

The Fake 681

Chapter 681 Shi Xi's Audition

The black fans couldn't produce any solid evidence, so the fans defended Shi Xi.

The netizens continued to watch the show.

*

At the audition point of [Sky Blue].

!!

Finally, it was time for Shi Xi's audition.

When the people in the waiting area saw Shi Xi enter the audition room, they only wanted to follow her in to see how her audition would turn out.

However, the door of the audition room was closed, cutting off all the gazes from the outside.

Shi Xi walked to the center of the stage. "Hello, director and teachers. I'm Shi Xi and I would like to audition for the female lead of [Sky Blue]. Fu Tianlan."

There were a total of four people sitting on the judging panel, with the scriptwriter and assistant director on both sides.

The slightly bald man in the middle was the director. The other handsome and gentle man was the male lead of [Sky Blue], Lu Zheng.

"Let's draw lots," the director said as he sized Shi Xi up.

The plot of the audition was to pick scenes on the spot. If they felt that the scene was good, they would ask for additional tests.

The scene Shi Xi got was 'first encounter with a car mechanic'.

The few of them felt a little regretful. The scene they had drawn was too simple.

If the audition scenes were of great sorrow and joy, it could stimulate the actor's performance and bring the audience into the scene.

The simpler and more common the scenario, the harder it was to express.

Shi Xi didn't mind. She recalled the scene and prepared to get into character.

..

"Repair the car." Shi Xi's voice was faint as she swept her gaze across the room.

"Hello, may I know what's the problem with the car?" Lu Zheng continued and started acting with Shi Xi.

Shi Xi's gaze stopped on Lu Zheng and she said with a hint of displeasure, "If I knew what was wrong with the car, I wouldn't have come to fix it."

Lu Zheng: "..."

Even though it was just a line, he still felt a little displeased when he heard it from Shi Xi.

The director and scriptwriter beside him were shocked.

There were so many people at the audition and there was a professional acting teacher. Lu Zheng did not need to rehearse the scene himself.

He did not expect Lu Zheng to take the initiative to act with Shi Xi.

Lu Zheng was the male lead of [Sky Blue]. He had already memorized all the lines and the first encounter scene with Shi Xi was a piece of cake.

Fu Tianlan stared at the repairman and said, "You haven't been in this line of work for long, have you?"

The repairman pursed his lips and did not say anything.

Fu Tianlan chuckled. "Repairmen don't care so much about what they wear. You're too clean, so clean that you don't fit in this place."

The repairman was expressionless. "Do you still repair cars?"

"Your personality isn't very good either. No matter how I look at you, you seem like a potential criminal." Fu Tianlan's tone was firm.

"A fishmonger?" Tang Hui frowned. He had been chased out by his family and was already in dire straits earning money by repairing cars, yet he was still called a fishmonger?

"A potential criminal is someone who is most likely to commit a crime. It usually refers to a teenager." Fu Tianlan's lips curled up. "Big brother, you're already past the age of the Underage Protection Act. If you're down in life, work hard. Don't dream of getting something without working!"

Tang Hui held his breath.

After being chased out by his family, he had been thinking about how to make money.

He didn't make much money from repairing cars, so a friend of his who used to race cars came to him and wanted him to do something.

He didn't expect to meet Fu Tianlan.

Fu Tianlan picked up a call, and her relaxed expression instantly turned serious. "Okay, I'll go over now."

"You..." Tang Hui called out to her.

Fu Tianlan threw the car keys to him and interrupted him. "I'll come to pick up the car tomorrow!"

..

The performance ended.

The director sat up straight and commented, "Very smooth!"

Lu Zheng nodded slightly. "I'm very relaxed when I'm acting with Miss Shi."

He was able to get into character by himself.

However, if both of them were in character, it would undoubtedly be easier.

Shi Xi's eyes curved. "Thank you."

Chapter 682 Express Your Feelings

Whether or not [Sky Blue] had cast her in the cast, she would play this role well.

"Can you act in a confession scene?" The director's eyes were filled with even more admiration.

Confessing on the fire was an important plot in [Sky Blue].

Fu Tianlan was caught in the sea of fire. Tang Hui went to save her, and the two of them almost died in the sea of fire.

Before they died, the two of them expressed their feelings.

Shi Xi recalled the scene and said, "Sure,"

She thought that the director would pay more attention to professional scenes, such as the confrontation in court and the persuasion on the roof.

She didn't expect the director to like emotional scenes so much.

Did the director like to play CP?

During the preparation, Shi Xi's thoughts wandered.

"Begin."

Shi Xi covered her mouth and nose and squatted down. Her eyes were half-closed as if she could not open them due to the smoke.

"Cough, cough, cough!"

The smoke grew thicker and thicker. Fu Tianlan was tripped by a line on the road and fell to the ground.

She wanted to get up again, but her ankle was injured, and she couldn't move.

"Is anyone there?" Fu Tianlan's eyes were filled with despair and helplessness, but they were also filled with infinite anticipation. "Help!"

She hoped that someone would help her.

However, they did not.

The light in Fu Tianlan's eyes dimmed as she recalled her life.

She hadn't found the murderer yet, she hadn't been filial to her parents, and she hadn't been in a good relationship...

She had too many regrets in her life.

Her long eyelashes drooped, and a tear fell.

The girl's appearance was beautiful to begin with, and the way she cried made one's heart ache.

At this moment, she heard footsteps.

"Tianlan!"

Tang Hui's anxious voice was like the sound of nature.

The girl opened her eyes and there was a ray of hope in her eyes. "Tang Hui, I'm here!"

..

Their performance was flawless, and Shi Xi's looks were outstanding. No matter which angle the camera was shot from, she was always the most beautiful.

Shi Xi didn't have the burden of an idol. She had all the expressions that she should have. She was quick-witted in private and calm and serious when it came to business. When she knew that she might die in the fire, the despair in her eyes was heartbreaking.

She looked good when she cried.

"Alright!" The director led the applause.

Shi Xi's eyes turned shallow. "Thank you."

The director couldn't help but praise her, "Well done! There are too few outstanding young actors like you now!"

Shi Xi was overjoyed by the compliments and almost flew into the air.

The staff member was very realistic. "Miss Shi, you will be informed of the audition results in three days."

Shi Xi, who had just come out of the audition room: "..."

She thought that it was a done deal.

She didn't expect to have to wait for the notice.

Back in the car, Han Chuan asked, "How was the audition? What did the director say?"

