

The First Heir 1501

Chapter 1501

The Alliance?

How could it be?

Was Hannah related to the Alliance?

Philip was stunned. He stood in place with a complicated expression and asked, "How much have you found out?"

On the other end of the phone, Fennel's lazy voice turned serious as he said, "Not much yet. This matter is rather tricky to investigate. As you know, my power in the country is not that great I have restrictions in many areas. However, I can help you inquire about the matters in Country M. As for the Beauty Killers, leave them to me."

Philip nodded and chatted a bit more with him before ending the call.

Then, Philip left the hotel. However, at this time, his phone suddenly rang. The caller was actually his father-in-law, Charles Johnston.

Why was his father-in-law calling him?

After Philip answered the call, he heard Charles hurriedly speaking on the other end. "Philip, come to Seed Group quickly. Your mother-in-law and I have been kidnapped. They specifically said that you must come over!"

Philip was taken aback. Seed Group?

Philip was dragged to the training ground behind Seed Group. With a clatter, the huge iron gate was pushed open.

Saul Seed sat at the innermost area next to dozens of grim faced thugs, each with steel pipes or baseball bats in their hands.

Charles stood to the side and dared not move at all. Martha was still sitting in a wheelchair. Both of them were bruised and swollen, obviously beaten up.

Zachary was on crutches, and his right arm was wrapped in bandages that hung from his neck. He was beaten out of the blue last night.

The other party had said that it was Philip Clarke who told them to do it!

At that time, Zachary was so angry that he spat out blood!

Philip Clarke was so good at playing dirty!

"Bring him in!"

Zachary yelled. The security guards behind heard him and kicked Philip in.

Then, the door was closed tightly.

Zachary limped forward on his crutches and patted Philip's face lightly with his uninjured left hand.

"Philip, you're awesome, aren't you? You secretly got some people to teach me a lesson, huh? Let me tell you, I'm going to kill you today! Let's see who in Uppercreek can save you! Don't think I can't do it. Do you know what our family does? I'm afraid you'll piss your pants if I tell you! Today, many of them are armed. If you have the guts, tell Victor Bell to come and save you! Let's see if he's willing to die with you!"

As Zachary said that, he slapped Philip on the face!

The thugs next to him laughed.

Seeing that Philip was not fighting back after being slapped, Zachary grew more arrogant and reckless!

"Haha, what a wimp! Why aren't you bragging today? I haven't been humiliated like yesterday since I was a kid! I heard that you have a beautiful wife. I'll take care of you first, and tonight, I'll kidnap your wife and sell her to the clubhouse!"

Zachary said unscrupulously. When he saw Philip frowning, he immediately shouted, "Are you dissatisfied? Hit me then! Come on, if you dare to hit me, I'll kneel and call you 'Uncle'!"

"Oh? Is that so?" Philip chuckled.

Chapter 1504

Saul’s white eyebrows twitched as he quickly clapped his hands. Behind him, several bodyguards who had been waiting for a long time instantly rushed out!

The other thugs saw that these people were making a move and quickly stepped aside. Several of them were still fighting with Philip and could not get away. They were knocked away by Saul’s bodyguards and instantly flew out.

One of them rushed in like a thunderbolt. With a sweep of his leg, he kicked away the thug in front of him who was in the way!

This bunch of losers should just get out of the way!

The man spun twice in the air and fell to the ground heavily in a dead faint!

Philip had long spotted these people behind Saul and knew they were not easy to handle.

If three or four of them came over at once, even Philip would not be able to take them down. He could not be on the offensive for long. He must make this a speedy battle by attacking one at a time!

The two bodyguards in front, one with an expandable baton and the other one with a machete, attacked Philip's heart and head at the same time from all directions.

His body was like a chunk of iron, and he had tanned skin.

This foreign retired mercenary was unlike these brainless people who only knew how to rush into fights head on.

Since the beginning, he had been lurking around looking for opportunities. He was like a crocodile in the water waiting to catch its prey!

This was a true master assassin!

