

The Fake 511

Chapter 511 Unspoken Rules For Shi Xi

Shi Xi took a deep breath, picked up the bag, and said, "I'm only here to give him a gift. I'll leave after I'm done."

However, the woman was still holding the door, refusing to let Shi Xi in.

Shi Xi replied, "I didn't want to go in either."

Instead, it was the director who had heard the noise outside the door and came over to check. "Who's outside?"

The woman wanted to close the door. "She's the waitress who wants a tip," she said. "I'll send her away now."

The director had just finished his shower and walked out with only a towel wrapped around him.

When the director saw Shi Xi standing outside the door, he exclaimed, "What a rare guest! I didn't expect you to condescend to come to my place. Why? Do you have any orders for me?"

Shi Xi smiled and said, "I was too insensible in the past. This gift is my apology to you. I hope that you won't hold it against me after you accept it."

Shi Xi handed the bag over.

The director had seen a lot of good things, so he knew the approximate price of the things inside just by looking at the tape.

But he was not moved at all.

The director pretended to be taking the gift bag, but he reached out to touch Shi Xi's hand and said, "This is the gift you gave me? Or this present?"

Shi Xi felt extremely disgusted. She raised her hand, grabbed the director's index finger, and folded it upwards.

The director sensed the pain and immediately started to cry out in pain. "You! Let go of me! Let go! Quickly let go!"

The woman next to her stared at Shi Xi warily. When she saw this, she said nervously, "What are you doing? Quickly let go!"

"Director, keep the gift properly and this matter will be over." Shi Xi smiled. "What do you think?"

The director was in unbearable pain and said, "Good, good, good! I'll listen to you! Y-y-you, let go of me!"

Shi Xi let go and hung the present on the director's wrist. "I wish you a good night."

After she finished speaking, Shi Xi consciously retreated.

The director retracted his hand. His index finger clearly broken.

However, when he touched it, his bones were not broken.

It just hurt.

The woman was helping the director breathe and asked, "How can this person be so arrogant? Director, please replace her!"

"It's not as simple as you say." The director glared at the woman.

If he could change her, he would have done so long ago.

"Don't you feel that your dignity is being threatened by her provocation?" the woman continued.

The director rubbed his fingers and wrists. He squinted. "Let's not talk about her. Let's have a chat first." He squinted and looked at the woman.

...

Shi Xi wasn't sure if her gift would be effective.

However, she knew that the effect of the gift this time was not great.

After all, she had almost broken the director's hand.

What bad luck.

Shi Xi took out a tissue from her bag and wiped her hands, her eyes filled with disgust.

She didn't like to be touched like this!

She walked to the elevator and was about to get down when she saw Xie Yunzhou waiting for her.

"What are you doing here?" Shi Xi asked.

Didn't he go back to rest?

"You really think I won't send you back? How is it?" Xie Yunzhou pressed the elevator button.

"I've sent the gift, but it doesn't seem to be going well," Shi Xi said dejectedly with her head hung low.

"What happened?" Xie Yunzhou asked, puzzled.

Seeing that Shi Xi was busy wiping her hands, Xie Yunzhou's eyes immediately turned cold. "He took advantage of you," he said in a deep voice.

"He touched my hand and I almost broke one of his fingers. We're even now." "I wonder how he's going to take revenge on me?" Shi Xi added.

She didn't know how to tell Han Chuan.

Chapter 512 Can Date Five Or Ten Boyfriends

Xie Yunzhou took out a wet tissue and slowly wiped Shi Xi's hands. "Don't worry, he won't take revenge on you."

As Shi Xi watched Xie Yunzhou's actions, she realized that he wasn't as gentle as she had seen him. She said, "Don't interfere. I'll take care of this."

Xie Yunzhou chuckled. "I won't do anything."

Shi Xi had a feeling that when Xie Yunzhou said that he wouldn't do anything, he was definitely going to make a big move.

"We're overseas. They're all legally in possession of guns," Shi Xi reminded.

At this point, Xie Yunzhou changed the subject and asked, "Do you know how to use a gun?"

Shi Xi was stunned for a moment.

"I'll take you to practice shooting tomorrow," Xie Yunzhou said. "You'll have an extra skill for self-defense."

"But I don't have a gun!" Shi Xi teased.

"I'll give you one," Xie Yunzhou said.

Shi Xi was speechless.

This joke couldn't continue!

If someone else had offered to give her a gun, Shi Xi would have thought that it was a toy gun or a water gun.

However, when those words came out of Xie Yunzhou's mouth, Shi Xi felt that she would definitely receive a real gun!

