

The Fake 551

Chapter 551 It's Impossible To Avoid a Disaster

"There's a fencing hall nearby. I'll take you there," Shi Chen said.

Shi Xi wasn't very familiar with the rules of fencing, so she needed to compete with more people in order to master the rules.

After all, in the competition, everyone followed the rules and advanced based on the points they scored.

Shi Xi nodded. "Alright, I'll go and change."

!!

She didn't have any work today, so she could go to the fencing hall to familiarize herself with the rules.

After Shi Xi changed her clothes and went out, she saw Ron sitting on the bench by the door, looking like a drenched chicken. He was holding a bunch of flowers in his hand.

That's right, a bunch of roses was drenched by water.

Shi Chen saw that Ron had not left and frowned.

He was already so drenched, yet he was still so persistent?

He thought that Ron had already left.

Ron heard footsteps and looked up to see the two of them. He said in surprise, "Xi Xi!"

Shi Xi was puzzled. "Why are you here? How did you end up like this?"

Ron looked at Shi Chen with a bitter expression.

However, Shi Chen was Shi Xi's brother and he did not dare to offend him.

"It's nothing. I came at the wrong time. I touched the lawn and it watered automatically. Where are you guys going?" asked Ron.

"My brother is bringing me to a fencing hall. What about you? Do you want to go back and change?" Shi Xi asked casually.

After all, he was already drenched.

When Ron heard that Shi Xi was going to the fencing hall, he immediately perked up and said, "I also want to go to the fencing hall!"

Shi Xi: ?

"Aren't you going back to change your clothes?" Shi Chen said expressionlessly.

Ron was already drenched, but he was still so persistent in chasing his sister.

He was really difficult to deal with.

Shi Chen was not touched at all.

He only felt annoyed.

“No need, it’s just a little water.” Ron flicked his hair.

Water droplets flew everywhere.

Shi Xi dodged backward.

“Xi Xi, do you want to learn fencing?” Ron looked at Shi Xi and offered, “I can teach you! I can even be your sparring partner.”

“There’s no need for that. There’s a coach in the fencing hall.”

Ron extended a finger and shook it. “All the good coaches are already leading the team.”

“And I’m always on call, and I was the third place in the last city-wide fencing competition. Where can you find someone better than me-”

“That’s me,” Shi Chen replied indifferently.

The smile on Ron’s face shattered.

Shi Xi looked at Shi Chen with sparkling eyes. “Brother, you’re more powerful than Ron?”

“Shi Chen was the runner-up of the previous city-wide fencing competition,” Ron said weakly.

The champion was Mei Yinni’s brother, Angev.

He had fought with Shi Xi the last time.

Shi Xi looked at her brother and asked in surprise, “You’ve never said that before~”

She had thought that Shi Chen was just casually practicing.

Shi Chen coughed. “It’s just the runner-up. There’s nothing to be proud of.”

Third place Ron: “...”

“I’ll practice with my brother then,” Shi Xi said.

Ron ran his fingers through his hair, his hand wet. “Shi Chen can’t be at your beck and call, but I can.”

Ron picked out a flower that didn’t seem to have been ravaged from the middle of the bunch of flowers and brought it to Shi Xi. “Beautiful Miss Xi Xi, I suggest that you consider letting me be your sparring partner. I’ll be there whenever you call me. I’ll be there either way.”

The corners of Shi Xi’s mouth twitched as she looked at the Rose before her that had managed to escape a calamity.

It was dotted with a few drops of water, looking delicate and beautiful.

It looked pretty good.

The next second, Ron, who was drenched and blown by the wind, sneezed loudly.

“Achoo-”

His saliva was all sprayed on the flower.

...It was impossible to avoid this calamity.

Chapter 552 Let Shi Chen and Mei Yinni Get Married

Shi Xi rejected him with a smile. “I can practice by myself.”

Shi Chen did not bother to hide his disdain and walked past Ron.

After the two of them left, Ron looked at his flowers and felt extremely sad.

However, the watering device that had been set was activated.

!!

Ron scored twice and got poured with water again.

*

When they arrived at the fencing hall, Shi Xi realized that it was the same one she had been to the last time.

Shi Chen watched as Shi Xi picked up the sword with ease and asked, “You’ve been here before?”

“Yes, Ron brought me here once before.” Shi Xi gave a brief account of what had happened last time.

Hearing that his baby sister was not bullied, Shi Xiang heaved a sigh of relief and said, “There’s nothing good in the Mitchell family. If you see them in the future, avoid them.”

Shi Xi stuck out her tongue. “I know.”

Even though they had only met once, Shi Xi could sense that these two people were up to no good.

However, she encountered something she didn’t want.

When Shi Xi was picking her sword, she ran into Mei Yinni, who was also there to practice.

When Mei Yinni saw Shi Chen and Shi Xi, her face turned pale and she immediately avoided them.

Shi Xi: I’m not the one being rude.

“How could she run so fast?” Shi Xi was puzzled.

Even if she had scammed Mei Yinni of a large sum of money last time, she shouldn’t have looked so bad, right?

“She probably ran away because she saw me,” Shi Chen said.