Zhu Lin handed Shi Xi the glass of water and was also looking forward to her answer.

Shi Xi took a sip of water and said slowly, "I think it's not bad. The director praised me. However, the staff said that I'll have to wait for notice."

Han Chuan nodded. "Then let's wait for the notice."

"But..." Shi Xi was puzzled.

"But what?" Han Chuan asked.

Shi Xi recalled Xie Yunzhou's words. He didn't seem to have confirmed that she would be the female lead of [Sky Blue].

"It's nothing," Shi Xi took out her phone and spun it in her hands, wondering if she should ask Xie Yunzhou.

This man didn't even speak clearly!

Did he still want her to guess?

Shi Xi stopped talking, but Han Chuan asked, "There's a rumor on the internet that your sugar daddy bought the female lead role of [Sky Blue]."

"What?" Shi Xi looked over and was a little surprised. "Who spread it?"

She didn't even have confirmation of the news herself, so how could the rumors be so certain?

"It's a smurf account, I can't figure out who it is. If you're sure you want to act in [Sky Blue], I'll turn down the other two period dramas," Han Chuan said to Shi Xi.

Chapter 683 Movie Schedule

Shi Xi leaned back in her chair. "Let's wait a little longer and see the response from the crew of [Sky Blue]."

Even if it was a drama that was scheduled, the female lead could be changed at the last minute, not to mention that she was only auditioning now.

Han Chuan replied, "[Energetic Girl] is going to be released soon. Remember to forward it and support it."

When Shi Xi thought about this movie of hers, she felt uneasy.

500 million box office earnings.

How could it be that simple!

Shi Xi opened her Weibo and saw that there were tens of thousands of private messages and mentions in the background.

She never looked at it.

In any case, the comments were either praising her or scolding her.

Shi Xi reposted the Weibo post promoting the release of [Energetic Girl] and pretended that nothing had happened.

What was [Sky Blue]? What internal decision?

She did not know.

When Shi Xi's fans saw that [Energetic Girl] was scheduled for release, they were instantly filled with energy!

[Ah, I'm looking forward to Baby Xi's movie! [Energetic Girl], go, go, go!]

novelusb.com

[I can finally see Xi Xi Zi's beauty on the big screen! Aowu, I'm so happy! There's hope again.]

[No wonder there are so many black posts. It turns out that Xi Xi's movie is going to be released soon, and the black fans anahaha-ing is the bird of joy.]

[I'll pick up trash and sell it for money to earn a movie ticket.]

[Anyone want to watch a movie together? The coordinates.]

[Repost and pick ten sisters to watch the movie! I wish [Energetic Girl] to sell well!]

[...]

The fans didn't want to argue with the haters. They cheered in the super chat and reposted the lucky draw.

It even made it to the hot search.

#Shi Xi's [Energetic Girl] scheduled for release#

The fans were even happier after she made it to the hot search. They focused on promoting their own Xi Xi Zi and blocked all the haters.

[Question: The right way to meet a blackie?]

[Answer: Block all reports and stay in the blacklist forever!]

The fans were happily chasing their idols.

She auditioned for the female lead of an S+ production. There were two movies to be selected, and the movie was about to be aired...

Who didn't say that Shi Xi's future was promising?

Just as the fans were celebrating like they were celebrating the New Year, Nan Wan reposted a Weibo post.

[@Nan Wan: [Bio-Human], which I'm in, will be released in China! I hope everyone will support me!]

Nan Wan's fans were originally jealous of Shi Xi, but when they saw that Nan Wan still had movies in stock, their jealousy immediately disappeared.

[[Bio-Human] is a Hollywood science fiction movie that tells the story of the future bio-humans and humans! Looking forward to Nan Wan's performance!]

[Nan Wan is already an international female star. She is not someone who can be blackmailed by a small star.]

[I'm dying of laughter. They've started to hire internet water army the moment a movie is released. It's so lively. Our Wan Wan's low-key Weibo post shocked the world!]

Nan Wan's fans compared themselves to Shi Xi, feeling that other than her looks, Nan Wan was better than Shi Xi in every aspect.

This was especially true for the actual film achievements.

[Our Wan Wan already has a movie that has a box office of 1.2 billion. She's not someone a newbie can compare to.]

[Don't give the next host a look, focus on promoting.]

When Shi Xi's fans saw this, they were speechless.

They did not care what resources Nan Wan had or what movie she made.

Putting their photos together was a blow to Nan Wan.

Shi Xi's fans: [Don't bother about what others say. We'll just support Xi Xi's movie.]

[Yeah, just do your best to support it. It's Xi Xi's first movie, and it's already a great result to be able to show it in the theaters!]

[Xi Xi doesn't have any capital backing her, so she has a lot of resources. Don't be sad, everyone. She's still young, but she'll definitely become a big star in the future!]

Shi Xi's fans had already learned to encourage themselves and not compare themselves with others.

It was a peaceful atmosphere.

The two movies were released at the same time.

Chapter 684 Supporting Actress for [Sky Blue]

Nan Wan's [Bio-Human] had already been filmed when she was in M Country.

However, Nan Wan was not the female lead and was only a supporting role.

Even though she was only a supporting role, being able to act in a Hollywood movie was already enough for the fans to praise her to the heavens.

Moreover, [Bio-Human]...

The name sounded very advanced.

Future technology, the conflict between bio-humans and humans.

Compared to a meaningless school movie like [Energetic Girl], it had a more profound and far-reaching concept.

Nan Wan saw the comments below her Weibo and was very satisfied.

What Shi Xi?

A little rookie wanted to compare herself to her?

Nan Wan leaned on the sofa and clicked on the return button to look at the current Weibo hot search.

However, even after refreshing several times, her movie, [Bio-Human], still did not make it to the hot search.

Nan Wan was unhappy and immediately called her manager. "Didn't you see my Weibo post? Why don't you make it a hot search?"

The manager was silent for a moment, probably to see what Nan Wan had posted on Weibo.

novelusb.com

Nan Wan waited for a minute patiently.

"You don't have many scenes in [Bio-Human]. It's not a good idea to spend money on marketing it," the manager analyzed calmly.

How could Nan Wan listen to her manager? She said angrily, "Shi Xi's on the hot search! I don't care! I'm very popular now, hurry up and buy me a hot search!"

The manager didn't want to say anything.

Shi Xi was on the hot search because she was good.

Every Weibo post had tens of thousands of comments, and the haters were all helping.

