

The Fake 571

Chapter 571 It Can't Be Daily Necessities, Right?

Tao Yuxuan leaned over. "It's not easy for me to come out and play. Of course, I have to play to my heart's content!"

"You're not going to care about the company anymore?"

"The old man is in charge. It doesn't matter if I'm there or not," Tao Yuxuan replied.

Shi Xi: "..."

"I have to at least finish watching your match before I go back!" Tao Yuxuan chuckled.

"Sure, but this isn't like China. Don't cause trouble. It's legal to own a gun here," Shi Xi said in a low voice.

She was really afraid that Tao Yuxuan would get into a conflict with someone else and the other party would shoot Tao Yuxuan.

Tao Yuxuan nodded. "Don't worry. I'm such a gentle person. Why would I cause any trouble?"

Gentle?

Shi Xi tried not to laugh.

After shopping, the two parted ways.

Shi Xi went back to the villa while Tao Yuxuan stayed in the hotel.

Tao Yuxuan went to the floor she was on and turned her bag upside down before she found her room card.

She was about to swipe her room card to return to her room when she saw Xie Yunzhou.

Xie Yunzhou was dressed in a black suit. His thin lips were pursed, and he looked haggard.

"Xie Yunzhou?" Tao Yuxuan called out to him.

Xie Yunzhou stopped in his tracks when he heard someone calling his name.

"You're staying here too?" Tao Yuxuan suppressed her desire to gossip.

"Yes."

"Where did you come from?" Tao Yuxuan asked again.

"Outside."

This answer...

Tao Yuxuan wanted to ask a few more questions, but Xie Yunzhou had already opened the door and entered the room.

!!

So fast?

She didn't have the time to gossip!

But she could vaguely see a square box in Xie Yunzhou's pocket.

It couldn't be daily necessities, right?

Tao Yuxuan didn't even open the door as she stood on the spot and guessed.

'Forget it, let's go in first.'

Tao Yuxuan opened the door and carried her bags inside.

At that moment, Tao Yuxuan saw Xie Yunzhou's assistant.

"Hey, you. You're Xie Yunzhou's assistant?" Tao Yuxuan called out.

"It's me. Hello, Miss Tao." The assistant saw the bags in Tao Yuxuan's hands and politely asked, "Miss Tao, do you need any help?"

Since they were both in Feng City, Tao Yuxuan recognized that this was Xie Yunzhou's assistant, and the assistant naturally knew Tao Yuxuan.

"No, I'll do it myself. When did Xie Yunzhou come here?" Tao Yuxuan asked in a low voice.

"Miss Tao, why are you looking for President Xie?" the assistant asked instead of answering.

"Nothing much, I was just asking. What are you guys doing here?" Tao Yuxuan continued to probe.

"It's something related to work." The assistant looked at the time and asked politely, "Is there anything else you want to ask, Miss Tao?"

Tao Yuxuan: I have a lot of questions.

"No, you can go ahead." Tao Yuxuan saw him looking at his watch and knew that the assistant was in a hurry.

Sigh, she really wanted to gossip!

Tao Yuxuan's heart was in her throat.

The assistant entered the room. "When you were out, I used your phone. Mr. Xie called me to ask about it. I told him that you were resting."

Xie Yunzhou nodded, took out the medicine box from his pocket, and went to pour a glass of water.

The assistant knew that Xie Yunzhou had been taking medicine, but that was in the past.

Didn't he not take any medicine for a long time?

“Mr. Xie said that it’s almost the New Year, so you should go back to Yanjing in advance.” The assistant carefully conveyed Father Xie’s intentions.

Xie Yunzhou had already poured some water for himself. He wanted to take two pills, but he held back. “I see. Book a plane ticket for tomorrow.”

If he kept taking medicine, he would become dependent on it.

In the later stages, he would be immune to the effects of the medicine.

“Then, should I tap the system for cooperation?” the assistant asked, feeling conflicted.

“It’s over for now. We’ll talk about it after the New Year.”

...

Chapter 572 Xie Yunzhou’s Past

In the end, Tao Yuxuan couldn’t suppress her gossipy heart and told Shi Xi everything she had seen and guessed.

When Shi Xi saw the 51 second long voice message, she felt a headache.

And there was more than one voice message!

Shi Xi clicked on the rephrase to see what Tao Yuxuan was talking about.

When she heard it was Xie Yunzhou, Shi Xi lost interest.

[I don’t care how he is.]

Tao Yuxuan sent another 53 seconds voice message.

Shi Xi: Suffocating.

After she finished reading Tao Yuxuan’s words, she realized that Tao Yuxuan had said:

[Don’t think about this trashy man anymore. When you come back, I’ll take you to Charm. There are plenty of men there.]

