Chapter 1041

A blatant threat!

“You dare?!”

“You’re courting death! Do you really think we’re pushovers?”

“Let’s join forces! I don’t believe that with the combined forces of more than a dozen leaders in four districts, we can’t destroy this Mr. Clarke!”

The scene was on the verge of breakdown!

Everyone was a volcano waiting to erupt!

This Mr. Clarke was simply too cocky!

He actually rendered all the big bosses from four major districts into sitting ducks. Was he going to declare war?

Declare war on more than a dozen big bosses?

Where did he get the confidence and manpower from?

However...

A sneer sounded in the hall.

Philip’s cold eyes swept over the angry and agitated bosses.

Philip smiled faintly, got up, and turned his head to look at the other underground bosses. He asked, “Have you decided?”

Those big bosses looked at each other a few times. Some were silent while some shook their heads helplessly.

Trapped!

There was no way out!

They originally wanted to divide Riverdale up between themselves but did not expect to be swept away in the end!

There was no way to fight back!

How were they supposed to fight this?

Even the trump cards were overturned.

Following that, Theo’s people brought up copies of the documents and placed them in front of the bosses.

These bosses, after a few glances, shook their heads helplessly before picking up the pens and signing their names on the documents!

With loud cracking sounds, Wallace was pressed to the ground. His hands were broken, and he let out a hysterical scream!

Big beads of sweat rolled down from his forehead.

"Argh! Philip Clarke, you'll die a horrible death! Miss Clarke won't let go of you!" Wallace shouted miserably, his face pale.

The heart-piercing pain in his arms made him breathless!

Wallace Phoenix, a prominent figure in Phoenicia and the head phoenix of the four golden phoenixes, never expected that he would suffer such a catastrophe today!

Philip glanced at him indifferently and motioned to his subordinates to continue.

At this time...

“Stop it!”

A soft voice rang out at the front entrance of the ancient theater building!

Philip and the others looked up, and at the front door, a beautiful figure stood quietly while emanating chills all over!

Rachel Clarke, a woman with beautiful features and clear eyes, walked elegantly toward the crowd with her arms over her chest. She was wearing a black trench coat over her shoulders. Those dazzling red high heels stepped on the tiles and made a clicking sound, pulling at people’s heartstrings.

Everyone could see that Miss Clarke’s expression was very unpleasant. Her eyebrows were furrowed deeply, and there was bitter anger in her eyes!

This... This was too forceful!

Did he not know of Miss Clarke's background?

Was he just blatantly disregarding her?

If it was the latter, then this Mr. Clarke was simply too arrogant!

Rachel twisted her eyebrows and stared at Philip. After a long time, she said calmly, "Your face seems familiar to me, but I can't recall. Have we met before?"

"Miss Clarke, he's that Mr. Clarke who snatched the jade and gold phoenix from the last auction!"

Wallace was being supported by someone as he shouted.

"Oh, it's Mr. Clarke. I've heard of you."

Rachel nodded slightly, showing a very intrigued expression.

However...

Philip shook his head faintly and smiled slightly, "Miss Clarke, are you deliberately pretending not to know me? Could it be that you've forgotten about the time we were in the same changing room together?"

"You! How dare you!"

Rachel was about to explode!

She never expected that Philip would dare to act like this!

Had he not been living as an outcast in Riverdale for many years?

Why was such a good-for-nothing suddenly so strong and fierce?!

Rachel could not understand this!

Although she knew that Philip's identity was not simple, such a guy could not suddenly become so powerful!

Was this the reason why the lord was so concerned about Philip?

Who the hell was this guy?

Rachel had made investigations into Philip's details a long time ago, but apart from the superficial stuff, she really could not find anything.

The young master of the Clarke Group in Capital City, the boss behind the scenes of the Milanelson Angel Investment Group...

Philip said, "Wallace's death was decided a long time ago. If you wish to protect him, I'm afraid you can't. What I'm interested in now is, who is the lord you just mentioned?"

