan Wan's new movie. Please enter the venue first. Thank you."

Nan Wan smiled as she entered the venue. It was a pity that she could not see the scene of Shi Xi being rejected.

As for the trending topic... She had already instructed her agent to buy it before she went on the red carpet.

By now, it should have been on the trending topic, right?

#Nan Wan's red carpet style is crazy#

#Nan Wan's new movie collaborates with International Best Actor#

Both topics were trending. One was to praise Nan Wan's beauty, and the other was to show off that Nan Wan co-starred with international Best Actors.

[Nan Wan has already co-starred with international Best Actor! Anthony and John both won Best Actor at International Film Festivals!]

[Wan Wan is too awesome! Looking forward to the new movie! Wan Wan will be an international superstar in the future!]

[Wan Wan's red carpet today is crazy! The absolute beauty, Nan Wan'er! [photo]]

[Is it too much to say that she's the best?]

[Killer! Crazy! Today, Nan Wan is wearing KL's Super Season high-quality dress! Ah! Ah! Ah! This is an international superstar's card face!!]

[The jewelry she wears is so shiny! No wonder she is the daughter of a jewelry family!]

The praise of Nan Wan was all over the internet, and the live broadcast continued.

A light rain suddenly fell from the sky.

But at this time, a black Maybach had already stopped at the end of the red carpet.

The host heard the command in his headset. After the star finished walking the red carpet, everyone else turned into the indoor red carpet.

The car door opened.

A man in a custom-made suit came out with an umbrella. He reached out his hand so that the girl who was about to appear could hold on.

Then, a slender, white, and tender finger reached out and placed it on the man's palm.

The black umbrella was lifted, and the girl's exquisite face was revealed in the camera lens.

She only raised her eyes unintentionally. Under her long and narrow eyelashes, the girl's eyes were as clear as the cold spring water, quiet and ethereal.

A glance for ten thousand years.

The scene instantly became quiet, leaving only the sound of rain.

Chapter 212: Was Red Flame On the Neck

The girl's long pink hair was tied up, and there was a few strands of hair on her forehead. She had an exquisite appearance.

Just by raising her eyes, the crowd instantly quieted down.

The ruby necklace on her neck was shining as brightly as the girl's eyes. The ruby was glowing with a fiery red light under the light, as if it was a blazing flame.

The man holding the umbrella for Shi Xi was tall and straight. His face was like a crown of jade, and his eyes were like bright stars.

The two of them stood together like a painting.

After everyone reacted, they raised their cameras and pointed them at Shi Xi.

The netizens watching the live broadcast were stunned for a moment, then they started to post comments.

[F*ck! When I looked up just now, she entered my heart. Shi Xi is really beautiful!]

[The ruby necklace around Shi Xi's neck is so big. It looks so expensive!]

[F*ck, if I'm not mistaken, that should be the most important treasure of Shengshi Jewelry Store: Red Flame.]

[It's Red Flame. When you guys stared at that gem, did you feel like there was a flame burning inside it? This is the luster of the genuine Starlight Ruby. There's no way a fake could look like this.]

[Isn't Red Flame not for sale or loan? How did Shi Xi get it?]

[It's said that back then, someone offered 700 million to buy Red Flame, but was rejected by Shengshi Jewelry...]

[The only one that can compare to Red Flame is M Country's Lucia. That ruby is already displayed in M Country's natural history museum. There's no way to estimate its value. This kind of thing is already a collector's item. It's rare to even see it! Shi Xi is actually wearing it on her neck! In the future, it won't be Shi Xi's neck anymore. It'll be the neck that wore Red Flame!]

[Sob, sob, Xi Xi is wearing something very nice too. Did you find out which family's gown it belongs to?]

[It looks like a custom-made one. I'm not sure which brand this gown it belongs to...]

[May I secretly ask who the man beside Shi Xi is?]

The man standing beside Shi Xi was naturally Xie Yunzhou.

Knowing that Xie Yunzhou's family was in Yanjing, Shi Xi did not hesitate to ask for his help.

Since she wanted to attack Nan Wan, Shi Xi went to Sheng Yan and borrowed Red Flame.

Shi Xi had a lot of jewelry, but if she wanted to attack Nan Wan, the young miss of a jewelry family, she had to strike accurately.

A better dress than Nan Wan?

No, Nan Wan could still buy from big brands in the future.

However, the value of Red Flame and the foundation of Shengshi Jewelry were beyond Nan Wan's reach.

The host listened to the director's instructions. When Shi Xi and Xie Yunzhou arrived, he was extremely respectful to the two of them.

The two people in front of him were not to be trifled with!