He had seen the opportunity, so he grabbed Philip in a flash and immediately tried to break his arm!

Philip was taken aback and quickly performed a backflip to defuse the twisting force on his hand. Then, he jumped up to withdraw his hand and retreated to the back.

This person was quite capable!

Before Philip could react, the foreign bodyguard rushed over and his pair of big iron like hands grabbed Philip's shoulders.

Philip immediately felt a strange force coming from him. He felt the pain in his shoulders from being grabbed and quickly bent down to escape.

“You still dare to be so arrogant?”

Zachary raised his arm to hit Philip but ended up stretching his injured arm with that force. He grimaced in pain at once.

“Zachary, sit down and rest!”

Saul said, instructing his subordinates to help Zachary sit down.

Then, Saul walked up to Philip, sized him up, and said sternly, “Young man, do you know that I could have killed you just now if I wanted to?”

Saul’s eyes were bitterly cold as if he could send Philip to hell the next second.

“No, you can’t.” A mocking chill appeared in the corners of Philip’s eyes.

Philip sneered, his expression looking stoic.

Saul yelled angrily, “Let me ask you again, what’s the relationship between you and Victor Bell?”

In fact, there had always been friction between Saul and Victor.

Both of them were representatives of the north district's business community in Uppercreek. In many large scale business meetings in the north district, both of them had important voting rights.

Uppercreek was a city by the sea, and the border was right behind the north district. Just by walking along the coast, one could cross the foreign border without a passport.

Saul often used this method to conduct his smuggling business!

Gutsy!

Otherwise, with his business acumen, he would not have earned his status in the Uppercreek business community. Many would be able to kill him in seconds.

Many people avoided him because they did not want to get involved with foreign forces.

Moreover, the Seed family still had some contacts in the country.

Among the special guards trained by their family, four of them were personal guards to figures of a great level.

No one dared to recklessly provoke the Seed family.

However, Victor happened to be that tough nut to crack.

Beep, beep, beep...

"Old Master Seed? What advice do you have for me this time? Or is it regarding the matter with the last shipment?" Victor's voice sounded from across from the phone.

Saul frowned.

A few days ago, he had a shipment of smuggled goods seized by the joint forces of Victor and the chamber of commerce on the grounds that the goods were unregistered!

He put the phone on speaker so that Victor and Philip could hear each other.

"Victor, I advise you to release my shipment. Otherwise, I'm afraid you won't be able to afford the consequences this time!" Saul said.

On the other end of the phone, Victor smiled and said, "Are you threatening me? It doesn't matter. How many gifts have you sent me over the years to try and buy me off? And now you actually dare to threaten me?"

"Haha, Saul Seed, do you think I'm a three years old child? Don't think I don't know what you were carrying on board that ship. Are you forcing me to check the goods on board?"

"Hmph! I'm not making a move against you just because I'm afraid too many people will get involved and it'll cause innocent casualties!"

The series of questions and comments made Saul very upset!

"Victor, don't be hasty. I know you have a strong position in Uppercreek and have gained a lot of power over the years. But today, I advise you to try and be careful

"This... Okay, don't touch him! I'll release your shipment now!" Victor said anxiously.

All the people in the room laughed.

Victor Bell had this coming!

Who told him to go against the Seed family?

"Wait a minute!"

While the crowd was laughing, an uncanny voice sounded.

It was Philip Clarke.

"Saul, are the goods on that ship important to you?" Philip asked.

Saul frowned.

That went without saying!

Zachary said as he raised the dagger and stabbed Philip in the chest!

It looked like the dagger was about to penetrate Philip's heart!

Just then, there was a slight burst from the silencer of a sniper rifle.

Pop!

With this inconspicuous sound, Zachary's hand was immediately shot off!

It was totally gone!

"Argh!"

Zachary clutched his hand and screamed!

Click! Crack!

Immediately after, along with a few loud bangs, the entire roof of the warehouse suddenly opened. A gust of cold wind blew in, causing people to shudder in fright. The members of the Seed family looked up and were shocked!