...

In the end, Shi Xi didn't even know how she got home.

All she knew was that Xie Yunzhou had sent her to Shi Chen's villa and instructed her something.

Shi Xi didn't listen to a single word.

Xie Yunzhou looked at Shi Xi, who was lost in her thoughts, with a helpless look in his eyes.

The girl's eyes were big, but she seemed to be in a daze.

Xie Yunzhou couldn't help but want to kiss her.

However, they were not a couple yet.

Xie Yunzhou covered Shi Xi's eyes with his hands.

Shi Xi: ?!

Why did it suddenly turn black?

Xie Yunzhou kissed her over his hand.

He restrained his surging love.

After a few seconds, it also seemed like a long time had passed.

Xie Yunzhou let go of Shi Xi and took half a step back. "Go in and rest early."

Shi Xi came back to her senses and blinked. "...Okay."

Had she been kissed by Xie Yunzhou just now?

No, no, no, Xie Yunzhou did not kiss her.

Ah, this.

Shi Xi walked back with stiff steps.

She walked in with her hands and feet together and saw Shi Chen sitting on the sofa in the living room.

Shi Chen smiled and said, "Good evening, my dear little sister~"

Shi Xi gathered her thoughts. "Good evening, Second Brother."

Shi Chen looked at Shi Xi with a smile in his eyes and said, "My dear sister has grown up and has her own little secret."

"I don't have any secrets!" Shi Xi quickly denied.

"My baby sister is so cute. It's normal to have suitors." Shi Chen laughed. "Don't worry. I'm not a pedantic parent. As long as my precious little sister likes it, she can date five or ten boyfriends."

Shi Xi: ?

"But, baby sister, you have to protect yourself well. These books on the table are for you," Shi Chen reminded her with a smile.

Shi Xi looked over and saw nothing but pink.

[100 Things a Teenage Girl Should Know]

[What Knowledge To Know About Pregnancy]

[...]

"Thank you, Second Brother. I've been taught biology classes in school. Besides, I've signed an idol agreement," Shi Xi said tactfully. "I won't be in a relationship during the contract period."

She didn't have a s*x life now!

"Just in case!" Shi Chen heaved a sigh of relief. "I was still thinking about how the domestic education system should be more reserved. I didn't know how to explain it to you."

She wanted him, a brother of the opposite s*x, to teach his sister about that kind of thing.

Shi Chen coughed. "These books are quite useful. You can read them when you're free."

Shi Xi tried to guess the possibility that Shi Chen had seen the scene of Xie Yunzhou sending her back.

Chapter 513 I Knew There Was Something Unusual Between You Two

She wanted to explain, but Shi Chen did not point it out.

Such an explanation made it seem like she was trying to hide something.

So, did Shi Chen see Xie Yunzhou kiss her?

Even before she went to bed, Shi Xi was still thinking about this matter.

Hence, Shi Xi had a strange dream the entire night.

In her dream, she was married to Xie Yunzhou. Shi Chen sat below and said, "I knew there was something unusual between the two of you."

Shi Xi explained, but no one listened.

The wedding was very noisy.

Seeing that they were not listening to her, Shi Xi took out a machine gun from her skirt and said, "Shut up!"

?!

Shi Xi suddenly woke up.

The blanket was soft, and the room was quiet.

Fortunately, it was just a dream.

Shi Xi heaved a sigh of relief.

Seeing that it was getting late, Shi Xi got out of bed to wash up and think about her plans for the day.

Recently, the Festival Group had given her very few jobs.

There were no scheduled events today.

'Should I practice shooting?'

However, while she was brushing her teeth, a staff member called Shi Xi to inform her that she had to film today.

"I thought there's no recording today?" Shi Xi asked in surprise.

The other party's tone was very respectful as he said, "We made some last-minute adjustments. Please come over today, or we'll send someone to pick you up."

Could it be that Xie Yunzhou did something?

"I'll go over now," Shi Xi replied.

"It's alright, you can come at any time," the other side quickly said. "We'll only start filming when you're here."

Were they actually so easy to talk to?

Shi Xi had not expected this to happen.

In the past, these people's attitudes toward her had not been so good.

"Then what time are you guys going to start shooting? Can I be there at nine?" Shi Xi asked.

"Yes, you can."

After hanging up, Shi Xi asked Xie Yunzhou what he had done.

Xie Yunzhou's reply was very simple, [Nothing.]

How could he not have done anything?

If he didn't, why did she suddenly have work today?

