

The First Heir 2381

Chapter 2381

Mr. Burdock's body surged with a fierce momentum, and his clothes also swelled and fluttered with exploding energy. His gray hair stood on end as his eyebrows appeared like two sharp blades. An extremely fierce and powerful energy pressure soared within a one-meter radius under his feet, wrapping his entire being inside it.

It was as if Mr. Burdock was in the center of the energy storm. His eyes turned blue and white in an instant,

Then... Roar!

He opened his mouth and roared, slamming his hands on the ground frenziedly.

Rumble!

Suddenly, with Mr. Burdock as the center, a layer of white ice was rapidly forming on the ground. In a split second, the ice froze the entire area within a one-mile radius.

The world lost all color!

The sky was filled with shattering crystals that were bright and dazzling. Philip diffused Mr. Burdock's strongest attack all by himself.

Instantly, the hall was dead silent!

The sky was dazzling white.

Mr. Burdock stood on the spot and looked up in the air. Everyone thought Philip would be killed by this attack. However, when the white light faded, they saw a figure hovering in mid-air with dozens of white energy swords suspended next to him. With a hook of Philip's fingers, these energy swords aimed at Mr. Burdock on the ground. Then, like rapidly firing bullets, a stream of energy swords fired at Mr. Burdock.

At this moment, Mr. Burdock stared at the figure in the sky. A strong threat of death welled up in his heart.

Philip looked indifferently at Ronan who was begging for mercy on his knees and threatening him at the same time. The corners of his mouth twitched slightly as he sneered, "You should display a proper attitude when you're begging for forgiveness. What do you mean by threatening me like this?"

Hearing that, Ronan's face darkened. A cloud of gloom flashed in the corner of his eyes as he said, "I'm sorry! I was wrong. I shouldn't have been rude to you just now. Please forgive me!"

Ronan Singer was not a mindless playboy. He knew that he was in a lot of trouble today, so he could only lower his stance as much as he could. He must stay alive first. Otherwise, if he was killed like Mr. Burdock, then there was nothing he could do.

However, Philip looked at Ronan coldly and said, "I think even if I let you go, your Singer family won't let me off. I still know the meaning of letting the tiger return to its den. So, since I've offended the Singer family, I might as well take it right to the end."

After saying that, Philip raised his hand and pointed his finger!

At that moment, Ronan was really frightened. His whole body shook as he begged for mercy, "No, you can't kill me! I was wrong! Please let me go! I promise you, as long as you let me go, the Singer family won't go after you! On the contrary, I even want to invite you to be the Singer family's guest of honor. You can name your terms!"

Ronan's mind churned rapidly as he quickly thought of a solution.

Everyone's jaws dropped the moment he said this. However, at the same time, they were also full of approval.

Leon's words had fully expressed his opinion. No matter who the young man in front of him was, he would bear the brunt.

Firstly, it was for the dignity of Cherry Villa. Secondly, it was to cherish the young talent. It had been a long time since there was such a young and powerful disciple in the southern supernatural community. Such a person could only be the guest of honor sought after by major families.

Leon knew very well what the young man in front of him meant to the disciples in the southern world. There were three kings in the north but only one king in the south. Now, the young man in front of him had the strength of a disciple in the fifth zone. Leon decided to have him join Cherry Villa.

"May I have your name?" Leon asked with a kind smile that formed a stark contrast with his stern angular face.

The onlookers were amazed at this moment. They could naturally tell that Leon was showing goodwill to that young man.

Yes, at such a young age, he had the ability to kill Mr. Burdock, one of the seven expert guardians of the Singer family. It was enough to show that his future as a disciple would be limitless.

If such a person joined Cherry Villa and became one of the core members, Cherry Villa and even the entire southern disciple community might have two kings. It had been more than ten years since the northern disciple community had outmatched the south.

All the disciples in the south could only wallow in anger. However, due to the difference between the north and the south, the strength of the disciples was also very different.

That was the Singer family, one of the ten great disciple families in the north. They were one of the three masters of Terrain Villa. There was also a king of disciples in the Singer family!