After walking down the red carpet, Shi Xi held Xie Yunzhou's arm and walked into the venue.

Nan Wan wanted to see her face when she touched the dust at the entrance of the venue?

Hehe, she wanted to see Nan Wan's expression at this moment more!

As soon as Shi Xi walked into the venue, her eyes met Nan Wan's.

Nan Wan had been paying attention to the situation at the entrance. When she saw Shi Xi, her first reaction was jealousy.

Shi Xi was too beautiful!

But before she could ridicule Shi Xi, she saw the man beside Shi Xi.

Xie Yunzhou?!

Why did he come?!

Why did they come together?!

What was their relationship?!

Shi Xi saw Nan Wan's shocked gaze, and the smile in her eyes grew wider.

'Are you angry?'

'There's something that makes you even angrier!'

'Can't you see the Red Flame I'm wearing?'

Shi Xi slowly walked forward.

Nan Wan kept looking at Shi Xi, and naturally saw the ruby necklace around Shi Xi's neck: Red Flame.

Nan Wan, who had always been proud of being the eldest daughter of a jewelry family, was so angry that she almost passed out.

Shi Xi even winked at her.

'Don't worry, tonight's revenge on you will be more than that.'

Chapter 213: Where Did This 18th-Tier Supporting Actress Come From? How Dare She Steal My Limelight?

"You're that happy?" Xie Yunzhou noticed Shi Xi's bright smile and his mood improved.

"Yeah, I like a lively atmosphere!" Shi Xi's eyes curved. "Thank you for bringing me here today!"

"No need to thank me." Xie Yunzhou's gaze swept past the ruby necklace on Shi Xi's neck and asked, "Do you like this necklace?"

Although it was the most important treasure of Shengshi Jewelry, it was not impossible to buy it.

He could spend some money, threaten, and entice...

As long as Shi Xi liked it, he did not mind using some tricks to get it.

Shi Xi whispered, "I don't like it."

Xie Yunzhou: "?"

Shi Xi: "It's a little heavy, and it's pressing on my neck. And it feels so old. I look ten years older wearing it."

Xie Yunzhou: ...Speechless.

"Not old, very beautiful." Xie Yunzhou glanced at the girl beside him and immediately retracted his gaze.

Shi Xi's smile widened as she followed Xie Yunzhou and passed by Nan Wan's seat.

This was the entertainment industry.

The more famous one was, the higher one's position would be.

However.

Xie Yunzhou had shares in Lishi TV and could be considered as one of the directors.

They could sit at the very front!

After passing by Nan Wan, Shi Xi sighed in her heart.

It was a pity that she couldn't see Nan Wan's expression.

She must be jealous and wanting to kill her.

It was exciting just thinking about it!

System: [...You are definitely a qualified supporting actress.]

Shi Xi was in a good mood. 'Even if she is a supporting actress, I am still the main supporting actress. Where did she come from? How dare she steal my limelight?'

'Dear system, can you help me look at Nan Wan's expression? Is it cracked already?'

System: [Yes, her eyes are as wide as copper bells.]

Shi Xi sighed again. 'What a pity. I have to maintain my elegance and can't look back at her.'

System: [...]

When they reached the first row, Xie Yunzhou and Shi Xi sat down.

The rain outside was getting heavier and heavier. The celebrities who entered the venue at the back all walked on the indoor red carpet.

The live broadcast footage was all on the red carpet. The netizens looked around and found it boring.

They could not see people who were too amazing at the beginning.

Otherwise, the more they looked back, the more bored they felt.

[Shi Xi is still the most beautiful.]

[The best red carpet this time: Shi Xi.]

[Nan Wan is also very beautiful, okay?]

[Don't brag about being a marketing celebrity. She just walked on the red carpet and started buying trending searches. What #Nan Wan's red carpet style is crazy#? Only her fans can see her beauty, right?]

[What's the point of marketing a jewelry heiress? She has to first wear jewelry that's comparable to Shi Xi's.]

[Is it fun to step on someone else? Shi Xi's fans are so disgusting. They only know how to step on Nan Wan.]

[It's hilarious. Under Nan Wan's trending search, they directly stepped on the other female celebrities on the red carpet this time. Why didn't they say that they stepped on other people at that time? What's the point of pretending to be a middleman at this time? If your marketing fails, don't be afraid of being ridiculed.]

[Female celebrities all have their own beauty! Shi Xi is very beautiful! Nan Wan is also very beautiful! Everyone, stop arguing and watch the party properly!]

Very quickly, Nan Wan's trending topic dropped.

The netizens all had eyes and could distinguish between beauty and ugliness.

Shi Xi appeared in a moving picture with her eyes raised. As soon as it was posted, it was forwarded by the netizens more than 10,000 times.

