

The First Heir 191

Chapter 191

Everyone at the birthday party was looking at Wynn with contempt and disdain in their eyes.

Eric and Aaron's gifts that were presented moments before were extremely valuable.

Then, Ted announced the shocking news of attaining the Oasis development project at the south of Riverdale.

He would be making 500 million for the Yates!

Now, it was Wynn's turn. What gift would her family be presenting today?

Martha sat on her seat, extremely nervous. She saw what Wynn was holding. It was the box that Philip had previously given to her.

If Wynn gave that thing to her father, it would be the biggest joke of the century.

Everyone would look at them as if they were fools!

Eric stared at Wynn with mockery on his face. He looked at the small box in her hands and the smirk on his face got wider. He lifted his eyebrow and said, "Cousin, it's Grandpa's 70th birthday today. Are you really going to give this tiny box to him? What valuable item can it hold?"

Eric snorted in his head. He saw with his own two eyes that this thing had been given to Wynn by that good-for-nothing Philip.

He was penniless and powerless. What kind of gift could he afford?

When he thought about this, his smirk grew wider.

He was waiting to watch Wynn and Philip make fools of themselves.

Aaron stood at one side and chimed in sarcastically, "Cousin, even if you don't have the money, you should at least bring some presentable gifts. This tiny thing is going to bring so much shame to Aunt Martha. All of the Yates present are powerful and prestigious. Plus, Grandpa's friends are also here. Isn't your gift a little too plain?"

obvious he wanted

could not watch this

Aaron chose to ignore

their expressions did looked slightly helpless when he lifted his head and saw Wynn walking

However, the older they she was not one of the Yates. There might not be any was the nature of walked into the hall and handed the box to Bob. His face was cold when Wynn said, "Grandpa, He would not give the old master a did not think that had run away from nodded and grunted a reply. He did not even awkward. Everyone at the table was looking at her with box down and red packet. He was obviously favoring the rest box and announced loudly to everyone in the hall, the center court, and outer courtyard, "Oh? I thought it was something valuable. Looks like it's an ornamental words were laced people saw Eric taking out the jade ornamental thumb ring and putting it onto his thumb, our dear cousin afford this? I think it's fake. Did you hear what she said just now? She said she Right!" Eric pretended to realize this. Then, he took the jade ornamental thumb ring and yelled at Philip who was sitting at the table nearest to the door at the outer courtyard, "Philip! Where did you find this? It looks so old. Did you pick this up from the was such a devastating at Philip with that Eric and Aaron only drank his tea calmly and ate some of the idiots did not even