[I'm going to film today,] Shi Xi said.

[Then we'll practice shooting together next time,] Xie Yunzhou replied.

Shi Xi had always felt that guns were dangerous weapons.

However, she knew very well that shooting practice was a skill for self-defense.

[Alright,] Shi Xi replied.

It was impossible for everything to be as she thought.

It was not a bad thing for her to learn another way to survive.

*

After breakfast was ready, Shi Xi waited for Shi Chen as she slowly ate her breakfast.

When Shi Chen came down, Shi Xi was almost done eating.

Seeing how fast Shi Xi was moving, Shi Chen asked, "Why are you up so early today?"

"I woke up early, so I got up," Shi Xi replied.

Shi Chen noticed the fatigue on his precious sister's face and asked, "What's wrong? Did you not sleep well?"

"It's alright." At least that machine gun was special.

"Then you're unhappy? What happened?" Shi Chen asked.

"I'm fine. I just feel a little uncomfortable," Shi Xi replied lazily.

The dream was too strange.

"Baby sister, where do you feel uncomfortable?" Shi Chen reached out and placed his hand on Shi Xi's forehead, while the other hand rested on his own to test his temperature. "You don't have a fever."

"... It isn't feeling unwell," Shi Xi replied.

Shi Chen understood. "Is it about work?"

At the thought of the director's perverted hands, Shi Xi said, "It's nothing. It's already over."

Shi Chen smiled and consoled her, "Don't think about the past. If you're not happy with this job, go back to school and continue your studies."

Chapter 514 Can You Let Shi Xi Reach the Top?

"My baby sister is still young, she should be enjoying her school life."

Shi Xi thought to herself, 'School days are the unhappy ones!'

Shi Xi was definitely unwilling to give up on her current results and return to school.

Now that she had finally gained a little bit of international fame, the film was in preparation.

!!

Becoming popular in the entire universe was at her fingertips!

How could she give up so easily?

At the thought of this, Shi Xi was instantly filled with fighting spirit.

Shi Xi finished the milk in her glass and said, "I'm going to record now, bye!"

"Wait," Shi Chen said. "I'll drive you."

"No need, my driver is already here!"

Some time ago, Xiao Tian's visa had not been approved, so she had to take a taxi or get Shi Chen to send her.

Now that Xiao Tian was here, Shi Xi didn't have to worry so much.

Looking at Shi Xi's back view, Shi Chen sighed and said, "Indeed, a married daughter is like water that has been poured out. My precious little sister hasn't even been married off yet, but she's already like water that has been poured out."

...

When they arrived at the recording location, Shi Xi realized that everyone's attitude toward her was different.

Initially, because the director didn't think much of her, the others had never taken her seriously either.

However, this time, the Festival Group's staff was very conscientious in arranging work for Shi Xi.

“Where’s the director?” Shi Xi asked as she looked around.

“The director is in the hospital,” the staff answered.

“Hospital? What’s wrong with the director?”

“I heard that he was a little frightened yesterday.”

Shi Xi thought to herself, ‘The director slept with a woman last night. What kind of shock could he have received?’

Then it could only be Xie Yunzhou.

She wondered how far Xie Yunzhou had gone.

Judging from the staff’s attitude toward her, the director was probably seriously injured.

However, this kind of director deserved to be beaten up!

Shi Xi wondered how she should thank Xie Yunzhou.

This time, it was thanks to Xie Yunzhou’s help that she was able to film smoothly.

What gift should she get?

Shi Xi thought of the famous Kioi Center for the rich.

Buy a watch for Xie Yunzhou?

Buy him some clothes?

But the reality was that Xie Yunzhou didn’t lack anything, but she, Shi Xi, was short of money!

Shi Xi’s mind was in a mess.

The day’s recording went extremely smoothly.

The timing was normal, there was no mistake, and no one was pointing fingers at her.

If only every recording could be so simple and happy.

This was what Shi Xi thought.

It was only later that Shi Xi found out that the director’s arms had been broken and he had to be in the hospital for a month.

Because the director was hospitalized, he couldn’t come back to the Festival Group.

However, the program’s progress could not be dragged down, so the assistant director was in charge of the subsequent projects.

The assistant director was obviously more sensible. His attitude toward Shi Xi was very gentle, and he gave her whatever she wanted.

He had never smeared Shi Xi's name. Whether it was the cover photo or the various invitations, Shi Xi had always been the first to come forward.

After the third episode was broadcast, the fans were finally satisfied with Shi Xi's appearance.

This episode's viewership and views had reached a new high.

It was even higher than the first episode!