Divine 10,000 times forwarded picture +1

However, Nan Wan's fans did not dare to fall behind and began to mock Shi Xi:

[Whose gown is she wearing? Why are her fashion resources so oppressed? Is there no big shot willing to lend clothes to Shi Xi?]

[A fake heiress is a fake heiress. She can't become a phoenix even if she flies to the branches. She can't be compared to our Nan Wan's eldest miss at all.]

[When will a fake heiress like Shi Xi be banned?]

Chapter 214: Popularity? Where Did Shi Xi Get Her Popularity? Did She Buy 8 Million Fans In One Night To Get Her Popularity?

The internet was in an uproar, and the anti-fans could only ridicule Shi Xi for the fact that she was #Shi Xi fake daughter#.

[The real daughter is so miserable, the current ugly duckling.]

[The real daughter didn't even say anything, and the netizens jumped up and down to defend her injustice. Unfortunately, she doesn't appreciate it.]

Shi Xi's fans could only post Ning Yu's classic reply: [You're the animal, I'm a human.]

The anti-fans were furious.

The gala was still in the live broadcast.

After the celebrities entered the venue, there were all kinds of awards.

The reason why Lishi TV held this midsummer gala was to make their own movies famous and increase the popularity of their artistes. Therefore, most of the people invited were young artistes.

Shi Xi sat in the front row and watched the award-winning shows on the big screen — Most of them she had never heard their names.

There were also many awards: Excellent Supporting Actor, Excellent Supporting Actress, Popular Supporting Actor, Popular Supporting Actress, Best Creator, Popular Creator, Popular Singer, Gold-Medal Composer...

Shi Xi smiled and clapped.

The bullet screen was also filled with question marks. [Who is this? Who is this? Who is this?]

Other than the question marks of passers-by, there were also the comments of the fans.

However, most of the celebrities who attended this banquet were not very famous.

Even if all of them were added up, they were not as popular as Shi Xi alone.

It was so bad that no one was injured or killed even when the building collapsed.

Shi Xi tried to find someone she knew.

There was no one.

[The winner of the Popular Newcomer Award is — Shi Xi!]

Shi Xi subconsciously clapped her hands mechanically. When she heard her name, she was slightly surprised.

Ah?

Did she get an award too?

When she saw her photo and golden name appear on the big screen, Shi Xi quickly came back to her senses. She gave a faint smile and stood up to receive the award.

In the camera, the girl's expression was slightly surprised. Then, with a faint smile on her face, she slowly walked onto the stage.

When they were walking down the red carpet, the light was a little dimmer because of the rain. Everyone was even more amazed by Shi Xi's beauty and the Red Flame she was wearing.

However, when she went up on stage to receive the award, everyone clearly saw Shi Xi's outfit today.

Her long pink hair was tied up and coiled at the back of her head. A few strands of hair were left on her forehead. Her eyebrows were curved, and her bright eyes were kind. She wore a pair of earrings with white jade pendants on her ears, which made her appear even more extraordinary.

The dress was a long white dress with a one-way collar, and the Red Flame that the girl was wearing could be clearly seen. On the flawless white dress, roses were embroidered from the bottom of the dress. The girl walked and swayed as if she was a fairy among the flowers.

When she walked onto the stage, Shi Xi took the trophy.

She did not expect that she would be able to win an award when she came to the party.

Although there were many people who had won the award, it could be seen that this trophy was not of high value.

But it was very happy to have won the award!

“...I will bring more works in the future. Thank you for your love and attention to me!”

Shi Xi’s eyes were curved as she gave a short speech about her acceptance of the award. She clutched the trophy and left the stage.

The bullet screen was filled with congratulations.

[Popular Newcomer Award! Shi Xi is awesome!]

[Aww, I just remembered that Xi Xi has only debuted for two months! It feels like she has debuted for two years already!]

[She debuted by dressing up as a mermaid and acting as a popularity mentor for a large-scale variety show. Xi Xi Zi must be the destined star of the entertainment industry!]

[No one cares about such a wild award, right? What’s there to be proud of about Shi Xi?]

[Popular? Where did Shi Xi get her popularity? Did she buy 8 million fans in one night to gain popularity?]

[Yo, you even know about buying fans. It seems like you are very concerned about Shi Xi?]

[If you don’t like it and still care about it, doesn’t that mean that Shi Xi is very popular? Anti-fans are also fans.]

Chapter 215: What Are You All Doing

When the fans saw that Shi Xi had won the award, they did not care about the anti-fans’ stomping.

[The more jealous the anti-fans are, the more popular Shi Xi will be.]

