

The First Heir 158

Chapter 158

200 million?

Derrick almost fell down from his chair.

“Director Stanley, are you sure you’re not joking? It’s obvious that the terms in this contract are more beneficial to Beacon.” Wynn felt like she was dreaming. This was unbelievable.

Director Stanley smiled and said, “Miss Johnston, we’ve already signed it. What else are you worried about?”

Wynn looked over and the contract was indeed signed. It was also stamped.

This meant that as long as Wynn signed it, the contract would be in effect.

It seemed like Philip and Professor Turner’s relationship was not that simple. There must be something she did not know.

She had to go back and ask Philip.

Recently, Wynn realized she understood Philip less and less. He had changed too much.

When she thought about that, Wynn lifted the pen and was about to sign.

However, at this moment!

door of the meeting room was

a flash, eight bodyguards in suits barged in features were perfect, and her of expensive LV crystal shoes. She also had on a pair of white silk gloves, and on her neck, there was a diamond necklace. They were all pink

same time, she was so cold that she looked into the meeting room, everyone’s eyes were on her. She even more beautiful

like they

of class was oozing from every pore on her skin. Only rich young ladies would

the meeting room felt

this woman’s beauty. However, she still lost when it came was the meeting of a princess from a royal family and a princess from an

No one knew who this

don't think you should
what the woman said after she as if one had entered an ice world. Plus, she was chairman of Beacon Pharmaceutical, Derrick Hall. And you coldly and said, "You don't have How
in icicles
Wynn. She lifted her eyebrows and