Shi Xi’s eyes lit up with the color of gossip. “Oh?”

“When I first came here, I didn’t have a firm foothold here, and everything didn’t go well. I started with her to get close to her father,” Shi Chen recalled.

Shi Xi’s eyes widened.

Shi Chen shrugged. “She found out later on. She said that if I slept with her for a night, she would take me to see her father.”

Shi Xi’s eyes widened even more. “And then?”

“I was afraid of getting infected, so I refused. After that, I asked our family for some money. I used that money to pave a way for myself,” Shi Chen replied nonchalantly.

Shi Xi wasn’t too sure about that.

Father Shi and Shi Xu rarely talked about business at home. When they really needed to talk, they would talk in the study.

“Then why did she run when she saw you?” Shi Xi asked.

“Probably because I thought she was dirty, and I said it out loud.” Shi Chen explained.

Shi Xi: “...”

Such words were indeed a blow to girls.

“Don’t blame me. She changes her boyfriend every month.” It was rare for Shi Chen to gossip, so he conveniently stepped on Ron’s foot and said, “Ron even had a room with her before. You should stay away from Ron too. The relationships between men and women here are very messy.”

Shi Xi nodded solemnly. “Don’t worry. I won’t do anything rash.”

She was afraid of being photographed by the media.

Shi Chen heaved a sigh of relief.

He didn’t want his soft and cute little sister to be led astray by the people here.

“Does Big Brother have a girlfriend here?” Shi Xi asked.

Looking at his precious sister’s sparkling eyes, Shi Chen immediately put on his helmet and said, “No, I don’t.”

He still preferred Chinese girls.

The girls here were too bold and unrestrained, and he couldn’t accept it.

The two of them entered the fencing practice room. Shi Chen began teaching Shi Xi basic theory. Before he left, he even gave Shi Xi a few theory books.

Meanwhile, Mei Yinni was extremely annoyed to see the two people she hated the most together.

She hated Shi Chen, not just because he called her dirty.

It was also because after Shi Chen's rise to power in K City, the first family to be suppressed was the Mitchell family, which she was from.

After that, when they saw Shi Chen's rise to power, the Mitchell family had suggested that Shi Chen and Mei Yinni be married.

Shi Chen rejected without even considering it!

Chapter 553 The Opening Picture, The Content Is All Fabricated

This made the proud Mei Yinni unable to swallow her anger.

However, Shi Chen had already gained a foothold in K City with his money and they could not do anything to him.

Mei Yinni's lips curled up slightly when she saw Shi Xi in her fencing suit.

She took out her phone, took a picture of Shi Xi, and posted it on Twitter.

[Wow! Shi Xi has appeared in the fencing hall.]

[I heard that she's going to participate in the annual fencing competition in K City!]

[Look at how confident she was when she said she would win the championship. She's so cute!]

Mei Yinni was using her own social media account. She loved fencing and had won many awards. She was fair, rich, and beautiful, so she had many fans on her account.

As soon as this blog was posted, someone replied immediately.

[Ah? Did Shi Xi tell you that she wanted to win the championship? Hahaha, this year's best joke!]

[I'm afraid Shi Xi doesn't know who you are.]

[K City is a city of swordsmanship. I'm afraid that Shi Xi is trying to get into trouble by saying such things.]

The netizens all felt that Shi Xi was overestimating herself.

However, most people thought that Shi Xi was cute when she said that.

After all, to the netizens' knowledge, Shi Xi didn't know how to fence.

More and more comments were posted on this blog, and it was getting more and more popular.

By the time it spread to China, the haters had already interpreted it in hundreds of ways.

[Isn't Shi Xi too shameless? In front of the swordsmanship champion's sister, you actually said that you wanted to win the championship?]

[The more daring a person is, the more daring they are when they brag. I'm already blushing for Shi Xi.]

[...]

The fans were unhappy.

[It's just a picture at the start, and the content is all fabricated? I only saw Xi Xi in her fencing suit, but I didn't hear her say anything.]

[They really f*cking started a rumor with one mouth and ran their legs to refute it. They started to make up a story with a lousy picture? If I say that Shi Xi is my wife, does that mean it's true?]

[Look at the post. It's Mei Yinni. She doesn't need to lie.]

[Mei Yinni is the sister of the fencing champion of K City. Would she lie about Shi Xi?]

[Let's share some common knowledge. K City is also known as the City of Swordsmanship. Many world fencing champions come from this city.]

Shi Xi didn't say anything like that.

Oh, that's not right. Shi Xi and Shi Chen had expressed their desire to win the championship.

But she had never told Mei Yinni about it!

When the fans explained again, the haters changed their words.

The anti-fans said, [Shi Xi isn't focusing on being a teacher. Instead, she's participating in a sword arts competition. That's a dereliction of duty.]

Fans: mmp

Couldn't she have her own entertainment time as an artiste?

...

The internet was chaotic, but time was peaceful.

At the same time, [The Top]'s third public performance was coming.

Shi Xi had no choice but to prepare for the fencing competition while preparing the stage.

Thanks to her high popularity, she would be in the same group as Felomina in her third public performance.

That was what the script said.