This result was worthy of celebration and attracted the attention of many netizens.

Even the passersby started to ask if Shi Xi could reach the Top.

Fans, wake up! This was a mentor!

Compared to the pretentious, irresponsible, and ordinary trainees, netizens preferred to watch Shi Xi, who was good at singing and dancing and had the best looks.

In the midst of the excitement, [The Top] held a livestream the first time.

There were both men and women in this talent show. The male and female trainees were divided into two tracks, and they would advance respectively.

Chapter 515 Cherry Blossom Girl's Love Letter

For the first round of selection, 15 male and 15 female trainees would be left.

In other words, 20 people would be eliminated.

Shi Xi wasn't a trainee, so she couldn't understand the nervousness of a trainee.

However, the atmosphere in the practice room was getting more and more depressing.

!!

Some people would often start to cry as they practiced.

In the third episode, the trainees had completed the first performance and were now practicing the second performance's song.

If they were eliminated, they wouldn't even be able to step onto the stage.

Before Shi Xi could enter the practice room, she heard someone crying.

Ai.

In the past, she would still comfort them, but later, she realized that she couldn't.

After all, they would go to dance practice after crying.

Just as Shi Xi was about to push open the door to the practice room and enter, she was stopped by someone.

"Teacher Shi Xi, can you help me read the letter?" The one who called out to Shi Xi was the Cherry Blossom Girl. She was pretty, pure, and cute, with straight bangs and big eyes.

"Sure," Shi Xi remembered this Cherry Blossom Girl.

Yuki Mizunashi.

The Cherry Blossom Girl, who was very eye-catching on the first stage, was the second-place female trainee in the girls' group.

However, in the practice room, she was quiet and did not fight for anything.

The Cherry Blossom Girl brought Shi Xi to the stairwell and passed the letter to her. "Please take a look at it for me and see if there's any problem with the translation."

Shi Xi took a look at the letter and saw that it was filled with words of gratitude and support.

"No problem. Which trainee in China are you writing to?" Shi Xi asked.

"He's someone who helped me a lot," Cherry Blossom Girl answered, her face red.

Shi Xi tried to guess.

She couldn't guess.

"I don't know if I'll be able to advance," Cherry Blossom Girl said with her head lowered. "Perhaps this is the last time we'll be together."

"You're so outstanding, you'll definitely be able to advance!" Shi Xi encouraged.

"Really?" The Cherry Blossom Girl's eyes were bright and pure, and she said hesitantly, "Then, then do I still have to send the letter?"

What if she didn't advance?

"I think it's better to send the letter out," Shi Xi said after a pause.

The Cherry Blossom Girl nodded vigorously. "Thank you, Teacher Shi Xi!"

Shi Xi walked back and fell into deep thought.

Speaking of which, there were very few people who wrote letters now.

Only in this kind of program would people still write letters.

Shi Xi pushed open the door to the practice room and saw everyone biting their pens.

"What are you guys doing? You're not practicing?" Shi Xi asked.

"The mission of the Festival Group is to write a letter to a friend," Li Jinfa replied.

Shi Xi: "..."

No wonder the Cherry Blossom Girl was so bold.

So it was a request from the Festival Group.

"Then who do you want to write it to?" Shi Xi glanced at Bai Cangyang and asked, "Will you guys exchange letters?"

"Who's writing to him?!" Li Jinfan said in disdain.

Shi Xi pouted.

There were still many people who wanted these two to be a CP!

From the talent show to the talent show, they had been fighting side by side.

This was just a nice way to put it.

To put it bluntly, those who chose talent were still amateurs.

"Why are you here?" Shi Xi asked Bai Cangyang curiously.

With Bai Cangyang's resources in the country, he could totally film a movie and join the cast or find a permanent variety show.

His teammates had already been killing for two dramas.

"There are too few stages in the country," Bai Cangyang said with a smile.

So he was still a legitimate idol!

"When I have the money, I'll make a solo singing show," Shi Xi said with a sigh.

"Sure, remember to invite me when the time comes," Bai Cangyang chimed in.

"...You're too expensive. I can't afford it."

Ever since she started filming her movie, Shi Xi had a rough understanding of the value of people in the industry.

She couldn't even afford to hire most of the famous artistes with good acting skills.

Bai Cangyang replied, "If it's a stage, I won't charge you for the notice."

Chapter 516 I Get It, It's Making Empty Promises

"If that's the case, I can consider it," Shi Xi said.

"Consider what? Sister Xi, what do you need to consider?" Li Jinfan leaned over and asked.