(If the haters were jealous, it would also increase the popularity of the comments.)

On the other hand, Nan Wan had to buy likes for every Weibo post.

The manager changed the topic. "The production team of [Sky Blue] replied. You didn't get it."

"What? Didn't you say that I'd be the female lead in [Sky Blue]?" Nan Wan was surprised. She thought of the rumors on the internet and asked, "Didn't you fix it internally?"

"It's not internal now. I've asked the director," the manager said, "The casting for [Sky Blue] won't be decided internally."

After the interview, it would be decided by the higher-ups.

"There is still a second and third female lead role to be chosen for [Sky Blue]. I'll send you the script."

Nan Wan's face twisted. "You want me to play a supporting role?!"

"I've already sent you the audition scenes for the supporting female character," the manager said.

After that, the manager hung up the phone.

"You dare to hang up on me?" Nan Wan heard the sound of the phone being hung up and smashed her phone in anger!

After panting for a while, Nan Wan took out her spare phone.

If the company didn't buy it for her, she would buy it herself!

As for the fact that she didn't get the female lead of [Sky Blue]...

Nan Wan's mood was terrible.

[Sky Blue] was an S+ production that Central TV had specifically requested. Since she did not have any scripts recently, she would just be a supporting actress.

Nan Wan opened the script for the supporting female role and started to prepare for the interview.

Nan Wan had always been proud and arrogant, but she had been hit many times and gradually lowered her head to life.

'The female lead of [Sky Blue] is probably an A-list female star. It's not a bad idea for me to play a supporting role that outshines the female lead,' Nan Wan thought in her heart.

As for Shi Xi's audition, Nan Wan did not take it to heart at all.

She didn't even have the face to be the female lead.

How could Shi Xi have met it?

Nan Wan relaxed and bought herself a hot search.

She also bought a press release to promote the movie [Bio-Human].

After Nan Wan's manager saw it, she was very helpless.

Nan Wan was not the main character of [Bio-Human]. Why did she put in so much effort to publicize it?

The box office would not be given to Nan Wan, and Nan Wan would not gain the most from the popularity.

It was really a case of being a fool with a lot of money.

Chapter 685 The Movie's Premiere Day

After Nan Wan's participation in [Bio-Human] came out of the hot search, the trailer of [Bio-Human] was also played.

The cool bio-humans, the wonderful fighting, and the dazzling special effects.

And the male lead's shocking line: "We're not going to vanish without a fight."

Everything indicated that this was a big production.

However, Nan Wan was not in the trailer.

Nan Wan did not even get a shot!

Nan Wan was not even on the cast list!

The netizens had not even started to say anything, but the fans had already started to explain.

[Wan Wan's participation in a Hollywood movie is already a huge breakthrough!]

[It's nothing to be a supporting role. Who doesn't start from a supporting role? It's good to be a supporting role.]

[This is a Hollywood movie. They can make the trailer however they want.]

Fine, everything was said by Nan Wan's fans.

The trailer for [Energetic Girl] was released as soon as it was scheduled, and it was a completely different genre from [Bio-Human].

[Bio-Human] was doomsday, science fiction, and war.

On the other hand, [Energetic Girl] was a campus movie, full of vitality, and sweet.

The scene started off with the university campus. It started with a long shot of the scenery and ended with Shi Xi.

The girl was wearing a school uniform and had her hair tied up in a high ponytail. Her makeup was plain and clean, and she was full of energy!

The background music was also very cheerful. "The yuan in [Energetic Girl] is the yuan of the yuan universe!"

"This place is full of physics. No, there are nonsensical plots and romance."

Pei Jie and Lou Ruicong were next.

Pei Jie played the role of a top student who was a childhood sweetheart. To outsiders, he was a cold school hunk, but to Shi Xi, he was a childhood sweetheart who was good at understanding her.

The post-cut of the trailer was also very sensible. The clip was of the most handsome moment when Pei Jie's three-pointer revealed his abdominal muscles.

Maximum boyfriend power!

Lou Ruicong was playing the role of a university professor. He wore a pair of gold-rimmed glasses and looked gentle and refined. He was the favorite young professor of all the girls in the school.

Bullet comments: [F*ck, this is Lou Lou? My Lou Lou whose pants were stolen by monkey? I don't believe it! My Lou Lou is obviously a comedian!]

[F*ck, I'm laughing to death when I see the bullet comments. Is Lou Lou's dark history going to be unerasable?]

[The internet has memories.]

[This actor looks a little familiar. I immediately remembered him when I saw the bullet comments. Hahaha, I didn't expect him to look so good in clothes!]

[I'm in danger.]

[Energetic Girl] was a happy show that could be seen from the trailer.

It was also a relaxing campus comedy.

*

After Nan Wan saw the trailer of [Energetic Girl], she was not worried at all.

It would be a miracle if a low-budget school movie like this could hit 100 million at the box office.

Nan Wan called her assistant in and said, "Print these scripts and buy two cups of coffee."

After the assistant brought the things back, Nan Wan first set the script and coffee down, took a beautiful photo, and posted it on Weibo.

[@Nan Wan: A new day, a new battle!]

When the fans saw Nan Wan's Weibo post, they excitedly came to comment.

[Wan Wan, don't work too hard reading the script! Pay attention to the balance between work and rest!]

[Don't drink coffee tonight. Rest early. We'll see tomorrow.]

Nan Wan looked at the comments and randomly picked a few fans to reply to.

[Wan Wan has replied to me! Ah, ah, ah! I'm too excited!!]

Nan Wan was even happier when she saw the fans' compliments.

The assistant, who was packing up at the side, advised, "Sister Wan Wan, I've printed the script. Remember to take a look."

Nan Wan sipped her coffee. "I know, go out."

The assistant looked at the script that had been forgotten on the table after the photoshoot and sighed in her heart.

Nan Wan's acting skills were not bad at first, but now she was less and less willing to think about the script.

The manager asked her to study the script while watching Nan Wan.

But she was only a small assistant. Why would Nan Wan listen to her?

*

With the movie's release drawing near, Shi Xi was a little nervous, so she posted on Weibo to promote herself.

She even got her good friends in the entertainment industry to help with the publicity.

She had invested almost all of her savings into the movie, so she didn't have much money left for publicity.

She could only use the most primitive method, which was to beg her friends.

Shi Xi's interpersonal relationships in the industry were not bad to begin with. She had been a mentor in a talent show before, and almost all the trainees she had taught and the mentors she had worked with had helped to promote and repost it.