Shi Xi didn't want to do this at first, but she had no choice but to lower her head.

If she wanted to take the money, she would have to follow the script.

However, on the day of the recording, Felomina changed sides at the last minute and chose another male mentor. Conrad.

Conrad was also surprised, but he accepted it with a smile.

Felomina secretly rolled her eyes at Shi Xi.

Shi Xi: "..."

It was casual.

She didn't want to have anything to do with this female trainee anyway.

Hence, Bai Cangyang chose Shi Xi, while the rest of the groups chose their respective mentors.

Everyone was getting ready for the third performance.

Shi Xi and Bai Cangyang had known each other for a long time. For this collaboration, they skipped the step of getting used to each other and immediately started practicing.

Chapter 554 'Damei' and 'Yamatte'

When this episode was broadcast, when everyone saw that Felomina had made the first choice but it was not Shi Xi, and even rolled her eyes, their impression of Felomina dropped.

However, her actions had made those who disliked Shi Xi stand on Felomina's side.

[Felomina's true to her nature. She must have rolled her eyes at Shi Xi because she could tell that she's cheating on her.]

[People from M Country don't buy Shi Xi's act of letting her say whatever she wants.]

[Shi Xi is indeed a green tea? Charming men on the show, even Felomina couldn't stand it.]

The black fans' hostility toward Shi Xi could even rise to the level of a nation.

Shi Xi's fans were furious.

Unfortunately, Shi Xi was the coach on this talent show, so they couldn't vote for her.

As such, fans began to vote for Bai Cangyang, hoping to win over Felomina.

In a mixed selection of women and men, male trainees had an advantage.

In addition to this dispute, [The Top]'s popularity went up another level.

During the practice, Shi Xi realized that most of the time, the male guests would bring the female trainees with them, and the female guests would be in a group with the male trainees.

After all, there were many ambiguous actions in the middle of the stage. Of course, it would be more exciting and beautiful if the opposite s*x were together.

Shi Xi and Bai Cangyang were very familiar with each other, so she did not think too much about it when they interacted.

There was no such thing as who would take advantage of who.

However, when Shi Xi passed by the other practice rooms, she saw the male instructor hugging the female trainee's waist and even looking at her chest.

He didn't have to keep staring, right?

Shi Xi's face was filled with disdain.

The trainee was angry but dared not say anything.

Fortunately, there were cameras, so the male teacher would not go overboard.

He only dared to hug her waist and touch her legs.

He even said that he was sacrificing himself for the stage.

Shi Xi didn't know much about this, so she could only tell herself that art was amazing.

However, when she saw that someone else's stage was so demanding, Shi Xi felt melancholic.

She couldn't lose to anyone on her stage!

Hence, Shi Xi added a couple's interaction overnight.

Li Jinfan was also in the same group. When he saw Bai Cangyang hugging Shi Xi's waist, he was extremely jealous.

"Brother Bai, why don't we change our positions?" Li Jinfan suggested in private.

Bai Cangyang was speechless.

"I don't want to be in the center position. Just give me the dance in the middle. I'll give you all the rest of my parts!" Li Jinfan endured the pain and said.

"Don't even think about it," Bai Cangyang rejected.

"You know how I feel about Sister Xi." Li Jinfan continued to pester him.

"You can look for Teacher Shi Xi and ask her to exchange for it," Bai Cangyang said.

Li Jinfan sighed. "Forget it, I'm just asking."

The duo dance was considered the last part of the song, so how could they change it?

At the thought of not being able to hold Sister Xi's waist, Li Jinfan drank the wangzi milk in his hand.

Bai Cangyang: "..."

He often wanted to cut ties with him because his friends were too stupid.

The two of them returned to the practice room to continue their practice. When they passed by one of the practice rooms, they heard a sound inside.

It was all in Japanese, so they didn't understand.

However, the girl had said "damei" and "yamatte" too many times, and the man's tone was too vulgar.

At the thought of the Cherry Blossom Girl, Bai Cangyang pushed the door open.

He saw the male teacher pressing down on the Cherry Blossom Girl, wanting to kiss her.

The scene was too ugly, and he didn't want to see it anymore.

The male instructor saw the two trainees coming over and scolded, "Get out!"

"Good day, Teacher. I have something to discuss with Mizunashi," Bai Cangyang said.

The Cherry Blossom Girl's eyes were filled with gratitude, and she wanted to crawl over to Bai Cangyang's side.

Chapter 555 Don't Let That Love-Brain Boss Come Back!

What made the two of them feel even more disgusted was that the male teacher who bullied the Cherry Blossom Girl was from the same country.

The short man looked decent on the surface, but they did not expect him to be so perverted in private.

The male instructor cursed a few times and let go of the Cherry Blossom Girl.

The Cherry Blossom Girl looked at Bai Cangyang with eyes filled with gratitude.

This was the second time Bai Cangyang had saved her.

After the male mentor left while cursing, Bai Cangyang and Li Jinfan sent the Cherry Blossom Girl back to her dormitory.

The Cherry Blossom Girl didn't understand their language, so she could only keep saying thank you.

After sending the Cherry Blossom Girl back to the dormitory, Li Jinfan joked, "That sister's eyes are full of admiration and adoration when she looks at you!"