[Did you come here to be jealous of Shi Xi because your artist didn’t win an award?]

Nan Wan, who had not won an award, was indeed jealous and angry.

She had thought that everyone was just here to walk the red carpet.

But Shi Xi actually went up on stage to receive an award?!

She could only watch from below the stage and applaud Shi Xi?!

Nan Wan felt that she was about to explode from anger.

*

Shi Xi received the award and left the stage. She sat back down beside Xie Yunzhou.

“Congratulations,” Xie Yunzhou congratulated her.

“Thank you!” Shi Xi thought of something and asked softly, “Did you arrange this award?”

Xie Yunzhou glanced at her. “No.”

Shi Xi was even happier.

Hehe, she didn’t get the award through the back door!

Xie Yunzhou: “...” Her smile was so silly.

Because Shi Xi had won the award and had seen so many handsome men and beautiful women in the entertainment industry in the front row, she was in a good mood.

Meanwhile, Nan Wan was sitting at the back. Seeing that everyone around her had won the award and only her hands were empty, she was angry and ashamed.

The party ended smoothly.

Nan Wan did not want to stay in this sad place any longer. When she heard that the gala was over, she immediately stood up and walked out.

However, she walked too quickly and sprained her ankle. She fell face-first onto the ground.

The party had just ended and the live broadcast had yet to end.

After Nan Wan fell like this, the camera immediately turned to look at her as if it was not a big deal.

The celebrities who had not left also looked at Nan Wan.

Nan Wan lay on the ground, feeling completely humiliated.

She staggered up and rolled out of the venue.

Shi Xi looked at Nan Wan’s back from afar and could not help but laugh.

She could not help it.

Haha.

Shi Xi held the trophy and blocked her gloating smile.

Xie Yunzhou could not figure out Shi Xi’s thoughts and was still wondering why she was so happy.

It couldn’t be because she was gloating, right?

Shi Xi, who was gloating: Hehe.

On the way back to the hotel, Shi Xi also posted a Weibo post. In addition to her selfie, she also gave her trophy a close-up shot.

This was her first trophy in the entertainment industry!

It meant a lot!

Xie Yunzhou saw that Shi Xi had been editing pictures all the way and was even more confused.

Wasn't it just a trophy?

Forget it, as long as she was happy.

When they returned to the hotel, Shi Xi took the trophy and got off the car.

Just as she got off the car, the trophy's head fell to the ground and rolled around.

Shi Xi was shocked.

How could this be?!

Xie Yunzhou got off the car from the other side and turned around to find that Shi Xi was gone.

Where was she?

Xie Yunzhou went around to the other side in confusion and saw Shi Xi squatting on the ground, hugging the trophy that had lost its head and crying.

Shi Xi: 'Sob, sob, sob. It must be because I'm too evil, that's why the trophy isn't willing to go home with me.'

System: [Yes, that's how it is.]

Shi Xi: 'Sob, sob, sob.'

Xie Yunzhou stood in front of her and said with a headache, "I'll buy you a new one tomorrow."

Shi Xi retorted, "That's different! This is the first trophy I've ever won in the entertainment industry!"

Xie Yunzhou: "I'll glue it on for you when we get back."

Shi Xi touched the broken part. "This is the only way."

Xie Yunzhou waited for a few seconds and asked, "Why are you still squatting?"

"My feet are numb." Shi Xi was silent for a moment before she looked up at Xie Yunzhou. "Wait for me a little longer."

Xie Yunzhou: "..."

Shi Xi was afraid that Xie Yunzhou would get anxious from waiting, so she asked again, "Why don't you help me up?"

Xie Yunzhou reached out to help Shi Xi up.

Shi Xi used his strength to stand up slowly.

From the side, it looked like the two of them were hugging.

"What are you doing?"

Sheng Yan's voice sounded and interrupted the two of them.

Chapter 216: Do You Like Shi Xi

Sheng Yan parked the car at the side, opened the car door, and looked at the two of them.

When Shi Xi heard that someone was there, she subconsciously kept a distance from the opposite s*x for fear of being photographed in a love scandal.

But she forgot that her legs were numb from squatting.

Thus, when Shi Xi pushed Xie Yunzhou away, she lost her balance.

She fell to the ground.

Shi Xi cried in her heart, 'Sob, sob, sob, is this my retribution for mocking Nan Wan?'

The system said sympathetically, [I guess so.]

However, Nan Wan's feet were not numb. She could run away by rolling and crawling.

Meanwhile, Shi Xi could not even stand up.

Xie Yunzhou was pushed away by the girl. Before he could be sad, he saw Shi Xi fall down and asked worriedly, "Are you okay?"