Some of the people who had worked with him before also helped to promote it after seeing it.

Who wouldn't like Shi Xixi?

Shi Xi replied with tears in her eyes: I'm touched! Thank you, everyone!

Who said that there were no good people in the entertainment industry!

The netizens were also looking forward to Shi Xi's movie's first screening and the results it would achieve.

Finally, the day of the movie's release arrived.

Each theater chain was already fully booked for two movies in advance.

When she saw that the tickets for the local movie theater were almost all sold out, Shi Xi felt a lot more comforted.

It was good as long as the results weren't too bad!

Shi Xi frowned when she saw that there were still some tickets left in the cinema nearby.

...

Why didn't anyone book the last row at the corner?

The audience agreed.

Shi Xi placed an order with passion and bought a movie ticket for herself.

'No one should be able to recognize me if I wear a mask, right?'

Just after she placed her order, Xie Yunzhou sent her a message.

[I bought two movie tickets. Do you want to watch a movie together?]

When Shi Xi saw the message, she thought to herself, 'You should have said so earlier! I just bought a movie ticket!'

Was it too late to refund the votes now?

[Don't worry about being photographed, I've booked a theater for myself.]

Shi Xi was speechless.

Look at what you're saying!

Didn't you say that you bought two movie tickets?

Men!

Shi Xi replied: [No, I've already bought movie tickets.]

[Huh?]

Afraid that he wouldn't believe her, Shi Xi even sent him a screenshot of her purchase.

After a while, Xie Yunzhou replied. [What a coincidence. I bought a ticket for this show too. It's a middle seat.]

Shi Xi was speechless.

That was ridiculous.

Shi Xi wondered if she should agree to go and watch it together.

[If you want to sit in the corner, the person next to you just happened to refund their ticket, so I bought the seat next to you.]

It was better to sit in the corner, as the risk of being discovered was lower.

[Sure.]

As a result, before the movie was released, someone was surprised to find that the movie tickets they had bought had been refunded, and they had even been refunded twice the amount.

Although the tickets were gone, with double the money... Wouldn't it be fine to watch another movie?

Just like that, Shi Xi and Xie Yunzhou sat in a corner at the back of the cinema before the movie was released.

Xie Yunzhou's assistant and Zhu Lin sat in the middle.

The two of them were restless and felt that this place was a little hot.

"So many people are here," Shi Xi said softly.

Xie Yunzhou: "This movie only had two rows of seats in the beginning. There were a lot of people who wanted to watch it. The seats were full, so the row of seats was added."

Shi Xi nodded, not fully understanding.

Anyway, it was good.

On the first day of the movie, there were many fans, and Shi Xi saw quite a few pretty girls.

When the movie started, Shi Xi took a deep breath, feeling uneasy.

She had already watched the completed movie countless times.

She had come to the venue to see the audience's reaction.

Chapter 686 What Kind of Lousy Movie Is This? This Money Was Spent In Vain

No matter how much thought was put into the shooting or editing...

Only by coming to the venue and seeing the audience's reaction would one know if the audience liked it or not.

This was a movie that the audience paid to watch!

As the lights dimmed, the big screen in the cinema came on.

The school bell rang, instantly bringing everyone into the classroom and into the time of their youth.

The tone of the entire movie was relaxed and pleasant, and the actors' acting skills were all on point.

As the main lead, even with light makeup, Shi Xi was able to withstand the big screen shots of her face.

There were even some audience members who exclaimed, "Wow!" and "It's so good!"

Shi Xi felt elated.

Who didn't like to be complimented on their beauty?

Similarly, Pei Jie's performance was also outstanding.

He was young and his performance in the film was immature, but it was this immature part of him that made people feel closer to him.

It was as if Pei Jie was really their classmate.

Although Lou Ruicong was a funny person, he had the best acting skills. After putting on the glasses, he looked like an elegant professor without any sense of disharmony.

When Shi Xi heard the happy atmosphere in the cinema, she gradually relaxed.

The audience liked it.

Hehe.

Xie Yunzhou smiled when he saw the girl beside him relax. "Don't worry about the box office. It'll definitely break 5%."

Shi Xi lowered her voice and said, "Don't spend so much money. It's not worth it."

"It's worth it no matter how much it costs to make you happy," Xie Yunzhou said.

Before Shi Xi could say anything, the audience in the front row spoke, "Can you guys watch the movie in silence?"

Xie Yunzhou and Shi Xi, who was being lectured: "..."

Shi Xi: I'm the main female lead in the movie! How dare you speak to me like this?

Xie Yunzhou: I'm one of the investors of this movie! How dare you speak to me like this?

The two of them naturally couldn't say what they were thinking.

"I'm sorry," Shi Xi said softly.

The audience in the front row turned around and mumbled in a low voice, "Her voice sounds like Shi Xi's."

Shi Xi: How can it not sound like me? It's me!

Shi Xi lowered her cap even more.

She was wearing black-rimmed glasses and a mask, so even Mother Shi could not recognize her at first glance.

It was even easier to hide it from the fans.

When the movie ended, the lights in the cinema were turned on, and the audience was like boiling water.

"It's nice! Xi Xi is so beautiful! I want to see it again!"

"I didn't expect that they wouldn't be together. Will there be a second movie?"

"I think Lou Lou is better. It'd be great if Xi Xi got together with Lou Lou."

"I think Pei Jie is more suitable! Isn't it great to be childhood sweethearts?"

The audience chatted as they slowly left the theater.

Shi Xi's eyes curved into crescents when she heard everyone's real-time feedback.

This was more three-dimensional than the comments on the internet!

The pleasure of hearing!

"Do you want to go get something to eat?" Xie Yunzhou asked.

After the movie, it was lunchtime.

"Alright." Shi Xi nodded.

Since they were already out, of course they had to eat something.

Just as the two of them left the theater, they saw someone coming out of another room, cursing.

"What lousy movie is this? This money was spent in vain!"

"It is! What can I not do with this money? If I throw it into the water, I can still hear it! I'm so angry!"

"So annoying!"

Shi Xi had just heard the praise and almost lost her balance when she heard such words.

Wuwuwu, it can't be?

Was her movie that bad?

Although Shi Xi had a strong mental fortitude, it did not mean that she would not be sad when she heard the negative comments.

Especially after hearing the tide of positive comments, she was now hearing such heart-wrenching words.

...