Rachel immediately went on guard with a solemn expression on her face.

This man felt so different now, his every action confusing.

Moreover, he was being very forceful and not at an ordinary level!

He seemed calm on the surface, but once his wrath was ignited, he was filled with violent wind and huge waves!

Rachel had a bad premonition, and her pair of beautiful eyes lingered on Philip for a while.

"Mr. Clarke, I'm afraid you're not qualified to know this."

Rachel smiled as a trace of disdain flashed from the corner of her eyes.

Then, she said, "Of course, if Mr. Clarke joins us and becomes one of us, you'll naturally know the identity of the lord."

Suddenly!

A raucous laugh came from the door!

"Hahaha! Miss Clarke, this is unlike your usual style. Why? Are you scared of a kid who has not grown out of his diapers yet? I want to see who is this Mr. Clarke of Riverdale who dares to act so boldly and hold a dozen underground figures from four districts hostage!"

The audience was deadly silent!

Everyone's eyes widened as they looked at Philip in the room. He was majestic like a mountain, had an aura like a mighty ocean, a frosty expression, and a scorching gaze. It made all the underground leaders suck in a deep breath!

Hiss!

Too brazen!

Unbelievable!

Philip actually dared to say that to Second Master Hull. He simply did not put the second master of the Hull Clan in his eyes!

Did he know the person standing in front of him?

It was Second Master Hull!

He was an infamous figure!

In the entire country, he was an unbeatable force!

His status was comparable to the distinguished status of Miss Clarke's!

Moreover, he was the core member of the subsidiary of the Hull Organization!

He was the second master of the Hull family and also the younger brother of the current patriarch of the Hull family!

No matter what, Philip's earlier insinuation about Second Master Hull dying was simply him courting his own death!

A cold voice rang in the hall.

“Shawn Hane, have you decided yet?”

Philip looked at Shawn with his hands behind his back. He turned his head and stared at him with eyes full of biting chill.

It was this look!

Shawn sweated profusely at that look!

It reminded him of that event eight years ago!

For a moment, Shawn stood there blankly while the cold sweat on his forehead fell like torrential rain.

Second Master Hull naturally saw the change in Shawn’s expression and immediately sneered at him, “Why, Master Hane, are you actually scared of this junior?”

It took a long time for Shawn to squeeze out a smile and respectfully bend over to Philip, saying, “Young Master Clarke, what are your orders?”

As early as a few minutes ago, Shawn had already decided.

The sudden respectful stance by Shawn made everyone confused.

At the same time, they had even more doubts about Philip’s identity!

This was unexpected.

Preposterous!

Did he know what kind of existence Hull Clan was?

A behemoth!

The force of the stormy sea!

With a wave of their hand, they could dispel the powers of the violent wind and huge waves!

It should be noted that the position and power of the Hull Clan in the country and abroad was very strong, especially the several global listed companies controlled by Hull Clan. They had assets worth tens of billions!

In other words, assets belonging to the Hull Clan were at the level of hundreds of billions!

Moreover, it was a global influence!

They were the ultimate affluent family!

Even the subsidiary of the Hull Organization in the country alone was enough for many people to look up to.

Not to mention the main Hull Organization abroad that was simply a godlike existence!

However, now, this arrogant Philip actually said such brazen words!

He could not help it. He was there only for two years just to obtain the status.

The other 107 members were the truly invincible existence!

Thinking of this, the other big shots were shocked!

Terrifying!

Unexpectedly, this Mr. Clarke possessed such an identity!

Second Master Hull also panicked.

Obviously, he did not expect that this person was the guy who destroyed his nephew's limbs!

However, he dared not do anything else but roar angrily at this person!

It was because he understood the meaning of the identity of the 108 defenders!

Every single one of them was highly respected by all the people!

They were the ones who used their flesh and blood to protect the borders of the country and deter foreign enemies!

They had an unspeakable esteemed honor!

Any distinguished honor was a death-free gold medal!
