

The First Heir 160

Chapter 160

Lynn was panicking. She stomped her feet and grabbed Philip's arm. She said, "Philip, tell them if this is real or not. No, you have to call Theo now and tell him to come here!"

Lynn was starting to throw a tantrum.

She had never been suspected like this before, so of course she was feeling unhappy.

However, Philip shook his head and said, "I'm sorry, I don't know any Theo Zander. Lynn, did you make a mistake?"

"Hahaha!"

Laughter immediately erupted.

Lynn's face went red. She could feel the detest coming from her friends.

She felt like a featherless chicken that was standing in front of everyone naked. She was being criticized and shamed by everyone.

"Lynn, that's enough. Your brother-in-law has already said that, so stop lying to us already. We won't laugh at you."

"Your brother-in-law is an honest man. He's not that much of an idiot it seems."

"That's enough. We'll just go and have fun ourselves."

Her friends left while laughing.

Lynn was livid. She turned around angrily and swung her hand to slap Philip. She yelled, "Philip, why aren't you telling the truth? Are you happy now that I'm being mocked by them?"

However, her hand was caught in the air by Philip.