It was giving a date for a slap.

She had eaten a date, but in the end, the other party had slapped her, and the date had come out.

Chapter 687 Seeing a Lousy Film At the Beginning of the Year!

The corners of Shi Xi's mouth pressed down. She wanted to rush forward immediately and ask what was wrong.

Behold her in front of everyone!

See if she wouldn't give him a good beating!

Xie Yunzhou couldn't see Shi Xi's expression because she was wearing a mask.

!!

However, the boys had gone too far.

Xie Yunzhou frowned slightly and was about to step forward to ask.

The boys were still talking. "I never thought that there would be such a movie in 2022!" they said.

"How did the movie get the approval? How can this kind of movie be released?"

"Hollywood is still making such a lousy film? How f*cking unlucky! I saw a lousy film at the beginning of the year! A lousy film is the beginning of a new year! How unlucky!"

Xie Yunzhou stopped in his tracks.

Hollywood?

"It doesn't seem to be my movie," Shi Xi said in a low voice.

Xie Yunzhou observed that all the indignant faces came from the same place.

Some people behind them started to chat, "Did you watch [Bio-Human]? Does it look good?"

"Don't look! Trash! Lousy film! The trailer is the essence of the content!"

"Is it that bad?"

The human face that was asked twisted into a ball. "I only hate the fact that human language is limited and can't express my disgust for this film."

“What’s the approximate score?”

“Any negative points?”

He was filled with deep resentment.

When Shi Xi heard this, she already wanted to see how bad [Bio-Human] was.

“By the way, did you guys watch [Energetic Girl]? Does it look good?” the resentful audience asked.

“It’s super good! Strongly recommended! I’ll come and watch it again tomorrow!”

‘Don’t give spoilers. If you give spoilers, what are they watching?’ Shi Xi thought.

As they walked and listened, they had already reached the exit of the theater.

In the theater hall, there was a huge poster of [Energetic Girl].

Many fans were checking in.

When the next batch of people went in to watch the movie, the cinema was much emptier.

When Shi Xi saw that there was no one in front of her poster, she said to Xie Yunzhou, “Help me take a picture!”

She also checked in!

Xie Yunzhou took out his phone and took a picture.

Shi Xi took off her mask and glasses and struck a beautiful pose.

She had to end it before she was discovered.

Back at Xie Yunzhou’s side, he said, “I took a few photos.”

Xie Yunzhou showed Shi Xi the photos he had taken.

Shi Xi was silent.

She was 168 cm tall, but in Xie Yunzhou’s phone, she looked like 128 cm.

“You...” Shi Xi looked at the photos and didn’t know what to say.

Fortunately, she was pretty and could withstand the death shot of the original camera.

Zhu Lin came out of the cinema and looked around for Shi Xi.

Shi Xi’s eyes lit up and she immediately asked Zhu Lin to take a photo of her checking in.

Xie Yunzhou knew that he was being ignored and was very confused.

Wasn’t this shot good?

Small and chubby, how cute was she?

Zhu Lin took dozens of photos of Shi Xi and sent them to her so that she could choose which one to post on Weibo.

“Aren’t we going to eat?” Xie Yunzhou interrupted.

“Yeah.”

“Qingshui Restaurant?” Xie Yunzhou asked.

“Let’s eat at the mall.” Shi Xi raised her head and her eyes lit up. “Let’s go watch [Bio-Human].”

Xie Yunzhou was speechless.

“Why would you contribute to the box office for her?” Zhu Lin said impolitely.

“I want to see how bad that movie is.” Shi Xi’s eyes curved.

“Let’s eat first,” Xie Yunzhou said.

...

The two of them found a restaurant with a private room and had lunch together.

While they were waiting for their meal, Xie Yunzhou was lucky enough to see Shi Xi’s serious look when she photoshopped the picture.

She stretched her legs, adjusted her chin, and adjusted the brightness.

Xie Yunzhou: I don’t understand, but it seems awesome.

Just as Shi Xi was editing the picture, Han Chuan sent a message. [The reviews of the movie are not bad. The box office on the first day should be able to break 50 million.]

Chapter 688 It’s the Malicious Negative Comments From Shi Xi’s Fans

For [Energetic Girl], a box office of 50 million yuan on the first day was already a very good start.

The initial investment from the Shi Corporation was 50 million yuan.

However, Shi Xi had forked out her own money later on. Xie Yunzhou had invested in it and had spent nearly a hundred million yuan.

It could only be said that making movies was really a money-burning process.

“What’s the matter?” asked Xie Yunzhou.

Shi Xi put away her phone and came back to her senses. “Nothing. Let’s eat.”

Xie Yunzhou hit the nail on the head. “Are you worried about the box office?”

“It’s alright. At this rate, there should be a profit. Did you buy the box office?” Shi Xi asked as she thought of something.

“No,” Xie Yunzhou denied.

Shi Xi observed Xie Yunzhou's expression, trying to determine if he had really not bought any tickets. Forget it, she couldn't tell.

"Have some soup." Xie Yunzhou picked up a small bowl and scooped a bowl of duck soup for Shi Xi.

If they didn't talk about this topic, the two of them would still be very harmonious.

After dinner, Shi Xi bought two tickets for the movie [Bio-Human].

"Do you want to go to the movies together?"

Xie Yunzhou really wanted to go to the movies with the girl, but an urgent meeting call interrupted their date.

"I'm sorry, there's an emergency I have to deal with. I'll accompany you next time." Although Xie Yunzhou was a love-struck fool, the matter he had to attend to was related to Shi Xi.

"Alright... I'll go with Zhu Lin." Shi Xi pursed her lips.

What could be more important than her?

He was even willing to give up his career to accompany her on a date.

However, Shi Xi did not have much work to do today.

Moreover, it didn't feel good to watch Nan Wan's movie with Xie Yunzhou.

After all, the two of them knew each other. If she couldn't help but say something bad about Nan Wan, she would be worried.

But with Zhu Lin, she didn't have to worry.

She would definitely say bad things about Nan Wan and would not have to worry about her public image collapsing.

Shi Xi: I'm not the female protagonist. I can't be generous to my enemies.

Even Ning Yu didn't like Shi Xi from the start.

Worried that she would be recognized, Shi Xi bought movie tickets to the back.

Fortunately, the cinema was quite large, so there were still some tickets left.

Judging from the ticket sales, both [Bio-Human] and [Energetic Girl] had high attendance.