"That was a look of gratitude," Bai Cangyang replied helplessly.

"It's clearly a gaze of love." Li Jinfan said on purpose.

"Use this time to memorize the vocabulary for your part." Bai Cangyang did not wish to say anything more.

He was here to be an idol, not to date.

Li Jinfan was the only one who had a brain for love.

He had run so far to chase after Shi Xi.

In the end, they could still see each other every day.

*

Before the third performance began, there was already a lot of gossip.

In particular, the GIF of Felomina rolling her eyes at Shi Xi was widely circulated.

Very few people said that Felomina was impolite. Instead, they said that it was Shi Xi who was green tea.

[Isn't this show just to support Shi Xi? It's great that Mina isn't in the same group as Shi Xi.]

[Shi Xi is a mentor, but she's always snatching the screen time of trainees. Don't you feel embarrassed?]

[It's great that Felomina isn't in the same group as Shi Xi!]

At the same time, Shi Xi's fans felt that it was great.

She didn't need to be in the same group as Felomina, who looked like a dumbass.

Soon, it was time for the third live broadcast.

Felomina was wearing a short red skirt and dancing with Conrad, the male mentor. They attracted wave after wave of applause.

Their movements were bold, almost at the level of a stage idol.

Shi Xi could only say, "Awesome."

The next few groups also had their own two points.

However, none of their votes surpassed the votes of Felomina's group.

The last group was led by Shi Xi.

When she heard the emcee call her name, Shi Xi took a deep breath and walked onto the stage with a faint smile.

Yanjing, hospital.

After staying in the hospital for a long time, Xie Yunzhou had recovered a lot.

The assistant came over with a pile of documents for Xie Yunzhou to sign.

During this time, although the boss had been hospitalized, he had been working. This made the assistant, who loved his work, happy and distressed.

He was happy that his boss was no longer smitten with love and had finally started to run a business!

But he was frustrated because there was too much work.

"Boss, these documents are for you to sign." The assistant pulled the small table on the bed open.

"Yes." Xie Yunzhou opened the document at the top and scanned it.

Xie Yunzhou read through every document that required his signature before signing them.

His phone rang halfway through his checking.

The assistant looked at Xie Yunzhou's phone.

An alarm clock?

Was it time to take medicine? Or an injection?

The assistant guessed.

In the end, Xie Yunzhou just put down his pen, pressed the alarm clock, and turned on the TV in the ward.

The assistant was speechless.

He set an alarm to watch TV?

What kind of television could attract President Xie so much...

The assistant looked over and saw the live broadcast of [The Top].

Ah, this?

...

Wasn't this the international talent show that Shi Xi had participated in?

Why was the boss still watching?

The assistant's mouth twitched as he prayed to god not to let the boss, who was so smitten with love, return!

If a believer was willing to be a vegetarian for a year, a different boss would be willing to do business for a year!

Chapter 556 If You Like Miss Shi, Then Don't Reject Her Visits

The lights were bright.

This time, the stage was semi-circular, with lights flashing above and the audience waving all kinds of support sticks to cheer for their idol.

After Shi Xi walked onto the stage, she first stood beside the flower gate and waited for her part.

She was the assistant instructor, and the main performance was still for the trainees.

The trainees in this group were both capable and good-looking.

The rhythm of the song was fast and intense.

Shi Xi was in a daze on the stage.

What she didn't know was that there would be a direct shot of her on the stage.

It should be said that Shi Xi knew there was a live stream, but she didn't know that someone had been taking photos of her.

She was in a daze from the start until the end of her stunning performance.

The girl stood among the flowers. Under her long eyelashes, her beautiful eyes were lifeless, as if the whole world had nothing to do with her.

Many divine photos were born from this direct shot.

This most listless picture was added with many words, making it the most popular emoji pack.

[I'm so hungry. When are we eating?]

[When is my turn?]

[Stand aloof from the world.jpg]

The netizens posted a lot of pictures.

On top of that, Shi Xi's beauty was once again acknowledged by the audience.

During the voting for [The Top], Felomina had the highest number of votes among the female trainees.

However, many viewers had posted screenshots of Shi Xi on the forum. "Shi Xi is the face of [The Top], right? You can't just not bring her along just because she's a teacher, right?"

Everyone below agreed.

In the end, Felomina became the face of [The Top]'s trainees.

However, the person in charge of the entire show's looks was, without a doubt, Shi Xi.

...

Back on stage.

Shi Xi had rehearsed with the trainees before, so she naturally knew where each scene was.

The cameras in front of the stage were all aimed at the trainees.

Hearing the cheers from the audience, Shi Xi could imagine how good the performance on stage would be.

She still had faith in Bai Cangyang's singing and dancing.

When she heard the chorus, Shi Xi lowered her eyes and appeared from the flower gate.

The moment she appeared, Shi Xi looked up at the camera. Her eyes were full of disdain and her smile was light.

The girl's long hair was dyed gold, making her fair skin and beautiful features even more prominent.

She was dressed in a simple white shirt and a red tie, which made her look even more eye-catching.

Standing among the flowers, she was like an independent fairy.

