

The First Heir 1001

Chapter 1001

Wallace was startled. He took the portfolio and opened it. It was really detailed and comprehensive!

Wynn Johnston, huh?

Philip's wife was Wynn Johnston, the chairman of Beacon Group. His daughter was Mila Clarke, his mother-in-law was Martha Yates, and his father-in-law was Charles Johnston...

Very detailed information.

"Miss Clarke, this is?"

Wallace asked to make sure that he was right.

Rachel said coldly, "Wynn is undergoing prenatal treatment at the hospital now. Tell your guys to make trouble at her company. It's better to create a big fuss so that Philip won't have the time or energy in Phoenicia. When the time comes and the underground chamber of commerce starts, he won't be able to do much. As long as the person arranged by the master can take down half of the profit division in the underground chamber of commerce this time, you will be a great contributor."

Wallace listened carefully, looked at the information in his hand, and already got the idea.

"Miss Clarke, I understand," Wallace said.

Chapter 1002

Above the crowd, a bright red banner with a few particularly noticeable large characters was displayed.

[Beacon, the unscrupulous company! Tumor of the medical industry! Profiting off peoples' lives! We demand justice!]

There was also a lot of discussion among the crowd.

"Oh, what a pitiful family. I heard that a couple took Beacon's medicine and died, leaving only a pair of toddlers and an old mother."

"What? So miserable? Then this Beacon is too evil! How could they claim to be a pharmaceutical company? They're selling poison!"

"Profiteering merchants! Dishonest traders! Get out of Riverdale! We want the relevant agencies to conduct a thorough investigation!"

In the crowd, everyone was raising their arms and shouting.

Of course, among these people, some were paid actors while some were ignorant spectators who got driven by emotions.

Fortunately, Fabio's security team moved quickly and guarded Wynn behind them.

"Madam Johnston, are you alright?"

Mindy was anxious and kept wiping things off Wynn.

Wynn shook her head, forced a smile, and said, "I'm fine. We can't blame people for being angry."

After that, she walked out from behind the security guards, faced the angry crowd, and shouted, "Everyone, please calm down. We can't solve the problem like this. Regarding this matter, Beacon will communicate with the family members promptly. We will also understand the needs of the family members. I hope everyone will give me some time."

"Bullsh*t! Why should we believe you? Wynn Johnston is the number one villain!"

"Exactly! I heard that you're pregnant. I'm sure the child in your stomach will also become a scum of society in the future! It's better to die!"

Wicked!

In the crowd, several big guys with tattoos had been inciting violent emotions in people right from the start.

Tiger tilted his head and spoke into Wynn's ear, "Madam, those few are taking the lead. I'll call someone over."

The three men got out of the car with a serious attitude, broke through the crowd, and stood in front of Wynn.

“Are you Wynn Johnston, chairwoman of Beacon Group?”

The man who took the lead had a square jaw and a deep scar at the corner of his eye, but the hat he was wearing was so low that no one could see it.

“Yes, I am. May I know who you are?”

Wynn was perplexed. Why were the people from the Drug Administration Association also here?

Also, from the forceful intensity of this situation, things did not appear to be good.

The square-jawed man gestured directly to his subordinates, took out a sealed document from the briefcase, and handed it to Wynn. “We received reports from the public that your company is producing and selling counterfeit drugs. We’re here to understand the situation. You need to shut your company down for rectification. Chairman Johnston, please come with us.”

Wynn was startled and quickly explained, “Everyone, I’m sorry. This is a misunderstanding. Our company doesn’t produce or sell any fake drugs. We’re also conducting an investigation. I also hope that the three of you will give us some time and wait for the investigation results.”

Before Wynn finished speaking, the tall man beside Square-jaw interrupted her and said coldly, "Madam Johnston, we're just following orders. I hope you can cooperate with us. Stop your business operations and come with us."

One problem followed after another.

Philip's body was full of chills at the moment. He suddenly realized that things sounded off and asked anxiously, "What's going on? Beacon is said to be producing and selling counterfeit drugs? How is this possible?"

Tiger said nervously on the phone, "Mr. Clarke, I don't know the specific situation, but just now, a group of people was making trouble at the entrance of the company. There were several groups of people and media reporters on the scene. While the lady was dealing with it, people from the Drug Administration Association came over, saying that they wanted Beacon to suspend business for rectification. They then took the lady and Assistant Mindy away forcefully."