After all, it was the first day of screening. The fans of the two companies or young people who liked to watch movies would all choose the new movies.

After sending Xie Yunzhou off, Shi Xi went to look for Zhu Lin.

Zhu Lin surfed the 12G internet and whispered to Shi Xi, "I just read the comments on [Bio-Human]. The passers-by and viewers all gave bad reviews! Only a few fans are trying to save her dignity."

Shi Xi switched on her phone and went online to take a look.

The two movies were released at the same time today, and they were both on the hot search.

However, Nan Wan spent a little more money and became the top trending search.

Before the movie was released, the comments section was still relatively mild.

[I'm looking forward to Nan Wan's new movie!]

[Nan Wan's future is promising!]

[Congratulations to Nan Wan for becoming a Hollywood actress!]

It was all these rainbow farts.

However, after the first movie had finished airing, the style of the comments section gradually changed.

[[Bio-Human]. It's a bad movie, a bad movie, a bad movie. Important things have to be said three times!]

[Spoiler alert! The movie was terrible! At the center was the bio-human male protagonist, who sacrificed himself to save mankind.]

[However, the male protagonist was a bio-human! Why would he want to save mankind? Can't you at least give a reason? What is the central meaning of this?]

[He wanted to promote culture, promote the protection of the environment, and even wanted to show humanity, so he was forcibly stirring up emotions!]

[The last part of the male lead's death was so embarrassing that my toes were curling on the ground.]

[When the male lead died, the girl in front of me said, "Finally dead".]

[Those who can watch it are all warriors. I couldn't help but run away halfway through.]

These were just normal attacks on the movie and had not involved Nan Wan yet.

However, Nan Wan's fans were very similar to Nan Wan.

When they saw others criticize the movie, they immediately started to defend it.

[The entire movie is about the bio-humans saving mankind. This kind of cross-species rescue is even more touching! If you don't know anything about Hollywood movies, then don't come out and embarrass yourself.]

[To be honest, I didn't expect everyone to give a bad review! I was completely shocked after watching it. It's definitely the best movie I've ever seen.]

...

[Could it be that the fans next door are jealous and are deliberately giving us bad reviews?]

[Have these people ever watched the movie? If you haven't seen it, don't talk nonsense! Give a bad review with your eyes closed?]

Needless to say, they were definitely referring to Shi Xi when they shouted 'next door'.

The Nan Wan fans were only targeting Shi Xi.

However, many ordinary people who were watching the movie were accidentally injured.

[I'm dying of laughter. I've been a sci-fi fan for ten years. I went to watch [Bio-Human] after seeing the sci-fi title. The best movie? Even sci-fi movies from ten years ago are better than this!]

[Didn't you say that you've never watched a sci-fi movie? The special effects of this drama are all in the trailer. He can't fight, he can't do special effects, his acting is awkward, and the plot is garbage. I'd think it's high even if I gave him a star.]

[Fans, stop your nonsense. We didn't scold Nan Wan because the entire show was rubbish. When Nan Wan's face appeared, fans will know that she's an actress, but those who don't know will think that she was an extra.]

When these people were commenting, they had also shared their movie tickets.

However, the Nan Wan fans did not listen at all.

[It's Shi Xi's fans' malicious negative comments!]

...

[If you don't like it, then don't comment. Do I need you to comment? Just because you don't like it doesn't mean others don't.]

[I spent tens of yuan and wasted two hours watching a movie, and you're not allowing me to comment?]

The discussion (scolding) under the hot search of [Bio-Human] was in full swing, much more popular than the discussion of [Energetic Girl].

When Shi Xi saw these comments, she thought to herself, 'It's a Hollywood movie after all. No matter how bad it is, it can't be as bad as what the netizens are saying, right?'

Science fiction fans were probably too picky.

Sci-fi lovers were very picky about movies and novels.

The more they researched, the more they understood science fiction, so they would point out new science fiction movies.

With this thought in mind, Shi Xi watched a movie with Zhu Lin.

Three minutes later, Shi Xi felt that it might be her own fault for not understanding what the movie was saying.

Five minutes later, Shi Xi: Something seems to be wrong.

10 minutes later, Shi Xi: It's a lousy film. The netizens didn't lie to me.

After watching the movie for 20 minutes, Shi Xi realized that someone had already fallen asleep in the cinema.

"Shall we go?" Shi Xi asked Zhu Lin in a low voice.

It would be a waste of time to continue watching.

Zhu Lin did not answer.

Shi Xi looked over in confusion and found Zhu Lin sleeping soundly.

Shi Xi: ...I have no words.

Seeing that Zhu Lin was sound asleep, Shi Xi didn't wake her up. Like most people in the cinema, she picked up her phone and started playing.

The hot search for [Bio-Human] had already turned upside down. Those who had finished watching it were all commenting how bad it was.

On the other hand, below the hot search of [Energetic Girl], there were many positive comments.

Chapter 689 Can't Be Bitter

[New Year's little cookie, this is my favorite is campus drama!]

[I'm so happy watching this. It's a school comedy, yyds!]

[Everyone's acting skills are good. She's so beautiful! I want to take a screenshot of every frame as my computer screensaver!]

[Ah, ah, ah! I can't buy the tickets! It's all sold out! QAQ]

[I'm relieved to see that my daughter's movie is so popular.]

The audience in the real-time update all posted their ticket coupons, and almost all of them were positive.

"What's the situation?" Xie Yunzhou asked when he returned to the company.

"After some discussion, the production team of [Sky Blue] has decided not to accept any investments."

Xie Yunzhou's brows furrowed slightly. "Didn't we agree on this before? Why did they go back on their word?"

"The director team found a suitable female lead. After some consideration, they decided to reject our investment."

Xie Yunzhou's only requirement for his investment was to have a female lead.

They had a good discussion before, but the other party suddenly went back on their word.

"I'll pay more." Xie Yunzhou's reply was simple and brutal.

The manager of the Planning Department wiped the sweat on his forehead and said, "It's already reached nine figures, but the other party hasn't given up."

"Give more," Xie Yunzhou said.

The manager of the Planning Department called the person in charge of [Sky Blue] immediately.

After a long argument, the planning manager reported to Xie Yunzhou, "The other party said that they can't appoint the female lead internally, but they can give us the role of the supporting female lead. They only need to collect the original investment amount."

"I only want the female lead," Xie Yunzhou said.

Since he was going to give it to Shi Xi, he should give her the best.