"No one loves you more than I do."

"My sincerity, don't doubt me."

“No one loves you more than I do.”

“Please do not doubt my sincerity.”

The girl’s voice was lazy and enchanting as she reached out to pull off her tie.

The top two buttons burst open, revealing her beautiful and exquisite collarbones.

The audience: “Wow!!!!”

The corners of the girl’s mouth curled up slightly, and her eyes were filled with a faint smile. She used her red tie to hook Bai Cangyang and dragged him into the flowers.

After Bai Cangyang entered the flower bush, he pulled the girl into his arms.

The girl lifted her leg and hooked it around him, her body leaning back.

The falling petals filled the atmosphere of the couple.

The dance between the two of them was passionate and yet at the same time, they were also at each other’s throats.

“Go away and never back.”

“I love you but do not want to be imprisoned.”

“Far away from my world.”

“I love you, but I love myself more.”

...

The two of them danced passionately, and their interactions were bold but not perverted. The most intimate action was only to put their arms around the waist.

However, the tacit cooperation on stage made the audience speechless.

When the music ended, Shi Xi sat on a swing among the flowers. She plucked a rose and looked up at the camera.

The rose was bright and beautiful, but the girl was more delicate than the flower.

The light in her eyes was even more dazzling than the stage lights, making it hard for people to look away.

The trainees surrounded her and posed for her.

*

In the ward, the assistant felt the air pressure gradually decrease.

If you like Miss Shi, then don’t reject her visits!

He ignored her, and now he was watching her live broadcast.

Wasn't this just looking for trouble?

The assistant thought this but didn't dare to say it out loud.

Xie Yunzhou watched the livestream expressionlessly, turned off the TV, and continued to read documents and sign.

The assistant heaved a sigh of relief.

As long as the boss was serious about his work, everything was fine.

"The snacks I received earlier have been distributed to the company's employees as benefits." The assistant handed him an envelope and said, "This is a separate greeting card, and it says you're the recipient."

Chapter 557 I Can Only Guard the Empty Room Alone

Previously, when Shi Xi had gone to the livestream with some snacks, Xie Yunzhou had bought more than 100,000 yuan worth of snacks in the livestream room.

The address was written at the company and it was finally given to the company's employees.

The assistant recalled the day when a large truck had arrived at the company's entrance and started unloading its cargo.

Everyone in the company thought that they were about to enter the food industry.

Even now, many people were still trying to gain knowledge about the food industry, afraid that they would be eliminated.

..

Xie Yunzhou opened the envelope.

It was the to-sign postcard he had won in the live-stream.

[To: Shi Xi's First Love Candidate

I wish you good health, happiness every day, and victory in all things ^_^

-Shi Xi]

The girl's handwriting was beautiful. Xie Yunzhou could imagine how serious Shi Xi had been when she had written the postcard.

His ID was so obvious that Shi Xi should have already guessed it was him, right?

However, despite the way he treated Shi Xi, she still wished him good health.

It really was...

Xie Yunzhou stared at the postcard for a while.

The assistant tidied up the documents, his heart in turmoil.

He liked business brain boss, not love brain boss!

Xie Yunzhou put away the postcard and asked, "Have you prepared the materials for the afternoon meeting?"

"It's all here." The assistant placed a document in front of Xie Yunzhou.

He still remembered the meeting. Not bad, not bad.

During Xie Yunzhou's stay in the hospital, there were always meetings.

Everyone in the company was suffering.

Some time ago, Xie Yunzhou had been like a boss who did nothing and the management had been lax, and they had still been able to fish.

However, during Xie Yunzhou's stay in the hospital, he had returned to his previous state, asking to expand the project, increase the investment, and start a new project...

Anyway, he just didn't give them any time to slack off.

Xie Yunzhou's body recovered quickly, and it didn't take long for him to be discharged and return to the company.

On the other side, Shi Xi had already passed the first round of the fencing competition and entered the preliminary round.

Shi Xi was considered a small celebrity in K City, so it was easy for the crowd to find out that she had participated in the competition.

In this regard, the anti-fans began to be sarcastic again. [Shi Xi can't sing and dance anymore. Is she planning to go to another industry to disgust people?]

[F*ck, I really hate celebrities who don't have a good image. Can't you just focus on your singing and dancing?]

[Her acting is terrible. She can't sing or dance, so she can only rely on her looks and character to survive in the entertainment industry. It's so good to be in the entertainment industry. I want to enter the entertainment industry too.]

The black fans said all sorts of things.

In any case, no matter what Shi Xi did, the black fans were not satisfied.

However, when the fans saw that their Baby Xi Xi was going to participate in the fencing competition, they were happy and excited.

[The pretty girl is so powerful!]

[I'm really looking forward to my daughter's performance on the field!]

[Take care of your body and don't get hurt! The most important thing in the competition is to participate!]

[Come and see our beautiful Xi Xi!]

The fans ignored the anti-fans and continued to promote her.

Shi Xi had acted as an assistant in the third public performance, and that night's direct filming had exceeded 1 million yuan.

It was higher than all the live broadcasts of the trainees.

