Chapter 2311

Philip snorted in anger and lightly kicked Luka in his lower back. Luka lost his balance and could only rush forward, hitting the wall with a powerful impact.

Bang!

Luka's fist smashed into the wall. The wall shook and half of it collapsed, covering Luka in clouds of dust.

Juan sat on the sofa with his brows furrowed. He thought that Luka Sanchez was enough to kill Philip, but unexpectedly, Philip's strength made him a little fearful.

Was this guy a disciple too?

His strength was actually not below Luka's.

"Ahem." Luka was choked into coughing and turned around to walk toward Philip in a wretched state.

"Damn it, you're actually a disciple too. I was careless this time. However, your death will come soon!"

Anger filled Luka's mind. If anger could burn, Luka's anger now would be enough to boil the whole sea.

"I already told you that you're not good enough, but you still think so highly of yourself. Since you want to die, I won't stop you."

Philip stretched out his little finger and beckoned at Luka, his disdainful expression saying it all.

Luka's integrity shattered all over the floor. He was willing to do anything just to save his life.

"Be my watchdog? You're not worthy of it." Philip stomped on Luka's palm.

Crack.

There was the sound of broken bones as Luka's palm was crushed by Philip's stomp. Luka was about to break down. It was still not enough even after he begged so wretchedly.

What exactly did Philip want?

"It hurts! Boss, just tell me what to do and I'll listen to you! I'll do whatever you ask me to do. Should I Swish!

The dagger swiped through the air. The dagger glowed coldly and was about to stab through Philip's heart when it stopped.

It was not that the captain did not want to but his hand could not move at all.

With his right hand, Philip grabbed the captain's hand that held the dagger. With a slight force, all the bones of the captain's hand shattered.

"Urgh!"

The captain let out a muffled grunt as fine beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

Philip's hand lifted upward, tugging along the captain's wrist, forearm, arm, and right shoulder. He crushed all the man's bones.

The intense pain caused the captain to go into a shock and fall into a dead faint.

Philip smiled without a word and raised his hand to slap Juan across the face.

"You're the brainless one. Don't forget your status as a hostage now."

Juan clutched his face and sat back on the sofa, looking at Philip resentfully. After a while, he laughed wildly. "Hahaha, you dare to hit me? If you slap me now, I'll repay it tenfold and hundredfold!"

"Wait until you can do that."

After Philip finished speaking, he slapped Juan vigorously again.

Forward slap, backhand slap, and mixed slap. Juan's face quickly swelled into a pig's head. His brain buzzed loudly, and he was in a bad state.

"Just you wait. Hit me and I'll let you die a miserable death." Juan muttered under his breath, wishing he could kill Philip right now.

"Hehehe..."

Philip swung his fist on Juan's shoulder, denting his shoulder and shattering his entire shoulder blade.

Yana immediately thought of something.

This damned Juan did not mess with that young master, did he?

No, that young master was the new patriarch of the Clarke family!

The vein in Yana’s temple throbbed wildly. She immediately fished out her phone and dialed Juan’s number.

When Yana made the call, Juan was lying on his back on the floor, looking at Philip grimly.

What did it mean that Philip was the new patriarch of the Clarke family?

That Clarke family that was on global broadcast?

That world's number one affluent family?

How was it possible?

Juan raised his eyebrows and was dumbfounded. He stared at Philip with panic and fear. Stammering, he asked, "A-Are you the new patriarch of the Clarke family? The world's largest wealthy family?"

At this moment, Philip was sitting on the sofa with his legs crossed. With slightly cold eyes, he smiled and said, "As true as it can be."

Juan looked at the silver gun in Philip's hand and trembled like a leaf. He prostrated on the floor and shouted, "Philip, no, don't do this. We were classmates, after all. Please forgive me. I'll leave immediately and never appear in front of you again. Please spare my life."

After saying that, Juan endured the pain of his broken arms and legs and kept bowing to Philip.

Philip's eyes were impassive as he looked at Juan. Finally, he sighed, stood up, and said, "This is the last time I'll tolerate you. Someone will arrange to send you out of the country."

After saying that, Philip was about to leave.

Juan prostrated on the floor while trembling, but those gloomy eyes burst out with hatred. He quickly took out another silver gun from his pocket. When Philip walked past him, he immediately turned around and yelled at Philip, "Go to hell!"

“This is really infuriating. Madam Johnston, I think we’re too passive! Martin and Bernard Johnston are simply too abominable! They clearly want to drive us into the corner!”

Mindy Scott was wearing a red tight-fitting backless dress today. Her figure was very sexy and slim. Her legs were straight and slender, just like white jade. If not for the client in the morning, she would not have dressed like this, exposing her back and thighs for others to see.

Wynn sat on the chairwoman’s seat with a small smile on her lips. She glanced at Mindy who was lying on the sofa and throwing a tantrum. She asked, “What’s wrong? Are you still having problems with Mr. Fadden?”

Mindy was lying on the sofa at the moment. Her two slender jade-like legs were resting on the armrest of the sofa, swinging back and forth.

She pouted unhappily and said, “I’ve met that old pervert three times and each time, he wants me to accompany him to dinner and take advantage of me! Today, he even said that if I don’t accompany him to dinner, he’ll cooperate with Martin Pharmaceutical.”

Mindy was angry that she had met an old scoundrel who only coveted her body.

Wynn smiled and said, “Okay, let me follow up with Mr. Fadden. You can come with me tonight.”

she said indignantly, “Madam Johnston, it’s not that I can’t do it, but Willy Fadden is simply too “Multidew Herb?” Philip frowned.

Would a small antique auction have clues about the Multidew Herb?

According to the clues from the Harrison family, this Multidew Herb rarely appeared in the secular world. The clues leading to it were even more uncommon. How would Yana know clues about the Multidew Herb?

Also, why would she tell him about this? Could it be that Yana knew the secret of Wynn's birth?

They had taken measures on Arcadia Island to seal the secret about Wynn's birthright. Anyone who dared to reveal it would face the extinction of their entire lineage!

"That's right. I heard that the Multidew Herb is a medicine passed down from the First Emperor's time. It has the miraculous effect of bringing the dead back to life and is also effective in promoting longevity. But of course, the true effects are unknown."

Yana said lightly, her voice very soft.

Liam understood at one glance and immediately took out his phone. He said, "Dad, leave this to me. I happen to know a group of assassins who slipped in from abroad. All of them are experts! It's said that they're also powerful supernatural beings!"

Martin turned his head, narrowed his eyes, and said with a sneer, "Supernatural beings? Good! Very good! No matter how much it costs, tell them to get it done!"

Since they got into contact with Boss Young, their expectations had also become higher.

They learned that this world was not the same as the one they originally came into contact with. In this world, there were also the so-called supernatural beings. They were those superhumans who were said to have existed long ago.

Suddenly, Liam said, "By the way, Dad and Uncle Bernard, there's an antique auction tonight at Spruce Villa. I have four invitations. Why don't we go and take a look? I heard that many big bosses and some people from hidden families will be there too."

Martin glanced at the golden invitation in Liam's hand and said, "This kind of shabby auction is just to fool people. If you're interested, go with Lynn. Your Uncle Bernard and I still have important things to do. But you must arrange things on Wynn's side first. If anything goes wrong, I'll come after you!"

Liam smiled and said, "Dad, you can rest assured."