The Singer family was one of the top three existences in the northern disciple community. An absolute behemoth!

This time, Ronan Singer and Mr. Burdock were killed in Cherry Villa. This must be a magnitude 10 earthquake. The entire northern community would be shaken!

Not to mention the Singer family!

“M-Mr. Moon, Young Master Ronan Singer has been killed!”

Cory Trent stammered with cold sweat on his forehead. It was because he could clearly feel the anger and chill from the other end of the phone.

After being called to gather in the middle of the night, feelings of resentment were inevitable.

Quentin Moon wiped the cold sweat from his forehead, stood humbly in the hall, and lowered his head. He panted and stammered, "Villa Masters Hopper, Singer, and Turner, something has happened."

"Just spit it out already!"

Villa Master Hopper, the middle-aged man with an unhappy expression, was wearing a black suit and fidgeting with two stress balls in his hand. He had an imposing demeanor, a ruddy complexion, and exuded a harsh intensity.

Quentin glanced at Villa Master Hopper before his gaze landed on the person on his right.

This was the current patriarch of the Singer family, one of the top ten disciple families in the north, Jenkins Singer. He was also one of the founding families of Terrain Villa and one of the three villa masters. His face was dignified as he sat upright. He wore a gray suit, and his hair was gray. He had a pair of deep-set eyes that looked very chaotic, which intimidated others and stopped them from looking directly at him.

Jenkins Singer was one of the honorary teachers of the Nonagon and also a member and director of the Nonagon Teaching Association. He had a great reputation in Nonagon and had taught many disciples.

After that, the atmosphere in the main hall plummeted to freezing point. It seemed that any movement would cause a catastrophic ending.

Jenkins stood on the high platform, his eyes were full of anger. He clenched his fists and asked, "Did the people of Cherry Villa just watch my son get killed by an unknown junior?"

Quentin quickly bowed and replied, "Villa Master Singer, Villa Master Leon Jefferson of Cherry Villa stepped in later. If I understood Cory Trent correctly, Leon wishes to protect the young man named Philip Clarke."

"Leon Jefferson? How dare he?!"

Jenkins roared and shouted, "Immediately gather all the experts of the Singer family and go with me to Cherry Villa. I want to see who Leon Jefferson dares to protect in front of me! After killing my beloved son, no matter who the other party is, I'll kill him with my bare hands!"

As he said that, Jenkins clenched his fists tightly. Below the hall, a guard from the Singer family bowed in response and immediately walked out of the main hall.

He followed Leon Jefferson through the lobby and passed through several doors before entering the core area of Cherry Villa. He saw a clear lake with a white arch bridge over it. On both sides of the lake, fully armed guards strictly kept watch. They were equipped with weapons specially targeted at disciples.

These guards would be able to tackle any disciples of the fourth zone and below.

A magnificent white castle stood across the lake and arch bridge. A sense of solemnity could be felt from the castle even from across the lake.

In front, Leon invited Philip, "Philip, please come with me."

Philip glanced at the surrounding environment. The security measures in this place were quite impeccable.

"Thank you." Philip said politely and followed Leon to the arch bridge. They made their way to the white castle.

Philip got closer to the white castle, he realized that there was a special energy pressure around it just by being in this area. This was the power utilization of Everyone eagerly waited for Philip's next words but after a long while, Philip said nothing. This made some people unhappy, and they said coldly, "Villa Master Jefferson, this young Philip seems very arrogant and only said his name. Does he look down on us?"

"Hehe, Villa Master Jefferson, we have no objections if you bring newcomers in, but such a newcomer is too ignorant of the rules!"

"Are you done talking?" Suddenly, Philip spoke and interrupted everyone's reprimand that stemmed from their dissatisfaction with him.

Hiss!

Everyone's faces tensed with anger.

Smack!

A middle-aged man slammed the table, stood up suddenly, pointed at Philip, and said angrily, "Presumptuous! This is Cherry Villa and the conference for the southern disciple families. How dare an unruly kid like you be so rude to the elders? Didn't the adults in your family teach you any manners and etiquette?"