The fans didn't boast about this number. In their eyes, Shi Xi was a mentor, so it was only natural for her to be more popular than her trainees.

During this direct shot, Shi Xi only took a second to go from her initial daze to entering her state of mind.

After listening to the chorus, she immediately switched to idol mode.

This was their idol!

[She's become my idol in a second! The best face-changing!]

[Daydreaming on stage? Shi Xi: No, it's only on cooldown.]

[Stop pretending, I'm a stage fan of Baby Xi!]

The editing titles were all strange, but the views of each video were high.

When the fans saw Shi Xi on the stage, they were filled with love and admiration.

On the stage, Shi Xi was radiant and full of energy.

Even the black fans couldn't say that Shi Xi was 'both bad at singing and dancing' when they saw her on stage.

As for Shi Xi and Bai Cangyang's dance, it immediately became a hot topic.

The two of them attracted a group of CP fans.

From [Star Idol] to [The Top].

The most popular and sweet female mentor x all-rounded ace trainee

The Xi Yang CP quickly gained a wave of fans through this video.

..

"It's almost the finals. There's a limit to how much I can help you." Shi Xi was sitting on the floor of the practice room with a small yellow duck figurine in her hand. "If you have any needs, you can tell me. I'll try my best to satisfy them."

The trainees in the final circle were all sitting together.

After the third public performance, some people left again.

There were only 16 trainees left.

In the finals, two teams of boys and two teams of girls would perform.

However, only one person could become The Top.

“I want to perform with Sister Xi in the finals. Is that okay?” Li Jinfan raised his hand.

Everyone had their own solo stage in the finals.

Shi Xi threw the doll in her hand over. “I mean in life, not on the stage!”

Li Jinfan sighed. “Alright, I’ll think about it.”

Help in life?

He was lacking a girlfriend.

However, he didn’t even need to think about it. It was impossible.

“Sometimes, the sound of the earpieces prepared by the festival team is not very loud,” Bai Cangyang said. “Can you suggest that the Festival Group check them before going on stage?”

Everyone had the same feeling. “The sound of the earpiece is so soft. Sometimes, I can’t hear it clearly.”

Shi Xi nodded. “I’ll talk to the Festival Group! Is there anything else?”

Felomina sneered. “I want a million votes. Teacher Shi Xi, can you help me?”

“Your fans will help you achieve it.” Shi Xi smiled politely and looked at Mu Zhao. “Do you have any ideas?”

“I want to eat hotpot,” Mu Zhao said.

Li Jinfan raised his hand. “I want to eat too.”

Bai Cangyang was not a glutton to begin with.

However, he had been here for so long that he wanted to eat it too.

“Can we?” Bai Cangyang asked.

Shi Xi was speechless.

What was she supposed to do?

“I’ll bring the pot and the ingredients next time,” Shi Xi said.

They didn’t deliver food here, and it wasn’t easy to bring out hot pot.

“I’m trying to lose weight,” said Felomina disdainfully, “I’m not worthy of you.”

Other than Felomina and her followers, everyone else said that they could eat hot pot together.

Everyone agreed on a time.

Shi Xi went to the canteen to ask around and realized that there was no pot for hotpot.

However, the canteen could prepare ingredients.

Hence, Shi Xi moved the mandarin duck hotpot out of Shi Chen's villa along with the ingredients.

How could they not dip the hotpot in sauce?

Shi Xi packed the sauce again.

When Shi Chen returned home, he saw Shi Xi packing things.

"What are you doing?" Shi Chen looked at his precious sister's actions and strode forward to snatch the sesame sauce from Shi Xi's hands.

What exactly was it that made her take away his favorite sesame sauce?

Shi Chen: My precious little sister is so cute. I can even give you my life.

He saw his precious little sister holding the sesame sauce.

Shi Chen: Put down my sesame sauce!

Shi Xi blinked her eyes and asked, "Uh, the trainees I'm taking want to eat hot pot, so I brought the pot, hot pot ingredients, and sauce. Big Brother, do you want to eat hotpot tonight?"

She hadn't had any since she came here!

Shi Chen: "You can take the pot away, but not the sesame sauce. I brought it over from China."

"Isn't there anything for sale here?" Shi Xi was puzzled.

"The sesame sauce here tastes strange. I'm not used to it. Why don't we have hotpot tonight?" Shi Chen looked at Shi Xi.

"Tomorrow. I have to accompany the trainees today." Shi Xi waved her hand and prepared to leave with the box.

Shi Chen put down the sesame sauce and took the box from his precious sister. "So I'll have to guard an empty room today?"

Shi Xi was speechless.

Chapter 558 A Five-Figure Gift

What guard an empty room?

If you don't know how to speak, then don't!

Shi Xi brought the pot and ingredients to the Festival Group's cafeteria.

However, she only knew how to eat and did not know how to cook hot pot.

She searched on the spot.

She poured in oil and heated it to add the hotpot base.

Looking at the splattering oil, Shi Xi quickly fled the hotpot.

“I don’t think I’ve added water. Does it need hot water?” Shi Xi asked. “Cold water?”

The cameraman thought, ‘Who knows?’

Very soon, Shi Xi stopped feeling conflicted because there was only cold water.