Shi Xi was speechless.

She wasn’t thinking about Xie Yunzhou at all!

She was the one who had been gossiping!

[We’ll talk about it when we get back.]

If she played with men and was photographed by netizens, her career would be gone.

Her father and brother would probably break her legs.

She would be gone!

When Tao Yuxuan saw Shi Xi’s cold attitude, her heart was filled with sorrow.

Xi Xi still hadn't gotten over her previous relationship. Poor Baby Xi.

...

Shi Xi put on her facial mask and went downstairs to get some water.

Seeing that Shi Chen was still sitting on the sofa and looking at his laptop, Shi Xi said, "Big Brother, are you still busy?"

"No, I'm just looking at the proposal. I can look at it tomorrow. Shi Chen turned off his computer and said, "Come and sit for a while."

"Alright," she said. Shi Xi poured a glass of water for Shi Chen.

Shi Chen took the water, his heart filled with joy.

It was good to have a baby sister.

"What do you want to say, Brother?" Shi Xi sat obediently at the side, her eyes sparkling like little stars.

Seeing his precious little sister's sparkling eyes, Shi Chen could not bear to talk to her about some practical problems.

He just wanted to tell his baby sister a fairy tale.

However, there were some things that had to be said.

"Do you know much about Xie Yunzhou?" Shi Chen asked seriously.

Upon hearing Shi Chen's question, Shi Xi thought about it carefully and replied, "It's alright."

She knew Xie Yunzhou and had a god's perspective of the villain!

"Then, do you know about his family's situation?" Shi Chen asked.

"I'm not too sure." Shi Xi shook her head.

Come to think of it, Xie Yunzhou had never mentioned anything about his family to her.

And Xie Yunzhou knew her family's situation like the back of his hand.

He had even been to Longquan Village.

"When I went to Yanjing, I heard someone call him Young Master Xie. Does he live in Yanjing?" Shi Xi asked.

"Yes," Shi Chen sorted out his relationship and said, "Speaking of which, his background is a little complicated. I have to start from his grandfather's generation."

Shi Xi sat up straight and listened carefully.

"When Elder Xie was with his first wife, they didn't have any children," Shi Chen said.

"The two adopted a boy and raised him as their own son."

“This man is the current president of the Xie Corporation, Xie Chongshan.”

“Xie Chongshan was smart and hardworking. Under the guidance of his two elders, the Xie Corporation grew steadily.”

“Seeing that his adopted son was capable, Elder Xie slowly handed over the power in his hands to Xie Chongshan.”

“Xie Chongshan married and had a child. His first child was Xie Yunzhou.”

Shi Xi nodded. “In other words, Xie Yunzhou isn’t Elder Xie’s biological grandson?”

“However, Elder Xie’s first wife died of illness, and he married another wife. He didn’t expect that he would have a son when he was old.”

“This son was born only half a year after Xie Yunzhou.”

Shi Xi’s eyes widened. She didn’t expect that everything would turn from normal to outrageous.

Chapter 573 Poor Villain Boss

“Wait, how old is Elder Xie?” Shi Xi asked. “He can have children?”

Shi Chen recalled, “When he had a biological son, it was probably when Elder Xie was 55 years old.”

Shi Xi was dumbfounded and could not help but ask, “If you have a son, what about an adopted son?”

Quickly go to the fight for the inheritance!

Shi Chen continued, “Xie Chongshan was already married and had children by then. His position in the corporation was very stable.”

Knowing that Elder Xie had a son, Xie Chongshan wanted to step down from his position and give everything to Elder Xie’s son.

However, his son was still a child, so Elder Xie naturally wouldn’t agree. He said that he would wait until his son grew up.

“In private, Mr. Xie started to interfere with the company’s affairs, denying Xie Chongshan’s decision to save money for his son.”

“Compared to an adopted son, he will definitely dote on his own son more,” Shi Xi ridiculed.

Shi Chen glanced at his precious sister and said, “Do you still want to hear it?”

Shi Xi stuck out her tongue. “Wait a minute. I’m opening a bag of potato chips.”

Shi Chen was speechless.

Did she really think that she was here to listen to a play?

novelusb.com

Shi Chen was only satisfied when he saw Shi Xi pouring him another glass of water.

His precious little sister was still the best.

He loved his precious little sister the most.

“Continue.” Holding the potato chips in her hand, Shi Xi stared at Shi Chen with sparkling eyes.

“Where was I...?”

“It’s about ‘Elder Xie dotes on his son and interferes with company affairs’.” Shi Xi remembered clearly.

