

The First Heir 153

Chapter 153

Philip squinted his eyes and there was a coldness in them.

Juan trembled.

He felt that at this moment, Philip was radiating an aura that he could not understand.

It was an air of over-confidence.

“Philip, do you think you’re all that because you know Theo?” Juan scoffed. He forced himself to calm down.

This must be fake. How could a coward like Philip become so strong all of a sudden?

Juan had his father. His father knew people.

He was not worried about what Philip might do to him!

However, in the next second, Philip said calmly, “Juan, I’m not targeting you, but you’re always targeting me. I know you’re the one behind what happened tonight. If I let you go just like this, I won’t be able to forgive myself and I won’t be able to face Wynn.”

As for Juan, Philip still had some sadness in his heart.

The word ‘friend’ had become foreign to him.

Juan was stunned. He knitted his eyebrows together and chuckled coldly. “Philip, I don’t believe that you’ll do anything to me.”

However, when he finished saying that, Philip said calmly on the sofa opposite him, “The reason you’re so arrogant is because of your father’s connections and power, and now, I’m going to destroy them in front of you.”

After he said that, Philip took out his phone and called George’s number. “Do it.”

“Alright, Young Master. I already gave out the order,” George replied over the phone.