Forget it, just boil it.

Shi Xi watched as the soup in the pot began to boil and put the meatballs in.

Then, she called everyone to eat hotpot together.

After all, [The Top] was a talent show, and it was extremely demanding on the trainees’ figures.

Therefore, there was little oil and salt in the canteen, and the most common dish was the vegetable salad.

Now that there was finally hot pot, the trainees cried tears of joy.

Mama! They finally didn’t have to eat grass! Meh!

Before eating the hotpot, everyone was still practicing hard.

When they heard that they could eat hotpot, everyone gathered around the table and looked at the hotpot in front of them.

Shi Xi had brought a double pot to take care of those who could eat spicy food and those who couldn’t.

The tables in the canteen could fit more than a dozen people.

However, there was only one pot.

Fortunately, there was still salad in the canteen, so everyone could eat.

Shi Xi glanced over.

Other than Felomina and her followers, everyone else had come.

It was casual.

Anyway, she had done what she had to do. Whether Felomina came or not was her own business.

After eating the hotpot, everyone was very satisfied.

Shi Xi gave each of them a custom-made earpiece.

The function of earpiece was to listen to the accompaniment and one’s own voice clearly on a large stage to determine if one was out of tune.

It was an extremely important tool for both singers and idols.

“Your names are engraved on every piece of earpiece.” Shi Xi’s eyes curved as she smiled and said, “The earpieces that the production team prepared are also very good. However, after leaving this place, you may go to different places. I hope this piece of land can help you.”

On the stage, due to the large space, the performers often couldn’t hear their own voices, so they needed earpieces to monitor if their voices were out of tune or out of tune.

At the same time, without an earpiece, one would not be able to hear the accompaniment or hear the accompaniment being delayed.

Famous singers would have their own custom-made earpieces and handphones, but it was difficult for an unknown idol to even support themselves, let alone these things.

Shi Xi’s earpieces were custom-made from her fans.

After the trainees got their earpieces, their eyes widened in surprise.

“This must be very expensive, right?” Mizunashi’s pupils trembled as she took the earpieces.

“It’s okay. If it’s mass-ordered, it’ll be a little cheaper than the original price,” Shi Xi said.

Custom-made earpieces would cost at least five figures.

Bai Cangyang had not expected Shi Xi to spend so much. “Teacher Shi Xi, you’ve spent a lot.”

“That’s why you guys have to put on a good show!” Shi Xi’s eyes curved.

In fact, it was the Festival Group’s request that every mentor had to give gifts to the trainees in the final circle, and they would edit it later to add it to the film.

Shi Xi gave them a practical earpiece.

She was short of money, but she wasn’t stingy with her gifts.

Anyway, the notice fee paid by the Festival Group was not low.

Since Felomina wasn’t there, Shi Xi asked the other trainees to pass the gifts to her.

After receiving it, Felomina threw it into the trash can.

“Who would want this kind of trash gift from her?”

...

The other instructors also gave their gifts one after another. Some gave shoes, some gave clothes. In any case, the price was all above five figures.

They didn’t want to be called stingy on the show.

Competition between instructors (Bushi)

After the broadcast of this episode, the fans felt very touched when they saw the gift-giving segment.

Chapter 559 The Divine Girl Descended From the Heavens

The fans naturally didn't know that this was a request from the Festival Group.

They just treated it as a teacher's concern for the trainee.

However, when Felomina's fans watched the show, they found that something was wrong.

[Everyone's having a meal together. Where's our Mina????]

[Even if they're xenophobic, they shouldn't be like this, right??]

[Is someone like Shi Xi fit to be a mentor? Such a narrow-minded person?]

[...]

Felomina's fans had long since disliked Shi Xi, and they began to support her.

Shi Xi was puzzled.

She had no interaction with Felomina at all.

Moreover, she was a mentor, while Felomina was a trainee.

The two of them were not on the same track!

What was there to tear?

However, Shi Xi's fans were very clear about the ins and outs of the matter.

[Are you jealous that Shi Xi has become [The Top]'s storefront? Hahaha, you look so ugly when you're jealous.]

[I don't want to say this, but there's a world of difference between a trainee and a mentor. Why do you want to compare them?]

[Felomina is an American. It's only natural for her fans to defend their idol.]

[Hahaha, I'm not looking forward to this show anymore. The show's crew obviously wants Felomina to be The Top.]

[...]

Although it was a talent show jointly organized by the five countries and the gimmicks in the early stages were very popular, the domestic show fans were very clear in their hearts.

Since the M Country was hosting a show, they would definitely not give up the first place.

Shi Xi's fans did not even bother to explain.

It's up to you to eat hotpot.

What right did Felomina have to eat Shi Xi's hotpot?

When they saw Shi Xi risking her life to cook (?), when they were preparing the hotpot, the fans had already subconsciously rejected the appearance of Felomina.

The other trainees respected their teachers, were respectful to their seniors and juniors, and were all gentle.

Shi Xi ostracized Felomina?

Fans: [Good lord! If this is true, I'll be the first to cheer!]

Felomina fans: R$^

The fans caused a small ruckus, and the matter was over.