"Teacher Shi Xi said that she'll be making a stage show in the future. I said that if she invites me, I won't ask for a notice fee," Bai Cangyang replied with a smile.

"I don't want a notice fee either, just bring me along!" Li Jinfan raised his hand.

Shi Xi replied, "I mean, when I have money! I didn't say that I would definitely do it!"

"I understand, you're just making empty promises."

Shi Xi: "..."

It did seem like she was making empty promises.

However, the three of them did not expect that such a big pie would come true in the future.

Moreover, this excellent stage show had made the idol industry in China bloom.

"Are you guys done with your letters?" a staff member asked.

Li Jinfan bit the tip of his pen. "I can only write to my friends? Can I write it for the mentor?"

The staff member hesitated for a moment. "I'll go and ask."

novelusb.com

Shi Xi glanced at Li Jinfan and said, "Don't. This program is for you guys. Don't flatter the coaches."

"Then I'll write a letter to Sister Xi alone. Sister Xi, have you not received a handwritten letter for a long time?" Li Jinfan's eyes lit up.

"Uh, I received it when I was on a program."

"...I wrote that too," Li Jinfan replied.

When the two of them attended [Secret Love Exchange], there was indeed a letter-writing segment.

Ai.

After they finished writing the letter, they would put it in the mailbox.

The Festival Group staff would distribute the letters to the recipients.

Or, the person who wrote the letter could directly stuff the letter into the other person's locker in the training room.

Bai Cangyang opened his storage cabinet and saw a letter.

On the envelope was a pink heart.

Bai Cangyang opened the envelope after making sure that no one was around.

It was obvious that it was not written by a Chinese friend.

Although the words were written stroke by stroke, it wasn't very smooth to read.

On it was written her gratitude to him and that she would support him in the future.

Bai Cangyang had a rough idea of who had written the letter to him.

Yuki Mizunashi.

When Felomina took the lead to bully this Cherry Blossom Girl, he and Li Jinfan passed by and helped this Cherry Blossom Girl.

After that, this Cherry Blossom Girl would appear in his sight from time to time.

Bai Cangyang placed the letter back into the storage cabinet and wondered if he should reply.

Forget it, he didn't know Japanese.

After closing the storage cabinet, Bai Cangyang saw Shi Xi standing by the side.

He was shocked, but he calmed his breathing and said, "Hello, Teacher Shi Xi."

Shi Xi winked at him. "So, Cherry Blossom Girl's love letter was for you!"

"She was bullied in the corridor. Jinfan and I passed by and helped her." Bai Cangyang dragged Li Jinfan into the water and explained, "It's just thanks and blessings, not a love letter."

"I know, Cherry Blossom Girl showed it to me." Shi Xi smiled and asked, "Do you want to reply? I can help you translate it into Japanese!"

"Teacher Shi Xi, what are you doing here?" Bai Cangyang changed the topic.

"I came to get strawberry pudding. I have a locker here too." Shi Xi opened her storage cabinet and took out two strawberry puddings. She handed one to Bai Cangyang and said, "I also have an envelope and letter paper."

Bai Cangyang accepted the strawberry pudding and declined politely, "I'm not familiar with Contestant Mizunashi."

"They treat you as a hero, but you don't even reply to a single letter." As Shi Xi ate her pudding, she nodded. "As expected of an idol. You have the self-awareness of an idol!"

Bai Cangyang: It sounded like a compliment, but he felt like she was belittling him.

Chapter 517 Teacher Shi Xi Wants To Fall In Love?

There wasn't anyone around the storage cabinet. Shi Xi asked, "Have you ever thought about dating?"

Bai Cangyang laughed. "In our line of work, being in love is equivalent to losing our job."

"Yeah," Shi Xi nodded in agreement.

She could live without love, but she couldn't live without her career.

Bai Cangyang held the strawberry pudding in his hand but did not open it. He asked casually, "Teacher Shi Xi, do you want to fall in love?"

"No, I don't." Thinking of Xie Yunzhou, Shi Xi sighed inwardly and said, "Even if you want to be in a relationship, you have to wait for your career to stabilize."

"You're already doing very well in the artiste industry," Bai Cangyang said sincerely.

"That's just not bad." Shi Xi thought about the contract she had signed and felt melancholic.

The road ahead would not be so easy to walk.

Bai Cangyang looked at Shi Xi.

The locker was placed next to the floor-to-ceiling window. At this time, the sun was shining on the girl, casting a faint golden light on her body.

"Mu Zhao seems to have been bullied," Bai Cangyang suddenly said.