“Elder Xie is not doting on his own son. He is spoiling him. He got a son at an old age,” Shi Chen said. “He was grateful and I didn’t let his own son suffer even a little. He’s been raising him in his hands since he was young.”

“No matter if he made a mistake or got into trouble, Elder Xie would always help him solve it. Over time, he raised a little overlord.”

“The stepmother was afraid that Xie Chongshan had too much power and would harm the mother and son, so she drove him out.”

“In order to show his loyalty, Xie Chongshan sent his wife and children to his hometown, Feng City.”

“He also stated that he would give everything he has to little tyrant in the future, and would never leave Xie Yunzhou with anything.”

Shi Xi was shocked. “You can do that?!”

“Yeah,” Shi Chen glanced at Shi Xi and asked, “Have you never thought about why Xie Yunzhou is from Yanjing and why he’s always been in Feng City?”

“For the sake of the plot,” Shi Xi said in a low voice. “Why?”

“Xie Chongshan said that he would never allow Xie Yunzhou to develop in Yanjing.”

“That’s why Xie Yunzhou rarely goes to Yanjing, except for the occasional visit to the Xie family.”

“No wonder he’s always been in Feng City,” Shi Xi said thoughtfully.

“There’s another piece of news.” Shi Chen hesitated for a moment before saying, “I heard that Xie Chongshan’s wife got pregnant again later on, but was beaten by the little tyrant until she miscarried.”

Shi Xi was speechless.

“It’s just a rumor. There’s no evidence. I’m telling you all this because I don’t want you to get too involved with Xie Yunzhou,” Shi Chen said earnestly. “I’m afraid you’ll be implicated.”

The right and wrongs of a big family were the most annoying.

There were many who fell out with each other for money.

Shi Xi nodded. “I understand. I’ll keep my distance from him.”

“Won’t you feel sorry for him because of his tragic background?”

Shi Xi was shocked. “Is he as miserable as me?”

Shi Chen suddenly recalled that his precious little sister was not his biological sister. “Ahem, go and rest. Don’t think too much.”

Shi Xi stuffed the half-eaten potato chips into Shi Chen’s arms. “I can’t finish them.”

Shi Chen: “...”

After putting down the chips, Shi Xi carried her cup back upstairs, still thinking about Shi Chen’s words.

Poor villain boss?

Hahahaha, she was dying of laughter.

Who was going to feel sorry for her?

Chapter 574 Sister Is So Straight, Straighter Than Chopsticks

Let go of the desire to help others and respect the fate of others.

Shi Xi didn’t like scenes of redemption.

She only wanted to live.

Even if it was salvation, it would not be her turn as a pitiful cannon fodder.

At the thought of this, Shi Xi sent Ning Yu a message.

[Are you still in K City?]

The other party replied very quickly.

Ning Yu: [What’s up?]

[I’m participating in the finals of the fencing competition next week. Do you have time to come and watch?]

Most of her relatives and friends were in China and couldn’t come to watch her final.

But the female lead sister was here!

Ning Yu did not reply for a long time, as if she was considering whether to watch this boring game.

Finally, Ning Yu replied, [I’ll go when I have time.]

What she meant was, if she didn’t have time, she wouldn’t go.

Shi Xi sent the time and location to Ning Yu. [Remember to come and take a look when you’re free!]

She even sent a sweet cat emoji.

Ning Yu: [Okay.]

Her sister was so straight, straighter than chopsticks.

It was time for the finals.

Shi Xi felt a sense of urgency, so she went to the practice room to practice for a long time the week before the game.

'I haven't practiced my swordsmanship properly for a long time. I can't go on stage to embarrass myself!'

Although no one knew that she knew ancient martial arts, she knew it in her heart!

The last time she was stabbed by Mei Yinni, Shi Xi felt that she had overestimated her ability.

The more she advanced, the stronger her opponents would be.

She couldn't fall behind!

While Shi Xi was practicing, news of Kuai Xue Entertainment's upcoming movie had spread.

@Entertainment Lady: [Shi Xi, Pei Jie, literature about the pain of youth.]

A simple sentence had summarized everything clearly.

After seeing this news, the netizens went crazy.

[F*ck, Shi Xi's entering the film industry already?]

[Who is c?]

[Literature on the pain of youth. Just from this positioning alone, it's so embarrassing that I've already dug out a demon fairy castle.]

[Shi Xi has such good resources? Which big shot did she rely on?]

[It's a small movie produced by our company. It's not a big production. Smile.]

[Didn't Shi Xi say that she wanted to make a movie? Village internet?]

[Haha, they all thought that Shi Xi was just joking. They didn't expect her to actually do it.]