The manager of the Planning Department looked troubled as he continued to call the other party.

However, the other party refused to give in.

Under the temptation of money, the other party actually persevered.

The manager of the Planning Department tried to persuade him for more than ten minutes before shaking his head. "President Xie, the other party still doesn't agree."

"Who's the female lead they want?" Xie Yunzhou asked.

If they couldn't solve the problem with the investors, they would go to the female lead that the other party had set.

"They're not willing to disclose it. They want to keep it a secret."

In fact, he had guessed that Xie Yunzhou might cause trouble for the female lead, so he had kept it a secret.

Xie Yunzhou reached out his hand. "Give me the phone."

When he tried to talk to another person, the other party still did not relent, but he still wanted to invest.

Xie Yunzhou: How can it be that good?

"Even if you don't tell me who my female lead is now, I'll still know who you've decided on after you start filming. Maybe she doesn't want to act in your drama," Xie Yunzhou said lightly.

The person in charge of [Sky Blue] listened to his half-threatening and half-tempting words and finally told Xie Yunzhou that he had decided on the female lead.

Xie Yunzhou's eyes narrowed. "Oh, it's her?"

"President Xie, this has nothing to do with her."

"If you're not willing to invest, we can discuss it."

"But don't target the actress. She's very good at acting, so she's the most suitable candidate."

Xie Yunzhou: "..."

The person in charge of [Sky Blue]: "We haven't announced to the public that we've decided on the female lead. Can you help us keep this a secret, President Xie?"

"Sure," Xie Yunzhou replied.

It was just a small matter.

Xie Yunzhou did not really care about the entertainment industry, and he did not gossip.

After hanging up the phone, the manager of the Planning Department looked at the smile on Xie Yunzhou's face and felt even more afraid.

Was President Xie smiling out of anger?

"Draw up a normal investment contract," Xie Yunzhou said, "And remove the conditions for the designated female lead."

The manager of the Planning Department was speechless.

The manager of the Planning Department left the office in confusion.

What was happening?

His assistant came in with a cup of coffee. "Boss, we're already working on the box office."

Xie Yunzhou nodded. "If there's any news, let me know immediately."

*

On the second day, everyone was looking forward to the release of these two movies on their first day.

Which movie had a higher box office?

The netizens seemed to be watching a lottery draw.

...

The statistics website released the box office data of the two movies on the first day.

[First day box office for [Bio-Human]: 69.21 million.]

[First day box office for Energetic Girl]: 130 million.]

[When I see the unit, I know that Shi Xi has won.]

[Isn't this too ridiculous? [Energetic Girl] outdid [Bio-Human]?]

[I feel like [Energetic Girl] is not as popular as [Bio-Human]! Is the box office fake?]

After the data was released, some people immediately began to doubt the authenticity of the box office.

[Oh ho, [Bio-Human] has a lot of discussion, but aren't they all scolding it for being a lousy drama?]

[You've broken your defense just because [Energetic Girl] has a high box office? The box office earnings contributed by the fans are already in the tens of millions! Wouldn't it be easy to break a hundred million?]

[A certain fan is so easily satisfied. My Nan Wan's previous box office sales of 1.2 billion were not as good as a certain fan's.]

[No, what's the big deal about box office sales exceeding 100 million? Don't movies nowadays break the 100 million mark every minute?]

...

[So, why didn't [Bio-Human] break the 100 million mark?]

[Nan Wan isn't the female lead, she's just a part of it. [Bio-Human] is a bad drama to begin with.]

Nan Wan's fans were also divided into two types:

A portion of them thought that the movie was great and wanted to continue bragging.

The other group felt that the movie was too bad and it had dragged Nan Wan down.

When Shi Xi saw that [Energetic Girl] had earned 130 million yuan at the box office on the first day, she was also shocked.

She was already very satisfied when Han Chuan said that the box office sales would be around 50 million yuan yesterday.

She didn't expect it to break 100 million!

The box office on the first day broke 100 million, and the official Weibo immediately sent a colorful highlight reel of the breakthrough.

[@Energetic Girl Official Weibo: Congratulations [Energetic Girl] for breaking the 100 million mark on its first day! I'll give everyone Xi Xi's colorful egg behind-the-scenes!]

[P.S. When the box office hits 200 million, we'll continue to broadcast more highlights!]

The post-credits that were released were some funny scenes during the filming of the movie.

It was nothing to the producers, but it was extremely precious to the fans.

That was the Shi Xi Xi that was even more lively and lively than in the movie!

Some fans secretly asked, [We want to know what the behind-the-scenes footage of breaking the 200 million mark is?]

[@Energetic Girl Official Weibo: You'll know if it can break 200 million!]

[I'm treating the entire class to a movie! Can the official account reward me with a wake up voice message from Xi Xi?]

[Ah, ah, ah! I want it too! This is my movie ticket!]

[I love you, I love you! I also want to hear my wife's voice call!]

[Wake-up voice message, don't omit it! You can't be smug!]

After the official Weibo account released the highlights of the 200 million box office sales, the comments section was filled with peace, and they wanted Shi Xi to wake up.

Oh no, it was a wake-up call.

It can't be the same.

Meanwhile, the Weibo post of [Bio-Human] was full of criticism.

The official Weibo account of [Bio-Human] finally made a statement.

[@Bio-Human Official Weibo: This movie is about the harmony and opposition between bio-humans and humans.]

[For the sake of every living being on this planet, he will die with pride and no regrets!]

[This movie used the most advanced special effects technology...]

[Only people with high appreciation ability can understand this movie.]

The meaning of the entire Weibo post was:

A group of country bumpkins who don't understand what is going on, don't come and point.

Chapter 690 This Is a Meaningful and Extraordinary Epoch-Making Sci-Fi Film

Many netizens followed the trend and began to criticize others' aesthetics from above.

[I really don't want everyone to miss out on a good movie because of some bad reviews on the internet. [Bio-Human] is definitely the best science fiction movie in recent years!]

[If you say you don't understand it, then go and watch it again. After watching it, I cried in the cinema for more than ten minutes. I still couldn't get over my emotions.]

[The movie [Bio-Human] has not even finished airing, and someone is already saying that it's not good. It's definitely going to get a bad review.]

[I'm dying of laughter. I've been watching it for ten minutes and they've already started scolding this movie for being lousy. No one is paying me.]

On the second day of the screening, the comments section of [Bio-Human] was extremely exciting.