Sheng Yan did not expect that she would scare Shi Xi so much that she fell down the moment he opened his mouth. He went up and asked worriedly, "Is Red Flame okay?"

Shi Xi: "..."

"I'm fine." Shi Xi half sat on the ground and looked at the ruby necklace around her neck.

However, she could see both of her chins, so she could not see Red Flame.

"Red Flame should be fine too," Shi Xi guessed.

She was the one who had fallen!

She did not fall on Red Flame!

Xie Yunzhou helped her up and asked, "Does it hurt?"

"A little." Shi Xi stood up. "But my feet are no longer numb."

Xie Yunzhou: "..."

Sheng Yan looked around the two of them and said, "Let's go up first."

The garage was not a place for chatting.

Shi Xi went back to her room and took Red Flame off her neck before returning it to Sheng Yan.

Sheng Yan carefully checked it. After confirming that there was no damage, he put Red Flame back into the safe and locked it.

"Sheng Yan, thank you so much this time!" Shi Xi thanked him earnestly.

“No need to thank me. Your manager said that he would waive your endorsement fee.” Sheng Yan picked up the safe and looked at Xie Yunzhou thoughtfully.

Why did he feel that there was something wrong with these two people?

Xie Yunzhou met Sheng Yan’s gaze without any fear.

Shi Xi and Sheng Yan’s engagement was now in name only. He was not the third party!

Shi Xi looked at Xie Yunzhou again. “Oh right, thank you for bringing me to Lishi’s Midsummer Gala today! If there’s anything I can help you with in the future, I’ll definitely do it!”

“There’s no need. You should rest well,” Xie Yunzhou said to Shi Xi and gestured to Sheng Yan with his eyes. It was time for the two men to leave Shi Xi’s room.

Sheng Yan chuckled. “I’m going back to sleep too. I have a meeting tomorrow.”

The two men left Shi Xi’s room.

The door behind them closed and the two men looked at each other.

“Do you like Shi Xi?” Sheng Yan asked bluntly.

“If I remember correctly, the engagement between President Sheng and Shi Xi has been canceled.” Xie Yunzhou’s eyes were indifferent. “Aren’t you being a little nosy now that you’re asking about Shi Xi’s relationship?”

Sheng Yan felt a little uncomfortable and replied, “Shi Xi and I were childhood friends. She’s like my sister.”

“Xie Yunzhou, the Xie family is in a mess. You crossed the river by yourself, and you want to drag Shi Xi into the water?”

The two looked at each other, and lightning flashed in their eyes.

“Excuse me, gentlemen, I want to go in.” Zhu Lin appeared with a bag.

Shi Xi called her and asked her to buy glue to glue the trophy.

However, when she came over, she saw two men confronting each other.

Xie Yunzhou and Sheng Yan looked away and went back to their rooms to rest.

Zhu Lin heaved a sigh of relief and quickly went into Shi Xi’s room.

These two men’s auras were too strong. She could not take it anymore!

At the thought of this, Zhu Lin started to admire Shi Xi again.

As expected of Shi Xi. She could actually survive between the two of them with ease.

NB!

Zhu Lin walked into the bedroom. “Xi Xi, I brought the glue.”

Shi Xi was taking off her gown when she heard Zhu Lin's voice. She turned around innocently. "The zipper of the gown... Can't be pulled down."

Chapter 217: Find An Electrician To Weld It On

Zhu Lin walked forward and said, "Breathe in."

Shi Xi breathed in.

Zhu Lin used all her strength and finally pulled down the zipper.

"Xi Xi, you can't eat anymore." Zhu Lin looked at the gown, then looked at the trophy, and suggested loyally.

Shi Xi: "...I'm going to take a shower first."

She really didn't eat much!

Back when she was learning ancient martial arts, she could eat three bowls of rice a day.

Now, she wasn't even allowed to eat a single bowl of rice.

It was too miserable to be a celebrity.

She couldn't even eat a full meal.

Shi Xi thought that she had to make more money now. When she turned 20, she would retire and become a gourmet.

It was wonderful.

While she was taking a shower, Shi Xi had already planned out her life for the next 80 years.

When she came out with her face mask on, Shi Xi saw Zhu Lin holding the trophy with one hand and smiling at her phone with the other.

"Is it glued?" Shi Xi asked.

"It's glued." Zhu Lin chose her words carefully and said, "The instruction manual says that I have to press it for a while, but I didn't let go."

The instruction manual said that she had to press it for 10 seconds, but she had pressed it for 10 seconds just now, and the trophy head fell off.

So this time, Zhu Lin pressed it for a few more minutes.

She let go.

It didn't fall off.

Zhu Lin heaved a sigh of relief. "Take a look. How's the stickiness?"