[Is Pei Jie trying to reach the heavens in a single bound?]

Most of the topics revolved around Shi Xi, and some were even envious of Pei Jie.

However, there wasn't any more news. There had been quite a number of celebrities who had entered the film industry in recent years, but only a few of them were really famous. The netizens were all eating the melon seeds and guessing how Shi Xi's movie would turn out.

There were even people who started betting on the box office earnings of Shi Xi's movie.

The anti-fans all chose [0-50,000 box office, silent defeat].

The fans were angry, but they could not stop the haters from voting.

On the contrary, the black fans became more and more arrogant.

At this moment, Shi Xi's big fans came out to comfort the soldiers. [We'll brag to the end and stomp to the end. When the time comes, if each of us supports it, it'll be more than 50,000.]

[That's right. Xi Xi is so pretty. The movie won't be bad!]

[Pretty sister, when you film youth literature, you must film the most suitable movie at the most suitable age!]

Shi Xi didn't know what the online comments were about, but when she saw the description of 'literature on the pain of youth', she was at a loss for words.

She was going to film a teen comedy, which had nothing to do with pain literature!

Why did the rumors on the internet spread so ridiculously?

When Shi Xi scrolled through the comments, she realized that many of her fans who were already working were reminiscing about the other person in their youth.

Shi Xi was speechless.

It was really not a literature about the pain of youth!

It was really a happy comedy!

Chapter 575 Xi Luoya Went Out To Travel Last Year, So She Didn't Take Part In Fencing

Shi Xi wanted to explain, but she couldn't bear to see her fans sharing their unrequited love for their school lover.

Forget it. They would know when the movie was promoted.

However, when the netizens found out about this news, they had already started editing Shi Xi and Pei Jie's videos.

'Jin Shi' had previously been promoted to a popular CP because they had fought together.

This time, they worked together again for a movie, and the fans of the CP celebrated the New Year in advance, beating the drums and editing the video.

Shi Xi's fans felt that Pei Jie was sucking blood and only wanted to cut ties with him.

Pei Jie's fans, lie flat.

The difference between the two of them was too great.

After some online discussion, the popularity gradually dropped.

Finally, it was time for the finals of the fencing competition.

The first place of each race track would be decided in the morning, and the championship would be decided in the afternoon.

Only the champion could get the 200,000 bonus.

The prize money for the other racers wasn't high, but they had Medals of Honor.

In a city of swordsmanship like K City, the medal represented honor and was much more valuable than a prize.

Shi Xi: You're making it sound nice. I want money.

Ron had participated in the flower sword race. In the end, he had defeated all her opponents and won first place in the flower sword competition. He had also received 10,000 yuan prize money, a medal, and a certificate.

With this unexpected fortune, Ron smiled as if he had won first place (it was the first place to begin with).

[The champion of the flower sword competition has been decided: Ron.]

Ron had been practicing with Shi Xi, and his swordsmanship had been improving.

After being beaten by Shi Xi for a long time, he could finally beat the other people on the same track.

Shi Xi had thought that last year's fencing champion, Angev, would take first place in the heavy sword competition. She had never expected that the girl with the high ponytail would take first place.

"That's Xi Luoya, the famous genius swordsman in K City," Shi Chen introduced.

"Eh? What was her rank last year?" Shi Xi asked.

"Xi Luoya went out to travel last year and didn't take part in fencing," Shi Chen recalled. "When she was very young, she was already known as a genius. After that, the Mitchell family sent her out to learn swordsmanship. She only returned this year."

The moment Shi Xi heard that she was from the Mitchell family, she no longer had a good impression of her.

She was from the same family as Mei Yinni and Angev. What good things could she have?

Shi Xi was wiping her sword. This sword was custom-made for her by someone Shi Chen had hired. Its length and weight were tailored for her, so it was suitable for her to use.

The broadcast announced a break at noon, and the fencing competition finals would continue in the afternoon to decide the city champion this year.

Just as Shi Xi was about to leave, the girl with the high ponytail walked toward her.

“Hello, I’m Xi Luoya.” The girl with the high ponytail smiled brightly and confidently.

One shouldn’t hit a smiling person. Shi Xi’s eyes were gentle. “Hello, I’m Shi Xi.”

“Is your sword custom-made?” With a curious look in her eyes, Xi Luoya stretched out her hand and said, “Can you let me see your sword?”

Shi Xi was a little surprised.

She didn’t know the habits of the people here, but when she was learning ancient martial arts in the past, she had never encountered such a request.

It was a little strange.

Shi Xi didn’t know what was going on, so she handed the sword over and said, “I made it myself. The length and weight are within the requirements of the competition.”

