Chapter 2621

The great Southern supernatural disciple community had been relying on Leon Jefferson to support them and fight against the Northern supernatural disciple community. After all, in recent years, the number of talents in the South had dwindled.

Leon stood with his hands behind his back, his face cold. He looked at the raging Jenkins and said, "Patriarch Singer, I only have one piece of advice for you. Let her go."

Hearing that, Jenkins snorted and said, "Leon, why should I let her go just because of a word from you? My son Ronan died in your Cherry Villa. As the master of Cherry Villa, not only did you not capture the murderer but you're even defending the murderer now? Is that how you do things in the South?"

Leon replied frankly, "Ronan wasn't as skillful as others yet he provoked him. Philip had already held back but Ronan was unrepentant and tried to assassinate him. In the end, he was killed by Philip. What's wrong with that?"

"Bullsh*t!"

Jenkins shouted angrily, "My son Ronan died in your Cherry Villa in the hands of that Philip Clarke. An expert guardian of the Singer family, Mr. Burdock, also died in the hands of that brat. These two lives can't be brushed aside just with a word from you."

As soon as Leon said that, Jenkins roared and punched him.

Instantly, a fierce fight broke out between the two. Both of them restrained their strength and tested each other.

After all, if a full-scale fight broke out, the entire Singer villa would not be able to withstand the impact. They broke apart after one punch!

Jenkins staggered two steps back while Leon stood calmly in place with an indifferent look in the corner of his eyes.

Jenkins frowned, and his eyes became colder. He stared at Leon, who was calm and collected. He said coldly, "Have you taken that step?"

Leon smiled and said, "You're very perceptive, Patriarch Singer."

Chapter 2623

The expert guardians glanced at each other. They could already tell the outcome of the fight.

Leon had reached that step but he had been holding back. Although the patriarch was very aggressive now, he was actually using the underground dragon ley lines to forcibly increase the realm of his strength. If this continued, the result was inevitable. Thus, almost instantly, the six people took to the air in unison!

"Patriarch, let us help you capture Leon!"

Swoosh!

Six figures jumped into the air, joined the battle, and immediately launched a siege attack on Leon. Although Jenkins was reluctant, he could only accept it in this current situation.

"Okay! Take Leon down and trample the South in blood!"

Jenkins shouted angrily. Instantly, seven people joined forces and attacked Leon.

With a roar, Jenkins raised his hand that contained raging energy pressure and pressed over Leon on the ground. Behind him, the green dragon shadow formed a connection with the underground dragon ley lines and transformed into a solid form. It manifested into a huge body that was like a dragon king that reigned over heaven.

A thunderous dragon roar rocked all directions!

Leon raised the fire chimera sword in his hand and pointed it at the sky to counter Jenkins' energy pressure. However, the remaining six expert guardians of the Singer family attacked at once. Seven solid energy beams bombarded Leon's head.

Leon unleashed his energy to form a light energy barrier and resisted the attack with his huge sword. However, one person could not fight against seven, after all. He staggered back.

Hearing that, killing intent flared in Jenkin's eyes as he roared. "Go to hell!"

Roar!

With a dragon's roar, Jenkins unleashed a killing attack on Leon. The huge shadow of the green dragon swooped down from the sky at Leon with its jaws wide open. The descent of the green dragon was like heaven's punishment. The deafening roar of the green dragon could be heard within a ten-mile radius!

Seeing this, a hint of relief appeared in Leon's eyes as he muttered under his breath, "Philip, I'm sorry for not being able to save your daughter for you."

After saying that, Leon closed his eyes and prepared to die. However...

At a critical juncture!

A handsome and tall figure suddenly walked up from behind Leon.

"Villa Master Jefferson, thank you very much. Let me take care of the rest."

Hearing this, Leon abruptly opened his eyes and saw a tall figure standing in front of him.

He was young and handsome. He stood proudly with his hands behind his back. He raised his hand, and the broken fire chimera sword on the ground suddenly pieced back together into a sword. He held the sword in his hand and slashed at the green dragon roaring in the sky!

That expert guardian, Mr. Quinn, jumped up and slammed a palm strike at Philip.

However, Philip merely smiled indifferently and said, "You're not qualified to act tough in front of me yet!"

With that said, Philip raised the fire chimera sword in his hand that triggered hot airwaves.

Philip smiled and raised his hand slightly. Instantly, dozens of black Mercedes and commercial vehicles poured in at the main entrance of Singer Villa!

Bang, bang, bang!

Car doors opened in unison!

Bodyguards in black suits quickly jumped out of the cars and immediately surrounded the entrance of Singer Villa.

Members of the Singer family were stunned at the sight of the black vehicles and bodyguards.

Jenkins was also slightly taken aback when he saw this. Then, he sneered and said, "Haha, Philip boy, you look down on the Singer family too much. Do you think you can threaten me with these bodyguards? The Singer family is the top family in Beechwood City, after all. We're not lacking in talents here!"

With an angry shout, teams of guards rushed out quickly from around Singer Villa. They were all armed with pistols and confronted the bodyguards in black suits!

However, Philip shook his head indifferently and said, "Jenkins, do you think I'd dare to come to this appointment with just these preparations?"

It was like a bolt of lightning!

Philip did not want to target the Singer family at first, but Jenkins' words were like a thunderstorm that triggered the anger in Philip's heart. He frowned, and killing intent appeared in his eyes.

With a gloomy face, he asked coldly, "What did you say? Say it again!"

"Hahaha!" Jenkins laughed mockingly and said, "Philip boy, I have to say that your daughter's talent is not simple. The affinity for the power of rules in her body made history in the Nonagon. She's a good talent, so I sold her to the Nonagon for a very good price."

With that said...

The ground crumbled. The shattered gravel and debris took to the air and floated around Philip.

Then, this debris blasted toward Philip like cannonballs.

Philip soared into the sky and slashed a few airwaves at Jenkins with the fire chimera sword in his hand. Jenkins snorted and met Philip's attack head-on.

Fiery airwaves surged in the sky, intertwined with green shadows. The two fought endlessly. Energy pressure fell from the sky like cannonballs and blasted deep pits in the ground everywhere.

"Hehe, Philip boy, if this is all the strength you have, get ready to die in the Singer family today!"

After one blow, Jenkins retreated sharply and pulled away from Philip.