Shi Xi reached out to grab the trophy. "Not..."

Bad.

Before she could say the last word, the head of the trophy fell off.

Shi Xi: "..."

Zhu Lin: "..."

Shi Xi changed the topic. "It's still not working!"

Zhu Lin put down her phone and picked up the head of the trophy. "I'll glue it back on."

Shi Xi sat down and said, "Is it because the glue isn't working?"

Zhu Lin retorted, "It's because the cup head is made of iron. Why don't I get an electrician to weld it on?"

Shi Xi weighed the lower half of the cup and said doubtfully, "This shouldn't be made of iron, right? It looks like aluminum alloy."

Zhu Lin: That doesn't seem to be the main point.

"Forget it. If you can't glue it on, then don't glue it on." Shi Xi said, "Get an electrician to weld it on."

Hearing that, Zhu Lin gave up on the huge project of sticking the cup head on.

As expected, she was not a good engineer.

Shi Xi asked Zhu Lin, "What were you looking at just now? You kept smiling."

"Nan Wan fell and became a trending topic." Zhu Lin said with a smile, "Serves her right! Who asked her to snatch our gown! Hmph!"

Shi Xi thought to herself that she had also fallen.

"Oh right, did KL say what compensation they would give?" Shi Xi asked.

This cooperation was KL brand's last-minute switch. It was their fault.

If it weren't for Han Chuan's previous gown, Shi Xi might not have been able to attend the party today.

At this point, Zhu Lin became even angrier. She said, "KL only gave up a classic dress from three years ago. Who knows how many people have worn these tattered clothes!? Who cares about it?!"

Shi Xi leaned against the back of the sofa, deep in thought.

"Oh right, the photos of me wearing KL's dress haven't been deleted yet, right?" Shi Xi asked.

"I'll delete it right now! Bad luck!" Zhu Lin said angrily.

"The photos are so beautiful. Why would you delete it?" Shi Xi smiled faintly and said, "Send the photos out."

Zhu Lin said in surprise, "Ah? Why? Isn't that giving KL fame for nothing?"

The corners of Shi Xi's mouth curled up slightly. "Yeah, I just want to let people know that I've already put on this dress, and it's been snatched away again."

Hmph!

Zhu Lin instantly understood Shi Xi's meaning.

Before posting the photo, Zhu Lin had already anticipated that there would be a bloody storm.

Zhu Lin did not post the photos rashly. Instead, she used an alternate account and sent the photos taken in the evening to the entertainment industry gossip group.

[Melon: Nan Wan wore KL Super Season gown. It was originally loaned to Shi Xi (With photos as proof)]

Chapter 218: Was Also An Excellent Second Female Lead Today!

The picture in the post was of Shi Xi sitting in the dining room wearing a KL Super Season high-quality black gauze gown.

Someone immediately replied at the bottom of the post.

[F*ck, doesn't that mean that Nan Wan stole the dress that Shi Xi was borrowing?]

[It seems that Shi Xi was wearing it today... Oh my god, after Shi Xi wore it, Nan Wan wore it? She didn't even wash it?]

[Shi Xi's outfit is so beautiful. Even though it's not Red Flame, the diamond necklace she's wearing is just enough to accentuate her collarbone. Furthermore, the little bow on her head is so cute. I really want to see her walk the red carpet in this outfit!]

[Nan Wan doesn't even have her hair tied up. She looks like she's draped in gold and silver. It's so tacky. She's always f*cking using the image of the young miss of a jewelry family, but her taste is really inferior to Shi Xi's.]

When Zhu Lin saw this comment, she thought to herself, 'Then your understanding of Shi Xi is still too shallow.'

Or rather, Nan Wan's taste was even worse than Shi Xi's.

Cough, cough.

At the bottom of the post, the main point was quickly brought up.

[Even Shi Xi's gown can be intercepted? Nan Wan is really a b*tch. No wonder she's from the Yanjing inner circle.]

[KL is such a dog-eater. They're always saying that they're quasi-first-class. They've been quasi-first-class for a year and it's been three years, and they're still quasi-first-class. With this attitude of bullying the weak and fearing the strong, they deserve to not be able to squeeze into first-class.]

[Shi Xi is wearing a collection-level treasure, Red Flame, today. The people from KL brand must be regretting it, right?]

[I don't understand. Shi Xi is dressed so nicely. Why would KL brand lick Nan Wan?]

[Nan Wan suddenly went to the Midsummer Gala today. It was really awkward!! She bought the red carpet and went crazy on the hot searches. In the end, she was suppressed by Shi Xi. She didn't even win an award at the gala. She clapped and ran the entire time. She even fell when she left the venue.]