In a fencing competition, both sides could use their own swords, but the competition had requirements on the weight and length of the swords.

Xi Luoya took the sword, and her hand felt heavy as she asked, “As expected, your sword is very heavy, so your attack will be much slower.”

Shi Xi’s eyes were smiling, but she did not reply.

Her slow movements were not because of the heaviness of the sword.

Chapter 576 For the 200k, Charge!

In terms of attacking, she could do it very quickly.

However, there was no need to.

In this competition, she could defeat Mei Yinni with just 30% of her strength.

It was probably because the remaining 70% of her strength was not easy to display.

Shi Xi: QAQ

“I won’t show you any mercy when I fight you. Be prepared to cry,” said Xi Luoya with a hearty laugh.

“Don’t worry, I won’t lose,” Shi Xi replied.

Even if it was for the 200,000 USD prize money, she would not lose!

Without a doubt, Ron was the first to be eliminated.

The outcome of the final match would be decided by Shi Xi and Xi Luoya.

Mei Yinni cheered for Xi Luoya. “Show her what you’re made of!!”

With a confident smile on her face, Xi Luoya walked onto the stage with her sword.

She felt that she had already found Shi Xi's weakness and that she would definitely not lose this match.

Shi Xi raised her eyes slightly and walked onto the stage.

She held the sword with one hand, the tip of the sword hanging down naturally, pointing to the ground, and the other hand behind her back.

It was the last match.

There must be no mistakes.

For the 200,000 USD bonus!

When they heard the sound of the match starting, the two of them quickly drew their swords!

Shi Xi was a little surprised when she sensed Xi Luoya's speed and strength.

She had seen Xi Luoya's matches and thought that she understood her quite well.

She had some swordsmanship skills, but she was no match for her.

However, the moment the tips of the swords met, Shi Xi knew she was wrong.

Was Xi Luoya actually hiding her true strength?

In her daze, Shi Xi didn't manage to dodge in time and was stabbed in the shoulder.

The electronic judge sounded, and Xi Luoya scored.

Shi Xi instantly calmed down and dodged the attack.

As for Xi Luoya, she was also very surprised.

She had thought that Shi Xi's moves would be slow, but she had not expected them to be so swift and agile.

So, Shi Xi had been hiding her true strength all along?

The more she fought, the more courageous she became. She no longer suppressed her strength and let go of everything to fight Shi Xi.

The sword light flickered, and the audience could barely see the two swords entangling.

They could only widen their eyes, afraid of missing a second.

The electronic referee rang non-stop, and both players scored.

"Time's up!"

When they heard the end, the two of them stopped at the same time and retreated to the sides.

Xi Luoya took off her hood and flipped her hair. "You're amazing!"

"You too," Shi Xi replied politely.

Of all the swordsmen she had fought, Xi Luoya was probably the most powerful.

And it wasn't just swordsmanship.

Shi Xi could sense that Xi Luoya's footwork had also incorporated some ancient Chinese saber techniques.

But how did she learn these ancient martial arts?

Shi Xi was puzzled.

Half-time break.

The electronic referee showed that both of them had 15 points each, equal.

The judge wanted to watch the replay and check the score again.

The two of them had no objections and went back to rest.

However, they knew very well that it was indeed an equal split.

The sword had pierced their body.

They knew better than the electronic judgment device where it had been stabbed and how many times it had been stabbed.

However, if the judge wanted to see it, they would just let him.

It wasn't just the judge, the audience also wanted to see the replay.

In a short three minutes, the two of them had steady steps, and they were extremely decisive in their attacks and dodges. They could not even see what was real and what was fake.

This match was listed as one of the most exciting matches in the history of K City's swordsmanship competition.

...

When Shi Xi returned to the resting area, she realized that her fencing suit had been worn out and needed to be changed.

Xi Luoya kept aiming at her right shoulder, and even though she was wearing a fencing suit, it still hurt.

Chapter 577 Shi Xi Was Poisoned

Shi Xi returned to the lounge and changed into her spare fencing suit.

Just as she was about to head out, Shi Xi saw her cup in the lounge and was a little confused.

Wasn't she supposed to be in the resting area?

Did Zhu Lin forget to bring water back?

Shi Xi didn't think much of it. She thought that either her assistant or Tao Yuxuan had come over to get some water and had forgotten to bring it back to the stage.

She was thirsty.

When she saw that the cup was full, Shi Xi took a sip.

This water didn't seem right?

After taking a sip, Shi Xi felt that something was amiss. She hurriedly put down the cup and wanted to spit out the drink she had just drunk.

However, she was caught off guard just now and had more or less drunk a little.