During the finals, the fans were all shooting for the final ranking.

In addition to the trainees in the final circle, a few instructors also had to prepare the stage.

Everyone had their own solo stage.

The fans were celebrating the New Year.

Who was not a stage fan?

*

...

The final night.

The first to go on stage was the female instructor from H Country, Quan Duoyuan.

Quan Duoyuan's hair was dyed a hazy blue, and her eyelashes were painted with a little bright color. She was completely like an idol.

As an idol, her strength was naturally different.

Not only was her appearance outstanding, but her singing and dancing abilities were also excellent.

The bullet screen was full of praise.

The other instructors were either singing or dancing, all of them displaying their outstanding side.

The fans couldn't help but worry for Shi Xi.

[I'm so worried about Xi Xi's stage.]

[Sob, sob, Xi Xi's singing and dancing are amazing! But the instructors in front are also so handsome!]

[Sisters, let's not compare ourselves to each other. Xi Xi will definitely do a good job on this stage!]

[...]

The stage went dark.

The fans in the stadium and in front of their screens held their breaths as they waited for Shi Xi's appearance.

Not long after, a spotlight lit up on the stage.

A young girl dressed in red stood on the stage.

Under the light, her delicate little face looked even more sacred, noble, and inviolable. Bright red petals fell from the sky, as if a divine girl had descended from the sky.

The background music started playing. It was the melodious sound of a zither.

The sound of the zither was melodious, and the girl in red slowly landed in the center of the stage. The bells on her wrist rang softly, and each step was like a lotus.

The young lady's figure was gentle and beautiful, and her every move seemed to have the passage of time. There was also a deftness in this dance, and it didn't look soft.

Chapter 560 Earpiece Failure, Stage Accident

The crowd had their own speculations as they had never expected Shi Xi to dance such a Chinese-style dance.

Her movements were gentle and powerful, and her posture was enchanting and flexible.

It looked pleasing to the eye.

[It's 'He Jiaolong the Bright Moon'! To dance this song on the joint talent show of the five nations! Sob, sob, sob, Shi Xi, you're really something!]

[Xi Xi Zi, you're amazing! The red-dressed girl will immediately ascend to godhood!]

[I thought Xi Xi would choose a beautiful and elegant stage, but it's actually the Chinese style! Let the world see the beauty of the Chinese style dance!]

[The Chinese style is the best!]

[.....]

However, even with such a dance, the black fans would still chase after her and scold her. [It's just a walk in the park. Who doesn't know how to do it?]

[I can do it too. I'm just twisting my waist, hanging a wire, and being pretentious. Is this the Chinese style? You guys have really low standards for Chinese style.]

[.....]

On the stage, the tune of 'He Jiaolong the Bright Moon' changed to 'The Cypress in the Qingqing Tomb'.

The tune also changed from gentle to majestic and solemn.

The red-dressed girl picked up the long sword beside her. With one hand behind her back and the other holding the sword, her eyes also became sharp.

Along with the music, Shi Xi performed a sword dance.

As the music came to an end, the girl's sword flew out.

The crowd exclaimed.

The longsword was thrown out by Shi Xi and nailed to the stone prop on the stage.

The background music stopped abruptly.

The girl in red looked up and smiled at the camera.

[Ah, I'm dead! I love you, hubby!]

[Today, I'm Shi Xi Xi's wife fan!!]

[Wow, Xi Xi, you're so good! That sword strike killed me!]

[How did she manage to be as quiet as a virgin and as agile as a rabbit? Love love love.]

[You said earlier that you can do it, but can you perform this sword dance? Can you throw the sword onto the rock?]

[.....]

Shi Xi's solo performance was stunning and eye-catching, and it immediately made it to the hot search of various countries.

Both songs were purely musical without any lyrics.

But the dance was stunning.

On the solo stage on the final night, Shi Xi quickly gained a huge wave of fans.

The trainee who went up the stage behind Shi Xi felt even more pressured.

However, this was a positive pressure.

It was precisely because the seniors were able to shine on stage that the latecomers were more motivated.

They could also stand on such a bright stage and enjoy thousands of praises!

After Shi Xi got off the stage, the trainees were all encouraged and showed off their brilliant performance.

Only Felomina's eyes were filled with jealousy when she saw Shi Xi.

When she was about to go on stage, her friend asked, "Why don't you use the earpiece Teacher Shi Xi gave you?"

Shi Xi had given each trainee a custom-made earpiece.

During the finals, the trainees had also used it.

"Even if I can't hear, I won't use her gift!" Felomina said in disdain.

Her friend shut up.

"Don't use it either, be careful of that b*tch doing something to your earpiece." Felomina was thinking the worst of Shi Xi.

Her friend did not say anything.

The Festival Group's earpieces had been passed down from generation to generation and often failed.

And the one Shi Xi gave them was new!

There were no problems with the performance of the trainees in front!

Finally, it was Felomina's turn.

She was going to perform a solo.

However, just as she went on stage, she realized that the voice in her ears was very low.

The final night was a live broadcast stage. Felomina repeatedly gestured to the control panel to turn up the volume.

However, the voice in her ears became lower and lower, and in the end, she could not even hear it.