Tiger hurriedly recounted what happened.

Philip frowned deeply after listening. This incident was full of oddities.

So many people were making trouble together, and the appearance of the reporters...

By right, these reporters would not have arrived at the scene so soon.

Not to mention, people from the Drug Administration Association also appeared with seizure documents.

Everything was too perfect!

This matter seemed to be arranged in advance, one after another.

“Quickly send someone to the Drug Administration Association’s office to look for them!” Philip said coldly and quickly hung up. Turning around, Philip looked at Theo and asked, “Do you know someone from the Drug Administration Association?”

“Come in.” It was Wallace’s voice.

The man walked into the office and said to Wallace humbly, “Boss, they’ve already left the hospital. According to our men at the town’s borders, the car has also left Phoenicia.”

“Great!”

Wallace’s fist landed on the desk with his back facing the man. Through the window, he looked at the scenery of Phoenicia outside, staring at the vast green mountains far away.

Then, Wallace took out his phone, dialed Lame Fred’s number, and said in a deep voice, “Lame Fred, I already got that person out of Phoenicia for you. The next step is up to you. I expect only one result!”

“Boss Phoenix, don’t worry. Pay up and the deed is done. That’s my motto. Just wait for my good news.”

This scene happened too abruptly and too quickly!

In the car, Theo and the two black-suited bodyguards in the front seats quickly took out their weapons from their waist and waited!

Theo realized they had fallen into the trap!

It was a planned diversion!

Moreover, the other party had set up an ambush on the mountain road leading to Riverdale from Phoenicia.

In other words, the people behind were here to kill Philip!

"Mr. Clarke, stay in the car!"

Theo immediately made plans. He looked at the two men in front of him and said, "Follow me down. Whatever happens, protect Mr. Clarke!"

However, Philip stopped Theo, shook his head, and said, "It's useless. Since the other party has already arranged this, they won't let us go. Stay in the car and act according to the situation!"

Through the glass windows, they saw four or five men and women wearing various masks approaching from behind the cars while holding long firearms in their hands. They were ruthlessly shooting at the remaining bodyguards!

Theo was stunned and put down the gun in his hand.

He looked incredulously at the woman who was kneeling in front of him, then looked at Philip suspiciously.

Philip glanced at Theo and said, “I’ll explain later.”

Then, he looked at the woman and said with a smile, “Get up.”

The woman got up, her heroic and serious face suddenly blooming with a smile that resembled a sea of flowers. She went up, hugged Philip fiercely, and shouted coquettishly, "Philip, long time no see. Did you miss me?"

This sudden change caught Theo and the others by surprise.

One second before this, five people had just been beheaded by her.

One second later, she was acting like a cheerful little girl.

Philip smiled, motioned to 17 to let him go, and touched the top of her head. "You've grown taller. Father sent you here?"

17 nodded with gleaming eyes, saying, "Yes, the lord told me to come over and protect you secretly."

"When?" Philip continued asking.

This guy was really relentless!

Following that, Philip deliberately lowered his voice and said, "I'm injured. It's nothing serious. Since Mr. Clarke has been taken care of, you can sit back and relax. Your methods are really amazing. I heard that you made arrangements in Riverdale to abduct Mr. Clarke's wife?"

Wallace's frowning brows loosened. He smiled triumphantly and said, "Hahaha, it's all thanks to you. As for his wife, of course I'm the one who arranged it. This is my bargaining chip. I can also take this opportunity to swallow Beacon whole. I heard they have assets worth billions!"

"Boss Phoenix is really ambitious. Do you need my help? I heard that there are many of Theo's men in Riverdale. Although I've taken care of Mr. Clarke and Theo, once the news spread, Riverdale is bound to be in chaos. When the time comes, all the forces will set their eyes on this big piece of cake. It won't be easy for you then," Philip continued. Tiger was already approaching him.

Wallace was silent for a moment and said, "Okay, tell your people to go to the port in the eastern suburbs of Riverdale. My people will meet them there. Then, just wait for my instructions before you act."

Wallace was not at all suspicious. After all, swallowing Beacon would be no small feat.