Shi Xi immediately gave Shi Chen a call. "I'm in the lounge-"

Her body gradually weakened.

A pair of venomous eyes were watching from the dark. When she saw that Shi Xi hadn't come out of the lounge for a long time, the woman smiled triumphantly.

When she saw Shi Xi's weak body being exposed, the woman dodged and left silently.

novelusb.com

However, just as she was about to leave the competition grounds, she was stopped.

"The arena is temporarily closed," the security guard said. "You can't leave."

The woman lowered the brim of her hat and was wearing a cleaner's uniform. She said hoarsely, "I'm going out to take out the trash."

The security guard was about to agree when he heard a voice from the walkie-talkie.

"Attention, everyone!" they said through the walkie-talkie. "The suspect is a woman in a cleaner's uniform! Everyone, pay attention!"

When the woman heard this, she immediately pushed the cart away and ran out with all her might.

A group of security guards was chasing after her.

However, a car stopped in front of the woman and the door was opened.

"Miss Xu, we're Mr. Wu's men. Come up quickly!"

When Xu Ziqing, who was running away, heard Wu Ni's name, she got into the car without any hesitation.

After Xu Ziqing escaped to M Country, she had been hiding her name and living a life like a rat on the street.

When she found out that Shi Xi had arrived in M Country and was even dressed up like a big star, she couldn't suppress her anger. Hence, she planned to get close to Shi Xi and poison her.

Finally, she managed to snatch Shi Xi's glass of water and poison it.

And she had succeeded!

However, she didn't expect the security guards to notice so quickly and seal the scene.

In her plan, she should have left by now.

But when she was running away, Wu Ni's men appeared.

Xu Ziqing's eyes lit up again.

In an instant, flowers bloomed in the warmth of spring.

Xu Ziqing was thinking that if Wu Ni came out, she might be able to spend the rest of her life with him.

Looking at the car full of strangers, Xu Ziqing suddenly thought of something and asked, "Isn't Wu Ni still in prison?"

"He can still contact people in prison." The person who picked Xu Ziqing up in the car opened his mouth, took out a pair of handcuffs, and cuffed Xu Ziqing. "Xu Ziqing, we are the Chinese Special Police Team Zero. We are now officially arresting you on charges of corruption and intentional assault."

Xu Ziqing's eyes widened.

At this moment, she saw from the rearview mirror.

When she saw the cold-looking girl in the front passenger seat, she was shocked. "Ning Yu?"

Ning Yu replied indifferently, "Hmm?"

Xu Ziqing thought of what she had done before and took a deep breath. "What evidence do you have to arrest me?"

Wu Ni had already taken all the blame for the corruption.

The criminal who hired the killer to hurt Tao Yuxuan was still in a vegetative state in the hospital.

This time, she managed to avoid all the surveillance cameras.

Ning Yu chuckled. "That vegetable has already woken up and confessed about you."

"This time, you think you've escaped all the surveillance, but your every move is exposed to the drone cameras."

"The justice of heaven is long and loose."

"Don't even think about escaping your punishment."

Chapter 578 100,000 Bonus

Cheng Yue looked at the disheartened Xu Ziqing and said to Ning Yu, "It's a waste of talent to let you catch this fugitive."

"You guys take her back, I'm going to the hospital," Ning Yu said.

"Why are you going to the hospital? To see Shi Xi?" Cheng Yue asked in realization.

“Yes.”

Shi Xi had noticed it in time and had tried to save herself by induced vomiting, so the situation was not too serious.

However, the competition would not stop just because she was poisoned.

After knowing that Shi Xi wouldn't be returning to the arena, the judge followed the rules and waited for her to finish two matches.

In the end, the champion of K City's fencing competition was given to Xi Luoya.

As she held the medal, her heart felt heavy.

After the competition ended, when she found out which hospital Shi Xi was in, she rushed over alone.

When she saw the weak Shi Xi lying on the bed, Xi Luoya frowned and asked, “What happened to you?”

Shi Xi recalled everything that Shi Chen had explained to her and said simply, “I ran into some trouble.”

The best outcome would be Xu Ziqing's capture.

It was a pity that she had been caught off guard for too long.

She almost lost her life.

Seeing that Shi Xi was weak, but not life-threatening, Xi Luoya said, “You are a very respectable opponent. When you recover, we will have another match!”

novelusb.com

Shi Xi: “...”

The prize money was gone, what was the point of competing?

“I'm going back to China. I probably won't stay here for long,” Shi Xi said.

“When you're better, we can have a match.” Xi Luoya took out a medal that had been cut into half and said, “I've already split this medal into two. Only the winner deserves to have the entire medal!”

Shi Xi was so weak that she could not speak.