"What?" Shi Xi looked up.

"When I was washing my clothes at night, I saw her hiding in the corridor and crying," Bai Cangyang replied.

"There's someone crying every day. How do you know that she's been bullied?"

"She's a good dancer. She won't cry because of this. When I went to ask, she said that she's fine," Bai Cangyang replied.

"And then?"

"After that, I stopped being a busybody."

Shi Xi: "..."

Bai Cangyang was right.

In this circle, meddling in other people's business didn't end well.

It was already very good to be able to stay out of trouble.

"Thank you for your feedback," Shi Xi said. "I'll have a chat with Mu Zhao."

"Thank you for the pudding, Teacher Shi Xi." Bai Cangyang placed the strawberry pudding in his storage cabinet and said, "I'm going back to practice."

Shi Xi nodded.

After she finished eating the pudding, Shi Xi took two more and put them in her pocket, ready to go find Mu Zhao.

Kids these days really made people worry.

Shi Xi looked around and finally found Mu Zhao in the music room.

Mu Zhao put down the piano cover and wrote a letter on it.

"Teacher Shi Xi." Mu Zhao heaved a sigh of relief when she saw that it was Shi Xi.

"What are you doing here?" Shi Xi asked.

"Yes, I want to find a quiet place to write my letter. Teacher," Mu Zhao stood up and asked, "is there anything I can help you with?"

Shi Xi found a seat and sat down before asking, "I heard that there's been bullying here. I wanted to ask if you were bullied."

"No," Mu Zhao replied after a moment of silence.

She was lying.

“You’re really not?” Shi Xi asked.

Mu Zhao rolled up her sleeves and smiled. “I was really scalded by hot water the last time. Look, I’m fine now.”

Shi Xi looked at Mu Zhao’s arm.

Indeed, there were no signs of her being beaten.

Could it be that she was crying because of the pressure?

Shi Xi handed her a strawberry pudding and said, “Alright, you can tell me if there’s anything you need.”

“You’re Ning Yu’s friend, so you’re my friend.”

Mu Zhao took the strawberry pudding and said, “Thank you, Teacher Shi Xi.

Back then, she had thought that Shi Xi wasn’t a good person.

Ai.

You really can’t judge a book by its cover.

“Take your time, I’ll be leaving first.” Shi Xi left after giving her heart.

After Shi Xi left, Mu Zhao sighed.

Bullying between girls wasn’t only limited to scolding and beating.

Ostracizing, mocking, ignoring, and looking down on her...

After this ranking, it might be better if a portion of people left.

Mu Zhao didn’t understand either.

Why did some people not focus on improving themselves, but instead stare at others all day?

Chapter 518 The Reward Is 200,000 USD

After recording the letter-writing segment, everyone welcomed their first release.

Every time a name was called, there would be various micro-expressions in the audience.

No matter how tough and tiring their time as trainees was, no one wanted to leave.

This was a talent show jointly organized by the five nations.

!!

The more rounds they took, the more exposure they would get.

Yuki Mizunashi crossed her arms and prayed in her heart:

Please, please let me advance!

Let me stay a little longer!

...

"14th place, Yuki Mizunashi of the Sakura Nation! Congratulations!"

When Shi Xi read out Cherry Blossom Girl's name, her heart was filled with emotions.

Cherry Blossom Girl looked pure and cute, but she wasn't the type that Americans liked.

However, she was very capable. After the first episode of the show was broadcast, she attracted a lot of fans.

There wasn't much post-production footage, but her performance in the first public contest was outstanding, finally pushing her into the Top 15.

The Cherry Blossom Girl cried and thanked her, then sat in the 14th place.

The teacher continued to announce the rankings of the others.

Mu Zhao stayed behind as the ninth place.

In the male team, Li Jinfan was in seventh place while Bai Cangyang was in second place.

The final trainee to reach the Top was still Felomina from the girls' group.

[The Top] was a talent show organized by M Country. Although it was an alliance between the five nations, they still wanted to promote their own artistes.

After the recording of the rankings ended, everyone was in tears.

The mentors left, leaving the trainees some space.

...

When the recording of the rankings ended, Shi Xi got off work.

When she returned to the villa, Shi Xi saw Shi Chen playing games in the living room in his home clothes.

"Second Brother? Why didn't you go to work?" Shi Xi was a little puzzled.

Usually, she would not have guessed that Shi Chen actually knew how to play games.

"I got off work early," Shi Chen said.

"It's so nice to be a boss..." Shi Xi said. She wanted to be one too.