In the face of the box office of 69,210,000, the official Weibo account did not hide anything and even posted the Hollywood director's exact words.

The director of [Bio-Human] said, "This is a meaningful and extraordinary epoch-making science fiction film."

A lot of foreign netizens immediately started to defend it.

Even many well-known artistes in the entertainment industry began to voice their support for [Bio-Human].

The Nan Wan fans took advantage of the situation and poured the dirty water on Shi Xi.

[It must be Shi Xi's fans who are saying that on purpose!]

When Shi Xi's fans saw this post, they felt that there were too many r*tards in this world.

[D*mn, I'm busy watching and promoting [Energetic Girl]. Where would I find the time to pay attention to others?]

[I'm dying of laughter! I don't want to watch my daughter's movie when I have money? Am I sick?]

[Don't worry about it. Everyone, continue to promote it. Pick a sister from the reposts and give her a movie ticket!]

[For our daughter's wake-up call, charge!]

Shi Xi's fans were extremely rational and did not care about the dirty water that others had poured on them.

The day after the screening ended, the statistics website released the box office data of the two movies on the day after the screening.

[Second day [Bio-Human] box office: 110 million, cumulative box office: 180 million.]

[Second day [Energetic Girl] box office: 140 million, cumulative box office: 270 million.]

[Wuhu, [Energetic Girl] won again!]

[Congratulations to [Energetic Girl] for breaking through 200 million at the box office!]

[[Bio-Human] has increased a lot since yesterday. It's going to have a lot of momentum!]

[Shi Xi fans, don't be so arrogant. Looking at the trend, [Energetic Girl] is probably going to die.]

Even without the netizens saying anything, the fans also realized it.

The box office of [Bio-Human] on the first day was 69 million, but it reached 110 million on the second day, which was an obvious increase.

On the other hand, [Energetic Girl] had only increased a little from 130 million to 140 million.

[@Energetic Girl Official Weibo: I'll release the 200 million Easter egg that everyone wanted! Xi Xi Zi is calling you to wake up!]

The official Weibo account had posted a short video of Shi Xi wearing the school uniform from [Energetic Girl] and looking youthful.

"Wake up, baby! Let's start a day full of vitality together!"

The girl's voice was sweet and playful, and her vitality was uplifted!

[Aowu, our daughter is so cute!]

[I didn't want to be fished by her, but she called me baby!]

[Xi Xi, can you call me hubby?]

[How much did you drink?]

[If you can't drink, then sit at the children's table!]

[...]

In the warm and peaceful comments, there was an unfair group: [I want Lou Lou's wake-up call!]

[Yup! Look at the fresh Lou Lou! I haven't seen Lou Lou in a long time!]

[@Kuai Xue Entertainment, release Lou Lou! Hurry up and let him join the cast! Don't waste time!]

In the movie, Lou Ruicong played the gentle and wise professor, the second male lead. He was handsome and the audience liked him very much.

Even though Shi Xi was more famous, the female audience preferred male actors.

[Yeah, you can't always revolve around Shi Xi, can you? Can't you be more concerned about Lou Lou? Isn't Lou Lou an artiste under your family?]

[I want a voice recording of Pei Jie. Jie Jie is the male lead, but there's so little attention on him.]

[Shi Xi takes up half of the poster and is standing in the middle... I know that she's the female lead, but you can't praise her like this, right? The whole show revolves around her?]

[@Energetic Girl Official Weibo: If the box office breaks 300 million, we will unlock Lou Ruicong's voice message~ All members of [Energetic Girl] thank you for your support!]

The official Weibo account saw the dissatisfaction in the comments section and immediately decided on the reward for breaking the box office record of 200 million.

[Woohoo~ Anticipating Lou Lou!]

[Ah, in the future, Lou Lou will wake me up? Hehe, the way Lou Lou calls me wife!]

[You can also call me baby!]

[No, Pei Jie is the male lead. Shouldn't he play his voice recording first?]

[Your Pei Jie is a newcomer.]

No matter what they did, there would be fans who would be dissatisfied.

...

Some of the comments in the comments section had caused dissatisfaction among Shi Xi's fans.

[Hello? This movie was produced by Shi Xi, she wrote the script, and she pulled in the investors. Is there a problem with her standing in the middle of the poster and taking up half of the space?]

[Speaking of the poster, Shi Xi is the female lead. Isn't it normal for her to stand in the middle?]

[Shi Xi did stand beside them in the publicity photos too. Aren't the other fans too fragile?]

[The people who came to watch this movie are probably here for Shi Xi, right? Pei Jie has been sucking blood since the talent show, and he still has the nerve to talk?]

[Ignore the others. Focus on promoting.]

Before the internal strife, the big fans had spoken up and asked everyone not to be meaningless.

[@Ji Yin: The most important thing now is to promote the movie. I welcome every participant to give their opinions.]

[However, I hope that all my friends know that Shi Xi is the executive director, the executive scriptwriter, the executive producer, and the female lead.]

[There were a lot of things that happened during the filming process, and Shi Xi was the one who handled it. You can say that without her, there wouldn't be this movie.]

..

...

After Pei Jie saw the controversial comments, he reposted the official Weibo of [Energetic Girl] to express his stance.

If Shi Xi hadn't given him the audition opportunity, he didn't know when he would have been able to join the crew.

[@Pei Jie: Thank you, Teacher Shi Xi, for giving me the opportunity to audition. Thank you, director and scriptwriter, for interviewing me and acknowledging me. Thank you, teachers in the production team, for taking care of me. Thank you, fans, for your support. I hope that the box office for [Energetic Girl] will rise steadily.]

Below the Weibo post, both the original fans and the new fans were touched.

[Jie Jie is so gentle.]

[He knows everything, that's why he, who has always been quiet, posted such a long Weibo. I feel so sorry for Jie Jie, but Jie Jie always gives in.]

[I didn't expect Pei Jie to be acting for the first time! Her acting is amazing!]

[It's just that the official Weibo account is too much. Pei Jie is the male lead, but they posted Lou Ruicong's voice unlock first.]

Back in [Star Idol], Pei Jie was a quiet and hardworking character.

Or rather, he was such a person.

There were fewer stages after he left the sect.

Pei Jie's company was average and had fewer and fewer resources. His fans had also left.

Two days after [Energetic Girl] was released, Pei Jie gained 2 million fans and his newly posted Weibo likes exceeded 500,000, making it to the hot search.

Pei Jie himself was shocked.

He had never seen such good data!
