

The First Heir 157

Chapter 157

This was Martha's true self. She would reach out her hand and ask for money like it was the most natural thing to do.

She was a woman with no shame.

Philip was dumbfounded. He did not know what to say, so he looked at Wynn instead.

Wynn walked over and said coldly, "Mom, what are you doing? Even if Philip has that money, we can't give it to you. It's for Mila's treatment."

Wynn knew Philip's personality. He must be saying that he had one million bucks to deal with Martha.

However, he did not expect his mother-in-law to ask for the money.

When Martha heard that, her face fell. She got up and started making a ruckus. "I never said I won't use it to treat Mila. I'm just gonna keep this money for you and you can ask for it from me when you want to use it."

Wynn was furious. She would not give her the money no matter what.

Martha did not even care about Mila.

It would be hard to get the money back from her when she got her hands on the money.

Martha turned her head to look at Philip when Wynn refused. She asked bossily, "Philip, I'm going to ask you one more time. Are you giving this money to me for safekeeping or not?"

It was clear that she was trying to debauch him.

Philip had no choice. He took out the card that he had prepared way before this.