"I heard from Ron that you know swordsmanship?" Shi Chen looked over and asked, "When did you learn it?"

"Uh." Shi Xi blinked and said, "When I was filming a period drama, there was a martial arts scene, so I learned a little."

Shi Chen nodded casually. "K City is hosting a swordsmanship competition. Do you want to participate?"

Shi Xi was slightly stunned. "Can I participate?"

"Of course you can. The competition is sponsored by our company."

"Forget it, I don't have much time to waste."

"The prize money is 200,000 US dollars."

"How do I register?"

Shi Chen: ...I don't understand why my sister is so money-minded.

At the last step of the registration, Shi Xi pointed at the number and asked, "What is this?"

Shi Chen took a look. "The registration fee is 10 dollars."

"I know. I'm asking for the number below."

"The number of people who have signed up is more than 10,000. It's alright," Shi Chen said, accustomed to it. "It's normal."

Shi Xi was surprised. "There are so many people who signed up?"

"Yup."

After chatting with Shi Chen for a while, Shi Xi finally understood that K City was a famous city for swordsmanship.

Out of ten people, eight of them knew swordsmanship.

Most of them started learning swordsmanship from a young age. Every school had a swordsmanship course, and swordsmanship dojos could be seen everywhere on the streets.

Every year, the main residence would organize a swordsmanship competition and give the winner a high prize money and Medal of Honor.

The swordsmanship club would often hold small-scale competitions to attract participants.

With such an atmosphere, K City formed its own unique sports style.

As it was passed down from generation to generation, the environment for the movement of swordsmanship was very stable.

Shi Xi was a little envious.

If ancient martial arts had such a good heritage atmosphere, martial arts centers wouldn't have closed down one after another, and it would be difficult to find a successor for all kinds of ancient martial arts.

Chapter 519 Just Call Him Big Brother, And He Was Willing To Give Her His Life!

"Brother, do you know any swordsmanship?" Shi Xi asked.

"I didn't know how to do it before, but after I came here, I learned a little." Shi Chen was also forced to learn.

After he came here, he didn't expect everyone to like swordsmanship.

Even when they were chatting, they were focused on the swordsmanship competition.

After Shi Xi paid the registration fee, she asked, "Even if 10,000 people sign up, it won't be enough for the prize money, right?"

"The registration deadline is in a week." Shi Chen said, "In the past year, the highest number of applicants was 30,000. This year, we can probably get 20,000 applicants."

"This event will be broadcasted live. Other than the registration fee, we will also receive investments from advertisers."

After a long period of development, K City already had a perfect system to operate sword arts.

Shi Xi thought that it would be great if this set of techniques could be applied to ancient martial arts.

But this wasn't so simple.

After countless trials and errors, the rules of swordsmanship movement had been perfected.

Wearing a mask, gloves, and a fencing suit, one could safely engage in a series of offensive and defensive exchanges.

Even the sword had evolved into a flower sword that wouldn't hurt people.

However, in ancient martial arts competitions, even though it was said to stop, the other party would definitely be beaten down or thrown off the stage.

Some people were still holding on.

They suffered internal injuries at every turn.

As long as one signed up, they would receive an event token.

On the comment page, many people said that they would participate every year because they wanted to get commemorative coins.

F*ck, this is just a swordsmanship competition, and they were using such a fancy method!

No wonder it could continue!

Shi Xi was jealous.

"Do you need me to practice with you?" Shi Chen asked after the registration.

"Today?" Shi Xi looked at the time. "Isn't it a little too late to head to the swordsmanship club now?"

"There's a private room on the second floor where you can practice fencing," Shi Chen said.

Shi Xi: "..."

Just because you have money, you can do whatever you want?

Even though Shi Xi lived here, she wasn't that curious and hadn't explored many parts of the villa.

She didn't even go into the swimming pool.

When they entered the fencing practice room, Shi Xi saw more than a dozen swords inside.

"Are these all yours?" Shi Xi's eyes lit up.

It was like a girl seeing a row of lipsticks.

"Yes, when I first learned it, I made a lot of custom-made ones. See if there's anything you like," Shi Chen said. "Or I can take you to get a custom-made one."

Shi Xi pulled them out one by one and slashed and stabbed them.

Shi Chen's eyes darkened when he saw Shi Xi's actions.

Even though Shi Xi was just casually slashing, it was obvious that her every move was accurate.

She had definitely practiced it frequently.

Shi Chen's heart ached.

His precious sister had suffered a lot on set.

No wonder the martial arts scene was so good.