With just one post, Nan Wan's and KL's reputations plummeted.

As for Shi Xi, she didn't do anything.

After reading the replies, Shi Xi was in a good mood.

Hur.

Even if she wasn't the female lead, it wasn't Nan Wan's turn to pressure her!

She was also an outstanding second female lead today!

On the other side, Nan Wan saw the posts online and was so angry that her face twisted into a ball.

"Shi! Xi!!"

The grudge between the two became deeper.

The manager at the side advised, "She's just a newbie in the entertainment industry. If you argue with her, you'll only support her."

"So you're saying that I should bear with it?" Nan Wan's eyes were cold.

The manager: "...That's not what I meant. You can buy her dirty news and spread rumors to defame her."

"You're famous, just like a jade pendant. Why would you touch a rock like Shi Xi?"

After some persuasion, Nan Wan finally calmed down a little.

"Get someone to delete this post," Nan Wan said coldly.

"I've already contacted someone. It can be deleted within ten minutes," her manager said. "Including the video of you falling, the entire internet will delete it. There won't be any traces left behind."

Nan Wan let out a breath. "Find me a script. I want to join the crew and film."

The manager was right.

She was a high and mighty heiress, while Shi Xi was just a fake heiress from a prestigious family. In terms of family background, status, and identity, Shi Xi could not compare to her in the slightest. She did not even need to do it herself.

The manager handed over a script and introduced, "The director of this online drama said that as long as you go, you'll be the female lead."

Nan Wan flipped through two pages and threw the script on the ground. She said angrily, "You want me to act in an online drama? Then won't I go back to my old ways? Isn't there a female lead in a star-rated drama?"

The manager silently picked up the script. "...The female lead in the star-rated drama is a first-rate actress that everyone wants."

What she meant was that Nan Wan's fame was not enough!

Chapter 219: If a Single Word Was Mispronounced, The Sponsor Would Have To Deduct Several Hundred Thousand Dollars

Nan Wan gritted her teeth. "I'm someone who has gone overseas to film a movie. How can I go back to filming an online drama?"

Her manager said, "The star-rated dramas that are about to start filming have already been decided on their main characters."

Nan Wan took a deep breath and asked, "What about the supporting actress for the star-rated drama? Have they been decided on as well?"

Her manager was silent for a moment before saying, "This online drama is not bad. You can give it a try."

"That's what you said before. I've filmed three online dramas in a row, but none of them have caught on!" Nan Wan said angrily, "There's no way I'm going back to filming online dramas! Don't give me such scripts in the future."

Her manager looked at the script on the floor and sighed.

Picking up the script, the manager prepared to leave.

Nan Wan spoke again, "Oh right, if there's a variety show, you can help me pick it up. I want it to be no less popular than [Star Idol]."

The manager: "...Alright."

Everyone envied her for bringing along a young miss.

But only the manager knew how difficult it was to please the young miss.

Why did she not want to act in an online drama?

The female lead of a star-rated drama always asked for an A-List actress.

The supporting actress did not need fame, but she needed acting skills!

On the other side, the second live broadcast of [Star Idol] began.

This time, Shen Hanquan opened the show and Shi Xi hosted it.

While watching the stage from below, Shi Xi had to admit that Shen Hanquan was able to become the sponsor of [Star Idol] because he really had some skills.

Whether it was his singing and dancing skills or his stage performance, he was a few streets ahead of those trainees.

Some people were very good at dancing, but when they were on stage, they could not perform at their best.

When an idol stood on stage, it was not only a test of singing and dancing, but also of expression management, the sensitivity of grasping the camera, and the performance on stage.

These things were all honed from one stage to another.

After watching Shen Hanquan's stage, Shi Xi walked up to the stage to host.

When the audience below the stage saw Shi Xi, the cheers became even louder.

Shi Xi's eyes swept down and realized that there was also her own light sign and support banner. Her eyebrows and eyes curved. "Welcome to the live broadcast venue of the second public performance of [Star Idol]. I am the popularity mentor, Shi Xi."

The girl was wearing a white shirt and a light blue short skirt. There was a cherry blossom-shaped pink pin pinned on her chest, adding a lot of color to her simple clothes. Her long pink hair fell to her chest and was pinned with a diamond hairpin.

What was even more dazzling was the girl's appearance.

A few small stars were stuck around her bright eyes, making her look cute and full of vitality.

"...Please enjoy the stage brought by the trainees!"

Although it was Shi Xi's first time hosting solo, she was graceful and did not choke while hosting. Her voice was very smooth.

The director nodded repeatedly backstage.

One had to know that hosting was not a simple job. Not only did one have to enunciate clearly, but one also had to react quickly.