If you're f*cking sincere, give me a 100,000 USD bonus!

What did she need this half medal for?

The nurse came in to change Shi Xi's drip and chased Xi Luoya out.

Xi Luoya wanted to say something to Shi Xi, but she was already asleep.

She had no choice but to place the half of the medal on Shi Xi's bedside.

Then, she would go back to her own celebration party.

However, when she came to find Shi Xi the next day, she had already left the place.

Xi Luoya was speechless.

How could this person be like this?

Shi Xi was also wondering if there was something wrong with this Xi Luoya's brain.

Why did she give her half a medal?

Did she need this medal?

No need.

What she needed was the bonus.

Forget it.

When news of Shi Xi's failure to win the championship spread to the country, she was scolded by the haters.

The black fans said, [Is Shi Xi admitting defeat? Are you afraid of losing face?]

[She was so good at bragging before, but now she's on her knees when she meets a strong opponent.]

[What do you mean by not competing in the next two rounds? Shi Xi admitted defeat? Aren't you embarrassed?]

The more the black fans spread, the more excessive they became.

However, the fans didn't understand the reason behind it, so they were all trying to guess what was wrong with Shi Xi.

Initially, Shi Xi did not want to talk about her poisoning. However, the black fans had gone too far, so she could only explain the reason.

@Shi Xi: [Due to health reasons, I was unable to participate in the fencing competition in K City. I'm sorry that I didn't manage to get a complete medal.]

The attached picture was the half medal left behind by Xi Luoya.

Hmph, wasn't it just acting pitiful?

Who didn't know how to?

When they saw Shi Xi distribute the half a medal, the fans below were both excited and worried.

[Baby Xi, take care of your health. Sword practice is secondary. Your health is the most important!]

[Xi Xi and Xi Luoya tied in the first round, and there was no clear winner. I'm really looking forward to another battle in the future.]

[Ah, ah, ah, ah! Half the championship medal!]

[It's really wonderful! I'm suddenly looking forward to Xi Xi's martial arts scene!]

...

[Dream's next TV series is a wuxia series.]

Chapter 579 Have You Been Taking Medicine Recently?

Knowing that Shi Xi was fine, Ning Yu left silently.

Xu Ziqing had been arrested, and she still had to bring her back to China.

The evidence was irrefutable, and Xu Ziqing confessed to all her crimes, so the case went smoothly.

Ning Yu went straight to Xie Yunzhou to settle the bill.

Seeing the amount on the check, Ning Yu was very satisfied and asked, "Have you been taking the medicine recently?"

Xie Yunzhou did not answer. "Our deal is over."

Ning Yu shrugged and turned to leave.

She didn't meddle in other people's business.

After Shi Xi's health improved, she returned to China and was ready to join the crew.

The youth movie, [Energetic Girl], had already started filming and was currently shooting other people's scenes.

As the female lead, she had missed the shoot.

But that didn't matter. She was not only the female lead, but also the producer.

[The yuan in [Energetic Girl] is the yuan of the yuan universe.]

[This time, it is filled with physics. No, it is filled with nonsense and romance.]

[A wonderful love triangle. Childhood sweethearts vs student and teacher crush!]

The main plot of the script was about the physics girl, Tang Yuanyuan, who had encountered various difficulties in her studies. She had unconsciously formed a love triangle with her childhood sweetheart and the young professor.

The script was funny and relaxed, with emotional lines and carefully designed settings.

During the filming, the crew encountered an incident.

"The school wants us to leave early," the director discussed with Shi Xi.

Shi Xi was surprised. "Leave the school? It's still a holiday, and they have to go to school?"

The director looked troubled. "I went to look for the principal. The principal said that this was the decision of the Board of Directors."

"Board of Directors?" Shi Xi's brain hadn't processed the situation yet, so she simply said, "Tell me directly, who do you want to find to solve this matter?"

"The Shi Corporation is the biggest board member of the business school."

Shi Xi was speechless.

Eh? The Shi Corporation?

Who in the Shi family did not like her?

The confused Shi Xi first called Shi Xu and asked carefully, "Brother, what have I done recently? Did I make Dad angry?"

"No," Shi Xu replied.

Shi Xi was even more confused now. "The director just told me to get the crew to withdraw from the school."

"This matter," Shi Xu leaned back in his chair and said in a calm voice, "I was the one who ordered this."

"Huh?!" Shi Xi was surprised. "But I'm filming! I still need to use the school."

"The school has to start early to prepare for the next batch of students," Shi Xu said unhurriedly.

"The school is at fault for this matter. You will be compensated accordingly."