"I'll teach you the rules of fencing and how to score points first," Shi Chen said. "We'll start with the flower sword."

Shi Xi listened attentively.

She didn't know much about fencing. Flower swords, heavy swords, and accompanying swords were all used to stab the weapon and limit the attack area.

During ancient martial arts competitions, it was fine as long as one did not attack the other party's lower three paths.

Shi Xi studied the rules seriously. At the same time, she also learned many key points for stabbing.

Seeing how serious his precious little sister was in her studies, Shi Chen put in even more effort in his teaching.

'My baby sister is so cute!'

As long as his precious little sister called him big brother, he would even give her his life!

"There are so many rules. Second Brother," Shi Xi asked, "can you skip the competition and just give me the prize money?"

"No," Shi Chen replied.

He could give his life to his precious little sister.

Not money.

Chapter 520 Who Are You Trying To Seduce With Such Heavy Makeup?

Shi Xi stuck out her tongue and continued practicing.

She was just joking.

There were many rules.

If ancient martial arts had so many rules, how many people would sign up?

However, at the thought of the 200,000 yuan prize money, Shi Xi felt that there would definitely be a lot of people lining up to register.

On the other side.

After bidding farewell, Bai Cangyang went to his storage cabinet and prepared to take his things and leave.

Seeing the strawberry pudding inside, Bai Cangyang took it out and gave it to Li Jinfan.

"You like to eat desserts for little girls?" Li Jinfan asked curiously.

Bai Cangyang replied, "...It was given to me by Teacher Shi Xi."

Li Jinfan was speechless.

"Why didn't she give it to me?" Li Jinfan felt that it was unfair.

Bai Cangyang ignored his indignant feelings and prepared to return to his dormitory to rest.

When he returned to his dormitory, Bai Cangyang realized that his blanket and pillow had been splashed with water.

The dormitory was empty. A few eliminated people had already left.

They left behind a pile of trash.

"Why is your blanket all wet?" After Li Jinfan finished speaking, he patted Bai Cangyang's shoulder and said, "It's probably the people who left who splashed the water."

They were envious of Bai Cangyang's popularity ranking, so they wanted to take revenge before they left.

Bai Cangyang pursed his lips. "I'll go and buy a new one."

"I'm going to clean up the trash." Li Jinfan felt a headache coming on.

Just as Bai Cangyang was about to leave, he heard a knock on the door.

And the sweet voice of a girl.

"Hi, what are you doing? May I come in?"

The two of them looked over.

It was actually Shi Xi?

There was a videographer following behind Shi Xi.

They were probably recording.

The two of them had experienced talent shows and various variety shows, so they immediately reacted.

“Hello, Teacher Shi Xi.”

“Hello, Sister Xi.”

“Are you two the only ones here?” Shi Xi asked as she looked into the dormitory.

Everyone lived in a five-person dormitory. When they first started on stage, they were assigned dormitories according to their scores.

However, many people were eliminated this time, so there were many empty seats in the dormitory.

“Two people left the dormitory, but the other roommate isn’t here,” Li Jinfan said.

Shi Xi looked at the trash in the male dormitory and thought about how to kick it.

“It’s not usually like this. It’s just a little chaotic today,” Li Jinfan quickly explained.

Shi Xi smiled. “You guys can continue packing then. I’m going to raid the next dormitory!”

Shi Xi did not notice that Bai Cangyang’s bedsheets were wet, nor did she notice it later on.

But after this episode’s broadcast, the sharp-eyed netizens realized something!

[The Top] had a dormitory derivative show. The rubbish that the netizens dug out on the ground belonged to the two roommates who had left!

They even found out that one of his roommates had been wearing Bai Cangyang’s accessories.

After Bai Cangyang saw the post, he finally realized that his things had been stolen.

He thought he had lost it.

This series of events had helped Bai Cangyang to act pitiful.

Bai Cangyang did not say it, but his fans had already imagined how he was be bullied to the point that he did not dare to speak.

Big Brother was so miserable, sob sob.

...

Shi Xi had raided the boys’ dormitory and caught three of them hiding their phones, two smoking, and one drinking.

Other than that, most of them were very harmonious.

After that, they went to the female dormitory.

The moment Shi Xi arrived at the female dormitory, she could hear mocking laughter coming from inside.

“Not bad! 14th place, you can help me wash my clothes for another half a month.”

“Who are you trying to seduce with such thick makeup?”

“You’ve been studying Chinese for the past few days. Do you like Chinese trainees?”

“Who did you write the letter to?”

“Say something!”