If one mispronounced a word during the hosting, the sponsor might have to deduct hundreds of thousands of dollars!

Shi Xi looked at the performances of the trainees on stage and sighed in her heart.

It was much better than when they were rehearsing.

She didn't expect that these trainees would improve so quickly.

After Shen Hanquan changed his clothes, he continued to host the second public performance with Shi Xi.

The second public performance passed without any shock. Each group performed very well.

But this was a competition, a talent show.

It depended on the audience's preferences and votes.

At the end of the recording, Shen Hanquan announced the rules for the next public performance:

"During the third public performance, each group will have a 'senior' joining them to help with the stage performance!"

Everyone's gaze fell on Shi Xi.

Shi Xi laughed. 'F*ck, don't look at me! I can only help one group!'

Chapter 220: No One Would Ask Him To Do Anything

After the curtain fell, the second round of ranking and the third round of rehearsals were about to be recorded.

Shi Xi wanted to learn the performance that she had to help on in advance, but the program team didn't agree.

"We have to wait for the other seniors to arrive and study together. That's only fair," the director said confidently.

Shi Xi: "..."

Meanwhile, Haicheng University had started its semester.

The later stages of [Star Idol] would mainly focus on the daily routines of the trainees. Therefore, when Shi Xi requested a leave of absence, the director readily agreed to it. He only asked her to remember to come back before the three mentors rehearsed.

Shi Xi boarded the plane to Haicheng and sighed.

It was time for school.

Han Chuan sat beside Shi Xi and said, "This morning, you will go to the university to report. In the afternoon, you'll go to Jiang City to take a set photo. Tomorrow, [Nine Blades of Tang] will start filming."

Shi Xi put on her eye mask and said, "Got it. I'll sleep for a while."

Thinking about this tight schedule, she was already sleepy.

When she arrived at Haicheng University, Shi Xi reported smoothly. When she saw her schedule, Shi Xi heaved a sigh of relief.

There weren't many first-year courses, so she had enough time to film.

After reporting, Shi Xi thought about it and went to pay a visit to the principal, Du Heng.

Haicheng University had just started its semester and everyone was so busy that their feet didn't touch the ground. However, when Shi Xi arrived at the principal's office, she found that Principal Du was leisurely drinking tea.

"Hello, Principal Du." Shi Xi's eyes curved into crescents as she knocked on the door and entered.

"It's Shi Xi. Did you go to report?" Principal Du had a good memory. When he had met Shi Xi previously, he had already remembered her.

There was another reason — Shi Xi was a little famous, and her hair was pink.

Principal Du couldn't help but look at Shi Xi's hair. He resisted the thought of being a good teacher.

It was just a young woman dyeing her hair. It was nothing.

Shi Xi poked her head in and smiled with her curved eyes. "I've already gone to report for duty. I came here specially to see you. I brought you something along the way."

Principal Du chuckled. "If you've come then so be it. What else did you bring?"

Shi Xi giggled. "I can't come empty-handed!"

As she spoke, Shi Xi took out a plate of Yakult from her bag and placed it on the table.

Principal Du: "..."

One pack of Yakult, a total of five bottles.

Principal Du fell silent.

Even though he was a good principal who was upright and honest, when students with great achievements came to visit him, they would either bring tea leaves or good wine.

Even 20 years ago, people knew how to bring eggs.

Why would Shi Xi give him Yakult?!

Even though he was indeed giving milk to his relatives and friends —

But giving him Yakult was ridiculous!

Shi Xi casually opened the Yakult and said, "This goes well with tea! Principal Du, do you want to try it?"

Principal Du covered his heart. "There's no need to try it. I don't like sweet things."

Shi Xi: "I bought it sugar-free."

Principal Du: "..."

Shi Xi was already self-sufficient. She took a cup, poured herself half a cup of tea, and then poured herself another bottle of Yakult.

Alright, it was originally a Yakult pack, but now there were only four bottles left.

Shi Xi even helped Principal Du mix a cup of Yakult for him, and her eyes lit up. "Give it a try! It's really not bad!"

It was hard to reject such a kind offer, so Principal Du could only take it and have a taste.

Eh?

Have a sip.

Aiya?

He had another sip.

It was really not bad!

Shi Xi smiled and said, "It's good, right?"

Principal Du coughed and put down the teacup. "Why did you come looking for me?"

If you take advantage of others, you will be taken advantage of.

Principal Du was in a high position and knew this truth very well.

Shi Xi's big eyes were half-curved. "I really just came to see the Principal!"

Principal Du didn't quite believe it, but he also somewhat believed it.

After all, no one would ask him to do anything with four bottles of Yakult.