"This isn't a matter of compensation!" Shi Xi said angrily. "I'm still in the middle of filming, and you're starting school now. Where are we going to find a place for the crew?"

"Xi Xi," Shi Shang said helplessly after a pause, "This isn't something I should be dealing with."

The meaning of this was that this matter should be resolved by Shi Xi.

"Brother, you're the best!" Shi Xi said coquettishly, "Just let us finish filming the movie in the school, okay?"

"No good."

Shi Xi: Acted coquettishly for nothing.

"I can pay more to rent this school." When Shi Xi thought of money, her heart ached.

It was all the money that she had gotten bit by bit.

"I don't lack money," Shi Xu replied.

Shi Xi: "..."

That's right, why did she have to talk about money from Shi Xu?

"Then what do you want?" Shi Xi racked her brains but still couldn't figure out what Shi Xu wanted.

"I only want the academy." Hearing his sister's coquettish voice, Shi Xu was afraid he couldn't help but compromise, so he said, "I'm going to have a meeting now. Come and find me after you're done discussing."

When the call ended, Shi Xi was confused.

Us?

Who should she discuss it with?

The director?

Chapter 580 Leng Qiankun's Fiancée

In the end, Shi Xi found the principal of Eden Academy.

In the principal's office.

"Miss Shi Xi, we'll need to make preparations in advance to open an affiliated high school." The principal had a kind look on his face, but his words were not to be refused. "This is the plan proposed by the directors of the college two years ago. It cannot be shelved because of your filming."

"Why didn't you tell us in advance that you were going to open an affiliated high school? Why did you rent the school to us?" Shi Xi asked as she sat opposite the principal.

"I didn't expect that you guys would only start shooting now," the principal said.

When Shi Xi thought about how long the movie had been delayed...

So it wasn't completely unaffected.

"Since everyone is sitting here, let's discuss a solution that we can all agree on. The crew has agreed to let the school start as usual," Han Chuan said. "We'll try not to disturb the students' studies as much as possible during the filming. Is that okay?"

"No," the principal refused directly and said, "if you only shoot on the weekend."

Shi Xi was speechless.

Han Chuan was speechless.

How could their crew work for two days and take five days off?

Shi Xi leaned back in her chair and said indifferently, "I've visited Eden Academy. The number of students in the Academy is increasing year by year. If you want to increase the number of affiliated high schools, your teaching block will definitely not be enough."

The principal pushed up his glasses. "So, you can't stay in the college to continue filming."

Shi Xi recalled the movie that was half-shot and said domineeringly, "As long as the Academy continues to rent the movie, I can donate a school building."

The principal's eyes lit up. "Really?"

Shi Xi nodded. "Of course."

The principal wanted to agree, but this was not a decision he could make alone.

"If the main directors agree, then I have no objections," the principal said.

"Which directors?" Shi Xi was prepared to persuade them one by one.

Shi Xi didn't expect that she would know all four of the Academy's board members.

Shi Xu, Xie Yunzhou, Sheng Yan, and Leng Qiankun.

The principal had said that he would agree to Shi Xi's suggestion as long as three of them agreed.

Shi Xi thought, 'You're really spending money to get yourself into trouble.'

Thinking of these four people, Shi Xi's head hurt.

Although Shi Xu was her brother, he was impartial in public affairs and would never show favoritism.

Xie Yunzhou ...Let's go to the next one.

Shi Xi hadn't looked for Sheng Yan ever since their engagement was called off.

She would start with Leng Qiankun.

He should be easier to talk to, right?

It was so difficult to ask for help.

Shi Xi felt as if her life had suddenly gone from a simple mode to a difficult mode.

Life.

Sob, sob, sob.

Shi Xi arranged to meet Leng Qiankun and took the initiative to look for him in his office.

On the way there, Shi Xi was still thinking about whether she should bring along some milk and tea leaves.

However, the car had already arrived at Leng Qiankun's company.

Shi Xi took a deep breath.

She might as well lower the endorsement fee for the Leng company's clothing.

Resource exchange.

After thinking it through, Shi Xi went to the front desk and asked about Leng Qiankun's office.

"Do you have an appointment?" the receptionist asked with a polite smile.

“Shi Xi, an appointment at 10 am,” Shi Xi replied, still wearing her sunglasses.

When the receptionist heard Shi Xi’s name, she could not help but take a few more glances at her.

After confirming the reservation, the front desk said, “President Leng is on the 21st floor. The elevator is on your left.”

“Thank you,” she said. Shi Xi nodded and prepared to head upstairs.

At that moment, a woman walked over and stood in front of Shi Xi. She sized her up and asked in an unfriendly tone, “You’re looking for Leng Qiankun? Why are you looking for him?”
