

The First Heir 166

Chapter 166

Philip looked at the woman in front of him coldly. This was the woman he had wronged seven years ago. He said, "Chloe, don't involve other people in our business. Don't cause any trouble for my family."

Slap!

Chloe got up and slapped Philip across the face. Then, she glared at him and said, "What happened between you and me will not end so easily. Don't forget how you left me without a word and how much you've hurt me!"

Chloe's heart pounded when she saw Philip. After all, they had not seen each other for seven years.

She had even looked forward to this.

However, Philip's eyes and expression just now betrayed how he truly felt.

Chloe was a woman, so she knew how Philip was feeling. He only cared about that woman named Wynn.

"Chloe, what happened seven years ago was my fault. It's fine if you want to punish me. However, you can't do anything to Wynn. This is my warning for you," Philip said.

If Chloe really touched Wynn, Philip would fight back without a second thought.

"Warning?"

Chloe laughed coldly. The gentleness in the corner of her eyes became cold. She said, "Who are you to warn me? You're the reason I'm like this today! How dare you leave without a word seven years ago and let me suffer the humiliation and shame all alone! On what grounds?"

Chloe yelled and cried until her voice was hoarse. Tears rolled down from the corner of her eyes. They signified the despair in her heart.
